

Chapter 975

“Are they in there?” Zhuge Pei stood on the branch of a tree as beads of sweat began to form on her forehead. “I think so! You can follow behind me. I’ll go in and take a look first...” Tang Yin nodded before he bolted off into the valley.

“Alright!” Zhuge Pei nodded.

With his swift movements, Tang Yin quickly arrived at the entrance of the large fort. He pressed his palm against the doors and pushed it gently to conclude that the door was extremely heavy. He then mustered all the vitality within him before unleashing his full force on the door. Crack! As the bolts on the door broke immediately, Tang Yin pushed the door open and glanced around the inside of the fort. He felt his heart skipping a beat as he was shocked by what he saw inside.

Chapter 975

The door led to a straight pathway that was about 45 to 50 feet in both width and height. He couldn't see the end of the pathway; it was almost as though the fort extended through the entire body of the mountain. Tang Yin frowned a little before he gestured toward Zhuge Pei, who was behind him. He then swiftly charged into the pathway.

“Who’s that...” Right as the two guards inside were about to say something, Tang Yin reached his hands out and broke both of their necks. Zhuge Pei quickly charged in, her gaze filled with surprise when she first looked at her surroundings. “Let’s go in for now...” Tang Yin whispered before he held onto Zhuge Pei. They hopped onto an electric bike parked by the side before they headed deeper into the fort.

Meanwhile, Zhao Qing and Guan Shanyue had already arrived at the internal section of the mountain. They left their electric bike at the end of the pathway and got off before they jabbed a button on the elevator. Once they got on, it traveled downward for a long period of time before it finally shook and came to a halt.

Soon enough, the elevator doors opened to reveal a large, spacious hall in front of them. The hall was extremely well-lit, its lamps producing lights that were brighter than the sun outside. There was a blonde, gorgeous lady sitting behind the front desk right in the center of the hall. Looking up to see that the couple had returned, she looked down again as if she didn't really care about them.

"I'm looking for George..." Zhao Qing stepped forward and uttered quietly.

"Mr. George is really busy right now, so I'm afraid he won't have time to meet you! I'll let him know that you dropped by; I believe he will arrange for a meet-up with you once he is able to do so!" answered the lady at the front desk absent-mindedly as she shrugged.

Zhao Qing's face darkened a little as he felt like he was being disregarded by the lady. "Let me repeat myself—I want to see George! I don't care what he's doing now or if he has other important matters; I just know that I have to see him now!” he bellowed.

“Sir, like I’ve said, he’s really busy now...”
The lady was starting to get a little annoyed.

In a bout of rage, Zhao Qing slammed his palm against her desk. “What the f*ck are you talking about? You’d better get George to come out now, or else I’m going to kill you right here!”

“You...” The pretty lady was shocked by his threat.

“Do you know that you guys only managed to achieve success in your research because I provided you guys with the genes in the past? How dare you tell me that George is busy now that I want to meet him!” Zhao Qing clenched his fingers around the lady's neck, his eyes burning with rage.

"He... he's really busy..."

"Tell me where he is right now!" Zhao Qing barked sternly.

"H-He's either in the office or the meeting room!" the lady quickly replied. Zhao Qing then shoved her away before he walked straight toward the office. This fort that emptied out the entire body of a mountain had extremely large spaces within it, so it took a good while for Zhao Qing to even walk toward the office area. He speedily passed through a few security barriers as he walked through the pathway into the offices, and he finally arrived at the entrance of an office.

Chapter 975

After he pushed the doors open, he found that the office was completely empty. There wasn't a single soul in the room, and George was nowhere to be seen. "Could he be in the meeting room?" Guan Shanyue asked gently.

"Hmph!" Zhao Qing grunted before he turned around and walked toward the meeting room.

The office wasn't that far from the meeting room, so it took them about five minutes to arrive at their next destination. Similarly, they pushed the doors open to find a completely empty room inside. Zhao Qing's expression began to change as he knitted his brows tightly. "He's not here either..."

"Well... Could he be at the laboratory?"

Chapter 975

Guan Shanyue asked. She sensed that there was something odd as well. area wouldn't be left empty even if George went over to the laboratory. We haven't encountered a single management employee ever since we walked into this area.

“Let's go take a look at the laboratory!” Zhao Qing's face was pale as he seemed both worried and suspicious. According to their initial plan, he was supposed to tie Tang Yin up and bomb the laboratory in Berkshire before reporting back to George on the mountains. The two of them hadn't expected for the entire place to be so empty.

“Let's hurry!” Upon realizing that there was a problem, Guan Shanyue quickly sprinted toward the laboratory. Right then, a sharp siren rang in their ears. The sirens filled the pathways and echoed all around the entire fort, its sharp and piercing noise loud enough to turn people deaf. Zhao Qing's face fell as a terrifying thought flashed across his mind once he heard the sirens.

“Hurry. We have to leave!” He wasn't dumb; he knew the sirens meant that someone must have gotten into the fort within these mountains. This fort is supposed to be heavily guarded; what sort of person could possibly get past all the guards to make their way into this place? Tang Yin! Only Tang Yin and Zhuge Pei could possibly get in here!

Both Zhao Qing and Guan Shanyue realized how much trouble they were in right then. Tang Yin hadn't died; instead, he managed to find his way into the fort. More importantly, it looked like George and the rest of the workers had already escaped the area! George probably guessed that Tang Yin wouldn't die in the laboratory below the mountains. er me to attack Tang Yin at the laboratory below the mountains? !

"Run!" A frantic expression spread across Zhao Qing's face as he quickly grabbed onto Guan Shanyue before charging out of the fort. As they ran out, the volume of the sirens got louder and louder; the very sound of it was terrifying enough to make Zhao Qing tremble. Once they reached the end of the pathway, Zhao Qing threw his body against a door by the wall, knowing that there was a safety escape here which would lead them into another secret passage.

With a loudboom, the door to the safety escape opened; Zhao Qing quickly charged in while Guan Shanyue staggered along behind him.

Meanwhile, Tang Yin and Zhuge Pei had already arrived.
