

Chapter 66

Wendy's makeup was exquisite, which made her look beautiful that day. At first, Howard did not recognize her. But after she took off her sunglasses, Howard was soon shaken to his core. His face paled too.

She was the goddess whom he had failed to gain her contact. Not only did she work as a supervisor in York Enterprise, she drove a Porsche too. On the other hand, he was only working as a security guard there...

Howard felt quite stunned, and it was with much difficulty that he managed to swallow slightly.

Standing beside them, Harvey felt nothing. He walked toward Wendy, smiled and said to her, "The parking space which is left is quite narrow. Why don't you take mine?"

Wendy was shocked. 'Mr. York came and spoke to me!'

She quickly opened the door of the car and got out of the car. She then said, "It's fine. You just park there."

As she said that, she looked over that parking space. She was soon tongue-tied. 'My CEO is indeed quite humble. It's such a large parking space, and he parked an electric bike there...'

"Then you..." said Harvey.

"I'll ask the security guard to park the car for me," said Wendy immediately.

"Alright. I'll go up to the office now." After that, Harvey did not even want to bother about Howard. He then turned around and left.

Howard tilted his head, and he did not want Wendy to recognize him. Wendy did not care about that much, she then handed him the key. She said, "After you park the car, just put the key at the front desk. Besides..."

Before she finished her sentence, she had a strange look on her face. She then hesitated for a short while and said, “Howard... The monitor... Why are you working as a security guard in our company?”

Howard’s facial expression was extremely ugly now. He then said, “I came to experience things...”

“Is that so?” Wendy did not dwell much on that. After all, she did not care much about Howard. But he was her old classmate no matter what, so she smiled and said, “By the way, the head of the security team was fired by the CEO a few days ago. Keep working hard. Maybe the CEO will give you a promotion and increase your salary.”

“I...” Howard was indeed speechless. ‘How could you ask me to work harder? Do you want to be a security guard for the rest of my life?’

He became upset. After he helped Wendy to park her car properly, he wanted to go and move Harvey’s electric bike away. Suddenly, his facial expression changed.

‘Something’s off. This is the parking space exclusive for the CEO. Although I don’t know what kind of luck Harvey has by being able to work in York Enterprise, if the CEO finds out that his parking space has been taken by a live-in son-in-law, maybe Harvey can’t keep his job anymore.’

Thinking of that, Howard became slightly calmer now. Currently, his only hope was that Harvey would suffer in a much more miserable way than him.

In the CEO’s office. Harvey had forgotten about someone like Howard long ago. After all, Howard was just a nobody. Harvey would not care about him.

At that moment, Wendy entered the office, and she appeared quite uneasy. She then said, “Mr. York...”

“I need you to go and deal with something,” said Harvey. “One of the Zimmers will come today to negotiate for the investment again. You’re in charge of this project. But you need to be careful on the details and draft up a better contract. I want to make sure that if the Zimmers change their person-in-charge again at the last minute this time around, they need to compensate us with that piece of land.”

Wendy was shocked. She then said, “Mr. York, isn’t this supposed to be a trap?”

Harvey said calmly, “Who said that it’s a trap? If the Zimmers know how to respect us, and if they didn’t change the person-in-charge right from the start and carry out the project nicely, we’re more than willing to invest in them. After all, it’s an exceptional asset.

“But if they still want to do some tricks. We’ll counterattack their schemes and tricks if they ever do anything. We won’t be nice to them. Our company is such a large company which deals with a lot of large businesses. We really don’t have to waste a lot of time and energy for the sake of that small amount of money. Do you understand that?”

“Then the person-in-charge from the Zimmers is

...” Wendy spoke softly.

“Mandy. We won’t approve of anybody else except her.” Having said that, Harvey waved his hands slightly, gesturing for Wendy to leave the office.

Wendy hugged the documents in her hands. Her exquisite face was filled with admiration. She certainly knew that Mandy was Harvey’s wife. It never occurred to her that the mysterious and cold Mr. York would treat his wife so well. She was really envious of that. If she was willing to put herself down when she was in the university at that time...

Thinking of that, Wendy blushed deeply. She could not help but mutter to herself, “Wendy! He’s a married man now. There are a lot of outstanding men in this whole wide world. You can’t just think about one!”

At the ground floor of York Enterprise. Mandy stood at the large entrance of the company in uneasiness and worry. She then revealed her identity to the female receptionist.

After that, she was brought to Wendy's office.

Wendy sized up the beautiful woman in front of her. She could not help but sigh inwardly. 'Mr. York's wife is indeed charming. No wonder Mr. York adores her so much.'

Facing the CEO's wife, Wendy did not dare to act arrogantly. She then stood up, smiled and said, "Miss Zimmer, may I ask what can I do for you since you take the time to come here?"

Mandy appeared awkward. She then said, "Miss Sorrell, actually I came here today because I want to meet your CEO to discuss something with him. I'm wondering whether you can inform Miss Xavier for me to see if the CEO is free..."

Chapter 67

Wendy shook her head and said, “The CEO told us that he won’t have time to meet any guests lately. But regarding the incident with the Zimmers, the CEO has asked me to take charge of that solely. So if you have any request, just tell me directly.”

Mandy took out a stack of documents and handed them to Wendy. She then said softly, “Then I’ll speak frankly with you. Miss Sorrell, the Zimmers’ shopping center project is indeed an exceptional asset. Although you’ve rejected us twice before, we still want to strive for the investment.”

Wendy read through the documents carefully. She then smiled softly and said, “Miss Zimmer, since you came here in person, I won’t make it bad and difficult for you. We can invest in the Zimmers’ shopping center...”

“Really?” Mandy appeared confused. She thought that she would be put in a difficult position, but it never occurred to her that it would be that easy.

“Don’t worry. Just listen to me first.” Wendy said, “But since you were being disrespectful toward York Enterprise before, we’ll only provide thirty million dollars as the investment funds this time around. Besides, we want to increase the profits which we’ll receive based on what we agreed upon before by ten percent. This is the contract we drafted up again. You can take it back with you to read through them. If there’s no problem with it, just sign it and send it back to us. Of course. If the Zimmers think that the conditions are too harsh, you can choose not to cooperate with us. After all, York Enterprise is not in need of this project.”

Mandy read through the contract seriously. But she found that the conditions which were outlined in the contract that time around were much harsher than the one she took back home the other day. The Zimmers were the ones who would have gained most of the benefits in the former contract. But it was different this time around. The Zimmers would not gain many benefits, and they might even suffer a small loss.

However, Mandy did not dare to say much. It was considered quite lucky since they were able to obtain the contract this time around.

Wendy was in no rush. She then said, “Miss Zimmer, just bring the contract home to discuss with the others properly. But York Enterprise isn’t that patient.”

In the CEO’s office.

Harvey still liked to buy white T-shirts from stalls set up by the streets. They were simple and casual. He felt quite comfortable wearing those clothes too.

It was the highest building in the entire business district in Niumhi. Standing on the highest floor and taking in the entire view of Niumhi, Harvey felt quite calm.

After looking at that view for a short while, he said calmly, “Actually, for a lot of people, they’re more than satisfied with it if they can stand at a place like this. Is that right?”

Standing not far behind him, Yvonne smiled faintly and said, “But for Mr. York, this place is rather short. How could you stay in such a humble place given your superiority?”

“Superiority?” Harvey broke into laughter. “I’m just an abandoned heir of the Yorks from South Light. If not because of the money I own, do you think that the Yorks would accept me again? Will my younger brother approve of me? No. They only accept and approve of the money I own.”

“But that is your right,” Yvonne said softly. At the same time, she was filled with admiration.

Although Mr. York had been suffering miserably for three years, he had never led a decadent life. Now it was finally his moment to rise up again. The Yorks were quite frightened of him even though they were a family with such a status. During these days, no one from the Yorks dared to come and meddle in the affairs of York Enterprise. From there, one could see clearly.

“Make some arrangements. Integrate the properties and assets under the company’s name. Keep those outstanding ones and let go of those who are making us lose money, including all of those investments who were carried out before because of the various connections they have with the Yorks,” Harvey instructed calmly.

“Mr. York, wouldn’t we offend the Yorks to the extreme like that?” Yvonne reminded Harvey.

“Do you think that they’ll treat me like one of their own if I don’t offend them? We need to do something since the Yorks haven’t recovered yet. If we don’t do them now, we won’t have such a chance in the future... Yvonne, I do trust you. And, I’ll give you a month only. I hope that after a month, I’m the only one who can make decisions here and only my voice is heard in this company!” Harvey said softly.

Yvonne was stunned. She never thought that Harvey was such a decisive man who acted swiftly. Moreover, he wanted to remove those people who the Yorks had placed in the important positions in York Enterprise before.

“But the Yorks...”

“They don’t dare to do anything for the time being.” Harvey smiled, and he did not want to dwell much on that subject. He then narrowed his eyes and gazed at the direction of the shopping center which the Zimmers had marked. “How are things going here?”

“Miss Sorrell had given the contract to madam for her to take back home. But the conditions in the contract this time around are rather harsh. The Zimmers might not agree to that,” said Yvonne.

“No. They’ll agree to it. Although thirty million dollars mean not much to us, the Zimmers are clutching at straws now. If we refuse to invest in them, I’m afraid that no one commercial bank will dare to approve a loan for them.” Harvey smiled faintly. He then said, “Ask Wendy to act accordingly and put up a show. She needs to appear quite superior and arrogant. Lastly, she needs to act like she finally agrees to the investment after much difficulty. We need to make the Zimmers understand that if Mandy didn’t put herself down to beg us, they wouldn’t even get the investment fund in the first place.”

Chapter 68

“Alright, Mr. York!” Yvonne nodded. At the same time, she lamented for the Zimmers. How could they bully the CEO’s wife? The Zimmers really did not know how to behave themselves properly.

“Besides, ask Tyson to come and meet me in the afternoon.” Suddenly, Harvey thought of someone else.

Yvonne was stunned. Tyson was a gangster in Niumhi, and he led quite a good life, doing that. He never had any kind of contact with York Enterprise. Why would the CEO...

“Ask him to come.” Harvey spoke again.

Yvonne seemed to have something on her mind. But she still nodded respectfully before she left the office. After all, Harvey’s every command must be obeyed and carried out in York Enterprise no matter what. She just needed to fulfill her task, and she did not have to ask the reason.

Tyson came. But it was beyond Yvonne's expectation. Tyson was usually a rather frightening and powerful person in Niumhi. After he received her call, he went to York Enterprise in less than half an hour. He then waited there respectfully. The main thing was he did not dare to enter Harvey's office when it was not time yet.

He waited until three o'clock in the afternoon. He was then led to Harvey's office by Yvonne. He entered the office uneasily. When he saw Harvey, he placed his hands at his sides, and did not even dare to raise his head.

After that, Harvey waved his hands at Yvonne, gesturing for her to leave. Only then did Harvey pour a glass of water for Tyson in person. He said calmly, "Just take a seat. We're buddies. Why do you have to act so respectfully? If you let your subordinates see you like this, how could you be their boss in the future then?”

“Mr. York, how could I act like a boss in front of you? I’m just a mere subordinate.” Tyson wiped away his cold sweat. He then held the glass of water with both of his hands and said, “Regarding what happened at the Zimmers the other day, I didn’t mean that. If I knew that it was you...”

Speaking of that, Tyson wanted so badly to strangle Don to death. For the past few days, he had not received any news from Harvey which worried him greatly. He only breathed a sigh of relief when he received the call from Yvonne that morning.

Harvey sat down by himself and said softly, “I didn’t take it to heart. But Brother Tyson, you really quite disappoint me. You’ve been here in Niumhi for so many years now. How could you become someone else’s thug and beat the others up for them?”

Tyson was soon covered with cold sweat. He said, “Mr. York, there was only once. It’s true. I did it only once. I usually never do these kinds of things. It's always my subordinates who do that.”

Harvey replied calmly, “I don't care how you usually discipline your subordinates. But nowadays, it's the time in which we need to use our intelligence instead of fists. If we only know how to use our fists in dealing with things, there'll be trouble soon. Do you understand what I mean?”

Tyson nodded immediately and said, “Mr. York, what you said is true. I'll remember that.”

“Take a seat. Do sit down since I asked you to,” said Harvey calmly. “Recently, I need you to deal with something for me.”

“Sure! Mr. York, I'm at your service.” Tyson looked respectful. ‘If Mr. York asks me to do something for him, it means that he's no longer angry.’

“During these few days, my York Enterprise will get rid of some bad assets. I'm aware that the people who own those assets are not nice people. I don't hope that these people will try to stand against me during this process. It's best if everything is carried out smoothly. In that way, everyone will be happy," said Harvey calmly.

"Alright, I understand it now. I can guarantee that no one will try to make a mess at a time like this." Tyson nodded vigorously. If he could not even take care of such a trivial affair, he could not survive as a gangster there.

"There's one more thing. I heard that recently some people are trying to create troubles in the shopping center which belongs to the Zimmers. Is it true?" Harvey continued.

Tyson nodded and said, "Yes, I've heard of that. After all, it's a project with high and promising profits. There are a few gangsters who are quite interested in that. They want to grab onto that chance to gain some high profits, especially when they heard that the Zimmers had gained the investment funds of fifty million dollars. They're quite excited about that."

Harvey thought about it for a while. He then said, "

Help me to keep a close eye on it. If anybody wants to take any action, inform me about it beforehand.”

Tyson replied with a deep voice, “Mr. York, you don’t have to worry about that. There’ll be no problem since it’s just a small affair...”

Not long after Tyson had left, Harvey’s phone rang all of a sudden.

“Harvey, where are you?” At the other end of the phone, he heard Mandy’s voice.

Harvey looked at the information in his hands and said, ‘I’m about to get off work.’”

“Then... Let’s go shopping with me.” It seemed like Mandy had hesitated for a short while before she said that.

Harvey dropped the documents in his hand onto the desk with a bang. He was filled with disbelief. They had been married for three years now, and it was the first time that Mandy had asked him to go shopping with her. Not to mention shopping, she would usually feel quite embarrassed if she brought him along to any place.

“Alright!” Harvey did not reject her. After all, he had given orders on things he wanted the others to deal with in the company. Besides, there was no big issue in the company.

After around ten minutes, Harvey rode on his electric bike and reached the pedestrian street. He could not help that since he had not much time left, and he indeed did not have time to go and drive his Porsche out.

That pedestrian street was the most prosperous and lively area in the entire Niumhi. There were all kinds of large shopping centers all around the street. It was crowded too.

After Harvey parked his electric bike nicely, he soon saw Mandy. Among the crowd, she was extremely charming and striking. At first glance, one could easily recognize her.

Mandy saw Harvey’s electric bike too. She waved her hands slightly at Harvey.

Mandy was wearing a simple white T-shirt with a pleated skirt and a pair of casual high heels. Her outfit accentuated her perfect body figure completely. Hence, the other men there could not help but turn around to look at her.

If they had such a wife, they would be extremely overjoyed, and they might even break into laughter even if they were sleeping soundly.

Chapter 69

There was another beautiful woman beside Mandy. Surprisingly, it was Cecilia. Her body figure was extremely sexy. At that moment, she was wearing an extremely short skirt, and she looked quite attractive and seductive.

Two beautiful women stood side by side, and they both possessed different strengths. There were indeed a lot of people who turned around to look at them when they passed by.

Seeing Harvey, Cecilia frowned slightly. She was slightly awkward too. Since the incident with the eight hundred thousand dollars, she met Harvey again. She thought of the incident where they made a bet with each other and soon blushed.

But Harvey acted like he did not see her at all. He walked toward Mandy indifferently. He then smiled and said, "Dear, here I am!"

It made Cecilia rather annoyed. 'I dressed myself up so seductively. Certainly anyone who sees me will be charmed by me since I have such a body figure with such an appearance. But how arrogant you are! You didn't even look at me directly! Do you want me to slap you hard?'

It seemed like Mandy was in rather a good mood that day. She did not refute that when she heard Harvey address her in such an endearing way. She then handed the bag in her hand to him and said, "You're in charge of taking the bags for us."

"Of course I'm at your service!" Harvey smiled happily. Only then he threw a glance at Cecilia and said, "My good daughter, do you want Dad to hold your bag for you?"

"You..." Cecilia was deeply infuriated with him. She stared at Harvey sternly. "Harvey, don't think that you're so great since you're able to get someone to lend you eight hundred thousand dollars. When you're able to earn so much, then only act smugly like that in front of me."

Harvey smiled and said, "It seems like you can't afford to make a bet like that.”

“You!” Cecilia was angry, but still she threw her bag at Harvey.

Harvey did not mind that at all as long as Mandy was happy. He did not even care about the other random people.

Harvey held their bags for them and walked behind them. Mandy and Cecilia walked in front of him and chatted with each other casually.

Listening roughly to their conversation, Harvey understood the situation now. The conditions outlined by York Enterprise were too harsh. Mandy felt that the Zimmers would not agree to that. Hence, she was having a dilemma now. She wanted to see if she could go and meet the CEO in person the next day.

Cecilia did not have much interest when Mandy talked about the things related to the business. But when Mandy mentioned the new CEO of York Enterprise, Cecilia appeared quite excited. She then said, “Mandy, have you met the new CEO of York Enterprise?”

“No.” Mandy shook her head.

“Alas! That’s too unfortunate. I heard that the new CEO is not only young and rich. Besides, he’s got six packs, and he’s extremely handsome. What if I go with you tomorrow? Maybe I can gain his social contact. Do you think that I have the chance to be the CEO’s wife?” Cecilia looked like a boy crazy woman, and it seemed like she could not hold herself back.

Listening to that, Harvey became tongue-tied behind them. He thought that Cecilia was usually a cold and aloof woman as she did not have eyes on any man. But it seemed like she was just like an ordinary girl who loved those rich and handsome men.

Chapter 70

But if Cecilia knew that the young and handsome new CEO was helping her hold her bag now, what would her thoughts be?

Mandy looked at Cecilia seriously. After a short while, she nodded and said, “Yes, you do have a great chance. But there’s a problem. You have a lot of rivals...”

“Eh?”

“Although I haven't met the CEO yet, I've met the others. His secretary, manager, and even the female receptionist are quite sexy and charming. They're near to him, so they have a greater chance at that. How about you? If only you go to their company and help to clean up their place, and you can go and clean the CEO's desk every day too. If not, you won't stand a chance!” Mandy said.

“Good idea! As expected, you know me too well. I'll go and apply for the job tomorrow...”

The two women laughed cheerfully. Now, they had become quite a beautiful image on the street, and even Harvey who stood behind them was ignored too.

As they wandered around, they reached the area where only luxury goods were on sale in the shopping center.

There was a pair of extremely exquisite shoes which were on display. They saw it through the display window in an exclusive shop in front of them. There were a lot of girls which surrounded the shop, looking at that pair of shoes. Even after Cecilia and Mandy looked at that pair of shoes, they were quite charmed by that too.

That pair of shoes was extremely exquisite. They heard that it was a limited edition which the shop collaborated with another brand exclusively. There were only a pair of shoes like that in the entire Niumhi. ①

Harvey glanced at the price from outside. It was sixteen thousand dollars.

“If you like it, just try it.” Seeing that Mandy was quite interested in that, Harvey dragged her into the shop.

Mandy did not reject him, but she smiled and said, “Didn’t you see how much is that? My salary is low, and I can’t afford that. Don’t tell me that you’re going to buy that for me, are you?”

Now Mandy believed that Harvey was working for his classmate.

Standing behind them, Cecilia looked quite eager too. She then said, “I’m wondering if the CEO will buy that for me. It’s so much better if I can be the CEO’s little charming wife.”

Harvey rolled his eyes, and he did not want to bother about that woman who was quite boy crazy. He then smiled at Mandy before he turned around and said to the employee beside them, “Beautiful girl, could you please take that pair of shoes down for us, so that she can try on them?”

The employee was a girl in her mid-twenties and she had almond-shaped eyes. At that moment, she sized Harvey up. When she noticed the fact that Harvey was using an outdated phone, she frowned subconsciously. She then said in annoyance, “I’m sorry. There’s a rule here in this shop. If you don’t want to buy the pair of shoes, you can’t try them on. You may go out of the shopping center to take a look around. There are a lot of stalls by the road. A pair of shoes only cost around a few dollars there. You can try them on any way you like...”

As she said that, she took a glance at Mandy. Soon, she understood the whole picture now. ‘This pauper wants to act smug and superior in front of the goddess. Why doesn’t he have any self-awareness? He uses only an outdated phone. I’m sure he won’t be able to afford to buy that pair of shoes even if he spends nothing on meals for an entire year.’
