

Chapter 101

At the side, Senior Zimmer was controlling his smile. “Manager Sorrell, I can vouch on behalf of the Zimmer family that all of our resources will be for both of you if you marry into our family. That cluster of diamonds is nothing when all of the Zimmer family’s properties will be yours. Why would you make a fuss about it now?”

Senior Zimmer was being straightforward with his thoughts. He was prepared to give the whole Zimmer family to the young couple. She did not need to be angry over such a small matter, and especially during such a crucial time as when Zack Zimmer was proposing to her.

“That’s right, Sister-in-law. That really is a trivial matter! You would just be punishing Zack for no good reason!”

“Yes! Let’s not talk about this diamond ring which is worth hundreds of thousands. Just look at that trash, Harvey York. He's not even able to buy a diamond ring of a few hundred dollars. You're very fortunate to have won Bro Zack's favor!"

"Yes! Indeed!"

The Zimmer family tried to coax her.

Zack poured more emotions into his acting. "Wendy, I can guarantee you that I will buy that pigeon egg for you. Please marry me."

Wendy Sorrell's face was wrung with awkwardness. She only came to her senses after a while and was almost left speechless. "Zack Zimmer, are you sick?"

"What?" Zack was left stunned. "My body is very healthy. I have the medical report to prove it."

"I'm asking if you're mentally sick!" Wendy's initially glistening forehead had turned dark. She almost bit off her teeth as she accented each word she said. "You proposing to me? Have you gone mad?"

Zack's whole body shuddered at her words. He forced out a chuckle. "Wendy, don't get angry now. It's just a diamond, isn't it? It's not such a big deal ..."

"It's not about the diamond!" Wendy was about to vomit blood. She then pointed toward Zack and said, "I'm asking why on earth are you proposing to me? Have you really gone crazy? Is your brain flooded with water? We've not met each other for more than an hour and you're already proposing to me? Do you have the brain of a pig?"

"Have you not received my gifts?" Zack curiously asked, "Isn't that how this works? If you accept my gifts, you agree with my pursuit of you?"

"Who says that I have accepted your gifts? You looked for a few express deliveries to throw them into my office and claim that I have accepted them? Zack! You just wait here!" Wendy's embarrassment turned into fury as she stormed out of the villa in her high heels.

Soon, she came back in while dragging a big sack and aggressively hurled it forward. The sack opened and the shoes, bags and jewelries scattered all over the ground from inside the bag.

“I came over today to return all this rubbish to you!” Wendy said while gritting her teeth. “Zack, do you really look down on me that much? Did you think that you could simply give some broken toys to a girl and call it a pursuit? I’m telling you, with this ugly attitude of yours, every shoe you give me is dirt!”

“Secretary Xavier, let’s go!” Wendy looked at Yvonne after saying this. Yvonne nodded and they both walked out the hall.

Yvonne smiled slightly and nodded at Harvey without saying a word, before turning toward Senior Zimmer. “Senior Zimmer, we’ve returned the items. We have some matters to attend to and will make a move now.”

“Ah...” The corner of Senior Zimmer’s eyes

twitched. “Secretary Xavier, w-what about the contract?”

Yvonne turned and displayed a cute smile. “Did we not say that we are only here to talk about private matters today and would not talk about business?”

“Yes, yes, yes...” Senior Zimmer subtly wiped his cold sweat off. He did not know how to fill the awkward silence they were in. He then ordered in his low voice, “Zack, please send them out...”

After he had said this, he quickly went around shaking hands with the people. “How embarrassing for you to have seen this. The young couple got into an argument over a diamond. Don’t think too much about this, it’s just a short couple fight. They will restore their peace soon. No big deal.”

Many of the surrounding people nodded slightly. That was the only logic, that they were in an argument. Else, why would Zack be so silly to casually pop the question?

“Secretary Xavier!” Zack leapt forward from his half kneeling stance and shamelessly walked by Yvonne's side. "Wendy doesn't know how to differentiate between what is good and what is bad. How about we have a meal together tomorrow and have a good chat? Of course, all these things are yours."

Zack said all those with pride. The luxury items he bought were not cheap. They were worth tens of thousands.

Yvonne was stunned. She was left utterly stunned. She did not think that Zack would dare to come and invite her out instead.

Slap!

She instinctively hurled a slap.

"You're crazy! Hmph!"

Yvonne said this as she walked out the villa. Soon, the car engine was heard, and the two beautiful ladies left.

"This..."

Everyone looked on in disbelief. What was going on? Was Yvonne jealous? Was Zack really that lucky to have two girls going after him?

Chapter 102

In the middle of the hall, Senior Zimmer's eyes were twitching. He coughed and said, "Everyone, it's just a dispute of the younger generation. Please don't mind what had just happened. Don't mind it at all. I'll play the host for tonight. Shall we?"

All the family heads who were present were sly foxes. However, they assumed what Senior Zimmer said was true. They would soon find out whether this situation was real for sure by observing whether the Zimmer family will successfully attain the investment from York Enterprise.

After three more rounds of wine, the family heads each found an excuse to leave. They did not come for the sake of the Zimmer family. The Zimmer family were not so reputable for them to do so. Their goal was Yvonne Xavier.

They knew that the Zimmer family did not have a hold on York Enterprise. Some of the family heads had some ideas. Since the Zimmer family could send a young man to woo Wendy Sorrell, they can do so too.

When the guests had left, Zack mustered up the courage and went toward Senior Zimmer. He bowed down and said, “Grandpa!”

Slap!

Senior Zimmer gave him a heavy slap on the cheek. He held a disappointed countenance. “Didn’t you say that you’ve settled things with the woman? Didn’t you say that she came to send the contract over? You better have a good explanation for what had happened tonight. Else, don’t even dream of being the heir!”

Although Zack’s face was swollen, he held his face and said, “Grandpa, did you not see what was going on? Yvonne has some interest in me!”

“What?!” Senior Zimmer was stunned.

“Bulls*it!” Harvey was left in a daze. This silly man was too full of himself. How did he get the idea that Yvonne was interested in him?

Zack’s face was filled with an expression of ‘isn’t it obvious?’. “Grandpa, you need to pay attention to the details. The details!”

“Think carefully about it. What was her reaction when she noticed that my pigeon egg was fake? She wasn’t angry, nor did she ridicule me. She instead looked on in admiration. Why would she look on in admiration?”

“Also, when Wendy Sorrell walked away, she heaved a deep sigh of relief. Why would she heave a sigh of relief?”

“Grandpa, you are getting old after all. You would not understand how young women think. They are sensitive. They would not tell me even if they liked me!”

“Yvonne was not only willing to come tonight, but she also came with all sorts of reactions. Isn't it obvious that she has feelings for me? When she found out that I don't have any relationship with Wendy, did she not happily leave?"

Chapter 103

“Grandpa, when we analyze the details. Don’t you think that she has feelings for me?”

Zack Zimmer put on a convincing face. Why did his reasoning sound reliable?

The Zimmer family looked at each other. He did have quite a good explanation. What was Yvonne Xavier’s status? Many family heads wanted to meet her but had not the opportunity. However, she did come over to the Zimmer family with weird behaviors. It seemed that there were no other justifications other than her liking Zack.

“Grandpa, Wendy’s rejection of my proposal is good news. Think about it, Wendy is only a small manager, what more can she do?” Zack saw through the truth of the reality. “Yvonne, no... my Vonnie is the secretary to the CEO of York Enterprise! In fact, rumor has it that she is the mysterious CEO herself. Grandpa, the Zimmer family is about to get rich!”

The CEO of York Enterprise?

When he said this, the Zimmer family who were present all heaved a sigh of relief. This was not impossible. The previous CEO who gave out investments was Belle York, who was also a woman. A female CEO is a normal occurrence.

Senior Zimmer's furious face was replaced with a calm expression. He knocked on the table and said, “Okay, it doesn't matter if Yvonne is the CEO or the secretary to the CEO. Zack, you need to fight with all your might to win her heart, and eventually win the reputation of the Zimmer family.”

“Don't you worry, Grandpa. I'm not so spineless unlike some people. There are not many outstanding men like me left in Niumhi.” Zack was pleased with himself. He became increasingly elated the more he thought about it.

“Okay, that is the plan from tonight onward. All of you are not allowed to announce this. If the other families know what we are up to and they end up making a move first, I will not forgive you!” Senior Zimmer coldly ordered.

The crowd of the Zimmer family all silently agreed out of fear. However, Harvey York could not resist chuckling out loud.

Had Zack really gone mad? He actually thought that Yvonne had her eyes on him. Was his self-awareness so low to not realize that he did not even have the right to talk to Yvonne, and now he wanted to chase after her?

The others might not understand Yvonne’s behavior, but Harvey knew her well. She was a woman who planned her future from young. She not only had a determined character and broad knowledge of various fields, but she also had investments of her own outside of the company. The values of her assets alone were easily beyond that of the Zimmer family.

Yvonne never had her eyes set on any of the rich heirs in Niumhi, let alone someone like Zack.

A b*stard like Zack had no other talents but to have these whimsical daydreams which were getting increasingly absurd. He not only did not feel embarrassed with Wendy's rejection, but he also now wanted to wreak havoc with Yvonne. Did he not know what death smells like?

If not for Mandy Zimmer, Harvey would have immediately cancelled all contracts with the Zimmer family. Such a low-class heir would only bring dishonor to the Zimmer family.

“Hey loser, what are you laughing at?” At this moment, Zack abruptly jumped up and pointed at Harvey.

Chapter 104

He was at the pinnacle of his life. He could marry any woman he so wishes and he had a good fortune too. Yet, this loser live-in son-in-law, Harvey York, had the audacity to laugh at him? Was he not being too arrogant?

At that instant, everyone turned to look at Harvey. Many of them had some faint expectation for him to have the situation mixed up. They wanted to keep the hope alive.

“I’m so sorry, I did not hold myself back,” Harvey covered his mouth while saying. “Some people have very good imagination. Zack Zimmer, I think you better not try to woo her. Why don’t you try and become the live-in son-in-law of the Xavier family? See if she wants you to be that for her!”

“Y-You’re only a live-in son-in-law, how dare you insult me!” Zack’s expression drastically changed. Although he did have the desire to be a kept man, a thought was just a thought. His intentions were exposed, and his ego could not take it anymore. He could not resist bellowing out at him.

Indeed, Senior Zimmer understood this as well. For one to rely on a woman to obtain the investment was no difference to wanting to be a kept man.

However, everyone in the Zimmer family wanted to keep their own pride. They felt that they belonged to the upper-class society. Hence, this was not considered wanting to be a kept man, it was just trying to have a stronger bond with another person. When Harvey spelled out the reality and exposed his intentions, Zack's dignity was left hanging by a thread. If word of this gets out, he would have no place in the circle of rich heirs.

“Harvey, don't simply say things like that.” Mandy frowned slightly. She could not stand to remind him. Why would this j*rk not know the appropriate crowd to say certain things? There are some words that should not be said now.

Harvey still had the guts to trigger Zack. He might even be fanning the flame of Senior Zimmer.

Zack laughed coldly and said, “What does a live-in son-in-law like you understand? You think that everyone wants to be a kept man like you? Did you not see how much Yvonne admires me? This is called true love. What do you understand?”

Harvey initially planned to not say more. However, when he heard the words ‘true love’, he could not contain himself from chuckling out loud once more.

Lilian Yates’ expression darkened immediately and she looked toward Senior Zimmer’s face twisted with irked frowns. She gritted her teeth and said, “Harvey! If you make another joke, you will leave this house tonight!”

Harvey was almost rendered speechless. “Mom, I was not joking around. I just feel that this whole incident is rather awkward. Zack doesn’t even have Yvonne’s private number. How can you call this true love? If word of this gets out, the Zimmer family will become the laughing stock of Niumhi.”

Lilian chided, “What does that have to do with you whether he knows her number or not? If he really doesn’t know, do you of all people know Yvonne’s private number?”

Harvey answered matter-of-factly, “Of course I do. We’re university friends. Why would I not know her number?”

Lilian was stunned at his words. She did not think that Harvey was in touch with Yvonne.

Mandy curiously looked at Harvey. She thought that Yvonne and Harvey were worlds apart. Even if they were university friends, they should not have any connections whatsoever. However, he ended up having Yvonne’s personal contact number. Was their relationship that good?

“Harvey, what is your relationship with her? I feel that she seems to care about you a lot.” A woman’s heart is sensitive. Mandy remembered seeing Yvonne greeting him before she left.

When she said this, everyone else of the Zimmer family felt nervous. They could not explain the weirdness in their hearts. Could this worthless sack of trash, Harvey, have had a relationship with this white, beautiful, and rich lady before but it did not work out?

Senior Zimmer started to frown at the situation. Zack, on the other hand, looked at Harvey with coldness in his eyes. Harvey was not wrong; he indeed did not have Yvonne's personal number.

“Oh, we were quite good friends back in university,” Harvey casually replied.

“Bullsh*t! What kind of friendship was that? I've heard that Yvonne had countless suitors when she was studying. You must be one of her spare tyres? You think you are so capable just because you're her spare tyre. You think you are successful after getting her number? What a joke!” Zack coldly replied him. “Harvey, I'm warning you. You are a live-in son-in-law of the Zimmer family. You still have a roof over your head, so you better not have your head above the clouds. There are some women whom you can never touch! Why don't you think about how to protect your own woman instead? You've been married for three years but you have not even touched the fingers of your own wife. You still have the guts to flaunt in front of me? You're talking like you're familiar with Yvonne. If you're telling the truth, why don't you give her a call? See if she picks up..."

"That's right! Call her if you really have her number! Don't just toot your own horn!"

"Kick him out of the Zimmer family if he's lying! You're such a harbinger of misfortune!"

Harvey ignored them all. He turned to look at Mandy and said to her, "Dear, we're just university mates. I'm telling the truth. Can you not doubt me?"

Chapter 105

Mandy Zimmer's curiosity piqued. She could not resist herself and asked, "What was your relationship with Yvonne Xavier like back in university? Were you both not a couple?"

When she said this, Mandy felt that this was quite an unusual scenario. She knew the capabilities of her worthless husband. How could he possibly have such an elegant ex-girlfriend as Yvonne?

Harvey York did not know whether to laugh or to cry. "Dear, please don't simply think about it. We were never in that kind of relationship. Just assume that we were not on good terms!"

Lilian Yates' eyes glimmered at that instant, as if she had caught Harvey red-handed. She could not resist rebuking him. "So, that is the case! A kept man like you is hiding a woman behind my daughter's back! Harvey, I'm telling you! You need to divorce my daughter this instant! Immediately!"

“Mom!” Mandy glared at Lilian. “Whatever it is, let’s go home and talk about it.”

“No way!”

Zack Zimmer coldly interjected before Lilian could continue. “Our business is not done here. Harvey, give Yvonne a call and explain your relationship clearly. Else, don’t think about leaving this place.”

“Have you really gone mad?” Harvey was rendered speechless. What was Zack trying to do?

At this moment, Sean Zimmer who was seated with the elders suddenly spoke, “Harvey, if you can prove that you do indeed have Yvonne’s private number and can provide Zack her contact, I will allow you to work with the Zimmer family starting tomorrow. I will give you seven hundred dollars as your pay.”

Harvey replied faintly, “Grandpa, have you forgotten? I have a job now.”

“Hmph, you consider being a janitor at York

Enterprise a job?” Someone chimed in. It was obvious that this person disliked Harvey.

It would be better if this person stayed quiet. When he said this, Zack suddenly burst into laughter. “Harvey, did you eavesdrop on Yvonne’s personal number while cleaning York Enterprise? Hahaha, you must be kidding me! I’ve seen people play pretend, but I have never seen a play pretend to this level. Mandy, your husband is too funny. You must have been silly back then to have married him! Hahaha...”

Mandy and Lilian’s faces changed upon hearing his words. Xynthia Zimmer threw a glare at Harvey and murmured under her breath, “Hey worthless sack of trash, you’re not even trying to save your own wife when she’s being bullied.”

Harvey initially did not bother about it. However, his face turned into a frosty defiance. He slowly stood up and walked toward Zack.

Swoosh.

Everyone's attention turned toward them both at that moment.

“W-What are you trying to do?” Zack was so shocked when Harvey threw a punch that he retreated. He was quite afraid that a b*stard like Harvey would start beating him up. He turned pale when he instinctively retreated earlier. Why would he take a step back? Would that not prove that he was indeed scared of Harvey?

“I don't wish to do anything. I just want you to apologize to my wife,” Harvey faintly said.

“You're crazy, aren't you? Me apologizing to her? Dream on!” Zack yelled out in fury.

Zack saw that Harvey seemed to want to make a move, so he coldly said, “You're really trash. Can't you be a proper man and not be a savage all the time?”

“What do you mean?” Harvey faintly asked.

“Prove it! Prove that you really have Yvonne's private number. I will then apologize to her. However, if you cannot do so. Hohoho.” Zack continued to laugh.

“Sure!” Harvey nodded and casually took out his phone to dial a number.

Ring, ring, ring.

“I’m sorry, the number you have called is not available now. Please try again later.”

Ring, ring, ring.

Harvey froze in place. How was Yvonne not picking up?

“This is what you mean by having someone’s private number? Hahaha. You really are a fool! I must be crazy tonight as well to be calculative with an idiot like you!” Zack coldly laughed, then turned and left.

Harvey fell glum. He did not know what was going on. Logically, Yvonne would not dare to ignore his calls.

“Trash!” Xynthia bellowed. Her face was plastered with disgust. It was too shameful to have such a brother-in-law.

Lilian walked over too and stared at Harvey coldly for a while. She then said in a low voice, “Scram! Get out of the Zimmer family and never return! If you dare to come back, I will break your legs!”

Mandy was filled with complicated feelings. It was indeed humiliating for her husband to not have Yvonne’s private number, but why was she rejoicing in her heart?

“Go! Leave the Zimmer family!”

“The Zimmer family does not need a worthless sack of trash like you!”

“Get out immediately!”

“You still want to play pretend when you are a live-in son-in-law? Who do you think you are?”

“The Zimmer family has been keeping a dog, how did we see him as a person? Yvonne was just giving you some dignity and you think you are capable because of that? That you’ve finally become a person? A dog will always be a dog!”

The cohort of the Zimmer family treated him coldly. This harbinger of misfortune was too disgusting. He should have been kicked out sooner.

Harvey smiled. He was too lazy to explain the truth to them. He then made his way out of the hall. When he turned, he heard an endless stream of cold demeaning laughter behind him.
