

Chapter 191

The next morning, Jason got up in a good mood.

When he saw the empty champagne bottle left by Yennie in the room, he couldn't help feeling satisfied.

This was Yennie...

Jason sighed and reminisced in his heart.

When he pushed the door open, he met Yennie, who happened to be leaving as well.

Their eyes met.

Yennie looked at Jason curiously and asked, "You got up so early, aren't you sleepy?"

"It's okay. It's cool and refreshing." Jason stretched his muscles, looking satisfied.

"Alright, that's good." Yennie nodded.

The two of them left the cabin and walked to the deck.

It was only seven in the morning.

The morning glow had not completely faded away from the surface of the sea.

In the face of a new day, the yacht began to move slowly from the center of the sea towards the coast.

Both of them leaned against the guardrail on the bow, looking at the light and feeling the sea breeze.

22:38

"Are you always this fast?"

Yennie turned her head and asked, hand smoothing her wind tussled hair, beautiful eyes staring at Jason.

"What?" Jason was stunned.

"Even when you did it yourself, do you come so fast every time?"

"It took less than two minutes."

"It was already over before I could get a good look."

"Or, are all men like this?"

Although Yennie was a dominating lady.

But she was also the one who had never had a boyfriend before.

It was the first time that she had seen it last night.

Although she was only using her hands, these questions had bothered her for the whole night.

"....."

Jason looked at the domineering lady in front of him. He really didn't know how to answer this question.

Two minutes was not normal for him at all.

But the other party was Yennie...

With just one glance, his nose would bleed.

This time, she used her own hands.

Who would be able to withstand it?

22:38

"Can't it be a little longer?"

"I always feel that the time you took is not the same as what they said."

"Isn't it too short? Do you need to see a doctor?"

Yennie asked seriously with her beautiful eyes twinkling.

"I..."

Jason was about to explain. In fact, it was not his problem, but hers.

Jason thought he couldn't even last two seconds. The fact that he could last two minutes was because he had grit his teeth and tried not to look at her.

Suddenly, Yvonne's laughter came from behind.

"What took just two minutes? Jason? What did you do last night? Just two minutes? You let our Yennie down."

Yvonne smiled and stood between them.

"It's nothing. There's something wrong with my watch, I was just matching the time with Jason." Yennie said calmly.

"Really? If there is a problem with your watch, why do you need to look for a doctor? My watch is also malfunctioning. Jason, why not you come to my room tonight and match the time with me?"

Yvonne had heard every single word of their conversation.

And last night, when Yennie went to Jason's room, she had heard the sounds coming from there.

22:38

Therefore, she knew that Jason only lasted for two minutes. She patted Jason's arm and said seriously, "Don't worry. Lasting two minutes with Yennie is already a pretty good result."

Jason knew that she had misunderstood.

He opened his mouth and was about to explain when he heard Yennie faintly say, "The yacht is docking. Let's go."

After Yennie left, Yvonne gave Jason a strange smile and hurriedly followed.

The three of them got on the shore.

After breakfast, they took the car to the airport.

Today was the last day of their holiday. Yennie still had work to do, so she had to return to Nandu before dawn tomorrow.

Although Jason could stay for another whole day, with Yennie's departure, he didn't want to stay alone with Yvonne. So they decided to return to Nandu together.

.....

After returning from the vacation, Yvonne drove herself home.

Jason and Yennie took a car back to the Jade Valley.

When they were in the car, Jason could clearly feel that Yennie was not in a good mood.

"Did something happen at the company?"

"Or are you angry about what happened last night?" Jason asked tentatively.

22:38

What happened last night still felt unreal for Jason.

Yennie, a domineering lady as classy as her, how would she do that with him?

Especially after they returned, Yennie returned to her usual cold and quiet self.

Black business outfits, a fitting skirt, black stockings...

Her cold aura made Jason feel like she was very distant.

"Do you really not need to go to the hospital?" Yennie turned her head and asked with a frown.

"....."

"I don't need it. Thank you!"

Jason said with grievance.

"Alright, that's fine then."

Yennie looked a little disappointed.

When she was in London, she had always heard that the time a boyfriend lasted was very important.

This would have a direct impact on their love life in the future.

However...

Two minutes was too short.

Their boyfriends didn't seem to last less than 20 minutes.

Yennie's charming eyes looked Jason up and down, and she sighed.

22:38

Perhaps, he was still just a child.

The two of them remained silent until they got off the car. Then, they returned to their respective homes.

Jason sat on the sofa and thought for more than an hour. He felt that this matter had to be explained clearly to Yennie.

Otherwise, he would be too embarrassed to appear in front of her again.

Jason left the house and thought about what to say as he walked.

However, when he was about to reach Yennie's gate, he was blocked by a row of white Maseratis.

Five Maseratis was facing Jason at the parking lot.

Five or six men in suits stood next to the car. The leader was in a well pressed white shirt with a buzz cut, and he looked very gentlemanly. He walked towards Yennie who was standing at the gate.

"Yennie, you're finally back. I heard that you went to Yunnan for vacation without letting me know. I was so scared, worried that something would happen to you there. I'm relieved to see that you're back safely."

The buzz cut man looked at Yennie. However, his gaze looked a little hot, constantly sweeping over Yennie's beautiful body.

Yennie's pursuer?

22:38

Jason frowned.

He didn't think that with Yennie's status, there would be a lack of pursuers. But it was the first time he was seeing this guy with the buzz cut, but his voice sounded familiar, as if he had heard it a while back.

"I just went to Yunnan. What danger could I be in? What's more, does it have anything to do with you?" Yennie frowned and looked at the guy, putting on her stockings.

"How can it have nothing to do with you? I am your future husband, and as my fiancée, shouldn't you let me know in advance where you're going? Also, I heard that you went with a man. As a married woman, isn't that a little overboard?"

The man said unhappily.

Fiancée?

Husband?

As Jason looked at the luxury motorcade in front of him and thought about the man's tone, he finally remembered where he had heard his voice.

It was the night half a month ago, the person who got drunk and made trouble in front of Yennie's door, and forced her to have a race at Maple Leaf Mountain. It was this man who claimed to be her fiancé.

The earrings on the man's left ear were shining in the sun, and there was an arrogant expression on his face.

Jason felt that he was not here because he worried about her, but to blame her.

22:38

"Are you done?" Yennie asked.

"Yes, that's it. Aren't you going to give me an explanation?"

The man asked.

"Do you remember what we agreed on before the race? If you win, I'm yours. But you lost, and the engagement is invalid. You were not supposed to harass me anymore. It's only been a few days, and you've forgotten all about it?"

Although it was Yvonne who helped her win the race against Walter Ye.

But Walter didn't know, and thought that Yennie had won the race.

"Haha, of course I remember. However, it was just an agreement between the two of us. Do you think your parents would take the initiative to break the engagement with my family? This is a matter that is set in stone. Don't even try."

"Besides, I've prepared a surprise for you today."

As he spoke, Walter snapped his fingers.

Several of the Maserati drivers rushed to their trunks and opened it.

Five trunks full of roses appeared in Yennie's sight.

Chapter 192

Flowers!

The trunks were filled with flowers!

All the red roses were in full bloom!

There were dewdrops on every petal, it seemed that those flowers were very fresh and someone must have taken a lot of effort to prepare them.

"Yennie, there are 999 roses in each trunk, which shows the love I have for you. Also, it expresses my apologies for being so impulsive and smashing your car that night." Walter said gleefully.

Girls all liked flowers, and they liked luxury cars and romance more.

It usually required money to create a romantic atmosphere.

Walter had already used this move on more than ten girls.

These women were all over the society.

From high school students to young women and white-collar workers.

Although Yennie was born in a famous family, to a lady like her who had never been in a relationship, there was nothing more touching than her than five trunks full of roses.

He believed that with this move, he would be able to defeat this ultimate-grade woman in front of him!

22:38

Sure enough, when the five Maserati trunks opened at the same time, revealing thousands of red roses, even Walter was moved by himself.

This visual impact was too shocking!

Even the residents of the neighborhood who passed by couldn't help but stop and stare.

Seeing that people from such a high-end community were attracted by his own generosity, Walter said more proudly, "How's this, Yennie? A total of nearly 5,000 red roses, do you like it? If you like it, I will send them to your door every month. Your house will be the most beautiful rose manor, aren't you touched? Aren't you happy?"

"Are you that rich now?" Yennie asked curiously.

The Ye Family in the capital was just a third-class family.

All the assets from his family were less than that of William, the richest man in Nandu.

The so-called engagement was nothing more than a drunken agreement between their fathers in army.

The Jiang family didn't take it seriously. Only the Ye family took this engagement as a treasure, insisting that Yennie was their daughter-in-law. They kept pestering her and insisted on her entering the Ye family.

"Yes, I am now under the orders of my family. Now I am managing the business of my family in Nandu. I still get a few million in profit every year. After the money that I have to give to my family, the other half is under my free control. Yennie, with my conditions, why are you hesitating? In the whole of Nandu, is there anyone as young and rich as me? There's no one. Besides me, no one else is a match for you, what do you think?"

Walter said this earnestly, but he sounded like he was praising himself. He also sounded like he wanted to seduce Yennie.

At the same time, Walter knew very well that once he got together with the lady in front of him, a couple of millions were nothing. He could laze at home all day and the Jiang family would give him enough money. He could even sleep with this goddess at night. It was a double win for him in terms of love and money. He would never give up.

"Haha, do you really think so?" Yennie sneered.

"That's for sure. Let's not talk about my conditions. Let's talk about the engagement of our families. The promise of an engagement from Master Jiang, don't tell me you're denying it?" Walter laughed.

"But what if I am?" Yennie asked.

"You are?" Walter suddenly sneered. "Then I will make the Jiang family affairs public and let all the families and companies witness it. The Jiang family in the Capital City is such a big family, but they actually went back on their word regarding their daughter's engagement. They're just looking down on the Ye family, they look down upon the poor but love the rich. There's no credibility in the family. Of course, you might not care about this. At the very most, you can just cut off any connections with the Ye family. But Master Jiang is 83 years old this year, right? If he finds out that a promise he once made was broken by you, and destroyed his golden reputation, can you guess how angry he will be?"

As the current Master of the Jiang family, although he was not young anymore, he was still very strict.

He was still managing the big Jiang family now, and no one dared to go against his wishes.

The Ye family was aware of this, and it was the reason why they were so fearless and kept cornering Yennie.

"I think he's right. At Master Jiang's age, he shouldn't be worrying about issues like that. Besides, the flowers are so pretty. It's a pity if you don't want them."

Just as Walter was busy feeling pleased with himself, Jason walked down.

"You're here." Yennie had already seen Jason Qin, but this scene was a little embarrassing, so she didn't acknowledge his presence.

"Beauty, I think this handsome guy is also good-hearted. Five cars full of flowers cost a lot of money. Why don't you take it? It's good for decoration." Jason said with a smile.

"Hey? Who are you? Not bad, you talk very well." Walter looked at Jason. Although Jason was wearing a pair of floral shorts with flowers, which he was judging, but this kid was obviously on his side.

"Well, boy, you have a good eye for people. What's your name? If you don't have a job, my company is recruiting people. If you tell me your name, I can arrange a job for you... a monthly salary of 3,000 yuan."

Walter smiled with a sense of superiority. Then he took out an LV wallet from his trouser pocket and opened it. He took out ten red banknotes and handed them to Jason. "Come, this is for you."

"Er, I don't want the money. I'm just interested in what you said. I'm interested in how you want to make her villa into a rose manor. Does Yennie like roses that much?" Jason asked curiously.

"That's right. How can an ordinary flower be worthy of my fiancée? It must be a rose, and it has to be the best ones. These roses with dew drops were freshly cut off their branches. This is called romance. What do you know, kid?" Walter said proudly.

In order to pursue Yennie, Walter really put in a lot of effort. Especially when he learned that Yennie liked red roses, he paid a lot of money to buy all the roses from several flower markets in Nandu. However, the water on the petals were sprayed on by his assistants at the last minute. There were some unopened flowers inside, but as long as Yennie didn't look in detail, it was enough if the romantic atmosphere was achieved.

Saying that, he did not forget to show off, "My wife likes this side of me. When we get married, I will fill the wedding room with red roses. There will be roses and candles in the room. As the two of us lie down, from the living room to the bedroom, I'm getting excited just thinking about it."

"Shut up!" Yennie was furious. Did this man's brain drop into water? He was talking nonsense in front of so many people, he was nuts.

At the same time, she turned her head and said to Jason, "Go back first. If there are any issues, let me deal with this first before I go over."

"Wait a minute!" Walter turned his head to look at Jason and asked suspiciously, "Do you two know each other?"

"Yes." Jason nodded. "I am a good friend of Yennie."

"You?" Walter frowned and looked Jason up and down. "Looking at your attire, don't tell me you've just returned from Yunnan?"

"Yes." Jason said.

"D*mn it, you're the loser who went to Yunnan with my fiancée? And you played together for three or four days before coming back together?" Walter's eyes widened with anger, and a trace of ferocity flashed across his face.

"You're right again." Jason nodded and admitted.

"D*mn you loser, what's your relationship with Yennie? How dare you take a vacation with my wife in Yunnan? Are you looking for death?" Walter roared fiercely, "What's your name? How dare you touch my woman? D*mn, you're looking for death!"

22:38

"Walter Ye, please pay attention to your words!" Yennie's good-looking eyebrows were knitted together, and her tone was suddenly full of displeasure.

Walter turned his head and looked at Yennie with disdain. He sneered and said, "B*tch, I didn't expect this. Yennie, you're still speaking up for this bastard at this time. Do you believe that I will call the capital right now and ruin the reputation of the Jiang family and you?"

Chapter 193

"Are you telling on her?" Jason said helplessly, "Yennie has nothing to do with the Jiang family now. Before you tell on her, shouldn't you clarify on these family matters?"

Jason knew what was going on between Yennie and the Jiang family.

Ten years ago, Yennie ran away from home and never had any contact with the Jiang family after that.

Even the private beach that they used in Yunnan was under her name.

It could be said that Yennie belonged to the Shen family now, and had nothing to do with the Jiang family in the Capital City.

"Haha, little boy, it seems that you're aware of many issues. Trying to marry into the Jiang family? But as far as I know, it was just momentary anger on Yennie's end and it's just a little conflict with the Jiang family. The Jiang family has been paying attention to her activities all these years. Besides, are there any families who don't have any conflicts or arguments? In a bit, she'll return to the Jiang family as their daughter. With a loser like you, you can give up early. Just do what you should do, and don't waste your time here." Walter laughed and said.

"Really?" Jason turned his head and looked at Yennie.

22:40

"Well, Jason is right. I have nothing to do with the Jiang family." Yennie nodded and said.

Walter was stunned.

Although he had already known that Yennie had fallen out with the Jiang family for some time.

However, both she and the Jiang family had never admitted it to the public.

Everyone was tacit. They all knew that as a famous genius in business, Yennie would return to the Jiang family sooner or later and take care of their business.

But today.

Right now.

Yennie admitted this in front of him.

She admitted that she had nothing to do with the Jiang family.

This caught Walter off guard. He asked in a low voice, "Do you dare to repeat what you just said?"

"Haha, I have nothing to do with the Jiang family, so the so-called engagement between you and the Ye family has nothing to do with me. Do you understand?"

Yennie took a deep breath and said the words she had been holding in her heart for a long time.

"Good!" Walter nodded with a sneer. He looked at Jason and Yennie said coldly, "Yennie, I hope you didn't say that on a spur of the moment. And you know very well that once these words are heard by the Jiang family in the Capital city, how will your eldest brother, Teddy, react?"

22:40

"I know." Yennie nodded.

She knew the temper of her big brother too well.

Teddy could be said to be a man who was almost perfect in all aspects.

Looks, figure, temperament, education, self-restraint, ability...

Even in the upper class, it was difficult to find someone who was comparable to him.

He was almost perfect, but there was one thing that scared Yennie.

His temper!

He was so violent that it was like a second personality.

He got angry very easily, and his violent tendencies were uncontrollable..

Once something that was not part of his plan happened, Teddy would instantly turn from a gentle, refined, and flawless young master into a murderous maniac.

It could be said that the reason why Yennie ran away from the Jiang family, had a lot to do with her big brother.

Moreover, this person seemed to be in Nandu.

"Haha, since you're aware, I'll tell you now. I've met your brother Teddy a few times these few days. He is very dissatisfied with what you're doing in Nandu. I heard that you are now a public relations manager of a listed group. He thinks that you're deliberately insulting the Jiang family, and smeared the reputation of the Jiang family. Teddy wants me to tell you to quit and go look for him at Riversides Manor. He'll put you in charge of some of the family enterprises. If you choose to act alone and not go back under the Jiang family, they will no longer recognise you in the future." "

Walter looked at Jason and Yennie with a sneer. He knew that the Ye Family was not powerful enough, so Yennie would not take him seriously.

But now Teddy was in Nandu, and he had just come here from his manor. He did not believe that these two people were not afraid of Teddy and that they wouldn't take him seriously.

It was Teddy again.

Jason frowned and was about to say something, but Yennie interrupted him and said, "Are you done talking?"

"I'm done."

"Then you can go."

After Yennie finished her words coldly, she took Jason's hand, turned into the villa, and then closed the door.

"Damn it, a stray dog acted all proud in front of me!"

Looking at the closed door, Walter spat on the ground.

22:40

"Boss, what about these flowers? Do we send them to the villa?"

Five rose-filled trunks appeared behind Walter. Walter looked back and impatiently waved his hand. "Throw them all away. Remember what that boy looks like and keep an eye on him. Dig out his background, he even dares to touch my woman! If I don't break his arms, I won't have to live in this industry anymore!"

After that, Walter turned around and got into the Maserati. He slammed the door of the car, started the engine and drove off.

In the villa.

Jason didn't say any nonsense and expressed his own thoughts directly

"I don't know much about what happened between you and the Jiang family, but I believe there is a reason for this. There is no love or hatred in the world for no reason."

"I don't care what kind of issues you had before, but since you are now a member of the Shen family, we have the responsibility to protect you. No matter whether it is the Ye family or the Jiang family, if they dare to bully you, the Shen family will not sit by."

"But the premise is that I hope you can stay. As a public relations manager, or something else. If you stay in the Shen family, you can put all your abilities to use here."

Jason directly expressed his thoughts.

22:40

He was confident enough to say this.

Not all the families in the capital could control everything.

If the Shen family was just in business, they would not have the confidence to do so.

However, with the help of the Chans, there weren't many people who could fight against them.

"Are you trying to bribe me?" Yennie asked.

"No, I'm sincerely inviting you." Jason corrected her.

"Just because I helped you with that issue?" Yennie said calmly.

"Uh, it's not..."

Jason was very depressed. It seemed that Yennie cared more about this matter than he did, just because he only lasted two minutes. This was too hurtful to his self-esteem.

"I did it willingly last night. Don't think too much."

Yennie glanced at Jason with her beautiful eyes and said seriously.

"Why?" Jason blurted out.

"I like it."

Yennie paused and said, "If you need help in the future, you can come to me at any time. I can help you with my hands."

Under Jason's surprised gaze, Yennie smiled again and said, "Don't look at me like that. I am almost 27 years old. I have been educated in the western style since I was a child. I'm not as conservative as you think, but not as open either. I just think that I have the responsibility to help you because you're in this state because of me."

"Don't you want to?" Looking at Jason's stunned face, Yennie's beautiful eyes flickered and she asked in confusion.

After hearing Yennie's words, Jason's expression became a little strange.

He knew that Yennie deliberately changed the topic and did not want to answer his previous question.

It was understandable, sometimes going straight to the point might be good, but not now.

At the very least, he had to wait until Teddy appeared.

"But, I'm not the only one who becomes like this when I see you right..."

Jason glanced at her and wanted to say something but stopped on second thought.

"What are you thinking?"

Yennie's beautiful eyes were filled with anger. She rolled her eyes at Jason and said, "Maybe it's because you're still a child. Don't let me think too much about this. When I satisfy my curiosity, I can feel a kind of release as well. In short, don't think too much. Once we cross the line, it will lose its initial pleasure. What do you think?"

Release?

Jason nodded, not fully understanding. Then Yennie stood up and looked down at him and said, "I'm not in a good mood now. Let me release it."

22:40

Chapter 194

In the suburbs of Nandu.

A private wine manor covering an area of hundreds of acres.

A Maserati stopped at the gate of the manor.

Walter pushed the door open and got off the car. He swiped at his buzz cut, making his hair look more energetic. Then, he tidied up his clothes so he would look clean. Then, he carefully rang the doorbell at the gate.

Crack!

The door opened, and Walter pushed the door open and walked in.

An old man in a black tunic walked up to him. After making an inviting gesture, he said, "Young Master is waiting for you in the back garden."

"Thank you." Walter said gratefully. He followed the old man to the backyard of the villa.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, it would be hard to imagine that the back garden of the villa was a huge baseball court.

Not only this building, but the back yard of every villa here was a standard baseball court. They could play baseball at any time.

A man, with his back to them, was waving his bat and preparing to hit the ball. He was tall and lean, and his posture made him look like a professional.

"Swoosh!"

The man swung the bat, and the white ball rolled to the feet of the two people.

He missed!

The man turned around and looked over. Walter hurriedly bent down to pick up the ball and ran over. Then he saw the man smiling and saying, "Walter, every time you come here, it affects my performance."

Sweat dripped down from Walter's forehead. He tried to bow down and said with fear, "Master Jiang, it's my fault. I shouldn't have come at this time."

"I asked you to come at this time. If you don't come at this time, when are you going to come?" The man asked with a straight face.

"Yes, yes. Master Jiang asked me to come here immediately..." Walter nodded repeatedly. He didn't even know what was "Yes" or "No".

Teddy laughed, stepped forward and patted Walter's shoulder, and said, "Alright, Walter, I was just kidding with you. What's wrong? Mr. Ye wouldn't be here if there wasn't anything wrong. You said that you had something to discuss with me. What is it?"

"Master Jiang, here's the thing..." Walter glanced at the old butler beside him and hesitated.

"Go on, Uncle Chang is one of us," Teddy said casually, he trusted his old butler very much.

"It's about Miss Jiang," Walter said cautiously. "She got too close to a man. I'm worried..."

"Huh?" The smile on Teddy's face became more brilliant.

"What kind of man is he?"

"A child," Walter said. "He seems like a neighbor of Miss Jiang, and he also lives in the Jade Valley."

"A child?" Teddy laughed. "Mr. Ye, do you think I should be worried... that Miss Jiang, would like a child?"

"No, not worried. Master Jiang shouldn't need to be worried." Walter hurriedly explained. "I just feel... that this person is a little different from others. Maybe Master Jiang should look into him."

"What's so different about him?"

"He's very ordinary."

"..." Teddy looked at Walter in surprise and asked, "What kind of remark is this?"

"Master Jiang, this... This is really what I think. How should I say it? If I were to describe him, I would just say that he's very ordinary. From his looks to his dressing to his aura, even if someone throw him on the street, nobody would notice. But a person like him lives in a villa worth tens of millions, and he looked younger than 20."

22:41

"In that case..." Teddy looked at Walter with a faint smile.

"Why should I pay attention to such an ordinary child?"

"Maybe men don't like him, but women... especially women like Miss Jiang, who have seen much of the world, would probably like this naive little boy, right?" Walter said uncertainly.

Anyway, he didn't like Jason. Although Yennie's attitude toward him never got better, he was her fiance after all. No matter what, he couldn't tolerate Yennie going to Yunnan with such a young boy. Who knew what they had done during this period?

Especially when he thought of Jason's skinny frame on Yennie's mature body... He wanted to smash Jason into pieces and feed him to the dogs.

Teddy looked at Walter thoughtfully and said, "Do you think that Yennie would like such an... ordinary child?"

"It's not impossible. The two of them look very close. I saw it with my own eyes," Walter said.

"Really? Tell me more." Teddy said with great interest.

"Today, I sent some roses to Miss Jiang's house. This child went directly to Miss Jiang and they were in cahoots. The boy even persuaded Miss Jiang to say..."

"If you don't finish your words the next round, you'd better keep the rest of your words forever," Teddy said.

"He persuaded Miss Jiang to say that she's no longer related to the Jiang family. Not now, not in the future." Walter said hurriedly.

"Master Ye, that's right. I hate beating around the bush when it comes to speaking," Teddy said with a smile.

He waved to the housekeeper, who immediately handed him the baseball bat.

Teddy took the bat, tightened his hands, and swung it towards Walter's head.

"Ah!!!"

Caught off guard, Walter covered his face and cried out in pain as he fell to the ground.

Teddy did not intend to let him go just like that. He swung the bat again and hit his face and body.

"Ah! Ah! Ah!"

Walter held his head with both hands and cried out in pain.

Clap!!

The bat slipped out of his hand, and Teddy finally stopped.

He took the white handkerchief handed over by the old butler and he squatted down to look at the wounded Walter.

Teddy reached out to pull him up from the ground and asked with concern, "Master Ye, are you all right?"

"...I'm fine, Master Jiang. I'm fine," Walter said tearfully.

"That's good. I'm a bad-tempered person..." Teddy said apologetically. "However, it's fine if I vent my anger, isn't it?"

22:41

"Yes, yes. I understand... I understand."

"Mr. Ye, you disappointed me. I arranged for you to work in Nandu so you could take care of Yennie. But in the end? Something this big happened and you didn't even tell me?"

"It happened too fast. The two of them just came back from a vacation in Yunnan today. I didn't have time to see Miss Jiang..."

"When did it happen?"

"A few days ago, they went to take a vacation in Yunnan together. They just took the same flight back to Nandu at noon today."

"On vacation?" The smile on Teddy's face froze. "They've known each other for a few days, and Yennie went on a vacation to Yunnan with him?"

"Yes."

Teddy was deep in thought, not saying a word.

After a long time, he suddenly asked, "Mr. Ye, what kind of person do you think I am?"

"A... successful person."

"No, no, no, you're not telling me the truth." Teddy waved his hand, and there was an inexplicable sarcasm on his handsome face. "You all like to call me a 'lunatic' and 'violent psycho' behind my back, right?"

"..."

"Do you think that honest people are afraid of lunatics and violent psychos?"

22:41

"Yes! They're definitely afraid!" Walter said.

"That's good." Teddy nodded with satisfaction. "It seems like I should have a good talk with him. It's just that I don't know... whether the honest man has the capital to save his life or not. Otherwise, it's not fun."

.....

At the No. 5 villa in the Jade Valley.

Yennie and Jason sat close to each other.

Her long black hair was over her shoulders, looking delicate and beautiful. She was wearing a white business shirt and a fitted skirt. Her legs were crossed, wearing heels. She leaned on the sofa lazily, her clear and beautiful eyes were looking at Jason Qin.

"Just one minute." Yennie took out a tissue on the table and carefully wiped her delicate fingers.

Jason looked up at the time and was speechless.

"And, why don't you dare to look at me?" Yennie wiped her fingers, took out a wet towel, and slowly cleaned her palm.

Haha, he only lasted a minute without looking at her.

If he looked at her, he would last at most ten seconds.

Especially, the way that Yennie was dressed today...

Jason sighed secretly and was unable to explain anything.

"I'm going to the company later." Yennie raised her wrist, glanced at her watch, and said, "I can't eat dinner with you. I'll arrange a chef for you.

22:41

"No, I'll go to St. De Hospital. The food there suits my tastebuds. It's a good time for me to take a walk as well." Jason responded.

"Alright, you should really work out. Sit for a bit, I have to change my stockings."

Yennie glared at Jason.

She didn't expect that it would splatter on her legs.

It seemed that she had to keep a safe distance in the future.

Otherwise, it would be a little troublesome to keep changing.

Jason watched her disappear at the stairs and picked up the phone that had been ringing for a long time.

"Jason, are you in the Jade Valley? I happened to pass by here with a few of my classmates. If you have nothing to do at home, can we take a look around your big villa?"

Chapter 195

Roy and the others wanted to come over?

Jason was stunned for a moment.

Then he nodded and said, "Just enter directly from the gate, it's the No. 2 villa. I'll notify the security guards."

Hanging up the phone, Jason waited for a while downstairs.

After Yennie changed her socks and came downstairs, he greeted her and left for his house.

He swept the floor, mopped, tidied up the sofa, and boiled some water.

When Roy's Mercedes-Benz G stopped at the door, Jason had just cleaned up the living room on the first floor.

After Lusa went back to work as a deputy general nurse, she didn't come back much.

Jason didn't like strangers in his home.

He had no choice but to clean it up by himself.

"D*mn it, Jason, you really bought a big villa here. You're so amazing. No wonder you didn't even want to drive the 2 million dollar car. You're not short of money."

As soon as they got out of the car, they were shocked by this independent villa on the hillside.

Private hillside, exclusive garden, and a green path...

22:41

They stood at the entrance and looked around, refusing to go in, as if they had arrived at a holiday park.

And soon, another white Polo drove into the entrance.

"Jenny, you're here too."

Seeing Jenny get off the car, Jason smiled.

Her hair was in pigtails, wearing a JK uniform, stockings, and black leather shoes. Compared to Yennie, Jenny looked much younger.

"Yes, I just got off work from the unit. When I heard John say that he was coming over to your house, I decided to drop by." Jenny smiled. "And my sister as well."

"Sister?" Jason was stunned.

Then, a tall, long-legged woman stepped out from the passenger seat.

The sudden appearance of the woman startled Jason and he couldn't help but take two steps back.

It was not because this woman was ugly, but because she was too tall.

Her body proportions were perfect and her beautiful legs were very slender. Even if she was wearing silver flat shoes, standing in front of Jason, she was at least a head taller than him.

"Hello, we haven't met in a long time." Helen took the initiative to reach out her hand and said with a smile.

22:41

"Er, long time no see." Jason and Helen shook hands. Since they parted at the entrance of the concert last time, they had never seen each other again. Jason didn't know why she was suddenly here.

"Look at my sister's legs, aren't they nice?" Jenny poked Jason and asked.

Jason looked at them obediently and nodded, "They're nice."

"Sister, Jason said that your legs are nice!" Jenny turned her head and said loudly.

"Hahahaha!"

Hearing Jason's answer, everyone laughed out loud.

Even Helen, who was standing in front of him, covered her mouth and smiled.

"Thank you for your compliment, but today, we came in a hurry. I didn't fulfill my end of the bet previously, please don't take it to heart.

Bet?

Jason thought for a moment. Helen had promised him before that if Jason could really bring them to watch Jessica Chan's concert, this long-legged beauty would have to dress up in silk stockings for him.

"Forget it. I was just kidding. You don't have to take it seriously." Jason said casually.

"No, we should keep our word. I'll treat you to dinner next time, and then I can fulfill my promise," Helen said with a smile.

"All right, it's just wearing a pair of stockings. What are we being shy about? But we came to ask you for a favor today. Is it convenient?" Jenny looked at Jason and asked.

"Yes, let's go in and talk."

Jason led them into the villa and let Roy and his friends roam freely.

He sat in the living room with Jenny and Helen and poured tea for them. Then he asked, "What's the matter?"

"Jessica Chan is your sister, isn't she?"

Jenny and Helen looked at each other and went straight to the point.

"Yes, she's my cousin," Jason admitted.

"Sure enough..."

Jenny looked at Jason with an expression that she had known it all along. Then she asked, "Are those media companies also your cousins?"

"I'm not sure about that."

"I don't care much about the entertainment circle. Besides, my cousin is filming outside all year, so we rarely meet. I'm not too sure about these things."

Jason had already guessed the reason why they came here.

It was a pity that he couldn't do them this favor.

Hearing this answer, Jenny's eyes showed a trace of disappointment.

22:41

The entertainment circle at present was too chaotic.

It was like a pool of muddy water.

Given Helen's character, she would not survive.

Several big bosses invited her to dinner, but she refused.

As a result, she didn't even have a chance to appear in advertisements or on magazine covers. Seeing that she had no choice, Jenny had to ask Jason for help.

Looking at the disappointed expressions of the two beautiful women, Jason asked curiously, "What do you do for a living?"

"Well... I shoot some advertisements for stockings, boots, skirts, and skincare products. Sometimes, we film a short endorsement video." Helen thought for a moment and organized her thoughts.

The industry of leg models was a mature career, it required a wide field of connections and high requirements.

For example, the requirements towards the models' legs: their legs and thighs had to be proportionate, the lines had to be beautiful, thin, delicate, no obvious scars, straight legs, strong calves, round thighs, no extra fat on the buttocks.

As a professional leg model, although Helen had a pair of flawless beautiful legs, her arrogance would not let her go far on this path.

"Go to the company's film and television department."

22:41

"I think that the department is managing some entertainment companies. You can give it a shot. Of course, I can't ensure that they'll use you, you'll have to see how the person in charge decides."

Jason thought for a while and said.

"Really?" Helen didn't hold too much hope when she came here. After all, she had said a lot of malicious words to Jason last time, so she had been very nervous.

"Yes, go for an audition tomorrow. I will arrange it tonight," Jason said with a smile.

He was helping Helen because of Jenny.

This girl had a strong personality. Unless she was forced to a dead end, she would definitely not do this.

Jenny and her sister were naturally very happy to receive Jason's help.

As a matter of fact, Helen had indeed been suppressed by the company and had not received any work for almost half a year.

However, she still grits her teeth and said to Jason, "Thank you. I see that you don't have any food prepared yet. Why not let me treat you to dinner tonight at Royal Rolly, will you grant me the pleasure?"

Jason was still worrying about dinner but when he heard that it was Royal Rolly, he immediately waved his hand and said, "Let's go to another place. I'm tired of eating there."

22:41

Helen thought for a moment and said, "Then let's have steak. I know a new western restaurant, it's pretty good. I promise that you will like it!"

At this time, Roy and his friends had finished looking around and wanted to leave.

"We just happened to pass by, but someone else came with a purpose so we won't bother you anymore. You have a good time."

Roy gave Jenny and her sister a meaningful look, patted Jason on the shoulder, and drove away.

At the same time, Jason also squeezed into Jenny's white little Polo and they drove to the destination.

The place they were eating was the Western Crown Restaurant. They mainly served steak and noodles and the taste was almost Michelin level.

In fact, Helen wanted to bring them to a Michelin level restaurant.

After all, Jason not only gave her a job but also a way out of a desperate situation.

However, there were only a thousand yuan in her debit card. After she paid for this dinner, she would really be broke. Even the transport fee to the audition would be a problem.

Because Helen had booked the seats in advance, someone brought them into a private room.

Under the courtesy of Helen and her sister, Jason reluctantly ordered two dishes and handed over the ordering rights to them.

"You girls order. I'm going to the bathroom."

Jason got up and went to the bathroom, only to find that the restaurant was so big but it was a single restroom. There were people inside, and others had to wait.

At this moment, the door of the ladies' room opened and a girl walked out.

Seeing Jason, the girl was stunned. "It's you?"

"Sherry?"

Jason blurted.

Chapter 196

At this time, Sherry no longer looked as young as she did previously.

On the contrary, she was dressed very maturely.

Her hair was permed in big waves and she was in a red Chanel dress. There was a deep V collar with one button left open, unintentionally revealing her cleavage.

She faced Jason with her hands crossed in front of her chest, pressing hard on her cleavage.

"Why are you here? Are your injuries completely healed?"

Jason frowned and looked at Sherry. He had been curious where Sherry went after escaping from the hospital that night. He was also worried that she would do something stupid, and even followed Meroy into her neighborhood to try and find out...

But he didn't expect that the two of them would meet here.

Moreover, Sherry seemed to be in a better condition than before.

"Why are you here?"

Sherry didn't answer Jason's question. Instead, she gave him a cautious look and asked him.

"Oh, I'm having dinner with my friends here. But why didn't you let us know when you left the hospital, everyone has been concerned about you and were trying to look for you..."

Jason was telling the truth.

Although he did not pay special attention to Sherry's disappearance, both the police and Sherry's friends and classmates had been looking for her.

It was not because he was worried about the medical expenses she owed. The Shen family had paid for her expenses but they were worried that she would do something silly after that terrifying experience.

After all, emotions aside, it was life and death.

However, to Jason's surprise, before he could finish his words, Sherry's calm face suddenly darkened. She looked at him coldly and whispered, "Jason, what nonsense are you blabbering? What hospital? What do you mean you were concerned? Are you sick in the mind? Do I know you, why did you start telling me this as soon as I met you?"

Before Jason could react, something happened to Sherry.

Then, he saw that the bathroom door he was waiting outside, opened and a young man in a suit came out.

He was in a black suit, black leather shoes, and his hair was combed back. The Armani brand was very obviously printed on his shirt, just like the style of a rich second generation.

"What's wrong? Sherry, is this your friend?"

The young man came out, washed his hands, and put his hand on Sherry's shoulder intimately. At the same time, he looked Jason up and down.

22:42

"Nothing. I just met an old classmate who chased me before, he was speaking nonsense as soon as I met him. I'm so annoyed." Sherry said with disgust.

"Really? Just with your looks, you tried to chase Sherry before?" The young man glanced at Jason with disdain.

He wore a short sleeved brandless shirt.

His pants were not branded either.

Even the shoes on his feet were just sandals. How dare he chase Sherry and make trouble here when he's just a loser?

The young man looked at Jason coldly and said, "I'll give you five seconds. Apologize, and then get out of here."

Apologize?

Jason frowned. "Why should I apologize?"

"You made my Sherry unhappy, so you have to apologize to her. Don't think that I didn't hear anything. You even mentioned running away from the hospital. Seeing that Sherry didn't pay attention to you so you started pestering and accusing her of random things? Let me tell you, this restaurant is mine. If you don't apologize, I won't even let you leave the front door. Would you believe that?"

The young man proudly kept jabbing at Jason's body, so strong that he was basically pushing Jason against the counter behind, and water was splashing on him.

22:42

Sherry's new boyfriend turned out to be the owner of this western restaurant?

Jason was really surprised.

After all, the restaurant was located in a good location and occupied a large area. The decoration was very classy and if women like Helen frequented this place, the consumption rate here wouldn't be too low.

This guy was obviously a rich second generation, and he was much richer than people like Sean.

Jason stood up straight and wiped the water off his back. He looked up at Sherry and said, "It seems that it's unnecessary for me to do this. I wish you two happiness. Goodbye."

"Wait a minute!"

Just as Jason turned around and wanted to leave, he felt someone pull his arm, his feet slipped and he fell to the side.

"Jason Qin!"

The moment Jason landed on the ground, Jason didn't expect Sherry to break free from the young man's grip. She immediately ran over and helped him up.

"You, are you okay?"

When Jason clumsily stood up with Sherry's help, he saw her terrified face.

What was she afraid of?

22:42

Jason frowned, withdrew his hand from Sherry's arms and said, "I'm fine."

"It's good as long as you're fine." Sherry's forehead was sweating.

She couldn't imagine what would happen to her new boyfriend if Jason got angry.

Troops, special forces, helicopters...

Even after so many days, these images flashed across her mind from time to time and she had never forgotten them.

However, this scene was seen by the young man. He immediately became angry, grabbing Sherry's arm and pulled her to his side. Then he looked at Jason fiercely and said, "D*mn you loser! How dare you touch my woman? You don't want to live, do you?"

"Forget it, honey. He didn't do it on purpose. Don't argue with him. Let's go eat." Sherry took the young man's hand and persuaded him desperately.

Sherry was pleading for mercy on his behalf?

Jason looked at Sherry in surprise.

Their eyes met.

Fear, regret, jealousy, fear...

At this moment, all kinds of expressions were in Sherry's eyes. Now she only hoped that Jason would leave quickly and not stay here. Otherwise, everything that she had done would be in vain.

22:42

Jason looked at Sherry's eyes, nodded and was about to leave.

But the young man grabbed Jason's neck and his eyes were red. He said, "D*mn it, I asked you to apologize. Didn't you hear me?"

"Eddie Chim! Let go of him!"

Suddenly, Sherry screamed exhaustedly at the door of the bathroom.

She was terrified.

Looking at Jason's cold face, she didn't know how terrible a death Eddie would die if he continued to make trouble like this.

No one could fight against Jason.

She used to look down upon this loser. Unexpectedly, he was a young master of a rich family who had never made a public appearance...

And Eddie actually dared to strangle him like this.

Fear occupied every corner of Sherry's heart at this moment.

She couldn't wait to leave and ignore this situation, but she couldn't do it.

Eddie was also stunned. He turned his head and looked at Sherry incredulously. "D*mn, what are you yelling about? I'm standing up for you. Can't you see that?"

22:42

"I don't need you to stand up for me. He knows a lot of my friends. You are a rich second generation. If you really beat him up here today, he will go back and tattle on me in front of my friends. What kind of person do you want me to be in the future!"

Sherry was anxious but she couldn't think of any other solution, so she had to explain it to Eddie in this way.

"Is that so?"

Eddie gave Sherry a suspicious look, and then turned his eyes to Jason. "Try to approach Sherry outside again and believe it or not, I'll tear your mouth apart."

At the same time, Sherry also looked at Jason pleadingly and said, "What are you looking at here? Get out of here!"

Jason looked at the two of them, speechless. He shook his head, turned around and left.

Until he left the bathroom, he could still hear the couple's disdainful jeers from inside.

"Dear, what's wrong with you? Don't stand on ceremony with such a loser. If you hadn't stopped me just now, I would have hit him so hard that he couldn't even get out of the door. A loser like him dares to go after my woman. He doesn't want to live," Eddie said discontentedly.

"Oh, honey, you said he was a loser. Why do you still bother to argue with a person like him? Aren't you afraid that you will lower your status? I'm afraid that your hands will be dirty."

22:42

Sherry tried her best to act like a spoiled child in Eddie's arms. At the same time, she looked at the door where Jason had disappeared.

Chapter 197

He return to the private room from the bathroom.

The dishes had already been placed on the table.

Considering that the girls weren't too well off and Jason didn't order much, he didn't intend to let them pay.

However, upon learning that the western restaurant was the rich second generation's, he immediately killed that thought.

"Jason, I know of a good gastroenterology hospital in Nandu. If you have nothing to do tomorrow, I'll take you there."

As soon as he entered, he saw Jenny staring suspiciously at him.

"Gastroenterology hospital? What do you mean? Are you unwell?"

Jason sat down in confusion. Jenny looked very healthy, why would she want to go to a gastroenterology hospital?

"You!" Jenny's pretty face turned red, and she said grumpily, "Eat your food, the dishes are almost cold. You stayed in the bathroom for such a long time, who knows what you were doing inside..."

"....."

The three of them chatted while eating. Jason also found out a lot from Helen about the entertainment industry.

22:42

For example, when the leg models were shooting an advertisement, the advertiser usually would go down in person and monitor the models up-close.

The clients would request to buy the items that the models wore during the shooting.

And the models usually sold them.

After all, those items were clothes that the models wore while filming the advertisement.

The models wouldn't take them away after the filming anyway.

And the reason why those bosses did this, was just because they wanted a shortcut to express a certain demand towards the models.

Helen admitted that she had sold some of these items before, but nothing else. After all, advertisements did not pay that well and she had to find some other sources of revenue.

Otherwise, she wouldn't have enough money to maintain her legs in perfect condition.

Jason listened while eating, and asked a few questions out of curiosity from time to time.

"How much do you usually charge for silk stockings and high heels that you've worn?" Jason ate a piece of beef and asked curiously.

22:42

"Er..." Helen was stunned for a moment. She did not expect Jason to be so direct but she still thought about it and said, "The price is not fixed, sometimes it's 3000, sometimes 2000..."

"What do they do with it after they buy it?" Jason asked again.

"To..."

Before Helen could finish her sentence, Jenny threw her chopsticks on the table and looked at Jason with disdain. "Don't you know what you've done yourself, do you need to ask others?"

Jason knew what she was referring to. He gave a dry laugh and did not dare to answer her.

"Why, have you bought these before as well? Were they yours?" Helen looked at her sister in confusion.

Jenny was stunned and said, "Er... nothing much. Let's eat."

After dinner, Jason paid the bill and then the three of them left the restaurant.

The meal cost 1300 yuan in total.

Moreover, when Jason was paying, it seemed that Helen had come over but had left because she didn't have enough money. She seemingly made a very long phone call and Jason guessed that she must be borrowing money from someone.

Looking at the long-legged beauty in front of him, Jason shook his head helplessly.

Every job had its difficulties.

If one didn't experience it personally, it would be very difficult for others to understand.

Jenny drove Jason home first, and then she sent Helen back.

On the way, Helen looked down at her long pale legs and asked in a low voice, "Jenny, do you also think that I shouldn't have taken this path?"

Jenny was driving intently. When she heard her sister speak, she could not help but sigh.

Helen was the daughter of Jenny's eldest uncle.

Their family's conditions were very ordinary. Her Uncle and Aunt were wage workers and did not get paid much. But in order to send their eldest son abroad to study, they had to sacrifice Helen, who could have taken a major in school, and sent her to work instead. At first, she was working as a restaurant server, but because she frequently got harassed by drunken customers, she quit and went to work in a advertising company. Once, because a model did not show up for a stocking advertisement filming, Helen was pushed in as a replacement and there begun her career as a leg model.

Moreover, leg models like her who signed on with a particular company, did not get paid much.

A regular leg model advertisement would earn her 30,000 yuan, of which 15,000 yuan was given to the company, 5000 yuan to her manager. Out of the remaining 10,000 yuan, she had to send 5000 yuan to her brother in France.

22:42

As for the remaining 5000 yuan, in addition to daily expenses and rent, she also had to buy all kinds of imported skin care products for her legs.

If she had not been forced to this point, according to Helen's style, not to mention eating with her clients, she wouldn't even sell the personal items that she used during filming.

Therefore, every time she thought about Helen and her uncle's family, Jenny couldn't help sighing.

However, after thinking for a while, Jenny still said with a smile, "Helen, since you're already on this path and you like it so much, it's very normal to experience these ups and downs. Moreover, didn't Jason already promise you to get that audition at the company tomorrow? Everything will be fine. Don't worry."

Helen nodded, then turned to look at Jenny, who was driving the car, and asked, "Tell me the truth. Are you in that kind of relationship with Jason? Otherwise, with your job and my issues, how would he promise us so quickly? If the price to pay for this is that you have to sacrifice your body, then I think that we should turn back now and clarify this with him. I don't need my job if us as girls have to sacrifice our dignity. Do you understand?"

Jenny was too clear about her sister's character.

She had already guessed that she would say this, and she smiled bitterly. "If I was really in that kind of relationship with him, would you still have to do that audition? Tons of advertisements would already have been arranged for you. Don't worry, it's not like what you think. We're just classmates and friends, it's not as dirty as you think."

"Really?" Helen frowned slightly, then she saw Jenny purse her lips and softly whisper what happened that night. After Jenny drank too much previously, Jason carried her and went to almost all the hotels in Nandu. The staff thought that they were minors and kicked them out. Lastly, they went to a little motel near the school. When she woke up the next day, she found that there was some white stuff on her stockings. She told Helen all of this.

"Er..."

After hearing her out, Helen was silent for five minutes before she raised her head and asked, "You mean, when you were drunk, he first carried you to all kinds of hotels in Nandu, and then sent you to a small motel near the school..."

Jenny nodded and then said fiercely, "I found out the next morning, but he actually ran away so quickly. I had to take a taxi home after I went out before going to school. Fortunately, I didn't run into any acquaintances, otherwise, I would be too ashamed to appear in front of my classmates. Do you know how evil he is? He is a bastard!"

Every time she recalled that day when she woke up in the morning, first it was the warmth from being protected, then the shock when she found out that she had been tainted, Jenny couldn't help blushing. She wanted to kill Jason and chop him into a thousand pieces before she could relieve her hatred.

"Er..."

Helen thought about it for a moment and eventually decided to stop picturing the situation.

After all, the main lead in the situation was her sister.

At the same time, she couldn't help glancing at Jenny's legs while she was driving.

It was straight, slender and pale.

She was wearing a pair of knee-high stockings.

There was a stark contrast between her skin and the stockings.

It was definitely fatally attractive for a man.

What's more, Jenny was also pretty.

She was definitely a little girl who could make countless men go crazy.

But she was already 18 years old.

In the face of such a drunk girl lying in his arms.

Jason could only go that far.

Helen did not know whether he was good at self-control or just a coward.

22:43

Over the years as a leg model, Helen had heard a lot about how some models got drunk and got taken advantage of by the advertiser and the rich second generations.

After that, they just settled it with some money.

Even her close friends had experienced this before.

Therefore, she made up her mind not to drink with clients and to not give them any chance to attack.

"It's no wonder that he made such a request regarding our bet the other day. Does Jason have a leg fetish?" After thinking about it, Helen couldn't help but mutter.

Chapter 198

When Jason got home, he instructed Yennie to handle Helen's matter.

Then he went to take a shower and lay in bed to watch live broadcasts.

Soon, through his watch history, he entered Sherry's broadcast room.

There was a live broadcast going on.

Sherry and Meroy sat side by side in a seemingly luxurious room.

One was wearing a black fitted skirt and the other was wearing a white miniskirt, revealing a lot of skin.

They were both wearing silk stockings.

There was heavy makeup on their face.

They were hand in hand, chatting and interacting with their fans.

Of course, the content of the conversation carried a lot of subtle hints.

"Sure enough, the two of them went missing for so long, they've been getting by with the income from live broadcasts. Looking at the Reward List, they're earning quite a bit..."

22:43

Jason was looking at the Reward List. There were over a hundred people on the list. Every time if a viewer paid 1000 yuan as a reward, he or she would enter the list. The top 30 were those who had given a reward of more than 10,000 yuan.

In other words, in less than a month, they would have earned at least 37,000 yuan.

This was much more profitable than working.

No wonder the students nowadays, regardless of whether they were male or female, all started doing live broadcasting. They were hoping to make a fortune overnight so they could buy a house or a car.

What's more, Sherry deliberately acted like she was very close to Meroy, looking like they were homosexuals. Their arms and other limbs would coincidentally touch, which would cause an uproar in the live broadcast room, and they would receive a lot of gifts.

Jason watched their broadcast for a while. Upon learning that Sherry was living quite well, he wanted to switch off the broadcast and sleep.

However, to his surprise, Sherry, who was chatting with her fans, suddenly opened her eyes wide and said loudly, "Brother Ant is here? Welcome, Brother Ant!"

Jason jumped, and at the same time, the sound of dripping water came into his earphones. It looks like Sherry had given him the right to speak on the broadcast.

22:43

Of course, he would not speak.

She probably did this so more users could see him.

"Brother Ant, you've disappeared for such a long time, and you didn't reply to my private message. I thought you didn't care about me anymore."

Seeing that Brother Ant had no intention of leaving the live broadcast, Sherry immediately starting speaking like a child, acting cute.

"Sherry, who is this Brother Ant? It looks like a brand new user. Besides, he doesn't even have our fans' badge. Why are you so excited? Is it a real friend of yours?"

Meroy looked at Sherry doubtfully, and at the same time, she clicked on the user profile.

"Oh Meroy, you don't know that this Brother Ant is a local rich guy. Previously when I was in the Annual Star PK competition, Simon and other guys on the Reward List gifted me over 100,000 yuan. But this Brother Ant gave me a Treasure Map worth 200,000 yuan! He totally won my heart. But after that, when I added Brother Ant as a friend, he treated me very well. We chatted for a long time and we're now friends. Now that he has graced our live broadcast, it looks like he wants to help us at this year's Annual Star PK. Let's welcome Brother Ant!"

In fact, that night Jason entered the room, hoping to get some knowledge of the live broadcast industry, and had just conveniently gifted Nina 200,000 yuan.

But Sherry's words really made him feel like he was one of those rich men who was watching live broadcasts out of boredom everyday.

He did have 300,000 yuan left in his account, but he didn't want to waste it on these two women. With that time, he might as well just change an ID and reward John who was always lamenting that he didn't have many viewers.

"Little Ant has sent out 10 treasure maps in this live broadcast. Everyone, come watch and get your treasure..."

After sending out a treasure map, Jason clicked and left the broadcast room.

Sherry's way of doing things at the restaurant earlier had touched Jason.

He believed that no matter how significant a change Sherry had experienced, she would have changed and would be different from her old self. She would no longer be full of malice to anyone like before.

And these ten Treasure Maps were just a small gift from him.

After turning off the live broadcast, Jason fell asleep on the bed.

The next morning.

When Jason got up and went downstairs, he saw Lusa in a pink LV suit, carrying a steaming bowl of breakfast, walking into the living room from the kitchen.

22:43

She was dressed in a pink suit with white straps, and she was wearing trousers below, which exposed a little bit of her pale ankle. She had a pair of diamond-encrusted heels on, which added a touch of sexiness to a charming young woman like Lusa.

"I know it was about time for you to get up. I made you some fried dough sticks and soy milk. Come and have a taste."

Lusa smiled brightly. She deliberately put her hair up, leaving only a strand hanging down by her cheek, giving her a graceful aura and also covered the scar on her cheek. It looks like Lusa had put in some work to her looks.

It had been a few days since Jason ate Lusa's handmade breakfast.

After going downstairs, he ate deliciously and was burping on the sofa.

However, looking at Lusa, who was standing by the side with her hands down, Jason asked curiously, "Why are you so free today? Or did you come back in the morning after finishing your work in the hospital?"

"Almost done. I've completely understood some of the hospital's operating rules and regulations. My remaining job is to ensure that the hospital's recruitment is going well, and make sure that the operations are going smoothly." Lusa said with a smile.

But at the same time, she opened her red lips a few times but stopped.

22:43

"Is there anything else?" Jason looked at her curiously. "If you have any issues, you can tell me. You don't have to be so polite."

"Really?" Lusa hesitated.

Jason nodded.

"Can you pretend to be my boyfriend today?"

What?

Jason was stunned.

Pretend to be Lusa's boyfriend?

Jason raised his head and looked at the fascinating nurse in front of him.

"Well... here's what happened. I'm 24 this year. The family has been urging me to find a boyfriend so I can quickly get married. It's troublesome so I told them that I've already found a boyfriend, and will visit them during the New Year. But who knew, my mother actually called my cousins in Nandu and they want to meet my boyfriend today. Otherwise, they'll drag me back to our hometown and get a blind date..."

Lusa explained, but there was an embarrassment in her tone.

After all, this was her family's business. It already took her two sleepless nights to muster up the courage to ask Jason for help.

"Can't you find someone else?" Jason thought for a moment and said, "In the hospital, there are a lot of handsome male doctors. If you see someone that meets your requirements, I will get Byron to instruct him."

He didn't mean to reject Lusa but simply thought that their age gap would look too drastic and that her cousins wouldn't believe her.

"But if I look for someone in the hospital, I am afraid that there will be a lot of rumors in the future, and I have just become the deputy general nurse. I am worried..."

Lusa said hesitantly but looked at Jason's reaction. If Jason didn't agree, there were no other men within her consideration. After Emily returned, she just wanted Jason to pretend to be her boyfriend once. Even if it was only for a while, she would be satisfied.

Jason thought for a moment and nodded in agreement.

After confirming the time and place, Lusa returned to the hospital to work. She would pick Jason up after that.

Halfway through, Jenny called Jason and told him that Helen had passed the audition. The company had arranged a silk stockings advertisement which would be filmed this afternoon and she asked Jason if he had time to go take a look.

Looking at the time, Jason told her that he had something on. If he finished early, he would go over.

As a nerd who had been single for more than ten years, the filming of a silk stockings advertisement was still somewhat attractive to him.

At 11 in the morning.

Lusa came to pick Jason up.

The hospital had given her a red beetle to use temporarily.

The two of them went straight to the restaurant to meet Lusa's cousins.

Chapter 199

At the entrance of the restaurant.

A bright red car stopped at the entrance.

The most expensive version of this car was worth at least 360,000 yuan, the cheapest priced at 320,000 yuan. Although this car was known as a lower class car overseas, but it became wildly popular in the country in recent years, and had become a prime choice for many teens who liked the appearance of racing cars.

But the most striking feature was the two beautiful ladies standing in front of the car.

The older lady looked 27 or 28 years old, beautiful. She was wearing a fitted black skirt, a top that showed off her well endowed chest, black stockings and heels. She had makeup on and looked like a mature office worker.

The younger lady was about 25 or 26 years old. She was tall and was dressed in a sexy miniskirt. Her smooth thighs were exposed and she had a pair of crystal heels on. Her features were more prominent but she looked quite proud.

Of course, they were Lusa's cousins, Belinda Chou and Finley Hu.

At this time, Belinda was frowning and looking at the vehicles going around.

22:43

"They're totally putting on airs, they're not even here yet! Call and rush them." Belinda said impatiently.

"Alright, I'll ask."

As soon as Finley took out the phone from her bag, she saw a red Beetle slowly parking at the entrance of the restaurant, and saw a couple getting off.

"Lusa, why are you so late? We've been waiting for you for more than half a day. What's going on? You don't even have a good concept of time."

As Belinda complained, she walked forward in her heels, but when she saw Jason getting off the passenger seat, she frowned even more tightly.

He was not tall, a little more than 1.7 meters. She was almost as tall as him in her high heels.

He looked very ordinary, slightly better than a passer-by. He was thin, as if he had been malnourished for a long time.

He was neither sunny nor handsome. If one had to use a word to describe him, it would be 'delicate'.

The thing was, Belinda was very familiar with branded clothes. Not a single item of clothing on him was branded, not even a street brand. His clothes and shoes added up to slightly over a thousand yuan, she had never seen a guy worse than him.

There was a flash of disdain in Belinda's eyes.

It seemed that Lusa wasn't getting on very well in Nandu.

22:43

Sure enough, the future as a nurse was bleak, especially compared to the two ladies who worked in office buildings.

Deep down, Belinda was already objecting.

After Lusa got off the car, she took Jason's arm and came to them with a smile. She introduced, "These are my two cousins, Belinda Chou and Finley Hu. This is my boyfriend, Jason Qin."

Jason smiled and nodded. "Hello."

"Hey." Belinda glanced at Jason disdainfully and nodded as a way of greeting.

There was a trace of embarrassment in Lusa's eyes, but Finley's reaction was beyond her expectations.

"It's you?"

Finley looked at Jason, her eyes full of disbelief.

Jason looked at Finley but did not really remember her. He only thought that they had met each other somewhere before, so he nodded and smiled to avoid embarrassment.

"Alright, let's talk after we go in. I've booked us seats, it's in room 502."

Lusa smiled and led them into the restaurant.

These restaurants were not particularly upscale, and mainly focused on home-cooked dishes. But the dishes were delicious and was deeply favored by their customers.

The four of them walked into the restaurant, found their seats and sat down. Then, they called the waiter over to order.

Finley's eyes never looked away from Jason.

Even now, she still couldn't believe her eyes. The little boy in front of her was actually her cousin's boyfriend.

"I ordered four dishes and two soups. They're all the specialty dishes. Is there anything else you want?"

Lusa ordered four dishes and handed the menu to Belinda.

"Just order. What good food can there be in this place? We came here today to meet your boyfriend. You can eat whatever you like."

Looking at the canteen-like environment around her, as well as the items on the menu like steamed fish, sliced beef organs in chili, other varieties of stir fry, Belinda frowned tightly. She did not want to stay too long.

The hand holding the menu stopped in midair. Then Lusa smiled awkwardly and handed the menu to Finley, saying, "Cousin, why don't you have a look?"

"Get your boyfriend to order. Just order what he likes." Finley said with a smile.

"Sister, when did you become so polite? If you don't like it, just say it. I don't know what Lusa is thinking. It's not easy for us to meet, but you arranged for us to eat in such a place, and it's even a family restaurant. Are you trying to disgust us?"

22:44

Seeing that Finley was being nice, and Belinda had been treated as the bad person, her temper flared up and she spoke openly.

"Disgust?"

Lusa was stunned.

This place was her favorite restaurant. Although it looked ordinary, the dishes were really good, and the price was not that cheap either. Four dishes and two soups would cost at least four or five hundred yuan. She also knew that both of her cousins were wage workers, and it wasn't very disgraceful eating at such a place.

Moreover, even Jason didn't say anything. She didn't understand why Belinda would dislike this place so much.

"Forget it, Belinda. I think this place looks pretty good. The dishes smell great. Let's eat here." Finley persuaded.

"Tsk, if you guys like it, you can eat it. I've been in favor of salad and steak recently. I won't touch these." Belinda rolled her eyes at Finley. They had decided on being stern with Lusa, but now Finley had changed her stance altogether, and it was a little embarrassing for Belinda.

Lusa smiled awkwardly, then ordered a few more dishes and handed the menu to the waiter.

"Alright, we've ordered the food, so let's talk about you. What is your job, how many houses do you have in Nandu, what car do you drive, how much do you earn a month and how much savings you have in your account?"

22:44

Belinda glanced at Jason and asked impatiently.

"Er..."

Jason was stunned and then said with a smile, "I am working at the Prosper Group. I'm in sales, and the basic salary with commission is slightly more than 8,000 yuan. I just paid the down payment for a 98 square meter apartment in North Ring. I don't have a car now, but Lusa has one so we're both using it."

On the way here, Jason and Lusa had planned this together.

He couldn't make his conditions too lousy nor too outstanding. So they created a story about the typical white collar worker in Nandu. For Lusa, not to mention Jason, her yearly salary was almost a million yuan, so this was a low profile story.

"8000 yuan a month?" Hearing this, Belinda suddenly looked at Jason disdainfully and said, "Eight thousand yuan is too little. What can you do with that money? I just ordered a bag a few days ago which costs more than 10,000 yuan. Aren't you embarrassed to say that your salary is only 8000 yuan?"

8,000 yuan still wasn't enough?

Jason looked at Lusa, speechless.

Lusa was also confused. She remembered that her cousin's salary was less than 4,000 yuan a month. Why was Jason's monthly salary of 8000 yuan low to her?

"Cousin, did you get promoted recently?" Lusa asked subconsciously.

22:44

"No, I'm still in my original position, but it doesn't matter. I plan to change jobs soon." Belinda said with contempt.

Then, she looked at Jason and asked, "It's not that I'm criticising you, but as a guy, how could you just be earning 8000 yuan every month? Do you know how much a LV or Gucci bag costs? Or La Mer products? How can you afford to be with girls like us? As for the car, I can't believe you're using Lusa's. Can't you just buy one for yourself? Look around and see which guy doesn't own a car. At the very least, you should buy one that costs above 300,000 yuan. Or else, I think you should just break up with my cousin. I don't think she can live well with you."

"I don't think that's true. It's good enough that a guy can earn 8000 yuan a month. You're only earning 3500 yuan a month, aren't you, but you're living well enough." Finley said.

"I am a girl. Earning 3500 yuan a month makes me pretty independent, alright? But he's a guy. How can you compare us? Besides, I don't even need to buy a house or a car in the future. He already paid the down payment now, and it's for such a small house. He doesn't have a car, and he intends to use Lusa's. If I were him, I would be embarrassed."

Chapter 200

Belinda crossed her arms and looked at Jason disdainfully.

To her, it was already outstanding for a lady to be earning over 3000 yuan a month. For a guy, if he didn't own a car and a house and earn more than 10,000 yuan a month, he was a loser, and didn't have the right to be in a relationship.

"Belinda, Jason looks younger than you. At a young age age, earning a salary of 8000 yuan a month and being able to pay a down payment for an apartment in Nandu is already not easy. You should learn from him. You're just lazing around every day. Stop thinking that a fortune or a rich guy will appear out of nowhere." Finley piped up.

What?

Belinda was stunned.

What was going on?

It was not the first time that her cousin was speaking up for this loser. Also, didn't they already plan to embarrass Lusa today? She always talked about how amazing it was to be a nurse, but she got such a loser for a boyfriend.

Why, did she really take him as her cousin-in-law?

"Anyway, he's such a lousy guy, I won't accept him. I believe that my uncle would not approve of this loser as well. Lusa, you better think carefully and then made your decision."

22:44

After Belinda spoke, she angrily crossed her arms in front of her chest and stopped talking.

Jason and Lusa looked at each other.

Lusa had already guessed that since her cousins had gone to work in the city, their personalities had changed, they favored the rich over the poor and would bow down in the face of money.

But she didn't expect that they would be so rude to her 'boyfriend' in front of her. Fortunately, Jason had a good temper. If she had really brought her real boyfriend alone, they would have started fighting.

"You guys sit, I'll go to the bathroom." Jason smiled and stood up to leave.

Then, Finley also hurriedly stood up and said, "I'm going too." Then she hurried after him.

"Sorry, my cousin doesn't know how to behave properly. She was talking nonsense just now. Don't take it to heart."

At the door of the bathroom, Finley said apologetically after Jason came out of the bathroom.

"Do you know me?" Jason Qin looked at her with doubts in his eyes.

"Well, you may have forgotten that you bought two cars from Pualy Automobile. One was a Mercedes G500 and the other was a crystal blue Bentley. I am a saleswoman in the car dealer business. You may not have seen me before, but I recognise you."

Finley Hu was the woman who was introducing the BMW X3 to Sean when Jason and Jenny walked into the car dealer shop.

He bought two cars, and paid for both all at one go!

It was worth nearly eight million!

Their family had always looked down on Lusa, but this ordinary looking rich man, actually became her boyfriend?

After Jason left the car dealer shop that day, someone recognized who he was after a long time. He was the man who had bought the Mercedes Benz G, and had also just paid 5 million yuan for the Bentley.

Everyone was gossiping about his family background, but even the manager did not know any information about him.

Credit card details were confidential as well.

So all kinds of rumors spread.

The rumors ranged from this boy being an illegitimate son of William, or that he was the young master from a family in the Capital City who had been very high profile lately, or even one about him being the son of a high ranking official in Nandu province.

No matter what, Jason's financial ability was undoubtedly high.

While everyone was talking, Finley was the most scared.

She was glad that she didn't listen to Sean, to drive him out of the shop while Jason was eating at the buffet.

22:44

Otherwise, not only would she lose her job, but she would also not be able to stay in Nandu anymore.

However, the most annoying thing was that she missed the chance to serve Jason.

Jason and his female friend had appeared beside Finley. Once she signed off on the receipt after Sean bought the car, she could have been the salesperson to approach them.

But she actually believed in the words of a man who bought a BMW X3, losing a customer who paid in full for a Bentley.

Every time she thought of this, Finley really wanted to slap herself.

But today, Finley didn't expect that she would have the opportunity to meet Jason again. Moreover, Jason was there as Lusa's boyfriend. For some reason, when she saw that her cousin, whom she looked down upon, had found a rich guy like Jason, she was even more annoyed than Belinda. However, Finley felt that Lusa was not aware of Jason's identity. Otherwise, why would they both appear in Lusa's car, and why was there no sight of both cars that Jason purchased?

She speculated that rich second generations like Jason, would pretend to be poor when they were dating. They wanted to see if the girls were there for their money, before they decided to date or not.

22:44

Therefore, Finley felt that she still had a chance.

After all, she was very confident in herself.

Otherwise, she would not have become the top sales dealer in just half a year. Those men who wanted to buy cars, they actually just wanted...

"Oh, it's you. I saw you in the car dealer shop last time. I didn't expect you to be Lusa's cousin. What a coincidence." Jason said with a smile.

Finley's eyes lit up when Jason didn't show any signs of animosity, and even said that it was a coincidence. She hurriedly replied, "Yes, what a coincidence. But when did you and my cousin get together? I remember that the girl who was with you in the car dealer shop was really pretty too..."

After thinking for a while, Finley finally decided to ask him this question.

After all, a rich guy like Jason would not only have one or two women around him. Finley asked this question on purpose to hint to Jason that she was aware of his identity. Jason could hide it from Lusa, but not her.

"Oh, her? She is a good friend of mine, but you seem to have a good relationship with Sean. Are you still single? Or, is Sean your boyfriend?" Jason asked with a smile.

He was not stupid. How could he not see through the purpose of this lady deliberately blocking him at the door of the bathroom?

Finley was in heels, and she seemed taller than Jason.

22:44

She also looked a bit more mature.

Beautiful uniform, stockings, well endowed...

The two of them stood at the door of the bathroom, attracting some attention from people who walked by.

Then, Finley reached out and grabbed Jason's arm, dragged him into the bathroom, and closed the door behind her.

"What are you doing?"

Feeling the warmth of Finley's breath on his face, Jason frowned and asked.

Finley didn't dare to say that she sucked up to Sean, and ignored Jason only because she wanted to settle down with a rich guy quickly in Nandu.

Not only would Finley not say that, but when she saw Jason appear in front of her as Lusa's boyfriend, she had already deleted Sean's contact during the meal.

She even rejected Sean's invitation to go out for a drink today.

Meeting a super rich second generation like Jason, let alone be his girlfriend, even if he didn't break up with Lusa, she would be satisfied to just be his mistress.

She blinked beautifully at Jason and said slowly, "In fact, Sean pestered me. You know it's not easy to be a salesperson. To clinch a deal, we have to face the cold sarcasm and unreasonable requests of our customers. Previously, Sean said that I had to have a meal with him before he would buy a car. I was unwilling at first but after you entered the shop, Sean said that I no longer had to eat with him. As long as I drove you both out of the shop, he would buy a car on the spot. I didn't know you then, and didn't know that you were my cousin's boyfriend. Also, I didn't do as he said. Although I didn't serve you with enthusiasm, I didn't make things difficult for you. I've been regretting it, and I wanted to make it up to you. I hope you understand."

Looking at Finley's burning gaze, Jason asked, "So you just wanted to explain. There's no need to drag me in here, right?"
