

Chapter 709

Henry didn't expect this to happen.

The middle-aged man's body was cut open from the waist, and blood gushed out and fell onto the garbage vehicle that was driving over.

"Henry Zhang of Radiant Island, who recklessly attacked the clan and killed the Zhu family, deserved to be punished!"

"Henry Zhang, a new member of the Recluse Association, broke the rules of Recluse Association. He will be sentenced to prison for three years, and it will be executed immediately!"

"Recluse Association controlled the order and Henry Zhang destroyed the order. He tore down the code of law on his own! He ordered Radiant Island to slaughter the clan in public, so we sentence him to prison for six years. Then, he would be exiled from Radiant Island."

"In total, Henry Zhang is sentenced to prison for nine years. All property of Radiant Island will be under the control of the Recluse Association. When Henry is released from prison, it will be returned to him!"

Four figures, all dressed in red robes, walked towards Henry from four different directions.

Each of these four people gave Henry mountainous pressure.

Henry also understood at this time why the middle-aged man died.

"Henry Zhang, I'm the Punishment Messenger from Recluse Association. Do you admit your guilt?" A man came up to Henry and stared at him. Behind him, a Qi-shaped long sword was floating.

The man reached out and grabbed the Qi-shaped long sword. When his hand touched the hilt, the Qi-shaped long sword was suddenly enlightened in blue colour.

Henry's pupils contracted. Qi could be coloured?! Henry felt a strong threat from this light blue long sword. He had an intuition that even the shield of the Heavenly Lotus couldn't block this Qi sword.

The man held the Qi sword in his hand and pointed it at Henry. "Henry Zhang, do you admit your crime?"

"If one wants to beat a dog, he will easily find a stick!" Henry looked at his surroundings. Now his way of retreat was completely blocked by these four people. "You know very well who destroyed the Zhu family!"

The man holding the sword smiled slightly. "Not everyone is allowed to break the rules of Recluse Association. Since you have confessed, surrender yourself! From now on, we will be in charge of everything on Radiant Island."

Henry sneered in his heart. "What the hell are the rules? These people just want to use Radiant Island."

As for why these people from the Recluse Association were interested in Radiant Island, Henry knew without a doubt. Spiritual Stones!

When Henry attacked the Zhao family last time, he found out that every clan was guarded by the Recluse Association in their active places. How could the Recluse Association not know that the Zhu clan had destroyed the Zhu family this time? They didn't care about this matter, and they were just waiting for him to make a move!

After many battles, Henry became more and more aware of the importance of the Spiritual Stone. Not only did those who had not reached the Qi-controlling Realm need Spiritual Stone to experience the Qi, but the more powerful the master was, the more Spiritual Stone he needed.

"Henry Zhang, surrender!" The member of the Recluse Association slapped Henry with his palm.

Under the opponent's palm, Henry felt that the ways to retreat were blocked, and the Qi in his body was completely suppressed and could not be released at all.

The sense of weakness filled Henry's heart.

In this world, there had never been a lack of powerful experts. It was just that, all along, Henry had come into contact with too little!

Henry put his hand into his pocket, grabbed his old-fashioned cell phone, and pinched it hard. The mobile phone instantly turned into powder in Henry's hand.

Henry's small movement was noticed by the man holding the sword in an instant. He clapped his hand toward Henry's chest and shouted at the same time, "What are you doing?!"

Henry was slapped away for a few meters and fell on the roof of another business building.

Henry only felt a sweetness in his throat and spurted out a mouthful of blood, but he had a smile on his face.

"He's just an ant. I don't care what he does. Let's take the Spiritual Stones first." Another member said. He jumped lightly and then came to Henry and hit Henry on the head with his palm.

Everything went black in front of Henry's eyes. He lost consciousness and fell straight down.

At the moment before he lost his consciousness, there was only one feeling in Henry's heart, humiliation!

These people took him as an ant and beat and scolded him as they liked!

The four people of the Recluse Association didn't look at Henry, who had fainted. The man holding a sword dissipated the Qi sword in his hand.

"What should we do next? If we kill this guy directly, I'm afraid there will be opposition from the higher-ups. After all, he is also a member of the Recluse Association. Although he did not go through the process when he made his move this time, he had his own reasons for doing so."

"It's not impossible to kill him, but the four of us can't do it." The man holding the sword said.

"Do you mean to leave him to the Zhu Clan? I'm afraid it's not appropriate. If this matter is exposed, the four of us won't be able to escape responsibility."

"Yes, and this kid was recruited by the old man. If we go too far, I'm afraid the old man won't give up so easily."

"We have to think of a perfect plan. If we can kill him, only four of us can spread the news. They would have to believe us."

The three people talked for a while. In the end, they turned their eyes to the man with the sword and waited for him to speak.

The man with a sword smiled. "Of course we will not hand him over to the clan. Have you forgotten about the existence of hell?"

When the sword-wielding man said the word "hell", the remaining three people trembled and cried out. Their eyes were filled with terror. One could only imagine how terrifying it was when the three of them got so scared.

The hell that the man with a sword referred to was one of the biggest prisons of the Recluse Association. That place had existed for a long time. No one knew when the prison had been built. From the beginning to the end, the people who entered the prison never came out again. And until today, it had been nearly a hundred years since it was opened. Only the most sinful people would be put into the Hell by the society.

"Are you saying that we're going to take this kid to hell?"

"Of course." The sword-wielding man had a hint of a cruel smile on his lips. "Isn't he known as the King of Hell? Then send him to hell! Let's see how he will survive there!"

"Haha, interesting. He declared war against the Zhu clan in private and unilaterally tore up the agreement. This is also the biggest crime in the past 100 years. It's reasonable to banish him to hell."

"Then let's banish him to the hell first. After that, we'll attack Radiant Island. These ants don't deserve the Spiritual Stones!"

"That's right!"

After a short discussion, they grabbed Henry, jumped off the roof and disappeared.

At the moment, there was no living thing in the Zhu family manor except for the corpses all over the ground. Even the birds were affected by the soaring blood vigour and did not dare to stay there.

More than a dozen Qi-controlling Realm experts of the Zhu clan had all died here, along with hundreds of disciples.

At the gate of the manor, a man, with a gloomy face, walked into the manor and looked at the scene in front of him. He gritted his teeth and said, "Radiant Island! So what if Master Lu's descendant is here? I want all of you to sink under the deep sea!"

Chapter 710

This time, Henry went to the Zhu clan, but unlike before, he came here in a big way. People with a little bit of power knew who did this.

In Africa, far away from China, there was a desert called "A road of no return" by the locals. It was a dead end. It was said that the people who entered there never came out alive.

In the legends of Africa, it was an evil soul that even wizards could not subdue.

This desert was known as Sosasmo desert.

Sosasmo desert was turned into an uninhabited area a long time ago. Even birds didn't dare to step on this desert.

A plane flew in the sky above the desert.

The cabin door opened, and four figures in red robes walked out of the plane, standing in the air and looking down.

"The entrance of hell is here, right?"

"I think so."

The man grasped the air and held a light blue long sword. He said slowly, "I am Barry Zhu, the Punishment Oracle of the Recluse Association. The sinner Henry Zhang will be thrown to the 18th floor of the hell, and according to the conviction Henry Zhang will be imprisoned for nine years!"

Barry wielded the long sword in his hand and slashed it straight toward the ground. He was dozens of meters above the ground, but he easily cut a crack in the ground.

Around the crack, sand and dirt constantly flowed toward the crack, but no matter how hard they tried, they could not stop the crack. On the contrary, the cracks appeared and continued to encroach on the surrounding sand and dirt, expanding at a visible speed.

Ten seconds later, a five-meter-wide black pit appeared in the endless desert.

This deep pit, upon a single glance, would cause one's heart to palpitate. It was as though this was a path to a different dimension.

When the four members of the Recluse Association saw this deep pit, their eyes were also filled with fear.

Barry took off the long sword in his hand and waved his hand. Then a big blue hand appeared out of thin air, reached into the cabin, and grabbed out Henry, who was still unconscious.

"Go!"

With a shout, Barry waved his giant hand and threw Henry into the deep pit.

Henry fell into the deep pit at an extremely fast speed.

All of a sudden, a burst of violent laughter came from the deep hole.

"Hahahaha! Hahahaha! A hundred and thirty-seven years! A full hundred and thirty-seven years! The hell has ushered in a new member. The Recluse Association, don't you want to be my guest? We have good wine from the last century!"

The expressions of the four members of the Recluse Association changed.

Barry shouted, "There's no need. It won't be too late for you to drink after you break out of prison!"

After saying that, Barry immediately said to the three people beside him, "Let's go!"

The four quickly drilled into the cabin.

The sound from the deep pit rang out again. "Hahaha! So what if we are in Hell? It's not often for the Recluse Association to come here. Let's just have a drink before you leave!"

Along with this voice, a black hand, which was more than 20 meters long, suddenly formed in the air and grabbed toward the plane.

"Quick! Let's go!" The four members on the plane looked at the large hand behind them, their eyes filled with shock.

The plane squirted out a violent airflow, and at the moment when it was about to be caught by the big hand, it suddenly jumped out.

The four members heaved a huge sigh of relief. In that instant, their backs were drenched in a cold sweat.

"What kind of monster is that?! His Qi can actually break through the cage!"

"At the very least, they are experts in the Demigod Realm. In there, each of them is a monster. The youngest one is 150 years old! For such a long time, they haven't died. They are still cultivating!"

"It seems that Henry Zhang will die without a burial place this time!" Barry looked at the black hand that was gradually dissipating behind him, with a satisfied smile on his face.

"Since that's the case, let's go and take over Radiant Island. According to the information that I have obtained, it is already a place that is filled with Spiritual Qi."

The four members all had a satisfied smile on their faces.

At this time, it had been a whole day since the war with the Zhu clan.

On Radiant Island, the Spiritual Qi seemed to be tangible. Just by breathing there, people would feel the Qi penetrating their body. There were dense figures gathered on the island, and all the Reapers who were scattered all over the world were called back by Peze.

Wade and the Kings of Radiant Island all stood at the edge of the island with grave expressions.

"Something big has happened!" The Great Patriarch said after seeing so many people appearing on the island. Wade and the others all had a strange look on their faces.

Wade looked into the distance. "Something did happen." There were countless battleships around Radiant Island. All of them stuck out their cannons, ready to start a war at any time.

Sea God, holding his blue sailor knife, stood at the outermost edge of the warship, with a dignified look on his face.

"Did something happen to you when you ambushed the Zhu clan?" The Great Patriarch guessed.

"I'm not sure." Wade shook her head. "But now, it's certain that something has happened to Boss."

"Henry!" The patriarch was shocked. He had already known that Henry was the soul of this island. But now, something had happened to Henry.

Future was holding a tablet, and her fingers were continuously tapping on it. She said with a serious face, "The stability system is ready, the power system is ready, energy is sufficient!"

"Okay." Wade nodded, picked up a walkie-talkie and said, "Sea God, open the way for us."

After Wade's voice rang out, countless battleships began to speed towards the other side of the island. That was a place that led to the deeper reaches of the great sea.

Countless warships moved in unison, stirring up huge waves.

"Future, let's go!" Wade shouted again.

"Okay." She nodded and pointed at the tablet.

A violent feeling of shaking came from under everyone's feet, and the entire island trembled at this moment.

"This is..." The patriarch looked at the ground below his feet. Not too far away, the surface of the sea was slowly sinking.

"When the island was established, it had prepared a travel plan." Wade said calmly, "Radiant Island represents too much. The position is too high. Boss never believed that the island was invincible, which is why he came up with the floating island."

"A floating island...." The patriarch murmured.

A large amount of seawater surged up. The patriarch could clearly feel that the ground under his feet was slowly moving toward the depths of the sea.

Countless powerful push-up devices were launching a high-intensity reaction to the sea. A large amount of energy stored on the island was enough for the island to wander on the sea for several years.

Wade, Future and other people looked at the gradually receding sea, with a little more worry in their eyes. They were worried about how Henry was doing at this time.

Henry's mobile phone was a signal transmitter. The moment Henry crushed the mobile phone, he sent a message to Wade and others to carry out the island travel plan.

The power of the Recluse Association was too strong. Even if they had just appeared, Henry had to change the location of the island. He knew that if he really let the Recluse Association reach the island, then the whole Radiant Island would be destroyed!
