

Chapter 1001

“Sir Gotti, please pass this message for me.”

“Even if that person was King, if he doesn’t kneel and apologize to me...”

“I want him to die without a burial place!”

Grey exclaimed, laughing profusely. He approached Mandy and slapped her.

“Is this the so-called people who you said could bring me trouble?”

“I don’t know what kind of man he is, but I’ll make him kneel before me and watch as I toy with you!”

Blood started seeping out of the corner of Mandy’s lips, but her expression remained ice cold.

Seeing what Grey had done, Ryan trembled in fear.

Chapter 1001

Grey Jean was looking to die!

He still dared to hit that fiend's woman!

Ryan could only hurriedly exclaim, "Master Jean, I understand already. Please stop hitting her! I'll retract my words immediately!"

He swiftly crawled away after he was done speaking.

His heart was shrouded in complete fear. If that man knew that his woman was in this state and started to retaliate...

Imagining the consequences, even the previous king of South Light's streets shivered in fear.

Soon, Ryan was kneeling before Harvey. He dared not lie and relayed to Harvey a verbatim account of everything Grey had said.

Harvey and the others froze slightly after hearing everything.

"The Jean family is actually quite arrogant, huh?"

Chapter 1001

Senior Armstrong, it's not that I don't want to show you any respect. Clearly, somebody's looking to die!"

Harvey stood up, his expression as cold as ice.

Oskar sighed. He knew that this day's affair wasn't going to end peacefully.

Unable to persuade Harvey any further, he could only turn around and leave.

Harvey watched Oskar's depressed silhouette. After a brief silence, he said calmly, "Senior, I'll take care of the big picture."

Oskar's body trembled slightly. He turned back around and replied, "In that case, I'll thank you on behalf of the millions of citizens in Country H, Head Coach."

Harvey then looked at Yoel Graham. His tone was calm. "How are you going to deal with this?"

Yoel sighed in his heart and replied quietly, "I'll dispatch everyone in Buckwood Police Station to seal off every road around the Gold Coast. Nobody can go in and out of the place.”

Chapter 1001

What Yoel meant was that he dared not manage what happens next, nor could he handle it.

But this was normal. On one hand, a myth in the military, a living legend. On the other, the ninth family out of the top ten families. Either of them could single-handedly destroy Buckwood if they willed it.

Even if Yoel had the courage of the gods, he dared not simply get involved in this situation.

Harvey waved his hand to signal Yoel to leave, then called Ethan Hunt.

“My wife was kidnapped. Gather our brothers, we’re getting her back.”

“Yes, sir!”

On the other side of the phone, Ethan Hunt was long ready. The thousands of soldiers in the Sword Camp were exuding murderous intent, their expressions severe.

Chapter 1001

‘Who dared touch the head coach’s woman?’

‘This man wants to die!’

...

Soon, an unbelievable sight appeared outside the Gold Coast.

The men from Buckwood Police Station had arrived.

They did not step in Gold Coast, and only sealed off every road possible.

The sight had attracted quite a lot of people’s attention.

Soon, the surrounding bystanders were persuaded off the vicinity, including Chris Leo and the rest. They wanted to see something exciting, but were ultimately made to leave.

They had no other choice but to comply. The higher ups from Buckwood had issued a strict order. Those who refused to leave because of their status had firearms pointed toward their heads; eventually, they had to go.

The road was quickly cleared. A group of soldiers in camp uniforms appeared from the dark of the night and gathered outside of Gold Coast's Manor Nine.

Chapter 1002

Chapter 1002

Guards were scattered outside the manor.

The guards in charge of guarding the front door felt that something was wrong.

Quite a lot of people normally go in and out of the area, but it was now suddenly dead silent.

Then, they spotted Ryan's appearance.

A few men followed behind Ryan.

"Please go back, Senior Gotti. Master Jean just gave the order. He said you're a fart in the wind and you have no right to see him anymore!"

Before Ryan left, Grey sent someone to investigate.

He found out that the streets of South Light had changed entirely in the past few days.

Ryan was only an ordinary old man, no longer king of the streets.

Chapter 1002

How could a man such as him be worthy of meeting Grey?

Grey thought that he already paid Ryan enough respect by not beating the old man up.

The guards shot Ryan looks of disdain.

How could an old man with no authority show off in front of Master Jean?

Was he courting death?

Ryan was perplexed. He guessed what had happened and said, "It's not that I want to enter."

"It's that these men want in."

After Ryan finished speaking, the guards' attention landed on Harvey and the others behind Ryan.

The guards' leader asked coldly, "Who are you? There are already more than eighty people who came here today!"

Chapter 1002

“I don’t care who you are. Get out of here! Our master has no time for you.”

Harvey chuckled.

“What if we insist?”

The leader replied, “You’re asking for a beating from us!”

Tyson Woods walked to the front and pulled out a blade from his waist. He pointed it at the leader’s forehead, demanding coldly, “How about now? Can we go in now?”

The leader’s forehead dripped with cold sweat. He did not think that Tyson Woods would take action! He was unable to react because of how quickly it happened.

“You dare?!”

A dozen guards rushed forward with electric batons unsheathed, glaring at Harvey and his men, ready to engage.

Chapter 1002

However, the leader took a deep breath and calmed down.

“Brother, don’t be rash!”

“Do you know what this place is?! This is the Jean family’s turf!”

“Have you ever thought of the consequences of using arms here?!”

The guards burst into cold laughter.

In the entirety of their careers, this was the first time they saw someone starting a fight in the Jean family’s turf.

These men were provoking the family’s dignity!

They were seeking death!

This was Buckwood, not Mordu.

However, this manor belonged to the Jeans. Hence, they were the ones to set the rules.

Tyson laughed.

Chapter 1002

“So you’re saying we’re not allowed in?”

The leader let out a cold laugh in response.

“Of course. I don’t know who you people are, but even if the first-in-command of South Light came, nobody’s allowed in unless my master says so!”

Ethan Hunt frowned.

“What are we waiting for? Why are we still talking nonsense with these people? Move!”

At Ethan’s command, a sound echoed from the darkness behind him. A row of armored vehicles drove over, and pitch black gun barrels turned to point at the manor’s guards.

The guards, who were extremely arrogant before, froze.

Every single one showed a look of helplessness.

They were powerful and could take down a few people on their own, but to think the enemy had brought over armored vehicles!

Chapter 1003

Chapter 1003

Soldiers in camp uniforms, with swords hanging on their waist, marched out of the armored vehicles. They looked as though they were about to go to war, their eyes as sharp as a hawk's.

A simple gaze from them could scare away everyone.

Almost a thousand Sword Camp soldiers were hiding in the shadows. Some had already sealed off Manor Nine's backdoor, while some retreated hundreds of miles away to monitor the situation from afar.

Every step was methodical, as if doing this was their natural instinct.

Hundreds of men formed a few rows and started to march forward.

The leader of guards, who had been extremely arrogant, was now dumbfounded.

Chapter 1003

He had a bit of knowledge and realized who these men were.

This was one of Country H's strongest armies, the Sword Camp!

He dared not utter any nonsense anymore. His knees went limp, and he swiftly kneeled to the ground.

Slam, slam, slam!

The other guards immediately followed suit. They threw away their weapons and put their hands behind their back.

'What is this joke?'

'The legendary Sword Camp's here?'

Tyson exclaimed loudly, "You've got guts, Grey Jean! You won't even come out to welcome the Prince?"

"I'll give you three seconds! Come out and kneel, or die!”

“Hah! Who dares to call himself Prince in front of my master?! Even Prince York of South Light is just a piece of filth in front of my master!” After hearing the noise outside, Zack jumped out and shouted.

Grey looked at Zack with admiration.

‘This dog isn’t that bad. He knows what to do, and when. It makes me feel at ease.’

After receiving Grey’s affirmation, Zack laughed coldly.

“Master Jean, I’ll break the legs of that man who just spoke! Then I’ll make him kneel and apologize in front of you!”

As he spoke, he waved his hand and a dozen guards rushed outside.

But when they had gotten out the front door and arrived at the courtyard, they immediately froze.

A soldier wearing a grim and cold expression stood before them.

Chapter 1003

“This...”

Zack was somewhat knowledgeable, but he was still dumbfounded by the sight.

He thought that there were at most a few fighters or bodyguards.

However, at seeing an actual soldier, he was unable to react.

The guard that followed him wanted to talk, but he was immediately put down without the strength to even struggle.

In front of the Kings of Arms from Sword Camp, what use did these so-called strong bodyguards have?

Zack was taken down soon after, and the guards in the courtyard were all cleared as well.

Harvey and his men entered swiftly indoors.

The guards in the manor who had no knowledge of the situation wanted to help.

But at the sight of everything, they almost passed out.

In under a minute, the guards were all under the soldiers' control. They did not even have the chance to scream.

Harvey nodded at the sight.

“They're all picked out this year? Not bad.”

The soldiers from Sword Camp all stood with their backs straight and their chests puffed up in pride after getting acknowledged by the head coach.

Soldiers who managed to receive the Head Coach's acknowledgement were more admirable than those who had gained military achievements.

Harvey York, Ethan Hunt, and Tyson Woods talked as they made way toward the hall.

Grey was in his seat while Quinn massaged his back.

At that moment, Quinn asked worriedly, “Master

Chapter 1003

Jean, is there something wrong outside?”

Chapter 1004

Grey chuckled coldly.

“Who dares to cause a ruckus in the Jean family’s turf?”

“Even the first-in-command of South Light, Sheldon Xavier has to be respectful coming here!”

“These are rules made by the Jean family!”

“Previously there were some disobedient people, but they all ended up fed to the fishes!”

“Honestly, I did hope someone would come and provoke the Jean family. If not, the trip to Buckwood this time would be uninteresting, wouldn’t it?”

Quinn looked at Grey and felt admiration in her heart.

Chapter 1004

‘This is a true super rich heir! A true playboy!’

‘Which so-called rich heir from Buckwood would dare to say something like this?’

Quinn felt like she was falling in love with Grey, regardless of her identity.

In the corner, Mandy was shaking slightly due to the abuse she was forced to endure.

Boom!

Suddenly, the door of the attic hallway was kicked to the ground.

The next moment, a dozen soldiers immediately rushed inside. They swiftly stormed the room and placed it under their arrest.

Everything was too sudden. Grey and Quinn were utterly terrified by the sight.

‘What’s going on here?’

‘Why are there soldiers here?’

Chapter 1004

'Judging by the attire, they look like they're from the Sword Camp!'

"Mandy?!"

Harvey walked in and saw Mandy. His body trembled slightly, and he rushed toward her as quickly as he could.

Mandy was covered in injuries. When she saw Harvey, she said, "It's dangerous here, darling! You can't come here!"

"I'm fine, I'm really fine." Harvey said, trembling, on the verge of tears. He could not care about anything else and lifted Mandy up.

"Are you...are you hurt?"

"Did they do anything to you?"

"No, I'm fine."

Mandy was already weak, but relaxed right as she lay in Harvey's arms. She immediately passed out soon after.

“Doctor! Where’s the doctor?!” Harvey yelled.

Two soldiers wearing long white coats came over swiftly. One of the men gave Mandy a thorough inspection, then quietly said, “She’s only shocked, that’s why she passed out.”

“All of her injuries are external. We’ll give her the best treatment. I guarantee you, there will be no scars when we’re done.”

Harvey nodded, then slowly stood up.

“Take her home. Get a few men to protect her secretly.”

“Yes, sir!”

The two doctors brought over a few nurses from the military, then carried Mandy away with a stretcher.

When she left, Harvey straightened his back.

He didn’t even glance at Grey and the others during the process.

When everything was over, he glared at Grey and quietly said, "Grey Jean, you've got guts."

"You've got guts, alright!"

The soldiers parroted Harvey's line furiously.

Clang, clang, clang!

At that moment, swords were all unsheathed. Cold blades pointed right where Grey stood.

If Harvey gave the order, Grey would be turned into mush.

Grey, an incredibly wealthy heir, was now terrified out of his wits.

Quinn could not even control her bladder. Her whole body was paralyzed to the ground, and she had no power to stand.

Grey was a part of the Jean family, so what hadn't he seen?

Chapter 1004

Yet, the sight in front of him was too much!

‘Isn’t this man Mandy’s live-in husband?’

‘How could he bring so many soldiers from Sword Camp here?’

‘Him!’

‘What is his true identity?!’ 6

Chapter 1005

Chapter 1005

Grey had seen how the world worked, after all.

Despite his whole body sweating, cold sweat drenching his back, he still gritted his teeth and demanded, "You...who are you?!"

"Who am I?"

Harvey York's expression was as cold as ice.

"I'm Mandy's husband. At the same time, I'm the Prince York that you talk so lowly about."

"Didn't you want me to die without a burial place?"

"What?!"

Grey shook to no end when he heard Harvey's words.

'Mandy Zimmer's live-in husband is actually Prince York himself?'

Chapter 1005

'This...this...this, how could this be?'

Quinn finally got back to her senses.

She was sluggish as a forced smile came on her lips.

Now, she finally understood.

Why only Mandy was acknowledged by Sky Corporation.

Why Prince York's target of proposal was a woman that was already married.

Harvey York was Prince York!

Everything he said was true!

However, the Zimmers never believed him!

If the Zimmers knew his actual identity, would they even land in where they were now had they treated Prince York and Mandy Zimmer more nicely?

Would Quinn and Zack be reduced to being someone else's subordinate?

Chapter 1005

At this moment, Quinn regretted her decisions, to the point where she almost coughed up blood.

Grey's face paled. He wanted so badly to get Zack here and slap that idiot to death.

Even though Grey emphasized that the Jean family did not fear anyone...

This was still South Light!

South Light's Prince York was the peak of South Light itself!

If anyone dared to touch Prince York's woman, then the consequences...

Grey was in despair.

He took a deep breath and spoke once more, still shaking, "Prince York, I did not realize that I've offended a great man."

"But I am from the Jean family. I ask you to let me go out of respect for the family."

Chapter 1005

“I’ll openly apologize to your wife soon.”

Harvey nodded.

“Fine, I’ll give you a chance. Grovel and apologize in front of my wife tomorrow.”

Grey’s expression was twisted, but he still gritted his teeth and replied, “Of course! It’s a deal!”

It was an utterly humiliating deal to him, but he had to survive this before anything.

“Another thing. Who was the one that hit my wife?”

“He’ll be using his other hand to eat from now on.”

Harvey glanced at Tyson as he spoke.

Tyson brought over a large cleaver and threw it in front of Grey.

Grey was soaked with sweat, as though he had gone through rain. His face had lost all color.

He had never felt immense fear such as this before.

Chapter 1005

He thought if he gave in, he would be in the clear.

He had never expected that Harvey would want his hand off as well!

“Are you going to do it yourself? Or do you need help?” Harvey asked icily.

Grey was shivering to no end. He had no courage to open his mouth.

He was the young master of the Jean family! He still had a lot of time to bask in and enjoy immense glory and wealth. He did not want to be crippled.

Harvey frowned.

“Hurry up, I need to accompany my wife. I have no time to play with you.”

“Tyson, make one of his men help him.”

The soldiers outside dragged the leader of the guards indoors and threw the man in front of Grey.

Tyson chuckled wordlessly, then shoved the handle of the cleaver into the leader's hand.

The leader was trembling in his boots, too frightened to take any action.

“Tell him to hurry up.” Harvey said impatiently.

Slap!

Tyson slapped the guard leader hard.

“Didn't you hear? The prince told you to hurry!”

Chapter 1006

The security captain didn't dare to go against him.

At that moment, he could only pick up the watermelon knife shakily and said with a trembling voice, "Master, I'm sorry!"

The next thing everyone knew, he exerted force in his watermelon knife, and Grey Jean's right hand was chopped off with the sound of bones cracking.

"Argh!!!"

Grey screamed like a pig who got slaughtered as he rolled onto the ground in pain.

Harvey York commanded with disdain, "Feed the dog with this thing!"

The security captain didn't dare to revolt and then brought the broken hand to the backyard.

Chapter 1006

Not long after, the sound of Grey's wolfdog chewing something and roaring could be heard.

Grey, who was still rolling on the ground, was in despair.

Relentless!

Harvey was simply too relentless!

He's now absolutely hopeless. Even if he found the best doctor in the world later, who could dig out his broken hand from the dog's stomach and stitch the hand back again?

Grey Jean's mind was filled with resentment and hatred, but he didn't dare to show any of it on his face as he looked at Harvey pleasingly.

Meanwhile, Quinn Zimmer was so shocked that she almost fainted. She was already reeking of urine all over her body.

This was the first time she saw Harvey's cruel side. Thinking back on how she insulted Harvey back then, she felt as if she couldn't breathe anymore.

In the end, Grey clenched his teeth and knelt before Harvey. "Prince York, what happened today was all a misunderstanding!"

"It was that guy Zack Zimmer who instigated me to do it!"

"If not, I have nothing against your wife. Why would I do such a thing to her?"

Harvey replied coldly, "Let's not talk about my wife for now first."

"But there's still something else to talk about."

"Huh?!"

Grey was dumbfounded. What else was there?

Harvey's not going to chop off another hand of his, was he?

Harvey asked coldly, "Where are those people who took my wife? Ask them to scram in here."

Almost immediately, a few Grey's underlings were brought in. At this moment, all of them were trembling in fear.

The moment when they saw Harvey, they fell on their knees and banged their foreheads against the ground, non-stop.

“Prince York, this is a misunderstanding!”

“We’re just following orders!”

“It’s that guy Zack Zimmer who ordered us!”

Harvey spoke up with an icy tone, “Cripple them all, then bring that piece of trash in.”

Not long after, those underlings were dragged out of there, and screams could be heard in the backyard.

Zack, whose body already turned jelly, was dragged in by someone and thrown onto the ground like a dead pig.

He now already knew Harvey’s identity. He couldn’t stop shivering in fear.

Chapter 1006

“Harvey, I was too blind for my own sake. It’s all my fault. I beg you to let me go seeing how I’m Mandy’s cousin!”

Zack was actually terrified!

Only God knows Harvey was actually Prince York!

If he knew this early on, he wouldn’t dare to offend Harvey no matter how daring he was.

“Cousin? Aren’t you sorry?”

Harvey’s expression was ice-cold.

Bang!

The next moment, Harvey kicked right at Zack’s head, sending him flying tens of meters away.

Zack was the main culprit behind this matter. If it wasn’t for him, why would Grey seek trouble from Mandy Zimmer?

Not long after, Zack was dragged back into the place.

Chapter 1006

Crack!

Harvey stepped on Zack's wrist. The sound of bones cracking was then heard.

Crack!

Crack! Crack!

With four consequent noises, Harvey broke all of Zack's limbs by stepping hard on them.

Zack couldn't stop screaming in pain, but in the end, he didn't even have the energy to yell or roll on the ground anymore.

He was sprawled on the ground like a dead dog.

Chapter 1007

Chapter 1007

Everyone was shocked.

This was Prince York's true demeanor!

He wouldn't attack unless someone attacked him!

So if he's attacked, he'd certainly make the other pay by hundreds of times worse!

Even Ryan Gotti, who was at the side, felt as if his head was numb.

He now felt that he's super lucky as he only lost his power.

After doing that, Harvey York threw a glance at Grey Jean, who was on the ground, and ordered icily, "Apologize and compensate for whoever you need to in every way."

"Yes, yes, yes, I'll arrange for that immediately!"

Chapter 1007

Grey nodded and bowed.

Harvey continued, "From now onwards, I'll cripple all of you if the Jeans from Mordu dare to enter the South Lights even by half a step!"

"I won't dare, I won't dare!"

Grey, at that moment, lost all of his attitudes as a super-rich heir. All he could beg for what to be let go of by Harvey.

In Buckwood People's Hospital.

Simon Zimmer, Lilian Yates, and Mandy Zimmer were all hospitalized here.

Oskar Armstrong was the one who treated them with his own hands, the healing was fast, and the treatment they received was definitely the best in the hospital.

The early morning on the following day, while the sky was still dark, Grey took the chance and brought people over to the hospital to apologize with their foreheads banging onto the floor. He even gave them the highest compensation possible before scrambling away.

Almost instantly, the whole of Buckwood's upper circle got the news.

Grey seemed to have offended someone he shouldn't have met this time and got cut off one hand before being kicked out of Buckwood.

It was a secret as to the identity of that person who did this.

Buckwood's first-in-command, Yoel Graham, might know something about this, but he still kept his mouth shut, not daring to say anything at all.

In Lilian's ward, she and Simon were lying down next to each other. When she saw Harvey entering, she snorted coldly. "It's all because you're a piece of trash, that's why even I as a mother-in-law got hit by someone!”

“If you’re better than this, do you think the both of us will still be bullied like this?”

Harvey knew that Lilian was helpless this time so he couldn’t say anything to that too.

He didn’t think people would dare to seek trouble at a place like the Garden’s Residence!

But after this event, he specifically requested Tyson Woods to arrange some people to protect them in secret day and night to avoid meeting any nincompoops again.

For the next few days, Mandy was resting for her injuries.

She only let Harvey go over after she’s almost healed fully.

“Tell me, Harvey, who are you? How did you manage to bring over so many people to save me?!”
Mandy was all curious and dumbfounded now.

Although she fainted that day, she thought she saw a few big shots by Harvey's side right before fainting.

Harvey smiled. "Didn't I tell you? I'm Prince York!" 1

Mandy didn't believe it at all. "If you're Prince York, why did Prince York has to propose to me last time? Isn't that extra?"

Harvey turned speechless. What Mandy said made a lot of sense that he couldn't find something to counter her words at all.

After being silent for a while, only Harvey said in a low voice, "Mandy, do you remember my schoolmate who's into investments?"

"Mm? What about it?" Mandy asked.

Harvey sighed and replied, "Actually, I'm still working as his driver. He's rich and has good connections. That day, I simply asked for his help."

Mandy released a sigh of relief. "Looks like your schoolmate is incredible, and he's loyal!"

"Now that you're his driver, do your job properly and don't make others look down on you. Later on, you'll be able to start a business yourself in the future and be a successful man.”

Harvey didn't know whether to laugh or cry as he promised, “Okay, okay, I'll work hard!”

Not long after, the news of Harvey working as a driver for a big shot reached Simon and Lillian's ears.

The Yates family received this news as well.

Chapter 1008

At the Yateses' residence.

Grandma Yates was sitting straight on the sofa as she said with a low voice, "So the matter is clear, I even thought a piece of trash like Harvey York has some extraordinary background!"

"So he's just working as a driver for some big shot!"

"The reason why he could save Mandy this time was because that big shot he worked for helped him."

"Keith, have you found out who's the big shot he's working for?"

Keith Yates furrowed his eyebrows. "I've checked, but some of the resources all point overseas. I'm guessing the big shot he's serving now is a local who came back from overseas to start a business!"

Chapter 1008

“This man probably doesn’t have any foundation or power, but because he’s from overseas, Yoel Graham had to help him as a means to support the policies.”

“In reality, it was Yoel Graham’s order to have Buckwood Police station’s officers surrounded the Gold Coast Villa neighborhood.”

“Although Yoel Graham didn’t say it, almost everyone guessed that he’s the one behind that.”

“So that’s why.” Grandma Yates nodded. “Who would’ve thought that this piece of trash would have such luck actually to get to know that big shot.”

Keith chuckled. “Grandma, if that’s the case, we don’t have to be afraid of this live-in son-in-law at all!”

“He’s just a driver for a big shot. The big shot can help him out once. Do you really think he’ll help Harvey for a second time?”

Chapter 1008

“Favours are bound to be used up!”

“So what are you implying?” Grandma Yates frowned slightly.

Keith said coldly, “The Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort is too worthy, plus the fact that Senior Armstrong is staying there, that price of that place will probably rise by not less than ten times in the future!”

“If we don't take the chance now and snatch Mandy's company for ourselves now, we won't have a better chance than this in the future!”

“After getting Mandy's company, we as the Yates will definitely have the chance to become a top-class family!”

Grandma Yates knitted her eyebrows together. “But the Sky Corporation holds 51% of the stocks of that company...”

Keith snickered. “This is easy. We can find a dummy corporation and transfer all the properties and finance over in secret.”

“The dishes will already turn cold when Sky Corporation realizes this!”

“Plus, Mandy has rejected Prince York’s proposal. I don’t believe the inner circle of the Sky Corp will still care so much about her!”

“The key thing is we might not have a better chance than this if we miss out on the chance this time!”

Grandma Yates thought about it for a while and finally said, “Okay, if that’s so, we’ll carry out this matter following our original plan.”

“You’ll get to control all the sources of the Yates. Remember to be fast, relentless, and accurate!”

Keith stood up and smiled. “Grandma, don’t you worry, I’m the South Light’s third-in-command after all. My connections might be better than Sheldon Xavier!”

“Now everyone is busy preparing for the changing of South Light's defense ceremony. I'll settle this matter now that no one's watching. It will be a covert operation!"

After saying that, Keith and Grandma Yates exchanged looks before bursting into a laugh together.

The Yates had good connections and back support. The only thing they lacked was sufficient assets.

This time, if they would get a hold of Mandy's company for themselves, the Yateses' status will definitely be different from before.

Grandma Yates knew clearly that the Leons of Hong Kong wanted to kill Prince York.

If that's so, the Yates might even be able to stand above South Lights' ceiling if the plan worked well.

Chapter 1009

Chapter 1009

At Purdue Mountain of Mordu!

Purdue Mountain was the most prominent five-star scenic spot in Mordu. Usually, there were a lot of pilgrims who dropped by to pray.

However, there's a restricted area behind Purdue Mountain where ordinary people couldn't enter.

The outsiders knew that it's a big nursing home where only people with statuses high enough deserved to stay in.

But the truth was that this so-called nursing home was a huge manor.

The Jean family of Mordu!

The Jean family, which placed ninth amongst the top ten families of Country H, lived right here.

Chapter 1009

The whole posterior of Purdue Mountain were buildings designed by the mountains and water. Those buildings were designed in courtyard styles, and there were gardens and pavilions everywhere.

Right that moment, in the side hall of the Purdue manor, there's a stretcher on the ground, and the person lying there was none other than Zack Zimmer, whose limbs were all broken.

Meanwhile, Quinn Zimmer was kneeling beside the stretcher with cold sweats all over her body.

There were two rows of chairs on either side of the side hall. Grey Jean held his arm with a twisted expression as he sat on the chair, with his eyes twitching uncontrollably.

However, Grey, who was normally fierce, acted timid like a mouse that met a cat, not daring to make a sound.

After a long while, the sound of footsteps was heard at the side hall's entrance.

Chapter 1009

The next moment, the curtains were opened to either side with an elegant beauty walking inside.

She had a tall physique like a model. Although there was light makeup on her face, it couldn't cover her god-like beauty.

This woman has the beauty of an enchantress. Any man would be spellbound just by looking at her.

But a pervert like Grey didn't dare to look at this woman at all. In fact, he stood up immediately when she entered. He lowered his head while holding in his pain before saying, "Greetings, my young sister."

The woman was named Hannah Jean and was this generation's decision-maker of the Jean family of Mordu.

Although she wasn't the Prince, her status could be said to be on the same level as the Prince.

Hannah casually leaned onto the royal chair as someone helped her by taking off her heels and putting on a scarf for her.

While leaning sideways on the royal chair, Hannah spoke up in a relaxed manner, “I heard that this time when you traveled to South Light, not only did you not invite senior Oskar Armstrong back here, you even lost that dog paw of yours there?”

Grey gritted his teeth, “Little sister, it’s not that I’m incapable as an older brother, but the opponent was simply too strong.”

“Although the Yorks of the South Light are bankrupt, Prince York is really something else.”

Hannah had a mysterious smile on her face as she replied, “That’s true, a man who could create a billion-dollar company from nothing all by himself is indeed something else.

“But, that’s what it is in the eyes of other people.

“Don’t you feel ashamed for saying such a thing for someone who’s born in the Jean family of Mordu?”

Grey was sweating profusely as he said quickly, “

Chapter 1009

Little sister, give me another chance, please give me a second chance. I'll save the Jean family's dignity this time for sure."

Hannah chuckled lightly. "There's no need for that anymore.

"Yesterday, there's news from the family's ancestral land that they lack people there. So, bring those two pieces of garbage along and go there.

"After going to the ancestral land, work hard. Maybe next time when you're out, I'll even have to kneel before you?"

Hearing the word 'ancestral land' made Grey's forehead full of cold sweats.

But the rules of the Jean family were stringent. Grey wasn't allowed to go against any of it.

Almost instantly, the security appeared and dragged Grey and the other two out of there.

It was as if Hannah couldn't hear them yelling. There was a picture in her hand with none other than Harvey York on it.

“Harvey York, Prince York...

“Other than this, what kind of other status are you holding?”

Hannah smiled charmingly.

Chapter 1010

Buckwood.

The news of chief instructor and Oskar Armstrong's appearance at South Light's change of defense ceremony was known to everyone already.

It's heard that even the South Lights' army was excited.

The chief instructor was the legend of the army, the living legend. Countless soldiers wanted to see his true face but failed. Who wouldn't miss an opportunity like this in their lifetime?

With senior Oskar there, the duo's appearance there wouldn't be just as simple as one plus one equals two!

Even Chris Leo was starting to get excited.

"This time, if I get to know the chief instructor, maybe we as the Leos of Hong Kong, will be able to use this chance to step onto the other three top families beneath us!”

Chapter 1010

“And I’ll get to step onto Quinton York till he dies too!”

Keith Yates was all enthusiastic and eager as well. “If I manage to have the chief instructor as my back and support, then it wouldn’t be a dream for me to become the South Lights’ first-in-command anymore!”

Even these two were this excited. There wouldn’t be a need to describe others.

At this point, the invitation card for the change of defense ceremony was pushed to a sky-high price.

Many people were willing to pay millions of dollars just to seize this opportunity to get to know the chief instructor!

It’s definitely a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. There wouldn’t be any more chances like this if they missed it!

At the same time, in the hospital.

Mandy was someone restless.

After three days in the hospital, her body almost recovered completely as she's prepared to go back to work again.

But the situation faced by the company was different again.

Before this, the Silver Nimbus company was a middle-sized one with only a few workers, only more than ten of them, and even the office wasn't big.

But after the project of the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort became famous, Mandy knew her chance was coming. She had to take this chance to expand the company's scope and try to have a few more pieces of land.

This was an opportunity for the Silver Nimbus company to become famous, and she didn't want to miss it.

But to expand the company, she had to recruit more people and find a bigger office block.

Mandy was busy working all by herself.

Harvey knew about this as he chuckled. "My wife, don't overwork yourself like this. You just have to be responsible for the recruitment matter."

"Because that's the most important element of the company, elites are the primary productive forces!"

"I'll help you sort out the matter with the new office block."

"Really?" Mandy was simply delighted. She's really overloaded with work.

It'd be best if Harvey could help.

Harvey chuckled, "That's right. I'll try to have you move into the new office block tomorrow."

"Tomorrow? You're not going to simply find a garage for me, aren't you?" Mandy frowned. She wouldn't want it if that's the case.

Harvey laughed. "Of course not. It has to be the best place if it's for my wife!"

"I assure you! It'll be at the best location!"

Upon hearing this, Mandy Zimmer's face was in disbelief.

She tried to seek information for a while today. It's difficult to find an office block at a good location.

When she finally found one or two office blocks, the owners asked for sky-high prices once they knew Mandy was the CEO of Silver Nimbus company.

Because of this, Mandy was so worried that she forgot to eat. Who knew that Harvey said he could actually solve this problem?

"Nothing will go wrong if you listen to me. Your husband isn't that capable, but how hard can it be to find an office block." Harvey again chuckled.

Looking at his determined expression, Mandy thought about it before nodding.

She always wished for Harvey to become a better person. It would be a good training opportunity to have him find an office block.

Chapter 1011

Chapter 1011

Looking for an office building was neither a big nor too small of a task.

Harvey York did not use Sky Corporation's connections either. Instead, he called Tara Lewis after thinking about it.

“Tara, you are in the real estate business. Please help me find out if there are any unused office buildings in the center of Buckwood City for sale.”

“Huh? What are you looking for?” Tara was curious.

“Isn't Mandy's company very popular recently? She takes this opportunity to expand the business scope and recruit talented people. So, I want to buy an office building for her to use.”

Harvey answered casually.

On the other side of the phone, Tara remained silent for a long time.

Chapter 1011

She regretted it again.

If she did not have acted superior in front of Harvey or had just chased Harvey back then, would she have such a good husband as well?

Tara threw away unrealistic thoughts in her mind after sighing. She then said, "Don't worry, my old classmate. I will surely help you on this."

Tara started making calls after hanging up.

She had to admit that being the sales manager of the Gardens Residence not only enabled her to make a lot of money but also get plenty of connections.

Tara had determined that an office building near Buckwood Tower was vacant through multiple inquiries.

This place was a commercial center, surrounded by office buildings and high-end shopping malls.

None of the companies that operated in this area were ordinary.

It could be said that this place certainly met Harvey's requirements.

After she called Harvey, the two agreed to go to the commercial center together in the afternoon.

When he got to that place, after taking a few glances at the outside, Harvey nodded at Tara and said, "Not bad."

Later, Tara called the boss of the office building.

Soon, the two came to the boss, David Bowie's office.

David was about fifty years old. He had a potbelly, sparse hair, and a pale face. Apparently, he was an incorrigible drunkard and lecher.

However, this old man did not know himself.

His eyes slightly brightened up when Tara walked in.

After all, Tara was the prettiest girl in school.

Chapter 1011

Although she was wearing professional attire today, she could not hide her slim figure and pretty face.

David became a little unbearable as soon as he saw Tara.

Nonetheless, he was more of a discreet character. He did not say anything at the moment. Instead, he showed the two of them around the office building with a smile.

They had to admit that this office building was magnificent.

It was left unused because the rent was too expensive, no one could afford it.

But apart from being a bit more expensive, this place had not other shortcomings.

However, Harvey wanted to buy it, not rent it.

“Both of you, I heard that you wanted to buy this office building. Would you like to come to my office and have a little chat?”

David was smiling, and he seemed a little impatient.

Chapter 1011

He had taken a small blue pill silently just now, and now, he was so excited.

This was the first time he saw such a beautiful woman like Tara.

He had to succeed no matter what today. According to his idea, if he could sleep with her once, he could part with ten years of his life.

Tara smiled, and David said when they arrived at the office, "Both of you also know that this area is the most prosperous commercial center in Buckwood."

"I do have to mention that the office buildings here are costly.

"If you want to buy, I can give you a discount. 777 million dollars!"

Harvey did not feel anything when David said this number, but Tara's expression changed.

Chapter 1012

Chapter 1012

Tara Lewis had already estimated the value of this office building before coming.

If the building were estimated according to the highest price in the industry, it would only cost 310 million dollars.

However, this guy wanted 777 million as soon as he opened his mouth, which was much more expensive than the market value. Ridiculous! It was way overpriced.

Harvey knew that the price was indeed inappropriate after seeing Tara's expression. He smiled at this moment and said, "Sir Bowie, we're businessmen. We value integrity."

"This price is too ridiculous, isn't it?"

Although he was wealthy, he was surely not short of this amount of money.

However, he could not be fooled, right?

David squinted his eyes and said, "If you want to find a cheap office building, there's a lot outside of this area!"

"This location is good, so the price is high. I want to sell it to you at a lower price, but I can't!"

Harvey said, "We really want it. But 777 million dollars for this building is way too overpriced."

On the side, Tara smiled and said, "Sir Bowie, please do me a favor. How about following the market value?"

David looked at Tara carefully for a moment after hearing this. He then smiled and said, "Okay, I can do you a favor. But you have to negotiate with me about the price unhurriedly."

"As for you, your manner isn't good. I'm not interested in negotiating with you."

David again glanced at Harvey in disgust.

Chapter 1012

Tara truly wanted to help Harvey. She nodded when she heard that and said, "Okay, Sir Bowie. I'll talk to you."

David smiled and said, "Okay, please come in, and we can talk."

With that said, David walked into the office.

Just as Harvey was about to follow, David frowned and said, "Didn't I say it? You're rude. Please go out! Otherwise, I won't sell this place to you!"

How could David watch Harvey ruin his good moment?

Tara did not notice it and nodded. "Harvey, please go outside and wait for me.

"Sometimes the business in this industry is really not suitable to be talked about in public. Trust me. I'll help you handle it."

Although Harvey felt that things were not quite right, he did not think that anyone would dare to mess around under his nose.

He then turned and walked out of the office.

David immediately locked the door after Harvey left.

Tara's complexion changed after seeing this scene.

She said, "Sir Bowie, what is this all about?"

David walked over to the sofa and sat down with a smirk on his face. He said, "I'm just afraid that insolent sod would come in and ruin our good time."

Tara frowned and said, "Sir Bowie, let's get back to business."

"Everyone is working in this industry. You should know that your office building is worth 310 million dollars at most. 777 million dollars is too much. You're making it hard for me."

"I really want it. Could you please give me the best price? So that we could work together."

David said meaningfully, "Miss Lewis, since you say

Chapter 1012

310 million dollars, then let's make it 310 million dollars then.

"I can certainly do you a favor. It's also technically helping you."

"Then let me thank you first, Sir Bowie!" Tara let out a sigh of relief. She initially thought that David would continue holding onto the price.

She did not expect him to lower the price.

"Don't thank me first. I gave you a favor and helped you. You should also return me the favor, right?" David said profoundly.

Although Tara had a bad feeling about this, she still said, "Just tell me, Sir Bowie. As long as it's within my ability, I'll go all out."

"Haih, look what you've said. Both of us need to be comfortable with this thing. You don't need to go all out." David answered vaguely and then stood up. 4

“What?”

Tara Lewis was a little confused. She did not understand what he meant by that response.

Looking at her charming appearance, David Bowie could not help it. He laughed and said, “Miss Lewis, don’t you understand what I mean?”

“I have been divorced for several years, and I have not been in a new relationship because I couldn’t find a suitable partner.

“My evenings tend to be lonely now!

“Miss Lewis, please help me solve this problem.”

With that, David opened the door to the inside.

Inside was a room fitted with a bed inside.

“Come on! After that, I will sign a contract with you and sell it to you for 310 million dollars!”

Chapter 1013

David chuckled and said, with an impatient and lustful look.

“Sir Bowie, such a joke isn’t funny at all!” Tara’s face was extremely awful.

She had been wallowing in society for so many years. There were just too many people who wanted to hit on her.

However, those people were gentlemen. They were just looking for a chance to pursue her.

Those people would give up after they were rejected. Everyone was civilized. No one would want to lose their honor for this kind of trivial thing.

Nonetheless, she did not expect that David would be so shameless today. He even made such a request while talking about business.

David probably knew full well that this office building was worth 310 million dollars at most.

He deliberately raised the price to threaten her!

Chapter 1013

David unfastened his belt at this moment and walked closer to Tara step by step. He then said with a smile, “Miss Lewis, everything in this world has a price, including women!

“If you think I insulted you, then it means that the price I gave isn’t high enough.

“How about this? I will personally give you another 777 thousand dollars discount other than the 467 million dollars discount.

“Think about it, how valuable you are! Even the diamonds aren’t as expensive as you!”

Tara kept stepping back until her body was pressed against the wall. She then said coldly, “David, if you said that you had a chance to pursue me, I might still promise you!

“However, I will never agree to such a shameless request!

“Do you think I’m stupid? Don’t you think I can’t tell? You are deliberately raising the price to threaten me!”

David nodded and said with a smile, “Yes, I did it on purpose.

“If you disagree, I promise you would be blacklisted in the real estate industry in Buckwood from now on!

“Let alone buying an office building!

“With my connections, with just a single word from me, you could lose your job. You would be left with nothing!

“Whether you want to agree to my request or the contrary, you better consider it carefully!”

Tara was stunned.

She never thought that David was shameless to such an extent.

He was trying to force her. She had to agree to it.

However, since Tara graduated, although many men were coming after her, she had never been in a relationship before.

Even after meeting Harvey, she had some other thoughts.

At this moment, how would she be willing to let her first time be used in such a place?

Just when Tara was trying to find a way, at this moment, the drug that David took just now worked. He could not help it, and a hungry tiger rushed over.

“Come here and be mine!”

David looked so creepy at that moment.

He believed that no one could do anything to him after he slept with Tara.

He could even use this to coerce Tara and let her be his long-term lover.

As for Harvey, he did not take him seriously.

This was because he had already arranged a few thugs to deal with Harvey.

Chapter 1014

Chapter 1014

David Bowie felt that he had arranged everything properly.

Boom!

At this moment, suddenly, a loud noise came from the office door. The closed door was kicked wide open at this moment.

David, who was inside the office, was taken aback.

Tara was also shocked. She knew that Harvey York was amazing, but she never thought that he was this amazing.

Was this something that humans could do?

At this moment, Harvey had already walked in and came in front of David.

As for the few thugs, they were already lying sprawled on the ground.

Slap!

Harvey slapped David in the face until he was thrown upside down, hitting the wall, and seven teeth were knocked out.

“You! How dare you hit me?! Do you know who I am? Do you know who my benefactor is?”

“You’re dead! I promise that you would end up badly!”

David got used to being arrogant. Although he was slurring at this moment, he still pointed at Harvey and yelled.

Harvey laughed. “It’s been a long time since I heard anyone talk to me like this.

“I would like to see how terrible I will end up.”

“Great! Don’t leave if you have the guts! I’ll call someone now!” David sneered again and again.

He took out his phone the next moment and quickly dialed a number. He then bowed and said, “Brother Sean Bill, it’s me, David! Someone is creating trouble on my turf and even had the gall to hit me! You must come and speak for me!”

Chapter 1014

“Yes, yes, yes. I’ll be waiting for you here!”

David hung up his phone and looked at Harvey coldly after speaking. “You’re dead! My big brother is coming over now!

“I can guarantee you that you will be going out lying face-down today!

After that, David spat out bloody saliva on the ground. He then stared at Tara and said, “And you! B*tch, I give you a favor, but you don’t want it! How dare you pretend to be innocent and pure?

“I’m telling you. I must have fun with you today!”

Tara’s face suddenly turned pale when he said this.

Even though she knew Harvey’s status was high and he was rich...

However, David had now summoned the people from the streets.

In front of those people, big fists are the absolute principle. They would not listen to any of your nonsense.

Tara shuddered at the moment after thinking of how she might end up. Her facial expression was extremely awful.

David sneered after seeing Tara's expression, "What? B*tch, only now you are afraid? I'm warning you..."

Slap!

Harvey had already picked up the ashtray on the table and instantly smashed it on his face before he could finish speaking. ①

"Why is there so much nonsense? Can't you be quiet? Keep quiet." Harvey looked disgusted.

"You!"

David held his bleeding forehead and trembled all over. "You're finished! You're certainly dead today!

Chapter 1014

"Don't leave if you have the guts!"

Harvey said indifferently, "When did I say I was leaving? I'm still waiting for you to sell this place to me."

"Do you still want me to sell this place? What are you daydreaming about?!"

David sneered, again and again, seeing Harvey not leaving.

At this moment, a rush of footsteps came from outside. Dozens of people had arrived at the scene.

A group of thugs quickly entered the office. All of them had tattoos on their bodies and all of them looked sullen.

"Brother Sean Bill, you're here!" David shamelessly rushed over.

Chapter 1015

Soon, a man in embroidered shirt and a cigar in his mouth came in. He said as he walked, "David, you have always treated me with filial respect.

"I'll also keep my word. I'll help you take care of this matter.

"But since I'm here, you aren't going to let me go back empty-handed, right?"

This person was Sean Bill, one of the big bosses of the streets in South light. The nearby area was his territory.

To be blunt, he was also the one who watched over David. At this moment, David hurriedly took out a pile of cash and said, "Brother Sean Bill, since your men are here, their hard work would not be in vain. Please take it. The pleasure is all mine."

Chapter 1015

He handed over the pile of cash while talking.

One of Sean Bill's men took it and nodded at Sean.

Sean then said indifferently, "So David, tell me what's going on?"

David pointed in Harvey's direction and said, "Brother Sean, this is the guy. Not only he ruined my good time, but he also slapped me!"

Sean first glanced at Tara. His eyes then lit up, and he asked, "Is this your good thing?"

David understood the situation instantly. Although he was a bit unwilling at this moment, he still gritted his teeth and said, "Brother Sean, if you like her, you can play with her first. I'll continue after you had enough fun!"

Tara was stunned by this.

She had seen many brazen people.

However, this was the first time she saw someone

Chapter 1015

so shameless as David.

Sean reached out his hand and patted David's face with satisfaction. He then coldly said, "Come here. Go and destroy that kid.

"Little girl, you want to come in by yourself, or do you want me to let someone get you in."

Apparently, Sean and David were the same kinds of people.

'I'm dead!'

Tara's face was pale and was full of despair.

She had made up her mind. She would rather die than be humiliated.

At this moment, Harvey, who had been leaning on the sofa, finally lifted his head and said indifferently, "Sean, if you crawl out this place now, I'll let you go."

The scene instantly became quiet after hearing this.

Those thugs were in disbelief.

Chapter 1015

Brother Sean was a big boss on the streets, and his status was second to none.

Many big families and big companies would also need to show him some respect.

Even the people from Buckwood Police Station had to be respectful when they met Sean.

However, this little brat who came out of nowhere wanted Brother Sean to crawl out of that place?

This guy was seeking his own death. Was he tired of living?!

The first few thugs sneered at the moment. The leading one said, "Little brat, are you out of your mind? I'll break your legs. I'll see if you dare to talk more nonsense!"

This thug rushed in front of Harvey while talking, trying to pull him up by the collar.

But the next moment, Harvey looked cold and kicked him.

Chapter 1015

Pfff!

This thug's figure flew out and hit the wall directly. Then, he let out a scream like a slaughtered pig.

Harvey just casually kicked him and broke his ribs!

This scene shocked everyone in the office.

Although those thugs were all from the streets and got used to seeing life and death...

They still sweated all over when they saw this scene.

How powerful was this kick?

Tara was also shocked beyond belief when she saw this scene. Did Harvey had this in him all along?

“Heh, how dare you touch Brother Sean's men? You're as good as dead!”

David sneered. Harvey was already a dead man in his mind.

Chapter 1016

Chapter 1016

Sean Bill waved his hand at this moment and took a puff of his cigarette. “Interesting. No one has dared to be arrogant in front of me for so many years.

“I will write the two words, Sean Bill, upside down if I don’t personally break your hands and legs.”

Sean walked to the front of the crowd while talking.

David Bowie sneered at Harvey York, “You actually managed to get Brother Sean to ruin you himself. You’re dead!”

Tara Lewis sighed in her heart and unconsciously wanted to stop in front of Harvey.

She felt that everything was over. She might have to die with Harvey today.

Pfff!

Chapter 1016

The next moment, when Sean saw Harvey's face clearly, his knee softened, and he instantly kneeled in front of Harvey.

This scene made everyone dumbfounded.

David was dumbfounded.

Tara was dumbfounded.

All of Sean's men were also dumbfounded.

This scene did not seem realistic at all. It was just like a dream.

The evil and fierce Sean Bill, the big boss from the streets, actually kneeled to Harvey.

The whole place was deathly silent. No one dared to speak.

Harvey looked at Sean with a half-smile and said coldly, "I remember you."

Sean showed an expression that was even worse than crying after hearing Harvey's words.

Chapter 1016

This person, remember him?!

To this day, he still remembered Leon Silva's expression in front of this person.

That was the man known as Prince York!

In the end, he also kneeled before this one.

Moreover, the king of the streets, Ryan Gotti, seemed to have been fired by this person and replaced his men in that position.

Now, he actually provoked this person?!

Sean really hoped that he could be hit by lightning from the sky and died.

It was too horrifying.

David came back to his senses at this moment. He then unconsciously said, "Brother Sean Bill, he's trash, the trash that needs a woman to protect. Why are you kneeling to him?!"

"You, kneel now!"

Chapter 1016

Sean was angry. He got up at this moment and kicked David's legs, sent him flying.

“Everyone kneel now!”

Sean was furious at this moment. His expression was hideous. It seemed that he could not wait to get himself killed.

Those thugs immediately exchanged glances when they saw this scene.

In the next moment, sounds of thudding could be heard. All the thugs knelt.

Everyone began to wonder who was Harvey's identity, which could actually let the famous Sean Bill kneel the moment he saw him.

Tara's gaze changed at this moment.

How mysterious was this man? How powerful was he?

He did not need to do anything. He just sat there.

Chapter 1016

The big boss from the streets did not even have time to hesitate and groveled at him.

“This would be the second time, right?”

Harvey spoke at will.

Sean kneeled on the ground again. His face almost touched the ground. “Yes, this is the second time I appear in front of you.”

Sean was petrified.

Although he was the big boss on the streets, he felt that he was a loser at this moment, and his whole body was trembling.

“Then, how should we solve this matter?” Harvey said calmly.

“Everything, everything will happen as you wish...”

Sean said tremblingly.

“Just leave something behind. But don't dirty the venue that I'm seeking for.” Harvey said indifferently.

Chapter 1016

“Yes, yes, yes!”

After he finished speaking, Sean forcefully grabbed his left index finger, pulled it back, and broke it off soon after.

Chapter 1017

Chapter 1017

“Umm!”

Sean Bill's cold sweat came down his forehead. However, he did not dare to scream or struggle. Instead, he said in a cold sweat, “I will feed my finger to the dogs after I go out later.”

Harvey York, non-committal, watched this scene.

Looking sour, Sean turned around, glared at the other thugs, and said, “All of you break off your finger!”

The next moment, those thugs were trembling, and they did it themselves.

They had no choice. Their Big Brother was being scared like this. If they did not do it, they might not be able to get out later.

Tara Lewis looked at this scene in disbelief. Harvey just said a single sentence, and all those people from the streets broke their fingers.

Chapter 1017

While waiting until everyone was done, Sean kneeled in front of Harvey and said humbly, “Sir, do you have your eyes on this office building?”

Harvey said undeniably, “It’s not bad, but someone raised the price of this place to 777 million dollars and even asked my friend to sleep with him before he could sell it to me.”

“Then you’re saying that...”

“It’s up to you.”

Harvey did not bat an eye.

This place was quite good, but it did not mean that he had to buy it under coercion.

A fierce look appeared on Sean’s face after he heard this. He then stood up and walked to pick up David Bowie. He then slapped David in the face repeatedly.

Slap!

Chapter 1017

David was slapped until blood spattered around. He slurred at this moment and said, "Brother Sean, I didn't mean it."

"I don't care if you mean it or not. Let me ask you. How much do you plan to sell this office building for?" Sean said mercilessly.

David shivered and said, "Brother Sean, my office building is worth 310 million dollars. If you want it, I can give you a ten percent discount..."

"Ten percent discount? I'll decide for you today. Ninety percent discount!" Sean said ruthlessly.

Then under his command, David quickly wrote a contract and sent it to Harvey.

Sean directly kneeled in front of Harvey and said, "Sir, please sign. This place will belong to you from today onward."

Harvey signed casually and said, "So, where should I pay the money?"

"There's no need for that! The price is written for formal procedures only. Take it as a gift from me.”

Chapter 1017

said Sean humbly.

This scene stunned David. He never thought that Sean would not give him any money.

This was the wealth he had worked so hard for half a lifetime.

Sean continued before he could wail, “Sir York, I promise you that from today onward, David could only go to pick up trash under the overpass!”

“Okay, I will let you take care of it.” Harvey picked up the contract and left.

Tara followed Harvey and left, feeling weird with all that happened.

This man was too strong and too handsome.

While waiting until Harvey’s figure disappeared, Sean’s stiff body only relaxed a little. He was covered in a cold sweat and constantly trembling.

David’s face was pale. He said quiveringly, “Brother

Chapter 1017

Sean, tell me, who is that person?

“Even if I die, at least I’d like to know why!”

Sean slapped him again fiercely before he stuttered and said, “What the hell? Do you have the right to ask about that person’s identity?”

“Let me tell you, no one in the entire South Light could afford to provoke that big shot!

“He didn’t kill you today, so you’re lucky!

“Quickly get lost. Don’t taint other people’s places!”

At Silver Nimbus Enterprise, Harvey returned with the contract and was about to report the good news to Mandy Zimmer this time.

However, Mandy’s complexion was extremely awful.

Chapter 1018

Chapter 1018

“What happened?”

Harvey York slightly frowned. Mandy Zimmer rarely showed such an expression.

Mandy said solemnly, “The news that I’m going to expand the company got out. Just now, Grandmother and Uncle called me and said that they would like to buy shares.”

Harvey frowned and said, “Buy shares? How will they invest? Could they even get a hold of that much money?”

Mandy said, “Uncle’s point is that they will give the company a blank note for the time being. They will make up for it when they earn money in the future.”

Harvey was speechless when he heard this.

The Yates family was trying to mug them shamelessly.

Chapter 1018

Mandy's complexion was awful, but she sighed and said, "You go to the Yates family with me. We have to resolve this matter. Otherwise, with Uncle's connections in Buckwood, we might get into serious trouble."

Soon, Harvey and Mandy arrived at the Yates family's residence.

The Yates family specially arranged a banquet to entertain Mandy.

"Mandy, have you thought about what Uncle told you this morning?"

"The Yates family is the first-class family in Buckwood. They are unparalleled in terms of power. As long as you can let the Yates family become a stakeholder in your company, your company will surely soar to the top in Buckwood in the future!"

"Whoever dared to mess around with you, just give me a call. I'll make sure to cow the other party into obedience.”

Keith Yates smiled and gave a piece of meat to Mandy.

“Just like this piece of meat, if you eat yourself, wouldn't it be too big?”

“If you divide it into half and let the Yates family have some, then you wouldn't be too full.”

“Mandy, you're a wise woman. You should understand what Uncle means, right?”

“I'm doing this for your good!”

Keith was in a chatty mood, talking with determination. He had been talking to Mandy with a superior attitude since the beginning.

Tanya Yates on the side also smiled and said, “Mandy, your uncle told you this for your good and your sake!”

“Your Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project is popular right now. Many people are setting their eyes on it!

Chapter 1018

“Without the Yates family as your benefactor, could you retain it on your own?”

Tanya’s husband, Leyton Luv, coughed and said, “Brother, Honey, don’t blame me for being too straightforward.

“Mandy is originally from the Yates family. So, what’s the big deal for her to give up some equity now?

“Without the Yates family, how could she get to where she is today?

“If you don’t let the Yates family buy shares, you’re literally betraying your ancestors!”

Keith, Tanya and Leyton, and others were saying one after another at this moment. Some were pretending to be good, and some were being bad. However, their words only insinuated the same thing.

That was, Mandy alone could not keep the company safe.

Chapter 1018

Now, Mandy must give up part of the company's equity.

Of course, the Yates family were trying to gain valuable things with nothing, and they would not take out a single penny.

Most importantly, they asked for a lot of equity. If Mandy agreed, this meant that the control of the company would ultimately fall into their hands.

Mandy had a lot of experience in the Zimmer family. She understood that there was no affection while talking about this kind of thing, even to relatives.

Thus, she gritted her teeth at this moment, but she would not budge.

Meanwhile, Grandma Yates, who had not spoken a word, cleared her throat and said, "Mandy, Uncle, and Auntie said all these things for your good!

"Moreover, this is not only their thoughts. I'm also having the same thoughts.

Chapter 1018

“Can you give up the equity? Just say a word. I want to know!”

Chapter 1019

Chapter 1019

Mandy Zimmer took a deep breath when she heard this. She said, “Grandmother, although the equity of this company is in my hands and also the CEO, the one in control of the company right now is Sky Corporation.

“So, I actually can’t make the decision!”

Grandma Yates shook her head and said, “This isn’t something you need to worry about!

“As long as you promise Grandmother and let the Yates family buy shares. We don’t need much. Just ten percent will do.

“Then, give up thirty percent of your forty-nine percent equity to us. In this case, the control of the company will be in the Yates family’s hands!

“With the Yates family as your backer, you can develop your company however you want!

Chapter 1019

“In the future, we could even transfer all of the company’s assets without anyone noticing!

“Mandy, in this case, the Yates family will be the next top family in South Light in the future!

“Just do as I say, and you’ll be the great heroin of the Yates family in the future!

“I can discuss with your uncle and let you change your surname to Yates. Then, who else would dare not give you some respect when you walk in Buckwood in the future?”

Grandma Yates looked confident.

The argument was also straightforward.

First, let the Yates family buy a ten percent stake in Silver Nimbus Enterprise.

Second, Mandy had to give up thirty percent of her shares.

Third, think of a way to transfer all the company’s assets.

Chapter 1019

The advantage that Mandy could get by doing this was that she could have the surname Yates.

For the Yates family, this was a show of generosity and a chance for Mandy to make some progress.

Mandy was trembling with anger.

She never thought that the Yates family would be so shameless and made such a request before she came.

Keith coldly said when he saw Mandy's expression, "Mandy, if you disagree, don't blame the Yates family for not coming forward if you have any troubles coming up next!"

That in itself was a threat, the most direct threat!

Mandy trembled with anger but finally left without saying a word.

Harvey hurriedly followed in her footsteps.

The Yates family all showed dissatisfaction when seeing the couple left.

Leyton Luv snorted and said, “Mother, Big Brother, I think Mandy wouldn’t accept our kindness!”

Keith Yates said indifferently, “They are young people. They don’t know where they stand. That’s normal. When they encounter setbacks, then they’ll know how valuable the Yates family is.”

Grandma Yates snorted coldly and said, “After all, we’re a family and blood-related. Let’s give her one day. If she still refuses to agree at this time tomorrow, we, the Yates family, wouldn’t mind teaching her a lesson!”

On the side of the road, Mandy’s face was drenched with tears, crying.

She gritted her teeth and said after seeing Harvey coming out, “Grandmother and Uncle despise me!

“What they are after is my company, the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort!

Chapter 1019

“In their eyes, I, their granddaughter, am nothing but a tool that they could beckon and leave as they want!”

Harvey reached out his hand and caressed Mandy's head. He smiled. “Honey, don't worry. I'm here, I will surely protect you!

“I promise you that they won't dare to mess around.

“Come, let me show you something. Please cheer up!”

Harvey handed over the contract for the previous office building to Mandy after speaking.

“What?! The other party is willing to rent us the office building for free for ten years? And the condition is to sell them the villa next to Senior Armstrong?”

Chapter 1020

Chapter 1020

Mandy Zimmer did not believe it. What a beautiful gift!

This office building could be rented for at least 3.1 million dollars a year. However, the other party did not ask for a single penny and only requested to purchase a villa.

Harvey smiled. This office building was under his name now. He could just give it to Mandy if he wanted to.

Nonetheless, he knew he would undoubtedly scare Mandy if he actually did that.

That was why he found such an excuse.

He also asked Tara Lewis to help him forge this contract.

Harvey smiled at this moment and said, "Mandy, I heard that the boss of this building and Senior Armstrong are good friends. Moreover, he was also wealthy. They are not short of this amount of money at all.”

Chapter 1020

“I think, since the other party is willing to rent the building to us, we should do them a favor and give them the villa. What do you think?”

Mandy looked speechless. She let out a sigh after a moment and said, “These rich people certainly have weird personalities.

“In this case, I’ll listen to you and give the villa to the other party. You are responsible for this matter.”

Harvey nodded and said, “Okay.”

He initially wanted to keep the villa next to Senior Armstrong for his personal use.

Everything was according to plan right now.

“Well, according to the contract, the company can move in tomorrow.” Harvey smiled.

Chapter 1020

Mandy also smiled happily.

Although the affairs with the Yates family made her feel very bad today, her husband solved this complex problem. She thought that she had found her support.

At night, in the bedroom, Mandy's expression changed. After a while, she cautiously went to the study room to get Harvey's bedding and put it next to the bed.

Mandy looked shy after doing this.

She never expected that she could accept Harvey so quickly.

Unexpectedly, when Harvey wanted to go to bed at night, he walked into the study room and was dumbfounded. He then looked around and then took the quilt back to the study room.

This scene made Mandy, who was already set, turn speechless.

“Harvey, you! What are you thinking?!” Mandy unconsciously shouted.

Chapter 1020

Harvey was taken aback. He initially thought it was the part-time cleaner who put it in the wrong place while cleaning the room.

It seemed that it was Mandy's doing.

Harvey was cheeky while thinking of this. He then brought back his bedding and said, "Honey, I understand what you mean. I will come in now!"

Mandy retorted, "Get out!"

She slammed the door of the room shut after speaking. She then leaned against the door, and her heart was thumping very fast.

Outside the door, Harvey was now the next one to be speechless.

He had not thought about this for a long time. He never thought that the relationship between the two of them would advance so rapidly.

However, the problem was he actually missed his chance again.

Chapter 1020

Harvey had an urge to strangle himself as soon as he thought of this!

He wished he had not done it!

The next day.

Mandy ordered the company to move into the new office building early in the morning and even renamed it overnight, Silver Nimbus Building.

Soon, the news had reached the Yates family.

Leyton Luv came to the Yates family early in the morning. His complexion was awful. He said, “Grandma Yates, Big Brother, we’ve got a problem!

“Not only that little b*tch, Mandy didn’t mean to give us equity, but she also relocated the company overnight and moved into a new office building located in the commercial circle of Buckwood!

“It is said that she successively rented it for ten years. Renting that place for ten years would cost millions of dollars! These are all our money!”

Chapter 1020

Leyton showed a sad expression on his face.

In his eyes, Mandy’s money rightfully belongs to them.

Mandy had no right to use it either! 5

Chapter 1021

Chapter 1021

The entire Yates family was bewildered.

As it turned out, they had already checked the assets that Silver Nimbus Enterprise owned through their sources.

They had already discussed beforehand about the cash flow and how they would split the assets and money when they take control of the company.

In the Yates family's eyes, their money was the one being used!

“How dare you?!”

I was plain to see that Grandma Yates was enraged.

“Doesn't that bastard know that Silver Nimbus Enterprise belongs to the Yates family?!”

“Who gave her the guts to use up our money

Chapter 1021

haphazardly?!”

Grandma Yates was utterly outraged. In her eyes, the Silver Nimbus Enterprise belonged to the Yates family.

Mandy Zimmer was only a caretaker for the assets. She was not entitled to spend any of the Yates family's money!

“Where did they move to?” Keith Yates asked while barely keeping his composure.

Leyton Luv then replied, “The new location is right beside Buckwood Tower and the Olden Trade. The office building that had been empty for so many years because of the high rent.”

“What?!”

Keith Yates immediately jumped to his feet after hearing about the place.

“Grandma, we have got to go see. We need to find a way to stop Mandy and get the money back!”

Grandma Yates then calmly replied, “Get a car. I do want to witness who dares to move if I go there myself.”

Chapter 1021

Soon, a business car left the Yates family’s house and swiftly drove toward the direction of the most thriving business district.

The district was the bona fide center of the city, every inch of land was considered valuable as gold.

At the bottom floor of the Silver Nimbus Building, Leyton’s sharp eyes saw Mandy instructing movers to move things.

Present were Lilian Yates, Simon Zimmer, Xynthia Zimmer, and the others. Everyone’s faces were delighted.

The Yates family went over as fast as they could.

Grandma Yates, leading the group, showed a face as cold as ice and coldly asked, “Mandy, what are you doing here?”

Mandy smiled and replied earnestly, “We’re moving the whole workplace! The company’s about to expand its operation. Of course, we'd need a better space.”

Chapter 1021

Grandma Yates banged the crutch in her hand heavily.

“Why didn't you update me about matters this big?”

Mandy's face went pale.

“Grandmother, I'm the CEO of the company. Why would I need to update you about a trivial thing like moving the workplace?”

“Yeah! Why should she?!”

Lilian, Simon, and Xynthia looked at Grandma Yates curiously at that moment, not knowing what the Yates family's true purpose was.

In their eyes, Grandma Yates took too many things that had nothing to do with her into her own hands.

As a result, Grandma Yates' face worsened even though Mandy Zimmer did not reject the Yates family publicly.

But Mandy's behavior at that moment was sufficient proof that she did not care about the Yates family anymore.

The Yates family was a family that cared about their dignity. After all, there was no way they could cause a stir in front of a big crowd like this.

The Yates family left the scene, for the time being, leaving Leyton to do more digging.

Soon, Leyton came back with a mysterious look on his face and said, "Grandma, I think I know what's going on here.

"Turns out Mandy rented the place without paying anything. The boss of the new office space lent her the place for ten whole years for free. His only request was to have a villa in the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort."

Tanya Yates asked while perplexed, "How is this possible? As far as I know, the rent for this place is three million dollars per year. A villa doesn't even cost that much annually. How is that considered as an equivalent exchange?"

Leyton then coldly replied, "I heard that the boss of this place, David Bowie, is a man easily charmed by looks. I'm sure that Mandy already sold herself to strike the deal. If not, how would she get such a sweet deal?"

Chapter 1022

Chapter 1022

“This little bastard, she’s sullyng the Yates family’s dignity!”

“How did a first-rate family like ours even bring up a woman like this?!”

“Clearly this woman dares to fight against us. She thinks that all is well if she finds a wealthy lover.”

The Yates family was infuriated.

Even though the Yates family was one of the first-rated families, they were only supported by Keith Yates’ position of power.

In truth, the Yates family was not financially stable at all. They might not even compare to some ordinary second-rated families.

This time, the Yates family was determined to claim

Chapter 1022

Silver Nimbus Enterprise. The Yates family was excited to use this chance to swiftly climb to the top of the ranks while bathing in glory and riches.

But not only Mandy's obstinacy, but she was also extravagant. In the Yates family's eyes, she was rebellious.

Grandma Yates shuddered in anger, especially, when she thought that she would have the Silver Nimbus Enterprise to herself and turning the Yates family into a top-rated family.

"This is utterly embarrassing for the Yates family! The Yates family will never accept this little bastard! Keith! Come up with another idea for me. I want this little bastard to sleep on the streets!"

Grandma Yates wanted to give a slap across Mandy's face so badly at that moment.

"Grandma, please calm down. Since Mandy is still cooperative, we'll play by her rules!

"Rest assured. I have ways to deal with her with my status in South Light, in Buckwood even. I can make her head spin to no end with just a phone call away!”

After the Yates family had left, people continued to work orderly on Mandy’s side.

She resolved not to let the Yates family take over her company.

She put so much effort for this. After all, there was no way she could give up her work willingly.

However, as for the consequences of declining the Yates family, she had not consciously considered it at all.

But in her eyes, the Yates family was her mother’s family. After all, there was no need to be too heartless.

She already thought about it as well. She’ll just give the villa that the Yates family ordered for free with the completion of the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort.

Chapter 1022

Though her losses would be immense.

Mandy was trying her best to maintain a good relationship with the Yates family.

After looking at Mandy that could finally take a breather in her office after a whole day of working, Harvey York suddenly remembered something.

Mandy did not have a car after arriving at Buckwood. She had been calling cabs all this while.

It was fine before, but now she came to the most thriving business district. Also, she had the status and identity of a CEO of a company. It would look bad if she were to keep calling cabs.

‘She needs to get a car!’

‘And it has to be a good one!’

The next day, Harvey had arrived at the motor city in a new district in Buckwood to prepare a gift for Mandy.

A wide variety of 4S car dealerships were available here. Even the top luxury car brands were present.

Chapter 1022

Harvey was staring at the promotional sign for car brands, a shame that the Rolls Royce 4S car dealership was not open for business yet.

He had no other choice and reluctantly head over to the BMW 4S car dealership.

“Please hold on, mister!”

“What’s going on?”

Harvey was perplexed.

‘Don’t all 4S car dealerships welcome their customers with open doors? Why are they even stopping me out here?’

“Mister, may I ask what you’re doing here?” The store clerk asked coldly.

The store clerks were usually not this harsh, but

Chapter 1022

Harvey was a frugal man. At that moment, the clothes that he wore were stall goods. That was why the store clerks were looking down on him. ①

“Isn't it obvious? I'm visiting a 4S car dealership. Do you think that I'm here to dine or something?!”

Harvey was completely speechless.

Chapter 1023

Chapter 1023

After hearing Harvey York's words, the store clerk asked while showing a face full of ridicule, "I'm afraid we'll have to disappoint you. The restaurant of our dealership is being cleaned today."

"I suggest you turn left from here to head toward the Benz 4S car dealership. Their customer meals aren't bad either!"

The motor city had an unspoken rule. The customers could have a meal in the 4S car dealerships when they would visit in the afternoon.

Because of this unspoken rule, this caused quite a few people prefer to look at cars during lunchtime while having a complimentary meal at the same time.

In actuality, the 4S car dealerships would be willing to serve customers inclined to buy cars.

Chapter 1023

But Harvey York, in front of the store clerks, seemed like he did not have the capacity to buy a car.

The store clerks were extremely annoyed by people who seemed like they did not have the money while still pretending to look for cars and then ask for a customer meal. They immediately looked for an excuse to send him away.

In their eyes, Harvey York was definitely not able to buy a car.

In that case, they could just finish cleaning up and get out early.

Harvey was speechless.

“Rest assured. I’m not here to get a free meal. I have no interest in that sort of thing.”

After his speech, he was ready to walk into the 4S car dealership.

But at this moment, the store clerk that spoke still stopped Harvey and replied, "Mister, I'm terribly sorry, we have an appointment system for our cars. You cannot come in without booking an appointment beforehand."

Chapter 1023

Harvey was utterly speechless after hearing what he said.

'A rundown 4S car dealership is making themselves look all high and mighty as if they were really amazing.'

Right when Harvey York was about to leave, a few men wearing high-end suits walked toward him.

A store clerk's eyes lit up.

"Please come in, gentlemen!"

"We've prepared free lunch for our dear guests. You can have the meal before looking at the cars!"

Soon, the customers were respectfully welcomed in front of Harvey York.

Harvey York was already about to leave and look around at the Benz 4S car dealership.

Chapter 1023

But the store clerk, Rose Dunn, was showing disdain while glaring at Harvey York.

“Do you see that? We’ll only serve guests that are really able to buy cars!

“We’ll never serve people that look like they’re only here for a free meal like you!

“I suggest you beg for food beside the overpass next time. Our 4S car dealership doesn’t welcome people like you!”

Rose was as blunt as she could be. The other store clerks showed faces full of disdain after hearing her words as well.

How could they possibly treat a man that had no money to buy a car with courtesy?

It was already enough respect for him that they did not call on the security to drag him out.

The most important thing was that he still stood outside the dealership entrance. Did he not know that he would ruin the dealership's image? ①

Chapter 1023

Harvey was slightly angry. He did not want to make a big fuss about the situation, but the store clerks kept provoking him.

He then coldly exclaimed while showing his face full of anger, "Get your manager out here now!"

"Hehe, do you think that you're qualified to meet her? She's busy right now!"

Rose laughed coldly.

"What's all that noise about? Don't you know about the rules of this place? How could you just make all this noise at the entrance and ruin the image of the dealership?"

Right now, a woman who looked like she was in her thirties wearing professional attire walked out with prestigious air surrounding her.

"Manager Mills, not only did this man not want to buy a car, he still tried to get a free meal! We stopped him from coming in, but he's still causing a big stir!" Rose exclaimed pointing at Harvey while shouting at him even though she was in the wrong.

Leia Mills' gaze shifted toward Harvey, then asked dumbfoundedly, "Isn't this Sir York?"

Chapter 1024

Harvey York sized up Leia Mills and barely remembered who she was.

Leia Mills was a maid of the York family a few years ago, the ones that were responsible for serving plates and washing toilets.

Despite Harvey being a discreet man back then, he would still visit the Silver Nimbus Courtyard.

Even though the woman did not know who Harvey actually was, she knew that he was one of the Yorks.

Every time that she saw him, she would most likely kneel in front of him.

Who would've thought that she would be the BMW 4S car dealership manager after so many years?

She was doing quite well for herself.

Chapter 1024

“Hm, it’s Leia. Long time no see.”

Harvey smiled.

“But since you’ve already become a manager, you have to manage your subordinates properly. I’m a customer looking to buy a car. Why won’t they let me in?”

Leia let out a snort and replied, “Dear Sir York, I think these people are doing their job just fine!

“Do you think that I don’t follow the news?”

“The York family had already been bankrupt. Also, all of their property was swallowed up by Sky Corporation!

“The young master of the York family himself wore a whole body full of branded items, but now everything that you wear doesn’t even add up to fifteen dollars.

“You don’t even have the money to buy cars, so why should we even serve you? We can get fifty dollars in a fraction of a minute. Our time is precious!”

Chapter 1024

Harvey froze over. He did not expect that she would respond that way.

He was prepared not to make a fuss about the situation because of past relationships.

He then coldly replied, “Who told you that I don’t have money to buy a car?”

“If I want to, I can even buy your whole 4S car dealership down.”

Pfft!

Leia let out her laugh while covering her mouth.

“Come on, Sir York! Stop bluffing up a storm in front of me already!

“Do you really think that I don’t know what happened to the York family?”

“And you, I heard that you’re someone else’s live-in son-in-law now and that your wife's the one taking care of your necessities. If I put it nicely, you're a house-husband. If I put it bluntly, you're just a kept man!

Chapter 1024

“What good is there for a kept man like you to keep pretending? Do you want to buy a BMW with a look like that? Are you even worth it?”

Harvey then replied coldly, “Is this how you treat your customers?”

Leia chuckled coldly.

“You're mistaken. This is how we treat bums like you. If you don't have money, you don't even count as a customer here!

“To tell you the truth, if the York family wasn't bankrupt, I can even kneel and lick the bottom of your boot!

“But you're nothing now. Why should I even bat you an eye?

“Begone! A loser like you shouldn't taint the environment of our upstanding 4S car dealership!”

Chapter 1024

Leia exclaimed loudly.

She felt extremely invigorated. Her whole body was sweltering to no end.

It was an honor that Leia had experience being the York family's maid before the family's fall back then.

But after the York family had gone bankrupt, the experience had turned into a joke.

And Leia was self-proclaimed to live a pretty good life. How refreshing would it be now that she had gotten a chance to trample on her previous master?

The other store clerks then coldly laughed at Harvey.

“Get out of here already, you trash! Stop tainting the dealership!”

“That's right! A bum like you can only buy an electric bike at best!”

“Get out of here! Go as far away as possible!”

Chapter 1024

Harvey coldly glared at Leia, then walked toward the opposite direction of the BMW 4S car dealership.

“Harvey, are you out of your mind? Do you think you can go anywhere you want with the letter B?”

“That’s Bently, not BYD!”

The store clerks of the BMW 4S car dealership all burst out laughing.

‘This filth sure can pretend. He even went to the Bentley 4S car dealership?’

‘Is he even capable?’

Chapter 1025

Chapter 1025

Harvey York went inside the Bentley 4S car dealership without even looking back.

The store clerks in the BMW 4S car dealership saw the sight and could not hold in their laughter.

“Manager, should we head over to see him make a fool out of himself?”

Leia Mills smiled and replied, “No need for that, he’s just a poor loser. What can he even afford?”

“He can’t buy anything from a BYD, let alone a Bentley!”

“He can’t even walk through the entrance!”

After her speech, she walked back inside the dealership while coldly chuckling.

After arriving at the Bentley 4S car dealership, the store clerks at the entrance did not embarrass Harvey.

Chapter 1025

“Mister, are you interested in a specific car? Or would you like me to briefly introduce them to you?”

A store clerk with long legs, Layla Darcie, smiled while walking toward Harvey. She did not seem like she was looking down on him just because he wore simple clothing.

Harvey curiously looked at Layla and asked, “The BMW 4S and your car dealership are right in front of each other. I assume you already know what happened.

“And yet you still welcomed me so enthusiastically. Are you not afraid that I’m only here for a free meal?”

Layla chuckled.

“Mister, if you would like to have a meal, we have them here as well.

Chapter 1025

“As for buying cars, I think that all people that come here are customers since the dealership’s openly doing business.

“No matter if you decide to buy our products or not, I still have an obligation to recommend the products to you as a store clerk.

“Besides, even if you’re not able to buy our cars for now, maybe you’ll be able to afford one after a year. When that happens, you should think about us first!” Layla said while smiling. She had no intention to look down on Harvey as she explained her point patiently.

Harvey smiled, then casually pointed at a car in the showroom and said, “I’ll have this one.”

Layla slightly froze, then asked to reconfirm, “Mister, this is the most high-end Bentley Shammore. The price is about seven hundred and seventy thousand dollars. Are you sure you want this?”

“I do, and I want it now. I’ll feel bad if I don’t buy a car here.”

Harvey smiled, then handed over a Black Card.

Layla took the card and trembled slightly the next moment.

‘This is the legendary Black Card!’

As a Bentley saleswoman, she knew full well about high-end cards like those.

Not only the perk of the card was an unlimited quota, but it could also fulfill any request that the owner of the card had in twenty-four hours.

Layla was slightly exhilarated. She met a legendary local tycoon!

Soon, Harvey was invited to the signing table. Layla then asked the manager of the 4S car dealership to come out.

There was no other choice, the person that could buy a car like this was not an ordinary man. Of course, they would have to treat him respectfully.

Chapter 1025

“Mister, we’ll finish all the procedures as quickly as possible. We’ll guarantee that you’ll pick up your car smoothly. The price of the car with the license plate is eight hundred and ninety thousand dollars. Are you okay with this price?” The manager asked respectfully.

Harvey gestured at Layla, and then answered calmly, “Just swipe the card for nine hundred thousand, anything more, and you can count it toward her business commission.”

“Yes, yes, yes. I’ll do as you ask.”

Even the manager was excited. He was a really big customer.

Ten thousand dollars for a business commission with a wave of his hand, they would be lucky to have a hundred dollars or so for a car.

Layla was quite lucky. She just had gotten the commission of a hundred cars for the sale of just a single car!

Chapter 1025

The manager let Layla talk with Harvey while she was busy doing everything else, even preparing decorations like floral wreaths for the car. Soon, the entrance of the 4S car dealership was decorated nicely.

Because the Bentley was the most high-end dealership in the whole motor city, that was why when news of the eight hundred and ninety thousand Bentley had been sold, and the entire motor city was shaken.

Chapter 1026

At the BMW 4S car dealership.

The general manager, Ronan Andrews, looked at the lively scene in front of the dealership and said with a serious expression, “The Bentley 4S has another tycoon again. The person even bought the limited edition show car immediately. That’s amazing!”

“When will our dealership even get a big customer like this and buy off the 7 Series?”

Ronan was lamenting.

The BMW 1 Series was the top-selling car model in the dealership. The car would cost around fifteen thousand dollars.

The 7 Series that cost a hundred and fifty thousand dollars had been on display for a long while, unsold.

Chapter 1026

If the car was still there, he was afraid that it might even get rusty soon.

Compared to the grand occasion at the Bentley 4S car dealership, Ronan Andrews felt like he was working in a Captiva 4S car dealership.

“Right! Get Leia here. Let’s send some gifts to the big customer and congratulate him for buying his beloved car. This way, maybe the big customer will come to do business with us!”

It was safe to admit that the general manager from the BMW 4S car dealership had keen business acumen.

Soon, Leia Mills then excitedly walked toward him with a bouquet of flowers in her hand.

It would be a dream for her to meet the big customer in the Bentley 4S car dealership.

She had already forgotten about the situation with Harvey York. Why would she still remember about this loser anyway?

Chapter 1026

At this moment, Harvey was invited into the VIP room for tea in the Bentley 4S car dealership.

But he did not ask for a lot of people to serve him. Instead, he requested Layla Darcie to bring over a chessboard. Both of them were having quite a lot of fun playing chess.

At this moment, Leia Mills and Rose Dunn walked in with the general manager, Ronan.

After Leia Mills headed inside and looked all around her, she thought of Harvey suddenly and subconsciously asked, "Where did the bum go? I don't see him anywhere."

Rose chuckled.

"I heard that the customers here get a huge serving of a customer meal. Many people can barely finish one plate. That man must've gone to the back of the kitchen for leftovers!"

After hearing the speculation, Leia then laughed.

Chapter 1026

“You’re probably right. According to my experience, he must be enjoying his meal a lot. He might have even eaten his fill for dinner!”

“Not only these poor people do not buy our upstanding BMWs, but they also don’t show any shame. Only knowing how to take advantage of things!”

At this moment, the general manager, Ronan that was standing in front of them, turned around and quietly exclaimed, “Enough, watch your tongue when we’re at the Bentley 4S car dealership!”

“If we somehow offended the big customer, I’ll show you what happens after!”

After seeing the general manager get angry, Leia and Rose would not dare to utter another word.

In reality, the two already felt slightly uncomfortable after entering the dealership.

There was no other reason. The place was just too high-end for them. A single Bentley could easily cost around one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. They did not even have the right to be a saleswoman there, let alone going there as a customer.

They behaved high and mighty while being in the BMW 4S car dealership, but they felt like servants after coming here.

At this moment, the procedures for picking up the car were all done.

All staff in the Bentley 4S car dealership were all dispatched and respectfully invited Harvey out.

Ronan's eyes lit up. He did not think much about anything and rushed toward Harvey to hand him the flowers.

“Good day, sir!

“I'm the general manager of the BMW 4S car dealership.

“I heard that you bought your beloved car, that's why I'm representing all of the staff in the BMW 4S car dealership to congratulate you!

Chapter 1026

“If you have time, you may take a look over at our place and give us guidance for our work!”

Ronan was full of excitement after his speech.

If the big customer were to nod, he might be filthy rich that day.

But in the end, Harvey was indifferent. 3

Chapter 1027

Chapter 1027

Ronan Andrews was terrified after seeing Harvey York's cold face. He then subconsciously said, "Dear sir, I don't mean anything else other than congratulating you."

"If I offended you in any way, please bear no mind to it!"

Ronan then swiftly bowed and apologized. He suddenly remembered that some big-wigs are pretty demanding. They would not like anyone to just request them like this out of the blue.

He thought that he might have bumped into a big character with a weird personality.

"Hurry! Come here and apologize to this man right now!"

Leia Mills and Rose Dunn hurried forward.

Chapter 1027

But when they looked closer at the so-called big customer, both of their eyes blacked out, almost passing out.

‘Harvey York?!’

‘He was the tycoon that bought the limited edition Bentley!’

‘The man who we thought was poor, Harvey York!’

‘He really came to buy a car!’

The most important thing was that he spent all that money in an instant, a nine hundred thousand car bought immediately without a single thought!

Leia’s eyes only saw darkness in front of her.

Her own general manager would not dare even to let out a fart in front of this man.

And she just kicked out the man from the dealership earlier...

Leia’s body was dripping down with cold sweat. She would not dare to think about what would happen to her next if the general manager found out what happened.

Chapter 1027

At this moment, Ronan realized that something was off.

Harvey's gaze was too cold. He was glaring at the BMW 4S car dealership staff as if they were stinky insects on the ground.

Logically speaking, nobody would have an attitude like that if he were to be congratulated by someone.

Without a second thought, Ronan's sight shifted toward a trusted aide and quietly asked, "What's going on here?"

The trusted aide's recognized Harvey's looks. His face then lost all color. He came toward Ronan and told him what had transpired before.

"What?!"

Ronan almost coughed out blood after hearing what had actually happened.

Chapter 1027

Not only did the big customer come to the BMW 4S car dealership, but Leia also drove him out!

‘This talentless fool!’

In the next moment, Ronan then stood up straight and gave a slap across Leia’s face. He then exclaimed furiously, “Bastard!”

“General Manager Andrews, it wasn’t intentional!”

Slap!

Ronan gritted his teeth while he gave another slap across her face.

“Not only did you chase away a big customer from our dealership, but you’re also pretending to be all high and mighty!

“If I put it bluntly, you two are just saleswomen. Do you really think that you’re better than other people?”

“Bastards!”

Chapter 1027

After scolding them, he then slapped Leia's face a dozen times over, making her face swollen like a pig.

Leia was utterly terrified.

She would not dare to have any feelings of vex.

She was about to kneel.

'Why are you this rich, Sir York? Why are you so discreet about it?'

'Regret!'

'Utter regret!'

'But there's no medicine to cure regret!'

At this moment, the entire staff in the BMW 4S car dealership was glaring at her. They desperately wanted just to beat her to death at that moment.

Because of her, the BMW 4S car dealership might have even offended the entirety of Buckwood's upper social circle.

Chapter 1027

After all, the rich come in groups, they said.

The man in front of her might only need a single word for their dealership to never sell cars ever again!

Without a second thought, everyone rushed in front to give slaps across Leia's face furiously.

Slap slap slap!

Chapter 1028

Chapter 1028

Finally, even Leia Mills' teeth had been slapped out of her mouth.

Ronan Andrews even kicked her to the ground, making her kneel in front of Harvey York.

“Mister, I've already punished this ignorant fool. Now, I only ask for your forgiveness!”

Even Ronan was about to kneel.

He knew more than the others that big-wigs like Harvey could potentially destroy him.

If he were to go bankrupt because of an ignorant fool like Leia, he would rather smash his head repeatedly on a wall instead.

At this moment, Harvey then said calmly, “I'm not accepting your apology. Anyway, don't block my way. I'm sort of in a hurry.”

Chapter 1028

Boom!

Thunder struck in the light of day at this moment. General Manager Ronan Andrews was so scared to the point where he almost peed in his pants.

He swiftly said at the next moment, “Mr. York, I guarantee you that I'll fire Leia and the others and that they'll land on the industry's blacklist!

“Not just BMW, the entire Buckwood motor city wouldn't even recruit them!”

Leia and the others almost passed out again after hearing those words.

Being beaten up and slapped around was nothing.

But they would be finished if they were to be fired, and their names landed on a blacklist as well!

What could they do if they were to lose such a high-paying job?

They would have at least a hundred and fifty thousand dollars per year, and every single one of them had mortgages and car loans under their names.

Chapter 1028

What would they do then?

This was the biggest punishment they could ever have.

At this moment, the general manager of the Bentley 4S car dealership opened his mouth at the perfect time.

“To put it bluntly, we only sell products here. The principle of doing this business is that all customers are kings!

“If you can't follow a simple principle like this and act all high and mighty, you're not even fit to work in this industry!

“A rotten apple spoils the entire basket!”

“That's why I second this!”

“The Porsche second this as well!”

Chapter 1028

“The Benz too!”

Soon, the representatives of the car brands that gathered around had expressed their opinions at that moment.

The sight had made the faces of Leia, and the others turned purple.

Ronan's words before were only a statement for Harvey, which alone might not acknowledge the entire industry.

But now that so many representatives for the car brands had spoken up, this meant that Leia and the others were done for in this industry!

At least in Buckwood, they would not have a chance of survival.

At the next moment, Leia crawled toward Harvey and started groveling.

“Please, Sir York. I'm just ignorant!”

“Please let me go, out of me being your subordinate previously!”

Chapter 1028

Harvey then mocked himself.

“I’m just a tramp. I don’t have the right to speak to you.”

He went to get his car after he was done talking.

But after hearing those words, Leia’s face had lost all color.

She knew that she was finished. There was simply no chance.

Ronan walked forward, kicked Leia on her face, and then scolded her, “We told you to scram! Stop running your mouth already!

“Where’s the security?! Get these filths out of here!”

At the Silver Nimbus Enterprise.

Mandy Zimmer was standing on the side of the road

Chapter 1028

while being speechless.

It was the peak time to get off from work. She was rushing to return home, but it had been a while since she saw a cab.

She had already sold off her Porsche back in Niumhi previously. She started to regret her decision at this moment.

“I should’ve brought the car here. Maybe I should find time to buy another car.”

Mandy let out a sigh.

Right when she was a bit helpless, a BMW 7 Series stopped right beside her all of a sudden.

A young man that looked quite handsome rolled down the car window and smiled.

“Hey sexy, where are you headed? Do you need a ride?”

Chapter 1029

Chapter 1029

“Thanks, but I’ll get my own cab.”

Mandy Zimmer rejected him without even giving it a second thought.

“Sexy, I think you’re mistaken. I’m not some bad guy.

“I saw you come out of the Silver Nimbus Building. I work at the Regency Building right beside yours. I’m the deputy director of the project department for Regency Enterprise, Grant Bright. Perhaps we will have a chance to work together soon!”

He had gotten out of his car in the middle of his speech. It was safe to admit that he was indeed tall and handsome. He seemed very polite and gentle at that moment while he pulled out a name card, with a faint scent of perfume, and presented it to Mandy.

Chapter 1029

Obviously, he came prepared.

He bumped into Mandy in the afternoon coincidentally. He was utterly amazed.

He had waited until evening for a chance to finally get closer to her.

When he got out of his car, he even sent pictures of Mandy Zimmer standing on the side of the road to his pack of scoundrels and announced that he would definitely get this woman that night.

Mandy was overly polite. She could only take the name card and hand over hers at that moment.

After all, both of them were in the same business circle. This was a common courtesy for business people.

Grant's eyes lit up after seeing Mandy's name on the name card.

“So, you're the CEO of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, Mandy Zimmer!

Chapter 1029

“What a coincidence, Regency Enterprise is also a construction company. It seems like we have a lot to discuss in the future!

“Right, I just bought this BMW 7 Series. It costs about a hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

“The most important thing is that nobody’s sat in the passenger’s seat before!

“I think it’ll be most suitable for Mrs. Zimmer to be the first person to sit in it!”

“No need.”

Mandy was being polite.

“I’ll get my own cab in a bit.”

“Sigh, Mrs. Zimmer. What are you afraid of? You think that I’ll bite you later?

“You’re not even willing to get in even if I’m inviting you in nicely. You’re not showing me any respect here!”

Chapter 1029

Grant pretended to be angry.

“How about this, if you’re willing to ride with me, I’ll take you for dinner at The Spinning restaurant on Buckwood Tower as a thank you gesture. How’s that sound?”

Had to admit it, Grant was quite a handsome man, and he had quite a lot of money while being this young.

The most important thing was he knew how to flirt with women.

If it were any women that did not know how to reject people, he might be able to play them in the palms of his hands.

But Mandy Zimmer replied to him earnestly, “No need. I don’t really fancy the food there.”

Grant then gave a faint smile.

“If you don’t like it, we’ll go anywhere you choose!

“Alright, it’s peak hours right now. You won’t be able to find a cab anyway. Just get in!”

Chapter 1029

Grant’s heart had gotten colder at that moment. He only did not show it.

In his eyes, Mandy was only pretending to be cold and heartless.

In the middle of his speech, he reached out to grab Mandy’s arm, thinking that there would be an emotional appeal by playing semi-obsessive tricks like those.

Beep!

At this moment, a loud sound of a horn echoed, startling Grant to the point where he almost jumped.

He subconsciously turned his head and saw a brand new Bentley parked behind him.

Even Mandy subconsciously turned her head around to get a good look.

Everyone there was knowledgeable. They could tell that this was a limited edition Bentley Shammore with a base price of almost nine hundred thousand dollars.

Chapter 1029

Compared to the BMW 7 Series, the Bentley was in a league of its own.

At this moment, the window of the Bentley rolled down and revealed a familiar face for Mandy Zimmer.

Chapter 1030

Chapter 1030

Harvey York did not even bat an eye toward Grant Bright and waved at Mandy Zimmer.

“Darling, hurry inside. Let’s go home.”

Even though Mandy slightly froze for a moment, she immediately snapped back to her senses and got into the car.

When the car’s tail light could be seen, only then Grant came back to his senses.

‘This woman’s husband is this rich?’

‘He can just buy a nine hundred thousand car willy-nilly? The car’s more expensive than my house!’

‘No, I heard that the man is actually a live-in son-in-law. So, that means the car actually belongs to her?’

Chapter 1030

In just seconds, Grant's eyes only showed utmost greed.

He only thought about sleeping with Mandy previously.

But then his thoughts have changed.

Now he wanted to kick Harvey out and replace him.

He believed that with his capabilities and talent, he could get closer to Mandy Zimmer. That woman and the riches that she owned would all be his.

In the car.

Mandy was confused.

The car was just too expensive. It was more high-end in comparison to a Porsche. She had never ridden one of those cars before.

“Harvey, where did you get the car? You should return it quickly before it's due!”

Chapter 1030

Mandy did not think that Harvey could even afford the car.

Harvey smiled and replied, "Darling, I bought this for you.

"You've been quite busy lately and needed transport of your own. I think that the car fits your status well."

"Huh? Really? Where did you get all of this money?"

Mandy was startled.

Harvey answered her vaguely but handed her the roadworthy certificate.

She was shocked to see her name on it.

This nine hundred thousand car was suddenly under her name?

Back home, Simon Zimmer, Lilian Yates, and Xynthia Zimmer had gotten word about the Bentley at the dinner table.

Chapter 1030

Xynthia felt indifferent, then said while chuckling, “Brother-In-Law, since you’ve already bought my sister a car, you should buy me one as well! I want a Ferrari 488!”

Harvey looked at her and replied, “Sure, I’ll buy you that if you can get into a good university.”

“Thank you, Brother-In-Law!”

Xynthia jumped up, then hugged Harvey’s neck and kissed him on the cheek.

Mandy was chuckling after seeing the sight, thinking that it was a good thing that her sister was in good relations with her husband.

But Simon and Lilian’s faces had turned as dark as night.

They did not believe that Harvey could merely give such an expensive car to Mandy.

And seeing that Xynthia having such a good relationship with Harvey, their heads felt like they were split open.

Chapter 1030

What if their youngest daughter was to be hooked up by him?

There was hope for their oldest daughter, but they were still trying to rely on their youngest daughter to enjoy the glory and riches!

Without a second thought, both of them stopped eating their dinner.

Simon then glared at Harvey sternly.

“Harvey, tell me honestly, where did you get this car?!”

Lilian also chimed in with a serious expression.

“Don’t you try to lie to us. If you do, we’ll kick you out of the family!”

Harvey gave it a thought and then decided that it was time for them to know some things.

He then replied in a serious tone, “Mom, Dad. Rest assured, the money to buy the car is clean. I'm the one that earned it as well.

Chapter 1030

"I got the car this afternoon. Look, here is the receipt!"

In the middle of his speech, he produced the receipt in front of Simon and Lilian.

After seeing it, both of them still felt suspicious.

'Nine hundred thousand with just one swipe? Where did Harvey get all this money?'

At this moment, Mandy asked out of the blue, "Harvey, did you get this money from someone else?" 4

Chapter 1031

Chapter 1031

“Huh? What’s going on here?”

Mandy Zimmer explained the situation about someone trading a ten-year lease of an office building for a villa.

“Harvey, didn’t I tell you before that the villa is for free? You didn’t keep his money afterward, did you?” Mandy asked.

“No need to ask. He obviously kept the money. If not, he wouldn’t even have nine hundred dollars in his pocket, let alone nine hundred thousand for a car!”

It seemed like Lilian Yates understood what had transpired.

Lilian wanted to slap Harvey across his face, but she ultimately held it in since Harvey spent the money on Mandy.

Chapter 1031

Mandy let out a sigh and could not help but massage her temple soon after.

The other person might not mind Harvey keeping the money.

But Mandy wanted to return the favor to that person somehow, and it seemed like Harvey had already ruined the chance.

She thought that his husband had improved since then, but she felt a hint of disappointment once again.

Looking at Mandy's expression, Harvey knew that she would only get more disappointed if he continued to explain.

He could only keep mum.

Mandy was still mad at Harvey the next day. She went to her company without even talking to Harvey. ①

When she arrived, she had gotten news!

Chapter 1031

The construction site was in trouble!

The Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project workers had been working overtime for the past few days to rush for progress. Because of this, Mandy Zimmer even paid for the overtime fees.

But something went wrong somewhere.

The related departments went to inspect the construction site, and they said that the quality of the work was below standard.

The Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project had a severe quality problem!

“Impossible! This construction team is top-of-the-line in the entire country! A professional design agency also made the design, and the materials are of fine quality too!”

“We’re building the project according to the top-rated villas. How could this be possible?”

“What went wrong?”

Chapter 1031

After getting news, everyone in Silver Nimbus Enterprise was utterly shocked. They could not believe what they heard.

Mandy massaged her temple, then let out a sigh.

“Someone’s trying to frame us!”

Mandy felt like she understood what was going on.

Because of Oskar Armstrong, the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project had been quite popular.

But under those circumstances, it would be natural for her competitors to be jealous.

This so-called quality problem might be somebody trying to create fake news!

Mandy even had several suspects in mind.

But before Mandy could start handling the situation, word had spread all over like wildfire.

Every big news outlet had started to spread the news.

Chapter 1031

“The villa that Oskar Armstrong purchased in the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort has a severe quality problem!”

“Inferior raw materials used in the progress of the project, and construction workers were badly harmed because of the villas collapsing!”

“The so-called Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort, is it the best place to rest your body? Or just a jerry-built project?”

All sorts of news had spread, and Buckwood was boiling. It was safe to say that even Country H was boiling a little.

Because of Oskar before, even people from places like Wolsing and Mordu came to buy villas from Silver Nimbus Mountain with their connections.

It was safe to say that the Silver Nimbus Enterprise had become the new upstarts in Buckwood's real estate due to this.

Judging by the progress, there would be no problems for the time being to list the property.

Chapter 1031

But nobody thought that there would be big problems in just a couple of days!

What was the biggest fear in the construction business?

It would be a bad reputation. If everyone thought that the company was using defective material, they would be finished!

Nobody would buy anything from them no matter how good their place and advertisements were.

It would even cause a wave of people asking for refunds on their orders for houses, immediately causing bankruptcy to any company.

Chapter 1032

Chapter 1032

Ten in the morning.

Buckwood's housing management and safety systems had taken action.

Even the few managers in the construction team were immediately taken away by the police to cooperate with the investigation.

There were even rumors saying that all of the company's credentials would be revoked and halted all of the company's operations.

When the news had spread, the Silver Nimbus Enterprise was paralyzed.

Mandy Zimmer was in a company meeting.

Everyone was devising a strategy, but the meeting room's doors were furiously kicked open at this moment.

Chapter 1032

“Whoever’s responsible, please come with us. We are a task force assembled by several important systems to investigate your company’s situation.”

The man leading the group was none other than the second-in-command of South Light General Police Station, Alex Swift.

And the men that he came with came from South Light’s housing management systems, the safe system, and so forth. Every one of them was very professional big characters in their specific departments.

It was safe to say that the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort situation was involved with the interests of many people.

Even some big characters in Wolsing all overtly or covertly obtained the rights to buy houses through connections. Their deposits were already paid for as well.

Now that such a big affair had happened, the government of South Light had to dispatch a task force to give the big characters a statement.

Chapter 1032

It was evident that Mandy did not think that things would escalate to this extent. She could only subconsciously stand up and ask, "I'm Mandy Zimmer, the CEO of Silver Nimbus Enterprise!"

Alex Swift then replied with a selfless face, "I'm the team leader of this task force, Alex Swift from South Light General Police Station! I'm here to inform you!"

"We suspect that Silver Nimbus Enterprise used inferior materials for your own benefits and to expedite progress, causing big damage!"

"We did not! The materials that we use are top of the line!" Mandy denied immediately.

"The best? Then why did a building in the construction site topple? You're telling me that someone intentionally caused that to happen?" Alex asked while glaring at Mandy coldly.

"We don't know either, but can you give me a bit of time out of respect for my uncle, Keith Yates? I'll investigate the situation thoroughly and give you a fair statement."

Chapter 1032

Mandy was at a loss. She had to mention Keith Yates at that moment.

"Keith Yates is your uncle?" Alex asked subconsciously.

But he gave a cold laugh after a short while.

"Keith Yates had been a selfless man in the government. I'll be honest with you! He is handling this big affair!

"He already told me about it. All men are equal in the eyes of the law. No matter who it is that did this heinous thing, we'll settle this in accordance with the law!

"That's why I'm requesting every single one of you in Silver Nimbus Enterprise to cooperate with the investigation, especially the department responsible for gathering the materials. Come with us to the police station immediately!”

Chapter 1032

The employees of Silver Nimbus Enterprise all shivered in fear after hearing Alex’s words.

They were here to earn money from the company itself, but they might even get thrown into prison before they could even earn money. Everyone was terrified.

Mandy’s face had worsened and replied, “Team Leader Swift, I do hope that you can uncover the truth!

“The people in the company do not have any faults at all. That includes the materials as well!

“Even Senior Oskar Armstrong bought property here after all. How would we even dare to use inferior materials?

“Someone must’ve framed us this time. You have to bring us justice!”

Chapter 1033

Chapter 1033

“Is that so?”

“Can you guarantee that the materials have no problems at all?”

“You should know that your construction site uses ten tons of materials every single day!”

“Can you, the CEO, even supervise everyone every single day?”

“As for Senior Oskar Armstrong, is it because you knew that he purchased property here that you have no worries about selling them? That’s why you’re trying to cut corners and earn dirty money?!”

“I’m telling you, there are a lot of people that ordered villas from you. If we find out that there’s actually a quality problem with your houses, you’ll be finished!”

Chapter 1033

“You’re doing the equivalent of offending a whole lot of big shots. You won’t have the chance to be in the business circle anymore!”

Alex Swift was laughing coldly while delivering his speech, making Mandy Zimmer’s face lose all color.

She knew that refuting at this moment was futile.

Because something really did happen in the construction site.

At this moment, the people from the Buckwood Police Station came over.

“Who’s the person responsible for all this? We received an anonymous report that Silver Nimbus Enterprise had been disregarding human life, giving the victims’ families a hundred and fifty thousand dollars to cover up the quality issue, hoping that the families don’t cause a big stir!

“They’re disobeying the law!”

“What?!”

Chapter 1033

Mandy was dumbfounded by this big label on her head at that moment.

When did she even ask someone to give money to people?

On the side, Alex let out a cold smile and said, "I see how it is! No wonder you're able to solemnly swear that there are no problems with your quality!

"You already sent people to bribe the victims' families to try and cover the truth!"

Mandy shook her head.

"No, I didn't send anyone!"

"Then who is this?"

The police from Buckwood's police station took out his phone, then played a video.

The person in the video gave a sack of cash to the man on the sickbed.

Mandy gave a closer look, then sat on the couch without saying a word for a long while.

Chapter 1033

Lilian Yates!

The person giving the money was none other than Lilian, which meant that Mandy was indisputable!

Lilian probably wanted to help Mandy solve the problem after hearing the news.

But someone had recorded everything at that moment.

This was solid proof!

“Not only was the quality inferior, and yet you tried to bribe the victims’ families. A company like this should be bankrupt!”

Once the news spread, the local real estate companies in Buckwood were eyeing Silver Nimbus Enterprise.

That was why for a time, furious exclamations were rising everywhere. The entire business for Silver Nimbus Enterprise was heavily affected as well.

Chapter 1033

Even people swiftly destroyed the recently renovated sales office.

The people that were competing to buy a house all wanted a refund.

For a time, the sales department was cracking their heads.

Besides that, even Oskar Armstrong was heavily affected.

Some media even said that Oskar accepted a huge endorsement fee. That was why he acted out the scene back then.

He knew that there was a quality problem with the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort, but he still called it the best place to rest his body and faked buying a villa!

He was only cooperating with Silver Nimbus Enterprise to hype up the project!

Truly shameless!

Chapter 1034

Chapter 1034

Soon, Alex Swift took Mandy Zimmer with him to cooperate with his investigation.

The entire company's management and operations had descended into utter chaos. The situation was truly horrible.

At the same time.

Typically, Oskar Armstrong was still visiting. He had not left for the past few days. He did not know what had happened outside.

Suddenly, some noise was echoing in the hallways.

“What's going on here? Do you not know that you need to be quiet in hospitals?”

Oskar Armstrong signaled a nurse beside him to see what was happening outside.

Chapter 1034

But at this moment, a few people rushed into the room. They were media journalists.

“Senior Armstrong, we heard that you had accepted millions of dollars worth of endorsement fees to act out a scene with them at the construction site, is that correct?”

“You already knew that there was a quality problem with the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort. Is that true?”

“But you still chose to be their spokesperson because of money, and you chose that way to make the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort more popular?”

“But there is something wrong with the jerry-filled project because they’re expediting progress! And there are severe consequences because of this! What’s your opinion on this?”

At this moment, the journalists’ mics were placed right in front of Oskar’s face.

Chapter 1034

This was big news, and it would definitely blow up. The journalists did not respect Oskar as the peak of the medical profession. They only wanted to be famous.

A few families came over at this moment, then pointed at Oskar's nose while scolding him.

“Oskar Armstrong, you bastard. If it weren't for you going to the construction site, my son would've been fine!”

“You knew that there was a quality problem, but you didn't halt the project, and yet you kept advertising it! You're disregarding human life here!”

“People like you have been blinded by money! You're not worthy of the white coat that you are wearing!”

Soon, not only did the families start to smash everything around, their cries of anger did not stop as well.

Chapter 1034

They were all motivated by others. They thought that Oskar Armstrong had to take huge responsibility for this affair.

“What is going on here?”

Oskar was dumbfounded.

“Senior Armstrong, the villa that you purchased had collapsed when it was built halfway last night. A few workers were buried under the rubble. Even though they were all saved from the rubble, one worker was badly injured, and that particular worker is currently hospitalized in this hospital.”

“His situation is really dire, needing to perform craniotomy surgery as soon as possible. If not, he has a possibility of dying.”

A doctor swiftly walked forward and told Oskar what happened.

“What? This thing happened?!”

Oskar stood up immediately.

Chapter 1034

“Arrange the surgery, stat! I’ll do it myself!”

The doctors and nurses’ eyes all lit up after hearing those words. No one in Buckwood People’s Hospital would even dare to perform this surgery.

But with Oskar performing the surgery himself, the operation was possible.

But nobody thought that the families that were present started to scold him while pointing right at his nose.

“You bastard that has no care for human life. Don’t you dare touch my son!”

“Yeah! My husband was on his death bed, but you cooperated with Silver Nimbus Enterprise to hide the truth. Surely you will just kill him on the operating table!”

“You can do anything if money’s involved. There’s no medical ethics with you anymore. We don’t trust you!”

“We don’t want you to perform surgery. We want you to pay with your life!”

Chapter 1034

The families were agitated. Somebody even picked up an ashtray and smashed it on Oskar’s head.

The scene was in complete chaos at that time. Oskar was sluggish.

It was his first time seeing a situation like this throughout his years in the medical field. 2

Chapter 1035

Oskar Armstrong was the top man in the medical field.

Usually, when he wanted to perform a procedure, many big characters would kneel to beg for him.

But somebody actually did not believe in him that day. Instead, they wanted him to pay with his life.

Even Oskar could not imagine what happened.

“How is this possible?!”

The most important thing was that he trusted Harvey York the most!

He was the chief instructor for the Sword Camp, a myth that held off against the five strongest countries by himself, truly a legend.

How could a man like that even dig him a deep grave such as this?

Chapter 1035

And with that man's wealth, did he even need his wife to proceed with a jerry-built project just to get a little more money?

No!

There was no need!

The man's wealth could rival countries. He would not even bat an eye toward such a trivial amount of money!

Without a second thought, Oskar furiously slammed the wall with his hand and exclaimed, "Silence! I'll give everyone a fair statement about this!

"Bring the patient to the operating room. I'll perform surgery on him myself!

"If he dies because of severe injuries, I'll pay with my life!"

Soon, the families were pulled away by the doctors from the hospital. Some nurses clumsily delivered the patient into the operating room.

Chapter 1035

Oskar headed inside to perform surgery on the patient himself.

The situation intensified after the word spread.

Everyone knew that Oskar Armstrong had rarely performed recently.

The media thought that he started to perform again for an injured worker because he was guilty!

At the same time, while Oskar was saving someone, the situation had escalated profusely. Crowds that were kept in the dark were prepared to cause a commotion at the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort.

At the same time, in the Yates family's house.

Grandma Yates, Keith Yates were sitting together along with the others.

There was a man to the right of them. He was smiling while standing there.

Chapter 1035

If Mandy Zimmer were to be present, she should be able to recognize that he was the deputy director of the project department for Regency Enterprise, Grant Bright, the man driving a BMW 7 Series.

Keith looked at Grant and said, "Oh, Grant. Can we really get the company this way?"

Grandma Yates was also a bit hesitant. The situation had escalated way beyond their imagination.

Grant then smiled and replied, "Grandma, Father Keith, rest assured!

"I've been in Buckwood's real estate industry for many years for a good reason!

"I sent someone to swap the river sand to sea sand. He's already gone with the money I sent him!

"Besides, who could've thought that a ton of sea sand was enough to cause such a big commotion?!

"In addition, the surveillance equipment at the construction site were all destroyed. That's why the police can never find out the truth, no matter how advanced the police force is.

Chapter 1035

"But if that's the case, Mandy is going to jail, isn't she?" Keith frowned as he asked the question.

Grant smiled.

"Father Yates, isn't this our goal? When that happens, you'll be able to use your influence in the government and try to make things simmer down. Of course, the condition was to let Mandy buy shares from the Yates family. With this, the control of Silver Nimbus Enterprise will just land on the laps of the Yates family!"

Keith frowned slightly.

"If things escalate, it'll be hard to get it under control."

Grant smiled and replied, "Rest assured, Father Yates, I'll have a way to keep things under control. Since you asked me for something, I'll do it neatly.

Chapter 1035

There will be no problems.

“All you need to do here is to pay attention to Sky Corporation and not let Sky Corporation intervene. If not, all of our efforts will be wasted.

“After all, Prince York is not a man to be trifled with!”

Chapter 1036

Chapter 1036

Keith Yates snorted, “How dare he!”

“Prince York or not, the matter has escalated to such an extent that even Oskar Armstrong is involved!”

“Many nobles from Wolsing, Mordu, Golden Sands, and other places are paying attention to this matter!”

“Sheldon Xavier himself cannot intervene, let alone Prince York!”

“Unless someone can provide evidence that Mandy Zimmer is innocent, there’s no need for her to come out!”

The entire Yates family laughed at Keith’s words.

Leyton smiled. “Mandy’s still too young. After this incident, she'll finally understand how important it is to have support.”

Chapter 1036

“Without the Yates family behind her, she's nothing!”

Keith frowned. “In my opinion, we should just let her stay in the company for a few more years. Wouldn't it be better if we take over the entire Silver Nimbus Enterprise instead?”

Grandma Yates replied indifferently, “Mandy's still somewhat capable. The rest of us here have no experience in business. We may not be able to make any profit.”

“Letting Mandy be our puppet isn't so bad. In fact, she can help our family earn even more!”

Everyone nodded in agreement.

After all, the Yates family was first started by the government. When it came to the business world, they had no advantage whatsoever.

Grant Bright broke into a grin. “Madam Yates, Sir

Chapter 1036

Yates. You didn't forget what I asked for regarding our cooperation this time, right?"

Grandma Yates took a deep look at Grant. "Don't worry. We'll do as we had promised."

"As long as we Yateses can achieve our purpose, we'll definitely make Mandy divorce that trash and let you be our grandson-in-law!"

"We'll also give you ten percent of Silver Nimbus Enterprise's shares. From then onwards, we'll be a family!"

Grant said profoundly, "Well then! It's a pleasure to meet you, Uncle and Grandmother!"

"Hahahaha! We're a family! A family!"

Everyone laughed.

Mandy would definitely surrender now that they have a future son-in-law who had been in the real estate industry for many years making his move.

When the family meeting was over, Tanya Yates revealed her hesitation. “Honey, aren’t we being too cruel to Mandy? In spite of everything, she’s still our niece!”

Chapter 1036

Leyton sneered. “Hmph! Too cruel?! Could she be where she is today without the Yates family?”

“Grandma Yates gave Mandy a chance, but she didn’t seize the opportunity. She even provoked Grandma Yates using naïve means and relocated into a high-end office building!”

“She deserves to end up like this!”

“Honey, we have to seize the opportunity this time! The Silver Nimbus Enterprise is far too valuable. We have to acquire at least ten percent of the shares once we acquire the company. If we succeed, we can enjoy prosperity and wealth enough for the second half of our lives!”

“You can buy all the luxury goods you wanted before at your whim; villas, luxury cars!”

Tanya’s eyes lit up when she heard Leyton’s words.

Chapter 1036

The rare conscience she had shown before lay forgotten and abandoned.

“Hehehe...”

The couple grinned slyly.

The Yateses had no sense of morals. In order to obtain Silver Nimbus Enterprise, they were willing to discard all semblances of familial affection.

Anyone who blocked their path for glory, they would surely crush.

Even if the other party was a relative, they would pay no heed and kill in cold blood.

Chapter 1037

Chapter 1037

The Yates family had set up various preparations. On the other hand, Mandy's family had fallen into a desperate state of impatience and anxiety due to Mandy's arrest.

Harvey, who was at Sky Corporation, received the news immediately.

Never had he expected that someone would dare to target Mandy and Silver Nimbus Enterprise right under his nose.

"CEO York! According to the information I've found, there's a high probability that the incident this time is related to Regency Enterprise."

Yvonne exclaimed with a frown, her hands clutching several documents.

Although she hadn't come to work recently due to various issues with the Xavier family...

Chapter 1037

The moment she discovered something had happened to Mandy, she disregarded her affairs and hurriedly returned to the office.

“Other than Regency Enterprise, I suspect there are also government officials controlling everything from behind the scenes. Otherwise, the media and the people wouldn’t react this quickly!”

“The hardest thing right now is finding the truth. All of our valuable leads are likely a dead end!”

Yvonne kept flipping through the documents, but only ended up discouraged.

Harvey spent a brief moment pondering before quickly calling Tyson Woods to assign a task.

Some things couldn’t be traced through the government or the business community. However, the streets might provide some insight.

Just then, Ray called. “CEO York! We’re at the construction site now, but apparently someone’s destroyed the closed-circuit system footage.”

Chapter 1037

Harvey took in a deep breath. “Someone’s up to something, and he doesn’t want us to know.”

“He’s definitely done something to Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort’s construction site.”

“Ray, is there any way to extract the video data from the damaged device?”

“I’ll try, but I can’t guarantee anything.” Ray replied from the other side of the phone.

“Do it as quickly as you can.” Harvey ordered. “If nothing works, let Ethan find some professionals from the military to help extract the data. I’m coming over right now!”

Soon, Harvey arrived at the construction site. The professional sent by Ethan had also arrived.

Nonetheless, the device had been severely damaged last night. Despite having employed various technical means, they were unable to restore the content in it.

Chapter 1037

Harvey thought for a while. "Let's go to Buckwood Police Station. They should have full road monitoring. Retrieving footage from relevant sections of the road should help in finding out the truth."

Harvey and Ray quickly headed to the police station, hoping to check the CCTV.

Unfortunately, none of them anticipated that the surveillance room was guarded by several inspectors with guns and live ammunition. No one was allowed to enter.

Ray stepped forward and said, "I'm Ray Hart from Sky Corporation. We need to check last night's footage from this station."

"No. We don't care where you're from. No one can enter this place except the special operations team in the province."

As it turned out, the other party was one step ahead and expected Harvey and co would come to check the footage from the police station in that area.

Chapter 1037

Thus, they requested that no one could enter the surveillance room.

Harvey frowned. He decided to give up for the time being, and returned to the construction site to check the building where the accident had occurred.

However, he did not expect that this place would be under lockdown as well. No one could enter except the special operations team in the province.

The entire situation made him feel suspicious.

He did not ignore his gut instinct and immediately contacted the first-in-command in Buckwood, Yoel Graham.

“Graham! I need to check the footage from Buckwood Police Station, especially those in the area outside Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort.”

“Also, I need to enter the accident site.”

Chapter 1038

Chapter 1038

Yoel Graham on the other side of the phone was baffled. “Chief Instructor, it’s not that I don’t want to help. It’s just that this time, the special operations team is sent by the South Light government. My words have no power at all.”

“Then try to contact Elder Xavier.”

“That may not be useful. I heard that since Senior Oskar Armstrong was involved, some big shots in Wolsing were furious and demanded results within three days.”

“Anyone who dares to interfere with the investigation will be subjected to punishment.”

“Okay, I get it.”

Harvey hung up and laughed.

He could guess who was intervening in this matter

Chapter 1038

using the South Light Government.

While the culprit could have been the Xavier family, right now they wouldn't dare to stir any trouble because of their connection to Yvonne.

The second-in-command of South Light, Kyle Quinlan, was a member of the Quinlan family from Georgia. Among the top ten families, the Quinlans from Georgia ranked higher than the Xaviers from Wolsing. How was it possible for them to be interested in a family business like the Silver Nimbus Enterprise?

Thus, Harvey could confirm who the true mastermind behind this entire incident.

It was most likely the work of the Yateses!

Harvey had heard of how Keith Yates managed to ascend to a higher position all because he had become a big shot's disciple. Only then was Keith able to secure his position as the third-in-command of South Light.

Still, Harvey never imagined the Yateses would put their hands on Mandy.

Chapter 1038

Furthermore, there was also the matter of them wanting to invest in the Silver Nimbus Enterprise by force..

Harvey quickly understood that the Yateses wanted to use this opportunity to drive Mandy out of Silver Nimbus Enterprise. When that happened, they could take over Silver Nimbus Enterprise completely.

He had to admit, their move was clever and insidious. However, their actions were far too malicious.

Simply put, the Yateses wanted to utilize their power within the government to directly seize Mandy's assets.

“I initially wanted to get along with them like I would with ordinary folk. Since your people have made your move, then let's have some fun.”

Harvey sneered. He then headed to the Sword Camp.

Chapter 1038

“Ethan. I don't care who's in charge of the case of Silver Nimbus Enterprise right now. Tell him to see me within ten minutes.”

Ethan said politely, “Chief Instructor, the person leading the team is Alex Swift. He is the second-in-command of South Light General Police Station. He's a very capable man who follows his principles.”

“I asked him to come, but he may not be willing.”

Harvey snapped coldly, “Just put out my title.”

Ethan sighed in relief.

Sure, Alex Swift may not give him, the number one God of War, any time of the day.

However, who would dare to do the same to the Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp?

Indeed, right after Ethan issued the order, an Audi A 6 arrived at the gate of Sword Camp within ten minutes.

Alex Swift stepped out of the car. He was the current leader of the special operations team.

Under Ethan's guide, Alex entered Harvey's room. However, he could only spot the back of an unidentifiable figure. He knew he was not qualified to see that man's face.

Gazing at this person's back, Alex felt it looked somewhat familiar. However, he couldn't remember where he had seen it.

Even so, he already knew the status of the man he was facing long before he arrived.

He respectfully saluted. "Nice to meet you, Chief Instructor. I'm Alex Swift of South Light General Police Station."

"Do you know why I'm looking for you?" Harvey asked indifferently.

Alex was taken aback for a moment. He then gritted his teeth and said, "I know that you're very close with Senior Oskar Armstrong."

"If you're referring to the Silver Nimbus Enterprise incident, then I can only say that I must handle the case impartially.”

Chapter 1038

“There are too many powerful characters involved in this matter. If I let you go through the back door, I’m afraid that I’ll be courting my own death.”

“Please forgive me, Chief Instructor!” 4

Chapter 1039

Chapter 1039

No one expected that Alex Swift would be so tough-minded, to the point he was unwilling to humor the military legend and Chief Instructor of Sword Camp.

If the Chief Instructor of Sword Camp wanted to, he could easily become the head of the top nine troops at any time. He could even take over the position of the army's Elder in the future.

He was someone with unlimited potential and incredible influence.

Unexpectedly, Alex did not give face to such such a person.

However, Harvey was not angry. His hands clasped behind his back, he continued coldly, "Do you mean to tell me that you're handling this whole situation without any bias, Sir Swift?"

Chapter 1039

Alex replied solemnly, “Naturally. This incident involves too many things, as well as the reputation of the great Country H’s national figures. I cannot show favor to either side, lest my superiors fire me.”

Harvey said, “Then, how is the investigation going now?”

“The matter is undergoing investigation. Judging from the current evidence available, the incident occurred because Silver Nimbus Enterprise used sea sand, which is not allowed in the construction industry, in an attempt to save costs.”

“The salt content in sea sand is too high and is particularly easy to corrode. Plus, the sand used by Silver Nimbus Enterprise is highly corrosive and of poor quality.”

“In short, everything was because of the Silver Nimbus Enterprise. Hence, all this is Mandy Zimmer’s responsibility!”

Chapter 1039

“Therefore, the company’s assets must be frozen.”

“Mandy Zimmer must be arrested and serve jail time for at least ten years.”

Alex replied solemnly.

He still had some doubts about the whole matter, but based on the currently available evidence, it wasn’t difficult to convict Mandy Zimmer.

Harvey took a deep breath and said, “So, this is what you mean by handling things impartially?”

“This incident hasn’t been investigated thoroughly, and the chain of evidence isn’t clear. And yet, you’ve already reached a conclusion. How is that fair?”

“Originally, I shouldn’t intervene in police affairs. Now, it seems I have no choice!”

Harvey’s voice was cold. In the next instant, he slowly turned around and revealed his face.

Gasp!

Chapter 1039

When he saw Harvey's face, Alex was filled with shock. He was in disbelief, horror written all over his face.

He finally knew why he felt that the Chief Instructor's back seemed so familiar.

He had met this person once at Madam Yates's birthday feast.

The useless grandson-in-law of the Yates family, Harvey York!

Also the husband of Mandy Zimmer, the CEO of Silver Nimbus Enterprise!

Mandy's husband was actually the legendary Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp?!

At that moment, Alex began to sweat profusely.

He finally understood the reason the Chief Instructor wanted to intervene!

He also understood why Oskar Armstrong was willing to help promote the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort.

Chapter 1039

It was all because of the Chief Instructor!

The Chief Instructor was unparalleled in both power and wealth.

How could a great man such as him commit the pathetic mistake of using sea sand for construction just to gain an insignificant profit?!

Someone was framing Mandy Zimmer and the Silver Nimbus Enterprise.

Whoever it was, he most likely had no clue about her husband's true identity.

Alex felt somewhat relieved. Fortunately, when he interrogated Mandy before, he was quite polite and didn't mess around.

Otherwise, he probably wouldn't be able to get out of Sword Camp alive.

“Of course, the matter should be handled impartially. But the truth must be clear. Let Ray lead the team and assist with the investigation. Would that be alright?" Harvey suggested casually.

Chapter 1039

Chapter 1040

Chapter 1040

“No problem! I’ll gladly give full cooperation!”

Alex immediately bowed.

Soon, Buckwood Police Station sent Harvey various surveillance footage.

Ray Hart called the technicians and they began to check various devices.

Harvey also had his men take some samples from the scene of the accident.

When Harvey checked the materials, he smiled and said, “Leader Swift, this sand is indeed sea sand.”

“It’s forbidden to use it for construction as they are very corrosive. However, signs of such corrosion will only appear until ten or twenty years later.”

“There’s a lot of concrete mixed with the sand. How could the buildings collapse straightaway?”

Chapter 1040

“Judging from these samples, someone must have deliberately mixed something else in the materials.”

“What?!” Alex and the others gasped. Was someone trying to frame Mandy?

“Strong acid.”

Harvey replied indifferently.

“A very simple method. Add strong acid to a building that hasn’t completely solidified. The building will then collapse quickly.”

“If I guessed correctly, the culprit should be a worker on the construction site.”

“Let the construction company check if there are any workers who resigned the day after the accident. The truth should be made clear soon.”

“Hurry up!” Alex ordered quickly. “Go and bring that man here!”

Chapter 1040

His face was pale. Someone actually intended to use him to frame the Chief Instructor's wife?

Wasn't this going to destroy him?

Meanwhile, Ray's side had extracted a surveillance video. In it, several trucks could be seen carrying a lot of sand as they left and entered the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort site. Each time, the trucks were full.

Everyone instantly understood.

During the night, someone had replaced the river sand used for the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort's construction with inferior sea sand.

Doing this would require the cooperation of all the workers inside the construction site.

Coupled with the strong acid found before, the truth was finally laid bare.

"There is a high probability that a certain real estate company is responsible for this. Only they are familiar with these channels within the construction industry.”

Chapter 1040

“Still, there must be a bigger force backing that company. It’s definitely someone from the South Light Government. Investigate it for me!”

“We must find out, no matter who it is.”

“I need real evidence!”

“Don’t worry and just do everything you can. I will support you.”

Finally, Harvey gave an overall idea for the investigation’s course of direction.

“Yes, Chief Instructor. I’ll prove that your wife is innocent!”

Alex bowed respectfully.

He was completely convinced by the young Chief Instructor.

No wonder Harvey was able to become the Chief

Chapter 1040

Instructor of Sword Camp at such a young age!

Plus, the superiors of Country H still remembered him after he had retired and visited him thrice.

This man did things in a simple, direct, and efficient way.

Most importantly, he was able to pinpoint the core of the problem and eliminate disturbances from other external factors.

None of these could be done by ordinary people.

Alex sighed in his heart. If this man was willing to take command of the police, then there would surely be no unsolvable cases in Country H.

Later, Alex and his men went to investigate the findings.

Harvey also returned home.

Yet as soon as he stepped into the house, he saw that the Yates family was shamelessly inside.

“Simon, Lilian! I heard Mandy was arrested by the

Chapter 1040

South Light General Police Station. What's wrong?!"

Grandma Yates feigned a compassionate expression.

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1041

Chapter 1041

Both Simon and Lilian's faces darkened.

Especially Lilian's, who had asked around only to find out that Mandy was to be jailed for at least ten years.

Grandma Yates came over and grabbed Lilian's hand. She comforted Lilian, saying, "Lilian, I'm worried both Simon and you are also going to prison together with Mandy!"

"After all, you two went around giving hush money to the victims' families. If this gets exposed, both of you will go to jail as well!"

"Luckily, you two are still fine!"

Grandma Yates had a comforting expression, but the words she used made Simon and Lilian's complexion change drastically.

Chapter 1041

They still wanted to bask in wealth and glory!

Who in their right mind wants to go to jail?

Lilian subconsciously blurted out, "Mother! Please save us and Mandy!"

"What are you talking about? We're a family!"

"If I can help, then I'll certainly help you!"

"It's just...I already asked your older brother about this. He said it's a bit difficult, you see?"

Grandma Yates glanced at Keith after she finished speaking.

Keith looked baffled. "Lilian, it's not that I don't want to help you. But this time, Mandy has caused too much trouble!"

"Don't you know? Many elites in Wolsing have purchased the villas at Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort, either openly or secretly!"

"None of them are easy to talk to."

Chapter 1041

“Shoddy construction falling into their hands, do you think they’d be willing to just let that go?”

“If I help you, I might even lose my job!”

Keith put on a distraught expression, looking as if he was truly worried about Mandy.

Listening to him, Simon and Lilian looked at each other with a desperate gaze.

They didn’t have any connections in Buckwood. Even if they did, how could they compete against the elites from Wolsing?

It was total nonsense!

Just then, Tanya spoke up at the right time. “My dear sister! Actually, it won’t be a big deal even if Mandy goes to jail. Brother could think of a way to get her parole in the future using medical treatment as justification.”

“The biggest trouble we’re facing right now is that Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s reputation has plummeted due to the incident. That company is now equivalent to scrap!”

Chapter 1041

“Forget making money, it’ll also attain a lot of bad debts. Even if Mandy sells everything in this house, it won’t be enough to compensate!”

“Right now, Mandy aside, you as her parents should consider how to properly handle Silver Nimbus Enterprise.”

“This is a crucial issue!”

Tanya also wore a bitter expression. She took Lilian’s hand solemnly.

From the way they talked, it sounded as though Silver Nimbus Enterprise was approaching bankruptcy and Mandy’s family would owe many parties huge sums of money.

“We...”

Simon and Lilian’s complexions were awful. They knew little about company operations.

If this situation continued, then once the company went bankrupt, they wouldn't know what to do.

Chapter 1041

Lilian automatically exclaimed, "Mother, Brother! You must help our family!"

"We can only rely on you in Buckwood!"

Grandma Yates and Keith exchanged secret glances at Lilian's outburst, both revealing the look of someone who had successfully gotten their way.

They had put on this charade in order to have Lilian utter those words.

Grandma Yates coughed before saying with a smile, "Lilian. Don't be afraid, don't be nervous. You have me to call the shots!"

"Then, let's make a deal."

Chapter 1042

Chapter 1042

Lilian was taken aback for a moment. “Mother, what deal are you talking about?”

“Of course, it’s about the Silver Nimbus Enterprise! To help your family solve this problem, I decided to take out my savings of about one hundred fifty thousand dollars and buy the company shares, which once belonged to Mandy.” Grandma Yates said, smiling.

“One hundred fifty thousand dollars?!”

Simon and Lilian looked at each other.

Although they didn’t know much about company operations, they still understood that Silver Nimbus Enterprise was worth several millions of dollars. How could they simply sell off their equity for only a measly one hundred fifty thousand dollars?

Chapter 1042

Looking at their conflicted gazes, Grandma Yates laughed. "I know you two wouldn't be able to accept it right now, but you have no idea how serious the situation currently is."

"Come, Grant. Tell your uncle and aunt about the current situation."

Grant Bright walked forward with a smile and said politely, "Uncle, Auntie. Let me introduce myself. I'm the vice CEO of the project department in Regency Enterprise, and I've been in the real estate industry in Buckwood for ten years."

Simon was momentarily stunned. "Regency Enterprise? The only company that can rival the Surreys in the real estate industry?"

"Yes. We also have a powerful superior backing Regency Enterprise." Grant smiled. "Otherwise, we wouldn't be able to do so well in Buckwood!"

"Well, let me first explain to you from a professional perspective regarding the problems that Silver Nimbus Enterprise is facing at current.”

Chapter 1042

Simon and Lilian nodded vaguely. Grant certainly looked like a professional elite in every way.

Listening to him wouldn't do them any harm.

Grant kept smiling as he explained, “Silver Nimbus Enterprise is a new company in the real estate industry with only one project under its belt, the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort.”

“The properties of Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort have all been sold out because of Senior Oskar Armstrong. About seventy percent of the villas have been bought within a few days. The company also received a thirty percent deposit from each successful sale.”

“Originally, this was a good thing. With the thirty percent deposit, the resort could be completed.”

“Unfortunately, we've run into a problem.”

“The shoddy construction of this project has been exposed, and someone almost died because of it.”

Chapter 1042

“Those who bought the villas surely wouldn't want them anymore!”

“In this case, everyone will definitely demand a refund. According to the agreement, if the client demands a refund due to the poor quality of the house, we have to compensate them thrice the price!”

“In other words, while the current Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project has received a deposit of around 46.6 million dollars, it has now become necessary to compensate the clients with a liquidated damage of 139.8 million dollars.”

“If you add the principal, then everything amounts to 186.4 million dollars.”

“This is the current crisis that Silver Nimbus Enterprise is facing!”

Listening to Grant talking with such eloquence, especially when he said that it would be necessary to compensate 186.4 million dollars, Simon and

Chapter 1042

Lilian grew dizzy and almost fainted on the ground.

186.4 million dollars?

Even if they sold themselves, they still couldn't make that much money!

Seeing Simon and Lilian go all wobbly, Keith took the opportunity to say, "Lilian, do you understand your situation now?"

"The company looks very big, but in truth, it'll soon fall. You won't be able to repay that kind of debt even in ten lifetimes!"

"I'm not interested in the company. Spending one hundred fifty thousand dollars to acquire all the equity from Mandy's ownership is mainly to help you all solve your problems!" 2

Chapter 1043

Chapter 1043

Both Simon Zimmer and Lilian Yates hesitated.

They felt that selling all of Mandy's shares for one hundred and fifty million dollars was a great loss. 2

However, they had grown extremely fearful after they listened to Grant's explanation.

Grant continued to smile. "Uncle, Auntie, don't you understand the current situation?"

"Although there hasn't been a large-scale check-out wave yet, I estimate that it will happen in two or three days!"

"If you continue to hesitate, forget getting one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. You might have to take on a huge debt!"

"I guarantee that even after you sell the company to the Yates family, we can still allow Mandy to continue working in it.”

Chapter 1043

“You’ve got nothing to lose!”

However, Simon and Lilian still couldn’t come to a decision.

Grandma Yates suddenly coughed and changed the subject. “Lilian, what do you think of Grant?”

Lilian quickly replied, “A successful man!”

“That’s right!” Grandma Yates laughed. “Grant has been in this business for many years and is well-experienced. After the acquisition of Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s shares, we Yateses plan to give him ten percent of the shares and entrust him with the company’s day-to-day operations.”

Simon and Lilian fell in a daze. What did this have to do with them?

Grandma Yates continued, “Grant also said that he’s willing to marry Mandy.”

“Do you understand what I mean?”

Chapter 1043

“When the time comes, as long as you drive your useless live-in son-in-law out of the house and let Grant marry Mandy, then you can still have Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s equity.”

“For now, after us Yateses acquire the equity, we’ll go all out and utilize our connections to solve the company crisis.”

“I’m doing this for your sake. So, what do you say? Is it okay?”

Both Simon and Lilian were moved when they saw that Grandma Yates was doing so much for them.

The point was, they also thought that Harvey was far too useless.

He couldn’t do anything. Grant was obviously much better than him!

It’d be a good thing if they could change their son-in-law, keep a part of their equity, and enjoy all the glory and the wealth that comes!

“I guess it should be okay.” Simon hesitated. “But shouldn't we ask Mandy's opinion?"

Chapter 1043

Grandma Yates smiled and said, "You brought her to this world. You can decide for her! What's there to ask for?"

"If you agree, just sign on behalf of Mandy."

Grant took out the contract that had been prepared a long time ago while they spoke.

Several of the Yateses' servants lifted a large suitcase and opened it. Inside was one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in cash, a sight that turned Lilian's eyes red with greed.

Lilian loved money. She paid little mind to the issue at hand, and was close to signing the agreement.

The rest of Yateses grinned sarcastically as they looked at her.

In their opinion, Mandy's family was simply too stupid.

Simon and Lilian were particularly moronic. They were actually moved over a few simple words, and were willing to sell off the fruits of their daughter's hard work!

Chapter 1043

When the Yateses thought of how they could make use of Mandy's assets to accomplish many things, they were close to jumping with joy.

"You can't sign!"

At that moment, Xynthia, who stood at the side and had remained silent all this while, suddenly let out a shout. She snatched the contract and tore it into pieces.

Slap!

"Presumptuous!"

Almost in an instant, Tanya stepped forward and slapped Xynthia hard.

"This is no place for a little girl like you to speak! Why don't you step aside and let the adults do their work?!"

Chapter 1044

Chapter 1044

Xynthia touched her cheek and stared at Tanya in disbelief. She couldn't believe that her aunt, who loved her so much, would slap her over such a thing!

Slap!

Just then, Harvey, who had been watching quietly from behind, stepped forward. Before anyone could react, he slapped Tanya so hard that it stunned her.

Tanya was not the only one.

Leyton was also stunned.

Keith was the same.

Grandma Yates, too!

Everyone was completely dumbfounded!

They had known that Harvey was there. However, in their eyes, he was just a useless live-in son-in-law who wasn't even worth a fart in the wind.

Chapter 1044

And yet, this wimp actually slapped Tanya?!

Leyton was the first to spring into action. He pointed at Harvey, cursing, "Rebel! Rebel! How dare you, a live-in son-in-law, lay a hand on a Yates?"

"You're dead!"

"Mandy's not the only one who's going to jail!"

"You're gonna spend a long time in the slammer too!"

"Argh!"

Harvey stared at Leyton, who was jumping up and down agitatedly in front of him. Impatient, Harvey slapped the man as well.

This time, his blow was much stronger and ended up breaking a few of Leyton's teeth.

Leyton let out a pig-like wail. He rolled on the ground, covering his face.

Chapter 1044

He was a snobby elite. How could someone like him come face-to-face with this situation?

Tanya looked at the scene in fear. If Harvey had slapped her a little harder just now, wouldn't her face grow crooked?

Keith became livid.

He shot Harvey a grim expression and bellowed, "Boy, you're presumptuous! What kind of situation is this? What's the deal with you, hitting people like this?!"

"Lilian! Simon! Is this how you educate your family?"

"I'm warning you! If you don't give us a satisfactory justification for his actions, don't even think about getting the one hundred and fifty thousand dollars!"

Grant, who was at the side and still smiling, piped up, "Sir Yates, remember your status. You don't have to talk nonsense with this psycho. Just do as I say and call the police to detain him!”

Chapter 1044

“He dares to assault our people right in front of us, and a member of the Yateses at that! I’ll feel awful if I don’t let such a person rot in jail for a few years!”

Grant’s face turned cold.

He was initially worried that he couldn’t find an excuse to sabotage Harvey.

Now that Harvey had stirred trouble, Grant was delighted.

Grant felt that if Harvey went to prison, then Mandy would belong to him.

He envisioned Mandy’s peerless appearance, then gazed at the lovely and youthful Xynthia.

Not only was he able to acquire the company assets, but he could also claim these beauties!

How could there be such a wonderful thing in this world?

“Are you sure you want to do that?”

But Harvey was indifferent.

“You’re deceiving my father-in-law and mother-in-law into selling company equity worth millions of dollars for a low price!”

“Even if you call the police, you’ll be caught first.”

“If you’re not afraid, then just try to call them!”

Harvey didn’t care about his actions anymore.

For Mandy’s sake, he had always shown respect to the Yates family.

Now that he knew the Yates family was most likely pulling the strings, he wouldn’t go easy on them.

“Nonsense! You’re insolent!”

Grandma Yates pointed at Harvey, her fingers trembling.

The Yateses had never imagined that the live-in son

Chapter 1044

-in-law would be the one to ruin their plans mere moments before they could succeed!

Chapter 1045

Chapter 1045

Tanya spoke up coldly, "Harvey! Since you're considered a part of our family, we'll turn a blind eye to what you've done."

"But don't be rash! Don't get your father-in-law and mother-in-law in trouble!"

"Trouble? How could I trouble them?" Harvey spat back, just as coldly.

Keith said righteousness, "If you don't let them sell the company equity to us, then you might as well be harming them!"

"When the clients demand for their refunds, how do you plan to repay that huge debt?"

Harvey replied sarcastically, "Don't we have you, Uncle? I heard that Uncle's teacher is a big shot in Wolsing. As long as you come forward to deal with the associated parties, then there should be no problem, right?”

Chapter 1045

Simon and Lilian’s eyes lit up at Harvey’s words.

Lilian added hurriedly, “That’s right, Brother. How did we forget that?”

“There’s no need to transfer the equity. As long as you’re willing to come forward, they would surely do you a favor. After that, I can just have Mandy gift you a villa!”

If there was a chance that the company wouldn’t go bankrupt, Lilian was unwilling to sell the company’s equity.

Simon was a henpecked husband. When Lilian began to speak, he immediately stopped talking.

Keith sneered. “Lilian, can you not be so naïve? Me, helping you to deal with those clients? On what grounds?”

“Do you know there’s a saying that one needs a just cause to get things done?”

Chapter 1045

“If the Silver Nimbus Enterprise belongs to the Yates family and I come forward, then yes, it’s only natural for the big shots to show me respect.”

“Consider, if I come forward on your behalf, who are you to them? You’re nothing! Why would they humor you?!”

“That’s how it is! Look, I’ll give you a day. Think about it. You can also discuss this with Mandy. But if there’s still no decision by this time tomorrow, then don’t blame the Yates family for not recognizing you as our relatives!”

Keith sneered and waved his hand. He helped Grandma Yates to stand, and then all of them left.

He knew they couldn’t get what they wanted today after Xynthia and Harvey made such a fuss.

He was about to go back and use his influence to pressure Simon and Lilian. If he did that, then he might not even need to give one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Chapter 1045

Grant glanced at Harvey and sneered.

To him, Harvey was just a reckless man; a fool.

Even if Harvey forced them away today, what's the use?

Grant had been so careful in arranging everything. How could anyone possibly see through it?

No matter how he looked at it, everything was still under his control!

After the Yates family was gone, Lilian glared at Harvey fiercely. "You only cause more harm than good!"

"If it wasn't for you, maybe this whole incident could be solved by today!"

"I should have listened to Grandma Yates and drove you out!"

Harvey smiled. "Mother, don't you know what kind of a person Mandy is? She'd never make a fortune at the expense of morality!”

Chapter 1045

“Luckily, you haven’t sold the equity. When the truth comes out tomorrow and Mandy ends up perfectly fine, then you would’ve regretted your decision.”

Both Simon and Lilian looked conflicted at Harvey’s words.

After a while, Lilian pointed at Harvey and said, “If the truth isn’t revealed tomorrow, then I’ll kick you useless trash out of this house!”

As Simon and Lilian left, Harvey comforted Xynthia. Then, he contacted Alex.

“Sir Swift, please check on Grant Bright from Regency Enterprise. If I’m not mistaken, this man may have a lot of information!”

Chapter 1046

Chapter 1046

In the evening, the Yateses gathered at a clubhouse.

Keith held a glass of wine with a smile, saying, “Grant, your plan’s quite good. I’ve just contacted several people from the government.”

“Tomorrow, they’ll exert pressure on Silver Nimbus Enterprise. I doubt Simon and Lilian could withstand that!”

“This time tomorrow, we’ll get Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s equity!”

“We Yateses will become a top-tier family!”

Grant raised his wine glass as well. “Thank you for giving me this opportunity, Sir Yates. I promise I’ll go all out for the Yates family in the future, and I’ll never hesitate!”

“I’ll be Yateses’ cash cow from now on!”

Chapter 1046

The Yates family laughed loudly as they listened to Grant.

Leyton covered his face. "Big Brother, I think we have to teach that cretin Harvey a lesson after this whole thing is over!"

"He's just trash! How dare he hit me?! He's unbelievable!"

Tanya also gritted her teeth. "Yes! That kind of man should sit in prison for the rest of his life!"

Grant grinned and said, "Sir Yates, this live-in son-in-law is indeed an unstable factor. It's best to find a way to deal with him when everything's over."

Keith smiled as well. "Don't worry, I know what to do."

Grandma Yates sighed. "Sigh! He's actually a good child. It so happens he's gone off on the wrong path. Don't put him in jail, just think of a way to get rid of him for good."

Grandma Yates looked sad and pitiful, but her words were the cruelest.

Chapter 1046

She actually wanted to kill Harvey.

Grant's face changed slightly. He finally understood the nature of the Yates family.

There was no such thing as familial love in their eyes, only benefits.

In order to acquire the profit they seek, they were willing to sacrifice anyone!

It seemed he would have to find a way to leave them when he's received the end of his bargain.

Despite thinking such things, Grant's face remained unchanged as he toasted with Keith.

Bang!

Suddenly, a loud noise sounded from the door. The next moment, someone kicked it open.

Several inspectors rushed in from outside, all of them armed.

Chapter 1046

The Yateses were shocked. What's this situation?

Why were there so many inspectors here?

Keith's face twisted.

He was the third-in-command of South Light! How dare mere inspectors barge into his room abruptly?

They even dared to point a firearm at him!

Just then the crowd of inspectors dispersed and a man in uniform stepped in.

When Keith saw the man, he frowned. "Sir Swift. What's the meaning of all this?"

"Have you forgotten that I'm the third-in-command of South Light? I'm your immediate superior!"

"Bringing a group of inspectors and ruining my family banquet! You are insolent! Presumptuous!"

"Hurry up! Kneel and apologize to Grandma Yates! I might still consider forgiving you."

Chapter 1046

Seeing Alex, Keith instantly felt that he had the upper hand.

In the South Light Government, he was the one in charge of the general police station. Thus, Alex was his subordinate.

He couldn't be bothered about Alex, and was filled with arrogance.

However, what Alex said next made Keith's face change drastically.

"Sir Yates, right now I'm carrying out your orders, and that is to handle the Silver Nimbus Enterprise case with absolute impartiality!"

"Royals and commoners are equal under the law!"

Chapter 1047

Chapter 1047

Keith's face wasn't the only one that had turned extremely awful.

The faces of the other members of the Yates family also changed instantly.

However, Grandma Yates quickly snapped out of it. She smiled and said, "Sir Swift, I still remember the last time you came to congratulate me on my birthday. I've always wanted to visit you, but I never had the time for it."

"It's better to meet by chance today. How about sitting down for a drink?"

The Yateses looked at Alex, unsure of his purpose for suddenly coming here.

He kept saying that the case was handled impartially. Could it be that he had discovered something?

Chapter 1047

Alex replied coldly, "No thanks."

"We're here today to arrest a person. I would like to ask Sir Yates to cooperate with us."

"What? Arrest who?" Keith and the others were all surprised.

"Grant Bright from Regency Enterprise. You are suspected of multiple crimes. We have solid evidence, you're being charged!"

Alex said mercilessly, his expression icy.

"Huh? What? I'm being arrested? Do you have any evidence?"

Grant couldn't believe his ears.

"To tell you the truth, we've recovered the footage of the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort's construction site."

"The workers who resigned overnight have also been found out.”

“They have already confessed about you and claimed that you are the one behind all this!”

“Grant, you’re finished! I advise you to come with me. You have the right to be silent, and every word you say will be testified in court!”

Alex sneered.

“Arrest him!”

Before the Yateses could react, Grant was immediately handcuffed and taken away by the inspectors.

The Yates family remained silent for a long time when those people left. Their complexions were extremely awful.

Although Grant was the executor of the plan, the Yateses controlled everything behind the scenes. If he confessed about them...

Keith’s complexion worsened even more when he thought of this.

Chapter 1047

Perhaps they had to find a way to get rid of Grant.

As for the Silver Nimbus Enterprise, they couldn't rush it since things had reached this point.

Grant's arrest meant that Mandy would be acquitted.

As Keith thought of this, his expressions keep fluctuating.

"Who is it?! Who's messing around with the Yates family?!"

The next day.

The South Light General Police Station held a press conference early in the morning to clarify the affairs of the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort.

The truth of the matter surprised everyone.

It turned out that a member of Regency Enterprise had framed Silver Nimbus Enterprise for commercial interests.

Chapter 1047

He bribed the workers on the construction site overnight, splashing strong acid to destroy the buildings, and then replacing fine river sand with inferior sea sand.

In truth, the villas at the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort had no issues with quality.

At the same time, Oskar Armstrong's operation was also successful. The victim was very grateful when he woke up.

It turned out that he was severely injured not because of the accident, but because Grant had ordered the workers to do it.

Grant initially wanted to kill him, but he never expected Oskar would still be alive and wake up to reveal the truth.

Grant was guilty of reputation damage, life violation, and other crimes that were convicted in the first place.

Then, another piece of news came out.

Grant actually committed suicide in prison!

Since things had come to this, all the trails had reached a dead end. The special operations team could no longer investigate anything, and could only declare the case closed.

However, Silver Nimbus Enterprise managed to regain its innocence.

Mandy and the rest of the company executives were all released.

The first thing Mandy did after her release was to hold a high-level meeting and distribute bonuses to all the executives who suffered injustice. Her actions calmed the hearts of the people.

Chapter 1048

Chapter 1048

Senior Oskar Armstrong was also very pleased.

The victim's family, who had initially blamed him, brought some fruits as an apology and to thank him personally.

Oskar had no interest in pursuing fame, wealth, or power in his life. Instead, the happiest thing for him was to have his subordinate recover.

Those who initially wanted to return the villas they've bought at Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort no longer clamored to do so.

As it turned out, Senior Oskar Armstrong did not speak or advertise indiscriminately.

The quality of the construction of the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort was very good.

In addition, Silver Nimbus Enterprise would find a way to upgrade the overall quality and supporting facilities after the whole fiasco.

Chapter 1048

Who would be willing to return the villas that would increase in value?

Soon the business of Silver Nimbus Enterprise resumed, with the exception of the few boutique villas that Mandy kept, which she planned to use for asking favors in the future.

Other than that, all the other villas had been sold.

It was worth mentioning that Mandy had already taken back all the villas which were originally intended to be sold to the Yateses.

They had simply voiced out their intentions to buy them, but never did pay any money. They didn't even come to sign any agreements.

The Yateses had kicked Mandy and her family when they were down, thus Mandy was furious with the Yates family.

Chapter 1048

Meanwhile, the Yates family...

It could be said the Yateses had suffered heavy losses. They had lost everything.

They didn't lose much money, but Keith still used a lot of connections and power to orchestrate the entire incident.

However, those who had offered him help were now a little scared and started to distance themselves from the Yates family after seeing how things had turned out.

Hence, the Yates family's connections and power had been reduced a lot.

It could be said that the Yates family had suffered a great loss this time. Their family's strength was reduced by at least about thirty percent.

Nonetheless, Keith Yates, the third-in-command in South Light couldn't do anything.

This time, not only did he not succeed, he even got himself into unexpected trouble.

Chapter 1048

Fortunately, there was some good news for the Yates family.

Previously, Keith figured out who was the new first-in-command in the South Light Military through his teacher's connections.

Bellamy Blake, the former second-in-command of the Gangnam Military Department, was now promoted due to the switch in defenses. ①

Bellamy came from the Sword Camp. He was Ethan Hunt's superior in the past, and was later hired by the Gangnam Military Department.

His return to South Light to take up this post was also considered as returning to his home.

Bellamy was very close to the Chief Instructor of Sword Camp.

As such, Keith was looking forward to Bellamy's return.

He had always wanted to let Finn Yates train under the Chief Instructor and seek an opportunity to become that man's disciple.

Chapter 1048

As long as he could curry favor with the Chief Instructor and get to know him, the Yateses would always have the chance to rise.

For the time being, the embezzlement of the Silver Nimbus Enterprise had failed and could not continue.

The Yates family could only put their hopes on this.

Apart from the Yateses, the Leo family from Hong Kong, the Robbins family, the Cloude family, and others were also looking forward to it.

Specifically, the Robbins family and the Cloude family. They tried their best to win a place for the juniors in their family to participate in the switch of defenses event.

The princes of both the families were especially happy.

After all, the more powerful people were, the more they valued such events.

Chapter 1048

For them, this was a chance to attain more high-level connections.

If they could get to know the Chief Instructor, it would be a pretty big deal!

Even if they didn't get to know him, they could go out and brag about it in the future!

The Robbins family and the Cloude family had even begun to send unmarried women in their families for posture training.

Their purpose was very simple. They heard that the Chief Instructor was still very young and hadn't married yet. If they had the chance to make him theirs, how good would it be?

Chapter 1049

Chapter 1049

The next day.

Harvey was about to go to Sky Corporation when Mandy walked out of the room.

“Harvey, I’ve acquired a piece of land in the past two days and I’m trying to finish the formal process.”

“Xynthia’s taking her exams today. Can you help me send her?” Mandy asked.

The incident went viral this time. Silver Nimbus Enterprise did not lose its reputation, but instead became famous.

Mandy took advantage of the opportunity to acquire several lands in Buckwood that she fancied. She was preparing to purchase them and push Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s business to the next level.

Harvey smiled when he heard of Mandy's intentions.

It was good that his wife was so motivated. He would take care of the little things for her.

“Okay. I'll send her there. She's taking the exam at Buckwood University, right?”

“Yes.”

Although Harvey despised Buckwood University and planned to send Xynthia to a well-known university...

Xynthia wanted to take the entrance exam by herself. Today was the day of the exam, and time was running out.

Harvey was about to leave after sending Xynthia.

“Brother-in-law, wait for me here. You can send me back home after I finish the exam.”

Xynthia seemed a little bit nervous.

Chapter 1049

Harvey nodded, studying her expression.

Although he used to have a bad relationship with his sister-in-law, they were good friends who could talk about everything now.

Since she asked for it, Harvey wouldn't refuse now.

He found a random bench to lie down and rest. It was already noon when Xynthia woke him up.

“Brother-in-law, let's have a meal together! They said the canteen at Buckwood University is cheap and very good. I want to try it!”

Xynthia stared at Harvey with anticipation.

She had heard that if she could have a meal with her sweetheart in the canteen of Buckwood University, they might have a chance at romance.

It was why she asked Harvey to wait for her today.

How would Harvey know these little girls' thoughts? He checked the time after hearing her words. Indeed, it was already time for a meal.

Chapter 1049

He did not refuse and said, "Okay, we'll eat at the canteen and go back after that."

"Go, go, go! Brother-in-law, this way!" Xynthia took Harvey's hand and strolled around the campus.

Harvey didn't mind it.

Xynthia had kissed his face and wrapped his arms around his neck at home before.

What's the big deal with holding hands? It was how Xynthia normally acted.

Harvey treated her like a three-year-old girl. She was just a child and his sister-in-law. It was normal for him to spoil her to some extent.

The passing students watching them didn't share his sentiments.

Although Xynthia came for the exam today, she had also participated in the supplementary classes for the exams before that.

Chapter 1049

She was too beautiful. An incredibly attractive beauty, in fact. As such, many knew her.

It had been said that many college students sent her love letters, but she turned them all down.

They never expected the beautiful junior, Xynthia Zimmer, would actually walk around campus while holding a man's hand.

The scene shocked many.

No matter how you looked at it, this man was obviously much older.

They never expected that Xynthia preferred older men instead of her peers.

The gazes on Xynthia and Harvey grew stranger and stranger.

Harvey was speechless. He wasn't stupid, and quickly understood what was going on.

Xynthia took his hand and shook it around, saying,

Chapter 1049

“Brother-in-law, please do me this favor.”

“If not, some random guy will send me flowers even when I come to take the exam. It’s so annoying!”

“Just let them think that I have a boyfriend, and they’ll give up. Then I’ll be able to study with ease!”

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1050

Chapter 1050

Xynthia said it righteously, but in truth, she had other thoughts.

This was a rare opportunity for her to get close to her brother-in-law.

Harvey felt there was something wrong with Xynthia's statement, but since she said it was for her studies, then he had to help her out.

He had no choice. He'd taken great pains to make this sister-in-law of his study hard.

Seeing the two holding hands and leaning to each other...

Many of Xynthia's admirers saw it. They were so angry, they were about to vomit blood!

"That Xynthia looks so pure and innocent. She's actually in love with an old uncle?!”

Chapter 1050

“No. I’m against it!”

“Come on, what right do you have to say that? Who do you think you are?!”

Many boys were furious, but they only dared to curse from afar and didn’t say anything else.

Soon, Xynthia brought Harvey to the canteen.

The two of them ate at a corner. They didn’t expect to still receive a lot of attention despite doing so. Many continued to stare at them.

Harvey was speechless. “Xynthia, can you stop dressing up so nicely in the future? See, many people are staring at you.”

Xynthia pursed her lip. “Brother-in-law, I didn’t even put on any makeup. This is my bare face. I’m like my sister, naturally beautiful!”

“By the way, tell me! Who looks prettier to you, my sister or I?”

Chapter 1050

When she finished speaking, Xynthia displayed her face in front of Harvey, blinking her big eyes. Her breath could be heard.

Harvey had to admit, both Mandy and Xynthia were enchanting beauties. The difference was that Mandy was a grown woman. She was more graceful and elegant.

However, Xynthia's youthfulness was also breathtaking. Her face was full of collagen. Anyone who looked at it would certainly want to kiss her.

Harvey couldn't help reaching out his hand and pinched Xynthia's face. "How should you talk to your brother-in-law? Hmm?"

"Brother-in-law, it hurts..." Xynthia begged for mercy again and again. Her eyes were full of tears.

"Brother-in-law, let me go. I'll treat you to something delicious! Oh right, I forgot to bring the money. Do you have any?"

Harvey was fond of her. He fumbled out his wallet and threw it over.

Chapter 1050

Xynthia took a stack of money happily and went to order.

However, this heart-warming scene looked like they were flirting to others. Those who watched were trembling with anger.

Soon, the food was served.

Harvey had to admit that the quality of the canteen food was not bad, especially the dishes that were served in big portions, which fully met Harvey's requirements.

He immediately started eating, pleased.

After that, he wasted no time and was about to leave with Xynthia.

Xynthia was jumping around with joy. She was delighted.

People with sharp eyes quickly understood that Xynthia must be deeply in love with this old man after watching the whole scene.

Chapter 1050

Many boys were heartbroken. They couldn't wait to hang themselves.

Just as Harvey and Mandy exited the canteen, a large group of people approached them.

Blocking their way.

They were dressed in basketball jerseys, all of them looking very domineering.

“Mason, what's the meaning of this?!”

Xynthia said, frowning.

Mason Warner was the young master of Regency Enterprise and a freshman at Buckwood University. He kept badgering Xynthia since seeing her a month ago, but she had rejected him multiple times.

Mason didn't care about Xynthia. Instead, he glared at Harvey and snarled, “How dare you touch the woman that I like? Do you want to die?!”

“Walk out of the gate now, or I'll crush you!” 2

Chapter 1051

Harvey looked at Mason, a faint smile slowly appearing on his face.

No wonder Xynthia wanted to act out a scene with him. There were quite a lot of pests around.

And the attitude of said pest in front of them right now was putting him in a terrible mood.

If it were any ordinary pursuer, at most Harvey would've just observed from the sidelines. If he took a liking to the person, he might even lend a hand.

But this brat was displaying the attitude of an aggressive playboy. Harvey had no intention to make his sister-in-law fall into the hands of such a person.

Harvey hadn't finished talking before an enraged

Chapter 1051

Xynthia intervened, shouting, "Mason Warner! I already told you clearly that we're not meant to be!"

"What right do you have to butt in my business?!"

"Right?"

Mason chuckled.

"I represent everything in Buckwood University. Whoever that I demand to be my girlfriend has to be my girlfriend!"

"That's the rule in Buckwood University. Don't you get it?"

"All the students here know. Anyone who steals my girl would end up with their arms and legs broken!"

Mason announced arrogantly.

He was the rich heir of the Regency Enterprise. There were plenty who wanted to flatter and please him.

His behavior was arrogant and domineering, and he often instigated fights without even uttering a word. He was the tyrant of Buckwood University who did whatever he pleased.

Chapter 1051

Rumors had it that he even hooked up with some female lecturers in the university. None of them could reject him, and were forced into being his girlfriend for at least a few months or so.

Yet Xynthia actually dared to push Mason away again and again. She even brought some random man to flaunt throughout the entire university! This was a clear show of disrespect towards him!

Mason's posse, a group of young men in basketball jerseys, stepped out behind him and started to make loud exclamations.

"Xynthia Zimmer! Count yourself lucky that Master Warner admires you!"

"I can't believe you went to look for some other guy. You have no clue what's good for you! Hell, you just embarrassed the entire Warner family!"

"Even if you're into random dudes, you need to let us have our way with you before you could find someone else!”

Chapter 1051

“Any woman Master Warner likes can never escape his grasp!”

“We already tried convincing you to give in to him. Why are you trying to act like you’re so pure and innocent?”

When they were done with their revolting insults, they roared with raucous laughter.

The sight roused anger in Xynthia’s other pursuers, who were watching by the sidelines, but none of them dared to utter a single in her defense.

Mason had the Regency Enterprise to back him up, so the common man couldn’t provoke him.

Most importantly, Mason was a student athlete. He was rather tall and strong, and was said to have studied mixed martial arts ever since he was a child. He could easily crush three weak nerds, and thus nobody had the guts to go against him.

Chapter 1051

Mason waved a hand, signalling his posse to keep silent. He crossed his arms and glared coldly at Harvey.

“Alright, enough nonsense. I’m in a hurry, so beat it.”

“If you don’t, I promise you won’t even have the strength to crawl out of here. Hell, you’re going to need a stretcher when you leave!”

Mason was incredibly haughty. To him, Harvey was as good as filth.

Several security guards were patrolling the premises. When they saw that the ruckus was caused by Mason, they left without batting an eye.

Their actions were proof of Mason’s superiority and dominance over Buckwood University.

“Xynthia, what’s going on here?”

At that moment, a stylishly-dressed student walked over with a frown. 2

Chapter 1052

Chapter 1052

“Senior Dwayne!”

Upon seeing the newcomer, Xynthia politely greeted him.

Dwayne Haris was also a student at Buckwood University. He was in his fourth year, and rarely stayed on campus.

He was also another one of Xynthia’s pursuers, though he appeared to be more personable.

“Is Mason giving you a hard time again?”

Dwayne wasn’t there to witness what had just transpired, but he immediately approached Xynthia with a smile.

To him, the more trouble Mason gave Xynthia, the more chances he would get to save the damsel in distress.

Dwayne glared at Mason and frowned, saying, “Mister Warner, didn’t I already warn you? Stop harassing Xynthia!”

“This is none of your business!”

Mason yelled, though his expression had worsened slightly.

He knew who Dwayne was. Even though Dwayne’s family was not that rich, Dwayne’s father worked for the Buckwood government, so his status was quite high.

Unless Mason really had to, he didn’t want to provoke Dwayne.

“What did you say?”

Dwayne’s face darkened. He had a better personality compared to Mason, but he was also from a wealthy family and had never been scolded by anyone before.

“Dwayne, are you brain-dead? Didn’t you see

Chapter 1052

Xynthia bringing some random guy to this uni? You're still defending her in spite of this? Are you a moron?" Mason snapped icily.

Dwayne froze, then sized up Harvey and replied coldly, "Mason, this is no reason for you to cause a ruckus. Just leave it for today."

"I can handle Xynthia getting harassed by strange men."

"Show me some respect."

To Dwayne, Harvey was just as insignificant as a social worker.

Harvey, who was standing right beside Xynthia, was now in an extremely bad mood. However, he was not as blunt as Mason.

Harvey stared at Dwayne before nodding.

Since he had a bit of manners, he wasn't that bad of a student.

"Respect? Dwayne Haris! Do you really think that you can step on me just because your father works for the government? What are you gonna do if I don't show you any respect?"

Chapter 1052

Nobody expected Mason, who would at least show some sort of respect toward Dwayne, would simply chuckle coldly about it.

Dwayne was stunned.

'Is Mason's head empty today?'

'Doesn't he know that my father can cause trouble for the Regency Enterprise anytime he wants?'

In reality, Dwayne didn't know.

Because of what happened some time ago, Regency Enterprise was now in cahoots with the Yates family.

With South Light's third-in-command as the company's support, how could the rich heir of Regency Enterprise bow down to a mere Dwayne Haris?

"Mason Warner, are you trying to stir up trouble?!"

Chapter 1052

Dwayne' expression was as cold as ice.

He was a man who wanted to keep his dignity intact.

Since Mason would not show Dwayne any respect and let him off the hook, there was no chance of dropping the matter so easily.

Dwayne was in his fourth year, while Mason was only a freshman.

If Mason remained indifferent after humiliating Dwayne like this, how could Dwayne show his face to the public in the future?

“So what if I am? I'm not just gonna make trouble; if I say I'm going to beat you up, would you believe me?”

Mason marched up toward Dwayne and gave Dwayne a light slap.

“You're trying to die!”

Dwayne let out a cold laugh before stripping off his clothes, revealing a black belt around his waist.

Chapter 1052

“Come at me! I don’t care if it’s just you or your thug pals! Today, I’ll teach you a lesson about respecting your seniors!”

“Heh...”

Mason chuckled.

He was used to parading arrogantly in the university. Nobody had ever dared to fight against him.

Chapter 1053

Chapter 1053

Dwayne Haris and Mason Warner were both very influential figures in Buckwood University. Word about their fight quickly spread, attracting quite a lot of curious students.

Mason bore a wretched expression, but Dwayne was indifferent and even had the time to give a friendly wave to the girls around him.

He was the president of the Taekwondo association in Buckwood University and had a black belt under his name. Along with his handsome looks, he had garnered quite a lot of fan girls.

Dwayne was in truth delighted by Mason's attitude today.

He believed that if he could beat up Mason, Xynthia would know which man to choose.

Chapter 1053

Dwayne stretched out a hand and hooked his index finger in a mocking gesture, challenging Mason to approach him.

Mason let out a cold laugh before throwing a basketball furiously at Dwayne.

However, Dwayne raised his leg and kicked the basketball away.

But right after he landed his kick, Mason was already rushing toward him and attacked him with a hard slap to the face.

Slap!

The slap was enough to send Dwayne flying. The moment he landed on the ground, Mason rushed forward and kicked him in the stomach.

“Ngh!”

Dwayne was in extreme pain. His body curled up like a dried shrimp, and at that moment, he was unable to stand.

Chapter 1053

Before the tall and strong Mason, his so-called black belt was useless.

The students all around were shocked.

Everyone wanted to see a fierce fight, but they never imagined that the man of the moment, Dwayne Haris, would be this intolerant to pain. A slap and a kick was enough to keep him down!

They stared at Mason, fearful.

As expected from a student athlete! Mason's physical strength and explosive power was not one that an ordinary student could compare to.

With his abilities, how would anybody in the university dare to cross him in the future?

Mason turned to everyone around him, laughing coldly.

"I'm telling you all! From today onwards, I'm the king of Buckwood University!"

"Any woman I want will be mine!"

Chapter 1053

“I’m the one who owns this place! You plebs understand?!”

His posse, who stood at the side, laughed along. They looked at the influential seniors who were in the crowd.

The so-called influential seniors all had their heads hung low.

When it came to money, the Regency Enterprise had an endless supply.

When it came to connections, Mason daring to beat up Dwayne was more than enough to prove everything.

When it came to strength, everyone here knew they were no match against Mason.

Simply put, Mason would have the final say in all of Buckwood University from this day onwards.

The crowd fell into dead silence. Nobody dared to raise their heads and look at Mason.

Chapter 1053

Mason grinned triumphantly and turned to Xynthia.

He believed she now understood what kind of man she should choose.

Only a strong man like himself could protect his woman.

Xynthia had grown slightly worried after seeing everything. She said, "Brother-in-law, Mason seems really strong. Maybe you should leave. I'm scared he might hurt you!"

Harvey chuckled.

"His combat skills are mediocre. They're nothing to be afraid of."

Back then, Harvey had experienced what it was like to be in purgatory, to be in a bloodbath.

In his eyes, Mason and Dwayne's fight was akin to children playing house. The entire thing was a complete joke.

It was hilarious how Mason was trying to use the fight to threaten him.

Chapter 1053

Mason's sight then landed on Harvey. He cackled coldly.

“Old man, I told you to get out of here but you wouldn't. You don't have the chance to back away now.”

Harvey's reply was calm. “I'm not interested in hurting children. If you apologize to Xynthia and promise you'll never harass her again, I'll let this slide.”

Chapter 1054

Harvey had no intention to brawl with children.

Mason was acting as if he was the king of the world.

But in Harvey's eyes, he was only a brat.

How could Harvey have the slightest interest?

He was only willing to talk because he hoped that Mason would stop harassing Xynthia.

Normally speaking, forget a rich heir of Regency Enterprise, even the university dean had no right to speak to him.

However, Mason found Harvey's words to be a great humiliation.

He pointed an angry finger at Harvey and screamed, "Who do you think you are to tell me to apologize?!"

Chapter 1054

“I’m warning you! I’m on to you!”

“I want Xynthia, and I’m gonna sleep with her tonight! Not only that, I’ll make you kneel and watch from the side!”

Mason’s posse revealed wretched, perverted expressions at his exclamation.

Naturally, it wasn’t their first time doing something like that.

But Mason’s words drove Harvey into rage.

He couldn't even bear to tease his own sister-in-law that way.

But these bracts actually dared to say something like that?

Harvey took a step forward wordlessly.

Seeing Harvey’s actions, Mason became excited.

“You wanted to die yourself, old man. I won’t even pay you a cent when I cripple you later!”

Chapter 1054

Mason had already thought of a dozen ways to beat up Harvey.

He was ready to use Harvey to threaten Xynthia. If he did that, he could have a lot of fun later tonight!

In the blink of an eye, Harvey was right in front of Mason.

Mason pulled no punches and went straight into kicking his right leg right at Harvey.

He anticipated that Harvey's head would be spinning profusely when his kick landed.

However, in the next second, Mason's expression changed drastically.

Harvey raised his left hand casually, locking Mason's ankle in place.

Then, he swung his other hand.

Bang!

Mason fell brutally to the ground, face first. Some of his teeth flew out, and few of his ribs were now broken.

Chapter 1054

“Aaaah!”

The cries similar to that of a dying pig echoed. At that point, Mason couldn't even muster the strength to roll on the ground.

Harvey stomped on Mason's head with one foot, pushing and crushing Mason's face into the dirt.

Then, Harvey added calmly, “I'll give you a warning. Next time if you stand within thirty feet of Xynthia, it won't only be a few broken teeth and ribs that you'll miss.”

After that, he took Xynthia and left.

The scene was dead silent.

Nobody would've thought that Mason, the man who claimed to be king of Buckwood University, would be beaten up to a pulp in less than a minute.

Everyone shot Mason glares of disdain.

Chapter 1054

‘Student athlete?’

‘The rich heir of Regency Enterprise?’

‘What a worthless sack of garbage!’

...

At the same time, at the Silver Nimbus Enterprise headquarters.

In Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s meeting room, Mandy Zimmer was discussing matters of purchasing land with the CEO of Regency Enterprise, Jacob Warner.

Regency Enterprise had accumulated quite a lot of land in Buckwood. Some of the land Mandy was interested in was owned by Regency Enterprise.

The two parties were currently at the preliminary stages of collaboration.

Silver Nimbus Enterprise was hoping to have total ownership of the lands.

Chapter 1054

However, Regency Enterprise hoped for Silver Nimbus Enterprise to buy shares of its property and achieve a win-win scenario.

Safe to say, the situation involved the interests of both parties, which was why it was quite difficult for them to negotiate the terms.

It was at this moment when Jacob's phone rang.

“What’s the matter?”

“He’s been sent to the emergency room?!”

The initially calm and peaceful Jacob’s expression changed instantly. He stood up, furious.

“CEO Warner, are you alright?” Mandy asked.

Jacob replied with a frown, “CEO Zimmer, I’m afraid we’ll have to postpone the negotiations for a few days.”

“My son was beaten up badly on campus and was sent to the hospital. The perpetrator wasn’t found, either. I have to go take a look.”

“My son can’t possibly be beaten up for nothing now, can he?”

Mandy held the collaboration between their two companies in high regard. Listening to Jacob, she said, "Then I shall accompany CEO Warner to visit as well."

Chapter 1055

"Alright."

Soon, the two arrived at the hospital.

Jacob's face twisted into a vicious expression when he saw Mason pushed out of the emergency room, covered in plaster casts.

"Who did this to you?! Didn't you tell them that you're the heir of Regency Enterprise?!"

Jacob's face was filled with murderous intent.

"Father, I told him! But he didn't even care!"

"He even said he'll even break your legs if you were there!"

"Father, I can't stand this! You have to get revenge for me!"

Mason demanded through gritted teeth, vexed.

Chapter 1055

“Rest assured. With me here, I’ll bring justice for you!”

“After all the years we’ve spent in Buckwood, Regency Enterprise is not to be trifled with! Whoever touches my son, I’ll have them dead!”

“Do you know the man who beat you?”

Jacob showed no remorse.

Mason replied through clenched teeth, “It’s some social worker named Harvey York!”

When Mandy heard the name, she froze.

Jacob was an experienced man who had travelled around the globe for many years.

From the change in Mandy’s expression, he immediately understood that she knew who Harvey York was.

He then politely asked, “CEO Zimmer, don’t tell me that you know Harvey York?”

Chapter 1055

Mandy rubbed on her forehead, feeling a headache coming. "That man might be my husband..."

"Heh! Not bad, CEO Zimmer! Negotiate with me on one side, then ask your husband to beat up my son and send him to the hospital on the other side! You Silver Nimbus Enterprise folk sure are domineering!"

Having assumed that this was Mandy's attempt to threaten him, Jacob's face immediately became ice cold.

Mandy hurriedly shook her head. "CEO Warner, while I don't know what exactly happened, this whole thing seems like an accident!"

"I sincerely want to work with Regency Enterprise!"

"I'll give the Regency Enterprise a fair statement about this whole mess!"

"We'll also give full compensation and cover all the medical fees!"

Seeing Mandy showing her vulnerable side, Jacob burst into cold laughter. “Compensate the medical fees? Do you think Regency Enterprise needs the extra money?”

Chapter 1055

“IWe’re not finished with this! Don’t think that Regency Enterprise has no support. We have backing even from South Light’s government!”

“If you don’t explain the matter properly, then we’ll see you in court!”

At Jacob’s declaration, Mandy’s expression changed instantly.

Silver Nimbus Enterprise had finally regained some traction and the company’s business eventually went back on the right track.

But because of Harvey, the company might be sued and suffer losses again!

Rage filled Mandy, and she hurriedly called Harvey.

“Harvey! Did you beat someone up at Buckwood University?!”

“Do you have any idea who you’ve hurt?!”

Chapter 1056

Chapter 1056

“Hurt?”

On the other side of the phone, Harvey had already forgotten about the affair with Mason.

When Mandy questioned him, he suddenly remembered.

“I didn’t beat up anybody. I only sparred with a kid.”

“Sparred?”

Mandy was livid.

“You tell me that it’s only sparring when you hospitalized the heir of Regency Enterprise?!”

“I’m telling you right now! You’re in big trouble!”

Mandy hung up angrily.

Chapter 1056

She took a deep breath and calmed down soon after, and then bowed to Jacob. “CEO Warner, this whole incident is our fault!”

“I’m willing to pay one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for your son’s to compensate for your son’s emotional assault, along with the medical fees.”

“Regarding our collaboration, my company is willing to give ten percent of our shares to express my apologies.”

But Mandy’s words only made Jacob laugh coldly. “Money? You really think Regency Enterprise is short on money?”

Mandy frowned.

“Then why don’t you make your request, CEO Warner? We’ll do everything in our power, as long as you can keep this matter private.”

Jacob pondered briefly before replying, “Number one! Regency Enterprise will have seventy percent of the shares in our collaboration project.”

Chapter 1056

“Number two! Your husband will have the same amount of broken ribs as my son, and I’ll be the one breaking them.”

“Number three! From now on, you’ll be sleeping with me for a whole month. When my son’s injuries are all healed, your sister will sleep with him for a month!”

“If you can fulfill all three of these conditions, I won’t pursue this matter any further!”

Jacob wore an icy smile. When he first set his eyes on Mandy, it took his breath away.

Now that the opportunity had presented itself, he’d definitely take advantage of it and realize his shameless fantasies.

“CEO Warner, I can accept the first condition!”

“But don’t even think about the next two conditions!” Mandy snarled, her expression awful.

She hadn’t expected the personable Jacob Warner would turn out to be such a filthy man.

Chapter 1056

Had she known earlier, she would've never chosen to collaborate with Regency Enterprise.

“Heh...”

Jacob chuckled mockingly at Mandy's outburst. 1

“So what you're saying is, you're only thinking of compensating Regency Enterprise with money? Like I said, do you honestly think that we're short of cash?”

“Since you won't accept my conditions, I'll get Sir Yates to do us justice!”

Jacob's gaze held a disdainful sneer.

Instantly, Mandy's expression turned for the worst.

She knew full well how the Yates family thought of her.

Previously, the Yateses tried to take over Silver Nimbus Enterprise, only to fail.

Chapter 1056

If they were involved again due to this incident with Regency Enterprise, there would be big trouble.

If everything was handled impartially, Harvey might be thrown into jail for a few years and Silver Nimbus Enterprise's reputation would definitely be affected.

On the contrary, if they handled this matter privately, the only thing that would happen was Harvey's ribs getting broken and Mandy suffering some humiliation.

The Yates family could even take advantage of this mess to snatch all of Mandy's property.

"CEO Warner. You're not telling me that Regency Enterprise's support from South Light's government is actually my uncle, right?"

Mandy's face was utterly horrible.

"Heh, you're smart! You should know what Sir Yates thinks of you!"

"Either you accept my conditions, or we wait for Sir

Chapter 1056

Yates to handle this and plunge your family into misery!”

“I’ll give you half a day to think about it.”

“If you don’t reply to me by dinner time, you know what will happen next!”

Jacob let out a derisive chuckle before turning around and leaving. 3

At the Yateses' residence.

Jacob dropped by for a visit, bringing hefty gifts with him. His face bore a horrid expression. "Sir Yates, is South Light's business climate already this bad?"

"People could go on and cripple their competitor's child just to win a negotiation?"

At this, Keith Yates's expression changed. "Who's acting so presumptuously?!"

"South Light's business climate has always been fair and square! Whoever's causing a ruckus like that is only making life difficult for themselves!"

"Didn't you tell your opponent that I'm the one supporting you behind the scenes?"

Jacob sighed and replied, "Sir Yates, perhaps your influence isn't so great after all.”

Chapter 1057

“My son Mason already brought up your name, but someone still had the audacity to break his ribs. He's in the hospital right now, barely hanging on!”

“What?!”

Keith stood up furiously, his expression horrible.

Because of the previous incident, the connections that belonged to the Yateses had decreased by thirty percent.

To cover for their losses, the Yateses intentionally tried to win over Regency Enterprise.

But now Keith's pseudo subordinate, the CEO of Regency Enterprise's son, was actually beaten up to the point he was hospitalized! The culprit had no thought of paying South Light's third-in-command any respect at all!

“Tell me! Who did it?! I'll get revenge for you!”

Keith exclaimed.

Jacob's eyes revealed a cold gaze. He said, “Mandy

Chapter 1057

Zimmer from the Silver Nimbus Enterprise was the one negotiating with me. The one who beat up my son was Harvey York!”

“What?! It’s that bastard?”

The Yates family’s expressions all changed dramatically after hearing those names.

Not only did this live-in son-in-law ruin their plans before, he even dared to hurt Jacob’s son?

This was not in their plans!

Jacob studied the Yates family’s expressions and added slyly, “Sir Yates, is this trouble too much for you to handle?”

“Or is this man a hard case to crack?”

Keith took a deep breath and replied coldly, “I’ll be honest with you, CEO Warner. Mandy is actually our family’s granddaughter-in-law.”

“And Harvey York is her husband.”

“Of course, don’t assume that I’ll side with them

Chapter 1057

just because we're relatives!"

"In all honesty, right now we hate their entire family!"

Jacob was waiting for Keith to say these words. Wanting to fan the flames even further, he said, "So it is him! I've heard about it before. Your family's granddaughter-in-law seemed willing to give a part of the Silver Nimbus Enterprise's equity for the Yates family."

"Unfortunately, that live-in son-in-law stopped her."

"And now, he's acting so outrageously! I think he has bad intentions!"

"He was actually flirting with his sister-in-law at Buckwood University, as if nobody was there. This is unacceptable behavior!"

"Coincidentally, my son has a thing for his sister-in-law. I can't believe he got beaten up like this just because he said a few words to the girl!"

Chapter 1057

“Sigh!”

Jacob heaved a sigh, but his words were deliberately distorting the truth.

“How presumptuous!”

“That filth Harvey York had already harmed Mandy quite a bit, and now he wants to harm Xynthia?”

“He’s not thinking of keeping the riches and the women all to himself and hog all of Mandy and her family’s property, is he?”

The Yateses weren’t very angry before, but when they listened to Jacob, they grew livid.

“This is disgusting! That man doesn’t care about the Yates family!”

“People like him should be kicked out of the family as soon as possible!”

“It’s all because of him that Mandy’s become so rebellious!”

Chapter 1057

Keith breathed out an icy chuckle. “I’ll make sure to take care of this by today!”

Chapter 1058

Chapter 1058

Jacob smiled slyly at seeing how agitated the Yateses had become.

Prior to this, he had run some investigations and discovered that Mandy Zimmer was actually the granddaughter-in-law of the Yates family.

However, as he was unsure of her relationship with the Yateses, he needed to say all those things to get information out of the Yateses.

Now, he understood that the Yates family did not welcome Mandy Zimmer and Harvey York. It was safe to say that the Yateses loathed the couple!

Since that was the case, Jacob could go on conducting his business unscrupulously.

He could even use the Yateses against Mandy Zimmer, since they were supporting him.

Chapter 1058

He could force Mandy to submit to him!

Keith fell in deep thought.

“Tell Finn to come back home.”

Soon, Finn Yates arrived home.

He was already the third-in-command of Buckwood Police Station. His current position was a deputy inspector.

He was considered to be an outstanding man despite his young age.

“Finn, go look for Harvey York with CEO Warner and tell him what he should be doing!”

“He’s been taking advantage of people for no reason this whole time. If CEO Warner isn’t willing to talk with the man in private, throw him behind bars for him to wake up!” Keith ordered harshly.

“Father, rest assured. I’ve just been promoted, so I’ll handle things fairly!”

Chapter 1058

Finn's eyes flashed coldly.

Because he lacked favors, he was forced to operate as a third-in-command for quite a while.

Right now, his heart was filled with displeasure.

Had Mandy yielded Silver Nimbus Enterprise's shares, Finn's career would surely progress much more quickly.

He shared Keith's sentiment, and thought that Mandy's property should belong to the Yateses.

But because of that live-in son-in-law instigating Mandy behind the scenes, she had been constantly rejecting them.

It was why Harvey must die!

Finn Yates touched the firearm strapped to his waist. His face was ice cold.

Seeing how Keith was sending out his son to sort out the problem, Jacob was filled with glee.

Chapter 1058

The Yates family might be the ones getting more benefits this time.

But for Jacob, everything would be worth it if he could earn a hefty amount of money and sleep with Mandy.

The most important thing was he could finally be a true ally with the Yates family because of this whole affair. Regency Enterprise's future looked promising!

...

In the evening, at The Gardens Residence.

Mandy immediately stormed at Harvey the moment he arrived home and exploded. "Harvey, can you let me be at ease for once?!"

"How could you cause a ruckus for no reason?"

"That Mason Warner you beat up is Jacob Warner's only son! Regency Enterprise is a big business supported by a big family! I heard that Uncle Keith have also been supporting them behind the scenes.”

Chapter 1058

“Now Uncle’s family has an excuse to swallow us all whole!”

“You’re basically letting them get a hold of us!”

“Do you realize how serious this is?”

Disappointment was written all over Mandy’s face.

She thought that Harvey would grow up a bit these days and think about her, and maybe even help her out a little.

Not only did he offer no such assistance, he even caused more trouble and harmed other people in the process!

Mandy was trembling, so angry that she was unable to utter a single word.

“Sister, you misunderstand Brother-In-Law!”

“Mason kept harassing me and wanted to do disgusting things to me!”

Chapter 1058

“That’s why Brother-In-Law couldn’t help but force his hand.”

“Besides, if he didn’t do anything, he might be the one in the hospital right now!”

When Mandy heard Xynthia’s explanation, she knew the situation couldn’t be helped. She sighed. “I know you’re in the right, but is there no reasoning with that boy? Why did you start fighting?”

Harvey replied calmly, "Some people are just low. You can't make them see eye to eye without beating some sense into them."

"If I didn't do that and that boy continued harassing Xynthia, God only knows what might happen next."

"Anyway, I can't be with Xynthia all the time either."

"That's right! Brother-In-Law's only trying to protect me. Please stop blaming him already."

Xynthia pulled Mandy's hand, flashing Mandy a pitiful gaze.

Mandy let out a sigh, uncertain of what to say at this moment.

But the problem was Mason had been hospitalized,

Chapter 1059

and reason was on his side.

How could she possibly handle this matter?

Mandy had no intention to accept the conditions set by the other party.

However, they naturally wouldn't give up that easily.

This was certainly headache-inducing!

Just then, the doorbell rang.

Jacob Warner and Finn Yates were at the door, bringing along a group of inspectors with them.

Jacob's face was as cold as ice.

Finn tapped the firearm on his waist and announced sternly, "Harvey York, Mandy Zimmer! I'm here today as a representative of the Buckwood Police Station."

"Harvey York! You have committed assault at Buckwood University for no reason whatsoever, causing a great deal of damage and affecting the community badly!”

Chapter 1059

“According to law, you must come with me!”

“But the litigant, CEO Warner, would like to make peace with you. Hence, I’m giving you a time limit!”

“You will go to the Emperor Clubhouse and solve this mess before twelve o’clock midnight.”

“If you don’t comply, I’ll take you straight to jail the very next day!”

Jacob grinned. “Remember, before twelve o’clock midnight. Even if you kneel and beg me after that, I won’t give you any chances!”

Xynthia piped in, full of discontent, “Old man, Finn Yates! Can you two at least have some reasoning behind your logic?!”

“Mason was the one harassing me first!”

“He’s the one that threw the first punch!”

“We only fought back! We’re not in the wrong!”

Chapter 1059

After hearing this, Finn and Jacob both laughed.

Jacob asked coldly, "You said all these as if they're true facts! Where's the evidence? Do you even have any?"

Xynthia replied, "My classmates are all witnesses!"

"You mean these people?"

Jacob clapped his hands.

A few dozen university students all walked in. The man leading them was Dwayne Haris, who sported a bloody nose and a swollen face.

Dwayne covered his face and said, "Xynthia, can you stop twisting the truth?"

"You and your brother-in-law were the ones shamelessly hugging each other on campus today. Mason saw what happened and tried to intervene. That's why your brother-in-law beat him up!"

"Yeah! As expected from your family! You all have no shame!”

Chapter 1059

“Mason had good intentions! How could you do something like this to him?!”

“And now, you’re even pretending to be wronged in front of your sister! This is the first time I’ve seen such a shameless couple!”

“You all...”

Xynthia was shocked beyond belief.

These students were all seniors that had been so kind to her. When they tried to pursue her, they seemed willing to do just about anything.

Every single one of them looked like honest people.

Yet right now all of them were spouting nonsense, trying to warp the truth!

Xynthia snarled, her expression horrid, “Don’t you feel anything when you’re shooting off lies like this?”

“Or is Mason Warner that terrifying to you?”

Chapter 1059

“So you’re prepared to be his subordinate your whole lives? His lowly servants?”

“Looks like he was right after all. He is the king of Buckwood University! You guys are wusses!”

Xynthia’s exclamation warped the students’ expressions slightly.

However, they quickly recovered and shot back with a cold sneer, “Hmph! Mason stood up bravely for the truth. He’s our role model! I have no objections with him being the student council president!”

Chapter 1060

Chapter 1060

“That’s right! Isn’t the student council president basically the king of the university? I think this is normal. After all, Mason does have the qualifications!”

“On the other hand, you’re the shameless one! You were acting so lovey-dovey with your brother-in-law, only to be shamed into anger when you were exposed and beat Mason up!”

Xynthia’s face was ugly. She turned to Dwayne. “Senior Haris, you’re willing to stand up for Mason even after he beat you to a pulp?”

Dwayne replied with a shocked look, “Xynthia, can you stop twisting the truth? The man who hit me was your brother-in-law, Harvey York!”

“I didn’t even want to pursue this matter any further, but you had to bring it up!”

Chapter 1060

Xynthia was dumbfounded by Dwayne’s confession.

She never anticipated for Dwayne to simply shift the blame toward Harvey.

At this moment, Harvey understood.

The collaboration between Jacob and the Yateses had already been arranged.

Dwayne’s father may work for Buckwood’s government, but he was only an insignificant subordinate’s subordinate in the Yates family’s eyes.

Would he dare not to obey?

Would these university students dare to disobey the Yateses and Regency Enterprise?

Since they were showing up here right now, naturally, they would shift the blame on him and Mandy.

They were clearly distorting the truth!

Chapter 1060

A person without any capabilities or connections could not do something like this so easily.

Xynthia was disappointed, especially at Buckwood University.

She wanted to enroll into Buckwood University before, but now she had no interest anymore.

Harvey looked cold.

He had experienced too many affairs like this.

When he was overseas, the five strongest countries had been defaming Country H for no reason for their own benefits.

Every single time, Harvey had used great power and evidence to settle such matters.

For Harvey, the Yates family and Regency Enterprise's schemes were nothing more than a joke. It was meaningless.

By then, Simon Zimmer and Lilian Yates had gotten word of the problem. They came home as soon as they could.

Chapter 1060

The moment Lilian arrived, she raged at Harvey. “Bastard! You’re just a bastard! I knew there was something wrong with you! How dare you have thoughts of taking advantage of your own sister-in-law?!”

“Mandy’s company was finally going in a good direction. It’s fine even if you don’t help her out, but now you went ahead and beat someone up?!”

“You’re planning to kill us by angering us, then take over my two daughters and the family’s property, aren’t you?”

The more Lilian screamed, the angrier she became. She jumped and swung her palm toward Harvey.

Harvey’s face was cold; he took a small step back, making Lilian miss her slap.

Because she had used too much force, she almost tripped.

Chapter 1060

Simon lifted Lilian and then glared at Harvey, as if Harvey kept failing to meet expectations.

“Harvey! I was ready to accept you even if you gave Mandy a car bought with dirty money.”

“It seems like your uncle was right after all! You two should get a divorce as soon as possible!”

“To offend such a big company like Regency Enterprise, how can Silver Nimbus Enterprise survive in the future if you’re still with Mandy?”

Harvey frowned slightly.

Xynthia looked sorrowful. She never imagined that her stubbornness would cause so much trouble for her family.

So far, the Yateses and Regency Enterprise seemed like they had an advantage.

Under these circumstances, Mandy and her family were in a vulnerable position.

If they failed to handle the affair properly today, not only would they lose Silver Nimbus Enterprise, Harvey might even be thrown into jail for a couple of years!

Chapter 1060

This was a perfect example of throwing the helve after the hatchet!

“Harvey, my dear brother-in-law. You look like you’re in a bad mood! Do you want to spar with me? Maybe it’ll cool you down,” Finn said, chuckling derisively. ②

Chapter 1061

Finn's words distorted Simon and his family's faces into horrible expressions.

Finn's title as the Yates family's prince was not for show. It was said that he had studied in the university established by the South Light General Police Department, and was the champion of the police force's fight league a few times while he was there.

Though he wasn't the type to casually throw a punch, if he actually did so, he would surely cripple or even kill his opponent.

The Yates family sending Finn Yates to aid Regency Enterprise and show up this time was enough proof that Harvey was finished!

Right this moment, getting crippled seemed like an insignificant consequence.

Harvey might be forced to live the later half of his life behind bars after getting crippled. A fate like that was definitely worse than death.

Looking at Harvey's icy expression, Finn assumed Harvey was frightened.

Finn approached Harvey and gave Harvey a light slap on the cheek. His face was filled with ridicule.

"Since we're more or less relatives, this is my last warning."

"You're going to head to the Regency Enterprise's headquarters and resolve this matter with CEO Warner before twelve o'clock midnight."

"If not, you'll see what happens next!"

After finishing his sentence, Finn made a furious gesture with his hand and left with the inspectors.

Before Jacob left, he turned to shoot Harvey a mocking glare and gestured a finger slicing across his neck.

His gaze then landed on Mandy. The way he looked at her was as though his wretched hands were roaming all over her body, touching her.

Mandy shuddered.

Jacob licked his lips in anticipation, as if he would get what he wanted that night.

His look pushed Mandy into despair. She knew the Warner family would never let go of her or her sister.

Mandy's initial anger had vanished.

When Jacob and Finn had left with the others, Lilian turned to Harvey and screamed at him once more. She used every single swear she could think of.

In her eyes, everything that happened that day was because of Harvey dragging the entire family down with him.

The Yates family had quite a few complaints about

Chapter 1061

Mandy because of what had happened before.

And now, Regency Enterprise showed up! Her family couldn't afford to offend this many people!

Simon opened coldly, "Harvey, even if you're filth, you're still a man!"

"As the saying goes, one should answer for what he does himself!"

"Since you're the one who caused this mess, you should be the one going to the Emperor Clubhouse and solve everything!"

"Even if you get beaten to death in the process, you must go!"

But Mandy swiftly shook her head.

"Darling, you mustn't!"

"The Emperor Clubhouse belongs to Regency Enterprise! Nobody would know if you died there!"

Lilian pulled Mandy away, screaming, "Serves him right if he dies! You'll finally get another husband when he's dead!"

Chapter 1061

"I'm telling you, Harvey! You either get a divorce right now, or you face the consequences yourself!"

Lilian was showing determination that was never seen before from her.

"Don't worry, I'll go."

"I'm going with you!"

Mandy was anxious.

"No need. I can solve this problem alone. I'll teach Jacob a good lesson."

Harvey's face was as cold as ice.

Listening to him, Mandy was about to pass out.

'Why is he still bluffing at this point? Is there any meaning to it?'

Lilian and Simon grinned.

"Alright then! I do want to see what lesson you'll teach Jacob!”

Chapter 1061

“Rest assured! When you die, I’ll be sure to buy you a burial site with my personal savings!”

Chapter 1062

Chapter 1062

Twelve o'clock midnight, at the Emperor Clubhouse.

This place was property of Regency Enterprise, and was closed for the night.

Finn Yates had already left with the benefits provided by Jacob.

The way they saw it, they only needed to scare the Zimmers a bit to deal with them. There was no need for Finn to actually show up.

Soon, Harvey arrived.

“What? Only the live-in son-in-law came?”

“No matter, I'll sleep with his woman after crushing all of his limbs!”

Jacob spoke without mercy. He knew how to torture a man's soul and drive that man into a life worse than death.

Chapter 1062

When Harvey entered, a dozen security guards immediately surrounded him.

Someone swiftly locked all of the windows and doors in the building, preventing him from leaving and from any sounds or shouts to leak out.

Nobody expected for Harvey to stride in without a care in the world, take a seat before Jacob, and pour himself a glass of red wine.

His calm expression stunned Jacob.

Jacob had only seen this kind of attitude from wealthy folk.

How did a live-in son-in-law have mannerisms like so?

“The Yates family is the one backing Regency Enterprise, no?”

Harvey took a sip of the red wine, then spit it back out to the ground, filled with disdain.

Chapter 1062

The quality of the drink was horrible. He wasn't at all fond of it.

Jacob's expression worsened. He shot Harvey a cold glare.

“So what if they are? So what if they're not?”

Harvey smiled.

“If that's the case, I can only say that you found a bunch of useless people as your support. Doesn't that mean you're useless as well?”

“If not, then I'm curious. Who else in South Light would go against me other than the completely blind Yates family?”

Pffft!

Hearing those words, Jacob could no longer hold in his mirth.

He sized up Harvey for a short while before bursting into laughter.

Chapter 1062

“Harvey York! You don’t have talent for anything, but you sure are good at bluffing up a storm!”

“If I didn’t run a background check on you, I might actually be scared!”

“Alright, enough joking around! I already told your wife the conditions. Are you going to submit obediently? Or do you want me to do it for you?”

So saying, Jacob revealed a sinister appearance.

Harvey shrugged and replied good-naturedly, “I’m here to tell you that the conditions have changed.”

“You’re going to kneel and grovel, then break your own arms. If you do that, I’ll spare your lowly life.”

“If you refuse, you won’t even get any more chances later even if you tried.”

Harvey’s words roused Jacob’s fury.

“You sure have guts! You dare command me to grovel and break my own arms? Is your head empty?!”

Chapter 1062

“Break this kid’s ankles right now! I want him to be deprived of his basic needs for the rest of his life!”

At his order, the security guards all around rushed toward Harvey with their electric batons.

Boom!

At that moment, the door that was sealed shut was suddenly kicked open.

In a split second, a crowd of fighters in black suits rushed forward.

Tyson Woods had brought over his elite subordinates with him. In less than a minute, the security guards were all lying on the ground, deprived of even the strength to scream.

The sight shocked Jacob.

How were there so many fighters here?

Harvey stood up and sighed.

Chapter 1062

“CEO Warner, I gave you a chance.”

Chapter 1063

As soon as Harvey was done talking, he reached out and grabbed Jacob's hair, then smashed Jacob's head against the marble table.

With a bang, the marble table cracked. Blood streamed all over Jacob's face before he passed out.

Harvey ordered calmly, "Wake him up, then break all of his limbs. Make sure he's deprived of his basic needs for the rest of his life."

"Yes, sir!"

Tyson bowed and accepted the order. A subordinate grabbed a pot of boiling hot tea and immediately poured it all over Jacob.

"Aaah!"

Jacob regained consciousness in the midst of his wailing, rolling on the ground.

Chapter 1063

All too soon, his arms and legs were held in place and broken one by one.

When everything was over, Jacob had passed out once more. The stench of his bowel and bladder seeped out of him.

Harvey used his suit to clean the sole of his shoes, disdain written all over his face. He then turned around and left.

Of course, when Harvey had reached The Gardens Residence, the Zimmers, who were worried sick, all stood up in shock.

Lilian automatically asked, "Harvey, didn't you go?"

"I did, and I solved everything. Rest assured, Jacob will not cause us trouble any longer," Harvey replied calmly.

Harvey was not spouting nonsense. How could Jacob stir up any problems if he could never attend to his basic needs any longer?

Chapter 1063

“Really? How did you solve it? Didn’t CEO Warner give you a hard time?”

Mandy couldn’t believe what she heard.

Harvey smiled.

“Not only didn’t he give me a hard time, he even treated me to a cup of red wine. We had a friendly talk, then finally solved the problem.”

Mandy stared at Harvey suspiciously, but seeing him unharmed put her at ease.

...

At the same time, at the Yateses’ residence.

Keith looked at the clock on the wall, smiling.

“How are things? Did Jacob do as we ordered and cripple Harvey?”

“Father, this shouldn’t be that big of a problem. There are a dozen security guards with CEO Warner.

Chapter 1063

How many people do we need to take care of a mere live-in son-in-law, anyway?”

“I did tell him to send us a video for us to enjoy before I left. I’m not sure why the footage isn’t here yet. Give me a minute to call him.”

As Finn spoke, he took out his phone.

But after a moment, his expression changed drastically. He could not believe what he heard.

“What? Jacob’s been beaten up and hospitalized?!”

“And his injuries are far worse than his son’s?! He won’t have the means to attend to his basic needs for the rest of his life?!”

Finn hung up, unable to believe what he had just heard.

Regency Enterprise was regarded as one of the Yates family’s lackeys. Jacob Warner getting beaten up to the point where he could not even attend to his basic needs was an incredible humiliation to the Yateses.

Chapter 1063

Keith and Finn, along with the other Yateses, headed to Buckwood Hospital as quickly as they could.

Jacob's life was not in any danger, but he had fallen into a coma for quite some time. According to the doctor, he must have experienced extreme shock before fainting.

Seeing Jacob's miserable state, Keith trembled with anger.

This was a lackey the Yateses had spent a great deal of effort to recruit!

Yet it took only a short while for their lackey to turn out like this. The family's dignity had been utterly trampled!

Out of all people, he was bested by Harvey York!

Keith was so furious, his body shook.

“That live-in son-in-law! He's a pest!”

“A disobedient kept man who always went against the Yates family!”

Chapter 1063

“If we don’t deal with him soon, we’ll never be a first-rated family!”

Chapter 1064

Chapter 1064

Finn remained calm and said, "Father, even though the security guards CEO Warner has isn't all that great, Harvey was clearly outnumbered. How was he capable of something like this? Does he have a hidden background or some support behind the scenes?"

Keith chuckled.

"I already asked about it, but he's only a driver for some big shot."

"Somebody saw gangsters present in the Emperor Clubhouse!"

"Harvey most likely used his connections. If not, how could he possibly be an opponent for Jacob Warner?"

"Using connections with the mob? This is a good thing!”

Chapter 1064

Finn’s eyes lit up immediately.

“The Yates family is the bane of the gangsters’ existence! We don’t know how to charge this filth and send him to jail before, but he’s finished now that he’s sent gangsters to do his bidding!”

“Father, just leave this to me. I’ll make him regret what he did today!”

Keith replied coldly, “Remember, you have to be decisive with your actions. Don’t show any mercy. If not, the dignity of the family won’t last long!”

Soon, Mandy and her family heard of Jacob’s misfortune.

Everyone was shocked beyond belief.

‘That was Harvey’s so-called friendly talk?’

‘He beat up someone to this state, then calls it a friendly talk? What kind of sick joke is this?!’

“You... You... You...!”

Chapter 1064

“How can you do something like this? You think you can just solve everything by beating people up?!”

Simon shouted angrily at Harvey, but at that moment he had grown somewhat fearful of Harvey.

Jacob was hospitalized by this man, after all. Who knows when Harvey would beat him up?

Mandy was anxious beyond belief.

“Harvey, how could you do something this rash? Have you thought about the consequences of your actions? If Regency Enterprise were to pursue you any further, what are you planning to do? Do you really want to live your life behind bars?”

Mandy then contacted Keith.

On the other side of the phone, Keith chided harshly, “Mandy, your husband’s not so bad. I can’t believe he actually got someone to beat up Jacob Warner to the point he can’t even attend to his basic needs anymore!”

Chapter 1064

“He even called up a bunch of gangsters to do the job for him! This is illegal!”

“Since you still call me uncle, let me warn you. Get a divorce. If you continue to be with filth like this, your whole life will be ruined!”

Mandy replied carefully, “Uncle, can you help us resolve the situation? I’m willing to give ten percent of the company shares for this.”

Keith merely laughed. His aim was to take over the entire company. Of course he wouldn’t bat an eye at a ten percent share!

He said coldly, “Ten percent? Are you trying to bribe a beggar?!”

“You tell Harvey to be prepared to pay for what he’s done!”

Keith hung up immediately.

Mandy didn’t expect Keith to be this merciless. She was unsure of what to do at the moment, and feared that Harvey might actually be thrown behind bars.

Chapter 1064

Harvey went to her and wiped away a teardrop on her face. He said with full confidence, "Darling, rest assured. This is only a civil dispute. The police cannot intervene if the litigant doesn't want to pursue the matter any further."

Mandy's eyes lit up at this moment. "You're right! You'll be saved if CEO Warner stopped holding you accountable!"

After that, Mandy gave a call to Halsey Lowe in San Francisco for help.

Halsey was the general manager of San Francisco's branch for Sky Corporation. She would more or less have the background and connections to help.

If Sky Corporation were willing to show up and consort, the matter would deescalate instantly.

Halsey was shocked when she heard the news, for she was in the midst of her slumber. She immediately boarded a plane to Buckwood that very night to represent Sky Corporation and mediate the affair.

Chapter 1064

...

The next day, early morning.

At the entrance of Buckwood Police Station, Finn handpicked more than a hundred sharp and capable inspectors, prepared to throw Harvey behind bars.

Right then, the first-in-command of Buckwood Police Station, Yannick Bisson, arrived. ③

Chapter 1065

Chapter 1065

“What do you think you’re doing?” Yannick Bisson said, frowning.

He knew who Finn was, which was why he didn’t dare to be so hard on Finn.

Finn replied respectfully, “Chief Inspector, there was a ruffian causing trouble in the Emperor Clubhouse. He completely crippled CEO Warner from the waist down. I’m preparing my men to grab him here and serve justice!”

Yannick’s frown deepened. He asked, “Why are you bringing so many men for such a trivial matter? Just take a few with you. I need to use the rest.”

Finn froze, then quietly said, “Chief Inspector, my father asked me to do this.”

Yannick sighed.

Chapter 1065

“Finn, it’s not that I’m disrespecting you.”

“But something big is happening in Buckwood today.”

“You’re aware of the change in South Light’s military force, right? The next first-in-command of the military force is about to arrive at the airport. Our men are needed there for security reasons.”

“What? That’s happening right now? Then you should take most of them, just leave a few for me.”

Finn was stunned, but he didn’t dare to stop Yannick.

When Yannick had left with the men, Finn hurriedly called Keith.

“Father, I just received word that the first-in-command of South Light’s military is about to arrive today. Should we arrange something for this?”

Keith quietly replied, “I just got word as well. The man in question is Gangnam's previous second-in-command, Bellamy Blake."

Chapter 1065

"He's still young, but he had magnificent military achievements during his time in the Euro-American Battlefield. I'm going to get ready and welcome him myself."

"Hurry and deal with the problem on your own!"

"The Yateses need to prepare for this huge event. We have no time to play with some small fry!"

"Right! Rest assured, father. I picked these men myself! I know what to do."

Finn chuckled coldly.

He was already discontent with Harvey before, and the only reason he didn't take action last night was because Keith gave no such order.

Now that Keith had given the order, Finn would not show mercy.

Finn wouldn't stop until Harvey was deprived of his basic needs.

Chapter 1065

In Finn's eyes, he could deal with a person like Harvey with just one hand.

As for Harvey beating up Jacob, Finn didn't care about that at all.

'Harvey has some impressive raw strength. Maybe he trained at some boxing gym before.'

'How could he compare to the champion of the fight league in the police force like me?'

Finn thought that killing Harvey himself was overkill. He was giving Harvey too much credit.

Soon, Finn went out with his men.

Meanwhile, Keith arrived at Buckwood Airport.

Quite a lot of powerful figures from South Light had arrived there as well, whether it be publicly or discreetly.

Everyone there had gotten word through their sources regarding Bellamy Blake's arrival a few days earlier.

Chapter 1065

Sheldon Xavier, Kyle Quinlan, as well as other elites ...

They were all at the airport.

However, none of South Light's military forces was present.

Bellamy Blake was not officially appointed yet. It was not appropriate for him to meet them.

Half an hour later, a tall man in a tracksuit emerged from the VIP passageway.

He looked like he was in his thirties, with an aura of an experienced veteran. His face bore many light scars. It was evident he had received them by massacring thousands of troops.

Before the rest returned to their senses, Keith immediately walked up to Bellamy with a smile.

"Commander Blake. I, the third-in-command of

Chapter 1065

South Light, came here to greet you.”

Chapter 1066

Chapter 1066

Bellamy Blake was taken aback for a moment, and after looking at Keith Yates carefully, he thoughtfully said, "Oh, it's you, Sir Yates. Although I'm from the Gangnam military, I have heard of your name."

"Really?"

Keith looked excited, feeling extremely honored.

How would he know that Bellamy was also previously trained by Harvey? Bellamy had heard of him simply because he was Mandy Zimmer's uncle.

Keith thought that his name was so well-known, and he said at the moment, "If Commander Blake doesn't mind, how about going to my house to have a chat?"

"I prepared a light meal."

Chapter 1066

Bellamy smiled and said, "Don't mention it, Sir Yates. I'm still not the Commander yet. I'll have to wait for the formal appointment."

"Thus, it's not suitable for me to meet you at the moment. Moreover, I'm here to find my former superior. So, I'm sorry!"

Sheldon Xavier and others were here. At this moment, he was taken aback when he heard the words. He was surprised and said, "Commander Blake, could it be that your superior is the legendary one?"

Bellamy said solemnly, "It's the Chief Instructor from the Sword Camp. Since he has retired, he has been living in South Light."

"I'm able to work in the South Military Department because of his recommendation. Hence, the first thing I do when I arrive here in South Light is to visit him!"

Everyone present gasped when Bellamy said the words.

Chapter 1066

The Chief Instructor from the Sword Camp was indeed in Buckwood!

Among the crowd, only Sheldon's eyes flickered. He knew Harvey's true identity. He did not know what to feel at this moment.

It was because he had never expected that the Chief Instructor had such an important place in the big boss's heart.

Only with a word of recommendation could he make one of his former subordinates become the Commander, the first-in-command in South Light Military Department.

Just as the saying goes, "Although he's not here, he could still turn the situation around with just a word."

Sheldon regretted it a little bit at this moment.

He thought that Harvey probably did not have many connections in court since he had retired for many years.

Chapter 1066

Unexpectedly, Harvey could change a person's destiny with just a word.

He was starting to question a little bit at this moment. Was it right or wrong that the Xavier family from Wolsing insisted on letting Yvonne Xavier marry Chris Leo, the Prince of the Leo family?

Everyone in the place exchanged glances at this moment. Keith preemptively said, "Commander Blake, since you're going to visit the Chief Instructor, then I shall see you off."

Just when Bellamy was about to refuse, Keith quickly said, "Don't refuse so quickly. Many people must have known about the news that you have come to Buckwood now."

"Elder Xavier and Elder Quinlan are busy. I think they don't have time to send you."

"But I happened to be on leave today. Furthermore,

Chapter 1066

I'm the one in charge of the systems of the police stations in the South Light government. I have arranged people and have made full arrangements to ensure that you can arrive at your destination smoothly without being harassed by others."

Bellamy thought for a while but nodded.

He had not officially taken up the post. Thus, he could not utilize the people from the South Light Military.

Letting Keith and also the people from the police station sending him could reduce a lot of trouble.

"Okay, then please, Sir Yates."

"Elder Xavier, Elder Quinlan, see you at the appointment ceremony."

Sheldon and Kyle could not say anything upon seeing this scene.

Keith was already shamelessly flattering Bellamy. Both of them came from the top ten families. At this moment, they still care about their honor and could stoop as low as Keith.

Chapter 1066

Chapter 1067

Chapter 1067

In the car, Keith asked respectfully, “Commander Blake, where are we going?”

“The Gardens Residence.” Bellamy Blake said.

It was no surprise for Keith when he heard those words. The Gardens Residence was the most high-end community in the entire Buckwood.

Who was this Chief Instructor? Even if he lived in seclusion after retiring, only such a place could match his status.

Bellamy stopped speaking after saying this.

It was indeed Harvey York who recommended him to serve in South Light.

However, at the time, the Elder of the army was still trying to convince Harvey to be the Commander of the nine military departments, but Harvey rejected it.

Chapter 1067

During the dialogues between both of the parties, Harvey casually mentioned that Bellamy was good.

Therefore, Bellamy got promoted during the exchange of positions in the military this time.

Bellamy was very grateful for this.

Not only the Chief Instructor cared for the brothers when he was on the battlefield, but he still cared for them even after he had left the military.

Bellamy came forward this time to express his gratitude.

On the other hand, he also hoped that the Chief Instructor would give him some advice.

Meanwhile, in the Gardens Residence.

Finn Yates walked in with a dozen inspectors.

Chapter 1067

They showed their work passes when they came in, and the professional security guards in the community did not dare to stop them.

Mandy Zimmer walked in the garden with Halsey Lowe, who had just arrived in Buckwood, discussing countermeasures.

Mandy was startled when she saw Finn leading the team there.

Halsey desperately tried to stop her since she knew of Finn's identity.

"Mandy, just take it easy. The people who came this time are from the police station. They are mainly here for what happened last night.

"It is highly likely that Harvey will be taken to the police station. You mustn't get involved this time. If you are also taken into custody, who will find a way to save him?"

Only then Mandy calmed down after Halsey reasoned with her.

Chapter 1067

However, she was restless and did not know what to do.

When Lilian Yates and Simon Zimmer saw the people from the police station coming from upstairs, they immediately ran and hid.

They never thought of solving the trouble for Harvey at all. They only hoped that Harvey would be taken away quickly.

Bang, bang, bang...

On the top floor of the Gardens Residence, Harvey, who was still sleeping, was awakened by the relentless slamming of the door.

He opened the door impatiently with a cold expression.

“Harvey, you’re quite brave! How could you still sleep after making such a big mistake?” sneered Finn as he stared down at Harvey.

“What did I do?” Harvey looked inexplicable.

Chapter 1067

“You obviously know that the Regency Enterprise was the Yates family’s sidekick. How dare you still ruin Jacob Warner?!”

“You have never looked out for the Yates family!”

Finn apparently came here for his personal grudge.

However, all of his confidants looked gloomy. They stared at Harvey as if Harvey was a dead person.

The power of the Yates family in the South Light realm was too great. Even the first-in-command of the South Light General Police Station was Keith’s subordinate.

So what if Finn acted a little arrogant now?

They were all used to it.

Harvey laughed when he heard Finn’s words.

“You, the Yates family, are nothing in my eyes!”

“If it weren’t for Mandy’s sake, the Yates family would have already died many times!”

Chapter 1067

“Also, you keep dangling in front of me yet again. You’re looking for death, right?”

“Harvey! You’ve got some balls! By saying this, are you afraid that I couldn’t kill you?”

Finn was outraged!

No one has ever dared to insult the Yates family in their turf, South Light!

Chapter 1068

Chapter 1068

Just when Finn Yates was so angry that he was about to take action, Keith's car had already sent Bellamy Blake to the Gardens Residence.

Bellamy got off the car at the gate of the community. He then smiled and said, "Thank you, Sir Yates. But the Chief Instructor's identity is top secret. So, I can't invite you inside."

"It's okay. I could still see the Chief Instructor's face at the appointment ceremony anyway!"

Keith was very polite and did not dare to send anyone to follow Bellamy.

After all, those two people inside were the big bosses of the military. The Yates family could not afford to offend them.

However, Keith did not immediately leave. Instead, he ordered, "Guard by the side, and no other people are allowed to enter and leave. Commander Blake will come out after a while, and then you will send him away."

Chapter 1068

Meanwhile, at the door of Harvey York's house.

Finn looked at Harvey with cold eyes and said, "Originally, a nobody like you isn't worthy of me to personally hit you!

"But you don't know where you stand, and you provoke the Yates family yet again!

"Given our family ties, if you kneel and grovel and then divorce with Mandy, I might reconsider letting you go!"

Harvey looked at Finn indifferently. He then suddenly stepped forward and gave a backhand slap.

Slap!

The slap was loud and crisp. Finn was in a daze, and he could not react at all.

All of them were dumbstruck, including the inspectors behind him.

Chapter 1068

How could that be?!

Finn was the champion of the police fighting league. He was so skillful that it usually would not be a problem for him to face ten people alone.

However, how did he not escape this live-in son-in-law's backhand slap today?

It also took Finn a long time to realize that someone slapped him.

Given his status, who would dare to do anything to him?

However, he was slapped in front of a group of trusted subordinates at that moment.

Moreover, he was slapped by a live-in son-in-law.

“You little brat! You're presumptuous! How dare you hit the third-in-command of the Buckwood Police Station?!”

“You're assaulting an officer. You're dead!”

Chapter 1068

“Vice CEO Yates has shown you a lot of respect, but you don’t appreciate it. I’ll kill you today!”

The group of inspectors was furious, and all of them wanted to rush forward toward Harvey.

Regardless, Finn waved his hand and said coldly, “I’ll do it myself!”

In the next moment, Finn immediately gained momentum, and then his body shook, the sole of his foot brushed the opposite side, and he swung his right hand toward Harvey’s chest.

This punch was full of strength. If it hit someone, ordinary people were likely to die by that single punch.

Obviously, Finn had no intention of being merciful.

It could only be said that he was worthy of the title of the champion of the police fighting league.

Harvey stood still while facing this punch as if he could not react, as if he was frightened of it.

Chapter 1068

Finn's heart was filled with coldness. He was confident that all of Harvey's ribs would be broken by his punch.

Then, just when Finn's punch was about to land on Harvey's chest...

A figure suddenly rushed out from the elevator on the side. He buckled Finn's wrist with his backhand and then violently twisted it.

Pfff!

A counterforce came from Finn's wrist!

He could only feel a force that was a little stronger than the force he had poured out just now coming at him.

Finn's throat was bitter at that moment, and he started spurring out a mouthful of blood.

Meanwhile, he staggered three steps back before stabilizing himself.

At that moment, Finn was in disbelief. He was shocked to see Bellamy, who appeared at the scene out of the blue. ①

Chapter 1068

Chapter 1069

Chapter 1069

Harvey York gave Bellamy Blake a surprised look. He did not expect him to come.

Bellamy had not been in the Sword Camp for a long time. Moreover, he was famous for his strategy and tactics, not for his strength.

However, even so, everyone in the Sword Camp was the King of Arms. Those who came out of the Sword Camp were all spectacular.

Even if Finn Yates was the champion of the police fighting league, the gap between the two sides was indescribable.

But then again, Finn was fortunate.

If Bellamy had not stopped him at the critical moment, Finn would have already been dead now.

“Presumptuous! Given your uniforms, you should be from the police station, right?

Chapter 1069

“People from the police station are simply attacking ordinary people. You’re breaking the law, considering an aggravation of an offense!”

Bellamy’s complexion was awful. He never thought that the bureaucracy in South Light was such a mess, and there were people from the police station doing things like this.

Finn wiped off the blood from the corner of his mouth and said coldly, “So, where did you come from, nosy fellow?”

“Although you are a master, can’t you see that the police is handling the case?”

“Do you know the consequences of deterring us from handling the case?”

Finn yelled loudly and concurrently took out the gun he carried in his holster. The safety was off, and the nozzle directly pressed it on Bellamy’s forehead.

This scene made Bellamy angry.

Chapter 1069

Those inspectors were too presumptuous. Could guns be taken out so casually?

They could not do this to ordinary people, let alone the person in front of them was the famous Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp!

“Why? Are you planning to shoot? Doing this in broad daylight, don’t you have respect for the law?!” Bellamy looked at him with a cold gaze.

Finn laughed and said, “Do you think I don’t dare? I’m the prince in the police in South Light. I’m above the law!

“I now suspect that you’re a gang with this trash. I’m also bringing you to the police station!

“If you resist, I have the right to kill you on the spot!”

“Don’t you dare!” Bellamy shouted.

“You can try and see if I dare to do it or not!” Finn shouted and was about to do it.

Chapter 1069

“Stop it!”

At this moment, another elevator opened, and someone bellowed.

Finn unconsciously turned around and saw Keith coming over.

As it turned out, the inspector guarding downstairs thought that Keith led his team to support Finn, so he brought him up.

However, as soon as Keith stepped out of the elevator, he was so shocked at the scene when his son was pointing his gun at Bellamy's forehead.

“Father? Didn't I say that I can handle the problem here? You better go quickly and fetch the people at the airport, don't miss it!”

Finn spoke with surprise.

“I'm fine here. We're about to take Harvey away, but I'm not sure where this gangster came from. I'll take Harvey away after I kill him!”

Chapter 1069

Finn felt more confident at this moment after seeing his father coming and was about to pull the gun's trigger.

However, Keith suddenly stepped forward and gave Finn a big slap in the face before he could even move.

Finn's tooth flew out this time while being slapped. He was stunned once again.

What the hell was going on?

Harvey slapped him.

How come his father also slapped him?

"Father, are you out of your mind?! What did you slap me for?" Finn said inadvertently.

Keith pointed at Finn with trembling fingers and shouted angrily, "You unfilial son, hurry up and remove the gun. Don't you know who this is?"

"This is Commander Bellamy Blake, the one who is going to be the first-in-command in the South Light Military Department!”

Chapter 1069

Chapter 1070

Chapter 1070

“What?!”

Finn Yates stepped back in fright, looking scared after hearing this.

The inspectors who followed him here gasped, feeling like they were going crazy.

What was going on? A casual passer-by who bravely jumped out from nowhere was the next first-in-command of the South Light Military Department?!

This, this, this, this...

This was undoubtedly an act for seeking death!

Finn realized how big a mistake he had just made, and he was trembling all over at that moment.

Of course, the Yates family was one of the first-class families.

Chapter 1070

However, the first-in-command of the South Light Military Department was undoubtedly a powerful big shot.

The Yates family could never afford to offend him.

Most importantly, he just said that he was the law of South Light, this...

At this moment, Finn finally realized what a big mistake he had made.

This mistake might instantly cause the Yates family to disappear from South Light.

After figuring out the relationship between Keith and Finn, Bellamy sneered, "I see it now!

"So, the Yates family is the Law in the South Light realm!

"No wonder Keith has to send me personally!

"So, you're planning to let your son kill me with his gun?

Chapter 1070

“You’re insolent!”

Bellamy’s words instantly caused Keith’s legs to soften like jelly.

To murder the first-in-command of South Light?

The offense was too huge!

At that moment, Keith quickly rushed forward. “Commander, it’s a misunderstanding! All of this is a misunderstanding!”

“My son is just doing his duties. He didn’t offend you on purpose. Please don’t take it to heart!”

“I’ll make him apologize to you!”

“Doing his duties? Okay, then tell me what sort of duties are you doing right now?! Tell me!” Bellamy said coldly.

“This...”

Keith and Finn looked at each other. It was hard to explain this matter.

Chapter 1070

It was because this involved the interests of the Yates family. Once Bellamy wanted to find out, it was highly likely that some things about the Yates family would be found out.

In this case, it would be a devastating blow to the Yates family!

Hence, they certainly could not tell the truth at this moment!

Meanwhile, Finn wiped off a cold sweat and said, “Commander, it’s a misunderstanding. It’s a misunderstanding. We were informed that a fugitive was hiding here, so we just want to go in and take a look!”

“A fugitive?! I think you’re the fugitive!” Bellamy slapped Finn in the face angrily.

How dare this guy said that the Chief Instructor was a fugitive?

That’d be suicide!

“Yes, yes, yes. I’m the fugitive. In short, everything is my fault!

Chapter 1070

“Please kindly forgive us and let us go!”

Keith and Finn apologized, again and again, almost kneeled on their knees.

Keith could not wait to choke Finn to death.

He finally got to know Bellamy, but this prodigal son offended him.

“Apologize to me? You shouldn’t apologize to me. You should apologize to the person involved!”

“As long as he can forgive you, then I’m fine with it!”

Keith immediately understood after hearing what Bellamy said.

It turned out that Bellamy was not angry due to Finn’s disrespect.

He was angry because the people from the police station acted wantonly and abused their power!

Chapter 1070

At this moment, Keith immediately bowed and said, “Harvey, we’re relatives. We were wrong before. We promise that we won’t harass you again in the future!”

Apparently, all that was done so that Bellamy witnessed their actions.

Finn gritted his teeth and bowed. He said, “It’s our fault. It’s all misunderstanding.”

Harvey looked at this scene with a half-smile and said indifferently, “Given our family ties, if you kneel and grovel, I can consider letting you go.”

Listening to Harvey being arrogant, he actually said back the exact words to Finn.

Finn was trembling with rage.

Chapter 1071

Chapter 1071

“Didn’t you hear him say?” Bellamy Blake looked cold.

Finn Yates gritted his teeth. In the end, he still kneeled and groveled. “Mr. York, I’m sorry. I promise that this will never happen again in the future.”

Seeing him kneel and grovel, Harvey took out 15 cents and threw them in front of Finn. He then smiled and said, “Good boy. Kneel faster next time. I’ll reward you a few more dollars.”

“You!”

Finn was trembling with anger. He knew that Harvey provoked him on purpose.

However, he dared not lash out in front of Bellamy.

Bellamy was delighted looking at Finn’s attitude and said, "Get out. I won't follow up on this matter anymore.

Chapter 1071

"Unfortunately, Keith, our friendship ends here."

Bellamy felt that he had already given Keith a lot of respect.

If those people dared to mess around with the Chief Instructor in other places, he would have killed the other party a long time ago.

Having to conceal the Chief Instructor's identity now, he could only do so.

"This..."

Keith's complexion darkened. He finally got closer with Bellamy and was about to get to know the Chief Instructor through him, but he never expected that things would turn out like this!

"Then I shall leave first. Don't worry, Commander Blake. I'll surely teach him more strictly in the future. I'll see you again another day!"

Keith left with a darkened expression.

Chapter 1071

Once the people from the Yates family left, Bellamy bowed to Harvey respectfully and said, "I'm Bellamy Blake. Nice to meet you, Chief Instructor!"

Harvey looked at Bellamy carefully. He then smiled and said, "Okay, okay, I have retired. You'll be the Commander of the South Light Military soon. Don't do this when you see me in the future. It will affect your prestige."

Bellamy said earnestly, "If it weren't for you, I wouldn't be where I am today. Of course, I should offer you my respect, Chief Instructor."

Harvey reached out his hand and patted Bellamy on the shoulder. He said, "Alright, stop talking nonsense. Come in and have a drink. Call Ethan and Ray to come together the next time when you have time. We should have a meal together."

Meanwhile, Mandy Zimmer and Halsey Lowe watched Keith and others leave.

They were both a little surprised seeing that Harvey was not arrested.

Chapter 1071

“They did not take Harvey away? Could it be that Harvey had been killed because he resisted?”

Halsey frowned.

Mandy’s face turned pale when she heard Halsey’s words. She quickly got into the elevator.

She was shocked as soon as she entered the house.

This was because Harvey was having a drink and smoking in the living room with another man.

Bellamy quickly stood up when he saw Mandy. He then bowed and said, “This must be Sister-in-law, right?”

Harvey smiled and said, “Yes, this is my wife, Mandy Zimmer, and this is her best friend, Halsey Lowe.”

Although Harvey felt a little strange that Halsey came here all the way from San Francisco, he did not ask much.

Bellamy said respectfully, “Sister-in-law, I’m

Chapter 1071

Bellamy Blake, from Gangnam. It's an honor to meet you."

Mandy smiled and said after seeing Bellamy's respectful look, "That's nice of you, Mr. Blake. Since you're a friend of Harvey's, then you're my friend.

"My best friend also came from San Francisco, Gangnam. What a coincidence.

"Let's have a meal together."

Mandy had no other intentions, but Halsey got the wrong idea. She thought Mandy wanted to introduce Bellamy to her.

Meanwhile, Halsey looked at Bellamy carefully, and then a sliver of disdain flashed through her eyes.

Everything that this guy wore, none of it was branded. He probably was as poor as Harvey.

How could she like such a person?

Chapter 1072

Chapter 1072

At this moment, Mandy Zimmer remembered something important. “Harvey, didn’t the Yates family come with a group of inspectors just now? Did they give you a hard time?”

Harvey said earnestly, “How dare they give me a hard time? When Finn left, he even groveled and apologized to me.”

Mandy slightly frowned. “Harvey, why are you still talking like this? Do you know you’ll get into serious trouble if matters like this spread out?!”

“I don’t want anything bad to happen to you.”

Harvey said thoughtfully, “Honey, I’m serious. If you don’t trust me, ask Bellamy, he just saw it with his own eyes.”

Bellamy Blake, who was on the side, replied after listening, "Sister-in-law, I was there just now, and I also had a few arguments with Keith. The Yates family apologized sincerely and promised that similar things wouldn't happen in the future."

Chapter 1072

Mandy felt a little weird. In truth, she did not believe a word that Harvey's friend said. However, she did not say it due to respect.

Halsey did not think about it so much. She sneered at the moment, "Mr. Blake, do you know who Keith is? He's the third-in-command in South Light!

"What's your status? Are you even qualified to argue with him? Will he listen to you?"

Bellamy smiled and said, "But the truth is, he did listen to me, and he dares not refute."

Halsey laughed. "Don't dare to refute? Do you think you are the first-in-command in South Light?"

Bellamy said indifferently, "Although I'm not the first-in-command, I'm not much different."

Halsey did not believe in him at all. She looked at

Chapter 1072

Bellamy as if she was looking at a fool.

Harvey loved to brag. His friend also loved to brag and looked unreliable.

Both of them were two peas of the same pod!

Meanwhile, Mandy hesitated for a while and called Regency Enterprise.

After a while, she looked surprised and said, “Halsey, Regency Enterprise said that Harvey wouldn’t be held accountable anymore.

“They also said that it was their fault in this matter. They will continue to cooperate with Silver Nimbus Enterprise, discussing land sales to show their sincerity.”

“Huh? So soon?” Halsey thought for a while. She then hit her head. “I see. I have sent a message to CEO Hart of Sky Corporation this morning, asking him to help solve this matter.

“I guess CEO Hart did interfere in this matter.

“No wonder even the Yates family left at such a critical moment. So, it's because of this.

Chapter 1072

“The prestige of our CEO, Prince York, is certainly great!”

Halsey finally figured the matter out and lamented it.

She thought that she had already known the truth. Prince York resolved this matter. What did it have to do with the useless Harvey?

Mandy also let out a sigh of relief after hearing Halsey's words.

After that, Mandy looked at Harvey with a serious expression. “We owe Prince York a huge favor again. We must find a chance to go and thank him!”

“This, I don't think it's necessary. Prince York's very busy.”

Harvey was speechless and did not know how to explain.

In fact, Halsey was right. Prince York was the one who resolved this matter.

Chapter 1072

However, if he admitted that he was Prince York now...

They certainly would not believe any of it.

Bellamy only smiled on the side and said nothing.

Mandy said with a serious tone, "Harvey, how can you do this? We should know how to be grateful and return the favor. We must thank Prince York. In short, I'll tell you when I find the opportunity."

Harvey felt helpless. He could only nod and agree.

Meanwhile, at the Yates family.

Keith had already told everything to Grandma Yates. Grandma Yates' complexion was awful. She said, "Are you saying that we can't mess around with Harvey at the time being because of Commander Bellamy Blake?"

Chapter 1073

Chapter 1073

“Yes, because if I’m not wrong, Commander Blake’s superior, the living legend, the Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp, also resides in Gardens Residence.

“Soon, Commander Blake will surely often go there.

“If he knows that the Yates family continues giving a hard time to Harvey, maybe he will get angry.

“We, the Yates family, couldn’t afford to offend the first-in-command of the South Light Military, the Commander!”

Keith lamented.

It could only be said that Harvey was certainly a lucky guy, even this kind of good thing could happen to him.

It was said that he rented his house. He certainly had immense fortune to be able to rent a house in the same community as the legendary Chief Instructor.

Chapter 1073

Grandma Yates thought for a moment and said slowly, "Lack of forbearance in small matters upsets great plans. You're right. We don't have to ruin our big plans for a nobody!"

"What the Yates family have to do at the moment is to fix our relationship with Commander Blake. It would be better if we could get to know the Chief Instructor sooner!"

"How about this? You send someone to check the identity of all the tenants living in the Gardens Residence and see who's most likely to be the Chief Instructor.

"After confirming, we'll think of a way to get close to him!"

Keith nodded slightly and was about to agree.

Finn, who was clutching onto his chest at the moment, interjected, “Grandma, Father, this mustn’t happen!

Chapter 1073

“A Commander is already this horrifying. The legendary Chief Instructor must be fathomable.

“Moreover, his identity is top secret. He must have prepared many cards up his sleeve.

“If we rush to inquire about his identity under this situation, it would be an irreparable consequence once he noticed it!

“It would even lead to the destruction of the Yates family!”

Grandma Yates and Keith exchanged glances after hearing Finn’s words.

This was because what Finn said actually made sense.

“It is said that everyone in the Sword Camp is the King of Arms, and the Chief Instructor is a walking legend and a living myth. It’s indeed not suitable to inquire at will!”

Chapter 1073

“It seems that we should make more preparations and see if we can get close to him during the exchange of defense ceremony!”

Keith thought for a while and said, “Finn, please quickly make a call to America and ask your sister to come back using the fastest plane.”

“Huh? Father, why is this?” Finn could not react to that request at that moment.

Keith said solemnly, “I heard that the Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp is relatively young, at most in his twenties. He’s still single and not married.

“If the Yates family could seize the opportunity, then it wouldn’t be just as simple as being successful only!

“We’ll be able to accomplish everything!”

Finn showed a smile on his face upon hearing Keith’s words.

Right!

Chapter 1073

If he could become the brother-in-law of the Chief Instructor, he could do anything he wanted in the whole of Country H.

He did not have to worry about his future.

At least when someone like Bellamy would have to greet him respectfully when encountering him!

Finn whispered while thinking of this, "Father, I'll make the arrangements now. I'll ask Sister to come back as soon as possible."

Meanwhile, Grandma Yates frowned and said, "Keith, your idea is quite good. But the problem is, we're not the only ones who would have this idea by then!

"Although Phoebe is pretty, the other daughters from the prominent families are not bad either!

"We don't have much of an advantage!"

Grandma Yates' doubts were very realistic. The Chief Instructor must have seen many women, and it was said that he even rejected a Nordic Valkyrie.

Chapter 1073

Would he fall in love with the daughter from the Yates family?

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1074

Chapter 1074

Keith Yates' complexion worsened after hearing this.

Grandma Yates was right. There would surely be many people with the same idea.

Let's just say, Sheldon Xavier and Kyle Quinlan. Those two people were both from the top ten families. How would they miss this opportunity?

Phoebe Yates could not compare with the daughters of the Xavier family from Wolsing and the Quinlan family from Georgia in terms of identity and figure alone.

Finn suddenly said from the side, "Father, actually, we still have our chance!

"As long as we are daring, we could let Sister sleep with the Chief Instructor and have his baby. Then, even if the Chief Instructor doesn't marry Sister in the end, we could still get our benefits using the child!"

Chapter 1074

Keith frowned and said, "But in this case, the reputation of the Yates family will be lost!"

Finn said coldly, "Father, a man of great ambition doesn't bother about trivial things! If this could be done, you might become one of the elders in the future!"

"And I, too, are destined to rise and let the Yates family flourish!"

"Reputation isn't all that important in front of these great benefits. You can't eat it!"

Grandma Yates also nodded and said, "Good idea. Finn, you're brilliant!"

"When you call Phoebe, tell her to start preparing for pregnancy and eat whatever she needs to eat. Our goal is to make the first shot count!"

Chapter 1074

The Yates family was preparing, the Robbins family and also the Cloude family were also preparing.

This was because the biggest thing in Buckwood right now was the exchange of defense ceremony of the first-in-command of the Military.

Whoever could get close to Commander Blake and the Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp during the ceremony would control the new changes in South Light.

As for the Leo family from Hong Kong, Chris Leo also began to prepare various exquisite gifts.

For him, getting close to the Chief Instructor was also an opportunity for him to move to a higher position within the Leo family.

Otherwise, he was distraught that Quinton York would trample him if he was careless and would never have the chance to inherit the Leo family.

On the outskirts of Buckwood, in a private club, seemingly shabby on the outside but with a fine interior.

Chapter 1074

Stephen York sat on the sofa and waited quietly.

After a long time, the door of the clubhouse creaked open, and then a figure in a hoodie walked in.

Stephen unconsciously stood up after seeing this figure. He then bowed and said, "Second Brother."

The person slowly took off his cap, revealing a handsome face. It was indeed the person who had lost and left Buckwood for Hong Kong back then, the head of the Famous Four of the Yorks, Quinton York!

Quinton sat down on his own and then said indifferently, "Stephen, you let me down!

"You have stayed in Buckwood for a long time. Not only did things go nowhere, but he also defeated the Surrey family.

"Are you planning to lose all the things we have left in Buckwood?"

Chapter 1074

Stephen sighed and said, "Second Brother, it isn't my fault. You know better than me how difficult it is to deal with that person.

"The power that I currently have still couldn't compare to him.

"But I do have an idea..."

"Speak," Quinton said coldly.

"I heard that that person is going to attend the exchange of defense ceremony of South Light Military Department. If this news is passed to some organizations outside the country, someone would surely take action for us." Stephen said with a smile.

Quinton nodded and said, "Okay, you'll do it. But we'll have to use a two-pronged approach, getting back Sky Corporation and regain the glory of the Yorks."

"Then Second Brother, you're saying..."

"Start with Yvonne Xavier. I have prepared it for you. Come out.” Quinton clapped his hands. A tall and handsome man walked out behind the door.

Chapter 1074

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1075

Chapter 1075

At Sky Corporation.

Yvonne Xavier, who had just finished her duties, stretched herself when her phone rang.

She had a weird expression after seeing the name on the phone.

After a while, she hung up the phone, had a car prepared, and left quickly.

Soon, Yvonne drove all alone to Buckwood International Airport.

About two hours later, a man in suit and leather shoes walked out of the VIP aisle and got into Yvonne's passenger seat.

Yvonne's expression was a little strange when she saw him. She quickly regained her composure, saying, "It's been a long time, Niall.

Chapter 1075

"Didn't you broaden your horizons in America? Why did you suddenly return?"

Niall Robbins smiled, trying to reach out his hand to caress Yvonne's hair, but she dodged it.

He did not force it upon seeing this. Instead, he smiled and said, "Although America is good, I'm still Chinese after all.

"I've been alone in America over the years. It's too lonely, so I want to come back now.

"I don't know if you're willing to come back to me?"

Yvonne's complexion worsened. She said, "Niall, I come to see you because I treat you as a friend.

"But if you want to say these impossible things, then we'll never meet again."

Niall laughed after listening to her words, "Yvonne, you liked me very much back then. If it weren't for me going abroad, the two of us would have been together since long ago.

Chapter 1075

“I’m giving you a chance now. You must cherish it!”

Yvonne said coldly, “No need! I have a sweetheart now!”

“I came to see you this time just to tell you, please don’t harass me again in the future!”

Yvonne knitted her fingers after saying all that.

Niall was her senior in college. He was handsome and talented.

Yvonne did chase after him when she was in university.

However, Niall did not know Yvonne’s true identity, so he rejected her and went to America with another rich girl.

She never expected that he would come back many years later.

When Yvonne received the call, she came with a mindset to completely get over the past.

Chapter 1075

Nonetheless, she did not expect Niall to say those nonsenses just after they met.

Niall smiled, looking at Yvonne's indifferent look, "Since you are so heartless and you don't want to reminisce the past with me, then let's get things right."

Yvonne's face changed when she saw the photo.

This photo should be taken on the battlefield, and it was very blurry.

However, even if it was blurry, one could still vaguely see the protagonist in the photo, a man full of masculinity.

It was not difficult to guess just by looking at his outfit.

He was the myth of the military, the living legend, the Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp.

What shocked Yvonne the most was that although the protagonist in this photo only showed his side profile, she was still very familiar with it.

Chapter 1075

Harvey York!

Harvey York, Prince York, was the legendary Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp!

If this photo was leaked, it would probably cause an uproar.

There might even be catastrophic consequences.

It was because the identity of the Chief Instructor had always been top-secret!

After Yvonne's expression changed after a while, she said coldly, "Niall, what's the meaning of this?"

"Nothing special. I'm going to sell you the film of this photo in exchange for some money to make a living." Niall shrugged and said indifferently.

Chapter 1076

Chapter 1076

Yvonne Xavier retorted, "Niall, do you know the consequences of this photo being spread?!"

"The Chief Instructor is the patron saint of Country H!"

"His identity is top-secret. What if someone sent to assassinate him once some foreign organizations know his true identity?"

"You're a citizen of Country H. How could you use this kind of thing to threaten me?"

"Threatening you? Yvonne, you're too rash! You have to know, if I sell this photo to America, do you know how much they will pay?"

Niall Robbins smiled, and then he stretched out his fingers and said, "At least 15 million dollars!"

"However, I didn't do anything but came to find

Chapter 1076

you. This shows that I'm still patriotic to my country.

"We're both old acquaintances, so I don't want to talk nonsense. I make a request. If you fulfill it, I promise that the negatives will be delivered to you."

Yvonne was trembling with anger at the moment.

In her eyes, Niall was truly shameless.

Yvonne said coldly at this moment, "What request? How much do you want?"

Niall smiled and said, "Yvonne, you were once my confidant. Don't you understand that I'm not interested in money?"

At this moment, Niall smiled mischievously. He was not short of money, at least not for now.

Quinton York had already given him 1.5 million when he asked him to come back to do this thing.

As long as things could succeed, forty-nine percent of Sky Corporation's shares would fall into his hands, allowing him to ascend to the top immediately. This was the condition that tempted Niall.

Chapter 1076

Apparently, Niall was Quinton York's pawn that he prepared when he came to Buckwood this time.

This photo was obviously also given to him by Quinton.

Quinton did not tell Niall what the photo represented when he gave it to Niall. He just told him what to do.

However, even if someone like Niall knew the true meaning of the photo, he would never give up the photo with his nature.

People like him were selfish. They would not do anything it was not beneficial to them.

In his eyes, nothing in the world was more important than his interests.

Patriotic feelings, loving the country and the people, was just a joke to him.

Chapter 1076

In short, he was a complete scum of the earth!

Yvonne forcibly calmed down at the moment. “Then what do you really want?”

Niall smiled and said, “I heard that you’re very great right now. You’re only below a person in the entire Sky Corporation. At times, you will even have the privilege to make decisions on behalf of the CEO, am I right?”

Yvonne noticed something’s amiss. However, she could only say bitterly at this moment. “What the hell do you mean?”

“Aren’t I clear enough? I’m asking you, are you the one in power in Sky Corporation?”

Yvonne took a deep breath and said, “I’m just the secretary of the CEO. I just decide something for the CEO sometimes.”

“I heard that your CEO, the one in the photo, likes to leave things behind for you to settle.

“Moreover, he trusts you fully. Many things in the group, as long as you nod, it's considered passed, right?"

Chapter 1076

Niall came prepared and found out the details.

Yvonne's complexion blackened. She said, "Yes, that's right."

Niall laughed. "Good. I am saying my request now. Listen carefully!

"I hope to acquire all the shares of Sky Corporation at the exchange of one dollar. Do you understand what I mean?"

Telegram @ChineseNovels

Chapter 1077

Chapter 1077

Yvonne Xavier was surprised when he said this.

Niall Robbins was not acquiring...

He meant to transfer Sky Corporation to him unconditionally!

“Niall, are you crazy? Do you know what is the market value of Sky Corporation? It’s more than trillions! And you’re planning to buy it for one dollar? What are you thinking?”

Yvonne forced herself to calm down and responded in a deep voice.

Niall laughed and said, “Of course, I want to buy Sky Corporation. What else?”

“Besides, I’ve never taken other people’s benefits for nothing. So, this one dollar, you need to take it regardless of you want it or not!

Chapter 1077

“Of course, you can refuse my request. But I assure you!

“At this time tomorrow, the military of the five major countries, America, the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, Island Nation, Fighting Tribe, and India will all receive this photo.

“At that time, what they will do is beyond my control.”

Yvonne's face turned pale when he said this.

She was a member of the top ten families. Thus, she was very clear about Harvey's international influence and deterrence.

Once his true identity was exposed, its impact would most certainly be catastrophic.

Her face turned pale at the moment. She said, “Senior Robbins, can you change to another request? I couldn't decide to sell Sky Corporation!

“But I won't give you a bad deal!

Chapter 1077

“For example, how about if I give you 155 million dollars?”

Niall laughed after listening to Yvonne’s words. He then said coldly, “Yvonne, 155 million dollars is nothing if compared to Sky Corporation. It’s worthless!

“What do you mean? Sending beggars away with that amount?”

“I’m telling you. I’ve already inquired clearly. With the current situation of Sky Corporation, you certainly have a way to transfer the equity to my name without anyone knowing it!”

“You...” Yvonne’s complexion worsened. The other party obviously came prepared.

Most importantly, Harvey’s official seal and private seal were both in her hands now.

If she betrayed Harvey and wanted to transfer the equity to someone else, she surely could do it easily.

“Yvonne, think about it. Which of these two things brings more serious consequences?

Chapter 1077

“It’s just Sky Corporation. What’s the big deal? But if the true identity of that person is exposed, it would be fatal.

“You’re not betraying him by doing this, but instead you’re protecting him!

“Could it be that you want to see his identity being exposed? Seeing him being chased by countless foreign forces, and eventually die?”

Niall kept pushing her and did not give her a chance to choose.

“Well, I only return here for a day this time. If I don’t see the equity transfer agreement by noon tomorrow, those photos will be sent out.

“Give it a thought.”

Niall was about to get off the car after he finished speaking.

He knew the psychology of negotiation very well and knew how to create tension for the other party.

Chapter 1077

Yvonne was shocked. She unconsciously said, “Can you slow down, and let me think about it? One day isn’t enough!”

“Slow down? Okay. I’ll give you a chance to perform. Come to see me in the presidential suite in Grand Hotel W tonight. Remember, you can only come by yourself. In this case, I might give you a chance.

“Otherwise, don’t blame me for being merciless!”

Niall got out of the car as soon as he finished speaking, not giving Yvonne a chance to refuse his offer.

He waved his hand when he got out of the car. A Toyota Elfa drove over. There was a person in the car looking at him indifferently, and it was Stephen York.

Chapter 1078

Chapter 1078

Niall Robbins quickly got into the car and waited until the car left Buckwood International Airport, then only he bowed and said, “Young Master Stephen York, everything is done according to Young Master Quinton York’s instructions!”

“According to the plan, that b*tch, Yvonne, would surely transfer Sky Corporation to my name within three days.”

Stephen said indifferently, “Good job. Sky Corporation will have your share, and we can even let you become the CEO. We, the Yorks, will only be behind the scenes.

“CEO Robbins, keep up the good work. You will be the number one person in South Light in the future!”

Niall answered with excitement, “Thank you,

Chapter 1078

Young Master Stephen York, for investing in me. I'll surely go all out!"

In truth, Niall still has his little thoughts at this moment.

According to the plan, after he got the equity, he would transfer fifty-one percent to Stephen, and he would take the remaining forty-nine percent.

However, seeing this being so easy today, Niall already had the idea of monopolizing everything.

'What Chief Instructor? What Famous Four of the Yorks? They're nothing!

'I'll get the equity and sleep with Yvonne, that b*tch. From then on, I'll be the number one person in South Light. Who would dare to mess around with me?'

Niall was not stupid at all. He had checked Yvonne's identity through his channels.

She was the first-in-command of South Light, Sheldon Xavier's granddaughter!

Chapter 1078

As long as he could sleep with her once and left a little evidence, he was sure that Sheldon would not acknowledge him as grandson-in-law.

Once he got the money and have the Xavier family as a supporter, Niall was confident that he could become the best of the best!

At this moment, although he was bowing very respectfully in front of Stephen, the corner of his lips was slightly raised.

Stephen looked at Niall's figure and smiled silently.

On the other hand...

Yvonne looked pale at the moment.

She never thought that Harvey's biggest secret would fall into the hands of someone as shameless as Niall.

For Yvonne, Harvey's safety was more important than her life.

Chapter 1078

She wanted to protect Harvey no matter what. She would not let this secret be exposed.

“What should I do?”

“Do I need to transfer all the equity to that shameless villain behind the CEO’s back?”

“Or, should I inform the CEO about this?”

“No. In case Niall sends someone to spy on me, once I tell the CEO, the whole deal would go bust, then Harvey would be in serious trouble!”

Yvonne was very conflicted. At the same time, she also understood Niall’s purpose for letting her go to Grand Hotel W tonight.

He must have wanted to sleep with her. Only in this way would he promise to give her more time.

However, she was still a virgin. How could she let Niall take advantage of her?

Yvonne’s heart was full of despair at this moment.

Chapter 1078

After returning to Sky Corporation, Yvonne was absent-minded. She had thought of countless solutions, but none of them could solve the matter smoothly.

She took her mobile phone and tried to dial Harvey's number several times. Nonetheless, she could not press it anyway.

This was because she knew very well that once Niall made the deal go under, the consequences would be catastrophic.

"No, there's still another way. If Niall was killed..."

This dangerous thought appeared in Yvonne's mind. She was shocked.

Judging from the current situation, this might be the best way.

However, once she did this, she might have to pay with her life for this person.

Suddenly, Yvonne became even more helpless.

Chapter 1079

Chapter 1079

Many employees had noticed Yvonne Xavier's absent-mindedness. Even Ray Hart knew of it.

He specifically called Harvey York.

“Could it be because of the forced marriage of the Leo family from Hong Kong?” Harvey slightly frowned.

He had already warned the Leo family from Hong Kong about this matter.

However, they had not given a response yet.

“It seems that it's necessary to cut off the hands and legs of the Leo family from Hong Kong that are first to reach South Light!”

Harvey murmured.

However, there was no hurry. Everything would be resolved together at the exchange of defense ceremony.

Chapter 1079

On the other side.

On a luxury yacht by the sea in Buckwood.

Niall Robbins was wearing swimming trunks, hugging women left and right in the cabin.

This time he returned to Country H, there was a high probability that he would quickly rise to the top and become the number one person in South Light, which made him extremely cocky.

“Niall, it seems that you truly hit the jackpot this time.”

The man sitting opposite Niall was a person named Robert Anderson. He was a bad cop. He opened a security company after being expelled from the service. He did an excellent job in the gray area of Buckwood. He had hundreds of security guards under him.

Chapter 1079

Niall had a good relationship with him in the past. He was going to do big things this time. Of course, he would need a few powerful bosses to look out for him.

At this moment, Niall did not talk nonsense. He kicked out a suitcase. There were a lot of banknotes after opening it, amounting to a few hundred thousand dollars.

Robert's eyes went red when he saw this. He unconsciously said, "Niall, no, I mean Brother Robbins, is this money for me?"

At this moment, Robert interpreted the word "pragmatic" and "realistic" to the extreme.

After seeing the money, Niall became Brother Robbins.

"Robert, this small amount of money is nothing. Take it and give it to the brothers as pocket money!"

"Everyone should follow me in the future. We all will make a fortune together.”

Chapter 1079

Niall could be regarded as a somebody. Thus, he knew the principle “no pain, no gain” very well.

If he wanted to monopolize all the shares of Sky Corporation, he must have a group of capable thugs under him.

That was why he reluctantly paid so much money today.

Robert looked at the money in front of him and quickly bowed, “Brother Robbins, you will be our Big Brother in the future. We’ll do whatever you ask us to do!

“You have to lead us to make a fortune!”

Niall took a puff from his cigarette and said, “Don’t worry. If I have made a fortune, I would surely not forget all the brothers.

“Tonight, perform well. Whether we can enjoy prosperity and wealth, it really depends on tonight!”

Chapter 1079

At the moment, Niall drove all the women out and then talked about plans for tonight with Robert.

He could not help but say at this moment, "Brother Robbins, this b*tch is certainly something!

"But, this might not make her obedient!

"We still have to take a video. We can blackmail her, and she will have to do whatever we want her to in the future!"

Niall returned from overseas and had attended many similar gatherings.

After listening to Robert's words, he thought for a while and said, "Okay, I agree. But if we do this, then from now on, we're all in this together!"

Robert laughed and said, "Brother Robbins, good brother, a loyal guy!

"You are so good to us. We'll surely risk our lives for you!"

Niall sneered. As long as he could get enough benefits, a woman was nothing.

Chapter 1079

She was just a plaything for him!

Chapter 1080

Chapter 1080

Soon, Niall Robbins and others spent the afternoon playing in the luxury yacht. After that, everyone went to make preparations individually according to Niall's arrangement.

Niall found a car for himself and drove straight to the main entrance of Sky Corporation. He then made a call.

"Yvonne, it's time to get off work. Have you considered my request?" Niall said with a smirk.

"I'll...go to Grand Hotel W to meet you tonight."

Yvonne hesitated for a long time and finally made up her mind.

In the office, Yvonne opened the drawer, and there was an exquisite letter opener inside.

She reached out her hand and held the handle tremblingly, and put it in her handbag. After that, she left the office with a gloomy expression.

Chapter 1080

This scene made all employees feel very strange.

Secretary Xavier was a workaholic. Why did she get off work early today?

When she reached the ground floor of the office building and saw Niall waiting for her with a wicked smile, Yvonne's complexion became worse.

However, she got into the car after taking a deep breath.

This scene happened to be seen by the front desk girl, and soon the news spread.

"It's too weird! Secretary Xavier always drives by herself. Why would she sit in a man's passenger seat today?"

"Moreover, she doesn't look good, not like being in a relationship, but more like being threatened."

"Could it be that someone is harassing her?"

Chapter 1080

Soon, this news reached Ray Hart, and he immediately reported it to Harvey.

“Something’s not right. It seems that something is really happening to Yvonne!”

Harvey’s expression changed, and he quickly ordered, “Go and find out where the car is going. I’ll go over and deal with the matter.”

“CEO, don’t worry. I have already asked my people to look into it!”

At the same time.

Niall had already driven to the entrance of Grand Hotel W. He said coldly before dropping off Yvonne, “You go to the presidential suite first. Remember to clean up a bit. I’ll go up after I park the car.”

Yvonne’s complexion was awful. However, she did not say anything. Instead, she took a deep breath and pushed the car door open to leave.

Chapter 1080

Looking at Yvonne's slim figure and the desperate expression on her face, Niall's psychosis was greatly satisfied.

He had already decided.

Sky Corporation, he wanted it!

Yvonne, he wanted it!

As for that photo, he would also expose it.

This was because he could only enjoy the wealth of Sky Corporation with peace of mind after the person in the photo was dead.

All of this must start tonight.

Niall felt that a ladder leading him to the upper circle had appeared in front of him.

Yvonne was restless in the presidential suite. She was holding the handle of the letter opener in her handbag with her right hand. Her face was pale.

At this moment. Her heart was full of despair and fear. She, who was always strategizing in the lobby, was now in an extremely helpless state.

Chapter 1080

Just when she was extremely nervous, the door of the presidential suite suddenly opened.

Squeak.

Yvonne unconsciously looked over, and her expression worsened.

This was because other than Niall Robert, and a few thugs were also following him in at the moment.

All those people had evil expressions on their faces, and they licked their lips as they walked. They were acting like creepy perverts.

Yvonne was so scared that she backed away again and again. She unconsciously said, "Who are you? What do you want to do?"

Niall laughed. "Yvonne, let me introduce you. This is Robert, and these are his little brothers..."

"Everyone wants to make friends with you tonight

Chapter 1081

Chapter 1081

Yvonne Xavier's face had lost all color in an instant.

She was not a child anymore. Of course, she knew what those people were up to.

Robert Anderson then rubbed both of his hands and chuckled.

"Don't be scared, little girl. Hehehe!"

"We'll definitely show some mercy on a delicate woman like you!"

"Don't be afraid!"

All of the gangsters were showing lecherous expressions, as perverted as they could look.

Yvonne pointed at Niall Robbins and exclaimed, "You're no human at all, Niall!"

"I'm not fulfilling any single one of your requests!"

Chapter 1081

“I’d rather die first!”

Yvonne was about to leave in a fit of rage.

But Robert Anderson and the others walked up toward her, immediately blocking off the entrance and locking the door, not even giving her a chance to walk out.

“Why are you leaving, little girl? I only want to socialize with you. I’m not planning to do anything bad!”

Robert and the others were only waiting for Niall.

Niall then smiled while looking at Yvonne at this moment.

“Yvonne, everyone’s only trying to be nice. Don’t be this gullible.”

“Me gullible? Niall, what are you planning to do?”

“Isn’t the sole purpose of you calling me over is about Sky Corporation?”

Chapter 1081

“Or do you just want to humiliate me, and you’re not interested in Sky Corporation anymore?!”

Yvonne had to name-drop Sky Corporation as an excuse.

After hearing those words, Niall’s expression changed slightly.

Of course, he cared about Sky Corporation. It was his hope of being an upperclassman!

“Yvonne, of course, I’m interested in Sky Corporation. But aren’t you here to ask me for a few more days?”

“My request is simple, have fun with my brothers tonight. Then, I’ll give you three more days!”

“If not, I’ll send the person’s pictures to the five strongest countries’ military department mailbox!”
Niall unscrupulously threatened her.

“You! Niall, you’re scum! Loser! Hypocrite! You’re no man at all!”

Chapter 1081

“Of course I’m a man!”

Niall let out a profound smile.

“Why are you still pretending, Niall? Don’t think that I don’t know. Your ex-girlfriend already told us that you’re impotent!”

Yvonne was extremely furious, bringing everything to the table.

But those words had instantly turned Niall’s expression wretched. He then gave a perverted grin and replied, “Bastard, you talk too much!”

“Do it, Robert. Hold her still and remember to get someone to film it. With this video, she’ll do whatever we ask of her!”

“Heheheh, we’ll do as you ask, Boss Niall! You can have a go first! We’ll just go after you!”

Robert rubbed his hands while walking forward.

“I’m going to kill you, Niall Robbins!”

Chapter 1081

Yvonne took out a letter opener from her bag, then pointed it toward Niall's direction.

Robert coldly smiled while moving forward. He swiftly locked Yvonne's wrist in place using his right hand, then grabbed the letter opener from her.

Then, those gangsters immediately threw Yvonne onto the bed.

Chapter 1082

Chapter 1082

“Ah!”

Yvonne Xavier could not hold in her moan after feeling pain. Tears started to trickle down her face.

Her heart only felt despair.

She did not think Niall Robbins was actually this shameless, an absolute scum of the earth, capable of doing heinous things like this!

‘I’m finished!’

‘I’m absolutely finished!’

Yvonne only wanted to jump off a building at this moment. She would rather die than endure the humiliation.

Bang!

Right when Niall was about to pounce on the bed, a sound echoed loudly behind him. The locked door was kicked wide open.

Chapter 1082

Niall, Robert Anderson, and the others were shocked by the sound. They then looked behind them and saw Harvey York with a cold expression on his face.

“Who are you? Don’t you know that this is private property?” Niall shouted with rage.

If he was not on pills, he might be able to look at Harvey’s face properly, but he did not have the mood to do so now that the drugs are taking effect.

There was no turning back for him. He had to do it. In his eyes, people that would dare to disturb him were looking for their own deaths!

Robert showed an annoyed face, then coldly said, “Boys, break all of his limbs!

“Where did this filth even come from? Trying to save the damsel in distress after watching one too many movies?

Chapter 1082

“What is he thinking?”

Along with the sound of Robert’s order, the gangsters all swiftly rushed toward Harvey.

Harvey’s gaze was icy, killing intent started to exude from his body.

Bang!

Harvey swiftly kicked the gangster in front and sent him flying back thirty feet until he smashed against a wall. He did not stop trembling as he landed on the ground. His whole body was covered in blood.

Slap!

Harvey then casually picked up an ashtray from a table and smashed it on the other gangster’s face. He immediately collapsed to the ground, without the strength to even roll.

When the last two gangsters rushed up toward Harvey, he kicked the letter opener on the ground.

The gangsters both showed extreme disbelief in the next moment, then kneeled on the ground slowly while covering their throats.

Chapter 1082

Blood started to seep out between their fingers.

The sight terrified everyone in the scene.

Nobody had thought that Harvey was this scary when he fought.

In his hands, those gangsters were utterly useless!

“You want to die?!”

Robert suddenly pulled out a gun with a silencer, then pointed it at Harvey with a despicable face.

He swiftly walked up toward Harvey, then immediately put the barrel of the gun against his head and scolded furiously, “Aren’t you good at fighting?! Come on then! Hit me!”

Robert was about to pull the trigger in the next moment.

But right when he was about to pull the trigger, he realized that Harvey already had his right hand locking his wrist in place. With a twist, the snapping sound of Robert's wrist could be heard.

Chapter 1082

The gun landed in Harvey's palm. He did not even look and casually opened fire twice.

Bang bang!

The muffled sounds echoed throughout the room. The two bullets precisely passed through Robert's lower body. ①

Robert let out a scream more horrifying than a slaughtered pig. He was covering his lower body while he rolled on the ground constantly.

This was even more painful than dying for him because he was no longer a man from that day onward.

Niall was utterly terrified after seeing the sight. His body was frozen. He could not even move an inch, and his whole body was dripping down cold sweats as if it were raining.

Chapter 1083

Chapter 1083

'Monster!'

'The man in front of me is a monster!'

At this moment, Niall Robbins finally got a good look at Harvey York.

Then, his mind was utterly blown.

That man!

It was the man from the photograph!

At this moment, Harvey placed his foot on the back of Niall's head and pushed it on the rug.

When the surrounding was dead silent, he then took a look at Niall.

"I... I..."

"This... This has... Nothing to do with me..."

Chapter 1083

“Please, let me go!”

Niall was so terrified that he could not utter another word. He did not know what to say at that moment.

“You used my picture to threaten Yvonne, didn’t you?”

Harvey casually took a picture from the table. It was a picture of him from a few years back.

“I didn’t... I wouldn’t dare...”

Niall frantically shook his head.

What a joke!

He wouldn’t dare to admit it at this moment even if he suddenly gained the courage of a god!

Harvey did not say another word while holding the firearm in his hand, then casually aimed it at Niall’s left leg and pulled the trigger.

Bang!

The sound was not that audible because of the

Chapter 1083

silencer, but it was still quite effective.

“Aaagh!”

Niall was kneeling on the ground in the next moment, letting out a harsh wail.

“Since you have a way to get my pictures, you should be able to know my real identity. Then, tell me, how did you manage to threaten Yvonne?”

Harvey asked calmly.

“I didn’t, I...”

Niall frantically shook his head.

Bang!

Harvey pulled the trigger once again, this time on his right leg.

“Aaaah!”

Niall howled while rolling on the ground.

“I’ll talk! I’ll talk!”

“I told Yvonne that if she didn’t comply with my

Chapter 1083

demands, I'd leak your picture to the military force of the five strongest countries!"

"Leak it to those useless people?"

"Do you really think that they would even dare to touch me if they knew about my actual identity?"

"This..."

Niall froze over.

Yvonne Xavier stuttered as well. She was too anxious about Harvey's affair, but she could not fathom the situation at all.

Harvey walked up toward Yvonne, then rubbed on her head and sighed.

"You're such an idiot, Yvonne.

"I didn't expose my identity previously only because I had something else to do first. I didn't want my identity to be out there that early.

"And it was not because I'm scared of anyone!"

Chapter 1083

“Even if something like this were to be in the hands of the five strongest countries, would they even dare to come for me? They wouldn’t try even if they had the courage of the gods.”

Yvonne took a deep breath. She was not an ordinary woman. She calmed herself down at that moment, then quietly replied, “CEO, I was hasty. I should have reported this to you first.”

Harvey smiled.

“This wasn’t your fault, I didn’t protect you properly. I guarantee you nobody can hurt you from this point onward.

“They’d have to step over my dead body before they can get to you!”

Harvey covered Yvonne’s eyes with one hand after his speech while the gun on his right hand was pointed at Niall’s forehead.

“Don’t kill me! Don’t kill me!

“I can tell you something big!

Chapter 1083

“It wasn’t me that planned all this out. The Yorks are behind all this!”

“I’m only following orders. Quinton York is the real mastermind here!”

Niall desperately tried to survive, spilling all the beans at that moment.

“Oh, it’s the filth, Quinton,” Harvey replied calmly.

“According to the laws of the underworld, should I be letting you go since you told me who the mastermind is?”

Chapter 1084

Chapter 1084

After hearing Harvey York's words, Niall Robbins let out a wide grin on his face.

He could live!

According to what Harvey said, he could actually still live!

Niall mustered all of his strength to kneel back up at that moment and groveled non-stop.

"Thank you! Thank you! I'll change my ways from today onward!

"I promise that I won't do anything bad from now on!"

"CEO, you can't trust him! This man is shameless. He has no honor at all!" Yvonne Xavier said hastily. After experiencing an affair like this, she then knew how shameless her former senior could actually be.

Chapter 1084

After hearing Yvonne's words, Niall's eyes were showing utter vex toward her.

But he would not dare to show it at this moment. Instead, he went toward Harvey and kept banging his head on the floor.

"I know your real identity!

"You're the chief instructor of the Sword Camp!

"The chief instructor that wiped the five strongest countries clean on the Euro-American Battlefield!

"The guardian of Country H!

"A man like you wouldn't kill a citizen from Country H like me, would you?

"Besides, I'm just a dog, a stink bug. I have no right to die by your hands!"

"Killing me would only dirty your hands!

"Just treat me like a fart in the wind!"

Chapter 1084

Niall tilted his head up to look at Harvey at this moment. In his eyes, the man would probably spare his life at this point.

Because he had seen how other so-called big characters from overseas behaved.

Those big characters really did not have the interest to slaughter small fries because they were not worthy.

Harvey then slowly replied with an expression as cold as ice, "Indeed, you don't have the right to die by my hands.

"But you reminded me!

"People like you have no love for your country and home!

"Soldiers are fighting bloody wars and sacrificing their lives on the front lines!

"But a stink bug like you can actually sell out the country's secrets unscrupulously just for a slight change!

Chapter 1084

“Even if you’re unworthy of dying by my hands, a man like you staying alive will endanger the peace that the country barely made.

“If you don’t die, the brothers’ deaths at the front lines will be in vain!”

Bang!

Immediately after his speech, Harvey pulled the trigger.

Niall’s unbelievable expression froze in place. In the next moment, he was limp on the ground, already dead.

He never would’ve thought that even if Harvey were not to dirty his hands, he would surely kill him.

After giving a call to Ethan Hunt for him to take care of the cleanup, Harvey then smiled at Yvonne and asked, “Can you walk?”

“Let me try.”

Chapter 1084

Yvonne mustered all of her strength to stand up.

But the shock that she endured was too immense. Her whole body was still weak. She could not even move an inch.

Her face was as red as a strawberry at this moment.

“This place is horrible. Let’s get out of here for now. I’ll take you for a meal later.”

Harvey smiled, then carried Yvonne in his arms and swiftly walked out of the room.

The dark and bloody scene had long gone past Yvonne’s head, and yet Harvey’s gaze became colder.

‘Quinton’s back.

‘And he went for the people around me.

‘Seems like I can’t be too lenient anymore!’

Yvonne, who was in Harvey’s arms, did not pay heed to his expression at this moment. Besides feeling all shy and timid, she could only feel blessed.

Chapter 1084

She had imagined a scene like this an infinite amount of times before, but she never thought that it would present itself in this way.

“Sob, sob, sob...”

Soon, Yvonne burst out crying in Harvey's arms. It was because she was scared and happy at the same time.

Harvey did not comfort her but continued to carry her out of W Hotel.

Chapter 1085

There was a bustling commercial street right under W Hotel. Quite a number of people were there since the weather was nice.

Harvey York carrying Yvonne Xavier had gotten an immense amount of attention from people.

A tall and handsome young man with a devilishly beautiful woman had attracted countless looks.

People that were oblivious even thought that they were filming a movie.

“CEO, maybe you should put me down. I can walk now,” Yvonne could not bear but said quietly.

Yvonne was a little embarrassed when she was being stared at.

Harvey smiled, then carefully put Yvonne down.

Chapter 1085

But even then, quite a few people had surrounded them at this moment.

Then, a group of men wearing black suits swiftly walked toward them. After sizing up Harvey and confirming that he was a bum, one of the men gave a hearty smile toward Yvonne.

“Miss, would you be fine to have a talk with us?”

“Huh?! Do I even know you?”

Yvonne froze over.

“No, but you’ll know me soon enough,” the man said gracefully.

“I’m the company manager of Hong Kong’s Leo Film and Television Enterprise, Rocco Ortiz.

“Miss, your image and qualities are all very outstanding. If my company were to fix you up a little, you could definitely be a superstar of the generation!”

Rocco handed over a very intricate name card in the middle of his speech.

Chapter 1085

Yvonne took a glance at it, then shook her head while smiling.

“Thank you for your compliments, but I’ve no interest in being a star.”

Rocco froze over upon hearing her response.

Hong Kong’s Leo Film and Television Enterprise is a company under the Leos.

Annually, they could groom a few superstars.

Second and third-line artists were innumerable.

Many beautiful women ran straight into Rocco’s arms just to have a chance for an interview.

But it was Rocco’s first time meeting someone that rejected his offer.

After sizing up Yvonne once again with a scrutinizing gaze, a hint of greed flashed before Rocco’s eyes.

Yvonne was too enchanting. Rocco had claimed that he had relationships with many women, but it was his first time meeting someone with an outstanding figure, looks, and mannerisms.

Chapter 1085

He thought that if he weren't able to take Yvonne back with him, then it would be his regret of a lifetime.

Rocco then walked forward without a second thought and said earnestly, "Miss, you look really stunning! If you become a star, you might even represent Country H internationally as a global image!

"And a goddess such as yourself needs to be recorded in film for future generations to admire!

"It's unbecoming being this selfish, you know."

"Selfish?"

Yvonne was dumbfounded.

The words that Rocco spoke sounded out of line, but he was generally complimenting Yvonne's appearances. That's why she was not that mad.

Chapter 1085

Yvonne then politely replied, "Mr. Ortiz, was it? Thank you for acknowledging my looks.

"But I think women should use their heads instead for work. That's why I'm pleased with my job right now!

"I can only politely decline your offer."

After her speech, she then walked over and held Harvey's arm while preparing to leave.

Rocco's eyes showed a hint of rage after seeing the sight.

He took a step forward to block Harvey and Yvonne's path, then exclaimed, "You can't leave!"

The action made Yvonne helpless. Even though she had also met with a few so-called scouts, it was her first time meeting with such a persistent person.

Harvey, on the other hand, was indifferent. It was a good thing that someone came to distract Yvonne from her troubles.

Chapter 1085

That was why he did not open his mouth at this moment. He was prepared to let Yvonne handle this alone.

But Rocco would not let him be even if Harvey were to stay quiet.

“I’m telling you, kid. If your clothes don’t add up to fifteen dollars, you’re unfit for a high-class woman like this!”

“If we lose an international superstar in Country H because of your selfishness, you’d be condemned by history!”

Harvey could not hold in his laughter after hearing Rocco’s righteous speech.

“This guy’s really interesting. Is he not ashamed after spouting nonsense like this?”

Harvey did not care much for Rocco at this moment. He then shifted his gaze toward Yvonne Xavier and said, "Come on, let's go get some food. The restaurant in front of us looks nice."

Chapter 1086

"Sure."

Yvonne shyly nodded her head, then held onto Harvey's hand and left.

Rocco's eyes had shown a hint of vex after seeing Harvey and Yvonne just up and left, ignoring him.

When did he ever experience such rejection and humiliation in Hong Kong?

Rocco wanted to strangle Harvey to death at this moment!

After a moment of glaring menacingly at Harvey and Yvonne's back, he then gave a call to someone.

"Hello? Prince, it's me, Rocco.

"I caught my eyes on an outstanding woman today on the commercial street. She'll fit your tastes perfectly!

"Yes, yes, yes! I'll send you pictures right away!"

Chapter 1086

Soon, Rocco had sent over the pictures of Yvonne that he secretly took.

In a luxurious manor.

Chris Leo from the Leo family in Hong Kong turned on his phone and looked at the pictures sent to him. His expression then changed drastically at a moment's notice.

“Yvonne Xavier?!”

Obviously, Chris had met Yvonne when he proposed to her family.

And in his heart, Yvonne was already his woman!

But he did not think that Yvonne was walking hand in hand with another man in the pictures.

And he knew the man as well.

Harvey York!

The grandson-in-law of the Yates family, Harvey

Chapter 1086

York!

“Interesting, a live-in son-in-law would dare to contest me for a woman!

“No wonder he would dare to threaten me at the airport the last time.

“It was all for Yvonne!”

Chris’s face had leaked out a smirk.

He would even get the princes of the Cloudes, the Robbins, and the other first-rated families to propose to Yvonne, just to make the Xavier family go through their choices and ultimately make Yvonne his.

It was one of his goals in Buckwood to have a marriage with the Xavier family.

But how dare a live-in son-in-law touch his woman?

At this moment, Chris’s heart was as cold as ice.

After a while, Rocco’s phone rang.

Chapter 1086

“Follow them, don’t lose their trail. I’ll be there shortly.”

On the other side of the phone, Rocco was seated in the corner of a western restaurant. He glared at Harvey and Yvonne not far away from him, then quietly replied, “Rest assured, Prince. This disgusting couple cannot escape from you!”

“The address is...”

After a moment, Harvey and Yvonne suddenly realized that the restaurant’s customers were all gone. Even the staff were almost all gone.

And the remaining staff were showing sheer fear on their faces.

Under the staff’s eyes, at least dozens of fighters wearing black suits walked inside at this moment.

After a moment, a silhouette then slowly walked inside.

The person's aura was strong. Just by simply walking, the fighters and staff around him could not help but bow toward him.

That person was none other than Chris Leo from the Leo family in Hong Kong! ①

A man like Chris Leo did not require to highlight his identity with luxurious items at all.

The suit that he wore was designed and tailored by a top-class Italian designer.

The watch on his wrist was also a high-end product. It cost one hundred and fifty million dollars, limited all around the world. ①

It was safe to say that no ordinary person would see how extraordinary the things he wore were, but the more knowledgeable people would.

Not just ordinary people.

Even first or second-rated families needed to fight their whole lives just to acquire this attire!

And even though the Leo family was not one of the top ten families, there were minor differences between them. ①

Chapter 1087

If a big character like this were to show up, not just the first-in-command of Buckwood, even the first-in-command of South Light, Sheldon Xavier would need to pay his respects.

At this moment, Chris immediately ignored Harvey and strolled toward Yvonne while smiling.

“Aren’t you, Ms. Xavier? Why didn’t you give me a phone call and tell me that you’d be having a meal at my place?”

“If these servants were to mistreat you, wouldn’t that be a sin?”

“It’s you, Chris!”

Yvonne’s gaze slightly changed after seeing Chris come in.

It was natural that Yvonne knew who Chris was. After all, he was the one leading the proposal for the Xavier family.

Chapter 1087

And according to the Xaviers of Wolsing, Yvonne had to marry Chris.

Harvey had already met with the Xaviers of Wolsing before at the Black Tea Diner.

But both parties left on bad terms.

And after the incident, Chris had already shown up on Yvonne's doorstep several times. That was why for Prince Leo, Yvonne was a bit of a nuisance.

“What? By the look of your face, you look quite dissatisfied with the food.”

Chris smiled, then made someone call the chef of the western restaurant with the clap of his hands.

Slap!

In the next moment, he gave a slap across the chef's face and coldly said, “Didn't you know that the person that's having a meal is Ms. Yvonne, my fiance?”

“What use does a servant have if you can't even serve his future queen?

Chapter 1087

“Take him away, and beat him up!”

Soon, two fighters immediately dragged the chef, who would not even dare to beg for mercy, into the restroom.

After a moment, cries of pain echoed in the background.

Chris then smiled while looking at Harvey and said, “Everyone’s a guest if they arrive here. Since you are a guest on my turf, I should treat you well as the master of this place.”

“How would you like to end up today? Tell me, and maybe I’ll give you a choice.”

Chris showed a faint smile as if he were a polite and gentle prince.

Yvonne’s expression changed. She knew that Harvey was strong.

But the Leo family was not a family that someone like Niall Robbins could compare to.

Chapter 1087

If Harvey were to confront the Leos, then the consequence would be dire.

Before Harvey was able to open his mouth, Yvonne already stood up and glared at Chris coldly.

“Prince Leo, how many times do I have to repeat myself?!”

“I already told you to give it up!”

“I wouldn’t marry you even if I die!”

Chris showed a dangerous smile after hearing her words.

“Yvonne, can’t you see that I’m giving you a chance here?”

“You should know that our arranged marriage isn’t because of our arrangement.”

“The purpose of the marriage is to unite the Xaviers of Wolsing and the Leos of Hong Kong.”

Chapter 1088

Chapter 1088

“And you were actually parading around with a man outside while we’re in the middle of marriage discussions?”

“And if I were to ask for a fair statement from the Xaviers, this man might need to die for it, right?”

Chris Leo was showing a faint smile on his face. He looked at Harvey York with full of disdain.

In the past, he did not want to argue with Harvey, the stink bug. But when the bug was right in front of him, he would need to take action himself.

After listening to his words, Yvonne’s face had lost all color.

She knew full well the capabilities of the Xaviers from Wolsing. If the Leos actually went up to the Xaviers’ doorstep, the family would surely take action against Harvey, even if it was only for pride.

Chapter 1088

And could Harvey, the retired former chief instructor, really be able to deal with two top families?

Especially the Xaviers from Wolsing, they were one of the ten top families!

Without a second thought, Yvonne closed her eyes and took a deep breath, then slowly opened her mouth.

“Chris Leo, our situation has nothing to do with anyone else!

“It’s my own choice whether I marry you or not. If you’re a real man, then don’t drag anyone else into this!”

“What if I don’t?”

Chris gave a faint smile.

Yvonne glared at Chris for a long while, then quietly said, “CEO, you should leave. I can handle this on my own.”

Chapter 1088

Harvey chuckled.

He stood up and patted on Yvonne’s head.

“You silly, what are you thinking? Didn’t I just tell you? If people try to get to you, they’d have to walk over my dead body.”

Chris glared coldly at Harvey. In his eyes, the stink bug was only looking for his death.

At this moment, Rocco then walked out from the corner of the restaurant and respectfully bowed. He then quietly said, “Prince, this man is too arrogant. He doesn’t even look you in the eye.

“But for you to handle this matter is overkill. I’ll handle small fries like this for you.

“He is not worth for you to dirty your hands.”

Chris looked at Rocco and coldly chuckled.

“Alright then!

Chapter 1088

“Handle it neatly and don’t leave any evidence.

“Nobody can touch my woman, but I want her to look at this man crawling out of here like a stray dog!”

Chris turned around and left after his speech.

In his eyes, the stink bug, Harvey, was indeed not worth it for him to take action.

And the fighters wearing suits and the staff were looking at Harvey like he was already a dead man at that moment.

In Hong Kong, nobody would ever dare to provoke Chris because all the people that did would end up badly.

In the eyes of the subordinates, Chris was a king. Nobody would dare to disobey his will.

The live-in son-in-law was looking for his death!

When Chris had finally left, Rocco then walked toward Harvey and said coldly, "Bastard, Prince Leo already gave his order!

Chapter 1088

"Get up, and start crawling out of the restaurant like a dog!"

With the support from the fighters behind him, Rocco did not even bat an eye at Harvey at that moment.

He was the general manager of Hong Kong's Leo Television and Film Enterprise. People would indulge him wherever he went.

The bum was actually looking for his own death by not paying his respects.

Harvey's expression was as cold as ice, not uttering a single word.

Rocco was not worthy of talking to him.

Rocco looked furious. After seeing Harvey not even batting him an eye, he fiercely grabbed a pot of tea on the table and poured it on Harvey's body.

"Don't you understand English?! I said crawl! Are you deaf?!”

Chapter 1088

The fighters and staff all burst out laughing after seeing the sight.

In their eyes, this clueless man was destined to crawl out of there that day!

Chapter 1089

Chapter 1089

Harvey York finally looked at Rocco Ortiz and then said calmly, "I'm not in the mood to squash a small fry like you. While I'm still in a good mood, you should crawl out of here, and I won't pursue this matter any further.

"If not, I can guarantee you that you won't need to even eat for the rest of your life."

He would not stop until he shocked people with his words!

Not only did Harvey not give in, he even dared to say something like this, making the whole crowd in shock.

After almost a minute of complete standstill, everyone then came back to their senses.

"Hahaha, where did this hothead come from? You know that Representative Ortiz represents Prince Leo, right?”

Chapter 1089

“If he apologized to you, would you even dare to accept it?”

“Yeah, who even are you?! Since Prince Leo gave the order, you have to crawl out of here today!”

“If you don’t, we’ll show you the way out!”

The staff and fighters were all subordinates of the Leo family from Hong Kong. Instead of being ashamed, they were incredibly proud when taking the side of the evildoer.

How could they even miss out on a chance to pamper Chris and Rocco?

Yvonne Xavier, on the side, let out a sigh. She knew that the affair that day would not end on a good note.

Those people did not know how scary her CEO was.

They were looking for their deaths by being so arrogant in front of her CEO.

Rocco burst out in anger after hearing that he would need to crawl out of the restaurant instead.

In the next moment, he extended his hand to slap Harvey's face.

But in the next second, Harvey's hand came out like lightning, immediately catching Rocco's wrist and twisted it fiercely.

Bang!

At the same time, Harvey kicked right on Rocco's stomach.

"Aaah!"

Wails of pain echoed throughout. To put it bluntly, Rocco was only a weak scholar. He had already tired himself out because of women and wine. How could he be able to bear the pain at this moment? 2

He immediately kneeled in front of Harvey.

Slap!

Chapter 1089

Harvey then grabbed Rocco by the collar and gave him a slap across his face.

But a slap was enough to make Rocco rolling on the ground to no end. He kept twitching on the floor constantly.

All the fighters wearing black suits finally came to their senses.

“How presumptuous! You dare to hit Representative Ortiz?!”

“Do you want to die?!”

All the fighters clamored while rushing toward Harvey.

Bang bang bang!

Harvey threw out his punches like lightning. The fighters were all lying on the ground, wailing not long after, unable to stand back up.

The staff on the side all looked at Harvey unbelievably.

Chapter 1089

‘Is this man even human?’

All the tall and strong fighters were not even able to survive a move against Harvey.

And Rocco, who was wailing moments ago, was now trembling in fear. He could not even make a sound.

Harvey then crouched and calmly said, “I told you just now. Since you won’t listen, then you won’t need to eat for the rest of your life.”

Harvey then gave two slaps across Rocco’s face after his speech.

Rocco’s face was as swollen as a pig after getting beaten up that time. A mouthful of teeth was spat out.

Right when Harvey let go of Rocco, he could only let out a quiet sob, not even able to wail at that moment.

The sight had made the staff dumbfounded.

Chapter 1089

Nobody would even dare to block Harvey and Yvonne's way when they walked out of the restaurant.

But Yvonne was worried.

She knew that Harvey was strong, but she did not think that he was this strong.

Since Rocco had been beaten up to this point, Chris would never let this matter go that easily.

Harvey was destined to go against the Leo family from Hong Kong.

Chapter 1090

Chapter 1090

After Yvonne Xavier's expression changed for a moment, and she then whispered, "CEO, I'll go ask my grandfather to show up and mediate the affair for us."

Harvey York smiled.

"Why mediate the affair? If Chris Leo didn't escape earlier, I could guarantee that he won't be needing to eat for the rest of his life."

Yvonne sighed, not knowing what to say at that moment.

After Harvey had sent Yvonne home, she left quietly and arrived at the Xaviers' residence.

"Grandfather, something happened. Please help Harvey! Out of all the people in South Light, only you can help him right now!"

Chapter 1090

The sound of Yvonne kneeling in front of Sheldon Xavier could be heard.

Yvonne never wavered even for her own affairs, but she did not want Harvey to provoke the Leo family and the Xavier family at the same time just because of her.

Especially the Xaviers from Wolsing.

Yvonne was a part of the family, so she knew full well how scary the capabilities of the Xaviers from Wolsing were.

Even if Harvey was the chief instructor of the Sword Camp, he had already retired.

In Yvonne's mind, Harvey might have been brilliant, but he was only the CEO of Sky Corporation then.

And a corporation like this did seem like it is very big in any ordinary person's eyes, but the Xaviers from Wolsing and the Leos would not bat an eye toward the company.

Chapter 1090

“Yvonne, you’d actually kneel for an outsider?”

Sheldon was dumbfounded.

“Yvonne, what good is that bastard anyway? Is it really worth it for you to be doing this?”

“Even if he has a bit of talent, he’s but a fart in the wind in the Xaviers’ eyes!

“Can’t you just marry Prince Leo? You’re embarrassing the Xaviers by doing this!”

The Xaviers all looked at Yvonne, who was kneeling, with icy looks.

In their eyes, Yvonne had utterly embarrassed the Xaviers.

Sheldon then frowned.

“What happened here? Tell me everything.”

Yvonne told him the truth.

“Harvey provoked Chris, then crippled his trusted subordinate.”

Chapter 1090

Yvonne told everyone what had transpired before.

However, she did not tell them about what happened in Hotel W. The situation was too big of an affair.

“What? Harvey actually offended the Leo family to this point?!”

Sheldon was utterly shocked.

He knew Harvey’s actual identity, but the problem was that he knew the capabilities that the Leos and the Xaviers from Wolsing had.

No matter how strong Harvey was, he was but one man. What good could he get by going against the Leos and the Xaviers from Wolsing?

Even as the chief instructor of Sword Camp, could he even hold off against two top families simultaneously?

“Grandfather, please think of a solution! You must have some idea to solve this problem! Please tell the Xaviers from Wolsing that Harvey had nothing to do with today's affair. It's all my fault!" Yvonne explained swiftly.

Chapter 1090

Sheldon had a sudden change of expression, then shook his head.

"Yvonne, you should know that I don't have much of an influence to even speak among the Xavier family from Wolsing. Nobody would bat an eye even if I were to go there and beg."

"Grandfather, please! I don't want anything to happen to him! Please!"

Yvonne hugged Sheldon's leg while begging bitterly.

"If you can help him, I'll accept any condition that you ask of me!"

After hearing those words, Sheldon was then in deep silence for a moment.

"Are you sure that you'll accept any condition?"

"If you agree to marry Prince Leo, I have confidence that I'll be able to solve this problem for you.”

Chapter 1090

Yvonne's heart had gotten cold. She did not think that her grandfather would force her to marry Chris even up until this point. 2

Chapter 1091

Chapter 1091

“Fine, I accept!”

Even though Yvonne Xavier was highly reluctant, she would do anything in her power to get Harvey York out of trouble.

She had made her decision. Even if Chris Leo were able to marry her in the end, he would never have her.

She was also ready to bring Chris down with her!

At this moment, Yvonne's sister-in-law, Rita Lawson, laughed coldly and said, “Grandfather, simply having a promise on some things just isn't enough. Maybe we should get her to sign an agreement first?”

The crowd of Xaviers all agreed in unison after hearing those words.

Chapter 1091

Soon, an agreement was made. According to the promise, if the Xavier family could relieve Harvey of his danger, Yvonne would have to marry Chris.

Yvonne's expression was as dark as night, gritting her teeth while she finally signed the pact.

All the Xaviers displayed blissful expressions on their faces.

With the Leo family as their family-in-law, the Xaviers from Wolsing would definitely have the chance to rise once again strongly.

Their status was high, the authority that they had was higher.

With the pact, there was no need to wait until the agreed date. Yvonne was destined to marry Chris.

This was because the Xaviers knew that the Xaviers from Wolsing would surely agree to the exchange.

And if Sheldon were to agree to show up himself to cooperate with the Leos from Hong Kong, this should not be that big of a problem.

Chapter 1091

Soon, Sheldon gave a call to Chris.

Chris had already gotten word of Rocco being crippled. He was thinking of ways to deal with Harvey.

He picked up the call and replied sternly, "Elder Xavier, what seems to be the problem?"

"You should know about everything, correct?" Sheldon asked while slightly lamenting.

"Of course I do. The Xaviers must give me a fair statement about this!" Chris replied coldly.

Sheldon gave a thought about the situation for a short while, then slowly said, "I'm here now to talk about this matter.

"Yvonne said that if you agree not to pursue what happened today, she will have your hand in marriage."

Chris froze over after hearing those words. He did not think that happiness would arrive this suddenly.

Chapter 1091

But he came back to his senses and replied with an icy expression, "It was for her lover, I presume."

"Yes!"

"Fine, I accept!" Chris said coldly.

"But I have a request. We have to announce the wedding between Yvonne and me on a very formal occasion. Let everyone know about this. I want her to have no way of backing out from this!"

Sheldon frowned.

"You mean..."

"The Ceremony of Defence Changes! If we all attend the ceremony, I want the chief instructor and the new first-in-command of South Light's military force as witnesses. With that, there will be no way to back out!

"Because this would be equivalent to slapping the both of them across their faces!"

Chapter 1091

Chris immediately hung up the call after his speech.

Sheldon was also speechless.

Looking at Yvonne that was utterly miserable, he did not know what to feel at that moment.

“Grandfather, he... Did he agree to the condition?” Yvonne mindfully asked.

“Prince Leo agreed to stop pursuing the affair, but he had a special request, and that was to announce the wedding between you and Chris on a formal occasion.

“And the time and place that he picked is none other than during the Ceremony of Changing Defences of the first-in-command of South Light’s military force!

“He wants the chief instructor of Sword Camp and the first-in-command of South Light’s military force to be the witnesses of your wedding!” Sheldon said verbatim.

Boom!

Chapter 1091

Yvonne fell sitting on the ground after listening to Sheldon's words.

Was Chris unintentionally doing this or deliberately plotting it?!

He wanted to announce Yvonne's and his wedding in front of the man that she loved most?!

Chapter 1092

Chapter 1092

The Xaviers from South Light all did not know about Harvey York's true identity.

They all nodded in unison after hearing those words.

“Prince Leo truly has great foresight. Announcing the marriage on an occasion like this is equivalent to make the relationship between the Leos and the Xaviers from Wolsing public!”

“With the chief instructor, Oskar Armstrong, the first-in-command of South Light's military force along with the others as witnesses. This is an affair that will shake the entire country!”

“After this, the status of the family will surely rise up quickly!”

At this moment, nobody cared about Yvonne's expression.

Chapter 1092

In their eyes, selling out Yvonne for so many benefits was a business worth making!

At the same time, inside a luxurious villa.

Chris Leo was attending to an important guest.

The guest was none other than the Leo family's distant relative, Jessie Tate.

Jessie's family was a branch of the Leo family, but the Leos never looked up to them.

But Jessie was different.

He was the deputy commander of Wolsing's military force, a big character with immense authority.

The most important thing was that his camp was named Frost Edge, one of the nine biggest military forces in Country H, also one that was on par with

Chapter 1092

Sword Camp!

After Chris came to Buckwood, he did everything that he could to gain connections with Jessie. He had finally invited Jessie over that day.

“Commander Tate, both of us came from the Leo family. I’ve come upon some trouble today, and I need your help.”

Chris immediately got straight to the point.

At the same time, with a wave of his hand, a few subordinates walked forward while holding a box. The box was filled with jewelry and gems.

Jessie frowned and replied, “Prince, the people in the military do not yearn for worldly possessions. Take these away.

“As for your troubles, I’ll do anything I can if it’s within my power!”

After listening to Jessie’s words, Chris burst out laughing.

“As expected from the King of Arms in Wolsing’s military force, Commander Tate. Not only are you competent, but you are also untainted by corrupt practices, full of righteousness. I'm genuinely impressed!

Chapter 1092

"In that case, I'll get straight to the point!

"The Leos are arranging a marriage with the Xaviers from Wolsing this time. I'm going to marry a woman from that family!"

"But I fear that someone is actually trying to sabotage this marriage. That's why I hope that I can officially announce the engagement during the Ceremony of Changing Defenses for the first-in-command of South Light's military force to set the marriage in stone. After that, nobody would be able to change that."

Jessie's expression slightly changed after hearing his words, then whispered, "Prince, to be honest with you, I'm here in South Light to represent the military force of Wolsing for the ceremony.

"And the newly appointed first-in-command of the military force in South Light, Bellamy Blake, is my brother in arms. Both of us even slept in the same pit when we were both recruits.”

Chapter 1092

“Great! Since that’s the case, doesn’t that mean we are calling the final shots for the Ceremony of Changing Defenses?”

Chris burst out laughing.

Jessie shook his head and replied, “In reality, I think Bellamy would accept our request if it were him alone.”

“But the chief instructor will attend the ceremony this time as well. That’s why we would still need his acknowledgment.”

Chris frowned.

“The chief instructor of Sword Camp? I heard that he retired already. How does he still have this high of a status?”

Jessie then said in complete admiration, “Prince, you’re not from the military. That’s why you wouldn't know the place that the Chief Instructor has in our hearts!

Chapter 1092

“Besides, the reason Bellamy could rise up the ranks was because the Chief Instructor had spoken with the Elders of the military force in Wolsing!

“Even though the Chief Instructor is no longer in the military force, he still dictates everything in the military!

“There were even rumors that the Big Boss already tried to invite the Chief Instructor back several times, wanting him to assume the position as Elder of the military force in the future.”

Chapter 1093

Chapter 1093

Jessie Tate was showing utmost admiration and respect written on his face.

The Chief Instructor of Sword Camp was a myth in the military force, a living legend.

Chris Leo then slightly trembled and asked, “What? A chief instructor might even be able to take the position of an Elder in the military force? Are you serious?!”

“There’s no doubt about it. Who else would even have the right to do so other than him?” Jessie lamented.

Chris took a deep breath and swiftly replied, “If that’s the case, then we should be fighting for his acknowledgment!”

“If he wills it, then it wouldn’t only be about my marriage this time. The important thing is that we'll also have connections with the future Elder of the military force!"

Chapter 1093

"Maybe we can even use the connection to put the Leos on the leaderboard as one of the top ten families!"

Chris held off mentioning one more thing. If he could be acquainted with the Chief Instructor, then nobody would dare to threaten his position as Prince in the entire Leo family.

Jessie pondered for a short while and then replied, "Alright, I'll think of a way."

"I think the Chief Instructor wouldn't reject something trivial like a wedding."

"That's great then!"

Chris was exhilarated.

From the looks of things, the Ceremony of Changing Defences this time was indeed his opportunity to assert dominance.

Chapter 1093

Not only would he be able to arrange a marriage with the Xaviers from Wolsing, but the important thing was also that he could leech off of the Chief Instructor!

“When that time comes, everyone will be under my feet! Be it Quinton York or Prince York.

“The Leo family is fated to be in my hands!”

Chris crossed his arms in excitement as if he had already seen his bright future.

At the Gardens Residence, Harvey hung up on the phone in his hand.

Ethan Hunt had just called.

He had gotten word that Jessie's friend hoped that he could be a witness for the wedding after the Ceremony of Changing Defenses.

Harvey still remembered who Jessie was. He had trained in the Sword Camp before being scouted by Frost Edge in less than a year.

Chapter 1093

The kid was also a character similar to a King of Arms. He was pretty talented. Harvey was still quite attached to the soldiers that he had under his wing.

Even Ethan Hunt called at this moment. He immediately agreed to the request without even asking for more details.

“Harvey, what’s wrong?” Mandy subconsciously asked after seeing Harvey’s serious face.

Harvey replied, “A person that I knew a long time ago wanted me to be a witness for a wedding three days later at a ceremony.”

“Who’s having a wedding? Do I know them?”

Mandy was curious.

Typically speaking, people would choose a prominent character with high status and immense authority.

Why would anybody even ask Harvey to be the witness of a wedding?

Chapter 1093

Harvey smiled.

“Bellamy’s former roommate invited me.

“I forgot to tell you, Bellamy’s here at South Light for new arrangements for his work. The wedding ceremony is immediately after his inauguration ceremony.”

Mandy then curiously asked, “Is he really that great? He even gets a ceremony for getting a rank?”

Harvey thought about it, then replied, “He’s alright, not as good as your husband though.”

Mandy chuckled after hearing her husband bluff up a storm once again.

“Yes, yes, yes. My husband’s the best in the entire world.

“If I’m available that day, I’ll go with you then.”

Harvey thought about it again, then nodded slightly.

Chapter 1093

The Ceremony of Changing Defenses was not in an encampment this time but in the government hall of South Light.

It is said that big characters with high status and rank in South Light would attend the ceremony.

It would be nice if Mandy were to go. Socializing with new people would help her with her business.

Chapter 1094

Chapter 1094

At the same time.

At the Yates family's house.

Grandma Yates, Carson Cloude, and Callum Robbins all stood up straight.

As a first-rate family in Buckwood, those three showing up had meant that was something big happening.

And not far away from them, a man wearing a black suit stood still with his left hand up while staring at his palm.

There was an unspeakable aura surrounding the man. He did not do anything special, but the atmosphere had made Grandma Yates and the others freeze in place, not even being able to breathe.

Chapter 1094

After a long while, Grandma Yates and the others all regained their courage after the man put down his left hand and said, “Young Master, what brings you here?”

“You didn’t call us beforehand to fetch you either.”

Quinton York then replied, “If I’m any later, the four first-rated families will all be dead in a ditch.”

Grandma Yates and the others all had a slight change in their facial expressions after hearing those words.

Quinton was furious.

At this moment, the three that were upperclassmen would not dare to utter another word.

“I left for a while for you to deal with a mere Prince York. But, not only did you not succeed, you even somehow lost the Surrey family. You are truly capable people.”

Quinton’s expression was as cold as ice.

Chapter 1094

After hearing his words, all the three of them trembled in fear. They would not dare to say a word.

Quinton had a profound look on his face, then changed the subject.

“All of you will attend the Ceremony of Changing Defenses for the first-in-command of South Light’s military force, right?”

“Yes!”

Grandma Yates and the others would not dare to deny the fact. They were afraid that Quinton would not let them attend the ceremony.

In Quinton’s eyes, the four past first-rated families of Buckwood were only servants for him, after all.

“Attend as you want. I don’t have any opinions about it. But before that, I have a task for all of you,” Quinton added.

“Please give us the order, Young Master. We will do everything within our power!”

Chapter 1094

Quinton then let out an odd smile on his face and slowly replied, "You all know about the Yates family's grandson-in-law, Harvey York, yes?"

"Of course! This kid keeps meddling with our affairs! If it weren't for him, the Yates family might have been the top of all the first-rated families in South Light already!" Grandma Yates said subconsciously.

"I'm not able to do it myself because of my identity. That's why I want you to finish off the man before the Ceremony of Changing Defenses!"

Carson frowned.

"If I may, Young Master. Since the man is the manager of Prince York himself, what is the extent of Prince York's resources does he control?"

"Not much, but strong enough. That's why I might need all three of your families to take action together, to remove him from the equation permanently," Quinton calmly replied.

Chapter 1094

Grandma Yates coldly laughed, then replied, "I see. You have really enlightened us today, Young Master!

"I have been wondering why my plans of taking over a small company like Silver Nimbus Enterprise were foiled every single time!

"He's the manager of Prince York!

"If that's the case, he does have some capabilities!

"Thank you for warning us, Young Master. If not, we might even be used by him!

"But since you gave us the order, us three families will let this kid's life be a living hell!"

"I'll stall Prince York here. He won't be able to do anything. Take care of the man as soon as you can, and I won't restrict the three of you from doing anything you want after this!" Quinton calmly said.

Chapter 1095

Chapter 1095

“Are you serious, Young Master?!”

“If that’s the case, then we shall do whatever it takes and give you a surprise before the Ceremony of Changing Defenses!”

Grandma Yates and the others were all rubbing their hands together.

Dealing with Harvey York could be exchanged for their freedom. There were no better bargains in this world to them.

Especially for the Yates family, they had never forgotten about Silver Nimbus Enterprise. Still, they were reluctant to take action since they would hinder the future first-in-command of South Light’s military force, Bellamy Blake.

But now that Quinton York supported them, they were naturally unscrupulous.

Chapter 1095

Looking at the few people that were highly exhilarated, Quinton's expression had turned as cold as ice.

He had already gotten word of Callum Robbins' failure.

He also knew about the Chief Instructor of Sword Camp attending the Ceremony of Changing Defenses for the first-in-command of the South Light's military force.

This was also the main reason why he suddenly showed up and gave the order to the three big families.

Because once Harvey's real identity was exposed, would the families still dare to take action against him any further?

They wouldn't even dare even with the courage from the gods.

If that were to happen, the York family's previous arrangements in South Light might even fail altogether.

Chapter 1095

That was why Quinton asked those people to deal with him swiftly as they could.

It would be best if they succeeded.

But if they failed, the York family would not suffer any losses.

Only then would everyone be in the same boat.

Even if they were to find out about Harvey's true identity, they would have to stand by the York family's side.

When Quinton had left, only then the three patriarchs of the first-rated families had the right to sit down.

Callum Robbins whispered, "Grandma Yates, Harvey is your grandson-in-law. You should know him best. How high of a chance do you think that we can finish him off?"

Grandma Yates calmly replied, "We didn't know about his background before. That's why he took advantage of that. Now that we know he uses a part of Prince York's power to operate, we should know how to deal with him!

Chapter 1095

"If you the two of you would agree to cooperate with the Yates family this time and finish the Young Master's task, it should be easy!"

After hearing those words, Carson Cloude and Callum Robbins' eyes lit up slightly.

Carson then burst out laughing.

"Looks like the Young Master isn't very happy with his time in Hong Kong recently!"

"He would even grant us first-rated families freedom just to take out Prince York's right-hand man!"

"In that case, we should do our best to solve this matter!"

Callum frowned.

"Carson, what should we do then if we deal with

Chapter 1095

Harvey, but the Young Master doesn't acknowledge it?"

Carson replied calmly, "We all know how the Young Master is. His words carry weight. If we can accomplish it, he'll surely acknowledge it!"

"Even if he doesn't, why would the three of our families combined even be afraid of the half-wasted York family?"

"The York family isn't even that scary now, but Melissa Leo already has full control of the Leo family. This is why they are still to be feared," Grandma Yates frowned and replied.

Callum sighed.

"It's good that you know. Melissa's authority is stronger than before. That's why we don't have the right to reject since the Young Master has given the order."

The three were on the same page after talking until this point.

Chapter 1095

It did not matter whether Quinton would fulfill his promise or not. They had to take action either way.

“We have to deal with the man before the Ceremony of Changing Defenses. Does anyone have any ideas?” Callum said with a ruthless look on his face.

Carson gave a thought about it and then replied, “We can’t use normal means for this matter. Why don’t we try using the gangsters?”

Chapter 1096

Chapter 1096

Grandma Yates shook her head. “No. I heard that the new king of South Light’s streets is Tyson Woods, who is Prince York’s subordinate.”

“To utilize the people from the streets to make our move is basically suicide.”

At this moment, a young man standing in the corner, the Prince of the Cloude family, Eric Cloude, walked out and interrupted in a deep voice, “Three Chiefs, I have something to say.”

The three chiefs looked at him at the same time. After a while, Carson replied, “What do you think?”

Eric placed his hands behind his back as he said aloofly, “Since we can’t use the men from the streets, we can use a different way. How about inviting people from outside of South Light?”

Chapter 1096

“I heard there are many mercenaries on the border of Ohio who are on the edge of survival. As long as we give them money, they’re willing to do anything. We three families should join hands and invite these people. They should be able to get rid of Harvey without anyone’s knowledge.”

Callum Robbins and Grandma Yates looked at each other. Their eyes were full of admiration.

Callum sighed, “Old Man Cloude, your family’s Prince is indeed talented!”

“Our thoughts are a bit inflexible. We haven’t thought of this trick!”

Carson stroked his beard complacently.

Eric was the Prince that Carson himself handpicked. His ability to put forward such constructive opinions on this occasion had certainly made Carson very proud.

After pondering for a while, Grandma Yates slowly said, “Since Prince Cloude brought up the idea, I think we should let him handle this matter.”

Chapter 1096

“If this plan succeeds, we Yateses will owe you a favor!”

“The Robbins family will also owe you a favor!”

Callum added. “If you could invite these men, the Robbins will be responsible for their accommodation. It’d be hidden and outsiders won’t discover it.”

Carson rose. “In that case, Eric will be responsible for inviting them. Once all this is done, us three families will be completely free from the Yorks’ constraint. Who can stop us from rising in the future?”

The three chiefs exchanged glances and laughed. Their eyes were full of anticipation, looking forward to a bright future.

Eric smiled. His eyes were filled with coldness.

Although he was the Prince of the Cloude family, he rarely had the opportunity to make any moves.

Chapter 1096

If he succeeded in this endeavor, he'd surely move up to a higher position in the Cloude family.

He had been waiting for this opportunity for far too long.

The next day.

Harvey and Mandy were sending Halsey to the airport. As she was the general manager of Sky Corporation's San Francisco Branch, she couldn't leave her post for too long.

The three of them drove to the outskirts of the city. Suddenly, a few vans stopped in front of them.

Harvey had to stop the car.

In the van, a dozen people in camouflage uniforms and masks stepped out and quickly surrounded Harvey's car.

The one leading them was holding a flashy firearm. He pointed it straight at the car.

Chapter 1096

At this, both Mandy and Halsey, who were sitting in the back, paled in fright.

When had they ever faced such a predicament?

However, Harvey, who was driving, was indifferent. He rolled down the car window and snapped coldly, "May I help you?"

"You're Harvey, right?" The man spat icily, now pointing his weapon directly at Harvey's forehead.

Harvey nodded. "Yes, I'm Harvey. What's wrong?"

"Good, it's you. Follow us obediently. Don't make us use the hard way!"

When the man spoke, he had a Southeast Asian accent, and sounded a bit like a sissy.

Chapter 1097

Chapter 1097

“Pfft.” Harvey laughed. “You’re from Siam, right?”

“Why should I go with you?”

The man snarled coldly, “You’ve offended someone you shouldn’t.”

Harvey frowned. “Who did I offend?”

“Just come with us quickly! Don’t force us to do it the hard way. Don’t blame us if the two ladies behind there get ruined when we accidentally hurt them!”

The man was already running out of patience.

Although this area was at the outskirts of the city, it was likely that passers-by would drop by. If that happened, they might call the police.

If the police came into play, things would be a little troublesome.

Chapter 1097

“I can go with you, but can’t you at least tell me who I have offended?” Harvey questioned righteously.

“Fine, I’ll let you know. The person you’ve angered is Young Master Eric Cloude from the Cloude family. He’s the one who hired us to take you away!”

The man then immediately yanked open the car door, grabbed Harvey, and then threw Harvey into his van.

Harvey did not resist because he was afraid they would misfire and accidentally hurt Mandy and Halsey in the process.

The vans came and went quickly. Soon, they disappeared at the end of the road.

By then, Mandy and Halsey, who were in the backseat, snapped back to their senses. Their faces instantly turned pale.

Chapter 1097

“Mandy, what should we do? When I was overseas, I heard that gangsters from Siam are killers! Those gangsters came from there. What if they kill Harvey?”

Halsey looked worried, and her voice was trembling.

Although she did not like Harvey very much, she was filled with fear when she saw someone she knew taken away by gangsters.

At that moment, Mandy had blanked out and was close to passing out.

Then she stood up forcibly and said, “Halsey, did you hear clearly who took Harvey away, and who he offended?”

“That gangster seemed to say it was Eric Cloude of the Cloudes!” Halsey recalled.

Mandy’s face instantly turned pale once more.

“The Cloudes? The first-class family, the Cloude family? I heard they’re doing niche businesses and working in the grey market. How is it possible for Harvey to anger them?”

Chapter 1097

“No! I have to find Uncle and Grandmother. Only they can save Harvey right now!”

“I’m going with you.” Halsey was also worried.

The whole incident happened so suddenly, the two of them had no idea what to do.

Inside the van, a hood was placed over Harvey’s head and he was blindfolded. The other party was apparently very experienced, and often did things such as kidnapping.

However, Harvey couldn’t care less.

What had he not seen on the battlefield?

He was not anxious, instead, he simply closed his eyes.

Now, he had become truly curious. He had nothing to do with this so-called Cloude family. Yet, the other party had come to mess with him.

Chapter 1097

They were certainly trying to get themselves killed!

Soon, the van drove into a private manor.

This manor was very secluded and belonged to the Robbins family.

The Robbins family was a real estate tycoon in Buckwood. They had many real estates under their name.

Moreover, this place was hidden. Thus, no one knew about it.

Harvey was then brought to a completely enclosed basement.

After Harvey's blindfold was removed, he was met with the sight of dozens of mercenaries glaring at him.

As it turned out, they were mere henchmen. The real perpetrator was behind the scenes.

Chapter 1097

Squeak! The sound of an opened door soon followed.

Then, a handsome and elegant man slowly walked in.

Chapter 1098

Chapter 1098

The man lit up a cigarette. He only smiled after blowing out a smoke ring. "Harvey York, Prince York's representative, the live-in son-in-law of the Zimmers. Am I right?"

"Who are you?" Harvey was indifferent.

"Let me introduce myself. I'm Eric Cloude." Eric said politely.

"Have I offended you?" Harvey frowned. He truly had no clue about the dispute between him and the Cloudes.

"You didn't offend the Cloude family, but you shouldn't have offended the Second Young Master." Eric replied with a smile.

"Second Young Master?" Harvey frowned, "Are you talking about that trash Quinton York?"

Chapter 1098

“Huh?” Eric was taken aback for a second. “Did you just call the Second Young Master trash?”

What was Quinton’s status in South Light?

Even if he was defeated and had retreated to Hong Kong, in truth only few dared to talk of him.

“A centipede dies, but never falls.” The Yorks were certainly obstinate.

Yet Harvey, who was in front of Eric, had casually called Quinton York trash.

Eric was no fool. On the contrary, he was highly intelligent.

A sense of absurdity emerged in his heart at this very moment.

He subconsciously thought that kidnapping Harvey was a wrong move.

Meanwhile...

Chapter 1098

Mandy and Halsey arrived at the gate of the Yateses' residence.

The gate opened and Keith appeared, his tone cold, "Isn't this our dear CEO, Mandy Zimmer? What brings you here today?"

The other members of the Yates family shot Mandy uncaring stares.

Some even sneered mockingly at Mandy and Halsey.

Truth be told, the Yateses already knew what happened in the morning, and everyone was already waiting for Mandy to appear.

According to their calculations, Harvey's kidnapping was a part of the plan.

Therefore, Mandy would surely come here today.

Right now, Mandy was a bundle of nerves. She took no notice of the Yateses' strange attitudes.

She panicked and blurted out, "Uncle, something happened to Harvey. Please help him!”

Chapter 1098

“In the entire South Light, only you can save him right now!”

Keith sneered at her words. “My dear niece, you certainly give me too much credit. Who am I to save him?”

“Also, why should I save him?”

Mandy had no time to ponder over the meaning of Keith’s words. She almost kneeled. “Uncle, you’re the third-in-command of South Light. You control the police force of South Light!”

“Harvey was taken away by gangsters! Ordinary inspectors won’t be able to save him. Only you can do it!”

Mandy’s exclamation made the rest of the Yateses laugh.

If it weren’t for that trash Harvey, they would’ve already acquired Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s equity and rise into a top-tier family.

Chapter 1098

Now that everyone knew that Harvey had fallen into the hands of gangsters, they laughed happily.

Eric certainly had nimble fingers. He was quick to take action!

Just then, Leyton Luv sneered. "He was taken away by gangsters? I bet that trash Harvey must have angered someone. His enemy probably took him away."

"Speaking of that, this is a good thing!"

"That trash isn't qualified to be the Yateses' grandson-in-law. It's better if he dies early!"

Finn put on an apathetic smile. He said, "Mandy, I received the news yesterday. There's indeed a group of gangsters from Siam who has invaded our territory." 3

Chapter 1099

Chapter 1099

“They’ve always been vicious. Since Harvey angered them and they took him away, he’s as good as dead.”

“You should remarry!”

Finn was all smiles. He could barely wait.

According to the agreement, that trash Harvey was about to die soon, right?

That trash dared to make Finn kneel before him!

He definitely deserved to die by the hands of those gangsters!

Seeing everyone’s sneers, Mandy grew desperate. She then kneeled in front of Grandma Yates, crying piteously, “Grandmother! No matter what, Harvey is still your grandson-in-law!”

Chapter 1099

“Have you forgotten? Previously on your birthday, he tried his best to give you a gift!”

“Even if it’s only because of that reason, please let Uncle save him!”

Grandma Yates sneered. “Bribing someone with a mere pill? He must be dreaming!”

“Mandy! If you still acknowledge the Yateses as your family, then just turn a blind eye on this matter.”

“Wait until the news of his death is confirmed, then go through the formalities for widowhood. Grandmother will find a new partner for you!”

This was the Yateses’ true purpose.

As long as Harvey died, they could force Mandy to remarry.

Following this, they could embezzle Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s equity could be embezzled little by little through a gradual approach.

Chapter 1099

Unfortunately, Mandy did not sense their conspiracy. She clung to Grandma Yates' leg, sobbing, "Grandmother, I just want to save Harvey now! Please!"

"Don't you want Silver Nimbus Enterprise's equity? As long as you can save Harvey, I'll give it to you!"

Grandma Yates was briefly stunned by Mandy's words.

She and Keith then quickly exchanged glances.

This situation was akin to "No use wearing out your shoes. It takes no effort at all!"

They had planned for so long. Seizing Silver Nimbus Enterprise's equity was their ultimate goal.

However, they never expected that Mandy would be willing to give it without needing them to use any complicated means.

Grandma Yates pretended to be kind and showed mercy. She said coldly, "Mandy, are you serious?"

Chapter 1099

You have to think carefully!”

“Silver Nimbus Enterprise is the result of years of your hard work!”

“If you give all of Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s equity to the Yates family, you’ll have nothing.”

Keith also added righteously, “Mandy, we’d never force you to give us the company’s equity. You saying this makes us Yateses look dishonest!”

Mandy said, “Grandmother, Uncle. I won’t turn back on my words. As long as you can save Harvey, I’ll transfer all of Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s shares to you!”

“I’m doing this voluntarily. My decision has nothing to do with you!”

At her words, the Yateses almost burst into laughter.

This was too easy!

They had never imagined that getting all of Silver

Chapter 1099

Nimbus Enterprise's equity would be this simple.

Keith and Grandma Yates retreated to a room at the back for a brief discussion. When they reappeared, Keith slowly said to Mandy, "Mandy, I can help save Harvey."

"But there is a condition. That is, you must sign the equity transfer agreement right now."

After he finished speaking, he handed an agreement to Mandy.

Mandy surveyed the contents. Without thinking too much, she signed it with clenched teeth.

Even if the company was gone, money could still be earned back.

But if a human being was gone, he would be gone forever.

The moment Mandy signed the agreement, the Yateses were unable to hold themselves back any longer. They immediately roared with laughter.

Chapter 1100

Chapter 1100

The Yateses had been waiting for this day for far too long!

They were a family of bureaucrats. They were unable to make much progress in the business industry.

Due to the lack of funds, they were unable to rise into a top-tier family for a long time.

Now that they had Silver Nimbus Enterprise's equity in their hands, they were one step closer into becoming a top-tier family.

To some of the Yateses, right now, they were already a top family.

When Keith saw that Mandy had signed the agreement, he immediately dialed his phone. "Is this Yannick Bisson, the Chief Inspector of Buckwood Police Department? I'm Keith Yates."

Chapter 1100

"My grandson-in-law, Harvey York, was kidnapped by a group of gangsters from Siam. I'll leave this matter to you. I expect some results within twenty-four hours!"

"Yes!"

On the other side of the phone, Yannick quickly saluted and went to arrange various things.

After hanging up, Keith said nonchalantly, "Just wait for the news quietly. Yannick Bisson is the Chief Inspector of the Buckwood Police Department. Since he's taken action, this problem will definitely be solved in a short time."

Looking at Keith's calm demeanor, both Mandy and Halsey let out a sigh of relief.

But in truth, Keith had no plans of helping them.

In the first place, the Yateses were involved in orchestrating the entire incident. Keith knew very well that Yannick wouldn't be able to solve the case within twenty-four hours.

Chapter 1100

They would surely bring back a corpse in the end.

Keith was cunning, and had made a little adjustment in the aforementioned agreement.

As long as Harvey returned, Mandy must surrender all of Silver Nimbus Enterprise's equity, regardless of whether he was dead or alive.

It was certainly a two-for-one deal this time!

On one hand, Quinton's mission was completed and the Yateses had gotten rid of Harvey.

On the other hand, they had also successfully obtained all of Silver Nimbus Enterprise's equity.

Right now, Keith was complacent.

After he took ownership of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, he could aim for the position of South Light's second-in-command.

Whether Harvey ended up dead or alive didn't matter to Keith.

Chapter 1100

Even if he needed to kill Mandy to rise, he would show her no mercy...

Meanwhile, in the basement of the Robbinses' hidden manor...

Eric studied Harvey with a solemn gaze. After a while, he said coldly, "I don't know what tricks or cards you have up your sleeve."

"But I'm very clear that as long as you die, none of them would be useful."

Harvey laughed. "Are you scared?"

"Scared? Why would I be afraid of you?" Eric scoffed. He waved his hand and gave an order.

"Just now, the chief gave a message and said to make this look like an accident. Hurry up. "

After Eric spoke, he turned around, about to leave.

Chapter 1100

He knew how to protect himself very well. As long as it didn't happen in front of his eyes, then it wouldn't have anything to do with him.

A few mercenaries, disguised as gangsters, sneered. They must execute their benefactor's demand.

Someone immediately stepped forward, about to take Harvey out and kill him.

Slam!

However, just as he stepped forward, Harvey suddenly rose and slammed a foot on his head. He was instantly sent flying.

“What?!”

The other gangsters were all stunned. A second later, they rushed forward.

Harvey was indifferent. He moved extremely fast. In less than thirty seconds, the gangsters collapsed.

Many immediately passed out on the spot. The few who were not dead rolled helplessly to the ground.

Chapter 1100

They could never anticipate how terrifying the person they brought back actually was!
