Chapter 1101

Thud!

A figure was sent flying, falling straight in front of Eric.

Eric's face, initially full of smiles, instantly darkened. He automatically turned around.

When he took in the scene before him, he grew so frightened that he began to tremble.

What was going on?

Did all the mercenaries just collapse so easily?

“You...who are you?!” Eric yelled instinctively.

“Who am I? I'm someone you can't afford to provoke.”

Chapter 1101

“Help me pass this gift to the people behind you. Tell them that this is the consequence of angering me.”

Harvey approached Eric.

Eric staggered back in fear, petrified. He stammered, “Don’t come!”

Crack!

Harvey wasn’t interested in exchanging any nonsense with Eric. He stepped forward and kicked Eric’s right leg.

“Ugh!”

Eric, whose right leg was now broken, rolled on the ground. Harvey, indifferent, continued to stomp on Eric a few more times, instantly breaking all of the latter’s limbs.

When did Eric, who had lived a life of extravagance, would face a predicament such as this?

Chapter 1101

All too soon, he passed out from the pain.

Harvey called Tyson Woods and told Tyson to sniff out the real perpetrator behind this incident. Then, he quickly left to find Mandy.

After all, the incident today happened in front of Mandy. He was afraid that she would worry.

At the Yateses' residence.

“Uncle, when will Harvey be back?” Mandy was incredibly anxious, looking worried.

“I’ve already asked the men from Buckwood Police Department to search the entire city. There’s bound to be some results soon.” Keith replied calmly as he sipped his tea.

He had just sent a message and told Eric to fabricate a so-called accident.

Chapter 1101

They had planned for Harvey, who had accidentally “died”, to be found soon.

Halsey was relatively calm. She sensed there was something wrong with the way the Yateses were behaving. She said cautiously, “Mandy, why don’t we go first? We can go to Prince York for help if there’s no other way.”

At her words, Keith frowned. “Who do you think you are? What right do you have to interfere in the Yateses’s family affairs?”

“Our family’s grandson-in-law was kidnapped. I, the third-in-command in South Light, have already taken action. Yet you’re still going to ask an outsider to intervene. Are you trying to disgrace the Yates family?”

Keith’s face was cold. He had been in the government for a long time, and thus had developed a compelling aura.

Chapter 1101

Even Halsey, who had returned from studying abroad, was suppressed. She dared not say anything.

Mandy was uncertain. At the moment, she didn't know who to trust.

Just then, someone from the Yates family suddenly rushed in. He ran straight toward Keith and said, "Harvey's back!"

"What?!"

Keith was so frightened that the teacup in his hand fell and hit the ground.

Didn't he already give the order to kill Harvey? Why was that man back?

Could this be a case of haunting in the day?

However, Keith was quick to react. He exchanged glances with the seated Grandma Yates. In an instant, the two reached a consensus.

Chapter 1101

Keith recovered his composure. He smiled and said, "It seems the Yates family still has some reputation. The police's efficiency isn't bad. They've brought back a missing person so quickly!"

The Yateses were still quite surprised, but they all laughed cooperatively when they heard Keith's words.

No one knew why things were different from what was planned, but if Keith was acting like everything was under control, then they too must go along with it.

Halsey, who had been skeptical, turned to Keith in shock.

She felt that this third-in-command of South

Chapter 1101

Light was too amazing. He was able to solve such a troublesome matter with only a phone call!

Chapter 1102

Chapter 1102

“Harvey, are you alright? They didn’t do anything to you, right?” Mandy didn’t care about anything else and hugged Harvey, studying him carefully.

She was so worried, she almost fainted. Had she not been strong enough, she might be lying in the hospital right now.

“Honey, I’m fine. Don’t cry, let’s go back.”

Harvey gently wiped away the tears from the corner of Mandy’s eyes.

He would surely follow-up on this incident until the end, but right now it was inappropriate to say this in front of Mandy.

“You should send Halsey to the airport first. She almost missed the plane for your sake.”

Chapter 1102

“I have something to discuss with Uncle and the others.”

Mandy said, inhaling deeply.

Harvey was a little confused, but he did not think much about it. Instead, he took Halsey away and sent her to the Buckwood International Airport.

Meanwhile, Keith asked a lawyer to come and testify to the agreement.

“According to the agreement, from this moment on, all the equity that was originally in Miss Mandy Zimmer’s hands will be transferred to the Yateses.”

The lawyer took out the documentation for both parties to sign as Keith spoke.

“Alright, I understand.”

Chapter 1102

Mandy endured the pain in her heart and signed her name.

This was the company she had worked for so long, but today, she was forced to hand it over.

The Yateses grinned as they looked at the contract.

Keith pretended to be kind and said, "Mandy, you're more familiar with Silver Nimbus Enterprise. There are still some projects that are being integrated with other companies."

"I think you can act as the business manager. How about a salary of three thousand dollars a month?"

"Three thousand dollars is quite good!" The other Yateses chimed in, snickering.

"Yes. Nowadays, going to work and earning a few thousand dollars a month is considered quite good!”

Chapter 1102

“We’re giving you such a high salary because you’re one of us!”

“You must cherish the opportunity!”

As it turned out, not only the Yateses wanted to acquire the entirety of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, but they also wanted to exploit Mandy’s abilities.

“Uncle. Thank you for your concern, but I refuse.” Mandy endured the uncomfortable feeling, turned around, and left.

But the moment she stepped out of the Yateses’ residence, she burst into tears.

The Yateses grinned as they watched her disappearing figure.

“Hahaha...!”

“From today onwards, we Yateses are a top

Chapter 1102

family!”

“I never thought everything would go so smoothly!”

“Previously, that little wench didn't want to sell the equity to us. But now, isn't she more than eager to do so?”

“Uncle certainly has the situation well in hand!”

The Yateses were now complacent and delighted. Ever since the value of Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort's properties had skyrocketed, they had been eyeing Mandy's company.

After so much hardship, this day finally came!

Meanwhile, in the back hall...

Grandma Yates frowned. “Keith. Although we've successfully obtained Silver Nimbus Enterprise, that brat Harvey isn't dead yet!”

“This time, the Second Young Master's mission is a failure.”

Keith replied coldly, “Mother, it’s not time yet. I don’t know what happened, but according to the Cloudeses and the Robbinses’ usual style of doing things, they won’t give up after they decide on taking action.”

“Plus, our family won’t just stand around and watch as that brat jumps around here and there!”

“But if we continue to take action now, it’ll be too conspicuous. I’ll contact the Robbinses and the Cloudeses later. For now, I’ll let that live-in son-in-law live a little longer!” 2

Chapter 1103

“What do you mean...?” Grandma Yates pondered slightly.

“Mother, we have to complete the act. We’ve just acquired Silver Nimbus Enterprise today. If Harvey gets killed within these two days, Mandy will easily grow suspicious of us.”

“While I’m not afraid, if they find out about us while investigating, it’d mean big trouble!”

“This time, the Yates family’s gains are huge. Naturally, we must be careful in everything.”

Keith didn’t become a hothead just because he had obtained Silver nimbus Enterprise. On the contrary, he remained composed.

Grandma Yates said, “We’re fine, but are the

Chapter 1103

Robbinses and the Cloudeses willing to accept this?”

“Also, how do we explain this to the Second Young Master?”

Keith pondered briefly before flashing a shrewd look. “I’ll let the Buckwood Police Department increase the intensity of patrol and publicize it, with the excuse of preparing for South Light Military’s switch of defenses ceremony.”

“As for the Second Young Master, we’ll say that due to the failure of the Cloudes family, the intensity of Buckwood’s security has increased. Hence, it’s not suitable to continue taking action at the moment. Everything will be discussed after the switch of defenses ceremony.”

“Right, let’s do that!” Grandma Yates was also very decisive. Anyway, the Yates family had huge gains this time. Sure enough, the most important thing was to keep the benefits safe.

Soon, Keith called Callum and Carson respectively.

On the other end of the phone, Callum and Carson sat together. Their complexions were awful.

Failed, Eric had failed!

As for Keith's request, they considered it for a while before agreeing to it.

This was because what Keith said made a lot of sense.

Most importantly, none of them had received news that Eric was already dead.

Otherwise, with the Cloudes family's style, they would never simply let that go.

On the other side...

Chapter 1103

Tyson Woods had already found out the truth of the matter. He immediately called Harvey.

“CEO York, I’ve found out about it. Those men are from the borders of Ohio. They’re a group of mercenaries. This time, they entered the country disguised as gangsters.”

“The ones who hired them are a first-class family, the Cloudeses. Plus, this manor is under the name of another first-class family, the Robbinses. It seems that the Yates family is also behind all these.”

Harvey instantly understood that the three families had joined hands together this time, wanting to get him killed.

However, did they harbor such a big grudge against him before?

As for this kind of style of doing things, Stephen

Chapter 1103

York was not that decisive. Harvey already knew who was able to do things this way.

Quinton York!

Harvey quickly understood.

Quinton had returned. Harvey did not go to Hong Kong and gave Quinton a hard time, yet the latter still dared to come back.

“Very well! I’ll go to Hong Kong once the defense switch ceremony is over!”

“Some people have always been duplicitous, gutless flip-floppers. They’re willing to become foreign lackeys and go against the Great Country H’s foot soldiers!”

“This time, I’ll take it out on you when I reach Hong Kong!”

A trace of coldness flashed through Harvey’s eyes.

Chapter 1103

He initially did not want to go so far, but since some people were ungrateful, he shouldn't be blamed for taking drastic measures.

Returning to the Gardens Residence, Mandy surveyed the familiar room before her with a complicated look.

This was her home after she came to Buckwood, but now, all of this would be gone.

Without Silver Nimbus Enterprise, forget being able to continue staying in such a big house...

Even eating would be a problem!

However, Mandy did not regret it so long as Harvey was unscathed.

Chapter 1104

Chapter 1104

After getting along with Harvey these days, Mandy discovered that she had actually accepted Harvey from the bottom of her heart.

It was just, there were still some barriers between the two which prevented them from living like a married couple.

After this incident, Mandy found that she was unable to leave Harvey.

It was especially evident when she saw him taken away by those gangsters. Mandy never wanted to experience that heartrending feeling again.

How about taking this opportunity to consummate tonight?

Chapter 1104

Consider it the last memory in this house...?

A shy look appeared on Mandy's originally pale face.

Harvey, who was at the side, looked baffled.

What was going on with this woman?

Weeping one moment, laughing the next, and then being shy again.

"Honey, what's the matter with you? I'm fine, aren't I?" Harvey automatically comforted her.

"Nothing, I just want to cry. Oh, right." Mandy took the initiative to change the topic. "What do you want to eat tonight? I'll cook it for you."

"Anything's fine. I'll like it as long as my wife cooks it." Harvey smiled.

Although Mandy's cooking skills were at a disaster level, Harvey still decided to go with it.

Chapter 1104

Just as the two were talking, laughing, and about to cook, someone knocked on the door frantically.

Harvey opened the door. Simon and Lilian rushed in with manic speed.

“Mandy, are you out of your mind?”

“How could you do this kind of thing?!”

“Don’t you need to ask for our opinion first before doing this?”

“Are you trying to let us both go out on the streets and beg for food in the future?”

Lilian shot Mandy an angry stare as she spoke rapidly.

Simon looked disappointed, uncertain of what to say.

Facing her angry parents, Mandy looked awkward and didn't know what to reply.

Chapter 1104

“Father, Mother.” Harvey frowned. “What's wrong with Mandy? Why are you scolding her?”

Were the people chiding Mandy not his in-laws, he would be ready to fight them.

Simon turned around and glared at Harvey. He spat coldly, “Don't you know?”

“It's because of you! Mandy promised her uncle. As long as they could rescue you, she'd give all of Silver Nimbus Enterprise's equity to the Yates family for free!”

“Now, Mandy's penniless!”

“And all this happened because of you!”

“You mess around every day, offend your enemies, and now you've ended up in this state!”

“All of this is because of you!”

Chapter 1104

“If Mandy didn’t marry someone like you, we’d be able to enjoy glory and wealth!”

“But because of you, we can only be beggars!”

Both Simon and Lilian shot Harvey cold glares.

Both of them loved money. Now, they had lost their prosperous life because of Harvey. With their temperament, how could they accept it?

Harvey frowned. “I admit that I offended the enemy. I’ll deal with my matters myself.”

“But no one came to rescue me. I broke Eric’s limbs myself and left.”

“What does this have to do with the Yateses?”

Harvey turned to Mandy with a grim look. “

Honey, you were deceived by them! They didn’t save me at all!”

“Let’s go! We’ll get back Silver Nimbus

Chapter 1104

Enterprise's equity. We can't let this pass easily!"

Harvey's face was icy.

Chapter 1105

Chapter 1105

Mandy fell into a daze when she listened to Harvey's words.

Was it true that she was deceived? Did Harvey get away by himself?

Thinking about it carefully, the time frame did not seem to match. Keith did mention that the results of the investigation would be known within twenty-four hours.

However, Harvey re-appeared within an hour.

“Harvey, what are you thinking? You're still bragging!”

“Do you know who took you away? Those are gangsters from the borders of Ohio! Those guys kill without blinking!”

Chapter 1105

“If it weren’t for the Yateses, who control the police in South Light, sending out many inspectors to find you and causing tremendous pressure on those gangsters, how would you still be alive?!”

“You’d probably end up as a corpse!”

“Didn’t you see that the people on the streets are from the police department? Buckwood’s security was raised for your sake!”

Both Simon and Lilian assumed that they had known the whole story. Hence, they were livid right now.

In their opinion, Harvey’s habit of talking big was hopeless.

It was Mandy who sacrificed everything to get him safe, yet he still claimed that he did it all by himself.

Just then, Mandy spoke up. “Father, Mother. The truth isn’t important at all. The most important thing now is that our family is alright.”

Since Mandy had spoken in such a way, Harvey couldn’t explain the whole matter.

He couldn’t tell Mandy that he crushed all those so-called gangsters with his bare hands. ①

Such a thing was almost like a myth, or a legend.

The common folk would never believe that someone could single-handedly fight dozens of gangsters.

In fact, no TV series were shot like this.

As for Keith, he definitely had great acting skills.

From the surface, it seemed that Harvey was able to return safely due to his orders.

Chapter 1105

To put it bluntly, all of these were too coincidental.

“Harvey, Mandy did so much for you. Can’t you think of her? How could you still say all that?!”

“Her equity in Silver Nimbus Enterprise is worth at least 31.4 million dollars!”

Simon sighed. It was useless to say anything now.

The equity had been given away. Could they still ask the Yateses to return it?

That would be impossible!

Harvey looked at Mandy. He was very moved.

This was not a matter of three dollars, but 31.4 million dollars!

Despite having so much money, she still chose to save him without hesitation.

Chapter 1105

As soon as he thought of this, Harvey said solemnly, “Father, Mother, Mandy. Don’t worry.”

“Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s value isn’t that high. It’s just 31.4 million dollars.”

“Since the Yateses want it so much, just give it to them!”

“I’ll help Mandy build an unprecedented company this time. I guarantee that she’ll become the Great Country H, no, the world’s richest woman!”

Right now, Harvey was truly ready to achieve that.

After the switch of defenses ceremony, he would be heading off to Hong Kong.

Before that, there must be a major clean-up of

Chapter 1105

South Light's business community.

When that was done, he'd pass the vacant resources from the market for Mandy to take care of.

By then, Mandy could generate tens of billions, or even hundreds of billions dollars in the shortest time.

After all, Harvey had seen Mandy's prowess with his eyes.

All she needed was an opportunity.

As for the assets of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, Harvey had no interest in them.

If he was willing, he could let Sky Corporation take action immediately and reduce Silver Nimbus Enterprise to an empty shell in mere minutes.

Chapter 1106

Chapter 1106

Harvey's bold words rendered Simon and Lilian dumbfounded.

After some time, Simon sighed and lamented, "Forget it. At this point, we won't say anything anymore."

"It's not an easy day for you today. Take a good rest."

After that, Simon dragged Lilian away.

Disappointed!

There was only disappointment in their hearts!

Even in this kind of situation, Harvey still talked big. They couldn't be bothered to say anything more at this moment.

Chapter 1106

To them, a person like Harvey was utterly hopeless.

Mandy smiled. "Honey, don't make fun of me."

"In the future, let's think of a way to start a small business. It won't be difficult to survive if we do our part."

"If it doesn't work, we'll go sell on the streets. Haven't we been engaged in the street stall vendors recently? How about starting tonight?"

Mandy would always do what she said, and had a strong drive.

She then went online to search for several small commodity wholesale markets nearby, and then took Harvey to stock the goods with interest.

Harvey was speechless.

Soon, Mandy had prepared some things to sell and found a stall at the pedestrian street.

Based on her words, their stall was to begin operations today.

The place Mandy chose was the main area of the pedestrian street. Even during weekdays, there were a lot of people. It was even more crowded at night.

The things Mandy chose were cheap and of very good quality. Plus, she was an enchanting beauty.

As soon as the stall was set up, it became very popular and attracted a lot of customers.

A while later, the goods were almost sold out.

Harvey smiled at seeing Mandy this way. As long as his wife was happy, everything was fine.

What's wrong with selling at a street stall?

It was also an entrepreneurial venture!

Chapter 1106

“Huh? Isn't this CEO Mandy Zimmer? I heard that your company's worth billions now. You even drove a Bentley!”

“Could it be that the rich and noble CEO Mandy Zimmer came out tonight to experience life?”

A middle-aged man dressed in a suit paired with leather shoes emerged from the crowd. He looked at Mandy, his eyes filled with mockery.

His name was Nick Lachey. He used to be the financial manager of Silver Nimbus Enterprise. However, Mandy found him embezzling the company funds and fired him.

It was said that he later went to work at Mandy's rival company. He never expected to meet her here tonight.

“Manager Lachey. Isn't that the Mandy Zimmer you often talk about with us?”

Chapter 1106

“It’s said that she’s young and promising. Why did she come out to sell at a street stall?”

“Oh! Forget about setting up a street stall, she’s even selling silk stockings!”

The people who followed Nick were obviously his subordinates.

They had no other skills other than being sycophants. Their flattery was top-notch.

As soon as they heard Nick talking about Mandy, they immediately began to mock her.

On top of that, Nick’s leer was extremely wretched.

Nick waved his hand to stop his subordinates. He then squatted down and rummaged through the things at the stall with a despicable gaze. Grinning cruelly, he said, “CEO Mandy, these things look pretty good. How much are these socks? I'd like to buy a pair.”

Nick held on to a pair of women's stockings, his face bearing a repulsive expression.

Right then, his subordinates let out a profound sneer. 4

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1107

Chapter 1107

Mandy's face went somewhat dark. She never expected that she would meet someone as wretched and disgusting as Nick when she set up this stall.

“Manager Lachey, I think the stockings in your hands aren't that good.”

“Yeah!”

Nick must have repeatedly mentioned Mandy in front of his subordinates.

Not only did he harbor a deep resentment against Mandy for firing him, but he had always lusted over her.

Harvey walked out from behind, frowning when he saw Nick.

Chapter 1107

Seeing how Mandy was selling at the stall so happily, he had no intentions to stop her.

Yet this guy came out of nowhere, intending to sabotage her, which made Harvey a little angry.

Harvey's eyes were cold. His gaze alone sent a chill throughout Nick's body.

Mandy was shocked to see Harvey. She hurriedly whispered, "Harvey, ignore these guys. We're here to do business. As the saying goes, peace breeds wealth."

Apparently, she was afraid that Harvey would beat them up and land into trouble afterwards.

She was no longer the CEO of Silver Nimbus Enterprise. What if Harvey hurt someone and was taken away by the police? What could she do then?

Chapter 1107

At this, Harvey nodded and replied, "Okay I'll listen to you."

He glanced at Nick and spat coldly, "We don't welcome guests like you here. Get lost."

After hearing Harvey's words, Nick's expression twisted.

He studied Harvey and laughed. "Pfft! You must be CEO Mandy's legendary live-in husband, right?"

"I heard you're great at living off women. Even after being married to CEO Mandy for three years, you've contributed nothing to the Zimmer family."

"Now, CEO Mandy is forced to hand her company to other people. Yet, she still has to set up a stall to take care of you."

"Brat! I have to admit, you're truly amazing at living off a woman!”

“You’re the master of living off women! When will you publish an autobiography? I’ll certainly buy it!”

There was laughter everywhere after he spoke.

One of Nick’s subordinates stared briefly at Harvey before adding, “Manager Lachey, this loser isn’t that good looking either!”

“I think I’m more good-looking than him. I don’t know if I have a chance to be a kept boy?!”

“Hahahaha!”

They burst into laughter. Other onlookers also pointed at Harvey, laughing along.

In this day and age, sponging off women is a shameful act.

In everyone’s eyes, a lazy person like Harvey was a disgrace to all men.

Chapter 1107

His wife was so beautiful. However, he himself didn't work. Instead, he wanted his wife to take care of him by selling goods at a street stall?!

However, ridicule was still ridicule. Many men were green with envy and full of hatred.

This brat seemed like your ordinary Joe. How was able to get such an enchanting beauty to be his wife?

If they could meet such a pretty woman, they're willing to be a live-in son-in-law!

Harvey ignored the ridicule. In this whole world, his wife was the most important to him.

If his wife told him not to fight, then he would hold back.

Otherwise, these men would have gone down by now.

Chapter 1107

Mandy stepped forward and said, “Everyone, we’re here to run a business. True, we have our difficulties. I hope everyone won’t give us a hard time.”

Mandy’s philosophy was “Peace breeds wealth.” To her, this small stall was where she and Harvey would earn money to make a living in the future.

In order to achieve this, she must endure the ridicule for some time.

Chapter 1108

Chapter 1108

The expression on Nick's face grew even more smug when he heard Mandy talking humbly like this.

“CEO Zimmer, since you say it that way, then I'll have to watch over your business.”

“All these stockings, I want them!”

Nick looked more despicable when he finished speaking.

“I want to buy a pair too!”

“Hahaha...!”

Nick's subordinates laughed wretchedly. Their eyes fell on Mandy, full of desire.

Chapter 1108

Nick grinned maliciously and said, “Mandy, I heard you already gave away all of Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s equity. That means you have nothing left now. Maybe you can’t even rent a house!”

“How about this? Recently, our company’s looking for a secretary for me. Seven hundred and eighty dollars a month.”

“I haven’t found a suitable candidate yet. If you behave well, I could give that position to you!”

“But you have to remember one condition of being my secretary. You have to sleep with me!”

Harvey couldn’t hold back anymore. This guy was too filthy. Right now, Harvey wanted nothing more than to head over and slap this guy, push his head into a toilet bowl and flush it.

However, Mandy shook her head and said, “ Honey, forget it. Let's go.”

“In the future, we'll encounter many similar things like this when we set up our stall. If you always hit people, then how can we run our business?”

Harvey surveyed Mandy's sombre expression and didn't want her to be disappointed. He could only stare at Nick coldly.

Seeing how Harvey was acting like a complete coward, Nick laughed out loud.

“Mandy, your husband's no good. I'm flirting with you in front of him, yet he's still acting like this? Don't you think he's a loser?”

“You're a beautiful woman. Why are you following this kind of trash? I think you should follow me! Your pretty face would be wasted otherwise.”

So saying, Nick walked over creepily toward

Chapter 1108

Mandy, about to touch her face.

Slap!

Harvey, standing at the side, couldn't help it. Seeing Nick approaching, Harvey immediately slapped Nick so hard that he rolled to the ground.

Nick was dumbfounded.

His subordinates were dumbfounded.

The people around were also dumbfounded.

No one anticipated this live-in son-in-law, who had been keeping quiet and dared not say anything, would show such a powerful scene.

It took a long time for Nick to react. He covered his face and pointed at Harvey, shouting, "Oh great! How dare you, a mere live-in son-in-law, hit me? Do you know who my boss is?"

"You're dead!"

Chapter 1108

“I want you to crawl out of these streets today!”

Harvey grabbed Nick’s neck with his hands and snarled coldly, “Although I don’t know who your boss is, I know that garbage should go in the trash can!”

Harvey raised his arms and sent Nick straight into the trash can on the street.

Everyone subconsciously stepped back when the smelly Nick crawled out of the trash can.

It was too putrid!

The whole incident sent Mandy into shock.

Although she had warned Harvey many times, he still did it anyway.

To top it off, Harvey actually threw Nick into a trash can!

Chapter 1109

Nick hastily got up from the ground.

He was livid and humiliated. He took out his phone and pressed the dial button.

“Brother Fly, it’s me, Nick!”

“I was beaten by a street vendor in the pedestrian street!”

“This is your turf. You must come and give me justice!”

Everyone’s expressions changed when they heard Brother Fly’s name.

After a while, someone could not help saying, “Hey, boss. This Brother Fly you mentioned, could he be the big boss of the pedestrian street?”

Chapter 1109

“You’re quite knowledgeable. Yeah, it’s that Brother Fly!”

“Brother Fly is one of the big bosses on the streets. He watches over the pedestrian street!”

“He’s my big brother!”

Nick had a triumphant expression on his face.

Many people’s expressions changed drastically at this statement. As of this moment, some of the street vendors’ complexions were extremely awful.

A few kind stall owners couldn’t help but exclaim, “Girl, hurry up and go!”

“Brother Fly isn’t that simple! Everyone who sets up a stall here has to pay him a protection fee!”

Chapter 1109

“If you don’t pay him, at best, he’ll smash your stall. At worst, he’ll beat you up!”

“Moreover, Brother Fly’s a womanizer. Many girls who set up their stalls here have been raped by him!”

“Also, boy, be smart. Quickly go and leave your things behind!”

“Otherwise, if Brother Fly comes, you won’t be able to leave!”

Apparently, there were still many kind people among the onlookers.

Although their words were a bit exaggerated, they were facts.

The working class people had their circles.

It was normal for gangsters to collect protection fees from the street vendors on the pedestrian street.

Just now, everyone was watching on the sidelines for the fun of it. However, they could not bear to see such a beautiful lady being ruined by Brother Fly.

Nick sneered and looked around, “Go? Don’t you think it’s too late to leave now?”

“Guys, watch them. Don’t let them leave!”

“I’m still waiting for Brother Fly to give me justice!”

As soon as Nick waved his hand, his subordinates quickly dispersed to surround Mandy and Harvey.

The people around watched the scene with worry, but no one dared to come and help.

Soon after, the sound of footsteps emerged from behind the crowd. The surrounding crowd unconsciously spread out.

A group of gangsters walked over, approaching them.

The one leading was Brother Fly, who was wearing a nice leather coat. His teeth were yellow, and there was a big gold chain hanging around his neck.

A woman followed beside him, dressed very skimpily. Judging from her heavy makeup and gaudy appearance, she must be a prostitute.

However, this woman had a good body.

“Brother Fly, you’re finally here. You must speak for me!”

Nick rushed over and said submissively.

Brother Fly reached out his hand and patted Nick’s face. He said, “Nick, you’re always dedicated to me. I’ll definitely look out for you.

Chapter 1109

Tell me, who dares to hit you on my turf? I'll kill him!"

At this, Nick pointed at Harvey. "Brother Fly, that's the guy!"

"He's just a street vendor. Not only he didn't pay the protection fee, but he also hit people! Brother Fly, kill him!"

Chapter 1110

Brother Fly sneered, “Setting up a stall on my turf without paying the protection fee? Interesting!”

“It’s been a long time since I met a person who has some balls!”

As he spoke, he spat on the ground. He said indifferently, “Brat, lick my spit clean! Kneel on the ground when you talk to me!”

“Or else, I’ll cut off all your limbs today!”

Nick and his subordinates sneered.

Nick glared at Harvey and added, “Brat, did you hear that? Hurry up and get on your knees!”

“If you behave now, Brother Fly might not kill

Chapter 1110

you!”

“If you don’t, I’m afraid you won’t be able to even crawl out later!”

Harvey watched as Nick continued acting like a clown, utterly indifferent and unmoved.

Mandy quickly stepped in front of Harvey and blocked him, whispering, “Harvey, these people are from the streets. We can’t afford to provoke them.”

She apologized to Brother Fly, saying, “Brother Fly, we’re new here. We still don’t know the rules.”

“I’m not sure how much we need to pay, but I’ll settle the fee in a while.”

Brother Fly initially did not see Mandy. When he saw such an enchanting beauty, he became somewhat stunned.

Chapter 1110

He flashed a sinister grin and said, “Hey, girl. Is this your stall?”

“So, the guy who hits people is your husband?”

“Yes. We’ll even pay the medical expenses if you want.” Mandy said.

Brother Fly laughed.

“Medical expenses? I don’t need it!”

He laughed again.

“How about this? You follow me tonight and have fun with me. I’ll look after you in the future. As for your husband, I’ll forget what he did today.”

Brother Fly said, looking very confident.

He had used similar means on many women on this pedestrian street and ruined them.

What connections could those street vendor girls have?

They could only listen to him after being threatened.

Everyone knew that it was over for Mandy when they saw Brother Fly's wretched look.

This woman would certainly be ruined by Brother Fly!

Many people couldn't help glaring at Harvey. If it weren't for him, how else would such a pretty lady face such a predicament?

Mandy's complexion grew awful when she listened to Brother Fly.

Although she did meet people who coveted her before in the business world, they were generally more subtle.

This was her first time facing a roguish punk like Brother Fly who would say such brutish

words. ①

At that point, she didn't know how to respond.

Harvey smiled and said, "Honey, let me deal with this."

Harvey pointed to the trash can beside him. He said indifferently, "Brother Fly, right? Since you're a fly, you should stay in the trash can, right?"

"If you crawl in there yourself and kneel, I'll let today's incident pass. Otherwise, you have to lie in bed the rest of your life."

Brother Fly, who was initially complacent, was taken aback at Harvey's words.

He glared at Harvey coldly.

He was the boss of the pedestrian street for many years. He had never met such an arrogant person!

Chapter 1110

When everyone saw Brother Fry's expression, they knew everything was over.

This guy was definitely trying to get himself killed!

To talk like this to Brother Fly on his turf, did he fear he wouldn't die soon enough? 5

Chapter 1111

Brother Fly's mistress, Becca Day, giggled quietly.

"Darling, this man's acting so arrogant! He doesn't even bat an eye at you."

"He doesn't know what's good for him!"

Hearing these words, Brother Fly's gaze turned ice-cold.

He had been around Pedestrian Street for so many years. Even if the first-in-command of the police station in the area were to bump into him, they'd have to pay him respect.

Who would've imagined this hothead who showed up out of nowhere would be this disrespectful?

He even told Brother Fly to kneel inside a trash can?

What a joke!

Chapter 1111

“I’m warning you one more time. Kneel and lick my spit clean!” Brother Fly demanded, laughing coldly.

The whole place fell into dead silence.

Everyone around dared not utter a single word.

They didn’t even have the courage to breathe.

All of them could sense that Brother Fly was truly livid.

In Pedestrian Street, enraging Brother Fly would do no one any good.

Only Harvey remained as still as a rock, his face also as cold as ice.

Becca marched forward and kicked the street stall that Mandy set up to the ground.

“Don’t you understand him?! He told you to lick the spit clean! Are you deaf?!”

It was obvious that Becca was a gangster. At this moment, she behaved like an unruly shrew.

Chapter 1111

Nobody saw that coming. Seeing her stall getting kicked, Mandy was ready to go toe to toe against Becca.

Soon after, the crowd was staring at Mandy strangely.

Becca was probably agitated because she wanted to go against Mandy.

She was afraid her status as Brother Fly's woman would be taken over by Mandy, who had appeared out of nowhere.

Just then, someone then suggested with mock kindness, "Kid, just kneel already. If you don't, we won't let you off the hook that easily!"

"Right! Brother Fly's in a different league compared to you! Young people should know when to give up!"

"If you grovel in front of Brother Fly right now, he might just forgive you for disrespecting him just now!"

Chapter 1111

“Even if you lose your dignity, it’s way better than getting beaten up and crippled, right?”

“ ... ”

Mandy had a look of disbelief when she listened to the crowd.

From the very beginning, Nick Lachey and his lackeys intended to stir up trouble.

Harvey was only showing a bit of resistance against them, yet they wanted him to go so far as to kneel and apologize just because of that?

What kind of logic was that?

But to these people, Brother Fly was the ruler of Pedestrian Street.

Since he had already shown up, all rights would turn into wrongs!

Anyone needed to apologize if he demanded it.

Otherwise, they would all face horrible ends.

Chapter 1111

Harvey was broken-hearted when he saw Mandy's stall kicked down. The items weren't worth much, but Mandy had hand-picked all of them meticulously.

Now that Brother Fly had ruined Mandy's stall, her venture ended up in failure.

Harvey sighed. Then, he calmly turned to Brother Fly.

"Since you don't want to get in the trash can, let's try something else. Whoever your boss is, get him here to break your limbs and apologize to my wife. If he doesn't, I won't let you off the hook so easily."

"What?! Let Brother Fly's boss show up and apologize?!"

Harvey's words shocked everyone there.

They had met arrogant people before, but this was their first time meeting someone truly arrogant.

"Darling, why are you still saying something like this right now?!”

“Brother Fly’s superior must be a powerful man in this line of work! If someone like him shows up, there’ll be even more trouble!”

Mandy had grown extremely anxious. She never imagined that Harvey had no intention of making peace and would instead let the problem escalate!

Chapter 1112

“Mr. York, are you insane? Do you know who Brother Fly’s boss is? Do you even have the guts to accept his apology even if he did come here?”

“That man is a true master in this line of work! With just a snap of his fingers, he could do whatever he wants! Yet you want a man like that to bow down to you?”

“What are you thinking? You’re just a live-in son-in-law setting up a street stall! Are you even worthy?”

Nick Lachey and the rest jabbed their fingers at Harvey and rebuked him. Naturally, they had never encountered a person who was this oblivious about the good and bad.

Mandy was a bundle of nerves.

‘Demanding the boss to show up and apologize to

Chapter 1112

me?’

‘What’s Harvey thinking?’

‘Isn’t he just trying to get us killed?’

Mandy panicked and pulled out her phone.

Trembling, she sent Keith and Finn Yates a text.

Under these circumstances, although Mandy really didn’t want to resort to begging, she was afraid that Harvey would be beaten to death by Brother Fly and his lackeys if she didn’t call for the Yateses’ aid.

Brother Fly listened as Harvey demanded for his boss to show up and break all of his limbs, as well as apologize to a bratty little lady.

His lungs were filled with anger, to the point of exploding.

He stomped forward as he continued to rebuke Harvey, raising his palm to swing at Harvey’s face.

Slap!

In the next second, Harvey’s back hand landed on

Chapter 1112

Brother Fly's face.

Pow!

At the same time, Harvey followed up with a kick to Brother Fly's stomach.

Slap!

Harvey then sent Becca flying with a slap.

Soon, the two were kneeling in front of Harvey.

The sight rendered the crowd dumbfounded.

'This live-in son-in-law's relentless! He actually beat up Brother Fly and his woman to the ground?'

"Bastard, are you crazy?! How dare you hit my boss?! Do you want to die?!"

"Let's get him!"

From the back, a dozen or so gangsters screamed and rushed forward, swinging their steel pipes and axes.

Harvey sent them flying with his kicks.

Chapter 1112

He grabbed a steel pipe from one of them and slammed it against one of the gangster's legs.

Bang, bang, bang!

“Aaaagh!”

It was only a brief scuffle, but horrible cries of pain were already echoing out. The gangsters fell to the ground, wailing and rolling around in agony.

Everyone gawked at Harvey in disbelief. They didn't anticipate him to be so good at fighting.

Mandy was flabbergasted. She was afraid of Harvey stirring up trouble, but she never expected that the situation would worsen beyond her expectations.

Harvey didn't even try to deescalate the situation. Instead he reached out a hand to give Brother Fly a light slap on the face and said calmly, “Quickly get your boss here. I'm in a hurry.”

Fury was written all over Brother Fly's face. He glared at Harvey. “Do you even know who my boss is?! He's the well-renowned Master Caesar! You're finished!"

Chapter 1112

So saying, he immediately took out his phone to make a call.

"Boss! Hurry and save me!"

Before the person on the other side of the phone could reply, Harvey grabbed the phone and calmly said into it, "You must be Master Caesar. I'm giving you three minutes to get over here and apologize."

After that, Harvey immediately hung up.

Once again, the sight shocked everyone.

'He's nuts!'

'This guy's definitely insane!'

'Who Master Caesar is?'

'That man is a true master in his line of work! He's completely different compared to a simple mob boss like Brother Fly!'

Watching Harvey's arrogance, a bloodthirsty smile appeared on Brother Fly's face.

"You're finished, kid!"

"When my boss shows up, you'll understand the true meaning of death!"

"It's not just you! I won't let your wife off the hook either!"

Harvey didn't reply. He casually picked up a steel pipe and immediately swung it at Brother Fly's face.

"Argh!"

Brother Fly let out an unintelligible wail as a mouthful of teeth sprayed out.

He glared at Harvey, his eyes flashing with anger.

He wanted to threaten Harvey, but dared not open his mouth for fear of Harvey hitting him again.

To the watching crowd, Harvey was finished.

This whole mess couldn't be fixed by simply crippling him anymore.

Mandy was so frightened, she was on the verge of tears. She never imagined that her husband would be this rash!

Even if the Yateses did show up to help, settling this problem won't be easy.

Mandy grabbed Harvey's hand and pleaded, "Darling, let's leave quickly. Let's get out of Buckwood and return to Niumhi. We won't come here anymore!"

"I'll go anywhere you go!"

Harvey chuckled.

"Why should we run? Everyone here is reasonable. We didn't do anything wrong, so of course we should wait for their apology!"

Chapter 1113

“If we flee right now, we’d look like we lack confidence!”

Harvey’s nonchalance rendered Mandy speechless.

She sighed. She could only hope the Yateses would hurry and solve this problem after receiving her text.

At the same time, in the Yates family manor...

Keith looked at the text on his phone, then burst out laughing.

“Is Harvey’s head empty? He’s actually provoking Master Caesar because of a street stall?”

Finn, who was at his side, raised his head and replied, “Father, is this Master Caesar the man in that line of work?”

“That’s him.”

Finn pondered briefly before saying, “Father, that entire family’s too good at causing trouble! They offended Master Caesar today. Who knows who they'll offend next! Maybe they'll even give Tyson Woods trouble in a few days!"

"I suggest we break all connections with that family."

"Otherwise, we might get screwed someday without knowing it!"

Leyton Luv nodded.

"Yes, that's right. That family has no use for us anymore. Why are we still keeping up relations with them?"

Tanya Yates also added, "I feel like ever since Lilian married Simon Zimmer, her whole life was already ruined!"

"Now that the Zimmers are just a rundown family, why are we still in contact with them?"

"If we don't cut off contact with them now, they'll bring us heaps of trouble!"

"Right! They caused such a big ruckus over setting up a street stall. Maybe next time Harvey would make even bigger trouble just by begging for food!”

“The Yates family is a top tier family. Having such poor relatives like them is an embarrassment to us all!”

The Yateses continued to gossip like there was no end. They had conveniently forgotten that their current family property was something they robbed from Mandy.

Grandma Yates nodded as well.

“You all have a point. A top tier family like us has no need for poor relatives like them!”

“How about this? Better sooner than later. Tomorrow, then!”

“We’ll hold a press conference and announce that we’re kicking Lilian out of the Yates family. In the future, her family has nothing to do with us!”

“Hahaha! You’re truly amazing, Grandma Yates!”

“That’s brilliant!”

Chapter 1113

All of the Yateses burst out laughing. This was how it should be!

They had a small fear that Mandy would rise again.

However, it seemed Grandma Yates refused to give Mandy's family another chance of survival!

Chapter 1114

Chapter 1114

A few minutes later, van after van stopped at the roadside of Pedestrian Street. Crowds of men then rushed out.

Seeing this, Brother Fly brightened.

Even Nick Lachey and his lackeys were exhilarated.

Soon, a large group of men were present.

They were all dressed in black suits, tall and strong. It was obvious that they were fighters at first glance.

The man leading them was a middle-aged man wearing a suit, he looked extraordinary at first sight.

He was none other than Buckwood's well-renowned head, Master Caesar.

Master Caesar and his man moved to the front of the crowd and fell into shock. It was especially evident when they spotted Brother Fly kneeling in front of Harvey.

“Boss, save me! This man actually hit me! He’s not even paying you any respect!” Seeing his savior, Brother Fly couldn’t help but speak.

But then he saw Master Caesar immediately rushing toward Harvey, saying, “Are you alright?”

His men were all bowing with their hands folded. They dared not spare a single glance at Brother Fly on the ground, but instead looked at Harvey with a hint of fear.

“It’s good that you’re alright. When I got that phone call, I was scared to death!”

Cold sweat dripped down Master Caesar’s face.

At this moment, he wanted to strangle Brother Fly to death very badly.

‘How did he get the courage to provoke this man?!’

Even now, Master Caesar still remembered the sight from back then. If he didn't kneel quick enough, he might have already been dead for some time.

Besides, the henchman in front of him had already been the king of the streets of Niumhi!

Thus, the identity and status of the man in front of him must be something unimaginable!

Master Caesar's respectable attitude shocked everyone utterly.

Even Brother Fly was showing an expression of complete disbelief.

"Boss, I'm the one who's hurt here!"

Brother Fly was rendered helpless, on the verge of tears.

His own boss came. But instead of standing up for him, the man went to help Harvey.

"I'm fine, but my wife's street stall got knocked over." Harvey replied calmly.

Chapter 1114

Everyone looked at the items on the ground. Most of them had become quite dirty. Naturally, they couldn't be sold again.

Master Caesar was trembling in his boots. He scanned the entire surrounding, all colour in his face draining away. He exclaimed furiously, "Who is it?! Who's the one responsible for this?!"

His men too had a sudden change of expression.

"Who did this?! Don't you know what this place is?!"

"Don't you all abide by the laws of this place?!"

The crowd's gaze subconsciously shifted towards Becca Day.

Becca displayed a look of disbelief as she knelt on the ground, her body shuddering to no end.

Master Caesar noticed it and was shaken. He then grabbed a steel pipe from one of his subordinates and swung it at Brother Fly's face.

Chapter 1114

“How many times have I already told you?!”

“The most important part in this line of work is the sense of justice! I hate those who bully the good and fear the bad the most!”

“You got a little famous around Pedestrian Street, so you thought you’re actually a somebody?”

“You’re still terrorizing the market and the people in it every single day! You’re just trying to piss me off, aren’t you?!”

Slam!

Master Caesar grew more and more furious as he spoke. He immediately swung his steel pipe at Brother Fly’s knee.

“Aaaah!”

Baleful wails resounded as Brother Fly’s knee shattered.

However, Master Caesar did not have any intention to stop. He broke all four of Brother Fly's limbs before finally stopping to catch his breath.

Brother Fly was left with only the strength to wail. He couldn't understand why things turned out like this!

Chapter 1115

Brother Fly was not the only one. Everyone else was just as bewildered.

The way they looked at Harvey changed.

What happened?

Even Mandy was at a loss.

She did ask the Yates family for help.

Maybe the Yateses were actually quite powerful? Perhaps a phone call alone was enough to pressure Master Caesar? ①

Thinking about it, this was expected. The Yateses controlled South Light's police force, coincidentally making them a mobster's worst enemy. ①

Perhaps Harvey too understood this fact, which explained why he was acting so unscrupulously.

Chapter 1115

Just then, another group of men stepped forth. The man leading the group was none other than Tyson Woods.

“This...this is the new king of South Light’s streets, Tyson Woods!”

“Right, that’s him! Why did he come here?!”

Everyone gasped. To think a trivial matter like this could actually provoke a major figure like him to show up!

Tyson didn’t care for the others and swiftly rushed toward Harvey. He automatically asked, “Sir York, are you alright? I got scared when I first received the call.”

“How dare these ignorant fools actually cause you trouble? I’ll be sure to teach them a lesson when we head back.”

Pffft!

Everyone had the urge to cough out blood.

Chapter 1115

Wasn't this man just a live-in son-in-law? Wasn't he just a kept man?

Why would the king of South Light's streets, Tyson Woods, be this respectful toward him?

My God!

Unimaginable!

Nobody could ever begin to imagine Harvey's true identity.

"This isn't about provoking anybody."

"The common folk are running small businesses like these to survive. Yet you gangsters terrorize the market and the people in it every single day. How is this reasonable?"

"You can figure out how to deal with this situation."

Hearing Harvey's words, Tyson subconsciously trembled.

The head coach was livid.

The next moment, Tyson turned around and swung his backhand at Master Caesar's face.

“What's going on here, Master Caesar?! Didn't I already warn you during our meetings?! People in this line of work need to change. We don't do things like protection rackets and harrassing people anymore!”

“Did what I say go in one ear and out of the other?!”

Master Caesar swiftly knelt to the ground and grovelled.

“Sir Tyson! It was my fault, I wasn't strict with my teachings! Offending Mr. York was my biggest mistake!”

“Mr. York, I'm so sorry. It's my fault! Punish me as you see fit!”

Gasp!

Everyone gasped at the sight.

Nobody would've anticipated that the high and mighty Master Caesar would immediately bow his head to Harvey.

Even the wailing Brother Fly became dumbfounded.

Becca Day was dumbfounded.

Nick Lachey was dumbfounded.

Mandy too was at a complete loss. The events transpiring before her were already way beyond her expectations.

Nobody expected that things would turn out this way.

Thump, thump, thump!

Just then, rushed footsteps could be heard.

A man in a suit hurried forward, accompanied by another man in a chief inspector's uniform.

Seeing them, a person automatically blurted out, "That's... Buckwood Police Department's Chief Inspector, Yannick Bisson..."

Chapter 1115

“And that’s Buckwood’s first-in-command, Yoel Graham!”

“What?!”

At this moment, everyone’s head became numb.

‘Why is Yoel Graham and Yannick Bisson here?’

By pure coincidence, Tyson was actually visiting Yoel at the time. Naturally, when Tyson received word about Harvey’s situation, Yoel came to know of it as well.

When it came to dealing with such a huge issue, Yoel would definitely bring along his trusted henchman, Yannick Bisson.

Chapter 1116

The two jogged toward Harvey.

Yoel Graham couldn't help but let out a huge sigh of relief when he saw that Harvey was fine.

Yannick Bisson immediately bowed in front of Harvey.

The sight shocked the crowd utterly and completely.

Who was Harvey York?!

Why were these powerful people being so respectful toward him?!

Especially Buckwood's first-in-command, Yoel Graham!

A major figure like him actually showed up!

What did this mean?

Chapter 1116

This meant that the live-in son-in-law had immensely powerful authority!

Everyone's gazes at Harvey changed. Some even started to fear him.

Before, in everyone's eyes, he was a mere live-in son-in-law who only knew how to be a kept husband. Suddenly, he changed into a major figure with a mysterious identity.

Mandy's face reflected complete disbelief.

Did the Yateses really do this much for her and Harvey? ③

She could understand why Master Caesar showed up. She could comprehend why Tyson Woods showed up, and she could even acknowledge why Yannick Bisson showed up.

But now, even Buckwood's first-in-command, Yoel Graham showed up!

Mandy was utterly baffled.

Chapter 1116

Yet under these circumstances, she was not in a position to question anything.

“Mr. York, are you hurt?”

Yoel looked at Harvey respectfully.

Yannick Bisson, on the other hand, gave a firm salute. Cold sweat dripped down his face as he said, “Mr. York, it’s my fault that things like these happened within my jurisdiction. I’ll be sure to give you a fair statement about this.”

“Take them away! Make sure I don’t hear of things like this happening again in the future.” Harvey said coldly.

After Harvey finished speaking, the crowd’s gaze shifted to Master Caesar.

Master Caesar stuttered out a swift reply, “Mr. York, I guarantee you that something like this will never happen again!”

“And Fly, that idiot who doesn’t know what’s good for him; he'll lie on the bed for the rest of his life!"

Chapter 1116

At these words, Brother Fly's sight went black. He passed out immediately.

As for Becca Day, she instantly grovelled the moment the big bosses glared at her, to the point her head started to bleed profusely.

Nick Lachey and his lackeys kneeled too.

They were trembling to the point they couldn't utter a single word, but they all knew they were finished.

Even if Harvey didn't take action, Master Caesar would be sure to teach them a hard lesson right after this incident.

"Alright, get out of here if there's nothing else. Stop harassing the people."

Harvey waved his hand, then took Mandy and left.

When Mandy was back at the Gardens Residence, she finally managed to regain her composure.

Chapter 1116

She pulled out her phone and handed it over to Harvey.

“Darling, call Uncle and thank him! Quickly!” ①

“If it weren’t for him sending that many people over, we would’ve been in big trouble!” ①

Harvey took the phone and saw the text message Mandy had sent. He couldn’t help but force a smile.

He wanted to use the opportunity to reveal his true identity to Mandy, but then she did this.

Seeing the look on her face, Harvey smiled.

“Find me a chance to thank them in person.”

Mandy thought about it before replying, “You’re right. We need a gift as well.”

The Yateses had turned Mandy penniless.

Yet, she still considered thanking them.

The next day...

Chapter 1116

Harvey and Mandy were still sleeping.

Suddenly, the phone rang rapidly.

It was Lilian who called.

“Harvey, Mandy! Hurry and head over to the Yateses’ main residence!”

Obviously, something big had occurred. Lilian wouldn’t be this anxious otherwise.

Mandy grew slightly nervous.

“Did Father and Mother find out about what happened yesterday? Are Grandmother and Uncle about to reprimand us again?”

Harvey shook his head. He knew things wouldn’t be that simple.

Chapter 1117

Chapter 1117

At the hall of the Yateses' main residence.

“Father, Mother. What’s going on? What’s the big rush?” Harvey asked.

“I’m not sure, but the Yateses called me early this morning and told me they were going to announce something big.”

“I think they might be preparing to return us a part of Silver Nimbus Company’s shares!”

Lilian was exhilarated.

“Right! The Yateses are your family-in-law after all. They must’ve discovered their conscience and couldn't bear to see us live on the streets!”

Simon was also extremely excited.

He was unable to sleep properly in the past few days. He had been worried about what he would rely on in the future to survive, but there was light at the end of the tunnel after all!

Mandy discreetly whispered into Harvey's ear, "Darling, you have to use this opportunity to thank Uncle and the others today. I think they know we're setting up street stalls and feel bad about it. That's why they gave us this chance."

Naturally, Mandy also had her expectations toward the Yates family.

They were inseparable blood relatives, after all!

Mandy didn't believe that the Yateses would be so relentless toward her and her family.

Harvey frowned slightly. He knew full well how the Yateses behaved.

They wouldn't do something as generous as handing out shares.

As for what they would actually do, nobody had a clue.

Chapter 1117

Not long after, all of the Yateses stepped out under Grandma Yates's lead.

Media journalists tagged beside them, probably invited by the family.

They glared at Mandy, while Keith and several others bore malicious smiles.

The sight turned Mandy slightly perplexed, but at this point she didn't dare to ask any questions.

Grandma Yates sat on the upper seat, while the rest of the Yateses took their respective seats according to their rank in the family.

However, Grandma Yates had no intention to let Mandy and her family be seated.

Keith smiled and shot a quick look at one of the journalists. "Mr. Barker, do you have your recording equipment ready?"

"All done. I'll have everything recorded," Mr. Barker replied professionally.

Chapter 1117

Keith nodded.

“Right, thank you.”

Keith then turned to Grandma Yates. “

Grandmother, everyone’s here. We can start now.”

Grandma Yates displayed a profound look, and then smiled.

“Today, we invited the journalists here to hold a press conference.”

“I have something to announce!”

As Grandma Yates spoke, her gaze shifted toward Lilian and her family.

“After discussing with the rest of the family, we have decided that we’ll be breaking all ties with Lilian and her family. From today onward, the Yateses have nothing to do with her family!”

Chapter 1117

“If they try to trick people using the Yateses’ name, it has nothing to do with us whatsoever!”

“To put it bluntly, from now on, we’re completely detached from them!”

Everyone fell silent after hearing her words.

The Yateses knew that this was bound to happen, but nobody expected that matters would escalate to this point.

Mandy’s expression changed.

Simon’s expression changed.

Lilian showed a look of utter bewilderment.

Only Harvey had a cold look in his eyes. He knew that the Yates family was up to no good, but he never imagined they would be this ruthless.

They didn’t even care about their family at that moment!

Chapter 1118

Chapter 1118

Lilian stared at Grandma Yates in complete disbelief. The woman was Lilian's own mother, yet how could she say something like that?

She even invited media journalists for this whole thing!

This was ruthless!

Simon was terrified to the point his face lost all color. This matter was too serious. They might not even have the chance to beg for food after this!

Mandy, on the other hand, couldn't believe what she had just heard.

Her grandmother and uncle already took away her shares worth three hundred million dollars, yet they wouldn't even give her and her family a way to survive.

Chapter 1118

The most important thing was that they even announced it publicly and let the whole world know.

This was the equivalent of telling everyone that the Yates family was no longer supporting Mandy's family from now on.

“Grandmother, Uncle, why?!”

“Didn't you help us just yesterday?!”

“Why are you treating us like this today?!” Mandy asked in disbelief.

Keith found her words slightly odd, but he still chuckled coldly.

“I don't know what you're talking about. At the end of day, since Grandmother has spoken, this has already been decided!”

“Your family better know what's good for yourselves. From now on, our top rated Yates family has nothing to do with a rundown family like yours!”

Chapter 1118

“Whatever your family does in the future, the Yateses will not be involved!”

“Even if we were to bump into each other in public, let’s just pretend that we don’t know each other!”

“Now, leave!”

Keith’s expression was as cold as ice, filled with ruthlessness.

“Get out of the Yates family right now!”

“We don’t need you here!”

“Right, Lilian! Since you’ve married Simon, just change your surname! You don’t even have the right to be named Yates!”

The Yates family burst out laughing, all of them cold and ruthless.

Mandy was trembling in her boots. She finally understood that she had given her previous property to a pack of wolves!

Chapter 1118

No, it would be better if she gave it to an actual pack of wolves.

The Yateses couldn't even be compared to wolves!

Simon and Lilian were on the verge of collapsing. They had hoped that the Yateses would be moved by their conscience and return a part of the shares today.

They never expected that things would turn out the opposite, and that this end awaited them.

The so-called concept of family vanished into thin air.

Especially for Lilian, who no longer had the right to bear the Yates name.

Just ask! For every major family, is there anything worse than this?

Pffft!

Lilian's body swayed to no end. The once high and mighty Lilian, who was proud of being a Yates, could no longer bear the situation. She coughed up a mouthful of blood.

Chapter 1118

“Honey!”

“Mother!”

Simon and Mandy hurriedly lifted Lilian up.

However, Lilian waved her hand and glared at Grandma Yates. Despair and anger were written all over her face.

“What? Do you still have something to say about my decision?”

“I should’ve kicked you out of the house twenty years ago!”

“Don’t you understand gratitude when I allowed you to have the Yates family’s glory for twenty whole years?”

“Or do you think you’ve been wronged? Are you displeased?”

Chapter 1118

Lilian could not utter another word. Mandy and Simon too had despair all over their faces.

What could they say in this situation?

To put it another way, saying anything right now would be useless.

“Yeah. We’re displeased, alright!”

At this moment, Harvey, who had been ignored by the Yates family this entire time, stood up and opened his mouth.

“You’re displeased? What right does a live-in filth like you have to be displeased?”

“Are you worthy to say that?”

“Do you even have the right to breathe in front of the Yates family? Get out now!”

Chapter 1119

Chapter 1119

The Yateses all burst out laughing after Harvey stood up to speak.

In the Yateses' eyes, Mandy and her family had no status whatsoever. Harvey was even lesser than them!

“Grandma Yates, Keith. Do you believe you'll come to regret what you've done today?”

“The top-rated Yates family?” Harvey said, grinning. “I'm afraid you won't be able to maintain the glory of being first-rated soon enough!”

“Presumptuous!” Keith snarled coldly. “How dare you curse my top-rated Yates family like this?! Disobedient fool!”

“You want the Yates family to repent? There's just no way!”

Chapter 1119

“Now that all of Mandy’s shares are in our hands, we have all the authority and wealth in the world! How could we possibly repent?!”

“A live-in filth like you will never understand how strong the Yates family has become!”

The Yateses chuckled derisively. In their eyes, Harvey was just a crazy person.

“Shut up!”

At that moment, Lilian finally came back to her senses. She yelled in a thunderous voice, standing still, glaring at Grandma Yates.

“Mother, I want to ask you: did my family ever do anything that disrespected the Yateses?”

“To the point you want to break all ties with us?”

“What did we ever do wrong?”

“Even if you want to kill us, at least tell us why.”

Simon, too, slowly opened his mouth to speak.

Chapter 1119

“Grandmother. We may not have contributed anything to the Yates family, but we don’t deserve this treatment.”

“At the very least, we’ve worked hard for the Yateses even if we had nothing to contribute!”

Mandy then added stubbornly, “Grandmother, didn’t I eventually give you all the shares because you wanted them?”

“Is that not enough?”

The Yates family listened as Mandy and her family, who were at their wits’ end, bragged shamelessly.

Grandma Yates and Keith looked at each other before laughing once more.

Grandma Yates couldn’t be bothered to say anything anymore. She waved her hand, signalling Mandy and her family to leave.

Keith chuckled cruelly.

“Don’t you get it?”

Chapter 1119

“I represented the Yateses to talk to you before, in hopes that we can buy the shares from Silver Nimbus Enterprise.”

“But Mandy rejected the offer!”

“You only managed to achieve everything because of the Yates family’s support, yet you won’t show your loyalty when the Yates family needed it. You even dared to disobey us!”

As Keith spoke, he jabbed his index finger at Lilian and Simon. “And you two! The Yates family had generously offered Mandy a hefty sum of three hundred thousand dollars to buy all of her shares. That was a show of us Yateses’ sincerity and mercy!”

“But what about you? You actually listened to the live-in son-in-law’s slanderous talk instead and rejected us!”

“You all should pay for that!”

“Today, we’re being generous by only breaking all ties between the two families.”

Chapter 1119

“If you don’t leave right now, don’t blame the Yates family for turning against you and crushing all of your limbs!”

“Yeah! Hurry and get out of here!”

The rest of the Yateses laughed coldly amid heated exclamations. One of them even grabbed a broom to shoo Mandy and her family out.

Lilian forced a chuckle and looked at Grandma Yates again.

“Mother. I’m going to ask you one last thing, so answer me!”

“Do you really have to be this ruthless to my family and I?” ①

Grandma Yates, who had not said a word before, opened her mouth to answer.

“Scram! This is the last time I’ll be saying this. If you call me Mother again, I’ll have someone tear your mouth apart!”

At these words, Lilian stumbled and backed away. She fell sitting down, her face painted in an expression of stunned disbelief. For a long while, she couldn't stand up.

Harvey sighed at the sore sight. He then walked forward to lift Lilian back up.

“Mom, let's go. We don't need support from a mere Yates family!”

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1120

Chapter 1120

Harvey and the three soon left.

His exclamation before he left was indeed filled with strong determination.

But to say they wouldn't be needing the Yateses' support?

Joining the top-rated Yates family was the biggest glory their family could ever achieve!

"That live-in filth just can't stop boasting even when his whole family's at their wits' end!"

"Just let him run his mouth! That family doesn't have anything to do with us anymore, anyway!"

"He might even get killed because of his mouth! If that's the case, we'll all be at ease!"

"It feels good chasing out a man with ill fortune!"

Chapter 1120

“From today onward, the Yates family will officially be a top-rated family!”

“Hahahaha...!”

The Yates family laughed once more, as unrestrained and domineering as they could be.

Mr. Barker knew exactly what to do at this moment. Immediately, he went to brown-nose the Yateses.

“Congratulations, Madam Yates, Sir Yates! The Yates family is the only top-rated family from now on!”

“Maybe you should change your title to South Light’s Yates family!”

Grandma Yates was laughing to the point her wrinkles could squish a fly dead. She replied, smiling, “You’re absolutely right, Mr. Barker. Come, reward this man! Give this man a hefty reward!”

The entire Yates family were busy enjoying themselves.

Chapter 1120

On the road...

Simon, Lilian, and Mandy showed soulless expressions.

They greatly valued the relationship between families.

This was the reason Mandy could swallow the pain no matter how many times the Zimmers had turned against her in the past.

After breaking all ties with the Zimmers, Mandy in turn came to value the Yateses greatly.

It was difficult to imagine that the Yateses would actually hold a press conference and break all ties with her family!

Though the matter had already passed, Mandy and her family still found everything hard to swallow.

Harvey was in charge of driving. As he drove, he tried to comfort them.

Chapter 1120

“Mom, Dad, Mandy. You really don’t need to be sad!”

“They’ve never seen us as family from the very beginning.”

“Right from the start, they were only into Mandy’s shares of Silver Nimbus Enterprise.”

“From now on, we’ll start over. I believe that our family could definitely rise again. We’ll make the Yateses regret what they did today!”

“Trust me. In three years, no, three months, the Yateses will definitely kneel in front of you! They’ll beg for your forgiveness!”

“The top-rated Yates family, what a joke!”

Harvey’s gaze was as cold as ice. In his eyes, the Yates family had no reason to exist anymore.

Mandy and the others were in a trance. Usually, they would call out Harvey for boasting up a storm.

Chapter 1120

But that day, they treated Harvey's words as emotional, as if there would come a time when what Harvey said would come true.

Right when Mandy and her family arrived at the Gardens Residence, news from the media had already spread.

According to the media, Mandy and her family were the ones committing treachery and plotting to take over the entire industry using the Zimmer family.

The Yates family righteously drew the line and broke all ties with Mandy's family on that day.

The media encouraged the Yateses, saying that any person and their businesses should not give these wolves a chance. A family like this should be on the streets, begging for food!

Once the news had spread, everyone cursed furiously at Mandy's family for some time. They were reduced to street rats, forced to endure insults and beatings everywhere.

The Yateses were all too experienced at warping the truth. Truly, a shameless tactic! ③

Chapter 1121

Chapter 1121

For a time, Mandy and her family fell into a tight struggle. They could only hide in their house, unable to go outside at all.

Fortunately, the Ceremony of Changing Defenses of South Light's military force would arrive two days after.

Mandy and her family were only on the news for a whole day before the ceremony took over.

Meanwhile, inside the Leo family's manor...

Chris Leo had prepared a gift.

He called Jessie Tate over and took out the gift.

“Commander Tate, what do you think about me giving this to the Head Coach tomorrow?” Chris asked, crossing his arms.

Chapter 1121

Jessie glanced at it before replying, “Not bad. The Head Coach is from the military. He might be retired, but he’d like something like this.”

“Good, very good.”

Chris laughed.

“Right, how’s the arrangement regarding the Head Coach acting as a witness for my wedding?”

Jessie smiled.

“There’s no problem. I’ve already contacted Ethan Hunt from Sword Camp. He said he had already requested the Head Coach about this and told me that it’s no problem.”

Chris was utterly shocked.

“Ethan Hunt? The man on par with South Light’s first-in-command and South Light Military’s first-in-command actually needed to ask for a request from the Head Coach?”

Jessie replied righteously, “Of course! That includes one of the Four Gods of War, Bellamy Blake, who's taking office today. We're all soldiers brought up by the Head Coach!"

Chapter 1121

"If there's no Head Coach, there's no us!"

"That's why, Prince Leo. You have to pay attention tomorrow. Don't offend the Head Coach!"

"He has one of the highest status in the heart of Country H. He could easily be one of the Elders in the military if he wanted to!"

"The Leo family cannot afford to offend someone like him."

Chris gasped. He knew that the Head Coach was strong. The man's authority was immense, and the extent of his wealth was no different.

But Chris had no idea that the Head Coach was this incredible!

He then asked, a grave look on his face, "Commander Tate, we're all family here. When the time comes, you have to put in a good word for me."

Chapter 1121

“Whether I can acquire the Head Coach’s support or not solely depends on you.”

Jessie replied with a smile, “Of course. The Leo family is my main house, after all. Pushing you up the ranks is much better than having some outsider gaining the upper hand.”

Obviously, Jessie was no fool. He understood Chris’s true intention in wanting to meet the Head Coach so badly.

Chris laughed at Jessie’s words; he couldn’t wait for tomorrow to come!

“After tomorrow, I’ll be able to trample Quinton York under my feet! The Leo family will be back in the Leos’ hands in the end!”

...

The Robbins family, the Cloude family, and the Yates family all sat together once again.

Callum Robbins and Carson Cloude looked at

Chapter 1121

Grandma Yates, then smiled.

“Congratulations, Grandma Yates. With a company worth one hundred and fifty million dollars in your hand, the Yates family can finally be in the leaderboard of the top rated families!”

The two were quite bitter as they uttered these words.

This was especially true of Carson Cloude, who wore a horrible expression.

Eric Cloude had his limbs shattered and suffered a huge loss because of this affair. Until now, he still remained in a coma. The Yateses had received the biggest benefits out of the entire plan.

Grandma Yates replied with a smile, “I know you two patriarchs have your own opinions about this matter, but we Yateses will definitely give you two a fair statement.”

“Harvey must die, but not now. Tomorrow is the day of the ceremony. It’s better if we don’t cause trouble during this crucial moment.”

Chapter 1122

Chapter 1122

Carson Cloude's face regained some color after hearing Grandma Yates' words.

Callum Robbins smiled.

“Do you have any plans for tomorrow, Grandma Yates?”

Grandma Yates replied, “The Ceremony of Changing Defenses tomorrow will be held in the hall of South Light's government. Aside from Bellamy Blake, the newly appointed first-in-command of South Light's military, Oskar Armstrong and the Head Coach will be attending the ceremony as well.”

“Tomorrow, Keith will arrange everyone's seats. When that happens, whether you two can get support from the Head Coach or not depends on your capabilities.”

Chapter 1122

At these words, Callum and Carson became exhilarated.

They had known about the Head Coach’s legends.

They even went to inquire information from the people in the military to understand the Head Coach’s status.

If they could use this opportunity to meet the Head Coach, then the Robbins family, the Cloude family, and the Yates family would no longer need to rely on anyone else.

“Hmph! When that happens, the Yorks and the Leos will be trampled under our families’ feet!”

They could not wait any longer.

In a secluded manor at a place behind Silver Nimbus Mountain.

Quinton and Stephen York sat in front of each as they played chess.

Chapter 1122

With Quinton's final move, the whole board was covered in black pieces.

Stephen chuckled.

"As expected from you, brother. What a powerful move! Quite effective, indeed."

"Looking at the chessboard, South Light is still under your control, brother."

Quinton replied calmly, "Under my control? I'm afraid not."

"At least South Light will have a change of pace after tomorrow's Ceremony of Changing Defenses."

Quinton's face turned slightly darker at those words. They both knew Harvey's true identity.

Prince York and the Head Coach are the same person, after all.

This fact was the reason Quinton was still a bit uneasy.

Quinton said calmly, "This isn't a bad thing. Someone thinks he can have his own opinions just because they've grown independent."

"After tomorrow, these people will come crawling back to the York family once again."

"That man's waiting for tomorrow, but am I any different?"

The big families aside, it was a sleepless night for the entire Buckwood.

Every family was preparing overnight.

Even government figures kept checking the gifts that they picked on their own.

Tomorrow would be the Head Coach's first official appearance after his retirement from Sword Camp, after all.

Even if they couldn't get support from the Head Coach, people would be envious of them even if they could briefly talk to him.

Chapter 1122

Everyone couldn't wait for the day to come.

The next day, the entire South Light government was extremely busy.

The appointment ceremony for the first-in-command of South Light's military, also known as the Ceremony of Changing Defenses, would be held at ten o'clock in the morning.

The South Light government was in charge of arranging the ceremony itinerary.

Keith Yates was the commander of the entire ceremony. He confirmed that the Head Coach would show up at the Ceremony of Changing Defenses this time, and that Bellamy Blake would be appointed as the new first-in-command of South Light's military. The commander would be doing Bellamy the honors.

Keith was extremely exhilarated.

Because he was in charge of the whole process, he had a clear understanding of every single step.

Chapter 1122

In this case, he could “accidentally” arrange a meeting between Head Coach and Grandma Yates along with the others.

This was truly important for the Yateses. If they could meet the Head Coach, Keith’s rank would skyrocket in an instant!

Thinking about this, Keith was about to drool.

Chapter 1123

Nine o'clock in the morning.

Harvey changed into relatively formal clothes, then woke up Mandy along with the others.

“Dad, Mom, Mandy. You should all wear something formal as well. I'll take you to a place to relax.”

Mandy and the rest were perplexed. However, they did not have to go to work, nor did they have any other place to go to.

Since Harvey asked, they changed into formal clothes and got into the car without asking any more questions.

Soon, Harvey drove in the direction of the new district in Buckwood.

Mandy did not mind. The new district in Buckwood was the newly developed functional area with quite a few government agencies operating there, along with a lot of commercial complexes.

Chapter 1123

She thought that Harvey only wanted to bring her to shop and relax.

Soon after, Mandy felt like something was off.

She saw soldiers with actual firearms standing guard at many intersections.

There were also quite a few luxurious cars driving by, along with huge army-green battlefield buggies.

Everyone was driving in the same direction.

“Maybe there’s a big commercial event?”

Mandy was curious.

“Darling, where exactly are we going?”

Harvey smiled.

“An event. I heard many major figures in Buckwood will attend. Go walk around and relax, maybe you can meet a few people that'll be beneficial for your business in the future.”

Chapter 1123

Harvey was extremely direct. He drove the car to the entrance of a huge building.

Mandy and her family were shocked when they saw their destination.

‘The hall of South Light’s government?’

The place would only open if a grand ceremony was being held.

Every ceremony would only send out a few invitations.

Looking at the sight, a ceremony must be going on in the hall.

‘Harvey didn’t just bring us here because he saw the news on the internet, right?’

Just then, a group of soldiers jogged forward. After saluting respectfully, they proceeded to running their routine inspection.

Chapter 1123

Mandy and her family had never seen an occasion like this. Right now, they trembled in fear.

Normally, a chief inspector was already scary enough for them. Don't mention soldiers that had been on the battlefield!

Mandy and the others all thought that the soldiers came to check for invitations. They closed their eyes, prepared to meet their end.

In their eyes, Harvey definitely didn't have the right to get an invitation here. He only brought them here because he was not thinking straight.

They didn't expect the soldiers to not only not inquire about the invitations, but instead spoke to them respectfully, "Sir. Military vehicles aside, civilian vehicles are only allowed to park in the parking lot outside. You can then walk into the hall."

Harvey nodded, then stopped his car in the parking lot.

Chapter 1123

When Mandy and the others got out of their car, they saw that only Rolls-Royces and Maybachs were parked there.

Their Bentley was not eye-catching at all.

So far, the Bentley was the most expensive possession that Mandy had.

Mandy was relieved they drove the Bentley here and let the soldiers assume that her family still had some status. If not, they might have been immediately kicked out of this place.

Simon and Lilian had calmed down as well.

They had already experienced the situation the day before, and right now, they were in a gut wrenching state.

Even if they were humiliated and insulted by the media that day, how much worse could it possibly get?

Simon and Lilian walked into the hall curiously.

Chapter 1123

There were not a lot of people. A solemn and serious aura filled the air.

Everyone present was curious about the event that was going to be held that day.

“Hm? It’s you people? Why is your entire family here?”

An astonished voice could be heard from the side.

Mandy and her family turned around and saw the Yateses approaching them with big strides.

Keith Yates was not there, but the person leading the Yateses was Grandma Yates herself.

The person standing besides her was an enchanting woman with dyed brown hair, Phoebe Yates.

She was studying in America before and recently got back two days ago. She was picked up by the Yateses immediately after getting off the plane early in the morning.

Even though Phoebe was beautiful, her thin lips and smokey eyes painted her with a stern appearance.

Chapter 1124

Phoebe smiled and opened her mouth to speak.

“Aren’t you Mandy Zimmer? I heard your entire family got kicked out by Grandma Yates herself! How dare you still show up in a place like this?”

“Is this a place stray dogs like you all should be coming to?”

The Yateses all burst out laughing at Phoebe’s words.

It’s true. Why would stray dogs be present at such a formal occasion?

Today was the Ceremony of Changing Defenses. Nobody without an invitation could enter.

According to Keith, the invitations were not something an ordinary person could acquire.

Rumors said that even the Leos from Hong Kong managed to receive only three whole invitations.

As for why so many members of the Yates family were able to attend, it was because Keith was in charge of everything in this ceremony.

Chapter 1124

He used his public authority for private gains. It was how he was able to give out enough invitations for so many of his own people.

Mandy and her family were a bunch of street rats, insulted and beaten up by people, no more than a bunch of stray dogs. What right did they have to come here?

A member from the Yates family demanded, "I heard a bunch of cleaners were hired for this ceremony. You all aren't here to work, are you?"

Someone then replied with a disdainful tone, "The entire family's about to go beg for food on the streets. What right do they have to be cleaners here? Hurry up and call Uncle, then tell them to get out!"

"Even looking at them is bad luck!"

Every single one of the Yateses, all dressed in bright and colorful clothing, seemed more vicious than the last time they spoke to Mandy and her family.

Chapter 1124

Lilian glared coldly at Harvey.

‘He said we’re here to relax. But what happened next?’

Their hearts stung even more when they bumped into the Yateses.

Harvey then replied calmly, “Since we’re here, of course it’s to attend the ceremony.”

“Pfft...!”

“Hahahaha...!”

“You’re here to attend the Ceremony of Changing Defenses?”

The Yates family froze briefly before roaring with laughter.

The guest quota for the ceremony was already quite low. Many patriarchs from second and third-rated families couldn't get a single piece of invitation even after begging profusely.

Chapter 1124

Rumors said that even the first-rated family, the Naiswells, were unable to receive an invitation.

Yet this live-in filth, Harvey York, actually said he was here to attend the ceremony?

'Does he even have the right?!'

'What a joke!'

'This entire family is worth nothing! They're poorer than beggars! How dare they show up right now?!'

"Oh my! Isn't this Grandma Yates? You look so refined! What sort of happy occasion did you bump into? Do tell us so we can enjoy the moment together!"

Sounds of laughter echoed from afar. Callum Robbins and Carson Cloude had arrived together.

Grandma Yates grinned.

Callum Robbins stared at Harvey strangely, then burst out laughing once more.

“I’ve always wanted to meet you. Your name’s been echoing in my ears like thunder!”

Carson Cloude, on the other hand, glared at Harvey with cold fury.

Eric Cloude’s limbs were all shattered. Though he wasn’t dead, he was now in a coma.

That was why Carson was unable to know what happened back then. He only knew that Harvey must have someone supporting him, since he was able to escape.

To Carson, this support was most definitely Prince York.

If it was before this, Carson would still fear Prince

Chapter 1125

York. But today was different.

With Keith's arrangements, they could meet the Head Coach.

If they could have the Head Coach's support, why should they remain afraid of Prince York?

What a joke!

Grandma Yates smiled and said, "Patriarchs! It seems Harvey brought his family over to attend the Ceremony of Changing Defenses as well!"

Callum and Carson could not hold in their laughter after listening to Grandma Yates.

"What right does a live-in son-in-law who got kicked out of the family have?"

"Hmph!"

Callum and Carson laughed coldly in unison.

To them, Harvey was only an ant.

He had the status of being Prince York's agent.

Chapter 1125

But the problem was, they weren't even afraid of Prince York! So why should they fear Harvey?

Carson began to speak.

“Grandma Yates, I heard Prince York wasn't invited to the Ceremony of Changing Defenses this time.”

“Right. He's the top man of South Light! How is it that he didn't have the right to attend?”

“I heard someone say that Prince York and the Head Coach are at odds with each other. A soldier the Head Coach trained will be here as the first-in-command of South Light's military force. I'm afraid Prince York's finished!”

“The legendary Prince York is totally useless when compared to the legendary Head Coach!”

All of them fell into lapses of uncontrollable laughter.

This was especially true of Carson, who intentionally approached Harvey and whispered, “

Chapter 1125

Harvey. Prince York can save you once, but he can't save you again."

"After the ceremony, his status in South Light will plummet instantly. When that happens... Hahaha ...!"

Carson stepped away with a thunderous laugh, showing Harvey a gesture of swiping his neck.

Soon after, all of them walked away in derisive titters.

They were elites of high status. Why should they waste time talking to a live-in filth?

Simon and Lilian were utterly flabbergasted.

All of these people represented Buckwood, as well as the entirety of South Light's elite social circle.

In front of such people, Simon and Lilian didn't even have the right to open their mouths.

Besides, they didn't think Harvey would even offend major figures like these. It seemed like their hatred toward Harvey was quite deep, as well.

Still, it was Simon and Lilian's first time knowing who exactly Harvey's rich friend was.

Who was Harvey driving for?

As it turned out, it was Prince York after all!

Harvey was driving for Prince York! No wonder he would occasionally run off his mouth.

As Prince York's trusted subordinate, it was natural of him to do so.

But just like what Carson and the others had said, South Light would change if Prince York wasn't invited to the Ceremony of Changing Defenses held right now.

Without a second thought, Simon sized up Harvey and asked, "Harvey, tell me honestly. Are you driving for Prince York?"

Harvey nodded.

"I'm the one who drives. But if I don't feel like it, he

Chapter 1125

'll get another driver.”

Simon was at loss. If only he knew this fact before, he would definitely be delighted.

He then asked, “Did Prince York get an invitation this time?”

“No.”

Harvey spoke the truth.

Why would Prince York even require an invitation?

Chapter 1126

Chapter 1126

After hearing Harvey's words, the expression on Simon Zimmer's face became even more helpless.

He initially thought that this live-in son-in-law who became someone's driver had started to be a little promising.

However, his master was not even qualified to come to such occasions. It seemed that the master was insignificant and less promising!

Simon did not bother to ask for details as soon as he thought of this.

Instead, he sighed, "As a driver, you're quite capable. I feel that the few chiefs just now couldn't wait to strangle you to death!

"How did you even do it? How could you offend so many people just for being a driver?"

Chapter 1126

Harvey smiled and said, "Father, they're just a bunch of trash. Why do you even care about them? They kneeled instantly when they met Prince York. I assure you, they're just trash."

Simon thought that Harvey was not bragging this time. Instead, he sighed, "I hope Prince York is as capable as you said. Otherwise, you will be in deep trouble."

Lilian Yates also just recovered from the shock. At this moment, she changed the topic and asked, "Harvey, are you going to bring us inside? To participate in what they call the Ceremony of Changing Defenses?"

Mandy Zimmer also looked at Harvey with a doubtful look. Was there any way he could do it?

"Father, Mother, Mandy, since I'm here, I can surely take you inside.

"Basically, all those sergeants know me."

"I see!"

Chapter 1126

Simon and Lilian looked at each other, feeling impressed.

It seemed that Harvey indeed was working as a driver. He must have been attending to such occasions with Prince York.

Otherwise, how could those sergeants know him?

Indeed, Harvey took the three of them into the auditorium without a hitch. Throughout the process, there was also a sergeant who respectfully showed them around.

Seeing this scene, Simon and Lilian felt a little more confident in Prince York.

It seemed that Prince York was still quite influential in South Light after all, not as miserable as Callum Robbins and others said.

They kept walking and stopping along the way while listening to the sergeant introducing the surrounding building landmarks.

It was their first time coming here for Mandy and others. Hence, they were very curious and observed with great interest.

Chapter 1126

Although Harvey was quite familiar with this place, he still accompanied them patiently.

Finally, during the Ceremony of Changing Defenses, Harvey prepared to let the three of them go to the outfield to mingle and socialize with some influential people.

That was his main purpose for bringing Mandy here.

As for the infield of the Ceremony of Changing Defenses, he felt that it would be more appropriate for Mandy not to be there.

This was because there might be bloody scenes there soon after. Harvey did not want Mandy to witness the bloodbath.

On the other side...

Grandma Yates and others entered the infield together. As soon as they were seated, Keith Yates, who was in charge, came over to salute Grandma

Chapter 1126

Yates.

“Keith, did you make a mistake this time? Putting Harvey and Mandy on the guest list?”

Grandma Yates was very observant, that was why she asked one more question at that moment.

Keith shook his head and defensively said, “Impossible. I had perused the name list. Harvey’s name isn’t in it, and so is Mandy and her family.

“Even if their names were on the list, I could still erase them using my power, let alone something like that could never happen.”

“Heh, that’s what I thought...”

The people from the Yates family laughed.

“Then why did their family come outside the auditorium?” Phoebe Yates asked curiously, trying to enquire more details.

“Oh, you mean the periphery of the auditorium? Every time there’s an event, some seats will be released online for ordinary people to visit the periphery. I think they're just lucky enough to get the seats online."

Chapter 1126

The people from the Yates family laughed upon hearing this.

Unexpectedly, this destitute family had some crazy luck.

Chapter 1127

In the infield.

All the guests present at the moment were being seated.

Sheldon Xavier, Kyle Quinlan, Oskar Armstrong, and others were seated in the forefront.

Beside Sheldon was Chris Leo, the Prince of the Leo family from Hong Kong, and Yvonne Xavier.

They were then followed by the first-class families such as the Yates family, the Robbins family, and the Cloude family.

In addition, the first-in-commands of various ministries of the South Light Government had also come.

The first and second-in-command of Buckwood,

Chapter 1127

Yoel Graham and Reign Jackson, and others were also present.

Jessie Tate also came with a respectful look on her face.

Those people were all seated in turn.

Only six seats from the first row were left vacant.

Everyone understood what this meant.

Apart from the newly appointed first-in-command of South Light Military, Commander Bellamy Blake, the remaining four seats would be for the Chief Instructor and the Four Gods of War of the South Light Military.

Those people could stir up the entire exalted circle of South Light even if one of them were to appear randomly.

Not to mention that the myth of the military, the legendary Chief Instructor, was going to be here this time.

Everyone was thrilled.

Chapter 1127

The Chief Instructor had been living a life in seclusion since his retirement. As a result, no one really knew his true identity.

Moreover, it was said that the big boss of the great Country H had always wanted to recruit him to serve as the Chief Instructor of the top nine troops and that he would inherit the position of the Elder of the army in the future.

Such a person, he could certainly be the second most powerful man as long as he was willing to undertake that position!

Who wouldn't be excited if they were able to meet this big shot?

Chris Leo, who claimed to have seen enough of the outside world and met with many monarchs of small countries, was also extremely excited at this moment.

He was shaking all over in excitement.

It was because the significance this time was different from the past!

Chapter 1127

The Chief Instructor would officiate his wedding after the Ceremony of Changing Defenses!

Having the Chief Instructor as the witness, he could undoubtedly become the true heir of the Leo family from Hong Kong!

Moreover, having this relationship with the Xavier family from Wolsing, even if the Leo family from Hong Kong could not become one of the top ten families, they would surely be ranked first in Hong Kong!

To Chris, this would be the most glamorous moment in his life!

Besides, people from other big families were also very excited.

Especially the younger generation, all of them were so exhilarated at the moment.

In Buckwood, even in the entire South Light, very few young people could come to participate in this

Chapter 1127

Ceremony of Changing Defenses!

Those chosen people were destined to take charge of the ups and downs of South Light in the future!

As long as they could get on friendly terms with the Chief Instructor, they would have more experience and capital than their peers!

In the future, there would be a chance to show up in the entire South Light, even in the whole of great Country H!

Therefore, all the people present today were prepping, wanting to get to know the Chief Instructor.

Some of the daughters from big families with heavy make-up, adorning beautiful jewelry, were all holding their heads up high.

It was said that the Chief Instructor was young and was still a bachelor. Therefore, whoever gets his hand in marriage must have saved the galaxy in her previous life!

Chapter 1127

Bellamy, who was in a uniform, appeared in the venue under everyone's anticipatory gaze at this moment.

There was a natural aura in him, giving out a chilling vibe.

Apparently, this person was certainly not comparable to those commanders who could only sit in the office. This person fought his way out on the battlefield and possessed an inherent killer instinct.

Ordinary people could not even stand a gaze from him.

Meanwhile, everyone could not help but stand up. All of them were in awe and had respectful looks on their faces. However, some people lacking confidence felt that they were sweating all over at the moment.

It could not be helped. Bellamy's aura was extraordinary!

Chapter 1128

Chapter 1128

However, Bellamy Blake did not proceed further to take a seat at the moment. Instead, he stood at the side of the entrance of the venue, waiting patiently.

Moments after that, four figures in military uniform walked in.

Leading the way was the leader of the Four Gods of War of South Light Military, the Long Sword Warrior, Ethan Hunt.

Followed by the Magic Sword Warrior, the Short Sword Warrior, and the Falchion Warrior.

The Four Gods of War of the South Light Military Department were here. Their intimidating aura spread across the place. Even Bellamy could not match it.

Even characters like Sheldon Xavier felt his adrenaline pumping upon seeing the arrival of the Four Gods of War.

Chapter 1128

The South Light Military was in the frontline and had been having blood battles with the Far Eastern Countries for many years ceaselessly.

Thus, it can be said that the Four Gods of War had fought with thousands of soldiers.

However, among the Four Gods of War of the South Light Military, the Long Sword Warrior, Ethan Hunt, was the most famous.

The other three Gods of War had always been sitting in and rarely made public appearances.

Meanwhile, the Four Gods of War also did not enter the venue. Instead, they just slightly nodded toward Bellamy. Then, they lined up on both sides and waited quietly.

At this point, everyone knew what this meant. A person with a powerful identity was about to appear.

This person's identity was almost certain!

Chapter 1128

Everyone stood up and stared at the entrance of the venue with bated breath.

Some people did not even dare to breathe. They did not dare to blink their eyes and just stared straight at the front.

Soon, clear footsteps could be heard, and then a figure appeared at the entrance of the venue.

It was just that the distance was too far. So no one could see this person's face.

“Salute!”

Bellamy shouted and took the lead in saluting respectfully.

The Four Gods of War held the hilt of their swords and saluted.

All the sergeants present, their eyes wild with enthusiasm, and then they saluted one after another.

As for that figure, he also bowed back to everyone.

Chapter 1128

Then only he walked to the center of the venue.

The Four Gods of War stayed by his side along the way, guarding him closely.

Other people did not even dare to look up at his face carefully, let alone approach him.

This scene made everyone excited.

The person in front of them was the person who directly changed the great Country H's international status.

Alternatively, it should be said that he was God!

The myth of the military!

A living legend!

This was not just for show!

He single-handedly became the Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp!

He also defeated the Chief Instructor of the five powerful coalition forces on his own.

Chapter 1128

There were too many legends about him. They probably could not finish telling all of them, even if it took three days and three nights.

Looking at this figure, everyone felt that there was a divine golden light in front of their eyes, and they could not look directly at it at all.

At the place where the people from the Yates family were...

Phoebe Yates's heart was trembling while looking at this figure.

She felt that she had hopelessly fallen in love with the Chief Instructor!

Moreover, according to the Yates family's plan, something would happen between her and the Chief Instructor today.

As long as she could be pregnant with the Chief Instructor's child, then she would enjoy that prosperous wealth due to the child!

She could become the Chief Instructor's wife!

Chapter 1128

She would be among the women with the top identities in the great Country H!

Phoebe was about to burst into laughter at this moment.

In her head, millions of miles of mountains and rivers, also billions of wealth, would all be in her charge. The Yates family were destined to become one of the top ten families in the great Country H!

Grandma Yates and others were also glowing with joy. They would be the Chief Instructor's relatives after today!

The title of the top family would come in handy!

To be in the top ten families was the entire Yates family's ambition at this moment. ⑦

Chapter 1129

Chapter 1129

In the other direction, Chris Leo had his head down, but his expression was full of excitement.

He turned his head to look at Yvonne Xavier's beautiful and charming face, imagining the scene where the Chief Instructor would witness their wedding after a while!

That would undoubtedly be the most glorious moment in his life.

Not only could he marry a lady who was as beautiful as a fairy, but he could also get to know this noble person who had the highest status in the great Country H!

At this moment, Chris felt that he had reached the pinnacle of his life!

Chapter 1129

The Robbins family and the Cloude family were equally excited.

Today, they would have the opportunity to meet the Chief Instructor in private as per Keith Yates's arrangement.

If there were a chance, they would surely want to follow the Chief Instructor and become his disciples.

Callum Robbins and Kyle Quinlan were both trembling with happiness at the moment. They were looking forward to that moment.

Soon, Harvey York came to a seat exclusively prepared for him under the protection of the Four Gods of War.

Meanwhile, no one could see his face at all. ①

Everyone could only see his back.

Everyone was already exhilarated just by looking at his back.

At this moment, someone from the Yates family suddenly chuckled and whispered, “Everyone, haven’t you noticed? Prince York of Sky Corporation did not show up.

Chapter 1129

“Even the vice CEO, Ray Hart, didn’t come!

“There are rumors outside stating that Prince York and the Chief Instructor are at odds. Now it seems that the rumors are true after all!”

Grandma Yates whispered, “This shows that we made the right move this time!”

“After this incident, it doesn’t matter even if Harvey, that useless b*stard, is Prince York’s assistant. Would he dare to stand up for Mandy?”

Everyone sneered again and again upon hearing this.

Grandma Yates looked at the Chief Instructor’s figure as if she was looking at her grandson-in-law. Then, she lamented and said, “The Chief Instructor is indeed a living legend!

“I feel a few years younger just by looking at his back!

“Having such a patron saint in the great Country H is a blessing for the country and also the nation!”

The other members of the Yates family snickered because they all knew of Keith’s plan.

Soon, the Chief Instructor would be the grandson-in-law of the Yates family!

This glory would also be related to them.

Meanwhile, Finn Yates suddenly frowned and said, “Grandma Yates, don’t you feel that the Chief Instructor’s figure seems a bit familiar?!”

The location of the Yates family was not that far upfront, at least a dozen meters away from the position of the Chief Instructor. Thus, they could not see him clearly.

After listening to that, Grandma Yates, Kyle, and others also took out their reading glasses and put them on their noses to inspect him carefully.

“Well, this figure does seem familiar. Where have

Chapter 1129

we seen it?”

Grandma Yates was also deep in thought.

“Yes, I feel familiar too. But, why can’t I remember?” Callum and Kyle exchanged glances, both with doubtful looks on their faces.

People like them had better IQs compared to ordinary people and were blessed with good memories.

They certainly would not get it wrong.

Since they felt familiar with it, they must have seen it on some occasion.

Only Phoebe Yates was frowning at the moment, she said coldly with her thin lips, “How could you people have met my future husband? He’s the myth of the military, a living legend. Normally, he won’t have any reason to interact with likes of you!”

Although everyone was dissatisfied, they could not help raising their heads after hearing Phoebe’s words.

Chapter 1129

Phoebe was right!

Who was the Chief Instructor? Everyone surely would not be able to meet him under normal circumstances.

At this moment, Keith, who was at the forefront, gallantly poured a cup of tea for the Chief Instructor.

Although he was the third-in-command of South Light, he did not feel that this behavior would disgrace him. Instead, he looked honored.

Telegram @ChineseNovels

Chapter 1130

Chapter 1130

Originally, they could just arbitrarily arrange a waiter to do such a trivial matter for this kind of thing.

However, Keith Yates decided that he wanted to hold on to this privilege!

He would serve a cup of tea to the Chief Instructor himself to leave a good first impression.

Keith had been training for a long time for this moment.

From the number of walking steps, the frequency of footsteps, the angle at which the body bent, even down to the facial expression, all those details, he had invited the most professional etiquette masters for professional training.

“Practice makes perfect!”

Chapter 1130

Keith had been training specifically for this all night to serve this cup of tea.

Soon, he came to serve the tea to the Chief Instructor with both his hands and held his head down. He then put the tea nicely after saluting.

According to etiquette, Keith should not look up at the Chief Instructor at this moment.

However, he could not hold back his curiosity and wanted to see what his potential future son-in-law looked like.

The moment he looked up!

Plop!

Keith could not stand still and fell straight to the ground, sweating all over.

‘Harvey York?!

‘How could it be Harvey?!

‘Harvey was the Chief Instructor?!

Chapter 1130

'How could that be?!'

Keith was stunned at this moment.

Even if he had encountered countless hardships himself and witnessed the ups and downs of many people, he had never been shocked to this point in his life.

He instantly broke out in a cold sweat at this moment.

Death-like fatigue had taken hold of him. "Ugh, ugh, ugh." He was trying to say something, but only guttural sounds came from his throat.

Ethan Hunt looked at him with disgust. He then stood up, carried him, and dropped him in his place.

However, Keith was in a mindless state, unable to react at all.

This scene shocked the crowd.

"What's wrong with Sir Yates? He seems to be in shock.”

“Was it because he had just peeked at the Chief Instructor’s face and was instantly shocked?”

“It is said that the Chief Instructor was Sirius from heaven. Ordinary people don’t have the right to look directly at his face!”

“Sir Yates didn’t believe it. Now, he’s actually frightened!”

“It seems that he’s out! The other big shots from the South Light Government are so calm. Only he fell straight to the ground!”

There was a low murmuring amongst the crowd.

The complexions of the people of the Yates family were awful. They could not figure out how such a scene could happen.

Grandma Yates was even more stunned. She then bellowed in a low voice, “Trash! How could you commit such a rookie mistake?!”

No one in the field dared to peek at the Chief

Chapter 1130

Instructor's face after such a minor incident.

The Ceremony of Changing Defenses also could not be suspended just because of Keith.

Meanwhile, various documents began to be handed over per the government's procedures, and multiple figures took the stage in turns to give their speeches.

Sure enough, those were not the climax!

The real climax was at the end.

Bellamy Blake walked up to the podium solemnly and waited at the side.

Sheldon also stepped forward and said in a deep voice, "Next, I would like to invite the former Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp. Everyone, salute!"

"Chief Instructor!"

All the sergeants shouted together. Even the admirals and commanders in the army were excited.

Being able to witness the Chief Instructor to decorate Bellamy, such a scene could undoubtedly go down in history.

Chapter 1130

Finally, Harvey, who was sitting in the front row, slowly got up. He then walked forward and came to the podium.

Harvey slowly turned around at this moment.

Meanwhile, many people were shivering with excitement.

They could actually see the Chief Instructor's face.

What a privilege this was!

Chapter 1131

Chapter 1131

“Presumptuous!”

Just when everyone was about to look up and see the Chief Instructor’s face...

Bellamy Blake, who was also standing on the stage, suddenly yelled as if a bolt from the blue.

At this moment, the murderous intent exuding from Bellamy’s body was substantial, prickling many people’s eyes until they were red and teary. They could only hold their heads down at this moment, only daring to rest their gazes on the Chief Instructor’s calf.

Only those admirals and commanders from the army could barely see the Chief Instructor’s face, but they could only roughly look at it, which was unclear.

Chapter 1131

However, no one dared to feel resentful at this moment!

This was because Bellamy did it right!

The Chief Instructor was the myth of the military, a living legend. It was disrespectful to look directly at him on this occasion!

Although the Chief Instructor himself might not care about this, Bellamy, as the Chief Instructor's subordinate, could not allow anyone to blaspheme the deity he admired.

On the stage, Harvey said indifferently, "Bellamy, this is a hall, not the battlefield. Let's put away the murderous intent."

Bellamy quickly saluted and said, "Yes! Chief Instructor!"

As Bellamy withdrew his murderous intent, the atmosphere in the field recovered a little. But, despite that, no one dared to raise their heads in this situation.

Chapter 1131

They already understood that they did not have the right to see the Chief Instructor's face.

Meanwhile, Harvey took out an appointment letter, a medal caved with a dragon, and said in a deep voice, "I declare that from now on Bellamy will be the Commander, the first-in-command of the South Light Military!"

Bellamy kneeled on the ground in excitement upon hearing this appointment!

This was the most glorious moment in his life!

In his mind, Bellamy, who had left the Sword Camp, never thought that he would be decorated by the deity one day.

Harvey put the medal on Bellamy's shoulder collar.

This also meant that from this moment on, Bellamy would protect the country, guarding the gate of South Light.

"The brothers from the Sword Camp are great,"

Chapter 1131

Harvey said with a smile.

“Thank you for the compliment, Chief Instructor!” Bellamy looked excited as if receiving a compliment from Harvey was even more thrilling than being the first-in-command of South Light.

Harvey nodded. He did not leave the stage the first time. Instead, he scanned through the crowd, laughed, and said, “Today, we have a new first-in-command of South Light. This is a good thing!

“A banquet is prepared for everyone outside. Then, everyone can go and have a light meal.

“Moreover, I heard that some people have something to report to me. Come one by one.”

Harvey turned around after speaking.

The Four Gods of War quickly stayed by his side, protecting him.

Ethan gave a glance before he left. Soon, a sergeant from the Sword Camp assisted Keith Yates, who was looking sluggish at the moment and left.

Chapter 1131

“Sir, my father is...” Finn Yates ventured to say.

The sergeant in charge looked back and said coldly, “Keith offended the Chief Instructor and was wounded by his murderous intent. But, unfortunately, he has to go to the military hospital to treat his injuries. It is estimated that it won't heal in a few months.”

“You have to thank the Chief Instructor. If he didn't hold back his murderous intent in time, Keith would already be dead!”

“What?!” Finn was startled.

Although Finn knew that the Chief Instructor was very powerful, he never thought that his father would end up like that just because he had seen a glimpse of the Chief Instructor's face. ①

At this moment, although the people of the Yates family were a little surprised, no one dared to say anything. “Grandma Yates, Uncle has become like this. Will it affect the Yates family's plan?” Phoebe asked worriedly.

Chapter 1131

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1132

Chapter 1132

However, Phoebe Yates's concern was not whether Keith Yates's body could recover.

What she was worried about was whether Keith's arrangements were still of use.

After all, according to the plan, something would happen between her and the Chief Instructor later today.

Kyle Quinlan and Callum Robbins also walked over at that moment with a worried look. "Grandma Yates, with Keith becoming like this, can we still press on with the things arranged by the three families?"

Grandma Yates' complexion was awful. Keith ending up like this was certainly beyond her expectation.

Chapter 1132

However, she was calm and said, "All the things today were arranged by Keith. So, even if he's no longer here, as long as the staff follows the original plan, it won't mess up our plans.

"But now, since we don't have Keith cooperating with us from within the government, we must be careful when we act after this and remember not to provoke the Chief Instructor!"

"Yes, yes, yes. Everything will be done according to your instructions, Grandma Yates!"

Callum and Kyle let out a sigh of relief. It would be fine as long as they could meet the Chief Instructor.

After all, they regarded the Chief Instructor as their last resort.

On the other side, Chris Leo stood up at the moment and looked at Sheldon Xavier, who was seated right next to him. Then, he said, "Sir Xavier, I have entrusted our members of the Leo family in the army to consult with the Chief Instructor previously!

Chapter 1132

“The Chief Instructor agrees to be the witness to both Miss Xavier and me.”

“The time has come. Please!”

Chris felt complacent at the moment.

Sheldon wanted to say something but finally sighed.

On the contrary, Yvonne stood up pointlessly. Since she was sitting in the first row, she could barely see the outline of the figure.

She was too familiar with that silhouette. Even if she did not see the face, but she was very sure that this was the person that she had missed terribly.

However, why would that person agree to be her and Chris' witness?

Could it be that he was afraid of the Leo family from Hong Kong?

Nevertheless, judging from today's scene, his status in the great Country H was still great.

Chapter 1132

Why would he do such a thing?

Yvonne was perplexed at that moment. She and Chris walked to the reception room entrance under the push of the members of the Xavier family.

“Come in!”

An indifferent voice came from the reception room.

Chris and Yvonne entered the room together.

Meanwhile, Chris did not dare to raise his head at all. Instead, he just held a carefully selected gift in both of his hands. He then bowed and said, “Nice to meet you, Chief Instructor! I’m Chris Leo from the Leo family from Hong Kong!

“I’ve prepared a small gift for you today. Please accept it!”

“Presumptuous!”

Ethan Hunt, who was on the side, looked cold.

Chapter 1132

“Bringing this kind of thing to insult the Chief Instructor? Do you want to die?”

Chris’s knee softened, and he almost kneeled after hearing Ethan’s words.

He quickly bowed ninety degrees. He broke out in a cold sweat and said, “I don’t dare to do it. I feel regretful for requesting the Chief Instructor to be our witness, so I offered a small gift!”

At this moment, Chris regretted it to the extreme.

If he had known that the Chief Instructor was such a majesty, then he would not prepare anything.

This was because such a big shot was unparalleled in both power and wealth. So, how could he lack a little wealth?

Since he had requested to come, all he needed to bring was the loyalty and filial piety of the Leo family from Hong Kong.

The moment Chris’s back was wet with cold sweat,

Chapter 1132

Harvey York, who was sitting on the sofa, said in an indifferent tone, "It's you, the one who wanted me to be your witness?"

"Moreover, you want me to witness you marrying my woman?!"

Chris was taken aback for a moment after hearing this. He then unconsciously raised his head.

However, his face changed wildly when he saw that person's face. His face turned pale with fright.

Pow!

At this moment, Chris, who was initially bowing, immediately went down on his knees. 9

Chapter 1133

Chapter 1133

'Harvey York!

'The Chief Instructor was Harvey?!

'Harvey was the legendary Chief Instructor?!'

He could not believe in this truth even if he was beaten to death.

Moreover, he requested the Chief Instructor to be his witness?!

Most importantly, this woman was actually the Chief Instructor's woman?!

What a joke!

This was simply the biggest joke in the world!

Meanwhile, Chris Leo was trembling all over, and he almost fainted.

Chapter 1133

“Impossible! How could he be Harvey?!”

“I don’t believe it. It must be an illusion!”

The current Chris Leo could not accept the facts before him. Even if he saw the scene before him, he still could not believe it.

As for Yvonne, she was surprised.

It was not Harvey’s identity that she was surprised because she had already known about that.

What made her surprised at this moment was hearing Harvey saying the two words “my woman”. 1

Meanwhile, Harvey said indifferently, “Let Sir Xavier come in. He also needs to give me an explanation on this matter.”

Soon, Sheldon Xavier walked in. Once he saw Chris kneeling on the ground, his expression became complicated, but still, he quickly bowed. “Good to see you, Chief Instructor! Prince York!”

Boom!!!

Chapter 1133

Chris was going crazy as if he was struck by lightning after hearing Sheldon's words!

Moreover, he was not stupid. There was already a bit of speculation at this moment.

Harvey, Prince York, the Chief Instructor!

Those three identities were basically the same person!

That was why people who offended Harvey had always ended up badly!

That was why Prince York was not invited today!

That was why people like Melissa Leo had to retreat and go to Hong Kong!

Harvey was the Chief Instructor!

Who could handle this?!

Remembering when he had deliberately said to Harvey in the western restaurant...

Remembering when Harvey told him to kneel and apologize when they were at the airport, otherwise, the Leo family from Hong Kong would not exist...

Chapter 1133

Chris finally figured out everything at this moment. The Chief Instructor had been giving him second chances.

However, he did not cherish it.

He even tried to get away with it, wanting to get to know the Chief Instructor to obtain higher status and power.

Meanwhile, Chris spewed out a mouthful of blood. His body kneeling on the ground was faltering.

“Elder Xavier, so how will you explain this?”

Harvey temporarily ignored Chris, who was kneeling on the ground, and spoke coldly.

Sheldon sighed and only said after a long time, “From today onward, the Xavier family won’t force Yvonne to do anything. Whichever member has forced Yvonne before will be severely punished.”

“That’s not enough.” Harvey said indifferently, “

Chapter 1133

From today onward, Yvonne will take charge of the Xavier family. Whoever is unconvinced, let him come to me.”

Just by a sentence, he had pronounced the fate of the Xavier family of South Light.

“Yes!” Sheldon did not dare to argue at that moment, even if he was the first-in-command of South Light.

This was because he knew very well that if he had not had this identity, the first-in-command, he would even have the chance to stand in front of this person right now.

He could only kneel!

“As for the Leo family from Hong Kong, keep your hands out of South Light, or do you want me to help you?” Harvey said indifferently.

Chris trembled after hearing this.

It was over. The Leo family from Hong Kong had been plotting in South Light for many years.

Chapter 1133

Finally, however, everything was over following the words from the Chief Instructor!

The Leo family from Hong Kong must give up everything in South Light because that was the best ending.

“I won’t kill you because I want you to send a message. Tell Melissa I’ll go to Hong Kong to find her soon!

“Now, get lost!”

After this sentence was being said, Chris felt as if he got the pardon. He immediately ran and fled the scene at the moment.

Chapter 1134

Chapter 1134

After settling Chris Leo and sending Sheldon Xavier away, Harvey stood up, smiled, and said, "Yvonne, the matter is resolved. You can concentrate on your work in the future."

Yvonne Xavier's expression was complicated. She then smiled after a while. "My dear CEO, you have to be responsible for what you have said. I'll wait for you at Sky Corporation."

She then left after speaking.

Harvey reached out his hand and scratched his head.

This time, he had to speak like this to let Yvonne completely get rid of the shackles of the Xavier family.

However, it seemed that he got himself involved too.

Chapter 1134

'Forget it,' He did not want to think about that at the moment.

Harvey sat down again and said coldly, "Let the people from the Robbins family and the Cloude family come in together."

After a while, Callum and Kyle were "invited" to come in.

The two of them almost fainted in fright the moment they saw Harvey's face.

"Harvey is the Chief Instructor?!"

The two ruthless chiefs looked pale at the moment.

"We aren't dreaming, right?"

"Isn't this the live-in son-in-law, Harvey York?"

"Quinton York is busting us!"

Callum and Kyle were about to go crazy at this moment.

The live-in son-in-law, who was utterly despised by them, transformed into the unrivaled Chief Instructor in the world!

Chapter 1134

This was the myth of the military!

A living legend!

It was unimaginable!

They could not imagine it either!

Harvey said coldly, "I'm sorry for the scare. I'm the Chief Instructor."

Boom!

Callum and Kyle's legs instantly softened. They both kneeled on the ground at the same time.

"The Robbins family, the Cloude family, I have no qualms with your families. But you have hired the mercenaries on the border to kill me. How should I punish you?!"

Harvey said it in a cold voice.

"This, this, this..."

Chapter 1134

Kyle and Callum wanted to say that Quinton York was the mastermind behind all those and presided over them.

However, they could not say a word while facing Harvey's indifferent eyes.

This was because they understood.

The Chief Instructor knew!

The Chief Instructor knew everything!

There was no point in arguing in front of the Chief Instructor.

“The Robbins family and the Cloude family should retreat and go into seclusion from now on!

“Those who were involved that day should report to the police station by themselves tomorrow.

“As for the two of you, you should die for it.”

Boom...

Kyle and Callum's faces were pale, and they broke out in a cold sweat.

Chapter 1134

Nonetheless, they knew very well that the Chief Instructor had been showing mercy to them.

Otherwise, their entire families would have been executed with the charge of assassinating the Chief Instructor!

Meanwhile, the two slowly groveled on the ground and said in unison, "Thank you for your kindness, Chief Instructor!"

No one had expected that the two biggest first-class families in South Light disappeared in just a few words.

After those two were taken away by the sergeants, Harvey said calmly, "The Yates family, I wonder what sort of show have they prepared for me?"

Ethan Hunt, who was on the side, smiled and said, "Chief Instructor, Keith had already confessed everything!

"He arranged a decoction for you in the cup of tea

Chapter 1134

he served just now.

“The Yates family’s goal is to let their daughter, Phoebe, be pregnant with your child. Then they could enjoy prosperous wealth because of the child!”

The sergeants in the reception room got angry after hearing this. The people from the Yates family certainly knew no limits!”

This was a blasphemy against the deity in their hearts!

Harvey said indifferently, “I’ll handle the Yates family’s affairs by myself. They still owe my wife a lot of things.

“Taking them down right now is too merciful for them.

“To the public, state that Keith Yates was seriously injured and could not go out in a short time. Inform the Yates family that I’m responsible, and I would certainly pay a visit to them if I have the opportunity!” Harvey looked cold.

Chapter 1134

Chapter 1135

Soon, it had caused a commotion outside.

Although Keith Yates was seriously injured, he needed to be hospitalized in the military hospital for a long time due to his irreverence toward the Chief Instructor...

However, the Chief Instructor expressed his apologies to the Yates family and said that he would visit them soon.

Suddenly, the Yates family became the most sought-after!

Although they temporarily lost the third-in-command of South Light, the Yates family finally got in touch with the Chief Instructor.

What an honor this was!

Grandma Yates quickly made a decision. She then pulled the people from the Yates family to the corner and said in a deep voice, "It seems that the previous arrangement by Keith has failed. Therefore, we can't follow through with the original plan!

Chapter 1135

"But it doesn't matter. The Chief Instructor would certainly come to visit us soon!

"At that time, we'll think of a way to let him drink the decoction. Then it'll be done. He certainly couldn't deny it!"

After hearing what Grandma Yates said, smiles appeared on the Yates family members' faces.

The previous plan was to find a way to let Phoebe be pregnant with the Chief Instructor's child and that they would enjoy the prosperous wealth using the child.

However, it was different now.

Now, as long as the Chief Instructor came to visit, they would let Phoebe sleep with him. In this case, even if she was not pregnant, the Chief Instructor could not dump her, right?

Chapter 1135

Comparing the two plans, the second one was surely more simple, direct, and effective.

Most importantly, Keith was not present. Thus, the first plan could not be executed.

This grand event ended with many of the upper-class society flattering and praising the Yates family.

It was as if the Yates family had gained the most from this grand event.

Subsequently, the news about the changes in South Light came out!

The Leo family from Hong Kong abandoned all the properties within an hour and had returned to Hong Kong.

The Robbins family and the Cloude family were utterly ruined.

Nearly half of the family went to jail.

Chapter 1135

The two chiefs had committed suicide at their residences!

There were originally six first-class families in Buckwood, but the Naiswells and the Yates family were the only ones still standing!

Harvey York changed back to his casual clothes after everything was over, and Bellamy Blake followed him.

Soon, they found Mandy Zimmer and her family, who were about to leave.

“What a big scene today. I heard that the Chief Instructor has come and decorated the newly appointed first-in-command of South Light Military. Although we couldn't go inside, it's still an honor!”

Simon Zimmer was in a good mood at the moment. After all, Harvey brought him to such a marvelous occasion. He could brag about this in front of his friends in the future.

Chapter 1135

Harvey smiled and said, "Come, Father, Mother, let me introduce you. This is my friend, Bellamy Blake. We could be here today, all thanks to him."

Simon and Lilian Yates looked at Bellamy carefully. They could sense that he should be a member of the military from his temperament.

The two of them lamented at this moment.

Since Harvey became Prince York's driver, everything had changed.

He actually got to know people from the military!

He did have some ambition!

"May I know what position are you holding, Sir?"

Simon asked cautiously.

Bellamy chuckled and said, "I'm a Commander. It's just a joke in front of Sir York!"

Simon did not know much about the positions in the military. However, he nodded and said politely at the moment, “You’re young and promising!”

Chapter 1135

In truth, he felt that this guy probably did not have a high status either since he addressed Harvey as Sir York.

Then, Bellamy invited them to have a meal in the small cafeteria.

Simon and Lilian did not know that only big shots from the military or the government could enter this small cafeteria.

They thought they could only enjoy their meal here rather than the venue due to Bellamy’s insufficient status.

However, even so, they were more than delighted.

On the way out, Simon looked at Harvey and said, “You did a good job today. You’re very motivated. You should behave like this in the future.

Understand?” Simon’s expression was like he was teaching Harvey a lesson.

Chapter 1136

Chapter 1136

Harvey smiled. "If Father likes this kind of occasion, I'll bring you out more often to see the world if there are more similar opportunities in the future."

"Very good, very good!" Simon Zimmer was delighted to see the son-in-law become ambitious.

Meanwhile, Mandy Zimmer was holding the phone. She suddenly gasped and said, "There's a big problem!"

"What's the matter?" Everyone looked at her. What was so shocking?

Mandy said tremblingly, "Chris Leo from the Leo family from Hong Kong suddenly announced that he would abandon all the properties they have in South Light and return to Hong Kong."

Chapter 1136

“The chiefs of the two first-class families, the Robbins family and the Cloude family, committed suicide. Also, the core members of the family have just turned themselves in at the police station!”

“The Chief Instructor stated that he would visit the Yates family soon!”

Three big pieces of news.

For the first two news, Simon and Lilian Yates were shocked at best.

However, their complexions instantly became awful when they heard the third news.

They never thought that the Yates family would have such an honor!

Especially when the big families such as the Yorks, the Cloude family, the Robbins family, the Surrey family, and the Silva family were all falling apart today.

Buckwood or even the entire South Light had become a vast blue ocean market.

Chapter 1136

In spite of that, the Yates family could still get in contact with the Chief Instructor under such circumstances.

Then, the Yates family might soon be the only top family in South Light!

As for Simon and others who the Yates family drove out, the more the Yates family developed, the more uncomfortable they would be.

In the future, there would be no place for them in the entire South Light.

“We’re finished!”

Simon’s eyes faded, and he did not know what to say.

The rise of the Yates family was equivalent to humiliating their family on the pillory!

When everyone talked about the Yates family, they would also mention their family.

Chapter 1136

Their family might become the biggest joke in the entire Buckwood and even in the whole of South Light.

At this moment, Simon suddenly found that Harvey's face was full of smiles. He could not help saying, "Harvey, why are you smiling?"

Harvey smiled and said, "Father, I just heard Bellamy saying that Chris Leo, Callum Robbins, and Kyle Quinlan were all called to the reception room by the Chief Instructor. They were ruined after they came out!

"And now the Chief Instructor wants to pay a visit to the Yates family. Do you think that will be a good thing?"

"My guess is, the day the Chief Instructor visits them would be the day the Yates family will be completely ruined!"

Simon shook his head and said after hearing Harvey's words, "These people offended the Chief

Chapter 1136

Instructor and collapsed. That is normal.

“But the Yates family is aristocratic. Moreover, Keith Yates is brilliant. How would he possibly offend the Chief Instructor?”

“I guess it might be Keith’s conspiracy, pretending to faint and enter the military hospital. He just wants to get closer to the Chief Instructor!”

“Maybe he still wants the Chief Instructor to be his grandson-in-law!”

Apparently, Simon, who had been in Buckwood for many years, still knew so little about Keith’s temperament.

Harvey smiled and said, “He must have thought about that, but things might not develop according to his imagination!”

“Father, Mother, we’ll just wait and see what happens to the Yates family.

“But I believe, the Chief Instructor would never let this kind of impersonal and brusque family go!”

Chapter 1136

“I hope so!” Simon and Lilian exchanged glances. Both of them let out a huge sigh.

They could only pin their hopes in Harvey's words now.

This was because they were terrified that the Yates family would rise, then everything would be over.

Their family would not even have a place to beg for food in the future. 4

Chapter 1137

Chapter 1137

Due to the sudden collapse of the Robbins family and the Cloude family, the Leo family from Hong Kong had wholly given up the South Light Market.

South Light Market became empty overnight.

This was a huge piece of pie, and everyone wanted to take a slice out of it.

Suddenly, the big bosses from afar such as Wolsing, Mordu, and Golden Sands kept their eyes on this fertile land of Buckwood.

At the same time, Sky Corporation began to expand its scale, instantly consuming the assets of those three families in South Light and started to occupy the market.

However, even for Buckwood itself, the market was too big. It could not be devoured overnight.

Chapter 1137

It could only be said that many things were happening, and it made things quite complicated.

Yvonne Xavier was so busy as soon as she returned to the group. She initially wanted to settle accounts with Harvey York, but there was no time for that now.

She was an ambitious woman, which was also why Harvey could safely entrust Sky Corporation to her.

In the meantime, Shane Naiswell from the Naiswells received a call.

Harvey invited him to participate in this market segmentation operation.

Shane had never thought of it. The Naiswells, ranked the last among the original top six first-class families, was now about to become the strongest family in Buckwood.

However, on the one hand, Harvey did it for Rosalie Naiswell's sake.

On the other hand, it was to quickly stabilize the market in Buckwood, to have time to deal with the entire South Light Market.

Chapter 1137

At the same time, Harvey also prepared to let Mandy Zimmer rise rapidly.

Now that there was a void in the market in Buckwood, there were too many rooms to utilize and grow.

In terms of Mandy's ability, it was surely possible for her to create a huge group within three months.

On the east coast of Buckwood.

A boat slowly docked.

Then, a group of men in black suits soon walked out, putting their hands on their sides and making a path.

Quinton York and Stephen York walked up slowly. Another person was seen kneeling on the boat.

The Prince of the Leo family from Hong Kong, Chris

Chapter 1137

Leo!

It was just that the current Chris had long lost his vigorous appearance in the past. Instead, his face was pale, and his whole body was trembling.

His face was full of fear the moment he saw Quinton York. He then started to grovel continuously in the next moment.

“Chief Instructor, I was wrong! I don’t dare anymore!”

Quinton’s face was a little similar to Harvey’s. Now, Chris had certainly mistaken him for Harvey.

Quinton squatted down, lifted Chris’s chin, and looked at him for a while. He could only see Chris smiling blankly and was drooling all over his face.

Stephen, who was on the side, said indifferently, “Second Brother, you don’t have to look. It’s been like this since he left the auditorium. He’s frightened by that person.

“I heard that he actually asked that person to witness Yvonne Xavier and his wedding!”

Chapter 1137

At this point, Stephen let out a sneer.

Quinton stood up and said indifferently, “Stephen, this trash, Chris, is unmatched to that man’s scheming methods.”

“Even those two losers, Callum and Kyle, were so scared of him that they committed suicide.

“The Chief Instructor from the Sword Camp, a well-deserved reputation!”

Quinton looked at the brilliantly illuminated city of Buckwood not far behind him, with fear in his eyes.

“Second Brother, what should we do next?”

Stephen leaned and asked.

“Next, the big bosses from Wolsing, Mordu. Golden Sands and other places will surely gather in Buckwood.

“Even the top ten families may appear.

“You stay in Buckwood temporarily. Wait for a chance, but don't simply show yourself.

Chapter 1137

“I'll return to Hong Kong to integrate the power of the Leo family. Next time, I shall not lose!”

Chapter 1138

Chapter 1138

The next day.

Now in the entire Buckwood, the one in the prime was undoubtedly the Yates family.

At least it was like that in their eyes.

They had just obtained so many assets and equity from Mandy Zimmer now that all the big families in Buckwood had fallen.

It could be said that the room for the Yates family to utilize and grow was too big!

This was a very rare opportunity!

To be at the right time, in the right place, and with the right people. Almost all of them were in the Yates family.

As long as the Yates family worked diligently, it was not a dream to become a group with an annual output value of 10 billion or even 100 billion.

Chapter 1138

“Mother, our luck has certainly turned for the better after driving out Lilian and her family!”

Leyton Luv burst into laughter at this moment. Although he was the son-in-law of the Yates family, he was about to be the self-proclaimed live-in son-in-law at the moment.

No one could not do anything since the Yates family was too amazing now!

Since he was in the Yates family, of course, he must find a way to move up to higher positions.

He was just a vice CEO right now. However, with the current power of the Yates family, he could easily become the CEO as long as Grandma Yates was willing to speak for him.

Finn Yates also had a smile on his face. He initially thought he would spend a few years in the position of the third-in-command in the Buckwood Police Station.

Chapter 1138

Now it seemed that he would be able to be exceptionally promoted. Thus, there shouldn't be any problem for him to be the first-in-command of the Buckwood Police Station in two days.

“God bless the Yates family!”

“The Yates family will be the top of South Light as long as we work harder!”

“With the help from the Chief Instructor, it isn't difficult to trample on Prince York with the soles of our feet!”

“From now on, we, the Yates family, might even be the king of South Light!”

“Even the first-in-command of South Light will have to act looking at our face!”

The group of people from the Yates family was thrilled since they had been continuously receiving good news. But, unfortunately, this had made the Yates family blindly arrogant and cocky.

Chapter 1138

They could not see the reality at all.

In their eyes, the Yates family was mighty and powerful!

“Grandma Yates, something has happened!”

At this moment, Ben Yates from the Yates family rushed in.

He was Finn’s cousin, initially developing overseas, and had just come back two days ago.

The Yates family had high hopes for him, hoping that he could succeed in the business world.

Grandma Yates frowned and said, “What’s the panic? Have you lost all decency?!”

“Don’t you know that the Yates family will soon be the top of South Light?”

“If others saw you being so flustered, they would think that the Yates family would never make it!”

Grandma Yates was very dissatisfied with Ben’s panic?

Chapter 1138

“Speak slowly. What happened?” Grandma Yates spoke patiently.

“Grandmother, I don’t know what’s going on. First, I arrived at the company and announced my appointment as the new CEO today. Then, suddenly, a large number of employees resigned, and several of them were from the managerial level!

“As soon as these people resign, the entire company will be almost in a state of suspension!

“I don’t even know how much the company’s assets are now!

“Grandmother, we’re in deep trouble!”

Chapter 1139

Chapter 1139

“What? We, the Yates family, are so hot at the moment. And still, some people resigned from the company under the Yates family?”

Grandma Yates and others could not believe it.

Did those people not understand how strong the Yates family would be next?

Why did they resign right this time?

They were certainly not showing respect to the Yates family!

Most importantly, those who resigned were the core personnel of Silver Nimbus Enterprise.

Once they left, the entire Silver Nimbus Enterprise would be in a state of suspension.

Just when Grandma Yates was frowning...

Chapter 1139

Suddenly, Ben Yates' mobile phone rang again.

“What? A few senior executives have resigned? Even you, the personnel executive, also want to resign? Making this call is only to show me some respect?”

Ben was shocked.

Just when he hung up the phone, the phone rang again.

“What? The construction team of Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort announces the withdrawal of cooperation with us?”

“What? Even the guard dog at the gate had broken the dog chain and ran away?”

Ben was dumbfounded. It was hard to imagine that so many things would happen that morning.

There was no need for Ben to report this time.

Chapter 1139

Grandma Yates already knew the gravity of the situation.

The Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project is the lifeline of Silver Nimbus Enterprise.

Silver Nimbus Enterprise would be over once the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project was ruined.

“Grandma Yates, hurry up and think of a solution. The most terrifying thing now is that those who have already purchased the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort villas will come and ask for a check-out!

“According to the contract, if they come to check-out, we may have to bear three times the compensation!”

Meanwhile, Ben’s phone rang again.

This time, Ben got on the phone in a hurry.

“What?! Someone took the lead and smashed the sales office, saying that Silver Nimbus Enterprise was suspected of fraud. So now that the construction team has run away, they must go through the check-out refund procedure as soon as possible?”

Chapter 1139

The things that they were most worried about were coming at them at this moment.

Ben was on the brink of collapse the moment he received this call.

He learned business management overseas.

However, when had he encountered such a mess?

All that transpired was simply impossible to clear up.

The problems broke out one after another. Finally, Ben was on the brink of a meltdown.

Meanwhile, Sky Corporation gave Grandma Yates a call.

“Hello, Grandma Yates. I’m the representative of the investment department of Sky Corporation.

“Recently, I heard that Silver Nimbus Enterprise, under Sky Corporation, has changed the person in charge?

Chapter 1139

“Besides, all the company’s executives have left, and even the company’s project has been suspended?”

“Madam Yates, remember, although we have invested in your company, we have also signed a bet-on agreement with your company.

“If the company’s profit cannot reach hundred percent within half a year, we will unconditionally take back all the equity in your hands!

“Other than that, you have to compensate Sky Corporation 156 million!

“We’ll send someone to discuss this matter shortly. Please be prepared by then!”

The other party hung up after speaking.

However, Grandma Yates shuddered in fright.

A bet-on agreement?!

Chapter 1139

Mandy Zimmer, that trash actually signed a bet-on agreement with Sky Corporation?!

“Check! Go and check it out quickly. See what’s going on!

“Why has a company with billions of dollars’ worth become such a mess in our hands?!”

Grandma Yates was furious at the moment.

It was supposed to be the highlight moment for the Yates family now. However, why did she feel that the Yates family was facing an existential crisis?

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1140

Chapter 1140

Soon, the people from the Yates family went out together and finally managed to find out what happened.

“It turns out that Mandy Zimmer has blindly invested a lot of money to speed up the progress of the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort project!”

“Now that there is no money in the company account. Those executives resigned because they didn't get their salaries this month!”

“The construction team didn't get the monthly payment. So naturally, they stopped working too!”

“Also, rumors outside are spreading that Silver Nimbus Enterprise is in debt. So, those who bought the villas come and forcefully request to check-out!”

Chapter 1140

“As for the bet-on agreement, it truly exists. Mandy signed it with Sky Corporation in the name of the company. It is said that this is a condition for her to become the CEO!”

“In short, it’s all because of Mandy!”

“This little b*tch actually threw a low ball to the Yates family!”

“We even thought that we got a bargain!”

After clarifying the things, all the Yates family were furious.

At this time, a Mercedes-Benz Maybach arrived at the Yates family’s house.

A few serious-looking men in suits and leather shoes walked in.

“Excuse me, is the person in charge of the Yates family here?”

“I am. And you are...” Grandma Yates felt that something was not right, but she had to step forward.

Chapter 1140

“Nice to meet you, so this is the case. According to the contract, you should bank in 31 million dollars, which is the ten-year rent of the office building into our account. But until now, we have not received the rent!”

“Please deposit the money into our account within three days!

“Otherwise, we may only be forced to clear the place!

“In addition, if you breach the contract, you need to pay ten times the amount of the damages as a penalty. This is a pleading written by our lawyer. You can have a look first!”

Those people put down some documents and left.

Grandma Yates picked up the documents tremblingly and took a few glances at them. Then, suddenly, she felt dizzy and almost fainted.

Chapter 1140

The documents indicated that Silver Nimbus Enterprise had not yet paid the rent. According to the agreement, if the rent were not paid on time, they would have to compensate ten times the liquidated damages, which was 31 million dollars!

Grandma Yates was so scared that she fell to the ground.

Other members of the Yates family were left reeling after they had read the documents. All of them were about to go crazy.

Mandy had not even paid the rent for the office building!

This brat certainly caused them so many nuisances!

Things were not over yet.

After a while, someone came to their house again.

“This is the Yates family, right? We’re the representatives of the small and medium shareholders of Silver Nimbus Enterprise.

Chapter 1140

According to our previous agreement, we have the right to request withdrawal of shares in the event of operational risks in the company!

“We request that our 78 million worth of shares be returned to us within three days!

“Or else, we’ll see each other in court!”

The people from the Yates family were about to vomit blood when they heard this.

Those people came and requested several million. So, adding up all those numbers, how much was it now?

What was the market value of Silver Nimbus Enterprise?

How come the total amount of money that those debt collectors wanted exceed the value of Silver Nimbus Enterprise?

“No, this is an agreement between you and Mandy Zimmer. Why does it have anything to do with the Yates family?”

Chapter 1140

The people from the Yates family argued immediately!

“Heh, you, the Yates family, are now shareholders of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, and Ben Yates is the new CEO. So, of course, we should come to you for matters such as these!”

“Yes, does this have anything to do with Miss Zimmer?”

“Quickly return the money. Otherwise, we’ll see each other in court!”

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1141

Chapter 1141

Finally, the small and medium shareholders agreed to give the Yates family a few days to raise funds after the family had run their mouths dry.

As a result, the Yates family needed to pay a hefty amount of liquidated damage since they were only given a few days' time. The total amount that they needed to pay was seven million and eight hundred thousand dollars.

Although the Yates family was numb in the head at that moment, they agreed to the price to solve the crisis in front of their eyes.

When the small and medium shareholders had left, the Yates family was dead silent.

Everyone had cold sweat dripping down their faces. Their expressions were utterly horrible.

Chapter 1141

Right when they all thought that all of it was over, a dozen pickup trucks suddenly stopped outside.

Soon after, a bunch of roguishly looking gangsters immediately rushed inside.

They were the suppliers of the building material all along.

The gangsters only came because there was a payment overdue for a few days already.

“Pay up already!

“We need you to settle the payment for the building materials right now! If not, we’ll destroy the entire Yates family house!”

All the suppliers brought at least a dozen tall and strong construction workers, surrounding the entire Yates family.

If the people who came before were considered courteous, then every single gangster that came afterward looked more brutal than the last.

Chapter 1141

Ben Yates walked forward while suppressing his fear.

“Everyone, Mandy is the one that owes you money. Look for her instead. We have nothing to do with her!”

“Heh, I know that you’re the new CEO of the Silver Nimbus Enterprise! Our contract is signed with the Silver Nimbus Enterprise, so why are we looking for anyone else? Do you really think that we’re idiots?”

“And the Yates family had already cut all ties with Mrs. Zimmer and her family. What does this have to do with them?”

“Hurry up and pay the bills! If not, we’ll wreck your house!”

All the suppliers looked furious.

At this moment, Finn Yates walked out and coldly replied, “Get out of here right now! You should all know that I’m the third-in-command of the Buckwood Police Station. If you don’t leave right now, I'll throw all of you behind bars!"

Chapter 1141

All the suppliers chuckled in a cold tone.

Someone then loudly exclaimed, "Take us in then! Take us in if you dare! I'm guessing that you don't want your job anymore!"

"A life for a life! Payback for what's owed! It's the law of the world! Don't think that you can get away with debt just because your family's from the government!"

"Brothers, let's head to the Buckwood Police Station if the Yates family doesn't pay their debt. No, we'll tow banners in front of the government of Buckwood!"

All of the suppliers were gangsters, after all. If they weren't in the wrong, why would they even be scared?

Even if the police detained them, how could they stay behind bars if they did not do anything wrong?

The most important thing was that the Yates family did owe those people money!

Chapter 1141

Finn was even foolishly using his status as the third-in-command of Buckwood Police Station to pressure people now. If the matter were to escalate, it would almost be impossible for him to keep his position.

At this moment, Leyton Luv then swiftly walked forward and blocked Finn behind his back.

“Finn, your father’s still admitted in the military hospital. We don’t have anybody in South Light’s government right now.

“If things were to escalate, for you to lose your position is just a trivial matter. The people might even find out that there’s something wrong with the Yates family!”

“When that happens, there will be big trouble if the people shove the family down!”

Finn’s expression had turned slightly worse after hearing Leyton’s words.

Chapter 1141

If the outsiders knew of this affair, the Yates family might even turn into Buckwood's biggest laughing stock.

The top-rated family?

Which top-rated family would even have this much debt on their heads?

“So, what do we do now?”

Finn's expression was extremely horrible.

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1142

Chapter 1142

“Apologize! And then repay the debt!” Leyton Luv said while gritting his teeth.

How would Finn Yates even be willing?

He was the third-in-command of the Buckwood Police Station, after all. It would be too embarrassing for him to bow and apologize to those lowly suppliers.

At this moment, Grandma Yates walked forward with an ugly scowl on her face.

“Finn, there’ll be big trouble if you won’t solve the small ones. Go and apologize right now!”

“Ben, take out everything from our accounts and pay off the debts immediately!”

Finn and Ben Yates were not willing at all.

Chapter 1142

But Grandma Yates' expression at that moment was as cold as ice. They had no choice but to do it.

Finally, Finn gritted on his teeth and bowed to apologize to the suppliers.

Ben, on the other hand, went and took out thousands of dollars from the Yates family's bank account. They even had to mortgage a few of their cars to acquire a million and five hundred thousand dollars to pay off the supplies.

All the suppliers had left after they counted the money once in front of the Yates family.

But before they went out, a supplier turned around and said, "Right, I forgot to tell you, we'll continue to send the supplies to the construction site for another month according to the contract. You better remember to pay up on time!"

The Yates family's expressions all turned as dark as night upon hearing those words.

Ben furiously exclaimed, "The construction site already stopped working. Why do we even need your supplies?”

Chapter 1142

The supplier chuckled coldly.

“What does it have to do with us? After all, everything is according to the contract. We’ll start towing banners in front of the government of Buckwood if you don’t pay up the next time!”

“Yeah! Beggars can’t be bankrupt anyway!”

“Don’t you have a third-in-command of South Light from your family? We’ll see who gets embarrassed when the time comes!”

The suppliers had left while coldly laughing after dropping the cold hard truth.

The Yates family all looked utterly miserable.

The Yates family was a family of government officials, not a business family. How much money could the family even have amassed?

The Yates family had spent all of their savings all those years to pay off the supplies just now.

Chapter 1142

At this moment, their body was aching to a great extent.

The most important thing was that the suppliers would show up every week to collect their pay.

Not only did they not get a single penny out of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, but they also had to pay for the construction as well!

What sort of gold mine was this?

This was just a bottomless pit!

The Yates family had no experience in doing business. All of their heads were cracked open at this moment.

After calculating the total debt, they needed to have four hundred and seventy million dollars in a few days' time to repay the debt.

Even if the Yates family were to sell off all their property, they would not even make a fraction of this amount!

Chapter 1142

How did things turn out this way?

The Yates family could not understand.

“What should we do now? Are all of you idiots? Are we really just going to let them do as they please?”

“They’re taking away the family’s entire savings!”

Grandma Yates had lost the peace that she had in the beginning. Even breathing would pain her right now.

“Mother, the equity of Silver Nimbus Enterprise is in our hands currently. Law and reason stand by the people that come to us for debt. We can’t run away from this!” Tanya said with a grim expression.

“Then why didn’t you check the debt that the company owed before? Why did you just force Mandy to give us all the shares of the company in the beginning?”

“That bastard must’ve been sleeping with a smile on her face ever since!” Grandma Yates exclaimed furiously.

Chapter 1142

The other members of the family were dead silent. Nobody dared to utter a single word.

Everyone had unanimously agreed on taking over Silver Nimbus Enterprise. Nobody dared to stand out and take the blame at this moment.

Quite a lot of people were already thinking of ways to break all ties with the Yates family.

The debt was just huge. What if they needed to sell off their houses and property?

Chapter 1143

Chapter 1143

“What? Every one of you seemed more energetic than the last when you got the money and benefits from the family!

“Now that the Yates family is in a crisis, all of you just turn into mutes?”

Grandma Yates furiously slammed her cane on the ground while trembling with anger.

Everyone’s heads were hanging even lower. None of them could open their mouths and answer her.

Because they never expected this affair to happen!

“Now speak! What do we do about this? How do we clean up this mess?” Grandma Yates continued to exclaim furiously.

“Grandmother, I think that we’ve been deceived by

Chapter 1143

that bastard, Mandy Zimmer!”

“Just think about it. We were the ones to point out that Mandy needed to give us all of her shares if she wanted Harvey York to stay alive!”

“But the shares are worth three hundred million dollars! What kind of man is worth that money?”

“And she just gave it to us like that!”

“I think that she did it intentionally. She knew full well that Silver Nimbus Enterprise is a huge mess. That’s why she complied to the condition!”

“She did not have the intention to go back on her words, as well. On the contrary, she was in an excellent mood when she signed the contract!”

“We didn’t see the problem back then, but when we think back now, it feels so wrong!”

“Mandy was just too calm!”

“Normal people would be balling their eyes out if they were to lose three hundred million dollars, but

Chapter 1143

Mandy even looked a little happy at that moment!”

The Yates family were all judging Mandy on their own at this moment with ill intent and running their mouths gossiping.

Grandma Yates' expression was as dark as night. She furiously held on to a teacup at hand, then said coldly, “So, that means that Mandy, the little bastard, already couldn't keep her company afloat. That's why she's been looking for someone to clean up this mess!

“And the Yates family just took the bait!

“It seemed we were plotting against her family, but she was the one deceiving our family, after all!

“We're mere scapegoats for her family!”

Phoebe then replied coldly, “Grandmother, I already told you. Mandy looks prim and proper, but in reality, she's just a spiteful woman!

“She's just trying to get the entire family killed!”

Grandma Yates was shivering in fear, then replied

Chapter 1143

while gritting her teeth, “I want to tear this bastard apart!”

“Mandy, you little bastard!”

“We're going to beat you to a pulp!”

The Yates family all gritted their teeth, wanting to strangle her to death at this moment.

Not only did they not get a single dime out of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, but they also got into quite a few unwanted circumstances because of this.

If they could not fix the situation at hand, they might even become a bankrupt family, let alone a top-rated family!

“Grandmother, what happens next? What should we do now? These people will come back!” Finn Yates said while putting on a horrible expression on his face.

Grandma Yates' expression changed frantically, then finally replied, “We definitely have no way to pay back the debt at all!”

Chapter 1143

“Let’s see if we can fool Mandy back and make her solve her own mess!”

Obviously, the Yates family was still preparing to throw the mess back at Mandy.

And in reality, Mandy did not even know about this situation.

While she was still in position, Silver Nimbus Enterprise had been constantly supported by Sky Corporation.

The construction team had always listened to Mandy.

Small and medium shareholders, along with buyers, did not cause an uproar either.

Even the rent for the office building had exponentially decreased time after time.

When Mandy stopped being CEO, Harvey had only taken back all of the support for the company.

Everything had changed overnight. Either way, he did not need to do anything else for that company.

Chapter 1143

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1144

Chapter 1144

The Yates family was devising a strategy to get Mandy Zimmer back and fix the mess.

Mandy was researching which industry to sink her hands into and reestablish another company.

Harvey York had been encouraging her after all, telling her that Buckwood's market would be massive and that there would be many opportunities.

Besides, Mandy had always been a stubborn woman. She would always get back up from where she fell.

With Harvey's support, it reinforced her thought to start another business.

She was at the Gardens Residence researching for plans, preparing to look for an angel investor.

Chapter 1144

At that moment, Grandma Yates actually called her.

“Mandy, you little bastard!

“The Yates family has never done anything wrong to you, have we?!

“How dare you plot against the family from the beginning?!

“You deserve to die!

“I hate it! When Lilian that bastard had you, I should’ve just made her abort you!

“If that were the case, the family won’t end up like this!”

Grandma Yates was scolding Mandy furiously right when the call had gotten through, utterly berating her.

But still, Mandy replied politely, “Grandmother, what happened?”

“I didn’t do anything to the Yates family, did I?”

Chapter 1144

After hearing Mandy's words, Grandma Yates was boiling with anger on the other side of the phone!

“Didn't do anything to us?”

“You let all the higher-ups and the staff of Silver Nimbus Enterprise resign!”

“You let the suppliers come to us to pay for your debt!”

“You let all the construction workers leave the site!”

“Even the small and medium shareholders of Sky Corporation are about to take back their investments!”

“How dare you say that it has nothing to do with you, you little bastard? Why are you still pretending to be a saint?”

Mandy was dumbfounded after hearing those words. The development progress had been going smoothly while she was still in position!

Silver Nimbus Enterprise was Buckwood's new upstart of the real estate industry!

Chapter 1144

How come the company already turned into a huge mess just after a few days after she had left?

“Grandmother, you didn’t just take away all of Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s money and cause a series of problems for yourself, right?”

Mandy carefully assumed the situation. In her eyes, only the Yates family making trouble for themselves would cause something like this to happen.

“You...

“The Yates family even mortgaged our cars for this mess of a company!

“How dare you say that we just took the money and ran?!

“You’re killing me!”

Grandma Yates was shivering with anger. She did not think that Mandy was this insidious.

Chapter 1144

She could not believe that Mandy would still pretend to be innocent at this moment!

“I was still thinking if we were too ruthless in breaking all ties with your family and how we can make up for it too!

“I never thought that your heart was this despicable. You planned to deceive the Yates family this whole time!

“Damn you!”

Grandma Yates talked on the other side of the phone while coughing intensely, seemingly about to cough her lungs out.

“Grandmother, what are you trying to say? I really don't understand you!”

Mandy was utterly dumbfounded.

If the Yates family did not take away all the company's money, how did it turn out like this?

‘This doesn't make sense!’

Chapter 1144

“I’m telling you, Mandy. A vixen like you has no right to call me ‘Grandmother’!

“I want to strangle you to death so badly!”

Grandma Yates was in a crazed state on the other side of the phone.

“But I can give you one last chance! If you can come back to take over Silver Nimbus Enterprise, then I can promise you that I’ll keep the ties with your family!

“You can still be my granddaughter-in-law!

“We’re being merciful to your family here!” 2

Chapter 1145

Chapter 1145

Grandma Yates uttered her words full of virtue at that moment.

She was playing both God and the Devil!

Naturally, she knew of Mandy Zimmer's personality.

And that was her soft heart and her strong sense of family.

The Yates family could leave everything behind for money and other gains.

But Mandy might not do so.

The point was already apparent when she could not bear to divorce Harvey York.

If it were Phoebe Yates, a husband like this would be kicked to the ground by her.

Chapter 1145

“Oh, Mandy. This is the last chance I’m able to give you. We can talk things out if you’re willing to come back!

“If you don’t think of yourself, at least, think of your mother!

“I’m her mother!”

Grandma Yates was extremely gracious as if she were another person.

The true meaning of reward after punishment.

The words did slightly move Mandy’s heart.

But in reality, she did not care much for Silver Nimbus Enterprise right now.

But she hoped to keep the ties with the Yates family.

It was because she overheard Lilian Yates crying secretly in the middle of the night on several occasions.

If there were a chance, she would not want her mother to feel wronged again.

Chapter 1145

At this moment, Mandy's kind heart was about to comply.

“Mandy, come over to the Yates family's house right now if you want to work this out. I miss you already!”

Naturally, Grandma Yates had already planned everything out. She was only waiting for the moment when Mandy's heart softened.

“Grandmother, I...”

Right when Mandy was about to agree to the terms, Harvey walked up from the side and grabbed the phone from her hand.

“We're not looking to buy insurance, thank you.”

“Harvey, it's me!”

Even though Grandma Yates was mad, she would not dare to throw a tantrum at this moment.

“Who are you? Do I know you? Can you please stop harassing my wife for no reason? She's busy starting a business!"

Chapter 1145

Harvey hung up the call after chuckling coldly, then casually blacklisted the number.

Simon Zimmer then walked out at this moment and asked, "Harvey, what's wrong?"

Harvey smiled.

"The Yates family are trying to fool us into clearing their debt. I already blacklisted all of their numbers!"

Simon's expression turned horrible after hearing about the Yates family.

"Right, blacklist all of them! We don't want anything to do with this family!"

Not only did Simon blacklist the numbers on his phone while in the middle of his speech, but he also did the same with Lilian's as well.

On the Yates family's side, Grandma Yates' face was as dark as night. After trying to call the entire family, she realized that none of the calls had gone through.

Chapter 1145

“This little bastard, Mandy. She blacklisted all of our numbers!”

“She did this intentionally!”

The Yates family was boiling with anger.

Mandy looked at Harvey and sighed.

“Darling, I know you mean well, but the Yates family sounds like they’re really in big trouble.

“Silver Nimbus Enterprise is about to go bankrupt as well. I really want to help them!”

Harvey then replied, “Did you forget already? They held a press conference and announced that they had broken all ties with our family.

“They don’t want us already. Why are we still helping them when they're the ones giving us the cold shoulder?"

Chapter 1145

Mandy gritted her teeth.

"But listening to them, I think the company's in trouble..."

"Is that your company anymore? Is it your problem to fix even if it's in trouble?"

"Why do you think that the Yates family even called?"

"They're only going to make you clean up their mess!"

"When you do, they're just going to throw you away again!"

"And if you don't, they'll just force all the responsibility and debt onto your shoulders."

"In their eyes, you're just an asset. Do you understand?"

Chapter 1146

Chapter 1146

Mandy Zimmer gritted her teeth lightly and sighed after a moment, not uttering a single word.

She was only nice, not stupid. How could she not understand what the Yates family meant?

But she could not pass the nagging feeling in her heart.

Now that Harvey York brought the matter out into the open, the burden in her heart had been lifted.

“Darling, thank you. I understand that they only treat me like a tool. I won’t listen to them again.

“The Yates family can just die on their own.”

Even though Mandy said that, her heart still slightly ached for the family.

But Harvey was prepared not to give the Yates family another chance.

Chapter 1146

He sent Xynthia Zimmer to survey for universities as an excuse to send Simon Zimmer and Lilian Yates out of Buckwood to wander around Mordu and Wolsing for the time being.

Under those circumstances, the Yates family had no way of contacting Simon and Lilian.

At the Yates family household.

Everyone was desperately trying to call Mandy's family but to no avail.

Finn came back anxiously at this moment.

“Grandmother, I asked someone to check for me.

“Simon, Lilian, and Xynthia all got on a plane and left Buckwood about an hour ago to survey for universities. I heard that they'd be going to a few big cities. They won't be back after ten to fifteen days!

Chapter 1146

“And we don’t know where Harvey and Mandy went. There’s no way to find them!

“Nobody’s there to answer the doorbell at the Gardens Residence either!”

The Yates family were all dumbfounded after hearing about the situation.

All of them thought all hopes were placed onto Mandy’s shoulders, and the Yates family still had a chance if she were to come back and turn the tables.

How did it turn out like this?

Grandma Yates had no more tears left to cry. She had been coughing to no end.

“It’s all Harvey’s fault! Mandy was about to comply too!

“I didn’t think that this live-in son-in-law had been calling all the shots in the family! This is blasphemous!

“I want to strangle Harvey to death right now!”

Chapter 1146

The Yates family was going crazy.

A few cars were parked at the entrance of the Yates family household at this moment.

“Let me introduce ourselves. We’re all a part of a real estate group from Gangnam. We’re still waiting for you to finish up the villa so we can move on to the next house!”

“What’s the meaning of this? All of the construction team left, and even the guard dogs are gone. Are you just going to leave the project unfinished?”

The people from the real estate group were utterly furious.

They depended on the project to earn money. If the Silver Nimbus Mountain Resort were to stop its construction, it would be a huge loss in their eyes.

“Not at all. We will be continuing the project. We might delay the project to the next construction period, but the houses will be finished soon.”

Chapter 1146

Even though Ben Yates was exhausted, he had to walk up and handle the situation at hand.

“You’re delaying the project? According to the contract, you’ll have to pay three times the amount of the deposit!”

“Since you have no means of finishing the villa within the original project period, we don’t want the houses anymore. Give us the refund and pay up already!”

“We hired the best lawyer here. You better prepare yourselves!”

Naturally, the people were already prepared to refund the houses.

Ben tried begging bitterly.

“Everyone, the company’s in a tight spot right now, but we have no intention to leave the project unfinished. We’ll finish building the houses!”

Slap!

Chapter 1146

A man that looked like a fighter walked forward and slapped Ben across his face, almost making his face look deformed.

Ben then covered his face and exclaimed furiously, “How dare you hit me?!”

“Don’t you know that the Yates family is a family of government officials? Don’t you want to live anymore?!” ③

Chapter 1147

The fighter chuckled coldly.

“Government officials? How prestigious! How menacing!

“Did you think I don’t know that Keith Yates provoked the Chief Instructor himself and is in a coma at the military hospital?!

“Does the Yates family have anyone else? Is everyone just relying on Finn right now?”

Finn Yates was shivering with anger after hearing those words.

Those people were not respectful at all toward the third-in-command of Buckwood Police Station.

But this was normal.

The suppliers had already spread the word about the Yates family early in the morning.

Chapter 1147

Now that everyone knew that the Yates family were only a bunch of paper tigers, they would naturally take advantage of the situation if they wanted their money. If not, they might miss their window of opportunity.

At this moment, Phoebe Yates walked forward with a disdainful expression and said, "You people, did you not know that the Chief Instructor will come over to our house after a few days?"

"Are you all not afraid of dying after the Chief Instructor knows that you're causing a commotion in our house right now?"

The real estate group people all looked at each other, then chuckled coldly after a while.

"You bastard, trying to scare us again?"

"The Chief Instructor is the guardian angel of Country H. People like him will handle everything justly!"

Chapter 1147

“Don’t say that he might come!

“Even if he did, he’ll still be our side! Just give him a call and ask him!”

“You people...”

The Yates family was both anxious and mad after hearing those words. How could they possibly have the Chief Instructor’s phone number?

Grandma Yates’ phone suddenly rang at this moment. It was a string of beautiful numbers by an unknown caller.

After picking up the call, Ethan Hunt’s voice echoed from the other side of the phone.

“Is this Grandma Yates? It’s me, Ethan Hunt from Sword Camp.”

Grandma Yates felt like she grabbed onto a life-saving straw after hearing Ethan’s voice. She then replied while trembling in her boots, “It’s the God of War from Sword Camp, Ethan Hunt! What are your orders?”

Chapter 1147

“The Chief Instructor sent word, saying that he’ll head over to your house after three days.”

Ethan’s voice was as cold as ice. No emotion could be felt from his voice.

“Yes, yes, yes. We’ll make sure to welcome the Chief Instructor’s grand arrival!”

Grandma Yates nodded and bowed even though she was talking on the other side of the phone.

“Right, I wonder if you can lend us a hand, God of War!” Grandma Yates said, full of confidence while facing the real estate group in front of her.

“Please continue.”

“We took over Silver Nimbus Enterprise recently, but the group of people that bought houses here brought over lawyers to ask for a refund for them. Could you please come over and say a good word or two about the Yates family?”

Grandma Yates’ face was showing utter excitement.

Chapter 1147

Ethan then calmly replied, "Grandma Yates, we're soldiers. Soldiers fight wars, nothing else."

He then hung up the call after his speech.

The real estate group was chuckling coldly after hearing their conversation while showing faces full of disdain.

One of them then said coldly, "What? So, you're going to use the God of War to pressure us now? Did you not hear what he just said?"

"Soldiers are not responsible for these things!"

"Pay up now!"

"If not, we're going to spread the word about how the Yates family were unscrupulously bullying your clients just because you have the Chief Instructor supporting you! Knowing the Chief Instructor's behavior, I don't think he'll come to visit you ever again!"

The words struck the family's core.

Chapter 1147

The Chief Instructor was the Yates family's biggest hope of once again rising the ranks. He was their life-saving straw.

How could they have lost the opportunity because of something trivial?

Grandma Yates swiftly said at this moment, "Hurry, give them the money!"

"But Grandmother! We don't have enough money!"

"Mortgage the house! Hurry!"

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1148

Chapter 1148

It was good that the real estate group only bought ten villas. The Yates family had already mortgaged their ancestral home in the middle of Buckwood and finally accumulated fifteen million dollars in total to keep those people away for now.

In the span of just one day, all of the Yates family's houses and cars were mortgaged.

If they could not clear their debt when the mortgage date arrived and asked for more loans, they might even have to sleep under an overpass.

Besides, this was only the beginning. If anyone were to come to claim their debt in the future, the Yates family wouldn't even have the money to pay for it.

They thought that the Yates family would be a top-rated family, but they never thought they would end up like this.

Chapter 1148

Grandma Yates was filled with remorse!

“Grandmother! What do we do now?”

Phoebe Yates' face had lost all color at this moment. She did not think that she would be faced with such circumstances as soon as she returned to the country.

Grandma Yates changed her expression frantically, then finally showed a terribly ruthless expression.

“From the looks of things, we need to hold onto the opportunity the Chief Instructor gave us if we want to solve this crisis right now!

“I heard that the Chief Instructor's property from overseas might even reach trillions of dollars! If we can make him our grandson-in-law, everything could be solved in an instant!

“If we can have him, the Yates family's authority and wealth could be unparalleled in all of South

Chapter 1148

Light!

“The Chief Instructor will arrive after three days. So, Phoebe, stop minding other things for now. Make yourself beautiful. You have to snatch the Chief Instructor when the time comes!”

“Alright, I know what to do!”

Phoebe swiftly left. She decided that she would not eat for the next three days. She would surely welcome the Chief Instructor in her best state in three days.

The Yates family showed a glimmer of hope in their eyes as if they had clung onto a life-saving straw.

Even though their situation was dire, the Yates family could swiftly rise up again if they could get a hold of the Chief Instructor.

There was still hope!

After Phoebe left, Grandma Yates then swiftly said while gritting her teeth, “Everyone, the Yates family is currently facing a life or death situation!”

Chapter 1148

“We have to survive for the next three days no matter what! Even if we struggle, we have to make it through!

“There’s still hope if we make it past three days! If not, death will come for us all!”

The other members of the Yates family all looked at each other after hearing Grandma Yates’ words. Then, all of them slightly gritted their teeth.

“Listen closely. I know that all of you have your own property and savings. You have to take them out right now so all of us can make it through three days!

“When we get past the darkness before dawn, the family will pay you back three times the amount that you gave. No, ten times the amount!”

Grandma Yates gave her word right there and then.

The Yates family all looked at each other. If they were to sell off all of their property and savings, what would they do if the family did not last for three days?

Chapter 1148

Not only would the Yates family be destroyed, they would have to go down with it!

With the Yates family's selfish behavior, they would not accept something like this no matter what!

At this moment, Finn Yates' phone rang.

After taking the call, he was exhilarated.

“Grandmother, the Gods have not forsaken the family just yet! One of my subordinates found Harvey York and Mandy Zimmer, both of them went to Sky Corporation to talk business!”

Grandma Yates was delighted.

“That's good. Hurry, we have to return the huge mess, Silver Nimbus Enterprise, back to her!”

Soon, the Yates family went outside with a blaze of glory to the Sky Corporation building.

Inside a reception room of Sky Corporation.

Chapter 1148

Harvey and Mandy were quietly waiting for Sky Corporation to review their investment plans.

At this moment, Mandy suddenly saw a big group of people on the other side of the french window and could not help but frown.

“Why are they here?”

Chapter 1149

Harvey York looked over and smiled.

“Isn't it obvious? They're here to make you their scapegoat.

“Who else can they give the big mess of a company to none other than you?”

Mandy Zimmer had already inquired about the situation of Silver Nimbus Enterprise via her sources. She then said with a frown, “According to my understanding of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, there shouldn't be this many problems. How come so many problems arise as soon as I'm not in the CEO position anymore?”

“I feel like someone's controlling everything behind the scenes.”

“Of course,” Harvey replied calmly.

Chapter 1149

“It’s me.”

“Huh? There’s no way! If you had capabilities like this, we wouldn’t be here waiting for the people in Sky Corporation to invest in my business proposal.”

Mandy simply did not believe Harvey.

Harvey smiled and replied, “It’s relatively straightforward why this happened. It’s only because Silver Nimbus Enterprise had lost support from Sky Corporation.

“Without Sky Corporation, the small and medium shareholders would never trust Silver Nimbus Enterprise. The higher-ups will feel like there’s no future for the company, and the construction workers think they can’t get the money either.

“This is just a chain reaction!

“If you were there, you only needed to fix the first problem for the rest to fix themselves. A shame that the Yates family are a bunch of idiots. They have no idea how to solve the problem. They only know how to keep the money passively.”

Chapter 1149

Harvey showed a disdainful look. The Yates family had high ambitions but had lives thinner than paper.

They wanted to earn money, but they had no capabilities whatsoever. They even tried to scheme against people for it.

After Mandy had heard Harvey's words and thought about the whole process, she then nodded and replied, “There are a lot of ways to fix the problem. For example, they could've mortgaged their entire equity in the bank and have a lot of cash in the company's account. With that, they could've prepaid a portion of money to the construction workers as soon as possible. Things wouldn't have escalated to this point.

“Under these circumstances, even I can't do anything about it now!”

Mandy sighed, but her gaze toward Harvey was a bit odd.

Chapter 1149

This man seemed plausible when he talked about matters concerning the business industry. Perhaps it was because of him that the Yates family turned out this way.

But she still could not believe it no matter how hard she tried, even she could not do something like this if she tried.

Unless Harvey was indeed Prince York. If not, there was no other person in South Light capable of doing something like this.

At this moment, the Yates family hurried over to the ground floor of the Sky Corporation building, wanting to head in immediately.

“Excuse me. This is private property. You can’t be coming in and out of here for no reason. What is the matter?”

The security guards at the entrance blocked their way.

Chapter 1149

“Please, help us send word saying that we’re here to meet Mandy,” Finn Yates said calmly.

“Mandy? Is she one of the higher-ups of the company? How come I’ve never heard of this person before?”

The head of security was perplexed.

“It’s like this, Mandy should be here talking to your company about some sort of business. We’re here to look for her,” Finn replied.

The head of security was dumbfounded.

“Do you have a problem? How can I even pass this down if she’s not part of the company?”

“If you’re looking for somebody else, just call and tell them to meet you.”

The head of security showed an expression as if he was looking at a bunch of crazy people.

Finn was slightly irritated after hearing his words at this moment.

Chapter 1149

“Why are you security guards being so cocky? I told you to send word, so stop spouting so much nonsense!

“Do you know who I am?! You run your mouth any longer, and I’ll put you behind bars!”

The head of security was boiling with anger after hearing those words.

“You ask us to do something for you with this attitude and then threaten to throw us in jail? Do it then! I dare you!

“Where do you think this place is?!

“This is Sky Corporation!”

A dozen security guards immediately came forward and kicked the entire Yates family out of the building.

Poor Yates family, they were a first-rate family, after all. They had never experienced something like this their whole lives.

Grandma Yates was shivering with anger. Most of the Yates family's authority belonged to Keith Yates. He was also the one who befriended those big shots everywhere.

Chapter 1150

But right when Keith was gone, the family turned out like this.

Grandma Yates could not even find a way to contact a single higher up from Sky Corporation.

A Rolls Royce was parked at the entrance of Sky Corporation at this moment. Ray Hart could be seen walking out of the car.

The moment Grandma Yates saw Ray out of his car, she thought she saw a life-saving straw.

She had seen Ray on some occasions, but she did not care to befriend him because she always thought of him as a high-ranking worker.

But she could not care about such things at this moment, she immediately rushed toward him and exclaimed, "CEO Ray, please wait!

"We're the Yates family!"

Chapter 1150

Ray was perplexed after getting out of his car. As one of Harvey's trusted subordinates, naturally, he would know about the family's situation.

Ray even helped behind the scenes to push the Yates family to this point.

But at that moment, he turned around and smiled.

"You're Grandma Yates. May I ask why you're here right now?"

"We're here to look for Mandy," Grandma Yates replied.

"You're looking for someone? This way, please. We'll talk inside."

Ray courteously took the Yates family inside.

All of the Yates family were laughing with glee as they walked past the security guards.

"You see that? Stupid security guards, CEO Hart sent us in himself!"

Chapter 1150

“Block us again! I dare you!”

The security guards were boiling with anger, but there was nothing they could do at this moment.

The Yates family were grinning when they saw the security guards at this moment.

As expected from a big family, they can easily bully a few measly security guards.

Soon, Ray took the Yates family to a reception room. After making a gesture to welcome them in, he then smiled.

“Please take a seat, everyone. I still have things to work on right now. Please inquire from the front desk if there’s anything you need.”

Ray then left after saying his speech.

The Yates family gathered together. The color on their faces had slightly returned.

“Grandmother, what do we do now? Do we just look for her right now?” Finn Yates asked.

Chapter 1150

Grandma Yates chuckled coldly.

“That little bastard, Mandy, thinks that she can hide in Sky Corporation just because we can’t get inside!

“We will search for her on every single floor! We’ll find her sooner or later!”

Soon, the Yates family righteously rushed into every single reception room of the company.

There were usually people in the rooms talking business. Most of them were shocked by the Yates family.

But Finn leading the group was chuckling coldly while looking around, then said coldly, “The Yates family are doing business, stay away!”

In no time at all, the Yates family was making a ruckus around the reception area.

Ray saw everything on the second floor, but he did not have the intention to stop them.

Chapter 1150

The Yates family had no business acumen at all, constantly using their title of government officials to handle things.

The government would not say anything about unruly actions like this.

But this was the business industry.

To put it simply, the Yates family had wiped a few dozen years' worths of connections clean in the span of an afternoon.

About two hours later, Harvey let Mandy leave by car for the time being.

He then came to the first-floor reception hall. 2

Chapter 1151

Chapter 1151

Harvey York was in sight.

All of the Yates family that was flaunting their authority at the reception hall were showing gleeful expressions.

‘So what if Harvey’s arrogant?’

‘In front of the Yates family, he’s just a little brother!’

‘Of course, he had to show up obediently!’

The Yates had shown their faces as if they had won.

In their eyes, their arrogant actions in Sky Corporation before were to smoke out Harvey and Mandy.

As expected, Harvey had shown up.

This was the Yates family’s power!

Chapter 1151

Harvey walked toward the Yates family and smiled.

“The Yates family sure is incredible. Did all of you even think about the place you’re in?”

“You dare to cause a commotion in the Sky Corporation building? All of you must be looking to die!”

“We’d only do this because of you and Mandy Zimmer anyway!”

Grandma Yates chuckled coldly.

“Where is Mandy anyway? Why isn’t she here to see me?”

“Yeah! Mandy left such a big mess for the family. It would be logical for her to come back and fix it herself!”

“Tell her to show up now! If she does, we might even forgive her! If not, we’ll just let her rot to death!”

All the members of the Yates family coldly opened their mouths.

Chapter 1151

Ray Hart was extremely courteous to the Yates family, making them feel like they were the top-rated family at that moment.

Seeing Harvey in front of them had made them feel more confident than ever.

They thought that if they made Mandy their scapegoat, the Yates family would return to their former glory of being the top-rated family.

Harvey glared at the utterly shameless Yates family while showing a faint smile and then replied, "I apologize. My wife had to leave to attend to other business. She left me here to deal with you shameless pricks."

"What?! You're telling me that the little bastard, Mandy, isn't here right now?" Phoebe Yates asked guiltlessly.

"She's actually absent when Grandmother wants to see her? What a defiant woman!"

Chapter 1151

“Hurry up and call the bastard and tell her to come back within three minutes. If not, she won’t even have the chance to regret her decision!”

Phoebe was making sinister threats left and right!

Slap!

As a result, Harvey walked up toward her and gave her a slap across her face.

With the sound of the slap, half of Phoebe’s face was as swollen as a pig.

Phoebe was dumbfounded!

Grandma Yates was dumbfounded!

Everyone from the Yates family was dumbfounded!

Phoebe was the Yates family’s precious child. She was being prepared to hook up with the Chief Instructor too!

How could this man, Harvey York, actually hit her in the face?

Chapter 1151

At this moment, the Yates family was going nuts!

Grandma Yates pointed at Harvey and scolded, “
Filth! Do you know what you’ve done?”

“Do you know how precious Phoebe’s face is to us right now?”

“And you actually hit her, you... you... you...”

Harvey then replied coldly, “Whoever calls my wife that again, I won’t hesitate to tear their mouths apart!”

Harvey’s murderous intent and cold aura had immediately made Grandma Yates frozen over.

All of the Yates family subconsciously took a few steps back. When they came back to their senses, their shame all turned into anger.

Were they actually scared by the live-in son-in-law?

Harvey glared at the Yates family at this moment and said calmly, "Let me tell you something.

Chapter 1151

"In three days, I want the Yates family's apology to my parents-in-law and my wife to be on every single media and newspaper in Buckwood!

"At the same time, I want every single one of you to kneel in front of the Gardens Residence and repent your sins!

"Remember, every single one of you!

"If I don't see all of you doing this within three days, your end will be simple.

"I guarantee you that the Yates family will disappear from the face of Buckwood just like the Silva, the Cloude, the Robbins, and the Surrey family!"

Chapter 1152

Chapter 1152

Harvey York's tone was as cold as ice. This was the last chance that he gave the Yates family.

But after they froze over since the beginning, they all burst out laughing soon after.

“Hahahaha...”

“Grandmother, this man thinks that he can just step on us like that just because we got into some trouble!”

“I think he doesn't know how to assess the situation clearly!”

“I've already gathered all the information about him. He's just a driver for Prince York himself. Does a mere driver want to destroy the entire Yates family? Stop daydreaming!”

“He can't fix his old habit of boasting up a storm

Chapter 1152

after all!”

“You’re threatening the Yates family? Did you really think that we have nobody else supporting us?”

All of the Yates family’s expressions were as cold as ice.

No matter how in decline the family was, it was still not a family that a mere live-in son-in-law could just step on.

Not to mention that the Chief Instructor was going to visit them after three days.

Once the Yates family’s plan succeeded, they would be the top family in all of South Light.

To demand them to write an apology in newspapers and kneel in front of the Gardens Residence for repentance?

That would never happen no matter what.

Harvey’s expression was as cold as ice. It did not change despite the Yates family's ridicule.

Chapter 1152

“Yates family, remember this, I gave you this chance out of respect for my wife.

“If you miss it, there will never be a second chance.

“Of course, you can gather all of your connections and strength to fight against me within these three days.

“But I think that a family that's on the verge of bankruptcy, like yours, won't be able to muster the strength for this.”

Harvey coldly chuckled.

If the Yates family were not this heinous, he really did not intend to eradicate them completely. But under those circumstances, they still decided to get Mandy Zimmer as their scapegoat.

“You stop right there, you bastard! Did we allow you to leave?!”

“Where is Mandy?! Tell her to come here right now!” Leyton Luv exclaimed angrily.

Chapter 1152

Harvey furiously looked back and coldly glared at Leyton.

“You’re lucky that I promised you three days’ time.

“You’d be dead by now if I didn’t!”

Just like that, Harvey turned around and left.

Leyton was trembling in anger, about to lose his mind.

“Grandmother, this live-in son-in-law is too arrogant. We should look for an opportunity to finish him off!” Finn Yates walked up and said with a cold expression.

Grandma Yates’ expression changed frantically.

“The next three days will be crucial to us. We need to stay put and not cause a huge uproar. That will surely make the Chief Instructor disdain the family!

“That’s why this live-in son-in-law is lucky! We’ll let him off the hook for the time being!”

Chapter 1152

Phoebe Yates then said while covering her face, “Grandmother, this is unfair! That means that I endured this slap for nothing!”

Grandma Yates showed pity on her face.

“Oh, Phoebe. Hurry and heal your wounds. I shouldn’t have let you come this afternoon!”

“Rest assured. We’ll make this live-in son-in-law pay for everything that he did three days later!”

All of the Yates family gritted their teeth at this moment. All of them hated Harvey to the core.

If it were because of his slap that the Chief Instructor would disdain Phoebe, the Yates family would lose the opportunity to rise in power with a mere snap of their fingers.

Harvey would be the Yates family’s biggest sinner.

If it weren’t for the Chief Instructor visiting the Yates family after three days, they might’ve already taken action on Harvey.

Chapter 1152

Phoebe was uttering hurtful words out of her thin mouth while covering her face, “Just you wait, Harvey York! When everything’s done, I’ll break all of your limbs myself and throw you into the dumpster!

“And then I’ll sell your wife to a brothel!”

Chapter 1153

Chapter 1153

The men from the Yates family all leaked out intense expressions after hearing Phoebe Yates' words.

They should be handling people that betrayed the Yates family like this.

“Grandmother, what should we be doing next?!”
Someone asked while frowning.

The Yates family was faced with a dire problem. If they could not get Mandy to be their scapegoat, they might not have an easy time solving the problem.

Grandma Yates gave a deep thought about the situation, then slowly replied, “As of right now, we can only make a desperate attempt!

“Stop caring about Silver Nimbus Enterprise for

Chapter 1153

now. Instead, use your sources to spread the word that the Chief Instructor is about to visit us after three days!

“In addition, spread rumors saying that the Chief Instructor might be interested in Phoebe. But remember, don't let anybody catch on to the source!

“I don't believe that ignorant fools will cause trouble for us after knowing the Chief Instructor might be our future son-in-law!”

After hearing Grandma Yates' words, everyone from the Yates family was at ease.

“You're so wise, Grandmother! As expected from you!”

“We've learned something!”

“We can also use the opportunity to invite more people into the family. But, of course, the Chief Instructor won't be able to get away when that happens!”

“With so many witnesses saying that he took advantage of Phoebe, he has to admit to it somehow!”

Chapter 1153

The Yates family were all chuckling foolishly after hearing those words as if they had already seen the uprising of the family once again.

Even Phoebe looked like she was dreaming while she covered her face.

She realized that she was in love with that silhouette after the Ceremony of Changing Defenses.

She thought that she would have the most benefits out of the entire plan!

The Yates family left Sky Corporation along with their hopes and dreams for the future of the family.

Sky Corporation was in its busiest state, Buckwood's market was terribly huge.

The businesses that the company needed to proceed with were also just too many.

Chapter 1153

This was not something that could be settled in a short amount of time.

The company was understaffed as well. As a result, the people could only work overtime.

But even so, the people that were interested in this big piece of cake, Buckwood, were too many.

Hong Kong aside, Las Vegas, Wolsing, Mordu, Golden Sands, and other cities had businesses and big families that showed up here.

Of course, it was good that all of them were from Country H.

The most problematic matter was that some businessmen from America, Island Nation, and Country J also showed up.

Those foreigners used their title of foreign guests to do as they please in Buckwood, wanting to use so-called state-of-the-art technology to take over Buckwood's market as a whole.

Chapter 1153

Under those circumstances, Sky Corporation needed to face multiple companies.

Even if Sky Corporation were the top company in all of South Light, the challenges they were about to face were still daunting.

Right when Harvey York was back at the Gardens Residence, Ray Hart's call immediately went through.

"CEO York, I just found a promising company. If you have your wife take control of it, with her capabilities, she should be able to revive it in no time."

Even if Ray were to be on the other side of the phone, he was still extremely respectful.

"Let's hear it!"

Harvey was interested.

"You've come in contact with the company before. It's Regency Enterprise!"

Chapter 1153

“Regency Enterprise was previously owned by the Robbins family. They had occupied half of Buckwood with their real estate market!

“But the Robbins family has fallen, and the chairman was thrown in jail.

“Regency Enterprise is without an owner at this moment!

“There will be an auction tomorrow hosted in the suburbs of Buckwood selling the shares of Regency Enterprise.

“Would you like me to arrange it?” Ray asked respectfully.

Chapter 1154

Chapter 1154

Harvey York gave a thought about the situation and replied, "It's fine. I'll head to the auction myself. I haven't been in one for quite a while."

There were too many things happening. He had rarely taken Mandy Zimmer out to relax recently.

This was an excellent opportunity.

Even though the Yates family might not continue to cause Harvey trouble after being threatened, it was better if he still took caution.

Leaving would be the same as staying away from trouble, for the time being, at least buying time for Mandy to cool down for the next two days.

On the following day, early in the morning, Harvey had woken up Mandy.

"Darling, let's pack up and head out if you have nothing planned for today.”

Mandy blinked with her big shining eyes and asked while perplexed, “Why? Aren’t we supposed to continue looking for investors at Sky Corporation today?”

Harvey chuckled.

“Not today. We’re going on a trip!”

Mandy shook her head.

“If we go on a trip at this crucial moment, we might miss the chance to start up a business.”

Harvey replied, “Here’s what you don’t understand. The proper way is balancing work and rest. You’ve been terribly tired for the past few days. I’ll spend some money for you to relax.”

Mandy was not too willing, but she could not talk Harvey out of this. She then went to pack up her things.

Soon, the two were at a newly established resort in the suburbs of Buckwood.

Chapter 1154

Even though the resort was not located nearby a beach, the scenery was still quite stunning.

But there were quite a few luxurious cars parked at the resort car park.

Maybach, Rolls Royce, Alfa Romeo cars were all present. In front of all those cars, Mandy's Bentley was quite ordinary.

“Whoa, that number plate's from Wolsing. And looking at the plate, this definitely isn't some ordinary person from Wolsing!

“This one's from Hong Kong!

“And this one's from Las Vegas!”

Mandy was utterly shocked, looking at the number plates of the luxurious cars in the parking lot.

It was because she did not expect to see so many of them here.

But after checking in the resort, Mandy then understood after looking at the synopsis.

Chapter 1154

There would be a special auction held here the night after.

Rumors said that the Naiswells would be hosting the auction. It was commissioned by the government of South Light as well.

Other than the regular auction items this time, the ownership of Regency Enterprise was the one that caught the most attention.

Regency Enterprise was known to be legendary for owning half of Buckwood's real estate market.

Rumors said that Regency Enterprise had complete control of their market prices for the past thirty years.

The price would go up if the company willed it, and vice versa.

But generally speaking, the price would usually go up.

But many citizens of Buckwood needed their entire family to empty their coffers just to buy a house because of Regency Enterprise.

Chapter 1154

Nobody thought that a big company such as this would fall as well.

And quite a lot of big shots were obviously here for Regency Enterprise this time.

Because owning the company itself would be the equivalent of owning the bridgehead of entering Buckwood's market. There were too many perks involved.

That was why everyone could not wait to get their hands on it.

Mandy gasped with delight.

“I didn't think we'd come across a grand event like this!”

“Maybe we can even be seated among the audience to see who ends up with Regency Enterprise!”

Harvey laughed.

Chapter 1154

“You want to go take a look?”

“Of course! Who wouldn't want to see a grand event like this and the next person to take over Buckwood's market?” Mandy said casually. 6

Chapter 1155

Harvey York thought about it and asked, “What do you think of Regency Enterprise?”

Mandy Zimmer thought Harvey was giving her a test. She laughed it off and replied, “I think it’s great! Even though we have some contradictions with the company, there’s no denying that the company is excellent!

“The real estate market of Buckwood aside, they’re involved with quite a few industries including the entertainment and fashion industry, among others ...

“I heard that there were quite a lot of internet celebrities that they groomed as well!

“Every single one of those celebrities is competent at live commencing too!”

Chapter 1155

Harvey thought about it again and reached his hand to rub Mandy's forehead.

“Since my wife looks up this much to Regency Enterprise, how about I win the auction for you?”

Mandy chuckled after hearing his words.

“Sure, I'll wait for your good news.

“But I think the base bidding price for Regency Enterprise would be at least worth a hundred million dollars. Do you even have this amount of money on you?”

Mandy knew that Harvey worked under Prince York as a driver. He should at least have some connections and capabilities.

But she did not even think that he could win the auction at all.

It was because Regency Enterprise would cost at least a hundred million. Unbelievable!

Harvey chuckled and replied, “Maybe if I wanted it, they'd just sell it to me for ten dollars.”

Chapter 1155

Mandy puffed out a breath of air and chuckled.

“Yes, yes, yes. You're the best. They'll just sell it to you for ten dollars!

“If you can win the auction, I'll be sure to cook you nice meals every single day. I'll get you all pale and chubby. You won't even need to work ever again!”

“Are you serious?!”

Harvey was ecstatic.

“I'll work even harder from now on then!

“There's a really good saying!

“It's better to work smart than to work hard!

“I'll be able to earn money doing absolutely nothing!”

“Oh, you. How are you not ashamed? Are you not embarrassed with people calling you a live-in son-in-law?”

Chapter 1155

Mandy sighed.

Harvey chuckled and replied, "I can only be kept by my dear wife. I'll make them pay if they dare to get closer to you!"

Mandy thought that Harvey was only joking. She did not bother much about his words.

The two were whispering to each other while laughing thunderously. Their image and aura looked stunning as well. They were considered a handsome and beautiful couple. That was why they attracted a lot of attention when they got to the hall.

After finishing up the procedures to check-in, the two were heading to their room. Suddenly, a raspy and feminine voice echoed behind them.

"Mandy, is that you?"

Harvey and Mandy subconsciously turned around and saw a man wearing a suit. He seemed like he was in his thirties but looked extremely sleek. At first glance, he gave the impression of a big shot with a very successful business.

Chapter 1155

Mandy was slightly perplexed, then was immediately astonished.

“Are you Mr. Luke Perry?”

Luke was Mandy’s lecturer when she was a freshman, but he then resigned and went into business. Rumors said that he was living a good life.

Luke even pursued Mandy during their time in university, but she rejected him.

Mandy heard from her university mates that this Prince Charming of a lecturer had been living a good life since then, but she did not think she would meet him here.

Luke showed a very gentle smile and asked, “Mandy, it’s been a few years, hasn’t it?”

“You’ve grown quite a lot and gotten a lot more beautiful than before. I almost couldn’t recognize you!”

In the middle of his speech, he was sizing Harvey up with a judgemental gaze. When he saw the cheap clothes on him without a single luxurious item, his eyes only showed disdain. ②

Chapter 1155

Especially when he saw the Rolex on Harvey's wrist, he only saw it as some broken watch that had a long history. The disdain look in his eyes had grown stronger.

Chapter 1156

Chapter 1156

In Luke's opinion, Harvey was an obviously poor man who had no right to stand next to Mandy.

Mandy, however, failed to notice Luke's expression. She asked curiously, "Mr. Perry, are you working here now?"

Luke smiled mildly. Feeling a little complacent, he replied, "Yes, I've just been promoted to the general manager of this resort. Here's my card."

After he finished speaking, he handed Harvey and Mandy a gilded card each.

Mandy took the card and stared at it a few times. She then said politely, "Mr. Perry, you're doing quite well now. Back then, you're the best among all the lecturers."

Luke got carried away at Mandy's praise. However, at this point, he still spoke humbly. “To put it bluntly, people like us are merely upper-class employees. Our annual salary couldn’t even reach 1.5 million, and it can’t be compared to that of the major families.”

Chapter 1156

“Oh, right. I apologize, Mandy.”

“I forgot. I just saw the news a few days ago, saying that your company was handed to the Yates family. They even completely cut all ties with you!”

“Mandy. Back then, in school, you were renowned as a lady from a decent family. You were fair and attractive with a goddess-level figure. How could you be treated like this?!”

“In my opinion, it must be because of this useless husband of yours!”

“If he’s the least bit capable, he’ll surely be of help right now.”

Mandy and Harvey did not reply to Luke’s words.

Luke smiled and turned to Harvey. “Brother. As a fellow man, let me give you some kind advice.”

Chapter 1156

“You’re a man! Don’t you think it’s a shame to live off of a woman?”

“As a man, you should have pride!”

“You should understand this. Hurry up and divorce Mandy. Stop wasting her great future!”

Luke spat bitterly, as though Harvey’s refusal to leave Mandy was a colossal error.

Harvey replied nonchalantly, “You are Lecturer Luke Perry, correct?”

“Indeed, lecturers truly enjoy educating people.”

“If so, Mr. Perry, can you give me another piece of advice? If I don’t deserve Mandy, then who does?”

Harvey looked cold.

However, Luke’s eyes brightened.

Promising!

It seemed this brat understood he wasn’t at all capable!

Chapter 1156

As long as Luke could kick this brat away, a great opportunity would come to him.

With that thought in mind, Luke immediately seized this rare opportunity. He showed Mandy an affectionate look and said, “Mandy, do you remember what I said when I confessed to you before?”

“I said that even if it meant ten, a hundred, a thousand, or ten thousand years, I’ll wait for you! And I have fulfilled my promise. I’ve remained single all this time!”

“Just a nod from you, and I’ll immediately marry you. I have a net worth of several million dollars, and I own several apartments in Buckwood. I certainly deserve you!”

Luke’s words were so cheesy that Mandy instantly got goosebumps.

Awkward. This was too awkward!

Chapter 1156

What era was it now? Did anyone else still confess like this?

However, Luke seemed to think that Mandy was acting shy and embarrassed.

A man full of smiles was never a good thing.

A woman blushed whenever she missed her husband.

This ought to be good. This might actually work!

At this very moment, Luke's excitement grew. His eyes were hot with passion. He couldn't wait to grab Mandy out of here!

Chapter 1157

Chapter 1157

Luke no longer cared about Harvey. He only had eyes on Mandy.

He took a deep breath and said, "Mandy, I'll transfer all my apartments under your name after you marry me!"

"I know you like to run businesses. I'll find a way to buy some equity for this resort, and then you'll be one of its owners!"

"Living in a mansion, having some equity, and enjoying life every day. You deserve all that!"

Luke was determined.

In his opinion, no woman could refuse such a temptation.

Even if it was an excellent woman such as Mandy.

Chapter 1157

At the same time, Luke was also grateful to the Yates family.

Had they not snatched Mandy's equity, he would never have had the chance to be with her.

To him, this was fate!

He was destined to be with Mandy!

Just then, Harvey, who had been ignored this entire time, suddenly smiled and said, "Mr. Perry, is your resort so valuable?"

"Is it that great to be its shareholder?"

Luke grinned and replied, "Of course, Brother. This resort is owned by the Naiswells!"

"The Naiswells are the only first-class family in Buckwood now!"

"Being a shareholder means you're on par with the Naiswells. Isn't that a high status?"

Luke wore a smug look. He felt that the two words, " the Naiswells”, could easily scare this foolish oaf to death.

Chapter 1157

“The Naiswells, they seem to be great.”

Harvey nodded and then made a call. “Hello, is this Master Naiswell? It’s me, Harvey. About this resort in the suburbs...”

Harvey glanced at Luke and asked, “What’s this resort called?”

Luke automatically replied, “Enchantment Resort.”

“Well, Enchantment Resort. It seems pretty good. Can you give it to me?”

Luke and Mandy were both stunned when they heard what Harvey said.

Soon after, Luke laughed out loud.

“Brother, have you watched too many TV series? Asking someone to give you this resort through a phone call? Do you have any idea of this resort’s value?”

Chapter 1157

“Pffft...!”

“This guy’s definitely out of his mind! Asking someone to give him the resort? No one would even dream of doing that!”

“What a douche, right? Still, this is too much. If you said you’re going to buy some shares instead, we might still trust you.”

The waiters around also chuckled.

After all, the Naiswells were the owners of this resort. That fact alone was something to take pride in.

Even Mandy was feeling somewhat awkward.

She was aware that Harvey had a good relationship with Shane Naiswell.

However, regardless of how good the relationship was, asking the Naiswells to give the resort to him just by a phone call? Was that possible? Was that even realistic?

Chapter 1157

Fearing Harvey would act even more disgracefully, Mandy hurriedly interjected, “Mr. Perry, we still have something to do. We’ll leave first!”

After that, she grabbed Harvey’s hand and left.

As of now, Mandy had already grown used to Harvey’s behavior. While he occasionally liked to talk big, he had good intentions.

Therefore, she figured it was fine for him to talk in such a way between the two of them.

However, she was worried Harvey would be ridiculed if others heard it.

Soon, the two of them fled and left.

Luke, who was standing behind, added with a grin, “Mandy, keep my card well. You can come to me for anything!”

“I have the final say here.”

“I’m the master of this place!”

Chapter 1158

Chapter 1158

A trace of strangeness flashed through Luke's eyes after both Harvey and Mandy's figures disappeared. "Hurry and check which room they're staying in, then get me the access card!"

"Manager Perry, isn't that against the rules?" A waiter whispered.

Slap!

Luke slapped the waiter and hissed in a low voice, "Rules? What rules? In this place, I am the rules!"

That waiter covered his face and no longer dared to speak. He quickly went to get the access card and sent it over.

Luke held onto the access card with a smug face.

From the moment he first laid his eyes on Mandy back then, he wanted her.

Chapter 1158

He yearned to taste every bit of her, just like a real man!

Unfortunately, someone reported him for sexual harassment of another female student.

In the end, he had to spend a lot of money to settle the problem, and was forced to resign.

Otherwise, he would've slept with Mandy a long time ago.

Now, this sweet and delectable woman had come to him once more. Luke felt that this was a gift from God to him. He couldn't miss it no matter what.

“Oh, Mandy! Only I can enjoy your body!”

“That live-in husband...! He doesn't deserve it!”

Luke saw himself as a civilized person, but even such a person couldn't help it when it came to desire.

Chapter 1158

On the other side...

Harvey and Mandy checked into the room along the lakefront.

Soon, a phone call came.

Harvey answered the phone and said indifferently, “Have you prepared the contract? Alright, find someone to send it over tomorrow. I want to have a look.”

Mandy glanced at Harvey after he hung up. She said earnestly, “Harvey. I know you have a good relationship with Master Naiswell, but this isn’t a laughing matter.”

Mandy thought Harvey was talking big again.

In truth, Shane had already prepared the equity transfer contract right after he received Harvey’s call.

Since Harvey helped the Naiswells to gain a lot of money in Buckwood, of course they would fulfill

Chapter 1158

Harvey's small request in turn.

After doing some simple clean up, Harvey and Mandy went to dine at the resort's restaurant.

When the waiter saw the two of them, he quickly informed Luke, who had been waiting for them.

"Heh, I've waited for a long time. Finally, I can fulfill my dream today..."

Luke went to the door of the back kitchen and stopped the waiter who was about to deliver the meals.

"Where's the food for that table?"

"Here it is."

Luke smiled. "Okay, go and give them more fruit!"

Then, Luke secretly added in the colorless sedatives he had prepared long ago in the dish.

Despite having left academia for years, he still couldn't stop himself from indulging in his hobby of playing around with women.

Chapter 1158

Every time he saw beautiful women entering the resort, he wanted to enjoy their bodies for free.

His common tactic was to slip in sedatives.

Many women would wake up the next day clueless to the fact that they had been raped the night before.

Later, Luke followed the waiter to Harvey and Mandy's table.

Luke looked at the beautiful Mandy and swallowed secretly. He said, "Mandy, this fruit plate is for you. It's free. Also, there's a ten percent discount on the meals tonight. I wish you all a good time!"

Mandy didn't suspect anything. "Thank you!" 7

Chapter 1159

Chapter 1159

Harvey looked at this scene indifferently.

Apparently, this man had ill intentions.

After Harvey took a bite of the vegetables and swallowed it, he instantly understood.

The dishes contained sedatives.

Fortunately, the sedatives should be ones easily found in the market. It wouldn't cause any harm to the body, and was only a mild sleeping aid.

Knowing that Mandy hadn't rested well recently, Harvey had no plans of exposing this fact. Thus, the two of them ate as usual.

As for these sedatives, they had no effect on Harvey at all.

What poison hadn't he encountered on the battlefield?

Chapter 1159

Although his current body wasn't immune to all poisons, it wasn't that far off.

Luke watched them from afar, shivering with excitement.

Tonight, he could finally have some fun with Mandy.

He heard that this live-in son-in-law had never slept with Mandy despite being her husband for three years. It could be said that Luke was doing this for their good and wanted to help them!

When Harvey and Mandy were finished with dinner, they didn't return to their room and went for a walk by the lake instead.

After walking for about an hour, Mandy grew tired and the two returned to their room.

When they reached the room, Mandy washed up and rested. Looking at her sleeping peacefully, Harvey pulled the quilt over her, switched off the lights, and waited silently in the dark.

Chapter 1159

He wanted to see what Luke would do.

Meanwhile, Luke was in his office, fidgeting with excitement. He figured that the sedative's effects should have kicked in by now.

Only then did he creep stealthily into Harvey's room.

However, he was very cautious. He rang the doorbell a few times and waited until there was no response before taking out the access card to open the door.

After switching on the light, Luke saw Mandy lying on the bed, with only her small face shown. He instantly got riled up.

At this moment, Luke didn't care about other things. He just wanted to rush towards the bed.

But in the next moment, he went blank and fainted to the ground.

Harvey stood behind him.

Chapter 1159

Harvey shot Luke a look of contempt. Nonetheless, he reluctantly carried Luke up. Harvey then took off Luke's pants and hung him on the flagpole at the entrance of the resort.

Early next morning, the unconscious Luke opened his eyes in a daze. He quickly discovered that he was hanging on the flagpole.

Luke was confused. "What's going on? Have I been sleepwalking again?"

He was often in a trance and would sometimes sleepwalk because he always ate some kind of small blue pills.

Therefore, he didn't assume anything else.

"It seems I took too much medicine last night. If I knew, I wouldn't take that much!"

"But I've finally slept with slut Mandy! I didn't lose out!"

Chapter 1159

Luke couldn't recall what happened last night, but he was excited all the same.

A burst of laughter resounded around him.

“Pffft, hahaha...!”

Luke, who was still in a daze, came to his senses after hearing them.

He then found out that his pants had been taken off without his knowing.

Several men who had woken up early for morning exercises were pointing at him.

“Ah!”

Luke let out an earth-shattering scream.

Who?!

Who hung him here?!

Even taking off his pants, at that?!

Chapter 1160

Chapter 1160

There was a reason why Luke hadn't married for so many years.

He had a fundamental disability.

It was why he had always used the sedative method to get beautiful women. Only then he wouldn't be rejected by others.

However, at this moment...

His biggest secret was exposed to everyone.

At this moment, Luke felt that he was on the brink of collapse.

"Who is it?!"

"Who knocked me out?!"

"Who hung me here?!"

Chapter 1160

“I’ll kill you!”

Being able to become the general manager of Enchantment Resort, Luke was certainly not a fool.

After he sobered up, he immediately understood what was going on.

Luke called the security guards nearby to put him down. He then asked for a coat to cover his lower body and then left as if he was flying.

When he ran to the entrance of the restaurant, a voice suddenly came from nearby.

“Hello, Mr. Perry. Why did you wrap your lower body with a security coat? Is that a popular fashion trend this year?” Mandy looked puzzled, unable to comprehend what Luke was doing.

Luke automatically turned his head. The next second, his body trembled all over.

Harvey and Mandy should have gone down for breakfast, but right now, they were staring at him.

Chapter 1160

“Mr. Perry, you’re the general manager of this resort. How could you dress up in such a manner?”

“Did you go out in the middle of the night to do something bad? Did you?”

“Also, why are you half-naked? Did you go streaking early in the morning?”

“I never expected you’d have a hobby like this. Truly, you’re a great example for others!” Harvey said, a shocked expression on his face.

Every word Harvey uttered made Luke shiver.

A sense of humiliation surged up spontaneously. Luke wished he could hit his head on the ground and die right this very moment.

He didn’t want to live anymore!

Harvey then added, “Mr. Perry, what’re you hiding there?”

Luke shook. The next second, his hand loosened and the coat fell to the ground.

Chapter 1160

Harvey quickly covered Mandy's eyes. "Don't look, honey. You'd get a stye!"

"Pfff...!"

Luke almost spewed out a mouthful of blood. Once again, he wished he could hit his head and die instantly.

On top of that, he noticed that Mandy was struggling to keep a straight face.

Mandy was an adult, after all. How could she not understand anything? This expression of hers explained everything.

He was doomed!

He fell into a meltdown.

He wouldn't have a good image in front of his goddess anymore in the future!

As they left, Harvey covered Mandy's eyes and said,

Chapter 1160

“Honey, don’t open your eyes. It’s too dirty.”

Boom!

Luke trembled all over. He covered his face and fled.

Desperate tears fell all over the place.

Luke gritted his teeth. After going to his room to change his clothes, he rushed to the surveillance room. He checked the surveillance and shook with fury.

“Harvey! It’s you, bastard!”

“I must kill you!”

Luke gritted his teeth. This was the man who had made a fool of him!

Chapter 1161

Chapter 1161

Still shaking, Luke hurriedly deleted the surveillance videos. He couldn't let them exist! They would be his dark past.

Several workers, who were in charge of monitoring, didn't suspect anything. They smiled at Luke, saying, "Manager Perry, did you succeed last night? You're deleting the videos again. Remember to let us brothers have some fun with those beautiful ladies next time!"

Slap!

"Rubbish!"

Luke slapped the worker who had spoken.

He was still shaking from head to toe.

When he recalled the scene in the morning, he would immediately get chills all over his body and the sudden urge to commit suicide.

Chapter 1161

He took a deep breath and calmed down.

He couldn't let this slide. He must retaliate against Harvey!

Furthermore, this must be done as soon as possible. Once Harvey checked out of the resort, Luke wouldn't have another chance.

After deliberating for some time, Luke waved his hand and brought a few security guards to the restaurant outside.

"Sir, please come with us!" Luke said, glaring coldly at Harvey.

Mandy was taken aback. "Lecturer Perry, what did my husband do? Why should he go with you?"

Luke replied coldly, "Last night, a female guest said that someone went to peep outside her room. I just checked the video. It's your husband, Harvey!"

Luke immediately charged Harvey with a crime.

Chapter 1161

It didn't matter if this was true or otherwise. Right now, he must take Harvey away and beat him up first.

Mandy was stunned. She stood up and said, "Lecturer Perry, there must be a mistake. My husband is not that kind of person!"

Luke snarled icily, "Get out of the way. Do you think telling me that he's such a person would be useful?"

"I have evidence on hand!"

"Mandy, I'm warning you. You must give me an explanation on this matter. If you don't, I could send your live-in husband to the police!"

Luke got an idea. He started preying on Mandy again.

"Go and take him away! We must deal with those who affect our resort business!"

At Luke's orders, the security guards were all raring to go. They prepared to drag Harvey away.

Chapter 1161

“Luke! What are you doing this early in the morning? Are you trying to hurt the guest?”

Just then, a cold voice reflecting a superior demeanor resounded.

Luke was startled. He hurriedly turned around, nodded, and bowed. “Sir Naiswell! Why are you here?”

The newcomer was Zeno Naiswell from the Naiswells. He was in charge of this area.

Zeno said indifferently, “Master Naiswell has already given away the Enchantment Resort. I’ve come over to complete the transfer procedures.”

“What? Give it away?”

Luke was bewildered.

Mandy, who was on the side, was stunned. She subconsciously glanced at Harvey. He must be kidding.

Chapter 1161

Mandy assumed that Harvey was only acting when he called Shane Naiswell yesterday.

It turned out to be true!

Zeno added solemnly, "Yes. I've already prepared the documents last night. But since Mr. York has to rest, I came here early in the morning instead."

Zeno used to be in charge of the Naiswells in Niumhi. Thanks to Harvey, he was acknowledged by Shane Naiswell and was transferred to Buckwood.

Naturally, Shane would let Zeno take care of the matter this time.

"Mr. York?" Mandy spoke up.

Luke was just as taken aback. "Mr. York? Which Mr. York?"

Right now, he realized that things didn't seem right.

Chapter 1162

Chapter 1162

Zeno smiled. "He's right under our noses."

As he spoke, he approached Harvey and bowed in a ninety degree angle. "Mr. York. It's been a long time since we last met each other in Niumhi!"

"The chief has instructed yesterday that I must personally hand over the contract to you."

"This resort will be your property as long as you sign the contract."

Crack!

Zeno spoke lightly, but in Luke's ears, Zeno's words were equivalent to thunder striking on a sunny day.

At the same time, Luke felt he was about to have a meltdown.

Chapter 1162

It's him!

It's truly him!

That man actually asked the Naiswells to give him this resort last night!

It was just a phone call! Yet the influential Zeno of the Naiswells rushed over to give him the contract this morning.

This, this, this, this...!

Wasn't this too dramatic?

Even TV series weren't filmed this way!

Wasn't he a kept man? How could a loser like him gain such honor?

Mandy was also shocked.

Although she was aware that Harvey knew Shane Naiswell, and the two had even met several times in the past...

She never expected that the Naiswells would do

Chapter 1162

Harvey this favor.

She stared at Harvey, full of shock.

Harvey smiled. "The contract will be signed by my wife, and it will be transferred to her name."

"One more thing. I have the final say in this resort now, correct?"

"Yes!" Zeno answered respectfully.

"Then these people are all under my control, right?" Harvey glanced at the security guards.

"Of course. You need to pay their wages. You could also fire them with just a word. I can guarantee that they'll be on the industry blacklist and will never find a job as long as you speak."

Zeno didn't know what actually transpired, but he was wise and knew the right words to say.

"Great."

Harvey took a sip of coffee and said coldly, "Then,

Chapter 1162

tell me. Who went to spy on the female guest last night?”

At his words, the security guards exchanged glances.

They usually acted under Luke's coercion. At the moment, they retained the fear they had toward Luke.

In the case of Harvey, they still couldn't accept this new master.

Zeno seemed to realize this. He demanded coldly, “Tell the truth!”

“No matter who threatened you, the Naiswells can protect you as long as you tell the truth. But if you wronged an innocent person, you'll know the consequences.”

The group of security guards trembled. Very quickly, the security captain blurted out, “Sir Naiswell, it's not our fault. It's Luke Perry! He instructed us to falsely accuse Mr. York and take Mr. York away.”

Chapter 1162

“Other than beating Mr. York up, he plans to use Mr. York to threaten Miss Zimmer for his ulterior motives!”

“Sir Naiswell! I want to report on Luke Perry. This man’s always sexually harassing the waitresses using his status as the resort’s general manager!”

“He often drugged female guests and sneaked into their rooms in the middle of the night!”

“In the past, we succumbed to his coercion and didn’t dare to speak!”

“But we have the evidence! We have copies of some surveillance videos!”

“We knew that sooner or later, all of this will be found out!”

The security guards came clean and confessed everything honestly.

“What?!”

Zeno was flabbergasted. He never expected that anyone dared to say such things right in front of a Naiswell. ①

Chapter 1162

Chapter 1163

Chapter 1163

Zeno immediately understood why Luke was aiming at Harvey.

Right now, Luke was bathing in a pool of his sweat.

Fortunately, Mandy turned out fine. Otherwise, the entire Naiswells would go down with Luke just for this matter alone.

Thud!

Luke instantly kneeled on the ground. He knew he was doomed.

He grovelled and howled, "I was wrong! I was wrong! Mr. York, Mandy, please let me go! I won't do that again!"

Mandy stared at Luke as though she was looking at trash.

Chapter 1163

To women, such people were rubbish.

Harvey also looked indifferent, not saying anything.

However, his silence didn't mean that he would let the matter end this way.

Zeno added coldly, "Come and break off his limbs. Then take him to the police and let him make things clear by himself!"

Later, Luke was dragged away by several security guards.

What awaited him was the legal sanctions. At most, he would spend the rest of his life in prison.

Things soon came to an end.

Enchantment Resort was also transferred to Mandy's name.

Although Mandy had rejected it again and again, Zeno kept a low profile. He insisted that Harvey and Mandy had helped the Naiswells to get rid of bad blood.

Chapter 1163

Thus, she would have to accept this little gift.

In the end, Mandy could only reluctantly sign the contract.

Even she was a little speechless. She came to Enchantment Resort to stay for only one night, and suddenly the resort became hers.

On top of that, this resort's market value was at least several million.

In other words, Mandy had become a millionaire again.

Mandy gazed at Harvey with curiosity.

What was the secret hidden by her live-in husband?

With a single phone call, he could make the Naiswells go the extra mile for him.

Was it really only because of his ability to appraise antiques?

Chapter 1163

Mandy always assumed that she knew Harvey well. However, at this moment, she felt that she could read him less and less.

But before she could say anything about it, Zeno asked someone to hand her a card.

The auction prepared by the Naiswells was about to begin. The core item in this auction was Regency Enterprise's equity.

Mandy had always wanted to see it live. She became as happy as a child when she received the invitation, and subsequently forgot to ask Harvey any questions.

The auction was held in the large conference room of Enchantment Resort.

The decor was absolutely luxurious. It was said that the cost to rent the room even for only a day reached a few thousand dollars.

The security of this place was excellent. Those without invitations weren't permitted to enter.

Chapter 1163

After letting the staff check the invitation in their hands, Harvey and Mandy followed the crowd into the venue. They could see that many big shots had gathered inside.

Many of them had bodyguards dressed in suits and leather shoes standing guard behind them.

They were people of important stature and needed to be protected at all times.

Other than some figures from the Great Country H, Harvey and Mandy could also spot some foreign faces.

Regency Enterprise was an important foothold in Buckwood. Many were keeping an eye on it.

Everyone wanted to get started with Regency Enterprise, and then use it to enter the Buckwood market.

“Hey, pretty lady. I'm Sir George from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. It's an honor to meet

Chapter 1163

you.”

A western-looking man with blue eyes and curly hair approached them, his speech not very fluent. He reached out his hand and took hold of Mandy's, and was about to kiss it.

As for Harvey, he was completely ignored.

Chapter 1164

Just as George was about to succeed in kissing Mandy's hand, Harvey stepped forward and blocked Mandy.

George was a little taken aback. He raised his head and glared at Harvey coldly, "Don't you know basic etiquette? When a nobleman is giving a hand kiss, no one should interrupt!"

"If we're in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, you'd go to court for such disrespectful behavior!"

Harvey smiled and replied equally coldly, "This is the Great Country H, not the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets."

"You should follow our rules here in the Great Country H."

"Here, you'd be arrested and detained at the police station for a few days if you touch a woman so casually.”

Chapter 1164

“Presumptuous!” George hollered. “You’re too presumptuous! You actually insulted a nobleman!”

“You must kneel and apologize to me today. I’ll go to the embassy to file a suit otherwise, and you’ll regret it!”

George exclaimed, looking complacent.

He was quite familiar with the Great Country H. Thus, he knew very well that if he put out his status as a foreign guest in the Great Country H, many of its citizens would yield to him and act humbly in front of him.

He was even making use of the embassy now. There was no way that this careless man wouldn’t be afraid!

After all, he was a pure-blooded noble in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Harvey wanted to say something, but Mandy glared at him and quickly bowed to George. “Dear Sir, my husband doesn’t really know the etiquette of your country. Please don’t mind.”

Chapter 1164

Mandy was acting like so for Harvey’s benefit. She didn’t want him to offend the foreigners. Thus, she was trying to smooth things over.

George stared at Mandy for some time. He then replied with an ambiguous smile, “Beauty, your husband is not sensible. But you’re very sensible!”

“In the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, even if a woman is married, she still has the right to associate with other men.”

Harvey interjected curiously, “So, men in your country love wearing horns?”

“Wearing horns?” George was taken aback. He obviously didn’t understand what Harvey meant.

However, Mandy laughed loudly.

Others from the Great Country H nearby also showed knowing smiles.

Chapter 1164

Harvey explained kindly, "It means that the wife is cheating on the husband and being unfaithful."

"Your statement is quite interesting. Indeed, men in our country love wearing horns."

George understood now. Nonetheless, the people in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets were quite open-minded. They were not ashamed of such matters; conversely, they were proud of it.

George kept on smiling as he went on, "Pretty lady, let me introduce myself. I'm George III of the Morgan Financial Group of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. You can call me George."

After he spoke, George took out a card with a bronze family crest on it.

His words shocked the crowd.

"What? The Morgan Financial Group of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?"

"It's said that this financial group is associated with people from many industries. Why would they be interested in Regency Enterprise?”

Chapter 1164

“Morgan Financial Group is a large multinational corporation! Could it be that the capital market of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets have set their eyes on Buckwood?”

“In this case, the competition in Buckwood will be immense in the future!”

The business leaders present frowned.

Not only did these large multinational corporations have advanced technology, but they also had abundant funds. Competing with them was much too hard!

Chapter 1165

Chapter 1165

George smiled complacently when he noticed the awful complexions that dawned on the faces of the Great Country H's citizens.

He was a nobleman of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. For a man like him to invest in such a poor country was akin to a charity visit.

When he was still in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, he had heard that some of the citizens of the Great Country H worshipped everything foreign and fawned over foreigners.

Now, it seemed that was true.

All these merchants from the great Country H were frightened of him!

George turned to Mandy with a smug look. "Pretty lady, you'll gain innumerable benefits if you go out with me!”

Chapter 1165

“Not only can I show you the traditional culture of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, but I can also help you obtain a green card that will allow you to become a citizen there!”

George was determined.

When he was in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, he had also heard that there were many beauties residing in this mysterious ancient eastern country.

The moment he saw Mandy, he was blown away. She was countless times more gorgeous than the stars he saw on the silver screen.

Following the tradition of his country, George wanted to have a beautiful encounter with this lovely lady.

George didn't care whether she had a husband or not.

“Is the green card there that good? We're not interested.” Harvey remarked indifferently. He then took Mandy to his seat.

Chapter 1165

George watched this scene with a sneer on his lips. “Interesting. Someone dares to refuse a great noble from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

“You’re dead!”

“I want this woman!”

At this moment, someone next to George quickly whispered, “Young Master, let’s focus on the important things first. The Old Master has instructed that no matter what, we must acquire Regency Enterprise.”

“For the sake of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

George replied impatiently, “I know! I’ll go play with that stupid oaf after the auction is over!”

Later, everyone went to their designated seats.

Zeno was the one in charge of the auction this time.

Chapter 1165

The Buckwood government had also sent someone else to supervise the scene.

After all, this was a major event in Buckwood.

At first, the Naiswells showed several random items as warm up before finally reaching the main part of the event.

“Everyone! Coming up next is today’s highlight! The ownership of Regency Enterprise!”

“Regency Enterprise is the largest real estate company in Buckwood. Its properties include the show business, the garment industry, the tourism industry, and so on and forth. The prospects are excellent!”

“This time, Regency Enterprise is for sale. The starting bid price is 156 million dollars!”

Zeno announced with a smile.

“171 million dollars!”

The Hamiltons from Las Vegas immediately raised their placard.

Chapter 1165

“187 million dollars!”

This time, the Gordons of Hong Kong raised their placard.

Soon, the price continued to increase until it reached 234 million dollars.

However, the price continued to increase for about one to three million every time someone made a bid.

The value of Regency Enterprise turned out to range between 234 million to 312 million.

If one bought it with a price that exceeded that limit, then it was a deal with no profit.

“How dull. I thought these local tyrants would go all out when they bid.” Harvey said, surveying the scene with contempt. “Now they’re just testing each other. They’re too weak.”

Mandy smiled. “Speak softer, we’re here to watch the show. We’re not here to bid.”

Chapter 1165

“It’s up to these major figures on how they want to bid. We should just watch.”

When she finished speaking, she shot a glance at George III. “If I guessed correctly, Regency Enterprise will most definitely fall into the hands of Morgan Financial Group. Sir George will certainly win it.”

“I never expected that the Great Country H’s assets would eventually fall into the hands of foreigners.”

Mandy lamented.

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1166

Chapter 1166

“Him?”

Harvey laughed.

“Morgan Financial Group is just a third-class financial group in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. Why are they acting like they’re such a big deal here in the Great Country H?”

Harvey wasn’t simply talking out of his hat.

Back when he was still on the battlefield, the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets had surrendered a lot of shares of their financial groups as gifts to ransom the nobles Harvey captured.

The Morgan Financial Group wasn’t among them.

It could be said that this financial group was just so-so. They might even be rated as low-class in the

Chapter 1166

Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Thus, Harvey thought that it was unnecessary for these big shots to fear Morgan Financial Group.

It didn't matter even if Morgan Financial Group was from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

In the previous battle, five powerful nations joined forces, but they were still defeated by Harvey.

The Great Country H had already risen in the world. There was no need to fear any outside forces.

Unfortunately, some people's bones had already weakened because they were too used to kneeling.

Harvey looked down on losers like them.

Mandy listened to Harvey and agreed. "These foreign-funded enterprises aren't that remarkable here in the Great Country H."

"But when they come to our country with diplomatic passports, they enjoy certain policy preferences."

Chapter 1166

“Fair competition. The companies on our side may not be their opponents.”

“It’s fine for the two of us to talk about this in private, but we shouldn’t let anyone hear us and cause trouble.”

Mandy advised Harvey, concerned.

She felt that with Harvey’s temperament, he was too fond of causing troubles. If he offended the nobles from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, it might become a foreign-related dispute and spiral into something infinitely troublesome.

While Harvey and Mandy were chatting, the price bidding subsided.

The price was now 265 million.

Many representatives from powerful families and large companies bore awful complexions. They dared not add on to the price.

They were representing the interests of their respective families. If they spent too much for a deal without any profit, they might be criticized when they returned.

Chapter 1166

Therefore, many of them were on the verge of giving up.

At this moment, George stood up and surveyed his surroundings maliciously. His vicious gaze was filled with pride.

When he had finished looking around, he said coldly, "You really are a group of short-sighted morons. I didn't expect that I, a dignified baron, would have to bid with such fools!"

As he spoke, he immediately raised his placard without giving others a chance to react.

"300 million!"

The crowd was shocked when they saw the price.

George had raised the price by 47 million in one shot!

As per the estimated value, this was already the limit of Regency Enterprise.

Chapter 1166

George glared fiercely at the crowd. At the same time, he made a gesture of swiping his neck.

It was crystal clear. He was warning everyone not to compete with him!

Unfortunately, George's gesture was obvious and far too provocative.

The faces of some descendants of the large families from Wosing, Mordu, and some other places morphed into awful expressions.

It was fine if they were insulted, but the same couldn't be said for their lineages.

“328 million!”

Someone sneered and held up the placard.

“343 million!”

Soon, prices soared once more.

When the price increased to 390 million, George

Chapter 1166

announced coldly, “468 million!”

The price had been raised by 78 million!

The entire room shook.

Almost everyone stared at George.

This nobleman from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets was a ruthless man!

Ordinary people could never dream of competing with him! 4

Chapter 1167

“He’s indeed a noble from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. His actions are ruthless!”

“The aristocratic heritage of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets is too profound. We can’t be compared to it!”

“He has diplomatic privileges so he doesn’t need to pay a lot of taxes when he gets Regency Enterprise. Based on this point alone, we’ve lost!”

The large families were all abuzz, their complexions awful.

Even if they continued to increase prices, there was a high probability that they would only lose money under such circumstances.

At the moment, the senior executives of Regency Enterprise were thrilled.

Chapter 1167

It wasn't a matter of price. If they were wholly-owned by Morgan Financial Group, then they would become a foreign-funded enterprise.

Foreign-funded enterprises receive better treatment than domestic enterprises.

These senior executives had been in Regency Enterprise for many years, and had grown unscrupulous.

They couldn't care less about their country. They simply wanted better lives for themselves.

Mandy sighed. "If such a group falls into the hands of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, it certainly wouldn't be a good thing for the Buckwood market in the future."

"Sigh..."

Mandy feared that these foreign-funded enterprises wouldn't follow the rules and disrupt Buckwood's businesses.

Capitalists may not suffer any losses, but the ordinary people would certainly do.

Chapter 1167

Harvey stared at Mandy and asked curiously “Are you that worried?”

He knew that Mandy was kind-hearted, but he never imagined that she bore such patriotic feelings for the nation and country.

Mandy nodded and replied, “I’m mainly worried that the people’s living costs would increase.”

Harvey nodded as well. “You’re right, honey. Even if it’s just something like this, we couldn’t let George succeed.”

Mandy sighed. “But what could we do?”

“The solution’s very simple.”

Harvey smiled. Under Mandy’s shocked gaze, he casually raised the placard in his hand.

Mandy was bewildered.

What did Harvey intend to do?

Chapter 1167

Was he trying to mess around?

“Honey, don’t mess around! We can’t afford the consequences of causing trouble in an event like this!”

Mandy’s face paled with fright.

However, it was too late for her to stop Harvey.

The crowd focused their gazes on Harvey when he raised the placard.

They looked at Harvey with eyes of doubt.

Before, Harvey hadn’t raised his placard at all.

Thus, no one had any impression of him.

Only Zeno, who was on the auction stage, smiled.

The Naiswells also didn’t want Regency Enterprise to fall into the hands of an overseas company.

The best thing that could happen now was Harvey’s willingness to take action.

At this very moment, Harvey was in the center of attention. He said casually, “468 million and 15 cents.”

Chapter 1167

Everyone grew stunned when Harvey announced the price.

Then, their faces darkened.

George had shown his determination to acquire Regency Enterprise when he announced a price of 468 million.

Even the representatives of one or two top families didn't intend to raise their placards after that, and were about to give up.

Everyone was lamenting the fact that Buckwood's future business market would fall into chaos once Regency Enterprise fell into the hands of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

However, they didn't expect something like this to happen at such a critical moment.

Someone actually bid for the price. On top of that, this man also added 15 cents!

Chapter 1167

This wasn't bidding. This was basically insulting George and humiliating Morgan Financial Group.

George and his men turned to Harvey, their expressions ice-cold.

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1168

Chapter 1168

It was important to know that the men of Morgan Financial Group originated from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Even if there were a few citizens from the Great Country H working in the company, they were basically green card holders living in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Therefore, they too enjoyed diplomatic privileges when in the Great Country H.

Such men took advantage of this privilege. Thus, they knew that the government would always try to be on their side whenever they faced a conflict with citizens of the Great Country H.

Normally, no one wanted to antagonize foreigners with diplomatic privileges.

Chapter 1168

Yet, right now, someone actually dared to provoke the citizens from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

Especially George, who was a baron!

Even within the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, he was considered to be part of the ruling class.

He stared at Mandy and Harvey from a distance, smiling grimly.

So they dare to anger him?

This moron, who'd never seen the world, must be seeking death!

“484 million!”

George increased the price as he glared defiantly at Harvey.

He wanted to see whether this moron dared to continue provoking him.

Unexpectedly, Harvey was indifferent and raised his placard once more.

Chapter 1168

“484 million and 15 cents.”

“You!”

George shook with anger.

This was a provocation, but also a kind of contempt for his aristocratic status!

The rest of the guests looked at Harvey with baffled stares.

This man who came from nowhere, wasn't he too bold?

Even the representatives from the top ten families of the Great Country H dared not provoke Morgan Financial Group.

Yet this man actually had the courage to do so.

He might not know that he would die soon.

Mandy, too, was beside herself with worry.

It was still fine to offend the big families in the country.

Chapter 1168

However, if Harvey offended a foreign guest, then everything would be in trouble.

It might become a diplomatic dispute all of a sudden. If that were to happen, even if the Yates family intervened, they wouldn't be able to save Harvey!

To Mandy, Harvey was somewhat impulsive.

He actually provoked Morgan Financial Group because of personal feelings.

Since Harvey had started it, it was too late to stop now!

Since things got to this point, Mandy couldn't do anything. She could only watch with worry.

“500 million!”

George continued to bid.

Originally, according to Morgan Financial Group's budget, they could certainly win Regency Enterprise with 484 million.

Chapter 1168

Yet, this crazy buffoon suddenly showed up and increased the cost by 31 million for no reason!

George couldn't wait to strangle Harvey to death

Still, he must remain calm for now.

He would wait until everything was over and use the excuse of diplomatic disputes to drag Harvey to the embassy of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

When that happens, he would ruin Mandy as well!

However, Harvey didn't catch the resentment in George's eyes. Instead, he said indifferently, "500 million and 15 cents!"

"You!"

George was livid.

The men from Morgan Financial Group glared

Chapter 1168

sullenly at Harvey.

This monkey from the Great Country H was provoking the great Empire of the Sun that Never Sets and the great Morgan Financial Group!

Others present also frowned slightly.

This brat had gone too far. None of them knew how he would end it.

“You’re fantastic! I want to see how long you can continue this!” George looked furious and raised his placard once more.

“546 million!”

All the people present gasped when they heard the price.

Even the Naiswells were rattled.

According to the estimation of the Buckwood government, being able to sell Regency Enterprise for 390 million was already a high boon.

Unexpectedly, the prices kept soaring up.

Chapter 1169

Chapter 1169

After announcing the price, George shot Harvey a defiant look.

546 million was the highest price Morgan Financial Group could afford.

They had to set aside some funds to settle in Buckwood.

George wanted to see if this man dared to follow.

If he didn't, Regency Enterprise would fall into Morgan Financial Group's hands.

However, should Harvey continue to increase the price, George couldn't follow up and add on the price anymore.

Nonetheless, George wanted to see how this low-class monkey could come up with 546 million.

Chapter 1169

At this moment, everyone's eyes fell on Harvey.

Mandy, who was on the side, looked nervous.

Judging by George's expression, everyone knew he couldn't pay a higher price.

Everyone wanted to see what Harvey would do.

Harvey smiled at George and raised his placard. He said indifferently, "625 million."

These few words, spoken lightly, shocked everyone present.

"What?!"

"625 million?!"

Everyone's complexions became awful when they heard this price.

Everyone assumed Harvey would, at most, only add 15 cents.

They never expected him to increase the price by 78

Chapter 1169

million.

So ruthless!

George and Morgan Financial Group grew somewhat dumbfounded.

They initially thought Harvey was deliberately crossing them. However, it turned out that Harvey was serious.

As for Mandy, she was now on the brink of collapse.

625 million?

Was Harvey joking around?

Where did he get so much money?

The officials from Buckwood government present were also looking at Harvey oddly.

Could this man, who looked so normal at first glance, produce 625 million?

In the entire room, only Zeno showed a knowing smile. "Well then. If there are no other bidders, then Regency Enterprise will be sold to Mr. Harvey York at the price of 625 million!”

Chapter 1169

This matter was settled.

Everyone looked at the initially determined George, ironic smiles gracing their faces.

How arrogant were the men from Morgan Financial Group in the beginning?

Acting so confident!

But in the end?

Weren't they getting thoroughly humiliated now?!

Although many people there didn't know Harvey, they still felt that it was countless times better for a citizen of the country to acquire Regency Enterprise rather than a foreign party.

At the very least, no foreign financial group could intervene in Buckwood's business industry for the time being.

Bang!

Chapter 1169

The big burly George kicked the table in front of him. His complexion was awful.

The first step Morgan Financial Group had to take in order to control Buckwood and the business of the Great Country H was to acquire the Regency Enterprise.

However, George failed in the first step!

He would be deemed incompetent within the financial group.

His pride couldn't allow this!

George instantly raised his head and glared coldly at Harvey. "Great! What a great 625 million!"

"I want to see how a monkey from the Great Country H could produce 625 million!"

"This is a regular auction, it's not just bidding!"

"If I find out that he deliberately made trouble and couldn't produce 625 million, I'll use the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets's diplomatic privileges to have the embassy drag him away!"

Chapter 1169

"In addition, the Buckwood government must explain themselves to the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!"

Chapter 1170

Chapter 1170

George's face was filled with arrogance.

His warning shook everyone back to their senses.

That was 625 million!

It wasn't merely 6.25 dollars!

Did this seemingly ordinary Harvey really have the money?

At this moment, the complexions of the Buckwood government officials present became awful.

If Morgan Financial Group used this event as an excuse to create trouble, some of them might lose their jobs.

After all, they were in charge of this auction.

Naturally they would take the credit if it succeeded, but it would also be their responsibility if it failed.

Chapter 1170

A government official stood up and turned to Harvey. "Sir, you need to prove you have enough assets to participate in this auction!"

"If you can't, you'll be temporarily detained for disrupting international business activities."

"You must also apologize to the honorable Sir George."

At these words, Harvey asked nonchalantly, "I have to prove it? What about him?"

Harvey pointed at George.

The staff member smiled and said, "Sir George is a distinguished foreign guest. Naturally, he doesn't have to prove anything."

Harvey smiled. "That doesn't make any sense."

"Business activities must emphasize fairness. I have no problem with you verifying my capital."

"However, my condition is that you also need to verify this foreign monkey's capital.”

“Otherwise, why should I prove my assets?”

George's face instantly darkened at Harvey's retort.

“Presumptuous! Damn monkey! Do you know you're insulting a baron?”

“Baron? I remember that there are many barons in the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. As for you, I think you're just a low-status baron.”

“You're just a mere baron. What's the point of showing off in the Great Country H?”

“Be that as may, a baron also receives diplomatic privileges in the Great Country H. Then shouldn't I check your identity first? What if you're a fake?”

Harvey said rightfully, rendering the staff members speechless.

“This...” Several Buckwood government officials were sweating profusely.

George sneered. “Monkey! If I prove my identity, will you let them verify your capital?”

Chapter 1170

“Yes.” Harvey said indifferently.

“Then do you dare to bet with me? If you have 625 million, I’ll grovel and apologize to you. If you don’t, then you’ll do the same!”

George assumed that Harvey had no money at all.

Since Harvey refused to verify his capital, he was obviously just making excuses.

How could George let Harvey go?

Harvey frowned. “No.”

“Are you afraid?” George sneered.

Everyone looked at Harvey, assuming that he was frightened.

However, Harvey shook his head and said, “The status of a baron of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets is too low. You don’t have the right to kneel to me.”

Chapter 1170

“Pfff...!”

Several people almost spewed out a mouthful of blood at Harvey’s words.

They had seen arrogant people, but they had not seen arrogance to such an extent.

The status of a baron was too low?

Not qualified to kneel to you?

Who do you think you are?

At this moment, someone studied Harvey carefully and exclaimed in amazement, “This, isn’t this the live-in son-in-law of the Zimmer family?”

“When did a live-in son-in-law grow so arrogant?”

“What?! A live-in son-in-law looking down on a baron from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

Everyone fell into an uproar. 2

Chapter 1171

Chapter 1171

George knew what a live-in son-in-law meant.

A cold chuckle leaked out of him.

“You’re actually looking down on me when you’re just a kept man?”

“I already told you. If you can’t prove your worth, then this will be considered a diplomatic dispute. I’m afraid you and your wife have to come with me to the embassy!”

Harvey chuckled icily.

“And what if I refuse?”

“Then I shall report this incident to the Empire Parliament. I think they would want to inquire your government for a statement!” George retorted coldly, a threatening expression on his face.

Chapter 1171

In the past, it would be unfavorable for him to do something like this.

“You threaten me? And my country?”

Harvey frowned.

“So what if I threaten Country H? It’s just a country full of monkeys anyway!”

George chuckled coldly.

The people present all frantically changed their expressions after hearing those words. Even those from the Buckwood government did the same.

Although quite a lot of people fawned on foreigners, how many of them could accept getting pointed at while being called a monkey?

Harvey sucked in a deep breath, his expression ice cold.

He glared coldly at George and replied, “Fine then, we’re at this point anyway. If you want a bet, you’ll get it.”

“But do you dare to raise the stakes?”

“If I can’t get six hundred and twenty-five million, I’ll die.”

“However, if I can, you’ll be the dead one!”

Boom!

Everyone was utterly shocked by Harvey’s words.

Nobody thought that Harvey would be this ruthless. He was playing with his life!

After listening to Harvey, George too was baffled.

George assumed that Harvey would definitely give in, but he didn’t expect for Harvey to bet on his life.

George’s eyes blinked rapidly, his gaze filled with hesitation.

After some time, he replied icily, “How presumptuous! I’m royalty. Why would I ever bet on my life with a lowly man like you? Are you even worth it?”

Chapter 1171

As he finished talking, he looked at the staff from the Buckwood government, and then chuckled coldly once more.

“Everyone! Is this how you treat your guests in Country H? I’ll be asking for a fair statement about this!”

“What? Are you scared to take the bet?”

Harvey glared at George, filled with disdain.

“Are you people from The Empire of the Sun That Never Sets really that frightened of death?”

This time, George was completely enraged.

He glared furiously at Harvey and replied, “Fine! I’ll play along! I do want to see how you’ll acquire six hundred and twenty-five million dollars!”

“Alright...”

Harvey chuckled coldly as he took out a Black Card.

Chapter 1171

He then handed it over to the staff and said calmly, "Swipe the card."

George watched the sight closely, along with the rest of the crowd. None of them believed that the card held any money in it at all.

This was six hundred and twenty-five million dollars!

Many billion dollar corporations couldn't even produce this amount of money. They'd have to think of ways to acquire such an amount, and might even need to request for loans from banks.

How would the card that belonged to Harvey, a live-in son-in-law, contain six hundred and twenty-five million dollars?

Unbelievable!

George held onto an ashtray on a table, all the while glaring coldly at Harvey. He was prepared to use it to smash Harvey's head until Harvey died.

Then, after a while, a large group of the staff in charge of the Buckwood government auction sprinted towards Harvey.

Chapter 1171

They all looked at Harvey with gazes full of unspeakable admiration.

“Noble Mr. York, the transaction is complete. From now on, Regency Enterprise is now your property!”

“I shall return your card!”

The staff leading the group all bowed a perfect ninety degrees before respectfully handing the Black Card back to Harvey.

Chapter 1172

“This!”

Gasps from the crowd echoed throughout at this very moment.

“It worked?”

“How is that even possible? He actually paid six hundred and twenty-five million dollars?”

Those from Morgan Financial Group became so terrified, to the point where they almost fell to the ground on their hinds.

The ashtray in George’s hand fell onto the carpet with a loud clang.

This...

How did he meet such an amazing mega tycoon the very first time he came to Country H?

Chapter 1172

Out of everyone there, Mandy was the most shocked.

She could barely comprehend how Harvey had made the Naiswells give her the resort before.

But he actually had six hundred and twenty-five million dollars to buy Regency Enterprise?

Where did he get all that money from?

The pocket money Mandy gave him could never accumulate to that amount!

Before Mandy could return to her senses from her shock, a Buckwood government worker said respectfully, "Mr. York, please follow us backstage to go through the formalities!"

Clearly, the worker wanted to pull Harvey away and did not want the bet between Harvey and George to continue.

Harvey looked at the worker calmly and replied, "I forgot to tell you. Regency Enterprise is a gift for my wife. Just let her go through the procedures instead.”

Chapter 1172

“What?! For his wife?!”

“His wife must be terribly blessed! A company worth six hundred and twenty-five million dollars as a gift?”

Everyone was bewildered.

Mandy became even more stunned.

She didn't know what to say at this moment.

When Harvey said that he was going to help her build a business empire before, she thought that he was only joking.

But this man actually kept his word!

“Darling, let's go,” Mandy said quietly. She had too many questions to ask.

“There's no rush.”

Harvey smiled.

Chapter 1172

He then turned around to look at George and said calmly, "Do you still remember our bet?"

George's face had lost all color.

The people around were all giving out faint smiles.

Some of them frowned at Harvey. They didn't believe that this man would actually end George.

Everyone thought that Harvey would just talk about the matter lightly. After all, the Buckwood government staff had given him a hint.

They never expected that Harvey would simply say these things out loud.

"Are you going to do it yourself? Or do you need my help?"

Harvey took out his phone, full of excitement, and began to record a video.

He didn't expect that George never had the intention to keep his promise. George snarled, "

Chapter 1172

Country H monkey, you want me to kill myself?
Keep dreaming!”

“Beat me to death if you have the strength to do so!”

“But do you dare?”

“It’d be a sin for you to touch even a strand of my hair! A diplomatic dispute!”

“The Country H government can make your life a living hell, even without me taking action!”

Naturally, George wouldn’t admit to the bet he made before and instead glared coldly at Harvey. In his eyes, Harvey definitely wouldn’t dare lay a finger on him.

He did not expect Harvey to smile in the next moment.

“Darling, close your eyes.”

After seeing Mandy subconsciously close her eyes, Harvey immediately sent out a kick.

Chapter 1172

Bang!

George's body flew out, smashing right into a table. Blood gushed out of his mouth.

The sight struck the crowd dumb.

Nobody expected Harvey to actually take action, let alone do something to this extent!

"How dare you hit me?! There will be consequences for this, I guarantee it!" George roared furiously at Harvey as he stumbled to stand back up. "I promise you, your family will have no chance of survival!"

"Is that so?"

Harvey walked toward George and stomped on George's right hand. There was a loud crack, and George's wrist was immediately broken.

"Aaaah!"

Cries of pain rang.

The Buckwood government staff were completely horrified.

Chapter 1172

Soon after, a person swiftly stood in front of Harvey, his expression awful.

“Mr. York, please! Spare his life!”

“If not, we won’t be able to keep our jobs!”

“Mr. York, just pretend that he’s a fart in the wind!”

“Mr. York, we promise you that we’ll finish up the procedures if you stop right now. We guarantee you that Morgan Financial Group won’t be causing you any more trouble!”

Harvey turned back to Mandy and saw that while she did not open her eyes, her face had lost all color.

If he continued any further, he would terrify Mandy.

Harvey nodded coldly, took Mandy’s hand, then turned around and left.

Only when Harvey had left did the men from Morgan Financial Group dare to head over and lift up George, who now had a broken hand. The expressions on their faces looked awful.

Chapter 1172

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1173

Chapter 1173

George held his broken hand, almost crushing his yellow teeth in anger.

“No! We of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets will never be embarrassed like this in a small country from the far East!”

“We won’t let go of this matter that easily!”

“I’ll cripple that man!”

“Regency Enterprise is mine!”

“That woman will be mine as well!”

“What should we do then, Master?” George’s servant, King Cook, asked from the side.

He was a citizen of Country H, but he had acquired a green card from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. At this moment, he had completely identified himself as a servant of said country.

Chapter 1173

Such xenophiles were usually the most shameless.

He would be utterly ruthless toward his fellow citizens just to pamper his new master.

King had already begun to rub his palms together, thinking of ways to avenge his new master.

George took a deep breath and asked, "How many people did we bring this time?"

"A total of thirty people. The one leading the group is a retired knight from the Empire's Knights Templar. He has great skill!" King said.

"Good, get the men to prepare themselves. Watch those two closely. Take action once you see them leaving!"

"We have diplomatic immunity, anyway. We'll be fine even if we kill them."

George's expression was as cold as ice. In his eyes, the ignorant Country H was already finished.

Chapter 1173

...

On the other side.

Backstage.

After half an hour, Mandy finally finished every single necessary procedure.

From then on, she was the new owner of Regency Enterprise!

Even after she signed the contract, she still felt like she was dreaming.

After a long while, she touched Harvey's face and said, "Darling, when can we wake up again?"

"Huh?"

Harvey froze.

'What madness is this?'

"Aren't we dreaming right now? How could this be real?"

Chapter 1173

Mandy was showing a cute yet distraught expression at this moment.

Harvey reached out his hand to pinch Mandy's face.
"Does it hurt?"

"Ow, ow, ow!"

Mandy tried dodging, but she came back to her senses in the end.

Everything was real.

"Darling, tell me. Where are you getting all this money from? Is there something that you're still hiding from me?"

After calming down, Mandy stared at Harvey with a frown.

She already wanted to ask before, but the timing was inappropriate.

This time, she had to make sure.

But before Mandy could ask anything else, her

Chapter 1173

phone rang.

Halsey Lowe was calling.

“Congratulations, Mandy!” Halsey said, smiling.

Mandy was perplexed.

“Why are you congratulating me? Did something good happen?”

Halsey then replied, “I just received news that Prince York spent six hundred and twenty-five million dollars to buy off Regency Enterprise, and that the company has been transferred under your name as well!”

“The Sky Corporation staff are boiling right now!”

“Everyone’s saying that Prince York is treating you so nicely. He even supported you with Silver Nimbus Enterprise before!”

“Even when you’re bankrupt, he still supports you anyway!”

“Mandy, you must’ve saved the universe in your

Chapter 1173

past life!”

“I know you want to reject him. But Mandy, this is your chance! A chance to rise up once again! You better not decline it again!”

Halsey then hung up the call after she finished talking.

Mandy was slightly dumbfounded.

‘Prince York. Is the man pulling the strings actually Prince York?’

At this moment, Mandy’s gaze on Harvey was dyed in confusion.

Suddenly, an unbelievable thought popped in her head.

Maybe her husband was actually Prince York himself?

Chapter 1174

Chapter 1174

If it really were true, then it would explain a lot of things.

Including Prince York himself proposing to Mandy.

And why the Naiswells would just give her the resort.

How Harvey had six hundred and twenty-five million dollars to spend.

And how Harvey had the guts to break George's hand.

Along with many many things before, they all had a proper explanation.

But the problem was that if Harvey was indeed Prince York himself, why didn't he tell Mandy?

Mandy frowned. She studied Harvey, question marks constantly popping out her head.

Chapter 1174

...

When everything was over, Harvey and Mandy had no intention to stay any longer. They got in their car and immediately left.

With Regency Enterprise at hand, there were many things to arrange.

Right after the two had left, George, who had a plaster cast, along with a few other men, kicked the door down.

Seeing the empty room, George's expression turned as cold as ice.

"Where are they?"

King replied timidly, "Master, they must've just left. My men are watching. We won't lose them!"

George coldly replied to King's words, "Go after them yourself. Cripple that man, but leave the woman in one piece!"

Chapter 1174

“I’m going to toy with his wife right in front of him!”

“And I want him to transfer the ownership of Regency Enterprise under the Morgan Financial Group’s name with just a single dollar!”

George’s expression was ice cold, and his blue eyes were filled with ruthlessness.

King then went to fulfill George’s command.

George’s lackeys expressed their exhilaration.

“Master, it should’ve been like this since the beginning! When did Morgan Financial Group ever competed against other people?”

“Right, we should just make them sell Regency Enterprise to us! They have to sell it to us, no matter what!”

George replied icily, “This is Country H, after all. We may have diplomatic immunity, but there are still things that we can’t do publicly.”

Chapter 1174

“I thought that Morgan Financial Group had to obey the rules for once. Who knew that Harvey’s kind enough to give us a chance?!”

“After this, the monkeys in Country H will understand that they can only kneel in front of the noble Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

“Don’t think that you can just step on the Empire just because you won against us on the battlefield once!”

“Bunch of monkeys and groundhogs!”

George chuckled coldly.

At that moment, one of the lackey’s phone rang. He received King’s call and grinned. “Master, their car is already driving out of the car park. Our men are trailing them. Do you want to go by yourself?”

“Of course I do! Who’s going to play with the woman if I don’t?”

George laughed coldly.

Chapter 1174

“Go, tell everyone to come with me. When I get my share, you can all take the sloppy seconds!”

George’s words delighted his lackeys.

...

On the road.

Mandy was too tired. After having fallen into a daze, she ended up sleeping in the car.

Harvey, who was driving, noticed several cars trailing them through the rear-view mirror. A smile crept up to his face.

He could basically guess who was following them.

He wanted to return to Buckwood first before dealing with these people, but he didn’t expect that they would show up to their own death themselves.

Right at this moment, a car immediately stopped in front of Harvey, blocking his own.

Chapter 1175

Chapter 1175

About thirty people exited the cars from both sides and strode toward Harvey.

They were all tall and strong, with a distinctly western appearance. They looked as though they could each take on ten men at once, bearing a very imposing and terrifying manner.

They held electric batons made for the police, and their expressions were as cold as ice.

After parking neatly and locking his car, Harvey got out and studied the men calmly.

King Cook emerged from the crowd of men. He sized Harvey up with an icy chuckle.

“Kid, you’ve got guts!”

“You dare to get out of the car even after seeing

Chapter 1175

us?!”

Harvey then replied calmly, “Get out of here right now while I’m still in a good mood. If you interrupt my wife’s rest, I’ll break all of your limbs.”

“Hahaha...!”

King and his men all burst into laughter.

“I’m done talking nonsense with you. Go and cripple this man together!”

With King’s cold chuckle, several fighters rushed forward in a split second.

Bang!

But Harvey immediately stretched his right hand out and grabbed the neck of the fighter who was leading the charge. He then slammed the fighter onto the ground.

“Pfffft!”

A surge of blood gushed out of the fighter’s mouth.

Chapter 1175

Some of his innards seemed to be mixed with the expelled blood.

He twitched slightly, then ceased all movement.

Harvey's move immediately shocked everyone present.

“Go! All of you!”

“If he doesn't die, then you all will take his place!”

King shouted furiously.

Harvey casually sauntered forward and sent the two fighters beside him flying with his kicks, then immediately aimed another one at King's lower body.

“Agh—!”

King twitched at the same spot he stood.

The thirty so-called fighters were all obliterated by Harvey in a matter of seconds.

In under a minute, they all lay paralyzed on the ground.

Chapter 1175

The fighters' limbs were all crippled!

King gasped at the sight.

'Too strong!'

'This man is too strong!'

'He's like a God of War on the battlefield!'

Many of the fighters had been on the battlefield before, so they were all retired soldiers. But even these fighters combined couldn't last half a minute against this man!

Harvey gave a phone call right after.

Very soon, several well-trained bodyguards Tyson Woods had picked arrived.

"Apologies, CEO York. We're late!"

The bodyguards were utterly shocked at seeing the fighters lying still on the ground.

Though they knew their boss's master was amazing, they didn't expect him to be this good!

Chapter 1175

Harvey casually said, "It's fine. A few of you can escort my wife to Regency Enterprise for now."

"I'll handle the rest."

Harvey spoke with ease, but the bodyguards had cold sweat dripping down their backs when they heard his words.

'Finished! The person who provoked the Prince is finished!'

Soon, the bodyguards protecting Mandy left.

Mandy was still sleeping soundly in the car. She had no idea what was happening outside.

Harvey waited at the same place, a cold expression on his face.

At the same time, George got in his Rolls Royce and went out with haste.

Thinking about taking over Regency Enterprise and

Chapter 1175

Mandy's peerless beauty, he couldn't control his excitement.

"Hurry up already, I can't wait!"

"This time, I'll have a good taste of an Eastern woman!"

George rubbed his palms, ready to take action. ①

He hurried the driver as he made a call.

However, there was nobody on the other side of the phone.

"They must be dealing with Harvey. That King is truly a loyal dog!"

George chuckled coldly.

Chapter 1176

Chapter 1176

After five minutes, George arrived at the scene.

A smile came to his face when he saw the cars nearby.

“You dare to go against me, Harvey York? You can go die!”

George got out of his car swiftly, but what he saw the next second shocked him.

King was lying on the ground along with all of his fighters, every single one of them unconscious.

They were all retired soldiers. How could this possibly happen?

‘How is this possible?!’

George’s face was filled with shock. These people were a part of his team when he arrived at Country

Chapter 1176

H. With the fighters crippled, he had no way of explaining the situation to the board of directors in Morgan Financial Group.

George's sight shifted around, but Harvey's car was nowhere to be found.

At this moment, a silhouette approached him. It was Harvey himself.

"What did you do? What happened here?" George asked subconsciously.

Harvey smiled.

"I sent these people straight to hell. I'll send you there next."

"You! You can't touch me!"

"I'm a lord from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!"

"I have diplomatic immunity!"

George shivered in his boots when he saw Harvey

Chapter 1176

closing in on him.

His professional fighters were all crippled by Harvey. How could he himself possibly fend off Harvey?

George only felt regret in his heart, utter regret!

He regretted coming here at all!

Slap!

Harvey was too tired to utter another word. He slapped George's face until half of George's face became completely crooked.

"You... I'm going to report you to the embassy! You're finished!"

"You talk too much!"

Harvey swiped his leg across George's right leg.

Cries of pain echoed throughout. George never once imagined that his leg would get broken by someone in Country H.

Chapter 1176

The sounds of bones cracking were endless. Soon, all of George's limbs were crippled, and Harvey finally stomped on George's head. The whimpers coming out of George's throat immediately ceased, making no sound whatsoever.

After a brief moment, Harvey calmly approached a few of George's other lackeys and crippled them as well. There were brief wails, and in the end, only the driver was able to keep his arms and legs intact.

"I'm only leaving you intact to send a message. Tell your master that all the nobility of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets are just trash in front of me ..."

"And I mean every single nobility, even your queen!"

After Harvey spoke, he turned around and left.

Soon, the upper social circles of Buckwood fell into an uproar.

Morgan Financial Group from The Empire of the

Chapter 1176

Sun that Never Sets had suffered a big loss.

The representative acting on behalf of the group, George III, had been completely crippled outside Enchantment Resort.

A few dozen subordinates who were retired soldiers were included as well.

The news shook the hearts of many.

In all these years, many financial groups from overseas had been trying to infiltrate Country H's market.

This time, the Buckwood market was their best bet.

From The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, to America, the Island Nation, and Country J, along with countless other overseas financial groups and authorities, all of them rubbed their palms together as they plotted.

But after the news had spread, these groups began to hesitate.

The York family had fallen, along with the six big first-rated families.

Chapter 1176

Despite that, Buckwood still had a powerhouse backing it.

For example, Sky Corporation.

It was said that the man who crippled George III was none other than Prince York from Sky Corporation.

He even left such proud words, saying that “All nobility from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets were trash.”

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1177

Chapter 1177

Those who attended the Enchantment Resort Auction all understood.

The reason Harvey had been so arrogant.

He had someone supporting him behind the scenes, and it was none other than Prince York!

No wonder he dared to face George III from Morgan Financial Group.

At the same time, another rumor had spread.

Many people gossiped about Prince York proposing to Harvey's wife, Mandy, only to be rejected.

Now that news of Harvey working as Prince York's driver was known, people speculated that Harvey sent his wife right to Prince York's doorstep to get the job.

Chapter 1177

For a time, the entire upper social circle were discontented and disdained Harvey.

Not only was he a kept man, he also cuckolded himself.

Truly shameless!

Most importantly, he still acted so arrogantly and flaunted the power he got from being a cuckold everywhere!

Morgan Financial Group naturally received word of this as well.

They really wanted to kill Harvey, but there was no way that they could touch Sky Corporation and Prince York.

Those who dared to call the nobility from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets trash were either crazy, or terribly confident.

And Prince York was clearly not crazy.

Financial groups and authority overseas dared not waltz in Buckwood for a time, but quite a lot of them were already nurturing their own spokesperson in Buckwood through their sources.

Chapter 1177

A seemingly calm and quiet business circle in Buckwood was silently moving in the dark.

...

On the other side.

Harvey drove Mandy to the Regency Enterprise building. ①

The father and son of the Warners family from Regency Enterprise were lying on hospital beds, with no reason to live.

However, the company's higher ups were all still present.

After receiving news that there was a new owner of the company, all of them came to welcome her at the entrance.

Regency Enterprise held this matter in very high regard.

Chapter 1177

Just as Mandy arrived, they had already invited a large portion of Buckwood's media.

They held a press conference as soon as they could.

Mandy, who had been kicked out of the Yates family, actually rose up and took control of Regency Enterprise, becoming one of the few wealthiest women in Buckwood.

The news made everyone's eyeballs pop out.

In the eyes of many, the Yateses suffered a big loss this time.

Kicking a wealthy woman like her out of the family was equivalent to missing the opportunity to become a top rated family.

...

At the Yateses' residence.

Nobody showed up to collect any debt because the

Chapter 1177

Head Coach was about to visit.

The Yates family's efforts of inviting other families to participate in the family club had been unsuccessful.

Many families now kept their distance from the Yateses.

Those with discerning eyes could tell that the Yateses were on the brink of bankruptcy.

Provoking them at this moment would be considered unwise.

Yet the Yateses remained extremely self-righteous, believing that everything would change if the Head Coach visited them.

However, the sensation of getting isolated by every other family made them feel extremely horrible.

All of the Yateses gathered at the hall, quietly waiting for the Head Coach to enter the house.

If the Head Coach didn't visit when the time came, the family would be finished!

Chapter 1177

Safe to say, this was the Yates family's final life-saving straw.

At this moment, news started to play on the TV.

“Hm? Isn't that Mandy?”

Tanya was shocked. Looking at the screen in front of her, she became utterly baffled.

“What? Mandy?”

Everyone turned to the screen and was equally surprised.

What right did Mandy have to get on TV? What happened?

Soon, the details of the news were broadcasted.

Chapter 1178

Chapter 1178

This was today's hottest news in Buckwood.

The content of the news was simple, it was just a few words.

Mandy Zimmer was taking over as the new chairman and CEO of Regency Enterprise.

“According to the evaluation, Regency Enterprise is currently worth around seven hundred and seventy-five million dollars. We believe that under the guidance of Mrs. Zimmer, Regency Enterprise will become a billion-dollar corporation in a short time. Perhaps even a trillion-dollar corporation!”

The news was displayed on TV.

The Yates family looked at each other.

“How can this be? Mandy became the chairman of

Chapter 1178

Regency Enterprise?”

“Regency Enterprise is worth at least six hundred and twenty-five million dollars in the market! How could the owner change in an instant?”

“How did Mandy do this? We’re not dreaming, are we?”

The Yateses were on the verge of collapsing.

Some of them even gave themselves a slap across their face. Only when they felt the pain of the slap did they confirm that they were, in fact, not dreaming.

The Yateses followed through with their plan.

After Mandy was kicked out of Silver Nimbus Enterprise, she would have to sleep under a bridge.

Mandy and her family would even need to beg for food on the streets.

If things got more serious, they might need to sell their bodies!

Chapter 1178

But no matter how much the Yates family calculated, they never imagined they would see this turn of events.

Mandy did a full one-eighty and was suddenly worth one hundred and fifty million dollars!

Regret!

The Yates family were filled with regret, to the point they almost puked blood.

If everything before didn't happen, they could've borrowed Mandy's power and step into the territory of top rated families.

But now?

There was nothing!

Slap!

Grandma Yates couldn't bear with the feeling!

She immediately slapped Tanya and Leyton's faces.

"It's you two!"

Chapter 1178

“You two came up with the idea!”

“You’re the ones who wanted to break all ties with Mandy!”

“If it weren’t for that, we wouldn’t turn out like this!”

“What do we do now? Beg for their mercy at their doorstep?”

Grandma Yates was shivering with anger.

Tanya and Leyton were totally helpless. They dared not utter a single word.

In the end, everything was decided by Grandma Yates and Keith!

Why were they the ones being blamed?

What did they even do?

“Is Mandy really that amazing? How did she turn the tables around?”

Phoebe was perplexed. She couldn’t believe what had happened.

Chapter 1178

Finn chuckled coldly.

“I’ve received news. Prince York might be the one behind all this.”

“The wench Mandy said that she has a husband. She said that she’ll never accept Prince York!”

“Not only did she reap all the benefits from Prince York himself, her husband is now Prince York’s personal driver!”

“This bastard has no shame. Truly immoral!”

“It’s good that she has no ties with us any longer. If not, the Yates family’s reputation would be thrown out the window!”

“Yeah! That bastard Harvey is a cuck through and through! How shameful!”

Even though the Yateses were on the verge of tears due to regret, they still gritted their teeth, too stubborn to admit defeat.

Chapter 1178

When they were almost done cursing, Grandma Yates sucked in a deep breath and exclaimed, “Alright, silence everyone!”

“It doesn’t matter what trick they had up their sleeves.”

“We’re no match for their capabilities!”

“They’re the new owners of Regency Enterprise now! Can any of you do that?”

“We have to find Mandy right now! We need her to pay off Silver Nimbus Enterprise’s debts!”

The rest of the Yateses nodded repeatedly at Grandma Yates’s words.

They were already thinking of it, but nobody dared to voice their thoughts as Grandma Yates hadn’t said anything about it before.

Chapter 1179

Chapter 1179

Soon, the Yates family all shamelessly gathered at the entrance of the Regency Enterprise building.

They had to admit, Mandy and her family still had some luck with them.

Right when they arrived, Mandy was seen surrounded by a group of higher-ups as she walked out of the building.

The Yateses were jealous to the point they almost coughed up blood on the spot.

They felt shame and a thirst for revenge. They had to restrain the displeasure in their hearts, and approached Mandy while covering their faces.

“Oh, Mandy! You’re finally here!”

“I was so ignorant before. I’ve really misjudged

Chapter 1179

you!”

“Everything is your aunt and uncle’s fault. I’ve already given them a slap each!”

“Mandy! If you wish for it, we’ll hold a press conference and tell everyone you’re the Yateses’ proudest descendant!”

“The Yates family needs you right now!”

“Without you, the family is doomed!”

“Look if you don’t believe me! I’m literally coughing out blood!”

As Grandma Yates spoke, she took out a handkerchief for Mandy to look at. There was a spot of blood on it.

This was blood from before, when Grandma Yates was boiling with anger.

But now, she had taken the handkerchief out for sympathy.

Mandy frowned slightly.

Chapter 1179

Grandma Yates then continued to speak.

“Mandy, you’re now the new owner of Regency Enterprise.”

“If you’re willing to give us some of your money, you can solve all of our family’s troubles!”

“ I promise that from today onward, the Yateses will be your strongest backbone!”

“With the Yates family, you’ll be successful everywhere you go in Buckwood!”

Hearing Grandma Yates’ words, the other Yateses started to chime in shamelessly as well.

“Oh, Mandy! We were blinded by greed before. Please forgive us!”

“The Yates family is only complete with you around! Without you, we’re incomplete!”

“Come back! The family needs you!”

Every single one of them spouted lines cheesier than the last, acting terribly affectionate.

Chapter 1179

If it weren't for the fact that Mandy had seen their true colors, she might even be moved by their words.

Mandy's cold expression made the Yateses anxious, but they had to continue their shameless speech.

After all, with just one nod from Mandy, they might be able to solve all of their crises as well as receive a hundred and fifty million dollars worth of property.

What was the point of being ashamed? They would even kneel if they were asked to do so!

At this moment, someone among the higher-ups shouted, "If you're apologizing to CEO Zimmer, you need to show your sincerity!"

The Yates family froze slightly.

"Sincerity? What do you mean?"

The man who had shouted kept going.

"You'd have to at least kneel in front of all of us!

Chapter 1179

Your family was the one that announced to the media that you broke all ties with CEO Zimmer, after all!”

“It wouldn’t be too much for you all to kneel now, would it?”

“This is going too far!”

The Yates family boiled with anger.

They often behaved high and mighty. How could they actually kneel right now?

Still, Grandma Yates was a ruthless woman. Her gaze lit up, and then she exclaimed, “Fine! We’ll kneel!”

“Kneel and apologize to Mandy! Show her our sincerity!”

The Yates family was unwilling.

But after seeing Grandma Yates shooting them such a look, Tanya, Leyton, and the rest all kneeled in front of Mandy with wretched expressions.

Chapter 1179

Shame!

Endless shame!

They never imagined that on this day, they would kneel in front of Mandy, a woman they never looked up to!

Chapter 1180

Chapter 1180

Regency Enterprise had received the attention of every single media channel in Buckwood that day.

Many took out their phones and cameras to snap pictures and record footage of the people kneeling in front of the Regency Enterprise building.

This scene made the so-called top-rated family, the Yateses, feel utterly humiliated.

Their pride and dignity was ruthlessly trampled on.

At that moment, they all secretly vowed in their hearts that they would snatch all of Mandy's money.

If they could get past this stage, then they'd throw this Mandy wench into brothels and the like!

The shame that they felt today must be repaid tenfold!

Chapter 1180

Grandma Yates didn't kneel like the rest, but a burst of green and white flashed constantly across her face. She felt utterly ashamed.

The Yates family had lost all dignity.

But for Mandy to soften her heart, they could only endure it.

The sight made even the cold and unfeeling Mandy perplexed.

In her eyes, the Yates family couldn't possibly kneel, simply due to how prideful they were.

At the same time, she subconsciously looked behind her.

The others couldn't discern who it was that spoke before, but Mandy could. It was none other than Harvey himself.

Right now, the kind-hearted Mandy thought that Harvey was being too harsh.

But before Mandy could say another word, Harvey's voice rang once again.

Chapter 1180

“What’s going on? There’s still someone standing? They’re so ingenuine! They’re not paying any respect to Regency Enterprise!”

Mandy froze after hearing those words.

Grandma Yates acted the same.

“Me?”

She couldn’t regain her senses.

‘I have to kneel no matter what?’

In her eyes, making the other members of the Yates family kneel was the biggest show of sincerity.

Yet now, they demanded that she kneel.

What was Mandy trying to do? Destroy her ancestors?

“Mandy, do you really want me to kneel?”

Grandma Yates was trembling in her boots.

Chapter 1180

Mandy sighed and replied, “There’s no need for an old lady like you to kneel. Take the others with you and leave. We have nothing to do with each other anymore.”

Grandma Yates shivered after hearing that. She couldn’t even utter another word in response.

There was the sound of a bang on the ground, and Grandma Yates swiftly kneeled.

She had to kneel!

She needed to use morals to ensnare Mandy!

Only by doing so would Mandy save the family!

Yet at this moment, the Yates family’s pride had toppled!

Shame!

Utter shame!

They knelt!

The entire family only had a single thought.

Chapter 1180

They would make Mandy's life a living hell in the future!

They had to endure the humiliation!

Tears of shame rolled from Grandma Yates's eyes, especially when passersby shot curious looks at the family.

She wanted to smash her head on the ground so badly!

However, she was unwilling.

The Yates family was not a top rated family yet!

She hadn't enjoyed true glory and wealth!

She was discontent!

Seeing Grandma Yates kneel on her own, Mandy was completely flabbergasted.

She took a few steps backward, her heart aching slightly.

The Yates family no longer had anything to do with

Chapter 1180

Mandy.

Still, after seeing Grandma Yates kneel in front of her like this, she was unsure of how to feel.

Noticing that Mandy was swaying, happiness filled Grandma Yates's gaze.

She figured enduring the shame was worth it.

What did a bit of shame matter if she could deal with Mandy?

It was never too late to take revenge! 2

Chapter 1181

Chapter 1181

Right when Mandy was swaying, the higher-ups behind her suddenly moved away.

Harvey appeared.

“Darling, it’s time for us to get off work.”

The Yates family shivered in anger when they saw Harvey.

They knew that Harvey was here to cause a ruckus.

It was safe to say that if he were there, he’d definitely be up to no good.

“Mandy, come talk to your grandmother. We share blood, after all!”

“He’s just a live-in son-in-law! He has nothing to do with us.”

Grandma Yates subconsciously wanted to tug on

Chapter 1181

Mandy's clothes.

However, Harvey stopped the woman.

He then took Mandy's hand and said calmly, "Did you forget how these people treated you? Do you really think they care about family? They only care about the Regency Enterprise that you own right now."

"If you have no money, you're nothing in their eyes."

"I..."

Mandy bit her lip. She understood what Harvey meant, but she still hesitated.

"The Yates family had already broken all ties with our family. They even held a press conference for this. Do you think they can just go back on their word at this point?"

"Mandy! No matter how much money you give them, they'll never be grateful!"

"They'll only think that you're shaming them with your money. Many of them are probably thinking of paying back the shame they endured today a thousandfold!”

Chapter 1181

Harvey knew all too well how the Yates family behaved. It was bad enough that they were ungrateful and did not care about family.

Most importantly, they were a family of wolves. They'd bite back even if Mandy helped them.

Listening to Harvey's words, Mandy took a deep breath and regained her composure.

She turned away from the Yateses, preparing to leave with Harvey.

When the Yateses saw the previously swaying Mandy now completely convinced by Harvey, they grew alarmed.

“Harvey, what are you saying?! You're ruining the Yates family's good deed here!”

Finn jumped and immediately grabbed Harvey's collar, shouting furiously at Harvey.

Chapter 1181

Slap!

Harvey slapped Finn, forcing Finn to take a few steps back.

Harvey's face was as cold as ice. He was prepared to leave without saying another word.

Finn covered his cheek, his face bearing a hideous expression. After a brief second, he let out a derisive chuckle.

“You're real proud, aren't you, Harvey? You dare to hit me?”

“Since you're this proud, let me tell you something!”

“Did you know how Mandy became the CEO of Regency Enterprise?”

“Did you know that?!” All of the Yateses interrogated Harvey in unison.

“For that to happen, she had to make you, a live-in

Chapter 1181

son-in-law, a cuckold!”

Finn pointed at Harvey, laughing with glee.

“Filth like you wouldn’t know about this, right? How could Mandy simply take over Regency Enterprise and become its new owner?”

“You think this is all because of her abilities? No! You’re dead wrong! It’s because she made you a cuck!”

“You’ve been a cuck since the very beginning! Everyone knew that, only you didn’t!”

“You think we want to kick Mandy out of the family because of money?”

“You’re wrong! We just think that she’s a disgrace to keep around! She tarnishes the Yates family’s image!”

“You little wench! Do your parents know that you’re selling your body outside everyday?”

Under Finn’s lead, the Yateses stood back up and began to insult Mandy.

Chapter 1181

They've already turned against each other, anyway.

They couldn't care less anymore!

Chapter 1182

“You people...”

After being insulted and slandered by her so-called family, Mandy's face lost all color. She started swaying slightly, almost falling flat on the ground.

When did she ever get insulted in such a way?

Soundless tears fell down her face.

Finn chuckled.

“You're crying? What's there to cry about? If you dare to do something shameless like this, of course we'll say it out loud!”

“You're shameless!”

Finn felt refreshed after saying all that.

He then shot a challenging glare at Harvey.

Chapter 1182

‘What can a live-in son-in-law like you do to me?’

But in the next moment, Harvey stopped right in front of him and launched a kick at him.

Bang!

The so-called champion of the Police Force Fight League, Finn, did not even have the chance to react. Harvey’s kick immediately sent Finn flying.

“Pffft!”

Finn slammed right into a telephone pole and coughed out blood.

Yet before he could stand back up, Harvey had already walked over and stomped on his head, then smashed his head furiously against the ground.

Harvey was using a lot of strength. He was merciless.

All of Finn’s orifices started to bleed. Wretched screams rang out from him.

Chapter 1182

All of his limbs twitched, as if he was a dying fish.

Naturally, Harvey was livid.

He had no intention to show mercy to the people who insulted his wife.

The Yateses returned to their senses.

Just then, someone shouted, “How dare you touch one of ours, you live-in son-in-law?!”

“Let’s get him!”

The Yateses immediately rushed forward.

But it was futile. Harvey sent them all flying with a kick for each of them.

They landed on the ground and clutched their chests, all the while puking blood.

“Mandy! Mandy, tell him to stop! That’s your cousin right there! Your blood cousin!”

Grandma Yates was shocked. She immediately

Chapter 1182

kneeled in front of Mandy and started to grovel.

Mandy came back to her senses. Somebody was about to get killed in public!

If that happened, Harvey would be thrown behind bars!

With no second thought, Mandy rushed toward Harvey immediately and pulled him away.

“Darling, no! Don’t be too rash!”

With Mandy’s interference, Harvey finally moved his feet away.

Finn struggled as he crawled away like an injured puppy, as if he was holding onto a life-saving straw.

When he was away from wherever Harvey’s feet could reach him, his body went limp and he immediately passed out.

“Hurry! Get this man to a hospital!”

The Yates family stumbled around.

Chapter 1182

Keith was still in the military hospital. Finn was a government official with the highest ranking in the entire family.

The Yates family could not lose him!

They wanted to say something ruthless before they left, but after seeing Harvey's icy gaze, they were unable to control their bowels.

'This is too scary!'

'That man's mad! He's crazy!'

The Yateses cherished their lives. They would never waste their lives for someone else.

They all covered their faces and scurried away, carrying Finn as they did so.

When they were extremely far, Grandma Yates exclaimed furiously, "Disobedient! That live-in son-in-law is just too disobedient!"

"Just wait! Just you wait!"

Chapter 1182

“When our family actually rises up again, I’ll make sure to squash that live-in son-in-law Harvey dead!”

“Yes! I’ll turn him into minced meat!”

“I’ll make him pay for what he did today!”

“It’s never too late to take revenge!”

The Yates family ran their mouths ruthlessly. A shame that it was too far for anybody to hear them.

Chapter 1183

On the other side.

Harvey took Mandy and left.

There were many things they needed to take care of immediately within Regency Enterprise.

Unfortunately, the Yates family's appearance had affected Mandy's mood. Thus, everything had to be pushed back to the next day.

Harvey's expression was as cold as ice. In his eyes, the Yates family was already finished.

When he visited them, they'd be buried under the dust of history!

...

At the same time, in the Yateses' residence.

Finn was lying on the bed, his face twitching every once in a while. His expression was horrible.

Chapter 1183

The rest of the Yateses were sitting beside him.

Their faces were twitching as well.

Finn had already been sent to the hospital before.

However, the family didn't have a single dollar to spare. As such, they couldn't afford Finn's treatment.

That was why they could only return home in the end.

They looked at Finn who had suffered heavy injuries, and then at the ancestral house that was already mortgaged.

Sadness welled up in their hearts.

They were still hoping that the Head Coach would arrive three days later.

But with their current circumstances, could they even last that long?

They didn't even have money for food!

Chapter 1183

Because of their kneeling before Regency Enterprise, all of the family's remaining connections had already broken all ties with them!

Rats leave a sinking ship, after all.

The Yates family now understood the true fickleness of human nature.

A mighty person who lost all power is worse than a common folk.

But even so, the Yates family refused to repent.

They still insisted that they did no wrong, and that Mandy wench was utterly shameless.

The night was silent.

The next day, early in the morning, the Yateses who had stayed awake the entire night looked no different than the walking dead.

Finn was already giving out more air while taking less in. If he was not sent to a hospital soon, he couldn't be saved.

Chapter 1183

However, the Yateses were already without emotions.

They had no feelings and had only shallow emotions, so why should they care much for a dying Finn when they themselves were about to be finished too?

Just then, a few Maybach cars bearing overseas license plates parked outside the Yateses' ancestral residence.

The Yateses all subconsciously stared right at the direction of the door, making no sound at all.

Those people might have come to collect debt, but the Yates family didn't care anymore.

They were already penniless, and they couldn't even muster enough funds for the Head Coach's evening banquet.

Dead pigs aren't afraid of boiling water, as was often said.

Chapter 1183

A group of men in suits entered the house.

Grandma Yates subconsciously looked at the direction with her dimmed eyes. These men looked familiar, but she couldn't remember where she had met them.

A prestigious-looking middle-aged man led the group. Because of his foreign appearance, it looked as though he was of mixed race.

He surveyed the dead and gloomy Yateses, and frowned.

“You're Buckwood's Yates family? Is this all you've got?”

“Didn't you people say that you have a third-in-command of South Light? Why are you all acting this way?!”

“You've embarrassed the dignity of the entire Yates family from America!”

“What?!”

Chapter 1183

“What did you say?!”

The Yates family froze.

Grandma Yates thought of a possibility. Then she stood up, trembling all the while.

“Respectable sirs, who are you? Where are you from?”

The man replied, “I’m Norton Yates from the Yates family of America!” 1

Chapter 1184

Chapter 1184

“The Yates family from America?” Grandma Yates mumbled.

Soon, she was brimming with life.

“I remember now. My late husband once said that a long time ago, his uncle went to America to expand the family. It went great for him, and he had a billion dollars worth of assets over in America!”

“Are you one of his descendants?”

The other Yateses heard what Grandma Yates said.

The half-dead family stood up, now extremely motivated, and then bowed respectfully.

The Yates family from America!

They’ve all heard of the name before!

In these xenophilic people’s eyes, these people from America were the same as princes and the nobility!

Chapter 1184

For the Yates family from America to come all the way here wasn't too different from private visits of kings during ancient times.

“What happened here?” Norton asked, frowning.

The Yates family from America had no interest whatsoever in the Yates family from Buckwood.

But because of the Morgan Financial Group incident, they felt that they could find a spokesperson for them in Buckwood.

At that moment, Grandma Yates felt like she had encountered God. She immediately told Norton everything, while also warping the truth in-between.

From her words, Mandy was just a little wench who would sell her body just to rise in ranks.

Because of Mandy, the Yates family suffered heavy losses.

Chapter 1184

Had it not been for her, the Yateses would've already risen as the top-rated family in all of South Light at this point.

Norton chuckled coldly after listening to Grandma Yates' narration.

"Filth! I can't believe a mere woman did this to you!"

"You threw the reputation of the Yates family from America right out the window!"

"The Yates family from America will handle this matter!"

"Really?!"

Grandma Yates and the rest were utterly shocked.

'Is the Yates family from America really going to handle the whole situation?'

'This is such great news!'

This meant that the Yates family were still able to bask in wealth and glory!

Chapter 1184

“But, first thing’s first.”

“The Yates family from America is here to open up business and expand our market. Buckwood is our first stop!”

“From today onwards, you Yateses of Buckwood will be the American Yateses’ spokesperson!”

“If you can do business for us, we will not treat you shabbily.”

Norton waved his hand as he spoke. Immediately, someone took Finn, who was on his deathbed, to a hospital.

Norton’s words shocked the Yates family.

There was still light at the end of the tunnel!

They thought the family was finished, and that they were dead for sure!

But right at this crucial moment, the Yateses from

Chapter 1184

America returned.

If they clung to the Yateses from America, it'd be only a matter of minutes before they could rise up again!

If they were to fully gain the American Yateses' support, the Yateses of Buckwood might even have the chance to turn back the tides!

Grandma Yates was already plotting too much at this point.

Norton laughed.

"Rest assured. It'll be easy for us to fix a trivial matter like this."

"Do your jobs nicely, and we'll treat you well."

Norton smiled.

He thought that he would need to exercise a lot of power to make the Yateses of Buckwood into his own, but he never expected it would be this easy.

With this family as an outpost, he had now gained a lot more bases compared to the other overseas financial groups and authorities.

Chapter 1184

In order to take over Buckwood with haste, this was beneficial for him.

As for the small debt that the Yateses of Buckwood had, it was nothing to the Yateses of America.

In the future, the Yateses of America would use the Yateses of Buckwood to earn billions, or perhaps even trillions of dollars! 4

Telegram @chinesenovels

Chapter 1185

Chapter 1185

Norton was indeed quite talented.

He took all the funds he had when he came to Buckwood. In under a single day, the Silver Nimbus Enterprise crisis was completely solved.

At the same time, he transferred a huge sum of money into the company's account.

He wanted to rely on the company to proceed with his next step to invade Buckwood's market.

There were also other financial groups supporting the Yateses of America from behind the scenes.

They had come to Buckwood as well, representing America's interests.

While the Yateses of Buckwood more or less knew about this, none of them had any sense of shame and justice, let alone patriotism.

Chapter 1185

The only thing they cared about was the money and benefits they could reap.

With enough money and support, they didn't need to bat Mandy an eye anymore.

Meanwhile, in the hall of the Yateses' ancestral residence...

Norton sipped some red wine as he listened to Grandma Yates complain about Mandy.

"You mean to say that your family got to this point because of that little wench?" Norton asked, frowning.

"Your family sank this low just because of a woman?"

Grandma Yates sighed.

"We failed to teach our children properly. That's why they turned out like this!"

"Sigh! The Yates family's reputation was tarnished

Chapter 1185

by Mandy!”

“Isn’t Keith the third-in-command of South Light? With him around, you should be able to deal with Mandy easily, right?” Norton asked again, his frown deepening. He couldn’t believe what he was hearing.

Grandma Yates replied, “Mr. Norton, this is where you don’t understand! My son Keith is still hospitalized in a military hospital. He hasn’t been discharged yet!”

“That little wench Mandy was that our family lost our leader and decided to target us!”

“Now that she’s the chairman and CEO of Regency Enterprise, there’s literally nothing that we can do!”

“Hah! That’s just a small company.”

Norton chuckled coldly.

“Rest assured. Since I said that I’ll stand up for all of you, I’ll be sure to solve this problem for the family.”

“Besides, my uncle, who’s also the Yateses of America’s third master, is about to arrive at Buckwood.”

“He doesn’t like trivial matters such as this. Therefore, we definitely mustn’t let him know about this and dampen his mood.”

Norton seemed awfully arrogant when talking about his uncle.

“What? You mean Master Yates, who was the chairman of Texas before? That’s a man with a large influence, even internationally!”

“It would be God’s gift just for him to be here!”

Grandma Yates was exhilarated.

America had four major figures, and every single one of them played a big role.

Master Yates was said to be ranked last out of four.

Even if he was ranked last in America, his influence outside of America was still beyond one's imagination.

Chapter 1185

It was said that quite a lot of politicians from Texas were taught by him. This was enough to prove how terrifying Master Yates was.

Seeing how the Yateses of Buckwood wanted to pamper him, Norton was pleased.

In the eyes of the Yateses of America, the Yateses of Buckwood were mere servants.

Servants should appear like servants. Thus, Norton was extremely content with the family's attitude.

He knocked on the table and said with great interest, "Since this matter has been solved, then I'll go and meet this CEO Zimmer tomorrow."

Chapter 1186

Chapter 1186

The moment the Yates family heard of Norton Yates' words, giddiness flashed across their faces.

This was what they call a total uplift in one's social status!

Now that they had the Yates from America supporting them, the Yates from Buckwood would be the most powerful family in Buckwood in the future!

Recalling Mandy Zimmer's attitude towards the Yates family, they were going to devise a plan to get revenge on her for sure!

That night, everyone in the Yates family was too excited even to fall asleep.

Most of them were already mentally gearing up, awaiting the next day to arrive.

Chapter 1186

It's because the event where they knelt before the entrance of Regency Enterprise was the most shameful thing in the history of the Yates family!

After all, they're from a family of state officials and had lived their lives like royalties. When had they ever been treated like that?

Although there's a saying that goes, it's never too late for a nobleman to get revenge, and now that this opportunity presented itself. So, why would they wait any longer?

Were they that stupid?

The next day.

The Yates family drove the car, which they repossessed as redemption, and arrived at the main entrance of Regency Enterprise with an air of authority.

“Excuse me, may I know if you have made a reservation?”

Seeing how the Yates family were all looking fierce and aggressive, the front desk worker immediately walked up to them and asked respectfully.

Chapter 1186

That's because this group of people didn't seem like ordinary people.

Norton, who was in the lead, coldly spoke, "Go and get Mandy Zimmer!"

The front desk worker replied politely, "So you're here for CEO Mandy. May I know if a reservation is made?"

"CEO Mandy just got into her position not long ago, so she's busy with a lot of work. So, I'm afraid that you won't be able to meet her without a reservation."

Norton snickered with a 'pfft' before he continued to reply icily, "A mere company like Regency Enterprise with that tiny bit of asset can act with such arrogant manners. Do I even have to make a reservation just to meet Mandy Zimmer?"

"Are you joking?"

Chapter 1186

“Mister, it’s really not allowed! You have to make a reservation to meet CEO Mandy. This is a rule set by the CEO herself!

“Please don’t put us, the workers, in a difficult position!

“If you have to meet CEO Mandy, you can fill up the form here. I’ll give you a call after I’m done with the booking.”

Smack!

Right then, Ben Yates walked up and threw a slap across the worker’s face out of the blue.

The front desk worker fell to the ground and sobbed while covering his cheek.

Ben graduated from a school in America, so apparently, he knew the power of the Yates from America.

This was the best chance for Ben to flatter Norton. But, of course, he wouldn’t miss this opportunity.

Chapter 1186

Everyone at the scene was stunned. None of them expected this to happen.

Only Norton gave Ben a satisfied look, 'What a good loyal dog. He'd be beneficial in the future.'

"Security! Security! Someone's seeking trouble in Regency Enterprise!"

At that moment, someone yelled loudly.

Not long after, a group of security guards arrived.

"Who's seeking trouble! Who dares to go against Regency Enterprise! Don't you know what kind of place this is?"

The head of security of Regency Enterprise coldly stared at this group of people.

"Get them!"

Instantly, the security guards charged at the same time to throw those people out.

Right then, Norton turned to Ben and said, "You did well!

Chapter 1186

“No one can go against us, the Yates of America!

“Today, I’ll show you the power and might of the Yates of America!

“How dare these security guards try to oppose us? Go get them!”

With Norton’s command, four blue-eyed bodyguards with high nose bridges walked out from behind him.

It wasn’t even long before they beat the twenty-something guards to the ground, who only had the energy to whimper in the end.

“Incredible!”

The Yates’ eyes shone brightly upon the scene before them. This was the power and background of a truly great family.

Chapter 1187

Chapter 1187

The Yates from America were practically idols of the Yates of Buckwood.

Arrogant, mighty, and wealthy!

This kind of great family was what the Yates family aspired to become.

Because only then would they be fearless of anyone at all.

Norton Yates clapped his hand to get everyone's attention before cracking a smile. "I'll give you three minutes to summon Mandy Zimmer right this moment. If not, I don't know what will happen."

After his sentence ended, more and more people appeared at the scene. Most of the workers of Regency Enterprise were cautiously watching Norton.

Chapter 1187

It's because all of them witnessed how good Norton's bodyguards were at fighting.

The matter immediately shocked Mandy, who has initially been in a meeting with the authorities. She then went to the hall on the ground floor with several people following her behind.

When she saw the Yates family standing behind Norton, Mandy's expression changed as she could already guess what's happening.

"Mr. Norton, this is the shame of the Yates family, Mandy Zimmer!"

"It is her who ruined our reputation everywhere. Our image was tarnished by none other than her!"

At that moment, Leyton Luv and Tanya Yates spoke simultaneously.

Other members of the Yates family looked at Mandy in disdain.

"Didn't expect that your karma would be arriving

Chapter 1187

so soon, did you, Mandy?”

“When you treated us like that, you didn’t expect a day like this would come, huh?”

“Today, we’d make you kneel before us and repent on the things you did wrong!”

All those people sneered non-stopped with extremely cold expressions on their faces.

Norton waved his arm slowly to stop others from talking. His stern gaze rested upon Mandy as he spoke coldly, “So, you’re the Mandy who betrayed the Yates family?”

“You are...?”

Mandy furrowed her eyebrows as she asked, but she stared at Norton with a hint of seriousness.

It’s because Norton had an air of superiority, and it’s definitely something that could only be found from long-lived royalties and couldn’t simply be faked by ordinary people.

“Mandy Zimmer, you don’t have the right to ask!”

Chapter 1187

“This is Mr. Norton Yates from America!”

“Normally, he would’ve been counted as your uncle, but right now, you don’t have the right to call him your uncle!”

Ben Yates announced icily with a smug expression.

“What?! The Yates of America?”

Mandy’s expression changed immediately with more vigilance in her eyes.

She, too, had heard about the Yates from America.

They’re a powerful family which no ordinary man could ever defeat.

“Mandy Zimmer, seeing how you were once half a Yates, I’ll offer you a chance!

“Transfer all of Regency Enterprise’s shares to the Yates family right this moment!

“If you do so, I’d represent the Yates from America to forgive your sin of betraying the family!”

Chapter 1187

Norton spoke slowly with utmost arrogance and pride.

“The shares of Regency Enterprise? Why would I give them to the Yates!

“Plus, I never owed the Yates family anything!

“From the moment they stole the shares of Sky Enterprise from me with dirty tactics, we have nothing to do with each other anymore!”

Hearing Mandy's words, all the Yates family snickered and started to pour fuel the fire.

“Mr. Norton, can you see that? Mandy Zimmer has always been this disrespectful!”

“She didn't even try to show you any respect. In her eyes, the Yates of America is nothing!”

Chapter 1188

Chapter 1188

Mandy Zimmer's attitude irritated Norton Yates.

After all, his words were always prized and obeyed by everyone. The Yates of America were like kings in the state of Texas.

When they had business in other countries, the Yates did things recklessly and fearlessly as they had America as their back.

This was the first time someone dared to reject him, which instantly made him dissatisfied. He sneered. "There are things which you can't dictate and control merely with your words, Mandy Zimmer!

"Now that you have half the blood of the Yates, you're nothing but a mere servant in our eyes!

"How can a servant have the right to go against a master's command?!"

Chapter 1188

Mandy had a perplexed look on her face as she asked, "Mr. Norton, in a modern and civilized society like this, are your mindsets still stuck in the feudal era?"

"Master? Servant? Are you joking?"

"Also, the shares of Regency Enterprise are gifted by an authority. Even if I want to transfer the shares, I could only do that to the authority and not to the so-called Yates family!"

Norton squinted his eyes like a wild wolf. His eyes were filled with an icy gaze.

"Alright, this is the first time I, Norton Yates, have ever seen someone who dares to defy the Yates of America!"

"Seeing how you openly refused my order while I'm still polite, then don't blame us for not respecting you after this!"

"Take her away. I don't believe anyone would dare to go against us, the Yates from America!”

Chapter 1188

Following Norton’s command, the four blonde-haired and blue-eyed bodyguards acted swiftly and grabbed Mandy away forcefully.

With this, the whole of Regency Enterprise fell into chaos.

Mandy just took over Regency Enterprise recently and hadn’t got the chance to form her own working team.

After all, those authorities who previously worked for Regency Enterprise weren’t close to Mandy at all. Hence, they would never sell their lives just for Mandy.

After all, in their eyes, those people were from the esteemed Yates family of America with their own privilege. What could others do about it anyway?

“Listen up. We, the Yates from America, have special privileges. If anyone dares to butt in, our family would never let them go that easily!”

Chapter 1188

Before leaving, Norton's icy cold gaze scanned across those authorities' faces.

Immediately, the authorities chickened out and couldn't utter a single word.

They didn't even dare to make a police report.

Not long after, Mandy was brought to the Yates' family home by their people.

Although no one did anything to her yet, at that moment, she lost her freedom and couldn't leave.

"Young master, we've communicated with the related governmental department of Buckwood. Once Mandy Zimmer signed it, the ownership of Regency Enterprise can be transferred to the Yates anytime."

Right then, a man who had the look of a secretary walked up to Norton and reported to him in a low voice.

Then, a smile appeared on Norton's face upon hearing this.

Chapter 1188

He sized Mandy up before throwing the agreement in front of her as he casually ordered, “Just sign it. If not, I can’t guarantee that I won’t do anything to you.”

Mandy stubbornly replied, “Impossible! I would never offer Regency Enterprise to the Yates!”

“They are despicable rats! Shameless!”

Hearing this, all the faces of the Yates family turned dark.

Although their actions were really despicable, they wouldn’t want to be told that way by anyone.

But they didn’t dare to speak carelessly in front of Norton, so they just stared at Mandy icily.

“Mandy Zimmer, are you looking down at the Yates from America?”

Norton took in a deep breath as the gaze of his mixed-blood eyes turned cold. 11

Chapter 1189

Chapter 1189

Seeing how Mandy Zimmer was still acting stubborn and determined during a moment like this, everyone in the Yates family felt excited and satisfied.

That's because the more stubborn Mandy became, the worse the situation she would be in!

At that moment, the Yates couldn't help but to fuel the fire.

"Mr. Norton, Mandy Zimmer has always been this disrespectful towards the elders. Putting aside the Yates of Buckwood, she wouldn't even care if it's you, the esteemed Yates family from America!"

"That's right! A person like her needs a lesson!"

"There's no need to say anything more to someone like her. Just beat her up and beat her cruelly. She'd only feel scared once that pretty face of hers is ruined after getting hit!”

Chapter 1189

Everyone from the Yates family acted and spoke ruthlessly like bullies.

If it weren't for Norton Yates' presence, they would've hit Mandy to death themselves.

Norton waved his right arm to stop the Yates from continuing their tirade.

Then, his cold gaze landed on Mandy, anger seamed through his low voice.

“Mandy, I'll ask you one last time. Are you willing to transfer the shares of Regency Enterprise to the Yates family?!”

Mandy was all strong-willed as ever as she gritted her teeth. “Never!

“They don't own this from the start!

“Even if you ask a hundred times, I won't allow this to happen!”

Chapter 1189

Norton didn't get mad and smiled instead. "Alright, you have the guts! Someone, discipline her!"

"If you're still not willing to do that, I'll hit you till you say yes!"

Once Norton's voice halted, a blonde-haired and blue-eyed bodyguard appeared with a whip.

The Yates of America had existed for nearly a hundred years.

A family such as this adhered to strict family discipline like an ancient royal family in the feudal era.

Once someone in the family made a mistake, a round of whipping would be considered as a light punishment.

Inside of the family, there were all sorts of terrifying punishments to discipline their family members.

Whipping was merely the lightest form of punishment amongst all.

Chapter 1189

But for a weak woman, she who received the punishment for sure would be bedridden for ten days or even half a month.

At that moment, the eyes of everyone from the Yates family twitched slightly. It's simply horrifying!

Who would've thought that they'd get to witness the rumored 'disciplinary' that only existed in folklore?

Moreover, Grandma Yates even took a deep breath. She couldn't bear to witness the scene that was going to happen before her eyes.

"I'll do it myself."

Norton took over the whip as he ordered coldly, "Someone, hold her down!"

Almost immediately, two blonde-haired and blue-eyed bodyguards pinned Mandy down onto a long stool.

Chapter 1189

Norton's eerie voice rang, "A servant to the Yates family, Mandy Zimmer, ignored the Yates family's ancestral standards and was disrespectful towards the elders, thus deserves to be punished!"

The next moment, his hand holding the whip was raised high.

All of the Yates family gasped. Mandy would surely have her lifespan cut in half with this whip, wouldn't she?

Right then, Tanya Yates couldn't bear it in the end as she spoke up, "Mr. Norton, just a moment. Allow me to persuade this disobedient girl once more!"

As she spoke, she walked over and said in a low voice, "Mandy, seeing how Xynthia is my goddaughter, I'll give you a last piece of advice!

"You can never fight against the powerful Yates of America!

"No man in the South Lights could even go against the Yates of America!

Chapter 1189

“Even Prince York, whom you treated like a God, would be nothing in front of the Yates of America!

“Just listen to me and accept your fate. Then, sign the agreement so that you won’t have to suffer physically!”

Unexpectedly, Mandy replied coldly, “Tanya, don’t try to feign being merciful anymore. I’ve seen through what’s going on in the minds of the Yates family!”

Hearing that, Tanya snickered. She realized her tactic wasn’t effective on Mandy anymore.

Taking in the scene before him, a merciless expression appeared on Norton’s face.

He enjoyed torturing beauties the most. The more gorgeous the woman was, the more exhilarated he would get.

And someone as stunning as Mandy had undoubtedly triggered this twisted fetish of his.

Chapter 1190

Chapter 1190

Slurp!

Norton Yates wetted his lips with his tongue as his gaze landed on Mandy Zimmer's slim waistline.

For him, Mandy Zimmer, who stood before him, was a dish.

A delicious, mouth-watering dish.

He'd get more excited if he started from her waist.

Norton became so excited that he almost growled, imagining how Mandy would be twitching on the ground wailing in pain.

Looking at Norton's twisted expression, Mandy closed her eyes hopelessly.

She didn't think that anyone would be able to save her at the moment like this.

Chapter 1190

Boom!

However, at this crucial moment.

Someone suddenly kicked off the entrance to the Yates' family home.

The giant door was smashed to the ground and made a loud bang.

Everyone at the scene couldn't help but turn over toward the direction of the sound.

Everyone from the Yates family shuddered. After all, they were traumatized.

Norton, on the other hand, knitted his brows together. Someone interrupted him just as he's about to enjoy something. This obviously made him dissatisfied.

After a moment, a figure appeared and slowly walked in. The air of dominance he exuded was astounding even though he's only wearing ordinary clothing.

Chapter 1190

“What? It’s Harvey York?!”

Ben Yates spoke up in surprise.

He didn’t think that Harvey would appear at a moment like this.

Logically speaking, a live-in son-in-law like him should be trembling with fear in his house.

It would make more sense for him to go and notify Mandy’s so-called secret lover!

“Let her go.”

Harvey stared at Norton and spoke in a cold tone.

Norton sized up Harvey for a moment before smiling. “So, this is Mandy’s live-in husband, Harvey York?”

“Yes! That’s him! He’s the one who’s been ruining the Yates family’s good plans!”

“A mere live-in son-in-law like him actually thought highly of himself!”

Chapter 1190

“Mr. Norton, I suggest you seize this married couple and discipline both of them together. Let them know the power of Yates from America!”

All of the Yates family leaped out and yelled while pointing at Harvey.

Norton squinted his eyes without saying a word.

However, on the other hand, Harvey had an icy look at that moment as he said slowly, “I’ll repeat myself, let her go!”

After closing his eyes for some time, a smile suddenly appeared on Norton’s face. “Interesting, now that he’s here, then don’t let him leave!

“I’ll tell you something as well. We, the Yates of America, never had a habit of letting someone off.

“Unless we’re done playing!

“You’re the first man who dares to ask us, the Yates from America, to let someone go!”

Seeing how Norton didn’t intend to let Mandy go at all, coldness emitted right out of Harvey's eyes as if his gaze was actual ice.

Chapter 1190

All of the Yates family who surrounded him couldn't help but shivered. The reading on the thermometer at the side went down by a few degrees almost instantly.

This was none other than the God of Battle. His anger would quake the earth and sky!

Harvey wasn't as simple as a God of Battle!

He's the Chief Instructor who trained and created most of the God of Battles in Country H!

Apart from the title of Chief Instructor, he had another nickname, the Master of Battle Gods!

If it's on the Euro-American battlefield, the enemies would be so scared that they'd piss their pants seeing this side of Harvey.

The Chief Instructor of the Sword Camp, his anger would even make the earth and sky tremble!

Back then, the King of Arms, known as the strongest one from the American Delta Force, collapsed before the battle even started by merely facing this version of Harvey.

Chapter 1190

Even the Ninja King of the Island Nation had a mental breakdown as he killed himself by stabbing a sword right through his own stomach!

The Knights from the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets also lost their confidence even before losing all of their combat power!

And today, Harvey had no intention to contain any of his murderous air.

His gaze landed upon Norton as he spoke up coldly, "It seems like you have a death wish!"

Chapter 1191

Chapter 1191

Norton Yates unconsciously shivered while being watched by Harvey York's cold eyes.

However, he became angry the next moment and shouted, "Take him down!"

Following Norton's order, the four blonde-haired and blue-eyed bodyguards who had initially held Mandy Zimmer stood upright and walked toward where Harvey was.

They casually cracked their necks and knuckles. Those popping sounds could be heard and were a strong deterrent.

"Honey, close your eyes. I'll deal with this matter."

Harvey urged Mandy, fearing that she would be frightened.

"Huh!"

Chapter 1191

The bodyguard instantly sneered and threw a punch toward Harvey's face.

However, Harvey did not move an inch. Instead, he raised his right hand, directly grappled the opponent's fist, and threw him down. The bodyguard was lying down on the ground moments after.

Then, Harvey stepped on his face and kept stomping on it until it was crushed beyond recognition.

The three remaining bodyguards showed fear on their faces and rushed forward at the same time.

Harvey kicked them one after another. All three powerful bodyguards fell to the ground in an instant.

“What?!”

“Has this live-in son-in-law been this good at fighting?”

Everyone from the Yates family, who originally had smiles on their faces, was startled at this moment.

Chapter 1191

How did Harvey do it?

It shouldn't be possible!

However, thinking about the Police Fight League Champion, Finn Yates was hospitalized because of just a slap from Harvey...

It made that scene seemed normal.

The person who was surprised the most was Norton Yates.

Those four bodyguards were carefully handpicked, and each of them could fight very well.

Even a dozen or more ordinary people could not be their opponents.

However, Harvey easily wiped out those people.

Master.

This was Norton's judgment.

Looking at Harvey, who was approaching step by step, Norton frowned and said, "Harvey, do you understand what you're doing?"

Chapter 1191

"Have you considered the severe consequences of defying the Yates family from America?"

"I think you can be regarded as a talent. As long as you soften up and apologize now, I may consider accepting you and let you be the subordinate of the Yates family in America!"

"This is an honor that many people couldn't ask for. You'd better consider it."

Norton was very confident. He had also met unruly young people when he was in America in the past.

Typically, the other party would instantly give in once he made this statement and become a loyal dog of the Yates family from America.

In spite of that, Norton's judgment was wrong this time.

Harvey walked in front of him and snatched the cane in his hand.

Chapter 1191

After touching the cane in his hand, Harvey said coldly, "This is the so-called discipline of the Yates family from America? Good thing. I hope it's easy to use." ①

Norton realized what Harvey was going to do.

At that moment, Norton could not help it anymore and took a few steps back and spoke in fear, "Harvey, I warn you, don't act recklessly! Things between us are still manageable if you only touch them.

"If you touch me, then you and your wife's family would end up badly."

Harvey said indifferently, "The last person who talked to me like this, I think the grass on the grave is almost two meters high."

"You..." Norton bellowed.

Slap!

However, Harvey immediately prodded the cane in his hand on Norton's face before he could even finish speaking.

Chapter 1191

Half of Norton's face was ruined this time.

"Ah..."

Norton covered his face and let out a pig-like scream.

Chapter 1192

Chapter 1192

This scene caused the corners of the eyes of all the Yates family to twitch constantly, and they unconsciously backed away.

There was not even one person who stepped forward to stop Harvey York at the moment.

Slap!

Harvey continued to poke with the cane in his hand toward Norton's body.

Norton's clothes were ripped, leaving bloodstains that were right down to the bone on his body.

Norton, who was initially standing, was thrown on the ground this time, rolling back and forth, screaming.

Slap, slap, slap!

Chapter 1192

Harvey did not intend to stop. Instead, he continued to do it indifferently.

Finally, the cane broke. Only then, Harvey casually threw the broken piece in his hand on the ground.

At this moment, Norton, who was on the ground, had no strength left to scream.

He was no different from a dead person except for the occasional twitching of his body.

Even if he was sent to the hospital now, it was hard to say whether he could be rescued or not.

“Honey, let’s go home.”

Harvey took the frightened Mandy Zimmer with his arm on her shoulders and left the Yates family’s ancestral home.

He did not say a word to the Yates family from beginning to end.

As for the people from the Yates family, they did not dare to say anything cruel, nor did they dare to stop him, but all of them just trembled the whole time.

Chapter 1192

Grandma Yates said tremblingly after Harvey left, “Quick! Call the ambulance. We couldn’t let Mr. Norton Yates die here. Otherwise, all of us would die with him!”

After hearing this, the people from the Yates family hurriedly called an ambulance, sending Norton and his men to the hospital.

Grandma Yates sat on the arhat chair when the matter came to an end, sweating profusely.

Norton Yates is a member of the Yates family from America. He came here presenting the will of the Yates family from America.

However, he was beaten and was left with only a breath upon his arrival here on the first day.

If the Yates family from America wanted this matter to be held accountable, the Yates family in

Chapter 1192

Buckwood would not have ended well.

“This Harvey is fearless. Did he specially train to fight? He easily beat those four big burly bodyguards!” Someone from the Yates family said.

Others nodded in unison and said, “He must have trained before. Ordinary people wouldn’t have this ability unless they are trained. At least none of us in the Yates family have such ability.”

“Ben Yates also trained before, but he still couldn’t beat Harvey in the end!”

Everyone was scared while speaking of this.

This brat, Harvey, was like a lunatic. He would start hitting people once he is in a disagreement with the other party. Everyone was afraid of being hit by him.

Ben suddenly sneered, “So what if he’s trained? It’s only good for show! Not even Hercules could contend against two! He would not be able to fight against a group of people all by himself!

“It’s no big deal in fighting against Harvey as long as there are more people.

Chapter 1192

“Most importantly, he actually dared to hit Mr. Norton Yates. In this case, the Yates family from America would never let him live!”

The other people from the Yates family exchanged looks upon hearing Ben's words. Soon, Grandma Yates said, “Ben, you have studied in America. Tell me, the Third Master Yates from the Yates family from America who is on his way here, is he really that great?”

Everyone looked at Ben with anticipation.

Ben smiled and said, “Of course he's great. When I was in America, I heard that half of the Texas congressmen are his disciples!

“This is not even the crucial part!

“The most important thing is that this Third Master Yates is a good fighter!

“It is said that he had become an old priest's disciple and learned a series of fighting styles. Not only could it strengthen the body, but it is also full of lethality.

Chapter 1192

“I heard that the boxing champion in Texas, America fought him in the ring once.”

“But the Third Master Yates just punched and instantly knocked out that Texas boxing champion!” ②

Chapter 1193

Chapter 1193

The eyes of the people from the Yates family were full of awe upon hearing Ben's words.

Grandma Yates even said, "Ben, according to what you said, does it mean that Third Master Yates could get rid of Harvey York by himself without resorting to external force?"

"Of course, Third Master Yates could easily crush Harvey, the live-in son-in-law, regardless of fighting skills, wealth, or power!

"Harvey would be over as long as the Third Master Yates is willing to come!

"I don't believe that Mandy still dared to be so stubborn as soon as Harvey was out of the story. In the end, Regency Enterprise would eventually fall into the hands of the Yates family!"

Chapter 1193

The people from the Yates family exchanged glances after hearing this. Then, they burst into laughter.

Putting it this way, the ones who would benefit in the end would be them, the Yates family of Buckwood, as long as this matter was handled properly.

Grandma Yates pondered for a long time and said, “Ben, is there any way to let the Third Master Yates come quickly? I couldn’t wait.”

“Yes!” Ben smiled. “If Norton is ruined or even dead, then the Yates family from America surely wouldn’t sit back!”

The people from the Yates family looked at each other after hearing Ben’s words. What Ben insinuated was to end Norton Yates.

Then, they could use this to force the Yates family from America to make a move as soon as possible.

Grandma Yates frowned and said, “Ben, your idea is good. But we would be held accountable by the Yates family from America once it is exposed.”

Chapter 1193

Ben took a deep breath and said, “Grandmother, a man with great ambition does not bother about trivial things. If Norton’s injury is too minor, the Yates family might blame us for not handling things well. Then we would be in an even worse situation!

“The only way right now is to make the Yates family from America angry! It’s just Norton Yates. As long as he can never speak and is still alive, then whatever happened today, it’s up to us.”

Grandma Yates pondered for a long time. She then slightly nodded.

Ben left with a smile, and soon news came from the hospital.

Although Norton was sent to the hospital in time for emergency treatment, he was diagnosed to be in a vegetative state. He could never wake up again due to the serious injury.

Chapter 1193

Four of his bodyguards also died. None of them could be saved.

Soon, the news was delivered to the Yates family from America through a special channel.

They were furious!

Even though Norton was not the heir of the Yates family from America...

He, however, could be regarded as the number one person in the Yates family in America.

He was a pioneer this time he came to the great Country H, bringing the will of the Yates family from America.

They never thought he would become comatose after he had just arrived in Buckwood.

The anger of the Yates family from America was expected.

This was because they were an extremely powerful family. Their status in America was comparable to the top ten families in the great Country H.

Chapter 1193

Now that the representative of the Yates family was ruined, how would they survive if they did not get back their status?

Originally, it would take more than ten days for Third Master Yates to come to the great Country H.

However, he could not sit still at the moment. The private plane was just about to take off at any time.

In Texas, America.

Inside a magnificent villa.

An old man wearing a white shirt was punching slowly.

He retracted his right hand. This was the legendary “pressing”.

Then, he slightly blocked using his hand. This was the legendary “transform”.

Chapter 1193

Lastly, he pushed his hand forward again. This was the legendary “emit”.

The old man sat down with a satisfied expression after finishing those three moves.

Many servants on the side were looking at him with admiration.

This person was the famous former Speaker of Texas in America, Third Master Yates from the Yates family!

There was a saying in Texas. “I would rather offend the governor than Third Master Yates from the Yates family!”

Chapter 1194

Chapter 1194

Just based on this point, it was enough to see how horrifying Third Master Yates was.

It was essential to understand that America was known as a free country.

There was a high proliferation of firearms in this country. People fought every day due to various problems.

However, Third Master Yates built such a huge reputation for himself, which was sufficient to explain how terrifying he was.

He did not get his reputation randomly.

Instead, it was all due to this series of fighting styles.

It was said that the two boxing champions of Texas could not get his set of “pressing, transform, emit” and were defeated by him.

Chapter 1194

However, Third Master Yates had stopped fighting in the past few years. He did self-cultivation rather than practicing martial arts.

Sure enough, America also did not need him to do anything since they were already strong in terms of power and wealth.

Seeing him sitting down, the butler next to him quickly walked over and said, “Third Master Yates, the private plane to the great Country H is ready. We can depart at any time.”

Third Master Yates drank the tea and spoke indifferently, “I heard that the one who beat Norton has some skills. But he doesn’t deserve me making a move against him.

“Go to the Texas Boxing Association, bring the two boxing champions here, and let them accompany me to the great Country H.”

The butler said after listening, “Third Master Yates, are you sure? Those two are expensive, and they definitely are not one of the easiest to handle. They might even attack us if we're not careful."

Chapter 1194

Third Master Yates said coldly, "They're just my defeated foes. What's so hard to control? Tell them each person will get 10 million dollars if they are obedient this time!"

"Yes! I'll go and settle this matter!" The butler quickly left.

He never thought Third Master Yates would take this matter so seriously. Even the two boxing champions of Texas had to go with him.

Both of their prowess was the real deal. Well, they did play out in the boxing ring!

It was said that those two men had killed nearly a hundred opponents, and both could knock down their opponents with a single punch.

Later, it was said that the two succumbed to Third Master Yates's three moves, which were "pressing, transform, emit”. Only then, they became a lot more low-key.

Chapter 1194

However, being low-key did not mean that their strength had been compromised.

In truth, according to the butler, the strength of those two Texas boxing champions was much stronger than before.

Even the people from the streets would not dare to provoke those two out of fear of getting themselves killed.

Bringing those two along showed that Third Master Yates was furious.

Soon, the upper circles in Texas caught wind of the news.

Initially, many big families wanted to make fun of the fact that the Yates family from America was doomed to failure in the great Country H.

However, they heard that Third Master Yates would make a move himself and even brought along two

Chapter 1194

Texas boxing champions.

Everyone gasped at this moment.

Many people in the upper class of Texas even began to pack their luggage and prepared to go to the great Country H.

This was because they all knew that Third Master Yates truly meant it this time!

With him making a move, who from Buckwood in the great Country H could ever stop the Yates family from America?

The rest of them just followed behind the Yates family to make a living with hopes of making a lot of money.

At the same time, everyone was looking forward to what it would be like when the two boxing champions in Texas made a move.

As things escalated, all parties in Buckwood had already received the news before the arrival of Third Master Yates in Buckwood.

Chapter 1194

Yvonne Xavier immediately went to find Harvey York.

“CEO, I’m afraid something might happen this time. Third Master Yates from the Yates family in America is coming here in a private plane with two boxing champions from Texas.

“There is a high chance they are coming here for you.”

Yvonne looked worried. She was from the Xavier family in Central Plains. Obviously, she had heard of the Yates family from America. ①

Chapter 1195

Chapter 1195

According to the Xavier family in Central Plains, the Yates family in America was very influential in America. Not only did its assets spread all over the world, but many people in the family were engaged in politics.

The four masters of the Yates family in America had a pivotal position in America.

Although Third Master Yates was ranked last among the four masters, this was not something ordinary people could simply achieve either.

Although Yvonne Xavier knew that her CEO was powerful, she was still a little worried.

“Third Master Yates, the one who defeated the Texas boxing champions using some Kungfu, right?” Harvey York said with a grin.

Chapter 1195

That was a viral video on the internet last year.

In the video, an energetic old man randomly pushed the big burly boxing champion and ended vomiting blood.

At that time, Harvey lamented that it was indeed some sort of superpower.

He never thought he would be able to meet this master this time.

Yvonne said worriedly, "CEO, you must not be blinded by the news on the internet.

"From what I'm hearing, Third Master Yates' Kungfu is the real deal. It is said that he learned it from an old priest when he was young.

"This is entirely different from the so-called Kungfu of those swindlers fooling people!

"Most importantly, he's coming here for you!

"In addition, I have also read the information about the two Texas boxing champions.

Chapter 1195

“Both of them have dominated the Texas boxing world in numerous years, defeating at least hundreds of opponents.

“However, they lost to Third Master Yates when they fought him.

“Otherwise, how could Third Master Yates summon these proud Americans?”

Harvey laughed.

Who had he not seen when he was on the battlefield?

The Knight Commander of the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, the King of Arms of America, the Ninja King of Island Nation...

Which of those people was a simple character?

Yet, they were still stepped on by Harvey.

The great Country H was not afraid of any powerful

Chapter 1195

country.

Moreover, he was not afraid of anyone.

“CEO, you must be careful. The other party is coming after you!” Yvonne was distraught.

Although she knew Harvey was great, she was still worried.

“It’s okay. Since they want to come, then we should stay here and don’t leave.” Harvey said indifferently.

The matter of the Yates family from America taking away Mandy Zimmer was not over yet. ①

Harvey had to settle accounts with them.

Now that the other party was coming to him, he naturally would not hold back.

The fact that Third Master Yates was coming to Buckwood along with the two Texas boxing champions quickly spread throughout the upper class of Buckwood.

Chapter 1195

The local families of Buckwood avoided it out of fear.

However, those foreign families and forces were all ready to go to the airport to meet them.

This was because all of them understood.

Third Master Yates was so aggressive this time. It was to exact revenge on Harvey and let the Yates family in America take hold and develop in Buckwood.

If it went according to his plans this time, he might have a chance to reap some benefits in the future.

As for the people of the Yates family in Buckwood, all of them were in the hospital at this moment.

The entire Yates family was extremely excited when they heard the news that Third Master Yates was coming.

This was the outcome they wanted.

Chapter 1195

They forced Third Master Yates to come to Buckwood immediately.

When the time comes, how much percentage of Buckwood would eventually fall into the lap of the Yates family from America? How much national interest of the great Country H would be lost? The people from the Yates family simply did not care about all this.

They only cared about one thing: if they could openly force Mandy to hand over the equity of Regency Enterprise after Third Master Yates ruined Harvey. ①

Chapter 1196

Chapter 1196

At this moment, Ben Yates put down the phone in his hand. His complexion worsened. He said, “Grandmother, I just got a message...”

“It is said that Norton Yates is the biological son of Third Master Yates!”

“What?!”

Everyone from the Yates family gotten furious after hearing this!

Grandma Yates even wanted to slap Ben silly.

“Why are you only telling us about such an important fact right now?”

Originally, Norton could have been rescued.

However, the Yates family used methods to turn him into vegetative state to force Third Master

Chapter 1196

Yates to come to Buckwood the first time.

However, no one knew that Norton was actually Third Master Yates's son all along!

A biological son was different from that of an outsider.

If Third Master Yates wanted to find out how Norton became comatose, then the Yates family in Buckwood would be dead as long as they investigated the matter.

Grandma Yates was walking around in the hospital at this moment. In the end, there was no other alternative but to seek help from the doctor in the hospital.

The doctor frowned and said, "Grandma Yates, it's not impossible to save Mr. Norton. It's just too difficult..."

"Difficult? We have money. No matter how difficult it is, we surely can solve it!"

Grandma Yates was very agitated at the moment.

Chapter 1196

The Yates family finally had a chance to rise up the ranks. They surely did not want to be angered by the Yates family from America because of Norton's affairs.

Meanwhile, Grandma Yates regretted it a little bit. Why did she even allow Ben to make such an underhanded move in the first place?

Unfortunately, it was too late to regret now.

Seeing the people from the Yates family being agitated, the doctor frowned and said, "Actually, although the patient is in a critical condition, he may be able to wake up as long as the national doctor is willing to treat him."

"Really?"

The entire Yates family looked hopeful. All of them were afraid to settle the score with the Yates family from America.

"Of course, it's true. That person's medical skills are the top in the world.

Chapter 1196

“But I heard that he would leave Buckwood for Central Plains soon.”

The doctor said.

Meanwhile, the people from the Yates family seemed to think of something.

Grandma Yates was thrilled. She said, “Are you talking about Senior Oskar Armstrong?”

“Yes! Who else can treat this intractable disease other than him?” The doctor nodded affirmatively.

Grandma Yates looked hopeful and said, “Doctor, where should we go to find Senior Oskar Armstrong?”

“Senior Armstrong was still here yesterday. But he returned to the Sword Camp today. So, you can try your luck there.” said the doctor.

All of the Yates family members nodded slightly. Then, they arrived outside of Sword Camp.

The Yates family thought they were powerful now, and they had a position in the government.

Chapter 1196

Furthermore, Ethan Hunt called and told them that the Chief Instructor would like to visit them.

In this context, it should be easy to invite Senior Oskar Armstrong.

Unexpectedly, they were instantly rejected.

“Maybe we should think of a way to get in touch with the Chief Instructor. Then, these people from the military would only do us a favor!”

The people from the Yates family heaved a sigh. They felt once again that their status was not high enough.

If the Chief Instructor was the grandson-in-law, would anyone in Buckwood dare to refuse them?

No one would even dare to refuse them!

They could only hesitantly postpone the matter temporarily. Anyway, the Chief Instructor would visit them soon. ①

The next day, Buckwood Airport was closed early in the morning.

Chapter 1196

A private plane landed.

Many families and forces from overseas who were holed up initially showed up in the airport this time. 2

Chapter 1197

Chapter 1197

Soon, in the VIP passage of the airport, dozens of men in white suits came out and stood on both sides of the aisle.

Then, a butler in a tuxedo walked out and spread out a red mat on the aisle.

Others immediately departed the people around.

All this was to welcome Third Master Yates's arrival.

As time passed, an energetic old man with black hair wearing a white suit slowly walked out of the VIP passage.

He was holding two walnuts in his hands and was slowly turning them in his palms at this moment.

As he walked out, all the men in white suits inhaled and then shouted.

Chapter 1197

“Welcome! Third Master Yates!”

Meanwhile, Third Master Yates was very imposing. His aura intimidated the crowd as he walked out.

Almost all of them unconsciously lowered their heads and did not dare to look straight at him in the eyes.

Two men in sportswear followed behind Third Master Yates.

One of them had fair skin, and the other was dark skin. However, both of them had the same thick calluses on their fists which made them full of killer instinct.

Many people gasped seeing those two people.

Those two Texas boxing champions could be the strongest in America!

It was beyond imagination that such characters would appear!

Everyone thought it was a rumor when they heard the news previously!

Chapter 1197

Later, a Rolls Royce Cullinan arrived outside the airport. Third Master Yates got in the car and was taken to Buckwood People's Hospital.

Third Master Yates's expression was icy when he came to Norton Yates' ward.

The entire Yates family present kneeled on the ground immediately the moment they saw Third Master Yates.

Led by Grandma Yates, everyone was trembling because Third Master Yates's aura was intimidating and horrifying.

“Third Master Yates, it's our fault. We failed to protect Mr. Norton. It's our fault. Please punish us!”

Grandma Yates cried as she spoke.

Third Master Yates looked around the place and said coldly, “I'm on your side. Stand up. This matter has nothing to do with any of you!”

“The four bodyguards that the old man assigned to

Chapter 1197

Norton are well-known masters in the Texas boxing ring. That person could easily knock down these bodyguards. Norton didn't lose unjustly!"

Although Third Master Yates had a gentle and friendly look, Grandma Yates was so frightened that she unconsciously gasped and said, "Third Master Yates, I wouldn't dare to stand up!

"No matter what, Harvey York is still the husband of that unfilial daughter, Mandy Zimmer, and the grandson-in-law of the Yates family!

"It's our fault for failing to discipline my grandson-in-law!

"None of us expected that live-in son-in-law to be that horrifying!

"To be so good at fighting!"

"I asked you to stand up. Was I talking gibberish?"
Third Master Yates said coldly.

This time, the Yates family was shocked.

They dared not act foolishly in front of this person.

Chapter 1197

At this moment, all of them stood up, constantly trembling.

Third Master Yates reached out his hand to check on Norton's pulse. Then, after a while, he asked calmly, "What did the doctor say?"

"The doctor said that his condition is not good. He won't be able to get up any time soon. He will most likely stay in a vegetative state..."

At that moment, Grandma Yates looked sad as if it was her son who had become vegetative.

"Unless..."

Chapter 1198

Chapter 1198

“Unless what?!”

Third Master Yates unconsciously asked.

“Unless we can invite Senior Oskar Armstrong to try to treat him!

“Senior Oskar Armstrong is indeed an expert in this field!

“We went to invite him last night, but we were outright rejected!

“But he should appear at the airport today. He will board the plane and leave Buckwood in two hours!”

Third Master Yates' eyes flickered upon hearing this. He sneered a moment later, “Butler Yates, here is a task for you. Go and invite Senior Oskar Armstrong here.

Chapter 1198

“Tell him, if he is willing to help, then we, the Yates family, will owe him a great favor. Wealth, power, beauty, we could offer him anything he wants!”

“Yes!”

The butler nodded.

However, Grandma Yates opened her mouth and said, “But Third Master Yates, I don’t think there’s much hope. Previously, when Senior Oskar Armstrong came to Buckwood, several of the top ten families in the great Country H had tried to invite him!

“The Jean family from Mordu even forcibly took him away, but in the end, something went wrong.”

Third Master Yates sneered, “How could the Jean family from Mordu even begin to be compared to us?!”

“Only the top three top-tier families in the great Country H can compare to the Yates family from America!

Chapter 1198

“People who could be invited by the Jean family, of course, we could too!

“We could also invite people who the Jean family from Mordu couldn't invite!”

“Make haste. If he refuses, then we had to take him forcefully. Norton Yates' situation is critical. He must be treated as soon as possible!”

Butler Yates slightly nodded and said, “Third Master Yates, don't worry. There are no people in this world that the Yates family in America couldn't invite!”

“Hmph, not doing us a favor indicating that you're looking down on America!

“Looking down on America is equivalent to seeking death! Just a great Country H! Huh!”

Third Master Yates sneered again and again, with an unscrupulous look.

Grandma Yates and the others who were at the side were trembling incessantly.

Chapter 1198

They could see that Third Master Yates valued Norton very much. Fortunately, they could mention Senior Oskar Armstrong in time. Otherwise, something terrible might happen to them!

If Third Master Yates had gotten angry, killing them was just a matter of minutes!

Soon, Butler Yates went out to invite Senior Oskar Armstrong.

Grandma Yates and others began to sugarcoat the stories and slandered Harvey York in the meantime.

“Third Master Yates, it’s all because of Harvey that this matter has escalated to this point today!”

“Yes! It’s all because of him and Mandy. They thought that they could do whatever they want just because Prince York is backing them. They even disregarded America!”

“Third Master Yates, we couldn’t let this brat go easily. His existence is an insult to the Yates

Chapter 1198

family!”

At this moment, all of the Yates family was gritting their teeth.

Third Master Yates said coldly, “Harvey York! Great! Let me handle this matter this time around!

“No matter what kind of background this Harvey has, I will kill him!

“Also, I will settle in Buckwood in the future. My goal is straightforward. I want to make Buckwood the bridgehead of the Yates family in America!

“To utilize this place as a stepping stone to thoroughly enter the market of the great Country H!

“And you, as the people of the Yates family, should feel honored!

“In the future, not only will you be the top family in Buckwood, but you will also be the top family in the great Country H!”

Meanwhile, Third Master Yates was so

Chapter 1198

overpowering.

Grandma Yates and the others were enthralled at the moment.

No one would have thought that the day to redeem themselves would come so quickly.

Even if they were incompetent, everything could be solved as long as they held the surname Yates.

Chapter 1199

Chapter 1199

From now on, Buckwood would be the Yates family's town!

After all, the Yorks, the Robbins family, the Surrey family, the Cloude family, and the Silva family had fallen.

Only the Naiswells and Sky Corporation from Buckwood could present as a rival.

The Naiswells mainly sold antiques. They did not dabble much in the business world, so there was no need to fear them.

Could Sky Corporation be Third Master Yates's opponent?

It was not difficult to solve him!

At that time, the Yates family from Buckwood could take over and become the only wealthy family in Buckwood!

Chapter 1199

All of a sudden, Grandma Yates and others had begun to picture the magnificent blueprints in their minds!

At the same time.

Butler Yates quickly made their way to the Buckwood Airport with a dozen people in white suits.

Meanwhile, Harvey York personally sent Senior Oskar Armstrong to the airport.

This was because Senior Oskar Armstrong loved to ride in vans. Harvey had no choice but to find one for him.

As for the special place of the military, Harvey did not arrange it because he knew that Senior Oskar Armstrong would surely refuse.

After all, this was the greatest doctor in the great

Chapter 1199

Country H. He certainly deserved the title “National Doctor”.

Harvey left after sending Senior Oskar Armstrong to the airport.

However, a literally few minutes after Harvey left, a Toyota Elfa quickly parked.

Butler Yates arrived at the airport with a dozen people in white suits.

At this moment, Senior Oskar Armstrong had just gotten his boarding pass and was still queueing at the screening area.

Suddenly, a dozen people appeared in front of him.

Butler Yates said with a smile, “Senior Oskar Armstrong, right? My master, Third Master Yates, would like to invite you to operate on his son at the hospital!

“As long as you agree, we’ll give you whatever you want. Wealth, power, or even beauty.”

Butler Yates had a determined expression because usually, no man could resist the offer.

Chapter 1199

Senior Oskar Armstrong frowned and looked carefully at Butler Yates at the moment. He then said indifferently, "Are you American?"

"Yes. You have a good eye. You deserve to be a doctor. I'm a true-blue American!"

"Third Master Yates and his son are also Americans!"

"It's your honor to be able to operate on him."

Hearing the word "American", Senior Oskar Armstrong said indifferently, "I'm sorry. I have no precedent for operating on Americans. Although everyone says that saving people has no borders, doctors have nationalities!"

"After coming off from the battlefield, I swore that I would not operate on anyone from the five powerful nations in this life!"

Senior Oskar Armstrong turned and left after he finished speaking.

I watched countless children of the great Country H die in the battles for guarding the frontier while I was on the battlefield.

Chapter 1199

Even if he was the national doctor, there was nothing he could do with so many cases to handle at one time.

From that time onward, Senior Oskar Armstrong vowed that he would never give medical treatment to those executioners.

Seeing that Senior Oskar was not doing them a favor. Butler Yates sneered at this moment, "I don't care about your vow. I already asked you nicely. You had your chance!"

"Take him away!"

Senior Oskar Armstrong was forced into the car by dozens of people in white suits after Butler Yates's order.

He had no chance to resist at all while facing those people.

Soon, Oskar Armstrong was brought to the hospital.

Chapter 1199

The doctors and nurses were all in awe when they saw him.

However, Third Master Yates had already received the report from Butler Yates. He said coldly at the moment, "Hurry up and conduct the operation. If my son can't wake up, I will turn you into vegetative state instead!"

Chapter 1200

Chapter 1200

Senior Oskar Armstrong was taken aback after hearing what Third Master Yates said.

In the past, many big bosses in the world had asked Senior Oskar Armstrong for help. They also started nicely and eventually became nasty. However, they would still treat him respectfully after they met him.

Nevertheless, the one in front of him right now was just too arrogant.

Although he was of Chinese descent, he did not have the temperament of a Chinese.

Instead, it was more of the domineering temperament of the Americans.

“I would not do anything. I have my principles. I won't treat people from the five powerful nations in this life.”

Chapter 1200

How could a person like Senior Oskar Armstrong be afraid of power? He responded coldly at the moment.

Third Master Yates looked carefully at Senior Oskar Armstrong and asked coldly, “Isn’t the doctor’s duty saving people’s lives? And saving people’s lives should have no borders. This is an international philosophy and your medical ethics. You’re the national doctor of the great Country H. Don’t you understand this?”

Senior Oskar Armstrong replied indifferently, “You don’t have to put me in this kind of situation. As I said, saving people has no borders, but doctors have nationalities!

“I won’t do it as long as he is not from the great Country H!

“Of course, I can provide you with an idea. That is to become a citizen of the great Country H!

“As long as the upper management agrees to this matter, I will conduct the operation on him right away!”

Chapter 1200

Apparently, Senior Oskar Armstrong's attitude was unyielding.

Third Master Yates laughed. “We're true-blue Americans. You want us to give up the American green card and become a citizen of the great Country H?”

“Senior Oskar Armstrong, do you think of yourself that much?”

“I have a way to deal with b*stards like you! Butler, let him understand his current situation!”

Butler Yates sneered. He understood what needed to be done.

The next moment, Oskar Armstrong's assistant was brought over as soon as he waved his hand.

A man in a white suit drew out a watermelon knife and chopped off the assistant's left arm.

Ugh!

Chapter 1200

The assistant convulsed with pain and kept rolling on the ground. However, he did not beg for mercy. Instead, he gritted his teeth and said, "Senior Armstrong, you can't help him. The Americans are shameless. Even if you did operate on him, he would never let you go."

"Keep quiet. Slap him!"

Butler Yates said coldly.

Suddenly, a thug hit the assistant's mouth with the watermelon knife's handle, smashing his teeth out.

"You ruthless gangsters, don't you have respect for the law!" Oskar Armstrong was angry.

Butler Yates smiled and said, "Law? Could the law of the great Country H control us, the Americans?"

"I'm asking you now. Are you operating or not? If you refuse, I will chop off his other arm!"

"I will then cut off his leg if his arms are gone!"

"If legs are gone, then I will cut off his head!"

Chapter 1200

“If you do it faster, you might still be able to help your assistant to patch his hands back. If you’re slow, then...”

Butler Yates sneered. It was needless to say anything else.

The people from the Yates family watched this scene. All of them gasped.

The people of the Yates family from America were indeed domineering and terrifying!

Such a family could not be easily confronted by anyone!

Nothing would make any sense to them!

What they did was use force to solve problems.

Senior Oskar Armstrong was trembling with anger. He could only grit his teeth and said, “Okay, I’ll conduct the operation!”

“But you have to arrange several other doctors to be

Chapter 1200

my assistant now!”

“Had you agreed to do it earlier, wouldn't it be easier? Why is there so much nonsense?”

“Saving people has no borders, but doctors have nationalities?”

“Talking as if you're so amazing? Who do you think you are?!”

Third Master Yates sneered again and again. He had many ways of dealing with those scholars!
