

“What did you say?”

Su Chuchu, who was sobbing, looked at Chen Hao incredulously, as if she hadn't heard him.

“Ha-ha! Is he so shocked that he became a fool? Who does he think he is? Young Master Chen?”

“I know right! And he even ‘hereby announce’ that he is inviting Su Chuchu to Cloud Hill Mansion! Is he here to entertain everyone?”

“Haven't he looked at himself in the mirror?” a few ladies said in disgust.

Guo Xing had changed into a pair of new trousers and returned to the hall.

Looking at everyone laughing at Chen Hao, Guo Xing and his son were excited.

Even the woman forgot the pain of being slapped just now.

“Dad, this man is officially doomed. He impersonated Young Master Chen's servant just now, and now he's even impersonating Young Master Chen. Let's see how he's going to die today!” the woman said viciously.

As everything was getting out of control, the door of the hall was suddenly opened.

“The guest has arrived!” a waiter shouted loudly.

The crowd went silent once more because this time around, someone from the Chen Family had arrived.

Everyone, no matter whether they were sitting on the platform or not, sat straight and looked at the entrance, including Chen Hao.

They then saw around fifty Maybachs stopped at each side of the red carpets in two rows.

The car door opened, and all the bodyguards dressed in black stood respectfully.

Everyone was shocked by this scene.

A middle-aged man stood on the red carpet and then walked toward the hall calmly while Shen Nianhua and his family members ran briskly to the door.

Everyone stood up because the guest who had just arrived was the real boss in the business circle.

“Mr. Li, after waiting for so long, you’ve finally arrived!” Shen Nianhua gave a ninety-degree bow.

Everyone in the Shen Family bowed as well.

“You’re too polite, Mr. Shen! I’ve some business to attend to, that’s why I’m late,” the middle-age man explained before walking into the hall with his men.

“Mr. Li!”

“Mr. Li!”

“Hello, Manager Li!”

The crowd greeted the middle-age man respectfully.

Su Chuchu also looked at the people from the Chen Family.

It was undeniable that after they arrived, the entire atmosphere changed.

Even every bodyguard from the Chen Family had the ability to make one’s skin crawl.

This was the first time Su Chuchu felt afraid.

She was afraid if someone reported the incident earlier, the life of the Su Family might change forever.

Madam Su was also frightened. She lowered her head, looking like a student who was waiting to go to the discipline teacher’s room to be punished.

What they dreaded the most finally arrived.

“Manager Li, I have something to tell you—before you arrive, someone impersonated Young Master Chen and lied to everyone!” Guo Xing suddenly stood up.

He had two reasons for doing this—firstly, he wanted to stand out in front of Manager Li. If he did a favor for the Chen Family, the Guo Family might have the opportunity to achieve great heights; secondly, he wanted to use the Chen Family's power to destroy Chen Hao to avenge his son.

“Oh? There's such a case?” Manager Li's face hardened.

Even the fifty bodyguards who followed him frowned. The bodyguards of the Chen Family had special seats in the hall as well.

In their eyes, Young Master Chen had an extraordinary position—whenever dared to disrespect Young Master Chen had to die!

“Have you found that guy?” Manager Li asked coldly.

Guo Xing was gleeful. After all, he had just changed into a pair of new trousers. He then ran to Manager Li's side ostentatiously.

“Manager Li, instead of being faraway, that man is right in front of you. This is him!” Guo Xing pointed at Chen Hao, who was standing aside.

Guo Qiang and his girlfriend also ran to Manager Li, eager to present themselves. “Yeah, Manager Li, this guy went around fooling everyone. Everyone here is able to testify that he had just invited Su Chuchu to the Cloud Hill Mansion just now! What an ass*ole!”

After hearing this, Manager Li snorted angrily and turned to look at the direction they were pointing to.

As everyone took in sharp breaths to brace themselves for the impending wrath, to their surprise, they saw him shudder and freeze.

The bodyguards of the Chen Family were stunned as well.

“It was none of his business—I’m the one who asked him to impersonate Young Master Chen. Manager Li, punish me instead of him! He’s just following my instructions!” Su Chuchu gritted her teeth and stood forward.

Madam Su was extremely nervous.

She didn’t understand her silly daughter—why did she take the blame when the blame had already been shifted?

“Are you crazy, Chuchu? Why did you speak up for this ugly fellow?” Madam Su asked anxiously.

“I’m not crazy. It’s true that I asked him to come here, so I should take the blame!” Su Chuchu explained.

Before they could finish arguing—

“Y-Young Master Chen!”

With tears welling in his eyes, Manager Li was shaking excitedly. It took a great deal of effort for him to say the name.

“Greetings to Young Master Chen!”

The bodyguards bowed and shouted in unison.

Their voices boomed in the hall and the entire hotel lobby seemed to be vibrating from their greetings.

Everyone was shocked.

The father and son from the Shen Family widened their eyes while the other pair of father and son from the Guo Family went from smirking sinisterly to looking incredulously at the scene in front of them. Their mouths were so widely opened to the extent that an egg could fit into it.

Y-Young Master Chen? Did I hear that correctly?

The atmosphere froze.

“Zhenguo, it’s been so long!”

Chen Hao had never thought that the member from the Chen Family who was arriving today was Li Zhenguo.

Li Zhenguo was very loyal to him. If it weren’t for his help during those times, he could not even escape to the Southwest Region.

When Chen Hao returned back to the Chen Family, he handed a lot of businesses for Li Zhenguo to take care of with assurance.

However, just some time before, Chen Hao was focusing on dealing with the Mo Family. He hadn’t been checking how the businesses were going, and didn’t even meet Li Zhenguo after that.

“You’re right, Young Master Chen, it’s been so long! I’m really excited to see you again!” Li Zhenguo smiled.

Su Chuchu, Su Ranran, and Madam Su looked at Chen Hao blankly.

They never would have known that the man whom they treated as a beggar was the well-known Young Master Chen.

“Y-You... You’re Young Master Chen?” Su Chuchu gulped and asked.

Chen Hao smiled at her and nodded. “Yes. That’s why I said the invitation card is still valid. When you have the time, feel free to come to the Cloud Hill Mansion and have fun there. The views are quite magnificent!”

With a plunk, Shen Nianhua kneeled immediately.

“Young Master Chen, I’m sorry for not recognizing you just now and questioning you just now! Please forgive me!”

Shen Nianhua was quite smart; he apologized in panic right now.

However, the father and son from the Guo Family didn’t even know how to apologize.

Guo Xing, who had just changed his pants, had now sh*tted his pants again.

We're doomed! The Guo Family is doomed!

“Zhenguo, this family is extremely wicked and evil. So help me finish them off—make them go bankrupt overnight and have ten billions of debt. I guess this is not difficult with your influence right now.” Chen Hao looked at Guo Qiang and smiled coldly.

“Well, of course!”

Li Zhenguo smiled coldly and informed his men, “Find out all the business partners from the Guo Family and cut all their businesses off! Whoever unwilling to do so, just make them go bankrupt!”

“Yes!”

The bodyguards immediately carried out his instructions right away.

This was the Chen Family!

Everyone took a deep breath, and no one would doubt the authenticity of the words spoken by Li Zhenguo just now.

Chen Hao looked at the Guo Family and said, “I thought you guys like to build your happiness on other’s sufferings? Fine, I like it too—I feel very happy seeing you guys suffer!”

Chen Hao had never thought that his trip to Willow City would have such a massive interlude.

As for the Shen Family's party and collaboration with Li Zhenguo, Chen Hao didn't ask about the details because he trusted Li Zhenguo in handling his business.

When the party ended, Chen Hao went back with Su Chuchu and her group.

"Miss Su, are you still angry with my previous blunder? I'd always wanted to explain myself—at that time, I mistook you for my girlfriend, Su Tongxin. That's why I acted rashly," Chen Hao looked at Su Chuchu and said.

When she was in such a precarious situation just now, she still stood forward to take the responsibility. This had proven that she is an extremely kind person.

"She's not angry at all. If you want to, you can even do more than hugging her, I would—" Madam Su said excitedly.

However, without finishing her sentence, Su Chuchu seemed to know what her mother was thinking and looked at her resentfully.

Madam Su knew that she went overboard and stopped talking at once.

“Mom, Young Master Chen wants to talk to sis privately. Stop interrupting them!” Su Ranran dragged their mother away.

“No worries, it was completely the opposite—I’m not angry at all. In fact, I want to thank you for telling me one thing!” she said, smiling.

Su Chuchu had never thought that the Young Master Chen whom she had once imagined was someone so elegant and so loyal to his love.

“Hmph? What did I tell you?” Chen Hao asked, smiling.

“All this while, I’ve always been thinking that this world is full of sexual desire, and that true love doesn’t exist anymore because all forms of love are fake! I thought the love that men show toward women was just a decoy to get to her body. I’ve always been disappointed and lost in love,” Su Chuchu said.

“But, that instant that you hugged me tightly, I could feel the love you have for this girl you’re looking for. Even though I didn’t know you at that time, I could feel it! You must love this girl a lot, and you must be very afraid to lose her again. At that moment, I finally understood that there’s still true love in this world. I’m also very envious of that girl—Tongxin, am I right?” Su Chuchu asked, looking at Chen Hao.

Chen Hao nodded.

“Can I ask you one more favor, Young Master Chen?”

“Just speak your mind! As long as it’s within my power, I’ll definitely help you!”

“I just wanted to hear the love story between you and Tongxin, is that alright?”

Chen Hao pondered for a while. Then, he started telling Su Chuchu their story.

Time passed quickly. Soon, Chen Hao finished telling her everything.

Su Chuchu nodded contentedly.

“I understand now. Love doesn’t require much after all!” Su Chuchu laughed. “By the way, you said you need a drop of my blood? Even though I have no idea how much it can help you, I have no problem giving it to you, as long as you need it!”

Su Chuchu then bit her index finger and a drop of blood flowed out.

After keeping it, Chen Hao looked at Su Chuchu gratefully.

“If anything happens to you in the future, and you need my help, you can find me anytime. Thank you very much, Miss Chuchu!”

“I’m grateful to you too. We’re friends now, so let’s stop thanking each other. Young Master Chen, from the bottom of my heart, I give my blessings to you. I hope you find Tongxin and you guys can meet each other soon. Remember to invite me to your wedding!” Su Chuchu said, with tears in her eyes.

“Alright! That day will definitely come. Thanks for your blessings!”

After finishing his sentence, Chen Hao turned around and left.

Su Chuchu, however, took a deep breath. When she saw Chen Hao’s leaving figure, her heart suddenly felt empty.

“Sis, how did the conversation go?”

“Yeah, Chuchu, why did he simply leave? It’s been so difficult meeting him. Didn’t you guys have any story?” her mom asked caringly.

“Mom, even though I’m moved by this guy, I know it’s impossible for us to be together, no matter how I try. He loves his girlfriend very much!”

Chen Hao’s elegance and the incident that happened between them had moved Su Chuchu.

But she knew very well that she stood no chance, so she could only give them her blessings from the bottom of her heart.

In the helicopter, while they were on their way to Jin Ling, Chen Hao asked Li Zhengguo, "After I left, is everything in Jin Ling okay?"

"Everything's fine! After you obliterated the Mo Family, I asked people to refurbish the Cloud Hill Mansion according to the original design. Now, it looks exactly the same as the original. As for Jin Ling Commercial Street and the Hot Spring Villa, we have already acquired them back. I went back to work in Jin Ling a year ago. Everything's all good there!" Li Zhengguo reported. "Miss Han Siyu had recovered after taking your prescription. By the way, she's no longer an influencer now. She has switched careers to be an actress. With her former popularity and our support, she's now one of the A-list celebrities."

"That's great! Oh right, what about Xiaonan?"

Chen Hao was concerned about her.

When they were bidding farewell the last time, he was under attack, and he didn't even know if he could make it out alive.

He thought they would never meet again.

However, since he went back this time, he was going to visit her.

Now that he got a drop of blood of the extreme Yin type, it was probably very difficult for Yun Qing to find him.

As long as he kept a low profile, it wasn't easy for her to track him down.

“Initially, I was planning to support Xiaonan to start her own company, and gave her a large amount of money. But she belongs to the type of girls who are straightforward—she said she didn't want to start a company, and rejected my money as well. In her opinion, there's not a lot of difference if she had more money. And the money that you've given her is more than enough. Her goal is to become a teacher. She had finished getting her teacher's license and began teaching in a high school. I wanted to build a fancy school for her, but she rejected the idea as well!” Li Zhenguo shook his head and smiled wryly.

“Xiaonan is always like this. She is different from those girls who could only see money in their minds. Xiaonan never thought that money could make a lot of difference. Just like how she treated me—whether or not I'm rich, she always takes me as her best friend!” The corners of Chen Hao's lips lifted in satisfaction.

Li Zhenguo looked at Chen Hao. He wanted to say something, but he lowered his head instead.

“Speak your mind!” Chen Hao looked at him.

“Actually Xiaonan is a really nice girl. When you were in trouble, Xiaonan and Han Siyu rushed to the Southern Region to look for your news. When they were being forced by the Mo Family, Xiaonan and Han Siyu had suffered a lot!”

Chen Hao nodded heavily.

“Even until now, Xiaonan still keeps in touch with me every week. She always asks if there's any news about you every time, for the past eighteen months!” Li Zhenguo said.

A surge of gratitude flooded Chen Hao's eyes.

How could I not know Xiaonan's feelings towards me...
