

“A precious gift is being sent to Old Lady Su by a guest!”

In front of the gift counter at the entrance, an usher stood and announced loudly.

“Hmph?”

The scene in front of them made everyone quieten down as they looked at the entrance simultaneously.

Even Wei Guifang jolted and shot a glance toward there.

Shen Yanli and the others looked at each other awkwardly. From their exchanged glances, they could see the curiosity behind their eyes.

What’s going on? A guest who sent a precious gift specifically to Old Lady Su?

A precious gift could totally win over a great gift, and it was also an extremely rare occurrence!

Not only was the present extremely rare and costly, but the person who could send a precious gift was of extraordinary status and position in the society.

Since the ancient times, there were certain gift-giving etiquettes. For normal gifts, the gift counter would just record the gift into a notebook.

For great gifts, the ushers at the gift counter would need to stand and bow to express gratitude on behalf of the gift receiver.

For precious gifts, not only would the ushers need to stand, they would also need to report loudly.

For such occasions where the present was given to one of the guests, instead of the host, similar protocols needed to be followed.

The usher followed all the proper protocol of gift-giving etiquettes, hence she read out everything loudly.

The people from the Xiao Family looked at the scene in front of them in shock. They then suppressed the fury that Shen Yanli was slapped.

Shen Yanli held her face and said harshly, "You're such a disgrace! Sending presents to Madam Su at the birthday party held by the Xiao Family! I assume that this is on purpose! You purposely send presents to yourself because you're afraid that my grandmother will laugh at you, am I right?"

"Zhang Xinhua, I thought you were my opponent before this! But now, I'm so ashamed of your hypocrisy! Even at this age, you're such a disgrace—Yanli is right! You're able to stoop so low to do anything!" Wei Guifang scolded loudly as well.

The stares that the guests have the Su Family were even more disparaging.

"Ha! I'm going to have a good look at the presents this poor fella is able to give you!" Shen Yanli laughed coldly.

The security guards turned to look at them.

The people there also held their breaths, both excited and curious about the announcements by the gift counter.

"A set of jewellerys of the gold and jade, class A arrangement!"

"What?" Upon hearing that, everyone was shocked. Class A arrangement of gold and jade cost at least ten millions and above!

“A set of shimmering traditional Han clothing!”

Everyone’s mouths were opened wider.

“The royal agarwood and sandalwood!”

“The f*ck?” Everyone stood up again.

As they listened to the list, every gift made their blood run colder.

“A mansion that costs three billion!”

“What?”

The crowd went wild with the announcement of the final gift, and everyone’s hair stood on its end.

Every single gift cost more than ten million, and they sounded even more majestic after being announced by the usher one by one.

Especially the mansion which cost three billion made the atmosphere reach the peak.

Meanwhile, everyone had either one of the two questions that they were all wondering about.

Who is the person who sends all these gifts?

Damn, are these even real? Not just the Su Family, everyone in this room is incapable of giving such luxurious gifts.

Even if the Su Family send these to themselves, there are eighteen gifts in total! With the mansion, all the gifts cost more than ten billion!

My god, how much money does the Su Family own?

Even if they want to put on airs, they can't possibly have this much money!

"Zhang Xinhua, are you out of your mind? Even showing off has a limit, you know!"

After being taken aback by the hefty gifts, Wei Guifang had just returned to her senses.

She looked at Zhang Xinhua and laughed at her, with the other guests following suit.

However, their smiles soon disappeared from their faces as they saw a few helicopters flying in the air right to the front of the mansion.

The helicopters queued into six rows, with three in each row. They could be calculated easily.

Moreover, the price of each helicopter was already quite expensive.

Everyone couldn't believe what they were seeing until the helicopters gradually landed and a group of people walked out, holding the eighteen gifts mentioned just now.

Of course, the most expensive of them all—the mansion—was in the form of a contract.

“How could this be possible?” Wei Guifang was shocked again.

“Young Master Chen, the gifts are successfully delivered. This is the list!” A security walked in front of Chen Hao and bowed before reporting to him.

“Why do you give it to me? Show it to Madam Su!”

Chen Hao looked at Zhang Xinhua and smiled. “Madam Su, I’ve missed your birthday party yesterday, so these are for you!”

“Young Master Chen?”

Hearing the bodyguards addressing Chen Hao in such a way, the crowd was shocked beyond belief, especially Shen Yanli.

“He’s Young Master Chen?”

Shen Yanli and the others were completely stunned as they looked at Chen Hao in disbelief. How could he be Young Master Chen?

He was just a poor guy in Jin Ling City.

To him, every single present was a luxury.

“I don’t believe it!” Shen Yanli shouted and rushed over to look at the presents, especially the contract for the mansion which cost three billion.

After examining the presents, she gulped incredulously.

They're real. They are all real.

Wei Guifang ran over and had a look as well. Indeed, everything was real.

How is this possible?

“Hao, why did you buy so many expensive gifts?”

Zhang Xinhua was astounded.

“These are all from Tongxin and I. I hope you like them, Madam Su!” Chen Hao said.

Tears immediately welled up in Zhang Xinhua's eyes.

From the phrase ‘Tongxin and I’, Zhang Xinhua knew that Chen Hao had only loved Tongxin all this while, and that Tongxin didn't choose the wrong man.

She had finally found someone who really loved her. Even after it had been so long, she was still in his mind.

Zhang Xinhua knew very well that even though she would throw a fit during her birthday every time, it was impossible that Tongxin could be found.

With Chen Hao's words, Zhang Xinhua was assured and could finally rest in peace if she passed away.

Even though Tongxin had a tough life, she had someone who loved her all this while.

Honestly, even if Madam Su were to die, she would die in contentment. She felt this way not because of the gifts that he gave her.

She was not this type of person.

Wei Guifang, however, stood rooted to the ground blankly.

She felt as if she had been slapped in the face. Moreover, she had offended Young Master Chen, big time.

No one dared to suspect Chen Hao's true identity right now.

"Young Master Chen, we're wrong! We are as blind as a bat! Please forgive the Xiao Family!"

If they offended Young Master Chen, they might not be able to continue their lives anymore.

“Xiao Jun, you kneel down too!” Wei Guifang commanded hastily.

Plop!

Xiao Jun kneeled immediately and tugged Shen Yanli’s skirt, asking her to do the same.

“Ha-ha-ha-ha!”

However, Shen Yanli suddenly laughed loudly.

“You are Young Master Chen? I don’t believe it! You’ve admitted that you are that person in our primary school. You’re just a poor bastard, how could you suddenly become Young Master Chen who owns infinite wealth? How could this be your life? Impossible! I don’t buy it! You have to explain everything to me today!” Shen Yanli said ferociously.

Chen Hao took a sip of his red wine. Immediately, his guards passed him a white towel.

Chapter 637 No Explanations Needed

Chen Hao wiped his mouth and looked at her coldly. "Do I have to explain such an awesome life to you?"

Shen Yanli had always been arrogant as she depended on her family background.

Now that she met Chen Hao, she didn't dare to think about how she would end up. Chen Hao told her the last line to deliberately let her know that she was not the best in the world and there were so many people better than her.

The entire Xiao Family, including Wei Guifang, were so shocked that they did not dare to utter a single word.

The rest of the birthday party had lost its meaning.

Hence, Chen Hao and everyone from the Su Family left shortly after.

Even though what happened this afternoon only took a short while, it was as if the ups and downs in life for Old Lady Su.

It made her blood and breath circulation uneven. Halfway home, she felt her limbs suddenly turn numb and her head spinning. With a strong headache, she fainted.

This made everyone in the Su Family freak out.

Chen Hao went to the Cloud Hill Mansion to check the progress before heading to the Su Family.

The exploration of the mountain was faster than expected. It was predicted that the Sky Stone could be found the next day.

As Chen Hao wasn't by their side, the Su Family was in a disarray.

It was lucky that they were reaching their house soon. As this wasn't the first occurrence over the past few years, there were oxygen supplies and certain medical equipment in their house. However, her condition was more serious this time.

They called their doctor, Ma Jin, to come over and proceed with the emergency treatment immediately.

Ma Jin was once a renowned doctor in the army with great medicinal knowledge and skills.

In his sixties, he only came back to his hometown this year and became a professor in one of the hospitals. Not just that, he was also the deputy chairman of the medicinal association.

When he brought two of his disciples—one male and one female—to the Su Family, he met Chen Hao who was also on his way there.

They nodded to each other as greetings.

When Chen Hao entered the Su Family, he saw Su Guoqiang and the others panicking.

After asking them, only then he knew that Madam Su's old problems had acted up when they were on the way back.

The three people who entered after him were doctors who came to treat her.

"Is Madam Su in her room? I'll go have a look. I don't expect that her illness is this serious!" Chen Hao said

Truth be told, when Chen Hao saw Madam Su just now, he already knew that she had some health problems, but he didn't point it out.

After all, he knew how to cure her.

When he mentioned that he would be back after going to Cloud Hill for a while, he wasn't going to come back to continue chatting, but to treat her symptoms.

"Wait, what are you doing here? Where's your manners? My master is here. Who needs you here?" at this moment, a young man in his thirties who was standing behind Ma Jin said.

"Come on, don't be like this. I assume this young man is just here to have a look."

The girl standing behind Ma Jin smiled at Chen Hao slightly before speaking.

Chen Hao smiled back, but he was worried about Madam Su's illness.

Without speaking much, he asked Su Guoqiang, "Mr. Su, how long has Madam Su been ill?"

At that instant, Su Guoqiang told him Madam Su's illness at once.

It turned out that she had been ill for quite some time.

And her illness would relapse after a certain period. Once it relapsed, there would be a few repetitions of the same symptoms until a few more times before completing its turn.

They also did some checkups to find the root of the problem, but they found nothing.

During this period, they found Dr. Ma Jin and asked him to come over to cure her.

The young man and woman behind him were his disciples—the young man was in his thirties, and his name was Liu Wang; the girl was around twenty-three years old, and her name was Zhao Bailing.

After some time, the Su Family got more familiar with them.

However, even though Doctor Ma Jin came, he couldn't diagnose the problem until now either.

“Madam Su's illness is not too much of a problem. But I'll go in and have a look first!” Chen Hao was quite confident.

However, Liu Wang's face darkened at once. After he heard Zhao Bailing said Chen Hao might be another doctor, Liu Wang felt defensive toward him. Could he be here to take over our jobs? He is so much younger than me! Even Dr. Ma Jin couldn't diagnose the problem, but he said it is not much of a problem?

B*llshit!

"Young man, it's better not to be too confident of yourself." Liu Wang frowned, obviously dissatisfied.

"Yeah, Chen Hao. I've never heard that you know how to treat patients. I don't mean anything, but when did you learn medicine?"

Wang Huimin didn't mean to look down on Chen Hao, but treating patients was not something to be taken lightly.

Chen Hao was a literature student. Even though he was a Young Master, he was not expert in everything. Hence, when Chen Hao said he wanted to diagnose the problem and cure Madam Su, they were quite worried even though they trusted Chen Hao.

Apart from that, they didn't mean anything else.

Chen Hao shook his head and smiled bitterly. He was even familiar with the three religions and nine schools of philosophy, let alone simple medical skills like such.

However, he didn't blame Mrs. Su and the rest as they didn't know the changes he had been through over the past two years. It was natural for them to have their doubts.

Without further chatting, they headed toward Madam Su's room.

"Doctor Ma, grandmother is already up. Chen Hao, you're also here!"

Tang Ran had been in her room serving her needs, without even leaving her side. She smiled after seeing Chen Hao enter the room.

"Dr. Ma, Dr. Liu, Dr. Zhao, and Hao, you guys are here!" In the room, Madam Su greeted them weakly.

"Dr. Ma, this has been going on for almost two years, and it comes in bouts. Each time was even more intense than the last, and the frequency of the symptoms flaring up was getting more frequent!" Madam Su said.

She had never expected Chen Hao to be here to treat her illness, hence she only described her latest symptoms to Ma Jin.

"Everytime the illness strikes, I would wake up in an hour. But after that, it keeps happening for four to five times before it completely stops. I almost can't take it anymore!" Madam Su sighed.

"Madam Su, don't worry! Dr. Ma has been researching your illness during this period. It was weird, but he has some results. I'll show them to you now as this is better than someone else who doesn't know better spouting nonsense," Liu Wang explained and smiled, but he glanced at Chen Hao at the same time.

"Ha! If you run checkups on me now, I'm afraid you won't get anything." Madam Su smiled helplessly. "We've hired some other doctors before, but the results of the checkups were all normal. They couldn't diagnose the problem at all. Only when my head hurts that they could find where the problem arises.”

“Oh, right!” Liu Wang said awkwardly and stood back.

“Dr. Ma, if you’ve found the root of the problem, can you treat me right now? I really don’t want to suffer anymore,” Madam Su pleaded.

Ma Jin, however, kept quiet.

“Madam Su, don’t worry. The next bout of your illness should happen in one hour and five minutes. When your head really hurts, I’m sure Dr. Ma will do his best to treat you then!” Chen Hao said, glancing at the clock on the wall.
