

Chapter 1867

Harvey York then playfully replied, “Deputy Branch Leader Walker, you’ve been in this line of work for so many years now. How come you still don't have any sense?”

“Never have the heart to harm others...”

“But always keep your guard up against others!”

“Don’t you really have any idea why I’m being this cautious around you?”

Justin Walker lightly chuckled.

“Rest assured, Sir York. I’ll do my best to cooperate for the sake of my wife.”

Harvey just smiled. He brought Kait Walker with him and then left.

Justin’s eyes lit up as soon as Harvey was gone, then he dialed a number on his phone.

“Prince Jean, I’ll be giving Kait a statement tomorrow at the Walker family club.

“At the same time, I’ll announce your marriage to her!

“Right, the man named Harvey can easily defeat

Chapter 1867

Chief Leonard Bray. I won't be able to do much about him.

"I hope that you'll come up with a plan against him, Prince.

"It's best that we deal with him permanently before Kait gets her statement."

"I think the sight will be quite extravagant."

The phone hung up without a sound. A crude smile leaked out of Justin's face.

The next day, everything would happen on that single fateful day!

On the next day, he would finally deal with Angelina's sickness!

On the next day, he would also become family with Mordu's Jean family!

And on the next day, he would successfully take up the position of branch leader of Mordu's Longmen branch. ①

Thinking of all this, a cold smirk leaked out of Justin's face.

Harvey was not aware of Justin's betrayal.

Even if he did, he wouldn't make a big fuss about it either.

It would surely fit Justin's way of doing things. If Justin didn't cause Harvey trouble behind his back, he wouldn't have the heart to take action either.

Back in the Fragrant Hill villa, Harvey assigned Rachel Hardy and Aiden Bauer their tasks for the next day.

Those two had already completed most of the tasks during the past couple of days.

Next, Harvey would only need to do one more thing to integrate Mordu's Longmen branch completely.

And the day after was the best time to do so!

Kait did not know of Harvey's plans here. She brought over a secretary to draft a contract, giving half of her thirty percent shares to Harvey as well as inviting him to be the executive CEO of Walker Corporation.

Kait didn't thank Harvey verbally, but her actions were evident enough to show her sincerity.

Harvey wanted to reject the offer, but Kait might be pushed around by Justin and Angelina if he did. In the end, he reluctantly took the offer.

Harvey never thought that he would be the major shareholder of three different companies in just a couple of days in Mordu.

His words carried the most weight in Kaizen Group.

Hengdian World Studios was also under his name.

He also had fifteen percent of Walker Corporation's shares, having immense authority in the company.

Once Harvey became the branch leader of Mordu's Longmen branch, it would be easy to deal with Yvonne Xavier's situation without mobilizing other forces.

Kait took Harvey out to take office in the Walker Corporation at ten o'clock in the morning.

One of them was the CEO, and the other was the executive CEO. Their ranks and status were high.

But Harvey was definitely not going to do any work. That was why his title was just for show.

Kait already knew that Harvey wouldn't participate in the company's business right when she got Harvey the position.

But letting one of her own be the executive CEO would be way better than an outsider plotting against her.

Chapter 1868

Ten o'clock, Lujiazui, inside a large meeting room at the Walker Corporation building.

Every single higher-up of the company was there. Every one of them had authority, status and was very outspoken.

When Kait Walker, in a black suit, walked in with Harvey, who was calm and collected, everyone glared at them with judgemental eyes.

Those gazes were filled with disdain, doubt, and rebellion, but none showed obedience in their eyes as Harvey wanted.

Naturally, in their eyes, Kait's sudden rise to power had ruined those people's benefits along with their businesses up to this point.

That was why those higher-ups were instinctively opposing her.

Out of all those people, a man wearing an Armani suit, while dangling his cigar on his lips with a look of an unscrupulous playboy, was the most disgruntled.

Inside the spacious meeting room, he was selfishly puffing smoke everywhere.

Kait slightly frowned without saying anything, then walked toward the main seat and turned on the microphone.

“I think everyone here should know each other by now.

“I’ll be officially taking the position of CEO from today onward. I’ll spare the pleasantries. I only hope that all of you will support me as you did the ex-CEO, Angelina John.

“I believe that we’ll do a better job in the future and guarantee that everyone’s end-of-the-year bonuses and dividends will skyrocket.

“Now, let me introduce you all to the newly hired executive CEO, Harvey York.

“He represents my will in Walker Corporation.

“His words are my own!

“And his orders will be carried out without compromise!

“If any of you dare disobey him, get out of here this instant!”

Kait’s distant face was showing a frigid expression.

“Does everyone understand what I’m saying?”

The room was dead silent. Most higher-ups subconsciously glared at Harvey while slightly squinting.

Harvey's casual clothes did not even amount to two hundred dollars.

His name was not that well-known either. He did not even amount to a big character at all!

That was why those higher-ups were perplexed. How did this kid that came out of nowhere have the capabilities to gain Kait's trust?

And Kait even said that his words were her own?

Was he a legendary kept man who rose to power?

Without a second thought, everyone was disgusted by Harvey while filled with unspeakable envy and jealousy inside their hearts.

Most of the people present would surely want to be kept in by Kait.

Of course, this thought mustn't be said publicly.

The man wearing an Armani suit slowly put out his cigar, then crossed his legs on the table while squinting his eyes to look at Harvey.

In his eyes, this kept man was as good as dead!

Harvey turned a blind eye toward everyone and calmly moved forward, then let out a warm smile.

“Hello. I’m Harvey. I look forward to working together with all of you.”

Slam!

The man wearing an Armani suit slammed his right leg on the table, immediately cutting off Harvey’s speech.

His face showed expressions of arrogance, dominance, and bossiness.

“CEO Walker, everyone knows full well how you managed to take this position!

“It’s fine that you’re the CEO even with subpar capabilities, but you even hired an executive CEO for the company?

“You think this company that makes hundreds of millions of dollars worth of deals every single day is a place that you can play house?

“I’m warning you right now. You better tell your kept man to get out of here right now!

“If you don’t, the shareholders will get mad because you caused the company’s business to plummet. You won’t be able to bear the consequences!”

Chapter 1868

Chapter 1869

Harvey York squinted while looking at the man with an Armani suit.

At the same time, he casually flipped through the documents in his hands.

The man was extremely unscrupulous and did not pay any respect toward Harvey at all. He clearly had an extraordinary background.

Harvey found information about the man soon after. He was Ronald John, Angelina John's cousin and a collateral relative of the Golden Sands' John family.

The most important thing was that he was the former executive CEO.

With Harvey taking the position would mean that Ronald was demoted back to an ordinary higher-up.

Before Harvey even spoke, Kait Walker coldly gazed toward Ronald and said, "Ronald John, please think before you speak.

"You know exactly how I took this position. You won't be able to defame me with just a few words.

"Besides, as the CEO, I have the authority to appoint someone I trust as the executive CEO.

“If you’re dissatisfied, complain to the board of directors about it!

“Another thing, watch your attitude! This is a meeting room, not your living room!

“Pack your things and leave right now if you don’t want to be in the meeting. Nobody’s stopping you!”

“Heh. You’re telling me to leave?”

Ronald stood up righteously while lighting up another one of his cigars, then walked forward to blow a puff of smoke right toward Kait’s face.

“CEO Walker, do you really think that a former executive CEO like me is that useless?”

“Let me tell you right now. I was the one who dealt with Star Chaebol’s Mordu’s representative power of attorney!

“The entire Walker Corporation, along with the shareholders, knows about this!

“Once I get the deal, the company’s stocks will skyrocket! It wouldn’t be a problem for the stocks to double even!

“Simply put, all of our salary will double as soon as I get Star Chaebol’s contract!

“But it’s such a shame. I got fired from my position as executive CEO.

“Since that’s the case, there’s no way for me to continue talking about the contract.

“Without the collaboration, all the good news is just a dream!

“To put it simpler, because of you and your kept man, not only will the stocks of the company not rise, it might even plummet for a few days!

“CEO Walker, do you really think you’ll be able to give the board of directors and the shareholders a statement?

“Are you going to tell them that you gave up partnering up with Star Chaebol just for your kept man to rise to power?

“Of course, I’ll think about getting the contract for you if you beg and passionately ask me back as the executive CEO.

“But, I have a single condition.

“Get this kept man to kneel and crawl right between my legs!

“Hahahaha..”

Ronald was laughing maniacally and arrogantly.

Because in his eyes, he had every right to do just that.

All the higher-ups present showed playful looks on their faces.

Everyone understood that Ronald was trying to cause Kait trouble in Angelina's stead!

Star Chaebol was Country J's best business establishment, controlling top-of-the-line technology and industry chains throughout the entire world.

Because of Peter Lee's downfall, Star Chaebol's power of attorney at the far east was still being reorganized.

Even though Angelina did not work while she was still the CEO of the company, she used the John family's name to establish a partnership with Star Chaebol.

And Ronald was in charge of communicating with Star Chaebol's representative in Mordu.

If Ronald were to cause trouble, the collaboration between Walker Corporation and Star Chaebol would instantly collapse.

It would only take minutes for the stocks to plummet.

Chapter 1870

Everything happened because Kait Walker dismissed Ronald John from his position as executive CEO.

Kait would have to take the blame if the company's stocks were to plummet. She might even have to step down because of that incident as well!

It was safe to say that those were elaborate traps set up by Justin Walker and Angelina John for her.

Kait's incapability would be blamed if she were to be fired on her first day in the position, and it wouldn't be Justin's fault for not keeping his promise!

After understanding the situation, the higher-ups didn't even bother standing up for Kait.

They were all playfully looking at her, seeing how she would solve the problem in the end!

After seeing Kait frown, Ronald then nonchalantly sat back on his chair and crossed his legs.

"CEO Walker, let's not talk about whether I should be reinstated as the executive CEO or not.

"You should at least apologize to all the higher-ups and me here, right?

“Because of you, everyone’s efforts for the past few months have been wasted, causing great losses for the company!”

“The stocks are plummeting!”

“You have to take responsibility for all this!”

The higher-ups looked at each other after hearing those words. Some of them even stood up after.

“That’s right, CEO Walker. Because of you, we’ve suffered unimaginable losses!”

“CEO Walker, you mustn’t disappoint us like that!”

“We’re all seniors of the company here! We’ve worked our hearts off even if we don’t have any achievements!”

Kait was showing a horrible expression. She had planned for almost everything, but she never saw this coming.

When Kait had no idea what to do then, Harvey slammed his leg on the table.

Bang!

“You bastards! You call yourselves the company’s higher-ups, but you can’t even fix such a small thing?!

“Is there really a point for this for the sake of Star Chaebol’s power of attorney?!”

“Look at yourselves! You’re just a bunch of rich slackers!”

“The company gave you so much money and treated you so well, and yet you can’t even fix such a minor problem?”

“Then you ask CEO Walker to deal with the problem? Do you want her to take responsibility?”

“Why does the company need any of you then?”

Harvey caught everyone off guard.

Even Kait and Ronald were shocked.

Nobody thought Harvey would talk back to the higher-ups tit for tat, throwing all the responsibility back to them.

“Bastard, who are you even?”

Ronald’s expression was utterly horrible then.

“Is it your turn to talk now?”

Slap!

Harvey wasted no time and slapped Ronald across his face.

Ronald was sent flying the next moment, landing on the ground with the same chair on his back.

The room was dead silent. Everyone was terrified.

Nobody thought that Harvey was a kept man that would retort and hit people!

The most important thing was that he hit Ronald.

He was a part of the John family!

Wasn't Harvey scared of causing a terrible mess?

Was this kept man really that brave?

Kait slightly froze, then regained her composure after a while.

Harvey dared even to hit Justin and Angelina.

Hitting Ronald then was nothing!

“Bastard! Did you hit me? You actually dare hit me?!” 2

Ronald got back up from the ground.

“Kait Walker, I'm going to make both of you dead if you don't give me an explanation right now!”

Chapter 1871

“An explanation? I’ll give you an explanation right now.”

Harvey York walked forward calmly, then swung his palm against Ronald John’s face again.

Slap!

“A mere higher-up dares to threaten both the CEO and the executive CEO?!”

Slap!

“Where did you get all this courage from?!”

Slap!

“CEO Walker already said earlier that my will is hers as well. I’m hitting you right now in her place!”

Slap!

“As the previous executive CEO, not only are you not doing your job properly and contributing to the company after getting such a high salary. You’re even threatening the company with your contract?”

Slap!

“The company gave you your paycheck for you to come up with ideas, not for you to rebel!”

After a few slaps across his face, Ronald was severely bruised, but he was still screaming in anger then.

“You bastard! How dare you hit me?!”

“It’s obviously because of you and Kait that Star Chaebol turned down the offer to work with us!”

“Both of you are responsible for this!”

“We’re responsible for this?”

Harvey smiled.

“As a higher-up of the company, you have a duty to solve the company’s problems as well.

“You’ve been the one in charge of the business, and yet you tell me that the deal’s off after you’re dismissed from your position? The power of attorney is gone just like that?

“If that’s the case, I also have reasons to doubt whether you already have the contract or not!

“Have you been making no progress with your work, and you want to shift all the blame to CEO Walker right after she got appointed because you weren’t able to hide the fact any longer?!

“I can deal with such a small thing like this with a single phone call, yet you dare to threaten CEO Walker with this?!

“Are you brain-dead? Or don't you want to work here any longer?”

“If you don't want to work here anymore, then get out of here already!”

Harvey kicked Ronald to the ground, then calmly gave an order.

“Get me a resignation letter. Get anybody that keeps yapping to sign the letter and leave!”

Harvey glanced at the room full of higher-ups, then smiled.

“I was a bit rash. I must've scared all of you.”

“Please don't misunderstand my words toward Ronald.”

The higher-ups were slightly relieved. Someone was seen about to speak up.

But Harvey continued with his speech.

“I'm saying that if you all want to keep your job, then you should shut your mouth!

“If you don’t want to work here anymore, pack your things and leave!

“This goes for every single one of you!”

The higher-ups were utterly shocked after hearing those words.

Everyone thought that Harvey was just using his authority as the new boss to go against Ronald and make an example out of him.

They did not expect that Harvey was targeting every higher up in the room.

‘Leave if we don’t want to work here anymore?’

‘What is this dominance?’

The staff had brought over resignation letters and put them on the table soon after.

Everyone subconsciously looked at Ronald, whose face was terribly bruised then.

This also piqued Kait's curiosity.

Everyone wanted to see if Ronald would leave the company.

It was apparent everyone knew that he wouldn't.

Other than the million-dollar yearly paycheck, there was another reason that he couldn't leave. He represented Angelina's interests.

Justin and Angelina put him here to set up Kait and force her out of the company.

He was not supposed to leave before everything kicked into motion.

It was safe to say that Harvey was extremely decisive, catching Ronald off guard.

It would not be that easy for Ronald to set up Kait any longer in circumstances like this.

Chapter 1872

Looking at Ronald John, who was terrified and enraged at the same time, Harvey York threw a document on the table and calmly said, “So, what if it’s Star Chaebol? It’s just a business establishment from Country J anyway!

“Is the power of attorney really hard to get from them? Do you really need the CEO or executive CEO to deal with this matter?

“Any one of you higher-ups should be able to seal the deal!

“If not, are you even worthy of getting hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of salary and dividends?

“Is the company paying you to slack off?”

Harvey pointed at the resignation letters and coldly exclaimed, “If any of you think that I'm being too arrogant and illogical...

“Or you think that your capabilities are limited and cannot complete the task. Then it's simple: get out.

“The people that get out right now will not miss out on this year's pay and dividends.”

The room was dead silent after hearing Harvey's words. Even Ronald, who was yapping quite a lot in the beginning, turned silent. He wouldn't dare to say another word.

Everyone knew that if they continued showing off and going against Harvey, they would be kicked out of the company.

Kait was glaring coldly at the sight.

In her eyes, she would have to stand by Harvey.

If they had any disagreements at all, Harvey's words would be treated as a joke.

Besides, Kait completely trusted Harvey after being with him for the past few days. She believed that he had reason to act this way and not due to him being unscrupulous.

Ronald's expression frantically changed. The other people were able just to sit still, but he felt he was on the hot seat.

If he couldn't force Kait to give up her position, he wouldn't be able to go back to Justin and Angelina.

That was why even though Ronald was slightly fearful, he still spoke up after hesitating for a while.

“Harvey York! What exactly do you mean by that?!”

“Are you turning your back on us?!”

“You should know that all of the higher-ups work really hard every single day! Even if we don’t have any achievements, at least we worked our hearts out for the company to turn out like this!”

Harvey slammed the table.

“Are you not ashamed of saying something like this?”

“Don’t think that I don’t know.

“When you were the executive CEO, you’ll have a hand in every higher up’s work!

“The important thing is that you weren’t helping, sometimes even causing trouble! It’s simple, really. Every time you pretend to lend a hand, you’ll have a cut of the pay!”

Almost every higher-up’s gaze all shifted toward Ronald after hearing those words after being reminded of the past.

‘Ronald did try to get a hand in my work before this.’

Previously, everyone thought he was just a busybody, but everyone understood what happened after Harvey exposed Ronald. He literally was involved with everyone’s business.

It was safe to say that Harvey’s words had immediately turned every higher-up against Ronald.

“Don’t listen to him, he...”

Ronald suddenly felt parched while he kept choking on his words.

Harvey continued his speech with a cold tone.

“Because you were involved in everyone’s business here, your salary and dividends last year was three times more than the people here, maybe even five times more than some of you!

“Do you really think that you’re really that capable of earning this much money?”

“All you’re doing is getting involved with other people’s business, robbing them of their hard-earned money!”

“You really think that you’re capable when you use backhanded tactics like this? You think your contribution to the company is great?”

“Stop dreaming!”

Chapter 1873

After hearing Harvey York's words, everyone instantly targeted their rage toward Ronald John.

The higher-ups thought of their past experiences when Ronald would get involved in their business for no reason, but his pay and dividends were still a few times more than everybody else's...

At this moment, all the higher-ups were showing cold expressions on their faces.

'What right does Ronald have to get such a high pay without any sort of capability or talent?'

'He's been sucking our blood this whole time, and now he wants us to help him take back his position?'

'Does he think that we're idiots?'

In just a blink of an eye, the higher-ups were filled with a common hatred.

Ronald burst out in anger.

He had no idea how Harvey got the documents, but it was such a deadly blow for him after the records were exposed.

“Mr. John, you’re the one in charge of Star Chaebol’s power of attorney this whole time!”

“Now that the deal’s flopped, you even dare to shift the blame toward CEO Walker?!”

“That’s right! You’re the incapable one, but you’re trying to make CEO Walker become the scapegoat?! Are you only involved with the company only when something good happens and pretend that you have nothing to do with the company when there’s a small problem?”

“Mr. John, your actions are too shameless!”

“Mr. John, you should just apologize to CEO Walker and CEO York. Both of them are good people. They might just let you off the hook for the sake of your so-called hard work.”

“Exactly! To correct a mistake is the greatest good!”

All the higher-ups were speaking in a peculiar tone. Their stance was completely apparent then.

They wanted to trample on Ronald. There would be no way for him to continue sucking everyone’s blood then.

Ronald’s face was filled with hatred and fear while he gritted his teeth. After glaring at Harvey for a long while, Ronald quietly exclaimed, “CEO Walker, CEO York, I’m sorry! I’m the incapable one!”

“I should be taking responsibility for all this!”

Ronald felt resentful after saying those words. He really wanted to choke Harvey to death so bad.

Everything that happened that day was supposed to be a trap for Kait Walker.

But he did not think that he could only grit his teeth and actually take the bullet himself.

It was safe to say that the dramatic back-and-forth had completely dazzled everyone present.

Nobody thought that Ronald would give Kait a show of strength.

But then he suffered an even greater loss because of it.

Everyone’s view of Kait changed drastically.

She was a superior woman.

There was no need for Kait to even stand up for herself. All she needed to do was to bring along the executive CEO to deal with unnecessary problems.

The sight had made Kait's status skyrocket.

Harvey then coldly exclaimed, "Since you know that you're incapable, let's deal with the problem according to the company rules.

"From today onward, your monthly dividends are suspended! Your monthly salary will also be cut in half!

"The money that you lost will instead be used to reward competent people!

"If any single one of you higher-ups can get the power of attorney from Star Chaebol, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars will be yours for the taking!

“Of course, you can seal the deal with Star Chaebol too if you think you’re capable enough, Mr. John. I’ll give the money back to you without a single dollar missing!”

Everyone was cheering after hearing Harvey’s words.

He made the higher-ups target Ronald by telling them about Ronald leeching off of them.

Then, he used Ronald’s cut pay and dividends as a reward.

This was indeed an unexpected tactic. Ronald became the rat that everyone wanted to step on in the company in just a blink of an eye.

Chapter 1874

Kait Walker looked at Harvey York full of admiration. Harvey was just too good. An ordinary person wouldn't even think to use a tactic such as this.

Even if the tactic were widely known to work, it wouldn't completely suppress Ronald John without absolute confidence and power, whether it was unexpected or not.

It was safe to say that Harvey's strength had far surpassed anyone's imagination.

Who would even still remember to take down Kait at that moment?

Money was the main priority after all!

“Stop spouting nonsense, Harvey York! Stop distracting the others with your yapping!”

Ronald was both terrified and mad when he slammed on the table and screamed at Harvey.

“I won’t bet with anybody other than you!

“I’ll give you three whole days. If you can get the power of attorney from Star Chaebol’s Mordu representative, I’ll resign right now without even taking a single dollar!

“But if I’m the one who seals the deal, you have to resign and let me have back the executive CEO position!

“Harvey, do you dare to bet with me?”

“Or are you just a show-off that only knows how to use his mouth without any capabilities? Are you all bark and no bite?”

Ronald went all out at this moment. It was either him or Harvey.

Since Ronald was suppressed entirely by Harvey, it would end up badly for him if he didn't do anything about it either.

And if he fought back, at least he might be able to make a comeback.

Harvey walked forward and patted Ronald's shoulder.

“Three days? That's so boring!

“The way I see it, we should be playing for higher stakes! One day.

“If I seal the deal, not only will you have to leave, you'll have to crawl your way out of the company building as well.

“If I lose, I'll do the same.

“Do you dare?”

Ronald's body trembled out of fear, but he already had nothing else to lose. He slammed on the table and loudly exclaimed, “Fine! It's settled then!

“Aren’t you competent, Harvey?”

“I do want to see how you’ll be able to seal the deal!

“If you do manage to do it, I’ll leave willingly!

“Everyone here is a witness!”

Everyone looked at each other, then nodded in unison.

The two were in an extremely heated battle then. Obviously, the higher-ups wouldn’t want to pick a side just yet.

A few minutes later, at the CEO’s office.

The place was overlooking Mordu’s seas, giving the people a warm feeling of spring.

Harvey was sitting on a couch near the window with a calm look on his face.

Kait poured two cups of tea, set one of the cups in front of Harvey, and then gave a warm smile.

“Thank you for today, Harvey. If it weren't for you, Ronald would've forced me down with his show.”

Harvey took a sip of tea, then replied, “It's fine. He'll be resigning today anyway.”

Kait then asked while her interest peaked, “Harvey, are you really this confident?”

“I heard that Star Chaebol's Mordu representative is May Lee, the representative from far east's most trusted subordinate.

“Even Angelina barely managed to strike a relationship with this person using her connections with the John family.

“I heard that she also paid a very high price to obtain the power of attorney.

“After all, the entirety of Mordu knows that a deal with Star Chaebol to have their power of attorney is basically a deal with no downside.

“That’s why the Mordu representative’s status is really high right now!

“Aren’t you being a little too hasty to strike a deal with her today?”

Chapter 1875

Harvey York calmly sipped his tea and replied, “Don’t worry. It doesn’t matter how difficult this Mordu representative is to deal with.

“The power of attorney is yours if I say so.

“I’ll seal the deal in a day. And after that, Walker Corporation will be yours to control.”

Twelve o’clock in the afternoon, at Mordu Marina.

Young masters and famous celebrities loved to gather in this place.

After sailing their yachts to the open seas, they would not be bound by the laws of Country H any longer.

The young masters and famous celebrities could do whatever they pleased while surrounded by such open seas.

In a small yacht under the name of the Walker Corporation, Ronald John, who was wearing Hawaii beach clothing, showed a faint smile at this moment.

“CEO Walker, CEO York.”

“Since we’re making a bet here, I’ll give both of you a chance out of respect for the company’s pay!

“I already invited Star Chaebol’s Mordu representative, Luke Perry, to come here!

“He’s currently on vacation on a cruise ship under the Star Chaebol name.

“I worked really hard for you two to have a chance to see him.

“If you can convince him to sign the papers and hand over the power of attorney within Mordu, I'll pack my things and leave without saying another word! I'll even crawl my way out of the company building from the CEO's office!

“But if none of you can seal the deal, I'll definitely make this incident viral on Durin!”

After suffering great losses in the morning, Ronald naturally went to ask the two supporting him for help.

After getting his supporter's instructions, he immediately returned to Harvey and Kait while pretending to work for the Walker Corporation, saying that he'll help Harvey arrange an appointment with Luke, Star Chaebol's Mordu representative.

Harvey knew full well that someone else was behind all this. Either this was bait to set up Harvey and Kait, or there were other motives for arranging the meeting.

But he did not mind it at all. Since Ronald would have contacted Luke on his own, Harvey didn't have to waste his energy doing the same.

After squinting while glaring at Ronald, who was showing a faint smile, Harvey then calmly said, "Don't you worry, Mr. John. If I can't get the contract, I'll resign.

"But since I'm a good person, let me tell you something.

"If you want to make a laughing stock out of me, you best stop dreaming.

"I think you should be laying down carpets inside the company building first.

"I'm afraid that the hard floor might scrape your frail skin."

Harvey was showing an extremely warm smile, but the corner of Ronald's eyes was slightly twitching while he flashed a crooked smile.

“You do seem to be quite confident, CEO York.

“I shall congratulate you in advance for the successful deal then!

“I hope that you'll still be able to act this arrogantly and domineering when you get on the cruise ship!”

Naturally, Ronald did not have the need to get mad at Harvey. In his eyes, Harvey was as good as dead!

Ronald had a great time with Luke recently. He also gave Luke countless benefits to hold onto.

Luke might not give Ronald the contract out of respect.

But he would gladly accept defaming

Harvey for Ronald's sake.

Some of the higher-ups accompanying Ronald were all wearing smiles on their faces.

In their eyes, Harvey's fate had been sealed. They were only here to watch the show.

“Right, CEO York.

“There are some things that I should tell you first.

“Luke Perry isn’t just Star Chaebol’s Mordu representative.

“He’s also the collateral relative of Star Chaebol’s Lee family, the most trusted subordinate of May Lee, the representative of the far east.

“His existence represents the dignity of May Lee herself!

“You should know who she is by now.

“I heard that other than a person high above others, she wouldn’t even give anyone in Country H her respect!

“That’s why you better not show off in front of Luke!”

Ronald John was crossing his legs while lecturing Harvey York.

“You have to be humble in front of Representative Luke. If both sides were to turn against each other because of you, CEO Walker might pay the price as well as your resignation.”

Harvey calmly leaked a smile on his face.

Harvey had killed off quite many people from Star Chaebol.

Let alone, May Lee.

Harvey casually smiled after hearing the name, then sent out a text message.

After half an hour, the yacht reached the open seas, stopping right in front of a huge cruise ship.

Harvey squinted while walking forward, followed by Kait Walker, wearing a swimsuit with a silk scarf casually draped around her neck.

Even though Kait was wearing a conservative swimsuit, it was still showing her slender figure.

Harvey did not bat an eye, but the other higher-ups were drooling behind her along with Ronald.

If they didn't know that Lucas Jean was interested in Kait, they would never be able to control their impulses.

Right when the Walker Corporation yacht parked, a few strong men in suits with firearms jumped down and checked everyone's belongings.

They signaled Harvey and the others to get on the cruise ship when they were sure that there were no lethal weapons on board.

There were nine floors on the cruise ship. Under the staff's guidance, Harvey and the others were brought to the third floor, where the deck was located.

A man from Country J wearing swimming trunks and gold-framed glasses was teaching a slender woman how to swim while he held her hand.

“Ms. Porter, all you need is a well-known instructor to give you pointers to learn how to swim.

“Come, relax your whole body. I'm here for you. It's okay.

“Don't be scared!”

The man with gold-framed glasses gave a warm smile to the woman wearing a bikini while she tapped the water with both hands and walked.

Even though the woman was being taken advantage of, she was still shyly chuckling, not having any intention of resisting.

There were many women wearing swimsuits with enchanting figures around the pool, making it hard for people to control their urges.

After seeing the sight, Ronald, who was leading the group, then calmly said, “You see that? The handsome guy from Country J is Star Chaebol’s Mordu representative, Luke Perry.

“He has Star Chaebol’s power of attorney within Mordu.

“If you sign the contract with him, we’ll be able to sell everything Star Chaebol has in Mordu.

“This is a highly profitable business. That’s why Luke is most sought-after right now.

“As for the woman beside him, her name is Demi Porter. She is the head of Porter Corporation, also our biggest competitor for the power of attorney.

“She had paid a hefty price recently for the deal and even had a consensual relationship with him!

“Rumors say that he’s pretty content with a girlfriend like this, and the deal had already been sealed because of that.

“CEO York, you must turn the tides!”

Ronald had an odd tone as he spoke. He coldly chuckled as if he were there to make a laughing stock out of Harvey.

Chapter 1877

Harvey York calmly glanced at Ronald John, then said, “The Porter Corporation is about to seal the deal already?”

“You bragged about this in the morning too, didn’t you?”

“Not only are you useless, but you also have no shame at all.

“But speaking of being shameless, you are definitely on a league above the rest.”

Ronald gave a sincere smile.

“Everyone's an adult here, Harvey. I won't lose anything even if you talk nonsense like that!

“Let me tell you right now. You should secure the contract if you're really that good!

“Even if you manage to sell your body to seal the deal with Luke Perry, I’d still be impressed!

“But if you don’t have the capability, I guess I’ll only have to wait for you to become the laughing stock.”

Harvey smiled, then clapped Ronald’s swollen cheek a few times.

“Since you’re so experienced, you must’ve sold your body to him already, right?”

“But I think he likes women more and not some greasy middle-aged man like you!”

“You!”

Ronald was filled with anger. It was his first time seeing something like this.

Not only was Harvey able to strike where it hurt Ronald the most, but it was also useless to talk back to Harvey.

Kait Walker glared at Ronald, full of disdain. Not only was that man useless, but he was also really scummy.

Ronald ignored Harvey and walked forward, then respectfully said, “Greetings, Representative Luke.

“CEO Walker’s here to see you!”

Ronald kneeled halfway to the ground, then whispered something into Luke’s ear.

Luke was paying no mind at first, but a yearful gaze showed in his eyes the moment he saw Kait.

Not only was Kait’s looks beautiful, but her figure was also considered to be devilishly enchanting.

The kind that any man would fall in love with.

Compared to Kait, the women around the pool had turned into a bunch of nobodies.

Even the alluring Demi Porter wasn't as pure and youthful compared to Kait.

And those traits were the most attractive ones.

In a blink of an eye, a love veteran like Luke even deduced that Kait had not fallen in love with another man.

A woman like this was scarce in this day and age!

Luke was willing to sacrifice three years of his life if he could get his hands on a woman like that.

Harvey coldly glared at Luke. In his eyes, Luke was no different from a dead man.

Kait felt an evil gaze from Luke and stepped back, then slightly nodded.

“Good afternoon, Representative Luke!”

Luke came out of the water and casually draped a towel on himself. After walking forward and showing an incredibly alluring smile, he said, “CEO Walker, right? I’ve heard so much about you!

“Good looks, good figure, and good family background.

“I like people like you.”

“Thank you for your compliments.”

Kait was aloof.

“Since you said that my family background is good, does that mean we’ll have a chance to work together?”

Luke casually raised his hand. Someone handed him a cigar immediately after.

He casually lit up his cigar as he unscrupulously looked at Kait’s slender leg, then clicked his tongue.

“You know, CEO Walker. A real premium cigar is slowly wrapped up on the thighs of a sixteen-year-old girl.

“This also girl has to be a virgin. That way, the cigar will taste sweeter, more delicious, and moist...

“And to be honest with you, you’re pretty moist yourself!

“I’m open for any collaboration. As long as you let me sleep with you once, then we’re all family.

“How does that sound?”

Chapter 1878

Luke Perry was determined. Naturally, he wanted to have Kait Walker no matter what.

Ronald John and the other higher-ups were all playfully looking at Kait. If she agreed to Luke's deal, they would be able to spread the word about her obtaining power of attorney with her body.

If she didn't agree, they would be able to accuse Kait of not caring for the company's interests and was not a qualified CEO.

Kait obviously knew of this fact as well. Her expression changed slightly while she slowly said, "We're all civilized people here, Representative Luke. Please watch your tongue when you speak."

“Civilized people?”

“Watch my tongue?”

A faint smile leaked out of Luke’s face.

“For us businessmen, there is only interest and collaboration.

“Being civilized and polite? Are these things really important?”

“In front of business and money, these things aren’t worth anything.”

Luke was showing a determined smile at this moment.

He knew of Kait’s situation through Ronald, that was why he didn’t mind having a go at Lucas Jean’s top pick.

He believed that nobody would say a word even after he took advantage of Kait inside out.

After feeling complacent being pampered by a lot of wealthy and powerful people within Mordu, Luke squinted his eyes while he righteously glared at Kait.

“CEO Walker, I know full well about your situation right now.

“I also understand that Star Chaebol’s power of attorney in Mordu is very important to you.

“That’s why I’ll give it to you straight away!

“I’ll work with you as soon as you get it on with me once! I’ll sign the contract after that!

“If you don’t want to, then get out of my sight! Don’t be an eyesore!

“Rest assured, I’m quite civilized in terms of things like this. I won’t force people into doing anything that they don’t like.”

Luke just smiled. He said that he was civilized and that he wouldn't force people into doing things.

But everything that he did so far was just coercion.

Kait was boiling in anger.

No one would dare humiliate her this way all those years.

Even Lucas was extremely courteous to her. He would never say something like this to her.

But she did not think that she would be humiliated by a man from Country J that day.

Ronald and the other higher-ups were smiling full of glee after seeing the sight. Apparently, they were thrilled to see Kait being toyed like this.

Demi Porter and the other women at the poolside, who had already given up their bodies, were all playfully looking a t Kait as well.

They had already paid a high price to obtain the things they wanted.

If Kait wanted to have something of value from Luke, it would only be normal for her to pay the price.

“Yo! I heard that Ms. Walker is as pure as a virgin, she hasn’t even touched a man’s hand yet! Representative Luke, this is such a big catch!”

“Right! I heard that popping the cherry will get someone lucky! Looks like you’re about to get lucky, Representative Lee!”

“Representative Luke, do you need us to lend you a hand? If you do, we’re all happy to help!”

All the women were laughing uncontrollably. They really wanted to see Kait humiliated by Luke.

Kait's expression was as dark as night after hearing all the ridicule and derisive remarks from the women at the poolside. Her entire body was as cold as ice.

If looks could kill, Kait would've already killed those women thousands of times over!

“Oh? Did we make CEO Walker mad?”

“Do you feel humiliated? Would you like to get your revenge?”

“CEO Walker, did nobody tell you before that you have to pay a price if you're talking business here?”

“You're standing in front of me right now, so why are you still trying to pretend?”

Chapter 1879

Luke narrowed his eyes at Kait, and stepped forward to touch her face. “Don’t resist. To be touched by me is an honor worth at least several million.”

Kait’s body stiffened, and she could not react at all.

Harvey intervened and grabbed Luke’s wrist with his right hand. He said indifferently, “Then you better don’t resist too. To have your hand broken by me is an honor worth tens of millions.”

Crack! A second later, a spine-chilling sound filled the air. Harvey had broken Luke’s wrist in an instant.

“Argh!”

Luke let out a mournful wail. The tall and handsome Luke Perry immediately fell to the ground in pain, convulsing all over.

His subordinates hurriedly tried to help him up.

Ronald John, Demi Porter, and the others watched this scene with stunned faces. They were unsure of how to react, and had fallen into a shocked trance.

They knew that Luke would insult Kait.

They knew that Kait would resist, only to be taken care of by Luke soon after.

However, they never expected to see Luke's wrist broken instantly.

York was certainly ruthless. He did not hold back at all!

Although Luke was just a small character in the Star Chaebol, he was still the representative of Mordu.

Since he was the representative in Mordu, that meant he represented Star Chaebol and also May Lee's will.

Did he still want to get the power of attorney over the Star Chaebol in the Mordu area after offending and hurting Luke?

What was he thinking?

“Son of a ...!”

“Who are you, anyway?!”

Luke struggled to get up from the ground. He pointed at Harvey with a grim expression. “How dare you break my hand?”

“Do you want to die?”

“I’m warning you. Not only are you a dead man...”

“...Your entire family’s also going to get it!”

Luke had gained a huge popularity in Mordu, and this made him forget who he was before.

How long hasn't he encountered such a thing—things blowing up in his face?

Representative Luke, who was doing very well in Mordu, grew furious.

Harvey was indifferent and uncaring. “Forget breaking just one of your hands. Even if I break all your limbs, May Lee won't dare to help you!”

“Indeed, representing Star Chaebol is great. However, they are nothing in front of me!”

“I suggest you sign the contract now. Then, kneel and apologize to CEO Walker immediately. If you do that, I'll consider letting you go.”

“Otherwise, mark my words. You'll spend the rest of your life in a wheelchair.”

Harvey was poker-faced as usual. He was warning Luke while also reassuring Kait, telling her not to worry.

For a while, Luke was slightly taken aback. He did not expect to hear the two words, May Lee, from Harvey.

Harvey was being very demanding, and this was enough to show that he was confident in his words.

Demi was displeased. Before Luke could speak, she marched out, pointed at Harvey, and snarled, “Brat, do you know where this is?”

“This cruise ship is owned by the Star Chaebol!”

“According to international law, Country J has jurisdiction over this place!”

“To hurt the big shot of Country J in their turf...”

“Do you know, you might go to Seoul to stand trial at any time and spend the rest of your life in prison?!”

Demi then glared at Kait and hissed icily, “Kait, I don’t care what your game is. But you let your lackey hurt others. You’ll be dead if you don’t compensate for all he’s done!”

Chapter 1880

Demi clapped her hands after she finished speaking. Immediately, several men stomped out. They glared at Harvey as if they were about to break his hands and legs any minute.

“Demi, Luke was the one who insulted people first. He even wanted to grope me!”

“He deserves getting his hand broken by Harvey!”

“No matter the consequences of today’s events, I’ll be solely responsible!”

Kait would not watch Harvey falling into the trap without doing anything. Her tone was cold, and her expression was solemn.

“You!”

Seeing Kait's aloof and determined expression, Demi shook with anger. "You've hurt people in public! I'll contact the Global Lieutenant and tell him to arrest you first!"

These socialites and young masters understood that if they wanted to file a report on International Waters, they needed to do so to the Global Lieutenant.

Both Harvey and Kait might end up badly if they were arrested and handed over to the Country J government.

"You don't need to call the police. That would be too merciful!"

Luke let out a sigh of relief. After asking the doctor to put a temporary bandage on his hand, he waved it. Then, he picked up a bottle of wine with his left hand.

"First, make him a cripple. Then throw him into the sea and let the fish feed on him!”

A hideous smile crept on Luke’s face. His subordinates and bodyguards mirrored his expression.

“Right! Beat him up and throw him into the sea!”

“If he doesn’t die, we’ll hand him over to the government of Country J!”

“Otherwise, how can we still mingle with the people in Mordu in the future?”

Many people followed Luke’s suggestion. They picked up the wine bottles on the table and approached Harvey, grinning.

Ronald John and the others quickly backed away and said, “We’re not very close with Representative York. We don’t really care if he lives or dies!”

Demi and the rest were delighting in the turn of events, clearly amused.

What they wanted most was to see a clown like Harvey thrown into the sea.

Among the entire crowd, only Kait stepped forward to protect Harvey. However, Harvey stopped her.

“I’m going to kill you!”

Seeing Kate’s protectiveness over Harvey roused Luke’s jealousy.

Luke moved quickly, and it was obvious that he had been practicing Karate that originated from Country J. His stance was sharp, and he swung a wine bottle as he moved.

Just as Demi and the rest were about to applaud for Luke’s speedy move, Harvey intercepted with a powerful kick.

Bang!

Luke was immediately sent flying out in the next second, hitting on a recliner directly. Instantly after, he spurted out a mouthful of blood.

Meanwhile, Harvey picked up a random wine bottle.

Luke covered his mouth and shouted, “Kill him!”

“Go!”

“All together!”

The next second, a dozen men in suits rushed at Harvey at the same time. All of them let out harsh yells as they move. They couldn't wait to choke Harvey to death on the spot.

Harvey remained indifferent. He did not retreat, and instead continued to walk forward.

Crash! Crash! Crash!

The entire crowd fell into chaos, and the sound of bottles getting smashed filled the air.

Demi and rest clapped in excitement while watching this scene, waiting to see Harvey beaten to death by Luke's many subordinates.

Everyone in the crowd, except for Kait, thrive on chaos. They all hoped that Harvey would get crippled, so that they could then throw his limp body into the sea for the fish to feast on.

Chapter 1881

Smash!

Soon, the final sound of a smashed wine bottle rang. At this moment, everyone saw clearly what had actually taken place.

They saw Harvey take out a tissue and slowly wipe his fingers with it.

Luke's men were lying on the ground.

Some were battered and bruised.

Some were convulsing all over.

However, it was obvious that none of them could stand up anymore.

“Ugh, agh, ggh...” Demi and the rest could hear their pained grunts clearly. It was obvious they wanted to scream in pain, but the shock prevented them from doing so.

Ronald and the senior executives were hiding at the far back. The corner of their eyes were twitching, their faces an incredulous expression.

In their mind, the battered and bruised person who should be lying on the ground at this moment should be Harvey, not Luke's subordinates.

Kait let out a sigh of relief. Although she knew Harvey was strong, she still couldn't help worrying when Harvey rushed out just now.

Luke's face was pale and dark; his face kept changing colors, looking like a Chinese opera mask. It was indescribably ugly.

Only after Harvey finished wiping his fingers did he march forward and approach Luke.

Luke took a subconscious step back, his complexion extremely awful. He said firmly, “York, what do you want to do?”

“Beating my people up in my turf?”

“Are you trying to get yourself killed?”

Harvey smiled. He patted Luke’s face and said indifferently, “Since I dared to hurt your people in my turf, that means I’m not afraid of them. Can’t you understand something so simple?”

“I’ll be frank. You can’t take me down with these few bodyguards.”

“If you want to hold me down, I’m afraid you have to rally a lot more people.”

“Normally, I’d give you enough time to do that.”

“But today’s a little special.”

“I hope to see you kneeling at the entrance of Walker Corporation with the attorney contract of Mordu in your hand at two o’clock in the afternoon.”

“Do you understand me?”

Luke’s eyes twitched, his face changing drastically.

He wanted to get angry, but seeing Harvey’s half-smile, he could only bottle up his fury.

Those who dared to do all this under such circumstances must have enough confidence...

Either that, or he was a madman or a fool.

However, Harvey didn’t look crazy or stupid. Thus, there was only one possibility left.

Although Luke wanted nothing more than to hack Harvey into pieces...

He dared not make any rash actions for the time being. At least, not before he figured out what cards Harvey had.

“Remember, if you don’t come in time, make sure to buy yourself a coffin.”

Harvey then turned around. He held Kait’s hand, ready to leave.

Under the shocked gazes of the crowd, someone suddenly jumped out.

Fury was written all over Demi’s pretty face. “You can’t leave! No one can leave!”

“Kait, Harvey! Don’t think that this matter ends here!”

“Just because Representative Luke bears no grudge against you, doesn’t mean we don’t!”

“To think you dare hit Representative Luke in front of me! You’re asking for it!”

“I’m warning you. If you don’t kneel and apologize to Representative Luke right this instant, I’ll call the police!”

So saying, Demi took her phone and pressed three numbers, looking incomparably arrogantly.

When she moved, she instantly blocked Kait and Harvey's path.

Chapter 1882

“A good dog doesn’t stand in the way.”

Harvey spoke indifferently.

Demi retorted angrily, “How dare you insult me, York! I’m warning you, you ...!”

Slap!

Harvey stepped forward and slapped Demi. She was immediately sent flying, landing into the swimming pool.

Bloop, bloop, bloop...

Everyone present was terrified. They stared at Demi who was gradually sinking into the deep pool.

Several pretty women in swimsuits had their jaws hung in shock. For a long time, they couldn’t close their mouths.

Ronal watched the scene in fear.

However, there was a little flicker in his eyes.

After lunch, in the Walker Corporation Building...

As soon as Harvey and Kait entered the building, a few staff came out and solemnly invited them into the large conference room.

At that moment, the entire conference room was full of people.

Aside from the senior executives of the group, Justin Walker, the Chairman of Walker Corporation, was also there. He was leaning in his seat, his eyes closed.

Some seats, which were originally empty, were occupied by a few very angry shareholders.

They were all well-dressed in expensively tailored clothes. When they saw Harvey and Kait walking in, they erupted into angry roars.

“You dirty fools! You’ve caused more harm than good!”

“If the stocks are limit-down in the afternoon because of you, I’ll beat you to death!”

“You want to take the position of the CEO without any experience? Do you fancy seeing yourself as a business tycoon?”

“If you have time, take a peek and look into the mirror! Who the hell do you think you are?!”

“If I were in your shoes, I’d take the blame and resign immediately!”

“You’ve caused a huge trouble to the group, yet you’re still able to eat Island Nation cuisine so calmly? You’re certainly shameless...!”

In half a minute Harvey took to enter the room and be seated, all kinds of curses could be heard from the angry crowd.

Theoretically, it wasn't possible for the shareholders to get the news so quickly.

But not only did they receive news of what had transpired, they also seemed to be highly aware of the details and the possible consequences that the incident might cause.

Interesting.

Harvey narrowed his eyes, greatly interested in the matter.

“Smile?! How could you still smile?!”

“York, you don't have the right to smile!”

Ronald stood up, slammed the table, and glared at Harvey.

“Chairman, fellow executives, and representatives of shareholders!”

“This is Harvey York, the current CEO of Walker Corporation!”

“Our CEO York has been clamoring here in the morning, saying that he can solve the matter regarding the power of attorney of Star Chaebol today!”

“For the benefit of the group, I have arranged them to meet up with Representative Luke Perry from Star Chaebol of Mordu in the afternoon.”

“But do you know what he did?”

“On Star Chaebol’s cruise ship, not only did he speak without abandon, but he also injured Luke’s bodyguards and broke one of Luke’s hands!”

“Is he talking about business, you might ask?”

“No! In fact, he’s pushing Walker

Corporation into the abyss of disaster!”

“Now not only do we have no so-called cooperation with Star Chaebol, but I also heard that the power of attorney of Star Chaebol in Mordu will fall into the hands of our competitor, Porter Corporation!”

“If I’m not wrong, we’ll receive a legal letter from Star Chaebol soon.”

“If we’re not careful, we, Walker Corporation, will suffer a huge loss because of this incident!”

“This is a catastrophic consequence!”

“Even if I will be retaliated against today, even if someone wants to break one of my hands, I must speak!”

“Kait used the wrong person!”

“Harvey is arrogant and domineering!”

“I propose these two bad apples be driven out immediately so Walker

Corporation could regain its former peace!”

Chapter 1883

“I agree!”

“I agree!”

As soon as Ronald finished speaking, several executives instantly stood up.

Soon, one by one, representatives of shareholders also stood up to speak.

In their opinion, Kait and Harvey must explain themselves.

The first thing that Harvey and Kait must do was to take the blame and resign!

All of them were very concerned about their gains.

No matter how things unfolded today, be it right or wrong...

Harvey and Kait's actions would greatly affect their gains. This cannot be doubted.

As for Harvey, the culprit who might make them lose their money...

Sure enough, such a person should be driven out.

“Now, now, everyone. Calm down!”

Justin, who had been closing his eyes to rest all this while, rose from his seat and made a gesture.

The Deputy Branch Leader of the branch of Longmen and Chairman of Walker Corporation still possessed a modicum of charisma and power.

When he moved, the entire room grew quiet.

Justin said indifferently, “Everyone should be clear about the way I do things.”

“I’ve never wronged a good person, nor would I let an evil person go.”

“I’m here to assure you that if this matter is clarified and the two newly appointed CEOs take sole responsibility for everything, I’ll surely give you all a satisfactory explanation.”

Ronald felt complacent after hearing Justin’s words.

Everything was going according to their plan.

Then, Justin looked at Kait seriously. His face was stern as he said, “Kait, you’re my daughter. To avoid being led astray by outsiders, I must ask you several questions.”

“Tell me about it. Mr. John said that you went to talk about the attorney contract together with Harvey. But you didn’t manage to acquire the contract, and you even broke Representative Luke’s hand!”

“Is this true or not?”

Kait frowned. “It’s true, but...”

Slam!

Before Kait could finish her words, Justin had already slammed the table. He barked coldly, “I don’t need to listen to your explanation! I only need to know whether it’s true.”

“Since this is true, you have to pay the price.”

“Resign!”

Justin threw the resignation letter that he had prepared long ago in front of Kait after he finished his words.

Ronald and the executives watched the scene with a gloating expression.

Having to resign as soon as she stepped up, Kait might probably be the CEO who had been in position for the shortest time.

Kait's face changed slightly. She never imagined that her father would be so ruthless.

Just when she was about to retort, Harvey stood up and shook his head at her. He then picked up the resignation letter on the table. After reading it for a while, he said with a half-smile, “Deputy Branch Leader Walker, did you prepare this resignation letter in advance yesterday?”

“You're so amazing. To think you could predict that Kait will make a mistake today, take the blame and resign!”

Justin frowned after seeing Harvey standing up. He said, “Young Master York, stop making a fuss here. I've already fulfilled the promise between you and me.”

“But Kait's lacking ability has caused us huge trouble. She must take the blame and resign. This isn't my responsibility.”

But Harvey tore the resignation letter into pieces before Justin’s eyes. He turned his head and stared directly at Justin, saying, “You didn’t even give her a chance to explain, yet you’re quick to claim she’s incapable and is a troublemaker?”

“Truly, you’re a fair and strict father!”

Chapter 1884

Justin's face instantly became ugly.

Harvey didn't give him a chance to continue speaking. He went on coldly, "You don't care about Luke insulting your daughter."

"Do you want to see your daughter being ruined by an Islander? Does she have to use this way to help Walker Corporation in exchange for an irrelevant contract? Only then will you feel that she is capable?"

"Then again..."

"She didn't hit anyone. I did it."

"If you want to mess around, shouldn't you come after me?"

"Going past me and offending CEO Walker."

“Deputy Branch Leader Walker, aren't you looking down on me too much?”

Harvey's half-smile on his face caused Justin's expression to change and change again.

Several times when he confronted Harvey, he was often at a disadvantage and even suffered a huge loss.

Justin's face was extremely ugly after Harvey said those scathing remarks to him.

Ronald, who was on the side, snorted coldly and butted in.

“CEO York, what you said is wrong!”

“Representative Luke is young and handsome. He took a fancy on CEO Walker the moment he saw her, that's why he talked frivolously to her.”

“He didn't do anything, anyway. It's just a few jokes.”

“Such jokes are very common in business communication.”

“Yetm you attacked Representative Luke just because of a few jokes!”

“CEO York, are you a barbarian from some mountain? Can you do nothing but fight?!”

“Didn’t you ever stop to think about the consequences when you took action?”

“Haven’t you thought that the power of attorney, worth billions, would be gone because of your reckless behavior?”

Harvey narrowed his eyes and looked at Ronald, who had a righteous expression. He replied coldly, “Are you saying that it’s okay for CEO Walker to be humiliated, and that she should just let anyone do anything to her for the sake of the attorney’s power?”

Ronald shot back righteously, “

Everyone's doing it. I'm telling you. If Representative Luke asked me to kneel and crawl under his crotch today for him to sign the contract..."

"I'll certainly do it right away without hesitation!"

"What's wrong with that? Look at Demi! To be the ambassador, she reached out to Representative Luke and is now in a relationship with him!"

"Such people are the ones who truly think about the benefits of the family and the group!"

"And you? You injured Representative Luke's bodyguards and even broke one of his arms just because of a few jokes!"

"Haven't you ever considered the consequences of doing that?"

Ronald wore a righteous expression and heartbroken expression.

“All this shows that not only is Harvey not suitable to be the CEO...”

“Kait is not suitable, either!”

“We need to fire them immediately and send Harvey to the police station. Only then could we compensate for our wrongdoings against Representative Luke!”

“It’s our only chance of acquiring the power of attorney!”

“Otherwise, the gains worth billions in the future will be taken away from us!”

Ronald burst into heartbroken tears as he said those words.

Even Harvey wanted to applaud him for this little drama.

Indeed, his acting was superb.

The executives and the representatives of the shareholders present all had empathetic expressions after listening to Ronald's words.

Everyone had done business. They understood that in these times, it was expected to be on the losing end and be wronged when it came to acquiring certain benefits.

Men would be forced to drink, while women might be molested. This was the norm.

If Kait couldn't even bear this kind of grievance, how could she do business?

Chapter 1885

Ronald also said that as long as Kait and Harvey were driven out, there would still be a chance to get the contract at this moment.

Even if everyone knew very well that since things had reached this point, acquiring the contract would be near impossible.

However, there was still a small glimmer of hope.

Several of the executives who initially had little to no hostility toward Kait and Harvey now looked at the two with hateful gazes.

After all, everyone wanted money.

Justin was delighted at this turn of events. He narrowed his eyes and motioned Ronald to sit down. Clearing his throat, he said, “Since that’s the case, everything is clear now.”

“Kait, I’ll be honest. Since this is your first day after being promoted as a CEO, as your father, I should stand by your side.”

“But you are too immature and too disappointing.”

“You actually involved your personal feelings into such an important business. You can’t even do the most basic things and make small sacrifices for the company.”

“Now, I’m certain. Your abilities are inadequate for the CEO position.”

“You’ve certainly let me down!”

“I hope you won’t make it difficult for the board of directors and the representatives of the shareholders.”

Kait frowned. She never imagined that Justin would simply make up lies just to force her to resign.

Did she have to dedicate herself to an Islander for their so-called business?

Her lips curved into a mocking smile.

Originally, when she took the position of CEO, she harbored a small hope. Deep down, she yearned for Justin's acknowledgement of her efforts. Only then could she stand proudly as a member of the Walkers, rather than having a complete falling out from the family.

But after everything that happened today, she understood it all.

She was a mere pawn in her father's eyes.

Her father would never care about the fate of a pawn.

He could make her accompany an Islander just for the power of attorney.

He could marry her off against her wishes just for the sake of getting the position of Longmen's branch leader in Mordu.

If there ever comes a need for it in the future, she was certain he would be more than willing to sacrifice her life for sufficient benefits.

Kait was torn. She didn't know if she should mock herself for hoping to earn her father's approval, or look down on him as a human being.

Harvey stepped forward and gently shook Kait's hands to comfort her. He then took a step forward and said coldly, "Disappointed? Making it difficult for you?"

"Let me ask you from the upper circle. So as long as you can make money, it doesn't matter even if you kneel?"

"Is your so-called doing business equivalent to completely abandoning your dignity and letting other parties do whatever they want to you?”

Ronald sneered, “York, can you stop being a clown?!”

“Do you think it’s easy to make money these days?”

“As long as we can make money, so what if we have to kneel? So what if they make us crawl under their crotch?”

“I’m telling you. It just so happens Representative Luke didn’t approve of me. If he did and asked me to accompany him for the night, I’d gladly do so!”

The crowd burst into laughter.

Justin nodded and said, “Ronald is so understanding. He knows when to advance and when to retreat!”

“I admire this kind of character. He considers only the best for the group!”

“Young Master York, you should learn from him. You might be able to turn things around if you kneel before Representative Luke now.”

Harvey studied Justin’s faking sincere expression and retorted coldly, “Making money is very important, I understand. But if you want me to kneel just for the sake of money, I can only apologize.”

“Because doing so is completely unnecessary.”

“Although I broke Luke’s hand, he must still send me the attorney contract obediently!”

“I can stand proudly and still make money. Why should I kneel? Do you think I’m as stupid as you?”

Chapter 1886

Quiet. The entire place fell into dead silence.

Everyone looked at Harvey with mystified faces.

“Pff!” After a while, one of them couldn’t hold it in and let slip an amused chuckle.

“CEO York, are you out of your mind? Are you trying to tell us that after you broke Luke’s hand, not only would he not hold you accountable, but he would even send the attorney contract for you to sign?”

“CEO York, are you insane? Or perhaps, are you treating us as fools?”

“You have to thank God if Representative Luke didn’t sue you and send you some legal letters instead. How are you still entertaining all these impossible outcomes? Are you out of your mind?”

Ronald said exaggeratedly, “Everyone, I remember it now. When we were on the cruise today, CEO York did warn Representative Luke to bring the contract to Walker Corporation at two o’clock this afternoon!”

“CEO York also told Representative Luke that if he couldn’t do it, then he’d have to buy himself a coffin!”

“Indeed, our CEO York is truly arrogant and domineering!”

“I, Ronald John, have spent so many years in Mordu. I’ve met many princes and young masters.”

“But this is the first time I’ve seen a person who doesn’t have the slightest ability, yet still dares to act pretentiously and arrogantly!”

The rest of the company workers sneered at Harvey as they listened to Ronald's words. They began to envision the scene that happened in the morning.

This man was certainly fooling them, treating them as though they were three-year-old toddlers.

Breaking Luke's hand and threatening him to sign the contract in time?

What was he thinking?

Several attractive female senior executives folded their arms, staring at Harvey with contempt.

Just an ignorant brat who wore clothes that didn't exceed even 156 dollars.

How dare he act pretentiously with his shabby appearance?

This was certainly crazy.

Justin smiled. He lit up a cigarette, took a drag of it, and then said, "Young Master York, I know you're good at fighting and that you can fend off many people at once."

"But this is the business world. It's not the streets. We emphasize connections and favors, not fighting and killing."

"Let me teach you a good lesson today."

"If hitting people can get you a business contract, then the richest man in Gangnam wouldn't be Jaden Smith, but the big boss of the streets!"

"Young man, you are still too naïve!"

Justin glanced at the watch on his wrist as he spoke. "It's only a few minutes before two o'clock. Do you really think that Luke will come to sign the contract when the time's up?"

"People can have dreams, but we shouldn't daydream."

"You should wake up when necessary."

Harvey harrumphed and retorted, “Deputy Branch Leader Walker. Why is it that despite having faced so much, you still haven’t learned any lesson?”

“You’re so full of yourself. Will you still have the face to be the Chairman when things blow up in your face later?”

Justin laughed. “Young Master York, let’s play a little game. How about it?”

“If Luke really brings over the attorney contract at two o’clock, then I’ll abdicate and let Kait take the position of the Chairman.”

“But if he doesn’t, I want you to break your leg yourself.”

“Do you dare to play?”

Justin blew out a puff of smoke. He looked condescending, and was very determined to win.

“Good.” Harvey smiled and nodded.

Bang!

Someone pushed open the door of the conference room as soon as Harvey finished speaking. The young woman at the front desk rushed in with a look of astonishment.

“CEO Walker! Representative Luke Perry from the Star Chaebol is here with the contract. He is kneeling in the lobby of our company now...”

The entire crowd was stunned.

The smile on Justin’s face stiffened, and his expression was uglier than someone forced to eat excrement. 3

Chapter 1887

“This is impossible. How is this possible?!”

“What’s the status of Representative Luke? Why would he kneel at the entrance of Walker Corporation?”

“Harvey broke one of his arms! Him not sending us any legal letters can already be considered a blessing! You’re telling me that he’s kneeling at the entrance of our company? Are you kidding me?”

“Receptionist, you’ve probably misheard. Did Representative Luke ask Harvey to go kneel at the gate of the company and apologize to him?”

The executives and the shareholders had fallen silent when the receptionist ran in to break the news. A second later, they fell into an uproar and started discussing.

Even Justin instantly reacted. Maybe the receptionist was too anxious, so she spoke wrongly.

All eyes fell on her as they waited for her to explain.

The receptionist was so anxious that she was about to cry. She stammered, “Not only Representative Luke is here, but there are also a lot of other people ...”

Everyone was stunned.

They were screwed. Representative Luke was coming after them!

Ronald jumped up and hissed sharply, “Security, where is the security?!”

“Remember, don’t let Kait and Harvey escape!”

“I’ll hand them over to Representative Luke later as an explanation!”

The executives and shareholders swarmed into the lobby of the company.

Several security guards rushed over, staring at Harvey and Kait vigilantly, not letting the two leave during the chaos.

Harvey held Kait's hand indifferently and walked toward the lobby calmly.

With just one glance, everyone could see that nearly a hundred Islanders were standing in the middle of the lobby.

These Islanders were tall, burly, and handsome. They were all wearing exquisite suits and exuded a strong aura.

Currently, they were surrounding a young woman who was wearing a white suit.

She had beautiful eyebrows and a delicate face unique to Islanders. On top of that, she had a gorgeous slim figure. Any man who saw her would be enchanted and dazzled.

Next to her was a man with his right hand bandaged, kneeling on the ground. His face was ashen, and he was trembling. He was obviously terrified.

This scene caused the executives and the shareholders of Walker Corporation to tremble inwardly.

What a baffling scene!

It didn't seem that Representative Luke was coming to apologize.

Ronald sneered and stared at Harvey mockingly, "York, you are dead!"

"Do you really think Representative Luke is here to apologize to you?"

"I'm warning you. Star Chaebol has rules for reward and punishment!"

“You broke Luke’s hand today. However, he was afraid of Walker Corporation, so he didn’t crush you immediately.”

“That’s why Luke would kneel on the ground. This is because this is the punishment given to him by the Star Chaebol!”

“So, stop dreaming!”

“Luke will never sign the contract with you!”

“Star Chaebol is here to demand compensation from us!”

“But it doesn’t matter. Breaking your leg could be considered as compensating Star Chaebol!”

After listening to Ronald’s words, the executives and the shareholders finally understood.

Everyone was shocked at first, thinking that Harvey was so amazing that he could send Representative Luke kneeling and begging for mercy.

It turned out that the Star Chaebol came to inquire about the incident.

Nonetheless, this was reasonable.

If they didn't come to demand compensation after suffering such a huge loss, then where would that leave the Star Chaebol?

Chapter 1888

Harvey ignored Ronald. Instead, he shot an indifferent look at the delicate-looking woman standing in the middle.

May Lee, the representative of the Star Chaebol in the Far Eastern region.

“Oh! It’s you, Representative Lee. I’m sorry for not greeting you properly!”

Apparently, Justin knew May Lee. He greeted her gently with a smile on his face.

The core executives of the group next to him also went forward to greet her.

They all recognized May Lee.

The representative of the great Country H was fired last month.

The one who replaced him was May

Lee, the representative of the Far East region.

To put it simply, May Lee's power within Star Chaebol was even greater than Peter Lee's.

Her status was also several times higher than that of Peter Lee.

Such a big shot actually appeared in a small place like Walker Corporation. Even Justin felt a little flattered.

His astonishment and joy aside, he was also rather uneasy by her unexpected appearance.

“That's very kind of you, Chairman Walker.”

May Lee stepped forward with a gentle smile.

“I'm sorry for showing up like this. I hope you don't mind, Chairman Walker.”

After May Lee was done speaking, she turned sideways and bowed in the direction where Harvey was.

Harvey nodded casually. Only then did May Lee stand up straight. ¹

However, her series of actions caused a misunderstanding for Justin, who assumed she was bowing to him.

Justin was slightly taken aback after seeing May being so respectful to him. He immediately understood.

Perhaps news of him as the future branch leader of the branch of Longmen had spread. Thus, earning him May's respect.

Thinking of this, all of Justin's fears and doubts vanished. He laughed and said, "That's very nice of you, Representative Lee. We've worked together before, and I'm sure there will be more room for cooperation in the future. You coming here is my pleasure.”

“Oh, right. Since you have come over today, is there anything that I can help you with, Representative Lee?”

“If someone in Walker Corporation has offended you, just say it!”

“We’ll surely compensate you.”

“We can even break his legs!”

Many executives, including Ronald, chuckled at Justin’s words.

‘That brat Harvey is finished!’

If only Luke came here to mess around, Harvey might have found a way to retaliate.

But the one who came here today was May Lee, the representative from the Far Eastern region.

Her authority was on par with those Six

Princes of Mordu!

Ronald smiled and took a step forward. “Representative Lee. Walker Corporation’s vision is fairness, justice, and openness. No matter who, anyone who suffers unfair treatment from us will surely receive compensation.”

Ronald glanced at Harvey as he spoke.

To Ronald, Harvey was doomed. He began to think of ways to further humiliate Harvey soon.

“Since I’m here, there’s something I must do.”

May Lee smiled slightly.

“I came here today to give an explanation to Walker Corporation.”

Justin was stunned. He thought he heard it wrong, and subconsciously blurted out a question.

“Giving us an explanation?”

“You mean, you don’t want an explanation from us?”

May was not in the mood to talk nonsense. She instantly kicked Luke, who was kneeling onto the ground, and said coldly, “Apologize now. If CEO Walker is not satisfied, then you’re dead.”

“I’ve even prepared the coffin for you!”

May waved her hand while speaking. Bang!

Several people behind her carried in a coffin and threw it on the ground.

The members of Walker Corporation stared at the coffin with an incredulous expression, their eyes twitching madly.

Chapter 1889

Under the horrified gazes of Ronald and the others, Luke could be seen lying on the ground, struggling. He groveled at Kait.

“CEO Walker, please forgive my ignorance!”

“All of the mistakes today are my fault!”

“Please let me go!”

Bang, bang, bang! Luke’s forehead was bruised. His handsome face was covered in blood, but he dared not wipe it.

May watched his actions, unfazed. She turned to Kait and explained, “Luke is a collateral member of the Lee family. He is also my confidant.”

“That’s why I allowed him to be the representative of Mordu.”

“My original intention was to let him choose a good partner and maintain the good reputation and interests of the Star Chaebol.”

“I never imagined that he would actually dare to mix business with pleasure and use his power to satisfy his selfish desires.”

“Not only did he verbally abuse CEO Walker this morning, but he also dared to attack CEO York!”

“This happened because I’m not strict enough with him. To show our sincerity, we came here to apologize on behalf of the Star Chaebol.”

“As for Luke, you can punish him however you want. I’ll accept anything.”

Everyone was slightly stunned at her words.

Unexpectedly, the internal rules of Star Chaebol were strict, and Representative Lee was someone who meted out reward and punishment on fair grounds.

She was beautiful and looked delicate, but her temperament was on par with the princes and young masters of the Great Country H.

Kait and Harve,y whom everyone thought were already doomed, actually managed to bounce back from the crisis.

They got lucky!

Justin frowned. However, he was quick to change his expression. He smiled and said, “Representative Lee, your words are a little harsh.”

“Representative Luke is a very determined young man. It's inevitable that he might do things impulsively.”

“Moreover, making jokes in business cooperation isn't a big deal.”

“I don't think it's necessary to take it so seriously.”

“We, Walker Corporation, don't intend to hold Luke accountable.”

“This matter ends here. We're connected by friendship now!”

Justin laughed, wanting to go help Luke get up.

However, Luke didn't dare to get up at all. Instead, he continued to kneel and struggle, all the while groveling on the ground.

Bang, bang, bang! The sound terrified all who heard it.

May smiled. A charming young lady, indeed.

“Rumours said that Chairman Walker treats people with courtesy and generously. I never believed it before, but now I believe it.”

“But, Star Chaebol’s rules are absolute. Good work is to be rewarded, and punishment is to be imposed when there are mistakes!”

May glanced past Justin and her gaze fell on Kait. She smiled and said, “CEO Walker, you are the victim of this incident.”

“You have the final say on how to solve it.”

Her voice was not loud, but the implied meaning was shocking enough.

To May, Justin’s words held no weight. Only Kait’s words were meaningful.

Justin’s face changed drastically. He didn’t expect May to ignore him after h e had shown so much respect to Star Chaebol.

However, he was also a smart person. He narrowed his eyes at Kait at this moment and said, “Kait, since Representative Luke is so sincere...”

“How about letting me make this decision for you today?”

“Let’s forget about this matter. How about it?”

Chapter 1890

Kait ignored Justin. Instead, she subconsciously looked at Harvey.

Although she didn't know what happened, she knew very well that May bringing Justin here to apologize probably had something to do with Harvey.

Thus, only Harvey could decide on this matter.

“Okay, stop groveling. Will you pay if the floor is destroyed?”

Only after Luke groveled a hundred times did Harvey step forward. He squatted down and looked at Luke with a smile. “Do you still remember what I said to you this morning?”

“What did I say?”

Luke's eyelids twitched wildly. He hurriedly said, “Come over with the attorney contract at two o’clock in the afternoon...”

“What about the contract?” Harvey smiled and said.

“The contract isn’t ready yet.” Luke cried, “CEO York, I was wrong! I know my mistakes now!”

“Please give me a chance!”

Harvey stood up and said indifferently, “I’ll give you another chance for Miss May’s sake.”

“Just break the other hand of yours yourself.”

“Then get as far away from us as you can. If you mess with me again next time, you can go lie down in the coffin yourself.”

Luke’s face instantly turned pale. However, he quickly groveled. “Thank you for showing me mercy, CEO York.

Thank you!”

“I swear, from now on, I will never harass Miss Walker again!”

“I’ll treat her like my mother!”

ground after he finished speaking.
Crack! His left hand was broken.

However, Luke didn’t even dare to scream. He knelt on the ground, convulsing all over, his left hand hanging limply.

This scene made everyone in the crowd shiver. Their eyelids kept twitching.

Hearing rumors and seeing them in person is completely different.

After looking at this bloody scene, the gazes of Walker Corporation’s executives and shareholders toward Harvey and Kait changed from contempt to solemnity and fear.

Justin narrowed his eyes at Harvey, looking rather grim.

Although he didn't know how Harvey did it...

But it was obvious that Harvey was setting this scene as an example for the others.

Starting today, who else in Walker Corporation would dare to offend Harvey? Who would dare to offend Kait?

“Remember CEO York's words and become a better person in the future. I won't be able to save you next time.”

May spoke indifferently, but her tone was steely.

“If it wasn't for CEO York and CEO Walker's mercy, I'd throw you into the sea to feed the fish tonight.”

“From today onwards, you have to pray for him every day. He saved your life.”

May spoke calmly, but Luke was horrified.

He knew very well that what May said was true.

If Kait and Harvey refused to forgive him, then his only way forward was death.

Harvey smiled. He was starting to admire May Lee.

She took up the position in less than a month, but was able to control such a huge power within Star Chaebol of Country J. Not only that, she managed to execute every order without fail.

This woman was certainly not an easy character.

Luke trembled. He no longer had the arrogance that he showed in the morning before.

Suddenly, he spotted Ronald in the crowd. The resentment in his heart broke out in an instant.

“CEO York, CEO Walker, Representative Lee!”

“I must make things clear while you are all here!”

“I deliberately targeted CEO Walker this morning because someone urged me to do so!”

“Otherwise, I wouldn’t have the guts to do it!” ¹

Chapter 1891

Before anyone even said anything, Luke had already spoken.

“It’s Ronald John!”

“He gave me a call this afternoon, instigating me to take advantage of CEO Walker!”

“He also told me that CEO Walker wouldn’t be able to hold onto her position much longer. If she doesn’t have Star Chaebol’s power of attorney in Mordu, she’ll be kicked out of the company!”

“If I use this against her, I’ll be able to do whatever I want to her!”

“I’m usually not an impulsive man, but Ronald kept pushing me. He told me that CEO Walker’s still a virgin, and that it would be my blessing to have her!”

“I couldn't hold myself back, that's why ...”

Luke kept smashing his head on the floor as he spoke.

“CEO York, CEO Walker, I am filth! I deserve what's coming for me!”

“But you can't let go of the main culprit, either!”

After hearing Luke's words, a playful colored Harvey's face.

Kait's expression changed as well.

But before she could say anything, Justin intervened. He was frowning.

“Representative Luke, you shouldn't spout nonsense like that.”

“You need proof!”

“If you dare insult the higher ups of Walker Corporation without any solid evidence, we won't let you off the hook that easily, even if Star Chaebol has immense wealth and authority.”

Ronald exclaimed loudly, “That’s right! I don’t even know you, Luke! Why would I even call you to say such a thing?!”

“Don’t try to drag an innocent person down with you!”

“And even if I did call you, it was just to arrange a meeting with you! This doesn’t mean anything!”

Luke snarled icily, “I forgot to tell you something, Ronald.”

“Ever since I came to Mordu, I knew I had to leave a trick up my sleeve at all times. You see, all of my calls are recorded.”

“The evidence is in my phone.”

He then signalled a bodyguard from Country J to take his phone out and play a recording.

As soon as the conversation between Ronald and Luke could be heard, Ronald's face completely lost all color.

There was no way for him to talk himself out of the situation any longer.

Kait's expression grew as cold as ice.

“You're no human at all, Ronald!”

“That's right! You're the one who's actually harming the company's interests!”

“How dare you do something like this to instigate a foreigner?! How are you going to explain all this?!”

“I... I... I...”

Ronald was extremely anxious. He turned to Justin.

“Brother-In-Law, save me. I...”

Slap!

Justin walked forward and slapped Ronald on the face.

“You bastard! I gave you the position as a higher up for your sister’s sake!”

“But now, you’re trying to set up my daughter?!”

“Do you not know that Kait’s my precious daughter?!”

“You have a death wish!”

Bang!

Under the crowd’s gazes of disbelief, Justin slammed his palm right onto Ronald’s head.

Shock and disbelief flashed in Ronald’s eyes. In a blink of an eye, he fell to the ground, paralyzed.

‘Is he dead?!’

Everyone froze.

Nobody expected that Justin could be this ruthless.

He dealt with Ronald in such a swift manner.

After wiping his hand with a handkerchief and signalling his men to drag Ronald's corpse away, Justin then looked at Kait with a warm expression.

“Don't worry, Kait. I won't let anyone hurt you.”

“I promise you, this kind of thing won't happen again!”

But as Kait looked at Justin's warm smile, she felt a cold shiver down her spine.

Chapter 1892

Harvey narrowed his eyes as he studied Justin, as if this was his first time seeing Justin.

Harvey didn't even need to think to know that the one responsible for instigating the whole affair was either Justin or Angelina.

Seeing Justin's decisiveness in killing Ronald was enough to tell the truth.

Still, Harvey was truly impressed by Justin's ruthlessness and decisiveness.

Truly an ambitious character!

Harvey couldn't even pinpoint a single mistake on Justin's actions.

After all, a loving father killing the culprit after learning the truth was understandable.

Cold sweat dripped down Luke's back as he witnessed the entire scene.

Now, he completely understood why May said that his life belonged to Harvey.

If it weren't for Harvey's generosity, he would've ended up just like Ronald.

In a game between two powerful characters, people like Luke were pawns that could be discarded at any time.

Clap, clap, clap!

May suddenly clapped her hands, earning everyone's attention.

“As expected from a genuine person like you, Chairman Walker. I'm truly impressed!”

“To show appreciation of Chairman Walker's respect and Star Chaebol's apology...”

“I’ve prepared a hefty gift.”

Justin’s face lit up after hearing those words. Even for a man who had seen the world such as himself, he couldn’t tone down his excitement.

May made a gesture, and her secretary produced a three-part contract. The documents were already signed and stamped with a seal of approval.

“If you sign here and stamp your seal here, Mordu’s power of attorney will be yours from today onward.”

“And to show our apology for the incident, the only person who can sign the contract is you alone.”

“You’ll be able to establish your own company if you want in the future, or give the power of attorney to Walker Corporation. It’s all up to you.”

“You...you didn’t have to do all that.”

Even Kait was dumbfounded.

Everything that happened today was unpredictable. How did Mordu's power of attorney that everyone yearned for end up in her hands?

May smiled and replied, "No need to be shy. This is what I should be doing, after all."

"If it weren't for the fact that Luke's limbs were already crippled, I would've had him kneel and crawl all the way to you with the contract."

"In any case, there's no need to hold back with me, CEO Walker."

Looking at Kait signing the three-part contract in a blink of an eye, the higher ups and stockholders present were all shocked. They weren't able to utter a single word in retaliation.

Simply put, Kait now had the most authority out of everyone in Walker Corporation.

Star Chaebol's power of attorney in Mordu would definitely earn Walker Corporation hundreds of millions of dollars more each year.

If news were to spread, stocks of the company would rise about five times the daily limit. All of their assets would double!

And if Kait were to leave the company, everyone's lives would be at stake!

The company would even face bankruptcy in the future!

Everyone could not doubt that Kait's position as the CEO had been solidified.

Even the chairman's position had already been...

Thinking this, many confused gazes fell on Justin.

The corner of Justin's mouth kept twitching. He had mixed feelings about the situation, but forced a smile on his face and said, "You sure don't disappoint, Kait. You truly are fit to be the CEO..."

"Chairman Walker, you seem to be forgetting something," Harvey suddenly said,

Chapter 1893

“What do you mean by that?!”

Justin’s face was getting darker; he had a bad feeling about the situation.

Harvey calmly replied, “It seems you’ve already forgotten about our little bet since you’re so busy.”

“I have reason to remind you of it.”

“According to our bet, if Kait gets Star Chaebol’s power of attorney in Mordu ...”

“You’ll have to step down from your position.”

“Speaking of which, Chairman Walker... oh, it’s not appropriate to call you that anymore.”

“Right, Mr. Walker. Thank goodness I have a good memory and reminded you i n the nick of time.”

“If not, you might’ve lost your reputation in the business world!”

“After all, you’re the man who’s vying for the position of Mordu’s Longmen branch leader.”

“You can’t lose everyone’s trust for you when you’re at the crux of rising to power, right?”

The people present were shocked to hear Harvey’s words.

A few beautiful higher ups covered the lips, disbelief written all over their faces.

Harvey was forcing Justin to resign!

Even though Harvey seemed very casual, every single word he said hit Justin where it hurt.

Justin was scornful. Harvey was pushing him right to a dead end.

“Of course! As expected from Harvey York!”

“What an executive CEO!”

Justin’s expression changed frantically. He finally took off his work badge and set it on the ground before announcing aloofly, “According to our deal, I, Justin Walker, will resign from my position as chairman.”

“But whether or not Kait can take the position depends on the board of directors.”

Harvey looked around him with a warm smile. “There’s no need to make trouble. Since the board of directors are here along with the shareholders, why don’t we have a vote?”

“Raise your hand if you do not support Kait taking the position as a chairman!”

“You...”

Justin’s expression was as dark as night. He did not expect that Harvey would take such drastic measures and do something like this.

Under these circumstances, nobody would oppose Kait publicly; especially after she had acquired Star Chaebol’s power of attorney in Mordu.

This meant that Kait had taken the position as chairman fair and square.

No matter how many tricks Justin still had up his sleeve, they were all for naught the moment Kait took the position.

“Since no one’s raising any hands, that means you all support Kait’s position as chairman. Then, this matter’s settled.”

“Secretary, bring us the minutes of the meeting and get everyone to sign the papers.”

“As for Representative Lee, I must request you to be a witness for this.” Harvey said while clapping his hands.

May smiled and replied, “I am honored.”

“Congratulations, Chairman Walker.”

May reached out her right hand toward Kait, who was still dumbfounded by the situation.

Pffft!

Justin could not hold back anymore. He coughed out a mouthful of blood, then fell to the ground.

While everyone was trying to get Justin to a hospital in a hurry, Harvey turned around and left.

With Mordu’s power of attorney and the position as chairman, Kait’s position within Walker Corporation was completely solidified. No one would be able to touch her.

And after the next day, everything would be in place.

At night, inside Fragrant Hill's number one villa.

Kait entered the villa after dealing with her company's business. She sank on the couch, completely exhausted.

Harvey, who was reading a book, turned to her with a darkened expression.

'Is this lady treating the place like it's her house now?'

Chapter 1894

Before Harvey could say anything, Kait spoke up. There was hesitation in her voice.

“Harvey, my father just woke up at the hospital. After he woke up, he told me to head to the Walker family’s residence tomorrow.”

“He said he’ll explain everything to me in front of the entire family.”

“That’s why I think...”

“You shouldn’t go tomorrow.”

“This is a family scandal, after all.”

Kait seemed quite heartbroken.

Harvey froze, then realized something.

Most likely, Kait had known the truth and didn't want Harvey to know about it.

Her last bit of dignity was on the line. Judging by Kait's personality, she wouldn't be able to accept it if Harvey was exposed to the truth about the situation.

Without a second thought, Harvey nodded.

“Right, you go on your own then. I'll let Brennan accompany you. If there's anything wrong, contact me as soon as possible.”

“Okay.”

Kait nodded.

“One more thing. Father had already lost all his power in Walker Corporation. He's already had a hard enough time, so is it fine if you heal Angelina completely this time?”

“Consider this a favor for me to repay him for all the years he took care of me.”

Harvey could tell that Kait could never abandon the relationship between her and her father, even though Justin couldn't care less about her.

In fact, Kait pitied Justin after he ended up this way.

“Right, let's go our separate ways tomorrow. I'll head to the hospital in the morning when you go to the Walker family's residence.”

“If all goes well, we can even have lunch together.”

Harvey then stretched.

They could still have lunch if they had the time, but there was no way for them to have dinner together.

At the same time, in Mordu's
Paramount.

Clang!

Justin was sitting on the couch, a wretched look on his face. He smashed the coffee cup in his hand, sending it flying before it smashed right onto the corner of a wall.

Lucas was sitting right in front of him, trimming his fingernails serenely.

“Uncle, I’ve heard about what happened today.”

“Why get angry over such a small thing?”

“When you take the position of Mordu’s Longmen branch leader tomorrow, everything will naturally be under your control.”

“When that happens, you’ll be able to deal with Harvey however you want. Am

I wrong?”

Justin raised his head and glared at Lucas. He then replied slowly, “Prince Jean, didn’t you already send Lebron to deal with Harvey?”

“Why is he still alive?”

“If you dealt with Harvey earlier, none of this would’ve happened!”

Lucas was calm. “There’s something you don’t know, Sir Walker. Even though Lebron was sent to do the job, someone else was protecting Harvey.”

“You’re quite familiar with this person, too.”

“Protecting Harvey? If it’s Chief Leonard himself...”

Justin frowned.

“Not him,” Lucas replied, smiling faintly.

“Rachel?!”

Justin’s expression changed.

Rachel had been the person Justin paid the most attention to throughout Mordu, as she was his biggest obstacle from becoming Mordu’s Longmen branch leader.

“Exactly. And according to my sources, Harvey’s appearance is most likely because of her. Everything he’s done so far was to oppose you. Their goal is to prevent you from rising to power.”

“But you should be relieved about tomorrow night, Leader Walker. Other than your subordinate Eugene, I invited another professional to keep the place under control for you.”

“Kuroda, come out and meet Sir Walker.”

Chapter 1895

Someone walked out steadily from the shadows of the hall.

He wasn't too tall, and was only about five foot two. He was slightly bald, and his face looked like it belonged to a monkey.

A long and short Island Nation sword was hanging on the sides of his waist. Every step he took emanated a terrifying aura.

“An Island Nation Swordsman?!”

Justin frowned.

“That's right. Kuroda Taro is an expert of the Shindan Way. His swordsmanship is almost unparalleled within Mordu.”

“No matter how strong Rachel is, she probably won’t be able to block a hit from him.”

“Sir Walker. With him around, why would you be scared of Rachel?” Lucas said, narrowing his eyes thoughtfully. This was one of his killer trump cards. If this couldn’t help him achieve his goals, then he wouldn’t have called Kuroda out.

After all, it would be troublesome for him if outsiders found out that he was working with Island Nation citizens.

After sizing up Kuroda for a long while, Justin said slowly, “Prince Jean, surely you must be joking.”

“If I let a man from the Island Nations represent me in a fight, I’ll be beaten to death by Longmen’s master before the fight could even end!”

“In Longmen, conspiring with the enemy is a death sentence!”

But Lucas said calmly, “When did I say that Kuroda would represent you in the fight?”

“He’s just going to bump into Rachel by accident. Since the two already had grudges for a long time now, Kuroda will injure Rachel after a brawl and make her miss the fight.”

“Coincidences like this shouldn’t have anything to do with you. Right, Sir Walker?”

Justin froze. Seconds later, an understanding smile appeared on his face.

“Do you like this amazing gift I’ve prepared for you, Leader Walker?”

Lucas narrowed his eyes meaningfully.

Justin chuckled.

“It’s impolite for me to only receive such gifts!”

“I’ll give Kait a so-called statement tomorrow morning at the Walker Mansion residence.”

“At first, I wasn’t planning on inviting anyone to such a grand event.”

“Now, I’d like to invite you there.”

“You simply must show up tomorrow, Prince Jean.”

At the mention of Kait’s name, Lucas’s eyes burned with desire. He burst out laughing and said, “Since my dear Father-In-Law invited me so generously...”

“I’ll have to be there no matter what!”

“After going through so many things, I do hope that my marriage with Kait will finally be set in stone tomorrow.”

“Set in stone?”

Justin laughed.

“This isn’t like you, Prince!”

“How about we drop the formalities and let you two have some alone time tomorrow?”

“According to the rules, marriage is determined by the parents anyway. After tomorrow, you and I will be a true family!”

“Hahahaha!”

The two laughed maniacally as they leveled each other with sinister gazes.

...

The next day, Kait drove over to the Walker Mansion early in the morning. The Walker family would give her a proper statement that morning.

Harvey, on the other hand, went to the Fraternity Hospital.

Justin was waiting for Kait at the residence. When Harvey arrived at the hospital, Angelina was the only one there.

Although only a single day had passed, the dispirited look on Angelina's face was long gone. She seemed very energetic.

Angelina seemed to have intentionally put on light makeup, and the effect gave her an alluring image.

She sat casually on the couch, revealing her tall and slender legs. She looked like an enticing, magnificent crystal...

Chapter 1896

Her beauty could capture all hearts.

Any man would've been dazzled by the sight and would entertain sinful thoughts about her.

Even though there was only one man named Genghis Khan, quite a few others would happily share his interests.

But Harvey only took one single glance before he spoke.

“Looks like you've recovered quite well, Lady Walker. You're finally in the mood to wear makeup.”

Angelina quietly stretched her slender legs and crossed them together, revealing a quick peek of her panties. She smiled and said, “It's all thanks to your admirable skills, Sir York.”

“If it weren’t for you, I could’ve been a vegetable by now.”

“How should I express my gratitude for you to feel my sincerity, Sir York?”

Harvey replied calmly, “It’s just a business deal, Lady Walker. Don’t talk like we actually have feelings for each other.”

“You should know that I would’ve been quite excited to see you as a vegetable if it weren’t for Kait.”

“That’s why we should just end this process quickly.”

Angelina laughed before saying, “Sir York, you truly are a reputable character.”

“I didn’t know why Kait trusted you that much, but now I do.”

“If an old aunty like me was a few years younger and unmarried, I might not be able to hold back from fighting against Kait for you.”

Angelina let out a warm smile, then picked up a porcelain bowl and brought it over to Harvey.

“Come, Sir York. I made the stew myself. It improves vitality quite a bit, best suited for a man like you.”

“Why don’t I feed it to you instead?”

Harvey’s eyes kept twitching. The woman’s attitude was completely different than before.

One who is terribly nice for no reason would naturally have evil intentions.

Harvey quietly took half a step back and said calmly, “I already had my breakfast, Lady Walker.”

Angelina smiled, not intending to force Harvey. She set the bowl down, looking somewhat heartbroken.

She narrowed her eyes and flashed him a faint smile.

“Sir York, I’ve been misunderstanding you ever since you got close to Kait and went against me.”

“At first, I thought that you were only approaching Kait for her looks and immense wealth.”

“But after looking at you today, I understood everything. You’re not here for Kait’s money, nor are you here for her body.”

“And now, I would like to apologize to you for the misunderstanding.”

Harvey did not understand why Angelina acted this way. He said cautiously, “Since we’re talking about this, I have something I want to tell you.”

“If you can give Kait a fair statement and promise not to go against her from today onward, we might even be friends in the future.”

“As for anything else, let’s cut the nonsense.”

“I do hope that you’ll stop thinking about hurting others after I’m done treating you.”

“After all, people who train in ancient martial arts should have a better sense of justice. If you end up harming yourself after hurting others in the future, even I won’t be able to save you.”

After Harvey was done talking, he made a gesture to let Angelina take off her clothes and show her back.

Angelina let out a warm smile and obediently took off her thin pajamas, revealing her bare shoulders.

She was facing behind Harvey’s back when she said, “Sir York. Even though I trust you now, you and I were quite unhappy because of Kait's incident.”

“Tell me. Are you going to treat me just enough, but leave some symptoms behind so that you can always threaten Justin and I in the future?”

Chapter 1897

Harvey replied calmly, “What do you think?”

Angelina giggled.

“I think you’re quite the character, Sir York. You wouldn’t do something this petty.”

Harvey said slowly, “Since we made a deal, I’ll always keep my promise. You promised to give Kait a statement, so I’ll help you deal with the chest pain you had since you started training in ancient martial arts.”

“Anyway, this isn’t too much trouble.”

There was something that Harvey did not say. When Angelina trained in martial arts before, there was another side effect other than the chest pain.

But because both her symptoms were completely suppressed, there were no other symptoms that showed up.

The moment the two symptoms went away would be the moment where other symptoms would show up one after another.

Of course, if Angelina stopped playing petty tricks against him, Harvey wouldn't mind dealing with all her problems completely without her knowing.

Harvey picked up a scalpel as he spoke, and made a light cut on Angelina's back.

A string of boiling-hot blood spurted out from the cut. As the blood flowed out, Angelina could clearly feel the heat in her heart gradually dissipating. Her whole body had recovered in an instant.

“Am I really okay now?”

She felt extremely relaxed, as if she was almost able to start working out immediately.

Soon, she deduced that Harvey wasn't hiding anything anymore. There should be no other symptoms left in her body.

“You're not bad, Sir York. Truly a man of his word. My problems are all solved now!”

“I'm starting to like you more and more already!”

Angelina did not bother to put her clothes back on and turned around, exposing her exquisite figure while looking at Harvey with a lustful gaze.

“Why don't you and I have a deal?”

“Kait's just a little girl. She doesn't have a plump chest, nor does she have a nice butt. What's the point?”

“Why don't you be my bodyguard instead? I promise to transfer thirty percent of her shares in Walker Corporation to you.”

“Aside from that, I’ll give you a hundred million dollars worth of dividends every year.”

“I can also give you something else that you want. I’ll satisfy you right here, right now. How does that sound?”

Harvey’s eyes twitched. This was the legendary temptation of a mature woman.

Harvey took a few steps back, flashing Angelina a frosty glare. “Lady Walker, I have to admit, your conditions are pretty good.”

“But for me, these things aren’t enough for me to betray Kait’s trust.”

Angelina chuckled lightly.

“We’re all adults here, Sir York. You should know that there’s no such thing as undying loyalty in this world.”

“Loyalty is only there because the price for betrayal isn’t tempting enough.”

“Why don’t you tell me what you want instead?”

“I’ll give whatever you ask of me. As long as you stay by my side, I’ll give you whatever you want. How does that sound?”

Harvey narrowed his eyes.

“Everything?”

Angelina caressed Harvey’s face lightly and said softly, “Of course.”

“Money?”

“Women?”

“Power?”

“As soon as you give the word, you’ll have everything you want. Give up on Kait, Sir York. Come to me.”

“Let me take care of you, love you, and give my life for you!”

A drop of blood suddenly appeared in between Angelina’s fingers. There was a n odd look on her face as she smiled warmly at Harvey and slowly pushed the drop of blood on Harvey’s forehead

...

Chapter 1898

Pfft!

The moment the blood came in contact with his head, Harvey fell into a trance. He turned into an absent-minded state.

Angelina laughed when she saw Harvey in this state.

She caressed Harvey's face with her right hand and whispered quietly, "What a good boy."

"Come. I'll be asking you a few questions, so make sure you answer them honestly. Okay?"

"Tell me, did Kait give you half of her shares she owns in Walker Corporation?"

"Yes."

Harvey nodded, seemingly dazed.

“So why are you still helping her?”

“Because she’s pretty.”

A silly smile leaked out of Harvey’s face.

“Am I pretty?” Angelina chuckled while asking.

“You are. You’re prettier than Kait.”

Harvey nodded constantly, showing a yearning look on his face.

His appearance made Angelina quite scornful. She used her index finger to lift Harvey’s chin up and chuckled lightly.

“So sign this contract for me. If you do, I’ll kiss you on the lips.”

“Come on, baby boy.”

Angelina took out the contract from under her pillow and set it on the table.

The contents of the contract was to let

Harvey transfer all of his shares in Walker Corporation to Angelina unconditionally.

When Harvey replied, it seemed that he did not even see the contract.

“I’ll do anything you ask of me.”

“Good. Then sign the contract.”

Angelina spoke as though she was entertaining a baby.

“Don’t you need me to do anything else?”

Harvey seemed very out of it, and was being quite considerate toward Angelina.

Angelina cackled like a chicken, swaying her slender body around.

“I haven’t thought of anything yet, but can you help me kill Kait?”

Harvey’s face showed a trace of hesitation and his voice shook.

“But Kait’s so pretty, I can’t...”

Angelina flashed Harvey an exaggerated look as she took out her phone and began to pick a few photos of celebrities. Every single one of them were youthful and elegant.

“All these pretty ladies will be just for you!”

Harvey seemed delighted and replied, “Okay, okay. Not just Kait, I’ll kill a lot more people too. I’ll kill whoever you ask me to...”

Angelina fell into a momentary silence. Then she said coldly, “Kill Justin Walker for me, then.”

“That’s it?”

“That’s it.”

Angelina froze. She felt something wrong with Harvey's tone, so she subconsciously tilted her head up to look at him.

Harvey's expression had turned back to normal, and he wiped his head with his right hand. A drop of blood appeared in his hand. The blood trembled and turned into a tiny beetle, which he quickly crushed into dust.

“Frontier Possession Technique.”

Harvey showed no emotion.

“Angelina, you truly disappoint me.”

“You tried so hard to fool me over trivial family matters?”

“How dull.”

“Tell me, would Justin kill you if he heard this recording?”

Harvey took out his phone and pressed the play button nonchalantly.

Angelina's cackle echoed from the phone along with gentle, hateful, decisive, and reluctant speeches.

Angelina laughed, and then spoke once more.

“Kill Justin Walker for me, then.”

Hearing her words from the phone, Angelina's body shook. Her expression was utterly horrible.

Chapter 1899

“You’re not affected by the technique?!”

Angelina quickly returned to her senses.

‘Not only was Harvey unaffected by my Lost Soul Beetle, but he even managed to record our whole conversation?!’

Angelina went on the defensive in just a blink of an eye.

“Indeed, the Beetle Possession Technique is quite miraculous. It’s a shame you screwed up during your training and only learned this much.”

“Besides, you’ve only just recovered. Do you really think you’ll succeed when you’re setting me up in such a rush?”

Harvey flashed her a playful look.

“Besides, there’s no such thing as free lunch in this world. You wouldn't act this nice toward me unless you want something in return!"

"I'm the man who threw your dignity to the ground and trampled on it. But you don't hate me, and instead you're welcoming me with open arms. Unless I'm a complete idiot, I'll definitely know that you're up to something."

"The only thing I don't understand is that the high and mighty lady of the John family actually learned the Beetle Possession Technique. Interesting."

"But when I heard that you want Justin dead, I understood something."

"What is it?" Angelina subconsciously asked.

"You're not Angelina. Or should I say, you're not the real Angelina," Harvey said calmly.

"If I guess correctly, the real Angelina died many years ago. Am I wrong?”

“And you are actually from Seed Frontier.”

“But I’m not interested in who you actually are.”

“I’m only going to ask you one thing: are you the one who turned Kait’s mother into a vegetable?”

Angelina’s expression changed frantically. She said quietly, “I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

“Nobody would believe nonsense from a man who’s on Death’s door!”

“Nonsense? On Death’s door?”

Harvey shook the phone in his hand, still looking playful.

“Who do you think Justin’s going to kill first when he hears the recording: me, or you?”

“Our dear Vice Branch Leader Justin is a ruthless man. From the moment he killed Ronald so decisively, I understood how merciless he was.”

“I believe a man like him can even kill the woman he shares the same bed with without any hesitation.”

“Besides, the woman sharing the same bed as him isn't really Angelina.”

Angelina waved her right hand, about to give a signal.

Harvey interjected casually, “I suggest you not do that.”

“If you do, I'm afraid I might not be able to control myself and say things that I shouldn't.”

“Compared to you, I think those people are more loyal to Justin. No?”

Harvey had long realized that there were about a dozen professional snipers keeping watch beyond the sickroom window.

If Angelina were to give the signal, the snipers would immediately open fire.

But Harvey could care less and continued talking without any restrictions.

“Angelina. If I were you, I’d get these people out of here and have a heart-to-heart conversation with each other.”

“For example: you’ll tell me why you took action against Kait’s mother.”

“And you’ll tell me what your true goal is.”

“You should know that as long as you don’t lay a finger on Kait, I won’t stop you even if you want the entire Walker family to perish. In fact, I might even give you some support for that.”

“That’s why you should think carefully;

whether you want to have a nice chat with me right now, or wait for Justin to interrogate you when you ultimately fail.”

“The decision could either keep you alive, or send you straight to Hell.” 1

Chapter 1900

Facing Harvey's calm gaze, Angelina's expression changed frantically. Finally, she let out a helpless sigh and waved her right hand.

Harvey sensed that the snipers left immediately. The rifle that was aimed directly at him disappeared as well.

Angelina put her clothes on properly, then sat in front of Harvey. She looked perplexed.

“Sir York, can you tell me who you actually are?”

Harvey replied calmly, “Is there even a point for you to know?”

Angelina froze, then burst out laughing.

“That's true, there's no point at all.”

“Let me answer your first question:

Angelina did die by my hands.”

“But Kait’s mother was already a vegetable before I got into the Walker family.”

“I don’t know what happened either, but I’m guessing that Justin was the one who did that.”

“Justin?”

Harvey frowned.

“Why would he do that?”

“Kait’s mother was a professional in ancient martial arts and also his wife. Why would he do something like that?”

Angelina flashed him a playful look.

“Sir York. You’re a clever man. How can you not know?”

“The reason is quite simple. He wants to marry the daughter of the Golden Sands’ John family, Angelina John...”

“Where’s your proof?” Harvey calmly asked.

“Proof?”

Angelina giggled.

“I’m the best proof there is.”

“Justin pledged his undying love towards me back then, saying that he’ll divorce his wife and stay with me forever...”

“But then, he hooked up with the actual Angelina John and cast me aside.”

“I remember everything. It was raining heavily that night. If I hadn’t gone out to buy an umbrella, I would’ve been lying in a puddle of blood like my brother and mother...”

“From that day onward, I became the legendary Rainy Night Butcher and killed the murderer of my brother and mother...”

“The police wanted to catch me, and the underworld wanted to kill me.”

“Then, I entered Seed Frontier and learned some of the Beetle Techniques. After that, I made my return.”

“During the night of Justin’s wedding with Angelina, I killed the real Angelina and took her face using the Beetle Techniques. I wore it as my own...”

“From that day onward, I turned into Angelina John, Justin’s woman...”

“Heh, heh, heh...”

“Hoh, hoh, hoh...!”

A strange, sinister laugh echoed throughout the room. Angelina was only telling a story, but the contents were enough to make Harvey shiver.

Even he did not expect Justin to be this ruthless.

“He’s removing himself from all temptations by killing his own wife?” Harvey muttered.

Angelina raised her head and looked at Harvey.

“So do you really think someone like Justin would sacrifice his wealth and status for someone like me?”

“In his eyes, the daughter from the Golden Sands’ John family is indeed valuable. But is she really more valuable than the position of branch leader?”

“That’s why, Harvey. You thought you had everything under control, but you didn’t even know.”

“The moment you promised to heal me, you’ve already lost...”

“Completely lost!”

Angelina looked at her Cartier watch and flashed him an odd smile.

“If I’m not mistaken, Kait should be in Lucas’s hands by now.”

Harvey’s expression changed frantically. His face looked utterly horrible.
