

“Chen Hao, have you finished eating?”

The rest of the birthday party was quite rushed.

Mainly because of what happened earlier, no one dared to speak anymore, especially Wang Guifang who kept her mouth shut.

“I’ve finished eating!”

When Chen Hao walked out from the room, Shen Nan stopped him and asked gently, “Chen Hao, my mom wants me to ask you—what do you do for a living?”

Truth be told, she was also very curious herself.

After all, everyone saw Chairman Wang Hua’s attitude toward Chen Hao.

“Me? To be honest, I don’t know what I do for a living too!”

“Ha-ha!” Shen Nan laughed, and thought that Chen Hao was getting more mysterious as time passed.

“C-Could you be the legendary, mysterious Young Master Chen in Jin Ling?” Shen Nan asked gently.

Wang Guifang and the rest stood behind Shen Nan, holding their breath as they waited anxiously for Chen Hao’s answer.

Chen Hao shook his head and laughed bitterly.

“Whether or not I’m Young Master Chen is not important. Shen Nan, I actually need a favor from you all along. I wonder if you consider me as your friend?” he looked at Shen Nan seriously.

In Chen Hao’s opinions, the time had arrived.

He also realized that from the way Shen Nan looked at him, she seemed to develop some feelings toward him.

If everything continued, he would undeniably hurt her.

“Not long after this, the Shen Family will receive a sum of money for the crisis you’re in. At that time, you don’t have to worry about so much and do whatever you love!” Chen Hao said.

Wang Guifang and the others took a deep breath.

If Chen Hao said this an hour ago, Wang Guifang would definitely think that it was fake. However, it seemed more real than anything right now.

“Of course I treat you as my friend! Since the moment you saved me, I already thought of you as my good friend who has many secrets. Now that you help our family, if I have a chance to, I really hope there’s something that I can do for you, I really do!”

Shen Nan emphasized on the last three words.

Before this, Shen Nan was just grateful to Chen Hao, and there was nothing romantic in it.

However, now—especially with what happened just now—that she had seen another side of Chen Hao, she was deeply attracted by the mystery surrounding him and his powerful aura.

As long as it made Chen Hao happy, she hoped that she could do something for him.

If their relationship could take a step further, that was what Shen Nan hoped for.

Seeing that Shen Nan agreed to his request, Chen Hao was extremely excited.

“But, you must also promise me something!” Shen Nan added.

“What is it?”

“After helping you, you must tell me who you actually are. I don’t want you to hide it from me, okay?” Shen Nan said, smiling at Chen Hao.

“Alright!”

Chen Hao promised her without any hesitation.

Even though Shen Nan and Wang Guifang were extremely confused when Chen Hao asked for a drop of blood from Shen Nan's fingers, it didn't affect anything.

After handing the drop of extreme Yin blood to Chen Hao, everyone was looking forward to Chen Hao's explanation of the events that transpired just now.

Of course, Chen Hao would not go back on his words.

At that moment, he laughed dryly and took out a small electronic appliance from his pocket.

Beep beep!

After pressing on it, it let out two tiny beeps.

After that, they heard a rumbling sound coming from the rooftop.

It sounded a lot like the sound of a helicopter.

Right after that, they saw a helicopter hovering at the top of the building indeed.

On autopilot mode, it was heading toward Chen Hao and gradually landed after that.

The helicopter was black in color, looking like a vulture. Its appearance shocked everyone instantly.

This helicopter probably costs more than a billion!

Chen Hao, flying a helicopter?

Shen Nan, too, covered her mouth in disbelief.

Everything seemed to make sense right now.

After the helicopter landed, Chen Hao entered the cockpit and smiled at Shen Nan.

“I guess you already know the answer. If anything happens, feel free to look for Li Zhenguo!”

Slightly smiling, he then flew the helicopter away and left.

“Oh my god! Young Master Chen from Jin Ling! Chen Hao really is Young Master Chen from Jin Ling! We’re going to be rich! The Shen Family is going to be rich!” Wang Guifang was so happy that she danced around.

However, Shen Nan felt empty inside her, as if she had lost something important to her.

The second extreme Yin blood had finally been collected.

Hard work does pay off indeed!

Feeling the extreme Yin energy that the blood gave him through the bottle, Chen Hao was elated and surprised at the same time.

After accepting the ablution from God, I can finally do something against Yun Qing!

My strength will greatly improve too!

The Holy Water Ritual was going to happen soon, so Chen Hao's grandfather and his skilled masters were already on their way finding the location of the ritual. Hence, Chen Hao wondered how they were doing.

But actually Chen Hao was not worried about his grandfather as Mo Canglong was extremely strong. He was one of the strongest among the masters of martial arts.

Not just that, he was controlled by Chen Hao, and his life was controlled by Chen Hao's grandfather.

Hence, Mo Canglong would definitely help Chen Hao's grandfather.

Next, Chen Hao thought about the whereabouts of the lady in white.

Now, what's left is the whereabouts of the lady in white.

When I settle my fate with Yun Qing, I will be able to find the lady in white without any obstacles. The mystery surrounding the League of Sun lies on her.

I'm getting closer! I'm getting even closer! Chen Hao couldn't help thinking.

While flying the helicopter, Chen Hao dropped the blood on the jade amulet, and it started to sense the surroundings.

In the air, Chen Hao focused all his attention on sensing the location of the Sky Stone.

Bang!

Shortly after, Chen Hao suddenly heard a loud bang.

The sound of the bang was quite weird as it didn't seem to come from his surroundings, but it came from deep within his mind and resonated throughout his entire body.

Bang! Bang!

This sound kept reverberating in his mind, and then his body started communicating with his surroundings.

A mysterious power was rejecting him from going forward.

Chen Hao knew that it must be the Sky Stone.

As it was a pure Yang object, it repelled the extreme Yin blood naturally.

“I’ve found you!”

Excited, Chen Hao lowered the helicopter immediately and landed at a mountain nearby.

“Cloud Hill?”

Halfway through the landing process, Chen Hao suddenly realized.

Isn’t this my own house, the Cloud Hill

Mansion?

Seems like the Sky Stone has been hiding in the Cloud Hill Mountain all this while!

Walking down from the helicopter, the sense of rejection was growing stronger.

Chen Hao had confirmed that the Sky Stone was located here.

His presence had made the Cloud Hill vibrate continuously, and a lot of plants started wilting immediately.

It was the release of extreme Yang energy that made their moisture evaporate!

Trying to hold down his joy, Chen Hao called Li Zhenguo immediately.

As he had already asked Li Zhenguo to make certain preparations, when Li Zhenguo received his confirmation, the project could start immediately.

As it was a race against time, Li Zhenguo recruited almost a thousand people for the engineering team.

The project will keep going for 24 hours and running simultaneously at different locations at the same time. There was no time for rest until the layers of the mountain were penetrated, and the object that Young Master Chen had been searching for was found.

Soon, around a thousand workers were well prepared at each of their positions.

Since they were going to break the mountain apart, the Cloud Hill Mansion would need to be demolished as well.

Once the news came out, someone noticed it and spreaded it on the internet quickly.

Soon, it was one of the hot topics for discussion in Jin Ling.

“The Cloud Hill Mansion was about to be demolished?”

“Yeah, what the f*ck? Eight billion worth of mansion to be demolished just like this? He's too rich!”

A few fans discussed passionately.

However, the management of Cloud Hill Mansion didn't receive any news as Li Zhenguo didn't have to report to his employees when he decided to make any decisions.

In the eyes of the management of the mansion, the Cloud Hill Mansion was not as simple as any other mansion.

The engineers put in a lot of effort into its construction. Rather than a building, it was more of a piece of an artwork.

“Who gave you the permission to demolish this place? You guys are pretty brave! Do you know this place belongs to who?”

A young woman of around twenty-six years old looked at one of the workers angrily.

“Ha! Who gave us the permission? Manager Li, of course! If you have any problems with that, you can talk to him straightaway!” the worker sneered coldly.

This made the young woman take a deep breath angrily.

Looking at the construction team on top of the hill, she frowned and headed there.

When she had just reached the top of the hill, she saw part of the walls of the Cloud Hill Mansion being demolished with a bang before she could stop them.

Feeling sorry for the mansion, she immediately scolded the people who were rough toward it.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao was also in the garden of the Cloud Hill Mansion.

“Young Master Chen, the construction takes at least two days and two nights!” Li Zhenguo reported, looking at Chen Hao.

“I understand. Manager Li, it will be exhausting for you for the next two days as you have to stay here and keep an eye on this project. If there's any news, report it to me at once!” Chen Hao instructed.

“I understand, Young Master Chen!”

Just then, a bodyguard suddenly ran to them hastily.

"Young Master Chen, there's a woman who is making a scene, disrupting the progress of our project. She is also someone from the Jin Ling Group. May I request permission to chase her away using brute force?" one of the security guards asked.

"Bastard! How dare someone disrupt what Young Master Chen wants to do? No matter who she is, chase her away!" Li Zhenguo said.

"S-She said her name is Tang Ran. If I mention her name, you would know who she is!" the security guard said.

"Tang... Tang Ran?"

Li Zhenguo froze and looked at Chen Hao.

Who was Tang Ran?

She was Su Tongxin's second cousin sister, who was also akin to Young Master Chen's sister.

Now, no matter how angry Li Zhenguo became, his anger subsided instantly.

Tang Ran was not someone whom he could afford to offend.

After hearing her name, Chen Hao slightly jumped too.

Tongxin's sister?

Chen Hao had quite a lot of interactions with Tang Ran, who was quite close with Tongxin.

Over the two years, Chen Hao did not miss Tongxin and his family only. Similarly, he also did not forget to take care of Tongxin's family.

As long as it was within his abilities, Chen Hao would make up to them.

So far, what Chen Hao could do was to make sure that the next few generations of the Su Family could live happily without any troubles.

Even though Chen Hao once returned to Jin Ling, and he was also in Jin Ling right now, he felt an unspeakable regret toward Tongxin's family.

No matter what, Tongxin chose to be together with him. Now that she had gone missing, it was him who failed to take good care of her.

Hence, Chen Hao didn't know how to face her family.

Chen Hao completely chickened out when he faced them.

At this moment, in front of the mansion.

"Let go of me! Let go!"

Tang Ran was struggling against the grip of a few bodyguards who were forcing her out.

"Stop!"

Just then, a voice rang. It belonged to Chen Hao who was walking over to them.

"Chen Hao?" Looking at Chen Hao, Tang

Ran was extremely shocked.

After Tongxin had gone missing, she had never seen Chen Hao, or heard any news about him ever since.

From Tang Ran's perspective, it was true her younger sister had gone missing.

But who was Chen Hao?

Chen Hao was the Young Master Chen of the Chen Family who had an infinite amount of wealth.

How could it be that he was still missing Tongxin?

Perhaps, he didn't care whether Tongxin was dead or alive anymore, as he only sent Li Zhenguo to pacify the rest of them from the Su Family.

Li Zhenguo told them that no matter what problems the Su Family encountered, as long as they sought his help, he would do his best to help them.

However, everyone in the Su Family knew that Chen Hao said that just as a formality to express his regrets.

After Tongxin had gone missing, what relationship did the Su Family and Chen Hao have?

None, because they were not related anymore.

Of course, since Tongxin had disappeared, the Su Family would not try to connect with someone who was so out of their league, so they had always rejected Li Zhenguo's help.

If they weren't trying to demolish the mansion at Cloud Hill, Tang Ran would not be so angry, and wouldn't even make any trouble for Li Zhenguo.

Another reason was because the Cloud Hill Mansion was originally the house for Chen Hao and Su Tongxin after they got married.

But now? Ha!

That ungrateful fellow!

Tang Ran's fury was suddenly ignited.

But now that she saw him again, he seemed to be much more mature and muscular than before.

And he emanated an aura of superiority from top to bottom.

"Tang Ran, sis, how are you? Are you doing well recently?" Chen Hao asked, nodding slightly.

"Ha-ha! I don't dare to let Young Master Chen miss me. And since when did I become your sister? Our Su Family isn't prestigious enough to call someone like you our relative!" Tang Ran said coldly.

"Outrageous! How could you talk to Young Master Chen in such a way?" the bodyguards bellowed after hearing the sarcasm in her tone.

"There's none of your business here. Leave us alone, all of you!" Chen Hao commanded coldly.

The group of bodyguards left respectfully, as if Chen Hao's command brought a chill down their spines and made them fearful.

Even Tang Ran was influenced by this voice and looked at Chen Hao in awe. It has only been two years, why is there such a huge change in this man?

Back then, he was still quite cowardly; but now, he had become like this.

"I know you have some misunderstandings toward me, sis. Tongxin had gone missing because I didn't take good care of her. I play a huge responsibility in this. Do you think that I've already forgotten her?" Chen Hao looked at Tang Ran.

Tang Ran said coolly, "What? Haven't you?"

Chen Hao took a small embroidery out from his pocket carefully.

Looking at the embroidery, Tang Ran froze.

It was given to Chen Hao by Su Tongxin and it was handmade by her personally. At that time, she learned this from her mother. However, even though it took her a night, the needlework was not quite refined as the lovebirds that she had sewn were crooked.

At that time, Tang Ran burst out laughing after looking at it.

However, Su Tongxin said she would still give this to the man whom she loved the most. And this man would definitely not look down on her needlework.

Even until now, Chen Hao still brought the embroidery with him.

“I will not forget every detail in our lives when we lived together. I will also not forget about Tongxin. I’ve been trying to look for her with a lot of effort. As long as I can find her, I don’t mind going to all corners of the world, or even to the edge of the world! So, you’ve misunderstood me, sis!”
