

Chapter 2501

“Brother York!”

Zina Hamilton seemed quite close to Vince York.

“It’s not that I want to cause trouble, but that shameless bastard, Naoto Takei, drugged me!” exclaimed Zina while biting her lip.

“Carol Parker even took his side!

“Is it wrong for me to ask for justice?”

Carol’s expression frantically changed moments before she bowed.

“Young Lord York, this is all just a misunderstanding.

“To show our sincerity, Young Master Takei and I are willing to apologize and compensate for her losses but the lady even tried to castrate Young Master Takei using her family’s influence!

“You should know that this is such a cruel way to treat a man, Young Lord York!

“That’s why I...”

“Alright. Both of you, shut up.”

Vince waved his hand while emanating his pressuring aura with a calm look on his face.

“Someone already informed me what happened.

“Both you and Naoto are in the wrong, Carol.

“If you taint Zina’s innocence, you’ll incite war between the three families and cause Hong Kong and Las Vegas to be in deep chaos.

“Whether you’re from the Briewood Gang or the Shinkage Way, no matter what background you have or what forces stand behind you, you’ll still have to take responsibility for what’s happened!

“But it’s lucky that Zina is unharmed. If Carol knew who Zina was, she wouldn't do something like that either!

“We're all families from Hong Kong and Las Vegas. We're all people from the same boat here! Why cause a big uproar for such a trivial thing?”

“After all, it's better to make friends than enemies!”

“That's why, Zina, you shouldn't make such a big fuss about it either! I'll handle the situation for you!”

“Naoto will publicly apologize and hand over fifteen million dollars to the Hamiltons as compensation.”

“Carol will transfer the bar under Zina's name!”

“As for Kamishita, who drugged Zina, he'll be sent to the Imperial Prison and locked behind bars for as long as the sentence demands it!”

“Do we have a problem?”

Vince calmly glanced at both sides. Even though he seemed like he was asking for opinions, everyone knew that Vince had the final say.

If anyone dared to defy his will, they would die without question.

From another perspective, Vince’s way of handling the situation was quite commendable. Not only did he give both sides a fair statement and a reasonable excuse to step down from the matter, but he also stopped both sides from going against each other.

It was pretty evident that Vince had the ability to turn things the way he wanted them to be.

Carol and Naoto looked at each other. They knew that they had to step down, whether they liked it or not.

If they did not, they would be disrespecting Vince. The consequences of that would be much worse than drugging Zina.

Without a second thought, Carol respectfully replied, "Since Young Lord York is handling the situation, I'll do as you say."

Naoto chuckled lightly.

"I'll follow your orders as well."

Fifteen million dollars seemed like a lot, but it was nothing for the Shinkage Way.

That was why Naoto did not seem to mind at that moment. At the same time, he realized that Vince secretly sold a favor to the Shinkage Way even though he seemed fair and just.

Of course, the people there knew how to read the atmosphere. There was no need to point out the obvious.

The crowd shifted their gaze toward Zina. If she agreed, the matter would be settled right there and then.

Even God himself would not be able to overturn the decision.

Chapter 2502

Zina Hamilton's face turned pale. She was filled with utter disbelief when looking at Vince York's eyes. She did not expect that the man she had known since childhood would treat her this way.

Zina gritted her teeth angrily.

“I have an issue!

“The bar, fifteen million dollars, or an apology doesn't mean anything to me!

“My family doesn't need anything like this!

“Besides, have you thought about the things that would happen to me if I wasn't lucky enough?!

“I only have one demand, which is to cripple Naoto's every single limb!”

“I want his dick chopped off too!”

Zina almost broke a tooth with how hard she was gritting her teeth then.

The look on her face was enough to make the men around feel a draft under their pants.

“Zina!”

Vince frowned slightly.

“Are you not going to respect even my wishes?!”

“Besides, this isn’t a place for you to act rashly!”

“Even if Naoto is wrong, he shouldn’t be punished this way!”

“Have you thought of the consequences of him being castrated?!”

“I’m helping the Hamilton family mediate the situation here. How can you not see that?”

Zina’s eyes were turning red.

“I don't want you to help! I want you to bring me justice!”

“In here, my words are justice,” Vince coldly exclaimed.

He then looked toward Zummo and the others.

“From now on, none of you are allowed to take action,” he exclaimed.

“If even one of you decides to go as you please, I'll consider the Hamilton family to be enemies of the Yorks from Hong Kong!”

“You should know full well of the consequences!”

“Zina's just a little girl. She doesn't know what she's getting herself into. You people on the other hand should be able to know this after being under Fabian for such a long time.”

“If you go against the Yorks from Hong Kong, you'll suffer dire consequences!”

Zummo and the others had ugly expressions on their faces after hearing those words.

The Yorks from Hong Kong had complete authority over both Hong Kong and Las Vegas. Even though the Hamilton family were considered kings of Las Vegas, they were still inferior compared to them.

Like Vince said: it was fine that Zina didn't know the consequences at hand, but the others had to know.

Without Fabian's permission, nobody dared to take action.

Carol and Naoto smiled lightly after seeing the sight.

“How did you turn out this way, Vince?!”

“Not only did I regard you as an elder brother, but you were also my hero!

“You said that you’d protect me when we were little!

“Did you forget what you said already?!”

Vince sighed while looking at Zina.

“I treat you as my little sister, Zina. That’s why I’m here handling the situation for you!”

“I won’t let your impulse ruin your entire family’s future!”

“You’re still young. You don’t know what the Shinkage Way represents! You won’t realize that your recklessness just might destroy your family!”

“Even if you don’t understand, I have to, as your elder!”

Vince tried his hardest to convince Zina with careful choices in his words.

Of course, nobody understood what he was really thinking.

“You! You’re just trash!”

Zina exploded in fury as she pointed at Vince.

Chapter 2503

“Ever since we were little, you told me that you were going to make the Yorks from Hong Kong the top hidden family out of the five when we just met!

“You said that you were going to become the only top talent of this generation!

“You were going to rise to the peak and defeat every enemy in your path!

“And after you grow up, you’d dominate the younger generation of Hong Kong and Las Vegas and steal the limelight!

“I always regarded you as my elder brother—my hero!

“But you won’t even stand up for me when I’m being taken advantage of by some Islander!

“You even let them threaten me as they please!

“Why did I even see you as my hero when I was a kid?!

“You’re not my brother, Vince! You’re just a poser!

“You only take advantage of the weak, and hide away like a wuss when you bump into some Islanders!

“You embarrass me!

“People still call you the legendary Head Coach when you look like this?!

“Piss off!”

Zina was as disappointed as when she admired Vince ever since she was a child.

She thought that Vince would bring her justice, but she never realized that she was just some nobody to him.

Vince had even used Zina as a bargaining chip to gain the Shinkage Way's favor.

Zina fully understood then that Vince from back then was just a sham—a stupid joke.

Slap!

Vince slapped Zina's face nonchalantly.

Zina stumbled backward with her face completely swollen.

“For the sake of our relationship, I'll pretend that I didn't hear anything you said.”

“But if I hear something similar one more time, believe me, I'll destroy your entire family myself.”

Vince's expression was as cold as ice. He felt his reputation had been tarnished after Zina kept provoking him.

If Zina weren't Fabian's beloved daughter and still had uses out of her, Vince would've given her away to gain favor.

Zina covered her face while tears rolled down her face.

"You hit me even though I'm the victim?"

"You should know that if anyone else said something like this, they would be dead by now," Vince exclaimed.

"I've treated you so well. Can't you see that?"

Carol and the others were delighted after seeing Zina slapped in the face.

Naoto was filled with pride after seeing the number one young lord of Hong Kong and Las Vegas being this respectful toward him.

At the same time, he sized up Zina with a profound look on his face.

Vince couldn't be bothered with the chatter any longer. He glanced at Carol and the others before coldly exclaiming, "Apologize and pay up."

"We're ending this tonight."

"I said so!"

"Even God himself has to abide by my word."

Despite his stern tone, Vince's face was emotionless.

Naoto shrugged and took a step forward to squint at Zina.

"I'm sorry for being rude, Ms. Hamilton!"

"The money will be transferred to your family's bank account tomorrow. I'll call you about it myself."

"Of course, to thank Sir York's work here, I'll give him fifteen million dollars as well to show my sincerity.”

Naoto smiled warmly. Since Vince was making an effort, he would return the favor.

Chapter 2504

Vince glanced at Naoto and the others calmly.

Fifteen million dollars was just a number to him.

It wasn't a lot of money, and he wasn't particularly interested in it either...

But he admired Naoto's attitude.

He knew how to repay his favors. For Vince, this was someone worth being allies with.

Besides, as someone from one of Six Schools of Martial Arts in the Island Nations, Naoto was quite the capable person. This was the main reason why Vince was willing to sell him the favor.

That was why Vince didn't reject his money. He considered it as a bridge between the two's friendship.

Vince wasn't stupid either. After glancing at Naoto filled with interest, he asked, "Since you're being so generous, I'm sure you must have other demands."

"I heard that Country H values etiquette highly. I see it now."

Naoto had a charming expression on his face.

"Don't you worry, Sir York. I won't make it too hard for you."

"My term is simple: leave this man here for me."

"After all, I need him to give me a fair statement for beating my men up!"

"If I don't, this bastard will start thinking that he's somebody!"

Naoto glared at Harvey.

At the same time, he smiled at Zina meaningfully.

He believed that Zina would be his to control if he took Harvey down.

“No!”

Zina came to her senses and walked in front of Harvey.

“You’re actually shameless, Naoto!” she screamed furiously.

“If you lay a finger on him, I’ll fight you to the death!”

Zina was shocked that Naoto even demanded something like this.

Vince calmly shifted his gaze toward Harvey. A hint of surprise flashed in his eyes, as if he didn’t expect Harvey to be here as well.

The two had never met before, but Vince had already seen hundreds upon thousands of pictures of Harvey.

Vince could immediately recognize Harvey even if he turned to dust.

He would've killed off Harvey by then if he had the chance.

Vince's eyes lit up after seeing Zina being so close to Harvey.

He had lost the Dragon Palace's branch. He was not going to lose the Hamilton family.

“You can escape from your own misfortune...”

“But you can't escape from your own sins!”

Vince sighed without showing any emotion. He pretended to not know who Harvey was then.

He nodded at Naoto, then calmly said, “Send the money to me tomorrow.”

“You people, take Zina and get back to Las Vegas right now!”

Zummo and the others felt horrible, but they knew what Vince was capable of. They could only do as Vince said and leave as soon as possible.

Zina’s face had lost all color then.

“You’re a coward, Vince!

“From today onward, we’re strangers!

“Listen to me, people from the Hamilton family! Protect Sir York at all costs!

“He’s our savior! Even my father will protect him no matter what!

“Make sure nothing happens to him!”

Zina was terribly anxious then.

She wanted to strangle Harvey to death before, but then she changed her mind completely. If anything were to happen to Harvey, she wouldn’t t have the will to live either.

Zina's attitude toward Harvey made Vince seem a little more distant. He narrowed his eyes at Harvey before stepping outside.
