

Chapter 2595

Harvey walked toward Murphy and gave the latter a tap on the face before pouring the entire cup of Black Tea on his head.

“Aaaaaaaagh!”

Murphy instinctively screamed in pain.

At this very moment, his entire body was shaking profusely.

They used violence when others spoke reason.

They spoke reason when others used violence.

No matter what, they would stop at nothing to trample on others and take advantage of the situation. This was the way of rich playboys.

But Murphy never thought that he would run into someone way more powerful than him.

That man was miles better at speaking reason...

And he had better fighting skills as well.

A sense of dread spread in Murphy's heart.

But as a lackey of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, Murphy had his own pride.

He would rather be trampled by the westerners than anybody from Country H!

He was content being a servant for them, but he would never admit to being a man from Country
H!

“This is violence, Harvey! This is proof!”

Murphy gritted his teeth and pointed at the spilled tea on his head.

“You're dead, I tell you!”

Harvey flashed him a confused expression.

“Is that all I have to do for you to say I’m violent?”

He then swung his backhand across Murphy’s face once more.

Slap!

“What’s this, then?!”

Slap!

“This doesn’t matter too, right?!”

Slap!

“What? Do you want me to take responsibility for slapping you in the face?!”

Slap!

“As a man from Country H, I don’t care if you shamelessly cling onto those from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. But if you’re going to show off in front of me, then you're definitely in the wrong!"

Slap!

"Us people from Country H have been fighting for so many years, to the point where we're on top of the world. Not only you didn't take pride in it, but you're also ashamed of your own country! If you're this unsatisfied, just move out already!"

Slap!

"Blood of this country flows in your body while you carry the name of our people, but here you are, nagging about someone else's roots!"

"If you're that interested in another country, then get out of here right now!"

"I do want to see if filth like you can hold your ground after losing the country's protection!"

When Harvey was finally done talking, he sent Murphy flying with a kick.

“Aaaaaagh!”

Murphy clutched his injured stomach, wailing in pain.

“You’re dead, Harvey! I have the green card for The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets! You and Country H will pay for treating me this way!” he yelled furiously, refusing to back down.

“The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets will chase you down!”

Bang!

In response to Murphy’s unending barking, Harvey took a step forward and kicked Murphy once again. Blood gushed out of Murphy’s mouth and he collapsed to the ground, trembling in agony, sapped out of his strength to the point he couldn't crawl back up.

“Go on! Show me how your masters will make me pay!”

“Are you planning to sue me in the International Court? Or are you going to criticize me in the media?”

“I'm waiting.”

“You f*cker! You're dead, Harvey!”

Sharon was heartbroken to see Murphy in such a sorry state.

“Murphy is my darling, and I am a royal from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!” she screeched at the top of her lungs.

“People from Hong Kong's upper social circle used to be dogs of my country!”

“If you go against me, you go against the entire upper social circle!”

“Just you wait!”

Sharon was boiling with anger. She couldn't accept that a mere man from Country H was acting this superior in front of her.

Chapter 2596

“The entire upper social circle here are your dogs, you say?”

“How scary!”

Harvey nudged at himself with his thumb.

“Call one of them here, then! See if you can scare me!”

“If one isn’t enough, call a few more! Get everyone that you think will scare me here!”

Harvey walked forward and slapped Sharon roughly, sending her to the ground.

“I deal with at least ten people like them every single month!”

“Call them here right now! I’ll deal with them right now. Don’t waste my time.”

“Aaaaagh!”

Sharon trembled on the ground, covering her increasingly swollen face. She swore that she would kill Harvey that day, no matter what.

If she didn't, she would feel sorry for herself.

Right as Harvey threw a phone for Sharon, sounds of cars revving could be heard.

Many Toyota Prados appeared from afar and parked neatly in front of the garden villa.

Several men in robes walked out of the cars, their faces scornful.

After seeing these people, Edwin and Leslie's expressions slightly changed.

They recognized these newcomers. They were disciples of Hong Kong and Las Vegas's Longmen branch!

Harvey naturally knew who these people were as well. He crossed his arms, narrowing his eyes at them.

A tall and strong elderly man with a square-shaped face walked out of the car. He resembled a gorilla, and was clad in a tunic suit.

He looked to be full of vigor despite his advanced age. Every step that he took was powerful and he carried a fearsome aura.

Murphy instinctively raised his head.

“Branch Leader Johnson!” he exclaimed after seeing that man, delighted.

Leslie’s expression changed slightly before she turned to call Toby out.

The man who had just arrived was none other than Hong Kong and Las Vegas’s Longmen branch leader, Morgan Johnson.

Leslie was sure that Harvey would be no match for this man.

True, they were both Longmen's branch leaders. But...

Morgan had a deep background in both Hong Kong and Las Vegas, with almost eighty thousand disciples working under him. He obviously had quite the immense power.

Even the Briewood and the Nanyang Gang didn't dare take him lightly.

Since Morgan was quite discreet and rarely showed up in public, nobody knew who he was.

Those who do know were aware that he had a good relationship with the Elder Group.

Since he had shown up, he was most likely lending a hand to the Law Enforcement of Longmen so they could reclaim their dignity.

Murphy naturally knew who Morgan was. He stumbled up from the ground, hurrying to greet Morgan.

“Branch Leader Johnson! That Harvey York is just too arrogant! Not only did he beat me up, he also got Ms. Pearl hurt as well!”

Sharon stood up with a prideful expression.

“My family was the one that got you this far in the first place, Morgan!”

“You better settle the score for us! If not, I’ll report this to The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

Sharon then glared at Harvey with a cold expression.

“Well, what are you waiting for?! Kneel and apologize!”

“Are you trying to infuriate Branch Leader

Johnson?!”

Morgan, however, ignored the two completely. Instead, he shifted his gaze toward Harvey.

Right when Edwin and Leslie were trembling on the inside, racking up their brains for ways to stop Morgan, the man himself took a step forward and smiled as he brought out a friendly hand.

“Oh, Branch Leader York. Have you ever considered my feelings? You have yet to drop by at my place despite having stayed in Hong Kong for so long!”

Chapter 2597

‘His feelings?!’

Morgan’s words sounded like he was questioning Harvey. In reality, he was just giving Harvey a friendly greeting.

However, those simple words were enough to silence the entire garden villa.

Murphy, Sharon, and the others froze instantly.

Dumfounded, they took to staring numbly at Harvey. They were in utter disbelief.

Even though Morgan was a discreet man, his arrogance was still very well-known.

How could he be that respectful toward a mere kept man?

He wouldn’t even pay his respects toward Hong Kong’s first-in-command!

The Briewood Gang didn't pique his interests, either.

If Murphy and Sharon weren't from distinguished families, they wouldn't even have the right to meet him...

Yet here he was, acting so respectfully to Harvey ....

Edwin and Leslie didn't know what was going on. They too were just as shocked.

Harvey narrowed his eyes at Morgan before giving the man a calm smile.

"Branch Leader Johnson. This is our first time meeting each other, right?"

"That's true, but the master of Longmen has already told me about you the last time he came here."

"He said that Longmen should be united against foreign enemies. I resonate with this statement.”

Harvey replied with a faint smile.

It had been a while since the Dragon Palace’s incident. Yet, Morgan only showed up after Harvey disrespected Longmen’s Law Enforcement.

What was the meaning of this?

Did Morgan come to cling onto Harvey after realizing that Harvey had the strength to suppress Longmen’s Law Enforcement?

For courtesy’s sake, Harvey simply smiled and replied, “You’re right about that.”

“Longmen should be united against our enemies.”

“I should be inviting you to a banquet right now ...”

“Unfortunately, I have some other matters to attend to.”

“Pardon me, Branch Leader Johnson.”

Murphy and Sharon’s eyes twitched frantically after hearing those words. They badly wanted to scream at Harvey!

When they saw Morgan appearing, they were certain their savior had appeared. They were fully expecting to see Harvey getting crushed.

But Harvey managed to turn Morgan against them with just a few words!

Morgan smiled warmly as he listened to Harvey’s reply.

“Hong Kong and Las Vegas are my territories, Branch Leader York. Your problem is my problem.”

“I’ll deal with it for you right now. I’ll treat you to a meal later.”

Morgan turned around calmly. Upon seeing Murphy and Sharon, his eyes narrowed into a harsh glare.

“You said that I only got this far because of your family?”

“You even got Branch Leader York furious...!”

Murphy’s eyes twitched at Morgan’s harsh reprimands.

“Please just forget about it! Do it for Elmer, my grandfather!”

Murphy was filled with resentment. He looked down on the men of Country H, but he knew full well how powerful a local man like Morgan was.

If Murphy enraged Morgan, he would be dead.

Even if he survived, he would probably end up crippled.

The Evans family didn't even have the right to challenge the branch leader of Hong Kong and Las Vegas's Longmen branch, either.

Even if they did, they wouldn't go against such a powerful man for someone's grandson anyway.

“A misunderstanding, you say?”

“You come all the way here early in the morning to cause trouble in Branch Leader York's territory. You even hurt the bodyguards here!”

“This is the Clarke family's residence!”

“Do you not care about the law at all?!”

Chapter 2598

“Branch Leader Johnson, they also said that you’re just a dog for them,” Harvey added calmly.

“They were planning to use you against me, you see.”

Murphy’s eyes twitched once more. He wanted nothing more than to strangle Harvey!

But at this moment, he had no other choice.

“It’s a misunderstanding, Branch Leader Johnson!”

“We got hasty after losing the Head Coach’s broken sword. That’s why we were spouting nonsense!”

“Please don’t mind us. We...”

Slap!

Morgan slapped Murphy to the ground, not bothered to wait for Murphy to finish. Then, he wiped his hand with an elegant handkerchief.

“Get these lawless criminals out of here. Remember to break their limbs.”

Morgan couldn't care less about Murphy's apology.

He knew that it was useless to a ruthless man like Harvey.

After all, Harvey was the man that the master of Longmen looked up to. Morgan could sense that Harvey was being treated as the successor of Longmen.

If that was the case, Morgan wouldn't mind doing Harvey a few favors.

It would be impossible for him to fight against the Longmen's Law Enforcement...

But it would be a huge bargain for him to step on a bunch of nobodies for Harvey.

At Morgan's order, several tall and strong Longmen disciples walked forward, ready to drag Murphy away.

“You have no right to hurt him, Morgan!”

Sharon stepped in front of Murphy and instantly flashed her green card.

“You barbarians! Look here! He's one of us!”

“If you lay a finger on him, you're going against me along with The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!”

Slap!

Morgan instantly slapped Sharon to the ground right after she was done talking.

“Break her limbs as well!” he ordered.

“Right. She said that I’m just her dog, didn’t she?”

“Since she talks so big, cut her tongue off as well!”

...

An hour later, a few ambulances arrived at the garden villa and took Murphy and Sharon away.

These people would most likely have to be living in a hospital for at least half a year. Nobody knew when they would be discharged at all...

Edwin called a few people from the Clarke family to clean up the entrance of the garden villa.

Yoana arrived on the scene along with a few experts of the Dragon Palace to protect the Clarke family.

Judging from her words, if anyone were to act recklessly, they would be going against the Dragon Palace.

There would be dire consequences for enraging the Dragon Palace.

After Harvey was done with the business here, he wasted no time and rode in Morgan's car to have a meal with Morgan.

Since Morgan was being this courteous, it would be inappropriate if Harvey didn't reciprocate those feelings.

While Harvey was heading to a banquet with Morgan, an inconspicuous Toyota Alphard in a hidden location revved up slowly.

Inside the car, Kaitlyn squinted at the convoy not far away. There was a horrible expression on her face.

“Your plan failed again, Young Lord York.”

“How is this bastard so lucky?!”

“He provoked this many people already! He even embarrassed the Maiden herself, but he’s still in one piece!”

“Even Murphy and the princess of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets got completely beat up!”

“Morgan didn’t even show a hint of respect toward Murphy!”

“What’s going on here?!”

“What the hell is Morgan trying to do?!”
