

Chapter 2561

Elmer Evans struggled back up while catching his breath before glaring at Harvey York and Leslie Clarke.

“Just you wait, Leslie! You’ll regret this decision!” exclaimed Elmer while gritting his teeth.

He then pointed toward the sky.

“I’ll bring Hong Kong’s first-in-command down and make you regret everything you’ve done today!

“I am the previous governor here! I have the power!

“When I report this to the royalty of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, you’ll be finished!”

Leslie chuckled without giving a reply.

“The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

“We’ll be finished, you say?”

Harvey slowly walked toward Elmer while blatantly showing a playful look on his face.

“Give them a call then. Ask them if they dare to meddle in our affairs here!

“We, the people from Country H, are standing on top of the world, yet here you are living in their shadows!

“You’re telling me that people like you can even become governors?”

“What a joke!

“You’re just someone else’s dog from start to finish!”

Harvey swung his feet forward after he was done talking.

Elmer had quick reflexes since he was trained in boxing. The moment Harvey attacked, he used all his might to block it.

But before he could even raise his hands, he felt a sharp pain in his stomach before being sent flying with a chair. A loud crack could be heard when he slammed to the ground at that moment.

“Aaaaaaagh!”

Wails of pain could be heard after Elmer fell on his back, as if he was a tortoise that could not flip back up. It was truly a pitiful sight.

“Call them then! Do it now!”

“See if they dare to save you.”

Harvey calmly chuckled.

“I do want to see what sort of power you really have!”

Carrie and the others were boiling with anger.

‘This guy is shameless! He took the chance to insult the well-respected former governor of Hong Kong after Leslie injured him?!’

‘This is just disrespectful!’

“Harvey!”

Elmer, struggling back to his feet earlier, stood up before furiously pointing toward Harvey.

“How dare you hit me?!”

Slap!

Harvey swung his backhand across Elmer’s face, sending him back down to the ground.

Elmer’s face slammed right onto the ground in the next moment. His wretched face was completely covered in dust at the moment.

At the same time, he could only feel fear and despair in his heart along with unbridled rage.

He believed that he himself was an expert, but he could not even catch Harvey's movements.

“You're arrogant, Harvey! You're insane!”

Elmer covered his face.

“Not only did you commit murder, you even disrespected your elders!”

“I'll make sure that you're taken care of!”

“The government of Hong Kong will surely give me a fair statement about this!”

“I disrespect my elders?”

Harvey walked up and patted Elmer on his cheeks.

“You think you're one of them just because you have a name and dyed your hair to look like them?

“Arrogant? Insane? Do you not realize that nobody in this world even dares to look down on us nowadays?”

“As Longmen’s Mordu branch leader, my identity is immensely powerful.

“You’re not even a governor anymore. It’s already bad enough that you’re meddling in the Longmen’s business and smashing up the Clarke family’s property for no reason, or perhaps you’re pretending to be someone you’re not in front of me...”

“But who gave you the prerogative to use some outside force to constantly show off here?”

Chapter 2562

“Do you feel superior just because you work for some outsider?”

“Or do you think that everyone else is just like you, kneeling to their sight without any hesitation?”

Slap!

Harvey York was getting a lot more furious the more he kept talking. He swung his backhand across Elmer Evans' face, sending him flying once again.

Elmer's face was completely swollen. After crawling back up sluggishly, he instinctively retreated a few steps back with a horrible expression after seeing Harvey walking forward toward him.

“I'm giving you one chance to apologize. Don't even think of getting out of this place alive if you don't.

“I guarantee you that you and Haider Bauer will be six feet under on the same day next year.”

“You...”

Elmer was trembling with anger. He wanted to say something, but after looking at Harvey's gaze and feeling his swollen face, he swallowed down every single word that was on the tip of his tongue.

It was said that authority, power, money, and connections are everything nowadays...

But in a place like this, fighting skill was the deciding factor.

Haider was utterly trampled.

And Elmer was slapped down.

He knew full well that he would not have much impact on the situation since he had always relied on the people from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

In this scenario, there was no way he could even challenge Harvey.

Elmer took a deep breath and struggled to look into Harvey's eyes.

"I'm sorry."

Slap!

"Is that how you apologize?!"

Slap!

"Did your masters not tell you how to do this properly?!"

Slap!

"Don't you know that you need to kneel to show respect?!"

Harvey swung his palm across Elmer's face a couple more times, making him stagger backward.

His face was completely twisted. His expression filled with rage at that very second.

He wanted to fight back, but he would not even dare. He could only bite his lip before slamming his knees to the ground.

“I'm sorry, Sir York. This is all my fault.”

For someone like Elmer, he never thought it was shameful to kneel.

In his mind, he would just kneel in the face of a foreign power. Harvey definitely did not have the right to make him do such action.

“Even though a spineless coward like you shows no sincerity when kneeling, I am a man of my word.”

Harvey wiped his fingers with a tissue while showing an indifferent expression.

“Get out of here. Next time you want to cause me trouble, you better bring your foreign masters here. We shall see if they dare challenge me.

“You alone have no right to provoke me.”

Blood almost spurted out of Elmer’s mouth after hearing those words. He could only stumble his way back up at this point.

Haider came back to his senses at this moment. His head was covered with blood, while his nose was almost split open.

He almost broke his own tooth gritting while glaring at Harvey, full of rage and resentment.

Even so, Haider knew his limits. There was no way he would be able to fight Harvey right there and then.

He just gritted his teeth and turned around.

“Let’s go!” he furiously screamed.

“Did I say that you can leave?”

Harvey made a gesture before dozens of elites from the Clarke family blocked the path.

Harvey then pointed at the shattered chairs and coffee tables on the ground.

“A chair costs fifteen million dollars each. A coffee table costs thirty million each.

“I can’t be bothered to count each one, so let’s just say that it’s all a hundred and fifty million dollars in total.

“You can only leave after you pay up!

“If not, you can sit here till you die.”

“Bastard!”

Haider turned around before coughing up blood.

He had been in the Law Enforcement of Longmen for many years, but it was his first time seeing someone more domineering than him.

Chapter 2563

After a moment, Haider Bauer, Elmer Evans, and the others left while filled with resentment.

Leslie Clarke sighed while holding the hundred and fifty million check.

“This meeting was an absolute failure, Sir York.

“I thought you’d be able to bury the hatchet with them!

“But not only did you thoroughly disrespect them, you even sucked their money dry!

“Those two old men made dozens of calls before getting their hands on this much money!”

Leslie felt completely speechless.

The two of them came to show off power, yet they did not even have a single dollar in their pocket at this moment.

They even had to borrow all this money from wherever and whomever they could!

Harvey York forcing them to pay up was a damage way worse than just disrespecting them.

It was equal to robbing them of their retirement savings at this point.

This meant that there would be no way to make peace with them in the future.

“No worries. Even if we don’t go against each other completely, they’ll still hate me to the core one way or another.

“After all, to their knowledge, I should’ve been dead by now.”

Harvey sat down on a chair while grabbing some tea before checking his phone about information that George had sent previously.

“According to my info, Haider doesn’t have a lot of talents, but he does like to socialize,” said Harvey while swiping through his phone.

“He already contacted the Islanders in secret.

“Even without Carrie Kennedy’s invitation, he would’ve come here to give his foreign friends a fair statement anyway.

“As for Elmer, he’s just a servant for The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets way back during the colonial era.

“People like him are just born servants. He already sees his masters as Gods. His fellow countrymen mean nothing to him.

“Even if you give him a chance and respect, he wouldn’t know when to quit.

“In any case, unless I hand over the badge and do as they say...

“They’ll chase me down to the ends of the earth.”

Harvey then took another sip of his tea.

“Since they won’t stop coming after me, it’s fortunate enough that they’re only losing a hundred and fifty million dollars,” he calmly said.

“If it weren’t for so many eyes here, I would’ve just ended their lives on the spot.”

Harvey’s tone was calm yet filled with murderous intent.

Naturally, in his eyes, people who conspired with foreign power to hurt their own country should just be damned to Hell.

Leslie was shocked by Harvey’s decisiveness, but she smiled after giving some thought to the situation.

“As expected from you to do things that even capable people can't, Sir York.

“But since you let go of those two after disrespecting them, you must have another plan, right?”

Harvey just shrugged.

“Tell me about it,” he calmly said.

“No matter what, there's solid proof that Vince York is behind the incident.

“But since he's so cautious, there's no way he would leave evidence or leverage onto someone else.

“That's why, even if those two were to be arrested, they wouldn't be able to testify against Vince either way.

“If so, it'd be better if they just pay you the money.

“This way, not only will they hate you to the core

“They’ll be discontent with Vince’s plans as well.

“And since Vince is trying to rise to power, judging from his meticulous way of doing things, he wouldn’t offend the two highly respected old men this early!”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2564

“If that’s the case, Vince York will surely change up his strategies after they complain to him about it!

“And if Vince tries to play a long game because he thinks you’re too tough to deal with, the old dogs will think that he’s not even trying to seek justice for them.

“With that, judging from the well-respected reputation that the two have, they might have a chance to sway Vince’s forces and put a dent in his people’s hearts.

“If Vince decides to take action because of today’s incident, he’ll surely show the cracks in his plans!

“You might even have the chance to deal with him completely.

“Safe to say that you were already planning for this right when you walked inside this building.

“This is what it means to win a battle without even being in person...”

Leslie Clarke then handed over the check to Harvey York as she was speaking.

She thought that Harvey was escalating the situation quite a bit and acting too reckless for his own good...

But after receiving Toby Clarke's pointers through a text, Leslie was shocked.

Harvey's methods seemed unorthodox, but they were all carefully planned. A simple strategy like this was enough to hit Vince right where it hurts the most.

Even though Harvey had not fought against Vince yet, their psychological warfare was considered to be extremely dangerous if anyone were to tread carelessly.

And judging from the situation, Vince had not gained any advantage over Harvey just yet.

This made Leslie realize why her father would fully support a man without any background in Hong Kong or Las Vegas.

Leslie's heart would throb for him every once in a while. It was a shame...

Tears would form under her eyes while thinking about this. She pitied herself for not meeting this man any sooner.

Harvey glanced at Leslie, full of interest.

He knew that Toby gave her guidance about the situation, but he could tell that she was a brilliant woman for figuring out the plan.

She would surely be an outstanding individual if she had more experience under her.

But Harvey did not mention that fact. Instead, he merely showed her a warm smile.

“You’re too kind, Ms. Clarke. I only beat someone up! There wasn’t any plan from the beginning! You’re just flattering me!

“And another thing. You should keep the money.

“I want you to use half of that money to fix this place and thank the people who helped today.

“I’m not a member of the Clarke family, yet they still fought for me. Even though they had responsibilities, I couldn’t just treat them poorly. I’d at least need to show them some value out of them for taking action, right?

“I want you to give the other portion of the money to the people in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

“Don’t just give it to anyone. Give it to people who haven’t picked a side and also the ones with us. I need your help arranging that for me.

“After all, connections aren’t just maintained through word of speech nowadays.

“And I’ll tell you why. It’s to lessen ignorant old fools like them in the future.

“Even though I’d have to deal with tens of these people every single month...

“I’d be really exhausted if there are too many of them to deal with, right?”

Leslie wanted to decline, but after hearing Harvey’s reasoning, she smiled and kept the check to herself.

“I understand. I’ll handle this properly.

“Some people might not help, but for us, it’d be better if they don’t get involved after getting the incentive.”
