

Chapter 2551

Harvey York realized that it was almost six o'clock in the evening after looking at his phone.

Since he was resting, his phone was set to silent mode.

Leslie Clarke called around a dozen times, but Harvey did not pick up at all. She might have gotten into trouble.

That said, Leslie should be able to find where Harvey was.

It would be extremely embarrassing if Leslie could not even find a single person given her status and power.

Harvey put on a change of clothes before opening the door.

Leslie was seen wearing a short black Chanel dress in front of Harvey.

Even though she had short hair, the black dress still brought out her sexy and exotic aura.

Even Harvey could not help but take another glance with a look of approval.

“I was about to call for room service, Ms. Clarke. You should come and have a meal with me.”

Harvey ordered some food without reservation. After the food was brought over, he grabbed a bite while he asked, “What happened?”

After being in dead silence for a while, Leslie replied, “Many things happened while you’ve been sleeping the entire day, Sir York.

“People from Longmen’s law enforcement came this morning led by the vice head.

“Since Hong Kong’s status is quite special, the vice head sent a letter to the Hong Kong Police Station this afternoon, asking us to arrange a meeting with you.”

Harvey chuckled in full interest.

“I’m one of Longmen’s branch leaders. They didn’t contact me directly, yet they came for your family?”

“That’s interesting!

“Are they trying to tell you which side to stand with?”

Leslie sighed.

“The first-in-command of Dragon Palace, Longmen, Dragon Guard, Dragon Cell and the other cornerstones are not treating this matter lightly.

“Judging from this aspect, the Law Enforcement of Longmen must be doing this so we’ll stay out of the situation completely.

“To them, this letter is the will of the entirety of Longmen.”

“The will of Longmen, you say?”

Harvey coldly chuckled before giving Samuel Bauer a call.

A busy tone could be heard from the other side. There was no signal.

After seeing what Harvey did, Leslie then said quietly, “They told me to send word that you shouldn’t try to get the master of Longmen to support you and that he had retreated to Flutwell!”

“No wonder.”

Harvey put down the phone.

“They’re trying to kill me here!”

“So, what else did they say?”

“They want to meet you formally, but judging from their attitude, they must be coming for you because of Carrie Kennedy’s incident.

“The Law Enforcement of Longmen represents the will of the Elder Group, Sir York. Even though you’re a branch leader of Longmen, you shouldn’t be too stubborn about this.

“Since they want to meet you, why don’t you oblige and see what they’re up to yourself?

“On one hand, you can shed light on where they stand. On the other hand, we can also decide where we stand.

“We’ll make peace if we can. If not, we can also take the fight to them.

“If we figure out their stance, there won’t be any worries if someone decides to start a fight.”

As the messenger, Leslie was calmly analyzing the situation for Harvey.

Harvey smiled after hearing those words before looking at the Rolex on his wrist.

“Interesting.

“If that’s the case, you should give them a call. Inform them that I’ll meet them.

“I do want to see what the Law Enforcement of Longmen is up to.

“Is it still not enough after they were disrespected by me twice?”

Chapter 2552

Eight o'clock at night, in an office building at the outer ring of Hong Kong.

This place was the Clarke family's property. The annual rent of this place was already terrifying.

Other than that, there was a hanging garden on top of the building. The garden was evergreen. It was truly an extraordinary sight.

This was the place where the Clarke family put in most of their strength. Because of the temporary meeting, Leslie Clarke was assigned here at the moment.

In that case, Leslie would have the confidence to handle things smoothly if anyone were to try anything or cause a huge ruckus on the spot.

After Harvey York reached the office building in a van labeled 00001, he calmly looked at his surroundings.

Even though it was already nighttime, the place was still bustling full of people. Many white-collar workers could be seen walking around the streets.

Harvey squinted for a while.

“This is a really good spot! Truly a good place to earn a fortune!”

“You’re too kind, Sir York. This is just a humble office building. The Clarke family solely rely on this to survive.”

Leslie’s black dress had captivated countless men with just simple gestures from her.

Their faces were bright red, looking as if they wanted to pounce right at her at that moment.

A shame that the people beside her immediately squashed the thoughts of those men.

Leslie respectfully opened the door for Harvey and then spoke welcomingly, “Please come in. I already asked for Carrie Kennedy and the others here. It’s currently eight o’clock in the evening. It’ll be fine if we run a little late. There’s no rush anyway.

“If you’re interested, we can even go shopping around the duty-free shops downstairs.”

Leslie casually wrapped herself around Harvey’s arm like a little girl before heading inside the office building.

The people from the Clarke family were all utterly shocked.

‘When did M’lady become this gentle and respectful?’

“There’s no need for that. I don’t like shopping anyway,” replied Harvey indifferently.

While heading toward the office building, he asked curiously, “Carrie’s here too? She’s not scared to show up in front of me?”

“Why would she be scared?”

Leslie coldly scoffed.

“While you’ve been resting, she’s been doing quite a lot using the Longmen’s name.

“I heard that she even had an audience with Vince York before bringing the vice head of Longmen’s law enforcement into this.

“As for the other things she’s prepared, I’m afraid we’ll just have to wait and see.”

“She met Vince, then brought the vice head into this?”

Harvey smiled after hearing those words.

“Looks like Young Lord York really wants me dead here!

“If he finds a chance, he’ll surely use everything he’s got to drive me into a corner!”

Leslie frowned after hearing Harvey’s words.

“Sir York, we’ll be in big trouble if Vince is involved in this matter!

“He’s a meticulous man. He wouldn’t get himself involved if he wasn’t a hundred percent sure that he would succeed.

“You need to be careful.”

“We’re already here. There’s no point being careful right now,” replied Harvey calmly.

“Tell me about this vice head instead.”

“His name is Haider Bauer. He is a well-known figure in the second generation of the Bauer family. Even though he’s nearing his seventies, he has a very outstanding reputation!

“It’s said that he was good friends with some of the old people from the Yorks of Hong Kong.

“On one hand, he came here to reunite with his old friends. On the other hand, he’s representing the Law Enforcement of Longmen to look for you.”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2553

Harvey York was surprised.

“He’s from the Bauer family?”

Leslie Clarke nodded.

“That’s why we’re in a bit of a bind. Not only is he from the Bauer family, but he’s also in the same generation as the master of Longmen himself. Even the master would need to call this man his big brother,” she said.

Harvey smiled after hearing those words.

“Interesting. So, the vice head of Longmen’s law enforcement is the big brother of the master of Longmen. This is getting a little complicated...

“But Carrie Kennedy’s clearly trying to use the big brother as her tool!

“She knows that I wouldn’t bat an eye to the Law Enforcement of Longmen. If she really wants to make peace, she should just give up.

“But since she’s making Haider Bauer come to Hong Kong, that means she’s using his identity to take me down!

“It’s a shame that Carrie’s just too inexperienced. If people like Haider can suppress me, I would’ve died countless times already.”

Harvey seemed indifferent.

“This lady of the Kennedy family is just a little too short-sighted,” he said calmly.

“The entire Kennedy family isn’t all that great either.

Leslie sighed.

“Theoretically speaking, yes, but you still need to be careful.

“You can look down on Carrie, but Haider made a living in Hong Kong since he was young. He has a lot of connections here.

“Some of the affluent people born in the Bauer family even respect him deeply.

“There’s Hong Kong and Las Vegas’s Longmen branch as well. They’re discreet, but it’s only because of the relationship between Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

“If Haider decides to drop the act and use his forces on both sides against you, it would be extremely troubling.”

“But don’t you worry. No matter what, the Clarke family will stand by you.”

Harvey chuckled while tilting his head.

“Rest assured, Leslie. I have a thick skull!”

After hearing Harvey's words, Leslie could not help but roll her eyes flirtatiously.

Harvey's composure and confidence still made her quite sluggish.

European women were often straightforward when it came to their feelings. Since Leslie was half-European, she would naturally have a similar temperament.

But she knew that Harvey was already married after looking at his documents.

The straightforward and bold woman, Leslie, could not help but sympathize by meeting the right person at the wrong time.

Even someone like Vince York would not be able to compete against a man like this.

It was a shame that fate always had other plans. Leslie had no chance to be with him.

“Sir York! Ms. Clarke!

“Ms. Clarke, Mr. Bauer, and the others have been here for quite a while now. They also brought Mr. Elmer Evans along.”

When Harvey and Leslie got inside the office building, a secretary from the Clarke family swiftly walked over before respectfully reporting the situation.

“They’re all in the hanging garden. Mr. Bauer got really angry after seeing that both of you weren’t there. He already smashed up two golden-silk phoebe wood couches out of rage.

“Another thing. Mr. Evans is upset as well. He said that you two are disrespecting your elders and looking down on a retired governor like him.”

“Elmer’s here as well?”

Leslie was surprised.

“That man was Hong Kong’s first-in-command twenty years ago,” she whispered.

“He previously worked for the royalty of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. He has some skill and talent in his job, more or less.

“After he retired, he stayed in Hong Kong. His connections and influence are terrifying here.”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2554

After hearing those words, Harvey York calmly asked, “He worked for The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

“The eldest princess of their royalty doesn’t even matter to me. Obviously, I couldn’t care less about a subordinate like him taking advantage of his seniority.”

Harvey kept walking after he was done talking.

Soon, the two had arrived at the hanging garden through the dedicated elevator.

The place was nearly six thousand and five hundred square feet, covered in lush plants.

A guest room of about two thousand square feet was located in the middle of the garden. Well-known calligraphy and paintings were hung on the walls, while traditional carved golden-silk phoebe wood furniture was arranged all over the room.

The entire place had an exquisite and ingenious look to it. It was indeed a rare sight.

But at this very moment, the place was a huge mess.

Countless priceless couches and coffee tables were smashed to pieces. Shards of cups could be seen scattered all over as well.

Two elderly men were sitting in the middle of the room.

One of them had a square face with white hair while wearing a suit. He did not seem angry, but an unspeakable pressure could still be felt from him. That man was clearly Haider Bauer himself.

The other person was a western-looking man with sunken eyes, wearing a tuxedo. He seemed quite intoxicated, but his aura was still quite decent.

This man was the retired governor, Elmer Evans, who had worked for The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets.

A dozen people stood right behind them, with Carrie Kennedy leading the group.

They were from the Law Enforcement of Longmen.

All of them acted all high and mighty, as if nobody deserved their attention.

Carrie was particularly arrogant. With Haider's support, she seemed as if she was the king of the world.

“Damn it! Why aren't Harvey and Leslie here yet?!”

After seeing someone walk in again, Elmer threw a fit of rage, thinking it would be another subordinate of the Clarke family.

“Don’t they know who we are?!”

“We waited for more than ten minutes by now!
Who do they think they are?!”

Elmer showed a disdainful expression as if he was the first-in-command of Hong Kong.

“Don’t the people from the Clarke family have rules?!” he coldly exclaimed.

“And that kid! Doesn’t he know his limits?!”

“He knew that I was coming, yet he still came here late?!”

“Who does he think he is?!”

“Tell them to get over here right now!”

Haider was filled with murderous intent.

“Bastards!” exclaimed Haider coldly.

“I’m one of the oldest groups of people in Longmen!

“I come from the Bauer family! Don’t they know what my family represents?!”

“I’ll give them five more minutes! If they don’t show up after that, they’ll end up like this table right here!”

Haider then swung his left hand on the coffee table beside him, slamming it to the ground in pieces.

Obviously, those people were the ones who caused all the damage here.

Harvey walked in front of them while squinting at Haider.

“That’s fifteen million dollars per chair and three hundred million per coffee table.

“Remember to count the stuff you broke so you can pay up later.”

“Who gave you permission to speak like that to the head of Longmen’s law enforcement like that, Harvey?!”

Carrie was infuriated after seeing Harvey’s arrival. She scornfully glared at Harvey then.

Even though Haider was only the vice head of Longmen’s law enforcement, Carrie knew how to please senior people like him. Removing the title of vice was enough to get in Haider’s good graces.

“Do you have a death wish or something?!”

The other young men and women glared at Harvey with murderous intent, as if they were ready to take action at any second.

Chapter 2555

“You can’t be disrespectful toward Sir York, Longmen’s branch leader, Carrie Kennedy,” said Elmer Evans.

He froze over slightly after seeing Harvey York and Leslie Clarke before recognizing their faces.

Even though it was not their first time seeing each other, he had naturally read Harvey’s documents since he was there to support Haider Bauer. At the same time, he knew that the true master had arrived.

Elmer showed a warm smile while looking at Harvey.

“This man is the legendary Branch Leader York. It’s also said that he’s the prince of South Light or something. He’s quite the character!

“A man like him isn’t someone that you mere people from the Law Enforcement of Longmen can challenge!”

It seemed like Elmer was reprimanding Carrie, but he was not trying to blame her either. Elmer was talking with a gloomy tone at this moment.

He pointed out Harvey's identity, but he had no intention of respecting him whatsoever.

Naturally, for him, the title of some prince of South Light or Mordu's Longmen branch leader was nothing to be impressed about.

In a place like Hong Kong, even powerful characters would have to kneel in front of the locals.

After hearing that the person in front was the target, Haider's gaze also fell onto Harvey.

He heard of Carrie's tearful accusations, saw pictures, and also had read the documents, but still, he felt that Harvey was a little too ordinary after seeing him in person.

Both his attire and aura were just too plain.

Compared to Vince York, it was like night and day.

Haider could not believe that this was the man who single-handedly killed the entire Takei family in front of Carrie.

Without a second thought, Haider then spoke calmly, “Hurry and apologize to Branch Leader York, Carrie! If he decides to end your life before the negotiations, an old man like me won’t be able to keep you safe here!

“You’re right. After all, Branch Leader York has always been a fearless man! It’s not impossible for him to murder in front of you!”

Elmer glared at Harvey with a faint smile.

“That’s why, I, Carrie, have to apologize to you,

Branch Leader York.

“I am sorry. Please don’t kill me in front of all these people.

“I’m terrified of dying.”

Her words were filled with a sarcastic tone. Obviously, there was not a hint of sincerity either.

After hearing Carrie’s words, the other disciples of Longmen’s law enforcement started glaring at Harvey.

‘He’s showing off even though he looks like this?’

‘How shameless can he be?’

“If you want to apologize, then you better kneel.”

Harvey walked forward indifferently.

“You know how I work, but I won’t argue with an ignorant child for your own good.

“Next time, kneel before you apologize.”

Harvey then shifted his gaze toward Haider and Elmer.

“As for rude people who only spout nonsense, you’d also have to kneel if you don’t want to die. You understand?” he said calmly.

Harvey was being nonchalant while expressing a different meaning behind his words.

“Kneel and apologize, you say?!”

Elmer chuckled out of anger.

“Who gave you the right to say that, Harvey?!”

Haider showed a cold look on his face.

“What did you say, Kid? Say it one more time if you dare!” exclaimed Haider sternly.

“Let’s leave that aside for now, Elder Bauer. We have important matters to talk about.”

Elmer immediately stopped Haider after seeing him in a fit of rage.

“Focus on the bigger picture. When we’re done with business, we can deal with him soon after.”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2556

Naturally, in Elmer Evans' eyes, with his appearance and Haider Bauer's support...

Judging from Elmer's power and background in Hong Kong and Haider's authority, it would be as easy as squashing an ant if they wanted to kill off Harvey York.

But no matter what, it was imperative that they finish up business first. This was most important.

Leslie Clarke smiled after hearing those words.

"That's true. You two asked us to invite him here. You can't just waste this opportunity by fighting each other, right?"

"How about we talk business first?"

Haider's rage seemed to have quelled a bit after a while.

Then, he squinted at Harvey and pointed at him at that moment.

“You’re lucky, Kid! You better thank Elder Evans and the Clarke family for stopping me...

“If not, I would’ve slapped an arrogant young man like you to death!

“Hundreds of pompous young people like you have died in the hands of my Thunderclap these years!”

Haider then showed his dark right hand with a proud look.

“Alright. Enough showing off!

“I’ll just thank your entire family for taking it easy on me, alright?!”

Harvey was utterly speechless.

“Talk if you have something to say! If not, I’m leaving!”

“I didn’t even have the chance to eat yet! I’m going to buy some snacks after!”

“You!”

The disciples of Longmen’s law enforcement were all boiling in anger.

They’ve seen arrogant people before, but not someone who was this conceited.

He showed no respect toward Haider at all!

“Fine! We’ll talk business!”

Haider held back his rage and gestured with a wave of his hand to stop Carrie and the others before coldly glaring at Harvey.

“I heard that you’ve been using your name as Mordu’s Longmen branch leader to cause a big stir and take advantage of the citizens of Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

“You even got our important guests from the Island Nations, the Takei family killed, didn’t you?!”

“I don’t care what kind of grudge you have against them, but there’s already a letter requesting Longmen to give a fair statement about this incident!”

Haider showed a fierce expression.

“I command you to hand over your Branch Leader Badge, then apologize to the Shinkage Way and plead guilty!”

“Stop causing the Longmen any more trouble!”

“Nonsense. All of them committed Seppuku. Truly admirable courage,” replied Harvey calmly.

“If you don’t believe me, I can get a few people here to testify to that.

“But they’re all quite successful people. Their time is money...

“If you want to talk to them, you’ll need to pay up!

“One person. One hour. Fifteen million dollars!”

Harvey squinted.

“How many of them would you like to bring? I can get them here, as long as you have the money.”

Harvey thought the others could think of some other excuse, but those were just the same old tricks. How uninteresting.

That was why Harvey could not care less about Haider’s feelings. He completely disrespected him; however, he should have.

After all, Harvey did not want to play with these old men taking advantage of their seniority.

As the Law Enforcement of Longmen's vice head, he was even speaking on behalf of the Shinkage Way!

In Harvey's eyes, he must have had a death wish.

“Are you still pretending to be stupid, Harvey?!”

Haider's face instantly darkened.

“Since I'm here, of course, I have solid proof that you're the one who massacred the entire Takei family!”
