

Chapter 2557

“I also know full well that Maki Takei could’ve killed you, but you used the Longmen’s name to suppress him before you snuck up on him while he wasn’t paying attention to you!

“You’re shameless, Harvey York! Where are your morals?!

Haider Bauer furiously pointed at Harvey.

Harvey froze after hearing those words before looking at Carrie Kennedy with full interest.

Before looking away, Carrie and the disciples behind her showed gleeful gazes toward Harvey. Nobody dared even to look him in the eye at that moment.

Obviously, Carrie lied about the truth for Haider to show up.

She never said that Harvey took down the entire Takei family with just a swing of his sword.

She never mentioned anything about Harvey killing off a dozen of their men with just a single kick, Maki included...

But she did find an excuse saying that Harvey used Longmen's name to suppress the family.

If Haider was not told that, he might have been too afraid to show up, knowing that Harvey was the one who killed off Maki.

“Let me explain it to you one more time, Vice Head. The Takei family committed Seppuku, and they were courageous. It's said that the Emperor of the Island Nations is even planning to give the family a posthumous name!”

Harvey showed a playful expression at this moment.

“All of Hong Kong knows about this! Even the embassy of the Island Nations accepted the statement!

“If you’re still not satisfied, you can even go to court with them!

“If you win, then we can talk again. How about that?”

“You!”

Haider was so mad that he could not even come up with words. Not only was Harvey quite skilled and powerful, but he also had a very sharp tongue.

There was nothing Haider could even say after the embassy of the Island Nations was brought up.

Elmer chuckled before squinting at Harvey.

“Sir York, you know full well why they committed Seppuku.

“You should know of the forces the Clarke family used in this incident. Am I wrong?”

“It would be meaningless if we make things too blunt, right?”

“I know that you’re quite skilled, and I know that you’re being backed up by the Clarke family as well. You have quite the immense authority in Hong Kong right now!”

“But you of all people should know that there are some things that just can’t be solved by killing!”

“After all, we have to respect the code of conduct in this world!”

“And besides, there are always stronger people than you out there!”

“Have you thought of the consequences of going against Head Bauer like that?!”

Harvey merely shrugged.

“You’re telling me that the right thing to do is hand over my badge and embarrass myself in front of the Islanders before pleading guilty?”

“You two think you can just ask me to do something like that?”

“What right do you think you have?”

“Just because you work for the royalty of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets?”

“Just because you used the Bauer family’s name to threaten people?”

“Or is it because you two are almost two hundred years combined, yet you only know how to worship foreign power?”

“My dear grandpas, respecting the old and loving the young is the virtue of my country. For the sake of you two catching your breath after every sentence, I'll stop arguing with you here.

“Pay up and leave. Then, I'll stop pursuing the matter further. I can guarantee you that you won't be questioned about this in the future.”

“Oh?! How dare you say something like that?! Who gave you the courage?!” exclaimed Haider with an odd tone.

“How are you that shameless?!”

“Alright! Enough nonsense talk!

“In any case, if you don't hand over the badge and plead guilty to the Islanders...

“I'll kill you myself!”

Chapter 2558

Before long, Haider Bauer made a gesture, and then his subordinates stepped forward. With the sounds of metal scraping, the subordinates unsheathed their swords while glaring at Harvey York furiously.

Leslie Clarke's expression immediately worsened after seeing the sight.

“Vice Head Bauer, nobody can take away my badge since it's passed down to me by the master of Longmen himself,” reasoned Harvey calmly.

“Besides, do you really think that I should just apologize to them?”

“What right do they even have for me to do such a thing?”

“What? You think you're some hot shot or something?”

Haider’s face darkened.

“Let me tell you something, Harvey. I’m already being respectful to the master of Longmen by not breaking your legs and throwing you straight to the Island Nations!

“So, stop pushing your luck!

“Maybe I have a better temper now that I’m old. If I were younger, I would’ve taken your head and your family’s life by now!”

Haider was boiling with anger at this very moment, as if he was about to stand and slap Harvey to death.

“Sir York, Head Bauer is a very respected and influential man in the Law Enforcement of Longmen. He’s already nice enough to say things like that for your sake!

“Stop being greedy already!” he said with an odd look.

“If not, you’ll be finished if he gets angry!

“Other than the badge and your broken limbs as an apology to the Islanders...

“Your entire family will be hunted down for this!

“I do hope you understand that Head Bauer doesn’t just represent the Law Enforcement of Longmen, but the entire Bauer family as well!

“The top family in the entirety of Country H!”

Elmer Evans then leaned on the couch comfortably.

“Hand it over and break your hands already. Don’t waste our time and effort here,” warned Elmer.

“I even arranged a second round of entertainment for Head Bauer too!

“I do want to see how you’ll end up if you manage to ruin his fun!”

Carrie Kennedy leered her eyes coldly and let out a chuckle.

“Hand over the badge and kneel! If not, you’ll end up horribly!”

Harvey smiled after hearing those words.

“Are you threatening me, Carrie?”

Carrie’s eyes twitched before she coldly replied, “You could say that.”

She knew that she was no match for Harvey, but she believed Haider could take him down.

That was why she was acting a little conceited at that time.

After seeing Harvey’s attitude, Haider stood up fiercely and kicked Leslie's secretary to the ground before shoving her aside.

“What you said today has completely offended me, Harvey,” said Haider slowly after approaching Harvey.

“Let me tell you something. You'll end up badly after pissing me off!

“I'll give you a lesson right now! I...”

Before Haider even finished his sentence, Harvey immediately cut him off.

“I offended you by just saying stuff?

“Why don't I do something else so I can irritate you even more?”

Harvey swung his backhand after he was done talking.

Slap!

Haider was sent smashing into the ground instantly with a loud slap before blood spurted out from his head.

Harvey did not stop there. He stepped on Haider's face and pushed his head further into the ground.

Horrible screams could be heard from Haider.

Everyone was sluggish after seeing the sight. They could not believe what had just happened.

Chapter 2559

Haider Bauer kept struggling while he was forced to the ground. The palm and footprint marks were overlaid on his face, making him seem utterly wretched and miserable.

He tried to wiggle out, but Harvey York's feet kept him nailed to the ground. He could only tremble powerlessly at this moment.

A lot of people rubbed their eyes filled with disbelief. Some even slapped themselves in the face to make sure they were not dreaming.

The Law Enforcement of Longmen's disciples became utterly sluggish.

Nobody expected Harvey would be this fearless.

It was already bad enough that Harvey slapped Haider in the face, but he even stepped on it at this moment. This action alone showed utter disrespect.

Not only did Harvey disrespect Longmen's Elder Group, but this was also a mockery toward the entire Bauer family.

Elmer Evans came back to his senses while everyone else was still in shock.

“What are you doing, Harvey?!” he screamed furiously.

“How dare you?!”

“The audacity!”

“Bastard! How dare you touch the Law Enforcement of Longmen's head?!”

Carrie Kennedy burst out in anger. She did not expect that Harvey would still act this arrogantly even in Haider's presence.

She lost her feeling of fear toward Harvey when adrenaline was pumping through her veins.

After waving her hand, the disciples pulled out their weapons and charged forward with pure rage.

Without Harvey giving the order, Leslie Clarke made a gesture before elites of the Clarke family appeared from everywhere to stop the disciples.

The people from the Law Enforcement of Longmen were all strong. No doubt about that...

But this was the Clarke family's territory. They were winning in numbers.

It was safe to say that both sides had gotten to a standstill at this moment.

Carrie could not believe that her offenses were held back once again.

“What are you trying to do, Leslie?!” she yelled after holding her rage back.

“Whoever tries to hurt Sir York will have to go through me first!” exclaimed Leslie coldly.

“Try it then!”

“You people!”

Carrie almost broke a tooth after seeing the sight.

She then glared at Harvey.

“Let me tell you something, Harvey! If anything happens to the head, I’ll bring all of you down with him!”

She wanted to cut Harvey down so badly, but she had no way of moving a muscle since there were just too many elites from the Clarke family.

“Harvey, Leslie, have you thought of the consequences for doing such a thing?” exclaimed Elmer fiercely.

“Consequences?”

Harvey completely ignored Carrie and Elmer. He exerted less force on his feet, giving Haider some breathing space.

At that point, he then squinted at Haider, whose face was covered in blood.

“Come, Law Enforcement of Longmen’s head. Aren’t you supposed to be powerful?” he coldly exclaimed.

“Didn’t I piss you off with my words?”

“Come at me then! Is this all you’ve got?”

“You bastard!”

Haider barely caught his breath before he furiously bellowed, “I’ll make you regret ever laying your finger on me!

“I’ll kill your entire family!”

Bang!

Harvey wasted no time and continued to step on Haider's face once again.

A giant hole was formed after the stomp. Haider could not help but scream in pain while his face was covered with small stones and fresh blood.

“You f*cker! You son of a b*tch! You piece of sh*t!!! I won't let you go!

“Seniors can often see the world better! How did you even survive this long being so insensitive and dishonorable?!”

Harvey stomped on Haider once more, making him bleed out of all his orifices while his face was completely swollen.

Chapter 2560

“You...”

Haider Bauer wanted Harvey York dead so badly, but the constant sharp pain had made him completely delirious. He was filled with utter anguish at that moment...

He was the Law Enforcement of Longmen's vice head and a member of the Bauer family.

He was always superior whether he was in Flutwell or Longmen. Countless people would always indulge and respect him wherever he went.

He believed that he would be able to use the power of his two identities to do whatever he pleased no matter where he went.

He did not think he would bump into some reckless man who dared to disrespect him while making him suffer.

Haider's reputation and dignity were constantly being trampled on. At that time, he wished he had died so badly.

He would not dare to challenge Harvey anymore. He was afraid that Harvey would not stop torturing him.

“Looks like someone got a little clever. I'm sure you know what you can and cannot say at this point.”

After seeing Haider's resentful look, Harvey then kicked him aside.

“Consider this a lesson for you today. I do hope you learn from this. If not, You might get your head cracked open in the future!

“I'm a big softie, but you would've been dead by now if you went up against Vince York instead!

“Run back to Flutwell and tell the people from Longmen’s law enforcement to determine who’s right and wrong before deciding to meddle in affairs!

“If you people run over here like a bunch of dogs because you heard some statement from the Islanders, I’ll beat up every single one of you here!

“Do you understand me?!”

Haider struggled back up with a twisted expression. A wretched and resentful look could be seen on his face.

He would not dare to go against Harvey then. He kept catching his breath, trying to calm himself down.

“You’re out of your mind, Harvey and Leslie!”

After seeing Haider’s injuries, Elmer Evans could not hold in his anger any longer.

“You think this is Country H or something?!”

“This is an international metropolis! We’re in Hong Kong! There are laws here!

“As the previous governor here, I demand you to apologize to Head Bauer and accept your punishment!

“If not, I can throw the both of you behind bars with just a single call! Do you believe me!”

“I don’t,” replied Harvey dismissively.

“But I should warn you about something as well. Do you know the consequences of showing off your seniority in front of me?”

“Bastard! Screw you!”

That was western boxing. Clearly, it seemed like Elmer was quite experienced in it.

His punch was quick and deadly, carrying hundreds of pounds worth of force.

Leslie's eyes lit up as Elmer was throwing his punch. She immediately grabbed his arm before slamming him to the ground over her shoulder.

Bang!

Along with a loud slam, Elmer was smashed right to the ground.

He gritted his teeth in pain before coughing out blood.

Carrie Kennedy and the others were utterly shocked. They were all horrified when they saw what had happened before their eyes.

“How... How is this even possible?!”

Elmer was an expert in his field, but he lost against Leslie with just a single move!

Was Leslie more skilled, or was Elmer just way past his prime?

At the same time, the Law Enforcement of Longmen's disciples were showing utter disdain toward Harvey.

'This man wouldn't even dare stand up for himself when he gets into trouble, but he lets a woman do his dirty work?! What useless filth!'

Leslie stood in front of Harvey and coldly exclaimed, "I'll repeat myself. If you want Harvey, you'll have to go through me first!"
