

Chapter 971

After Tom finished speaking, he attacked them.

He directly disappeared right where he was.

He was extremely fast.

When he appeared again, he was already in front of Sky. He hit him from the top. It was as if the entire sky had collapsed to Sky.

Sky was extremely despaired and pressured!

Even when he looked up, he couldn't see the sky or the sun. He could only see Tom's palm getting closer to him. He was about to be hit!

"Ah..."

He roared unwillingly. He was at a life-and-death moment now. It was as if his blood and cells were boiling. He exerted all his strength to fight back.

Suddenly, all his potential was stimulated. A great momentum turned into a storm from his body. Even those who were in the distance could feel how powerful he was and their confrontation!

"Sky is desperate!"

Tucker and Alaric thought of it in an instant. They knew Sky well. Now he was using all his strength. His body couldn't bear it.

They were not Sky and couldn't feel the pressure from Tom. But judging from his performance, they knew that he was extremely stressed. Otherwise, he would not use all his strength in a short time!

They reacted quickly. After knowing Sky's condition, they immediately helped him. They roared together and made powerful sound waves. At the same time, they launched the fiercest attack on Tom.

In an instant, Tom fought fiercely with the three masters of Saint Abbey. They fought with deadly skills. It was extremely fierce!

If Tom killed Sky, he would definitely be killed by Tucker and Alaric.

The three masters of Saint Abbey were powerful. They were top and were all stronger than Fausto.

If they fought together, they could defeat anyone under God Becoming Level.

It was a pity that they fought with Tom. They were destined to be defeated.

Tom smiled and looked disdainful. He didn't take Tucker and Alaric seriously.

He continued to attack Sky and hit him. Even Sky used all his strength and raised his hands to defend himself, he would still fail!

Bang! His bones were cracked.

Everyone was shocked.

Sky was powerful, but he couldn't bear Tom's slap. He was plunged into the ground heavily, leaving only half his head on the ground.

At the same time, Tucker and Alaric were on Tom's sides and were about to hit him.

Tom suddenly twisted and dodged their deadly attack in an extremely strange position!

And then Tom kicked Sky as if he were playing football. Sky in the ground shouted in despair and panic, "Tucker, Alaric, save me..."

But before he could finish speaking, his head was kicked out by Tom.

He suddenly stopped calling for help.

The followers of Saint Abbey who reached Innate Realm were shocked to see it!

They were all stunned and couldn't come back to their senses for a long time.

Sky, who was invincible in their minds was killed so easily by Tom.

It was shocking for them.

In fact, even Tucker and Alaric were also shocked. They felt numb and swallowed.

When they looked at Tom again, they looked different.

At the moment, Tom smiled again, "Good. Since you are here, I'll kill all of you."

As he said it, he disappeared again. He bypassed Tucker and Alaric and pounced on the followers.

He was as fierce as a tiger and killed them ruthlessly!

They were all masters of Innate Realm and were strong in society, but they couldn't even fight back against Tom. They were slaughtered directly. Tom killed them easily!

It was extremely bloody and shocking.

Tom was like a god of death and was slaughtering them mercilessly.

He was so fierce and violent. When Tucker and Alaric saw it, they couldn't help but shiver. They looked at each other and found fear and regret in their eyes.

He was a monster!

Weren't the secular people like ants, who couldn't beat them?

But what happened to Tom? They felt that they were ants.

Now they were out of their minds and didn't know what to do for a moment.

Asura's order was to capture Tom alive regardless of any means. Even they couldn't capture him, they should kill him and go back with his head.

Now not to mention to capture him alive, they were unlikely to survive.

When they hesitated for several seconds, Tom had already killed a large number of people.

Soon, there were less than ten followers alive.

The bodies were on the ground.

Seeing it, they couldn't help but want to retreat!

If they didn't run, they wouldn't be able to escape.

But how could they hide their thoughts from Tom?

If they succeeded in running away, Tom would rather kill himself with a piece of bean curd.

Tucker and Alaric and the rest of the followers cried out and turned around to run.

However, they would never run away.

Tom took only ten seconds to kill the rest of the followers.

Immediately, he turned around and looked at Tucker and Alaric. He smiled cruelly and chased after them.

However, it was too late for them to realize it.

Such an expert of the God Becoming Level could only be beaten by Asura, the Bishop, himself.

A master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm was able to walk on water. So they stepped on the lake and began to escape towards the mainland at extremely high speed.

They moved so fast that every step struck the water like a bomb. Splashes were almost everywhere in just a few seconds.

It was quite a shocking scene, honestly.

But Tom shocked them more.

He didn't even touch the water. He rushed to the lake and twisted his legs into a lunge position so that he could use his body like a giant spring and shoot himself in the direction that Alaric ran away.

He landed right in front of Alaric. Standing on the water as well, he gave him a white toothy smile, "Sorry, a dead end."

Alaric's expression changed when he saw him. Feeling his heart almost jumping out, he glared at Tom nervously and shouted in anger.

"Ah!!! Go to hell!"

Now that Tom had caught up with him, running away was no longer possible for him.

Alaric took out a sharp knife as fast as he could and stabbed it at Tom.

With one hand behind his back, Tom didn't make any move until the knife almost touched his nose. That was when he finally stretched out one of his fingers and knocked accurately on the blade. The knife broke into pieces in a boom!

Then he reached out to grab Alaric's neck and pinched him to death.

Alaric's face was filled with despair and pain.

He didn't die immediately. But all his struggle was useless.

But he was really unwilling to die. It took him so long to reach this level. He could live more than a hundred years!

He still had a lot of things in life that he hadn't tried. What made him pity most was that he could have a great chance to break through to the God Becoming Level!

But it was all over now because of Tom.

He was unwilling. So unwilling indeed.

And he also regretted it so much. If he had known the end would be like this, he would never dare to go against Tom!

He would never regard it as a big deal again that his son, Gario, was killed by Tom gave him a slap that broke his skull into pieces.

Without a glance at the body, he turned around and chased after Tucker.

Alaric sank slowly into the water after Tom had left.

He was completely dead.

Tucker was the only one left now.

On the other side, Tucker, who was running like crazy, saw Alaric's death as well. He had never been as frightened as now before!

Absolute despair captured him. It was like the death itself chasing after him. Tom left him nowhere to escape.

Tom because he could have a new son in the future. He could even have more sons, more daughters, and wives as long as he himself was alive!

He roared but turned desperate again when he saw it in the corner of his eye that Tom was getting closer and closer at speed beyond the limitation of human beings.

He knew that Tom was far beyond him.

At this moment, he made the right decision.

He stopped running and dived straight into the water, trying to escape by diving.

He was confident with himself in water. He could be more agile than a fish down there.

Many martial artists were powerful only when they were on land. Once they got into the water, few of them could use their power the same way.

This was his only chance to escape.

What Tucker didn't know, however, was that Tom showed only a scornful smile when he discovered what he intended to do.

Tom dived into the water too and turned himself into a swordfish. He continued to chase after Tucker, whose speed was not affected at all.

Tucker lost the bet. It was obvious now that Tom was powerful not only on land but also in water.

Tom caught up with Tucker soon. Despite Tucker's struggle, Tom punched him on the back directly. His strength was so huge that it was almost like being struck by a shell. Tucker spat out lots of blood. It seemed that he was about to give up.

Tom grabbed Tucker's neck, hit on a few apertures on his body so that he couldn't move anymore. Tom swam back to the Green Island, grabbing Tucker like a dead dog.

He didn't kill Tucker immediately because he wanted to hand Tucker over to the Falcon Team.

The Falcon Team also had the right to revenge.

Soon, he reached Green Island. He came out of the water, grabbing Tucker's neck in one hand.

Tucker was no longer arrogant now.

He was dying. Tom had cut up all his sinews during the fight. The only thing he could do now was begging for mercy.

Needless to say, Tom had hit on a few major apertures on him to seal his power. It was no exaggeration to say that he was just a cripple now waiting to be killed!

"Tom, I was wrong. I won't dare to be against you ever again. It was all my fault. Please let me go..."

Tucker began to beg for mercy because he had realized that Tom was going to hand him over to the Falcon Team so that the people there could torture him.

Tom ignored him and went straight to the Falcon Team.

The agents of the Falcon Team were extremely anxious at that time because they had no idea what was going on with Tom.

In their opinion, Tom must have been in danger. After all, he had been out of strength a moment ago!

Being hunted by a group of believers, including Tucker, Sky, and Alaric, three of the most powerful martial artists, how could Tom possibly win? He hadn't even reached the Becoming God Level.

They were all blaming themselves now. If something bad really happened to Tom, it would be their fault!

Just as they were all desperate and someone was thinking about committing suicide by biting his tongue, they heard some footsteps and looked up immediately. Tom, who was wet all over, was walking towards them, grabbing Tucker in one hand.

Chapter 973

"Well..."

The members of the Falcon Team on the ground felt already desperate and about to commit suicide. Suddenly they saw Tom, who was coming over with Tucker in his hands. They were all dumbfounded, completely unable to think.

It was not that they were not mentally strong enough, but that the scene was too shocking!

Wasn't Tom supposed to be killed?

Why was he still alive?

Moreover, Tom was carrying Tucker like carrying a dead dog.

even reached the Becoming God Level.

They were all blaming themselves now. If something bad really happened to Tom, it would be their fault!

Just as they were all desperate and someone was thinking about committing suicide by biting his tongue, they heard some footsteps and looked up immediately. Tom, who was wet all over, was walking towards them, grabbing Tucker in one hand.

he had realized that Tom was going to hand him over to the Falcon Team so that the people there could torture him.

Tom ignored him and went straight to the Falcon Team.

The agents of the Falcon Team were extremely anxious at that time because they had no idea what was going on with Tom.

In their opinion, Tom must have been in danger. After all, he had been out of strength a moment ago!

Being hunted by a group of believers, including Tucker, Sky, and Alaric, three of the most powerful martial artists, how could Tom possibly win? He hadn't

he had realized that Tom was going to hand him over to the Falcon Team so that the people there could torture him.

Tom ignored him and went straight to the Falcon Team.

The agents of the Falcon Team were extremely anxious at that time because they had no idea what was going on with Tom.

In their opinion, Tom must have been in danger. After all, he had been out of strength a moment ago!

Being hunted by a group of believers, including Tucker, Sky, and Alaric, three of the most powerful martial artists, how could Tom possibly win? He hadn't even reached the Becoming God Level.

They were all blaming themselves now. If something bad really happened to Tom, it would be their fault!

Just as they were all desperate and someone was thinking about committing suicide by biting his tongue, they heard some footsteps and looked up immediately. Tom, who was wet all over, was walking towards them, grabbing Tucker in one hand.

he had realized that Tom was going to hand him over to the Falcon Team so that the people there could torture him.

Tom ignored him and went straight to the Falcon Team.

The agents of the Falcon Team were extremely anxious at that time because they had no idea what was going on with Tom.

In their opinion, Tom must have been in danger. After all, he had been out of strength a moment ago!

Being hunted by a group of believers, including Tucker, Sky, and Alaric, three of the most powerful martial artists, how could Tom possibly win? He hadn't

he had realized that Tom was going to hand him over to the Falcon Team so that the people there could torture him.

Tom ignored him and went straight to the Falcon Team.

The agents of the Falcon Team were extremely anxious at that time because they had no idea what was going on with Tom.

In their opinion, Tom must have been in danger. After all, he had been out of strength a moment ago!

Being hunted by a group of believers, including Tucker, Sky, and Alaric, three of the most powerful martial artists, how could Tom possibly win? He hadn't even reached the Becoming God Level.

They were all blaming themselves now. If something bad really happened to Tom, it would be their fault!

Just as they were all desperate and someone was thinking about committing suicide by biting his tongue, they heard some footsteps and looked up immediately. Tom, who was wet all over, was walking towards them, grabbing Tucker in one hand.

Chapter 973

"Well..."

The members of the Falcon Team on the ground felt already desperate and about to commit suicide. Suddenly they saw Tom, who was coming over with Tucker in his hands. They were all dumbfounded, completely unable to think.

It was not that they were not mentally strong enough, but that the scene was too shocking!

Wasn't Tom supposed to be killed?
Why was he still alive?

Moreover, Tom was carrying Tucker like carrying a dead dog.

Soon, Tom came to them and casually threw Tucker in front of them. He smiled lightly and said, "The others have been solved. He's the only one left. I've broken his veins and left him to you to vent your anger."

Everyone was swallowing heavily.

They were completely stunned. Finally, they understood Tom's words. The key information was that the others had been solved by Tom, leaving only Tucker!

Even Stormi couldn't help but curse.

This news was too shocking for them.

They came to their senses. Tucker was now miserable. The arrogance in his eyes turned to fear. He kept trembling and began to beg for mercy, "Please let me go, please..."

They realized that Tom had really solved all the others.

Wasn't that too exaggerated?

In the end, Stormi asked, "Chief Instructor, are you the God Becoming Level now?"

This was a question that everyone wanted to know, including Tucker. In their opinion, only God Becoming Level could do this.

Those people were not some lackeys but dozens of masters of Innate Realm, including three super masters of the Major Perfection Realm. Tom solved them all!

Tom knew what they were thinking. He just smiled, sighed, and said with some regret, "Not yet. Almost."

What?!

This answer was another shock to them.

Especially for Tucker, he once thought that Tom had broken through to the God Becoming Level. Tucker had been following Asura. He knew that Asura, as a master of God Becoming Level, had this kind of strength.

But now Tom told them that he hadn't been to the God Becoming Level yet. How powerful was Tom?

That meant that once Tom successfully broke through to the God Becoming Level, he would be mighty.

At that time, he would be able to break through to First Rank of God Becoming Level!

Tucker was in his fifties this year. He was a genius himself and had seen many geniuses, but he had never heard of anyone with such a great talent!

Even the three super masters of the four sects seemed to be just like that.

Tom shook his head and said to Stormi and the others, "Settle Tucker, and I'll take you away. If I guess right, the Bishop of Saint Abbey should be here in person soon."

"Got it!"

Stormi and the others nodded heavily. Then, they looked at Tucker with anger and hatred!

They would not forget how Tucker, the beast, tortured them just now!

Now that they had this opportunity to take revenge, they would not be soft-hearted.

Tucker felt their anger and murderous intent, and he was tremulous in fear. He begged desperately, "I was wrong. It was my fault. Please... Ouch!"

Before he could finish his sentence, he was torn to pieces by the Falcon Team.

Tom watched them take revenge and did not stop them. He started to adjust his breathing. He looked relaxed just now, but in fact, he still spent a lot of physical strength, and now he was slowly recovered.

However, after the fight just now, his strength had indeed improved a lot!

He found something special in him. The more intense the fight was, the easier it was for him to improve!

When he thought about it carefully, his improvement over the years was mainly due to the benefit of fighting.

Including the fight with May at the beginning, the hunt of Fausto in Lion Mountain when he tried to take away Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit, and so on...

So he had a strong feeling that if he wanted to break through to the God Becoming Level, he should also need a good fight!

Only in this level of combat could he break through!

With his current state, it was meaningless to fight with the masters of Innate Realm, and it could not bring him any progress.

No matter how many masters of the Innate Realm, fighting with them would lead to the same result was the same.

In other words, at his level, if he wanted to make better progress, he had to fight with someone on the same level as him or even masters of God Becoming Level!

And the best master of God Becoming
Level was the Bishop of Saint Abbey, Asura.

Or the super-strong master in Country
M, Adam!

Although there was Her Majesty in Eagle Country, he and Her Majesty were now friends, and they could only be considered to exchange blows. They wouldn't have a real fight, and it was not good for him without a fight with all his might.

If he was in good condition, he could stay and wait for Asura to arrive, but he was not in good condition now, so he had to leave.

He knew that every believer in Saint Abbey had a special chip in their body. Once they died, the chip would send out an alarm and a location signal.

He learned this from Her Majesty.

So he had to leave early.

When the members of the Falcon Team finished venting, Tucker was already dead. Tom began to take the Falcon Team away.

The incident this time had actually brought a big blow to the Falcon Team.

The members of the Falcon Team thought that they were extraordinary, but after this period of time, they realized that they were still too far from those real super-strong masters.

Not to mention today, the rescue of a few scientists a while ago would have failed long ago without Tom's help.

This also strengthened their desire to return home for further study.

Tom supported their idea. It was their decision. Moreover, they had been exposed to the Saint Abbey. If they stayed, it would only be more dangerous. It was a good decision to return home.

So that day, the Falcon Team went back, and Tom went to Her Majesty. He planned to take some rest before going straight to Country M.

However, the news that he had killed Tucker and the others on Green Island was spread and caused a shock.

That night, his name suddenly appeared on a mysterious list.

Chapter 974

There were ten names on this list, all of which were the strongest masters who almost reached the God Becoming Level!

The first one was King of Carefree of the East Sect, the second was Emmett of the West Sect, and the third was Alistair of the North Sect!

Now, Tom replaced Fire Sickle, becoming the tenth person on the list.

This name list had been unchanged for more than a decade.

Fire Sickle, who originally ranked the tenth, was absolutely a genius. He had countless battles in his life, and his strength was extremely strong. Even if he was facing a master at God Becoming Level, he still stood no chance to defeat Fire Sickle.

But now, he was replaced by a mysterious man named Tom!

What was going on?

For the people of the Secular World, it was not a big deal. But for the people of the sect, it was sensational!

Because seven people on this list were from the sect, and only three of them were from the Secular World. Each three ranked seventh, eighth, and ninth.

Now, Tom was the fourth one from the Secular World!

always right. Tom must have made great achievements. He was strong enough to replace Fire Sickle!"

"Find him! Let me know who Tom is and where he comes from. I want to try to win him over."

"The people who can be on the List of Immortals are all top geniuses. None of them has reached the God Becoming Level, but they, especially the top three, King of Carefree, Emmett, and Alistair, all have the strength to fight against the masters at God Becoming Level! These three people even have the ability to kill masters at God Becoming Level and they are known as super-geniuses of the Millennium!"

"The List of Immortals remained

This was a big deal!

At the same time, people all over the world who noticed this list were confused.

"Who is Tom?! He actually replaced Fire Sickle?"

"I haven't heard of him. Is he from the Secular World?"

"Tom, this name sounds very ordinary. Is there a mistake on the list? I heard that Fire Sickle had recently closed himself in the door to practice and had a breakthrough. He was about to rush into the top five but now was replaced by this guy. It's incredible!"

"In any case, the List of Immortals is unchanged for too long, and it should change."

"Yes, the world has been so boring lately. A stagnant condition. I hope that Tom, who popped up, can stir up the world and cause some sensations!"

"I have a feeling that Tom would be very interesting. Maybe he could derange the List of Immortals. That would be very fun, ha ha ha!"

"Maybe you are right. Have you all forgotten? The Secret Realm is about to open. By then, many masters of the Major Perfection Realm would head there. These people on the List of Immortals would come over. If Tom is also there, he might make some sensation."

"The last time when the Secret Realm opened, we killed a lot of geniuses in the Secular World. This time, many people from the Secular World will also lose their lives. I'm really looking forward to it. Ha ha ha."

Similar comments could be heard all over the world.

They were all super masters with extraordinary strength because the List of Immortals could only be available for strong masters.

Tom, who had already attracted the attention of the world's powerful masters, did not notice that. Nor did he know List of Immortals. He had no idea that what he did on Green Island was the reason why he was on the List of Immortals.

Now, he returned to Her Majesty's pavilion. He was ready to close himself in the room for three days to adjust his condition to the best, and then he would go to Country M to challenge Adam!

or the past three days, Alice came to him every day. She talked to him and shared with him what happened in the royal family.

Now that Alice had slowly familiarized herself with her status as a crown princess. She did quite a good job in the royal family. With the help of Her Majesty, she gradually consolidated her position.

She was not an incompetent person. On the contrary, because of her H Country extraction, she had a unique talent in the art of scheming. Very soon, she could consolidate her position with her own ability.

Three days ago.

In Eagle Country, there was a mysterious place.

A roar of earth-shaking anger was resounded.

Hearing this roar, everyone's heart was pounding and they felt extremely terrified.

They all knelt down to the ground, not daring to do anything.

Even the Strong of the Innate Realm did not dare to move.

Because they could all feel the extreme anger of Bishop Asura.

In fact, after following Asura for so long, they had never seen him so angry and out of control!

The last time when the Saint Abbey failed to complete its mission that a few scientists from H Country were gone and many believers died, he was not so angry.

This time, Asura was furious. To all of them, Asura's anger was similar to the eruption of a volcano and the doomsday!

After all, Asura was the Strong at God Becoming Level. The literal meaning of "God Becoming" was that this man was god-like and had already transcended the scope of human beings.

Their fear was just like an animal instinct. The mouse feared the cat and the chicken feared the eagle.

All the martial artists who hadn't reached the God Becoming Level were as weak as ants in front of the Strong at God Becoming Level.

They did not know why, for good reason, Bishop Asura was so angry!

Did something big happen?

Some quick-thinking people quickly thought of the key.

At this time, Tucker, Sky, Alaric led the team and captured many agents of the Falcon Team. They were about to threaten Tom and kill him.

Could it be that Tucker and the others failed their mission?

However, even if the mission failed, Asura would not be so abnormal.

Suddenly, a terrible thought came to their hearts.

Next, they heard a series of earth-shaking footsteps and gasping. Bishop Asura was coming. He looked ferocious and his eyes were full of anger!

"Army force, follow me to Green Island!"

Asura ordered coldly, and then he went straight to Green Island.

He was so fast that in less than twenty minutes, his army had already arrived in Green Island.

Moreover, he saw a scene that made him burn with anger.

On Green Island, there were all dead bodies of his believers!

Even his three excellent warriors were dead.

Facing such an unprecedented blow, he rolled his eyes and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Chapter 975

Seeing that their leader vomited blood with anger, they were also in extreme fear and shock, not daring to take a step forward.

On Green Island, all the corpses of the Saint Abbey were lying there, especially the deaths of Tucker, Alaric, and Sky, which greatly stimulated them!

Originally, they were all fearless and ruthless.

However, Tom sent a wave of unprecedented fear sweeping over them!

The Saint Abbey, even among the Clan, was considered to be in the second array, behind the four sects, which had never suffered such a big loss.

But now, in just over a month, their Saint Abbey had suffered great damage and blow.

And the culprit for all this was the secular man, Tom!

Because of this, after the news spread, Tom was able to make the List of Immortals.

Tom caught the attention of all the masters in the world at the same time!

Even many secular people knew this name.

In the past, Tom was only famous for martial artists in the secular world in the Kungfu Cup, but this time, he was on the List of Immortals, weighing much more than the champion of the Kungfu Cup!

In fact, in the eyes of many experts, the champion of the regional Kungfu Cup was no big deal. He was just a master of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm.

Especially for the Strong in the Clan, it was small fry because they all respected martial arts, and everyone was much more talented than the martial arts in the secular world. There were many Major Perfection Realm experts in the Innate Realm who were less than 40 years old.

However, the nature of being on the List of Immortals was completely different!

After Tom came out, Her Majesty welcomed him and said with a smile, "Tom, you are famous all over the world. I think even the geniuses of the sect have noticed you."

Tom, who didn't know that he was on the List of Immortals, tidied up his clothes and said with a smile, "I don't seem to have done much. Why did all the geniuses in the Clan notice me?"

He thought she was joking with him.

The queen smiled and said, "Are you sure? You killed dozens of Saint Abbey members in Green Island. In particular, Tucker, Sky, and Alaric, the three warriors were killed by you, which has spread. Now you're on the List of Immortals. You're very promising. But every coin has two sides. Next, many experts are going to challenge you."

"The List of Immortals?"

It was new to Tom and he asked doubtfully, "What is it?"

The queen was surprised to see his reaction and said, "Tom, don't you know about the List of Immortals?"

Tom shook his head with a bitter smile and said, "I don't know. What is this? It sounds a big deal!"

The queen looked at Tom with a serious look for a while before she confirmed that Tom was not lying. To her surprise, at Tom's level, he didn't know about it. However, it also indirectly showed that Tom made great advances in his strength, which was far faster than the progress of ordinary martial artists.

According to the normal cultivation speed of a martial artist, even a genius could reach Tom's current level in his forties or even in his fifties at most.

Tom, who had just turned 30 this year, had reached this stage and made the List of Immortals.

It could be said that he was the youngest person on the list.

Next, the queen briefly introduced List of Immortals to Tom. Finally, she said, "Anyone who can make the List of Immortals will be able to enter the God Becoming Level as long as they don't die prematurely. The future is bright."

After Tom heard this, he was not too surprised. At his level, he figured out that the world was not only dominated by technology, but also by force.

Just like the wealth list in the Secular World claimed the richest man in the world.

In the world of martial arts, List of Immortals made sense.

But he was a little surprised that with his current strength, he could only rank tenth.

In other words, there were nine people in front of him who were stronger than him?

The thought of this aroused his interest, making him feel less lonely.

Indeed, after his seal was lifted, his cultivation was surging, making rapid progress all the way and leaving his peers far behind. He had a fear of loneliness.

But now because of the List of Immortals, he felt that he was not alone. In this world, there were geniuses.

This was a good thing.

Soon, the queen noticed his joy and said in surprise, "Tom, you found nine people above you. Shouldn't you feel disappointed? Why do you look so happy?"

Indeed, this was something the queen could not understand. From her point of view, Tom was originally riding the dust, leaving his competitors far behind. He was supposed to be more disappointed. But his reaction was exactly the opposite, which puzzled her.

Tom shook his head with a smile and said, "Why? I'm glad to find out that there are other geniuses who are better than me, which makes life more interesting and challenging. Otherwise, being the best world makes me loney."

He said this from the bottom of his heart. Being invincible in the world would be a dull thing for him.

Maybe when he was at the top in the world, it was time for him to retire.

The queen remained silent for a few seconds before she said with a sigh, "Tom, I finally know why you can cultivate so fast. It's your temperament that surpasses most martial artists. Perhaps, this is what a genius should have."

Tom smiled faintly and did not explain.

After another two days of Tom's stay, his strength completely returned to its peak, and in these two days, he and the queen also exchanged a few times, so that he had a deeper understanding of the God Becoming Level.

When the time came, he planned to go straight to Country M to challenge Adam!

Chapter 976

He had originally planned to leave secretly without telling Alice, but he didn't know where Alice got the news. She had already come to wait for him early in the morning.

When he woke up and opened the door, he saw Alice, whose eyes were both red and swollen, sitting on the threshold. She looked reluctant and sad and listless. It was obvious that she had not slept all night.

"Alice?"

When Tom came out, Alice was so sleepy that she was dozing off. Tom was a little surprised. He called her name softly.

When Alice heard his voice, she immediately woke up and looked up at him. Seeing that he was standing in front of her, she became excited and said, "Tom, I heard that you were leaving Eagle Country... Gee!"

Because she had been sitting here all morning, her blood was not flowing well, and she stood up so suddenly, she immediately lost her balance and was about to fall.

Of course, Tom would not let her fall. He put his arms around her waist and stabilized her in time.

Alice was hugged by him, and her whole body was in his arms. Her eyes immediately showed some intoxication.

It was this feeling that made her so obsessed!

She took a deep breath, and it was all the intoxicating smell of hormones on Tom's body.

It didn't smell bad at all. On the contrary, it made her feel rather comfortable.

She hugged Tom and pressed her head against his chest. Instead of speaking, she quietly the happy moment.

Tom smiled bitterly. He originally wanted to push Alice away, but when he saw Alice like this, he didn't push her away but sighed in his heart.

He really had good luck in adventures with women.

Wherever he went, there would have this good luck.

Alice held him tightly for more than ten minutes, then looked up and said, "Tom, are you leaving Eagle Country?"

Tom nodded and said, "Well, I should leave now."

Hearing this, Alice's face turned pale, and her eyes were filled with sadness and reluctance. Then she lowered her head and said nervously and reluctantly, "Will you come back in the future?"

Tom was a little soft-hearted when he saw her like this. Alice was also a pitiful person, so he said, "Yes, I will come back when I have the chance."

Sure enough, when Alice heard his words, her originally nervous mood suddenly relaxed a lot. Finally, she smiled and said, "Well, that's great! I'll wait for you. I'll wait for you here forever!"

She looked up at Tom with incomparable seriousness and affection.

She was now the heir to the throne of Her Majesty, and would inherit the throne in the future. In the whole of Eagle Country, her status was incomparably honorable, but in front of Tom, she was still a young girl longing for love.

Tom sighed and said, "Alice, you don't have to do this. I've already been married."

Alice was not sad. She seemed to have known about it long ago and accepted this. She still stared straight at Tom and said, "Tom, I don't mind. I'll be your woman for the rest of my life! As long as you need me, I'll give myself to you at any time!"

After saying this, she blushed, but she did not dodge. She was still very brave and looked at Tom very seriously. This was what she said from the bottom of her heart.

What else could Tom do besides smile bitterly?

Moreover, when he was helplessly distracted, Alice mustered up the courage to stand on tiptoe and gently kiss his lips.

Tom was stunned. What happened? He was stolen a kiss by Alice?

However, he really didn't hate Alice.

He chatted with Alice for a long time. In the end, he could only escape when the ministers outside came in and begged Alice to deal with the internal affairs of the country.

After Alice left, he shook his head and felt that he had more love debts.

But he was no longer as troubled as before. This was his fate, and there was no way to stop it.

He didn't hide it from Phoebe. He called Phoebe right now and generously revealed Alice's existence to her.

After listening to this, Phoebe was not angry. Instead, she said in a joking tone, "Okay, Tom, you have good luck in adventures with women now. There are beautiful women liking you everywhere you go. Now even the future queen of Eagle Country likes you. It's amazing."

Tom smiled bitterly and said, "Phoebe, stop laughing at me. I have nothing to do with Alice."

They had been married for so many years, and how could Phoebe not know what Tom meant? She smiled and said in a relaxed tone, "She is also very affectionate to you. You can just go back and see her sometimes. Oh, by the way, why don't you bring her back next time? Let me take a look at this sister too."

After hearing this, Tom was so moved.

He knew that Phoebe did not force a smile, but was really relieved, so he also breathed a sigh of relief. Otherwise, if it was a kind of injury to Phoebe, he really did not dare to get in touch with women in the future.

Moreover, according to his fate, as long as he interacted with women, he could not stop those women falling in love with him!

This was really a troublesome thing.

Then Tom called Amelia, also telling her about Alice.

Compared to Phoebe, Amelia was even more open-minded. She even clapped her hands happily. "Very good. I can have a sister to share with. Tom, when will you bring this sister back?"

Hearing Amelia's excitement, Tom became even more speechless.

Amelia was such a person. She was originally a mistress. When she was with Phoebe, although she didn't show anything on the surface, she had always been afraid of Phoebe in fact.

Now Alice appeared, so she could "bully" this sister in the future.

And Amelia also said that Alice could cooperate with her and Phoebe, because Tom was so powerful that they couldn't handle him even though she and Phoebe combined.

Tom could only shake his head at Amelia's theory.

However, he was relieved at the bottom of his heart, not because Phoebe and Amelia were willing to accept Alice, but because neither of them was hurt, which was the best.

After hanging up the phone, Tom immediately rushed to Country M.

However, when he came out from Her Majesty's place, he immediately felt that someone was following him, and he was an absolute master!

Chapter 977

The corners of Tom's mouth rose slightly, showing a meaningful smile.

This was quite interesting. He had just come out of the royal family of Eagle Country and someone actually followed him.

And the follower's breath was very secretive. If it weren't for the fact that he was at a level higher than he was before coming to Eagle Country, he wouldn't have spotted this stalker.

Could it be someone from the Saint Abbey?

Tom thought of this at once.

It was highly possible that the man was from the Saint Abbey according to his deduction.

His biggest enemy in Eagle Country was the Saint Abbey.

Especially after he killed so many believers on Green Island, the entire Saint Abbey hated his guts.

But all the other believers, apart from the leader, could not be his opponent now.

From this point of view, the stalker could well be the Bishop!

Tom was smiling, but his heart was very cold. His original plan was to go to Country M first, challenge Adam, and then come back to deal with Asura.

Since Asura himself had come to him, he didn't mind fighting with Asura first.

This was the first time he had a life-and-death confrontation with a God Becoming Level expert, and he was looking forward to it.

He hoped Asura can surprise him.

So he pretended not to know anything and continued walking to the airport.

The stalker really caught up with him, and his tracking skill was superb, hiding his breath very well. If Tom hadn't been paying attention all the time, he wouldn't have noticed!

When Tom got on a bus, the breath disappeared for a while, but then reappeared behind him, keeping him close!

However, Tom had never been able to detect whether the stalker was a God Becoming Level or an Innate Realm.

This also indirectly showed that Asura was powerful enough to conceal his breath!

If they had a battle here in the busy city, it would bring great harm. This was not what Tom wanted to happen.

So he thought for a while and got off the bus. He rented a car and rushed to the suburbs.

If the stalker was following him, then he should know that Tom had discovered his existence.

Sure enough, after Tom changed his route, the breath behind him disappeared for a while. It was so far away that even Tom could not notice it.

However, three minutes later, this breath reappeared. It was obvious that the stalker had caught up with him again.

It seemed that it should be Asura.

Soon, Tom drove to a remote place. He stopped the car and walked out.

He looked in the direction of the breath.

Soon, a black car appeared.

From Tom's point of view, nobody was driving the car was driverless, which still looked a little strange.

However, Tom was not nervous at all. He already felt that the expert who was following him was in the car, just hiding.

Sure enough, this car drove straight to him!

Moreover, the car was at a speed of more than a hundred yards. Tom would definitely get seriously hurt if he was hit by the car.

If an ordinary person was hit by such a car, he would be killed on the spot and the body would fly tens of meters away.

But Tom did not dodge it. Instead, he put his hands in his pockets and quietly watched the car drive over.

When the car arrived in front of him and was about to hit him, Tom stretched out his foot and kicked the front of the car. There only left a loud bang!

Such a fast-moving car that weighed more than three kilograms was broken by Tom's kicking!!

The most terrifying thing was that Tom's power was extremely great. Not only did the front of the car sagged, but the entire car also flew up, spun twice in the air, and then fell to the ground, becoming a pile of scrap iron, and then ignited.

The door of the car was opened in the air, and a graceful figure jumped out of the car with a somewhat awkward posture.

And, strangely enough, why did Tom feel as if he had seen this figure somewhere?

Yes, this is a woman, not a man.

According to Her Majesty, the Saint Abbey's leader, Asura, was a man with a tall figure.

In an instant, Tom was also a little confused. What happened? Was the person following him not Asura, but someone else?

After a while, the graceful figure finally landed. Her hair was a little messy and her posture was a little awkward.

Obviously, she didn't expect Tom to be so violent and kicked the car up directly.

She thought Tom would dodge!

It seemed that she had underestimated Tom's strength.

She was wearing a tight-fitting dress, which outlined her hot figure vividly.

Moreover, her face was extremely beautiful, pure but sexy, which attracted people at the first sight.

But when Tom saw her face, he was immediately stunned, because he had already remembered that she was the woman he met at the celebration party in H Country before.

What was her name?

She came from the Clan and seemed to be called the Nüwa Sect.

This was really beyond Tom's expectations. He had thought that it should be Asura who could follow him in Eagle Country so boldly.

Of course, even if she was an "acquaintance", Tom did not immediately lose his vigilance and hostility.

Because, she had many opportunities to come over and greet him, but she did not do so. Instead, she had kept following him and driving so fast to hit him just now. She was obviously to murder him!

Since she wanted to murder him, he would not be soft-hearted.

The woman cleared her throat and said with some dissatisfaction on her face, "Tom, you're too violent. I almost... Uh!"

However, before she could finish her sentence, she felt darkness in front of her eyes. Then, she felt her neck firmly grasped by a pair of big hands, and her body left the ground.

In an instant, she felt the feeling of death!

She immediately looked up and saw a pair of cold, murderous and majestic eyes, which made her brain suddenly blank and felt frighten.

"Tell me, why are you following me?"

Tom said coldly, showing no pity for her because of her beauty.

Chapter 978

Whitney was stunned.

She had never expected Tom to be so ruthless and heartless. Without saying anything, he had his hands around her neck and almost strangled her.

When she looked into Tom's eyes, she shivered in fear and her mind went blank.

She was panicked when she felt his grip tightened and she had difficulty in breathing.

She could tell that Tom was serious. If she could not give him a satisfactory answer, then the man would really kill her!

She had never been treated so harshly by men. With her stunning appearance, countless men in the secular world and the sects fell for her.

And she had thought that she could charm every man in the world as long as she wanted to do so.

But Tom was not interested in her at all, and he even was going to kill her just because of a joke.

In a panic, she said, "It's a misunderstanding! A misunderstanding! Tom, I'm here to invite you!!"

She quickly explained because she had a feeling that the man would really break her neck if she was too slow. He was terrifying.

When Tom heard her words, he was a little surprised. Then he frowned slightly and asked, "Why did you invite me? I don't know you."

"What, you don't know me?" Whitney looked surprised and said, "Tom, haven't we met once when we were in H Country? It hasn't been a long time, has it?!"

Her eyes widened, and she looked both surprised and sad as if it was hard to accept that Tom had forgotten her.

To her, this was a huge blow!

After all, all the men she had met were obsessed with her.

Even if they didn't have a crush on her, they wouldn't forget her.

But what about Tom? He said he didn't know her! It was a huge blow!

Tom felt that she had no intention of killing him. So he relaxed a little, then released her and said, "Why are you following me?"

After Whitney was let go, she immediately breathed a sigh of relief. She felt she had survived the massacre. Tom's killing intent was terrifying.

She tidied up her clothes and deliberately show plumpness to seduce Tom when tidying her top.

But she was disappointed because he didn't look at her at all.

Damn, so her efforts were in vain.

The man in front of her made her feel discouraged.

After she breathed smoothly, she said, "My name is Whitney. I'm from the Nüwa Sect. Our overlord asked me to invite you to visit our sect."

Tom was a little surprised. Nüwa Sect wanted to invite him to visit them?

What did that mean? Were they showing their friendliness or would they want to harm him?

He had heard something of the Nüwa Sect from Pence, and knew that it was a sect dominated by women. Each of them was very good-looking, and their charm was superb. They could charm every man all over the world, and their overlord was the greatest among them!

To be honest, Tom was not very interested in such a sect.

Because in addition to the great charm, the members of Nüwa Sect didn't know much about martial arts.

He could tell from Whitney's cultivation. She was at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, but her fighting ability was weaker than other masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm.

However, Tom was impressed by Whitney's tracking ability. Even he couldn't notice her breath, and he thought it was Asura following him.

Now that he knew her intention, Tom didn't bother to deal with her. He said coldly, "No."

After that, he turned around and left, ignoring Whitney.

Whitney was surprised and embarrassed by his indifference. What happened? This guy just ignored her?

How arrogant!

However, this guy seemed to be a big shot. He even made an appearance on the List of Immortals by kicking Fire Sickle out. That was why he was arrogant.

However, she should not give up her mission easily, so she quickly followed him and said, "Tom, don't refuse me now. We're sincere, we want to make friends with you."

Tom ignored her and got into the car.

Shocked, she immediately opened the door, went to the passenger seat, and said seriously, "Tom, did you hear me?!"

Tom looked at her and said faintly, "I've told you I won't go with you. Get out of the car."

Whitney was almost irritated. Tom didn't take her seriously at all. How dared him!

She tried to show her charm. In an instant, her face turned blushed and her eyes became watery. She looked very charming and seductive.

Even a master of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm would be mesmerized by her at first sight.

She was confident that as long as she used her charm, Tom would definitely be attracted to her!

She had received her overlord's instruction and she became even more charming.

However, her charm did not work at all. Tom said coldly, "Are you flirting with me?"

Whitney was almost broken down.

What? Flirting with him? She was using her charm!

That was complicated, ok?

However, she could tell that Tom was not attracted to her at all. Instead, he looked at her with a very mocking look, which made her discouraged!

The corners of her mouth twitched. She was no longer as charming as just now. Exasperated, she gritted her teeth and said, "You're an utter fool!"

Then, she adjusted her breathing and said seriously, "Tom, I'm serious. My overlord wants to invite you to be our guest. Please come with me."

Tom smiled. "What if I won't?"

Chapter 979

Although Tom was smiling, he became callous.

Whitney immediately felt how indifferent he was and shivered involuntarily.

She had never had much contact with a powerful man like Tom before.

Moreover, she even felt that Tom was more powerful than Xander, the genius of the Nüwa Sect?

However, when thinking about it carefully, she thought it was reasonable. After all, Tom was now ranked tenth on the List of Immortals, but Xander had not been ranked on the list. Xander was ranked eleven before, just behind the Fire Sickle. And now after being topped by Tom, he was naturally ranked 12.

In fact, there were only ten named on the List of Immortals.

But in fact, there were still rankings after the top ten of the List of Immortals. However, these rest were far weaker than the top ten. Generally, the real masters would not take the people after the top ten seriously.

Such was the case with Xander.

But in fact, Xander was already very powerful.

Whitney was a little timid, with tenderer expression. She said, "Why are you so heartless? Our Overlord just wants to make friends with you. Why are you being so disrespectful?"

To be honest, Whitney was indeed quite aggrieved. Before she left, she also promised Overlord that she would be able to complete the task and invite Tom back.

But in the end, Tom didn't want to go with her.

This was a blow to her confidence. She was beginning to doubt her charm now.

Tom said faintly, "I'm not interested in your Nüwa Sect."

Whitney really couldn't rebut. There was no way, for she was no match for sincere. Our Overlord is very sincere!"

Tom glanced at her indifferently and did not continue to speak. Then he immediately left.

Whitney was stunned for a moment. It was obvious that she did not expect that he would leave so straightforwardly. She could not help but feel a sense of frustration and suddenly said "bastard" with hatred.

Tom was indeed not very interested in this Nüwa Sect.

Especially he learned from Pence that the Nüwa Sect was actually just a low-level clan among the small clans. It seemed that even its Overlord did not reach God Becoming Level. Such a Tom.

With some tears in eyes, she bit her lip and said with grievance, "You should take pity on me. Can't you come back with me?"

Tom looked at her coldly. Finally, under Tom's gaze, she couldn't hold on any longer and said quickly, "Okay, it's just a joke. Why are you looking at me like that?"

Tom didn't take her mischief seriously and said directly, "If your Overlord really wants to make friends with me, she should show her sincerity."

Seeing that Tom slightly changed his idea, Whitney couldn't help but get excited and said quickly, "We are small clan did not interest him at all.

In fact, he was not very interested in the Clan.

Seriously, he was really interested in the four biggest clans in the world, for they were the most powerful in the Clan World.

They were equivalent to the four great powers in the Secular World.

However, he was also very self-aware. Now he had not really broken through to the God Becoming Level. If he entered the Clan World rashly, he would suffer because he had some conflicts with the four major clans.

Moreover, he did not have any grudges with the four major clans. He would not take the initiative to provoke them.

In a short while, he had already appeared at the airport. He took a plane directly to Country M to meet Adam.

In the Kungfu Cup, Tom had been threatened by Adam before. At that time, Adam even wanted to kill him. Now that Tom became more powerful, Tom would take actions to deal with Adam.

It wasn't too far from Eagle Country to Country M. Tom took a nap on the plane. When he woke up, he already arrived.

Frankly, Country M was indeed much more prosperous than Eagle Country.

Country M had all kinds of tall buildings. Moreover, local people were generally burly in figure. They were indeed much stronger than easterners.

It was also because of this that the western races looked down on the eastern races.

Walking on the streets, Tom could feel that Country M and H Country, as well as Eagle Country, had different cultures and different national sports.

Country M, Strictly speaking, was an immigrant country with many races. Black, white and yellow people were everywhere.

In Country M, the concept of race was not so strong, or it could be said that there was no concept of race at all.

Country M's main concepts were capital, exploitation and earning money.

Ordinary people would not feel this difference when they came here. But Tom was a high-level master. From the moment he walked out of the airport, he had already felt it.

This was actually a more chaotic country, where most people believed in the strong.

This was also the main point of the so-called faith.

Tom, as H Country's man, walked here and felt that many people had some contempt and hostility towards him when they walked past him.

In recent years, because of the rapid development of H Country, the relationship between Country M and H Country was not very good.

When Tom walked to the streets of Country M, he also felt this faint sense of rejection.

This was the different case. Generally speaking, People in Country M who arrived in H Country were always be respected by local people. But when people of H Country stopped into the territory of Country M, they would be discriminated.

It was too sorrowful.

However, Tom did not have much self-pity because he knew that H Country was slowly taking off. In time, this situation could definitely be reversed!

But he had to admit that Country M's food could not be compared with H Country's. It was not delicious at all.

When it came to food, H Country was the country of gastronomy in the world. The food of other countries was far worse than that of H Country.

Of course, Tom quickly adapted.

Moreover, he went straight into a restaurant and wolfed food down.

He ordered a lot at once, which surprised the people in the restaurant, because his meal was enough for seven or eight people!

They thought Tom would dine with his friends. But soon, when they saw that he had finished the meal, they were shocked.

However, at the checkout, Tom took out a stack of money from his wallet which immediately attracted people's attention. Among them, there were a few malicious punks...

Chapter 980

These gangsters were not good people at first sight. Their bodies were covered in tattoos, and the look on their faces was obviously of hooligans.

They were now squinting at Tom, revealing their bad intentions. It was obvious that they had targeted Tom.

Tom didn't seem to know. He continued to take out a stack of money and even asked the owner, "Sir, excuse me, where is the bank nearby? I have too much cash on me and need to make deposit."

His voice was loud enough for the entire restaurant to hear, and people's attention turned to him!

And, as expected, they saw that Tom was holding a thick stack of money in his hand. And they knew it was a lot of money, at least a hundred thousand!

This time, not only were those hostile gangsters, but even the others were staring at Tom with green eyes.

In their eyes, Tom was a lamb to the slaughter.

And a quite fat lamb!

That was right. Tom was alone from H Country, and had so much cash on him. He was a fat lamb. There would be no consequence even if they robbed him!

It could be said that not only those gangsters, but even some ordinary people had already started to have evil intentions.

They kept swallowing and wanted to rob Tom.

How could Tom not know how these people reacted?

In fact, he did it on purpose. The situation now was different from when he visited Eagle Country.

When he went to Eagle Country, he had already prepared to make friends with Her Majesty, so naturally, he could not make trouble there.

However, things were different here. He had had a grudge with Country M, and Adam had even tried to kill him. Even if he went to Adam sincerely, he would not be treated well.

Tom was such a smart man. How could he be a fool for his pains?

So, before he came to Country M, he had already made up his mind to make a good fuss, so that Adam had to deal with him for himself!

At that time, he could use the opportunity to challenge Adam.

Moreover, the reason why he did this was the fact that the people of Country M generally looked down on those of H Country. Then, as he had finally come here, it was naturally impossible to come in vain!

He would take this opportunity to make a good name for H Country and let the Country M know that they were not easy to bully!

This was a good thing for him to kill two birds with one stone.

The simple way to make trouble was to attract these gangsters to rob him by showing off his wealth.

Then he would make the fuss larger and larger. In this way, when the time came to investigate, it was not his fault, but the fault of Country M's people. Even if he had made trouble and hurt people, he could still get away with it.

At this stage of Tom's life, every decision he made was meaningful.

But no one else knew and could know what he was doing, so everyone thought that he was a fool from H Country, who dared to show off his wealth in a foreign place?

And even in this chaotic city. Wasn't this simply suicide?

You should know that the people from H Country were always bullied here. Every year, many of them died in the hands of Country M's people helplessly. In the eyes of many Country M's men, the people from H Country were weak and cowardly. No matter how they were bullied, they dared not to fight back.

The restaurant owner seemed to be kind-hearted. He sighed and said to Tom, "Young man, you'd better giving this money to the police quickly, or..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, he was glared at by the gangsters on the other side. With a slap on the table, they shouted, "Where's my beer! Why haven't you brought it to us yet? You don't want to do business, do you?"

Their eyes were full of threats, which immediately made the owner shiver. He didn't dare to say anything more, for he knew those gangsters very well. If he said any more, he would be doomed.

So he quickly lowered his head and asked the waiter to bring a few bottles of beer to the gangsters.

Just as Tom was about to ask again, one of the gangsters, tall and burly, walked over. With a smile on his face, he warmly hooked Tom's shoulder and said, "Hey, buddy, you're going to the bank to deposit money? I can take you there. I'm familiar with the bank, and I can make your money saved in a second!"

There was a big grin on his face as he looked straight at the pile of money in Tom's hand. The desire in his eyes could not be concealed.

When the others saw this, they knew that Tom must be finished. The money was going to fall into the hands of these gangsters.

It would be fine if Tom would cooperate. But if not, he would be beaten to death in minutes.

Moreover, as a newcomer to this chaotic city from H Country, Tom had nothing to say even if he was killed.

Tom didn't seem to know that he had become the prey. He said with gratitude, "Really? That's great! I heard from my friend that the people of Country M are very hospitable and willing to help those who come from H Country. And my friend is right."

Tom's performance was completely of an idiot.

Hearing his words, the gangsters laughed even more happily. They patted him on the shoulder and said, "Ha ha ha, your friend is right. The people of Country M are very hospitable, especially to those who come from H Country, ha ha!"

Tom was also laughing foolishly as if he did not know that danger was coming.

At the same time, there was a tall woman in a corner who frowned slightly and looked closely at this place. She was a very righteous woman from Country M, and she also had combat training. Her dream was to become a police officer.

She would always stand up for unfair things.

Now that she had seen this, she thought that Tom would definitely suffer in minutes. She could not stand by and watch.

Just then, Tom walked out of the restaurant to a deserted alley with the gangsters. She quickly paid the bill and followed.