

Chapter 1091

However, Fausto snorted and said, "Don't pretend to be a kind person. You are still the suspect!"

Fausto was deeply distrustful of him.

Tom did not mind his hostility and said directly, "Take me to the Saint King."

Fausto stopped talking and walked ahead. Tom followed him.

After a while, Tom arrived at the residence of the Saint King, which was still that magnificent palace. Half of the palace was in the sea of clouds, like a place where immortals lived.

In fact, Tom had seen a lot of experts at the God Becoming Level and had killed super strong people like Adams. But now, he was facing the Saint King again, he thought the king was still that mysterious and powerful man.

King of LT Organization had impressed him. The king was unpredictable and now he could not feel the king's existence.

He knew that the competence of the King of LT Organization must be above the level of First Rank Summit. The king had boundless strength, so he could not feel him.

However, even the strong King of LT Organization was injured. Then, how powerful the Blood Thirst Sect of the East Sect was!

Fausto stood at the entrance of the palace, knelt on one knee, and respectfully said, "Your highness, Tom has arrived!"

After a while, the Saint King said in a loud and august voice, "King of Southern State, come in." The palace was all the echoes of the Saint King's voice, making him mysterious and majestic.

His subtext was to meet Tom alone. Fausto clearly knew what the Saint King meant. He stood up, glared at Tom, and then left.

Tom patted his sleeve and strode into the palace.

When he went in, he found that the palace had been destroyed severely and several pillars were broken.

It looked like the injury of the Saint King, not in the most glorious time.

"Tom."

At this time, the Saint King began to speak. His voice came from the entire palace. Tom couldn't tell the direction and was curious about it.

"I'm here." Tom held his fists to show his respect.

Then the Saint King said again, "Why do you return this time?"

When Tom heard this, he was stunned. He opened his mouth but didn't know how to answer.

The Saint King continued, "You don't have a sense of belonging to the LT Sect. You think it's just your stepping stone. You belong to the secular world, belong to the H Country, right?"

Tom remained silent for a while and did not deny it. He said, "Yes, I am from the secular world and there is the H Country's blood in my veins. But your highness, that doesn't mean I will not save people of the LT Sect."

"Oh? Then what are you going to do?"
The Saint King said it with a teasing smile.

Tom shook his head and said, "I don't know. I'll do what your highness ask me to do."

The Saint King smiled and said, "What if I told you to kill the East Sect now?"

"I believe your highness will not let me do this." Tom shook his head and said. He thought a smart person like the Saint King would not do such a stupid thing.

The Saint King said in relief, "Tom, you are indeed very smart and affectionate. Unfortunately, you are too young."

Tom didn't understand what he really meant. He asked, "Your highness, how do you feel? What about your injuries?"

"I won't die in a short time." The Saint King said calmly. Hearing his words, Tom suddenly felt relaxed.

"Tom." The Saint King called him again, "You're here to ask me the way to the God Becoming Level, right?"

Tom didn't cover up his real intention, nodded directly, and said, "Yes. But apart from that, I want to come back and see how the sect is. I didn't expect such a serious issue had happened... Your highness, why didn't you call me back?"

Tom was very confused about this. Actually, he had been the hot point in the secular world these days. The Saint King must have known his strength. But why didn't he call him back and fight together with them?

However, what the Saint King said next surprised him.

"You're too young and weak. It's no use calling you back." Tom was surprised to hear that the Saint King said with tenderness!

In fact, he had just met with the Saint King for the third time.

The first time was on King's Landing Mountain. The second time was in this palace, and now it was the third time.

The Saint King was just a stranger to him. Why did he see the king as a gentle elder?

Was it because his mother was the previous Saintess?

Tom said, "Your highness, I'm nearly as strong as experts at the peak of the God Becoming Level. I'm not weak, right?"

Yes, Tom was no longer that powerless guy. He was confident about Tom.

However, the Saint King smiled and said, "You are weak compared with those old monsters."

Those old monsters?

Who were they?

Were they strong experts in the East Sect?

"When can I reach their level?" Tom asked humbly. He didn't think the Saint King lied to him because even if he reached the current level, he couldn't feel the existence of the Saint King. At first glance, it seemed that the Saint King was not in the palace, but if observed, the Saint King was everywhere.

And he had a feeling that he was definitely no match for the Saint King.

But even such a powerful person was hurt by the East Sect. This showed that the East Sect was extremely strong.

"Until you reach the God Becoming Level." The Saint King said in a helpless and worried voice.

The God Becoming Level?

It seemed that people in this world were more powerful than he had imagined.

He suddenly thought about something and asked again, "Your highness, may I ask why the East Sect attacked us? The LT Sectt is also one of the four major sects."

The Saint King tried to put it off. Although The Saint King didn't say the exact answer, Tom could analyze from his words that the two sects must have a grudge. But he didn't know what it was.

Then, Tom chatted with the Saint King for a while and solved some questions in his mind. Finally, the Saint King said, "The secret realm is about to open. Tom, if you go there, you must be careful of King of Carefree of the East Sect. He will be your biggest threat. Moreover, when you go to the secret realm, you could only believe in yourself."

Tom was a little surprised by this advice. He asked, "Why?"

Chapter 1092

But the Saint King did not answer his question. Instead, he said, "I'm tired. You can leave."

Tom still felt that the Saint King was strange. The Saint King seemed to hide something from him. But he couldn't think of anything that Saint King could hide from him.

So, he didn't ask the Saint King anymore but held back this doubt. After showing gratitude to the Saint King, he left.

Tom came out of the palace and heard the voice of the Saint King from the sky. The Saint King said to the whole LT Sect people, "Tom, the King of Southern State, is not a traitor. He was framed by the East Sect. You must not be hostile to the King of Southern State."

After that, Tom could clearly feel that many people in the LT Sect looked at him more friendly. They were not hostile to him anymore.

Fausto snorted. Although his attitude was still very bad, he at least didn't question Tom. In his opinion, the Saint King was always right. Since the Saint King had cleared Tom of suspicion, then Tom was really not a traitor.

Tom was very impressed by the Saint King's influence in the LT Sect. It was said that the LT Sect was owned by the Saint King alone. This was not a joke.

One coin had two sides. As long as the Saint King was alive, the LT Sect would be united as a steel wall. But if something happened to the Saint King, then the LT Sect would definitely collapse from the inside.

Tom stayed in the LT Sect for another day and learned more about the old scores between the LT Sect and the East Sect.

More than 20 years ago, the East Sect lost a baby girl, and she turned out to be the overlord of the East Sect's daughter. Recently, the East Sect found that this accident had something to do with the LT Sect. So, they denounced the LT Sect and asked them to return the baby girl. No. More than 20 years later, the baby girl had already become a slim and graceful woman.

However, the LT Sect insisted that this matter had nothing to do with them.

The two sides couldn't reach an agreement and they started fighting.

However, the East Sect was very tough. They took it seriously and sent out many of the Strong to attack the LT Sect!

And Tom saw what happened next.

LT Sect used to be very powerful. But over the years, they lost a lot of talents. Only the Saint King was a master at God Becoming Level.

If Raoul weren't strong enough to stop these masters at God Becoming Level from the East Sect, the LT Sect would be dismantled long ago.

But even so, the damage done to the LT Sect by the East Sect was still extremely huge, and many disciples were killed.

Now, the LT Sect was filled with sadness and anger.

Tom could clearly feel their sorrow. At the same time, he despised the East Sect the most.

He didn't like the crazy people from the Clan World. Now, he was even more hostile to them.

After staying here for a day, he visited many people in the LT Sect and gained a lot of popularity.

After many days, it was finally the day when the Secret Realm opened.

It was tomorrow!

Tom left the LT Sect one day early and returned to Q City to meet his family.

Now, he adjusted himself to his best condition.

He already had a blueprint about what was in the Secret Realm.

The so-called Secret Realm was an underground world full of danger and opportunities.

But no one knew how this underground world evolved.

They only knew that the Secret Realm would only be opened once in a while. Moreover, the Strong at God Becoming Level couldn't enter. At the entrance of the Secret Realm, a strange force would block them from entering.

The passage of the Secret Realm was not big. So not many people could enter. It could only accommodate 20 people at a time. This was why there were only a few people could enter the Secret Realm.

Tom was qualified because he had won the Kungfu Cup championship.

As for the others, they got qualifications in various other ways.

In fact, not everyone was willing to enter the Secret Realm.

The Secret Realm was full of opportunities. When the Strong of the Innate Realm entered, they had a chance to break through to the God Becoming Level.

However, the huge gains were accompanied by huge risks. It was very dangerous inside. Every time the Secret Realm opened, they could see there were countless corpses.

Basically, it would be good if half of the 20 strong masters could come out.

Therefore, anyone who dared to enter the Secret Realm was strong and courageous.

Tom slept with Phoebe tonight. Actually, it had been a long time since they had sex. So they had wild sex that night.

When the first ray of sunlight shone through the curtains on Tom's face, he woke up. He looked down at the woman in his arms and smiled happily.

Even if there were more difficulties ahead, as long as Phoebe was by his side, he would get great strength and satisfaction.

Thinking of their sex last night, Tom felt restless. But he did not ask for another sex because last night, Phoebe had been tormented by him.

Today was the time for the Secret

Realm to open, and he didn't have much time. After getting up gently, he didn't wake Phoebe up. He put on his clothes and kissed Phoebe on her lips, who was sleeping soundly. Then, he left.

However, he didn't know Phoebe gently moved her eyelashes after he left. Then she opened her eyes and stared blankly at the door with tears streaming down her face.

After a simple breakfast, Tom set off.

He headed straight to the Secret Realm.

This time, the Secret Realm was not opened in H Country, but in a small country, a desolate place.

When Tom arrived, he had already sensed several powerful auras. Undoubtedly, they were the super-powerful masters of Major Perfection Realm.

Moreover, the Strong were all foreigners whom Tom had never seen before.

However, Tom did not care. He was the strongest and he had the ability to be proud.

Therefore, when he appeared at the entrance of the Secret Realm, he immediately attracted everyone's attention.

Chapter 1093

Tom immediately felt that he became the focus. Everyone looked at him.

Although they were masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm and hadn't reached God Becoming Level, they were not weaker than the Strong of God Becoming Level.

They were all super-geniuses from all kinds of organizations.

Tom felt that they were the same as him. They were confident and refused to admit defeat.

Each of them had a strong will and believed that they were the strongest. In their mind, even if they were not the strongest now, they could be the strongest person one day.

They didn't convince or hypnotize themselves but believed in themselves.

Although Tom was famous, they weren't scared or sad when they faced him. They just wanted to compete with him with increasing hostility!

Tom didn't deter them by his reputation but challenged them.

It was interesting. Tom himself was a super-genius. It was his first time to see so many super-geniuses.

When they looked at him, he looked at everyone present and found more than ten super-geniuses. Even the weakest ones reached Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm and were at the same level as Xander from Nüwa Sect.

Most of them reached Half-step God Becoming Level and were about to break through to the God Becoming Level. Their strength was not worse than the Strong of God Becoming Level.

Tom had underestimated others before. The world was so big and many super-geniuses could be found.

Thus, it was more interesting.

He smiled and walked over unhurriedly.

They glanced at him and looked at other places. Obviously, they did not take him seriously.

They were all super-geniuses and some of them had beaten masters of God Becoming Level. In their minds, Tom was not outstanding.

They didn't provoke him as he imagined. They just glanced at him and did their own things. Tom didn't cause any trouble. He didn't know any of the Strong in front of him. He found a place to sit down and waited for the open of Secret Realm.

After he sat down, a man walked up to him and said to him with interest, "Hey, are you Tom, the most popular one in the world?"

Tom looked up and saw a fat man with a fat face. He wore strange clothes and spoke mandarin with a strong accent. It sounded like a dialect in the south.

He was not hostile but was kind. He was interested.

Obviously, he was from the Clan World.

To Tom's surprise, it was rare to meet a fat man at his level.

Generally, when they reached some level, they would have the most perfect body. There were few fat or thin people.

"Yes." Tom nodded faintly.

The fat man was easy-going. He sat down beside him and said, "I've been paying attention to you for a long time. Would you mind my sitting next to you?"

Tom said, "No."

Tom looked at him just now. He was a little surprised because he found that the fat man was not weak and had reached Half-step God Becoming Level. He seemed to be kind, but he had fierce momentum. He killed a lot of people before.

The fat man sat down. He took out a pig leg from his arms and started to eat it. When he ate it halfway, he suddenly thought of something and handed it to Tom. He said, "Do you want to have some? I made it. It is delicious."

Tom shook his head and said, "No. Have it yourself."

"It's really delicious." The fat man stuffed the pig leg into Tom's hand. He was enthusiastic. Tom shook his head and rejected him.

The fat man frowned and said unhappily, "Do you disrespect me?"

He looked kind before. But when he frowned, he became terrifying with fierce momentum. He was murderous and angry. As long as Tom did not respect him, he would attack him.

The other super-geniuses around were attracted by his change. They looked at them with interest. They wanted to see what Tom would do.

However, Tom kept smiling. He said, "You can think so."

As he said this, it was tenses. The fat man looked worse. He increased his momentum, which was more terrifying.

If it were someone else like Xander, he would be overwhelmed by the fat man's momentum.

For Tom, it was as if he could not sense it. He was still smiling.

At the critical moment, the fat man suddenly smiled again and looked kind. He said, "I'm just joking with you. Don't be nervous."

He withdrew his momentum suddenly. It was tense last second but it was peaceful the next second. People who didn't know him couldn't react.

Tom remained calm and said faintly, "If you do it again, I will attack you."

Tom said calmly as if he was saying a simple trifle. When the fat man heard it, he changed his expression. It didn't sound like a trifle for him!

Because he sensed that Tom was not joking. If he did it again, Tom would attack him.

He looked bad and twitched his mouth.

He was silent for a moment and looked at Tom. He held back his anger and didn't attack him. He smiled again. He looked simple that no one could tell that he wanted to kill Tom just now.

Tom smiled faintly and didn't take his provocation seriously.

Chapter 1094

"How was it going? Have you got his number?"

After the fat man had finished his pork leg, he stood up, smoothed out the crease in his trousers, and walked casually to a skinny tall man, who asked in a deep voice.

The expression on the fat man's face turned from simple and honest to shrewd. He shook his head, "Not really. The rumors are probably true. Tom is not simple."

The skinny man snorted, "Maybe it's just the hype! I've seen his personal records. He's only in his early thirties this year. No matter how talented he is, how high a level can he possibly reach? Besides, I've watched the video of his competition at the Kungfu Cup. He was just okay."

The fat man disagreed, "It's hard to say. I felt bad seeing him angry just now. It was like his aura had given me a lot of pressure. I might be no match for him."

The skinny man asked, "What if we fight as a team? How can he defeat us together? Hmph."

"That's true..." The fat man nodded with a much more relaxed expression. There had been an invisible pressure that kept bothering him after he sat next to Tom. He didn't tell the skinny man about it because he also believed that it was impossible for Tom to defeat both of them at the same time, no matter how powerful he could be.

"Tom has been thrust into the limelight recently. There will definitely be lots of people who can't wait to take revenge on him in the Secret Realm. I've heard that the junior fellow apprentice of Adam has come too." The thin man said with an insidious smile, "He is also a genius who has been an expert of the Half-step God Becoming Level since ten years ago. The reason he hasn't made the breakthrough is that he wants to pick the fruit in the Secret Realm this time and directly reach the God Becoming Level at on move."

The fat man also nodded and said, "Haha, yes, this trip to the Secret Realm must be wonderful. We will just hide and reap the benefits after they kill each other."

Tom paid little attention to their whispering. He was busy meditating, spreading his mind out to explore the entrance of the Secret Realm.

However, no matter how hard he tried, he still found nothing. The entrance seemed to be in another space and time.

Many other experts had come here within the two hours after his arrival. All of them were mysterious Strongs. Among them, Legend, Albert's junior brother, came here too.

He still carried a pair of heavy swords on his back. He had a typical appearance of an expert in martial arts. His eyes were as bright as stars and his eyebrows straight as a sword. His appearance attracted a lot of attention.

"Sure enough, Legend is here."

"It's been a long time since Legend last showed up. I didn't expect that the opening of the Secret Realm would also attract him."

"Of course he would be attracted. There will be endless power and magic inside the Secret Realm. How could Legend give up on it? Well, he's too weak to get them. He'd better behave himself in the Secret Realm, or the other powerful experts would definitely kill him if he dared to be arrogant!"

Legend stopped for a moment after entering. His eyes ran down the crowds. Their whispering didn't make him angry. He was calm as if he had been used to things like that.

However, he turned more excited upon seeing all the experts at presence. His eyes were obviously filled with the desire to fight.

He was undoubtedly a militant.

Soon, he saw Tom.

This man turned him the most excited. He strode straight towards Tom.

"You killed Adam!"

He walked up to Tom and said directly.

Tom was not surprised at his reaction. After all, it had been a day since he killed that man. It was reasonable that Legend had known it.

He admitted with a smile, "I did!"

"How did you do it?!" Staring at Tom, it seemed difficult for him to accept the fact.

It had always been Legend's goal to kill Adam. The only reason he would risk his life to come to the Secret Realm this time was that he wanted to reach the God Becoming Level so that he could be powerful enough to go to Country M and kill Adam.

But Tom did this before him and made a name for himself, which made Legend hard to accept it!

In his opinion, this glory should have belonged to him!

Tom felt his unwillingness. He smiled calmly, "It's a simple question. Just go back and watch the live broadcast."

Legend was dissatisfied with this answer, but he was not stupid enough to challenge Tom directly. He just snorted and said, "Let's wait and see! I will challenge you one day!"

What a kid!

Tom didn't take it seriously. He smiled and replied, "I'll be waiting."

He was being arrogant, Legend thought, but he also had to admit that Tom was powerful enough to be arrogant.

After a while, almost all the experts had arrived. There were so many of them that even the temperature around turned higher by the tension.

Every one of them was convinced that he himself was the most powerful here.

Tom had discovered that several of them had an aura that was no weaker than his.

Just then, in a second, he heard footsteps coming from the front left, accompanied by four extremely powerful auras!

The four auras were all strong, one of which was even stronger than his. Tom looked over with his body tensed up.

Others discovered the four auras as well.

The sound of footsteps was getting closer and closer. A few seconds later, four men finally showed up.

Tom had met two of them, Emmett of the West Sect and Alistair of the North Sect.

However, the strongest aura didn't come from them. It was from the man in the middle, whose eyes were as deep as a black hole. He was dignified, elegant, and at the same time, extremely terrifying.

The whole room suddenly fell into absolute silence after he showed up!

Including Legend, whose eyes were fixed on the elegant man in white.

He spat a few words out of his mouth, "Here he comes, King of Carefree of the East Sect!"

His words made Tom realize that the man was the King of Carefree of the East Sect, who ranked first in the List of Immortals. Sure enough, he looked extraordinary.

This was the first man Tom had ever met who made him feel ashamed of himself!

At the same time, this thought occurred to him: He was no match for this man...

Chapter 1095

At this moment, King of Carefree looked at him in the eye.

Tom immediately felt his eyes being attracted by a powerful black hole. It was a branded new experience. He only felt that both his mind and soul were sucked in! Even his mind stagnated at that moment.

The atmosphere suddenly became even weirder.

Everyone found that King of Carefree and Tom were looking at each other, with intense interest.

It's fair to say that recently, Tom was quite popular not only with people of the Secular World, but also of the Clan World.

There was even someone comparing him to the King of Carefree.

So it was something they would like to see that King of Carefree came today to directly threaten Tom. They would feel even better if King of Carefree could destroy him at the first meeting.

This trip to the Secret Realm was destined to be a cruel journey, and it's unknown how many could survive the travel.

It's fair to say that anyone standing nearby would be an enemy. Thus it couldn't be better to eliminate a powerful opponent before the travel began.

However, Tom was stunned for only a short while and then regained his consciousness. His eyes became clear and he continued to fearlessly stare at King of Carefree.

Everyone could feel as if there were sparks shining in the air. At this time, Tom and King of Carefree were fighting on the spiritual level.

But it was only a flash in the pan. Soon, King of Carefree withdrew his gaze and smiled playfully.

Tom also looked away and smiled faintly, as if nothing had happened.

In fact, he respected King of Carefree. After a spiritual confrontation against him, he finally understood why this famous man was at the top of the List of Immortals. It's fair to say that King of Carefree was so powerful, far better than Adam!

The point is King of Carefree, like him, was only at Half-step God Becoming Level and short of the authentic God Becoming Level.

Tom wasn't quite sure that he could beat King of Carefree in a real fight.

But on the other hand, the real battle was not just about the realm. Things like the experience of the battle, the performance on the spot, and the mental toughness were all critical. No one will know the result before the battle.

Tom was always the likes of those who gets tougher when the going gets tough. Now he met someone whose realm was better than him, he was not discouraged but inspired to win.

The others were a bit disappointed that there was no fierce fight but a light confrontation between King of Carefree and Tom.

Legend came over. He looked at Tom for a while and said, "I believe you are able to defeat Adam now."

Tom was stunned and said, "Because of that confrontation just now?"

Legend nodded and said, "That's right. You managed to get through under the pressure of King of Carefree without losing your composure. I admire you very much."

It seemed that he was praising Tom, but the person he praised was actually King of Carefree. This further proved his presence was extremely terrifying.

Meanwhile, a young man asked King of Carefree, "Senior brother, why didn't you beat this guy?"

This young man was Melvin, who also came from the East Sect. He was King of Carefree's junior brother, and ranked fourth on the List of Immortals. He was medium built with a feminine face, and had a pair of slimmed eyes, which made people feel that he was a formidable man, especially when he narrowed his eyes. It was like a human-like venomous snake hiding in the dark corner, which may crop up anytime to kill his prey in an instant.

King of Carefree shook his head gently and said faintly, "Don't bother. He may not be able to survive once he entered the Secret Realm."

Melvin nodded in agreement. In fact, they've been to the Secret Realm before, knowing what was inside.

They almost lost their lives last time!

Emmett asked, "King, you just confronted Tom. What about his strength?"

Alistair looked at King of Carefree, expecting to hear his evaluation about Tom.

King of Carefree said faintly, "Not bad."

He obviously didn't take Tom seriously. The subtext of his words was that he could never beat him although he was not bad.

It sounded arrogant, but people took it for granted because it was King of Carefree who said that.

King of Carefree was the top master under the God Becoming Level. It was not bragging, but a fact. King of Carefree proved it with his fists.

Tom was quite popular recently, but he was nothing compared to King of Carefree, for he had killed several masters of God Becoming Level years ago.

As the top Chosen One on the List of Immortals, King of Carefree had good reasons to ignore Tom.

Although their voices were not loud, they did not hide it on purpose and all the people present, who were all first-class masters, could hear them clearly with their sharp ears.

Tom heard it as well, but he was not angry at all. He just smiled calmly and didn't take it seriously.

Legend was surprised to see that.
"Aren't you angry?"

Tom asked him back, "Why should I?"

Legend, on the other hand, was stunned. After a while, he shook his head and said, "Your performance doesn't match your age. I wonder if you're only thirty."

Tom smiled without any further explanation.

He knew that King of Carefree would despise him. After all, he was at the top of the List of Immortals, and had been famous much earlier than him.

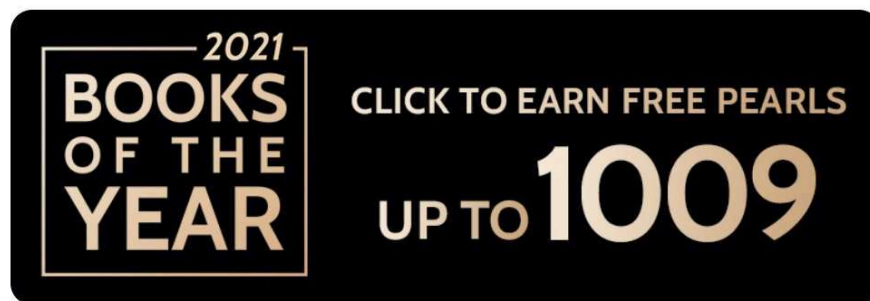

He had investigated King of Carefree and found that he was unique. He was superior in both the Secular World and the Clan World. His reputation was really not as good as King of Carefree.

But so what?

What he likes the most was to beat the stronger with weaker strength.

As for the journey to the Secret Realm, he did not want to stand on anyone's opposite. His only purpose was to break through to the God Becoming Level through this trip, and become stronger enough to protect the people around him in the following world war.

If provoked, he wouldn't mind killing the opponent, even if it was King of Carefree.

Chapter 1096

From the beginning, Tom knew it very well.

He had always been looked down upon and ignored. He had been used to it for a long time, so it could not cause a ripple in his heart at all.

It gradually got dark. At this time, the clouds in the sky became more and more manic. The originally clear sky suddenly became dark. There were many dark clouds, forming a whirlpool shape, as if something was coming!

Seeing the change in the weather, Tom was a little surprised. He had never seen such weather before. It was too abnormal.

For the others, they didn't react strangely. On the other hand, their eyes were filled with excitement. Someone could not help but say, "Here it is! The Secret Realm is about to open!"

After this man's finished speaking, a beam of light shone down from the sky, accurately illuminating the entrance of the Secret Realm!

The entrance to the Secret Realm was originally just a void, but the air suddenly became twisted, forming a circular vortex, more than two meters in diameter.

Tom was surprised to see such a strange scene. He had never seen such a thing before.

Moreover, with his theoretical knowledge and his world view, such a strange thing shouldn't have happened.

However, facing the fact, he had to believe it.

Legend's eyes lit up and he said excitedly, "The Secret Realm has been opened! It's finally opened! I heard that the chances in the Secret Realm this time are greater than ever! I must seize this opportunity and break through to the God Becoming Level!"

After he finished speaking, he strode over and jumped into the whirlpool, disappearing!

He was really gone. Tom could not detect his existence at all. It was as if Legend had disappeared from the spacetime of this world. Tom could not help but be shocked.

Tom couldn't figure out why something like this happened. Did something isolate his perception, or did Legend really enter another world?

Not far away, Melvin saw his reaction and said "Bumpkin" disdainfully.

There were many others who looked at him with mocking eyes, thinking that Tom was a bumpkin and ignorant.

All of a sudden, they felt superior.

Tom had indeed never experienced this kind of thing because even Albert and

King of LT Organization had never told him that the Secret Realm was like this.

In his opinion, the Secret Realm was just an underground world.

In essence, it was still in the spacetime of this world, on earth.

But now, it seemed that was not the case.

This was really interesting.

Tom had always been a very receptive person, so he soon accepted this fact.

Then, some other people also jumped into the entrance of the Secret Realm and disappeared into the whirlpool.

Soon, there were only a few people left.

Tom also walked over and was about to jump in.

But at this moment, suddenly, he felt a strong hostility coming from behind him on the left!

At the same time, he felt a great threat. He dodged reflexively.

The next moment, a big tree in front of him that only three people could hug exploded. Tom looked in that direction and immediately saw the young man named Melvin, looking at him provocatively and playfully, "Your speed is not bad. I look forward to your performance in the Secret Realm."

After that, Melvin jumped into the entrance of the Secret Realm with King of Carefree.

Tom's face darkened. No matter how magnanimous he was, he could not control his anger now!

This guy attacked Tom without a word. If Tom hadn't reacted fast enough, he would have been injured just now.

Once he was injured, then what awaited him was definitely death.

The point was that Tom had never provoked that guy, but the guy was going to kill him.

Tom snorted heavily. He had never been a soft-hearted person. He would not attack unless he was attacked. If anyone offended him, he would definitely strike back. If this guy dared to attack him first, then Tom would definitely not let him go!

In a short while, everyone jumped into the light curtain, and Tom also jumped straight in soon!

After he jumped in, the entrance of the Secret Realm, the distorted space and time, like a ripple of the lake, disappeared in a few seconds.

Even the abnormal dark clouds in the sky slowly dissipated, as if nothing had happened.

As soon as he jumped in, Tom immediately felt that he had jumped into another space time. The air pressure around him gave him a sense of pressure, and the air became thin, unlike the environment on earth.

The weirdest thing was that the scene around him was distorted.

This was just as real and strange as the experience of traveling through time in those science fiction movies.

Fortunately, this experience did not last long, and soon, he didn't feel the space time was distorted any longer.

The next moment, he found himself jumping down from mid-air. A strong sense of weightlessness spread all over his body. He quickly looked down and found that he was falling from a height of more than 30 meters.

Moreover, the gravity here seemed to be a little bigger than it was on earth!

After a short panic, Tom immediately calmed down. He adjusted his posture to huddle himself up. When he landed, He bent his legs and rolled around on the ground, cushioning the strong momentum.

But even so, he still felt some pain.

Fortunately, his physique was abnormally strong. Otherwise, if an ordinary man had fallen so high, he would have broken into pieces.

Not to mention an ordinary person, even a master of the Innate Realm would be seriously injured or even killed.

No wonder not everyone could enter the Secret Realm. If someone who was not strong enough came, he would die.

Tom stood up, took a deep breath, and adjusted himself.

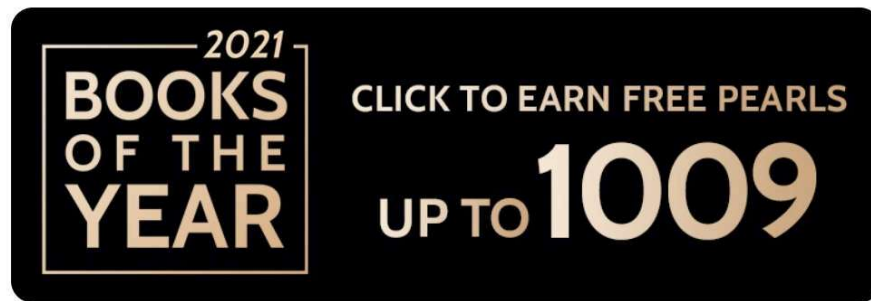

He soon realized that the environment around him was completely different from that on earth. This was really a new world.

He was now in a forest, and the trees here were too tall and too big, completely covering the sky!

On earth, if a tree grew to two meters in diameter, it would be amazing.

But here, the smallest tree had a diameter of more than two meters, and some larger trees had a diameter of more than five meters, and even more than ten meters! It was a colossus!

Chapter 1097

Even Tom was still a little stunned to see it because it was far beyond his knowledge.

Although he was a martial artist, he had some scientific knowledge in terms of biology, physics, chemistry, or astronomy.

However, he had never known that there was such a magical and bizarre place on earth.

What surprised him most was that the gravity here was obviously much stronger than on earth.

In other words, on earth, he weighed 100 kilos, and here, he weighed 150 kilos.

In addition to the more inconvenient movement, the biggest impact was on the internal organs.

Fortunately, he was a Half-step God Becoming Level. If it were an ordinary person, under such gravity, he would not be able to hold on for long and would faint, or even die.

However, his mind was very strong. He adapted to the environment soon. After taking two deep breaths, he adjusted his mind and focused on the exploration of the Secret Realm.

In any case, it was not the first time the Secret Realm had opened. Many people had come in before, just like Albert, who had broken through to the God Becoming Level in the Secret Realm.

In fact, the men of God Becoming Level on earth almost all broke through to the God Becoming Level after they came to the Secret Realm. As for the reason behind, no one really knew.

According to Albert's guess, it should be that the earth couldn't provide the necessary condition for them to break through to the God Becoming Level.

So people like King of Carefree, Emmett, Alistair, and so on waited until the Secret Realm opened and came in to seek a breakthrough to the God Becoming Level.

After adjusting his mind, Tom continued on the journey.

He found that it was a brand new world. Not only was the gravity greater, but even the species here were different from those on earth.

The size of the plants and animals here was much bigger than that on earth.

This was similar to the titan in some sci-fi movies. Everything was bigger. Just now, he even saw a bird that was as big as an elephant flying in the air and making a gust of wind.

This situation reminded Tom of the dinosaur civilization that had once appeared on earth. At that time, the earth should be about the current environment, he thought.

Because there was obviously more oxygen here than on earth.

Tom estimated that the oxygen content here was at least 40% higher than that on earth!

After breathing for a long time, they would feel uncomfortable.

As he walked, Tom's eyebrows suddenly twitched twice. He sensed a strange movement coming from behind him!

And there was a sense of creeping danger. Something was onto him!

He slowed down, and his vigilance rose to the highest, ready for any attack!

Finally, a minute later, the thing behind him moved, making a loud roar. Tom saw a huge shadow covering his feet, and at the same time, he felt that sense of crisis again.

This feeling gave goosebumps to him!

Then, almost in an instant, he ran forward at the top speed. At the same time, he looked back and saw a shocking scene.

It turned out that what was behind him was an extremely large canine animal. It was showing its teeth at him and looked very scary. Moreover, what was most frightening was that the size of this animal was even bigger than the elephants on earth and its movements were extremely quick!!

Tom had never seen such a huge animal before... And its movements were so fast that it was unbelievable.

However, Tom regained his composure in an instant. Although the giant wolf was a big threat, as long as he could react and dodge its attack in time, then he wouldn't be hurt.

Tom waited for the wolf to pounce on him. He dodged the attack and kicked the wolf hard on the head. Suddenly, there was a loud bang, followed by a shrill scream.

The wolf, which was even bigger than an elephant, was kicked out by Tom and slammed into a tree more than five meters in diameter.

Tom used 80 % of his strength. Even a tank made of steel would fall into pieces by that!

However, the wolf did not die. It just screamed. When it looked at Tom, there was no more ferocity in its eyes. Instead, it was fear and confusion. The wolf seemed to be intelligent and could not understand why this seemingly small creature in front of him could do such harm to him.

He howled twice at him and then ran away without looking back.

Tom was very surprised. He knew very well how powerful his kick was. Originally, he thought that he would definitely kick the wolf to death with one kick, but the wolf was only injured and still could escape. This showed that the wolf's ability to survive was very strong, far surpassing all the animals on earth.

And the most amazing thing was that he had seen the intelligence in the wolf's eyes just now, which meant that the wolf had a certain intelligence. It was not just a cold-blooded animal, which was very interesting.

After Tom arrived here, his physical strength was more exhausted than on earth. In a short time, he had already felt a little hungry, so of course, he would not let the giant wolf escape.

He moved his feet and chased after the wolf.

The wolf was fast enough to reach at least 300 yards per hour, but it was still caught up by Tom.

"Do you really think you can escape after you sneak attacked me?"

The next moment, Tom appeared in front of the giant wolf and smiled.

When the wolf saw him, it made a human expression of horror. Its eyes widened and it turned to run in another direction. Tom could feel its fear and regret.

Tom smiled and continued to chase after the wolf. He immediately caught up with the wolf, jumped onto it, and punched the wolf in the head!

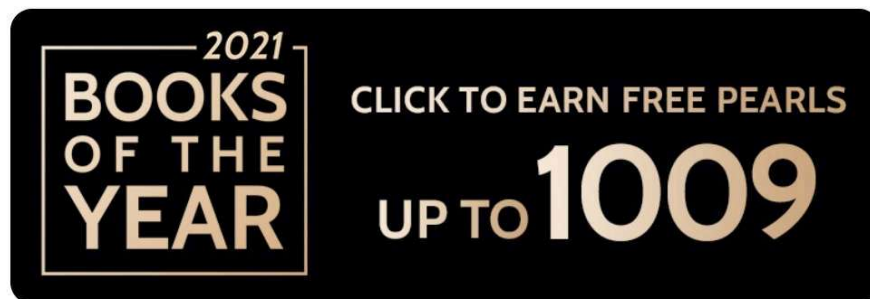

With a bang, the wolf gave a shrill cry, and then its body collapsed while running fast.

The wolf died.

Tom came down from it as if he had just done something easy and insignificant.

And at this moment, his eyes fixed on a certain place...

And he said with no emotion, "Come out."

Chapter 1098

After this was said, there was no movement in that place. It was just a pile of weeds taller than humans. It seemed that Tom was talking to the air.

Tom frowned slightly and said, "If you don't come out, I am sorry for what happens next."

His tone was a little cold.

However, the other party did not come out.

This time, Tom was a little impatient. He directly chased after that place. With a swish, he was already in the grass. He reached out towards inside the bush, trying to find the person hiding inside!

He had already sensed that someone was hiding in the dark, and his aura was quite strong. In a place like the Secret Realm, where crises were everywhere, he did not dare to be careless.

It was the right thing to do to nip all the known dangers in the bud.

When he reached the grass, the man inside finally moved and ran in another direction with all his strength. The speed was extremely fast.

However, for Tom, it was still too slow.

Tom sneered. "Want to run? But can you?"

He chased after him even faster and found his opponent. Then he grabbed his neck and pulled him back.

"Bla bla bla..."

The other party spoke a language that Tom could not understand.

Moreover, Tom found out that the other party was actually a woman, who was wearing something similar to ancient clothes as she looked at him in fear and helplessness.

"A woman?"

Tom was stunned for a moment. He did not expect to meet a human here, who was also a woman.

But why couldn't he understand what she said?

Moreover, Tom soon realized that this woman was not the pride of heaven who came in with him, but someone he had never seen before.

In other words, was this woman a native of this world?

Tom had a sharp mind, and in a short time, he had already figured all these out.

This woman was surprised by Tom's current state after seeing him, but then she thought of something and looked at Tom with anger and hatred.

She pointed at Tom's face and said something emotionally. From her expression, it was obvious that she was scolding him, and what she was said was not good.

This made Tom's face darken. Before he could even do something to this woman, she scolded him.

"Shut up!"

Tom was impatient, and he immediately scolded her.

Sure enough, she was shocked by his strong aura now. Her face was much paler and she did not dare to continue scolding him, but the hatred and anger in her eyes could not be concealed. This made Tom very surprised. He thought that it was the first time he had met the woman. Why did she have such anger and hatred for him?

"Can you understand me?" Tom asked directly. He was almost sure that she was a native of this world.

Although this idea was crazy, over the years, humans have been searching for traces of aliens and desperately wanted to find other civilizations in the universe to prove that humans were not the only species in the universe.

The appearance of the Secret Realm now clearly showed that this was another world, and humans were not alone.

The woman did not seem to understand what he was saying and did not respond to him. He continued to look at him with hatred and anger.

This gave Tom a headache. They and left.

However, just as he turned around, this woman spoke again, and she spoke in poor mandarin, "You... Are bad people... Kill many of my family... I hate... You! You will get, punishment..."

"Hmm?"

Tom was stunned and surprised. He immediately turned around and saw that her face was flushed. Her eyes were full of anger as if they were spitting fire and she clenched her fists tightly.

"You speak our language?" Tom stared at her and said.

The woman added, "Of course! We will never forget your... Evil deeds to us!"

couldn't communicate. There was no other way.

Although this woman was a beautiful woman with a pretty look and good figure, who looked like a mixed-race girl on earth, but, Tom was not a lecherous person. Such a native was not a threat to him, and he didn't want to take her and her scolding seriously.

So he thought about it and decided to let her go.

"Although I don't know why you hate me, this is the first time I've come to your world, but I won't make things difficult for you. You can go by yourself."

After saying this, Tom turned around dagger and was about to cut her neck.

How could Tom let her kill herself? He took a small stone and flipped it out from his finger. With a sound, he hit the dagger away.

"I don't know what you've been through, but I can tell you clearly that this is my first time in your world. What those people did to you before has nothing to do with me." Tom looked at her and said, then turned around and left.

She was stunned. Obviously, he did not expect Tom to do this and let her go. This was different from what she had heard from her people.

She looked at Tom closely, and the Tom understood. Were the people who came into the Secret Realm in front of him had done many evil things to the natives here?

Knowing this, Tom fell silent and did not know how to answer for a moment.

When the other party saw Tom's silence, tears welled up in her eyes, as if she knew her fate. She took out a dagger from her body, put it on her neck, and said, "You outsiders are all evil people. The gods will definitely punish you!"

After saying that, her eyes were filled with tears. It was obvious that she was going to kill herself. She held the hatred in her eyes decreased a lot, but she was more confused.

However, she was very cautious. She made sure that Tom did not mean to invade her. She looked deeply at Tom, as if to remember Tom's appearance, and then she turned around and ran away! She wanted to tell her people about this!

On Tom's side, he returned to the body of the giant wolf. Now that he was hungry, he made a fire and started barbecuing to fill his stomach.

He took out his phone and found that there was no signal at all.

Fortunately, he brought some tools for daily use, or else he would live a life of primitive people here.

Chapter 1099

Tom had always been cautious. In this unknown world, although he had absolute confidence in his own strength, he did not take risks curtly. So after roasting the wolf meat, he tested it with an instrument to make sure it was safe to eat.

It was fair to say that the meat of this giant wolf was not dry at all but quite delicious.

And it was very nutritious. A few pieces made Tom quite full.

His physical strength quickly recovered.

Most importantly, he felt that the wolf meat can strengthen his power, which was amazing!

He wondered it was only wolf meat that has this effect, or it were all animals in this world that generally have this effect?

After quickly finishing a meal to fill his stomach, Tom began to continue his journey.

The forest was large enough for him to take two hours walking out of it.

It should be noted that he was fast. He could run more than a hundred yards even in this dense forest,

Moreover, he found many strange animals on his way. Almost all of them were much bigger than those on the earth, even those insects.

There were even some strangely looking creatures, such as two-headed tigers, large spiders with human faces, and elephants as big as a house.

Tom was sure that this was another world, and it wasn't simulated. However, why did such a Secret Realm exist on earth? According to his knowledge, the entrance of that Secret Realm should be like a wormhole, allowing people to travel through time and space.

But what he didn't know is how far this world is from the earth, and whether the entrance to the Secret Realm is one-way or not... No, it's definitely not one-way, it's two-way! People on the earth could come in, and people here could also go to the earth.

After all, they have to go back to the earth when finishing their trip here.

And God Becoming Level experts like Adam and Albert, had reached the God Becoming Level in Secret Realm!

There was a desert ahead after walking out of the forest. Fortunately, the desert was not broad. It only took Tom an hour to walk out.

After walking out, Tom finally saw the city and the footsteps of others!

What's more surprising for Tom was there were three suns in the sky.

Moreover, two of them were farther away from the planet and the third was closer.

Could this be a three-body world?

Tom even joked.

However, he knew that this planet was still at a relatively low level of civilization. The city showed that there was no high technology, not even the simplest electrical appliances. Here was similar to the feudal society on earth.

This was interesting.

Whether the aboriginals of this planet were strong in martial arts?

Tom looked very wired in his modern outfit, so he was discovered immediately.

Moreover, he immediately attracted the attention of the local after appearing, and as the woman he met just now, the local were obviously full of hostility and hatred towards Tom.

A large group of soldiers in armour with spears in their hands came to him, which was not much different from the ancient soldiers on earth.

The difference was, people here were much higher than people on earth. The man standing in front of Tom, who obviously was the head of the soldiers, was more than two meters tall, and his arms were thicker than Tom's thighs! He exuded a fierce aura and held a huge mace, which was especially terrifying.

Tom could feel that his power was as strong as the Strength of the earth's Innate Realm. As for the soldiers, they were all very strong and full of spirit.

After they surrounded Tom, the leader was saying something that Tom didn't understand, but from his expression and tone, Tom could probably understand that he was scolding him.

Tom said helplessly, "I'm just passing by. I don't mean to be your enemy."

But none of these people seemed to understand what he was saying.

Then the leader raised high the mace in his hand, pointing at Tom and screaming. He then strode towards

Tom. Obviously, he was going to attack Tom and arrest him.

Tom felt a little helpless about this situation, but of course, he would not be caught without a fight.

Shaking his head, Tom waited until he came in front of him. He did not dodge but reached out his hand. He steadily grabbed the leader's wrist without being struck when the leader dropped his mace.

The leader was shocked. Obviously, he did not expect that Tom, who was so much thinner than him, could explode with such great power!

Tom said, "You're not my opponent. I don't want to hurt you."

Then, Tom pushed him away.

However, Tom's friendly behaviour did not win their understanding. Instead, they were greatly stimulated by Tom and became even angrier.

Especially their leader, who roared like a fierce polar bear, rushed towards Tom.

Not only him, but also the other soldiers began to attack Tom. The situation was extremely chaotic and it seemed that Tom was at a disadvantage.

Tom frowned. He didn't want to be enemies with the natives of this world, but if they didn't know chalk from cheese, he didn't mind fighting with them and giving them a good lesson.

Waiting for death was never his character, so he began to fight back until all these soldiers were in front of him.

It was as simple as killing chickens for him. In less than a minute, he beat all the soldiers down.

However, he did not kill these soldiers.

He called it quits after knocking them down.

When the aboriginals around seeing this situation, they all looked at him with fear and did not dare to continue to make trouble for him.

Tom was about to say something. But he didn't do that when he realized that the aboriginals couldn't understand him.

Chapter 1100

Tom shook his head. He had thought to have a rest in this city and experience the feudal life. But now seeing this, he knew he would be ostracized if entering this city. So Tom didn't bother to going there.

He also understood that if he really wanted to be accepted by them, he should, at first, change his clothing. He had to wear clothes from this world so that he would not be regarded as an alien.

At the same time, he was also curious about what the Strong had done to them before entering the Secret Realm. The aboriginals hated the outsiders so much.

With a sigh, Tom didn't think much about it anymore. The most important thing at the moment was to blend with the locals.

Fortunately, he had asked Albert and Her Majesty of Eagle Country about the secret to breaking through the God Becoming Level. He had to find the fruit.

And there were many such fruits. The more he could find, the more likely he would break through the God Becoming Level! Moreover, he could become stronger.

Albert had eaten three fruits, so he successfully broke through to the God Becoming Level. Her Majesty of Eagle Country found two fruits at that time.

However, where and what the fruit looked like. Albert or Her Majesty of Eagle Country couldn't describe it in detail.

According to Albert, it was by luck to find the fruit in the Secret Realm. As long as the practitioner saw the fruit, he would know naturally.

It was only the first day to be in the Secret Realm. He still had plenty of time, so he was not in a hurry.

Now he was curious that where the other nineteen men were who had entered the Secret Realm with him.

Next, Tom spent three days in this world. Over the past three days, he spent almost all the time in the wilderness. He had walked in thousands of kilometers of forests, lakes, basins, and mountains.

And he had a better understanding of the world and gradually adapted to the environment.

He now knew that there were three suns in this world. The brightest sun in the sky was a star in its prime, which should have the same mass as the sun.

The other two suns, also called two red giants, were about to step into the declining years. They could only exist for a few million years.

Fortunately, the two red giants were far away from the planet, so they didn't have a big impact on the planet now.

Overall, the planet was heavier and larger than Earth. Therefore, there was greater gravity, larger magnetic fields, thicker atmosphere, and higher oxygen content.

As a result, almost all living things on this planet were bigger than those on Earth.

Fortunately, the indigenous people on this planet looked similar to humans. As this planet was still in a feudal society and there was no industrial pollution, the indigenous people on this planet looked very beautiful.

Men were handsome, and many women were also good-looking. Over the past three days, Tom had seen some beautiful women, no worse than the great beauty on Earth.

They had a wild beauty.

On the fourth day, when Tom was walking through a forest, he suddenly heard a scream and call for help from a woman.

In addition, he also heard the men's lewd laughter, which immediately caught Tom's attention. Obviously, someone was bullying a woman!

To be honest, Tom had always hated this kind of thing.

He immediately rushed towards them.

Soon, he arrived at the scene and immediately became furious at this scene.

It was two men who were about to rape a woman!

Moreover, he knew this woman, who was the first woman he met a few days ago.

Now the woman was pressed to the ground by these two men.

Besides this woman, there were more than a dozen corpses. Apparently, he could tell from their clothes that they were all the natives.

As a human being, Tom didn't have many feelings for the natives of this world. He wasn't over-compassionate. Society should develop at its own pace and the outsiders should not interfere too much.

However, what made him angry was that he knew these two rapers. They were also human beings, the fat one and the thin one!

"Ha ha ha, I didn't expect to see such a beautiful woman in the Secret Realm. We are so lucky!"

"Yes, I have heard from my master that the Secret Realm is not only much more scenic than Earth but also has more beautiful women. They are all alluring!"

The two men were laughing lewdly. After pressing the woman down, they were ready to grope and rape her.

The woman was tied up and her mouth was blocked by something. She looked fearful and desperate, whimpering. She tried to resist. But she was too weak to resist two men. Their strength was not of the same level.

Her struggle and resistance seemed so futile.

She even had no right to commit suicide. She could only bear the pain and disaster.

However, at this moment, she saw a figure coming from a distance.

"I finally know why the indigenous people of this world have such great hostility towards me. It turns out that you beasts have done such a nasty thing!"

A cold, angry voice suddenly startled the fat man and the thin man.

"Who is it?!"

"You, Tom?"

They turned around together and saw Tom, who was walking towards them with a cold face.

And when the woman saw Tom, she became even more desperate. In her opinion, Tom was as despicable as these two men. They came from the same world, and he would definitely join them and rape her.

And her life would fall completely into darkness and misery!

"Ha ha, Tom, it's rare for us to come to this wild world. It's not even illegal to kill. After we have done fucking this beautiful woman, it's your turn." The thin man said with a wink, looking extremely obscene.

They obviously did not notice Tom's disgust and anger.
