

"I hope everyone here will be a witness. The Unrivalled, Ye Fan, acted as though he was above the law. He had gotten out of control and thinks little of our country. As the Hall Master of War God Castle, I, Sword Saint, will revoke his Supreme title and chase him out of China's martial arts world. From today onward, this man right here has nothing to do with China anymore."

Every single word that came out of his mouth was cold, and it left the crowd speechless.

Even Chu Zhengliang and those from Chu Sect were shocked to hear it.

None of them had expected Sword Saint to be so bold.

Not only did he revoke Ye Fan's Supreme title, but he also chased him out of the country. Not many people in this day and age could be so bold.

"What? Please reconsider, Sword Saint!" Tang Hao exclaimed.

He had been shocked to the core having heard what was said.

The man never expected things to turn out this way.

I can't believe Sword Saint has revoked Ye Fan's title.

A Supreme can be said to be a country's pillar.

Chapter 1656

Revoking someone's title as a Supreme is basically just destroying the country's support.

Under normal circumstances, doing such a thing would require a meeting with the rest of the members of War God Castle. It also required everyone from the country's martial arts world to vote on it.

It was only natural for Tang Hao to feel that Sword Saint was being rash for making such a decision himself.

"You don't have to convince me anymore, Tang Hao. I've decided that this man right here has nothing to do with China's martial arts world from now on," the latter spat, stopping him from saying anything else.

At first, Ye Fan was shocked upon hearing Sword Saint's words as well.

However, soon, he smiled.

Then, he started laughing his heart out.

"Pfft! Hahahaha! First, you revoke my title. Then, you chase me out of the country. As expected of the Hall Master of War God Castle. You're so dignified and courageous. Hahaha!"

The man gave out a laughter full of mockery and ridicule.

"However, don't go thinking that I want this title.

Chapter 1656

Back then, I had only accepted it because of my compatriots. I have not done anything against China," he added.

As his laugh resonated in the room, Ye Fan pulled out a golden token from his pocket.

It was his token as a Supreme he had gotten when receiving the documents for getting the title back in Jiangdong.

The word "Unrivalled" was written in gold on it.

He had been carrying it with him all this time.

Nonetheless, he took it out and said, "China is under the command of War God Castle. But both King of Fighters and Sword Saint are blind fools. I refuse to be on the same team as you. You don't have to revoke my title, as I am quitting myself. I don't need the title of a Supreme."

Bang!

As soon as he finished speaking, Ye Fan clenched his fist with all his might with the token still in his hand, and it turned into powder due to the large force.

Golden powder scattered everywhere.

"From now on, there shall be no Ye Fan in China."

The man was expressionless, but he spoke in a cold but loud voice that seemed to shake Chu Sect

Chapter 1656

Castle.

No one could understand just how angry and lonely he actually felt.

Everyone stood rooted to the ground, dumbfounded as they continued to stare at the young man before them.

Sword Saint's face paled at the sight of the golden powder that was once a Supreme token.

However, Tang Hao closed his eyes and let out a long sigh as tears streamed down his face.

“Huh... Why? How did things turn out like this? Why did you do this, Ye Fan? We are all fellow countrymen. Why did things have to turn out like this?”

He felt that what had happened was China's greatest tragedy.

But there was nothing he could do as he watched everything unfold.

After all, there was no right or wrong for what had happened. It was all a matter of their positions and perspectives.

Sword Saint gave up a rook to protect the king by revoking Ye Fan's title and breaking all relations with him.

But what about Ye Fan?

Chapter 1656

He had done nothing wrong either.

He was only here to settle his grudge against the Chu family after all.

It was all because of their different positions that eventually led to their current situation.

Even though he didn't want this to happen, it was no use crying over spilled milk.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

While the crowd was still in shock, the crisp sounds of clapping were heard suddenly.

The head of the Chu family, Chu Zhengliang, was walking over while clapping.

“Haha! That's great! Good job revoking his title. As expected of the Hall Master of War God Castle. I knew you were a righteous man. Since this man has nothing to do with China anymore, it is only natural that our family will not mess with your country too. So I'm sure that China wouldn't blame us if we do anything to his life, right?” he asked with a smile while walking toward Sword Saint.

It was as though he was trying to make sure that China would not interfere with what he was about to do.

The latter replied coldly, “Why would we blame you if there is nothing between us anymore?”

Chapter 1656

“Great!” Chu Zhengliang said, laughing. “I’m relieved to hear that.”

At that, he turned around and his gaze landed on the young man.

“My dear nephew, you have really surprised me. You managed to survive back then in Japan. If you had just behaved yourself and stayed in that poor, rural area obediently, I might have let you off the hook and spared your life for the sake of your father. But I didn’t expect you to dig your own grave. Well, perhaps this is for the better. I don’t have to send my men looking for you all around China anymore. In fact, this saves me a lot of work.”

Standing with his hands behind his back, Chu Zhengliang smiled.

His words were filled with disdain for Ye Fan.

It made sense. The man was now the head of the Chu family, and he was much more powerful than he was back then.

Tang Yun and a few others were the only ones who managed to catch his attention.

Ye Fan was just an abandoned child of the Chu family. Now that he was standing on the pinnacle of power, Chu Zhengliang paid him no attention even though he had almost died in his hands a few years back.

Chapter 1656

If the young man hadn't come to look for him today, he might have had forgotten about him already.

However, Chu Zhengliang's words shocked the crowd.

"Huh? Nephew? What is going on? Why did Mr. Chu call someone from China his nephew? Could it be that he's really Mr. Chu's nephew?" the martial arts leader of Remdik, Aaron, mumbled curiously.

The leaders of other countries were just as curious.

Even Sword Saint and Tang Hao were confused.

"What's going on, Tang Hao? Is Ye Fan from the Chu family? Why is surname Ye, then?" the former questioned.

No one had paid attention to Ye Fan when he shouted "Uncle Liang" earlier.

After all, he didn't have a powerful enough background and was just someone of low rank before the martial arts leaders. His words did not carry much weight, so no one paid him any attention.

However, they had to analyze the situation after hearing what Chu Zhengliang had said.

"I didn't know either," Tang Hao answered while shaking his head.

Chapter 1656

The higher-ups of the three families of the sect were just as confused as the outsiders on the situation.

“Did Chu Zhengliang just call him his nephew? Is it possible that he's the previous head of the Chu family, Chu Zhenghong's son?” the head of elders guessed.

“That can't be. Chu Zhenghong has no children,” someone replied.

Right then, Bill, the head of the Jones family, shook his head and said with a glum expression, “No. He has one.”

Whoosh!

Right when he finished speaking, countless eyes landed on him.

Everyone there was waiting for him to explain the situation.

Chapter 1657

“What is that supposed to mean, Bill?”

“Are you implying a former patriarch of the Chu family, Demon King Chu, has a descendent?”

“That is impossible!”

“Zhenghong and I were close friends before his disappearance. How could I not know?”

The elders of the Chu Sect were bewildered and started questioning Bill, the head of the Jones family.

Bill fell into a pensive mood, and his mind raced back to the distant past.

“It happened a long, long time ago, when Patriarch Chu was still calling the shots in the family.”

His wistful voice echoed through the hall as he continued with his recollection. “At that time, Zhengliang was the pride of the family and everyone had high hopes for him. On the contrary, no one paid any attention to Zhenghong because he was a wastrel whose only interest was seeking the worldly pleasures in life.”

The elders hung on to Bill's every word, knowing he was about to reveal a big secret.

The Chu family was the most prominent family. After their ancestors founded the Chu Sect, the family's influence on society grew substantially and their every move attracted keen public interest.

Chapter 1657

“Spill it! Stop keeping us in suspense!”

“And how is this boy related to the Chu family?”

The elders impatiently probed him, eager to find out the big secret.

“I remember it was more than a decade ago when, out of the blue, Zhenghong came home with a woman and a child in tow. She was a real beauty. All the women in the extended family paled in comparison in terms of looks.”

Bill paused briefly before continuing. “The main purpose of Zhenghong's trip home was to ask for his father's approval and blessing to marry her. However, the Chu family was conservative and very particular about the background of their prospective in-laws. Patriarch Chu was displeased with the match when he found out the woman was a commoner from a poor rural family. He ordered Zhenghong to leave her, but agreed to keep the child in the family since he was the biological father.

“Patriarch Chu's words were final, and no one dared to disobey him. I heard Zhenghong went down on his knees to plead with his father. He even threatened to kill himself, but unfortunately, Patriarch Chu was unmoved. When the stubborn child witnessed his mother being forcefully taken away, he kicked up a big fuss and hurled abuses at the elders. During the commotion, the child infuriated the patriarch further by yanking part of the man's beard off. Patriarch Chu decided against acknowledging him as a Chu descendent. So, he threw the helpless mother and child out with the harsh order that they could not step into the family home ever again in their life." There was a thoughtful look in Bill's eyes as he was transported back to that fateful day.

Since he was a disciple of Chu Yuan, the patriarch of the Chu family, Bill frequently had to attend lessons with his master. He was a regular visitor to the residence and was privy to their family matters.

The elders gasped at his revelation. "You mean this young man is... is... that child?"

With his gaze firmly on Ye Fan, who bore a strong resemblance to Zhenghong, Bill nodded affirmatively and replied, "Yes. If I am not mistaken, he is the child who was banished from the Chu family."

"I remember a Chu elder named him Tianfan after the ancestors appeared in her dreams. Back then, he was the only child with the middle name 'Tian'. Based on his age, it is clear that he is the eldest of the family's third generation." Bill let out a soft sigh as he made that conclusion with a heavy heart.

He never thought the pitiful little boy who was thrown out of the Chu family would return after so many years. What surprised him more was that helpless child had grown up to be such a mighty and powerful man.

Chapter 1657

Mochizuki Kawa, the Japanese Sword God, had been listening attentively. He shuddered involuntarily at the news.

Chu Tianfan is... is from the Chu family? And he is Zhenghong's son, the heir to the family? Goodness! That explains why he could execute the Dragon God Body during the battle in Tokyo! No wonder Zhenghong went berserk and led the big group of Supremes to launch an attack in Japan after he knew of Tianfan's incident! Thank goodness the young man did not die in Japan. If not, we would be in big trouble!

Upon realizing Ye Fan's true identity, the fearful Japanese breathed a sigh of relief, thankful that the martial art circle in his country was not involved in the former's incident. He could not imagine the consequences of the Chu family's heir being killed in Japan. Although Patriarch Chu didn't acknowledge Ye Fan as a Chu descendant, blood would always be thicker than water. It would not pay to risk offending the Chu family in any way.

Just as Mochizuki Kawa was letting out a small smile thinking of his lucky break, Tang Hao and Xiao Chen, who were next to him, remained in a shocked daze. It was especially true for Xiao Chen. The Sword Saint's eyes were bulging in disbelief.

How... how is that possible? Ye Fan... is... is Chu

Chapter 1657

Tianfan? No way! Chu Tianfan is already dead, so how could Ye Fan be him? This is not real!

Xiao Chen was still in a state of denial after Bill's disclosure. To him, Ye Fan was a fanatic who betrayed his country while his idol, Chu Tianfan, was a brave martyr. The Sword Saint simply couldn't accept the fact.

He pulled a long face and looked at Mochizuki Kawa, hoping for reassurance.

"Sword God, tell me! Is he really Chu Tianfan? Is he the same man who single-handedly defeated many of your fellow Supremes and Grandmasters and dominated East Asia after humiliating the Japanese martial art world?"

Xiao Chen gripped Mochizuki Kawa's shoulders tightly, hoping to hear a rebuttal from the Sword God.

Looking at his depressed and contorted face, the latter was both shocked and embarrassed by his question.

Mochizuki Kawa let out a few dry coughs and said solemnly, "Ahem... Why do you have to be so descriptive in your question? Are you out to embarrass our Japanese martial artists?"

"Please, just tell him! Is Chu Tianfan that man?" Tang Hao unwittingly added salt to the wound in his desperate bid for an answer.

Chapter 1657

With a pained expression, Mochizuki Kawa begrudgingly nodded his head. "Yes, that is him. He is Chu Tianfan."

"But I am surprised the War God Castle is in the dark! Just a while ago, I thought you were trying to hide from us the fact that Chu Tianfan is still alive." Mochizuki Kawa was puzzled that China's martial arts leaders were not aware The Nation's Pride was still alive.

However, Mochizuki Kawa's words were lost on the Sword Saint. After he confirmed Ye Fan's real identity, Xiao Chen went into a daze, and he nearly fell tripped himself.

Mochizuki Kawa was quick to support him, but all Xiao Chen did was mumble hysterically, "Ye Fan? Chu Tianfan? Hahaha... Ye Fan is Chu Tianfan? Hahaha..."

His reddened eyes were brimming with tears as he exclaimed, "Well done! Well done, indeed. Chu Tianfan, Ye Fan or whoever the h*ll you are, you surely fooled us!"

Chapter 1658

The revelation of Ye Fan's true identity caused an uproar among the international leaders, and the hall was buzzing with confusion and excitement.

The realization of being played like a fool traumatized Xiao Chen.

Just a while ago, he was singing praises of Chu Tianfan, making him out to be unparalleled among the elite youths in front of Tang Hao. He swore that other than Chu Qitian, only Chu Tianfan was worthy of the Chu Sect's princess, Angie.

Xiao Chen never expected his idol was right in front of him all this time. He even discredited the latter and issued an order to bar the man from the martial arts world in Chinese.

It was such an ironic twist; the Sword Saint felt he had become the butt of the joke.

“Don't be too hard on yourself, Sword Saint. We can always invite him to rejoin our martial arts world in the future.” Seeing how Xiao Chen was tormenting himself, Tang Hao sighed and tried to console him, despite his annoyance at his friend's rash behavior earlier.

However, there was no point in crying over spilled milk. There was nothing Tang Hao could do other than offer his assurance that the situation was still salvageable.

The Sword Saint sadly shook his head and said, “That is impossible. He can never come back.

Chapter 1658

Even if he is Chu Tianfan, he has gone down a path of no return when he decided to challenge the Chu Sect.

“Tang Hao, I'm simply lamenting the loss. Chu Tianfan is too obstinate in his ways. If he had obeyed the rules and worked his way up, the War God Castle would have his back when he led us into battle against the Chu Sect. Unfortunately, his unruliness landed us in this tragic situation.”

Xiao Chen shared his views with Tang Hao rationally after regaining his composure.

Although his tone was pensive, he had no regrets about his earlier decision.

It did not make a difference whether that man was Ye Fan or Chu Tianfan. It was wrong to risk millions of lives for one man.

Meanwhile, the unexpected disclosure had stunned Angie, too. She murmured to herself, “Ye Fan is... he is part of the Chu family? And he is Uncle Zhenghong's son?”

She remembered when Chu Zhenghong was the head of the family, he frequently went to the Jones residence to visit her. He often teased her by saying if he had a son, he would make her his daughter-in-law.

At the thought of that, Angie blushed upon realizing that he was not serious after all. Although Ye Fan was thrown out of the Chu family, he was still Chu Zhenghong's flesh and blood. Like all fathers, he would want the best for his son.

Chapter 1658

All these years, Chu Zhenghong kept a tab on all the young ladies from high societies and the royalties. He was scouting for a prospective wife for his son! His favorite was always Angie, the little princess of the Jones family. Not only was she a true beauty, but she was also impeccable in her manners and character.

Most importantly, her secret would be helpful to his son's career advancement. That was the reason he had always considered Angie to be the best candidate for his daughter-in-law.

Chu Zhenghong had absolutely no regard for the marriage agreement for Angie and Chu Qitian, an arrangement made by the two families. He was not about to give up on his prospective daughter-in-law this easily.

However, things didn't go as he planned. His efforts were in vain.

Chu Zhenghong nearly had a heart attack when he heard Ye Fan became a live-in son-in-law after he married Qiu Mucheng.

A live-in son-in-law? That brat will be the death of me! For ten years, I fantasized about him marrying Angie. Poof! The unruly rascal dashed my dream of having the perfect daughter-in-law.

A furious Chu Zhenghong went to China to bring

Ye Fan back with him. However, the dust had settled. He could not change his son's mind, so he begrudgingly accepted Qiu Mucheng as his daughter-in-law instead.

Just when he thought Angie and Ye Fan were not destined to be together, life threw them a curveball. The two met and got acquainted.

Ye Fan was unperturbed by the commotion caused by the revelation of his true identity. He was looking around the hall as if he was searching for someone. His intent was clear—to seek revenge on the Chu family, the people who had brought much sorrow and suffering to him and his mother.

He ignored Chu Zhengliang's taunts and brushed the latter aside. "We will settle our differences later."

Then he roared, "Where is Chu Zhenhong? Tell him to come out here! Is the old fart Chu Yuan still alive? If he's still breathing, I want his ass out here right now! Tell him Chu Tianfan, the unworthy descendant with a commoner mother, has returned. The child he banished from the family is here for payback!"

Ye Fan glanced around the hall. Finally, he lost control and unleashed the pent-up anger.

Suddenly, everyone could feel a tense vibe looming.

Chapter 1658

He had waited for that moment for ten years. Every day, he would repeat those words in his mind in preparation for this day.

He could never forget how Chu Yuan had ruthlessly cast him and his mother out while the elders of the family watched in silence. He also hated Chu Zhengong for not protecting his wife and son.

Ye Fan released the anger and grievances that he had bottled up for a decade. At that moment, the crowd could clearly feel the intensity of his malice against the Chu family.

“You've gone too far!”

“Mind your words! How could you disrespect our patriarch?”

“Even your dad would not have dared to disparage the patriarch like this!”

Ye Fan's defiance infuriated the Chu family. One after another, they stepped up to tell him off.

“B*stard, how dare you come back?”

“Back then, you and your mother caused an uproar within the family. We were gracious enough to spare your lives. Instead of being thankful, you have the audacity to insist on payback?”

“What right do you have to ask for payback?”

Chapter 1658

“The Chu family don't owe you a single thing!”

“An illegitimate brat like you wouldn't appreciate our benevolence. We should not have spared your lives. If we had finished you off back then, it would have saved us a lot of trouble.”

Although the elders knew Ye Fan was the boy banished from the family, they showed no remorse for what they had done to him and his mother.

Ye Fan's accusations aggravated the men. They saw no justification for his hatred.

“You don't owe me anything? Are you sure? Were you not the ones who humiliated my mother and me back then? And weren't you the ones who made life a living hell for us?” he retorted.

Then he suddenly changed his tone and agreed with them. “But you are right! Indeed, the Chu family doesn't owe me anything. It is you scumbags I should go after personally!

“I, Chu Tianfan, came back not only to seek justice for my mother and me. The Chu ancestors pleaded to me in my dreams, asking for help to restore the family honor by getting rid of scumbags like you!”

Boom!

After he finished that sentence, Ye Fan emitted an explosive wave of energy. The floor cracked under his feet, causing a terrifying tremor that threw everyone onto the floor.

“Die!” he roared and launched a furious strike at the elders.

They were shocked beyond words and stood rooted to on the spot. We never knew the brat became so formidable.

“Stop it, you b*stard!”

Chapter 1659

Chu Zhengliang was shocked to see Ye Fan attack the elders, so he hurriedly stepped in to defend them.

He let out a powerful counterstrike and neutralized the attack.

He shot an angry glare at Ye Fan and planted himself between the latter and his clan.

“You unfilial b*stard! How dare you attack your family? Are you courting your own death?”

“On account of my family blood coursing in your veins, I will cut you some slack. If you don't want to suffer a horrible death, end your own life! At least you get to keep your corpse intact.” Upon saying that, Chu Zhengliang took a sword from the guard beside him and threw it at Ye Fan's feet.

Ye Fan chuckled and mocked, “Hahaha! You must have fried your brain practicing 'Invoke the Celestial Cloud' over the years! Would I make my way here to Mount Chumen to seek you out if I have no confidence to defeat all of you? I have worked hard for ten years just for today. Now is the time for the Chus to pay for what you did to my mother and me!”

Ye Fan's tone was cold, filled with extreme hatred and anger.

“Make us pay?” Chu Zhengliang laughed as the guests from overseas, including Mochizuki Kawa, joined him.

Chapter 1659

Even Tang Hao and Xiao Chen shook their heads in disbelief at his boast.

Although Chu Tianfan had great potential and capability, he was not one of the top ten in the Sky Ranking yet. Without including the Chu Sect, it could be a challenge for him to deal with the Chu family on his own.

A few members of the family were ranked among the top ten in the Sky Ranking, so it was arrogant of Ye Fan to think he could defeat them single-handedly.

That was the reason the Sword Saint predicted he would not be able to leave Mount Chumen alive. The Chu family had many hidden talents, and it was simply wishful thinking on Ye Fan's part to think he could take them all.

As everyone looked at Ye Fan in contempt, Chu Zhengliang said sarcastically, "My dear nephew, I do acknowledge your prowess and ability. After all, I heard you single-handedly stormed Japan and crushed them. However, do you think the tiny Japanese martial arts world is comparable to the mighty Chu family? Do you really think you can defeat us without help? Dream on! As your uncle, I advise you not to be too naïve and arrogant."

Chu Zhengliang shook his head condescendingly, as though he had already won the fight.

Chu Qitian, who was watching from the side, also chuckled and ridiculed Ye Fan under his breath.

Chapter 1659

“Stupid fella! A worthless abandoned child coming back to seek revenge because he thinks he has made some progress in life? Who does he think he is? What gives him the courage to challenge my family? He must be delusional!”

Most of the people present were smirking at Ye Fan; some threw him sympathetic looks and thought he was an imbecile.

He remained unfazed by the jeering and mocking. Instead, he smiled. “Oh? Who told you I came alone?”

His calm nonchalance instantly shut everyone up. Even Chu Zhengliang's mocking smile gradually disappeared.

He frowned lightly and stared at Ye Fan intently. “Don't tell me you came with accomplices?”

Boom!

The latter responded by stomping his foot on the floor. The powerful impact shook the building and caused another crack.

Then he let a thunderous roar. “Dragon Slayers, show yourselves!”

Gusty winds whipped up the dust and shrouded Mount Chumen in a brownish haze. Battle cries shattered its tranquility. Suddenly, everyone felt an immense pressure weighing them down.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Outside the hall, following gusts of sudden winds, a few dark figures glided through the air and descended without a sound.

Their movements were slow, but every step they made sent a tremor to the ground.

The four walked toward Ye Fan and bowed respectfully.

“Earth God, Gaius.”

“Fire God, Owen.”

“Water God, Su Muqiu.”

“Wind God, Cecil.”

“Our greetings to you, Dragon Master!” The Dragon Slayers said in unison.

Dragon Master?

The display of reverence left everyone astounded.

The Sword Saint and Tang Hao were left speechless by the appearance of the four slayers. Then it hit them.

It's them!

Why are they here?

Chapter 1659

The Dragon Slayers are under Ye Fan's command?

Dumbfounded, both men stood in a daze while their brains went into instant overdrive.

The others didn't know the four men since they hadn't met. Regardless, Xiao Chen and Tang Hao recognized them at one glance.

The Dragon Slayers first appeared in Jiangdong. They also succeeded in defending Jingzhou against three of the Six Pillars of China.

The Water God Su Muqiu, also known as the Ice Emperor, was formerly one of the six Supreme Grandmasters of China.

Indeed, the four men were the same Supremes who appeared that fateful night.

At that time, Xiao Chen and the others thought the four men worked for Tang Yun, head of Chu Sect, and had received orders to rescue her.

However, the reverent attitude they had for Ye Fan explained everything. They worked for Ye Fan, not Chu Sect.

No! It's impossible! How could an abandoned kid command the respect of so many Supremes? How did that happen?

Sword Saint simply could not figure out how Ye Fan accomplished that feat. The War God Castle, being the leader of the martial arts world of a huge country like China, could only brag about the Six Pillars.

Chapter 1659

Yet a young man like Ye Fan, who grew up among commoners, became the commander of elites such as the Dragon Slayers.

Combining the forces of his caliber and the four Supremes, Ye Fan could easily overrun China and the War God Castle!

That thought horrified the Sword Saint. The memory of his earlier behavior caused another wave of regret.

Color drained from his face. He was trembling involuntarily and staring at Ye Fan with reddened eyes for grossly underestimating the young man.

It also became clear to him why Ye Fan was unmoved by the War God's countless invitations to join the War God Castle.

Indeed, they were insignificant compared to the powers he commanded.

"Hahaha..." Xiao Chen burst into fits of dismal laughter for being a conceited fool. His decision to strip Ye Fan's title had resulted in an irreversible loss.

Chapter 1660

“As the Sword Saint, I think I made a serious mistake today,” Xiao Chen mumbled to himself. His voice was full of regrets.

Tang Hao, who was next to him, shared his sentiment.

After spending hundreds of years to build the foundation, the only talents China has attracted are the Six Pillars. On the other hand, Ye Fan commands top elites like the Dragon Slayers! Together they are five Supremes. If we had recruited Ye Fan, the War God Castle would have ten Supremes, and we would be on par with the Chu Sect! It's too late for us to make amends now.

The more Tang Hao thought about it, the more upset he became. Alas, the same opportunity would not come around twice. He knew they had missed the chance to dominate the world.

Their boat had sailed. It was too late to mend the severed between Ye Fan and the martial arts world of China.

Just as Tang Hao and Xiao Chen were mourning their loss, Chu Zhengliang and his clan were getting increasingly worried.

“That impressive prowess can only come from a supreme grandmaster caliber? You... H-how did you do that? When did you become their master?” He was still in a state of disbelief.

Supreme Grandmasters worldwide were highly regarded as rulers of their countries. With their skills and influence, it was unthinkable that they would be willing to serve under anyone.

Chapter 1660

A good example would be the Demonic Duo from the Chu family. Even though Chu Zhengliang was the head of the family, he had no authority to give them orders and he had to treat them with the utmost respect.

Chu Zhengliang could not believe his eyes when he saw the four Dragon Slayers greeting Ye Fan so reverentially.

Chu Tianqi was equally upset to see Ye Fan being held in such high regard. "This is absurd! The b*stard is just a country bumpkin, a reject from our family. How can a lowly man like him command such respect?"

He turned to the Dragon Slayers and hurled abuses at them. "You are a bunch of morons! You are highly skilled grandmasters, yet you bow to this b*stard. I despise you! You don't deserve the title of the Supreme Grandmaster!"

"Shut up! How dare you disrespect the Dragon Master? Who do you think you are? Those insults are sufficient justification for us to wipe out your whole clan!" Gaius was enraged by Chu Qitian's verbal abuse.

With his powerful internal strength, his booming voice sent high energy ripples through the air and caused those near him to stagger backward.

Chapter 1660

“Atrocious! This is Mount Chumen, not a place you can do as you please! Take them down, Dragon Guards. They don't deserve their title! A Supreme Grandmaster wouldn't work for others!”

One elder was livid to see Gaius flare up with no regard for their presence. The former was a well-respected figure in the Chu family. One word from him and the Dragon Guards immediately charged at the Earth God.

The twelve protectors were grandmasters from a thirty-six-men team. They launched a well-coordinated and extremely powerful all-out assault.

Ye Fan was unmoved, but Gaius and Owen were ready to hit the roof from the provocation.

“A bunch of insignificant scums have the b*lls to flaunt your skills in the presence of our master. You are courting death!” the two jeered at their challengers. They swiftly moved into position to take on the twelve Dragon Guards.

Without much effort, the two of them deflected off all the attacks from the twelve Dragon Guards and put them in a defensive position instead.

Our Dragon Guards are all grandmasters and their coordinated attack is flawless. On top of that, they were well trained in our family's combat skills and techniques. Even a supreme grandmaster is of no match for them. Yet these two could easily suppress them!

Chapter 1660

Chapter 1660

The Chu elder who ordered the attack was taken aback by the unexpected outcome. His face fell instantly.

Big mistake! Who would have thought that helpless, abandoned kid would grow to be so powerful within a short decade? If we knew this was going to happen, we would have been more ruthless and urged Yuan to kill both mother and son!

The leaders of the Chu family were feeling the heat and pressure. They deeply regretted not killing Ye Fan and his mother, but rather chose to banish them ten years ago.

Alas, what was done cannot be undone. They had to resort to drastic moves to thumb Ye Fan down.

“Zhengliang, it is time for the Demonic Duo to step in. Otherwise, we would not be able to proceed with the wedding today.” Chu Shen, one of the honorable elders in the family, went up to Chu Zhengliang and whispered to him.

At the same time, an elder of Chu Sect also came up to him. “Mr. Chu, do you need the Chu Sect to step in?”

If it was any other party creating such a commotion on Mount Chumen, he would have intervened much earlier to quell the disorder without any hesitation.

However, Ye Fan seemed to be the Chus' blood relative. The elderly did not want to be seen as meddling in their family affairs. Without a request from the Chu family, it would be inappropriate for the sect to get involved.

Chapter 1660

Chu Zhengliang shook his head solemnly and rejected his offer. "Thank you, but it will not be necessary. The Chu family will become the butt of a joke if we ask for Chu Sect's help to settle such a small matter. As this concerns the family, we will settle it ourselves."

After that, he immediately stepped forward, and all eyes were on him as he walked toward Ye Fan.

The Water God Su Muqiu watched warily as Chu Zhengliang approached them. "Stop right there! Take another step closer and we will not hesitate to stop you by force."

He threw the former a glance and a sly smile before mocking, "Who would have expected the formerly respectable pillar of China and Supreme of War God Castle would willingly become a slave to an outcast of our family? My nephew must seriously have some irresistible charm!"

Gaius and Owen were still engaged in a fierce battle with the twelve Dragon Guards, but Chu Zhengliang seemed to be unaffected and unconcerned about the fight that was happening just behind his back.

He calmly looked down at Ye Fan and said, "To be honest, you surprised me. For sure, your achievements are beyond our expectations. If your father is present today, I am sure he will be very proud to see that his son has turned out to be a pretty decent talent. Unfortunately, I hate to disappoint you. What you have just shown us is not good enough for you to seek revenge on us.”

Chapter 1660

He shook his head, threw the latter a despised look, and then suddenly extended his arms and launched a sneak attack!

Chapter 1661

Chu Zhengliang's sudden strike was directed at Gaius and Owen. As the two were engrossed in their fight with the Dragon Guards, the sneak attack caught them off-guard and hit them. The Dragon Guards took the opportunity to up their attack and instantly gained the upper hand in the battle.

Gaius and Owen were sent tumbling backward. All the chairs and tables in their way broke from the great impact.

The crowd was awed by Chu Zhengliang's ability because he defeated two Supremes with a single strike.

“What horrifying prowess!”

“One strike and he fell two Supremes?”

“Although it was a sneak attack, he obviously didn't use his full strength.”

“We have not seen the best of him yet!”

“I cannot imagine how powerful it will be if he had used his full might in that strike!”

“He really lived up to his reputation! The head of the Chu family is really formidable!”

All the guests in the hall were martial arts leaders from the international community. They were amazed by Chu Zhengliang's display of power. Although Chu Sect was the superpower of the international martial arts community for many years, not many people had seen the skills of the head of the Chu family.

Chapter 1661

It was an eye-opener for most of the guests, and many of them were secretly comparing their own skills to his.

Seeing Gaius and Owen were injured, Su Muqiu and Cecil stepped up from behind Ye Fan, ready to take Chu Zhengliang on. However, the Dragon Master stopped them.

Ye Fan moved forward instead and smilingly retorted Chu Zhengliang. "Well, how can you possibly conclude that I am not good enough yet? Let's prove ourselves with action rather than talk."

"Sure! Since you insist, I will take you on!" the latter confidently agreed. "And don't worry. I will not get any help from the Chu family or Chu Sect. Just an honorable fight between you and me, one on one."

Then he added haughtily, "I would not want any gossip about the Chu family being a big bully and of me taking advantage of our home ground advantage. However, after you lose to me, I hope you and your accomplices will save us the trouble and take your own lives. What do you say, my dear nephew?"

"No, Dad. Lowlife scums like him don't deserve to fight you! That would be too high an honor for him!" Chu Tianqi protested even before Ye Fan could say a word in response to the challenge.

“That is right, Mr. Chu!”

“We don't need to trouble you to deal with an immature brat like him.”

“It will tarnish your reputation.”

The rest of the Chu family joined in to dissuade Chu Zhengliang. To them, an illegitimate child like Ye Fan was at the bottom of the hierarchy in society, and it would be an insult to mobilize the head of their family to deal with him.

Chu Zhengliang waved them off. “Although he is an outcast from our family, the fact that he has the ability to command so many Supremes proves he has earned the right to fight me.”

“But...”

Before Chu Qitian could argue further, his father cut him off. “That is enough. If you want to proceed with your marriage to Angie, just stand back and watch. Your dad is about to give you a big present for your wedding!”

Chu Zhengliang clearly had a sense of superiority and looked at Ye Fan with contempt.

“So, what do you say? Let's settle with a one-on-one fight between the two of us. Are you man enough to do it?” He pushed for an answer.

Chapter 1661

Ye Fan was unfazed by him and calmly replied, “I see no reason to reject you. But what happens if you lose?”

“Hahaha, you are delusional, Chu Tianfan! My dad has mastered Invoke the Celestial Cloud. Even if your dad is here today, he would not be a match. So, all you have to do is decide how to end your own lives after the duel. Stop wasting your time thinking about the impossible scenario of my dad losing to you!” Chu Qitian was tickled by his question and was laughing heartily at him. The rest of the Chu family joined in the mocking.

“What an inexperienced fool!”

“Young kids these days are too arrogant.”

“Does he really think he has a chance to defeat the head of the most prominent family?”

Chu Sect's head of elders could only smilingly shake his head at what he deemed was a joke.

The rest of the guests all had mocking expressions on their faces. It was quite obvious that no one thought Ye Fan had a chance against Chu Zhengliang.

“This guy is overconfident. Does he think that after he has defeated us Japanese, he can dominate the world?” Mochizuki Kawa threw a deriding look at Ye Fan as he mumbled.

“Stop it, Ye Fan! Don't...” The only person who tried to talk Ye Fan out of it was Tang Hao. He was anxiously trying to step in to intervene when Xiao Chen blocked his path.

Chapter 1661

“Why are you stopping me, Sword Saint? Do you really want to see him go down the path of destruction?” Tang Hao was fretting as he questioned Sword Saint.

“After knowing him for so long, I thought you would have a better understanding of his temperament. Do you think your words can make him change his mind? Even when I resorted to the drastic move of stripping his title, he refused to budge and insisted on going ahead with his plans. Save your breath. It is his decision. He will have to bear the consequences himself,” the latter reasoned.

Tang Hao knew the Sword Saint was right and could foresee his words would have no effect on Ye Fan. Besides, by stepping in, he risked dragging the Chinese martial arts world into the messy affairs between Ye Fan and the Chu family.

The wisest move would be to take heed of his advice, to stand back and watch.

The jeering and mocking from the crowd did not affect Ye Fan. His gaze was fixed on Chu Zhengliang, waiting for an answer from the head of the Chu family.

His uncle simply stood there with a smile and did not seem to have any intention of giving him a reply.

“Oh my! Is that a sign that the high and mighty head of the Chu family has no guts to face failure? If that is the case, then let's forget about the duel. Let's just do whatever we have originally planned and live with the consequences.” A duel would be the best option because that would mean his Dragon Slayers would not need to get into a battle. However, Ye Fan came prepared for the worst, and he was ready to go ahead with his original plan should the negotiation fail.

“What do you want?” Chu Zhengliang finally spoke again.

Ye Fan listed his conditions coldly. “My demands are simple. If you lose, you and your whole extended family, including the old fart, come with me to China and kneel in front of my mother for a full seven days to repent. However, if he is already dead, then he has it easy. All you need to do is to dig out his remains and scatter them.”

His demands infuriated everyone in the Chu family.

“That is atrocious!”

“What a b*stard!”

“Son of a b*tch!”

“How dare you? How could you be so disrespectful to our patriarch?”

“You are out to humiliate him!”

“You are asking for trouble!”

A chorus of abuses rang throughout the hall as the Chus heaped insults on Ye Fan. Even the previously calm and collected Chu Zhengliang was angered by his demands.

He had not expected Ye Fan to be so callous. His nephew was out to humiliate his family by demanding that they kneel to a lowly woman. The act of disturbing the peace of the dead was unthinkable!

Chapter 1662

“Chu Tianfan, you evil b*stard. I can't believe you actually have the guts to request something so ridiculous. Oh, I hope you burn in hell.”

Chu Qitian was so angry that he gritted his teeth. He glared with his bloodshot eyes and was hurling insults at Ye Fan.

The guy looked as though he wished to skin the latter alive.

He wasn't the only one who felt that way. Every single member of the Chu family was equally infuriated.

That was understandable since the Chu family was one of the most prominent families at the time.

It wouldn't be a stretch to say that they were at the top.

Being born into such a prestigious clan meant every member of the Chu family was practically raised to think they were better than everyone else.

Yet Ye Fan had demanded the entire family to kneel and apologize to an abandoned son and a village girl.

It didn't matter that everything was still hypothetical at that moment. The Chu family still regarded his demand as heresy and a humiliating insult.

Chapter 1662

Hence, it was natural that it infuriated them.

“What? Are you too chicken to bet on it?”

“Haha! Oh, I can't believe you guys actually claim to be the most powerful family. Now that I take a closer look, I see you are just some helpless rats hiding behind the walls of your puny house.”

“Aw, boo hoo! Are you too cowardly to accept the Dragon Master's challenge?”

Gaius, Owen, and the other Dragon Slayers snickered at the Chu family's furious glares.

Every word they said was filled with sarcasm.

“Haha, you are right. Hey, did you guys see that? This is how the so-called most powerful family is. Despite having so many members, they are still too cowardly to accept the Dragon Master's challenge. I guess that means they already know they will be defeated,” taunted Su Muqiu.

An elder of the Chu family roared, “Quit yapping! You guys are nothing but a bunch of useless hooligans. How dare you look down on us? Besides, when have we ever said that we won't accept this b*stard's challenge? It's just...”

Gaius chuckled and said, “It's just what? I bet you're just worried the head of your family will lose this battle. Once that happens, every single member of the Chu family will have to travel to the Dragon Master's family home and kneel continuously for seven days.”

“You...” grumbled a member of the Chu family. Gaius' words got everyone so angry that some were tempted to step up and teach him a lesson.

The head of the Chu family, Chu Zhengliang, was quiet the entire time, but he finally spoke up, “Fine! Since you’re that adamant about challenging me and dying by my hand, then I shall grant you this wish. If you defeat me, I will lead the Chu family to China and kneel before your mother to apologize to her. However, if I defeat you, I want you and your subordinates to repent by committing suicide.”

After saying all that, Chu Zhengliang turned around to face the Sword Saint and the others.

“To the honorable fighters here today, please bear witness to this fight.”

“Hahaha. Don't worry about that, Mr. Chu. You can battle in peace. If Chu Tianfan refuses to commit suicide after his defeat, you won't need to protest or anything. As witnesses, we will not let him get out of it. We will also help you annihilate that lying b*stard.”

Mochizuki Kawa was the one who stepped up and made that announcement. He put his hand on his own chest to signal his loyalty to Chu Zhengliang.

The leader of Remdik, Aaron, and Prince Carlo of Western Epea remained quiet, like the rest of the guests. However, they nodded. It was obvious they agreed and were willing to bear witness.

Chapter 1662

“Great! Allow me to thank you in advance.” Chu Zhengliang grinned. His gaze shone with arrogance when he turned his attention to Ye Fan. “You may go first. Although we have disowned you from the family, it's only right because you are still someone from the younger generation.

“Don't worry. I will let you make three moves. You may attack however you wish, and I will not fight back until you've finished making those three moves. Only then will this be a fair fight. I don't want the world to mock me and call me a bully-”

Inside the hall, Chu Zhengliang looked right into the young man's eyes. His words were ridiculously pretentious.

Bang!

Ye Fan didn't wait for the latter to finish delivering his speech. The Dragon Master zipped over and delivered a punch. In a flash, he landed a heavy blow right in Chu Zhengliang's face.

That impact sent the man flying and made him spit out blood and a tooth.

“You freaking swine! How dare you ambush me? I will kill you!”

Chu Zhengliang was undoubtedly dumbfounded after being struck.

He didn't expect the young man standing in front of him to behave so crudely.

How can he attack me before I finish my speech?

That sudden move had definitely taken him by surprise.

"You talk too much, and I have never been someone who condones bullsh*ts."

Ye Fan wasn't going to care what Chu Zhengliang had to say. After throwing that punch, the former jumped out of the hall to go after his uncle.

The next ferocious punch landed right on Chu Zhengliang's chest.

"You uncultured b*stard. How dare you talk to me in that tone? It's time someone teaches you some manners and tells you your place!"

Chu Zhengliang spat out more blood as his face wrinkled in pain.

His anger prompted him to clench his fist so tightly that his nails dug into his flesh.

At the same time, a vicious aura exuded from his body. It was as horrifying as a tornado.

He was about to make his move and attack Ye Fan when Gaius called out from the side. In a taunting tone, the Earth God reminded, "Oy, didn't you say you will let my master make the first three moves without retaliation? You made the promise seconds ago. Is the head of the Chu family going back against his own words? What will martial arts leaders from around the world think? You do realize they're witnessing it all, right? How embarrassing will it be if you go back on your word, Mr. Chu?"

As suspected, his insults got Chu Zhengliang, who was burning with rage and ready to attack, to unclench his fists.

"I, Chu Zhengliang, have always been an honorable man who keeps my word. That despicable punk played dirty and ambushed me, but I am still the head of the Chu family. Naturally, I will not stoop as low as he did. Don't worry. I said I'd allow this kid to make the first three moves, so I—"

Bang!

Chu Zhengliang was still talking, but another heavy punch came at him.

"You despicable swine. Do you really think you can ambush me again? I will not fall for the same trick twice!"

He had learned from his mistake, so when he spoke, he paid attention to Ye Fan as well.

It was as he had suspected. His nephew attacked once more.

Chu Zhengliang tensed his body and took a step backward, causing Ye Fan's punch to brush against his clothes and miss.

The former was grinning in delight because he thought he had gotten the upper hand. To his surprise, Ye Fan had a devious smile on.

Chu Zhengliang saw that smile as a sign that Ye Fan was about to do something evil.

Huh? Does this punk have something up his sleeves?

Frowning, he was still trying to figure things out when he saw a palm rushing over.

That slap landed almost immediately after the punch.

Chu Zhengliang's aging eyes bulged when he saw Ye Fan's hand.

Only then did he realize what was going on.

The punch was actually a ruse to get him to move to the side.

The slap is the attack that is supposed to land!

Chu Zhengliang didn't realize what Ye Fan had planned until that very moment, and it was too late by then.

He wasted too much time moving to avoid that punch.

Chapter 1663

There was nothing but dead silence for the longest time.

Everyone in the hall stared in speechlessness and surprise upon seeing that.

If Ye Fan's previous attack was an ambush, then what about that next slap?

What excuse could anyone even offer?

His attack landed even though Chu Zhengliang was fully prepared.

“The Chu family's genes really are something else. Even an abandoned child is ridiculously strong, and the fact that two of his attacks landed on Mr. Chu proves it. The young man should be proud of himself, even if he dies from this battle.”

The Great Emperor, Aaron, watched calmly, but his praise was genuine.

Prince Carlo, who was right beside him, nodded in agreement.

“You're right. It's possible that the young man moved randomly and some aspects of that first move could be regarded as playing dirty. However, he has demonstrated skills beyond his age.

“The second move, in particular, was amazing. That ruse and the slap that followed closely behind... it was virtually perfect. If I was in Mr. Chu's position, I wouldn't be able to move away as well.”

Prince Carlo kept his eyes on Ye Fan the entire time the former was talking.

“Hmph! Respectfully, I think you both give that b*stard too much credit. That scum played dirty, and my dad had his guard down. If that wasn't the case, he could never have landed those two hits.

“Still, this is the end of it all. The b*stard is dead once my dad starts focusing,” insisted Chu Qitian through gritted teeth. He was furious to hear others praising Ye Fan like that.

“Oh, I wouldn't be so sure about that. Ye Fan is stronger than you think, and it might surprise you in the end.”

Chu Qitian was burning with rage when he suddenly heard a woman talking.

All he saw was Angie, who was supposed to be standing at the side, walking over once more.

She had taken her veil off and revealed her stunning aesthetic beauty.

Unfortunately, the beautiful woman who was supposed to love Chu Qitian had publicly broken his heart.

The way she said Ye Fan's name crushed him.

“Angie, I am your husband! I am also the one who will take care of you and make you happy. Your father-in-law is battling now, so how can you cheer on his opponent who, by the way, is just a lowly b*stard?" roared Chu Qitian angrily as he glared at her.

Chapter 1663

"Shut up! I will not allow you to insult Ye Fan. He is not a b*stard, and he is certainly not a lowly man! Uncle Zhenghong told me all about it. Ye Fan is the true heir of the Chu family, and he is the most powerful man in the family. You are the evil ones here for trying to hurt Ye Fan. Hmph!"

Angie acted as though she were a hungry lioness when she heard Chu Qitian insulting Ye Fan. She was so angry that she jumped and immediately hurled insults at her future husband as though there was no tomorrow.

At first, Chu Qitian was stunned, but he later laughed aloud.

"Hahahaha. Okay, so you look up to your Uncle Zhenghong and Ye Fan, huh? Do you really think he is the only heir to the Chu family?"

"Well, if that is how you really feel, I will make you watch as your precious Ye Fan, the person you regarded as the most powerful man, gets beaten to a pulp by my dad! He will die right here and now.

"You and everyone else will learn the only head of the Chu family is my father, Chu Zhengliang. Similarly, everyone will see that I, Chu Qitian, am the only heir to the Chu family!"

Chapter 1663

Chu Qitian was so angry his gaze was oozing with arrogance and fury.

His intimidating words echoed in everybody's heart, and it sent chills down their spines.

“Hmph, that will never happen. Just you watch.”

Angie refused to admit defeat and argued with Chu Qitian, although she knew Ye Fan's chances of winning were low.

However, she was also strangely confident in him. She didn't know why, but her instinct told her Ye Fan would win that battle.

She trusted him and believed that he would come out victorious.

This will be similar to how things were in Boguia Rainforest, and he will surprise everyone.

As Angie and Chu Qitian argued, the battle between Ye Fan and Chu Zhengliang intensified.

Chu Zhengliang became more wary and focused after Ye Fan hit him twice.

Boom!

Another thunderous sound rang in the air. That was Ye Fan's third move, but Chu Zhengliang managed to dodge in time.

The latter stomped and sunk his foot deep into the ground, crushing the earth. A huge crack spread out right in front of everybody.

“Your time is over, punk!”

All three moves were made. Chu Zhengliang wiped the blood off his nose and lips before he glared over icily.

The relaxed stance he previously had was gone after Ye Fan landed the hit twice.

Chu Zhengliang was oozing an intensely murderous and cruel aura at that moment.

“I was careless earlier, and that was why your ambush worked. Still, you should be proud that you are able to land your hits at all. Unfortunately, it all ends here and now!”

An evil voice, carried by the icy wind, drifted around Mount Chumen.

Dark clouds had gathered in the distance, and it was tracing the ocean as the wind carried it over.

“It has only been ten minutes since you showed up, but I won't let you live for much longer. Three moves! I let you make the first three moves, and now, I will kill you in three too!”

Zoom!

As soon as he finished speaking, his burly figure stepped forward and rushed over.

He traveled so quickly as though he were lightning.

A second ago, Chu Zhengliang was over ten meters away from Ye Fan, but he was standing in front of his nephew at the very next second.

“This is one of Chu Sect's three fatal moves, the Heavenly Wolf.”

After howling, Chu Zhengliang curved his fingers into a claw and attacked.

That move was so aggressive that it got the wind to swirl around his hand.

It was as though it could tear the fragment of reality and open up a portal to a different dimension.

The air grumbled like thunder in the sky.

Chu Zhengliang was truly infuriated.

His very first move was a secret technique from the Chu Sect Fatal Moves!

The one he just made, the Heavenly Wolf, was known for being fatally ferocious as well.

Ye Fan didn't deal with Chu Zhengliang's powerful move head-on. Instead, the former stepped to the side and readied himself to dodge that attack entirely.

“Hah! There's no way I'll let you escape.”

It was as though Chu Zhengliang had already anticipated Ye Fan's moves.

The former suddenly swerved his arm and changed the direction of his attack in mid-air. It aimed at the spot where Ye Fan would have to move to.

The attack was ridiculously aggressive, and if it hit Ye Fan, it would literally crush his heart.

He was an experienced fighter and was physically strong, but he didn't try to withstand the attack.

He quickly threw his arms to his chest and protected his heart.

Clang!

It was the sound of metal running into each other, and it was thunderous.

That noise might be comparable to a meteor strike.

All the crowd saw was how Chu Zhengliang's claw mercilessly tore through Ye Fan's arm.

Five thin lines of crimson red blood slowly dripped down.

A single attack was all it took to break through Ye Fan's Dragon God Body.

Chapter 1663

“Not bad. You have good instincts and withstood my first attack, but what are you going to do about the next one?”

Chu Zhengliang didn't even let Ye Fan catch his breath.

He leaped forward with widespread arms, like a soaring eagle, and locked onto his victim with the ferocity of a tiger that dominated the entire forest.

“This is the Demonic Tiger of the Chu Sect Fatal Moves.”

Swish!

When Chu Zhengliang made that move, a nerve-racking wind howled at Mount Chumen. It sounded similar to the rustling of the leaves as a tiger ran through it.

Mother Nature was reacting to that move, and her power seemed to be rushing into Chu Zhengliang's body.

He redirected all that power into a single strike and hurled it right at Ye Fan.

Chapter 1664

Boom!

An ear-piercing explosion told everyone that Chu Zhengliang's attack had landed on Ye Fan.

His incredible power was surreal, and his nephew was obviously having some difficulty dealing with it.

The latter blocked the attack, but it still sent him flying a hundred meters backward.

On top of that, every step Ye Fan made had left a deep impression on the ground.

He backed away for over ten steps before he finally stopped.

That wasn't the worst, though. Ye Fan could feel something swirling in his chest.

In the end, he couldn't hold it in and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Chu Zhengliang, however, wasn't happy at the sight. His frown intensified.

"Good job, Chu Tianfan. I thought you'd, at most, be able to withstand two of my moves. You truly surprised me by surviving both. I guess you have grown to become more powerful during your time away," Chu Zhengliang sneered. His aging eyes shone with cruelty as his heart craved Ye Fan's death.

Chapter 1664

That was not their first battle. Two years ago, they fought near the Pacific Ocean.

Ye Fan was already ranked as a Supreme fighter at the time, but his power was still limited.

If Ye Fan had remained as powerful as he had been back then, he would've definitely fallen after being struck by those two moves.

But now... He may be hurt, but he can still fight!

The incredible rate at which Ye Fan grew made it impossible for Chu Zhengliang to ignore.

I have to kill him now. If I don't, he will become stronger and threaten the Chu family's future.

The evil aura oozing out of Chu Zhengliang worsened when he thought about that.

"We've spent enough time at this, and we should end it now. It's as I said earlier, I will kill you in three moves!" Chu Zhengliang sneered. His power flushed out of his body once more.

The head of the Chu family murmured under the sky as he drew a symbol in the air.

His elemental force seeped out as though it was somehow a howling river.

It moved and swirled. As time passed, a green dragon gradually showed up behind him.

Chapter 1664

“Is that the most powerful of the Chu Sect Fatal Moves, Green Celestial Dragon?”

The members of the Chu Sect weren't the only surprised ones. The Sword Saint and the other martial arts leaders were taken aback as well.

The Chu Sect Fatal Moves were some of Chu Sect's most powerful moves.

All higher-ups of the sect could perform those moves.

However, every single one of them had their own unique way of attacking. That was why the effects of those moves were different. It depended on its users.

Some years ago, Chu Qitian led a bunch of fighters from Chu Sect and used those moves on Ye Fan too.

Unfortunately, those attacks did no actual damage to him.

Chu Zhengliang had only used two of those moves, but Ye Fan was already spitting blood.

That proved just how powerful his uncle truly was.

“No wonder he's the head of the family. I can't believe he actually managed to materialize the green dragon. I guess a practitioner really needs to use Invoke the Celestial Cloud to hone the Chu Sect Fatal Moves to perfection,” gasped an elder of the Chu family.

Chapter 1664

They were well-versed with the Chu Sect Fatal Moves, but none of them could make it as powerful as Chu Zhengliang did.

“That is only right. The Chu Sect Fatal Moves is a secret technique that has been passed down within my family. My ancestor only shared the secret technique with its top members because back then, they wanted to strengthen the Chu Sect.

“However, only members of the Chu family can truly master those techniques and make the most out of it. My dad has used all three Chu Sect Fatal Moves today. The first two moves wounded that b*stard. This last move will be a great way to send him right to hell! It's as my dad has said. It's time to put an end to it all.”

Chu Qitian's delighted laughter filled everybody's ears.

As he spoke, he picked up a glass of champagne from the table and sipped it as though he were celebrating in advance.

Chu Zhengliang finished preparing while everyone was still discussing the matter.

The dragon, now completely formed, seemed eager to fly forward like an arrow from its bow.

Roar!

Its roar swept across the sky and parted the clouds.

At the very next second, everyone saw the dragon's figure fly toward Ye Fan like a tsunami.

Compared to that enormous creature, the young man looked ridiculously tiny.

It seemed that any move he made would be futile, since he was trapped in a cage with a hungry lion. Death was inevitable.

"You can do it, Dragon Master! Fight back," cheered Gaius nervously as he watched the battle from the side.

In the beginning of the battle, Ye Fan attacked mercilessly and injured Chu Zhengliang. The young man was in the lead.

Who would've thought that in just a few moments, the table had turned completely?

The head of the Chu family, Chu Zhengliang, was so strong that his moves didn't even make sense.

He made three moves, and all of them were fatal.

On top of that, he somehow managed to make those moves consecutively.

Those attacks were as aggressive as a tsunami, and Ye Fan couldn't even fight back.

At that point, he could only defend himself.

“This is bad. The Dragon Master is completely overwhelmed because Chu Zhengliang is simply too fast and ferocious. All the master can do now is defend himself. There simply isn't enough time to attack.”

Owen and the others frowned when they saw how things were playing out.

When two fighting experts had a battle, a single mishap would lead to a fatal loss.

It was especially true for experts like Ye Fan and Chu Zhengliang. They were at the top of their fields, and it would be extremely difficult for them to turn things around once their opponent got the upper hand.

The most likely scenario was one fighter would use his formidable strength to destroy his opponent before the latter could make a move.

“What do we do? Should we help the Dragon Master? If we don't, it's likely he will die from this next move,” said Gaius, who was a little worried and hesitant.

The Dragon Slayers were in a tough spot, too.

They were still struggling to decide when a bunch of Chu Sect's men surrounded them. Gaius and the others were practically stuck.

Chapter 1664

"I'd advise you to refrain from playing dirty or trying to trick us. Otherwise, you will have to bear terrible consequences," an elder from the sect threatened.

Gaius and the others said nothing. They scoffed a little and gave up on secretly helping Ye Fan out. The only thing they could do was sit and wait for the end.

At long last, the green dragon made it to Ye Fan and rammed right into him.

Boom!

When the two figures collided, an incredible wave of energy similar to an erupting volcano spewed everywhere.

The earth cracked, and the mountains trembled. The summit of a nearby mountain was sliced off.

Everything from the grass to the stones instantly turned into dust.

"All members of the Chu Sect are to set up a protective perimeter now!"

The head of elders noticed something was off, so he quickly gathered the fighting experts of the Chu Sect. Everybody worked together and tapped into their respective elemental force to create a huge energy barrier around the hall.

Only then did they contain the invisible storm caused by the battle between the two men.

Fortunately, that only lasted a moment.

It didn't take long before the dragon broke through. It was unstoppable, leaving nothing but destruction in its path.

There was a moan, and a figure flew backward from the point of impact like a bullet leaving the barrel of a gun.

He flew a great distance and broke through quite a few mountain summits before he was buried deep within the last one.

The boulders fell, and dust flew everywhere.

Crimson red blood tainted the side of the mountain.

Chapter 1665

“Hahaha. It's over. I told you, didn't I? Chu Tianfan is nothing but a maggot when compared to my dad. All it took was three moves to end this battle. Killing that guy is as simple as slaughtering a pig.”

Chu Qitian's boisterous laughs filled the entire hall when he saw the blood on the edge of the summit.

He continued proudly with his hands behind his back, “So, what do you think, Angie? I told you that b*stard is nothing but an arrogant weakling who didn't know better and is embarrassing himself. You didn't trust me earlier, but do you see the truth now?”

Given the arrogance he showed, a stranger would have thought that he was the general of an army that had just won an impossible battle and was boasting about his accomplishments.

“Shut up! That is not true. Ye Fan is not dead. He can't be...”

Angie's tears rolled down her cheeks as she ran toward the location of the rubble.

It seemed she was trying to rescue Ye Fan.

“Get back here, Angie. Stop making a scene!”

Bill was surprised and angry when he saw what was happening, so he had his men stop his daughter right away.

“Let me go. Let me go right now!”

Chapter 1665

Angie struggled endlessly.

The situation was impossible, and Bill had no choice but to slap her across the face.

“You stupid girl, how long are you going to misbehave? Are you trying to destroy the entire family?”

He was so angry and surprised that his emotions were beyond words.

It was a joyous occasion, and Angie, despite being the bride, was showing everyone how much she loved another man.

As her father, Bill was undoubtedly embarrassed and troubled.

He didn't even know how to deal with the aftermath.

*It's obvious Ye Fan has lost the battle. Yet, my daughter is still siding with that b*stard and remains in love with him! No, I cannot let her throw her life away like this.*

After slapping Angie, Bill had his men take her away and keep an eye on her.

On the other side, the Sword God, Mochizuki Kawa, of Japan took the initiative to congratulate Chu Zhengliang on his victory.

“You truly are something else, Mr. Chu. I,

Chapter 1665

Mochizuki Kawa, would like to congratulate you on behalf of all of Japan. The way you killed the b*stard and threw out that trash was absolutely commendable.”

The warriors from Australia, Korea, and all other countries quickly joined in when they saw the Japanese buttering Chu Zhengliang up.

“Congratulations, Mr. Chu, on that incredible win.”

“Thank you for destroying a pest in the martial arts world.”

“He's right. Mr. Chu, your power is amazing, and I think it's only a matter of time before you lead the Chu family to the very top.”

“Well, then allow me to congratulate Mr. Chu in advance.”

“Hahaha!”

All that was heard was a bunch of kind words and formal congratulations.

Everyone had decided the battle was over after the third move.

The last attack, the Green Celestial Dragon, was particularly devastating and seemed to have crushed Ye Fan.

Even if, by some miracle, he had survived, he would still be gravely wounded.

Chapter 1665

It was only natural that everyone congratulated Chu Zhengliang.

Xiao Chen wasn't surprised to see how things ended, but he felt that was a waste.

"It's too bad. He has such great potential, and now it's gone with him... If only he could somehow transfer his power and potential to someone else," murmured the Sword Saint while shaking his head.

Tang Hao, who was standing at the side, was sighing in pity as well.

Perhaps Heaven really needed to collect a gifted soul like his. It's too bad Ye Fan was too impulsive for his own good.

Chu Zhengliang kept his hand behind his back as he accepted everybody's praises. Arrogance and pride were written all over his face.

He stood there and turned to his guests before calmly saying, "A b*stard is not a worthy opponent. I feel so bad. This wedding is supposed to be a happy occasion, but my family's issue has disrupted it. I'm sure it was such a killjoy. For that, I shall down a shot as an apology."

After saying all that, Chu Zhengliang waved. A glass with a shot of alcohol moved as though it had a mind of its own and flew right into his hand.

He drank the shot in one go.

Then he turned his attention to Gaius and the others, who were surrounded by Chu Sect's fighters.

"As per the agreement, please kill yourselves."

Clang!

Members of the Chu family unsheathed their swords and tossed their weapons to Gaius and the others.

"If you please."

"If you please."

The family protectors had stern expressions on their faces when they said those words in unison.

Their booming voice rippled throughout the hall.

The Dragon Slayers were undoubtedly in a sticky situation, and they turned extremely pale.

"What? Are you guys not going to honor your promise? The legendary Supreme Grandmasters aren't liars, are they?" Chu Qitian sneered when he saw Gaius and the others hesitating.

"He's right. I'd like to ask you boys to keep your word and kill yourselves with these swords. As witnesses, we'll have to do it if you don't."

Mochizuki Kawa was especially eager to butter the Chu family up by showing them his loyalty.

Chapter 1665

None of the other international representatives said anything. He was the first one to step up and put pressure on Gaius and the others.

The situation instantly turned grim.

The fighting experts of the Chu family and the elders of Chu Sect were closing in on the four as well.

Earlier, it wasn't appropriate for the fighting experts to step in because it was the Chu family's private matter.

That had since changed. They had taken up the role of a witness, so it would be okay for them to kill Gaius and the others if any promises were broken.

The Dragon Slayers were at their wit's end.

The Rock Dragon, Iwai Zen, was hiding among the crowd and sighing. Tears swirled around in his eyes.

"It's as I thought. He lost. Oh, Dragon Master, it's not always easy to accept the right advice... But if you had listened to me earlier, we would not be in this situation now. Look at how bad things are. You've sacrificed your own life, along with your four subordinates."

Iwai Zen was grieving.

He and the four Dragon Slayers went to Mount

Chumen together.

However, his mission was to hide among the crowd once they reached their destination. That was why he wasn't with them.

It made sense since Ye Fan only invited him to bear witness to the event and be a guest. The former never expected the latter to do anything.

Iwai Zen didn't have much faith in Ye Fan, but he still prayed for a miracle and wished that the man would be victorious.

It proved to be a miracle out of reach.

The Dragon Master had fallen.

It was as Iwai Zen had predicted. Ye Fan had been utterly defeated.

It only took Chu Zhengliang three moves to annihilate the young man.

I guess their difference in strength is simply too much.

Iwai Zen had already guessed what would happen, but actually seeing everything was still a painful experience. Sorrow engulfed him.

He had hoped for a miracle that day.

Unfortunately, all he witnessed was the demise of a talented young man.

“The Dragon God Hall will no longer exist after today.”

He grinned sadly before grabbing a glass and shattering it.

Then he picked up a shard and pushed it toward his neck.

What is the point of living with the Dragon Master gone?

Iwai Zen had never betrayed Ye Fan.

He simply didn't want the man to die.

If everything here is set in stone, then please allow me to serve the Dragon Master in the afterlife.

Just as he was going to kill himself, something happened.

The four Dragon Slayers, who were surrounded, suddenly turned around simultaneously. They went on their knees and looked at the mountain where Ye Fan had crashed. “Everything is in place, Dragon Master. It's time to show them your true strength.”
