

Chapter 2671

“Grandfather!”

Katy Cobb was so shocked to the point where her face had completely lost all color.

Harvey York slightly frowned. After realizing that the poison was rebounding inside Dean Cobb’s body, he knew that the operation was on its last leg.

The black string gathered in Dean’s forehead swiftly surged toward his heart.

If the poison had reached into his arteries, Dean would have died on the spot.

Harvey was not a properly trained doctor. It would be difficult for him to handle the situation.

Almost simultaneously, Harvey made a big incision on Dean’s chest with a scalpel, releasing more blood from his body. He did this to let some of the poison out while stopping the black string from getting into Dean's heart.

Soon after, Harvey furiously yelled, "Get out!"

It was not loud, but the tone was filled with a dignified aura, scaring people like Kim Moreno off. She could not come to her senses after hearing Harvey's bellow at that moment.

Harvey did not know who the woman was, but he knew full well that it would affect Dean's operation if he kept getting bothered.

Harvey did not have any time to deal with Kim, though. After all, he was wholly focused on removing the poison from Dean's body.

He needed every second to remove the poison. If not, everything would be for naught.

Harvey swiftly poked a few different spots on Dean's chest without a second thought, temporarily stopping the poison from infecting the remainder of his blood.

At the same time, Harvey completely submerged Dean in the poison pot, trying to neutralize the poison within his body.

Harvey then grabbed another scalpel and stabbed the top of Dean's forehead.

Dark blood spurted all over the place. It was a terrifying sight, but the poison was temporarily stopped.

“You bastard!

“How dare you hurt Elder Cobb like that?!

“You're telling me to get out?!

“Do you even know who I am?!”

Kim finally came back to her senses. After seeing such a shocking sight, she grew furious as she raised her firearm toward Harvey.

“How dare a man from Country H tries to hurt the Nanyang God of War?!”

“Damn you!”

In Kim’s eyes, she could not care less if Dean died as long as he shared his secrets and experience.

After all, the knowledge of a God of War was worth more than just riches and status.

If Kim could have all this, the Moreno family would probably have another God of War.

“Stop!”

Katy came to her senses and stood before Harvey while grabbing Kim’s hand.

“Stop it, Ms. Moreno!” exclaimed Katy coldly.

“You b*tch! Someone’s trying to hurt the God of War here! As the head of the gang, what are you even planning on doing?!

“This is your grandfather we’re talking about!

“Are you just going to watch him die?!

“Are you siding with the enemy?!”

Kim seemed utterly enraged.

“I can understand the pain you went through to take care of an elderly cripple for so many years!

“But, he’s still your grandfather! How could you do this to him?!

“I don’t understand, Katy! How did a social butterfly like you manage to be the head of the gang when you don’t even have a shred of loyalty?!

“Don’t you know that you should at least respect the old and cherish the young?!”

Chapter 2672

“Stop slandering me, Kim Moreno!”

Katy Cobb was showing a cold frigid gaze while gripping Kim’s hand with all her might.

“I was the one who called Sir York here!”

“He understands the art of killing! He knows how to take care of the poison in my grandfather’s body!

“If he finishes this final step, my grandfather will go back to normal!

“He’ll live another dozen years! He’ll be back in his prime!

“For the Nanyang Gang, and even the entire country, this is no small matter! His recovery is imperative!

“So, please stop disturbing Sir York! This is a crucial moment for him to remove the poison!”

With Katy’s behavior, she would definitely take action.

But she knew that she would affect Harvey and her grandfather’s health if a fight were to break out at that moment.

She could only hold her feelings back and try to convince Kim with words alone.

“You...”

Kim could not break her hands free. Her exquisite face was filled with anger because of that.

Obviously, she did not expect that someone like Katy would dare to defy her.

At the same time, an unspeakable fear could be felt inside her heart.

Everything would be finished if Dean Cobb actually recovered after the poison was removed from him!

Slap!

She raised her left hand before slapping Katy right across her face without a second thought.

Katy stumbled backward. A red palm print could be seen on her pretty face at this moment.

“Are you mad, Katy?!”

“I won’t even say anything if you get some doctor from Country H to look at Elder Cobb!”

“But who even is this?! A conman?! What do you mean he understands the art of killing?!”

“Are you joking?!”

“You think he knows how to save people with that?!”

“Are you even trying to save Elder Cobb?!”

“You’re a lunatic trying to kill him off! That’s what you’re trying to do!”

Kim was exuding a terrifying aura.

“It’s already bad enough if you’re not thinking straight, but I’ll make you pay if you torture Elder Cobb to death!

“You allowed some conman to operate on the man with the highest status of Nanyang?!”

“You’re insane! How dare you?!”

“You think I can’t see that?! Does that look like someone being saved to you?!”

“He stabbed Elder Cobb’s head with a damn scalpel! If this isn’t killing, then what is?!”

“If you don’t let go, don’t blame me for what happens next!

“As the head of the gang, you’re conspiring with outside forces to kill off our God of War?!

“You deserve death!”

Kim swiftly glanced in Harvey’s direction.

Harvey lifted Dean back up before removing the scalpel from the top of his head.

It was strange. The series of actions seemed extremely dangerous, but color was steadily returning to Dean’s face soon after. He also seemed a lot calmer than before.

Kim was showing a vicious gaze after seeing the sight.

She was fine not having the God of War’s secrets, but she would never allow Dean’s condition to get better.

If Dean were to recover, then that would be the death of her.

At this very moment, her gaze toward Katy was filled with murderous intent.

Katy did not know what Kim was thinking, but she seemed resolute.

“Since I’m the one who asked him to cure my grandfather, I’ll take all the responsibility!

“If he dies, I’ll take all the blame!

“He is my grandfather! This has nothing to do with you!”

“You’re actually insane, Katy!”

Kim furiously screamed. Since she could not break free from Katy’s grasp, she could only order her bodyguards to take action.

“Go! Take down that conman and save Elder Cobb!”

Chapter 2673

The bodyguards did not waste any time and pounced right toward Harvey York.

After all, Kim Moreno was their only master.

Bang bang bang!

Before Harvey could even react, Katy Cobb took the gun off of Kim and took a step back before pulling the trigger.

The bodyguard leading the group fell to the ground with blood spurting out of him.

The others looked at each other before fanning out with horrible looks written on their faces.

The sight completely enraged Kim. After all, she was used to being arrogant and dominant back in Nanyang. No one had ever treated her this way.

Kim coldly chuckled.

“It’s bad enough that you’re trying to kill your own grandfather, you b*tch! How dare you lay your hands on the Moreno family’s men?!”

“Come! Take Katy down too! If she resists, incapacitate her!”

“I’ll take all responsibility if anything happens!”

“Surely I can keep this social butterfly down!”

The bodyguards of the Moreno family threateningly stepped forward with firearms in their hands while showing murderous intent.

“Are you truly prepared to fight, Kim?”

Katy aimed her firearm right toward Kim’s head with a cold gaze.

“If your men take another step forward, I’ll end your life right here! I don’t mind dying here with you!

“I do want to see who’s going to die first. Is it going to be you or me!”

The bodyguards trembled before halting their footsteps after hearing Katy’s threats. They glared scornfully at Katy at this moment.

They saw Katy’s index finger was placed firmly on the trigger. She seemed extremely agitated as well.

If Katy were enraged, she would probably pull the trigger without hesitation.

Kim’s head would bear the brunt.

Kim slightly changed her expression. She clearly did not want to die. She gestured toward her men to stop moving for the time being.

Harvey completely ignored everything that had been happening and sped up the operation.

He knew that even though Katy managed to control the situation, she was still clearly outnumbered.

If Kim stopped at nothing to take Harvey down, even Katy would not be able to do anything about it.

Under those circumstances, Harvey had no other choice but to remove the poison from Dean's body.

If not, Harvey's efforts would likely be for nothing.

Without a second thought, Harvey composed himself and grabbed another scalpel. This time, he made an incision on Dean's back.

A black string was plucked out soon after.

A bone-chilling sensation could be felt from the string. The moment it was plucked out, the temperature of the entire room dropped.

This was one of the Ice Poison's cores. The poison would be removed entirely if the strings were out of Dean's body.

Kim's eyes were frantically twitching after seeing the sight.

"Bastard! What do you think you're doing?!" screamed Kim furiously.

"Stop this instant!

"You've been making cuts all over our God of War! What are you even planning to do?!"

"Aren't you going to stop that conman, Katy?! Elder Cobb's being tortured right now!"

"Can't you see?"

"If you want to kill him, the least you could do is make sure he dies a peaceful death!"

“Stop making him suffer already!

“Where’s your humanity?!

“Go! Go right now! Ignore Katy!

“Take down that conman right now!”

Chapter 2674

The bodyguards looked at each other before cautiously stepping forward.

Bang!

Katy Cobb did not waste another second pulling the trigger. A bullet instantly flew right past Kim Moreno's hair.

"I told you!

"If any of you take another step forward, I'll kill her!"

Katy was filled with murderous intent. Her expression was as cold as ice.

"Get out of here right now! Out!"

If Katy did not have a way to deal with those people in a short amount of time, she probably would not hesitate to deal with Kim permanently.

Kim was frightened stiff by the gunshot. She looked at Katy with her face completely lost all color.

“Stop being so persistent, Katy! How are you planning to take responsibility if Elder Cobb dies from this?!”

“How are you supposed to give Nanyang’s three biggest families a fair statement?!”

“Everyone trusted you! That was why no one opposed you when you brought Elder Cobb here!”

“But I’m truly disappointed in you right now!”

“Why didn’t I stop you back then?!”

Kim showed a bitter look on her face. She actually felt regret.

She should have brought more firearms to just gun Harvey down.

If that were the case, she would not be forced back.

“The man behind me is my own grandfather! If someone happens to him, I’ll pay with my life!” exclaimed Katy coldly.

“The Cobb family’s matters are none of your business!

“You have no right to butt in!”

“No right?!”

Kim coldly chuckled.

“Who do you think you are, Katy?!”

“Did you forget that I’m Elder Cobb’s last disciple?!”

“There’s a saying, ‘Teacher for a day, father for life’!

“From this perspective, I should be your senior!

“And you tell me that I have no right?!

“You haven’t even given me a fair statement about the people of my family!

“How dare you stop me from saving my own teacher?!

“I’m giving you a final warning, Katy! Step aside!

“If not, don’t blame me for cleaning up this entire place!”

The bodyguards from the Moreno family were ready to take action. Some of them carefully took the safeties off of their firearms, ready to gun Katy down if there was a chance.

“I’ll give you a fair statement about your men...

“But not now!”

Katy was not phased at all. An icy gaze was showing on her face at this moment.

“I’ll tell you again. I’ll gun you down if you try anything funny!

“If someone steps forward, I’ll gun you down!

“If someone shoots at me, I’ll also gun you down!

“If someone stops Sir York from saving my grandfather, I’ll still gun you down!

“No matter what you do, I’ll gun you the f*ck down!”

Katy was being assertive. If anything bad were to happen, she would come right at Kim.

Kim’s eyes were twitching uncontrollably after hearing those words.

She had always treated Katy as a mere social butterfly, but she never knew that she would be this stubborn at times.

“Fine! Fine! Don’t try to go back on your word! Since you’ll give us a fair statement, I’ll wait right here!

“Let’s leave!”

Kim waved at his bodyguards to signal them to retreat while showing a submissive look on her face.

Then, she kicked the woman who led the way to the ground.

“Scram! You’re in the way!”

Chapter 2675

The young woman rolled on the ground before bumping into Katy Cobb.

After seeing her own trusted subordinate kicked down to the ground, Katy could not help but reach her hand out because of her kind heart.

The moment she reached out, she could feel a sense of danger because of her experience in the underworld.

She instinctively backed off, but she was still a little late.

Bang!

The woman kicked forward. Her foot coincidentally landed on Katy's wrist.

The firearm slipped out of Katy's hand after feeling a jolt of pain.

Before Katy could even get angry, the woman landed another kick on her waist, sending her flying in an instant.

Kim Moreno chuckled coldly before taking one of the bodyguards' firearms and pointing it toward Katy's head.

The tables have turned.

Katy's body was numb. She could not even stand back up, even if she wanted to.

She gritted her teeth and glared at Kim, who was showing a warm smile.

“You're shameless, Kim!”

After seeing her own trusted subordinate do this to her, she coldly exclaimed, “I treated you as my trusted subordinate, Daisy! How dare you betray me?!”

“This isn't shameless, nor is this betrayal!”

Kim was filled with glee after seeing Katy screaming like a rabid dog.

“Daisy’s been my pawn to watch your every move!

“I already knew about the people of my family and the fact that Dean Cobb’s being treated.

“Even though I couldn’t care less about the Nanyang Gang, I can’t just let you do as you please either!

“Look at you! You could’ve just played your part and acquired Dean’s secrets and experience as a God of War before he dies!

“When I steal the knowledge off of you, we can still pretend to be friends with each other, right?!

“But you! You just had to be persistent! You even got yourself a conman trying to save Dean! I can’t believe he almost recovered because of it!

“Do you think I can just sit back and watch this happen?”

Kim arrogantly glanced at Dean, who was unconscious at the moment.

“I called this bastard my teacher for ten whole years, but he never showed me his secrets! Not even once!

“Now that he’s about to die, he’ll surely spill the beans!

“Why would you try to heal him now?!

“Are you going against me just for the sake of it, Katy?!”

“You...”

Katy was boiling with anger.

“So, you’re insinuating that you’re the one who poisoned my grandfather?!

“Because he didn’t give you his secrets, you want him dead?!”

“You’re shameless, Kim!”

“Don’t you understand how much his existence alone helps the Nanyang Gang and even the entire country?!”

“You’d kill off the pillar of the country for your personal interest?!”

“You deserve to die!”

“The pillar of the country?!”

Kim coldly chuckled.

“A true pillar would raise a few more Gods of War of his own, not hide away from the world!”

“This old man is nothing!”

“Enough talk, Katy! Sit still, or I’ll make my bodyguards from the Dark Island give you a good beating!”

Then, Kim coldly glared at Harvey York.

“Go! Cripple him!” she furiously yelled.

Chapter 2676

The Dark Island bodyguards pounced toward Harvey York with cold gazes while Kim Moreno was barking orders.

Harvey clearly could hear the conflict happening, but he had no time to deal with it himself since it was a crucial moment to save Dean Cobb.

If he stopped then, everything would be for naught.

After all, he was not a trained doctor. He only knew how to deal with the art of killing.

That said, he did not expect that the Nanyang Gang would be this chaotic.

He could not believe that Kim would do anything for the sake of the God of War's secrets...

Harvey had no intention of giving up. He took a deep breath and grabbed a scalpel before making an incision on nine different parts of Dean's body.

Clink clink clink clink!

Black strings the size of ice needles were all plucked out. After the final incision, the poison inside Dean's body was removed entirely.

But even if Dean was a God of War, there was no way he could instantly regain his energy.

His face was glowing bright red then.

After Harvey was done with the operation, he turned to one side before swinging the back of his palm forward.

Slap!

A Dark Island bodyguard was sent flying before smashing right in front of Kim.

“You bastard!

“You dare to fight back?!”

Kim’s expression darkened in an instant after seeing the sight.

“Go together! Kill him! Pull the trigger!”

The five remaining bodyguards pulled out their firearms and moved forward after taking their safeties off.

Katy Cobb was anxious.

“Sir York! Those people are the Dark Island bodyguards, who the Moreno family hired at a high price!

“Every single one of them is extremely powerful!

“You need to be careful!”

‘Dark Island bodyguards?’

Harvey frowned. He had spent quite a lot of energy. If he had his full strength, he could definitely send those bodyguards flying with a single slap...

To prevent the bodyguards from harming Dean accidentally, Harvey was in a really tight spot.

Bang bang bang!

Without wasting a single second, the bodyguards pulled the trigger of their firearms aimed at Harvey before they realized something.

It was a shame. Even though Harvey was almost spent, he still had an imposing aura shrouding him.

After slightly tilting his body to the side, he managed to dodge the barrage of bullets.

At the same time, Harvey was already standing in front of the bodyguards the moment the bullets flew out.

Bang bang bang!

A bodyguard frantically pulled the trigger at Harvey, but Harvey smashed right onto his chest with a cold expression, breaking all of his ribs.

Without batting an eye, Harvey simultaneously grabbed onto the bodyguard's hand and pulled the trigger on both sides.

Bang bang!

Two bodyguards who were rushing toward Harvey fell to the ground, paralyzed.

The rest of them were horrified. They did not expect some conman to have the same strength as a God of War with years of battlefield experience.

Not only was he extremely strong, his timing was just terrifying.

Crack!

Harvey casually broke the hand of the bodyguard in front of him before kicking him to the corner.

“You useless filth!”

After seeing the hired bodyguards from the Dark Island having no effect on Harvey whatsoever, a horrible expression started to show on Kim’s face.

She had utterly underestimated the conman before her...
