

Chapter 2659

“Let go of Young Master Bauer!”

“Don’t do anything reckless!”

A dozen disciples of the Law Enforcement of Longmen stumbled forward. They knew if Ken Bauer died, they would also end up horribly.

The three experts tasked to protect Ken all struggled to crawl back up.

Carrie Kennedy, who was left behind at the entrance, instinctively turned back before seeing all the so-called elites were completely dealt with by Edwin Mendoza. No one could tell if they were still alive or not.

And on the outside, a group of people wearing uniforms from the Dragon Palace’s branch stepped inside with cold expressions.

Obviously, Yoana Mendoza was present as well.

The sight filled Carrie with utter despair.

If Vince York's people had come, they would have still had a fighting chance.

But since the people from the Dragon Palace's branch came first, all hope was lost.

Ken had his throat pinned down by Harvey's foot like a dead dog. The beautiful women could not bear to see a revolver pointed right toward his head.

They were enraged. They could not believe that something like this had happened.

“What right do you even have to hurt Young Master Bauer?!”

“He's the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen's son!”

“He belongs to one of Country H’s top ten families! He belongs to the Bauer family!”

“Do you know the consequences of hurting him this bad?!”

The women screamed in rage without fully understanding the situation.

Senior Foster crawled forward while furiously pointing directly at Harvey.

“Do you know what you’re doing, Harvey?!”

“Not only are you conspiring with outside forces, you even dare to hurt Young Master Bauer?! These are heinous crimes!

“When the time comes, even the master of Longmen himself won’t be able to save you!

“You’re as good as dead!

“Do you know that the head is arriving here tomorrow?!

“You’ll die a horrible death when he shows up!”

Ken’s subordinates all knew that Harvey was outmatched entirely by the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen, no matter how skillful he was at fighting.

That man was about to deal with the entire situation in Hong Kong and Las Vegas. He also had a pretty good connection with the Yorks of Hong Kong.

His appearance would garner warm welcomes from both Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

If Harvey dared to hurt Ken, not only was he going against the Law Enforcement of Longmen, but he was also going against the Yorks from Hong Kong!

He was practically looking for his death!

“You speak like that guy will just let me go if I don’t kill Ken,” replied Harvey calmly.

In Harvey’s eyes, some head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen did not amount to much authority.

He only felt sorry that the person himself was not here at this moment.

If not, it would be way better to completely deal with the problem in one go.

After all, the Law Enforcement of Longmen kept provoking him while joining forces with the Islanders and charging him with a crime he did not commit.

In his eyes, they were the ones looking for their deaths!

Harvey had no choice but to deal with the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen abusing his authority to confuse right and wrong while acting all high and mighty.

Ken swallowed the pain and fear before forcing out a smile.

“Harvey! You can throw your stupid life away being this reckless!

“But what about the people around you?

“The Mendoza family, the Clarke family, and the Johnson family!

“You can kill me off for your own fun!

“But, when my father comes tomorrow, you’ll die a horrible death!

“When that happens, what do you think would happen to those people?

“The more you go against me, the more complicated their lives will be in the near future!

“You won’t be able to bear these consequences either!”

Chapter 2660

“Stop being so stubborn, Harvey York!” Carrie Kennedy screamed.

“If not, you’ll definitely regret it!”

Senior Foster then took out his phone before mirroring the screen onto the TV in the hall.

A stern face could be seen on the TV. That person was none other than the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen, Mitchell Bauer himself!

Mitchell obviously knew about the incident happening in Hong Kong. He glared at Harvey coldly and exclaimed, “I am Mitchell Bauer!

“The head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen!

“And the head of the thirteenth branch of the Bauer family!

“You know full well about my status and identity!

“Let me tell you something. Someone has already reported to me about your offense against the guests from the Island Nation and with you joining forces with the people of Nanyang!

“I sent my son there to stop you from going down the wrong path!

“That’s why I’m ordering you to release my son right now and beg for his forgiveness!

“If not, when I arrive in Hong Kong tomorrow, I’ll kill you off first!

Mitchell was showing utter dominance, taking advantage of his seniority.

“Do everything as I say right now! This instant!

“If not, you’re as good as dead!”

“Head Bauer, right?”

Harvey showed a warm smile while looking at the TV.

“I can do as you asked, but may I ask you something first?”

“According to Longmen’s laws, how are we supposed to punish people who take advantage of the bodies of men and women?!”

“You have no right to govern the place! Who do you think you are, the head of the place?!”

“You’re just a branch leader from Mordu’s Longmen branch! Even the Elder Group hasn’t acknowledged your position yet!”

“What right do you have to question me?!”

Mitchell’s look was as cold as ice.

“I only know that you hurt our important guests from the Island Nations, killed one of your own, and conspired with the Nanyang Gang! These are heinous crimes, and they cannot be pardoned!

“If you don’t let my son go, you’ll die a graveless death after we sum up your crimes!”

Harvey calmly squinted at Mitchell, then showed a faint smile.

“If you’re not willing to answer me, then I’ll just ask another person.

“Many of you here know exactly how to deal with sex crimes like these, right?

“According to Longmen’s laws, people who commit such a big crime should either be crippled and exiled from Longmen in the best case scenario...”

“Or, in the worse case, killed off to make an example!”

An enraged tone could be heard from the entrance.

Morgan Johnson, who was seen with a body full of injuries, strode in with a frigid expression.

“Thank you for that, Branch Leader Johnson.”

Harvey smiled.

“This man will be punished according to the laws of Longmen! As Longmen’s Mordu branch leader, I have no authority to carry out this punishment here!

“But if Branch Leader Johnson is willing to let me take over, I’ll have all the authority I need!”

“I need to recover after being set up. I’ll let Branch Leader York take over the Longmen’s Hong Kong and Las Vegas branch for the time being!”

“Right!”

Harvey nodded slightly.

“I’ll carry out the punishment then.”

Mitchell was filled with unbridled rage on the other side of the screen.

“How dare you, you bastard?!”

Bang!

Harvey pulled the trigger without showing any emotion.

Chapter 2661

After a loud gunshot was heard, a red dot could be seen on Ken Bauer's forehead.

Utter disbelief was showing on his face as he fell to the ground, paralyzed.

The crowd was screaming in terror.

The people did not believe that Ken would be so easily dealt with after acting so dominantly.

After that, the people from the Dragon Palace's branch swarmed in to take control of the scene after Edwin Mendoza waved his hand. Soon after, all of the Kings of Arms were detained and sent to Imperial Prison.

As for making peace with Mitchell Bauer...

Harvey York knew that there was no possibility of such a thing from the beginning.

After all, the Law Enforcement of Longmen had constantly been provoking Harvey. Along with all those dead disciples, there was no way for both sides to make peace any longer.

As for what the Elder Group was thinking and what stance the master of Longmen had, Harvey paid no mind.

He only knew that the Law Enforcement of Longmen was so arrogant as to completely ignore the law and that there was no need for them to stay any longer.

Morgan Johnson took Irene Johnson away at this moment.

Even though he temporarily gave his authority to Harvey, he took a few of his most trusted subordinates.

Those people were used to protect the rest of the Johnson family.

As for the Mendoza family, the Hamilton family and the Clarke family were all forces of both Hong Kong and Las Vegas from the beginning and had immense backgrounds. Naturally, they had ways to protect themselves.

Even though Mitchell was about to arrive in Hong Kong, this was still Longmen's personal matter, and it probably would not involve the others anyway.

People were ordered to clean up the Budokan when everything was set and done. Then, Harvey sat in a gazebo in a garden behind the place soon after.

He poured himself a cup of tea and took a sip while squinting at the night view of the Victoria Harbor afar.

Mitchell was arriving the next day. A feeling of dark clouds engulfing Hong Kong and Las Vegas into nothingness could be felt.

But, Harvey did not feel such a thing at all.

He was calmly sipping his tea while enjoying the hard-earned peace and quiet.

“You seem very calm, Sir York. Mitchell’s about to kill his way here. Don’t you feel anxious?”

A pleasant fragrance wafted from behind.

Then, a tall and slender figure appeared.

She walked beside Harvey while squinting at the same Victoria Harbor night view.

Harvey knew it was Yoana Mendoza without even tilting his head.

The cold and distant feeling from Yoana was gone, replaced by a warm smile.

“What brings you here, Lady Mendoza?”

Harvey chuckled.

“It’s the calm before the storm. It’s going to hit Hong Kong tomorrow.

“I’ll be in the center of that storm.

“Don’t run around if you’ve no business to.

“It’s best to take the people from Dragon Palace’s branch out of here too. There’s no need to leave the innocents here.”

Yoana showed a peculiar look in her eyes, then quietly whispered, “Sir York, according to my intel, Mitchell is completely enraged now.

“Not only is he coming here, he even invited an expert from the Shinkage Way along.

“I heard that person is a true God of War.

“Please be careful. Gods of War from the Island Nations are all grandmasters of Kendo! They’re hard to deal with!”

“A grandmaster of Kendo from the Island Nations? A God of War?”

Harvey gave a thought to the situation.

“Who are you talking about exactly?”

“The Sword Saint of the Shinkage Way, Miyata Shinosuke!

“He’s a true God of War.

“I heard that he already took off. He’ll arrive with Mitchell tomorrow.

“This is really bad for us, Sir York!”

Chapter 2662

Harvey York merely smiled without giving a reply.

“I’ll kill every single one of those filths that come my way!”

Yoana Mendoza changed her expression before whispering, “I didn’t fill you in so that you can kill them, Sir York.

“I’m trying to tell you that tonight’s your last chance if you want to get out of here.

“If you go back to Country H, Mitchell Bauer still can chase after you, but the Shinkage Way’s God of War wouldn’t do such a thing.”

Harvey burst out laughing.

“I can’t just run away after destroying the Law Enforcement of Longmen and killing Ken Bauer, right?

“That would be embarrassing!”

Yoana shook her head.

“You’re no ordinary person. You, of all people, should know that enduring a bit of shame is worth trading your life for!

“Unless you’re perfectly confident, I do hope that you leave.

“If you’re worried about us, we shall leave along with you too!

“I’ll give up on the Dragon Palace’s branch if I must!”

Yoana mustered all her strength to say something like that.

Her calm and graceful countenance was showing a hint of red.

She was clearly an aloof beauty, but at this moment, she seemed like a girl next door who had just fallen in love.

It was an adorable yet charming sight.

Harvey glanced at her before he burst out laughing.

“What? You’re worried that I might fail and get myself killed?”

“That’s why you’re planning to give me your body just to get me out of here?”

“If you want me to, I can be your mistress too...”

An extremely tender look was showing in Yoana’s eyes.

Harvey sighed before moving on from the subject.

“Alright. Enough of this nonsense.

“Since I was the one who went against the Law Enforcement of Longmen and killed the men of the Shinkage Way, I was expecting a time like this would come sooner or later.

“If you really want to help me, help me figure out all of Miyata Shinosuke and Mitchell’s arrangements.

“Even though I’m a sitting duck here, it’s still better to know something rather than stay oblivious, right?”

Harvey did not need to know anything about this.

But he knew that Yoana and the others would get anxious and terrified if they were not asked to do anything.

Yoana nodded with a warm smile after hearing Harvey’s words.

“Thank goodness I’m pretty smart! I’m way ahead of you.”

Yoana brought out a laptop and opened a set of documents in front of Harvey.

“Other than Miyata, Mitchell also gathered many experts from Country H. All of them are his friends. They’ll be arriving in Hong Kong tomorrow.

“According to my information, Mitchell won’t be the one to deal with you directly.

“For safety reasons, he managed to provoke Miyata into ripping you to shreds.

“In the meantime, he’ll only watch from the sidelines.

“When you’re pulverized to dust, he’ll deal with everyone who has any sort of relations with you, including us.

“Of course, if your strength is far beyond everyone's expectations and you manage to kill off Miyata, Mitchell will mobilize all his forces to deal with you permanently.

“In any case, he'll definitely come for you tomorrow.”

Yoana divulged to Harvey everything she knew.

Because of this news, she wanted to get Harvey out of the place.

It was a shame. Harvey never had the intention to leave.
