

Chapter 2667

Soon, it was time for the final step of the treatment.

Harvey York grabbed a scalpel and carefully made an incision on Dean Cobb's forehead.

A black thread could be seen inside.

Dean's Ice Poison would completely vanish overnight if the thread were removed.

With his regenerative abilities as a God of War, he would only need a single night before all his wounds fully recovered.

Vroooooom!

When Harvey was about to perform such a crucial procedure, a dozen Jeep Wranglers recklessly drove and parked in front of the Nanyang Guild Hall.

Dozens of men wearing camouflaged uniforms from Nanyang climbed out of the cars.

Those people were all showing cold expressions while carrying firearms on their waists and longswords on their backs. They were obviously professional bodyguards judging from the first glance.

Soon after, a few people wearing traditional clothing crossed their arms while coming out of the middle car.

The person leading the group was a short-haired woman from Nanyang.

Her skin was smooth and pale. The gown on her was able to show off her perfectly enchanting figure as well.

It was a shocking yet alluring sight.

Her expression was filled with utter righteousness. Her high heels loudly clacked as she walked, showing quite a domineering presence.

The guards posted at the entrance frantically changed their expressions after seeing her appearance.

When the woman walked inside the guild hall, the happily drinking and chatting people looked over before their expressions worsened.

Most of them were pretty fearful after seeing the woman's face.

The young people who were smiling from ear to ear frowned soon after.

“Why is Kim Moreno here?”

“Is the Moreno family trying to gain authority in Hong Kong by taking over the Nanyang Gang?”

“Head Cobb's in charge of the gang right now!”

“But her power in Nanyang is just immense! The Moreno family is almost the top of the three biggest families there. If she wants to take over, even Head Cobb won’t be able to stop her!”

“Sigh! Ever since that God of War got poisoned, the Cobb family’s powers have rapidly declined.”

“If he were still standing, the Moreno family wouldn’t dare cause trouble for the Cobb family even with their God of War’s support, right?”

“Tch! Didn’t he get slapped to death by the Chief Instructor himself on the battlefield?”

“They’re only flaunting their strength because of the Americans’ support!”

“If not, they wouldn’t even dare face the Nanyang Gang!”

“Elder Cobb’s crippled, but he’s not dead yet!”

“Alright. Enough. Don’t let Kim hear this. If not, no one will stand up for you if she decides to execute you on the spot!”

The wealthy people of Nanyang were showing horrible expressions on their faces at this moment.

Even though Katy Cobb was the head of the gang, her powers were completely inferior compared to Kim.

Kim ignored everyone in sight while walking toward the stairs with a cold expression.

The man who stopped Harvey the other day ran forward with a smile.

“Good evening, Ms. Moreno!

“Sorry for not welcoming you properly. We didn’t know you’d come unannounced!

“Whatever is it you’re here for, is it fine if we wait till tomorrow morning for it?”

He was showing a bright smile on his face, but still, he could not hide the hint of fear in his eyes.

Chapter 2668

Slap!

Kim Moreno did not waste any time and slapped the man across his face.

“You filth! How dare you come forward and talk to me like that?!” she coldly exclaimed.

“Did you forget the Nanyang Gang was established by the three most prominent families of Nanyang?!”

“The Moreno family has great influence over the gang, and you’re saying I can’t come?!”

“When did I need filth like you to arrange my schedule?!”

“Are you even worthy?”

“Or did you forget your true master after being fed by Katy Cobb for so long?”

Kim showed a frigid expression filled with murderous intent.

Naturally, if the man said something that annoyed her again...

She would not hesitate to kill him off.

A red palm print was showing on the middle-aged man's face as his eyes and mouth were frantically twitching.

He would not dare even show any anger. He could only bow and smile back then.

"You're joking, Ms. Moreno.

"You're the master here. I know that.

"I have no other meaning.

"I just feel like it's already too late, right. You must be worn out after traveling all the way from Nanyang. You should have some rest first!

“The Nanyang Gang has the presidential suite in the Three Seasons Hotel reserved for you at all times. If you need it, you can always stay there!”

Slap!

Kim swung the back of her palm across the man's face.

“When did I say that I needed rest?”

“Are you people doing something heinous here? Is that why you're forcing me out?”

“Why is a dog like you even trying to block my path?”

“Don't forget. Even though Katy's the head of the gang, the other two families have the right to inspect you people!”

“Besides, if we don't like her, it won't be hard to take her off her position anyway.”

Kim's expression was filled with utter disdain.

“Let me tell you something. If there weren't a need, I wouldn't even set foot here.

“After all, this place feels just like people from Country H, ugly and unqualified!

“Only us people from Nanyang will be able to turn this into an international metropolis!”

Kim's righteous attitude was showing, as if she had never seen the world before.

But since her status was quite immense, the middle-aged man would not dare refute her either.

“Right! Right! You're absolutely right, Ms. Moreno!” he quietly exclaimed.

“I'll do whatever you ask of me!”

The man respectfully bowed while making a few gestures behind Kim, signaling his trusted subordinates to inform Katy.

“I can’t be bothered to talk to filth like you!”

Kim was utterly arrogant then.

“To be honest with you, if it weren’t for my family’s relationship with the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen, I wouldn’t even bother coming here, let alone see someone named Harvey die!

“Now that I’m here, I’ll have to deal with two other things!

“Number one, I want to ask how two of my family’s disciples died!

“Isn’t Katy supposed to avenge them? Wasn’t she supposed to give us a fair statement?

“Number two, I’m here to see how long Elder Cobb will last in place of the three biggest families of Nanyang!

“If he’s about to die, our family will be taking over the title of Nanyang Gang’s head.

“As for Elder Cobb, he should just die already! Stop wasting our precious medicine doing stupid stuff!

“This b*tch, Katy... She’s been wasting so much money and resources on some disabled person every year! She must have a death wish or something!”

Chapter 2669

Kim Moreno coldly glared at her surroundings. In her eyes, if Dean Cobb were to die...

Katy Cobb would have no right to sit on the throne as the head of the Nanyang Gang without his help.

Katy had already robbed too many resources sitting in this position.

Kim said that she was not interested in the position at all, but clearly, she was filled with envy.

After all, the Nanyang Gang was a force on par with the Briewood Gang in both Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

It was already challenging to take a spot in such an international spotlight.

The middle-aged man kept twitching his eyes after hearing Kim's words.

He would not dare say anything further.

“Elder Cobb's been recovering quite well lately.

“Head Cobb asked an expert from Country H to treat him. It's said that he was the one who dealt with the Hamilton family's incident before.

“He's using poison to counteract the poison inside Elder Cobb's body. He should be back to normal soon enough.”

“What?!”

“An expert from Country H?!”

“What expert even comes from Country H?!”

After hearing those words, Kim burst out in anger before slapping the man across his face once again.

“He’s the one who helped the Hamilton family?
Isn’t he just some con artist?!”

“You people asked a conman to heal Elder Cobb with poison?!”

“Are you all braindead?!”

“Wake up already!”

“Katy’s just a social butterfly who only knows how to sell her body! What in Hell is she doing if she’s not doing her job correctly?!”

“I heard that even the top ten doctors in Hong Kong couldn’t help him! The leading scientists in America were also completely helpless!”

“Now, you’re relying on some man from Country H to heal him?!”

“Are you joking?!”

“Katy’s useless, and so are all of you!”

“Why would she let a man like that get close to Elder Cobb!

“What if he doesn’t heal him, and he goes for Elder Cobb’s tricks and secrets that he trained for many years instead?! Can people like you even bear such consequences?!

“I really want Elder Cobb to pass, but I at least want him to have a peaceful death and not be tormented like this!

“If he dies after enduring such torment and humiliation, the Nanyang Gang reputation will be completely tarnished, along with the three biggest families and the entire country!”

Kim was utterly enraged. She was furious that Katy still tried to save Elder Cobb.

On the other hand, she was actually worried about what would happen if Elder Cobb really recovered.

If he were to make a comeback, all of the Moreno family's plans would be up in flames.

“You!”

In an instant, Kim pointed at a woman from Nanyang. The woman was a spy of hers.

“Lead the way! I want to see Katy and Elder Cobb right now!”

“If we're even a little late, I want all of you to be buried beside Elder Cobb if he actually died in the hands of the conman!”

“You filth! None of you will follow! Don't blame me for drawing my blade if you do!”

Kim then told her bodyguards to keep Katy's men away, stopping them from showing up.

Kim and the others headed to the courtyard under the spy's lead.

In just a few minutes, they arrived.

Black Ink, who was in charge of guarding the entrance, slightly changed her expression after seeing Kim's arrival.

Naturally, she knew full well how hard it would be to deal with her.

Chapter 2670

Black Ink took Katy Cobb's trusted subordinates and came forward with a horrible expression.

"Please stop, Ms. Moreno!" she exclaimed.

"Sir York is inside administering the Bonewash Technique to Elder Cobb. Head Cobb asked us to stop anyone from disturbing them."

"The Bonewash Technique?!"

Kim Moreno was shocked.

"Did you people read too many novels or watch one too many movies?!"

"How can you believe such a thing?!"

"Is Katy braindead or something?!"

"You're killing Elder Cobb here!"

“Let me tell you right now. Elder Cobb cannot die, not until he teaches everything he knows!

“If he dies by some conman’s hands, I’ll kill every single one of you!

“Get out of this place right now!

“Stop blocking my path! I don’t have time to play around!”

Kim showed a fierce attitude, as if she would kill whoever stopped her in her tracks.

Black Ink was quite scared, but she still remained calm as she said, “I’m sorry, Ms. Moreno. It’s Head Cobb’s orders. Without her permission, no one’s allowed entry!

“If not, we have permission to kill whoever that disobeys!”

Bang!

Kim wasted no time drawing out an exquisite firearm before pulling the trigger on Black Ink.

Black Ink was quite skillful, but still, she was not quick enough to dodge the shot. She was paralyzed on the ground after taking a bullet.

She lost her strength in an instant and could not stand back up.

“If any one of you move, you die!”

The bodyguards of the Cobb family wanted to take action, but they were all stopped in their tracks by Kim’s personal bodyguards.

There was a big difference in numbers. With Kim’s domineering force, those ordinary bodyguards would not even dare move a single inch.

Blood spurted out from Black Ink’s mouth.

“You can’t go in, Ms. Moreno. You...”

Bang!

Kim pulled the trigger on Black Ink once again before kicking the door in front of her open.

Harvey York was just about to make an incision inside Dean Cobb's forehead before pulling out the source of the poison.

Harvey was entirely focused. If he were to slip up, Dean could die at any moment.

And if the opportunity were lost, it would be impossible for Dean's poison to be removed entirely from his body.

Kim immediately frowned before she furiously screamed, "You despicable man from Country H! How dare you hurt the Nanyang God of War?! I'll kill you!"

Katy, who was focused on Harvey's operation, turned around before she froze.

“Ms. Moreno?!”

Before Katy could even say anything, Kim already had her firearm pointed right toward Harvey.

Bang!

Katy instinctively pounced forward as a bullet flew out.

Harvey did not know what had happened, but his many years of battle experience made him aware of the murderous intent surrounding him.

He was still pulling the poison out of Dean, but he had no choice but to tilt his head.

Pfffft!

The bullet landed right on the wall behind him, leaving a small hole.

Harvey managed to dodge the bullet, but his right hand trembled because of it.

The last bit of poison was alarmed.

It sucked itself into the body as if it was actually sentient.

Guh!

Dean grunted before coughing out blood. His clear face darkened in an instant.

Dark blood started gushing out of his orifices. He could die at any moment.
