

Chapter 2723

After seeing the woman, Harvey's eyes twitched slightly.

Whether it was her aura, appearance, or style, they were all outstanding. She was definitely a beauty that could topple buildings with her looks when she was still young.

The most alluring thing was the feeling of sorrow in between her eyebrows, making everyone feel compassionate toward her.

Even though Harvey was tough, it still made him feel a little uncertain.

That said, since he was no ordinary man, he immediately squashed the odd feeling without fail before reevaluating the woman in front of him.

Yoana stood up and bowed respectfully.

“Good to see you, Lady Judd!”

“Oh. Yoana. You’ve grown so much! I haven’t seen you for so many years...”

Selena nodded toward Yoana before looking at Harvey with a hint of suspicion.

“Who’s this?”

“Let me introduce you, Lady Judd.”

“This is the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen—the prince of South Light—Harvey York,” Yoana said.

Selena was slightly surprised after hearing Harvey’s title.

She didn’t think that Harvey would rise to such heights at such a young age.

But after hearing his title as the prince South Light, she trembled.

She naturally knew what had happened to the Yorks of South Light.

A distant person like Selena couldn't help but take a few glances toward Harvey then.

While Selena was sizing up Harvey, Harvey squinted back at her.

When her gaze shifted over, Harvey suddenly understood something.

“Lady Judd, you're sick, aren't you?” he asked, while smiling warmly.

Selena froze slightly before a cold expression appeared on her face after she heard those words.

The few bodyguards who were standing in the corner also had a shift in their expressions.

Selena had always been extremely unhappy, but she had never admitted that she was sick.

The people from the Yorks of Hong Kong wouldn't even dare talk to her about this either.

In these people's eyes, Harvey had a death wish for being this direct.

The leader of the bodyguards pounced forward before pointing a firearm at Harvey.

“You b*stard?!”

“You think you can just insult Lady Judd like that?!”

“She was nice enough to invite you inside, and this is how you treat her?!”

“Do you have a death wish?!”

Harvey showed no emotion while firearms were pointed right toward him. He narrowed his eyes at Selena and asked, “I assume it's an illness of the heart?”

“You’re doubting every single thing. You’re always sad to the point where you even harmed yourself and tried to end it all.

“I’m correct, aren’t I?”

Harvey’s gaze then shifted toward Selena’s left wrist.

A few scars could be seen there. Even though they were mostly recovered, they were still quite visible.

Selena instinctively tried to hide her left hand, but since she was strong, she managed to control her emotions, with a cold expression on her face.

“So what if you are?”

“So what if you’re not?”

Harvey smiled.

“I’m no doctor, but I know how to fix it.

“Would you like me to help you?

“Of course, under one condition.”

“During Grandma York’s birthday, you must not accept Vince to be under you.

“Simply put, you cannot acknowledge him as your son.”

Chapter 2724

This was utterly groundbreaking!

The moment Harvey said those words, everyone's expressions changed immediately.

The bodyguards were completely shocked as well.

The leader walked forward before placing his firearm right at Harvey's head.

“Who the f*ck are you, you b*stard?!” he furiously screamed with a grim look on his face.

“You're saying that Lady Judd's not well, and that you can fix her?!”

“A lot of doctors tried to help her, but to no avail!”

“But a damned child like you dares to say that you can fix her?!”

“Stop trying to show off in front of us!”

The leader was surprised that Harvey could see Selena’s illness...

But he still didn’t believe that he could treat her.

And since he made such harsh demands, this was clearly a ploy to cause a rift between Selena and Vince!

As this was Selena’s residence it would be bad to stain the place with blood. If it weren’t for that, the leader would have pulled the trigger already!

“Do you have any idea what this place is, you damned b*stard?!”

“This is the Yorks of Hong Kong’s garden villa!”

“Have you thought of the consequences of spouting bullsh*t in this place?!”

“If you know what’s best for you, then beg for Lady Judd's forgiveness and crawl your way out of here!"

"If not, I'll make sure that you die even if I get punished for it!"

The leader's cold yet intense aura could be felt.

'A peak King of Arms.'

Harvey never thought that the bodyguard protecting Selena was a peak King of Arms, no less.

But after thinking about the situation, this seemed quite normal as well. After all, with Selena's identity, it would only be appropriate if a King of Arms was here to keep her safe.

The aura of this man kept rising as he looked on coldly.

It seemed like he was really about to take action if Harvey didn't apologize and crawl out of the place.

“Shut up already!”

Harvey glared coldly before flicking his finger on the barrel of the firearm.

Clink!

The firearm tilted upward in an instant. Before the King of Arms could even react, a huge force came right toward him, making him lose his grip on the firearm.

He pulled the trigger out of shock before the bullet flew right toward the ceiling.

He felt a huge force coming from the barrel before he was sent flying. He slammed right into a roman pillar soon after and wasn't able to get back up after a long while.

Everyone gasped for air. The bodyguards were in utter disbelief.

The King of Arms was filled with fear. He couldn't believe what just happened.

'How is this possible?!'

'How is this kid so powerful?!'

He was a King of Arms after all.

If he was instantly beaten with just a flick of a finger, then the opponent must be a God of War.

Having such strength at such a young age...

Talent and skill like this was clearly no worse than Vince at this point!

The other bodyguards were horrified, but they did not dare take a step back either. They instinctively raised their firearms toward Harvey, ready to pull the trigger at any moment.

“Stop!”

Selena finally came back to her senses before quietly exclaiming.

“Hold your fire, right now!”

Chapter 2725

The bodyguards hesitated after hearing Selena's order before putting down their firearms.

They wanted to keep Selena safe, but they also had to obey her commands which put them in a tough spot.

“Harvey, right? My apologies. Abel was a little too reckless.”

“That said, he doesn't mean any harm. He's only trying to keep me safe. Please be the bigger person and forgive him.”

Selena then glared at Abel before coldly ordering, “Apologize to Sir York, Abel.”

Abel clicked his mouth.

“M'lady, an outsider has no right to be called that here...”

Selena scowled and said icily, “He has the right if I say so.”

“Apologize!”

Abel’s eye twitched before he stepped forward and bowed toward Harvey.

“I’m sorry, Sir York.”

“You’re only protecting your lady. I don’t blame you,” Harvey replied.

“But a subordinate should really listen to the master.”

“I have a pretty good temper. I don’t kill people that easily. If it were anybody else, you would’ve been dead by now.”

Abel felt a little resentful, but after thinking back on how he got completely beaten, his eyes quivered.

The young man in front of him seemed like some con man...

But after thinking closely, the fact that he saved Helena from the barrage of gunfire and his nonchalant attitude before Selena was already proof of his strength.

At least, other than Vince, it would be hard to find another young man in Hong Kong and Las Vegas that could speak so nonchalantly in front of her.

“My apologies. I was being a little lax toward my subordinates.”

Selena calmly smiled.

“I’m terribly sorry, Sir York.”

“Don’t mention it.”

Harvey chuckled.

“I was in the wrong too. I’m no doctor, but I told you that I can fix you.

“It’s normal for others to not believe me.”

Selena’s gaze lit up before gesturing to Harvey to sit down. After getting someone to get some more tea, she then started rubbing her forehead.

“You’re right, Sir York. I’m aware of my situation. I really am ill in the heart.”

“My husband got me the top ten doctors of Hong Kong, the saint’s reputed hand from northern Europe, and the Imperial Physician of the Island Nations, but none of them could fix me.”

“You said that you’re not a doctor, yet you can heal me?

“With what, exactly?”

Harvey sighed.

“Lady Judd, I don’t know what you’ve been through, but you must’ve gotten into something big ten years ago.”

“The three greatest sorrows of life: meeting someone you didn’t want to meet, parting with your loved ones, and not being able to get what you wish for.

“Out of the three, the third one is the most painful one.

“Either you lost something after you have it, or you have something that’s unattainable.

“Based on your identity, I’m sure everything you want is in the palm of your hands by now.

“That means that you must’ve lost something ten years ago.

“If I guessed correctly...

“You must had a boy. He was either a stillborn, or he died prematurely ten years ago.

“This is the source of your illness. Am I right?”

Suddenly Abel and the others' expressions changed instantly!

This was the biggest secret for both the Yorks of Hong Kong and Selena!

And yet Harvey got every single thing correct!

Chapter 2726

Selena's face was drained of color. She then bit her thin lips after a long while.

"That's really impressive, Sir York," she said quietly.

"I did have a son ten years ago, but he died before he was even a month old.

"That's the worst thing that's ever happened to me!

"No one dared to mention this within the family ...

"I don't care where you heard about this, or that you guessed it yourself. I'm only asking you one thing: how are you planning to treat me?

"Can you even bring my son back?"

Selena chuckled after saying those words.

To her, she could only be cured if her child was brought back to life. Otherwise, everything else was just a big joke.

“I told you. If you accept my condition, I’ll fix you immediately,” Harvey replied.

Selena’s gaze turned as cold as ice.

“What if I accept, and you can’t fix me?”

“As long as you do, I can guarantee that you’ll be healed,” Harvey said.

“Besides, with your family’s power, you’ll have a hundred ways and more to kill me if I actually lied to you.

“Nobody else can heal you anyway.

Selena took a deep breath and replied, “Sir York, you know what it means if I accept this deal, right?

“I’ll be standing against Vince along with the entire family!

“I’ll be making enemies everywhere I go!

“All this just so you can heal me?

“Is it really that worth it for me?”

“Trust me. It is.” Harvey smiled.

“Besides, I believe that you won’t regret it.”

After pondering over the situation for a long while, Selena nodded.

“Fine. I’ll accept the deal, but I need to see something first.

“Do I need to do something beforehand?”

“Should I cooperate with you on anything? Or should I rest for a few days first?”

“There’s no need!” Harvey shook his head and said.

He then took a step forward and swung his palm across Selena’s face twice.

Slap slap!

The slaps were extremely loud.

Selena froze. She couldn’t even react to what happened.

She had always been pampered by the family for many years.

Even after losing her son, nobody treated her this way even though she was constantly muddled.

She was the lady of the Yorks after all.

She didn’t even know how to react after being slapped in the face then.

“That’s not enough!”

Harvey took a step forward and slapped her twice more.

At the same time, he grabbed some tea from the table and poured it right on Selena’s head.

Her face immediately lost color as soon as the tea started pouring down. Her natural face was showing a bit of red then.

“M’lady!”

The bodyguards gasped immediately after seeing the sight. They all grabbed their firearms and surrounded Harvey after coming to their senses.

Abel was terrified of Harvey’s strength, but he still mustered up his courage to scream, “How dare you, Harvey?!”

They never thought that Harvey would be this bold to slap their lady, who was like a goddess in their hearts...

He even poured tea over her entire body!!!

This was blasphemy, humiliation, and blatant disrespect toward the entire family! Only someone with a death wish would have the gall to do something this insane!
