

Chapter 2839

“Stop trying to talk big now, Harvey York!

“But not only did you slap Secretary Akina in the face twice, you even chased Young Master Ishikawa out of the damn building!

“Now, tell me how you’re supposed to earn money!

“Don’t tell me that Young Master Ishikawa’s going to beg for you to sign the contract later!

“Harvey, right?”

Cory York flipped the pages of his documents and got to Harvey’s page. When he saw Harvey's descriptions, his pupils slightly shrunk while showing a cold look on his face.

"I admit that you're quite the man yourself and that you've been doing many great things in Hong Kong and Las Vegas recently. You've become pretty popular.

"But business just isn't done this way!

"No matter how strong and famous you are, you'd have no chance to earn money if no one pays you their respect!

"Because of your actions , you ruined our chances of earning hundreds and millions of dollars worth of profit for the company! At this point, you have no choice but to pay for the price."

Cory showed a frigid expression then.

"Don't make me repeat myself. Are you two going to prepare your resignation letters, or do you want me to fire both of you myself?”

Cory knew full well why Marcel York wanted Queenie York into the Loxus Consortium.

He felt resentful for having to give away his position.

Now that the opportunity had shown itself, Cory would naturally use it to kick Queenie out without question.

After hearing the chairman's words, the people started to open their mouths in unison, agreeing that Harvey and Queenie should resign.

Queenie smiled while staring ambiguously at Cory.

“Do you really want me out of the company that badly, Uncle?”

“Or are you saying that my presence here

threatens your interests?”

Cory showed a cold emotion without showing any changes in his expression.

“I have always been fair and just in doing business. Since you were the ones who botched the business , you’d naturally have to pay the price for it.”

“Right! You’re the ones who ruined the opportunity ! You two should just get out of here already!”

Dante Castro was showing a prideful look on his face.

“We already had a deal about this!

“Pack your stuff and leave! Don’t blame me for calling security if you keep stalling here!”

Naturally, this was Dante’s most desired outcome.

He wanted to repay the favor for Harvey slapping him in the face.

‘So what if he was the consultant here?’

‘So what if she was the CEO?’

‘If I want to, they’ll be kicked out of the company as I please!’”

Dante’s wretched gaze shifted toward Queenie as if he were pitying her.

If it were not for Queenie’s extraordinary identity, he might have used the opportunity to sleep with her!

After hearing Dante’s conceited tone and seeing his wretched gaze, Harvey calmly replied, “Are you all braindead or something?”

“Don’t you even understand a single word I just said?”

“I said that we’ll earn money with our dignity intact, but I never said anything about botching the deal.”

“You hit Secretary Akina and chased Young Master Ishikawa off the building, yet you’re trying to earn money?”

Dante coldly chuckled.

“You think Young Master Ishikawa has no pride?”

“Do you think he’s coming back to talk business with you after you disrespected him this much?!”

“What are you thinking?!”

“Wake up already! It’s still early in the morning! Have your dreams when you go to sleep or something!”

Chapter 2840

Harvey York calmly smiled as he shrugged .

“It’s just a simple deal with the Ishikawa Corporation anyway . At the end of the day, it’s only a few hundred million dollars per annum. Is there even a need to cause such a huge uproar for this money?”

Dante Castro cackled.

“Just a simple deal, you say?”

“Only a few hundred million dollars per annum?”

“How shameless can you get, Harvey?!”

Even Dante was chuckling in anger at this very moment.

A few female higher-ups were covering their mouths to hide their snickers . In their eyes,

Harvey was just some ignorant fool.

“Are you serious, Harvey?”

“If things are really that simple for you, then bring the contract here already!”

“You’ll probably get many more letters from lawyers than contracts!”

“Young Master Ishikawa won’t let you go that easily for hitting one of his subordinates!”

The higher-ups glared disdainfully at Harvey. In their eyes, Harvey was just another clown.

Harvey took a peek at his Rolex on his wrist and then calmly said, “It’s almost ten o’clock.

“Taichi Ishikawa’s almost here to beg for my signature.”

Dante inadvertently stumbled, almost falling to the ground. He thought he was talking to an actual idiot.

He sized up Harvey before he coldly scoffed.

“Are you actually braindead, Harvey?”

“Do you need me to send you to the hospital?”

“Don’t worry! Illnesses like these are free of charge!”

“Use your brain for once!”

“You hit Secretary Akina in the face!”

“You chased Young Master Ishikawa out!”

“And now you’re hoping for them to beg you to sign the contract?!”

“This must be some sort of wild dream!”

“And besides, do you know who Young

Master Ishikawa is?!

“He’s the direct descendant of the Ishikawa family!

“He has a reputation to uphold!

“Do you think he’s going to beg for you?!

“If he does, I’ll even kneel and call you Daddy!”

“Just kneeling is enough. There’s no need to call me that,” replied Harvey.

“My family’s still alright. There’s no need for useless garbage like you.”

“You...”

Dante was boiling with anger. He really wanted to slap Harvey in the face, but at that moment...

Knock, knock, knock!

The doors of the meeting room opened after a barrage of knocks.

The beautiful front desk lady was seen with utter shock on her face.

“Young Master Ishikawa’s here with the contract!”

The scornful chuckles from the crowd immediately stopped!

The smiles on their faces froze in an instant. They could not even make a sound even if they wanted to.

Dante almost bit his own tongue. He was filled with utter disbelief when he looked at the lady. He was at a loss for words.

Even Cory York, who had been casually taking control of the entire room, could not help but tremble while holding his cigar.

Everyone was completely stunned!

“Young Master Ishikawa’s here with the contract?!”

“How is this possible?!”

“A man like him would surely fight back after being disrespected! Why would he give in now?!”

“You must’ve heard it wrong!”

“He came here with the lawyer’s letter, didn’t he?! He’s trying to destroy our company!”

“That must be it! He’s here to threaten us with an unfair contract!”

“We’re being dragged down because of Harvey and Queenie!”

The previously dead silent crowd suddenly started clamoring all around the room.

Chapter 2841

Everyone had the same thought at that moment. Taichi Ishikawa was here to force the Loxus Consortium so he could benefit from the situation.

If not, why would he come all the way here after being thoroughly disrespected?

Cory York managed to regain his composure before thinking of a way to deal with Taichi.

“Miss Ishikawa, Young Master Ishikawa, this way please!”

When Cory and the others stood up, planning to welcome the arrival of Taichi and the others, the front desk lady had already brought a dozen people to the meeting room.

The person in front was an Islander-looking woman wearing an elegant suit.

Her face showed a professional smile as she swiftly followed the front desk lady.

The person behind her was none other than Taichi, who was showing utter despair.

Secretary Akina , who still had a few palm prints on her face, was here with the assistants, the legal department, bodyguards, and other people...

Harvey York curiously glanced at the woman and immediately recognized her as Yukiko Ishikawa . She was the woman who Harvey trampled in Mordu a while ago.

But if it were not for such a coincidence , he would never have remembered such a small fry anyway...

“Representative Ishikawa! Sorry for not welcoming you in person!

“On behalf of the Loxus Consortium, I thank you for coming!

“I’m truly honored!”

Cory naturally knew who Yukiko was.

He froze after seeing her arrival and welcomed her with a warm smile.

The directors and female higher-ups followed suit and respectfully bowed.

Dante Castro and the others did not know who Yukiko was, but after seeing her imposing manner and the attitude of Cory and the others, they knew that she was not just an ordinary person.

And right behind Yukiko, Taichi was trembling in fear like a scared puppy.

The woman’s identity was as clear as day!
She was not just any ordinary big character!

Dante felt a little uneasy at this moment.

He instinctively glanced at Harvey. When he saw Harvey's calm look, he could not help but shudder in fear.

"You're too kind, Chairman York."

Yukiko bowed in front of Cory.

"I came here without informing you beforehand."

Yukiko then looked around the room while she was talking.

At this moment, Harvey was coincidentally blocked off behind Queenie, so Yukiko was not able to see him.

"We're all friends here, Representative Ishikawa."

Cory felt a little doubtful, but he still smiled warmly.

“You’re the pride and joy of the Ishikawa family , and also the representative of the Island Nation Embassy ! It’s my honor for you to show up here.”

Yukiko would never involve herself with business , but her status was much higher compared to Taichi.

That was why Cory wanted to get closer to her.

With Yukiko’s word, the Ishikawa Corporation’s deal would be easily obtained.

Of course , if Yukiko were here to ask for a statement, the company would be in big trouble.

Yukiko came to her senses since she still could not find Harvey. She faintly smiled at Cory and said, “I hope we have more opportunities to work together in the future,

Chairman York.”

“Hahaha! It would be my pleasure!

“Alright. Let’s cut this short.

“Why are you here today , Representative Ishikawa? Is there something you need our help with?”

Chapter 2842

Cory York was showing an enthusiastic look.

“If it’s something you need help with, we’ll definitely lend you a hand if it is within our power.

“After all, there’s nothing I can’t handle in Hong Kong or Las Vegas!

“Even if the people from Loxus Consortium managed to offend the honorable Ishikawa family, I’ll be sure to give you a fair statement if you say the word.”

Naturally, Cory still thought that Yukiko Ishikawa dragged this many people with her so she could ask him for a fair statement.

If not, with Yukiko’s status, why would she even come here all the way from Mordu?

She even came in such a hurry. She was clearly looking for trouble.

As for the polite attitude, Cory also felt it was normal.

After all, peaceful measures should be used before war.

The people from the Island Nations had been known as the country of etiquette. Even if they bump into the person who slaughtered their entire family, they would still bow properly before swinging their blade.

It seemed normal for Yukiko to be this polite at this moment.

Dante Castro smiled and walked forward after hearing those words.

“Our chairman’s always been fair and just. He’d never bend the law for his own sake!” exclaimed Dante.

“Just tell us what’s on your mind.”

Dante then secretly glanced toward Harvey York and Queenie York.

He thought that Harvey was finished now that Yukiko was here.

“I’m here for an important matter.”

Yukiko showed a serious expression.

“I’m here to plead guilty on behalf of the Ishikawa family.”

Dante stood frozen before he was filled with utter shock and disbelief.

“Plead guilty?!” he exclaimed.

“Kneel!” She furiously screamed while showing a cold expression.

Yukiko did not see Harvey, but it did not affect her performance even one bit.

Along with the sound of her scream , Taichi Ishikawa , his secretary , and everyone who showed off in the company the day before kneeled with their heads hanging down low.

“Slaps to the face!” Yukiko exclaimed with an icy tone.

Slap, slap, slap!

Taichi and the others would not dare to disobey. They furiously slapped themselves across their faces almost immediately.

They were slapping themselves as if they were ready to lay down their lives at that moment. Every slap was a lot more powerful than the last.

In just a moment, Taichi's face was completely disfigured. Secretary Akina's face was clearly twisted as well.

Yukiko finally saw Harvey's face among the crowd at this very moment.

She walked toward him and respectfully bowed.

“On behalf of the Ishikawa family, I apologize!

“Taichi is just the Ishikawa family’s relative, but since he provoked you while he was outside doing business, this means that we provoked you as a whole!

“This is all our fault! I hope you’ll forgive us!

“Punish him however you want! The Ishikawa family will abide by your decision!”

Everyone was shocked after hearing those words.

They felt utterly sluggish. Some even slapped themselves in the face to ensure they were not imagining things.

The high and mighty Yukiko apologized to Harvey on behalf of the Ishikawa family?

What kind of sick joke was this?!

It would be barely acceptable if Yukiko were apologizing to Vince York instead.

But instead, she was apologizing to Harvey...

Was there some sort of mistake? 4
