

Chapter 1001 Strange Voice

After some preparations, Henry and Tang Hao left the laboratory and set off toward the south side of the laboratory.

This is the first time Tang Hao has really walked out of the laboratory in more than a year. Before that, he also sneaked back and forth from that tunnel to see if he could meet the person his father sent to save himself.

In terms of people, Tang Hao encountered a few, but without exception, they were all swallowed by the ba snake.

Except for that tunnel, Tang Hao was almost blind to the laboratory. Except for what the camera could capture and what he could see on the observation deck, Tang Hao didn't know what was outside the lab.

The two carried some cans and water, and they set off. As for the black monkey, Henry was left in the laboratory.

Henry did this for two reasons.

First of all, the black monkey is the king of the jungle. Its gene is undoubtedly something that all experimental subjects will fight for. Now no experimental subject knows that the black monkey is injured, so it does not dare to provoke the black monkey, but once it is found that the black monkey is injured, I am afraid that at that time, the jungle king will bring a devastating blow to Henry and the two.

Secondly, Henry didn't know what was going on in this small world. He said that he could find his way out this time. He might have to return to the laboratory and leave the black monkey in the laboratory to deter those experimental subjects. , Also count as a place to stay for yourself.

This earth has a dark color, and even those trunks are black, and the intersection of different substances makes everything here different from the outside world.

"Brother, how do I feel gloomy." Tang Hao shrunk his head and followed behind Henry.

Tang Hao's posture made Henry speechless. "In other words, why are you also a master of imperial dominance, the surrounding experimental body should not be able to help you."

Tang Hao grumbled: "Brother, I don't want this, too. I'm really scared."

"Come on, don't be afraid of playing a few games." Henry patted Tang Hao's shoulder and strode forward.

Tang Hao took a deep breath and tried to cheer up, but the cheer-up look lasted only a few seconds, and then became a languid, trotting to follow Henry, whispering: "Brother, don't go too fast, wait for me Wait for me!"

The destination set by Henry this time is not far from the laboratory.

According to the thinking of normal people, the laboratory should be closest to the exit so that it can be easily accessed.

Along the way, although the two have been cautious, they still attracted a lot of experimental subjects. These experimental subjects are extremely sensitive to human odor and more eager for human genes.

Killing seven or eight experimental bodies in a row, Henry found that the experimental body in this small world was more powerful than the small world outside, which made Henry somewhat puzzled.

From what Andre said, we can learn that the small world outside was once completely cleared by the Gods, and now the experimental body still hovering in that small world is all run by the small world now. Yes, these experimental bodies will devour each other, and genetic evolution may be able to complete large-scale evolution, and it should be only a few. Why is each experimental body stronger than the outside?

There is only one possibility, that is, there is definitely something in this small world that strengthens these experimental bodies in silence.

The two shuttled in this small world and encountered a lake, which was on the camera, indicating the lake where the emu is located.

In the video, Henry has not seen that the color of the lake water is actually pure black.

The water of the lake is exceptionally calm, even without a ripple, like a pool of standing water.

However, Henry and Tang Hao don't think so. When they saw the lake, they slowed down at almost the same time. What kind of things are there in the lake? They are very clear.

If the emu opens its mouth, it can definitely devour either of them.

The two bypassed the lake and moved on.

In this way, Henry and Tang Hao walked in this small world for three consecutive days.

This small world is very large, and the speed of the two is not fast. After all, the overlord here is out. When he comes in, Henry can still grasp the position of some overlords, but now he has reached the depths of this small world. What is ahead, Henry is also unclear, the two can only fumble carefully.

"Boom!"

Henry suddenly heard a violent voice.

"Be careful!" Henry's complexion changed, and his invisible gas mask blocked him.

Tang Hao, who was behind Henry, was shocked, and also put on a posture ready to fight.

The two held their breaths and watched the surroundings. The surroundings were quiet. There was no wind here. Apart from the faint breathing of the two, they could no longer hear any sound.

"Brother, what did you find?" Tang Hao whispered.

"Did you not hear?" Henry's eyes were solid and he kept glancing around. There was no fluke here. I really had to meet that terrible creature. There was no place to run. A careless, funeral But his own life.

"What did you hear?" Tang Hao's eyes were full of doubts. "I just saw you suddenly like this."

"Did you really not hear?" Henry was strange. The reverberation of "Dong" just now was particularly obvious, even ordinary. Everyone can hear clearly, not to mention Tang Hao, a master of imperial domination. His senses are much more sensitive than ordinary people.

"No." Tang Hao's head shook like a rattle.

"Okay." Henry breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that his nerves were too tight. During these three days, the two had hardly relaxed. When resting, they had to leave one person awake, while the rest person , Also out of half-sleep and half-wake, can always enter the state of battle.

Henry removed the invisible gas mask in front of his body, just about to take a step.

"Boom!"

Another voice exploded in Henry's mind.

"Come out!" Henry waved violently, and a phantom tiger suddenly condensed from behind him, and then flew to a big tree in front of him.

The tree suddenly split into two, Henry stared closely behind the tree, but found nothing.

"Brother, what the hell is that?" Tang Hao asked with a puzzled expression.

"Have you really not heard?" Henry asked again.

"Really, brother, you believe me, I will not make a joke about our lives." Tang Hao was anxious, afraid that Henry doubted what he had.

Henry looked at Tang Hao suspiciously, analyzed Tang Hao's words, and Tang Hao's recent behavior. From the beginning to the present, Henry had never really trusted Tang Hao. Once Tang Hao showed something wrong, Henry absolutely Without hesitation, beheaded directly.

"Boom!" There was another sound, Henry was about to make a sound, but he was suddenly stunned. This time, he understood why Tang Hao could not hear any movement, because this sound came from the bottom of his heart!

Chapter 1002: Escape

"Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!"

Henry heard more and more frequently. At the same time, Henry could clearly feel that his heartbeat was gradually accelerating.

what is happening!

Henry was horrified.

"Brother, what's wrong with you?" Tang Hao came over with a worried expression.

At the moment when Tang Hao approached Henry, Henry was almost subconscious, so he squeezed a burst of gas and attacked Tang Hao.

"No!" Henry snarled and pressed his raised hand hard.

what happened? What exactly happened here?

Henry breathed heavily. The "dong" sound in his heart became more and more frequent. At the same time, Henry could also feel that he was extremely irritable at the moment, and he wanted to start with anything he saw.

"Brother, you are..." Tang Hao stood a meter away from Henry, his voice trembling a little, "Brother, your eyes are turning red..."

Henry's pupil shrank suddenly, and his footsteps moved, almost in a flash, he rushed to Tang Hao.

Tang Hao saw Henry's blushing eyes rushing towards himself, wanting to resist, but he was too late.

Henry clasped Tang Hao's Tianling cover with one hand, then pressed hard.

There was a panic in Tang Hao's eyes. When an idea just came out of his mind, he heard a click, and a big tree beside him exploded from the middle, and the place where it exploded was flush with his head.

"Run!" Henry yelled, dragging Tang Hao who hadn't responded, and fled towards the place where the two came.

Tang Hao reacted just now. He was just saved his life. If it wasn't his head that was pressed, the one that had just exploded was not the big tree, but his own head.

Too late to say thank you, Tang Hao had luck at the soles of his feet and followed Henry's rapid escape.

In the process of fleeing, Tang Hao subconsciously glanced at what attacked him. This look made Tang Hao take a breath.

This is a giraffe. Tang Hao can occasionally see the appearance of this giraffe on the monitor. Like the ordinary giraffe, this giraffe only eats leaves. But now, Tang Hao can clearly see the fangs in the giraffe's mouth, Nothing less than the jungle king in the lab cage, a disgusting red long tongue flicked in the giraffe's mouth, the tongue is the same as the frog's tongue, but it is longer and thicker, and the tongue is covered with cloth It is full of barbs, and if you are scratched, you have to bring a layer of skin.

While Tang Hao was staring at the giraffe, the giraffe attacked again, and the long tongue in his mouth shot straight towards Tang Hao, exactly as he did when the frog was preying.

This long tongue runs through several large trees one after another, and it is still coming strong, showing its power.

Tang Hao was frightened by the fear, and his feet moved a little faster.

"Roar!" A roar came from Tang Hao's side, and at the same time, a bloody mouth full of stench came to Tang Hao.

Tang Hao was so scared that he screamed, and at this moment, he almost burst out of all his strength, before he could escape this bloody mouth.

With a "tearing", Tang Hao only felt a cold behind him, and the clothes behind him were torn apart by the blood basin.

This is a huge hippo.

Tang Hao saw that the hippo eyes were also scarlet.

"Don't be stunned, run!" Henry shouted. At this moment, Henry felt that there was an unspeakable tyranny in his heart. In the face of these subjects, there was an impulse in Henry's mind, which was to cut them all. Kill, and... eat!

This idea made Henry a little afraid. He didn't even dare to turn back and pull Tang Hao. As the heartbeat speeded up, the impulse in Henry's heart became more and more unstoppable.

The two of them walked for three days while exploring this direction, but they were careful to explore. The speed was very slow, and the range around the front, back, left, and right was also wide, so it was three days to listen, but the straight line distance was not very far. Now, when the two After bursting at full speed, the efficiency was hundreds of times faster than when it came..

The black water of the lake, which I saw three days ago, appeared in front of the two of them after running forty minutes.

"Brother, I can't get around, why are all monsters!"

Tang Hao looked pale at the experiment bodies around the Black Lake. He was so scared that he had directly called these monsters. He saw that these experiments The body, all eyes are scarlet, as if some kind of stimulation.

"Over the lake!" Henry yelled, ran to the lake, and jumped hard.

The lake is not spacious. It's about the size of a football field. It's just that it's standing vertically in front of Henry and the two. As a result, the two had to settle on the lake and jump again.

Tang Hao saw Henry leaping hard by the lake, but he couldn't shake his heart. Tang Hao clearly remembered that there was a particularly horrible creature in this lake.

But there are more and more experimental bodies coming around, and Tang Hao can't take care of that much. Henry has already jumped, and he can't naturally stay here and wait to die.

After a run-up, Tang Hao compressed all his qi under his feet, and then skyrocketed like a shell.

Those binocular scarlet subjects watched both Henry and Tang Hao jumped over the lake, and then fell towards the lake, all uttering unwilling roars, and then opened their teeth to the subject beside them.

Tang Hao was above the lake, looking nervously at the lake.

There was a sudden wave of waves on the calm lake.

"Come!" Tang Hao's heart tightened, ready at any time.

At the same time, a big mouth of blood basin appeared from under Tang Hao.

Tang Hao was so frightened that he was all attentive to the lake, but he was clearly paying attention to the lake, but the speed of this emperor fish was too fast, just like a lightning, and the big mouth of the blood basin had come under him. At this speed, Tang Hao even looked at it. Can't see clearly, let alone react.

"Go!" A roar sounded, Henry, already in the water, grasping the thick fish tail of the emu.

"Ah!" Henry yelled, shaking the fish tail hard.

Originally Tang Hao could feel the sharpness of the fangs of the emu fish. At this moment, due to Henry's force underneath, Tang Hao Shengsheng retrieved a life from the emperor's mouth.

The emu fell into the water and splashed a large wave.

Tang Hao fell into the lake water in a free-falling way. When Tang Hao was about to fall into the water, he felt that he had lifted himself with a strong force. At first glance, it was Henry who was holding his soles by hand.

"Run quickly, run to the laboratory, fast!" Henry's arm was as hard as throwing a shot, and Tang Hao was thrown hard.

"Brother!" Tang Hao yelled, he really didn't expect that Henry was willing to fall into the lake, face the emu fish, and give himself a chance to live.

When Henry did not trust Tang Hao, Tang Hao also did not fully trust Henry.

Chapter 1003: All Seriously Injured

Henry half of his body exposed the lake and sent Tang Hao away, he was finally relieved.

The "dump" sound at the heart has not stopped until now, but it is getting faster and faster. According to Henry's personal calculation, it reaches at least 150 times a second. This speed is the fetus in the mother's body. It's only available when it's growing.

In the same way, the irritability at the bottom of Henry's heart is becoming more and more difficult to restrain, and has even reached the point where he wants to kill all living creatures in front of him.

Henry simply chose here to vent this irritability in his heart, otherwise he would not wait to return to the laboratory. Henry would never doubt that he would not be able to control Tang Hao, but he told Henry rationally and wanted to talk to Andre Confrontation, Tang Hao is the key.

"Miscellaneous, you and me are left, come on, let me see, how terrible the emu recorded in the Shanhai Jing!" Henry stared at the lake.

A dark shadow slowly approached Henry from the bottom of the lake, then jumped out of the water and opened a big mouth of the blood basin.

"Oh, it's just a sneak attack!"

Behind Henry, an eagle's phantom condensed, and the eagle's claws caught the emu jumping out of the lake.

In the heart of Henry, there is not only the desire to kill, but also a desire to devour, but for those experimental objects with mixed genes, Henry is really afraid. Among those experimental bodies, who knows what will happen, in case they will do it themselves What to do if people are not ghosts or ghosts, simply, Henry chooses a strong opponent, fight first, and then say, even if you want to swallow, only swallow one, it is much better than eating blindly.

On the dark lake, the eagle phantom and the first collision with the emu fish, the waves splashed.

By the lake, countless subjects, all scarlet eyes, biting each other.

Tang Hao desperately ran back to the laboratory. On this journey across the Black Lake, he was attacked countless times, escaping from danger to death. At this time, he was already covered with blood, and a scar on his leg was clearly visible. bone.

Fortunately, there is the deterrent from the jungle king. In the laboratory, there is no experiment body gathering, otherwise Tang Hao can't come back alive.

As soon as he entered the laboratory, Tang Hao heard a roar. He saw that the jungle king was locked in a cage. At this time, his eyes were also scarlet, and he kept bumping in the cage, but he was injured by the jungle king. , It can't break this cage.

Tang Hao lowered his mind and looked out of the laboratory.

"Brother..."

Tang Hao just issued a word, and his eyes were black, and he was planted on the ground. Among the experimental bodies that attacked him, there were some experimental bodies with neurotoxins.

When Tang Hao opened his eyes, he didn't know how long it had passed. There was no time here, no night and day. When Tang Hao came back, he didn't pay attention to the time on the research equipment. He didn't know how long he had been in a coma and turned to him. A glance, the jungle king with his eyes scarlet last night, has been quietly lying in the cage, closing his eyes.

Tang Hao tried to get up, but found that his legs and right arm were not controlled at all, and he was all in a paralyzed state. He took a deep breath. Tang Hao wanted to condense some of the gas out, but unfortunately, the toxin was too strong, He simply couldn't do it. After all, the cohesion of qi requires his own muscles to assist.

Tang Hao glanced outside the laboratory door. A bloody man was lying in front of the laboratory door.

Tang Hao's face was loud with joy, and he roared in surprise: "Brother!"

The person lying on the door was covered in blood, not Henry.

Obviously, Henry was also injured and was in a coma. He could not hear Tang Hao's shouts, let alone respond to him.

Tang Hao used his only right hand to crawl towards the door.

Shenyin will be in the small world.

Mai and Andre are still standing in front of the wall.

The sackcloth pressed the hat on the head and made a hoarse voice, "Andrea is in control, you said it has been five days, Henry has not come out, this kid, will not die inside."

Andrea cold. Humming, "Why, linen, you don't want our European gods to get the secret under the eighteenth hell?"

"I'm just a pity a genius, you know, my grown-ups value Henry very much, if this kid is really out What's wrong, my lord, I won't easily get angry."

"Oh." Andrea smiled disdainfully, "Mai, you don't have to press Master Chu Zheng to press me. Henry has accepted the post of jailer, now under my jurisdiction. In his life and death, Master Chu Zheng couldn't miss any hands. Moreover, he insisted on breaking into the depths of purgatory. If he really couldn't get out, he also went to find those experimental bodies!"

Andrei finished, throwing his sleeve away, "Wait here for yourself, I still have some things to do."

Andrea finished and turned away.

Mai stared at the front of this wall, murmured: "You boy, do not easily die like a man ah, do not forget, back in your body's mission, there is too much, hey," which purgatory Laboratory .

Seven days have passed since Henry and they fled that day.

Tang Hao also found the neurotoxin removal method from the laboratory research data the day before to detoxify himself.

As for Henry, he was lying in the dormitory on the third floor, and he was covered with hundreds of wounds, large and small, all of which had residual qi, which would be difficult to heal in a moment and a half unless Henry could control these qi All are discharged.

Tang Hao had no choice but to pull out some hemostatic medicine from the medicine box for Henry to use, and then tie gauze.

The bitterness of Henry's face, how long he hasn't been treated this way, with his current constitution and ordinary wounds, it is estimated that healed before the doctor came.

"Brother, how do you feel?" Tang Hao walked to the bed. He is now grateful to Henry. He knows very well that without Henry, he doesn't know how many times he died.

Henry replied: "The fish is strong, and the state of Qi is not high. It is the same shape as me. In another day, I will be able to expel the remaining Qi in my body."

In fact, Henry was early A day ago, he was able to figure out what was happening in his body, but in order to hide his strength, he still lay a few days.

Hearing Henry saying this, Tang Hao was relieved, and then he admired: "Brother, you are too awesome! I saw the emu fish from the monitor today, and it's half gone, you just turned Xingjing! I saw that it had fought against an overlord, and that overlord had torn a condensed gas environment at that time. You could even beat the emperor fish like that! Doesn't it mean that you are only transformed now, just Better than Ningqijing Master?"

Henry smiled bitterly and made an excuse, "How can it be that simple, there was another experimental body that day ran over and fought against the emperor fish, I took the opportunity to run, I have fought It? You despise me too much."

Chapter 1004: The Way Out

"Okay." Tang Hao heard Henry say this, and didn't think much about it. After all, he was a little unbelievable. Master, if Henry can beat the emperor fish just by transforming, this is a bit too incredible.

Henry was lying in bed, recalling the battle that day, and still feeling a little nervous.

The real situation, of course, is not as he said, and another experimental body rushed into the battlefield.

It was the broken sword hidden in Henry's body that tore half the body of the emu. Of course, Henry did not intend to give anyone a thorough understanding of this matter. The power of the broken sword was completely beyond Henry's imagination. .

Another day later, Henry removed the bandages on his body, and the wounds outside his body had almost recovered. One battle left his original clothes completely damaged. He could only find some other clothes to wear from the dormitory.

"Brother, what the hell was that day?" Tang Hao, who had been holding back for a few days, couldn't help but ask the doubts in his heart, "Why did all the experimental bodies riot, and you were the same that day, your eyes are scarlet, but you can take me Frightened."

"This is also what I want to ask you." Henry put on a jacket that no one wore, "You said before, there is an energy body here, which has been supplying the entire laboratory's operation. That energy body What does it look like?"

Tang Hao revealed a thoughtful look, and then replied: "Probably, it should be a red crystal. This energy body is placed in a container in the basement, surrounded by experimental bodies, and I am not near I have seen it from a distance."

"Sure enough." Henry's eyes narrowed.

During these days of rest and recuperation, Henry carefully recalled what happened to him that day. This feeling, he had once, was encountered when he personally tested the energy inside the fire crystal on the island.

Listening to Tang Hao's description now, Henry is sure that the energy body is definitely a fire crystal!The energy in the fire crystal will have a great impact on emotions!

Tang Hao observed Henry's expression and guessed: "Brother, what happened that day, is it related to that energy body?"

Henry nodded, "You said before, those experimental bodies are all interested in that energy?"

"Yes." Tang Hao replied, "Not just interested, I have observed those experimental bodies, they look at that energy The gaze, the extra longing, and all with a desire to devour, they want to eat that piece of energy, but I don't know why, no one dares to start first."

"Of course they dare not start." Henry cold Humming, "The energy body contains huge energy reserves. If it bursts out, it is no exaggeration to say that it is equivalent to several nuclear power plants exploding together. Now it is swallowed. That is to find a way to death. They are waiting for that. The energy body is almost consumed."

"Brother, what shall we do now? Continue to find out the mouth?" Tang Hao asked, Tang Hao has completely regarded Henry as the backbone of his heart, and everything has followed Henry's instructions.

"No." Henry shook his head. "I already observed that day, this laboratory was not built at the entrance of this small world, but at the deepest point. I am afraid that these people are holding the mentality of not completing the experiment and not leaving. Here, we want to find a way out of this small world, unless we can kill it all the way."

Upon hearing this, Tang Hao shook his head like a rattle. "Impossible, there are too many experimental subjects, don't say The two of us, even if we come to a dozen strong condensate environment strongmen, there is no possibility to kill them all the way."

"So, we need to think of another way." Henry looked at the only one in the cage. 'S black monkey, "Come on, now you go to search for research materials. I need to know, which of these experimental subjects is the most defensive."

"Defensive?" Tang Hao was busy in the hall doubtfully.

While Tang Hao was looking up the information, Henry was not idle, and he kept moving around the laboratory.

In this way, another day passed.

Tang Hao's eyes were covered with red blood, and he had not been idle for almost a day. He stared at the research materials and slammed, "Brother, I found it, according to the genetic formula given by the ancestors. The strongest defensive force is the juvenile bar snake in the small world outside. The scales on its body can easily withstand armor-piercing shells. This itself was made in the direction of the war machine."

"Resistance to armor-piercing shells?" "Henry showed some thoughts. "If it's a snake, it's much more convenient."

Tang Hao turned around and saw Henry holding a pile of flammable products in the center of the laboratory hall.

"Brother, what are you doing?" Tang Hao had a bad hunch in his heart.

Henry said with a light face: "Since we can't kill it, then think of a way to kill it by external force. It's impossible to suffocate here all the time. I counted the time. It's been half a month since I came into the present. Do you think that you will stay here all your life?"

"No, of course I don't want to!" Tang Hao replied without any thought. "I have been here for more than a year, and I feel like my spirit is breaking down."

"That is, Hold these things and come with me." Henry took a few tubes of TNT explosives and walked towards the basement. He returned to the Zumeng League to develop here, and there was no shortage of explosives. There were too many of these explosives.

Tang Hao Henry staring at the hands of explosives, suddenly thought of Henry yesterday introduction to the energy body, looked surprised a moment, "Brother, you will not be ....."

"Yes, these experiments terror body again, I do not believe they can arrive It can withstand a nuclear explosion!" A nuclear explosion is considered a force that should not exist in this world. This is a release of the ultimate energy. It has experienced nuclear explosions. Even for decades, even hundreds of years, it will not grow, and the soil will be scorched. !

Henry admitted that these experimental bodies made by the Zu Mengmeng were very tyrannical. The fusion of multiple genes gave these experimental bodies an unbelievable ability, but if it can withstand nuclear explosions, Henry is absolutely unbelievable.

If there is any biological energy to counter the nuclear explosion, then it can definitely sweep across the world.

Henry took Tang Hao to the first floor of the laboratory and was still on the stairs. Henry and Tang Hao heard heavy breathing sounds. Among these breathing sounds, they brought a strong sense of oppression. Arrogant experiment.

Henry had also come down to the negative layer once before. Having seen the scene here, he was also sure that the energy is the fire crystal! A piece of fire crystal with the size of a baby's fist!

The fire crystal was sealed in a container, and Henry observed the starting device of that container from a distance, and it was completely openable.

Around that container, there were no less than thirty experimental bodies lying on the ground. These experimental bodies were in different shapes, with humanoid, beast-like, and half-human and half-beast existences, each staring at the fire crystal in the container. .

Chapter 1005 Detonation

Henry used his eyes to tell Tang Hao to put all the explosives at the entrance of the negative floor, and then threw Tang Hao a simple controller developed by Henry himself. This controller can control the explosives. Detonate.

Tang Hao looked at Henry with doubt.

Henry lowered his voice and said: "You are waiting here, listening to my command for a while, and when I say it, you will throw this explosive down, it should be able to urge the explosion of this energy."

"Brother, then what will happen to us?" What? Once the nuclear explosion occurs, the first one to die must be us."

"Of course it was the ba snake." Henry's mouth hung with a smile. "You are ready."

Henry turned back to the laboratory. On the first floor, walk straight to the cage that holds the jungle king, lift the cage, and then open the cage where the snake was previously raised, and jump down into the hole.

Along the way, Henry accelerated his pace, and it only took about ten minutes to come to the place where he jumped with Tang Hao that day.

Henry noticed that above the cave, the tree trunk was no longer visible, and a large gap appeared there.

Henry took a deep breath, took out the broken sword from his arms, and reached into the cage.

As the broken sword approached the cage, the jungle king in the cage began to tremble.

When Henry reached the broken sword into the cage, the jungle king immediately screamed with fear.

As soon as the jungle king cried out, Henry heard a roar from above. It was the baby snake that had not run away.

Henry's face was very happy. The young snake was really afraid of this jungle king, but at the same time he was very coveted by the jungle king.

Henry simply put the broken sword on the jungle king's body, then stroked hard, a string of blood, flowing down the cage bottom to the ground.

"Squeak!" The

jungle king screamed with horror again.

"Roar!"

At this very moment, a huge triangular head suddenly darted into the cave. A pair of eyes with green awns stared at Henry. To be precise, he stared at the iron cage in Henry's hand.

The blood from the jungle king has an irresistible power for the Ba snake.

Henry grinned at the corner of his mouth, waved his knife again, and created a wound on the jungle king. The blood suddenly splattered out, splashing under the huge head of the snake.

Ba Snake's eyeballs drip down and look down, like Snake Letters with thick forearms slowly licking the blood in the ground. Suddenly, Ba Snake opens his mouth of the blood basin and makes a roar. The triangular head is like a shell Generally rushed towards Henry.

Seeing this, Henry grabbed the cage and ran away.

Ba snake will use its backpack to lure its prey, and it has already had the initial thinking ability, so now Ba snake is very clear that the jungle king locked in a cage has no fighting ability. The current jungle king is a delicious food!

The snake is very fast, even if Henry tried his best, the speed is slower than that of the snake.

Seeing that Henry was about to be caught by Ba Snake, the scarlet snake letter was already wrapped in Henry's bare feet. At a critical moment, Henry leaped hard and jumped out of this underground passage to the cage where the Ba snake was originally raised, and then Rushed towards the laboratory quickly.

This place was originally the site of the Ba snake. For this cage, the Ba snake was more familiar than Henry. The huge body jumped into the ground. The Ba snake gave a roar of excitement. The animal instincts told it that if he devoured the jungle king, then he Will become more powerful, and even become the most invincible existence in this world.

Ba snake's eyes were full of greed of beasts, staring straight at the cage in Henry's hand.

Henry deliberately waited for two seconds at the entrance to the negative floor of the laboratory.

When Ba Snake rushed to the front, Henry turned around and ran, while shouting: "Do it!"

Tang Hao, who was at the interface between the first floor and the first floor, watched as the energy-bearing instrument slowly turned on, revealing The main body of energy, those experimental bodies creeping near the energy, all stood up at the moment, staring greedily at the piece of red energy, and kept roaring in the mouth.

Immediately afterwards, the roar of Henry came, and those experimental subjects subconsciously looked at the place where the sound came.

Tang Hao threw down the TNT explosives that had been bundled for a while, and then pressed the detonator.

"Boom!" A huge explosion sounded. At this moment, Tang Hao only felt his ears buzz, and a powerful airflow instantly turned Tang Hao. Under this powerful air flow, Tang Hao was like a tsunami. The flat boat of Yi Ye looked so unbearable.

In the direction that Tang Hao was lifted off, Tang Hao watched Henry holding a cage and strode forward. Behind Henry, he followed a bar snake that had opened its mouth.

Under the impact of this explosive airflow, Tang Hao flew into the bloody mouth of Chaoba Snake uncontrollably, and then he and Henry were swallowed into the mouth of the giant python.

A smelly smell spread into the noses of Henry and Tang Hao at the same time, and both of them felt a mucus around their bodies, which was disgusting and uncomfortable.

"The way a snake eats is to swallow its prey in its abdomen, and then the snake's internal digestive system will operate insanely, its metabolism will accelerate rapidly, and its organs will rapidly increase to two to three times the normal size, while A lot of enzymes are released to digest food." Henry's voice slowly sounded, "In this process, we are still alive."

"Brother, you want to..."

"Before, I found that this laboratory has a The self-destruction program was left by the Zumen League. I have studied this program properly and found that the way of self-destruction is to destroy the entire small world by detonating the energy of the central government. Now..."

Henry's voice just fell, and an indescribable voice rang in the ears of Henry and Tang Hao. This kind of sound was like a tremolo after the metal intersects. Then, the two of them only felt a silence around them. It seems that at this moment, nothing is heard, even the brain is blank.

Henry opened his mouth slightly. In the mouth of Ba Snake, his mouth shape was.

"Nuclear explosion..." In the small world, those giant black towering trees were all pulled up from the ground almost instantaneously, and the black lake water where the emu lived began to boil.

A hundred meters above the small world, people who are living normally only feel that the ground is shaking violently, and a crack appears from the ground. This is a terrible earthquake!

All these come fast and go fast.

Unknown for how long, Henry opened his eyes, he could see the scene in front of him, it was still dark, except that the darkness no longer came from the snake's abdomen, but the scorched earth.

Chapter 1006: Survived

fire crystal contains extremely high energy. When it is detonated, it can produce a more terrifying impact than a nuclear explosion.

But the most terrifying thing about a nuclear explosion is not the impact caused by the explosion, but the nuclear chemical substance contained in it, which will make a piece of land unable to conceive any life for a hundred years.

This explosion only had the power of nuclear explosion, and there was no nuclear material. It is exactly this way that Henry dared to detonate the fire crystal, otherwise, the leaked nuclear material alone was enough for him to drink a pot , Even if it does not die, the root cause of illness will definitely stay.

Henry peeled off the dead skin of Ba Snake and drilled out. His body was covered with mucus inside Ba Snake. Those mucus had completely dried on Henry under the high temperature of the fire crystal explosion, just like three seconds of glue to the skin. It was extremely uncomfortable, and it took a long time to tear down a layer.

Henry glanced back and found that the Ba snake was lying on the ground softly. The scales on its body had all disappeared. The flesh under the scales also exuded a burnt smell. The huge triangular head had disappeared. More than half.

Henry took a deep breath. This time, it was considered to be a dead escape.

After all, about how strong the defense of this snake is, Henry's heart is not clear. Once the appearance of the snake can't stop the explosion, he who is in the body of the snake can never survive.

Tang Hao, who was still in a coma in the body of Ba Snake, had no idea what the outside world had become.

Henry looked around and distinguished the direction. He found that he was now in the first small world in the depths, and it was not known that the airflow of the fire crystal explosion was too terrifying to sweep the Ba snake here, or the Ba snake himself escaped here. .

But now, all this is no longer important.

Henry took out the broken sword from his arms, set aside Ba Ba's abdomen, carried Tang Hao in a coma, and then walked in the direction of Shenyinhui Small World.

Shenyin will be in the small world.

Two masters of Condensation Realm hidden in the cloak are standing in front of the high wall connecting heaven and earth, facing away from the high wall, the two are like two sculptures, motionless.

Suddenly, a man turned suddenly and looked at the high wall behind him.

The other person also turned at the same time.

"Feel it?"

"Well, there is a creature approaching, it looks like the contents inside have been killed."

"Slaughter first, let's put the first pot of blood." The two looked at each other and then punched at the same time, as if like before opening the door, a burst of air was blown into the wall, and then the wall slowly opened a crack.

"Uh, uh."

A sound of footsteps sounded in the passage.

Shenyinhui stood in front of the crack in the high wall and stared at the passage.

The sound of footsteps in the channel became more and more obvious, which proved that the other party was getting closer.

"Do it!" one person shouted.

Drinking this, the two shot almost simultaneously.

"Why, the experiment inside did not kill the bishop's son, do you want to do it yourself?" Henry's voice sounded in the passage.

"Son of the bishop!" The two masters of Condensation Realm subconsciously stopped the attack.

Henry carrying Tang Hao in a coma, gradually appeared in the sight of the two.

"Delke!" The two exclaimed together, their eyes locked on Tang Hao behind Henry.

Henry put Tang Hao on his shoulders on the ground. Delk should be Tang Hao's real name.

"Both." Henry shrugged, "I survived this, the bishops brought back his son, you is not that I am going to give a comfortable couch, two glasses of wine and ah come back."

Two-condensable gas environment The master looked at each other and lowered his voice and asked: "You were the one who did not come in with Andre last time!"

"Uh huh." Henrytuo opened his hands.

Another master of Ningqijing stepped forward and confirmed Tang Hao's identity, "It's Delk's good, notify the bishop."

After that, this Ningqijing master looked at Henry again, "Come with me!"

Half an hour later, Henryshu was lying comfortably in a bath tub. After more than half a month, he could finally relax.

Henry hummed a little song, picked up the medicine bag soaked in the bucket and wiped it on his body.

"Ye, the information is quite informed. I'm only here for half an hour." Henry threw the medicine pack in his hand into the bath barrel and closed his eyes.

The place where Henry lived is a building similar to the hotel in Europe in the 1980s. Although the facilities inside looked at the old-fashioned and the old-fashioned, but the style is so, all are brand new.

This time Henry rescued the bishop's son, and was treated as a distinguished guest by the two powerful condensers.

The door of the room was pushed open from the outside, and the linen clothes were carried behind his back, and he walked in, staring at Henry sitting in the bath tub.

"I said, I'm taking a shower anyway, do you want to be so out of sight!" Henry glanced down at the linen.

"It's all men, my age is enough for your grandfather." Maige said, "You are so big this time, you rescued people directly."

"Otherwise?" Henry stretched out. Lazy waist, "I can still let Andre not have the bones I eat?"

"Hehe." Mai said with a chuckle, "Your thing this time, although Andre will be more worried, but not for a long time. As a matter of fact, the matter of the hell prison cage is of great importance. Now Andrea deliberately hides the message, and he does not know it. If he is known about it, the bishop himself will be unable to help him!" "I know." Henry Nodded, then got up from the tub and pulled a bath towel around him, "But, this day, it's a day to be able to mix one day, solve the matter in front of me, and I will talk about it later."

"Yo." Mai clothes pressed Pressing his front edge, "Can you say that, I can understand that it is the soldiers who will block it, and the water will cover it?"

"There are many ways to understand, depending on what you think." Henry pulled another bathrobe over On his body, he made a cup of hot tea for himself and Mai, and then leaned back on the sofa. "It's time, Andrea should come."

Henry's voice just fell, and a bold laugh came from the door of the room. Outside.

"Hahaha! Henry, you really gave me a face this time. You saved Drucker by mistake. The bishop came here as soon as he heard the news. This is to thank you personally. You, really, with your strength in a later metamorphosis, it is not an exaggeration to bring Delk out and call it a miracle."

Andre' s figure appeared with his voice in Henry' s In sight.

Andrey did not bring anyone in. When he entered the house, he closed the door with his backhand, and then poured himself a cup of coffee for himself.

"You Yanxia people like to drink tea, we like coffee, this should be the cultural difference." Andrei held the coffee and sat opposite Henry, "or rather, the differences between races."

Chapter 1007 Bishop

"The differences between races..." Henry was holding a tea cup, blowing a little, "Why don't you say that your history is different from our hot summer, tea has been in hot summer for twelve centuries Inheritance, and now, the vast majority of people love to drink tea, regardless of national boundaries, but you are a bit too pretentious?"

"Are you ironic of our small world?" Andrea smiled and turned coffee Place the cup on the table in front of you.

"No, no." Henry shook his finger. "I'm just saying that there won't be such a big difference among the races." "Yes

. " Andrei waved his hands impatiently. He wanted to use his own From the perspective of the topic, from the differences between the races, to say something else, such as between the human and the experimental body, but now, his topic has been completely disrupted by Henry.

"Henry, you and I, both understand people, and have something to say with you."

Henry made a gesture of please.

Andre sweep coffee cup in front of the eye itself, the channel:. "You should be very clear that you hide this secret represents what people in hell, definitely has the ability to change the world situation,"

"control the Adult, if you say that, it's a bit exaggerated." Henry didn't believe it, he said it on purpose.

Andre shook his head, "You are too weak, so you don't understand how terrible those powerful tyrants are. So, do you think you can really keep this secret by virtue of your strength in the later stage of a metamorphosis? Now? There are not many people who know this. If it wasn't for me to help you hide, do you think you can really spend the first two months with peace of mind?"

"So, I would also like to thank you for taking control of your adult?" Henry Clenched a fist.

"You don't have to be so yin and yang." Andre's face was very ugly. "I know what you think in your head. You rushed into the depths of purgatory and rescued Drek. You just wanted someone to support you, but Do you think that if the bishop knows your secrets, will he really support you? You have to know that you and Mai are drinking tea, but I and the bishop are drinking coffee."

Henry shrugged, "Master Andrea, why don't you tell the bishop this matter, and then let the Shenyinhui all vote on it, if most people agree that I will tell you about the eighteenth floor of hell , Then I have absolutely no meaning."

Henry dag said that, he had absolute confidence, Andrei, he would never say this easily.

The secret of the eighteenth floor of Hell, once Andrea can grasp it, for him, he will not hesitate to let him give up this control, how can he tell this to others? If this matter really spreads, then it has nothing to do with him.

Andrea's eyes were ruthless, "Henry, you deliberately made a mistake with me. Believe it or not, if I want, I can kill you before the Bishop Master comes!"

Andrea hands together A golden air blade is formed, and the air is suffocated.

Now that things have reached this point, Andrei doesn't plan to rub up with Henry.

Henry coldly snorted. He was not afraid of Andre. If he really wanted to fight now, who would really kill the deer?

Henry has always been afraid, what will happen after turning over with Andre, but now that he is kind to the bishop, Andre really intends to come hard, Henry does not mind spelling it out, see if the bishop will not How about yourself!

"Boy, I admit, you are very talented, but talent does not mean strength! There are too many geniuses who have not grown up, no matter how amazing they are, but later, it is just a pile of corpse powder. If you want to die, then I will fulfill you!"

"Andrea is in control, who are you trying to kill!" A loud shout rang from the door.

The door of the room was pushed away from the outside. Tang Hao's original long blond hair was trimmed and turned into an inch, and he looked a lot more energetic. The clothes on his body were also replaced and replaced with noble dresses.

Behind Tang Hao, a middle-aged man in a white robe looked at Tang Hao with relief.

At the sight of the two people outside the door, Andrei suddenly scattered the yellow blade in his hand, and quickly got up from the seat and made a salute to the door. "Andrea, I have seen the bishop!"

As for Henry and Mai , Still sitting there, motionless.

"Bold, why don't you say hello when you see the bishop?" Next to the bishop, a master of condensed air environment followed, screaming at Mai and Henry unmoved.

"Hehe." Ma Yi touched the front of his hat, "I am a member of the Yanxia Shenyin Society, and only worship my adult."

"No." The Bishop White said, his voice was very soft, giving a kind of Like Mu Chunfeng's feelings, his appearance makes people look at it, and it will automatically be reduced to the ordinary one, which belongs to the kind that is thrown into the crowd and can no longer be found. "Although I am in the position of bishop, But I still dare not be brazen in front of Master Chuzheng in Yanxia. He walked everywhere and represented Master Chuzheng. If I said hello to me, I could not bear it."

"What about this one?" The bishop looked at Henry, " Andre said, "You are his designated jailer, why don't you say hello to the bishop?"

"It's also free." The bishop said again, "This little friend Zhang, saved my son, because I have grace, where can I say hello to me?" I said, it's me. I would like to thank Zhang Xiaoyou for his life-saving grace

"Master Bishop is polite." Henry laughed, "I am saving people this time, I just want to get a good job in Shenyin. If Master Bishop is willing, give me a few more levels, let me be a control over what to do It's fine."

"Oh." The bishop laughed. "You, you really dare to say anything, but this is a position in the meeting, but it's not what I said. It's not a matter of upgrading, even if I agree, I also need to agree to the above layer by layer, but I can give you some personal help. If you are confused about spiritual practice, you can come to me at any time."

"Then forget it." Henry looked discouraged, "I've practiced it myself very well. I don't know when to find you, but if someone wants to kill me, you can protect me!"

"Should." The bishop nodded. "You will save my son's life, and I will Save your life at a critical moment, well, this time I came to see the benefactor, stay here, and affect the chatting of Yaxing, so I will not bother you here, Andrea, let me go out and walk."

Understood." Andrey bowed, then turned his head, glared at Henry, followed the bishop, and walked out.

Chapter 1008

Bishop Tang Hao jumped over just before the bishop's forefoot left.

"Lying trough, brother, you are too good! You don't know, when I opened my eyes and found that I had come out from the inside, I was shocked!"

Tang Hao's expression looked excited, All are respect for Henry.

"Why, come out alive, how do you feel?" Henry picked up the teacup again and blew.

"Of course it's cool!" Tang Hao took a deep breath. "Brother, I never thought that this small world alone was so beautiful. At first, I thought this world was too boring, and now I don't have this idea at all."

Henry smiled, "Let's talk, what do you want to do now?"

"Of course I went to eat a big meal, brother, you don't know, I have eaten those expired cans for more than a year, and I am almost sickened and must eat. A big meal!" Tang Hao rushed over and pulled Henry's arm. "Brother, to eat a big meal, I must have a few drinks with you."

"Good." Henry nodded and glanced at the linen.

Mai Mai shook his head. "It seems that you have adapted to this. I have other things to do, so I won't play with you here. You should pay attention to your safety."

"Ok." Henrychong Mai Mai gestured a gesture. .

Tang Hao took Henry all the way to the entrance of the small world of Shenyinhui.

The two left from the gate where Henry entered at that time. After a few minutes, they came to the canyon again. A helicopter was parked here. The helicopter was completely sealed inside, and the outside scene could not be seen.

As the helicopter took off, he landed more than an hour later. After the cabin door opened, Henry discovered that he was already in a small town.

The town is surrounded by greenery, and a small river runs through the town. At a glance, there is no end in sight. The buildings in the town are as described in the Green fairy tale seen in the hour. With the greenery around them, looking at the water of the small river, It makes people feel like they are in a fairy tale world.

The inhabitants dressed as farmers walked back and forth in the town. They talked and laughed. They spoke the indigenous language belonging to them, and their faces were covered with happy smiles.

"Brother, we call this a foothold town. In the past, airplanes were not as common as they are now. People who enter and leave the God Hidden Society will rest in this town. Over time, this has become a tradition. Almost everyone before and after entering and leaving, Will choose to take a break here." Tang Hao explained to Henry, "Including many people, who have had feelings for this place. After leaving the Shenyin Society, they will choose to settle in this town, so don't look at this as nothing There are many masters in the disputed town."

"I see it." Henry nodded, and among the few farmers who just seemed to be in the world, one of them always had a look. Wu Xian looked towards Henry. Looking at Henry constantly, at the same time, this person also exudes an unusual breath.

"Let's go, there are a few chefs gathered here, let's have a good meal first, ha ha ha!" Tang Hao rushed into the town of excitement, running down a restaurant in a familiar way.

In this small town, a small bridge occasionally appears, spanning things, every place, at a glance, is a beautiful scenery, it can be said that there is no dead end impeccable.

Henry did not follow Tang Hao all the way, but walked in this small town, carefully looked at everything here, and could be chosen by Shenyin as a place to stay in the town. Henry wouldn't think it was like Tang Hao said. Simple, just because everyone is used to it, choose here.

After half a month of contact in the laboratory, Henry discovered that this Tang Hao was completely a stunned person, without any ambition. This kind of person, if not covered by his father, I am afraid to live in the Shenyin Society Well, it might as well be in contact with that group of subjects in the laboratory, after all, in many ways, people are more terrible than those subjects.

There are only a few people sitting in a simple restaurant.

When Henry walked in, Tang Hao had chosen a table to sit down.

This table is located at the window of the restaurant. The table is very large.

"Brother, come on, I'm ready to eat!" Tang Hao saw Henry coming in and waved at Henry, excitedly.

Henry went to the table and sat down. Soon, he saw that the dishes were served up.

Tang Hao has been really crazy for more than a year. When he saw these foods, his eyes glowed green. "Brother, I'll eat it first!"

Tang Hao's voice just fell and grabbed a chicken leg in front of him. Just put it in his mouth, and the gobbling look really made people wonder if he was reincarnated as a starving ghost.

Henry was also not polite. After half a month of laboratory life, Henry also missed these delicacies, and the two began to sweep away at the delicacies on the table.

Half an hour later, a table of food was cleaned up by the two. Tang Hao poured himself a cup of reindeer for himself and Henry, "Brother, my life, I only got it back thanks to you, I respect you for this cup. If it were not for you, I would be killed by the jungle king sooner or later. I escaped from the outside that day, thanks to you. Otherwise, the bones I had eaten now would be gone."

Henry Yao He shook his head, "Since you called me a brother, you don't have to be so polite."

"Hahaha! Henry, what a good method." A female laughter suddenly sounded from the restaurant, this is a diner sitting in the corner,

Henry and Tang Hao subconsciously looked at the place where the voice came.

The diner sitting in the corner turned around at the same time, looking towards Henry.

This is a European woman in her thirties. She has long red hair, wearing tight leather armor, and is extremely hot. There is a scar on the forehead of the woman, which destroys the overall beauty. If there is no such Dao scar, this woman is undoubtedly a hot beauty.

"Henry, you are the jailer identified by Master Andre. This was reported during the meeting with the adult, but now he has climbed the relationship with the bishop. Powerful, powerful." The red-haired woman applauded.

Tang Hao stared at the red-haired woman and thought about it for a while before thinking of the woman's name, "Eugenia, our business has nothing to do with you? You are just a little divine punishment, what qualifications, sit Talk to me there!"

"Sorry, Master Delk, oh no, I heard that you have joined the Yanxia nationality, and I should call you Tang Hao now. I belong directly to Andrea, Andrea. We haven't been taught to us. In the face of the bishop's child, a person who has no contribution to the Divine Society will be respectful!" Eugenia smiled slightly.

Chapter 1009 Don't Break the Rules

"Henry, you and I are under the command of Andrea. Your current approach seems to be a bit inappropriate. At that time, it was Master Andrey Xu Yihong's reward, and you only went in to save people, How did you save people this time, all credit goes to your head?"

Eugenia chuckled.

"Brother, did André send you in to save me?" Tang Hao looked at Henry.

Henry smiled and didn't speak. Just now in the hotel of Shenyinhui, Henry and Andre can be said to have torn their skins. If Tang Hao and the bishop didn't appear in time, the two sides would definitely fight.

Now that Andre is here to make some stumbling blocks, Henry can fully expect that in his career in these years, such things are obviously not a few.

Tang Hao looked at Henry's expression and said, "Brother, I don't care if you are specially arranged to save me. I only know that without you, I don't know how many times I died."

"Hey." Henry shook his head, "It's an honest child, Tang Hao, you study our Yanxia culture, do you know a sentence called a place where there are people..." "There are rivers and lakes!" Tang Hao immediately took Henry's words, "Brother, you mean, there is someone here waiting for us today?"

"Wow, why is the smell of gunpowder so strong here, as soon as I entered the door, I saw a humble Yanxia descent." The restaurant door was pushed open by one person A young man with a height of nearly two meters, wearing a vest, and full of muscles came in. Looking towards Henry, when he saw Tang Hao, the man immediately changed his mind. "They, I seem to be wrong. That nationality The waste that was changed to Yanxia is here too, and that is the two Yanxia lineages."

As soon as this person entered the door, Tang Hao frowned, and whispered to Henrydao: "Brother, this is the disciple of Bishop Milo, called Jason, Bishop Milo has never dealt with my dad."

Behind Jason, compared with Jason, a little thin figure, this person looked up, is the standard Yanxia face.

"I said Jason, you are following behind, it seems to be a humble Yanxia bloodline." Eugenia said with a smile. "Including him, there should be three base bloodlines."

"Eugenia, Don't talk nonsense." The person behind Jason smiled. "I'm out of Yanxia's despicable people. Now, my name is Kejin. Don't put me with those inferior Yanxia people."

Jia After Sen walked into the restaurant, he strode towards Henry and Tang Hao. At a distance of three meters, Jason suddenly stopped and smiled at Tang Hao, "Waste, I thought you died in purgatory. Well, I didn't expect your life to be really big, but the good thing is that I was still thinking, three months later, no one was humiliated in this election. Since you are alive, there will be people who are humiliated. Selected, haha."

At the same time, settled on the edge of the town.

Bishop Del, and Andre, walked slowly around the edge of the small river in the village.

"Andre, this man is in great contradiction with you?" Del said.

"Yes." Andrei nodded.

"Oh." Del looked at the direction of the restaurant in the town center. "You have arranged a lot of people. It seems that you don't want him to leave so easily."

Andrea said seriously: "Master Bishop, This man must die ." "But he saved Delk, do you think I can watch him die here?" Del stopped suddenly and looked at Andre.

Andre shook his head, "Master Bishop, Henry belongs to me. According to the rules of the Church, I have the right to judge his life and death. This is my right to control, even if you are the bishop, you have no right to stop it."

"I am No right to stop, but I can take action at any time to avenge my son' s benefactor," Del said.

"I understand." Andrei nodded. "So..."

"So, you got Milo, right?" Del's eyes suddenly looked across the river.

A middle-aged man also wearing a white cloak and holding a book in his hand came slowly across from the small river. When he passed the small river, he seemed to float on the river as a whole.

"Myrow." Del looked at the man and said aloud.

Milo looked very strong compared to Del. This white cloak, wearing it, looked particularly awkward. He was two meters away, and his muscles burst, even the cloak could not be covered.

Compared to the cloak, Milo is more suitable for wearing a leather armor and holding a long axe to make people look more comfortable.

"Dell, I haven't seen you for a long time." Milo Chongdel smiled. "It's gratifying to hear that your son came out of that purgatory alive."

Dale nodded . "It's gratifying. This way The election will be held again in March, and you will have the opportunity to leave the barren mountain, Myro, and choose some other place, such as the European continent where I am."

"Oh, my old friend Del, you can be a thousand Don' t say that." Milo showed an exaggerated expression, "How can I covet your location? I like my life so much now, carefree, just what I want."

"Yes Why? "del eyes looked towards Andre," If you really say this, the people underneath me, they will not have allegiance to you, I'm curious, what methods you use in the end. "

Andrea eyes cents Fearlessly staring at Del, his footsteps slowly moved behind Milo.

Milo received the scriptures in his arms and said, "My old friend Del, you are a bit pedantic. Your people don't want to follow you to continue peddling, so I chose me. Is this simple enough? "

Del sneered." After all, you have been completely blinded by your interests, Andrei, I don't care what you think, even if you think, after three months, Dabi will lose my pulse, but in my During this period of reign, you are under my jurisdiction. You can control the life and death of your jailers, but don't forget, your life and death are the same thing I say, if you want to do something, I advise you to be patient, don't forget the rules in the meeting. If you break the rules a little, I will kill you immediately. Three months later, if I am really in position, it's not too late to play. "

Of course, Master Bishop." Andrei saluted. "As a leader, I must lead by example. I will not undermine the rules of the meeting. Of course, my subordinates must also obey the rules. If someone does not To obey the rules, I am the governor and exercise my rights. Master Bishop, don't blame me."

Andrea said with a sneer, looking in the direction of the restaurant in the town.

Chapter 1010 Idiot

As the most prominent local people in Shenyin, Henry and Tang Hao's whereabouts naturally concealed the three of them.

What happened in the restaurant was naturally arranged by Andrea.

Del looked at Myrow and said: "Myrow, my son just escaped from death and came out of purgatory. I don't want something unpleasant to happen. You should understand what I mean."

"Well, I certainly understand." Milo nodded, "It's just that young people like to communicate, we old things, we still do our own thing, let them young people play by themselves, after all, in the selection after March, you and I have to Rely on these young men."

"It's better to be like this." Del with his hands behind his back, without seeing how hard he was, the whole person soared up and disappeared before Andrea and Milo.

Milo narrowed his eyes in the direction of Del's departure. "It seems that during this time, his strength has improved a lot."

"Master Milo, what should we do now?" Andrea asked respectfully behind Milo. .

"Do you need to tell me first, what secret is there in the Yanxia man named Henry?" Milo stared at Andre. "If it is just ordinary grudges, with your Andre's work style, also Will not find me."

"Some secrets." Andrei nodded, "But Lord Milo, knowing this now, is not very good for you, it will affect you three months later. The selection, if after three months, Master Myro, you successfully selected, and sit on a bishop of continental Europe, I promise, this news will never let you down."

Myro gave Andrea a very profound glance. "I hope you don't let me down."

Milo finished and stepped onto the water.

"Master Milo, rest assured." Andrea bowed and watched Milo leave.

When Milo left, Andre's eyes gradually became more violent, his lips flickering, and no sound came out, but according to his mouth, he could still distinguish what he said.

Rubbish!

In the restaurant in the town.

Tang Hao and Jason are three meters apart.

"Why, you are a waste, staring at me, trying to do nothing for me?" Behind Jason, a python ghost slowly emerged. At the same time, Jason's eyes became cold like a poisonous snake.

Annoying garbage!" "Hey, hello, I am thinking, garbage is not garbage, what's the matter with you?" Henry looked strange.

"When did a jailer dare to interrupt me?" Jason looked towards Henry. The giant python behind him vomited snake letters to Henry.

Eugenia giggled and deliberately stimulated Jason: "Jason, don't underestimate this jailer. He has the strength of the late metamorphosis, and he has no taboos. He is obviously under the control of Andrea. Show Bishop Del directly, I am worried that you have angered him, and he will now break his neck. People are now Bishop Del's benefactors. Don't forget, this is Continental Europe, not Bishop Milo."

"Let him try!" Jason's eyes became even more violent when he heard this. "When a little jailer can be so crazy that he dares to deal with me?"

"That would be inaccurate, after all, here is Continental Europe is not the place of Bishop Milo." Eugenia raised this point again.

"That's not a place where a little jailer dares to be arrogant!" Jason shouted, and the python behind him made a "sizzle" sound and suddenly attacked Henry.

"Brainhead!" Henry looked at Jason and spit out two words without any words.

As a disciple of a bishop, he was easily used by others to provoke a contradiction between the two bishops.

Eugenia was clearly very aware of Jason's character. She didn't look surprised when she saw Jason couldn't help but shoot Henry.

The python behind Jason rushed to Henry.

Henry didn't keep his hand. An eagle spread its wings behind Henry, and the eagle's claws accurately caught three inches of Jason's python.

"Humble people, dare to start with Master Jason!" Following behind Jason, the Yanxia who had changed his nationality shouted, and the whole person rushed towards Henry.

"Several, if you want to hit, the place outside is bigger. My little shop can't stand you tossing like this." A voice sounded, although not big, but clearly in everyone's ears.

The speaker is the owner of this restaurant.

Henry was shocked. Henry was sure that his strength was definitely stronger than Andre!

Jason and Cokin Qiqi stopped their actions. Obviously, they knew the identity of the restaurant owner.

Restaurant owner is a middle-aged bearded man, we stopped to see the action, squinting revealing a kindly smile, "If the dinner, I welcome, but to fight, be sure not to make trouble in my oh."

Having The restaurant owner carried an empty plate and walked into the back kitchen.

Ke Jin stood beside Jason, staring at Henry with a bad face, "This time you are lucky, I want to see, when will you be lucky! A humble people, a humble jailer, any one, Let you be in front of Master Jason, only kneeling!"

"Shut up!" Tang Hao shouted, "Yan Xia's pride, can it be understood by a person like you, the voice will be despicable , What is your identity, in front of me, say such a thing!"

"Derke, don't pretend to be me here, put your master's posture." Jason said, "You just cast a good tire, really I think I have what I can do, don't forget, after three months, it's the selection. Then, we will have fun again. I will look at that time, if your young master sends his hand, can he take it out!" "Can he? I don't know if I laugh," Henry suddenly said, "But you're called Jason, right. I think, with your mind, you won't be able to laugh at that time. If he's as stupid as you, he can't live in purgatory. For such a long time."

"What do you say!" Jason's eyes narrowed. He did not expect that the jailer would dare to provoke himself.

"I say you are a fool, if you don't understand what I mean, then I will say it straightforwardly, you are a... silly ~ than!" Henry also stretched out a universal finger.

Cokin was furious, "Dare, you dare!"

"Shut up!"

clear voice sounded, Cokin covered his side, and looked at Henry in disbelief, he even I didn't see clearly how this person appeared before him.

Eugenia, who was sitting in the corner, looked at this with interest, and murmured in his mouth: "It really is the strength of the peak of the metamorphic realm, and looking at his pace, in the early days of the ordinary condensed gas realm, it's not necessarily his opponent, hehe, it's finally fun."

Chapter 1011 Recognize Your Identity

Ke Jin's eyes are filled with an unbelievable look. He is not surprised by Henry's strength, but he can't believe that this little jailer dare to start his own hands! Why is he? I am a man of Master Jason!

Cocking his teeth: "You ....."

! "Pop"

is a slap pumped Cocking face.

"I said, you shut up." Henry shook his wrist. "Listen to me."

Ke Jin was shocked, and he closed his mouth subconsciously.

Henryyang raised his hand and slapped it to Kejin's face again.

"You say that the humble person hangs on your lips, but you don't know that the most humble person is yourself." Henry finished slamming again.

"Every nationality has its own national honor. This national honor cannot be insulted by any one person. You should fight."

These two consecutive slaps , let alone Cochin, Jason, stand On the side, looking a little dazed.

"Slap! Slap! Slap!"

Three consecutive crisp sounds rang on Ke Jin's face, "This time, there is no reason, but I simply want to hit you. If you don't agree, try to hit back as much as possible."

Henry hands Put it in his trouser pocket and smile slightly.

Ke Jin's body slowly shivered, and the hot pain on his face constantly stimulated him.

Cokin's eyes gradually filled with killing intent, a huge mantis figure condensed behind him.

"I want to kill you!" Kojin yelled.

"According to the rules of the Shenyin Society, you are killing me, can I kill you reasonably?" Henry teeth sighed, the hand in the right pocket was stretched out like lightning, and directly stuck to the branch Gold throat.

The huge shadow of the praying mantis just behind Kejin disappeared in an instant.

Ke Jin clenched his fists in both hands and wanted to fight back, but he was horrified to find that his qi could not be condensed. In the big hand that the other party stuck in his own hand, a surging force constantly appeared, locking up all his qi. machine.

"This..." Ke Jin's eyes widened. He didn't believe that this was the strength a jailer should have. It was terrible!

Eugenia, who has been sitting in the corner to lead the battle and watch the drama, suddenly stood up at the moment and shouted: "Henry, you are out of bounds! Ke Jin just put some harsh words, and did not shoot you, you did it like this What he did was deliberately destroying the relationship between China and China."

Jason, who was frightened by Henry's strength, also responded in a timely manner. "Yes, you are just a jailer under the command of Andre. Do you know what this means? I now order you as a Bishop of Milo and let me go!"

For Jason's words, Henry was unmoved, and he still pinched Kogin's throat.

Ke Jin's feet were off the ground, his face had become extremely difficult to look.

"I let you let go, didn't you hear it!" Jason shouted again.

The owner of the restaurant walked out of the back kitchen, glanced at the lobby, and said casually: "Remember, don't mess up my things, otherwise I'll be welcome."

"Of course." Henry smiled He replied, "There are not many tablewares produced in the 1970s from Villeroy & Boch that have survived to this day. One is broken. There is one less in the world. Of course, we will take care of such things." The restaurant owner heard this. His eyes lit up, "Do you understand this too?"

"Slightly understand, when we are free, we can talk in detail." Henry snorted and looked back to Kejin.

The restaurant owner nodded. "Okay, I haven't met a young man like you in a long time. I have a chance. Come and sit here more." The restaurant owner finished, picked up a clean plate and wiped the bowl with a brand new one. Wipe the cloth carefully.

"Henry, you are too presumptuous!" With a shout, Andre pushed open the door of the restaurant, strode in, and yelled, "As a jailer, he has worked against the Bishop of Milo, who Give you such a big right, let me go! Open violation of the rules of the Gods' Secret Society, I can take you now!"

"ok, ok." Henry shrugged and let go of Kejin's hand.

Ke Jinfa made a sharp dry cough.

Andrei strode over, "Henry, you dare to act arrogantly, and see God as if you have nothing to do. If it's not for you to have just made a great contribution, I can kill you now! I have nothing to ask you. , This time, I arranged a total of 30 of you to enter purgatory together, looking for Master Delk, now only you are out, where are the remaining 29? Including this matter, you directly reported to the bishop, In your eyes, is there any control of me!"

Henry smiled slightly and didn't take Andrea's words, whether it was just what Eugenia said or now Andrea said, they all wanted to give Tang Hao passed a message that Henry was ordered to save people.

Andrei saw Henry not speaking and continued: "The surname is Zhang's, do you think someone is supporting you, is your confidence? I tell you, as long as I don't speak, you are always a jailer, don't let me see You commit the following crime, this is the God's Hidden Society, not your place to spread the wild!"

Andrea finished, turned and rushed to Jason: "The people below me are not sensible, you must not know him in general."

Jason Leng hum, "said Andrea, who owes you the following discipline, has a direct responsibility to tell you, this time, I do not care about you, next time, can not so easily forget."

"Rest assured, there will not The next time," Andre assured his pat on the chest.

Jason rushed to Henrydao: "Boy, you will pay attention to me in the future! A jailer, who really thinks of himself as a role, Kojin, let's go."

"Yes." Kojin lowered his head and followed Jason Behind him, he walked out of the restaurant.

After Andrei made a warning look at Henry, he turned and left.

Tang Hao stood there, looking anxiously.

"Brother, I'm going to find my dad now and let him take Andrea down!"

Tang Hao's voice just fell, and he heard a voice outside the restaurant. This voice is gentle and makes people feel particularly comfortable. .

"It's okay to eat food, don't talk nonsense, you two come out."

"Yo." The restaurant owner who was wiping the dishes suddenly looked up. "Bishop Del came here, it really made me vigorous, why not come in and sit down. ? "

" no. "del's voice sounded from outside the restaurant continues," there's your cutlery, are collectibles, not accidentally break something a few, I cannot afford to lose, or standing outside a little easier. "

Henry and Tang Hao looked at each other and then walked outside the restaurant.

As soon as he left the restaurant, he saw Del in white robes standing at the door.

Chapter 1012

"Dad, why are you here?" Delk stepped forward.

"I'm not coming, it's going to be a big deal today." Del looked at Henry. "Zhang Xiaoyou, your anger is a bit heavy. Just now Andrea just tried to irritate you, and you started killing, you In this way, it was easy for Andrea to seize the opportunity."

"The bishop said yes." Henry nodded, his face calm, but his heart was already shaking.

Although before coming to the Shenyin Society, Henry expected that this trip to the Shenyin Society would not be simple, but after coming, Henry found that the deep inside of the Shenyin Society, the strength of these people, is still far superior to his Imagine.

I was just in the restaurant, but just showed a little murderous intention, and was captured by Bishop Del. This keen, Henry asked him very far, this is a super master!

Moreover, the most important thing is that Del is only a bishop in an area of the God Hidden Society. There are other existences above the bishop. Without mentioning such a bishop, even the restaurant he just ate, the owner is also a super master.

Originally Henry believed that the strength of this boss was not under Andrea, but now looking at the attitude of Bishop Del talking to the restaurant owner, the strength of this boss is not under Bishop Del!

Shenyin will spread all over the world. Who knows how many restaurant owners are hidden in the dark?

"You have a contradiction with Andre?" Del asked Henry.

Henry nodded, "I came out of the eighteenth layer of hell, um, the one under the Sossusvlei Desert."

Del's face froze, then his pupils shrank suddenly, exclaimed: "What!"

Del was shocked. Huh, there was no previous indifferent look, an invisible gas radiated from him to the surroundings, his white robe, automatic without wind, hunting.

It can be seen how shocking this news Henry said to Del!

The eighteenth layer of hell is known as the prison of death and life. From ancient times, only Henry can come out of the eighteenth layer of hell!

Henry took the initiative to tell Del the news, not because he was passionate, but after careful consideration.

Now that Henry has completely torn his face with Andre, he must find a temporary backer.

Henry, the jailer ordered by Andre, is now in trouble with Andre, but anyone with a brain can see that there is a lot of greasiness in it.

Although Andre tried his best to hide the secrets of Henry and the eighteenth layer of hell, but that day, there were so many people who went to the eighteenth layer of hell. If Del deliberately wanted to check, he would definitely be able to find out.

Henry thought very clearly that instead of letting Del find out at the time, it would be better to speak out on his own initiative, so that in some ways, it also occupied some initiative.

There were Zhuge Liang in the ancient times, the gates were wide open, and the city was empty-handed, so that Sima Yi could not understand the real and the real, and chose to withdraw his troops.

Today, Henry took the role of an antique sage and took the initiative to throw out his secrets, which also made Del unable to understand the truth and truth. Before Del could understand Henry's truth and truth, even if he coveted the secret of the eighteenth layer of hell, he would not start with Henry.

"What you said, but is it true?" Del confirmed to Henry again.

Henry asked: "Otherwise, do you think that I was a sinner who will be appointed by the gods, why did Andre suddenly order me to be the jailer and take care of the eighteenth hell?"

"What is there under the eighteenth hell?" "Dell's breath has become a little heavy.

Although the Shenyinghui takes care of the eighteenth level of hell, the things underneath have always been a mystery to them. No one knows what is underneath, no one knows what the underside becomes, or even knows What kind of existence does it still remain below!

"I can't say that." Henry shook his head. "I left the eighteenth floor of hell, and two people left with me. They didn't want outsiders to know, Bishop Del. I don't think you want to be taken care of."

As soon as Del heard this, there was a strong fear in his eyes. Who knew what kind of monster was hidden under the eighteenth layer of hell? Although Del possessed great strength, he did not think he had reached the point of invincibility.

Moreover, even if you think you're invincible in the world, even if you think you're invincible, you still don't think you have the ability to ignore the eighteenth level of hell. Although the eighteenth level of hell will be taken care of by God, it's there. People who are not captured by Shenying will be the most outstanding and terrifying beings in the world.

"No wonder Andre has always been so directed at you. This matter, if you didn't take the initiative to mention it, I am still in the dark. It seems that Andre wants to swallow the secret alone." Del's eyes reflected. , "If it were not for you to rescue Delk this time, Andrea should have already taken action against you."

"So I need an ally." Henry said truthfully, "This secret, I can't keep it alone, Andrea. Coveting the following things, if he can't get it from me, he will go find someone. I don't care, but there are many people behind me. You should have investigated my identity."

Del nodded. "Hell old king, the king will overthrow, is the king of the underworld, create forces sunny island, have to say, the past few years, under your leadership, the underground world is a lot corpuscles than usual. " "

I'm on the sunny island The meaning is not only as simple as an ordinary force, I make a deal with you, you help me protect Guangming Island, I help you take the line, so that you can talk to the following people." Henry said, pointing Pointed to the ground.

Del frowned a little, "You want to pull me into the water? You should know how complicated it is if it's about eighteen layers of hell."

"I understand." Henry nodded. "But no matter how complicated , Slowly, there is always a time for smoothing, and, the more you gain, don't you?"

Del pondered, then took a deep breath, and he had already been at a very fast rate about the benefits of this matter I went through it in my mind, "Can you promise, can I chat with the following people?"

"Absolutely." Henry nodded, "But there is something, I need to confirm with you in advance."

"You said. "

You, as a bishop, are qualified to open the hell cage and release the people inside?" Henry asked what he had always wanted to ask.

When he was in the cage of hell, Henry had the idea of entering the God Hidden Society, which is why he always followed Andrea's words. At first, Henry thought that God's punishment enabled people to be sent to hell and could also be opened. The door to hell, Henry found out that he thought too much. In this hell, it is easy to enter, but it is difficult to come out. Not to mention God's punishment, even if he is in control, he can't open the door to hell! Otherwise, Andrea would not care so much about the hidden secrets in himself!

Chapter 1013 I Want You To Train Him

Now, Henry and the bishop raised this news. When he saw the look revealed by Bishop Del, he immediately understood that the method of opening the hell cage, the bishop certainly did not know, but he still did not die. Asked heartily.

Henry has received grace from Xuan Tian and others.

At that time, Henry remembered grace for twenty years in a winter coat. Now, Xuantian and others have great favors on him, how can he not report it? Henry wanted to let Xuan Tian and others out of their cages and let them see more of this wonderful world outside. This is the biggest purpose of Henry Lai Hidden Society!

The bishop sighed, "The cage of hell is very important. My God will only take care of it. To be honest, as far as I know, if you want to open the cage to let people, even the president can't do it alone."

"Your It means..." Henry frowned tightly.

"You should know that in this world, there are four top forces, namely our God Hidden Society, Return to Ancestor League, the Holy Heaven, and your hot summer clan. We live in this era, and many secrets have been buried in In the long river of history, why the hell prison cage was built, and why did it come up, no one knows, I have read the classics, the hell prison cage, there are four keys, each placed in the hands of the Quartet forces, one in the divine heaven, one in the ancestral alliance Hey, there will be one, and the last one. In the clan, these four keys, without one, cannot open the hell cell cage."

Bishop Del said at this time, he also expressed helplessness.

"You can't open it without a party..." Henry listened to Bishop Del and realized the complexity of the problem.

"So, the secret you have in your hands is really amazing." Bishop Del said solemnly, "Frankly speaking, the current situation, the four major forces are very balanced, in terms of the current situation, even if it is a sudden An existence that is flush with the four forces will make the four forces feel panic, not to mention the terrifying existence in hell. Once they appear, they will disrupt the current situation of the Quartet in a very short time, even with Those people's arrogance can step on the four forces under their feet! So, unless there is a great demand, or someone who can control the cage of the hell, everyone will choose to open the cage."

Bishop Del said that at this moment, he gave Henry a deep thought, "Obviously, you now have this condition, one, and the natural advantage of talking about the conditions with the people under hell, I guess, they also want to rely on you to come out Right ." "Yes." Henry nodded. "The two people who came out this time are the cronies of the leaders under the eighteenth floor. I don't know where they are now. Counting the time. In a few days, they will To return to the cage of the hell, I will put two more people out."

"Okay." Bishop Del put his hand on Henry's shoulder. "Although you are so muddy and muddy, I still choose Accept your proposal, we can cooperate."

Del couldn't find out, he could refuse Henry's reason, and he can contact with the people under hell once, which is enough for Bishop Del to throw a lot of benefits, once he can reach a certain kind with the people below Cooperation, not to mention Bishop Del, I am afraid that even the leaders of these four forces will be treated seriously. If it is said that cooperation cannot be achieved, if Del fails, he can talk to those people about Qi training.

Nowadays, the world is not like the past. People who can reach the realm of Del must carefully explore every step. If there is someone who can guide you, for Del, it is likely to take many years of detours. Let him be even further!

Henry said with a happy face, Chongdel clenched his fists and said: "Then thank you Bishop Del, I will not give Andrea any chance to take advantage of it. If you can protect me from the safety of Guangdao, wait for me to resolve Andrea, I Just fulfill the promise."

"Yes." Bishop Nod nodded. "However, how do you resolve Andrea."

Henry's eyes flashed a killing intention, and he answered without thinking: "Of course, let him disappear from this world. a. " " It's hard. "del aloud," you do not understand God's hidden system will, control the level inside the hidden will of God, has been a high level, and the control of every death, will be attracted Pay attention to the investigation above, unless you are sure to kill Andre silently, otherwise, you will definitely be stared at by the senior management."

Henry showed a surprise look, "Oh? Then please Bishop Del."

"Haha." Bishop Del chuckled, "Don't play with me anymore. Although you are about the same age as Delk, but your social experience, far more sophisticated than your peers, you never wanted to kill Andre. I said these words in front of me, but I just wanted me to find a solution for you. After all, I understand the Shenyinhui."

Henry smiled and didn't speak.

Bishop Del continued: "The way, I can find it for you, but it also requires you to contribute. After three months, we will have a five-year selection in the meeting."

"The selection?" Henry was very interested, just now Jason said something to Tang Hao.

Bishop Del explained: "God Hidden will spread all over the world, and naturally there will be a region. Every bishop will control a region. Of course, since there is a region, there will be good and bad points. I control God. The European branch of Yinhui, as well as either half of the western continent, so whether it is Andre, or the Sossusvlei desert where the hell cage is located, it is within my jurisdiction, and Milo, which is Jason Master, who is in charge of a desolate place. After three months of selection, the area under the control of each bishop will be re-divided. Do you understand what I mean."

Henry understood what this so-called selection means. Nodded.

Bishop Del went on to say: "Now, Andrea has been on the line with Milo, and Milo has coveted the European region that I am in charge of. If three months later, I will be drawn from this area, you will become The fish on the chopping board, so I hope you can do a training for Delk in these three months, and use the one from your Bright Island, the devil training!"

Henry smiled, "It looks like you are treating us Guangming Island knows a lot."

"The existence of the God Hidden Society is to maintain the peace and stability of the underground world. You, Guangming Island, are naturally within our attention." Bishop Del said unabashedly, "I Knowing your training method, although it will not greatly improve the strength of Delk, but if you can come out of that training, it will be a great change to his mentality!"

Chapter 1014: Del's Difficulties

Henry shook his head, "I don't understand, with your strength, if you train Tang Hao, it is obviously better than handing him over to me, and your bishop divides the area. Tang Hao, what are they doing?"

"Inheritance of the Shenyin Society." Bishop Del said, "Since the Shenyin Society has been inherited for thousands of years, in addition to the hereditary, what do you think can be inherited for so long? Time? Each bishop will train his successor. The success of the successor will determine the status of the bishop in the meeting. After the selection, the bishop's disciples should gradually become familiar with the bishop's duties and wait for the succession. I have not Disciple, only Delk inherited my mantle. Now that Delk has grown up, he will participate in this selection. In fact, this selection is to choose a future bishop."

Bishop Del will look Put it on Delk, pause for a moment, and say again, "As for why you said that I didn't train him personally, the reason is very simple, I can't bear it, and if I have the heart, he will not only have such a weak strength now, If I have the patience, the Derke you see will not be as bullying as it is now."

Henry narrowed his eyes. "Do you know what you mean by devil training?"

"I I fully know that the terrifying 50% mortality rate." Bishop Nod nodded, "But I understand more that if Delk is not subject to change, this time he will die, so I would rather let him grow up I die in the middle, and I don't want to be humiliated to death that day. This is also blaming me. In the past two decades, I have not fulfilled the responsibility that a father should have. However, this child can live in that purgatory to the present. I believe that your Devil training, he can also withstand it."

Bishop Del said this, he glanced at Tang Hao with relief.

Henry also nodded in agreement. Tang Hao lived alone in purgatory for more than a year. Although it sounds simple, it is hidden in the laboratory, but for more than a year, it is isolated from the world. There is no one who can speak. I don't know when I am. Will die, facing the brutal experimental body every day, the mental pressure in it is much more terrifying than the pressure directly on the body.

Bishop Del looked at Henry again, "If I can continue to serve as the bishop of the European Division after three months of selection, I can guarantee you no worries, Andrea, I will also help you get rid of it, but if I can't guarantee this position. Everything we say is just empty talk."

Henry said with a smile: "Master Bishop, you want to use me as a gun."

"You pull me in this muddy water, I take you as you Guns, we are even with each other, and no one owes anyone else. Moreover, you help me and help yourself, don't you?"

"Deal." Bishop Henrychongdell reached out his hand.

"Then the next three months will be given to you." Bishop Del held Henry's hand.

"In this case, we don't need to continue to waste time here." Henry said, "Three months, it sounds like a long time, but for devil training, time seems very urgent."

"You can rest assured, here For some time, your island will definitely not have any problems, and you can rest assured that there is no match for the nine innings of the four forces, but their hole cards are by no means imaginable. De Li did not dare to send someone to Yanxia to find the trouble of your family. You can put away all your worries." Bishop Del patted his chest and assured Henry.

"Okay, then bother the Bishop Master." Henry thanked again.

"Well..." Bishop Del gave Henry a very meaningful look. "Your thanks this time is more a bit sincere. Although you were a bit of a bishop, but in your eyes, you did not take me Put this bishop in your eyes, and even say that you are not even in the eyes of the gods. You, a person, seem calm on the surface, like a pool of standing water. In fact, under this pool of standing water, lurking It's a giant beast. I even have a hunch that the balanced situation of these four forces is likely to change in some way because of you kid."

"Bishop Del doesn't have to kill me." Henry shook his head. , "I am who I am, I know very well, the four forces, I don't think much. If there is not so much fart, I just want to stay with my wife and live our little days."

"No." Del's eyes looked back, "There is life in this world, your life is not an ordinary life, and the small life is not yours."

Henry interrupted the topic, "Oh, Bishop Del, we have time to do this again. Let's talk, now the time is running short, your son, I'll take it away."

“I’ll leave it to you. After three months, I’ll let someone inform you of the location of the selection.”

“Go.” Henry pinched Tang Hao Shoulders, striding towards the outside of the town.

Del looked at the back of his son and sighed, "Delke, I hope you can follow this hell king and learn something. The bishop's mantle is not inherited by kindness, I... pooh! "

Del murmured in his mouth, and suddenly a sip of blood spurted out. Before the blood slammed into the floor, Del was condensed with gas, and he skillfully took out a bottle from the cuff to pour the blood into the bottle with gas, and then collected it is good.

Del wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and smiled bitterly, "If it were not attacked by the Returning Ancestor League two years ago, I was seriously injured, and my strength could not be saved. How could I have the heart to let you go missing for a year, I have protected you, but after the road, you have to go, hell king, be sure not to let me down ah, so I have a son, if you let him grow up, I'm mad, would complete commitment. " a The helicopter takes off at the edge of the town, and the destination is the nearest airport.

Sitting on the plane, the cabin is completely closed, and you can't see the outside scene. You can only hear the noise of the propeller ringing overhead.

In Henry's mind, he couldn't help recalling what Bishop Del had just said.

Henry's mouth slowly raised a smile, and muttered in a voice that only he could hear: "I really want to live peacefully with my wife, but you are not bad, I will not I am willing to go through my small life like this. If I want to live, I will step on all the so-called four major forces under my feet and go there again. Longxi Li's hatred will not be forgotten in my life, they are imposed on Qin Rou Everything in my body, I will let them double back!"

Tang Hao, who was not far from Henry, suddenly put a pendulum on his body, just now, he felt something that made him palpitate, but again It's hard to say what it is.

Chapter 1015: Desert City

Trial of the Bright Island Devil.

This trial spread very well in the underground world.

Some people say that all hell walkers walking in the world have undergone such trials.

It is said that the reason why hellwalker is called hellwalker is that they can climb out of the trial, and there, it is comparable to hell.

But in fact, the trial hellwalker is not a real devil trial, it is just a weakened version of the devil trial.

How can the real devil try, so many people pass?

The death rate of 50% is really terrifying. Choosing to enter the trial is tantamount to putting life and death off the beaten path.

Someone once specifically asked someone who came out of the devil's trial and wanted to know the details of the devil's trial.

The answer I got was: "First of all, please stay away from me five meters away. The distance within five meters is a dangerous distance for me. It is a range that can be attacked. Sorry, I didn't mean this, but during the trial, This has become my instinct. Secondly, I really can't remember what's inside. I can only be thankful that I lived there. It shouldn't belong to humans. Unfortunately, I can't tell you too much. , The psychiatrist I have reached is here."

This interview is only a short paragraph.

Later, the interviewer saw the psychologist whom the other party had contracted with. When the psychologist came, he wore a full set of high-strength protective equipment, and during psychological counseling, the two were separated by a high-strength bulletproof glass. It's open.

From the interview, this person has been out of the devil's trial for almost a year, and his identity is a pirate traveling on the endless ocean, a leader of first-class underground forces.

Being able to completely grind a murderous pirate into this way and bring him close to the edge of collapse, it can be seen how terrible this so-called devil trial is.

But even so, there are still many people who are trying their best to participate in the devil trial of Guangming Island, because the devil trial can really completely change a person, from the inside to the outside, from the body, to mentally.

At first, the devil's trial was only used by Guangming Island to cultivate his own people. Later, in every devil training, there will be many forces to come to participate, and Guangming Island is not stingy, so let everyone participate together.

On February 14th, Valentine's Day, Guangming Island issued a message to all major underground forces in the world.

The trial of the devil will begin in three days. Those who want to participate in the devil's training must arrive in Trial Island within three days. After three days, the trial island is completely blocked.

The Yanxia Blade, a subterranean force belonging to the Yanxia official, is different from the transcendent existence of the Ninth Bureau. The Blade will abide by the rules of the underground world and will also solve some problems belonging to the underground world.

The selection of the sharp blade is to draw elites from all over the country, train together, and select layers, and finally only a few can enter the sharp blade.

"Korean team, are you really going to participate in this devil trial? That would be dead!"

"Fear of death, you won't come to the Blade, it's time to go."

A special tactic on the blade's dedicated airport Han Wenrou in the suit looked heroic, she looked at the many blade players behind her. No, no one will laugh at you, because you have chosen a wise path, you have family, love, ideal, and future, but you have to regret it after you go, sorry, my Han gentle, will be the first A collapsed you, what the Devil Trial represents, I believe you are all very clear, now, you choose it yourself, take this step, there is no turning back."

Han Wenrou finished, when he first set foot on the stop The plane in front.

The Blade player who followed Han Wenrou, you look at me, I look at you.

After learning that the Devil's Trial of Gwangmyeong was about to begin, Sharpblade issued a notice as soon as possible. The people behind Han Wenrou now voluntarily chose to participate in the Devil's Trial.

After everyone looked at each other, some people followed Han Wenrou on the plane without turning back, some people began to hesitate, and some people retreated.

In the Sossusvlei desert.

The original sea of sand has completely changed to this day. Now if we say that this is a desert, people who come for the first time will definitely not believe it.

The sand environment has been completely changed under the strong money of the Ferris family. It has been completely transformed into a steel city. It has been a long time since it was rebuilt, but in just half a year, too many high-rise buildings have been erected. Energy stations and signal towers are no different from ordinary cities.

Tens of thousands of towering trees have been transplanted around the city to resist the wind and sand. Although the money for transplantation is an astronomical figure, obviously, money is not something that Guangming Island needs to consider at all.

Someone accidentally discovered the city and even chose to come to the city to buy a house.

What makes many underground forces strange is that Guangming Island actually agreed to let ordinary people buy houses here, the price is quite low, and only requires less than 20,000 magnesium, and the people who buy houses here, Guangming Island also will provide jobs for them, and pay great!

This behavior is obviously not only acquiescing ordinary people to buy a house here, but also attracting permanent residents in disguise!

A city in the desert, because of such treatment, attracted tens of thousands of people for the city in a short period of time.

However, it is not difficult to understand that where the Sossusvlei Desert is located, the living standards of its own people are very poor. Even if it is a steel city built in the desert, the living conditions are much better than most places, especially located in the Golden City not far from here, because of the emergence of this city, the population of the Golden City lost nearly one third.

When those underground forces found that ordinary people could come to buy a house, they rushed here almost the first time, bought a suite here, and lived.

You know, the people behind this desert city, that is Guangming Island, doesn't it mean that as long as you live here, you have a talisman! When he has nowhere to go, as long as he hides in this city, who dares to make trouble on the ground of Guangming Island?

There are not many people who have this idea, which leads to such a desert city. In a few days, all the houses are sold out! The vast majority of people who come to buy are from underground forces.

Chapter 1016 I Must Go

Originally, these underground forces believed that they could live with peace of mind by buying a suite in the desert city. Whoever thought that Guangming Island suddenly made regulations and wanted to live here, You have to work here! Otherwise, the money to buy the house will be refunded and the house will be recovered.

As soon as this rule came out, ordinary people had nothing to do. They still wanted a job, but it was hard for those under the influence of the underground. There was no way, they could only find some people instead of work.

As a result, Guangming Island added that only the homeowner can work, and because of the lack of materials in the desert city, only the homeowner can live for a long time.

This rule immediately disrupted the plans of the underground leaders, unable to live for a long time? What trouble do you have to get in the future, it must be long-term residence!

Some people have no way to accept it, choose to leave, and retreat for a replacement to buy a house, thinking about how much they can be used as a refuge and temporarily avoid the wind, while some people directly choose to buy a house here.

So much so that an interesting phenomenon appeared in this desert city.

In a simple steel factory, a leader of underground second-class forces is a team leader, and a leader of first-class forces has become a small worker. This work is arranged by Guangming Island. Bright Island application.

When working, there will be people from Guangming Island.

The leader of the second-class underground forces issued an order, "Bruno, you go to check the batch of steel that has just arrived!"

This Bruno is another leader of the first-class forces.

When the leader of the second-class forces finished his order, he quickly trot and whispered: "Bruno boss, I'm just doing it, don't take it seriously, wait for this batch of steel to go and order it, you find Have a coffee in the place and take a break."

When Bruno heard this, he quickly waved his hand, "Don't don't, don't you, don't you, here, you are my elder brother, don't give me a chance to let me take advantage of it, if the people of Guangming Island know, tonight You have to push me out, elder brother, if you still can see the younger brother, you can arrange more work for me. When I get promoted, I can take over my wife and children. I heard that Guangming Island is going to build a school , I' m going to send the child in, and I' ll be carefree in the future!" After Bruno said this, he quickly went over and counted the batch of steel.

Such a scene is just a portrayal of the entire environment of the desert city. Such a thing is happening in almost every place.

Of course, some people put up the shelves of the leaders of the underground world, and was expelled mercilessly from Guangming Island, and said that troublemakers will never enter the city, and will be regarded as an enemy by Guangming Island.

This time, the leaders of the underground world can be frightened, and Guangming Island is regarded as an enemy.

On the streets of the desert city, a leader of the underground forces pushed a dining car, "Cold noodles, hot summer snacks, cold noodles, from the same country as the island owner, cold noodles!"

Opposite the cold noodle food stall, also There is a watermelon stand, and a leader of the underground world still sells, "Watermelon! Watermelon from the same place as the king, from the king's hometown, come to try the famous selenium sand melon!"

One by one in the underground world The characters, now transformed into street vendors.

A red-haired woman walked on the streets of the desert city, beside the woman, followed by a blond man.

Blond men are very respectful to red-haired women.

"Master Eugenia, the identities of these people have been found, and most of them belong to some underground forces."

This red-haired woman is in the town of Eugenia, who is provoking Henry and Jason's relationship, and Andre's. God punishes.

"Humph." Eugenia snorted coldly, "He Henry did this, but he just wanted to assimilate these underground forces and directly take in people, which would cause the rest of the forces to rebound.

Our Shenying Club will also intervene, but they do this. If we don't find a suitable reason, we can't find a suitable reason."

"What can I do!" The blond man looked anxious. "This mystery, as a jailer, has an eccentric existence. In the time of the year, most of the underground forces in the world will become the island of light!"

Eugenia smiled disdainfully. "An ant, even if he gathers more, is still an ant, it is impossible to pose a threat to giants. A group of ants Only, how can we get together, besides, his surname is Zhang, and he can't live that long. As long as he understands the prohibition on him, he will become a corpse."

Henry gave Andrea The explanation is that the person in the hell cage used him as an introduction, and he wanted to break the blockade of the hell cage, but there was a problem in the process. Henry was able to enter and exit the hell cage at will, and he could also bring people in and out at will. , Can restrict the prisoners in hell, so, Andre did not kill Henry, always wanted to understand this matter from Henry.

At first, Andre wanted to give Henry a soft one, and let Henry put him under his control. As a result, his face was now torn. Andre, he wanted to come hard. Since you don't say it yourself, then I have a way to make you Say!

In the old castle in the center of Bright Island, Old Pease holds a data file with the number of new residents in the desert city on that day, and the identity background of each person.

"Uncle Pease, how is the data today?" Zu Xian, dressed in a black robe, came from the side and asked politely to Old Pease.

"Your Excellency, please see." Old Pease handed over the documents in hand to Zu Xian. "Master Old Master's plan is very well implemented. If we continue this way, we can receive 30% of the underground in a short time. Power, if there is no difference, this data can eventually be expanded to 70%!"

70%! This is an extremely horrible data, 70% of the underground forces in the world, what is that concept!

Zu Xian nodded, "Uncle Pease, I didn't take part in this matter, I don't know very well. Since it is the plan made by Mr. Zhang, this matter will trouble you to be more attentive. There is news from Mr. Zhang, the devil. The trial is about to begin. I plan to participate. I will leave for a while."

"You are going to participate in the Devil Trial?" Pease was startled, and then shook his head. "This is not possible. You are the Lord of Light Island. In the Devil Trial, anything is possible. It's too dangerous to pass by your strength. Do you know what it means once you die in the trial? What you represent is not you, but the entire Bright Island!"

Zu Xian took a deep breath, " I understand, but Uncle Pease, I have decided that no matter what you say, I will go."

Chapter 1017: Same as Outside

"You can't go!" Old Pease reached out and stopped before Zu Xian.

Zu Xian stared at Old Pease, "Uncle Pease, if I must go?"

Old Pease reiterated again: "You represent Guangming Island! Not yourself, the mortality rate of this trial is in percent Fifty, you simply don't understand how terrible it is. Moreover, this trial is different from the past. There are forces hidden in the dark who will intervene, and they will use you to make a fuss."

"Uncle Pease, I mean Determined." Zu Xian pushed away Pease's hand in front of him. "Since Mr. Zhang gave me the owner of the island, this island is what I said. You can give your opinion, but you can't. Give me an order, and I hope you can see your identity."

Zu Xian finished, striding forward, suddenly stepping back, looking back, "Also, I am not as weak as you think."

Pease With a sigh, he shook his head and said nothing more.

When Zu Xian left, Bai Chi's figure appeared in front of the room.

"Uncle Pease, you have no point in persuading him. He has privately trained some dead men for more than 20 days. This time he tried, he just wanted to achieve a certain purpose. He thought these dead men could protect him. It's naive and ridiculous."

Pease didn't continue to talk about this topic.

"Right, the boss is back," Bai Chi said suddenly.

"I'm back? Where?" Pease was shocked and immediately showed a happy look. During the New Year, they all stayed in Yinzhou. On the seventh day of the year, they went to Henry. As a result, Sylvia informed that Henry had left.

Henry left this for more than half a month, during which no one could contact him, which made Pease and others worried.

Nowadays, Henry's return is safe.

Pease quickly asked, "When will I be back? Why don't I know?"

Bai Chi explained: "No one is notified by the boss. A person ran to the forbidden place. Didn't you ask me yesterday how to start the devil trial suddenly, or the boss notified me."

"Do you know what Xiao Xuan intends to do?" Pi Si wondered, he didn't understand why Henry suddenly notified that the trial was started.

Bai Chi shook his head. "I don't know what the boss is. He told us not to look for him. When he came out of the forbidden ground, he would leave directly."

Pease frowned slightly, thinking: "Xiao Xuan he What the hell are you going to do."

The forbidden area of Guangming Island was the entrance to the hell cage divided by Henry at that time.

Hell cage.

"Hahaha! You kid, I thought you wouldn't come back!" The little man laughed aloud, exactly when Henrychu was in the hell cage with Henry.

"That is, I haven't been back for so long, my sister thought you forgot everyone." Sister Bo gave Henry a blank look.

In hell, these old monsters all said some complaints, blaming Henry for not looking at them for so long, but it can be said that although they said so, none of them really blamed Henry on their eyes, everyone's face, Are full of smiles.

Henryshen scratched his head with his hand. All of them were his predecessors, and he was kind to him. At the time he was here, everybody tried his best to accompany him to practice tricks to help him improve his strength.

"Okay, you guys, all of you can't agree with each other, and still blame Henry. There are many outside things. He can come back to see us once in a while, and it is already important." Xuan Tian waved his hand. In Henry's eyes, it is also full of relief.

"Xuan Tian boss, aren't we too boring here? We have finished reading all the things Xiao Xuan took last time. Xiao Xuan, is there any other home that is really good-looking." iPad came to Henry.

Henry laughed loudly, "Seniors, this time, you will not be bored, see what I brought to you!"

Henry moved out of a large box with hundreds of mobile phones in the box.

Henry said: "Now, the signal tower has been built above the cage, and the signal can now be spread in."

Henry said this and picked up his mobile phone. "In the future, as long as you can hold this gadget, you can always know the outside. You can go online and watch videos on everything that happened. By the way, my people have set up an international takeaway company to serve you. What new things you want to buy, such as new clothes, can be directly selected from the Internet. , Express delivery, um... the specific meaning is the same as the previous game, but the speed is faster, buy the same day, the next day will be available, then trouble everyone to pick it up on the top floor."

"New clothes!" Wave As soon as my sister heard this, her eyes suddenly flashed.

Henry was speechless for a while. Sure enough, women have no resistance to this kind of things, no matter how old they are. It doesn't matter whether you wear them or not. You have to take a look! Last time I delivered supplies, I took thousands of new clothes down, but as a result, Sister Bo heard her new clothes with three words, and her eyes were still bright.

"Quickly, teach me how to use it!" Sister Bo picked up a mobile phone and hugged to Henry.

The rest of the people were all around.

These people, although they are all old, have all strengths. Many years ago, they were all heroes. They had extremely strong learning abilities, and they were bored in this cage for so long. Once they had something new, they learned quickly.

In just half an hour, Henry gave most of the Internet functions to them, and taught them what they did not understand to ask Du Niang. Once they learned to ask Du Niang, Henry would have nothing to continue teaching them.

"Seniors, I have created a common account for you. The money in it can not be spent. You can buy whatever you want. In a few days, a new power station will also be built. I will let people make a finished product. When the charging pile is put down, a design drawing will be attached by the way. At that time, you can shunt the lines inside the charging pile to your house, so that you can lie on the bed and play with the mobile phone. Once this is achieved, seniors It is no exaggeration to say that you have achieved the normal life of most people outside, haha."

Henry finally couldn't help but make a joke.

Listening to what Henry said, most people are very happy and can understand everything about the outside world. For them, after living for so long, they can't see the changes in the outside world. It is more unbearable than loneliness.

The dwarf man was stunned, "Xiao Xuan, you have spent so much effort because it is difficult to open the hell prison cage in a short time." When the dwarf man said this, the cheerful voices originally sounded aside, All disappeared at once.

Chapter 1018 On The Eve Of The Trial

Everyone looked at Henry.

Henry nodded. "Seniors, I am here this time. First, I will send you something. Second, I will tell you this news. I have entered the God Hidden Society and I am a jailer in this hell cage. It's a pity. With my current identity, I can't open the cage at all. The news I got is that even if the contemporary president of the God Hidden Society wants to open the cage, there is no way. There are four keys in the gate of the hell cage, four in the world. hands of big powers, would be a hidden God, is a clan, the other two, the kingdom of heaven is holy and atavistic League, only four keys together to open the cage door. " message from Henry Bishop del that get Speak all truthfully.

"What do you say! Return to the Ancestral League!" Sister Bo's face changed. "Isn't this organization supposed to have been destroyed? How could it still exist?"

"It does exist." Henry nodded.

Henry noticed that when Sister Bo mentioned the three words of returning to the ancestral alliance, her fists clenched tightly, and a wave of anger burst out from Sister Bo's eyes.

The little man patted Henry's shoulder, "There is a common enemy between Sister Bo and the Returning Ancestral League. If you meet a person from the Returning Ancestral League above, cut a few heads and throw it down to give you Sister Bo.

"Relax ." "Relax, what people do back to the ancestral alliance, people and gods resent, if there is a chance, I certainly have to cut a few of their heads." Henry nodded, the gene fusion experiment of the back ancestor alliance made him feel disgusted and sick.

Xuan Tian said: "Xiao Xuan, what you said, we have long expected that this hell cell cage is unfathomable, and the prohibition on it is even more confusing, if it is only the God Hidden Society, it will not condense. With such a ban, there are already many surprises you bring to us. If it is not you, we may not even be able to see the appearance of the house outside. You don't need to find a way to free us. All of us are skilled I've passed it on to you. I only hope you can inherit our mantle and grow up better. Remember the truth, never think that you are strong enough."

Xuan Tian said at this time, he sighed, "At first, if not what I thought I am already invincible in the world, how can I be led into this hell cage by God Hidden, if you want to sit back and relax, the best way is to put everything under your feet, what you have to do A lot, you don't have to waste time with the old guys below. When you have any doubts, come and talk to us and go back!"

Xuan Tian said, the word "bar" fell, he caught it in one hand Henry's shoulder was then mentioned hard.

Here, even if you can't use gas, Xuan Tian's power is not comparable to Henry.

Henry felt that he had been thrown away by Xuan Tian without any resistance, and then plunged into the prohibition above. The scenery in front of him had completely changed.

Henry knew that Xuan Tian didn't want to make himself feel guilty. After all, he had promised them to take them out. In the end, he found that this was an almost impossible thing. The four forces were willing to break the pattern. Is it possible to release those in the cage of hell?

Henryzhen opened the sand.

impossible? What you want to do is definitely possible.

Henry's eyes looked in a direction in the distance.

In the desert city, at the top of a tall building, Eugenia and Huang Faqing stood on the edge of the tall building, looking in the direction of the hell cage.

"Sir Eugenia, he really came out of the cage of hell!"

Eugenia looked here without a word .

It didn't take long for a helicopter to rise above Bright Island.

Henry and Tang Hao sat in the cabin.

"How about these two days, have you had enough dinner?" Henry looked at Tang Hao with a smile.

Tang Hao nodded. "Brother, I'm ready. I will never let you and my dad down in these three months."

"Remember." Henry solemnly said to Tang Hao, "The devil's trial, not only It is a kind of tempering of the participants' bodies, and more importantly, it is tempering the will. There, you will make countless choices. Each choice is related to life and death. There, you only need to maintain a belief, that is To survive, you have the power of imperial dominance. In it, almost no one can pose a threat to you, but you need to know that if you want to kill a person, not only wipe his neck, destroy a person, there are many ways "

" Brother, I remember." Tang Hao nodded.

The place where the trial island is located is in the endless sea. The reason why it was chosen as the trial island is because of the special nature of the island. The whole island has an area of 5,000 square kilometers. The island is bushy, lush, and perennial. Shrouded in thick fog, the island was almost invisible almost 90% of the time.

This is an isolated island, hundreds of nautical miles around, there is no foothold, it can be said that entering here, in addition to waiting for transportation to pick up and out, want to leave on their own, it is tantamount to talking about dreams.

The day after the trial of the devil on the island of Gwangmyeong began, a luxury cruise ship was already parked in the middle of the sea, 50 miles away from the trial island.

This luxury cruise ship is 360 meters long, 50 meters wide, and 80 meters high, with a total weight of 250,000 tons. This is a paradise on the sea. The cruise ship is luxuriously decorated, and everything you need is available. At the lower level of the cruise ship, there is even an indoor one-to-one football field!

This cruise ship can accommodate a total of eight thousand people to board the ship at the same time. This time, it serves as a rallying point for the trial of the devil of the Bright Island.

There is a special apron on the cruise ship, you can see that at the moment, there are countless helicopters hovering in the sky, one by one landing on the cruise ship one by one. When the people are put down, they fly away immediately.

There is a seven-star hotel service standard on the cruise ship, exquisite meals from all over the world and precious wine are free for visitors.

Many people now lie leisurely on the deck of the cruise ship, looking at the endless sea and enjoying the calm before the storm.

The people on the cruise ship, except for the service staff and sailors, all came to participate in this devil trial. On this boat, there was a peaceful and lively, but everyone understands that once the trial begins, there will be half of the people, Will never be able to get out of Trial Island again.

In an ordinary guest room of a cruise ship, Tang Hao is lying on a large soft bed to rest. After tomorrow, he will enter the trial island and desperately.

In the other room, Henry was sitting in front of a makeup mirror. A tall, charming and beautiful woman was holding a makeup pen and kept drawing on Henry's face.

A few minutes later, a slightly vicissuous face appeared in the makeup mirror.

Henry touched his chin and praised, "Yes, I can't recognize it myself."

Chapter 1019: Change

Behind Henry, the charming and beautiful woman covered her mouth and smiled. "I knew I should have opened the camera, and you praised it. That is something that countless people dare not think about."

Henry chuckled, put his hand on his throat and knotted it twice, then tore it hard, and a human skin mask was torn from his face by Henry, and Henry's original face was exposed again.

"If you have a chance, you will make me more handsome then."

Beauty Jiao laughed out loud. "That lord, you must remember to point me, don't forget me, I will go out first."

"Well, do you understand the rules?"

"Reassure." The beauty nodded. "I won't go anywhere until the trial starts, and stay in the room... the room where the signal is completely isolated." The beauty finished, Packed up his makeup, and walked with slender legs.

Henry put the mask away, and then came to Tang Hao's room.

"Brother." Tang Hao jumped up from the bed with a carp.

Henry said with a smile: "It seems that you don't have too much psychological pressure. This is a good thing. I'll leave in a moment. Tomorrow evening, someone will come to identify you. This is your proof of identity."

Henry said Then, he threw a card in front of Tang Hao with a grimace on it.

"This is the identity certificate of the hellwalker. You have collected it. I will remind you again. After entering it, you can only live for yourself. Do you understand? Live, no matter what means."

Tang Hao made this grimace The card was received and nodded solemnly, "Brother, rest assured, I'm ready."

"That's fine." Henry stepped forward and patted Tang Hao's shoulder. "Don't stay in the house alone. Every time the devil tries, there will be a reception. Just tonight, you go Take part in it. At the reception, pay more attention to details, which may play an unexpected role. You must know that most people's personality will be reflected in the way they do things."

"I know brother. "

Yes, I have finished what I should have said. Come on later, you can cheer on yourself. If you can live out of the trial island, you will definitely make your father look at him." Henrychong Tang Hao waved Then waved, "I'll go first. After three months, I will come to pick you up. Don't let me wait for no one."

Tang Hao squeezed his fist, "I'm definitely alive!"

Henry nodded. After leaving Tang Hao with a back view, he turned and left.

Out of the room, Henry put on a human skin mask for the first time and transformed into a middle-aged man who looked about 35 years old.

Henry put his hands in his pocket and shook back and forth on the cruise ship.

Now, one day before the trial, there are already no fewer than four thousand people on the cruise ship.

Henry estimated that this had reached the overwhelming majority, and one day tomorrow, it would hold up to a thousand people.

Henry was swaying leisurely on the cruise ship. Of course, he would not really put Tang Hao in the trial for free raising. That devil tried Henry who participated in it. He knew very well how cruel it was. He believed it completely. , Tang Hao went inside, and definitely could not live for a month!

Henry observed that in this trial of the devil, which forces would come to participate, just at this moment, a heroic figure, broke into Henry's sight.

Henry's eyes were also frozen at this moment.

Han Wenrou put on a loose casual suit and lay on the deck pool chair. A glass of iced watermelon juice was placed on the table on the right hand side, enjoying sunbathing from the sea.

"It's such a strong woman." Henry murmured.

Han Xuanrou's character, Henry is very clear, he refused to lose three words, and now he has Han Wenrou.

"Why, brother, do you also like this girl?" A big hand wrapped around Henry's shoulder.

Henry turned his head to look around. A black man crawled next to him, staring at Han Wenrou, and said: "Look at this Yan Xia Niu, this figure is full of power, absolutely superb, this skin color is also I like it, I heard there is a reception tonight, and I must be happy with her." After the black man finished speaking, he licked his lips with his tongue out.

Henry smiled slightly and shook his head. "Dude, why do n't we make a bet?" "Hey, you know, I'm Furman Reid's favorite bet." The Negro showed a very interested look, "You think What bet?"

"Just bet on this woman, I bet, you definitely can't soak her at night, and you will be beaten by a nose and a swollen face." Henry said confidently.

"Okay, this bet, I deserve it. Whoever loses, how about drilling under the crotch of that fat woman?" Furman Reid reached out and stood a short distance away from Han Genrou. Muscular woman, this woman's height is nearly two meters, her muscles look like a bear, very sturdy.

"Yes." Henry snapped his fingers. "That night, I'll watch your performance."

"Hey, let you see my ability at Furman Red tonight!" In one of the cruise ship's most luxurious suites, Zu Xian wore a black loose dress and sat at a table. Through the window, he could overlook everything on the deck and the sea in the distance from the best angle.

Opposite Zu Xian, a woman was sitting. It was Ning Zhou who had met Zu Xian in Yinzhou on the first day of the Chinese New Year.

"I am right, Lord Hell, even if you are sitting on the throne of the king, no one will still treat you as a true king. Your decision will be questioned and blocked by people, even this time. The opening of the refining is the command of the old king, and you can only be a role of a participant."

"You don't talk about these things here." Zu Xian's face is not good. "This devil tried, and Mr. Zhang also participated in that year. too. " "

Oh, what his strength, and you are what strength? he can fist with one pair of repression throughout the underground world, you can it? "I would rather reveal a laugh state looks like," I know you are a private recruitment Criticize the dead, prepare to escort you during this trial, and know that you desperately need a trial name to stabilize your position, but, IMHO, those dead who you brought with you are just a group It's just waste. They can't protect you when you die. Now I'll give you a choice and promise to cooperate with me. I guarantee that you will be safe during this trial. If you want, I can kill this test. All the people in the refining, leaving you alone to live out, your position will naturally rise up."

Ning Zhou said after watching these words, carefully looked at Zu Xian.

In Zu Xian's eyes, there was a strong move.

Chapter 1020 Fighting Wine

The devil of Guangming Island tried, the mortality rate is extremely high, but so many people have been rushing all the time.

Why?

It is because of this extremely high mortality rate! As long as the person who can live out of the devil trial will be awesome and respected in the entire underground world, if only one person is alive in this devil trial, then this person will be in the entire underground in an instant The world has great prestige!

"How is it, Lord?" Ningzhou twisted his waist and sat on Zu Xian's leg, breathing gently in Zu Xian's ear, "As long as you agree, you can get the position you want, I can give you, you I can give you the desired result, including me, or you. How?"

Zu Xian showed a struggling look on his face. This is indeed a *. If only he himself walked out of Trial Island, it would definitely be possible. Stabilize your current position.

Ningzhou stretched out his hand on Zu Xian's side and stroked it gently.

Zu Xian could not help but shudder, and at the same time his face changed, pushing Ningzhou sitting on his lap hard, "I said, I don't need it!"

Ningzhou snorted, "You have a bone, but you these Boldness, can you see Mr. Zhang? In his eyes, you are just a puppet that can be used at any time and discarded at any time."

"Enough!" Zu Xian shouted, "Ningzhou, I give You make it clear that I have a present, and it was given by Mr. Zhang. I will not harm him with what Mr. Zhang gave me. I will not do it now, nor in the future. Now please go out, and you are not welcome here!"

"Okay , Good, good." Ningzhou sighed with three good words, "Your Excellency, I will leave temporarily, but my proposal has always been valid." On the cruise ship, there will be helicopters landing every moment, and then take off, every time , There will be new faces on the cruise ship.

As night fell, the carnival tonight belonged to Ni Duan.

The pool party is always exciting. When the beautiful women put on sexy bikinis, the men began to revel involuntarily.

The people here, who have come to participate in the devil's trial, have put life and death out of their minds. Everyone has a drink. The bold women are already looking for their male partners tonight.

Henry took a bottle of beer and stood aside, watching Furman Red's performance.

Furman Red came close to Han Wenrou and greeted enthusiastically, "Hey, beauty, would you like to have a drink together?"

Looking at Furman Red's skillful appearance, he was obviously a veteran of love.

"Have a drink?" Han Wenrou glanced at Furman Red.

"Hey." A member of the blade next to Sylvia stepped forward. "Don't be uncomfortable, there are many girls here. Change your prey." Furman Reid pouted, "How can these women be with this Compared to a beautiful Yanxia girl, this is a reception, a drink should not be excessive."

The sharp edge member just started to speak, and listened to Han Gentle said: "Of course, a drink is not excessive, but if only a drink, then That ' s too much. Since it ' s a cocktail party, I think it ' s better to drink it."

Furman Reid ' s heart was delighted. Years of experience in picking up girls told him that as long as the other party is not particularly resistant to himself, the success rate tonight is Ninety percent, Furman Red is extra confident.

Furman Red glanced at the place where Henry stood, revealing a complacent look, and then extended his finger to the majestic woman who was about to launch by the pool.

Henry shrugged his shoulders and made a gesture of asking, forcing Ferman Red to continue.

Henry knew Han Wenrou's character, as well as Sylvia's amount of wine. Furman Reid asked Han Wenrou to drink. It was too whimsical.

Han Wenrou waved his hand and rushed to a sharp blade player: "Go to carry the box of wine."

"Captain, this..."

"Go to move!"

Soon, a box of wine was moved over, and Han Wenrou opened his posture, Pour yourself a full glass and rush to Furman Red: "If you want to drink, drink it with pleasure . I'll do it first!" Furman Red looked at this posture and was not happy in his heart, as long as the woman was drunk He has too many ways to get this woman.

"Yan Xia woman, she doesn't allow her eyebrows, she is brave . I'll do two of them!" Furman Red picked up the glass and drank two glasses.

"Okay, come again!" Han Wenrou poured himself another glass.

A few of the bladed players on the side saw this scene, all shook their heads in regret, and then looked at Furman Red with a pityful look.

Henry stood not far away, his eyes kept looking at this side, murmured: "You are black and thin, you have more calluses on your hand, but the character has not changed."

Henry's tender feelings for Han have always been somewhat Unclear ingredients are in it.

The beginning of the two is actually a mistake, but this mistake has been going on for a long time. Instead of forgetting the two of them for a long time, they have always missed each other in their hearts. Both of them have one in their hearts. The common beliefs go from their own way to their own direction and become stronger.

Both of them also understand that in addition to the so-called male-female relationship, the other has a more important life pursuit.

"Drink, continue to drink!" Han Wenrou once again smashed the glass in his hand. "You are drinking seven glasses less than me. Let's drink, then drink it!"

Furman Red looked at the woman in front of him, feeling scalp It's all tingling. He also thinks that he has been in the winery for many years, but the woman who drinks this is really the first time she sees it. The high level of wine is just like boiled water. After stopping, I sat there for five minutes, and the two had already drunk a dozen cups in a row.

That glass of wine is just two hundred milliliters! How can there be such a drink? And looking at the woman's appearance, obviously still full of stamina, but myself, the stomach is already uncomfortable.

"Why can't you drink? Get out of it if you don't drink!" Han Wenrou waved unashamedly.

Furman Red looked around and found that Henry was still looking at himself, and then looked at the strong woman by the pool, took a deep breath, "I have nothing to drink, I'm afraid you won't drink On the ground!"

"The old lady is on the ground today, take care of you!" Han Wenrou said with pride.

This sentence, but for Furman Red hit a chicken blood, Furman Red said with red eyes: "Okay, this is what you said! Man, bring me a big cup over here!" The two are fighting here The wine attracted the attention of many people at once. At this open reception, this kind of wine-making is very popular. Moreover, there is a big beauty among the people who make wine.

Chapter 1021: Use You To Gamble

bursts of whistle and applause sounded.

"Drink, Furman Red, don't you claim that a thousand cups are not drunk, why can't you even drink a lady, ha ha ha!" A person who knew Furman Red burst out laughing.

"Furman Red, you still owe it, and if you can't drink, I will say, I will help you take a shower in the swimming pool."

"Go to your mother." Is Furman Red's mouth cursing and pouring himself back? In the last cup, his movements are now slow, and a burst of dizziness strikes him, making him feel sick in his stomach.

Han Wenrou dries off the wine in the glass and picks up another bottle to unscrew. This time Han Wenrou no longer pours into the glass, and blows up the bottle directly.

Furman Reid watched Han Genrou's movements and his legs were trembling. Not to mention blowing the bottle like Han Genrou, it was difficult to clean the wine he owes now.

"Furman Red, drink it quickly!" one urged, waiting to watch a good show.

These people actually don't want to watch Furman Red drink too much. More, they want to see Furman Red hold on, waiting for Han to drink more softly.

"Don't drink, don't drink anymore." Furman Red waved his hands again and again, he only felt the things in his stomach keep rising, how uncomfortable and uncomfortable.

Seeing Furman Red's admonition, there was a wave of sighs around him.

Furman Red, after admitting to counsel, lay down on the table in frustration.

Han Wenruo still drank that bottle of wine cleanly, and then smashed it on the ground, shouting:

"Counsel, get up and drink, hurry up!" "Couldn't be done." Furman Red waved again and again, "I admit defeat, I admit defeat."

"Hey, come here to drink sister, brother, I advise you to practice more." A member of the blade took Furman Red's collar and lost Furman Red To the side.

Furman Red was drunk like a puddle of mud, motionless.

Henry grinned and walked across, kicking Furman Red lying on the ground. "It looks like you lost."

"Dude, I've drunk so much, can you see if... " " cannot. "Henry said, pulling legs Furman Reid, Reid Silverman will drag before the strong woman's body, pointing to the strong woman's legs," Come on, get through! " the people around At first glance, I immediately understood that there must be some kind of bet between the two, after all, this is often happening in the winery.

"Drill!"

sound of coax sounded.

Furman Red looked around and listened to the coaxing noises, holding his breath, slowly crawling over between the strong woman's legs.

"Take the old lady as a bet? His mother, you are looking for death!" The strong woman's face changed and she bent down to carry Furman Red.

Furman Red is 1.8 meters tall, but in front of this strong woman, she looks like a little chicken, and is easily resisted by the strong woman on her shoulder, and then strides to the room.

"Hahaha! Fat girl, don't kill people, dead people on the ship, be careful to find you on Bright Island!"

"No." The strong woman patted her chest, "but he was guaranteed to have soft legs when he landed on the island!" "For the strong woman, Furman Red's expression can be described as a piece of dead ash.

There was a burst of laughter around the pool.

A member of the Blade walked curiously next to Henry and asked, "Dude, what are you betting on?"

Han Wenren and several other Blade members also looked over.

Henryshen pointed his finger at Han Wenrou, gathered a bunch of anger in his throat, and changed his voice. He said, "Bet he can sleep until this chick, and then he loses."

The blade member frowned, "You Are we gambled?"

This feeling of being treated as a prey by others makes these blade members very uncomfortable.

Henry nodded, as he took it for granted, "Yes, just to gamble with you."

"Brother, you might be a bit inappropriate to do this?" Another member of the Blade came up.

Han Wenrou also frowned.

"Not suitable? What's wrong?" Henry looked strange, "I said, you rookies, wouldn't you be angry because I took you to gamble?"

"What do you say!" The members were immediately angry.

"I said you are rookies." Henry shrugged. "Am I wrong? Look at your look, just know that I took you to gamble, and my temper will come up. If you are participating in the trial, I advise you to make a phone call to your family now, because you will definitely die inside, trust me."

"Fuck you ass!" one yelled.

"I fart?" Henry sneered, "I said, you still don't understand, what kind of trial do you want to participate in? The devil trial, the devil trial with a mortality rate of 50%, take this trial Refining proves that you have stepped one foot into the gate of a ghost, and if you walk or walk in, you do not have your choice. With your appearance, I guarantee that you will die and be in it, let alone someone use you to gamble, even if Treating you as prey, as bait, it would be normal!"

"It seems that you have participated in the Devil Trial?" Han Wenrou said at this time, "Can you tell us what it is like inside."

Han Wenrou As soon as these words came out, all the members of the Blades closed their mouths.

Henry spread his hands, "I have participated, but what is the content of the trial, I am sorry, no one knows until Guangming Island is announced, but I can tell you a message, that is, in the trial island, there is actually no What dangerous area."

"There is no dangerous area?" Han Wenrou murmured what Henry said in his mouth, and suddenly his face changed, "You mean..."

"Good." Henry snapped his fingers, "In the trial island, there is no dangerous area, but it has a mortality rate of up to 50%. This means that everyone you see now may kill you in the trial. People, so don't talk about using you to gamble. It's normal for you to trade with you now. If you let your mentality change because of a little of the so-called dignity and the so-called face, then you are all dead in it. So, you tell me, your performance is not a rookie?"

"You don't pretend to be here." The member of the blade said at first, "Do you believe it or not, we can be the first to slaughter after we go in You?"

"Don't believe it." Henry shook his head, "And I advise you, don't do it. Most of the trial island is a lone wolf, come alone, and your early embrace will definitely be everyone Aim, when the time comes, you are not besieging me, but you, will be besieged by all the people inside, because the more people who die inside, the stronger your group's advantage, the stronger, no one wants to keep you hidden ,understand?"

Chapter 1022 Trial Rules

Henry finished, pointing around.

Han Wenrou and several Blades members glanced around unconsciously, and at first glance, it turned out that many people had a hostile look.

Henry continued: "In the trial island, your biggest enemy is the rest, so rookies, try to keep a low profile, haha!"

Henry laughed and strode away.

In the eyes of Han Wenrou and others, some of them showed some solemn taste. Obviously, Henry's words had already been spoken to them.

Henry walked to a corner, picked up a piece of pastry and put it in his mouth, looking at the place where Han Wenrou was, murmured: "I hope you can pass this trial by yourself, with your character, if I've helped you, and you won't be reconciled."

Just now, whether it's wine-making or an episode about Furman Red's betting with others, it won't affect the rest of Yaxing. The carnival continues. .

Zu Xian, who was wearing a black loose robe, appeared at the reception, and four people wearing black grimace masks followed him.

When these four ghost face masks appeared, the people who were still carnival stopped the movements of their hands in a unified manner, and even the music stopped at this moment. Those who had drunk and shouted were slapped by the people beside them. He was sober and just wanted to get angry, but when he saw the four ghost masks, he shut his mouth obediently.

Everyone's eyes gathered in the past.

Zu Xian stood at the place where everyone's eyes were gathered. At this moment, he knew that he was the deserved protagonist inside. This feeling let Zu Xian enjoy it particularly.

"I've seen the hell king!" One of them took the lead and immediately knelt on one knee to make the most noble etiquette in the underground world.

This sound surprised most people present. In this underground world, not many people have really seen the hell king, including the pilgrimage of Guangming Island. Henry appeared for the first time in recent years.

When Henry passed the island owner to Zu Xian, the one who was present was the head of the top forces. Now, almost a few people who come to participate in the trial know Zu Xian's identity.

Lord of Bright Island! Hell King!

The people present were kneeling on one knee almost at the same time and shouted, "I have seen the king!"

They were standing there, besides Henry, Han Wenrou and others with sharp blades.

Although the Blade is also the power of the underground world, it is affiliated with the official, which prevents them from kneeling down and saying hello like the rest.

As for Henry, he put his hands in his pockets and walked long and far.

"Why don't you kneel when you see the hell king?" One person scolded Xiang Han Rourou and other people, showing ancestors.

Han Wenrou's eyes are full of doubts, others do not know what the hell lord looks like, but she is too clear!

Sharpblade received news that the new King of the Bright Island had taken office, but this news was not specifically released, so Han Genrou did not know about the replacement of the King of Bright Island.

"Okay." Zu Xian raised his hands slightly, "You guys, this time, I will also participate in the devil trial, so, like you, I am just an ordinary tester, without so many courtesies, everyone Get up." Zu Xian's words made many people stunned, and then there were more or less doubts in their eyes. The Master of Bright Island, want to participate in the trial?

In all doubts, the people got up one after another.

"Everyone continues, I won't disturb your Yaxing." Zu Xian chuckled, he was very satisfied with the weight of his right to speak, they appeared, they knelt, they would listen to what they said.

In a room on a cruise ship.

Ning Zhou and a little man with a height of only 1.5 meters stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling glass in the guest room, watching what happened at the reception.

"This new king is really a fool." The little man's face chuckled and his voice was hoarse.

"Isn't that what we want." Ningzhou's mouth also raised a smile. "He has always refused us, but he can't convince himself. As long as we can give him a reason for betrayal, he will be the first time. to make a choice. " little man leaned over, from top to bottom to sweep again Ning, subsequently issued a hoarse voice, "that's the reason, on to you, do not let me down ah. " " adults worry "Ningzhou bowed his head and knelt on one knee. "In the trial, I have too many ways for him to find this suitable reason."

The carnival on the cruise ship ended at midnight.

Almost everyone, drunk and drunk, seeing men and women, has returned to the room, everyone who comes to participate in the devil trial is ready to never go back, so everyone vents out of all their needs.

When the next day dawned, many people still felt dizzy. Few people still sat comfortably on the deck, and when night fell, a whistle sounded and the cruise ship moved slowly.

The people on board understood that this trial was about to begin.

The speed of the cruise ship is extremely slow, gradually moving at a speed of almost five nautical miles per hour.

When the first rays of sunlight rose in the early morning, someone noticed that the surroundings were already filled with mist, and an island phantom gradually appeared in everyone's sight.

"That is, did you try the island?" Han Wenrou stood by the window, looking at the approaching island.

"Trial Island..." Zu Xian stood at the highest level and looked into the distance. "Mr. Zhang has also been here."

"It is rumored that Guangming Island is hell, but everyone knows that this island is the real hell on earth, gold. Compared with here, the city can only be regarded as a gathering place for good people." Henry sighed.

The island hidden in the dense fog is quietly located there. It is like a shy child and will not take the initiative to make a sound.

The cruise ship gradually approached the shore, and the people on the boat all gathered on the deck, and only the island was in their eyes.

"You guys, below, announce the rules of this trial." A voice sounded on the cruise ship deck loudspeaker.

Everyone on the deck listened carefully.

"This trial lasted a total of three months."

"Three months?" There were some doubts in the crowd. Almost everyone, before coming, asked about the rules of the devil's trial. The trial time has always been half a year, but this time only three months?

"Only three months? Doesn't it mean that the difficulty is reduced?" Some people were surprised.

"No." Some people frowned, "The devil's trial will not reduce the difficulty, the time will shorten, it will only speed up the process and the fierceness of this trial."

The sound of the loudspeaker sounded again after a short pause. .

"Everyone, the rules of the trial are simple. After three months, you can come out alive, even if you pass the trial."

Chapter 1023: Landing On The Island

"Before entering the island, you need to abide by the following rules."

"First, everyone cannot carry more than ten pounds."

"Second, we will every half Monthly, an airdrop of materials is carried out, the placement location is random, and the number is scarce."

"Third, this is not a rule, but a suggestion. When killing people, don't be soft, everyone, from now on, I wish everyone good luck Now, everyone disembarks on the left side of the deck, and accepts the inspection of their belongings. Reminder, the weight of the items carried here, including your weapons, if you carry more than ten pounds, even if only one gram, it will be Immediately died on the boat."

The people who came to participate in the trial on the deck shuddered unconsciously. Guangming Island said that killing was definitely not a joke.

Some people started to remove things immediately, and those who originally had the luck mentality did not dare to have any luck.

Everyone unloaded their equipment and landed on the island in turn.

Tang Hao stood aside, not anxious to go to the island, but to observe the things carried by everyone who went to the island.

Henry leaned in a corner, staring at Tang Hao with some appreciative eyes, and could not help nodding.

Many people do not know the reason why Guangming Island requires everyone to bring only 10 pounds of items. In fact, from this point, we can see everyone's personality.

If you want to live on the island for three months, let's not talk about the dangers you will encounter. Just eating and drinking water will become a critical issue.

Among the ten pounds of items brought to the island, those who choose water and compressed dry food belong to some conservatives and will make decisions based on the situation after entering the island.

Those who abandon dry food and water and choose to bring weapons into the island are all radicals. From the beginning, they have made a plan to kill more people. These people are generally more confident in their own strength.

Tang Hao is standing there right now, to distinguish between these two types of people. In the intention of killing more people, they are all hard-working people. When they do things, they will become more vicious and use any means.

The derogatory term unscrupulous is a commendatory term in the underground world, because only unscrupulous people can live better. This is not a reasonable world.

Henry again found the shadow of Han Wenrou in the crowd. Han Wenren and several bladed players were distributing things together, taking the materials and weapons as evenly as possible.

Seeing this scene, Henry couldn't help but shook his head. Han Wenrou's experience was still too scarce. Their allocation did indeed make the most reasonable use of resources, but the key is that this is not static training. Once on the island, the situation inside changes rapidly, and what will happen, no one can say for sure, and the materials are evenly distributed. If something goes wrong in a link, it will make them very messy.

You know, the more delicate things are, the more troublesome they are if they are solved.

Over time, one person after another landed on the island. Han Wenrou and others, after some inspection, took things to the island.

The island is full of mist. After landing on the island, it will disappear in a short period of time.

After observing Tang Hao's situation, he immediately made it to the island. He dared not leave at last, and the more evening the island became, the more passive he was.

Zu Xian also landed on the island in the escort of a dozen hellwalkers wearing grimace masks. They went to the island without bringing anything and no one to check.

Everyone looked at Zu Xian's eyes with fear, because not to mention the hell king, just the hell walker was scary enough.

What they don't know is that this hellwalker is not a real hellwalker. They are all deceased people who were cultivated by ancestors in a short period of time. Their strength is far from the hellwalker, and the hell king is not the prestige. The hell lord of the world, if the person with the worst strength is the hell lord!

When all the people on the deck had gone, Henry put his hands in his pockets and wobbled to the island. He didn't carry anything, whether it was supplies or weapons.

The trial island is covered by a thick fog. Even if the cruise ship is on the shore and standing on the deck, you cannot see the environment on the island. The moment you step on the island, you can see the entrance of the island. What does it look like.

After Henry ascended the island, the cruise ship in the rear made a whistle and then slowly drove away.

Henry took a deep breath. At this moment, he seemed to have returned to many years ago. It was the first time he set foot on this trial island, and the first time he felt that he was closest to death.

The entrance to the trial island is a one-kilometer-long valley, and the cliffs on both sides are hundreds of meters high. It is like a knife and cannot be climbed at all. If you want to enter the island, you can only cross this one-kilometer-long valley. .

At the entrance of the valley, there is a stone gate. On the stone gate, the words were carved by somebody. Under the erosion of the wind and frost of the years, these two words are still vaguely visible.

"Life and death."

Henry murmured the word on the stone door, stepped into the door, and lived and died.

The moment Henry entered the stone gate, he completely entered the range of this valley. The dense fog in front of him made the visible range less than ten meters. Even if someone sneaked into the dense fog ten meters away, you could not find it.

When Henry walked into the valley about twenty meters, a sound of breaking the sky suddenly sounded from behind Henry.

Henry smiled slightly, "In other words, the ones who took the bow and arrow to the island were the fourth and the 627th respectively. It seems that you counted everyone who participated in this trial and calculated that I was the last one to log in. Island." While Henry was speaking, his arm was the same, a poisoned sharp arrow was easily caught in his hand. The arrow of the sharp arrow was less than two centimeters away from Henry's eyes.

While on the deck, Henry observed Han Wenren and Tanghao while also paying attention to everyone who landed on the island. He even remembered the characteristics of most people, including the order of the island.

"It seems that you are very confident in yourself?"

Although the speaker did not show anything, but he was a little shocked in his heart. He chose the best opportunity to attack with this arrow, but he was easily caught by the other party, and he clearly said himself The numbers on the island!

As a person who has counted all the number of trials, this person knows how important such statistics are, and how terrifying a person who can clearly record each number is absolutely a monster-level existence!

"You are already scared. How confident is my self-confidence?" Henry smiled slightly and then waved his arm. The sharp arrow caught by his hand suddenly flew into the thick fog.

Chapter 1024: Irony

Henry changed his face and participated in the devil trial this time, not to kill, but to protect the people, but if someone really provoked him, Henry's character would naturally not do nothing.

Henry has never been soft on enemies since he embarked on this path until now.

The arrow cut through the thick fog and went straight in one direction, which was a little faster than when it came.

The person hiding in the thick fog only heard a "swoosh" sound, and the poisoned sharp arrow appeared in front of his eyes. The man's expression changed and he wanted to dodge, but it was too late. The sharp arrow came from his eyebrows. Through, leaving a trail of blood, and this person fell straight to the ground.

From beginning to end, this person didn't see Henry's appearance, and Henry didn't see him clearly either, so he took his life.

Now Henry, I don't know how many grades he is stronger than he half a year ago. Not to mention that the person who came to participate in the trial this time was himself half a year ago. Henry is also confident and killed.

Henry still remembers the man who flew himself with one finger on Guangming Island.

"I don't know who I am now with him, who will be stronger."

Henry murmured, and continued to walk deep into the valley.

At the end of the valley, Han Wenrou and all the other members of the Blade have walked out of the valley. This time, a total of eight people came to participate in the Devil's trial. It can be seen that this kilometer, they don't seem to be easy. Everyone, or more All of them were hung up. The back of a sharp-edged player was opened with a bloody mouth and tied with a circle of gauze to barely stop the bleeding. This was just such a wound on the island, which undoubtedly left him. The next three months are hard to spend.

On the deck, when Han Wenrou and others were distributing supplies, it was not Henry who saw it.

If it is within the system, the actions of Han Wenrou and others will definitely not pick any flaws. They are well-organized and considerate, but in the underground world, Han Genou's approach is rookie. A bunch.

Such a group of rookies will naturally be targeted by people. The valley is obviously a good place to ambush. The short distance of one kilometer has caused the Eight Blades to be ambushed twice. Although the battle comes and goes quickly, but every time Extraordinarily dangerous, after all, no one will be merciless here, the purpose of the attackers is only one, that is to kill the people in front of them.

After walking out of the valley, a fork was placed in front of Han Wenrou and others for their choice.

This is a three-way junction, straight ahead, on both sides is still a cliff, still a valley with no end in sight, and on the left hand side of the road, is a dense jungle, in the mist, hazy, quite tropical The feeling of the rain forest. As for the right side of the fork, this is a flat plain. The dense fog is filled, and I can't see what is above.

A simple three-way intersection makes it difficult to choose. Whether it is a plain, rainforest, or valley, it will expose everyone to varying degrees of danger. This kind of danger.

The seven sharp blade players all focused on Han Wenrou.

The sharp blade came this time, a total of seven men and a woman, as the only female Han Wenrou, played the role of captain.

"Han team, which one do we choose?"

Han Wenrou scanned the three forks separately, revealing a pensive look. "Let's analyze it."

"I think the rain forest will be better." One voice said, "I observe on the boat Those who came to participate in the trial this time have to say that their personal strengths are indeed top-level, but they have not been systematically trained, and they have more than one difference in their ability to detect and counter reconnaissance. In the rain forest, we can make better use of our advantages."

"Don't think about the valley." Another said, "We have a large number of people and a larger target. In the terrain of the valley, it is difficult to take full account of the ambush. By the way, even if the example just happened, the people who ambushed us are not as good as us in terms of overall strength, but they still made us so embarrassed."

"The plain on the right can also be considered. The wide terrain is more suitable for a large-scale battle. as an advantage. " "

I think the plain to the right a little better, this island is too big fog, visibility is very low, which in the rainforest, our advantage is limited. " "

I think the right ..... " seven sharp knife The players all expressed their opinions, but the final decision is still in the hands of Han Wenrou. After all, this trip, Han Wenrou is the captain.

Han Wenrou quickly analyzed the pros and cons, then reached out to the right, and just wanted to make a decision, he heard a voice and rang behind them.

"Oh, oh, it's not that I said that your rookies are also Yanxia people. I really feel embarrassed for you." Henry hugged his hands behind his head and walked around, "If I'm right, you are the sharp edged people. Well, the people below this official are training every day to break their brains and don't understand the flexibility."

Henry's words naturally attracted a burst of angry eyes.

Henry waved his hand, "Don't you all look at me like this, if you are not all Yanxia people, I'm too lazy to remind you, you said, you want to choose the path on the right, this is not a brain bubble?"

Two consecutive times Being educated by Henry, a bladed player refused to accept and said: "You don't pretend to pretend to me there, we ourselves know where our strengths are."

"Your strengths?" Henry smiled, "What you want to say is nothing more There are many people on my side, the plains are wide, and it is more suitable for you to fight, right?"

"Nature." A bladed player admitted unabashedly.

"It's really short-sighted to the extreme." Henry pouted, "Look at what you look like now, one by one is seriously painted, I think you, the medicines on you are also limited?"

"What do you want to say?"

"I see All of you, the wilderness survival training, have practiced on dogs!" Henry said ironically, "You have been ignoring even the most important things after entering the island for so long. , Your instructor did not tell you, on this island, the biggest danger is not the enemy, but nature? The cold ice around the stone walls shows that the temperature difference between day and night is extremely large. You are injured like this, and you choose an empty plain. I am afraid that it will not take two days before this product can't get up on the ground?"

Henryshen pointed at the bladed player with gauze on his back.

Eight people from Han Wenrou listened to their hearts and were shocked. Without Henry's reminders, they really ignored this problem. They entered the island at a distance of only one kilometer and made them face two attacks. How to fight against the enemy!

Chapter 1025 Crisis Everywhere

It is a very dangerous act to survive in the wild and ignore the risks of landforms!

Henry continued: "You have a large number of people and you have a professional team. Rainforest is definitely your best choice. On this island, the most abundant place is the rainforest. Your expertise should be able to make you identify the basic wild plants? Including herbal medicine, this excellent advantage is not used, but I am thinking about how to fight with people. I don't know whether to say you are fool or stupid."

Henry sneered.

The eight sharp-edged people all showed a thoughtful look, and they also realized that what the person said in front of them made a lot of sense.

Henry put his hands in his trouser pockets, shook his head, and sighed, "You guys, it's a rookie to the extreme. Seriously, coming to this trial is nothing more than the act of finding death."

Speaking of which, Henry Pointing his finger at his head, "Use more of your head, I think you can live better, otherwise, find a chance to mow yourself, so that it will be less tortured."

Henry said this, shaking, moving towards the third Walking right in front of the fork, there was the valley.

"What's your name?" A sharp blade player suddenly shouted Henry.

"Me?" Henry suddenly stopped, revealing a look of thought, and then said, "On this island, you can call me ... the master." The word master came out, a strong confidence, from Henry spread out.

Everyone was surprised, and of course they understood what it meant to dominate these two words.

"You are very confident and arrogant." A sharp-edged player looked at Henry. "Although I am very upset with your arrogance, this time, I still want to thank you more."

Henry did not speak, striding away.

In the dense shrub rain forest, Tang Hao is observing the vegetation in front of him, and remembers it in his mind. He has lived in purgatory for more than a year. Tang Hao has nothing to do every day. He likes to see some creatures left by the ancestors. It can be considered that he passively accepted the common sense of many herbs, and he also has a greater awareness of some plants growing in the rainforest.

As a person who has lived in purgatory for so long, Tang Hao is very clear about how important food and water are. The materials that are randomly placed only once in the half-month of Guangming Island cannot put hope on it. On the island, the first thing to solve is how to live! No matter what you do, living is the most important thing.

As far as Tang Hao's strength is concerned, as long as he is careful enough and cautious enough, he can definitely crush everyone on this island.

Just as Tang Hao was about to stuff a wild mushroom into his backpack, a cry of exclamation rang in Tang Hao's ear.

"Help!" It was a female voice, full of panic, and came from Tang Hao not far away.

Tang Hao frowned, and subconsciously walked towards the place where the voice came. Without two steps, Tang Hao saw a young woman with short hair who was only about twenty years old under a tree. Charming, but panic-stricken.

Tang Hao took a few steps forward, and the strength of Yuqijing made him clearly see that there was a slight wound on the woman's calf exposed in the air. The study of biological information last year, let Tang Hao take a look I recognized that the wound on the woman's leg came from a viper!

At the same time, the woman also saw Tang Hao, and immediately issued a cry for help, "Brother, help me, please, I don't want to die!" A line of tears ran down from the corner of the woman's eyes, and there was a trace of trembling in the woman's voice, that pear flower With the appearance of rain, Tang Hao couldn't help but feel a heart of mourning.

"Wait a minute, I just picked some detoxifying herbs." Tang Hao pulled out a handful of green grass from his backpack. This is ghost needle grass, which grows in most areas and has a variety of effects. After the herbs were chewed in his mouth, Tang Hao stepped forward and applied it carefully to the wound on the woman's calf.

When Tang Hao bent down and focused on the woman's calf, the fear in the woman's eyes disappeared instantly, and a fierceness appeared. A sharp edge appeared from the tip of her tongue. This was a blade hidden under her tongue.

Just as the woman was about to start, she saw Tang Hao suddenly raise her head. This scene made the woman quickly hide the blade back in her mouth, and moved very quickly.

"Who!" Tang Hao did not look at the woman, but looked behind him and shouted.

While Tang Hao screamed, a figure flew towards Tang Hao at a very fast speed.

Tang Hao was not afraid, and shot with his backhand.

In terms of strength, Tang Hao is a full-size king in this devil's trial. The rest of them are just out of Xinshou Village. It is impossible to pose any threat to Tang Hao from the front.

The palm shot by Tang Hao's forehand directly knocked out the attacker and flew out, breaking a big tree before stopping.

At this time, Tang Hao and the woman also clearly saw the appearance of the sneak attack. This look made the pupil of the young woman shrink suddenly. This person has an impression. Among the thousands of people who came to participate in the trial, the strength of this person It can definitely be ranked in the top one hundred, and it is also well-known in the underground world, but now, it is so easy to be hit by people!

The woman's heart that was planning to attack Tang Hao to snatch supplies was immediately taken back. She was sure that she was the first to die in front of this master!

Tang Hao snorted, picked up a branch, and flicked his wrist. The branch was like a bullet that penetrated the head of the sneak attacker.

Tang Hao remembered that this man belonged to the island with light weapons and had no supplies on his body.

As for weapons, Tang Hao does not need it, his anger is the best weapon.

"Okay, you are bitten by a poisonous snake, it is best not to move, it will speed up the spread of toxins in your body." Tang Hao put the medicine on the woman, stood up, ready to leave.

"That..." The woman stopped Tang Hao, staring pitifully at Tang Hao with big eyes, "Brother, thank you for saving me, can you tell me your name?"

"My name is..."

Tang Hao just prepared Speaking, the woman suddenly jumped from the ground and rushed towards herself.

Tang Hao gathered his qi almost subconsciously.

"Be careful!" The woman exclaimed and threw herself in front of Tang Hao.

Tang Hao watched as a viper emerged from the branch and bite on the woman's neck. If the woman suddenly stood in front of her, the target of the viper was herself.

The woman yanked off the poisonous snake on her back, and her white neck showed shocking bite marks.

"Stupid!" Tang Hao yelled, the viper would not cause any harm to her, but for this woman, it was fatal.

Chapter 1026

The woman's complexion began to pale almost at the speed visible to the naked eye, and her body was planted forward uncontrollably.

Tang Hao quickly helped the woman, and then panicked the ghost needle grass out of the bag, chewed and applied the woman to the wound.

"You don't worry, you will never be okay." Tang Hao held the woman in her arms with a princess hug. After glancing left and right, she chose a direction and strode away.

Tang Hao did not see that the poisonous snake that bit the woman, under the gesture of the woman, slowly climbed back to the tree like a well-behaved child.

On the right side of Sancha Road, on the wide plain.

Zu Xian gasped, and beside him, four dead men wearing grimace masks were lying down.

The remaining dozen people were all exhausted.

In front of Zu Xian, there were no less than thirty people around, all looking at Zu Xian with a smug look.

"It turns out that the legendary hellwalker is just so-so."

"Weak and weak, claiming to have climbed out of hell. In my opinion, it is a group of weak chickens, hahaha!"

"This hell king, more It's a good reputation. It looks like, when the King's World War I was defeated, you have already abandoned it, just hide it very well."

These people who surrounded Zu Xian, when they spoke, all carried a kind of non-excited excitement! To kill the hell king, for them, it was something that they didn't dare to think about before, but now it seems that this is entirely possible!

"Brothers, stop talking to him and kill him!"

"Kill!"

More than thirty masters from the underground world, Qi Qi rushed towards Zu Xian.

The deceased who were cultivated by these dozen ancestors in a hurry are simply not opponents of these underground powerhouses. In a few photos, they were all beheaded.

At first, these people in the underground world were afraid of Hellwalker and dared not to show their cards. When they found out that these Hellwalkers were just a group of roosters, they all became fierce.

In less than ten seconds, all the dead people around Zu Xian had been killed, leaving Zu Xian only in the encircling circle.

Looking at what was happening in front of him, Zu Xian was a little unacceptable. The deceased who had spent a lot of money on his own training was solved so easily!

"Giggle, it looks like you need help." A light laughter sounded in the thick fog, and Ningzhou's figure emerged from the thick fog. "I have to say, you hell king, there is really no sense of existence. These come The people who killed you were all vowed to be loyal to Guangming Island, but at this moment they shot you. If no one arranged, do you think they have the courage to test the depth of the hell king?"

"What do you mean?" Zu Xian A big gasp.

"It's very simple." Ning Zhou's face looked relaxed. "Someone on Guangming Island didn't want you to sit in this position to get rid of you. Giggles, if it wasn't instructed by someone behind them, these people, seeing the hell king, since When you kneel down and say hello, who dares to do it? You are always just a puppet that has been raised up, not only the old king treats you as a dog, even the other kings of Guangming Island also treat you as a dog!"

"Oh, this beauty I can see the situation clearly." A man who besieged Zu Xian said, "However, if you see clearly, why does this person sit on the seat of the bright island? That is the supreme right of the underground world, even if Guangming Island wants to re-elect the Holy King, and also chooses from the owner of the King Ring, just him? The Holy Ring is worn on his hand, he is not worthy!"

"Slain him, go back to receive the reward."

"Kill!"

Everyone came with a knife.

"Kill someone in front of me, you, are not qualified!" Ning Zhou Jiao drank, and immediately followed by a loud noise.

Before Zu Xian responded, he felt a gust of wind hitting him. When he saw clearly, he sent himself to be rushed all the way by Ningzhou.

"You..." Zu Xian opened his mouth.

"Less nonsense!" Ningzhou shouted. "I really don't understand if you have a problem with your brain. You don't have any strength. You always want to prove yourself. Why do you rely on this island? Safeguard you?"

Ning Zhou said, pulling two tear gas bullets from his body and throwing them behind him, blocking those who came after him.

"I can protect you, only this time, it is impossible to keep you, you can do it yourself!" Ningzhou put down Zu Xian and said coldly, "If you can't grow, you are not worthy to cooperate with us. "

Zu Xian looked at the woman in front of her and listened to what she said with a stunned expression.

What Ningzhou said now is exactly the same as Zhou Ning told him when he was in the Western restaurant that day.

"I have waited for you for several years, and I can't wait any longer. I will make better choices, and you will still be a front desk without any fuss!"

Zu Xian shook his head and muttered, "No, I it's not that I don't have a good time. I've been working hard. I don't just want to be a front desk!"

Ningzhou frowned. "Your brain is broken? What is the front desk not at the front desk? I'm sick!"

Not far behind Zu Xian, The more than thirty people who besieged Zu Xian did not go deep.

"Okay, the adults have taken the people away. Next, we only need to cooperate with the adults to act."

"Hehe." One sneered, and took off the ghost mask from Zu Xian's corpses. Dai Hao uttered a low voice, "The underground forces are finished. Next, it is time to play the hellwalker."

This is the first day of entering the trial island, thousands of people flooded the island, almost one-tenth People, on this day, completely left on the island, their bodies, flesh and blood, will become fertilizer in the soil.

"Captain, it is indeed rich in resources. We have found a lot of edible wild mushrooms. With the ingredients we carry, there should be no problems before the materials are delivered. During this time, we can slowly explore the terrain here. , Try to get as many supplies as possible."

"The herbs are also collected a lot, and the general knife wounds can be cured. I found a downwind, suitable for rest at night, and can build a foundation* for cold protection." said a blade player. : "The main purpose of this trial is to survive. We have more people than the rest. As long as we are not caught in a siege, we will definitely pass the trial."

"I don't think it's that simple." Han Wenrou He shook his head and analyzed, "I just looked at the treetops. The area of this rainforest is very large. It is no exaggeration to say that thousands of us, even if relying on this rainforest alone, can get three. After this month, under such conditions, it is impossible for the trials on this island to maintain such a high mortality rate at all times. This trial will definitely not be the only one!"

Chapter 1027: Change Now

Han Wenrou's remark, let the seven bladed players all have a trace of dignity on their faces.

In fact, they have also thought about the rules of this trial. The rules given by Guangming Island are too simple to simply live on? There are many ways to survive, even sitting on the island to catch fish, you can live!

What is the most terrifying part of this trial?

When night falls, on this island, you can see the starry sky.

Han Wenruo shrunk in a sleeping bag. The great temperature difference between day and night would make people feel very uncomfortable. Once sick here, the common cold is okay, but if you have a fever, it can be life-threatening.

This time the trial left everyone with no idea, because what the trial rules say is too general.

In life, how many crises are hidden in the simple three words?

If it is a task assigned to everyone, a certain condition is met, they still have a goal to go forward, but now, everyone is at a loss in their hearts, waiting for possible changes at any time, this is for everyone. That said, it is all suffering, not only the body will be tortured on this island, but more seriously, it is mentally.

Over the night, the early morning sun rose, and almost everyone on the island had red eyes. He didn't sleep well last night.

The same is true for members of the Blade, even though the division of labor is clear, some people are on the night, but the inner suffering makes them unable to sleep peacefully.

In a cave, Tang Hao carefully helped the woman with short hair to replace the herbs on the neck. The wound on the woman's neck still appeared black, but the dangerous period had passed.

"Relax, you hurt me to save me. I promise that no one can hurt you!" Tang Hao solemnly addressed the woman in front of him.

Zu Xian fled on a vast expanse of plains. Behind Zu Xian, three figures wearing grimace masks followed quickly, with their strength, they could catch up with Zu Xian in minutes, but not so. do.

Zu Xian also knows that these people do not rush to kill themselves, what they want to do more is to humiliate themselves! As their walkers, humiliate yourself as the King of Bright Island!

"You are on the island, you want us to kneel everywhere, now give you a chance to kneel down, we can consider whether to spare you a life." A voice came from behind Zu Xian.

"Do you really think you are the king of the island? Come to participate in the devil trial, you are just a dog, a stray dog!"

"On our bright island, we only respect the strong, not the waste, people like you, light it's a shame for Guangming Island to stay on the island!"

"I really don't understand, this Guangming Island was put together by the old king. Why did it go to your trash, but it doesn't matter. Well, even if you sit at the highest position, we all know that you are just a puppet. It may be that the old king sees you pitifully and gives you alms." The surviving Zu Xian suddenly stopped. Turned around and yelled, "No! Not a charity! I am not a puppet, no! I will prove to you that I am qualified to take the position of this island owner !" "Qualification? Wait for your next life!" Leng hummed, and suddenly ran into trouble, quickly rushed in front of Zu Xian, a sharp blade in his hand, also stab at Zu Xian's heart.

"Ah!" Zu Xian roared with a twisted face, and did not dodge, but pulled out a hidden dagger from his waist, and also stab at the other party.

"Tick!" The blood dripped to the ground and soon dried up. Zu Xian gasped for breath. His face was pale, and beside him, three figures wearing black masks fell down. Everyone had a neck A shocking scar.

Dou Da's sweat beads slipped along Zu Xian's face, Zu Xian's back was completely wet with sweat, just now, as if he had seen the gate of hell open to himself.

A sharp blade that originally pierced Zu Xian's heart penetrated Zu Xian's shoulder.

"I already said, you are here, there is no self-protection at all." Ningzhou stood aside, the wounds that fell on the necks of three people were all caused by Ningzhou.

"Then what should I do, what can I do, you say!" Zu Xian shouted, the kind of despair in the Loulan desert, once again came to my heart, here, anyone can bully himself, can Random insults, like playing prey, running around chasing themselves, when they get tired, they will wave a butcher knife to themselves, and they can survive, all relying on the alms of the woman in front of them, or rather, relying on her mercy.

"I said?" There was a disdainful smile on the corner of Ningzhou's mouth. "What I should have said, I have already told you, but you haven't made a choice. I understand your feelings for the old king. You are like reinventing, but now, this feeling cannot save your life. Someone wants to kill you. Will you choose to die because of this feeling? You died here, and your grave will not even appear in In this world, your body will become the nutrients of this island. At that time, you are really not even as good as garbage. Other people will turn it over to see if there is anything that can be used. , Will become the most common thing here."

Ningzhou took two steps and looked at Zu Xian directly, "Even if you don't care about these, then after you die, you will soon see the one you killed by hand. Woman, she will continue to laugh at you, don't you think you have the whole world, why did you come down to accompany me so quickly? You are a trash, you are always a trash!"

Zu Xian looked at this woman in front of her, in a trance, Zhou Ning seemed to be Standing in front of him again.

Ningzhou pointed his finger at Zu Xian's nose. "You are a puppet. I left Zhou Ning when I did nothing wrong. I know I am going to be a junior, but even a junior is better than being with you. I was pregnant with someone else's child, I chose not to kill you, because you, even the one who raised him, are not worthy! You are a waste, a complete waste!"

"Aren't you farting!" Zu Xian gave a slap Pumped on Ningzhou's face, "I'm not a puppet! I'm not a waste! They want to kill me, but I'm not dead, I'm still alive, I have value, I have value that can be used, I can use these , Destroy all those who look down on me, I will tell them that my ancestors are the most important, I will be the protagonist of this world, even if there is no island, I can still!"

"Ha ha ha, ha ha ha ha!" Ning The state suddenly smiled. Zu Xian's slap didn't make her angry. "Okay, since you want to understand this, then change it from now on. Say, on this island, who do you want to kill?"

Zu Xian gritted his teeth and squeezed his fists tightly, "All of Guangming Island, kill it!"

Chapter 1028: Chasing Game

More than ten days passed in a flash. At first, everyone who came to participate in the trial will also calculate the day of the day. But when the day passes by day, no one will calculate this thing. By the way, there are deaths happening every day, and dangers appear every day. Time is no longer within the consideration of everyone.

In a rainforest, the sharp blades cleaned up the corpses in front of them. These are some hungry people, who have taken a fancy to the food they picked and want to take a slice of the soup.

"Captain, we can't stay here all the time. Now many people are paying attention to this rainforest. Not everyone has the ability to distinguish herbs. They will choose to grab it. This is the first one we have encountered today. Three batches."

"Yeah." Han Wenrou put some herbs on his arm and looked up to the sky. "With the passage of time, all the materials brought in by everyone have been used up, what they can do , Only grab."

"Captain anyway, this place can't stay anymore. I was escaped yesterday by one person. Our news has been leaked out. The three groups of people who came today are all assembled temporarily and prepared. Next, the number of enemies we face may be more."

Han Wen nodded softly, wrapped a gauze around the herbs, moved his arm, and still felt a tear-like pain. The people who practice are not weak, and the battle they face is not easy at all.

"Let's go, it's time to change places." Han Wenrou picked up a backpack, just as he was about to leave, his face changed, and his steps quickly backed away.

A sharp arrow ran across Han Wenrou's face and stuck on the trunk beside Han Wenrou.

"Oh, it's good, it's been so many days, and it can still maintain this high concentration." A voice sounded from the jungle not far away.

At the moment when he heard this voice, Han Wenrou and others immediately heard the master of the voice.

"It's you!"

Henry jumped from a tree trunk. He carried a bow and arrow behind him, proving that the sharp arrow that had just struck Han Genrous came from his hand.

Henry's eyes glanced around the backpacks of Han Wenrou and others, "Yes, your professional knowledge is really not learned, these herbs and wild foods, you should waste a lot of effort to collect it, really I am very happy."

Han Wenrou stared at Henry and said: "Friend, we are very grateful for your previous proposal. In order to express our gratitude, we can give you some of these things, but the number is limited, you should know, Here, what these things represent."

"Of course I understand." Henry shrugged. "There are three days before the goods are delivered from Guangming Island, and no one knows where and how much will be delivered, so These three days will be difficult to spend. I happen to have a large amount of food. I need all of your supplies."

"Crazy!" A sharp blade member shouted, "You claim to be the master, you can really dominate This island? You only have one person. Why should we take things away from our hands?"

"With this!" Henry raised no more nonsense, directly raised the wooden bow in his hand, pulled the string, and shot the arrow.

The sharp arrow flew forward and took the head of a sharp blade player straight away. The sharp blade player avoided the arrow.

"Kill!" The sharp blade player just wanted to fight back, but he disappeared from Henry.

"Don't be impulsive!" Han Wenrou quickly reached out and stopped a group of players who were going to chase out, "He is not a fool, if he dares to come alone, he has his confidence, we must not be led by his nose, ignore him, Let's evacuate here first."

Several of the Blade players looked at each other, and they all saw the unwillingness in the opponent's eyes, but also understood that it is too dangerous to chase it out now.

Henry hiding behind a tree trunk clearly heard Han Wenrou's decision, which made him shook his head helplessly.

Han Wenrou, she still has too little experience. She has not yet realized the cruelty of this trial. She also has some fantasies about the so-called airdrop materials, thinking that their current food is enough to support the airdrop. What would happen if I didn't grab it, and what was the airdrop said by Guangming Island? Is it really food?

Henry still has a fresh memory. When he participated in this trial himself, the trial organizer at that time was still the Wang Hui. The airdropped things of the Wang Hui did not have food, but only some seasonings and a butcher knife.

In the end, the person who robbed the airdrop, waved the butcher knife to the person beside him, and those seasonings were also sprinkled on the same kind of body.

The greatest fear of a person comes from the unknown. When a person is living in the sandwich between life and death, it will easily become collapsed, some people will be crazy in this collapse, and some people will be completely released The devil in the heart.

Henry stared at the back of Han Wenrou left and muttered: "Your goal is to make yourself stronger. Since you chose this path, I respect your choice. From now on, I will let you understand what is called real. The devil's trial, the journey of Xinshou Village, should begin now, it should be over."

Henry raised his bow again, aimed at Han Genrou's back, and then, loosened the string.

With a burst of wind breaking sound, a sharp arrow pierced Han Wenrou behind him.

Han Wenrou, who was still moving forward, felt the crisis at a critical moment. His body was almost subconsciously dodge. The sharp arrow rubbed her shoulder and brought a flesh and blood.

"Don't blame me." Henry raised his bow again. "I just didn't want you, died three days later."

Another arrow came out of Henry's hand. The member of the blade attacked just now was prevented this time. Let this sharp arrow succeed.

"Quick, that man is catching up. We have a big goal and are not suitable to fight with him here. He has long-range weapons. We try to choose places with dense trunks and find opportunities to kill him!" Han Wenrou quickly made an analysis.

It was too late to dress up for Han gently, and all of these bladed players accelerated their pace, frantically shuttled through the jungle.

They want to get rid of Henry, but Henry who insists on chasing, how can they get rid of.

One arrow after another flew from the rear, and another blade player hung up after failing to dodge.

The chase of the jungle has begun.

"Damn, how can he still have an arrow!" After an hour, several Blades players were exhausted. This jungle environment requires a lot of physical energy to run, plus the sharp arrows shot from behind from time to time. To make them costly.

"Can't run!" Han Wenrou stopped suddenly. "We are all running in one direction. This gives him the opportunity. This wooden arrow is different from the disposable consumables like bullets. He can use it repeatedly. If we go on like this, we will be completely tortured by him!"

Chapter 1029 Growth

"Korean team, what should we do next?"

"Fight with him?"

"Not in a hurry." Han Wen shook his head softly. "I observed it when I first ran. This range The trees inside are all growing in groups, such as a ring. Now, as long as we dodge around these trees, try to reveal some flaws and consume the arrows on his body. Don't forget that we met on the day of entering the island. Nothing was brought, and in this trial, there were only two people who used bows and arrows. One of them had venom on the arrow. Look at my wound, the wound on it is caused by metal."

Han Wenrou pointed out With a shoulder just scratched by a sharp arrow, "This shows that the arrow he used was not made of wood sticks, but was brought in from the outside, and I ran for more than an hour, and there was no sign of poisoning. Poisonous, metal arrows will increase the weight of the arrows many times. When he first appeared, the bow and arrow in his hand was seventy centimeters long. Even if the weight is reduced as much as possible, to ensure the strength, it will be around eight pounds, and one arrow is counted. Arrow, the weight can reach 50 grams, he can only carry up to 20 arrows, which is not likely to be destroyed, that is to say, we only need one person to escape two arrows and destroy them, he There is no way."

Han Wenrou took a very short time to make an analysis. "Now, spread out!" The eight sharp blade players instantly dispersed.

Henry hiding in the dark, there was a little applause in his eyes.

"Yes, this is indeed a good place to fight back. It seems that you have grown a lot during this time, but the reaction is still a bit slow. There were at least two places before you can make a counterattack. This is a waste of waste. It took a lot of energy." The bladed players dodge around the woods in a circle. Henry didn't know what they were thinking. Eighteen arrows in his hand were shot continuously. The arrows he shot hit the tree trunk and were all taken by the bladed people. Next, destroyed.

After the eighteen arrows were shot, the chase in the jungle fell into silence.

Eight of the Blades hid, and no longer showed up, Henry also hid.

Suddenly, another figure flashed.

Henry raised his bow at this moment, and a sharp arrow flew out, hitting the target, and the result was only a jacket.

"Yes." Henry gave a thumbs-up, and then shouted, "Several, although you responded a little slower, it's not bad. I'm tired. Let's play after a rest."

Henry finished, hiding in the jungle. As soon as he left his forefoot, two sharp blade players felt where he was when he had just spoken.

"Run!"

"This man has a strong sense of anti-reconnaissance. He almost changes his position every time he shoots an arrow."

An hour of chasing exhausted all eight Blades players and they chose a dead end. Make rest adjustments.

Han Wenrou whispered: "This person is mysterious, and observing what he just looked like, he seems to be at ease. We can no longer continue to be passive in this way. The environment of this jungle is not suitable for us. He now has no long-range weapons and a wide area. More suitable for us, find a light spot, distinguish the direction, and we walk towards the empty place."

"Understood." The

eight sharp blades changed their rest separately. After an hour, everyone adjusted their status and began to move forward.

Just a few steps away, Han Wenrou changed his face, "Be careful, that man, here again!"

A mountainside halfway up a cliff.

Tang Hao stood here side by side with a woman with short hair, and the fog was still in front of her eyes.

"How long have we been here?" The woman stood behind Tang Hao, still weak.

"Counting today, on the twelfth day, I occasionally saw someone appearing. There have been almost no one here in the past two days. It seems that everyone is running into the island, and we have to speed up the progress and eat. The thing is gone, and you won't be able to carry it in this way." Tang Hao turned around and looked at the woman with short hair, a distressed look on her face.

The short-haired woman shook her head, "You don't need to take mine, with your strength, you can run on this island and take me, but it is an extra burden."

"Of course I want to take you." Tang Haoshen Take a breath, "This trial, you just need to hide behind me."

"Well." The woman nodded slightly, stepped forward, put her arms around Tang Hao's waist, and a pretty face posted On Tang Hao's back, he said softly, "Brother, thank you. Without you, I might have died more than a dozen days ago."

Tang Hao's body obviously shivered. He took a deep breath and let the woman take a deep breath. Embracing himself, he said softly: "Relax, you will be fine with me." On the vast plain, Zu Xian pulled out a bloody blade with his own hands.

Lying on the ground is a figure wearing a grimace mask, which has become a corpse.

"This is the twelfth." Zu looked away indifferently and looked up at the sky, under the blazing sun, it made people feel particularly sultry.

"You can rest assured." Ningzhou stood aside. "None of the people of Bright Island can live this time. After completing this trial, even those outside, you can kill at any time if you want to kill."

"Outside Let me put them for a while, I still need the springboard of Guangming Island." Zu Xian clapped his hands. "When I don't need it anymore, those people can't live anymore."

"It's up to you." Ningzhou Shaking his shoulders indifferently, "Anyway, as long as you finish what I told you, the conditions are up to you."

Zu Xian looked at Ningzhou with a strong greedy look in his eyes, "If, I say I want How about you?"

"Giggle." Ningzhou covered his mouth and smiled. "I told you a long time ago. If you like, I can be yours at any time."

Zu Xian sticks out his tongue, licks his lips, and reaches for his hand Ningzhou's thin waist embraced, "I want you now."

"Hate!" Ningzhou snorted, symbolically shoving Zu Xian a few times, and then let Zu Xian hold, "Why are you so monkey?" Anxiety

, why not wait out the island, let's find a place and chat again." "No, I said now, now." Zu Xian showed a hint of madness in his eyes, hugged Ningzhou in place, and then Placed on the ground, beside the two, the corpse was still bleeding.

For three days, it is not easy for people on the island.

With the passage of time, everyone's supplies have been scarce. Everyone can say that they meet and start fighting. They want to find a little food and water from each other. This is entirely based on human instincts, or biological survival instincts!

At this moment, there is no difference between humans and animals.

Chapter 1030: The Airdrop Is Here

"Korean team, this person is a dog skin plaster, can't get rid of it!"

"He has such a big experience, from day to night, he has not attacked us regularly. . "

"He just wanted to kill us!"

"Our food has been exhausted, and in this case, it is difficult to obtain supplies."

"He is a madman, these three days, it seems more than ten days before. It will be a long time!" In the dark, several Blade players sat together and looked at the empty backpack, feeling extremely anxious.

In three days, the people had left the rainforest and leaned on a cliff. The view here was more open, and for them, it was more conducive to fighting.

"This person is very weird. He even knows our way forward and will ambush us in advance."

"He has used almost everything he can use. I still suspect that there is something in the end that cannot be. He was used as a weapon!"

"This man is terrifying. He seems to be the master of this island. I don't even know when he ran in front of us and set a trap in front of us!"

"He just Pay more attention to details than we do." Han Wenrou said in a deep voice: "This person will use everything that can be used, including the temperature, wind direction, and even the sunlight intensity at each different time point to come up with the most suitable for this time. Attack, don't forget, how many times, he clearly appeared in front of us. Using the backlight, we didn't find him. The real strength of this person is unclear, but his means are far beyond ours, or, He knows too much about this kind of combat methods in the wild. Anything can be used by him. This experience is precisely what we lack. So, while attacking us, he is also an opportunity for us to learn. I hope, He just kept going."

For three days, Henry almost never stopped to harass them, by any means, day, night, using the geographical environment, climate, sunlight intensity, but everything that can be used, Henry used it all over.

At the beginning, Han Wenrou and others were completely led by Henry. Until now, the alertness in everyone's heart has increased by more than one point, and the level of caution has also far exceeded that of before.

Under the moonlight, Henry lay on a large branch and closed his eyes.

"These three days are enough to make up for your past ten days of laziness. From tomorrow on, a new round of fighting will come. So far, I hope to live. Tang Hao's side, don't need to go for the time being. Guan, Xian Xian, can't die, but some other people have to clean it up. This trial is really troublesome. The people of the God Hidden Society, the people who returned to the ancestral alliance..."

Henry called yawn.

"Take a good night's sleep first tonight."

Half a month of trial life has worn the people on the island extremely tired.

In the early morning, the noise from several helicopters awakened those who were still asleep.

"Materials! Captain, materials are here!" The Blades pointed to the helicopter in the sky.

Tang Hao glanced sleep beside the woman looked up at the sky, "Come supplies yet, there will be a lot of people fighting ah, but do not worry, there is, there must be a part of me." "Come Materials!" Zu Xian's lips cracked and sat on the ground.

Ningzhou's disheveled clothes were lying on Zu Xian's back and said lazily: "Do you want to grab it?"

"I need you to build momentum for me." Zu Xian sticks out his tongue and licks his chapped lips, "This Materials, I have to!" The helicopter has been circling back and forth over the island, and the noise caused by the propellers has sounded over and over again, so that everyone on the island can hear clearly. Everyone knows that the materials are coming.

At this moment, no matter what people are doing on the island, they are staring closely at the top.

A total of five helicopters hovered over the island for a total of half an hour before slowly lifting off.

Immediately afterwards, the cabin door opened, and at this moment, almost everyone gave a sigh of relief.

Subsequently, a wooden box was pushed out of the cabin. When the wooden box fell, a small parachute opened above the box and the box slowly fell.

In the remaining four helicopters, boxes were also dropped, slowly floating towards the ground.

At this point, someone already had red eyes, reckoned where the box landed, and began to rush.

And those who are close to the landing point are already looking for the best ambush point. Everyone knows that this material cannot be placed in front of you. You can ask for anything you want, and you want to get the material in the box. It's absolutely indispensable because of the bloody storm!

If there is a person on this island who does not care about supplies, it is Henry.

Henry walked leisurely on the island, "Let's solve the return to the ancestral alliance first, these garbage, kill early and good early."

A team of more than ten people are going to the foothold of a material together. It's very easy, it doesn't seem to be very concerned about the crisis on this island.

"Brother, look at you, it's quite leisurely. Is this for a picnic?" Henry stood in front and looked at more than ten people in front of him.

These more than ten people all wore the masks of Hellwalker.

"Who? Dare to stop even our road to Bright Island?" Henry, who walked in the front, spoke.

"Everyone, IMHO." Henry said with a smile, "Hellwalker doesn't talk like you, you have a bit of a play."

"Oh? Interesting, then tell me, hellwalker, what should I say?" The man in front asked.

Henry shook his head slightly, "Hellwalker doesn't speak, either kills, or doesn't kill. Which of these two options do you choose?"

"Then ask about trouble, what will hellwalkers generally stand in front of hellwalkers?" The choice?" The leader asked again.

"It must be killing slightly." Henry shrugged, "Well, after all hell Walker, not to kill, how scary, but you choose how you want to throwback Union, I can say bad."

Throwback League three As soon as the word came out, all these dozen people were surprised.

After a few seconds of silence, the leader said: "I know who you are."

"Some hindsight." Henry stretched out, "Speak, tell me, how do you want to choose."

"Since we Walker loaded into hell, and that the choice made, naturally, with Walker as hell, and hell, the old king, I heard you the strong suppression of the three clans do not know if this really powerful. " dozen wearing a grimace The members of the mask's ancestral alliance, almost at the same time, bowed their waists, and their movements were like the beasts about to prey.

Chapter 1031 Battle

Henry looked at more than ten people in front of him and hummed, "It's interesting, it seems that you people are all guinea pigs? Hui Zu Meng implanted animal genes in you, Has the appearance of your offense all possessed the characteristics of animals?"

"This is called divine." The voice of one of the leaders became hoarse. "Human evolution is not complete. What the Lord has done is to make us become It is more perfect. Before the deification, I never thought that this body can be so powerful."

"God?" Henry sneered. "Can you describe yourself like this? It seems that the brainwashing of the ancestral alliance, or Very successful."

"You will regret what you say now!" The leader gave a roar like a fierce beast, then landed on all fours and rushed to Henry at a very fast speed.

Henry coldly snorted, and a phantom of a tiger condensed behind him, "Come on, let me see how brutal you are, these beasts!" The phantom of the tiger also made a roar and flew at the man in front of him. go with.

On the trial island, the dense fog was blown away. When the helicopter flew away, the interference of the airflow was reduced, and those dense fogs reunited together again.

The falling materials suddenly appeared in the thick fog, and the war was started before the materials landed.

The area where Tang Hao is located is in the valley area. When he walks there, no one is his enemy. The short-haired woman follows Tang Hao without any threat.

How many people took the sword to kill Tang Hao, all of them were blown away by Tang Hao. In terms of force, Tang Hao can be called invincible here.

In the plain area, Zu Xian walked with his hands behind his back to the place where the supplies fell. Many people had surrounded the place, but no one dared to step forward when they saw the holy ring on Zu Xian's hand. next to.

"Come on you, go on! You will starve to death if you don't eat!"

"I want to go on you! Didn't you see how thick the scab on the blade of the king's hand is? With so many supplies, the king will never take it all by himself!" Maybe it's still alive, if you get there, you will die!"

"That's why we're not stupid!" The sound of thieves shattered in the crowd around Zu Xian. Everyone stared greedily at the supplies in front of them, but no one dared to step forward.

The process by which Zu Xian got the supplies was easier than Tang Hao.

Eight sharp blades, originally they had been forced to the edge of the rain forest by Henry, but when they saw a box of supplies falling into the rain forest, they chose to return to the rain forest without hesitation.

During these three days, they fought back and forth with Henry in the rain forest countless times. It can be said that they had accumulated enough experience. During the journey to the foothold, Han Wenrou and others were attacked countless times. The results were all resolved by them in a hurry. They had a large number of people, and those who attacked them were also playing with some yin.

Han Wenrou threw a sharp blade and hit a person hidden in the treetop. This person was hiding in the thick leaves, carrying the sun. When looking at something, people would subconsciously avoid the energy and the sun. It can be said to be foolproof if you look directly at the place you are hiding. Even if someone looks at it, your sight will be affected by Yangguan for the first time, so that people hiding here have the best chance to get out of the phone.

But this time was different. Han Wenrou and others already had experience.

"Oh, these people are still too tender compared to the old yin who dominates." A blade player heartily said.

After resolving an enemy hidden in the dark, a bladed player felt the sentiment. "Seriously, I am a little thankful to the master. If it was not his three-day chase, we may have to plant it today. A big follower."

"Okay, this proves that we have been making progress all the time, and it also shows how weak we were before." Han Wenrou said in a deep voice, "Now we are still about one hundred from the point where the supplies are located. The distance in the morning, the fog in the morning is too thick, the visibility is less than five meters, and the distance of 100 meters, we have to be careful and careful. We can come here at this time. They have only lived in the rain forest during this time. They My experience must be richer than ours. After all, I only knew how to dominate. I knew how comfortable we were in the past ten days or so, and we all got up. I don't want to see you, who died here. " seven bladed players were all absorbed, and the speed of progress was calculated in decimetres per second. Be cautious and cautious.

Understood!" The

Compared to the powerful Tang Hao and the superb ancestral ancestor, Han Wenrou, they want to seize these supplies, but it is not so simple. In the face of food hunger, any competitor can be killed.

Here, no one would be kind-hearted and witness the spray of blood, as if it were the most normal thing.

The first supply of materials is definitely the most tragic battle in this trial. This is the time when the number of people on the trial island is the largest, and it is when everyone has turned their eyes.

The blood stained the rainforest, the plain, and the stone walls.

The winner, with his own materials, withdrew from the battlefield, rejuvenated, and looked for the next goal.

The loser stays here forever.

The package of condiments in the material box is like a black shovel, which can dig out the devil lurking in the heart. The aroma inside it will make people eager to find an ingredient to season these. Sprinkle the product to fill up your own demand, this is the most instinctive thing.

The butcher knife and the few buns placed in the material box are like treasures that lure the devil to appear.

Blood is flowing non-stop, and life is the cheapest thing here. No one cares who is dead or living. The only instinct is survival.

"Everyone, it seems that your so-called deification is not as powerful as you think. What you have added is just animalism. When your body's genes are changed, your nerves will also be affected. Once you drive the body The beast gene, your behavior, will also become like a beast, the combat moves seem to be cruel, but without a little brain, saying that it is awkward, come to a hunter, take a shotgun, and bring a hunting dog, you can kill now You guys."

Henry flicked his lips in disdain, and then took a step, crushing the head of the person in front of him.

Around Henry, the dozen or so people who had returned to the ancestral alliance had all turned into corpses.

Henry turned his head and looked away. "Zu Xian, Zu Xian, I hope you remember what I said. Every decision you make is very important. The pattern is your biggest problem now. Once you can change the pattern Zoom in, your achievements are limitless."

Chapter 1032 Xiao's Ambition

island's material dispute did not last too long, and soon ended.

The battle is cruel, and when they meet, they will never stop. These red-eyed testers choose the simplest and most labor-saving way to take the lives of the people in front of them.

The blood stained the wooden material box.

Although the supplies were looted, the battle did not end so early. Those who had received some water resources and food earlier became the targets of the siege.

Henry came to the edge of the island and sat leisurely on a reef. A sea fish swam quickly. Henry just pointed his finger, and the sea fish was taken out of the sea with a breath of air.

The trial on the island passed quickly.

There are fewer and fewer people on the island.

It was another half a month. When the second airdrop material fell, it was far less intense than the first fight.

The five airdropped materials fell, and many people seemed to have not paid attention to them before this airdrop, but the atmosphere seemed more infiltrating.

If it is said that when the first airdrop fell, everyone looked at each other's eyes, it was an enemy, it was a killing, then when everyone dropped the second airdrop, they looked at each other's eyes as if they were looking at their prey. Eerie, infiltrating.

Everyone subconsciously keeps a safe distance of more than five meters from the rest of them, and stepping into this distance will cause cold hair to burst.

Tang Hao took some supplies back and walked into a cave.

Short hair woman waiting in the cave.

"Brother, you're back. I picked some mushrooms. They are all non-toxic." The short-haired woman's attitude towards Tang Hao is like a wife waiting for her husband to return home.

"Hmm." There was a gentle smile on Tang Hao's face. This month's interdependence, Tang Hao was a bloody age, how could he not react to this beautiful woman.

In front of Zu Xian, a bonfire was lit, Zu Xian looked ruddy, and obviously had a good life.

Han Wenrou built a simple wooden hut with branches on the edge of the island. The wooden hut is framed on the trunk and will not be affected by high tide.

Not far away, the grilled fish on the campfire is today Han's gentle dinner.

A grave bag stands not far away.

Henry shuttled back and forth on this island, staring at everyone's movements, whether it was Han Genrou, Zu Xian, or Tang Hao, all within Henry's control.

"Hey." Henry sighed, "The 50% mortality rate in this trial, of which 10% of the people, died not in the hands of the enemy, but in their own hands, the tranquility after the war It is the easiest to break down. A rubber band is too tight to stretch, but it must be broken. In this environment, life is equivalent to suffering. Novices, this is the second stage, etc. You have survived the third stage. At that time, you are considered to be out of hell. At that time, you will grow to a new level."

Yanxia Yinzhou.

The new year is a year of rapid growth for Lin. With the support of a huge capital chain and the support of multiple top national companies, Lin has undergone earth-shaking changes and has become a hot summer business. The direction of the giants, those large companies that initially looked down on Lin, thought Lin was just bragging about shells, or thought Lin was just an upstart, also felt the crisis.

Lin is also in this new year. Talents are recruited. As far as the past has always been in the eyes of employees, Sylvia, who has the title of working woman, has not appeared in Lin for a long time.

No one knew where Sylvia went, not even Secretary Li Na.

Xidu, Xiao Group.

Since the completion of the research and development of the energy technology of the Xiao Group, the status in Xidu can be said to have taken a leap. The name of Xiaoshan is even more resounding in the Xidu business community.

Just when people thought that Xiaoshan's name would be completely started in the Xidu business community, Xiaoshan suddenly removed the chairman of the Xiao family and gave the chairman of the Xiao family to a young man named Xiao Chen. The executives of the Xiao Group also had a major blood exchange.

Some people speculate that behind the Xiao Group, there is a mysterious consortium supporting it, and now the mysterious consortium completely takes over Xiao.

When this young man named Xiao Chen gradually came into view, another news came out that Xiao Chen would marry the adopted daughter of the former chairman of the Xiao family, Xiao Shan, with an undecided marriage date.

As soon as this news came out, many people noticed that although the marriage date was not decided, it did not affect the other companies to use this as an excuse to show their favor to Xiao.

In the office of Chairman Xiao, two middle-aged men sat on the wide leather sofas and sipped hot tea. One of the two middle-aged men was Xiao Chen's third uncle.

Xiao Chen, who is the chairman of the Xiao family, stood honestly with a teapot in his hand.

"Brother Mu, this time, I still have to rely on you. That surnamed Zhang is really too crazy. I want my three clans to recognize him as the main island of Bright Island. I don't know what it is. At the critical moment of practicing Qi, he must be shot to kill him!" Xiao Chen Sanshu said, "I saw the man for the first time, he didn't understand the gas, even the moves, they were stealing my family's Chen'er, no I thought that in such a short period of time, there was actually the power of metamorphosis. There must be someone behind him!"

"Hehe." Muziyuan smiled slightly, "My shepherd ranks eighth among the clan, even so, among the clan Just walk out a few people, you can easily destroy the kid, the kid is ignorant, the tiger is not in the mountain, the monkey is called king, this time, he must make him pay."

Uncle Xiao Chen nodded, "That Milan, really like As we thought, go to the surnamed Zhang, and the girl of the Su family has already arrived in Xidu. We just need to lay the Tian Luo Di net and wait for the surname Zhang's self-launched net!"

"Hehe." Muziyuan Weiwei A smile, "I just don't know, Brother Xiao, this matter is to win glory for the clan, but our priests can't just be the first bird."

"We found that the surname Zhang's love for his delicate wife, but love No, I actually want to try..." Xiao Chen San uncle sneered, "I really want to try, compared to Lu Yan's real burial place, in the end is his wife's life is important, or that secret Importantly, the man had hidden a lot of things in his tomb at the beginning, elder brother, don't we all belong to the clan and have stood at the top in a certain era, now we must depend on Li ""

Muziyuan heard this, and the hand holding the tea cup shuddered gently.

"Qi is separated from soldiers, even if we hold soldiers, we can't infuse qi into it, and we are restricted everywhere. This is the time to end." Xiao Chen San said again, "We have been exploring for many years, looking for countless old friends. The younger generation learned of the news that there was a way to reintegrate qi and soldiers in that man's tomb!"

Chapter 1033: The Last Round

In the endless sea, the thick fog is filled, and an island is quietly hidden in the thick fog.

On the island, no matter day or night, it is filled with a kind of eerie atmosphere.

It has been two months since the beginning of the trial.

In addition to the fierce fighting in the first half of the month, during the later period, the fighting gradually decreased, everyone lived silently in this island, here, people will gradually become numb, and everything around them will change Indifferent, they don't even think about what to do tomorrow, just looking at the island filled with dense fog, there is no look in their eyes.

Grinding one's will is more terrifying and cruel than grinding one's body. Here, one can only guess the time based on the rising sun and sunset. Some people are still waiting for the end of the trial at the beginning, while some people are huge Under the mental pressure, you will even have the illusion that you are really living in silence.

Han Wenrou saw with his own eyes that one person tied two boulders around his bare feet late at night and then jumped into the deep sea.

The dark and lonely night sky will cause people to have short-sighted ideas, not to mention this island that has no humanity.

Here, most people, except for their own words, have never said a word to others.

After two months of island life, Henry's face was covered with stubble. He rubbed his long-bonded hair and sat on a reef, letting the sea blow, he breathed a sigh of relief. It's time to continue the third round. You can resist the triple suppression of spirits. Even if you rookies graduate, you will graduate.”

round of bright moon rose from the sea.

In the early morning, a dozen helicopters hovered over the island, and the sound of the air flow made by the propeller was heard by everyone on the island.

Compared to when the helicopter first appeared, the testers on the island were very indifferent.

After several times of material supply, everyone has been aware that the most of these airdropped materials are butcher knives and those condiments that can lead out the inner devil. As for real food and fresh water, there is not much at all.

People who can still live with food now have their own ways.

water? Urine and dew, people who have lived on the island for two months, have long been accustomed to these, both men and women.

If you want to live on this island, you have to abandon the so-called dignity.

The emergence of more than a dozen helicopters has not caused so much riots. Powerful people, like Tang Hao, aim at the direction of a helicopter. During the airdrop, he must be his share.

However, this time, the helicopter did not scatter around the island as it did a few times before, but gathered together. Then, everyone saw that a zip line was dropped from the cabin. Then, one after another The silhouettes landed along the zipline. Behind these silhouettes, they carried transparent backpacks. The people on the island could clearly see that in the transparent backpacks behind them, fresh water was contained! It's food! It's roast chicken! It's lamb leg!

The people who were already numb on the island, when they saw these things, their pupils radiated a new luster almost at the same time.

It was as if the person who had been desperate in the darkness suddenly saw the light.

There were many people on and off the helicopter, at least hundreds. When they all landed and gathered together, these helicopters spread out again. When more than a dozen helicopters were scattered around the island, the loudspeakers in the helicopter, At the same time, there was a sound, so that everyone on the island could hear clearly.

"Material exchange is open, all people who need materials can be concentrated in the center of the island, complete the corresponding entrustment, you can exchange for what you want, in the process of exchanging materials, you can not deal with the material exchange personnel."

"Materials The exchange is on..."

The sound in the loudspeaker was rang three times, so that everyone could hear clearly, and more than ten helicopters flew away at the same time.

It was at this moment that those who had been indifferent on the road gathered at the same time towards the center of the island. It was a large mountain with a height of 100 meters. The peak was a huge platform that many people had seen.

Of course, there are also a very few people who are still in place. After a brief rejuvenation, they eat their bark with dull eyes, and they have already been tortured and collapsed by the environment here. , But it is just an instinct to survive, and in their hearts, they have lost hope for life.

At noon, a large number of people had already gathered at the exchange point for supplies.

When they come here, they will see that the platform at the top of the mountain has been completely divided, and weapons, freshwater resources, and food have been completely separated.

If you want to exchange these resources, you must accept the entrusted task.

These entrusted tasks are not fixed, and they rely solely on materials in exchange for people's moods. Some people may look at you and make you make a face, and they will give you what you want, while some people will need you to complete other things. Things, for example, to kill a few people, to kill a few lives.

"Kill the hell king!" In front of a money-changer holding a roast chicken, a strong man's face was particularly ugly.

"Good." There was no change in the changer's look. "You take the head of the hell lord to exchange the things in my hand."

"No way." The strong man turned his head and looked at Zu Xian, who was not far away, and then repeated Wave hands.

A unkempt young woman walked in front of a water exchanger and wanted to take the task to change the water.

"This bottle of water is free for you, but you can't drink it. I need you to use it to wash your face." The freshwater exchanger handed a bucket of two liters of water to the woman.

With little hesitation, the woman opened the bucket and began to clean it.

Soon, a beautiful face appeared in front of the freshwater exchanger.

"I'm done, can you give me water?" the woman asked.

The freshwater exchanger shook his head and nodded again. "I want water, but not now, I need it. You accompany me." The freshwater exchanger said, and began to glance at the woman's body.

"Yes." The woman still did not hesitate and untied the leather armor in front of her.

In this environment, if you can use your body to change a bottle of water, for many people, this is not a price at all, because here, life and dignity are the least valuable.

When the woman threw the upper body's leather armor to the ground, a head rolled to her leather armor.

A person came over, picked up the head on the ground, and walked towards a material changer, "Here is the head, food can be given to me."

The person received the commission to get a head for a white-faced bun. .

Chapter 1034: Inner Fear

Henry also came to the foot of the mountain in the center of the island.

Looking up at the sky, Henry blew away the straw in his mouth and said to himself: "The devil's trial is divided into three stages in total. The first stage is the cruelest to others, but in the whole trial The simplest is nothing more than a kill word."

"And the second stage is to face the endless emptiness, face your own heart, and linger on the edge of mental breakdown."

"As for the third stage, Facing, but fear, when you are all gray, suddenly see all hope, whether your heart can do anything to survive, can you still be so firm, you have eaten the bark for more than a month, After drinking urine for so long, in order to survive, can I even eat my own flesh and blood, can I still be so desperate now?"

Henry leaned on a boulder at the foot of the mountain, a headless body, fell from above, just Falling in front of Henry, blood spattered and became a mortar.

"To survive in the third stage is to really experience the devil's trial. How much can you face up to the fear in your heart?"

Those who go to the material exchange point do not know that in the hands of those material changers , Holding the most detailed information about each person, from birth date, to growth environment, to personality, to hobbies, and the most feared thing in that person's heart.

A woman who has just exchanged her body for water resources. She is in the underground world, but she is clean. She has a beloved fiance who is about to get married. She has vowed that she will leave her first time to the newly married. late.

Today, she is holding a bottle of clean water and looking for the next material changer.

Everyone has their own weaknesses.

"Do you want me to kneel? Do you know who I am!" Zu Xian stood in front of a material changer and yelled loudly.

"I understand that you are the king of hell, the owner of the island of light, but since you participate in the trial, you must abide by the rules of the trial, even the king of hell is no exception." The material changer said.

Zu Xian's weakness is respect. He wants everyone to respect him. He does not allow anyone to look down on him! This is now Zu Xian.

Zu Xian shook his sleeve and walked to another material changer, but he could change a person. What he said to Zu Xian was exactly the same.

"Impossible! You dream!" Han softly cried.

Beside Han Wenrou, there were only seven members of the original Blades, and now there are only four left. The faces of these four people are also not good-looking, because the task received by the entire Blade team is to kill all the people around them. You can get supplies that last until the end of the trial.

Unity is the first thing learned by the Blade team. After seeing it and handing it over to his comrades, betrayal and internal strife are the most unacceptable things for them.

"Here are three heads. I want the clear water for me." Tang Hao walked over with three bloody heads in his eyes. There was no emotion in Tang Hao's eyes, and Henry saw the stunned young man for the first time. Tang Hao is different. Today's Tang Hao has become reticent. His eyes will only become softer when he looks at the woman behind him.

"Yes, but this clean water can only be enjoyed by yourself. This is also a kind of commission." The material changer handed a bucket of two liters of clean water to Tang Hao.

Tang Hao frowned, "My commission has been completed."

"No." The material changer shook his head. "What is your commission, it is up to me to decide, this is the rule of trial."

"My commission What is it?" The short-haired woman behind Tang Hao came up.

"Give up the trial, I can send you away now and return to normal life." The material changer said flatly.

The woman's complexion changed suddenly, "Impossible!"

"You can choose this way." Tang Hao persuaded, "This is a prison. Your physical condition does not allow you to stay here. Leaving is a good choice. When I go out, I will find you."

"No I will not leave!" The woman's voice suddenly increased, "I can't leave here at all, I must complete the trial, must!"

"You..." Tang Hao grabbed the woman's hand and was thrown away by the woman .

"If you want to go, I can't go!" The woman growled.

"Oh, yes, if you really want to give her supplies." The material changer said, "As long as she kills you, you can When you get your supplies, you can choose to give it to her privately after leaving here, but in this case, you will be discovered. Once found, you will all be counted as failures. Therefore, you die and give her the most convenient thing. Choice, if you can die for her." As soon as the material changer's voice fell, there was a scream.

One person stabbed the sharp blade into the heart of his companion and took away the materials belonging to his companion.

At the foot of the mountain in the center of the island, Zu Xian walked tremblingly down. Every material changer's request was to let him kneel, as long as Zu Xian knelt, he could easily get supplies, which for others is something that can be done without hesitation, but for Zu Xian, it is simply impossible!

"Take it, this is what I just exchanged." Ningzhou followed Zu Xian and handed a soft white bun and a bottle of fresh water.

Zu Xian just glanced at it, and then refused: "I will rely on myself."

"Let you hold it and hold it!" Ningzhou forced his hand into Zu Xian's arms.

"I said, I don't..." Zu Xian's complexion began to be awkward.

"Do you think that I am not as good as her?" Ningzhou suddenly held Zu Xian's cheek and looked at Zu Xian with four eyes. "At the beginning, you had nothing, she was for your study, you will feel at ease because you I believe that I can give her the life she wants in the future, but in the end, the person who gave up is not you, but her. Now, I bet everything on you, I can give you whatever you want, I can always Waiting for you, waiting for you to be really strong, why don't you want to accept me?"

"It's different." Zu Xian's ugly expression gradually eased, he shook his head, "You are not her, you two are different." "

Yes, am I her? I'm better than her!" Ningzhou gave birth to a strong self-confidence. "I know you better than her. I fully believe that the day you are strong, I will always be with you." You, and she can't, whoever is standing in front of you, I will help you to kill who, and she can only wait for you to become stronger alone, who can always be with you, only me."

"You... Zu Xian opened his mouth.

"Hurry up, there are some miscellaneous fish next to it. I want to exchange your head for materials." Ningzhou smiled slightly, released his hands, and looked aside.

The three people who followed Zu Xian waiting for a sneak attack only felt cold.

Chapter 1035

Yan Xia Xidu, a luxury suite in a five-star hotel.

Milan and Sylvia sat looking at each other.

This is the first time Sylvia has seen Milan since she was parted in Fa Guo. At the same night, she personally sent Henry and Milan to the hotel in the same room.

Compared to the original Milan, it seems a lot more stable.

"Qinghan, I really appreciate that you can come this time."

"We have so many years of relationship, do you still thank me?" Sylvia smiled slightly, "Moreover, let's not talk about our relationship, if Henry knew if something happened to you and I was indifferent, he would definitely blame me, no matter what aspect, I could not watch this happen."

Milan shook his head, "Qinghan, I thought it was Xiao It's just a forced marriage, but I found out that I was wrong, and I was very wrong. This time, someone wanted to take this opportunity to deal with Henry. When I reacted and wanted to tell my dad, it was too late. You know, I am here..."

Milan said at this time, glancing around, this suite, extravagant luxury, the cost of one night, the sky-high price of 120,000 yuan, which many people dare not even think about "Although I live in this place, but personal freedom is completely restricted, the phone did not even use law, the hotel staff are all Shaw of people I want to contact with the outside, even more difficult."

"ah, I see it." Sylvia nodded, and before she entered Milan's room, her communication tools were taken away.

"Qing Han, the water is too deep this time." Milan grabbed Lin Qing Han's hands. "This time, I shouldn't have dragged you into the water."

Lin Qing Han shook his head slightly. "Milan, you seem to have made a mistake?"

"Huh?" Milan stunned slightly.

Sylvia smiled and said: "This is not that you drag me into the water, but that I voluntarily launch the water. You are my best friend. Rest assured, I have notified the Su family and they are ready."

Milan pursed her lips for a long time, and sighed, "Qing Han, do you know, you and Henry are really more and more alike, your expression, your tone, all have his shadow, I really admire him, Can affect you as a woman with a strong self-awareness."

At this moment, a waitress directly pushed the door into the room.

"Miss Lin, the host has prepared the room for you, right next to it. The brand new clothes have been put into the room. During this time, if you have any needs, you can always contact me."

In the words of the waitress Sylvia and Milan both heard a command.

Sylvia smiled bitterly at Milan, "It seems that I can't go now, you will have a companion in the future."

Time will always pass unconsciously.

More than twenty days have passed since the arrival of the material exchange team on the trial island.

There are fewer and fewer people coming to the island to participate in the trial, from the first nearly 10,000 people to now, but there are more than 3,000 people left. This time the devil tried, because the time is accelerated, the process is shortened, Instead, the mortality rate rose linearly, approaching 70%!

The huge island, with more than three thousand people, would hardly see the existence of the rest if they were not deliberately put together.

There are not many new tricks for the commission task proposed by the material changer. It can be said that what condition is the first time, and the condition is also the follow-up. These same commissions will make a person's inner fear, inner weakness, completely Annihilation.

Tang Hao did not go to the material exchange point anymore. He chose to kill others and snatch the materials to distribute to the woman behind him.

The woman silently accepted all this, waiting for the end of the trial.

Zu Xian is no longer sitting in one place every day, he chose to train, with the help of Ningzhou, to sense the air between heaven and earth.

In addition to helping Zu Xian become stronger and stronger every day, Ningzhou will also complete various commissioned tasks in exchange for supplies to ensure Zu Xian's daily eating and drinking.

With the existence of a material exchange point, those barks are no longer the object of many testers.

As Henry said, between life and death, people will choose everything that will allow them to survive, and with a better choice, they will have no courage to work hard.

A woman who has eaten bark for a month and a half has become accustomed to using her body in exchange for various materials. From the very beginning of others' initiative, to the end, she becomes active, everything is so natural.

"Why!" Han Wenrou looked at the man in front of him, tears twirling in his eyes, all teammates in the same group, who were able to rest himself to the other side, but he was waving at himself for a bun. Butcher knife.

"Korean team, don't blame me." Han Wenrou's sharp edged player looked ugly. "Three days ago, I killed a man and found a roast chicken on him. Although it has deteriorated, the smell is still Let me recall the endless things like bark, which are not eaten by humans at all, I want to make people! I came to participate in the trial, but it is to allow myself to live better in the future, before the trial begins, Isn't Guangmingdao already said, don't believe anyone, I think I'm right, it's you."

Han Wenrou shook his head, "we can carry it together!"

"Hey, Han team, You don't know yet, we have been stared at by others. The rest of us eat meat every day, and we only eat the bark. If we continue this way, sooner or later, we will become someone else's reward in exchange for supplies. A piece of buns will be equated with a bottle of mineral water. This trial is not to live for others, but to live for yourself! When you go on, don't blame your brother! Suffer!"

Trial in the devil Among them, the betrayal of a friend has already become a very common thing.

The sun and the moon alternate, and days pass by.

Henry sat on a reef, threw away the homemade fishing rod in his hand, and pouted his lips. "Forget it, fishing is really not suitable for me. It's better to take the initiative."

Henry then fell and got up. I touched my stubble, "Three months have passed, and there are so many annoying things to deal with. The people of the Shenyin Society have been watching for so long, and the news has almost spread.

Right ." Henry's body flashed and disappeared on the reef.

In the past three months, Henry has not been doing nothing every day. His strength has improved too fast, and he has never had a chance to settle. This time, he was given this opportunity.

On a peak of the trial island, a man sits on the edge of a mountain cliff, and below the cliff is the endless sea. He looks like he is about thirty years old. Unlike the trialers on the island, his face has always been They are very indifferent.

Chapter 1036 Little Autumn Leaves

Henry's figure appeared on the cliff.

The man sitting on the edge of the mountain cliff said without looking back: "You have been staring at me for almost three months, and you have only found it now. You know, I am almost bored to death."

"Why, Andrea gave you Shouldn't you just kill me directly?" Henry laughed. Although he was wearing a human skin mask, he was not surprised that the other party could recognize himself.

"Adult said, it's useful to leave you." The man sitting on the edge of the mountain stood up and turned his head to look at Henry. "Introduce yourself, my name is Xiaochu Qiuye."

"Yo." Henry's face showed a look of surprise. , "It seems that Andrea's ambitions are quite large, and even the eastern continent has penetrated, shouldn't you be under Chu Zheng's jurisdiction?"

"Oh." Xiaochu Qiuye chuckled, "Master Chu Zheng and My concept is different, but it's Lord Andre's vision, which is in line with mine."

"It seems that your ambition is not small." Henry smiled slightly.

"Those with strength have ambitions. Henryjun, if you are willing to join, I think our vision will be realized faster."

"If I don't want to?" Henry asked.

"I'm sorry Henryjun. In this selection, Bishop Del must leave the European continent. I know that Bishop Del has chosen you as the guardian of the son of Delk, so you must not appear in this selection." Akiha said At this point, slowly raise your hands, put your hands together in front of you, and then cross your fingers, continuously changing more than ten gestures.

"Ninjutsu?" Henry frowned. This ninjutsu, Henry has not heard of it, has always had a strange and unpredictable name, but in the past, the opponent Henry met, that ninjutsu, almost all tricks to the eyes

But the opponents you meet now are different from the past.

After mastering Qi, Henrycai discovered the profoundness of Yan Xia Gu Wu. Many people said that Yan Xia Gu Wu was nothing more than some flower fist embroidering legs, but it looked good-looking.

When he encountered the direct combat skills of free fighting, Yan Xia Gu Wu There is no room for resistance.

Henry has not doubted this before. He has practiced ancient martial arts. Compared with most of the martial arts techniques, ancient martial arts pay too much attention to the "form". Because of the shape, he has a lot less on "force". Performance.

Henry didn't understand what the ancient martial arts of Yan Xia was when Henry mastered his anger and fought the tiger and crane ghost with his double fists.

Ninjutsu, Henry believes that it is the same.

Henry won't underestimate any inheritance, something that can be left from ancient times, naturally has its truth. If ninjutsu is only relying on those blind eyes, it is absolutely impossible to retain it until now.

Xiaochu Qiuye's fingers moved, and behind him, a human-shaped ghost appeared, and the ghost gradually solidified.

"Avatar Technique?" Henry raised a brow and looked at him with interest.

"I'm sorry Henryjun, let you down." Xiaochu Qiuye said, "I'm just a lower tolerance level, and I only master the basic shadow art. The so-called shadow avatar is not as simple as what you saw in the anime. The exact same self, that level of ninjutsu, has been called a forbidden technique."

Xiaochu Qiuye took a step forward, and the shadow formed behind him made the same action as Xiaochu Qiuye.

"Shadow technique, although it is only the most basic ninjutsu, but among the most basic ninjutsu, it is also the most difficult. The shadow I condensed can imitate all my movements, so Henryjun, you have to be careful!"

Xiao As soon as the words of early autumn leaves fell, the whole person disappeared from the spot instantly.

There is a distance of at least 30 meters between Henry and Xiaochu Qiuye. Xiaochu Qiuye appeared in front of Henry almost in a second, while holding a black weapon and slashing towards Henry's neck.

Henry slanted his body, evading Xiaochu Qiuye's blow, and subconsciously just about to fight back, but a black figure appeared in front of Henry. Just like Xiaochu Qiuye, he also held a black weapon and pointed to Henry's throat.

Henry was shocked. He was too dependent on his combat instincts. If it was a one-on-one battle, his instinct reaction was absolutely correct, but it could be that there was a shadow behind Xiaochu Qiuye!

Henry was somewhat embarrassed to escape the attack from the shadow, and the second attack of Akihabara came back again.

When opponents who do not have qi against the enemy, qi can be completely crushed, but when the two people are in the same state, the role of qi is to strengthen the attack. In attacking methods, it is still based on melee.

Andre knows Henry's strength. Although he is in the late stage of metamorphosis, he can fight against the masters of the early stage of Qi Qi. Therefore, the small early autumn leaves he sent are naturally not weak, but the true master of the early stage of Qi Qi. .

Xiaochu Qiuye naturally seizes the opportunity and will not easily let it go. His attack is not big, but like a shower, he never stops and does not give Henry the opportunity to respond.

Xiaochu Qiuye finished the attack and immediately changed places to attack again, and Henry had to resist the shadow attack as well as Xiaochu Qiuye's attack. After that, he had to guard against Xiaochu Qiuye from another place. s attack.

The ninja's advantage lies in its cryptic nature. Like an assassin, it can deliver a fatal blow in any place that others can't think of. Xiaochu Qiuye has brought this feature to the extreme. Every attack is against Henry. At the dead corner of the body, and with the shadow of Xiaochu Qiuye, Henry wants to resist attacks from both sides at the same time.

This is also Henry's rich combat experience. If you change to a condensed gas environment with no combat experience in the early days, I am afraid that it has already been defeated.

With a "tearing" sound, Henry's coat on the left rib was cut through a huge opening.

At the same time, Henry took the opportunity to reach out.

But Xiaochuqiue was just as flexible as the swimming fish in the water. After hitting, he immediately flashed to ten meters away. The attack was exactly the same as that of Xiaochuqiue's shadow, which could provide enough for Xiaochuqiue. The timing of retreat.

After completing the final blow, the ghost image summoned by Akihachi Xiaoxiao also dissipated in the air.

Henry looked at his scratched clothes under his left rib, and there was a look of applause in his eyes. "I have heard that someone specializes in training twin killers, so that when they act, they have the same mind and can show their strength. It is far more simple than one plus one. Your shadow technique is better than this kind of twin killer, but it is a powerful method."

"Henryjun, I have won the prize." Xiaochu Qiu said with a smile, " It is impossible to defeat Henryjun by this single shadow, since it is so..." Xiaochu Qiuye said this, the two virtual shadows slowly condensed behind him.

Chapter 1037: Flaws

"This is double shadow technique." Xiaochu Qiuye has a continuous seal on his hand, "Henryjun, you have to be careful, I want to... get on!"

Xiaoqiu disappeared in the original night again The ground, just like before, appeared in front of Henry almost instantly.

Xiaoqiu's attack, as usual, attacked Henry from a weird angle. Immediately, Xiaochu Qiuye immediately changed direction, and the other two shadows attacked Henry one after another.

The original Henry was equivalent to one dozen two, but now, it becomes one dozen three at a time.

At the same time, the voice of Xiaochu Qiuye sounded, "Henryjun, the twin killer you said, although they have the same mind, but even the perfect person will make mistakes when they are nervous. Often, one mistake can be sent Lost his life."

Henry resisted the attack of the three parties.

Xiaochu Qiuye gave a blow from another angle and continued: "Moreover, everyone's physical condition cannot be kept in a balance forever, so there is never a perfect cooperation between two people, but shadow surgery Different."

Three sharp weapons attacked Henry at the same time.

"Every shadow can be understood as me. The shadow will completely imitate my movements. I know the balance of my body best, so I can achieve the perfect coordination by myself, as long as it is the way to match The reason is reasonable, I can make superb joint strikes at will, this is, Shadow Art!" The three blades attacked Henry's heavenly spirit, vest and chest in three different directions.

This is a killing trick, an inevitable killing trick!

In the eyes of Xiaochu Qiuye, she also showed strong self-confidence.

Faced with this killing trick, Henry's left foot retreated slightly, his toes touched the ground, then he reached out with one hand and directly grasped Xiaochu Qiuye's wrist.

"This shadow technique is really powerful, but it's too monotonous."

Henry's mouth twitched.

"Two people of the punch, although not do a perfect fit, but one thing, your shadow can not do, that is, in the face of stronger than their opponents, they can do mutual aid!"

Henry arrested Hold the wrist of Xiaochu Qiuye, make a lower waist posture, and at the same time slightly lift the left foot, easily avoiding the shadow that hits his own chassis.

"And your shadow is only a single attack, it seems to be invulnerable, but as long as you break from you, your shadow is no longer threatening, but it can still kill you!"

Henry He also slammed on the ground with his right foot, and then twisted violently. The whole person made a horizontal rotation in mid-air. This horizontal rotation allowed Henry to avoid a blow to his vest.

"You just sent a blow from my back and hit me on the chest again, wanting to make a joint attack, I was thinking, if you don't change direction, will your shadow appear in the same position as you, do The same move? If you can, you will die in the hands of your shadow!"

A huge qi suddenly gathered around Henry, Henry's entire body, also in a posture of a catty fall, fell to the beginning, from scratch At the end, Henry all grasped Xiaochu Qiuye's wrist, making Xiaochu Qiuye unable to make any effective means of attack. Similarly, Henry was not good.

But now, Henry does not plan to attack Xiaochu Qiuye at all.

Qiu Ye's complexion became particularly ugly at this time.

As Henry guessed, a shadow appeared in the position where Xiaochu Qiuye had just stood, and then held a sharp blade and stabbed forward.

If Xiaochu Qiuye changes position at this time, the target of this shadow is Henry.

But now, Qiuye was caught by Henry, and he couldn't change his position at all, so he became the target of shadow attack.

The sharp blade in the shadow's hand directly took the heart of Xiaochuqiuye. At the critical moment, Xiaochuqiuye took a sip and the two shadows completely dissipated.

At this time, Henry's wrist turned, and a sharp blade appeared from his cuff, piercing Xiaochu Qiuye.

Xiaochu Qiuye took advantage of the gap between Henry and the sharp blade, and his body retreated. After a few moments, he left Henry more than ten meters away.

Look again, Xiaochu Qiuye doesn't have the confidence just now.

Henry stood on the spot and did not chase after the victory. He grinned. "Your shadow technique looks impeccable, but there are too many flaws. Your attack is not fierce, but the victory is fast. This is because you need to rely on speed. With the shadow attack, once you apply too much force, it will affect the speed of your recovery. In this way, when you encounter an enemy, you must solve the opponent in the shortest time, otherwise, you will fall into a stage of exhaustion."

After Henry finished speaking, he stretched out two fingers, "I just said the first point, your skill, the back strength is not enough, then the second point, there is no flexibility, although you can combine the moves yourself to achieve The purpose of cooperating with the shadow, but only need to break your tricks, you can make you a lot of chaos."

Henry said the second point, the smile on his face gradually disappeared, and his eyes condensed. "Third, based on the above two Point, your shadow technique can only deal with people who are weaker than you. If you encounter a stronger person than you, you will not even have the ability to resist.

"Xiaochu Qiuye showed an angry look on his face, "Henryjun , You mean, you are stronger than me?"

Henry shook his head. "Not what I meant, but... fact!"

The moment the word "real" fell, Henry disappeared from the spot.

Unlike Xiaochu Qiuye's ghostly figure, it can be clearly seen that the rock underneath Henry's foot cracked at the position where Henry had just stood.

If it is said that Xiaochu Qiuye appeared quietly during the offensive, then Henry, carrying the power of Wanjun, clearly told the enemy that I would hit you from the front. What can you do?

Xiaochu Qiuye's pupils shrank, and a phantom of a tiger covered Henry's body surface. As Henry punched, the tiger also waved giant claws.

"Shadow technique, multiple avatars!" Xiaochu Qiuye completed eight seals in almost a second, and the movement on his hand was almost a phantom. A series of four shadows formed beside Xiaochu Qiuye. Shot against Henry's attack.

"I said, when I met someone stronger than you, with your ninjutsu, I didn't even have a chance to resist!" Henry blasted out. As he moved forward, he didn't even care about the four ghost images condensed by Xiaochu Qiuye.

When the four virtual shadows touched the tiger behind Henry, they seemed to encounter natural enemies and disappeared instantly.

Without the help of four ghosts, how can a speed-type player like Akihabara compete with a power-type player like Henry?

Although Henry doesn't seem to have that explosive muscle, his method of breathing is extremely violent, forging his body, and repairing the world catalog. For Henry, his most obscure body is his most infamous body. Powerful weapon!

Chapter 1038: The End of the Trial

Xiaochu Qiuye subconsciously guarded his arms in front of him, trying to resist Henry's attack.

"Click" sounded crisply.

In the early autumn, autumn leaves entered the kite with the broken line, flew directly out, hit the mountain wall, and spouted a big sip of blood.

Henry shook his fist. "Say, this is the truth."

"Poof!"

Xiaochu Qiuye spurted blood again, his face pale and ugly, "You...you are not in the late stage of metamorphosis, you have entered the gas "

" I never said that I was in the late stage of transformation." Henry smiled, "But it is not condensed gas, I don't know, I only know that for me, you look too weak. . "

Henry pedal the ground, the next second, it has emerged in the early autumn before the small body.

Xiaochu Qiuye' s pupils shrank again, because he found that Henry was now showing a faster speed than when he attacked himself just now, that is to say, even when the other party just issued a blow that made him irresistible, All hide the strength! How strong is he!Hasn't he been practicing qi for less than a year? How can it be!

"Is the thing in your sleeve called Ku Wu Wu?" Henry glanced at the cuffs of Xiaochu Qiuye.

Xiaochu Qiuye's body was shocked, and the misery hidden in his cuffs was the bargaining chip he wanted to turn over. Someone had already noticed it before he took it out. How terrifying is this person?

"The trial is almost over, and the news I want you to pass is almost the same. I'm sorry, you have no use value, and I don't have the need to keep you here." Henry raised Hand, slowly slashing toward the neck of the autumn leaves.

Qiuye's pupils dilated, and after a few seconds, they began to spread.

Henry walked to the edge of the mountain cliff, and the dense fog filled him, so he could not see the distance.

"I'm afraid it's not so good this year." Henry stretched his waist. "The trial is coming to an end, but is the devil's trial really that simple?"

A few days later, a whistle sounded, stirring To test the nerves of everyone on the island.

The cruise ship docked and proved that the trial was over.

The two who were fighting for a piece of buns almost stopped the movements in their hands, and then they all showed a relaxed look.

When the whistle sounded, almost everyone looked in the direction of the sound.

Henry had already boarded the ship, lying in a luxurious bathtub and enjoying a warm hot bath. He took out his phone, opened the address book, and put his finger on the communication method with the word "wife" several times. No dialing.

On the deck of the cruise ship, one figure after another came up, and everyone's face carried an expression that lasted for the rest of his life.

The cruise ship is still that cruise ship, but compared to the island before, the cruise ship looks a lot empty.

Furman Red, who had previously bet against Henry, and the majestic woman who resisted Furman Red, eventually failed to board the ship.

In the Blade team, only Han Wenren and a Blade player are left, but the two are far apart.

Zu Xian and Ning Zhou landed on the island together, and the two helped each other.

Tang Hao walked on the road leading to the deck. The short-haired woman followed Tang Hao, a dozen meters around Tang Hao, and no one else dared to approach. During this time, Tang Hao's invincible name had been completely beat out.

"Everyone, please come to the east of the deck to gather. Everyone must issue a corresponding certificate, which is considered to pass this devil's trial." The loudspeaker on the cruise ship heard a voice.

The people who returned from the island all looked to the east of the deck with a dull look, and there were special people there to issue trial certificates.

The so-called test certificate is a black card, the size of a normal bank card, with a bloody grimace on it.

"Name, belongs."

When Han Wenrou walked to the place where he received the trial certificate, the other party asked two questions concisely and clearly.

Sharp Blade Han Gentle." A trial certificate written in 20082 engraved the words Sharp Blade Han Gentle.

Han Wenrou looked at the black card with bloody ghost faces in his hand and muttered: "This is the highest honor in the underground world, is the proof of the devil's trial?"

There are several places to send the proof.

When Zu Xian and Ning Zhou came to a counter, the other party just glanced at them and said, "Dear Lord Hell, you have not completed the final entrusted mission and you are not qualified to receive the trial certificate. "

No?" Zu Xian frowned.

"Yes." The other party said, "This is the rule of the Devil's trial. If you want to prove it, just complete the commissioned task that belongs to you now... kneel..."

"Fart!" Zu Xianda With a sip, "What proves that I don't need it!"

Zu Xian finished speaking, waving his hand and striding away.

"Ma'am, this is your proof. Tell me your name and where it belongs."

"He doesn't, and I don't need it." Ningzhou shook his head and chased him in the direction of Zu Xian.

Zu Xian, who had walked away for a few steps, heard this and stepped in. His heart that had died in the Loulan Desert seemed to be beating again at this moment.

"Why didn't I! You tell me! Why!" Another short-haired woman who passed the trial behind Tang Hao screamed before the distribution desk.

Tang Hao frowned tightly.

"Sorry, Madam, your every move on the island is under our surveillance. During this trial, you are completely confused, and naturally you cannot get the trial certificate. This Mr. Tang Hao, this is your trial. Proof." The staff handed over the test certificate belonging to Tang Hao.

"You guys haven't explained it in advance!" The woman shouted in anger. This trial proved that it was very important to her.

"Ma'am, it's not completely impossible. Before this cruise ship docks, the trial will not be over. This is your final mandate. After completing this task, you will pass the trial." The staff handed the woman a brocade bag.

The woman hurriedly opened the kit with a note in it, only to glance at it. The woman was shocked and quickly put the note back into the kit.

"Ma'am, remember, there aren't many opportunities. When the ship docks, the trial is completely over." The woman didn't speak, but just nodded.

The staff arranged by Bright Island is very sufficient. Soon, the thousands of people who have returned from the trial island have all received the certificate, and everyone has been assigned to the room card to return to the room to rest.

Some people choose to take a good night's sleep, some choose to take a hot bath, others choose to have a full meal, of course, like some students who just got excellent test scores, they called to tell their own news with joy Buddy.

Chapter 1039: No Mercy

The cruise ship gradually left the island with a loud whistle.

Those who remain on the island forever will gradually become nutrients for plants. It is likely that the wild mushrooms used by the people who participated in the trial next year to sustain life are poured out of these flesh and blood.

As the cruise ship drifted further and further away, the trial island also became more and more blurred in people's eyes. Those who lived by the window, watching the trial island, gradually disappeared into a thick fog.

As night fell, some people ate and drank well, and rested well, lying leisurely by the pool on the deck and enjoying a glass of rum.

Henry had taken off the mask on his face, and in front of Henry, placed the rating report of everyone's trial.

"It seems that returning to the ancestral alliance is to break through from Guangming Island." Henry looked at a photo of Zhang Ningzhou and Zu Xian walking together, and then threw the photo into the fire beside him. The wreckage is gone.

"Zu Xian, don't let me down." Henry murmured, and continued to look at the next photo. The people in the photo made Henry's mouth smile unconsciously, "Gentle... Your performance on the island this time, it really surprised me. I have to say that you are growing very fast. Now that you have the ability to get rid of the blade and be able to stand alone, it is just that your strength is your flaw. In this regard, you must pay attention to improvement. "

Henry threw Han Wenrou's photos into the fire. Soon, Henry saw Tang Hao's trial rating this time.

"This trial is the easiest and most difficult for you. The trial that really belongs to you will only begin tonight..."

Someone was carnivaling in the night, and some were already asleep.

Tang Hao lay in a comfortable bed, his breath evenly spread out. For the past three months on the island, he had always been the one who had guarded the woman behind him, and had never had a good night's sleep.

When Tang Hao was asleep, the woman beside him gradually sat up.

The woman glanced at the clothes thrown under the bed, which contained the kit she received today.

The task in the kit is very simple. It only requires her to use the most direct method to prove that if no one helps, she can pass the trial as well.

The most direct method?

For women, the most direct way is to kill this person who helped him pass the trial, just as he thought when he first saw him.

The woman slowly pulled the quilt from her body and walked out of bed. She gently opened a gap in the window, and two green snakes crawled in through the gap in the window.

The woman blew a whistle gently, and the two emerald green snakes crawled along the edge of the bed, vomiting scarlet snake letters. When they climbed onto the bed, they exposed their sharp fangs, biting at Tang Hao's neck.

When the little snake's fangs were about to bite Tang Hao's neck, an invisible gas shattered the two little snakes directly. This sudden change made the woman startled.

Tang Hao, who was asleep, also opened his eyes at this time: "Why?"

"You..." The woman looked at Tang Hao who was getting up, her face pale.

"Are you going to kill me for a trial proof?" Tang Hao's face looked calm.

The woman shook her head and opened her mouth to explain.

"I want to hear the truth, tell me, do you want to kill me because of a trial certificate?"

"Yes!" The woman confessed as she gritted her teeth.

"Why?" Tang Hao asked again.

The woman simply shouted: "Because I don't get this trial proof, I will die. I need this thing to keep me alive. Is this reason enough? I was born in a place where people eat people. There, you must complete the corresponding tasks to survive. My parents are in their hands. I must take the test certificate back, no matter what means!"

"I get it." Tang Hao leaned on the bedside and clicked Nodded, "You want to kill me for your loved ones. It's blameless. I don't blame you. Go, don't let me see you again." When Tang Hao was talking, his body was trembling, showing that his heart, in the end what does it look like.

"Will you let me go?" The woman looked at Tang Hao in disbelief. In her view, this man would definitely kill himself.

"Go." Tang Hao said, "Don't wait for me to regret it." The woman was silent for a few seconds, and then spoke to Tang Hao, "This life, I forgot it from your hand, when I rescued my parents, I will pay you a guilt."

After that, the woman casually put on a long gown and strode towards the door.

When the woman was just about to open the door, the door was pushed open from the outside.

The figure of Henry appeared in front of the woman.

Seeing someone come in suddenly in the middle of the night, the woman was stunned.

"Brother, you..." Tang Hao also saw Henry.

Henry glanced at the short-haired woman, then shook her head at Tang Hao, "She can't go, you have to kill her." The short-haired woman's face changed and she looked at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao also changed his face, "Brother, I don't understand what you mean."

"She wants to kill you, so you let her go?" Henry asked.

Tang Hao took a deep breath, "This is my decision, let her go."

"I repeat, you can't let her go." Henry walked into the house and closed the door with his backhand.

Tang Hao jumped from the bed, looked at the woman with short hair, and then looked at Henry, "Brother, I beg you, I really don't..."

Henry interrupted Tang Hao, "If you can't bear to do anything to her, then I'll come, but if I do it, I will crush her bones inch by inch. I will peel off her skin completely, and I will make her head into a specimen and put it in your bedside."

During Henry's speech, an invisible coercion radiated from Henry.

The woman standing not far from Henry's body only felt that she was having difficulty breathing. The man in front of her brought herself an indescribable fear!

"Brother!" Tang Hao's eyes flashed in crystal clear, three months of getting along, he had a real feeling for this woman, "Why are you! Why should you force me!"

"Benevolence will bring death." Henry is very calm Said, "Your kindness will kill your father and kill me in a few days, so either you kill her and give her a happy heart, or I will torture her to death, yourself Choose!" The woman shivered under the pressure emanating from Henry. This pressure made her feel like she was going crazy.

"I killed you!" The woman shouted and rushed towards Henry.

Henry just waved his hand gently, and the woman was toppled to the ground by an invisible air. Looking at Henry's eyes, she was already full of fear.

Henry waved his hand again. A large hand formed by the condensation of air grabbed the woman's hair and lifted the woman up.

"I will give you the last chance again, you killed her, or give her to me." Henry said.

Chapter 1040 This Is The Explanation

Tang Hao gritted his teeth and looked at the woman in front of him, "Brother, don't force me."

"I'm just forcing you." Henry stretched out a finger, a little empty.

It can be clearly seen that the woman opened her mouth wide and inhaled vigorously, but her breathing began to be difficult and her face began to become extraordinarily grim. The woman's shoulder bones were sinking in little by little.

Henry's voice sounded in the room, "People have a total of 206 bones, supporting the body of the person. When I crush the bones of her, she has to bear 206 times that ordinary people can't bear. Pain, this process will probably continue for a full five hours. Within these five hours, I will control her from dying, let her feel her body out of control a little bit, and then, I will start from her heart, Scratching her skin..." The woman's legs trembled, and the liquid slowly left along her legs, filled with a smell.

"Enough!" Tang Hao yelled and punched with a punch.

"Boom!"

Blood splattered on the wall, and a headless female body slowly paralyzed to the ground.

Tang Hao took a deep breath and sweat covered his forehead.

"Congratulations." Henry smiled slightly. "The last hurdle of this trial, you passed."

Tang Hao's eyes were covered with red blood, and he dropped his head weakly. "Brother, why? Why the hell? Why should you? I'm so forced?"

"If you have any questions, I will ask you tomorrow. I think, each of you wants an answer." Henry left this sentence and turned to open the door. "The body here, You are not allowed to pack up, and go to the deck tomorrow morning."

This night is sleepless for many people.

Tang Hao sat on the bed, staring dully at the headless female corpse in the room.

In Han Wenrou's room, there was light music. She was soaking in the bathtub. Her hair was wet, and her eyes were staring straight ahead, wondering what she was thinking.

When the early morning sun shone down, a lot of people gathered on the deck, all of them returned from the trial island, Tang Hao, Han Genou, Zu Xian, were also among them, many people still looked blank.

"Everyone." A voice rang from the loudspeaker on the deck. "I know, everyone has many questions to ask today, and I also know what you are asking. You just want to ask, why this time if you want to be so cruel, why do you want you to kill each other? Why do you want you to do something against humanity, right?" As soon as these words came out, the people on the deck subconsciously looked at them. When the voice came, because of this question, they directly hit their hearts, and they wanted to ask this is it.

A figure appeared in the seating area on the upper deck, with his back facing the sun, making it impossible for him to see his face at first glance.

"Introduce yourself, I am the chief instructor of this devil's trial." Henry grabbed the guardrail with both hands and looked down at the crowd on the deck from above. "I can answer you with a sentence in your inner question. The reason why I will let you Feeling cruel, the reason why you are killing each other, and the reason why you are doing those anti-human things, is because this is the devil's trial! It is for the devil!"

When Han Hanren and Qing Zuxian saw the deck clearly When the person is, all look moved.

Only Tang Hao's eyes were still dull.

Henry glanced at everyone and continued: "I know that this trial will subvert your cognition and destroy what you have always insisted on. Some people's chastity, trust, love, this The second trial will make you feel betrayal, let you feel despair, and make you collapse in the world view of the previous decades! That's right! This is what the devil wants for the trial!"

Henry said loudly: "The purpose of the devil's trial is not to give you some kind of honor, not to let you experience what kind of test, but to teach you how to live better in this world! You come here to make yourself stronger How can I make myself stronger? The first point is to learn to be indifferent. If a person who can't even speak the words of rejection refuses to be called a strong man!"

"The second point is to learn to be cold-blooded! This is what you want to survive in The necessities of this world!"

"Third point, learn to accept! Accept all despair, accept all despair, accept everything that subverts your cognition. Only in this way can you survive, as for those who cannot accept it, I only I want to say that although you have obtained the test certificate, you still haven't really passed the devil test. Say it again! This test is a process of turning people into devil!"

After these three points, Henrybu Talking again, he looked down.

On the deck, some people showed a relaxed look in Henry's short words, and some people still did not understand.

Han Wenrou took a step, "But some things are not necessary at all, it is your rules that cause us to kill each other!"

"Yes." Henry nodded, "You are killed by our rules, but You have to understand that I can make this rule, and your enemies in the future can also make this rule. I will say it here. If I can't understand it, it means that you are not worthy of living in this underground world. Go and enjoy life quietly, I said, this is a world where people eat people, not a world where children play! You guys, now there are thirty nautical miles from the nearest coast, I think some of you need to be awake, So I won't send you anymore. Now please consciously walk to the edge of the deck and jump into the sea. I have dozens of them. Everyone must jump down. Who will not jump, who will die."

Henry's voice fell. An invisible pressure was facing everyone on the deck. The person closest to the edge of the deck, with almost no hesitation, jumped into the sea and jumped.

Han Wenrou looked stubbornly at Henry and jumped into the sea.

"Yeah, this is a world where people eat people." Zu Xian sighed and looked at Ningzhou beside him. "I may face any difficulties at any time, but you may not always be by my side."

"Relax, Before you grow up, I will always be with you." Ningzhou grabbed Zu Xian's hand.

"Although I know that you said that for your own tasks, to be honest, I eat yours." Zu Xianqi took Ningzhou's hand and jumped into the sea.

In less than ten seconds, there was only Tang Hao on the crowded deck.

Tang Hao didn't move and looked at Henry, waiting for an explanation.

Henry jumped in front of him and came to Tang Hao, "You are the future bishop. Whoever wants to kill you, you must kill her. This is not only my request to you, but also your father's request to me. I am so strict with you, but I am willing, this is my interpretation."

Chapter 1041: Holy City

Mid-May is the season of European lavender blooming, full of romantic atmosphere.

There is a holy city on the edge of the Ross State, known as God's Paradise.

This holy city is full of mythology.

For the Shenyinghui, this holy city has a supreme status.

In mid-May, the Holy City announced that it would not open to the outside world within a short period of time and would perform ceremonies once every five years.

Everyone in the Shenying Society understands that this is a biannual selection, and it is here again.

The selection can be said to be the largest blood exchange within the Shenying Society. Each selection will affect the pattern of the Shenying Society in the next five years.

This time, the selection has a greater impact.

In the past, the bishops of each region participated.

But now, the bishops have been in office for a long time and are old, and the heirs of the bishop will participate in this selection. The heirs participating in the selection will become future bishops if there is no accident.

Shenying will be inherited for thousands of years, its power is far beyond imagination.

When the Holy City was closed to the outside world, it became the world of the Divine Hidden Society.

Shenying will be spread all over the world, and now it is gathered here. The number of masters of qi is just appalling.

The world-famous church, just a glance, will make people feel a sacred breath.

The seven archbishops, dressed in white cloaks, had entered the church long ago.

Each bishop represents a continent.

Only the Eastern Continent is special.

This time, the head of the Eastern Continent did not show up in person.

"Mai, this time, did you come forward on behalf of Master Chu Zheng?" Bishop Myro, who had a muscle explosion, asked.

"What's the matter with my adult, Bishop Milo would also like to ask me?"

"Of course I dare not." Myrow smiled. "Master Chu Zheng has a superior status. Although he sits with us as a bishop of the continent, it is not comparable to us in terms of status. I am only curious. This time, Master Chu Zheng didn't show up. Will his heir come forward?"

Milo's words came out, and the other five bishops, including Bishop Del, looked at the linen.

Although they are both bishops, to them, Chu Zheng is like an insurmountable mountain. If it is not the identity and the peculiarity of faith, Chu Zheng can already override the bishop.

Therefore, when Milo asked this question, everyone immediately noticed that Chu Zheng's successor could not be inferred by common sense.

Mr. Mai chuckled, "Everyone, this time, my lord, naturally also selected the successor, but I won't say more about it, and you don't have to worry about asking." Mr.

Mai finished, a few The bishops looked at each other with extremely complicated eyes.

At this time, the entire holy city was divided into seven parts.

These are the seven continents controlled by the seven bishop levels.

Eastern Continent, Europe, Western Continent, South America, North America, Oceania, Antarctica.

Among them, Bishop Milo led Antarctica, which can be called the most desolate place.

And the bishop Guy of Oceania also put his hopes on this selection. After all, Oceania is one of the seven continents, slightly stronger than Antarctica, but it is completely incomparable compared with the other prosperous continents.

Europe, which is under the control of Bishop Del, can be said to be the most important place for everyone. As for North America, as the second most developed continent in the world, its bishop Leo has extraordinary strength.

Western continents are similar to South America.

As for the eastern continents, these six bishops are not considered.

For a long time, the East has represented a lot of things. Even if the eastern continents were given to the six bishops, they would not dare to take over this hot potato.

In the two thousand years of inheritance of the Shenyin Society, there has always been an unwritten rule that things in the East are only left to the Orientals to do.

There are many people on the seven continents. Every bishop is not alone. For example, Andrea, who is Bishop Del, has long served Milo.

The seven bishops all have their own heirs.

"Brother Del, it seems that your house is not yet here." Milo smiled at Bishop Del. "When the morning bell rings tomorrow, the selection will begin. If he does not show up, he will voluntarily give up this time. The selection was made, I think that the desolate ice land is very suitable for you, Del. You care for the elderly."

"Mylo, that's not the case." The guard who will take care of the gods in Oceania will take over, " The child of Delk, I know, has always lived under the protection of Brother Del. Even if he came to participate in this selection, Brother Del, I am afraid to go to Antarctica to stay. I think, Delk will not come to Del Brother, it might be a good thing, or the cruelty of the selection, and after the selection, Brother Del would have to send white hair to black hair."

There are places where there are people, there are rivers and lakes, and the bishops are not A piece of iron.

When Milo and Guy said this, the other bishops were silent.

Bishop Dyer controls the coveted Europe, and there is an element of enemies.

Tang Hao's character is well known to everyone. It can be said that no one can be optimistic that Bishop Del will continue to stay in Europe after this selection.

Milo was sneering in his heart, he had received the news from Andrea, Delk was participating in the devil trial of Bright Island, but on the trial island, there were some ants that had not yet been defensive, and Delkena People, even being turned around by a ants, and really moved, such a person, not afraid!

In front of the Holy City gate, two figures walked in.

In this holy city, there are people of all skin tones. The combination of Henry and Tang Hao will not be noticed much.

"Do you know the content of the selection?" Henry looked at the holy city with his eyes. He traveled all over the world, not the first time he came to this holy city, but this time, it gave him the feeling, and before, completely Different.

In the past, Henry did not grasp the gas, and he did not know that there were so many incredible things in this world. In the past, he even thought that the city was a bit sacred.

But now, Henry understands that he has been sitting in the sky and watching the sky. After grasping Qi, Henry is more sensitive to the world. When he stepped into this holy city, Henry felt a divine breath. Come, this breath can even calm down some of the hostility in his heart.

When Tang Xuan asked Henry, he shook his head. "Do you know, what does it matter? The ones in front of you are all enemies."

"Hey, relax." Henry patted Tang Hao's shoulder "Do you know what to do now?"

"See you tomorrow morning." Tang Hao nodded and walked to the place opposite to Henry.

Chapter 1042: Ghost City

Henry saw it and shook his head. "It's such a child who likes to work hard."

Holding his hands behind his head, Henry walked leisurely to the side and looked around.

"Really, for such a big party, shouldn't you come to set off the atmosphere in the street stalls? Really." Henry pouted and groaned.

In the holy city, the forces of the seven parties, the forces of the Shenyinhui from all over the world,

Henry this time, can also be regarded as seeing the true background of the Shenyinhui, just the master of condensing gas, Henry is beyond count, in the holy city There are also several breaths that make Henry feel palpitations.

Henry stood in front of the world-famous church in the Holy City. The church covers an area of 23,000 square meters. The entire church is a place full of holiness and glory in the eyes of the believers, but at the moment, it gives Henry the feeling, But it was extremely depressed, the feeling that made Henry feel a little breathless.

"Really, this kind of place is still rare in the future." Henry turned his head around and wandered towards other places.

The number of people who have come to the Holy City has been increasing. With the passage of time, Henry clearly feels that the flow of people on the street is more dense, and everyone has a look of excitement on his face.

This selection is about the future of those bishops, but for those who have nothing to do with this matter, this is like a grand event.

When the night falls, there are still a lot of people, and the party here is completely different from Yanxia.

In crowded places in the summer, the streets are full of food stalls. If there is a fire in a place, then there are not many people sitting in front of the stalls drinking.

But here, there are people who do anything, street performances, bragging, gathering pubs, and some people are still doing some ritual ceremonies at night, but there is no barbecue stall on the street, which makes Henry feel that atmosphere.

"Man, a glass of rum." Henry sat at the bar of a tavern and waved his hand.

The waiter skillfully pushed a glass of rum in front of Henry.

Henry took the wine glass and shook it, taking a sip.

"Slightly sweet, strong fragrance, not bad." Henry praised.

A figure, sitting next to Henry, also asked for a glass of rum.

"Well, what's the gain this day?" Henry took another drink and took a sip.

"I heard a lot of news." The person sitting next to Henry was Tang Hao. "Now the whole city has been divided into the forces of the seven parties. In addition to the eastern continents, the bishops and disciples of the other six continents have solicited a lot. People, prepare to work hard in tomorrow's selection."

Henry sipped the wine stains left on his lower lip and continued to ask: "What about the selection rules?"

"There are currently three sayings out of which the credibility is compared. The higher point is that the bishops' disciples led the followers to fight. The general number of followers was controlled within 10 people. Another saying is that the bishops' disciples did not bring the followers into chaos. This rule has appeared once, but at that time, it was the bishops who were fighting, and the melee was too terrible, and the fairness factor was reduced, so the probability of this rule appearing is not high. The third argument is three selections, which are points systems, which are fighting and single-handed melee. , And dealing with the experimental body, this is common in the past."

Henry nodded. "The news we heard is not much different, but I have a problem."

"You said." Tang Hao also took the wine glass.

"Do you have a follower?"

Tang Hao just prepared to put the wine glass to his mouth, and suddenly, for a long while, he spit out two words: "No..."

"Then you hit a hammer, you hit it." Henry pouted. "I have observed that the disciples of the bishops are all under the age of thirty. The strongest ones should have the early stage of condensing gas. The weakest ones are also the early stages of metamorphosis. Your strength in the imperial period No one can follow me."

Tang Hao's face was awkward. "You know, I haven't put my thoughts on these things."

"Go." Henry took a sip of his drink. The rum patted Tang Hao's shoulder. "I'll take you to find a follower."

"Look for a follower?" Tang Hao got up with a puzzled look and followed Henry.

The Holy City is not big, otherwise there will be no title of China.

Tang Hao followed Henry with a puzzled face, "Brother, where are you going to take me to find a follower? My dad is a bishop in Europe, and the people you can find now must have been staring at me, Are you looking for a follower or an enemy?"

"Your mentality is very successful, but the flexibility is still too poor." Henry shook his head, "Well, since your dad asked me to protect you, I will teach again. You remember one thing at a time. Enemies are not only used to deal with them, they can also be used."

"Usage?" Tang Hao felt more confused as he listened.

Henry took Tang Hao all the way out of the Holy City, and then came to a place similar to the market, on both sides of the street, full of taverns, in front of the tavern, and many stalls, in front of which all kinds of weird stuff.

Henry asked, "Do you know where this is?"

Tang Hao nodded, "Ghost City."

The origin of the ghost market was originally a party in Wenwan. The items sold here are mixed with fish eyes. There are also rare items, and there are even more fakes. People will not return or exchange them once they are traded. They are called ghost markets.

Over time, ghost markets have become popular in many places. Some large gatherings such as the Shenyin Society have also been set up early.

People who come to the ghost market believe that they have a pair of bright eyes and can find baby in the tatters.

The ghost market sells everything. Henry even feels the spirit of the spirit stone even in the ghost market.

No matter where the forces are, the Lingshi is an absolute hard currency. At the beginning, the god punishment of the Divine Secret Society Zhu Lan, because of the Lingshi, directly pushed Henry under the eighteenth layer of hell. It can be seen how much the Lingshi is important.

In the eyes of the gas refiner, the spirit stone is the powerful foundation.

Of course, not all gas refiners want to be infinitely strong. Some people find that their talents are limited, and they will secretly sell the spirit stones for sale.

After all, if the Lingshi is seen by a big force, this force is good to talk about. If it is not good to talk, killing and killing goods is not a thing in the world of gas refiners, but in the underground world. It is also a common thing. That is also commonplace.

Therefore, to sell for a good price, the ghost market is a good choice.

Of course, there are real spirit stones, and there are also fake spirit stones. Henry and Tang Hao walked all the way, and they saw a person who was desperately trying to buy a fake spirit stone. The people around them all looked lively and nobody Go for it, come to the ghost market, if you have a bad eye, you can only blame yourself.

Chapter 1043

"Brother, what are we doing here?" Tang Hao couldn't help asking.

"Look at who that is." Henryshen pointed at a young man, with five or six people behind him, walking around in the ghost town with a stern look, looking like a king.

Tang Hao frowned, "Butler? Jason's man."

"Yes." Henry said: "The news I found, in tomorrow's selection, Barrett will play as a follower of Jason, Jason. This person is not very refined, and he is very suspicious. Although the selection rules are defined as no more than ten followers, there are only six people here in Jason, and he believes in the strength of his six followers. To say one thing, his followers are indeed more powerful than others, but the lack of one is also an unaffordable loss for him."

Tang Hao's eyes flashed, "I understand brother, you want to put Barrett in advance Abolished, so that he won't be able to participate in tomorrow's selection?"

Henry snapped his fingers. "You just guessed a little and went with me."

Barrett took the man and swayed in the ghost market, taking things here. Take a look, something kicked over there, many vendors are very dissatisfied with Barrett's approach, but they dare not show it, after all, Barrett's strength is there.

Furthermore, many people now know that Barrett will play as Jason's entourage. Jason is a disciple of Bishop Milo. Once the selection is over, Jason is the next bishop, Barrett's status, Naturally, it is also rising, so offend him now, and wait until Barrett settles the bill after the fall, that is not good.

Henry and Tang Hao followed Barrett. Barrett was clearly in a good mood and drank a lot of wine.

"Yo, that chick, come and chat with me a few words." Walking to a blonde girl, Barrett stretched out his hands unkindly.

The beauty escaped Barrett's hand and tried to get angry, but she didn't dare.

"You fucking girl, hit my sister's idea!" Henry, who had been following Barrett, yelled at the momentum and rushed forward, striking Barrett's head with a punch.

Tang Hao, who was behind Henry, watched for a moment. What happened?

The blonde beauty stayed there too. She couldn't remember when she had such a brother.

Henry's punch was not light and heavy, and it hurt Palet's head without any serious injuries.

How could Barrett, who was so arrogant, could bear it, glanced at Henry, and shouted, "Give me abolish him!"

The people who had been behind Barrett immediately rushed towards Henry.

Henry didn't have anything else, and turned away.

"Chasing!" Barrett shouted and chased out first.

By the time Tang Hao responded, Henry and Barrett's men had run away.

Tang Hao understood in his mind what Henry was going to do. There were many people here.

Obviously it was not the place to solve Barrett. This was to lead Barrett to no one.

Tang Hao simply stood still. About ten minutes later, he saw Henry walked with ease.

"Let's solve it, let's do the second item." Henry clapped his hands, then took something out of his pocket and handed it to Tang Hao.

When Tang Hao saw this thing, he looked weird, "Human skin mask?"

"It's specially used to find someone to paint with your face shape, the price is not cheap, don't play bad." Henry said, also took out a person Put a leather mask on your face.

This time, Henry did not try the one on the island, but changed to a younger mask, including Tang Hao. The human skin mask used by the two is not the one with extraordinary appearance, which is very ordinary.

"Go, take you to play." Henry glanced at the ghost market, and then took Tang Hao, strode into a private club.

"Brother, you are..." Tang Hao still couldn't figure out what Henry was going to do.

"Take you to find a big brother to vote for, and tomorrow's selection will depend on the big brother." Henry ha ha smiled, "From now on, my name is Zhang Yiqing, as for you, name yourself."

Tang Hao from the mirror of the club entrance I saw my face that had become an oriental face, and reached out and touched the golden hair on my head. "You just call me Leng Shao."

"Leng Shao..." Henrydun was speechless, "I said What kind of stuff do you know about the Yanxia culture?"

Tang Hao laughed aloud: "Brother, I have loved the Yanxia culture since I was a kid. I used to go online and sneaked over the wall to play the Yanxia dance game. I was still in Donghua with people. The speaker was brushed in one area."

Henry swallowed and gave Tang Hao a thumbs up. These words are cold and cold . Henry admitted that he was ignorant.

The first floor of the private club is just an entrance hall. There is nothing. The large stone stairs are in front of Henry and Tang Hao. The top of the stone stairs is a gate. In front of the gate, there are two strong black men guarding There.

Henry and Tang Hao came to the gate and were stopped by two black people.

"This is a private place."

"We are here in a private place." Henry smiled slightly, and a cyclone condensed in his hands.

When the two black men saw it, they immediately stopped their arms in front of Henry and let Henry pass.

Henry glanced at Tang Hao, and then strode into the door.

As soon as I entered the gate, Henry and Tang Hao felt like a bar, and they were all decks. There were already a lot of people sitting here, all kinds of gossip, but all the talks were about the topic of the Shenyin Society, such as who Who has done something, for example, what happened to the girl in the family, men talked to women and status, women talked to women and men, the same as in this world.

Practicing qi is not qi, it's just a relationship of strength or not. Everyone is still a vulgar person.

Henry and Tang Hao came to a deck and sat down, and soon a hot blonde woman came with a wine list and asked them what they needed.

Henry glanced at the wine list. "You guys, don't you have any exciting things?" The blonde beauty moved, and then she looked puzzled. "Exciting things? Sir, I don't understand what you are talking about."

Henry pouted, "I still heard Jason say that he has good things, it looks like nothing, go away."

Henry was about to get up.

The blonde beauty quickly grabbed Henry's clothes, "Mr. was originally a guest of Lord Jason, giggling, since he is a guest of Lord Jason, there are of course exciting things, please here." The blonde shook her enchanting posture. , With Henry and Tang Hao, walked towards a corner.

There was a hidden door in the corner. After pushing the door open, the blonde didn't walk in. Instead, she made a please gesture in front of the door. "Two guests please play well."

"Haha, of course." Henry laughed. Then, he took Tang Hao vigorously and walked in. The gesture was exactly the same as that of Barrett who had just visited the ghost market.

Chapter 1044: Underground Boxing

Henry and Tang Hao walked into the dark door. This is a straight-down channel. Still in the channel, Henry and Tang Hao heard some shouts and cheers.

After walking for about thirty seconds, the two saw an iron rolling door.

When Henry and Tang Hao approached, the roller shutter door was pulled open from inside, and a shout of voice swept over the two of them.

"Kill! Kill him!"

"Quickly, kill him, I pressed two million!"

"Let him die, let him die!"

Numerous such voices continued to sound from inside the door, pulling up the roller shutter door. He was a middle-aged man in his fifties, with a thick beard, a messy hair, a cigarette in his mouth, and smoke spitting out of his mouth.

"Move faster, don't ink." The middle-aged man urged Henry impatiently.

Henry and Tang Hao accelerated their pace.

"The bet is on the left, the rules are written there. Although it is all friends who come here, if the rules are broken, don't blame everyone for not being affectionate." The middle-aged man warned after Henry and Tang Hao entered the door, And then pull the shutter door again.

Henry and Tang Hao surround the scene inside the roller shutter door. Here is like an underground black boxing market. A round iron cage with a radius of 10 meters is placed in the center, surrounded by excited audiences.

The inner wall of the iron cage is covered with sharp thorns, which means that once it enters the iron cage, it will inevitably be divided into wins and losses, and it will be endless.

Just as Henry looked towards the iron cage, a young duel was nailed to the edge of the iron cage by his opponent, and spikes pierced his chest.

Cheers and shouts sounded almost simultaneously.

The winner in the cage raised his arm.

Henry observed that there were probably more than a thousand people in the audience of the entire underground black boxing, and everyone was very excited.

Not far from Henry and them, there is a large table with a man and a woman sitting behind the table. They are enjoying the fruit bowls laid out on the table. Obviously, they are responsible for the black fist duel here.

Tang Hao asked curiously: "Brother, how did you find this place?"

"The more arrogant people, the more afraid of death." Henry shrugged, "I haven't screwed Barrett's head, he Just explain everything you know."

"What about others?" Tang Hao asked subconsciously.

Henrybai gave Tang Hao a glance, and then said with a light face: "I don't know, maybe it has already disappeared with the wind."

Tang Hao couldn't help but shivered. The person in front of him always smiled and felt that he didn't care about anything. The way it looks, but when you start, there is never any soft-heartedness.

The central iron cage door opened, and the winner came out in a burst of cheers, while the loser nailed to the cage wall was dragged aside by the face of disdain.

A person looking like a host walked into the iron cage.

"Everyone, I think, today's appetizers are almost the same, and it's time to get to the topic. We have our ever-winner, Flory!" The host raised his hand and shouted, a two-meter-high, whole body A giant iron tower made of steel appears in the sight of everyone. This is a black man with explosive muscles all over his body. His eyes are like a fierce beast.

"Flory!"

"Flory!"

Flory appeared, and then there was a burst of cries. In this underground life and death boxing, Flory's name has been spread for a long time.

"It appears that our victorious king of popularity is not low, in that case, do not waste everyone's time, and Flory battle that experiment body ..... One!"

Host Carter, in this boxing games There was a roar on the corner.

"Roar!"

The voice was full of anger and tyranny.

A flash struck at the place where the sound came. This is a giant ape that is three meters tall, with black hair and looks more sturdy. Compared with this giant ape, the tower-like Flory , As if it were a child.

The mouth of the giant ape was covered with fangs, and behind the giant ape, it also carried a pair of wings.

Henry had seen this giant ape.

When he entered the small world of the Zumeng League, the first experimental body he killed was such a giant ape, but compared to the one Henry killed, it only took a small circle.

"Brother, they made out the experimental body of the Zumeng League. This behavior is completely prohibited!" Tang Hao stared at the giant ape.

The rest of them did not show a little unexpected expression, but instead gave a more violent cheer.

"Let's sit and take a look." Henry patted Tang Hao's shoulder and deliberately chose a seat closer to the big table in the middle.

The limbs of the giant ape were tied up by chains and dragged into the cage by eight people together. The three-meter giant ape and the two-meter-high muscle giant Flory stood together in a ten-meter radius and five-meter high iron cage. Inside, it gives a very violent visual impact.

The host had already walked out of the cage at this time and shouted with a microphone: "In one minute's bet, Flory wins one and two loses, the experimental body wins two and loses one!"

Flory's odds are huge. The ape is twice, but there are still most people, and Flory will win.

Facing the great ape, Flory also showed extra confidence. There was no fear in his eyes. If he looked closely at his eyes, he seemed to have regarded the great ape in front of him as his prey.

The one-minute betting time soon ended. At this time, the iron cage door closed, and Flory and the great ape in the iron cage did not retreat.

The chains that bound the limbs of the great ape also fell off at the same time. At this moment, no cruel words were released. The great ape roared, waving its thick limbs, and rushed towards Flory, trying to put this thin skin in front of him. The monkey shreds.

Yes, in front of the giant ape, tall Flory is like a skinny monkey.

Facing the rushing giant ape, Flory was not afraid, and punched at the giant ape.

This man and the ape all choose the most direct method to tear their opponents to pieces.

In this bloody scene, the audience watching the scene screamed.

"Tear him, tear him!"

"Eat him!"

Henry and Tang Hao sat aside, watching the battle in the cage leisurely.

"What do you think, tell the truth." Henry asked Tang Hao, specifically amplifying his voice.

Tang Hao looked at it for a while and said: "This Flory has a good fighting consciousness and is very explosive. Although he has a big difference in shape from the great ape, the gap in strength in the early stage will not be too much, as long as he Being able to make a quick decision, this giant ape is not his opponent." As soon as Tang Hao's words fell, Flory jumped up and jumped to the top of the giant ape's head. .

Down three elbows in a row, the gigantic giant ape's head directly exploded the flowers, and "boomed" down to the ground.

Chapter 1045: No One Knows Less Than Leng

Facing the collapsed giant ape, watching everyone seems to have thought of it for a long time, without any surprise.

But some people who bought the giant ape won and showed an annoyed expression, muttering to them, saying that they should not be so greedy.

The host took the microphone and walked into the cage. "It seems that Experiment No. 1 can't pose any threat to our winning king. In that case, let's cheer, Experiment No.... No. 2!" is another spotlight. Down, a two-meter long, half-human and half-lion figure appeared in the spotlight, just like the mythological sphinx.

When the eyes of everyone gathered in the spotlight, the body of the giant ape in the cage had been dragged out.

"Betting in a minute, Flory wins three for one win, and the experimental body wins two for two!"

This time, the odds have turned six times!

As just now, Experiment No. 2 was also drawn into the iron cage. Although its body is not as large as the giant ape, it is more terrifying than the giant ape. The face has a large mouth that is disproportionate to its face. The flesh still stained on the sharp teeth proves that this experimental body No. 2 is not good.

"Afflori, Flory will win!"

"I bet on the test subject!" The one-minute betting time, and soon ended in the excitement of everyone, this time, it was still the person who bet Flory won. many.

The iron cage closed, and Flory looked at the experiment body No. 2 in front of him, still confident in his eyes.

When the chain that bound Experiment No. 2 fell off, Experiment No. 2 flew towards Flori at the first time, and its speed was more fierce than that of the giant ape just now.

"What about you this time?" Henry asked Tang Hao again.

Tang Hao shook his head and said, "It's still Flori's victory. I understand this kind of human-faced animal body. They have great defects, and they are not even as strong as the giant ape just now, and abandoned the most powerful. ···No!"

At this moment, Tang Hao's pupils shrank suddenly, "Nothing! This experimental body has a problem, its nerve reflex speed is completely higher than the normal experimental body! And the pain has completely disappeared! This experimental body The bone strength is very weak, very dependent on the spine, but just Flori attacked its weakness after two attacks, but it didn't respond at all!"

Henry didn't doubt that Tang Hao could fully say the weakness of the experiment. Speaking of this kind of small experimental body, it is the kind of overlord. Tang Hao can tell some of the weaknesses. After all, he spent more than a year in the laboratory. Tang Hao already cooked up the data of those experimental bodies.

It is no exaggeration to say that the theory is that the researchers who returned to the ancestral alliance did not know much about Tang Hao. Although Tang Hao is not capable, he is definitely a well-deserved "mouth" strong king in theory.

In the iron cage, Flory issued two confident attacks, but the result was completely different from what he had imagined, and he did not cause any harm to the experimental body two. Instead, he was touched twice by the experimental body two. Two blood marks were left on the body.

The confident look on Flory's face gradually disappeared, and he changed into a dignified color. Such an experimental body, he does not know how many times he has encountered, nor can he remember how many games he has played, but he can continue to attack in this way. Neither of the two weaknesses reacted at all.

Flory glanced at the host outside the cage. When he saw that the host put all his eyes on the experimental body No. 2, Flory only felt cold and mixed with the underground boxing experience for many years. Let him suddenly understand that he may have been abandoned. In front of the experimental body No. 2, it is very likely that some medicine was injected! Although this kind of medicine that can temporarily ignore the pain will have huge side effects, it is enough to let this subject kill itself in the cage!

Flori shook his aching fist and stared at the experiment in front of him, because he understood that he might die.

The experimenter who can't feel the pain doesn't even care about the opponent in front of him. The big mouth on the face of the man can already grind the root of the ear, showing sharp fangs to bite at Flory. Can only move around in this cage.

Tang Hao sighed, "This Flory lost."

"Are you so sure?" Henry asked loudly.

"Of course." Tang Hao nodded confidently.

Tang Hao was talking and heard a burst of exclamation from the audience.

Flory seized the opportunity to want to twist off the head of Subject No. 2.

Normally, as long as the spine of this creature is violently attacked, it will be paralyzed in a short period of time, but Experiment No. 2 has not. Before Flory's head was twisted, it exerted a force. Flory hit the edge of the iron cage, and the sharp thorns penetrated Flory's body without any hindrance. Flory's eyes widened, and blood continued to flow out of him.

The second body of the experiment, however, was swayed in a wave, and it was also paralyzed to the ground. The drug effect has completely passed, and the pain that was previously suppressed by the drug effect hits together.

In the auditorium, there was a burst of booing and screaming, no one distressed Flory who died, they just distressed the money they lost.

As for the few people who bought the experiment and won, they cheered loudly.

Henry asked Tang Hao aloud again, "How do you evaluate this battle?"

"This Flory is a fool." Tang Hao said without hesitation.

"Oh? Stupid? Come and listen." Henry asked again.

When Henry asked this question, not far from them, a man and a woman sitting in front of the large table looked away.

Tang Hao said: "This Flory..."

"Be loud, this is too noisy, I can't hear it." Henry growled.

"I said! This Flory, no brain!" Tang Hao just communicated with the music in the nightclub, and every word said aloud, "Although this subject was injected with a drug, it just lost its pain. This loss of pain is to give the subject a powerful combat capability in a short period of time, but at the same time, there will also be a side effect at this time, which is to paralyze its own nerves, as long as it finds a few nerve key points to attack, it will let the subject completely lose its ability to act, to put it bluntly, that is, the position of the weakness has been changed. This Flory has no brains and will not observe, otherwise it is impossible to die like this!" When Tang Hao finished speaking, his face it is disdain to go up.

The eyes of a man and a woman sitting on the big table showed interesting expressions. Among them, the woman stood up, twisted her waist, and walked towards Henry. When they approached the two, they actively spoke "I'm Lila, do you know the experiment very well?"

"Understood?" Henry showed a ridiculous look. "No one knows the experiment better than my brother."

Chapter 1046 Trading Center

Lila's eyes questioned.

Henry saw Lila unbelieving and said again: "Leng Shao, tell her aloud, how many of this kind of experiment can you make?"

Tang Hao didn't know why Henry asked specifically, but still answered truthfully: "If it's just that this kind of experiment body, it's no exaggeration to say, within ten, it can be solved in the shortest time. If more than ten, it's a little more troublesome."

"Great talk!" A mocking sound came, sitting with Lila. The young man who came together came, "

Big talk, everyone will say it!" "Big talk?" Henry sneered. "In this way, I don't need my cold young brother to shoot. He is watching the war next to me. I can go in and do it. Solve these experiments easily."

"You?" The young man looked at Henry with a sneering face. On Henry's body, he didn't feel a little about Qi, and in the eyes of the young man, this was nothing. The weak.

"Don't be in that yin and yang." Henry's expression was uncomfortable. "Why don't we gamble?" "Hehe." The young man said, "Gamble? What do you want to gamble?"

"It's very simple." Henry pointed to the experimental body number two in the cage that had collapsed to the ground. "For this kind of thing, come to ten. Within two minutes, if I can't solve it, you will win. I will solve it. I will win. "

" Two minutes?" At the time Henry said, let's not talk about the young men who didn't believe in them, even Lila, who was curious about them, was also full of disbelief.

If Henry is a late metamorphic realm, or a superpower in the Qiqi realm, they wouldn't doubt Henry, but they might be, this is a small character that he didn't even master Qi, to fight the experimental body? Not to mention ten, just one, can kill him!

"Why don't you dare? Don't dare to say it straight." Henry mocked.

"Don't you dare?" The young man waved his hand. "What if you lose?"

Henry shook his head slightly, "I lost it for you to dispose of, but you will lose, I don't ask you to pay anything, just kneel down and call me grandpa."

"You are arrogant!" The young man was full of energy Moving, a powerful coercion belonging to the metamorphic environment swept towards Henry.

Henry deliberately pretended to be invincible, and stepped back and forth.

"Fine." Lila suddenly stood between Henry and the young man, blocked the coercion from the young man for Henry, and then turned to look at Henry, "Are you really confident?"

"Of course." Henry did not hesitate Nodded.

"Then you two come with me, even if the bet is, I know your thoughts, you sit specifically near me, deliberately attract my attention, and then propose to bet, you just want to show yourself, you two rest assured, if you really have The benefits of this skill are indispensable to you." Lila waved to the two of them. "Come here."

Lila finished, and gave the young man a wink, then walked to the side with Henry and Tang Hao.

At the edge of this underground boxing court, there is also a secret door. Lila led the two through the secret door and through a passage of up to 500 meters.

Henry calculated that this distance should have left the scope of the ghost city at the angle of the side slope. According to the orientation of the clubhouse when they came in, it was inferred that it was underground in another street.

There was no one guarding this passage. When the three passed through the passage, they came to a hall.

This hall is very spacious, giving Henry the feeling of being a mercenary gathering place in the West. There are many stalls around the hall, all selling strange things.

"Claws VIII of the experimental body, just out of the first three months of new goods, grinding into a dagger, an absolute cut iron drunk, just scales ninety VI of eight experimental body can take away!"

One selling The sound spread into Henry's ears. Henryrao glanced at it with interest, and found that it was a person holding a praying mantis sickle-shaped thing and waving it non-stop.

Tang Hao whispered in Henry'er's ear: "Brother, the experimental body No. 96 is a first-generation test product of the Ba snake. Its defense is not as good as that of the Ba snake, but it is also much stronger than the normal inner armor."

" This is the back wing of the experimental body No. 79, which can be made into a close-fitting inner armor. You need to take a look."

There are many people in the whole hall. These people are different from the spectators watching the game outside. Almost everyone, They all exude a sense of hostility, and look at their appearance. They are all experienced field players. There are men and women, old and young, Western faces, and Eastern faces.

Lila said, "Every time you come out of the purgatory of the Huizu League, you will get a good harvest. This is a barter location. You can take a look first. I will tell you about your situation. Come and decide."

"OK." Henry narrowed his eyes, revealing a fan-like look.

After Lila finished speaking, she strode aside.

Henry and Zu Xian hang out in front of the stalls.

When passing a stall, Henry saw many people around here, and after thinking about it, he stopped.

This is a very small stall. There is a piece of animal skin on the stall. The animal skin is not big, and the whole is spread out, probably covering the front chest.

"This is a carcass evolved from an unrecorded test body. It is absolutely tough. Even the claw of the test body No. 8, don't want to leave a trace on it."

The boss of the booth said loudly.

More than ten people onlookers were astonished at the hide.

One of the blonde girls, who looked only 16 or 7 years old, was very interested in this animal skin. She had just tried to scratch the animal skin with various sharp objects, and she couldn't leave a trace on it and wanted to penetrate it. Animal skin can't be done at all. If this animal skin is made into a part of inner armor, it can definitely greatly improve one's defense.

"How do you sell this hide?" the blond girl said.

The stall owner was a middle-aged Western man of about 40 years old. He stretched out a finger. "A piece of spirit stone."

"A piece of spirit stone?" The blonde girl wrinkled her willow brows. It is an absolute hard currency. The reason why it can become a hard currency is because this spirit stone is extremely important to gas refiners. Every piece is not easily taken out.

"This is a life-saving treasure. The price of a piece of spirit stone is not expensive." An onlooker said.

"Of course not expensive." The stall owner patted his chest and promised, "I'm older and I don't want to fight anymore, otherwise I will definitely keep this thing. Now, I just want to change the spirit stone and go back to my boy for use. , Otherwise how could I take this kind of baby out."

Chapter 1047: The True Lord Appears

The blond girl's eyes show a struggling look.

After a few tens of seconds, the blonde girl took a deep breath and said, "Okay, this thing, I want it." Then, the blonde girl took out a spirit stone of about three cubic centimeters from her pocket. This is the standard specification set by the Shenyin Society. A piece of spirit stone is just this size.

The blonde girl was just about to hand over the spirit stone to the stall owner.

Standing on the side, Henry suddenly said, "Slow!"

Henry interrupted the movement of the blonde girl at once.

The onlookers, including the blonde girl and the stall owner, looked to Henry.

Henry looked at the stall owner and said, "I said, you are not too young at this age. Is it fun to cheat a little girl here?"

"Cheat?" The stall owner frowned, then looked at Henry with cold eyes, "Boy, Do you understand what you're talking about?"

"Of course." Henry nodded and reached for the hide sold by the stall owner. "This thing is nothing more than infecting some snake blood, and then doping some toughness. Go in, so it looks very tough. Once you remove those tendons and dry them, it is as fragile as a piece of toilet paper soaked in water and dried. You sell a spirit stone and you really make a good money."

As soon as Henry said this, the owner's face changed continuously.

Just saying that name out loud piece of animal hide value for money onlookers quickly pushed before Henry body, sneered: "! Boy, you do not have a Royal Air even weak, what qualified to say these words" blonde The girl stared angrily at the stall owner, "You said, did you sell this thing to me like he said?"

"Of course not." The stall owner shook his head.

"Less cold, I'll leave it to you." Henrychong Tang Hao nodded.

Tang Hao nodded, reaching for the animal skin.

Seeing that Tang Hao's hand was about to touch this animal skin, the stall owner suddenly shot him in front of Tang Hao, "Who made you move, let me put my hands down!" The stall owner's speed is extremely fast, not Tang Hao's imperial The atmosphere can reflect, at a critical moment, Henry secretly pulled Tang Hao, let Tang Hao avoid the palm of the stall owner, but this can also show that this stall owner's heart is really a ghost.

The blonde girl was not a fool, and she immediately saw that there was absolutely something wrong with the hide. She quickly put away the spirit stone and looked at the stall owner angrily. "Okay, you are really cheating!" The stall owner saw his hand. The spirit stone flew away and locked his eyes on Henry and Tang Hao.

The man who had just flicked the blond girl with the stall owner came behind them quietly, blocking their retreat.

"Why, want to kill us to vent our anger?" Henry's expression was relaxed.

"Oh, when did the two superiors come to this exchange." A light laughter sounded, "Huh? Why are these two despicable races?"

Henry and Tang Haoguang heard the voice and knew who was coming, right. It was Kejin who had been slapped several times in a row in Luojiang Town by Henry.

Lila, who led Henry and Tang Hao to here, followed behind Ke Jin.

After seeing Kojin, the stall owner quickly lowered his head and called Master Kojin.

Ke Jin walked over and glanced at the stall boss. He sneered, "Waste, even if you can do so, it's a failure, what use do you want?"

"King Jin forgive sins!" The stall boss knelt on the spot and knelt Lower and lower your head.

"Come on." Cokin waved impatiently. "This is the first and last time. Don't let me see you when you have such waste."

"Understand, understand." The stall boss nodded again and again. Then he got up and left quickly.

When the blonde girl saw Cokin, she looked at the back of the stall owner hurriedly away, revealing a look of surprise, "Well, you are here to lie together!"

Cokin faced the blonde girl and made a standard Western Etiquette, said: "Beautiful Ms. Bonita, this is just a little joke we have with you. I believe that your father, Bishop Leo, will understand it here."

"I will definitely tell you all about this matter ." Tell my father!" Bonita was extremely dissatisfied.

"Of course." Coquim nodded. "Ms. Bernita can say everything about this place, because we are not malicious."

After Coquim said this, he no longer ignored Bonita, but He looked at Henry and Tang Hao, and said, "I'm curious, how much real material do you two people from low-lying races? Know what this is? Can't you say it? Tell me to listen, and remember, if you can't tell, I will kill you."

Cochin picked up a bone, and the bone was covered with barbs.

Henry secretly gestured to Tang Hao, beckoning Tang Hao to cooperate.

"The sternum of the thirty-seventh experimental body should belong to a young age." Tang Hao just glanced, and then said.

An unexpected look appeared on Kejin's face. The experimental body No. 37 is a rare species. And in his childhood, this barbed sternum was hidden in the body of the experimental body, and few people will find it. .

Cokin waved his hand and walked out a few people, each holding a tray with some odd-shaped things on the tray.

"Experimental body of hand number sixty-two, tooth number twenty-eight, lower rib number twenty-nine, internal groove fang number sixteen, dorsal wing number eighty-nine, and breast bone number fifty-four ""

Tang Hao still just glanced at it, and said lightly that Kojin ordered people to come up with the source of these things.

Tang Hao

's expression was boring, "Is there some common goods, is there nothing advanced?" Ke Jin's face is a bit ugly. These things he brought out are not the common goods that Tang Hao said. Some rarely collected materials, such as the back wing of the experimental body No. 89.

The experimental body No. 89 is a huge mosquito with a thin back as transparent. Moreover, the back of the No. 89 is not a whole, but consists of thousands of small parts, which is difficult Collecting a whole, almost 99% of the people can't tell from a point what this is.

The experimental body is no.14, it is a humanoid creature, its sternum is almost the same as normal humans, and there are no less than ten experimental bodies similar to its sternum, but it can still be easily distinguished!

"Hahahaha, great, great!" A burst of praise sounded.

The moment I heard this, Henry raised a smile at the corner of his mouth. Oh, after playing for so long, the Lord finally came out.

Not far away, Jason strode while clapping his hands, laughing loudly in his mouth.

Chapter 1048: Great Attitude Change

it here" "How is this possible?" Ke Jinfu murmured in disbelief.

"So, some people are just too ignorant." Tang Hao said intentionally, although he still hasn't figured out why Henry behaves so publicly, but since Henry has done so, he has to cooperate with the acting Go on, "Do you think that the subject will feel no pain when injecting the drug? The paralyzed nerves will put more pressure on some of their fulcrums, and touching these fulcrums is equivalent to cutting off their nerves Only, this kind of medicine injection is used to deal with people who do not understand anything. But in front of my Yiqing brothers, this is much worse."

Although Tang Hao said it rightly, he was also puzzled. Endlessly, after injection of these agents, the nerve pivots will indeed become more vulnerable, but those places are very hidden. If you want to find this nerve pivot, you must first observe it.

But now Henry, without even observing it, just made a random shot, and he did so. Tang Hao wondered how Henry did it.

What Tang Hao is not clear about is that for this kind of experimental body, for Henry, his body cannot be called powerful.

Henry's method of practicing Qi is the most overbearing one. The extinction of the world can not be seen from the outside.

Henry's way of dealing with these subjects is very simple and direct, which is to infuse violent gas into the body of the subject, and then destroy the nervous system of the subject.

For ordinary gas refiners, their qi is not so domineering, because the way they practice qi is to distribute qi from the inside out, and Henry directly uses the qi from the outside for his own use, this is Two completely different effects.

It is also because of the different ways of using gas. In the eyes of others, it is impossible to see that Henry is already imperial, unless he is a person who already knows his strength. If Henry deliberately hides his identity like now, others only treat him as An ordinary person who can't control the air.

But now, what an ordinary person does is completely beyond Jason's cognition!

The experimental body has always caused great trouble to Shenyin. Jason has seen the existence of such an experimental body, but those are masters above Condensed Gas. Like this kind of ordinary person can easily kill the experimental body. Jason is still seeing him for the first time. This time has made his eyes warm. If he can receive such a person, how much contribution will he make to the meeting? The contribution of these contributions will count towards yourself! This alone can easily see the weakness of each experimental body, enough to make the bottom of the Shenyinhui's bottom combat power up several grades!

To put it simply, in the past, only the master Qi can enter the Purgatory Hunting Experiment, but if he mastered the skills of this person, he can even achieve the level of the next force. This is a breakthrough for the Shenyin Society!

"I must get this talent!" Jason squeezed his fist tightly.

Ke Jin's face is a bit ugly. He has always been Jason's number one follower. No matter where Jason goes, he will take him, but now, Ke Jin feels a strong sense of crisis, he has an intuition, this The status of people in Jason's mind will soon surpass themselves!

In the next room, although Henry said to solve 34 experimental subjects in five minutes, when Henry really solved all the experimental subjects, the time was only two minutes passed.

For Jason and others, a person who didn't even achieve imperial dominance, solved 34 experimental subjects in two minutes, which is a miracle! Definitely a miracle! If you take this record into the meeting,

I don't know how much sensation it will cause!

Through the reinforced glass, Jason looked at Henry, who was standing in the next room without even breathing, and he was fortunate. He was glad that he met this kind of talent first!

"Quickly, open the door!" After reacting, Jason quickly got up from the sofa, then picked a good bottle of wine, and strode toward the door.

The door on the other side had also been opened, and Henry walked out from inside with a relaxed expression.

Henry just went out and heard Jason's laughter.

"Hahaha, brothers are really good means. I haven't asked for the names of the brothers." At this moment, Jason completely missed the high posture of the previous master.

Seeing this scene, Cochin's face became more gloomy.

"Zhang Yiqing." Henry said his pseudonym.

"Hahaha, Brother Zhang is really powerful. Come here, please here." Jason walked up, embraced Henry's shoulder enthusiastically, and raised the good wine in his hand. "We'll go over there for a drink."

"Okay." Henry nodded and followed Jason to the side.

Tang Hao followed him calmly. How could Lila not see Jason's thoughts, and also hurriedly approached Tang Hao.

The blonde girl Bernita, who had almost been deceived by a spirit stone, looked towards this side with a curious look and wondered what had happened.

Jason took Henry and them to a luxurious reception room. He waved his hand, and all the people in the reception room retreated, leaving only Cokin and Lila to follow him.

In front of a luxurious round table, Jason made a gesture of asking, "Come on, Brother Zhang, sit down, oh yes, I haven't asked this one yet..."

"My brother is cold." Henry patted Tang. Howe's shoulder.

As a Westerner, Jason did not understand the meaning of the word Leng Shao very much, and did not show any surprise. "Leng Shao, please."

Henry and Tang Hao were also polite and sat directly at the table.

As for Cokin and Lila, before Jason did not speak, they were not qualified to sit down.

Jason apparently didn't mean to let the two sit down, handing the bottle of good wine to Lila and begging Lila to pour it on.

As for Kojin, he is standing on the sidelines as a bodyguard. It is clear that at this moment, the importance of Henry and Tang Hao in Jason's eyes completely crushed Kojin.

Ke Jin looked at Henry and Tang Hao with a bit of hatred.

When the fine wine poured, Jason took the initiative to raise his glass, "Come on, Brother Zhang, Shao Shao, toast us for the first time." There was a whisper, and three expensive goblets touched together.

After taking a sip of fine wine, Jason took a deep breath. "Brother Zhang, I don't know how you and Leng Shao's ability come from. It really opened my eyes." Henry smiled and said, "I saw a lot more .", Naturally have experience."

Jason again said: "Brother Zhang, now the movement to return to the ancestral alliance is getting bigger and bigger. Every year, in order to remove the experimental body, the casualties are heavy. If you can contribute this method, For the meeting, it is definitely a great event."

Chapter 1049: He Can't Reject

Henry stared at Jason, silent on the surface, but sneered in his heart, this Jason really can pretend, if he wants to agree to this proposal now, he may be connected Can't take it anymore.

Seeing that Henry did not say anything, Jason said anxiously: "Brother Zhang, I hope you can understand how much help this method has for the meeting!"

Henry still did not say anything.

At this moment, the door of the parlor was pushed away from the outside.

At the moment the door was pushed open, Jason glared in the direction of the door. "

Are there any rules!" The door came in and was also a young man. After looking at Henry and Tang Hao, who were sitting at the round table like Jason, , Quickly walked to Jason.

"Sir, something happened."

Jason frowned slightly.

The coming young man leaned into Jason's ear and whispered something.

Although Henry could not hear the voice of the youth, he could read the lips to know what the other party said.

"Barrett had an accident and could not be contacted. Some people said he was dead."

This is what Henry read from the youth.

Henry's mouth twitched a sloppy smile, and at the same time he was a little disappointed. Hey, this Jason's intelligence system is really too backward. He clashed with Barrett in the face of so many people in the ghost market. It was only then that they received the news of Barrett's accident. It seems that this bishop disciple is not as powerful as he thought.

What Henry did not know is that not these bishops' disciples were too weak, but what they experienced was completely different from Henry.

The rise of Bright Island is under the suppression of the royal society, leading the underground world to initiate a revolution. This is equivalent to a war in the underground world. It is not too much to call it a world war hidden in the dark.

Although the bishop disciple like Jason also came from the intrigue, but compared with the experience of Henry, the intensity is like that of a child playing a house. They put it bluntly, and pay more attention to their own status. For example, the bishop's disciples have an advantage over others in identity, and those with lower identities do not dare to start with them.

But Henry experienced different wars. It is a world where ordinary people can use a knife to slash down to the head of the next class of forces. That is a world where even the closest people can betray at any time.

Although Jason is similar to Henry in age, it is a world of difference in terms of means and arrangement in all aspects.

Just like now, Jason has gone step by step in the direction set by Henry.

After listening to the situation reported by the young man, Jason whispered: "Waste things, go out and find!"

"Understood, let's go." The young man said with a bow, and then quickly quit the reception room.

Jason apparently could not reach the point of ecstasy. After the youth left for a while, his expression gradually returned to normal.

The people of the Shenyin Society, although powerful, are still far away from the underground forces that have been in battle all the time.

Henry affirmed that if he is just talking about the means of playing, a successor of the next class can easily turn around Jason.

Jason took a deep breath and raised his glass. "Brother Zhang, I'm sorry to make you laugh. Something happened suddenly. Let's continue." "Okay." Henry nodded with a smile.

Jason showed a thoughtful look, and then said, "Well, Brother Zhang, I won't play a dumb puzzle with you anymore. When you come today, you must not only show me your ability is so simple, what do you want?"

Henry Upon hearing this, his eyes suddenly became hot. "Status!"

"Okay!" Jason responded without thinking, "If you want status, I will give you this status. You should know, Tomorrow will be the selection. Since Brother Zhang can come today and trust me Jason's ability, I will not hide you from Brother Zhang. This selection is divided into three games in total. Field, compared to dealing with the experimental body, in terms of personal strength, I have absolute confidence in myself, but if dealing with the experimental body, my confidence is not so sufficient, everyone has everyone to deal with the experiment Physical means, but I'm sure that no one's means is as good as Brother Zhang's."

Henry tapped the table with his fingers. "You mean, would you like me to give you this method?"

"Yes." Jason nodded unabashedly, "As long as you contribute your method, I will definitely win this time. At that time, I can give you the position you want!"

Henry smiled slightly, shaking He shook his head, "I can't teach this method, I think, let's wait for you after the selection, come to me."

Henry finished, got up on the spot, patted Tang Hao's shoulder, and then walked outside the meeting room.

Tang Hao said nothing and followed Henry to prepare to go out.

Ke Jin, who had been standing on the side, shone all over him, blocking both Henry and Tang Hao, blocking their way.

"How? Master Jason doesn't want to let us both go?" Henry smiled.

Jason waved his hand, beckoning Kogin to retreat.

"Adult, both of them..."

"Let them go." Jason glared at Cochin impatiently. "When did I make the decision, and it was your turn to express your opinion?"

Cokin quickly lowered his head. Moved aside two steps.

"Master Jason, I will stay here the first day after the selection." Henry left Tang Hao with a word.

Passing through two secret doors in a row, Henry and Tang Hao came to the private club where they first entered. Outside the club, there was a ghost market.

Tang Hao couldn't help but asked Henry: "Brother, what are we doing here?"

"Say, find a follower." Henry laughed, "With your strength, you want to win in the selection, too It's difficult, so I have to switch to another method."

"What method?"

"Find a way to weaken Jason's strength. Tomorrow, I'll be mixed into Jason's team and cause them more trouble. At that time, no matter the competition is to take points System, or timing system, or melee system, if I make trouble for them, you should all be able to achieve better results than them, and win first and then say."

Tang Hao was puzzled, "mixed into Jason's team? Their team Here, it's all Jason's cronies, so it's not easy to mix." "What's wrong?" Henry smiled slightly. "As long as he has the strength that he can't refuse, he will naturally come to me, Do you think that when tomorrow's selection, there is a person in his team who can easily deal with the experimental body without being imperial, how much benefit will Jason get under the public attention? This kind of thing, he Jason can Refused?" As soon as Henry's words fell, he saw Lila ran over. "Zhang Yiqing, cold, stay away."

Chapter 1050 Selection Rules

Looking at Lila running, Henry and Zu Xian both smiled.

One night passed quietly.

In the early morning of the next day, among the bells, the Shenyin Society's biannual selection kicked off.

In the holy city, everyone has put on a red robe, and different symbols on the robe represent the status of these people.

The very few who wear black robes are jailers.

As for those wearing white robes, there are only six.

They are the European Bishop Del, the North American Bishop Leo, the Antarctic Bishop Myro, the Oceanian Bishop Gay, the Western Continent Bishop Konan, and South America's Justus.

As for the representative linen cloth of the Eastern Continent, just like his name, he still wears the clothing that has never changed.

Represented by linen, those who came from the East did not wear the robes of the priests, but wore Oriental orthodox services.

Henry swept around, and according to these services, he could tell which are the Yanxia people, which are the * people, and which are from the stick country.

The people on the seven continents are divided into seven different positions, condensed into seven different teams, but these teams are not monolithic, such as Andre in the Del team.

Each selection has a fixed position.

In a huge square, when the seven bishops were unified, the ground of the square began to rise slowly. At this moment, it seemed that the Holy City was shaking.

A large platform as large as a football field was formed suddenly, with a height of ten meters.

"Brother Zhang, this is the competition for this selection." Jason stood beside Henry and introduced the rules to Henry.

Henry found that Jason's confidence was not simply arrogance. He did make enough preparations for this selection.

The rules for selection have not been announced yet, but Henry has obtained a full set of rules from Jason.

As in previous sessions, there are three items in this selection. Apart from the last item, Eastern Continent does not need to participate.

To put it bluntly, because of the special factors of the eastern continent, the eastern continent has a transcendent status in the Shenyinhui. There is no bishop who dares to hit the idea on the eastern continent.

In this selection, the point system is mainly adopted, and points are used to determine the bishop's right to choose the mainland.

The three selections, the first one, is to deal with the experimental body.

Recently, the small world of the Huizu League has become more frequent, and after so many years of evolution, the evolution of those experimental bodies has also become particularly terrifying. The experimental body has always been something that the gods will want to clear, whether it is a bishop or a god. Ordinary believers in Yinhui will take the elimination of the experimental body as their own responsibility. This item will naturally be the main item for selection, and this item has the highest score.

The second item, team battle, whose purpose is to evaluate the leadership and control abilities of bishop candidates, to put it bluntly, this depends on which candidate has the stronger card.

In both cases, only six continents participate, and the eastern continents do not participate.

The third item is the melee battle. The seven bishop candidates on the seven continents will fight in a ring. This is the time to test their personal strength.

The cumulative points of the three selections, whoever has the highest points, can first select the continent as their territory, which is simple and clear.

When the ring on the square was completely stabilized, all the seven bishops jumped up and all appeared in the sky.

Immediately afterwards, seats condensed by seven different colors of air appeared behind each bishop. These seats looked different, and it was also possible to indirectly see what each bishop thought about the selection.

The first is linen. The seat condensed by linen is a standard Taishi chair. The meaning is obvious. My seat originates from the East, and we in the East have no intention of intervening in other continents.

Bishop Dyer condensed a white stone pedestal, which was boxy and square, with edges and corners, meaning that I did not move, and did not fear anyone committing an offence.

The seat condensed by Milo is a purple throne, which is very luxurious.

Purple, for them, is the color of the nobility, and this throne also shows the ambition of Milo, this time, he wants to climb to the top!

The rest of the bishops, although not as eloquent as Milo, were more or less hostile to Del. After all, everyone in Europe wanted this treasure.

As the bishop of Europe, Mylo, unwilling to announce the rules of this selection, this rule is exactly the same as Henry heard from Jason.

The successors of a group of bishops have long rubbed their hands in the ring.

Henry noticed that the blonde girl Bernita, who was seen at that exchange yesterday, was also there, and as a contestant, was the successor of North American bishop Leo.

Henry couldn't help but glance at this beautiful girl, who was 16 or 7 years old, was selected by the North American bishop as the successor, and participated in the selection. This woman is definitely not as simple as it seems on the surface.

Henry, the successor of the other three bishops, also looked at it, and for the time being, he could not see what could be, only to notice that one of them was very strong, reaching the early stage of the condensed gas environment.

When Del announced the selection rules.

"Everyone, our God Hidden will inherit more than two thousand years, and take peace maintenance as our responsibility. Today's selection should not intentionally hurt people's lives. Please prepare to go on stage when you are ready." As soon as Del's voice fell, Jason couldn't wait to jump. In the ring, that kind of vigorous look seems to have enough confidence.

"Brother Milo, it looks like you have full confidence in this selection." Konan, the bishop of the Western Continent, smiled.

Milo said: "Continent has been under the umbrella of Brother Del for a long time. I think Brother Del is also tired of this area. It is time to think about substitutions. Although Brother Del is powerful, his juniors seem to be It's not so satisfactory, it's nothing more than weak flesh, nothing to do with faith."

Milo spoke stably, mercilessly.

The rest of the people heard and laughed and did not speak. Delk's reputation has actually spread within the Shenyin Society. Del has spoiled his child too much. Since then, he has spared dozens of gas masters to save him. It can be seen that although the name of the experiment is killed, the ultimate goal is to save the child.

Under Del's spoiling, Nadelke was like a waste. Now in his twenties, he has only the strength of the early Qi Qi, which is ridiculous.

"Myro, sometimes it's not a good thing that my self-confidence is too inflated." Del glanced at Myro. "If I lose today, I'm afraid I can't raise my head in my whole life. It's better to be low-key.

Myro sneered . , "Low-key, that is for the weak. "
