

Chapter 2861

A few bodyguards in black suits stopped Harvey York and Queenie York in their path with serious expressions.

A few couples and tourists were stopped as well.

In front of the bodyguards , a woman in a white uniform coldly glanced at Harvey and the other.

"Miss Parker is dining right now. None of you may enter.

"Because of you people, her mood might get affected.

"When she's all done, you people may enter only then."

Those bossy words were filled with utter righteousness , as if she was used to doing those things.

Harvey sized up the group of people and calmly asked, "Are you the boss or the manager here?"

"Neither," replied the woman coldly after hearing Harvey's question.

"So, did Miss Parker book out the entire restaurant?" Harvey questioned curiously.

"Are you braindead or something?"

"Don't you know that we'd need at least hundreds and thousands of dollars to do that?!"

"Do you think we're idiots?!"

The woman in white stared at Harvey, as if he was a clown.

"We're not paying for all that even if we're insane!"

Harvey shrugged.

"Since you don't own the restaurant, nor have it booked..."

"What right do you have to keep us out here?"

The other customers scornfully glared at the woman and the bodyguards before blatantly shouting at them.

"Didn't you hear what I said?"

"I'll tell you this one more time!"

"Miss Parker's having her meal right now!"

"She came to Hong Kong out of the kindness of her own heart!
She hates the air here already!"

"Do you want her to dine with flies?!"

"What if she can't eat because of you disgusting beings surrounding her?!"

"Can't you be a little more reasonable?! Why can't you just follow the rules?!"

"Or are you saying that people from Hong Kong are just a bunch of delinquents with no manners like you people?!"

The woman in white looked down on everyone with a proud expression, as if the entire world owed her a favor.

Judging from her tone and attitude, she must have been used to being this conceited.

"Reasonable? Rules? Manners?" asked Harvey.

"If you're the ones who own the restaurant, or you have the entire thing booked, you can do whatever you want here.

"But, since the place isn't yours and you didn't spend money to book the place, why are you even getting a bunch of useless people here to stop us from dining inside?"

"Isn't that a little too unreasonable?"

"Besides, I'm not her dad. Why should I even let her be?"

"Good dogs don't bite. Now, f*ck off."

Harvey was prepared to head inside.

"What did you just say, you b*stard?!"

"Do you even know who Miss Parker is?!"

"How dare you treat her like this?!"

"Did you know that she has millions of fans on Durin?!"

"These fans alone can drown you in their spit!"

The woman in white was filled with rage.

"I'm warning you right now! Kneel and apologize to Miss Parker, or you won't be getting out of here alive!"

Slap!

Before Harvey even spoke, Queenie, who had been standing behind him, instantly slapped the woman across her face.

"A nobody like you has no right to show off in front of us!"

Chapter 2862

Queenie York showed no emotion at that time.

"I'm giving you one whole minute. If you don't get out of my restaurant right now, I'll get security to throw you out of here!" exclaimed Queenie coldly.

"Aaaaaah!"

The woman in white was sent flying before she fell to the ground while she covered her face with a horrible expression .

A bright red palm print was clearly showing on her beautiful face, completely ruining it. It was quite a miserable sight.

She froze while covering her face, then stood up in a fit of rage.

"You b*tch! Do you know who I am?!"

"Do you have a death wish or something?!"

Slap!

Queenie swung the back of her palm across the woman's face once again.

The woman fell to the ground and struggled for quite a while before getting back up again.

This time, there were two palm prints on the woman's face. Her face was as swollen as a pig when she showed a wretched expression.

Queenie looked at the sight and calmly reasoned, "If I'm being blocked off by some outsider in the Seaside Restaurant , what would happen to my reputation in the future?"

The security guards and the staff members were shocked entirely after seeing the sight.

The customers became extremely sluggish as well. They never expected that such an enchanting young woman would be this fierce.

Harvey was not at all surprised . After all, he already knew that Queenie was quite the strong woman.

If that were not the case, she would not have been chosen to go against Vince York.

The woman in white covered her face while walking toward Queenie before furiously screaming at her.

"How dare you, you b*tch?!"

"You're going to pay for that!"

She then gave an order to the bodyguards wearing black suits.

"Teach her a lesson! I'll take full responsibility for this!"

When the bodyguards were about to pounce forward...

Queenie calmly spoke, "Let me introduce myself.

"My name is Queenie York. I'm the executive CEO of the Loxus Consortium and also the lady of the Yorks of Hong Kong.

"I own this restaurant.

"Not only are you showing off on my turf, but you're also trying to lay your fingers on me?

"Come! Try me! If you even so much as touch me, I promise that you won't get out of this place alive!

"Believe me, there are far too many people who desperately try to coddle me.

"Dealing with small fries like you who try to cotton up to me is a pretty decent trade."

Queenie then wiped her fingers with some tissues, as if she laid her hands on something filthy.

The bodyguards showed utterly horrible expressions after hearing Queenie's words before instinctively stepping back. They would not dare to come forward at all.

They usually act all high and mighty when they were beside Miss Parker...

But they knew full well that they could only do that in front of ordinary people.

Against actual wealthy families, they did not even have the right to shine their shoes.

After all, to a certain extent, the person they served was just an actress, a mere plaything for the wealthy people.

Servants had no right to go against their masters.

The woman in white froze.

"You're Miss York..."

She felt extremely parched. She did not know that she would bump into one of the Yorks of Hong Kong at this point.

Not just her, even her superior had no right to go against this woman.

Chapter 2863

Even though the woman in white knew she could not go against Queenie York, she could not bear to take the humiliation.

At that moment, she gritted her teeth while showing a resentful look.

"Even if you're the lady of the family, you can't just hit people as you please!

"There are laws here in Hong Kong!

"I'll call the cops right now!"

"Laws, you say?"

Queenie walked forward with a cold expression before swinging her palm forward.

Slap!

"When I reason with you, you come at me with power."

Slap!

"But when I fight back, you try to reason with me?!"

Slap!

"How are you this shameless?! Are you planning to take advantage of the entire world until you're satisfied?!"

After slapping the woman around a few times, Queenie glanced at the restaurant manager, who was trotting toward her.

"The customer didn't book the entire restaurant, nor were there any orders from the higher-ups, but you still let her hog the entire place and chase the customers away like that?" exclaimed Queenie coldly.

"I'd forgive you if this only made losses for the restaurant, but this will definitely affect our business immensely.

"If the outside world knew about the restaurant under the Loxus Consortium being afraid of some actress...

"You truly disappoint me."

Queenie was angry. She picked this restaurant to dine in with Harvey.

But she was being chased away in her own territory by some outsider.

If the situation was not handled correctly, how would she keep the company in check in the future? How would she still rise to power within the family?

"I'm sorry, Miss York. It is all my fault."

The manager was sweating bullets at this moment.

"Miss Parker is an internet celebrity. She also mentioned that your fiance is her boss...

"They weren't chasing people away at the restaurant entrance. They were doing that in front of the elevator. There's nothing we could do..."

Queenie's gaze became cold and distant as soon as she heard those words.

"It's a good reason, but there's no point to that anymore," she calmly replied.

"You're fired. Get out of here already."

The manager wanted to say something, but she could only leave with her head hanging low after looking at Queenie's derisive expression.

After all, it was her fault to damage the restaurant's interests for a mere customer in the first place.

"You. You're the manager now."

Queenie pointed at a young lady and calmly said, "Get the people who break the rules out of here!"

"I'll take responsibility if anything happens."

The manager froze before she softly replied, "Of course!"

The woman in white came to her senses after hearing those words. She covered her face as she furiously shouted, "You have a powerful identity..."

"But, you can only come at me at most!"

"Don't say I didn't warn you!"

"Miss Parker isn't someone that you can even touch!"

"Come! Get these people out of here!" exclaimed the new manager coldly.

A dozen security guards rushed forward in an instant.

The woman in white's bodyguards were at a loss. They knew they would suffer if they went against Queenie, but they had to step forward since it was their job.

"When did people from such a shabby place even get the right to touch my men?"

A voice could be heard from inside the restaurant when a battle was about to break out.

A group of young people walked out with righteous and fierce expressions.

The person in front was a good-looking woman with a slender figure.

Her face was exquisite, showing an aura of a celebrity, but her long, narrow eyes felt a bit harsh.

Chapter 2864

Harvey York looked at the fierce woman full of interest and recognized her as the woman he saw on Durin in the morning.

She was the woman who got the green card for The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets and complained on Durin about the lack of fresh air and freedom in Country H, Aurora Parker herself.

Harvey squinted after seeing her show up. He felt a little pity, thinking that the world was so small.

Harvey was fully prepared to make Yvonne Xavier blacklist this woman. She then showed up before him while making such a big ruckus.

"Miss York, right? This is a little inappropriate, isn't it?"

Aurora seemed quite stern. She did not give in even after hearing about Queenie York's identity.

She squinted with her long and narrow eyes at Queenie and coldly exclaimed, "No matter what, I'm still a customer here.

"Yet, you dare hit my manager and throw us out of here?"

"Is this what you people are capable of?"

"This is your so-called advocacy on courtesy?"

"Do you know who you're talking to right now?"

"I'm a foreign guest with a green card from The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets!"

"Even if you're the boss here, the executive CEO of the Loxus Consortium, or the lady of the Yorks of Hong Kong...

"You definitely have no right to act this way!

"Not only are you ruining your own reputation, but you're also shaming your company and your family!

"Besides, you also have no right to go against me.

"You can't challenge my boss after all."

Aurora was showing a joyous look on her face, but her words were extremely sharp, constantly putting more blame on Queenie's head.

It was not just a coincidence that Aurora became an internet-famous celebrity after all.

The schemes and her way of speech were not just obtainable by any ordinary person.

An ordinary celebrity would have kneeled after bumping into a person like Queenie by then. They would not even have the courage to talk back to her.

"I was wondering who it was. You're the celebrity who just recently got famous!"

Queenie's gaze was filled with disdain after taking a closer look at the woman's face.

"What? You betrayed your own country and decided to become another country's servant, and now you think you're some hot shot after getting a green card?"

“You think you’re a part of The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets just because you inhaled the air over there?”

“You hog the entire restaurant , then stop the other customers from going inside? How pretentious can you get?!”

“People who don’t know might think that the queen herself is here for a meal!”

Naturally, Queenie saw some of the videos that were going viral recently . She had no remorse toward a woman who betrayed her ancestors just to become a servant for the outsiders.

Under those circumstances , her tone naturally had no respect toward Aurora.

“You’ll have to take responsibility for saying those words, Miss York.

“The Empire Embassy will surely send you a complaint for insulting our queen like that!

“And don’t you forget. Hong Kong was only returned to Country H after basking in The Empire’s glory for almost a hundred years!

“You so-called wealthy families are just The Empire’s dogs at most!

“What? You’re going to show off now just because you have a new owner?”

“Ask your father if he dares to speak to us like this!”

Aurora looked down on Queenie, as if she were a citizen of The Empire herself. 1
