

Chapter 371

Owen's words forced Sylvia to a desperate situation. Now that he had said it out, if Sylvia dared to double, he would dare to follow her. This kind of words had already revealed Zhao Enterprise's full confidence.

If Sylvia really followed, he could casually laugh and admit defeat. No one thought that Zhao Enterprise was really scared. After all, if Sylvia doubled, she would lose 3 billion.

But now, if Sylvia didn't follow, she was afraid of Zhao's family, which had an impact on the status of Lin's family in Yinzhou.

Owen's simple action directly put Sylvia in a dilemma.

"Come on, if the Lins Group pays 3 billion yuan for prestige, others will say that Sylvia is a fool."

Lins Group would be completely suppressed by Zhao's Group from today on.

"President Lin, what do you think? Do you want to follow or not?" Owen looked at Sylvia with a smile.

"Follow!" A resolute voice sounded.

The owner of this voice shocked all the people present. It was not Sylvia, secretary Cathy, nor Henry, but Danny Chow!

The young master of the Chow's!

"We, Chows', are willing to invest two billion yuan in Lins Group!"

Danny's appearance and his words made all the people present to open their mouths wide. Everyone looked at Sylvia with admiration. They didn't expect that this woman had done such a thing. When did she unite with Chows'?

The smile on Owen's face disappeared at once.

In this case, even Sylvia herself was confused. Danny's attitude had changed a lot. At that time, Danny threatened her with a piece of land. As a result, he gave all the land to her the next day and even gave her several properties. Chows' did not compete with her for many other projects, but today, he suddenly proposed to invest 2 billion yuan.

For the Chow's, two billion yuan was equal to a quarter of the entire Chow's!

"Is there something wrong with your brain? Is it not enough for your Chow Enterprise to be oppressed by Lins Group for so many years?" Bing couldn't help but scold him directly.

Danny sneered. "You still have a long way to go before you can fight against Lins Group!"

After that, Danny walked up to Henry and said with a flattering smile, "Mr Zhang, are you satisfied with what I did?"

"You are smart." Henry nodded with satisfaction.

After Henry's approval, Danny's face was full of joy. This attitude shocked everyone once again. Did the young master of the Chow's show his goodwill to the son-in-law of the Family Lin?

Sylvia was very shrewd. Looking at Danny's attitude toward Henry, she figured out a lot of things at once. No wonder Danny and his father suddenly came to the door of the Lins Group to apologize to her and even gave her so many land and real estate. All of this was because of Henry!

When Sylvia thought of her attitude towards Henry at that time, she was full of apologies. It turned out that he had silently helped her from the beginning.

Sylvia calmed down and looked at Owen again. "President Zhao, our Lin's company's investment has increased to 3 billion now. So, are you still following us?"

Owen's expression changed. Now, his situation was the same as Sylvia's. He would lose 3 billion. If not for the prestige he had just made, what he had just said would become a joke. Undoubtedly, he was picking up a stone to smash his own feet.

Chows' sudden appearance disrupted Owen's entire plan.

After thinking for more than a dozen seconds, Owen laughed out loud. "President Lin, it's really a good play. Our Zhao family has just gained a foothold in Yinzhou. It's the right time to make friends.

Let's give this project to your Family Lin. We can get along with each other in the future ."

Owen's performance made everyone understand that Zhao Enterprise had lost in this game.

The Lins Group had joined forces with the Chows', the original second largest group in Yinzhou. Their current status would not be shaken unless the Zhao's Group could spend another sum of money that surpassed the Chows'.

Bing stood aside with a gloomy face. Today, in order to take revenge on Henry and Sylvia, he made two preparations to humiliate them first-hand, but because of his ignorance, he became a laughing stock. The second one, together with Zhao Enterprise, he wanted to suppress Lins Group. In the end, he was suppressed by Lins Group.

Bing stared at Henry and Sylvia and suddenly said, "Some people only know that they don't have the ability, so they rely on the blessings of their elders. This kind of person can be arrogant now, but how long can they be arrogant in the future? It's really hard to say. Lose so much money just to save their reputation."

Bing's words were to find an excuse for himself.

However, everybody could tell that what he said was an excuse, but it was reasonable.

It was conceivable that after this disturbance, Bing would bring the flames again. What happened today would be spread all over the world, and there would even be all kinds of versions.

Henry put his arm around Sylvia's shoulder and said, "The more incompetent a person is, the louder he will speak."

"What a joke!" Bing sneered. "Do you dare to compete with me, Henry?"

"You don't deserve to be compared with me." Henry gave Bing a contemptuous look, held Sylvia in his arms, and walked out of the banquet hall.

Bing only felt that his powerful punch on the cotton made him particularly uncomfortable.

Sylvia and Henry didn't stay in the Glory Hotel any longer. When they got out of the hotel, they drove straight home. As for the project, Cathy was in charge of it, so Sylvia was absolutely relieved.

One night passed quietly.

The next morning, Henry just got up, walked to the courtyard, and punched at the old tree.

Anna Jiang dragged a suitcase out of the house and stood behind Henry. "Mr Zhang."

Henry looked back and asked in confusion, "Are you going for a trip?"

Anna smiled slightly and said, "I'm here to resign. During this period of time, President Lin is no longer in any danger. And I've received the news that the person who wanted to harm President Lin before cannot hurt her anymore, which means that my task is over."

After saying that, Anna looked at the tree in front of Henry and continued, "Besides, Mr Zhang, you're here to protect President Lin, so I am not worried."

Henry nodded. He still had a good impression of Anna. This woman was willing to work hard and very responsible. "Have you accepted the next task?"

"I already have a new task. The employer is waiting for me. Mr Zhang, please tell President Lin my decision."

"Well, do you need me to send you off?"
Henry pointed to the car next to him.

"No." Anna raised the car key in her hand.
"I still like to drive my car by myself. You know, we don't have much freedom in this business. We don't have any vacation. We'll just take it as a trip if we're on our way."

"Then I wish you..." Henry smiled at Anna and said, "Have a good trip."

"Thank you." Anna opened the car door and sat in.

Chapter 372

When Sylvia got up and heard that Anna had left, she sighed. After two months of getting along with her, she would have some feelings for her. Anna had been protecting Sylvia all the time. The sudden departure made Sylvia feel that there was something missing.

Henry had long been accustomed to such separation, so he was used to it.

Henry prepared breakfast for Sylvia. After Sylvia finished eating, Henry said while packing up the bowls and chopsticks, "Honey, I have something to do today. Go to the company yourself."

"Okay." Sylvia nodded.

Now, Sylvia had a little attitude towards Henry. She subconsciously listened to Henry for a lot of things.

Watching Sylvia leave, Henry stood at the door of his own courtyard and said coldly, "You've been staying for more than two hours. Aren't you tired?"

"Haha, I think I've hidden well." A figure slowly walked to the gate of the courtyard.

It was a middle-aged man with whiskers. He was untidy and casually dressed, with only a pair of slippers on his feet.

"Let me introduce myself. My name is Kim Yuan, and I belong to the Sharp Knife." The middle-aged man took the initiative to reach out his hand to Henry.

Henry didn't even look at the hand that the other party had stretched out. "Why are you looking for me, the man from the Sharp Knife?"

"Haha." Kim chuckled, "Mr Zhang, you really like to ask even though you know the answer. I want to talk to Mr Zhang about the fire in Liao Family's manor."

"Then let's stand here and talk." Henry went to the gate of the courtyard.

Kim was stunned, and then he said with a smile, "I thought Mr Zhang would invite me to have a cup of tea."

"I only invite my friends to drink tea. If you have something to say, just say it."

Kim nodded and said, "Then I won't keep you guessing. I believe that you, Mr Zhang, are also a member of the Ancient Kungfu Family. That day, you were taken away by the Liao family. When you left, the Liao family's manor was in a big fire. Do you have anything to explain?"

"No." Henry shook his head. "What does it have to do with me if their manor was on fire?"

"Mr Zhang, you were taken to the Liao family. What happened that day? How could there be a sudden fire in the Liao family?" Kim stared at Henry with his eyes. "I hope you can tell me the truth, Mr Zhang."

"Oh." Henry nodded. "The whole Liao family was killed, and the fire was also set by the other party. I saw it with my own eyes. Since you don't want to catch the murderer, why did you come to me?"

Kim obviously did not expect Henry to directly say that the Liao family was killed. The Liao family was an ancient family. The death of a family in a big fire naturally attracted the attention of the Sharp Knife. The Sharp Knife specially sent people to investigate the bodies, and the result was that the whole Liao family was killed, and almost none of the bodies of them was intact.

With the help of the Sharp Knife, it was easy to know that Henry was taken to the Liao family that day and he was safe and sound. Kim put his target on Henry and made him his breakthrough.

Kim's idea was to find some evidence from Henry's words, then lock him up and interrogated him. However, he didn't expect to get such an answer, which made him feel like he couldn't do anything about it.

Kim looked at Henry and was silent for a long time. Then he said, "Did you see someone kill all the people of the Liao family?"

"Yes." Henry nodded. "He didn't even leave a whole body, which is very cruel. But at that time, I didn't have time to take photos and videos."

Kim asked again, "Since the Liao family has been killed, why are you unharmed?"

"You are really funny." Henry looked at Kim as if he was looking at a fool. "Do those people who killed the Liao family have any necessary reason to kill me? If I want to kill a fish today, would I kill all the fish in the pond?"

Facing Henry, Kim only felt that he couldn't do anything for a while. The other side's words seemed to be full of flaws, but there was no evidence for him to use.

Kim thought for a long time and could only say one sentence, "I suspect that you have something to do with the Liao family's murder case. Please come with me."

"Later, I will rest at home." Henry replied lightly. Then he turned back and went into the house. After drinking a cup of tea and lying down for more than half an hour, he went out.

Kim drove an Accord with yellow plates to the centre of the city with Henry.

"Sir, where are you going to take me?" Henry leaned leisurely in the back seat of the car. "I have to go to work today."

Kim parked the car in front of a cafe. The door of the passenger seat opened, and a beautiful woman in a long dress got in the car. She glanced at Henry and asked Kim, "Is this the one?"

"Yes." Kim nodded.

The beautiful woman turned around and held a cup of coffee in her hand. "Tell me, why did you kill the whole Liao family?"

Henry looked at the beautiful woman with a strange face. "Why don't you wear underwear?"

The beautiful woman's face was angry. "B*llshit!"

"You are also talking b*llshit." Henry shrugged his shoulders. "Have you seen me kill the whole Liao family?"

The beautiful woman listened to Henry's words, and her chest heaved with anger. "I'm not in the mood to play this kind of game with you. Our Sharp Knife mission is very heavy, and you've wasted our time. Can you bear the responsibility? How did the Liao family die?!"

Henry held his hand. "Didn't I tell your colleague that the family was killed and all of them were dismembered? What's wrong?"

The beauty was stunned and turned to look at Kim.

Kim gave a wry smile. "That's what he told me."

The face of the beautiful woman changed a lot. She turned back and glared at Henry again. "Did you see the Liao family being killed with your own eyes?"

"Yes." Henry nodded.

"What about the law enforcer?"

"He was also killed," Henry said matter-of-factly, "I watched them die. There was so much blood. So cruel."

The beautiful woman suddenly reached out her hand and slapped in front of her. "Out of the law! We are law enforcement, and we are not in the mood to joke with you. If you don't tell the truth, don't blame us for taking drastic measures!"

"I'm telling the truth." Henry was puzzled. In this world, no one would believe that he was telling the truth.

The beautiful woman turned her head, looked at Kim, and shouted, "Turn around, go and catch all the Lins. I'll see if he would tell the truth!"

There was a hint of hesitation on his face. "I'm afraid it's not in accordance with the rules."

"What are you talking about? What is against the rules?!" The beautiful woman's face was ugly. "My whole Liao family has been killed, but you still mention the rules to me!"

The beautiful woman said as she grabbed the steering wheel.

Kim pushed her away and said, "Hedy, calm down. Don't be impulsive."

"What do you mean by calm down? If your family was dead, would you calm down?" The beautiful woman roared and glared at Henry again with hatred in her eyes. "Let me tell you, I, Hedy Liao, will definitely make you pay for it with blood!"

After Hedy finished her words, she directly pulled down a black box on the roof of the car. This action made Kim's face suddenly change.

"Hedy, what are you doing?"

"The car turned, and the law enforcement surveillance device has been broken!"
Hedy sneered.

Chapter 373

Henry looked at Hedy. He didn't expect that there was a member of the Liao family in the Sharp Knife.

Kim stopped the car and parked it in the middle of the road. "Hedy, are you sure you want to do this?"

"Otherwise?" Hedy asked, "My Liao family can't die in vain."

"Okay." Kim nodded and clenched his fists. "I'll listen to you. You can do whatever you want."

After saying that, Kim stared at Henry with a sullen face.

Henry sneered. "You know very well what kind of people the members of the Liao family were. Shane Liao bullied men and women in school. Your master had joined forces with law enforcer and kidnapped me and took me to the Liao family. Such behaviour has violated the rules, hasn't it?"

"It's not up to you to tell us what our Liao family should do! You are just an ordinary member of Ancient Kungfu family. Even if our Liao family bullied you, you should bear it!" Hedy stared at Henry, "At last, I ask you whether the death of our Liao family has anything to do with you?!"

Henry glanced at the law enforcement surveillance device that was buckled down by Hedy and grinned. "Yes."

"You!" Hedy's face changed. She knew that she had been set up.

Just as Hedy was about to say something, a violent feeling of collision hit her.

A pickup truck crashed into the back of the Accord.

The airbag exploded immediately.

Then, a few more cars crashed into this car and the violent impact almost made Kim and Hedy faint.

"Since you said that the car turned over, then let's turn it over." Henry sat firmly in the back seat. "As a member of the Sharp Knife, you use your positions for personal use and revenge. People like you, if they stay in the Sharp Knife, they will also harm others. In this case, you will die."

Henry's cold voice rang in their ears.

The car stopped shaking, and the two of them immediately turned their heads to look at the back seat. In their sight, Henry slowly put on a ghost mask.

At the same time, the driver's and the passenger's door of the Accord were pulled open.

At the same time, several figures wearing a ghost mask appeared in the sight of Kim and Hedy.

Henry opened the back door and walked out. "Make it look like the car turned over. Give a little respect to the Sharp Knife. Also, solve all the problems that can be solved. I don't want the Sharp Knife to bother me again."

Hedy looked at the masked figures in front of her, and her heart was filled with deep fear. No wonder her family was killed, and the person they provoked was a Reaper...

Kim's face was full of regret. "Hedy Liao, this time, you've caused me a lot of trouble!"

After Henry got out of the car, he took off his mask and threw it into a truck next to him. With his hands in his pockets, he wandered to the street in downtown.

As Henry left, there was a burst of an explosion.

An hour later, Henry sat in a cafe and looked at his mobile phone. The headline of the Yinzhou News was already occupied by the news that an official car had suddenly turned on the road. The news said that the driver of this official car and a woman sitting in the car were both dead, and two passers-by were slightly injured.

When Henry was about to put away his mobile phone, the phone rang, and the caller was Jenny Qin.

As soon as Henry picked up the phone, Jenny's voice sounded urgent, "Henry, do you know how to gamble on stones?"

Henry thought for a moment and said, "I know a little about it."

"That's to say, you understand. Our company has expanded a new trade, which is to gamble on stones. I don't know much about it. Can you help me check it?" Jenny said on the phone.

"Stone gambling?" Henry was full of doubts, but he still walked toward Hengyuan Trade Company.

At this moment, on Jenny's desk, there were a lot of documents about gambling on stones.

"President Qin, sign it."

"Yes, President Qin, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. The profit of gambling on stones can be said to be huge. Everyone wants to do it, but whether it will be approved or not is one thing, and the key is that there is no connection!"

"For Hengyuan, this is an opportunity to be on the same level as the Family Lin!"

In Jenny's office, many managers were persuading her.

"Wait." Jenny looked at the document on the table, waiting for Henry to come over.

"What are you waiting for, President Qin? They've told us we only have half an hour to think about it!" One of the company managers looked anxious.

Jenny looked out of the window and then looked at her mobile phone. When she was about to call Henry again, she saw the door of the office was pushed open and Henry appeared in the office in a hurry.

Looking at Henry's messy clothes, Jenny's heart was full of joy. It seemed that this man was still in her thoughts.

"Why do you want to gamble on stones? There are many tricks in this industry. You must have heard of it, haven't you?" As soon as Henry entered the door, he asked.

The managers of Hengyuan, all looked at Henry with confusion, not knowing who he was.

Jenny stood up from her executive chair and smiled sweetly at Henry. "That's why I called you. I don't understand. It's fine as long as there's a man who knows."

Hearing Jenny's words, the managers looked at Henry with an ambiguous look.

Jenny handed the document on the table to Henry. "This is the project this time. Take a look."

"I don't have to look at it." Henry shook his head. "Now that you want to gamble on stones, someone should have brought you a batch of raw materials, right? Where are the materials?"

"The warehouse."

As a trading company, Hengyuan's warehouse could be said to be the most important place in the whole company. It covered a large area and each warehouse was clearly separated.

There were three containers, which were 21 meters long and 7 meters tall, outside the warehouse.

Jenny came here with Henry and a group of office managers from Hengyuan.

Jenny pointed at the three containers and said to Henry, "The materials are all in it."

Henry nodded and asked, "What is the other party's request?"

Jenny waved her hand. A manager came forward and said to Henry, "They asked us to take at least 300 tons of goods a month and sell them to us at the price of 200 yuan per kilogram. This is the first batch of goods. If we think the goods are good, we have to sign a contract of at least one year."

Henry frowned. "One kilogram for two hundred yuan? This price is higher than the market price. 300 tons per month. Do you think you Yinzhou market is big enough?"

"Now it's hard to say about the market. This is a gamble." Jenny walked up and said, "The channel this time is obtained through the official special approval because we have blown up the mountain. If we can get this, it will be an opportunity for Hengyuan."

Henry walked to the container and opened the door of the container. What he saw were all kinds of stones. They were densely packed, big and small. The small one was only as big as a palm and the big one was as tall as a man.

Henry opened all three containers in a row, glanced at them, and then shook his head at Jenny. "No."

Chapter 374

"What's wrong?" Looking at Henry's appearance, Jenny asked doubtfully.

Henry pointed to the stones in the three containers and said to Jenny, "The reputation is very important to gamble on stones. At the very least, stones can be sold, but now there is almost no possibility that there is anything worth in these three containers. If we can't even find one gemstone on the first day, we can't continue to gamble on stones."

Listening to Henry's words, Jenny nodded thoughtfully.

A manager said, "President Qin, with all due respect, this friend said that this pile of stones couldn't be used. It's purely a guess. Stone gambling is all about luck. Who dares to say that there is nothing in these stones just by looking at the appearance of the stone?"

After the manager finished his words, he glared at Henry with hostility in his eyes.

"Who said that there is something wrong with our stones?" A voice came from the side.

Henry looked back and saw a middle-aged man walking towards him with three strong men with ferocious faces.

The three sturdy men looked fierce. They clenched their fists while walking.

The middle-aged man was wearing a suit. He didn't look so fierce, one could get a bad feeling just by looking at him.

"Kid, do you think there's something wrong with our stones?" The middle-aged man walked up to Henry. At the same time, the three strong men beside him stood in front of Henry and looked at him.

Henry frowned. "Is this batch of stones yours?"

"Do you have any opinions?" The middle-aged man looked at Henry, his eyes full of threats.

Henry nodded and said, "We don't want your stones."

"Okay, we are doing business. If you don't want it, we won't force you." The middle-aged man smiled and said, "Since we can't do business, then let's go."

After the middle-aged man finished speaking, he turned around and winked at the manager of Hengyuan who had just spoken.

The manager clenched his teeth and said, "President Qin, this is a chance. Don't miss it. Don't listen to others and miss such a good opportunity!"

Henry sneered and looked at the manager.

"You are Hengyuan's man. How many benefits have they promised you so that you can cheat on President Qin? If President Qin buys these three containers of waste stones per kilogram, how much will you make? This business is worth 670 million. How much would they give you, 100 million?"

The manager's face changed and scolded, "B*llshit! What do you mean by saying that I will have benefits? Don't slander me."

Henry glanced at these jade stones and said, "According to the normal market price, a stone per kilogram should be between 60 to 80 yuan, but now it's sold for 200 yuan?"

"Do you think that the transportation fee is cheap?" The middle-aged man looked around and said, "How much are the logistics costs for tons of goods?"

"Logistics costs?" Henry looked confused.

"Do you have any logistics costs for these stones? Didn't you get them from the mountain we had blown up some time ago?"

"You!" The middle-aged man's face suddenly changed.

Jenny frowned and said, "Henry, do you mean..."

Henry walked to the container and picked up a stone casually. "Our rock group is a Neoarchean rock mass with complex rock types, dominated by biotite quartzite and mica quartzite, followed by mica granite and mica monzonite. These stones are strong. The rocks are grey and light grey-green. Some of them have similar mottled structures, such as clean edges, stitches and so on. The stone in my hand is completely from the mountains around us. Look at these three stones. They're all matching stones. They're just ordinary stones!"

As soon as Henry finished speaking, Jenny immediately looked at the company manager and said, "Didn't you tell me that these stones are from Yun province?"

"I... I..." The manager opened his mouth wide and didn't know what to say.

The middle-aged man's face changed a few times, and then he shouted, "It's really funny! These stones I transported from Yun Province, and you actually said that these are the surrounding waste stones!"

Henry shook his head and said, "I didn't say that they are all the surrounding waste stones, and there are still normal stone stones."

Hearing Henry's words, the project manager breathed a sigh of relief.

The middle-aged man's face also looked much better, and his heart was secretly happy. He just thought that this boy was likely to reveal this scam, but suddenly the boy was scared of him.

Henry walked forward and picked out a total of nine stones which were only the size of a fist from the three containers. "These nine stones are indeed not the surrounding stones. Judging from the material, they are from Yun Province. Unfortunately, there is not a single "green" in these stones."

Henry shook his head and threw the nine stones casually.

The so-called "green" meant that there was no gemstone inside.

Obviously, Jenny completely trusted Henry between the company manager and Henry. She looked at the company manager and said, "I need a reasonable explanation."

He was about to turn to the middle-aged man for help.

The middle-aged man's eyes were drifting. After a few seconds, he waved his hand. "We won't do business with you. There are many people doing this business. Now even if you want to buy it, I won't sell it. Let's go!"

After the middle-aged man finished speaking, he waved his big hand and was about to take his men away.

"Go?" Henry chuckled and said, "You want to leave now that you can't swindle us? The amount of hundreds of millions that you lied about is enough for you to get arrested. Jenny, call the police."

"B*llshit! I'm a liar? Do you have any evidence?" The middle-aged man's neck was stiff. The three strong men with ferocious faces beside him no longer had that kind of arrogant expression on their faces. All of them stood aside with fear, afraid that they would be implicated. Obviously, they all pretended to be rude just now.

"Where is the contract?" Henry stretched out his hand to Jenny.

"The contract..." Jenny looked at the project manager.

With a shiver all over his body and a fierce look in his eyes, the manager tried to run away.

The company manager was fast, but how could he be faster than Henry? Henry took two steps forward, kicked the company manager over, and grabbed the contract from the other party.

Glancing around, the contract stated that these stones were all transported from Yun Province, which was enough to sue these people.

Seeing that the matter was revealed, the middle-aged man also wanted to run away.

"Hurry up, let's go!" The middle-aged man shouted at the three strong men beside him.

Three strong men shook their bodies and covered the middle-aged man to run out of the warehouse.

"None of you can escape!" Henry stood in front of the warehouse entrance.

"Boy, I advise you not to ask for trouble!" A strong man clenched his fist and threatened.

"Oh." Henry nodded his head expressionlessly. He punched three times in a row and knocked down the three strong men.

Chapter 375

The three strong men were knocked down in an instant, and the middle-aged man lost his last hope. He wanted to break out, but the scene of Henry beating a strong man just now made him lose his courage.

The manager's face was pale. He used to have a basic salary of 8,000 yuan a month and lived a comfortable life, but he couldn't stand the temptation. He wanted to do big things and then leave. As a result, the matter was revealed. In the future, he would face a disaster of imprisonment.

Soon, the police of Yinzhou arrived. Henry simply accompanied Jenny to the police station to make a record.

Henry had long been a celebrity in the police station. Whether it was his former ambiguous relationship with Helen Han, or the incident with Prince insulting the heroes, he had become a famous person in the police station of Yinzhou.

With Henry's presence, the confession was recorded quickly. Jenny's request for the trial was made, and the police would also execute this quickly. The court hearing would be held in a few days.

"What happened to Sam Zheng? Is he sentenced?" Henry asked curiously. He had never cared about this since Sam was arrested.

"Not yet, it's still locked up. Sam's current accusation is attempted rape. As for how it should be judged, it depends on..." A police officer answered as he pointed to the top of his head.

Henry understood what he meant, so he smiled and said nothing.

If the Family Zheng wanted to find some connection, let them try and see how that would end.

Out of the police station.

"Henry, you helped me again today. Except for bowing to you, I really can't think of any other way to repay you." Jenny looked sideways at Henry.

Henry waved his hand repeatedly. "You don't have to repay me. I like doing good things."

Jenny rolled her eyes and said, "Do you hate me so much? Don't you want to invite you to lunch? It's okay to treat you to a meal. It's almost noon."

"Let's have a meal." Henry nodded.

Jenny drove the car all the way out of the city with Henry.

Henry was confused. "Where are we going to eat?"

A trace of cunning flashed in Jenny's beautiful eyes. "There is a farmhouse. I'll take you to have a taste. This kind of natural taste is very difficult to try now."

As Jenny said this, she drove in a direction and got on the highway.

Henry nodded.

It was not until Jenny turned for the highway from Yinzhou to Luohe city that Henry completely realized that something was wrong.

"Are we going to a farmhouse?"

"Yes." Jenny said with a smile, "It's just a small party over there."

Henry looked at the woman's flower-like smiling face and did not know what to say. He had no choice but to let her drive.

Forty minutes later, the car left the highway.

Henry saw that Jenny did bring him to a farmhouse. However, Henry had been here before. It was the manor of the Cheng family.

In front of Cheng's Manor, there were countless luxury cars parked. Jenny's BMW was very cheap among these luxury cars.

Jenny smiled and said, "An elder came back today, and everyone came to welcome him. I don't know a lot of people. It's too lonely to come here by myself."

Jenny parked the car and took Henry to the villa of the Cheng family.

In the hall of the Cheng family, there were already more than ten tables of the banquet. The hall was full of people, all of whom were the elders of the old generation.

As soon as Jenny and Henry went to the hall, they heard someone say hello.

"Jenny, you're here!"

Henry saw a handsome young man walking towards Jenny with surprise.

"Hello, Bobby Xiao." Jenny nodded slightly to this handsome young man, then took Henry's arm and said with a sweet face, "Let me introduce him to you. This is my boyfriend, Henry."

"A boy...boyfriend?" Bobby, who was originally happy, felt a sense of loss after hearing Jenny's words, and his expression was a little dull.

"Bro, don't listen to her nonsense. I'm not her boyfriend." Henry quickly said, "I'm married."

When Bobby heard this, the disappointment in his heart was swept away. He smiled at Jenny and said, "Jenny, you are really good at..."

Bobby was interrupted by Jenny's voice before he could say the last word.

Jenny reached out her fist and pounded it on Henry's chest. "I hate you. Last night when you were with me, you didn't say that. You said you were going to divorce. Now you said you had a wife. You are so annoying!"

Anyone who saw Jenny acting like this would think that she was acting coyly with Henry.

Bobby looked embarrassed. He came up and greeted her for a long time. Unexpectedly, the woman he liked was acting coquettishly in someone else's arms? And he was a man who had been married?

Bobby's original passionate face suddenly cooled down. "Jenny, this time, this banquet is mainly for an elder who came back. Let's sit together and chat. I'm afraid that it's not appropriate for you to bring an outsider here?"

"Why is it inappropriate?" Jenny only hugged Henry's arm and put the arm be in front of her. "My boyfriend is not an outsider."

Looking at Jenny and Henry's intimate look, Bobby felt very uncomfortable, but he couldn't express it directly.

Jenny took Henry's arm and sat down in front of a round table. At this table, all the young people greeted Jenny one after another. They were all in Jenny's circle.

Henry glanced at them, but none of them looked familiar.

Although Ning province was not big, it was still divided into many circles. Henry was usually in the same circle with Sylvia, and he only came into contact with the top circle.

Although Hengyuan Trade Company had a bright prospect, it couldn't be compared with Lins, so the circles they were into were not the same. It was normal that Henry didn't know them.

Just like the last time he came to Luohe city and Cheng's manor, the Family Lin had a separate table, which had a high status. But now, Henry was sitting at a table that was mixed with several juniors. Obviously, it was not the same level as the last time he came here.

"Look, that's Victor Du, the tycoon from Ning province."

"That, that is the head of the Ninghai government, John Xiao."

The young man sitting at the table with Henry was pointing fingers at the table on the main seat, his eyes full of envy.

"Hey, when can I sit on that table?"

"Not to mention sitting at that table, it's good enough if you can propose them a toast."

"It's easy to propose a toast, isn't it?" Bobby curled his lips and said, "Wait a minute, I'll go and say hello to my uncle."

When Bobby spoke, his face was full of pride.

Hearing Bobby's words, everyone's eyes lit up. "Yes, Bobby, you and John Xiao are related by blood."

"Yes, yes, yes. If you can go and say hello to your uncle and let us also propose a toast, it will be so awesome. If my father knows this, he will probably directly hand over the company to me."

"Bobby, we will look up to you."

Listening to everyone's compliments, Bobby's face was full of pride. He deliberately looked at Jenny, only to find that Jenny did not pay attention to him at all. Her eyes were all on Henry.

Chapter 376

Looking at Jenny's sweet appearance, Bobby hated her in his heart. "I have to gain some respect later. It's better to make Henry embarrassed!"

A man from the Cheng family came out and said a few words. Then the dinner began.

Henry learned through the chat of this table of people that this time it was Shane Cheng who had recovered. The situation was very good, and everyone came to congratulate him.

"President Xiao, Mr Du, I'll take this opportunity to propose a toast to both of you!" A middle-aged man laughed and walked toward the host with the wine glass in his hand.

Many people looked at the person who toasted them with envious eyes. Being able to go to the main seat to propose a toast was also a representative of their status.

Henry didn't care about these things. He was more concerned about the delicious food on the table. As Jenny said when she came, a lot of natural food couldn't be seen nowadays.

Henry was so bulky that he attracted a lot of people's contemptuous glances at his table.

Many people were puzzled. How could Jenny fall in love with such a man? Although Hengyuan had just entered this circle not long ago, everyone knew the potential of Hengyuan. In the future, she would inevitably occupy a place in the whole Ning province. Jenny was young and beautiful, and she was in charge of Hengyuan. The man she was looking for should be one of the best.

A young man who had a good relationship with Bobby couldn't help but say, "Jenny, can't you make your boyfriend restrain himself a little? There are so many people here. Our table is not looking well."

As soon as the man spoke, he immediately attracted a lot of people's agreement.

"That's right. You're such a glutton. You're simply embarrassing our table."

"Didn't you find that everyone else is looking at us with their eyes?"

Laughter rang out one after another.

When Jenny was about to speak, Henry spoke first. He held a chicken drumstick in his hand and looked puzzled. "It's strange. I thought that food was for eating. Can you get full just by looking at it?"

"You're like a starving ghost. Haven't you ever eaten? Look at the other tables. Who's eating like you?" Bobby curled his lips.

"It's so funny." Henry smiled and said, "Children should be grateful for the food provided. Why should we waste it?"

"You!" Bobby still wanted to say something, but he was stopped by a young man.

"Forget it, Bobby. We can't explain it clearly to this kind of person. He doesn't understand it. He has no status. He doesn't understand even if he says something." The young man pulled Bobby's sleeve and then glared at Henry. "Shame on you!"

Jenny looked at Bobby and others unhappily. In the Spring residential home, Jenny had seen too many children who could not eat enough. Sometimes, a roast duck could make these children particularly happy, but these people treated eating as a kind of shame. It was really unreasonable.

Jenny picked up a chicken leg for Henry and said, "Eat more. Don't pay attention to them."

Henry smiled at Jenny and did not hesitate to put the drumstick into his mouth.

Everyone at the table looked at this scene and really couldn't figure out how Jenny fell in love with such a person.

In the hall of the Cheng family, people constantly went to the main table to toast to the people on the main table. It could be seen that everyone who came back from the toast had a trace of pride on their faces. Not everyone could toast to the people on the main table. If it was some random person, others would ignore you.

"Boy, why are you still here? Let's go and propose a toast to your uncle." A middle-aged man walked to Bobby's side and said.

Bobby's face lit up. He picked up his cup and said, "Okay, Dad."

After Bobby finished speaking, he walked to the main table with his father.

The rest of the people at Henry's table all looked at Bobby with envious eyes.

They saw Bobby walking to the main table and toasting the bigwigs on the main table.

"See, this is strength. It represents contacts and the future life." The young man who had a good relationship with Bobby spoke again and deliberately said it to Jenny.

"I'm so envious."

"It's true. It's good that he can go there. Unfortunately, my family doesn't have the right to do that."

The people at their table sighed with emotion.

Soon, Bobby walked back with a smug look on his face. Although he just went there to propose a toast and didn't even have the right to chat with others, he was stronger than so many people. After enjoying the envious eyes of the people at the table, Bobby felt that he was more proud than before.

"Bobby, you are too awesome. Look at our young generation, you are the first one to go up to propose a toast."

"That's right. I just saw that the table next to us all looked at us enviously."

"Of course, which one of them can go up to propose a toast?"

The respectful voices sounded, and the smug look on Bobby's face became more and more intense. He waved his hand and said, "It's nothing. My uncle has something important to discuss now. Wait a minute. After they finish talking, I'll take everyone to have a toast."

Bobby's words caused a burst of cheers from the people on the table. If they could propose a toast to him, they could hold their heads high in the future!

Bobby looked at Jenny deliberately and said, "Jenny, you can go with me later. I'll introduce Uncle Du to you. He is the leader of the enterprise in Ning province. If you can cooperate with him, I believe that you will soon catch up with the Lins Group."

Jenny shook her head with a smile. "I won't go."

"How can you do that? Now your career is in the rising period. Since you can't find a useless boyfriend, you can..." Bobby said this and showed a look of dissatisfaction. "I..."

"F*ck, you didn't use your eyes when you walk! Do you know that you have touched me?" A shout suddenly rang out at Henry's table, interrupting Bobby's words.

Everyone looked over subconsciously and saw the young man who had been talking for Bobby and had a good relationship with him. At this time, he was standing in front of another person with an apologetic face with his head down. The shout just now came from another person.

"How dare he scold someone like this in the hall of the Chengs! He must have a high status."

Henry squinted at the man and said his name in a low voice, "Paul Cheng."

Paul Cheng ranked second in the third generation of the Cheng family. If Henry hadn't taken out a packet of golden melon tea, Paul would have been the Cheng family's chosen heir.

At this time, Paul was glaring at Bobby's friend with anger.

Bobby's friend didn't dare to say a word at this time. He didn't even dare to raise his head. This was the second master of the Cheng family, and he couldn't afford to offend him.

The people sitting at Bobby's table were also silent at this moment. They even lowered their breathing a lot, for fear of attracting Paul's dissatisfaction.

After a few seconds of silence, everyone looked at Bobby with a tacit understanding. Bobby's friend also looked at him for help.

Bobby swallowed hard. He didn't want to face this matter, but he had just pretended to be so arrogant. He couldn't be timid now. He stood up and ran around and said, "Brother Paul, this is my friend. Please don't embarrass me."

"Who the hell are you?" Paul turned his head and scolded.

Chapter 377

Paul's words made Bobby's face turn extremely ugly. There were so many people watching, and the woman he liked was still sitting here.

Bobby wanted to swear back, but he didn't dare. Even if he had a higher status in the circle, he wouldn't dare to disrespect Paul.

Bobby smiled and looked at Paul. "Brother Paul, I am Bobby Xiao, and John Xiao is my uncle."

"How dare you call me your brother? Who do you think you are?" Paul looked at Bobby with an unhappy face. It was obvious that he was a rich playboy. "John Xiao is your uncle? When his son is here, he also has to show me some respect. Do you think you are so amazing?"

"This..." Bobby looked terrible and subconsciously glanced at his table. He found that everyone was looking at him with strange eyes, which made his face burn.

"What's wrong? I'm here to teach you a lesson. Don't you want to stand out? Who are you? Why should I show some respect to you? What do you want?" Paul looked at Bobby with a sneer on his face.

Bobby was scolded by Paul and did not dare to say a word.

Two tables of people beside heard Paul's curses. They turned their heads and saw that it was Paul. They immediately looked away.

How rich Paul was! Many people had heard of him. If they offended him, they would suffer a lot.

Paul scolded Bobby, but Bobby didn't dare to say a word. The confidence he had just had disappeared at this moment.

"D*mn it, how dare you come to our Cheng family and have a meal? Bah!" Paul said, spitting on the table. "Now you can eat!"

After that, Paul strode away.

Henry ate the chicken leg in his hand. When he was about to pick up food, he saw a mouthful of thick saliva falling on the plate in front of him. This scene made Henry's face become gloomy.

Seeing Paul leave, Bobby and his friends, as well as the people at their table, all breathed a sigh of relief. Everyone was worried that Paul would target them just now, otherwise, they would have a hard time in the future. Fortunately, the son of the Cheng family didn't care about them.

Looking at Paul's back as he was leaving, everyone felt a sense of relief.

"Stop, who let you go?" A low voice sounded from their table.

At the same time as this low voice was heard, everyone's heart suddenly jumped. Who was it? Wasn't it a f*cking death wish?

Everyone looked at the speaker.

"Henry, don't implicate us if you want to die!" One of them glared at Henry.

"That's right. What are you doing?"

A man sitting next to Henry moved the stool with great force and was a little farther away from Henry.

Paul stopped for a moment as he walked away, then slowly turned around.

Seeing Paul turn around, Bobby and the others' hearts were about to jump out of their mouths.

Everyone looked at Henry as if he was a lunatic. He took the initiative to provoke Paul. Wasn't he a fool?

"I want to go, who dares..." Paul turned around and cursed. Before he could finish his words, he was swallowed into his stomach. He saw Henry sitting on the table.

Just now, Paul did not look at the table and naturally did not see Henry. Now that he saw him, the angry expression on his face disappeared completely. He came to Henry with a flattering look and said, "Oh, Brother Henry, it's you. Why didn't you say hello to me when you came?"

In the past, after Shane Cheng's birthday, the Cheng family had chosen a successor. Shane had specially called over Paul and told him not to provoke the son-in-law of the Family Lin.

No matter how arrogant Paul was, in front of Shane Cheng, he was just like a good obedient child.

What's more, Peter Cheng was in charge of the Cheng family now. At that time, Richard Wong gave the shares of Lins Group to Paul, but Paul was obedient and returned them back to Lins.

Will Ning, the head of the military region of Ning province, suddenly fell down a few days ago. Many people didn't know the inside story, but Paul, as the second-in-charge of the Cheng family, naturally knew that it was Nick who provoked the son-in-law of the Family Lin and was directly investigated by the highest level in China. After learning this, Paul was frightened with cold sweat. Fortunately, he didn't offend the Family Lin too much, otherwise, even his grandfather couldn't protect himself.

Paul did not dare to offend Henry at all.

Seeing Paul's attitude towards Henry,

Bobby and others widened their eyes and couldn't believe it. What kind of status did this man have that Paul took the initiative to call him brother?

Henry stood up from his seat and ran around with a smile.

Paul also quickly smiled.

Henry, who was smiling, suddenly stopped smiling and slapped Paul hard on the face.

Paul was hit by Henry's slap and half of his body lay on the table. The food was all over his face.

Bobby and the others, who had thought that Henry and Paul had a good relationship, were shocked by Henry's action. "What's going on? Did he hit Paul Cheng?"

Just as Bobby and others thought that Paul would be angry, they found that Paul still smiled and said, "Brother Henry, how did I offend you? Just say it. I will apologize to you."

Paul's attitude made Bobby and others widen their eyes once again. Just now they thought that Henry's status was the same as Paul's, but now they found that they had underestimated Henry. He was the person whom Paul dared not offend!

Henry grabbed Paul's hair and pressed his head on the table. With a poker face, he said, "If you spit on the table, then you have to eat the food on this table. All the food. You have to finish everything. Hurry up."

Although Henry's expression was calm, his words were like the cold wind in winter, making Paul's hair stand on end.

Looking at the table in front of him, which contained 18 dishes, Paul showed bitterness on his face. "Brother Henry, I..."

When Paul was about to say something, Henry directly picked up a porcelain plate, smashed it on the table, picked up a piece of debris, and stuck it into the back of Paul's hand.

The sharpness of the shards cut through Paul's skin, penetrated the back of Paul's hand, and stuck into the table.

"Ah! Ah!"

Paul let out a cry of pain.

Bobby and the others looked at Henry's movements and couldn't help but shiver. This was the second master of the Cheng family. He had beaten him without any hesitation, and he didn't show any mercy at all!

The people sitting at the table with Henry looked at his movements and thought of sarcasm just now. They felt a burst of fear.

"I told you to eat, so you just have to eat."

Henry spoke again, and his voice had a strong sense of oppression.

The king of the underground world, the leader of hell, The Conqueror, he would only show his gentleness to the person he loved. No one else could provoke him at will. Otherwise, he would not stand at the top of the underground world and be revered.

Paul trembled in pain and couldn't stop his tears. Henry's voice made his heart tremble. He was afraid, he was really afraid. If he didn't face Henry face to face, he wouldn't feel Henry's oppressive force.

Chapter 378

The sharp pain from his palm spread to Paul's whole body. He struggled to reach out his other hand, grabbed the food on the table, and stuffed it into his mouth.

Looking at this scene, Bobby and others were shocked. Was this the rich man of the Cheng family they knew?

The commotion at Henry's side immediately attracted the attention of the entire hall. Those who were still eating, regardless of the guests or the main tables, all looked at this direction. When they saw that Paul was pressed on the table and someone was poking his palm with fragments of a porcelain plate, they immediately suspected that they had seen the wrong person.

This was the Cheng family, the well-known top wealthy family in Ning province! How could the Second Young Master be treated like this?

Jenny looked at this scene. Although she was surprised, she could understand. Although the Cheng family was strong, compared with Henry, it was still not enough. Henry's former title of God of Wall Street alone was enough to crush the Cheng family.

The servants of the Cheng family rushed over at the first time. Some guests wanted to show their goodwill to the Cheng family and shouted.

"What are you doing? Let go of Young Master Cheng!"

Facing the gaze that was fixed on him, Henry ignored it. He pressed hard on Paul's head. Paul's face had been deformed even when it was stuck on the table.

"Eat faster," Henry said with no expression on his face.

Paul immediately sped up his movements. Before he swallowed the food in his mouth, he grabbed another dish and stuffed it into his mouth.

"Get out of my way, all of you!" A loud voice rang out.

"Peter Cheng is here."

"The eldest son of the Chengs, the future heir."

"It depends on how Peter Cheng handles this matter. I've lived for more than 50 years and it's the first time I've seen someone who dares to humiliate the Cheng family." An entrepreneur stared at them and said.

Bobby and others also saw Peter coming over and took the initiative to make way for him. He was the future leader of the Cheng family. It could be said that from now on, as long as they still wanted to live in Ning province, they had to be friends with Peter.

Bobby and the others guessed that Henry dared to beat Paul, but he dared not do anything to Peter. After all, Peter's status was much higher than Paul's.

Peter was still accompanying Shane Cheng in the hall. When he heard Paul was beaten, Peter rushed out immediately. Although he didn't like his brother very much, he was still a member of the Cheng family. If someone beat him in his own house, it would be a slap in the face of the Cheng family.

Peter pushed the crowd away angrily, but when he saw Henry, who was pressing Peter, all the anger on his face disappeared in an instant. Peter was the first person who had seen Henry's energy.

Henry casually took out a gift and Peter became the successor of the Cheng family.

"Brother Henry..." Peter called Henry and then stopped talking and moving. He stood at the table.

Henry glanced at Peter but did not say anything. He turned his gaze back to Paul and said, "Eat quickly."

Peter's attitude towards Henry, as well as Henry's attitude towards Peter, made everyone present see it clearly.

The Cheng family's future heir must be polite to this young man. On the contrary, this young man was indifferent to the Cheng family's heir. Moreover, the Cheng family's heir dared not do anything now and could only watch his own brother be humiliated.

What was the identity of this young man?

Such doubts filled everyone's mind.

Bobby and others swallowed hard.

The entire hall of the Cheng family became eerily silent at this moment. No one spoke. Everyone was looking at Henry's side. In the hall, only the sound of Paul swallowing food could be heard.

"My grandson, Paul Cheng, has offended some big shot?" An old voice broke the silence in the hall.

Because of this voice, all the people around them began to discuss among themselves.

"Get out of the way for Shane Cheng."

"Let's see how Shane will deal with this. It's estimated that he is the son of a rich family. Peter doesn't dare to provoke him casually, but he has to show some respect for Old Master."

"Yes, no matter who he is, in Ning province, he has to respect Old Master."

Hearing the voice of Shane, Bobby and others felt a burst of joy in their hearts. They had been ridiculing Henry before and said all kinds of arrogant and unpleasant words.

But in the end, they found that Henry was so bossy that Paul and Peter didn't dare to offend him, so what they had just done became a joke. This feeling made them particularly uncomfortable. Now they really wanted to see Henry suffer a setback, especially Bobby. He had lost so much respect in front of the woman he liked. If Henry could also feel embarrassed, it would be great.

Bobby and the others did not think that Henry would be disrespectful to Shane.

The crowd dispersed again. Shane walked over with his crutch.

Henry raised his head at the same time and looked at Shane.

Henry had no expression on his face. His eyes were cold. Just a glance at him made Shane feel like he had fallen into an ice cellar.

"It's you?" Shane had never expected that the person Paul had offended was Henry.

Last time when Will Ning made trouble for him, eight people with top status from the capital came. Shane was clear about this matter.

When Henry took out the golden melon tea, Shane was guessing that the son-in-law of the Family Lin was likely to be a son of some extremely powerful person. As soon as at news of Will Ning's failure were spread, Shane was very clear that in the future, Ning province was no longer controlled by the Cheng family, but by the Family Lin!

Henry's background was something that Shane dared not offend.

Henry looked at Shane and said coldly, "Do you know how to educate your juniors?"

Henry questioned in a questioning tone.

"Brother Henry, if Paul offended you, I apologize to you on his behalf." Shane said sincerely. His attitude made everyone in the hall feel unbelievable.

"Why would Shane Cheng take the initiative to apologize to this young man?"

"What I'm asking you is, do you know how to educate juniors?" Henry asked again.

In other people's eyes, Shane Cheng was the most powerful person in Ning province, but Henry had seen too many powerful people. Comparing to those people, Master Cheng was nothing. As for those who had the power, they were all respectful to Henry and wanted to be his servants.

Shane was questioned by Henry in front of so many people. He felt a little embarrassed, but he didn't dare to say anything more, so he had to answer honestly, "It's my mistake that he behaved so badly."

"If you don't know how to teach him, I'll teach him for you." Henry grabbed Paul's hair and picked him up. "Come and finish the dishes on this table. Finish everything. And the thick saliva on my plate. You spat it out, so you have to lick it now!"

Chapter 379

Henry's words let everyone present fully understand his aggressiveness.

Facing the Cheng family and Shane Cheng, he was still doing his own thing!

Shane looked at the food that had been scattered over the table and was silent for more than ten seconds. Then he sighed and said, "Eat."

The word "eat" made everyone's eyes wide open. This was equivalent to a compromise. The majesty of the Cheng family, which had not been shaken for decades, was completely thrown on the ground and trampled upon by others.

After saying the word "eat", Shane seemed to have lost all his strength, and his whole body seemed to be in a low spirit.

Peter, who was the closest to the table, glanced at Shane and then looked at Paul. He took the initiative to grab the food on the table and stuffed it into his mouth.

Peter took the lead in eating, and the Cheng family members who came from behind also gathered around the table and started to eat.

"You two, go and eat as well." Shane looked at his two disciples and waved his hand.

Victor Du, the leader of the business circle in Ning province, and John Xiao, the leader in politics, all came over and grabbed the food on the table.

Such a gesture of eating represented too many things.

Master Cheng sighed and walked to the table as well. He grabbed a handful of food and stuffed it into his mouth.

From then on, there was no majesty of the Cheng Family in Yinzhou.

The Cheng family would slowly step down and would be replaced by the Lin Family.

At this moment, Bobby and the others did not know how to describe their feelings. If they were to tell others that they had ridiculed Henry just now, they would not believe it. But now, thinking about what they had done before, it was too bold.

Henry looked at this scene. For the Family Lin, the Cheng family's existence was something they would deal with sooner or later. Henry just took this opportunity to solve the problem for Sylvia.

After all, there was still a relationship between the Family Lin and the Cheng family, but Henry didn't have so many scruples. It was better for him to do this first rather than let Sylvia break up the relationship with the Cheng family in the end.

The best way to make a person surrender was to make him fear you.

Henry had now made the Cheng family, Victor Du, and John Xiao fear him.

Henry reached out and knocked on the table three times. "Remember, don't spit when others eat in the future. Jenny, let's go."

"Oh... okay." Jenny responded with a dull look.

Not only Jenny, but also all the people in the hall were gawking at the scene of Cheng's family eating around the table.

They were all sensible people and knew what the Cheng family's method represented. They just didn't know Henry's specific identity and didn't know who would replace the Cheng family.

Henry and Jenny left the hall of the Cheng family.

A woman from the Cheng family let out a long breath and spat out what had just been stuffed into her mouth. Just as she was about to speak, she heard Shane's reproach.

"Swallow! Eat up all these things!"

After finishing his words, Shane grabbed a handful of vegetables and stuffed them into his mouth.

The lady from the Cheng's shrank her neck, stuffed the food she had just spat into her mouth, and swallowed it with difficulty.

Shane's behaviour once again let everyone in the hall understand the horror of Henry. They tried their best to remember Henry's appearance. When they saw him in the future, they could only make friends with him. They must not provoke him!

After leaving the hall, Jenny looked at Henry again and looked at him up and down with her beautiful eyes.

"Your eyes look a little weird." Henry complained.

"You really love your wife. For her, you made such a big deal out of such a small thing today?" Jenny's face showed some jealousy.

"You figured it out?" Henry looked at Jenny unexpectedly.

Jenny rolled her eyes and said, "You think I am a fool? Today, you just wanted to see the attitude of the Cheng family so that the Cheng family will give up and your wife will have a smooth journey in the future, right? Otherwise, why would you have such a big temper when it comes to such a small thing?"

Henry nodded and shook his head. "It's for my wife, but it's not a small thing. For me, wasting food is same as wasting life."

Hearing Henry's words, Jenny suddenly remembered what Dean Cui from the Spring residential home said to her at that time. Henry and his mother used to rely on each other, picking up rubbish, eating garbage. Food was his life.

At that time, the helpless child had grown up to be like this. The sorrow in his heart was not easy to imagine.

Jenny looked at Henry with affection in her eyes. Even though he was now a man who could overwhelm the Cheng family with his momentum, it didn't mean that he could destroy everything. Such kind of people was always the weakest in their hearts.

"Jenny, I find that your eyes are getting more and more strange!" Henry looked at Jenny with fear.

"I'm thinking about your domineering look just now." Jenny squinted her eyes and smiled. She held Henry's shoulder and said, "That look really makes me love you to death!"

"Don't love me." Henry quickly pulled his arm out of Jenny's soft arms. "You know, I have a wife."

"It doesn't matter. In ancient China, all men had wives and concubines!" Jenny had already been immune to Henry's wife's excuse. "Anyway, I am watching you. If you are hurt by Sylvia, I will wait for you to come to my arms and give Sylvia a chance to mess up. When the time comes, let her cry!"

Henry gave a dry laugh and did not answer.

It was already two o'clock in the afternoon when Jenny drove Henry back to Yinzhou.

"Henry, do you think I should do this stone business or not? This is an official concession. Although it is risky, it is indeed an opportunity." Jenny was still a little interested in the stone gambling project. In Yinzhou, it would be an absolute monopoly industry.

Henry thought for a moment and replied, "Actually, it's not impossible, but the premise is that you have to find a good source of stones and be ready to take risks. The transportation channels are all cost-effective. Like now, you have to find a transport channel. Without a long-term contract for one or two years, no one will sign it with you. In case you can't find a good source, your money will be wasted. I haven't studied the market price in this field, so it's hard to make a conclusion for you."

"I did some market research." Jenny stopped the car at a traffic light, turned around, and took out a document from the back seat. "In our place, there should still be a market for gambling on stones."

Henry took a look at the document taken out by Jenny and nodded. "This report is pretty detailed. Well, since you want to do it, I will introduce a supplier to you. You go on a field trip. If you think it's okay, you can make a deal. He will give you the lowest price in the market."

"Haha, I know you are the best." Jenny laughed loudly. She reached out and grabbed Henry's neck, and kissed him hard on his face.

Before Henry could react, Jenny had already put the steering wheel back on and started the car.

Henry touched his face, feeling a bit molested by her.

Chapter 380

Henry asked Jenny to find a place to get off the car. He was afraid that this female hooligan would have some evil intentions again.

Jenny looked at Henry, who was domineering in the Cheng family and now looked like a scared lady. She laughed out loud.

After parting with Jenny, Henry made a phone call to Wade White.

"Boss, I was about to call you." Wade's voice sounded.

"What's wrong?" Henry asked.

"Boss, let's talk about your matter first. Mine is more complicated."

"Find me the phone number of Stone King in Yun Province. I have something to do with him." Henry said. Stone King in Yun Province was the biggest person in the gambling industry in Yun Province. If others had his phone number, they would not rest assured and would keep it in mind. At that time, Stone King gave his phone number to Henry, but Henry did not even look at it.

"Boss, why do you want his phone number? If you go to gamble on stones again, he will probably cry!" Wade said. He still remembered that year when Henry went to Yun Province to gamble on stones, he swept away all the stone fields. Stone King cracked open million stone, but Henry Zhang won all of them. He swore that as long as Henry went to the place to gamble on stones in the future, he wouldn't be there.

Hearing Wade's words, Henry also thought of the past. At that time, he was in a high spirit. In a few days, all the biggest gambling stone fields in Yun Province were closed. He smiled and said, "To introduce a business partner to him."

"Oh, okay, I'll send it to you now. Boss, I have something to tell you."

As soon as Wade's voice fell, Henry heard a prompt from his mobile phone. It was a message from Wade, and it was a phone number from Stone King.

"Go ahead."

"Boss, did Master Zhu tell you anything when he met you in Yanjing?" Wade asked first.

"A little." Hearing this from Wade, Henry's face turned a little serious. "What's wrong?"

"I've heard that someone is going to destroy the Zhu family recently. It's said that the Zhu family knows some great secrets. Someone wants to kill them, so Mr Zhu asked us for help. Do you want to..." Wade did not continue at this time.

"Book a ticket. I have to go to the Zhu family." Henry said without thinking.

On that day, Wilbur's words to him had been pressing on his mind. He had planned to go to the Zhu family's house after the misunderstanding with Sylvia was resolved.

"Okay."

"By the way, keep our whereabouts a secret." Henry reminded him.

"Understood."

Hanging up the phone, Henry sent the phone number of Stone King to Jenny. Jenny replied with a lovely expression, which made Henry not know whether to laugh or cry.

A few minutes later, Wade sent another message to Henry, which was a ticket for Henry's flight at seven o'clock in the evening.

Henry took a taxi and came to Lin's office. He went straight to the top floor and went to Sylvia's office.

Henry's position in the business department had long been cancelled.

In Sylvia's office, a young and beautiful woman was sitting on the sofa opposite Sylvia's desk. "President Lin, you are the future master of the family. You may not understand what I have told you for the time being, but you have to take charge of the Su Family. These things have to be faced. Our Su Family has a certain position in the ancient kungfu family circles."

Sylvia didn't work. She listened quietly to her words. She just told her something about the Su Family, including ancient martial arts and aristocratic families, which were beyond Sylvia's cognition.

"President Lin, I've told you all this, and I hope you can keep it a secret. You're married, but you can't easily tell him about this kind of thing, even if you love him the most. The ancient martial arts society is hidden by the government. Except for a few people, no one can get in touch with it. You not telling him is not hiding anything from him, but protecting him. Do you understand?" The young woman repeatedly stressed.

Sylvia nodded and tried to digest what she said.

"Your husband and the family head are business friends. Their business transactions do not include martial arts. I told you all this because I wanted to warn you in advance. If you really want to understand the Su Family, you have to go to Yanjing with me. The family head told me that I not only should take you back, but also bring Auntie Samantha Su back with me. Take her home!"

"Take her home..." Sylvia murmured these words, and her heart was beating wildly. When her mother was alive, her biggest wish was to return to the Su Family.

The words "take her home" were so far away for Sylvia before, and she hoped to wait for this day. But now, when the words were in front of her, Sylvia was a little scared.

"Yes, take her home. Only you and Aunt Su should go back. This time, I'm going to help you get familiar with ancient martial arts. Your husband should not go with you this time. I hope you can understand this."

At that time, Henry did not want Sylvia to know his relationship with the Su Family and the previous conflict, so he lied to Sylvia that he had business dealings with Victor Su.

This time, Victor sent people to Yinzhou to take Sylvia home, but he didn't say much. He only said that he and Henry were business friends. Now, except for Victor, no one in the Su Family knew Henry's real identity. Those who knew Henry's identity were long gone.

Sylvia took a deep breath and nodded. "When should I go back with you?"

"Today."

As soon as the young woman finished her words, Henry pushed the door open and walked in.

Seeing Henry, the young woman immediately closed her mouth, afraid that Henry would hear something that he shouldn't have heard.

Henry glanced at the young woman sitting in the office and asked Sylvia, "Dear, your friend is here. I'll talk to you later."

"No." Sylvia waved her hand. "This is Megan Su."

"You're from the Su Family?" Henry looked at the woman.

Megan got up and walked up to Henry. She stretched out her hand to Henry and said, "Hello, Mr Zhang."

"Hello." Henry shook hands with her politely.

Sylvia said to Henry, "Honey, Megan Su is here to take my mother and me home. I have to go today."

Henry nodded and said, "How long will you stay there?"

"I don't know." Sylvia shook her head. She was now full of doubts about what Megan had said about ancient martial arts. She didn't know how long it would take this time. Maybe a few days or half a month.

"Be careful on the road." Henry didn't say anything or ask more. Since Sylvia didn't ask him to accompany her, she must have had her own ideas. Henry could understand that. After all, since Sylvia came back to the Su Family, there were a lot of family affairs to deal with.
