

Chapter 301

"Okay, no problem." Henry agreed without thinking. He was very good at investment. The investment of one million dollars was very simple in Henry's eyes, and the analysis of pros and cons was also very easy.

Hearing Henry's answer, the Amity squinted and smiled. "Brother Henry, thank you. My second uncle and the others will arrive today. Maybe they will talk about it at dinner time. You can go with me then."

Henry made an OK gesture to the Amity.

Henry was walking with the Amity toward the hotel when he received a phone call from President Ma.

As soon as the phone was picked up, the anxious voice of President Ma sounded on the phone. "Little master, come to the hospital quickly. We're in trouble."

"Trouble?" Hearing this, Henry felt that this matter had something to do with the middle-aged woman in the morning.

"Okay, I'll come now."

"Thank you, little master."

After hanging up the phone, Henry told Amity that they would get in touch for dinner, and then he went to the hospital.

When he arrived at the hospital, the father and daughter who Henry had treated in the morning had already left. The other side left a business card and asked President Ma to give it to Henry. At the same time, they asked President Ma to tell Henry that if he needed help, he could contact them.

Those who traded antiques like them usually had a solid background, so they must have had a few hundred million yuan in their bank account.

However, Henry just accepted the business card casually without paying attention to the name. If Henry really had to find someone to help him, it would mean that the whole world would be in trouble.

Under the guidance of President Ma, Henry came to the ward.

As soon as he pushed open the door of the ward, the scene in the room shocked Henry.

The whole ward was full of people in black. They were all strong men in suits, and there was even one person in casual clothes, who was constantly yelling at the doctors in the ward with a sense of official prestige.

The doctors all lowered their heads and didn't dare to say a word.

When the door of the ward was opened by Henry, all the people in the room focused their eyes on Henry at this moment.

President Ma immediately made an introduction. "Come on, little master, let me introduce them to you. This is Director Fan of the Yinzhou City Sanity Bureau. Director Fan, this is Dr. Zhang, the highly-skilled doctor. Even Master Lewis Yan thinks his medical skills are inferior to his. He is absolutely the best of the younger generation."

"Oh." Henry nodded indifferently.

Director Fan looked Henry up and down from head to toe with a scrutinizing look, and then said, "I heard that you can save people?"

Director Fan's gaze and attitude made Henry very unhappy. He asked back, "Does it have anything to do with you?"

Director Fan snorted and said, "Boy, do you know who you are talking to? Believe it or not, I'll cancel your Physician's Qualification Certificate!"

"I know." Henry nodded. "You are an official, but I'm sorry. I don't have a Physician's Qualification Certificate."

"You provoke me?" Director Fan narrowed his eyes, feeling that he was not angry but powerful. The doctors standing next to him did not dare to look at him.

"Well, when you talk to the doctor, be careful with your tone." At this time, a voice sounded on the side of the bed.

Those strong men in black standing in front of the hospital bed separated to the left and right so that Henry could see who was talking. This was a man in his fifties, wearing a black tunic suit, and a jade thumb ring on his left thumb. His face was ruddy.

As soon as the middle-aged man opened his mouth, Director Fan immediately closed his mouth and greeted respectfully, "President Zhao."

President Zhao, who was sitting on the side of the bed, stood up at this moment and walked toward Henry. "Young doctor, although I don't know medical skills, I also know the truth in the doctor's heart. Now the patient is lying in front of you, and you can cure him. Why don't you treat him?"

"Ha." Henry chuckled. "Somebody said I can't cure him."

President Zhao smiled slightly. "It turns out that the young doctor is angry. Well, let me make the person who disrespected you apologize."

After President Zhao said that, he turned to look at the middle-aged woman.

The middle-aged woman looked a little embarrassed. "Second brother, why should I apologize to him? There are so many capable people in this world."

"There are many capable people, but how long do you think the third brother can survive?" President Zhao played with the thumb ring on his left hand and said, "Apologize."

"I..." There was a struggle on the middle-aged woman's face.

"Quickly, apologize," President Zhao said again.

"Second brother, I..." The middle-aged woman was unwilling to say those words in the morning. Now she had to apologize to a junior in front of so many people. What a shame!

"Apologize!" President Zhao, who had always been calm, suddenly shouted and raised his voice.

This sound scared the middle-aged woman and she didn't dare to say anything more. She walked to Henry and whispered, "I'm sorry."

"What?" Henry used his right thumb to clean his ears. "There must be something in my ear. I didn't hear you."

President Zhao stood aside, and his voice calmed down again. "Speak louder."

"I'm sorry!" The middle-aged woman shouted, and her face was full of embarrassment.

"Apologize to who? What do you mean?" Henry asked with a playful look.

The middle-aged woman frowned. "Don't go too far!"

"Oh." Henry nodded, turned his head and was about to leave.

President Zhao spoke again, "Be more sincere."

The middle-aged woman glanced around subconsciously and took a deep breath. "Young doctor, I'm sorry. I was rude in the morning. I shouldn't have said that."

"Well, that's not bad." Henry nodded with satisfaction.

After the middle-aged woman finished her words, she immediately went into the crowd. Such an apology made her feel very embarrassed.

President Zhao took a few steps forward and said, "Young doctor, are you satisfied now? Can you help me to save my third brother?"

"It's still a little difficult." Henry frowned slightly. "President Zhao, right? You know, I don't have a Physician's Qualification Certificate. Now Director Fan is here. I'm afraid that it's not in line with the rules for me to practice medicine in front of him."

President Zhao looked at Director Fan.

Director Fan quickly waved his hand. "There are no rules. You can rest assured that you can treat the patient."

"Okay." Henry walked to the bedside and looked at the middle-aged man lying on the bed. He was completely in a coma now, with an oxygen mask on his face.

Henry sighed, shook his head, and walked to the side.

Henry's action made President Zhao's heart sink. He quickly asked, "Young doctor, how is my third younger brother now?"

As for the patient's condition, the hospital had already given a report that the toxin was spreading in his body and could not be cured, so President Zhao and others were so anxious.

The corners of Henry's mouth curled up.

"He's in good condition. As long as he can be detoxified, he will wake up."

Hearing Henry's words, President Zhao's face showed a hint of joy. "Then, please save him, young doctor."

"Save him? Who said I'm going to treat him?" Henry asked with a puzzled look.

Chapter 302

Henry's words made President Zhao's face completely darkened.

The middle-aged woman who had just apologized to Henry scolded on the spot, "Kid, are you fking kidding me?"

Henry smiled at the middle-aged woman and asked, "Isn't my performance obvious enough?"

"You!" The middle-aged woman stretched out her hand and pointed at Henry. At the same time, those strong men in suits also surrounded Henry.

Looking at these strong men who were full of murderous intent, Henry looked relaxed.

President Zhao's expression changed one after another. He then waved his hand, indicating for the big men to leave.

"Young doctor, it seems that I still look down on the misunderstanding between you and my sister-in-law. To tell you the truth, I am a businessman. I believe that there are no eternal enemies in this world. The two sides are enemies, because the interests are not united. So, how about you save my third brother and we pay the corresponding reward?"

President Zhao extended a finger.

"As long as you can save my third brother, I'll give you one million yuan."

As soon as President Zhao finished speaking, the middle-aged woman was the first to show her displeasure. "Second brother, look at this kid's poor appearance. His clothes are less than a thousand yuan in total. How is he worth one million yuan? Giving him ten thousand yuan is a bargain for him!"

Henry hook his head. "President Zhao, right? I really agree with what you said. There is no eternal enemy. As long as the interests are united, anyone can become a friend."

President Zhao nodded with satisfaction. "It seems that the young doctor is a smart person. I like to deal with smart people the most."

The middle-aged woman stood next to him, and her face was as ugly as constipation. One million, how could he give one million to this guy? According to her mood now, she would tear this money apart and burned it, but she didn't want to give them to Henry.

"Young doctor, tell me your account, and I will transfer the money to you now. What do you think?" President Zhao waved his hand, and a big man took a mobile phone.

"No need to hurry." Henry reached out his hand to stop President Zhao's action. "I think your third brother's life should be more than one million yuan, and the price of my one move is more than one million yuan. This price is far from enough."

"Boy, don't go too far!" The middle-aged woman scolded again. "One million is enough for a man like you to live a lifetime. Why are you not happy?"

"Don't say much." President Zhao glared at the middle-aged woman with dissatisfaction. Then he smiled at Henry and said, "Young doctor, according to your opinion, how much do you think is suitable."

Henry held his chin, thought for a moment, and said, "In my opinion, your third brother's life is worth at least 10 million yuan, but I'm not a man who asks for a high price. I'll be happy with 5 million yuan."

President Zhao nodded with a smile and said, "It's reasonable. Then, young doctor, how much is enough for you to make a second move?"

Henry extended a finger.

"Ten million?" President Zhao was a little surprised, and then he smiled and said, "Young doctor is worth ten million yuan because his ability."

"No, it's more than ten million." Henry shook his head.

"100 million?" President frowned.

Even though President Zhao had just scolded her, the middle-aged woman couldn't help saying, "100 million! You are such a poor man. You don't understand what 100 million means! You really dare to say it!"

Henry smiled and said softly, "One billion."

One billion!

Henry's number made the middle-aged woman suddenly stunned, and she didn't know how to refute for a moment.

"Hahahaha!" President Zhao laughed a few times. "One billion, young doctor, you're really good at joking. Do you know what one billion means?"

President Zhao asked this question. Without waiting for Henry's answer, his face suddenly became gloomy. His eyes were like an eagle's eyes, staring at Henry. "One billion yuan is enough to buy your family members' lives!"

"Wow!" Henry showed a horrified look. "What do you mean? Do you want to kill people? This is a law-ruling society! There is an official next to you. Are you threatening me like this?"

"Little brother, I admire capable people, so I call you magical doctor. If you don't have this medical skill, you are just a nonentity in my eyes." President Zhao threw the mobile phone he had just taken away. "This world is not a world of anger, nor is it a world of reason. It is a world of money and power. One billion yuan? Do you know what a person like you is in the eyes of a person who has one billion yuan?"

President Zhao's eyes were full of contempt for life when he looked at Henry.

Henry asked curiously, "What do you mean?"

"Nothing! I'll give you one last chance, ten million. You save my brother, and I'll pretend that nothing has happened! Otherwise, you'll have to consider the consequences. I'll give you three seconds to think about it, three!"

"I don't have to think about it." Henry directly interrupted President Zhao's words. "A person like me, loves the consequences the most. President Ma, I'll go first."

Henry waved to President Ma, and then walked out of the ward without looking at President Zhao and others.

President Zhao obviously did not expect Henry to make such a choice.

The moment Henry left, Director Fan was anxious to show his identity. He asked President Ma, "President Ma, what is the identity of the person you found?"

President Ma laughed dryly twice. "Director Fan, this young doctor is the husband of President Lin of Lins Group..."

President Ma also heard about the incident of Lin's fire last time. He knew about the relationship between Henry and Sylvia. He was not surprised at all, and he even had a feeling that he should be like this. Only President Lin of Lin's family could be worthy of such an excellent man.

When Director Fan, President Zhao and others heard President Ma's words, they were all stunned.

The Lin's reputation was well-known in the Yinzhou. Everyone had heard of it, and no one could compare with the Old Master's position. Now the Lins Group was entirely handed over to the girl surnamed Lin. She would be the leader of the Lin's in Future.

The middle-aged woman opened her mouth and didn't know what to say for a long time.

A boss of a group with a market value of ten billion yuan was called a poor boy. She even said that 10,000 yuan was a great incense for a person. If it was spread out, she would be laughed at by others.

Director Fan's face was a little pale. Just now, in order to please President Zhao, he talked a lot. In the end, he offended the husband of the president of the Family Lin.

This...

Director Fan was very clear about how influential the Lins Group was. If the other party slightly targeted him, he, as the director, would not be comfortable.

As for President Zhao, he frowned and said, "Lins Group... interesting. It seems that there is another layer of conflict between us."

Chapter 303

Fifteen minutes after Henry left the hospital, the information about President Zhao and others had been sent to his mobile phone.

Zhao's Group, a company that rose up in Yinzhou within a month, had a business field that covered more than a dozen areas. It was full of funds and had conflicts with Lin's on several projects.

"Zhao's Group, interesting." Henry grinned. "I'll have fun with you after I've solved the problem with Yanjing people. Now, I'll let you have fun for two days."

Henry had already decided to go to Yanjing after dealing with Fiona Wong this time. He would completely find out the person behind this and deal with them. Then he would no longer need to hide his identity. It would be much more convenient for him to do everything.

When Henry returned to the company, it was almost time to get off work. He still remembered that he was going to help Amity about the investment tonight. He greeted Sylvia and said that he would not go back for dinner.

After work, Henry and Amity went out of the company together. They didn't take a taxi but walked to the destination.

Amity said that the place for dinner had been booked. At Glory Hotel, her uncle's family and her father had already been seated.

When Henry and Amity arrived at the parking lot of Glory Hotel, they heard a woman's voice.

"Hey, Amity, you are here. I was going to call you!"

Henry and Amity looked in the direction of the sound and saw a young woman who looked like Amity. She was walking down from a Benz-Benz whose price was at least three million dollars. She was carrying a Chanel handbag in her hand.

Compared with Amity, this woman was a bit more charming, less simple, and her appearance was almost as good as Amity's.

At the same time, a young man got off from the driver seat of the Benz G. The young man looked ordinary, he closed the door and took the initiative to ask, "Snow Qiu, is this your cousin?"

"Yeah, dear." Snow held the man's arm intimately. "Amity, this is your future brother-in-law, Levi Sun."

"Hello." Amity smiled at Levi.

"Hello, I often hear Snow mention you and say that you are a beautiful woman. Today, I see that Snow really didn't lie to me." Levi took the initiative to reach out to the Amity to show his gentlemanliness. Then he looked at Henry and said, "This is..."

"This is Henry Zhang." Amity introduced.

After greeting each other, they went to the hotel together.

In a small private room, the father of Amity, the second uncle and his wife, as well as the third aunt and her husband, were sitting at the table and chatting.

When the door of the private room opened, the two sisters, Amity and Snow, walked into the room.

"Amity, I haven't seen you for so many years. You're so beautiful now." The second uncle of Amity said with a smile.

"Yes, not only is she beautiful, but she is also capable. I don't know who will have this kind of luck to get our Amity to love him." The third aunt of Amity also spoke.

Before she could talk, Amity's face was red and she was very shy.

At this time, several people in the room also noticed Henry who came with Amity.

"This gentleman is..." The second uncle of Amity looked at Henry with a puzzled look.

Father of Amity had a deep impression of Henry. If it weren't for Henry at that time, he would have been completely cheated, and he wouldn't even be able to walk out of the casino.

"This is Henry." Before she could speak, her father introduced Henry to Second Uncle and Third Aunt. "Henry's help last time saved us."

Henry greeted people in a way of greeting his elders.

"Okay, take a seat. Come on, order."

Henry sat at the table and listened to the family members of Amity talking about their daily life. He found that he had done all these things all day long.

"The business in the past two years hasn't been very prosperous. There was at more than 200 million yuan in each year's profits. Now it will be good if we can get one hundred million yuan." While drinking wine, the uncle of the Amity sighed. He patted Levi Sun on the shoulder and said, "Thanks to the help of Sun's family, otherwise, we wouldn't even save one hundred million yuan."

Levi smiled and said, "Uncle Qiu, you are treating me like an outsider."

The third aunt of Amity ate a mouthful of vegetables and said, "Second Brother, didn't you say that the coal mine business has been back to normal in the past two years? How about the profit of more than 300 million yuan you collected yuan last time?"

"Not bad. Judging from the current sales volume, we'll be able to make a profit in a year," Second Uncle replied.

There was a hint of joy on the face of the third aunt of Amity, "Well, Second Brother, I said I would add 30 million more at that time, don't refuse."

"Of course not." The second uncle of Amity waved his hand. "We're family. That's all for us."

"Haha, Second Brother, I propose a toast to you." The third aunt raised her glass.

"Dad!" Snow sat aside and said in a coquettish voice, "You let Levi Sun also put some money. Not too much, only 30 million, how about that?"

"Ah, Snow." Levi Sun pulled Snow's sleeve.

"Love is love. Business is business. How can I take advantage of your family?"

The Second Uncle let out a loud laugh. "Little Sun, we're family. Let's not talk about the two families. You can invest 30 million yuan."

Levi's face was full of joy, and he quickly raised his glass. "Thank you so much, uncle."

The father and Amity listened to the conversation of their family and felt a little bitter in their hearts. They hadn't contacted each other for some time, but they didn't expect that their family had developed like this. Looking at themselves, if it weren't for the fact that they were lucky a few days ago and had a car, they wouldn't even know how to pay the debt now.

Amity's father was anxious to hear this, so he couldn't help asking, "Second Brother, what was a small business that you mentioned before?"

"Oh, yes." The second uncle ate a mouthful of food. "There is a small business, but the fund of one million is not enough. It's at least about 1.2 million yuan."

"Ah?" Hearing this, Amity's father's face darkened. "1.2 million... this... this... this is too much."

"Uncle, you really don't know how to do business." Snow said, "Now when you do business, everyone should take out cash. They all make money with the money from the bank. Didn't you say last time that Amity has one million? You can mortgage your shop to the bank and borrow 200,000 yuan. Business men use the money to earn money. Look at those big entrepreneurs, they all have tens of billions of yuan, don't they?"

"That's right." The third aunt nodded. "Big brother, your idea is too pedantic. Look at me, I'm driving a car worth millions of yuan, but still owe the bank more than 200 million. What's the result? I've earned even more!"

"This..." A look of embarrassment appeared on father's face. He was both a poor and fearful man. Now that he had heard the loan, he felt that there was nothing he could do about it.

Amity repeated his father's question. "Second Uncle, what kind of business are you talking about?"

"There are a few projects that you can choose. You can choose from the three-dimensional parking lot, training, education, medical treatment..."

As soon as the second uncle finished his words, he heard a voice.

08:05

"No way."

Chapter 304

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the person who retorted. It was Henry, who had been sitting there without saying anything.

Snow frowned and asked, "Amity, your friend?"

"Cousin, Brother Zhang is good at investment. I asked him to analyze it for me." Amity explained. Then she looked at Henry and waited for him to continue.

Henry said, "In terms of the current situation in Yinzhou, the three-dimensional parking lot is obviously not practical. The cost is high. One million yuan is only enough to buy the land in the early stage. Later, the interest of the bank loan can reach 4.9% a year. The interest in this type of parking is unknown. Regarding agriculture, it is not suitable for Yinzhou.

Now the most attractive one in Yinzhou is wild purple mushrooms, which can be sold at a high price of five hundred yuan per 500 grams. However, there is no way to plant it. The risk is too high. Education and medical care have been done by Family Lin. Unless you are doing some small types of training."

Henry analyzed the investment that the second uncle had mentioned one by one.

"Amity, what does your friend do? Which investment company does he belong to?" Snow asked.

Henry replied himself, "I am her colleague, a salesperson in Lins Group."

"A salesperson?" A hint of contempt appeared in Snow's eyes. "Since when do you know how to invest by doing sales? Based on your analysis just now, I thought you were a boss with tens of millions of dollars."

"Ha-ha." Henry chuckled. "I understand a little bit."

"Do you understand or do we understand?" The third aunt looked at Henry with dissatisfaction. "We can invest hundreds of millions of yuan as we please. Don't you understand one million yuan is a small investment?"

"Yes." The second aunt also said, "My husband carefully selected all these investments. Do you think that my husband can't even understand this and deliberately wants to fool Amity for money?"

"Brother, your eyes are too short-sighted. With your thoughts, it's very difficult to earn money." Levi also said.

Henry's words could be said to have caused dissatisfaction among the people at the table.

"Second Uncle, Brother Zhang is also very kind. He is doing it for my good." Amity quickly opened her mouth and spoke for Henry.

"For your own good? For your own good, that's why you will never earn money?" Snow said, "Amity, you just came out of school, and you don't understand the sinister nature of people. Some people, on the surface, look like dogs, but in fact, their motives are sinister. Don't trust others easily, they can cheat."

The second uncle said to Henry, "Young man, this is our family gathering. This girl doesn't know how to behave. We don't blame her for bringing you here. It's just that we're talking about family matters. You'd better not interrupt us."

When Amity's father saw that the second uncle was a little angry, he quickly said, "Second brother, Henry did do us a lot of favours. He is still young, so don't take some things to heart."

"Ah, young people are young. At home, some people can spoil him, but in society, no one will spoil him. Young man, you have to understand that trouble comes from the mouth." The second uncle warned Henry with a bad look. He took out a Chinese cigarette and put it in his mouth, burning it for himself.

As Amity's father tried to ease the situation, he motioned her to stop talking and said to her Second Uncle, "Second Brother, I actually think that the parking lot you mentioned is really good. Although I don't drive a car, I can see that parking lots are not enough now. If we make a new parking space, we will definitely make money."

The uncle took a deep drag on his cigarette and said, "This is obvious. If it weren't for my family, I wouldn't have told you. Now I have a piece of land in my hand, which is in the centre of the city. If you want it, I'll take 1.2 million yuan as compensation. This piece of land is normally valued between two million and three million yuan. You can go to the bank and borrow the money. Although it's not big and only covering an area of one thousand square meters, it's more than enough to build a three-dimensional parking lot."

"One thousand square meters." The second aunt continued, "Big brother, this is obviously the welfare that Second Brother has given you. You can build a three-dimensional parking lot with several floors, you can start with three floors first. One parking space, about eight to nine square meters, one floor is equivalent to one hundred parking spaces, three floors, three hundred parking spaces. Now the parking space in the city centre is charging five yuan per hour, you can add two yuan more. According to the daily lowest income, one parking space can bring you 51 yuan, and three hundred parking spaces are equivalent 15,003 yuan!"

After she said that, she took out her mobile phone and showed Amity's father the location of that piece of land. It was indeed in the downtown area, where there were a lot of cars every day. There was no place to park around it!

There was a strong emotion in the eyes of Amity's father.

If he could earn 15,000 yuan a day, his loan would be paid off within this year. He would make money in the first half of next year, and he would earn more than 5 million yuan in the second half of the year!

"This is a good thing. It's a good thing. Second brother, you are really my lucky star! This piece of land for one million yuan. It's not expensive, not expensive!" Amity father was very excited.

"Ha, ha." The uncle chuckled. "If you want to take it, just give me 1.2 million yuan. I can help you with the loan."

Snow also said, "Yes, uncle, why do you want to open a small shop now? You are still busy every day. If you want to have that parking lot, you can go shopping every day. The net income will be more than 10,000 yuan a day. You don't know how many people want to take that piece of land from my dad. My dad doesn't want to sell it at all."

"Big Brother, I think this is good business. It suits you well," said the third uncle-in-law of Amity.

"Yes, that's right!" Amity's father nodded repeatedly. "But Second Brother, I'll give you the bottom line. Right now, our family has only 900 thousand in total. Why don't we give that small shop to you?"

"It doesn't matter." The uncle waved his hand. "That land, I bought it for 1.2 million yuan at that time. Now I'll give it to you at the same price. I don't want to make money off you. Even if it's a small shop, I will count it as 300,000 yuan."

"Okay, okay!" Amity's father looked very excited.

"Big Brother, since Second Brother has said so, let's drink a glass of wine and sign the contract. That piece of land will belong to you today. You should cover it up soon and open the parking faster." The third Aunt of the Amity continued.

Amity glanced at Henry who was sitting next to her.

Henry ate a mouthful of food slowly. "Signing the contract. Is it a little urgent?"

After Henry finished speaking, he looked at Amity's father and said, "Uncle, one million dollars. It's not a small number. Don't be fooled by some fancy words!"

"What do you mean?" the second uncle slapped on the table and glared at Henry.

Chapter 305

"What you are saying?" The third aunt of Amity was also very dissatisfied. "What does it have to do with you if we talk to each other? What do you mean by saying fancy words? What do you mean by being blind? You have made it clear to me today!"

Snow's face darkened. "Uncle, if you don't want this land, there will be a lot of people who want it. My dad left this good thing to you for because we are family! Not because nobody wants to buy it!"

Amity's father looked at Henry with some embarrassment. "Henry, this is our family's business. Don't get involved, okay?"

Henry ignored their words and said to himself, "A parking space is only eight to nine square meters, but this is just a pure parking lot. But you need to add ramp, lanes, load baring. The average area of each parking space is between 35 to 50 square meters. If you want to have 100 parking lots on one floor, you have to have at least 3,500 to 5,000 square meters of land. Moreover, the annual maintenance fee is very high. You have to consider these things."

Henry's words shocked Amity's father. "A parking space of 35 square meters? That's 1,000 square meters, which means there can only be 30 parking spaces. The profit of a year has been reduced several times!"

"And I'm just talking about basic expenses." Henry reminded him.

"Amity, what does your friend mean? Does he know better than us, he is just a saleswoman?" Snow stood up directly. Obviously, she was on the verge of getting angry.

"Brother, you have never done business, so there are some things that you don't understand. I don't blame you, but if you don't know, then don't pretend." Levi said, "We have a couple of parking spaces. During calculation, some base surface can be stolen during construction. Of course, I will tell you how to steal if you don't understand."

"You really doesn't know your own status. We don't welcome you. You can go now!" the third aunt said.

"Yes, I don't welcome you. Please leave!" Snow also shouted.

Amity's uncle gave her a reproachful look. "Amity, I'm not talking about you. You should be careful when you make friends. Don't make friends with everyone. Look at you, what kind of people do you consider friends?"

Facing the members of Amity's family,

Henry remained unmoved and still sat there. "What I just said is just the distribution of the foundation of the parking lot. And also, if I remember correctly, the land should belong to the Chows'. How did it become Mr. Qiu's?"

Henry looked at the second uncle with a look of inquiry.

"The land of Chows'?" Amity's father was also shocked. He was very clear about the Chows'. Last time, he almost died in the Chows' place. Thanks to Henry, he was safe and sound.

The expression of the second uncle changed slightly. "I am working with them."

"Oh." Henry nodded, took out his mobile phone, sent a message, and then asked, "I don't know what kind of cooperation is there between Mr. Qiu and the Chow's?"

"Do you understand what I said?" Snow asked discontentedly, "As a salesman, you're in charge of a lot of things. Is this what you should ask?"

"Okay, I'll ask you a question." Henry looked at Levi Sun. "The Benz G just now cost more than three million yuan. Is it yours?"

"Of course it's mine." Levi's face showed a sense of pride.

Henry's face was full of doubt. "No, I just saw the car. Why did I see the words 'Yingze car shop'?"

Henry's words made Levi's face suddenly change, and he didn't know how to answer for a moment.

Snow's neck was stiff. "What about the car shop? That 'Yingze car shop' is owned by Levi Sun's family!"

"Yes." Levi nodded fiercely. "It was opened by my family."

"Really?" Henry licked his fingernails and said, "Amity, do you know who is the owner of the 'Yingze car shop'? I remember that you have participated in the commercial design before."

Amity nodded and said hesitantly, "It's... it's our company, it's Lin's company."

"Mr Sun, you said that the Yingze Car Shop is owned by your family, so you have something to do with our boss?" Henry asked.

"Nonsense!" Before Levi answered, Snow shouted first, "My Levi Sun is the sworn brother of President Lin of Lins Group. You are just an ordinary salesman, how could you know so much!"

"Uh." Henry touched his nose and looked awkwardly at Amity.

There was also a kind of unspeakable taste in the eyes of Amity.

"What's wrong? Can't you say anything? Ask your President Lin if you know Levi Sun!" Snow crossed her arms over her chest and looked arrogant.

Henry nodded and said, "Well, I'll ask."

With this, Henry took out the phone and dialled Sylvia Lin's number. "Hello, wife, do you know a man named Levi Sun? He said he was your sworn brother. Okay, I got it."

After Henry said a few words, he hung up the phone and made an expression of regret to Snow. "Sorry, our President Lin doesn't know Levi Sun."

"What a joke!" Snow sneered, "You just made a phone call to President Lin? You call her wife. Is President Lin of Lins Group the wife of a saleswoman like you?"

"Boy, I think you're deliberately here to provoke our relationship!" The third aunt of Amity also said coldly.

At this moment, someone knocked on the door of the box. Outside the box came a respectful voice. "Mr Zhang, can I come in?"

"Come in." Henry responded.

The door of the room was pushed open from the outside, and Danny Chow was standing respectfully at the door of the room.

At a glance, Amity's father recognized that the man standing at the door was the young master of Chows'.

Danny looked at Henry respectfully. He had just received the news that this gentleman was looking for him, and he had rushed over immediately.

Henry pouted his lips at the second uncle and said to Danny, "Look, he said he was your business partner. If you want to sell your land in the city centre, you can confirm it."

Danny looked at the second uncle curiously and then shook his head at Henry. "Henry, I don't know him. Our Chow's family never planned on selling this land in the downtown area. I want to build a private villa there. If Henry wants it, I will give it to you immediately."

"No, I just wanted you to confirm it. You can go now." Henry waved his hand.

Danny nodded. Henry Zhang was looking for him only for this matter. He was not dissatisfied at all and turned to leave.

Chapter 306

Henry said, "The one just now was the current leader of the Chows'. He knows all the land of the Chows'. It seems that doesn't know you, Mr. Qiu."

Henry's eyes were indifferent.

The uncle's face was full of doubts. "Who says that he is the leader of the Chows'? I have been working with the Chows' for a long time. Don't you think I would know him?"

Henry shook his head. "It doesn't matter whether you believe it or not. All I need to do is to make one person believe it."

After saying this, Henry glanced at Amity's father.

At this moment, the eyes of Amity's father were full of complexity. Of course, he knew that the young man just now was the leader of the Chows.

"Okay." Henry snapped his fingers. "Let's talk about the next problem. You, Levi Sun, what is the relationship between you and Lins Group? You know the truth best in your heart. Of course, in order to make you give up, we need to do something. Let Amity tell you what kind of relationship I have with Sylvia Lin, the president of Lins Group."

"Brother Zhang, he..." Amity looked at his cousin. "Brother Zhang is President Lin's husband, and everyone in the company knows about it."

"What!"

Snow and Levi's eyes widened.

"You don't have to be shocked. There is no need to explain too much. Now pay attention to my hand." Henry took out his mobile phone and pressed three keys. "I have already dialled the police. Now, you can choose to stay here and let the police deal with a case of fraud or leave immediately. I will give you three seconds to choose. If you don't choose, I will help you choose."

Henry glanced at the relatives of Amity, and said softly, "One!"

When Henry counted, Levi was the first to rush out of the room without saying anything. Snow took a look and followed him.

"Two." Henry said again.

The third aunty and her husband looked at each other, lowered their heads, and walked out of the room without saying a word.

The second uncle and his wife saw that they didn't dare to stay here any longer and rushed out of the door.

In the blink of an eye, Aity, her father and Henry were the only ones left in the room.

Looking at the empty room, Amity's father's face was full of dullness.

And Amity was also red-rimmed.

How could they not understand what was going on? It was hard for Amity's father to accept such a thing.

The ones sitting there just now were all his blood relatives. They came out of a mother's womb with a blood relationship and grew up playing with mud!

"Uncle, I know that you feel very uncomfortable, but I still have something to say. Don't be blinded by the so-called family affection. Sometimes, you think they are your closest friends, but in fact, it's not like that." Henry shook his head and sighed, "You and the girl, Amity Qiu, just stay alone for a while. There are some things that you have to think through yourself."

After Henry finished his words, he patted the shoulder of Amity and said, "Girl, try to comfort your father."

Henry got up, left the room, and closed the door for them. At the moment when Henry closed the door, a cry of an adult man came out of the room.

Henry sighed, walked to the front desk of the hotel, paid the bill for Amity and her father, and left here.

He strolled home. By the time he got home, it was already past eight o'clock in the evening.

As usual, Sylvia sat on the sofa and watched TV. As soon as Henry entered the door, he could see the back of the woman.

"You're back. Why did you suddenly call me to ask that question?" Sylvia sat on the sofa with her long and white legs crossed in front of her.

Henry told Sylvia what had just happened in the hotel.

In this regard, Sylvia could only sigh. She was also the same when she met such a relative. At that time, Richard Wong wanted to destroy the Family Lin for his own selfish desires.

"This girl has done a good job in the company recently. She is willing to study hard and is diligent. Do you think I should promote her to a higher position?" Sylvia asked.

Henry shook his head. "No need. She's too young to be promoted directly. There would be a lot of gossips. It's not good for her. It's better to let her suffer more and temper herself."

Sylvia nodded and said, "As you say."

Neither of the two people in the conversation had noticed that Sylvia had subconsciously let Henry make the decision on some matters.

Henry poured himself a cup of tea and filled Sylvia's cup. He sat on the sofa and watched TV with Sylvia.

Sylvia kept looking at Henry from the corner of her eyes, and then said tentatively, "Dear, today you told Amity that I listen to you at home. Do you want such a life?"

"Uh." Henry suddenly looked embarrassed. On his way back, he was still worried that Sylvia would ask him this question. Alas, it was only because he was too arrogant in the morning and did not carefully observe the surrounding environment.

"Honey, do you want it?" Sylvia asked again.

"No, I don't want it at all." Henry waved his hand repeatedly. "I like our current state. Let me do everything, let me spoil you. That's it. Don't listen to me!"

Sylvia blushed after hearing Henry's words. She rolled her eyes at Henry and said, "By the way, tomorrow noon, let's go to my grandpa's house for lunch."

Henry had already prepared for the thing what Fiona planned to do tomorrow. He nodded and said, "Okay."

It was a silent night. The next morning, Henry got up and thought about making breakfast. When he opened the refrigerator, the empty scene made Henry silently walk out of the house and go to the vegetable market.

At ten o'clock in the morning, Sylvia didn't need to go to the company today, so she slept longer on purpose. When she got up and found that Henry was not at home, she didn't care too much.

Just as he was about to go to the bathroom to wash up, Sylvia's phone rang. It was from Secretary Lee.

Sylvia picked up the phone. Before she could speak, the anxious voice of Secretary Lee rang on the phone. "President Lin, bad news, Henry hit Prince!"

"Prince!" Sylvia was shocked. "Which country's?"

Henry was too bold to beat a prince, a member of the royal family of another country. What happened to him?

The secretary was silent for five seconds on the phone before she said again, "President Lin, Prince is a celebrity. In China, he is the most popular celebrity!"

Now Henry is already at the police station. The other party is going to sue our company and the lawyer is at the police station. It's already a mess. You should go and have a look."

Sylvia didn't have time to wash up at the moment. She chewed a piece of chewing gum and wore a casual suit. Then she went to the police station.

Chapter 307

At this moment, the police station in Yinzhou was already crowded with people.

The media and reporters from all walks of life had already blocked the entrance of the police station. The fans of Prince also held their sign and blocked the entrance of the police station. Dozens of police officers pulled up the cordon at the entrance of the police station and maintained order!

"Punish him severely! Punish him severely!"

"How dare he hit our Prince!"

"Our Prince is so handsome. Who will be responsible for him if he is hurt?"

A group of female fans screamed excitedly.

In the police station, more than a dozen lawyers were pleading about what had happened this morning.

Director Wei of the Yinzhou police station was now sweating profusely. This matter was not a trivial matter. The one who hit the person was so powerful that he didn't dare to think about it. And the one who was beaten was the most popular celebrity. His every move was watched. If he couldn't handle it well, his career would come to an end.

At a corner of the police station, two young men in women's clothes were sitting there. The two young men stayed here silently without saying a word.

Henry sat in the interrogation room. Instead of being handcuffed, he even made a cup of good tea for himself. The police locked him up in the interrogation room just to avoid those reporters and crazy fans.

A middle-aged woman wearing black-framed glasses, with a face full of anger, scolded to Director Wei, "I really overestimated the public security environment in your Yinzhou. Someone just fought and made trouble casually. Do you, the police, care about the safety of the citizens? I'm going to complain about you! I'm going to make all of Prince's fans complain about you!"

"Ms. Wu, calm down, calm down. I believe there must be a reason for this." Director Wei tried to comfort her. The woman in front of him was Prince's manager, and she had a great influence.

"Calm down? How can you let me calm down? Don't you know that what happened today will affect our Prince's future career!" The Prince's manager's eyes turned red.

When Sylvia arrived at the police station, she was also shocked by the scene in front of her. In front of the whole police station, there were at least 500 people, who shouted for Prince and said that they would punish the attacker severely.

Secretary Lee was waiting for Sylvia outside. The moment she saw Sylvia's car, she walked up quickly.

"President Lin, you're here. The media has made a big deal out of it." The secretary's face was full of anxiety.

"What's going on?" Sylvia frowned and asked as soon as she got out of the car.

Secretary Lee shook her head. "I don't know the specific situation. I went to the market in the morning to buy vegetables. On my way home, I saw Henry hit someone. At that time, Prince had a lot of bodyguards and agents who said they would sue Henry. I was in a hurry and said that our Lins Group would take charge of this matter and protected Henry first. But I didn't know how to deal with it later."

"You did a good job." Sylvia gave Cathy Lee a look of approval. She tried to calm down and asked, "Who on earth is this Prince? How popular is he?"

"Very popular!" Cathy did not think about it at all. She nodded vigorously. "Every major video website has a star ranking, and Prince is ranked first everywhere. There are all kinds of fan club support. After this incident, in just half an hour, the biggest social platform on the Internet would soon be destroyed by Prince's fan club! If this matter is not handled well, just public opinion alone is enough to destroy our Family Lin!"

Sylvia didn't make a careful analysis. Just thinking about it, she realized the importance of the matter.

"Where's Henry?" Sylvia asked.

"He has been taken away by the police," Cathy said, pointing at the police station.

"Let's go, let's ask Henry what happened!" Sylvia strode toward the police station.

Now at the entrance of the police station, a warning line was pulled up and no one was allowed to enter.

When Sylvia and Cathy came over, they were naturally stopped.

"Madam, you can't go in."

"I'm the wife of the party involved." Sylvia explained her identity to the police.

As soon as Sylvia finished speaking, there was a burst of abuse behind her. A fifteen or sixteen-year-old girl shouted, "B*tch, it's your husband who hit our Prince, b*tch!"

"How dare you show up? Kill her to avenge our prince!"

"Beat her!"

A group of crazy fans rushed toward Sylvia, waving their arms non-stop. If the police hadn't stopped them, they wouldn't have doubted what crazy things they could have done, judging from the state of these fans.

Sylvia frowned even more tightly. She saw that these fans were almost all childish little girls, and they had already fallen into a state of enthusiasm for Prince.

A slender arm crossed the defence line of the police and hit toward Sylvia's face.

"Watch out, President Lin!" At the crucial moment, Cathy gave Sylvia a push, only to be slapped in the face.

There was a crisp sound, and a red five-fingered print appeared on Cathy's face.

It was a girl in her sixteen who hit Cathy. Her eyes were full of hatred, and she wanted to tear Sylvia apart. She cursed, "B*tch, I'm going to beat you to death and avenge our Prince!"

Such a scene completely stunned Sylvia.

"President Lin, let's go in. We can't stay here." Cathy quickly grabbed Sylvia's arm and rushed to the police station.

"Wait." Sylvia shook off Cathy's hand and took a deep breath. She turned a blind eye to the scoldings in front of her. She looked at the girl who hit Cathy and said to the police officer in front of her, "Officer, please arrest this person. She just hit my friend."

As for the slap just now, the police officers also saw it clearly. Without saying anything, they immediately arrested the girl.

Sylvia watched the girl being arrested with her own eyes, and then she stepped in the police station.

Inside the police station was also a mess.

When Director Wei saw Sylvia, he immediately recognized the president of the Lins Group and quickly came over.

"President Lin, you're here. This time, there's something wrong with your staff. Our police are also trying to solve the problem. Don't worry." Director Wei comforted her.

"Where is Henry Zhang? I want to see him." There was anger in Sylvia's beautiful eyes.

"This..." There was a hint of embarrassment on Director Wei's face. "I'm afraid it's not in line with the rules. Now only direct relatives and lawyer can see Henry."

"He is my husband!"

When Director Wei heard this, he quickly closed his mouth and personally took Sylvia to the interrogation room.

Sylvia had thought that Henry would be thrown into the interrogation room, which made her worried on the way here. But when she saw Henry sitting there and tasting a cup of tea, she could no longer suppress her anger. The scene of Cathy being slapped just now was still vivid in her mind.

"Henry Zhang! What did you do? Don't you know what mess you caused?"

Chapter 308

Henry took a sip of tea and said slowly, "Honey, you are here. Don't worry."

"Don't worry! How can I not worry? What's the matter? Why do you have to hit people? Can't you be more mature?" Sylvia's face was full of anger and a trace of disappointment.

"I am very mature, otherwise, I would definitely kill him on the spot!" Henry suddenly gave out a sense of hostility, which made Director Wei, who was standing on the side, panic for no reason.

Even Sylvia, who was in a state of anger, was also stunned. She had never seen Henry behave like this. When he spoke just now, he made her feel... afraid?

Cathy tugged at Sylvia's sleeve and said, "Don't worry, President Lin. Henry is not an impulsive person. He must have done something too excessive to make Henry so angry. You should listen to Henry first."

Sylvia took a deep breath and nodded. "Well, Henry Zhang, tell me why you hit him. You have to give me a reason!"

Henry's expression returned to calm. "The reason is very simple. That person can't control his own mouth. His fans can't control their mouth either. I just hit him. I didn't kill him. I've already shown mercy for them!"

Director Wei, who was standing at the side, was extremely embarrassed. He was the police chief at least, and this big shot had been talking about who he wanted to kill in front of him, so what else could he say?

Sylvia was amused by Henry's explanation. "Do you mean that he started to swear at people and you decided to hit him?"

"Yes." Henry nodded.

"Childish!" Sylvia shouted. "You're an adult now. Why did you do it because of this little thing?"

Henry shook his head. "Honey, you don't understand."

"What's there that I don't understand? Tell me!" Sylvia stared at Henry and wanted an explanation.

Henry looked at Sylvia and sighed. "Well, come with me."

Henry got up and took the lead in walking out of the interrogation room.

Director Wei was in a mess. This big shot really did not rest assured about this matter. He went out the interrogation room.

Sylvia followed Henry and wanted to know how Henry would explain.

When Henry walked to the lobby of the police station, his appearance immediately attracted the attention of Prince's manager.

"Police! What do you policemen do? Who let him come out! And the two men dressed as women, they are also accomplices!" Prince's manager shouted while pointing to the two young men in women's clothing sitting in the corner.

When Henry, who had been calm before, heard the words of Prince's agent, his eyes instantly became full of the evil spirit. He strode toward Prince's manager.

The evil spirit and momentum in Henry's eyes seemed to have lowered the temperature of the surrounding air a lot. His beast-like eyes made people fear at first glance.

Prince's manager looked at Henry walking toward her and suddenly panicked. "You...

you... what do you want to do? I'm warning you..."

"Warn me what!?" Henry clenched his fist. Ignoring where he was, he rushed to Prince's manager and punched her in the belly.

After this punch, Prince's manager seemed different. It could be seen that her face was twisting, her body subconsciously arched up, and her face was red at this moment.

"Henry Zhang, what are you doing?" Sylvia rushed up and grabbed Henry. "This is the police station! The police station!"

"Henry, don't be impulsive. Don't be impulsive." Director Wei also rushed up and stood between Henry and Prince's manager.

After half a minute, she gritted her teeth and squeezed out a sentence, "I'm going to sue him, I want him to be locked up in jail for the rest of his life!" The manager was in so much pain that she couldn't even speak a word.

Sylvia was extremely anxious. In the police station, what kind of behaviour was it to beat people in front of the police? Even with the influence of Lins Group, it was impossible to just let it go. Moreover, Henry hit the manager of a popular star. The lawyer of the other side, who was also present and saw this scene.

"Have you done enough? Ah! Have you done enough?" Looking at Henry's face, Sylvia screamed.

Henry shook his head. "Honey, you don't understand."

"If I don't understand, then you can help me understand!" Sylvia was so anxious that she burst into tears. If the other party really looked into this matter, Henry would spend a long time in prison!

Henry took a deep breath and nodded. He pointed at Prince's manager and said to Director Wei, "Director Wei, right? Look at her now. If she keeps talking, I can't guarantee that I will do something that you dare not imagine."

When he finished, Henry suddenly punched the desk next to him. The solid wood desk collapsed under Henry's punch.

Prince's manager, who was about to say something malicious, swallowed back what she was about to say.

Director Wei's back was also sweating with cold sweat. This big shot's martial art was so strong, and his background was so frightening. If he really did something, he really had no way to deal with it. At that time, he would be the one in trouble.

Sylvia was also shocked by Henry's action.

She really couldn't figure out what kind of language made Henry so angry.

"Honey, come with me. I'll introduce two old friends to you." Just a second ago, Henry, who was full of anger, shouted out the word "honey", and his eyes were full of tenderness.

Sylvia nodded subconsciously.

Henry took Sylvia to the corner of the police station. The two young men in women's clothing looked very ordinary.

"Dear, let me introduce them to you. This is Hardy Yu and this is Harley Yu. They are cousins."

"Brother Henry, sister-in-law." The two young men sitting at the corner looked at Henry gratefully and greeted Sylvia.

"Hello." Sylvia nodded to the two of them and then looked at Henry with a puzzled look.

Henry said to Hardy and Harley, "Come on, take off your clothes."

Hearing Henry's words, Sylvia's eyes were full of doubts. She didn't understand what Henry was going to do.

Hardy and Harly looked at each other and slowly took off their clothes.

When they took off their clothes, Sylvia's beautiful eyes gradually widened. The policemen in the police station, as well as Director Wei, all looked at them in shock.

On their bodies, there were dense scars. Some scars, like centipedes, were crisscrossing on their bodies.

Chapter 309

Director Wei slowly walked to the front of Yu brothers and carefully looked at the scars on their bodies. He slowly reached out his hand and put his index finger on the right chest of Hardy as if he was touching a treasure.

"Are they... gunshot wounds?"

There was a trace of loneliness in Hardy's eyes, and he nodded.

Director Wei looked at them and fell silent. How could an ordinary person have so many scars on his body? What's more, those were gunshot wounds!

"He's covered with wounds. It's obvious that he's a criminal!" The manager of Prince said, pursing her lips.

Henry turned his head and glared at the manager. He sneered and said, "A criminal? Hardy Yu, Harley Yu, tell everyone loudly, where did you get this wound?"

"Yes... yes..." Hardy answered in a low voice, "Battle..."

Henry shouted, "Speak louder! This is something you should be proud of! Tell everyone loudly, where did you get it from!"

Hardy's legs closed subconsciously. He puffed out his chest and shouted, "In the battle! The wound on my chest was caused four years ago when I fought with a mercenary team in the Peace Guard. It was left behind when I was hit by the automatic rifle. The wound on my shoulder was caused by the grenade fragments. The wound on my abdomen was cut open by the Cobra Army. The wound on my forearm was caused by the grenade explosion fragments when I was carrying out a rescue mission!"

Henry nodded and looked at Harley. "It's your turn. Tell me! How did you get hurt?"

"Also during the war!"

"How old were you at that time?"

"19!"

Harley's answer made policemen in the police station gasp.

Nineteen years old! Nineteen years old had participated in such a cruel battle! On the contrary, what were they doing when they were nineteen years old?

Henry shouted, "I'll ask you two one more question, why do you wear women's clothing today!"

"Worship the Eldest Brother!" Hardy and Harley answered almost at the same time.

Henry nodded, turned his head and said to the police officers, "Four years ago, when I was 20 years old, I met the three brothers abroad. At that time, in order to save the Chinese citizens, there was only a small team of less than 30 people. They rushed and fought with hundreds of mercenaries who were loaded with guns and bullets. And I happened to be the one who was rescued."

Henry didn't say a word. At that time, he was hiding among those hostages.

Hearing Henry's words, these police officers were a little absent-minded. There were less than 30 people fighting against hundreds of armed mercenaries. This was not a child's play, but a real desperate fight!

At this moment, these policemen looked at Hardy and Harley with admiration.

Henry paused for a moment and continued, "After the rescue mission, there were only 13 survivors in the team. That night, we drank and chatted happily. They were originally three brothers, and there was the eldest brother called Harvey Yu. Because we were all from Yinzhou, we had many common topics and we talked a lot. The three brothers agreed that if someone died in a battle, the other two people would put on women's clothing and dance in front of the largest shopping mall in Yinzhou every year. If two of them died, the third brother would dance alone. If they all died, they would dance in the afterlife. That is why they were dressed like this today."

The eyes of Hardy and Harley were already red.

Henry smiled. "In the morning, I saw them. That man named Prince and his fans also saw them. I don't think I have to say what happened next. Everyone here knows what happened. 'He's a sissy. He's neither a man nor a woman.' The word 'Demon' came out of these people's mouth to attack people's heroes? As I said before, I didn't kill that Prince on the spot. I was already very kind!"

Henry almost shouted out the last sentence.

"Although I'm not a good person, I can't bear to watch him. He's a fool! He's a clown! Worry about fans! He's an actor with bodyguards! He's insulting the national heroes!"

Henry pointed at Hardy and his brother, whose arms were shaking. "They're three brothers. They joined the army at the age of eighteen and stood at the front line at the age of nineteen. Did their best! I'm just asking you. Those who insult them should be beaten, shouldn't they? Ah!"

Henry was roaring. When his roar fell, the whole police station was silent.

After a long silence, a voice came from Henry's side. "Should."

It was Sylvia who spoke. Now, Sylvia was no longer angry with Henry. What she had was anger in her heart. She even wanted to applaud for Henry's behaviour!

At the same time, Sylvia's heart was full of apologies. She was so angry with Henry just now.

Henry took a deep breath and calmed himself down. He said loudly, "Now, I'm going to walk out of the police station. If you want to arrest me, arrest me! If you want to sue me, just do it. But I'll tell you. If anyone dares to offend them verbally, I won't let him go easily. Do you understand?"

Henry's eyes were closely locked on Prince's manager.

Under Henry's gaze, Prince's manager didn't say a word and didn't dare to say anything.

After glancing around, Henry took Sylvia's little hand and strode out of the police station.

Those policemen, look at each other, let Henry out of the police station, no one moved. Could they arrest Henry Zhang? The answer is yes, no matter what, Henry hit people, they have the power to arrest him, but do they want to? No one wants, no one is willing to arrest him. If possible, they want to take off their uniform now, change into the casual clothes, and beat Prince.

Director Wei calmed down, walked to Prince's manager and said, "Ms. Wu, according to the 246th rule of our country, what you have done counts as an insult. I have to arrest you and then hand you over to the court for trial. You can keep silent, but every word you say will become the evidence."

As soon as he finished speaking, Director Wei took out a pair of handcuffs and handcuffed them on Prince's manager's wrist.

Then, Director Wei turned around and looked at the Yu brothers. He said loudly, "All of you, stand straight!"

At this moment, the police officers all stood straight with their legs closed.

Director Wei took a deep breath and shouted, "Salute!"

At the same time, everyone bowed to the two brothers.

The Yu brothers, who were dressed in women's clothing, stood there with red eyes. They also stood straight, raised their heads, and returned a military salute.

Chapter 310

Henry and Sylvia went out of the police station.

Seeing Henry's appearance, Prince's fans in front of the police station once again rushed to this side, and said harsh words.

Sylvia frowned.

Cathy ran out of the crowd at once and drove her car over.

Henry and Sylvia got into the car and left.

In the car, Sylvia looked at Henry apologetically. "Honey, are you angry with me?"

"Angry? What's wrong with you?" Henry asked with a puzzled face.

After hearing Henry's words, Sylvia was relieved. She was afraid that Henry was dissatisfied with her performance just now. After all, when she knew the cause and effect of the matter, Sylvia could also feel the anger. It was really annoying for an actor to insult the national heroes in public.

Just as Sylvia was about to answer Henry, the phone rang. It was from her father, Nelson Lin.

"Sylvia, where are you and Henry? The elders are all here, and you two are the only ones who haven't come."

Sylvia said on the phone that she would arrive soon and told Cathy to go to Glory Hotel.

Yinzhou was not big, and there were only a few famous hotels. If it was a banquet, there were only a few places.

In an intensive care unit of the People's Hospital of Yinzhou, a young man who looked to be in his early twenties was lying on the bed. He was drawing eyeliner and his face was smeared with powder. If he wanted to leave long hair, he would definitely be more beautiful than a woman.

In the ward, there were ten bodyguards. Outside the ward, a group of young girls looked worried, afraid that something would happen to their idol.

The young man lying in the ward was the actor who was beaten by Henry today. One of the most popular people at the moment.

A beautiful woman was sitting by the bed. She was Prince's assistant.

Prince touched the bruises on his face, grinned, and asked his assistant indignantly, "How's the matter going? I haven't been so angry since I grew up!"

Prince's assistant answered, "Sister Wu has gone to deal with this matter, and we have also made some changes. Many people are now asking for the attackers, and they will definitely be solved in the shortest time. During this period, you should not show up first. We should try our best to get as much compensation as possible, and by the way, we can stir up the heat."

"Okay." Prince nodded with satisfaction. He got off the bed and walked to the window of the ward. Through the window, he saw the scene at the entrance of the hospital. At this moment, a large group of people was surrounding the entrance of the hospital, holding up their hands. They encourage Prince to be strong. They, his fans, would always love people him.

Prince smiled and said, "Thanks to so many crazy fans who help me. How about this, in my personal name, I write a post-Life is not easy, and we all have to be strong. By the way, take a picture of my face, and it will be more obvious, otherwise, I will recover in two days."

"Okay."

The assistant took out her mobile phone, took a photo according to Prince's request, and sent a message on social media. In the short span of a minute, there were nearly a thousand replies.

"Oh my god, how could he hurt our Prince like this?"

"Does he know how hard our Prince is working? He did this because he was jealous of our Prince."

"Our Prince has won glory for our country. His records have been spread abroad. He is a hero of the people. If he hurt our people, he will be sentenced to death at least!"

One after another, strange comments appeared on social media.

And the popularity of Prince himself also increased rapidly, and soon it was on the headlines of major websites.

Just as the assistant was still thinking about how to do marketing, the door of the ward was kicked open.

The ten bodyguards in the room all focused their eyes on the door of the ward in an instant.

In the ward, there was a team of fully armed policemen led by Director Wei.

"They insulted our heroes, arrest all of them!"

With Director Wei's order, the group of policemen did not hesitate at all. They locked up Prince, his assistant, and the ten bodyguards.

"Take him away!" Director Wei waved his hand and looked at Prince with a very unhappy face.

As a law enforcer, Director Wei knew that in this society, there were many things that ordinary people couldn't know. The cruelty of war was also beyond many people's imagination.

There had never been any quiet time before. It was just that there was someone who was carrying a burden and moving forward.

However, those silent people were insulted by others. All the Chinese citizens would feel angry about this kind of thing, let alone Director Wei, who was the law enforcer.

The two policemen seized Prince, and Prince struggled to get rid of them. But how could he be a match for the policemen with his thin arms and legs? He was just doing nothing.

Prince roared, "Do you know who I am? How dare you arrest me!"

"Of course I know. I'm arresting you. Take him away!" Director Wei shouted and walked out of the ward first.

The fans outside the ward looked shocked when they saw Prince was actually cuffed by the police.

"What right do you have to arrest our Prince?"

"Our Prince is a national hero. You're not qualified to arrest him!"

In the face of such words, Director Wei turned a deaf ear to it. He took Prince to the police car and took him back to the police station.

In the police station, the girl who had slapped Cathy earlier was making a statement.

The girl's parents were also called to the police station. When they knew that their daughter had hit someone in front of the police station, the girl's parents turned pale with fright.

The police told the girl's parents that their daughter had violated the law of public security and deliberately caused trouble. If the other party wanted to blame her, she had to be detained.

Hearing this, the girl's parents were all panicked. While scolding their children, they pleaded with the police.

"We told you not to look up to those celebrities! What's the use of those stars! Now you hit people! You hit people, can the star you like help you! Ah!" The girl's parents were so anxious that they burst into tears. No one could watch their child being detained and not be moved, let alone a girl who was only sixteen!

At the entrance of the police station, there was also a riot.

Pince with eyeliner was taken in by a group of policemen with a delicate appearance.

"It's Prince! Prince!" The girl looked at the door of the police station with excitement. Regardless of taking notes, she strode towards Prince and said with excitement in her eyes, "Prince, that's great. I finally see you. I'm so lucky. I hit people for you and they're going to detain me. Can you save me?"

Director Wei's face changed, and he said to Prince in a stern voice, "You are also suspected of instigating others to cause trouble!"

Prince frowned, shook his head, and looked at the girl with disgust. "I don't know her. Her actions are her actions. It has nothing to do with me."

There was no relationship at all. The girl was stunned by what he said. Looking at Prince's back, the girl began to regret. "Is this my idol? Is this my favourite celebrity?"

Chapter 311

The news that the police had taken Prince away soon spread on social media.

Countless Prince's fans began to @ the official account of the Yinzhou City police station. Some netizens who didn't know the truth also began to pay attention to this matter. Soon, this matter was a hot topic.

There were even a large number of fans of Prince, who not only used their social account but also established countless alt account to pressure the government of Yinzhou through the Internet.

They questioned the police of Yinzhou why they didn't arrest the ones who hit Prince, but Prince instead.

In this case, Director Wei's phone exploded from the calls made by his superior, asking him how to deal with it.

Facing these questions, Director Wei replied that he would give everyone a reasonable explanation.

When this matter reached its climax, the local government of Yinzhou finally made a post on social media. They only sent two photos. One was a picture of Prince, pouting, and taking selfies with fists. The other was a photo of Hardy Yu and Harley Yu standing in front of the mall in women's clothing.

As soon as these photos came out, the following comments were immediately posted.

"I think that the police of Yinzhou must be out of their mind. Who are these two people? How could they put them and our Prince together, do they deserve to be together?!"

"Our Prince is sexy and beautiful. They're wearing women's clothing. It's disgusting."

"I really want to see our Prince wear women's clothing. He must be very beautiful. I don't know when he will have such welfare."

"Prince is so handsome, and the other two are so disgusting!"

"Demons, d*mn perv*rts, disgusting, disgusting! Prince's handsome!"

"Prince handsome? A man keeps pouting like a woman every day. Bruce Lee proved with his strength that we're not sick man of East Asia. Now we're all destroyed by this kind of pouting and cute guys." One of the netizens couldn't stand it anymore and spoke out.

As soon as this comment was made, there were more than a hundred praises immediately. Of course, there were also people who replied to him.

"I don't know who Bruce Lee is. Prince is the best!"

"Our Prince is good at martial arts!"

When there was about to be a scolding battle on the Internet, the police of Yinzhou posted two photos again.

The first one was of Prince, but the upper part of the body was naked and the upper part of the body was so thin that the ribs could be seen clearly. The skin was very white and tender.

"Wow! Our Prince's skin is so smooth. I'm so envious. I really want to know how Prince maintains his skin."

The other one was a photo of Yu brothers. They were also naked. Unlike Prince, who had fair skin, they had dark skin and looked rough. There were scars all over their bodies.

"These two ugly guys are so disgusting. They have potholes on their bodies."

Together with the photos of our Prince, they are simply an insult to our Prince!"

"That's right. Too ugly."

"Full of injuries. It's so ugly."

A bunch of sarcastic comments made netizens couldn't stand it anymore.

"You don't understand anything. A man's scar is the most attractive thing."

Five minutes later, the Yinzhou police once again sent out a dynamic message. This time, it was not a picture, but a line of words.

Answer: About Prince's secret maintenance method, SKII Fairy Water with SKII skincare essence milk, including a set of face's essence oil, which can make skin whiter and smoother.

Answer: About the secrets of the other two injured men: They served in the army at the age of 18, attended the crisis team at the age of 19, and carried out tasks in the most dangerous places in the world. They only needed to pick up their knives and fight with the criminals when Prince used the fairy water to maintain himself. They only needed to rush on the front line when Prince used the skin cream essence to cover his face. They only needed to soak their whole body with sweat and defend their dignity with their blood. They needed to protect the country with their lives!

As soon as the news was released, the original attention-seeking trend fell into a strange silence in a minute without any comments.

A minute later, under the post of the police of Yinzhou, there were words of admiration and respect.

"It's ridiculous. There's no war now! Don't talk nonsense, okay?" Prince's fan commented.

"It's true that there's no war. Who's fighting? Stop lying!"

"You don't know about war, but it doesn't mean there's no one!"

"Yes, you live in China and live in a country with the most stable public security around the world. Of course, you won't feel it."

"Yes, I have lived abroad before, and public security is not as good as that in China. I have also seen some wars. The people of the Peace Squad are all heroes!"

"I want to know, what happened? Prince was beaten and caught. What is the connection between him and these two heroes?" Someone asked.

A few minutes later, the Yinzhou police once again issued a statement. This time, it was a long one. Why did the brothers appear at the door of the shopping mall in women's clothing, how Prince said that the two were neither men nor women, and he was making fun of them all the time.

When the netizens saw that the Yu brothers did this in order to worship their big brother, but were regarded in such a bad way by Prince, they were angry.

As for Henry's name, Yinzhou police did not announce it, but only mentioned his surname. "Mr Zhang, the warmhearted citizen, couldn't stand such an open insult, and he was angry. Now the police concluded that Prince, along with his assistant and manager, is guilty of insult and will be handed over to the court. As for Mr Zhang, we think justice is fair and spreads positive energy, and will not be punished."

As soon as the post came out, there was a burst of applause immediately.

"This Mr. Zhang did a good job. I support him!"

"Brilliant!"

"That's right. This is to maintain the reputation of our people's heroes. If he was to be punished, we couldn't bear it anymore!"

"Good job, Mr Zhang!"

The fans of Prince knew that he was going to be transferred to court, and they all showed an unacceptable attitude.

"Why? Everybody has a mouth. What do we want to say, it is none of your business! Why do you want to arrest our Prince?"

Yinzhou police, who had sent out several posts in a row, returned to silence again. This matter had been resolved completely. Even if Prince had a great influence, how could he surpass those heroes who were silent? Only a few people were chasing after the stars, and most of other people were very reasonable.

Henry, who was sitting in the car and going to Glory Hotel, didn't know that he had been praised online. He didn't care much about this kind of things.

As for Cathy, when she was waiting for the traffic lights, she took out her phone to have a look. When she saw the cheers on the Internet, Cathy said excitedly to Sylvia, "President Lin, look at social media. Henry is famous!"

Cathy handed her cell phone to Sylvia.

Sylvia looked at the comments on the screen. Those words of praise for Henry made her smile. Her husband was praised like this, which made her feel comfortable.

Chapter 312

Outside the largest private room of Glory Hotel, the manager of the hotel stood at the door as a waiter. The teapot in the room was always filled with water, just because in this room sat the most influential person in the business district of Yinzhou, Old Master Lin.

The hotel manager knew that even his boss had to be polite when he saw Master Lin.

"Old Master, it's my son who doesn't know the rules. I propose a toast to you. Instead of my disappointing son, I apologize to you." Fiona stood at the dinner table and raised the glass in his hand.

At the dinner table, there were not only Old Master Lin and Nelson Lin, but also some other older entrepreneurs. These entrepreneurs were specially invited by Fiona. Now although everyone had already withdrawn from the business circle, their influence was still there. It was not difficult to see the status of the Zheng Family in the business district of Yinzhou.

At that time, the Old Master of Zheng Family and the Old Master of Lin Family were best friends. But now the Old Master of the Family Lin was still alive, and the elder of the Family Zheng was no longer there.

Master Lin raised his glass and said with a smile, "It's inevitable that young people are very angry. We are old friends. If you have anything to say, just tell me."

"Haha, Old Lin, you're getting older and more generous." A senior man said.

"When we were young, everyone messed up with each other in the business field. Yinzhou is small. When we are old, we are still sitting at the same table and having a drink."

"Yes, in the end, we are all friends. It's a misunderstanding. Just let it go. According to Fiona, Old Lin is not a stingy person. When your son comes out later, you can buy a gift and go to the Family Lin to apologize. Then this matter will be over."

Some people of the older generation spoke, and the meaning of their words was also very obvious. When Fiona invited them here, she also told them the specific situation. These people apparently received benefits by helping Fiona.

Master Lin took a sip of the wine in his glass and said to Nelson Lin, "Nelson, wait for the girl, Sylvia, to come and tell her. We have watched Sam Zheng grow up. It's just a small misunderstanding. It's just a fight between young people. Just let it go."

Nelson nodded and said, "Got it, dad."

While they were talking, the door of the private room opened. Holding Henry's arm, Sylvia walked into the private room.

"Sylvia, this girl is really getting more and more beautiful. It's no wonder that Fiona's son is crazy for her. If I were dozens of years younger, maybe I would do something stupid." A grey-haired old man laughed.

"Sylvia, I heard that you and the son of the Zheng Family had some misunderstanding. Fiona personally called us here to show her apology. Let's forget about it."

Sylvia looked around and saw that they were all elders of the older generation. In fact, when she heard that Fiona invited grandpa for dinner yesterday, she also thought of today's matter.

Nelson said, "Sylvia, your grandfather has said that it's all a misunderstanding. Just let it go."

Sylvia smiled slightly and said, "Since the elders have spoken, I have to listen to them."

"Sylvia, I apologize to you on behalf of Sam and propose a toast to you." Fiona walked aside, picked up a glass of red wine and handed it to Sylvia.

Nelson's face changed and he said, "Sylvia, you can't deny it. After all, Fiona is your elder."

"Yes. Fiona, the matter of young people will be settled by young people. When your Sam comes out today, let him make an apology to Sylvia." An old man said.

Fiona shook her head with a smile on her face. "Dear uncles, my child has not been educated well and has a direct relationship with me as a mother. I have to propose this toast to Sylvia."

"Fiona, you are really a good mother."

"That's right, Sylvia. In that case, take the wine and drink it first."

Seeing so many elders talking, Sylvia had nothing to say. She took the glass and said, "Auntie Wong, our families are old friends. I'll drink this glass of wine first, and all the misunderstandings have been cleared."

As she said that, Sylvia put the glass in her mouth.

Looking at Sylvia's action, Fiona showed a cold smile unnaturally. As long as Sylvia drank this glass of wine, even though her son was fine, this Lins family would become hers in the future. Let's see whether this Lin Family wanted money or her life!

Just as Sylvia's red lips were about to touch the rim of the cup...

"Wait!" Henry suddenly said, which made

Sylvia subconsciously pause.

Henry gently stopped Sylvia, so that the glass was a little farther away from Sylvia's mouth.

Fiona's expression changed subtly, and then a smile appeared on her face. "Do you still think that I'm not sincere enough?"

"This is Sylvia's husband, isn't he? He has a good appearance."

"However, Fiona is still your elder and she apologized to you. It's not appropriate for you to do this." An old man looked at Henry discontentedly.

"Old Lin, your grandson-in-law should be taught well. In China, we value etiquette the most. The decision made by the elders can't be changed by a junior."

"Yes, my grandson-in-law absolutely wouldn't dare to interrupt me!"

Before they came here, they had heard from Fiona that the person the Family Lin found was just a son-in-law. As a result, these people were not polite to him.

"Honey, Grandpa has spoken. I'll drink this glass of wine." Sylvia said and raised her glass again. She winked at Henry repeatedly, meaning that Henry should not make grandpa angry.

What Sylvia didn't know was that, Old Master Lin, even if he was angry with anyone, it was impossible for him to be angry with Henry. At every stage, people would compare. When they were children, they competed with lucky money, young people competed with clothes and mobile phones. When they graduated, they competed with jobs. When they had children, they competed with their children.

At Master Lin's age, people usually talked not about their own life, but their own younger generation's life. The better their younger generation's life was, the brighter their faces would be.

Master Lin had praised their grandson-in-law more than once, such as returnee, doctor, educated and talented. He didn't envy them because he knew that no matter how excellent these people were, they couldn't compare with his grandson-in-law, because he was known as The Conqueror!

In the past, Master Lin's old friend, Dan Song, had told him what kind of status this The Conqueror had in the upper society. Someone paid a billion to ask The Conqueror to help him. The Conqueror didn't even look at him. If he didn't say he would save him, he wouldn't!

Henry shook his head with a smile and took the glass from Sylvia's hand. "Well, Auntie Wong, right? Everyone has said that you are an elder. It's impossible for you to propose a toast to us. How about this..."

As he spoke, Henry Zhang handed the glass of wine to Fiona Wong. "This toast is for you. Honey, fill another glass for me."

Chapter 313

Fiona looked at the wine glass handed by Henry in front of her, and her face kept changing. There was a maggot in this cup!

"No, it's better for me to toast to you. I'll pour another glass for myself." Fiona pushed away the glass handed by Henry.

"Why?" Henry said with a smile, "Aunt Wong, you don't drink there is something in this glass of wine?"

Henry's words made Fiona's heart tighten subconsciously. She forced a smile and said, "How could it be? What can be in the wine?"

"Well, I thought there would be something like worms in it." Henry deliberately said, "Since there are no worms, Auntie Wong, don't refuse. Honey, please give me my wine. This time this misunderstanding is too big, I have to give Auntie Wang a good toast."

Henry took the glass handed over by Sylvia and then squeezed the glass of wine into Fiona's hand.

Fiona held the cup of wine with maggot hidden in it, and her face was full of embarrassment. She leaned over and winked at an old man.

"Young man! It's a little too much for you to do this. The wine was given to you by Fiona. It's not appropriate for you to return it. Sylvia, you should take the glass of wine in Auntie Wong's hand and drink it." The old man said.

Henry suddenly turned his head and looked at the person who spoke. "Old thing, shut your mouth!"

Henry's sudden attitude stunned all the people in the room. No one expected that Henry would suddenly say such a thing.

"Honey!" Sylvia pulled Henry's clothes.

"Henry, you've gone too far," Nelson said with a look of blame. Even though Henry might not like him, he had to be polite and call him uncle. As a result, he was called 'old thing' by Henry.

The rest of the people who were the same age as Master Lin also reproached him.

"Old Lin, your grandson-in-law doesn't know the etiquette."

"You have to educate him more. He's just a son-in-law. Don't give him too much face."

The old man, who was scolded by Henry, showed anger on his face. "Junior, do you know who you are talking to?"

"Ha." Henry smiled contemptuously. "I don't know who you are and I'm not interested in knowing. I just want to know how many benefits Fiona Wong has promised you if you help!"

Fiona's face changed again. "Henry, I don't know what you're talking about."

"You don't know?" Henry raised his eyebrows and struck out like lightning, directly sticking Fiona's throat. "If you don't know, give me the glass of wine in your hand!"

Fiona's neck was stuck by Henry, so she couldn't get rid of him. She glanced at the glass in her hand and wanted to smash it to the ground. Even if the maggot couldn't be put in Sylvia, she wouldn't drink it herself.

As soon as Fiona raised her hand, she found nothing in her hand. The wine glass in her hand returned to Henry's hand.

Henry let go of Fiona, took the wine glass containing the maggot, and walked to the old man who had just spoken for Fiona. "If she doesn't drink, why don't you drink?"

The old man looked at the glass in Henry's hand, and there was a trace of fear in his eyes for no reason. He knew what was in the glass.

"I... I don't drink." The old man waved his hand.

Henry sneered and said, "Old thing, you don't even dare to drink anything. But you make my wife drink it?"

Nelson frowned. "Henry, what's going on here? Is there anything wrong with this glass of wine?"

"Of course." Henry nodded. He raised his glass and tilted the rim of the cup. The wine in the glass slowly flowed out of the glass and splashed on the ground.

As the red wine slowly poured out, a red maggot appeared in the cup. The wriggling appearance of the maggot disgusted everyone.

Fiona's face became extremely ugly. She couldn't understand how Henry knew about this!

The old man's face darkened as well.

Henry pulled the maggot out of the cup and shouted, "Do you think that Fiona thinks that she is wrong? I don't think anyone will want to try and see what happens to the worm in his stomach."

After the initial shock, Nelson slammed his hand on the table, stood up, and shouted angrily, "Fiona, what the hell did you plan to do?"

Master Lin's face also completely darkened. He didn't expect that Fiona would play such a trick with him to poison his granddaughter. This move of hers could make the Family Lin destroyed!

The other elders invited by Fiona also looked at each other, speechless.

Fiona's face was a little pale. "Henry, I don't understand what you are doing. I have never seen this bug before."

"Really?" Henry grinned. He walked to Fiona's seat, took her bag, opened it, and poured out all the things inside.

A palm-sized drum was popped out of Fiona's bag. Henry picked up the drum and patted it gently. The red maggot oozed a pile of black liquid in front of everyone.

"Fiona, don't you know anything about this drum?" Henry looked at Fiona playfully.

Now, everyone could see that the maggot must have something to do with Fiona.

"I... I..." Fiona shook her head, looked in the direction of the door of the box, took a deep breath, turned around and ran to the door of the room.

Henry knew her actions immediately. He didn't hold back at all. He kicked Fiona to the ground, cutting off the idea of Fiona's escape.

Henry held the bug and walked to the old man who cooperated with Fiona. "Tell me, what benefits Fiona Wong has promised you! Otherwise, I will verify the effect of this maggot on the spot."

The old man was so scared that his face turned pale. He said with a trembling voice, "Fiona told me that as long as this was placed in Sylvia's body, she could control her. She said... she said that the Family Lin had only one descendant in the generation of Sylvia. As long as she was controlled, the Family Lin could get controlled easily. At that time, she would give me one-third of the shares of the Family Lin."

"One-third?" Henry raised his eyebrows and looked at Fiona. "Fiona, Fiona. You are quite generous, but you reminded me that you can use this maggot to control people. In that case..."

Henry strode up to Fiona, pushed Fiona's mouth open, and put the maggot into her mouth. As soon as the maggot entered her mouth, they went into Fiona's stomach. Fiona's eyes were as grey as ash.

Chapter 314

Henry shook his hand, walked to the side, picked up the drum and patted it gently.

The second after Henry clapped the drum, Fiona let out a cry of pain. Her face twisted and her hands covered her abdomen. She rolled on the ground in pain.

"Eh? It's quite interesting?" Henry showed great interest on his face and patted the drum again.

"Ah!" Fiona once again let out a painful roar, and her voice became hoarse. It could be seen that her forehead was already covered with dense beads of sweat, and the blue veins on her arms stood out. She was in great pain.

The people in the room saw Fiona's look, and their faces showed some fear.

Master Lin and Nelson were a little scared, but they were extremely angry. This kind of thing could make people feel pain. If it was put in Sylvia, then the Family Lin would be destroyed by Fiona Wong!

"Please...please...please, don't knock again..." Fiona's hair was wet with sweat, and wisps of hair were scattered on her forehead. Her face was pale and her breath was weak, and her eyes were full of pleading.

The sharp pain from the viscera made her want to dig out her stomach, cut it off, and throw it away.

Henry asked with a smile, "Fiona Wong, I heard that you're going to give me all your shares of Zheng Group, aren't you?"

"I..." Fiona opened her mouth with hesitation in his eyes. She had 20% of the Zheng Group's shares in her hand, which was more than a billion yuan! How could she give it to him?

Henry beat the drum three times in a row. Fiona screamed again in pain.

One minute later, Fiona, who was rolling on the ground, stopped. She was panting, and her face was pale. She looked particularly haggard.

"Don't... don't knock on it. I... I agree." Fiona waved her hand feebly.

"Tomorrow afternoon, I want to see your transfer contract. I'll put away the drum first." Henry raised the drum in his hand.

Fiona nodded repeatedly. The pain was indescribable as if someone had squeezed all her viscera together.

The people in the room looked at each other. They looked at each other, and then at Fiona with sadness in their eyes. She wanted to harm others, but in the end, she hurt herself.

The old man, who had joined hands with Fiona to harm Sylvia, couldn't say a word at this time.

Fiona got up from the ground and stood aside in fear, not daring to say a word.

"Why are you standing there? Are you waiting for me to invite you to leave?" Henry looked at Fiona curiously.

Hearing this, Fiona ran out of the box without saying a word.

This apology banquet was not a happy one. Those invited by Fiona all left with apologies. In a blink of an eye, only Sylvia's family was left in the room.

"Henry, thanks to you this time. I didn't expect that the daughter-in-law of the Family Zheng was so vicious. If it weren't for you, Sylvia would be in danger this time." Master Lin sighed.

Nelson also said, "Henry, dad apologizes to you for what he said just now."

"Dad, we're family. You're too kind. Sylvia is my wife. I won't let anyone hurt her." Henry held Sylvia's little hand, his eyes were full of love.

Sylvia blushed after hearing Henry's words. Her little hand was about to break free from Henry's palm, but it was caught tightly by Henry.

Master Lin laughed loudly and said, "Haha, we old men don't know much about you young people. Now I just want to have a great-grandson. Those old guys already have their great-grandsons, so I envy them very much. Sylvia, you should take the initiative. I can't wait for much longer."

Sylvia's pretty face was even redder. She subconsciously looked at Henry and found that Henry was constantly winking at her.

"Rascal!" Sylvia snorted and rolled her eyes at Henry, not looking at him.

Outside Glory Hotel, the first time Fiona went out of the hotel, she called the old man from that night.

"Mr Han, if you eat the maggot, how can you take it out?"

"You can't take it out. This kind of maggot will lurk in the human body for more than two to three months. When time is right, it will be corroded by gastric juice. It is impossible to take it out, so you can rest assured." Mr Han said confidently on the phone.

Hearing this, Fiona's heart suddenly sank. After hanging up Mr Han's call, she contacted the hospital for the operation. If she really had to give more than one billion yuan to Henry Zhang, how could she not be distressed? But to suffer that pain at all times, she could not bear it.

On the other side, the old man who worked with Fiona to hurt Sylvia was taken away by a car without plates as soon as they got out of the hotel. The old man looked at the people in the car with ghost-faced masks in horror.

"Who... who are you?"

"A dead man doesn't need to know too much."

Buick commercial car drove all the way to the suburbs.

In the Glory Hotel, Henry and Sylvia appeared at the entrance of the hotel.

"By the way, have are busy these days?" Sylvia looked at Henry and asked.

"No, why?" Henry asked curiously.

Sylvia nodded. "Okay. In the next two days, Ning province's human resources will have a large-scale job fair and send a lot of talents to the public enterprises in Ning province. Didn't you have a high score in the talent centre last time? This time, you can recruit some people for me. Many people recruited by the personnel department are only educated and incompetent. Please help me to check them."

"No problem." Henry made an OK gesture.

With Henry participating in the recruitment, Sylvia was relieved. Henry, who got high evaluation price, would have no problems helping HR.

The recruitment would start yesterday. After Henry agreed, he didn't waste much time. After asking the location of the recruitment fair, he rushed there.

Sylvia called Cathy and asked her to inform the HR department that everyone should cooperate with Henry's work as much as possible.

In the Yinzhou Convention Center, some large-scale exhibitions in Yinzhou usually would be held here, such as an electric exhibition, a house exhibition, an art exhibition, and so on. This time, the whole large-scale job fair of Ning province would also be held here.

In the past two years, there had been a great development in Yinzhou. It had also taken a lot of effort to prepare for this job fair.

The whole exhibition centre was divided into several pavilions. There were more than 200 companies covering all fields. Among them, there were two most popular companies, one was the leading enterprise of Yinzhou, Lins Group.

The other one was the Zhao family, a big enterprise that had risen up in Yinzhou recently.

As soon as Zhao's Group appeared, it claimed that it had a market value of ten billion yuan and surpassed Chows' in an instant, becoming the biggest competitor of Lins Group.

Chapter 315

In the past half a month, there had been a lot of open and secret strife between the Zhao's Group and Lins Group.

The appearance of Zhao's Group was beyond many people's expectation. The capital of this group had reached 8 billion yuan. With the support of a mysterious consortium, hundreds of elites were transferred from other places to maintain the operation of the company on the first day of its establishment. Moreover, many orders were obtained.

Originally, Lins market occupied a total of 48% in Yinzhou. With the appearance of Zhao's Group, Lin's share decreased by 13% at once, and only 35% was still in their hand.

Meanwhile, the current shares of Yinzhou market of the Zhao's Group had reached 25%, only ten percent lower than that of the Lins Group.

One must know that this was the result of the Zhao's Group, which had only appeared for half a month.

In the usual business negotiations, Lins Group would argue with Zhao's Group.

In the bidding competition, Zhao's was also the most powerful opponent of Lins Group.

In this recruitment, Lins and Zhao's were also competing for talents.

Lins and Zhao's were separated into one exhibition hall. There were more than a dozen exhibition pavilions in each exhibition hall. Some small companies would gather in groups on a small exhibition stand. After all, the price of this exhibition stands alone was up to 800,000 yuan. Small enterprises couldn't afford to pay for it. All the companies would unite to pay it together. If they could find useful talents, the money they spent was worth it. If they couldn't find it, they would consider it a loss.

Meanwhile, Lins Group and Zhao's Group owned a whole exhibition stand. The name of their own enterprise was hanging on it with the big word "HOT". The exhibition stand was full of business proposals and in the need for talents.

On the stand, the HR department of Lins Group was in a hurry at the moment.

"What do you think? Have you signed all the most promising ones this time?"

"Not yet. The offer proposed by the Zhao family is at least one level higher than ours. This is deliberate against us."

"They're trying to mess with us!"

While a group of people from the business department were discussing fiercely, Manager Chen of the HR department came over.

"Well, you should talk slowly first. I just received a message that Henry, President Lin's husband, is coming and will be responsible for the recruitment. All of us can assist him." Manager Chen said to everyone.

The staff of the HR department was shocked by Manager Chen's words.

"What? President Lin's husband is coming?"

"What is he doing here? Does he know how to recruit?"

"Please, Manager Chen. We are in a mess. Please don't make trouble for us."

A burst of complaints arose everywhere. Who didn't know how many of these people who entered the company by wearing a dress were really capable? Previously, Richard Wong, sitting in such an important position in the company, only ate, drank and played every day, but also added chaos to others.

Although they had never come into contact with Henry before, they could think of something just by thinking about him.

Manager Chen also knew what everyone was thinking. He had met Henry before. On the first day of work, he asked for a security position, but he was stunned by President Lin's aunt. From this point, it could be seen that he was absolutely an arrogant and unbridled person. If he came here, even if he didn't care about anything, everyone would have to listen to him.

This matter was arranged by President Lin. Even if Manager Chen had any opinion, he did not dare to say it out loud. Now he only hoped that Henry was a reasonable person.

"But Henry, last time when the building was on fire, he saved President Lin desperately. He won't go too far, right?"

"Haha, if my wife is the boss of a company with a market value of ten billion yuan, I wouldn't want to save her. Today, if he comes here and he does nothing, it will be our fault!"

"That's right. If he wants me to play with my life, I'll play with my life. He can see that every day we play with our lives and make money for him. We could make ten billion yuan. Everyone could play!"

The staff of the HR department all showed an angry expression.

"All right, cut the crap. He'll come soon. Maybe he'll leave very fast." Manager Chen comforted them.

"When he leaves, it will be too late. Now there are only a few remaining talents. If we can't recruit them, they might deduct our salaries. We still have family to feed!"

"Yes!"

"You are all stupid. Now you leave. When he comes, just say that everyone is busy. It is impossible for him to call you back! Go, go, go out." Manager Chen waved his hand.

Hearing that, the employees didn't hesitate.

"Let's go, let's go."

"Let's go."

A group of people left the stage in pairs. Soon, there was no one else in the recruitment seats of the Lins, except for a few people who worked with documents.

At half-past two in the afternoon, Henry strolled slowly to the exhibition centre.

It could be said that inside and outside the exhibition centre, there was a sea of people. At present, everyone was under a lot of pressure. Among the five people, one had no job. Among the remaining four, only one had a good offer, and the remaining three were uncertain.

In this fair, not only did jobless people come to take chances but some working personnel also specially asked for leave to see if they could find a job with better benefits.

Henry came to the exhibition centre. He took a look at the slightly shrunk picture and found the exhibition hall of Lins Group.

By the time he arrived at the exhibition stage of Lins Group, the stage was already crowded with candidates. Everyone handed over their resume. Whoever passed the resume would be able to take part in the next interview.

For most of the candidates, it was the Lins Group that chose them. Only a few elites would be able choose the Lins Group themselves.

Now, the Lins Group lacked such elites.

Manager Chen had been waiting in front of the stand for a long time. When she saw Henry, Manager Chen immediately came up to him.

"Mr Zhang, here you are." Manager Chen looked at Henry. He and Henry had seen met before. Looking at Henry's cheap casual clothes, he was stunned. This was President Lin's husband, a husband of a boss with ten billion yuan in her bank account.

Henry nodded, looked at the stage, frowned and asked, "There are too many candidates here. If I remember correctly, this time twenty-three people from the personnel department came to help with fair, so how come the efficiency is so low?"

Manager Chen smiled awkwardly. Usually, there wouldn't be so many people. But just now, he knew that Henry was coming and they had been sent out, so naturally, the efficiency of doing things was reduced.

"Well, Mr Zhang, this time, we have several good goals, but we haven't got the talents yet, so everyone went out to search for talents." Manager Chen explained.

"Went out? Call them back. They have to handle things here properly first. Why are they running around?" Henry blamed him.

Manager Chen was a little embarrassed. "But those high-quality talents..."

Henry glanced at Manager Chen and said blandly, "I give orders here."

Chapter 316

At 2:45 p.m., all the employees who had been sent out returned to the stand, but everyone had a look of anger on their faces. They really didn't want to come back, but manager Chen told them that if anyone was not back within 15 minutes, he or she would have to hand in his or her resignation letter.

All the employees of the Lins were forced to come back, and everyone's heart was full of resentment.

Henry sat in the resting room behind the stage. Through the huge glass window, he could see what was going outside. He made a cup of tea and drank leisurely.

The personnel staff next to him shook their heads in disappointment when they saw him like this. He was indeed a person who came to make trouble.

Soon, the people who came up to the stand to look for a job slowly dispersed. Everyone's introduction was taken in and they were waiting for the next notice.

Henry looked at a long-legged and thin-waist girl from head to toe. This girl was particularly conspicuous in the crowd, just because of her beautiful appearance and temperament that others could not compare with.

"Call her in." Henry pointed at the girl and said to Manager Chen.

The staff of the personnel department of the Lins Group also noticed this girl. She was really beautiful, but her education was too low. She just graduated from college and had no work experience. Instead, she started her business for a few years and lost money in the end.

Hearing that Henry wanted to call the young lady over, everyone showed a look of disdain. He was the same as Richard Wong. Without any ability, he could do anything to harm the young lady. They really didn't know what President Lin thought of such a man.

Soon, Manager Chen called the beautiful girl over.

Those who were looking for a job with a girl also showed a look that they had expected this. Now the hidden rules were put in the open. Beautiful women always enjoyed the attention.

At the same time, the girl's resume was placed in front of Henry.

On a table, Henry was sitting in front of the table, drinking tea and looking at the girl's resume. The girl was standing in front of Henry, wearing a long red dress.

"Cici Rui? This surname is quite rare. At the age of twenty-six, you graduated from college and started your own business for eight years. Please introduce yourself." Henry put the resume on the table and looked at Cici.

Cici smiled slightly and said, "Hello, interviewer. My name is Cici Rui. I'm..."

"Stop." Henry made a prohibited gesture. "I forgot to tell you how I want you to introduce yourself. I don't want to listen to your prepared speech. You just need to tell me three points. First, your advantages. Second, your disadvantages, Third, your opinion on the Lins Group."

Cici was slightly stunned, and then muttered, "Sorry, I can't make such a self-introduction."

Henry smiled slightly and seemed to have expected that Cici would answer in this way. He asked, "Why?"

"The first thing I can say is my opinion on Lins Group, the second is my disadvantage, and my advantage should be put at the end." Cici gave such an answer.

In other people's eyes, this way of answering was stupid. It was just three points, and the order you answered didn't make any difference.

But in Henry's eyes, it was completely different.

"Very well, you are accepted." Henry took out his mobile phone and looked at the time. "At 5:30 a.m., you can come here. I will talk to you about the salary."

Henry's words made Cici's eyes lit up. If one looked carefully, he would find that there was a kind of approval in Cici's eyes. Yes, it was an unusual thing for her, a college education candidate, to look at the interviewer of the Lin's with a look of approval.

Cici stretched out her hand to Henry Zhang and said, "You are very special. I hope that we can cooperate happily."

In the phrase of delight in cooperation, Cici expressed a more different meaning.

"I also hope so." Henry smiled and gently shook Cici's soft hand.

The people next to him looked at him. Henry told her that she had been admitted so easily. How could he recruit an employee? Obviously, he wanted to recruit a mistress for himself!

"I knew that this kind of person would only make trouble for us. When he finishes playing later, he will leave and leave the mess for us."

"Yes."

"Alas, it's all because of the great power of his family."

The staff of the HR department whispered.

Seeing that it was so easy for Cici to apply for the job, a beautiful woman, Linda Mao introduced herself and winked at Henry. "Hello, interviewer. My name is Linda. I graduated from college and also want to find a job."

When Linda spoke, she deliberately opened her mouth more, which was really enchanting.

Henry glanced at Linda and said, "Follow the procedure of finding a job."

Linda heard this and saw Henry's cold attitude. She rolled her eyes, turned around and left. At the same time, she made a sound, "Don't pretend to be so important!"

Linda's resume had just been rejected by Lins Group.

Linda's words were unanimously approved by the staff of the HR department. They also thought that Henry was putting on an act. He had just easily employed a beautiful woman, and now he was pretending to be a gentleman.

After a while, a young man in a suit came to the stand of Lins Group with a briefcase in his hand.

The appearance of this young man immediately attracted the attention of many HR department employees. They still remembered that this person was one of the few high-quality talents.

Several people immediately ran to the stand to take the young man to the lounge.

As soon as the young man entered the lounge, he shouted, "I won't beat around the bush with you. The Zhao Family offered me an annual salary of 300,000 yuan. My intention is to get a salary of 350,000 yuan per year. Now whoever can give me my ideal number, I will work for them."

As soon as the young man finished his words, the staff of Lins Group looked at each other. Finally, they looked at Manager Chen and asked him to make the decision.

"Three hundred and fifty thousand..." Manager Chen thought for a moment, then took out a pen and paper, wrote for a long time, and finally gritted his teeth. "350,000 yuan! OK! If there is no problem, we can sign the contract now!"

This young man was the key target of the personnel department of the Lins Group, and they wanted to sign him very much.

There was a trace of arrogance on the young man's face. "Then let's sign the contract."

Looking at the arrogance on the young man's face, the staff of the Lin's showed no dissatisfaction. If the young man really took up the job, he might become their boss in no time.

Henry sat next to them, frowned and said, "Manager Chen, what kind of talent is he? How can he directly ask for an annual salary of 350,000 yuan?"

"Henry, this is Pang Guang, twenty-three years old. He has already got a master's degree at Capital University. When he was at school, he got four scholarships. At the same time, his major is also in line with the two most important projects we have now." Manager Chen said as he handed a resume to Henry.

Henry only glanced at it and said, "We don't need him."

Chapter 317

"Don't want?"

Henry's words made the employees of the HR department open their eyes wide. This kind of talent, he actually didn't want it!

"Henry, I can't refuse this." Manager Chen whispered in Henry's ear, "This is a rare talent."

Henry took a sip of tea, shook his head and said, "If I say no, then we don't want him. Pang Guang, right? You can go now."

Henry threw Pang's resume on the table and then did not look at Pang again.

A hint of anger appeared on Pang's face. "Fine! If you don't want me here, there's another place that does!"

Pang stepped forward, grabbed his resume, slammed the door and left.

The staff of the HR department, including Manager Chen, looked at Pang's departure in a daze. They could not recover from the shock.

"Is he really gone? He's such a high-quality talent!"

At the moment, they had unspeakable bitterness in their hearts. Henry's arrival was not as simple as just adding trouble to people. He was a total troublemaker.

Manager Chen's face was full of bitterness. If it was a regular leader, he would dare to say something. But it turned out that he was President Lin's husband!

Manager Chen watched Pang walk to the booth of Zhao Enterprise next door, and was received by Zhao Enterprise's people.

Henry sat in the lounge behind the stage. Every time a person applied for Lins Group,

10:04 ■

Henry had to look at that person's resume, and sometimes asked them to introduce themselves. Some people who were supposed to sign the contract were rejected by Henry. However, some people who didn't even have a resume, Henry would accept.

After two hours, Henry Zhang hired about ten people and rejected the seven people who were going to sign the contract. His behaviour made the HR department staff unwilling to complain. The job fair, which had made everyone full of confidence, was completely ruined because of Henry's presence.

5:25 p.m.

There were fewer people at the fair than before.

Cici Rui, who was wearing a long red dress, came to the exhibition stand of Lins Group and talked with Henry about the salary.

In Yinzhou, the salary was divided into several grades.

Three thousand to five thousand, five thousand to eight thousand, eight thousand to ten thousand, and then the year-end bonus. Kind of a person with an annual salary of more than 250,000 yuan was a top talent in Yinzhou, such as Pang Guang. He had a master's degree from Capital University and an annual salary of 350,000 yuan. If he went out of the province, he would definitely be a successful person in the eyes of the people in Yinzhou.

They didn't know how Henry talked about the salary with Cici, but when Manager Chen printed the contract, Manager Chen and others saw Henry Zhang's salary and even suspected that they had added one more zero by mistake.

An annual salary of one million yuan!

In Yinzhou, there was not a company that had such a high salary for its employees!

If Manager Chen heard other people's asking for this salary, he would let them go to other companies immediately. One million! The genius with a master's degree from Capital University only wanted three hundred and fifty thousand yuan, but the graduate with this major got one million yuan?

"He is indeed a rich man. In order to play with this woman, he is spending a lot of money!"

"This woman's annual salary is one million yuan. In the future, she will have to stick her tail and walk in the company!"

"I've been working in Lins Group for almost ten years. Now I only have 8,000 yuan a month. This major's graduate directly gets one million yuan per year?"

The staff of the HR department expressed their dissatisfaction in private.

While they were talking, they saw a group of people walking to the stand of Lins Group.

All the employees in the HR department of the Lins Group knew these people. They were from the Zhao family next door.

The HR manager of Zhao's company took the initiative to bring people to the stand of Lins Group. Beside him, Pang Guang, who had been rejected by Henry before, was also there.

When the manager of the HR department of Zhao's company saw Manager Chen, his face was full of gratitude. He shouted, "Oh, Manager Chen, thank you very much. Such a good talent and you don't want him. You really gave advantage to our Zhao's company. We got this double-master's talent for an annual salary of 300,000 yuan. By the way, some things may have been forgotten by Pang Guang. However, we still checked it. Pang Guang once held a lecture in major schools because of his excellent grade. He earned 210,000 in a year."

The words of the Zhao's manager made the people from Lins' HR department look very unhappy. The other party signed the contract for 300,000 yuan and Lins wanted to give him 350,000 yuan. Moreover, Pang Guang was even more excellent than they had imagined. He started his business in college and earned 210,000 yuan a year. How many people could do this now? He was definitely a businessman!

Manager Chen did not speak and ignored the HR manager of Zhao's Group, but the HR manager of Zhao Enterprise did not intend to end this easily. Everyone had been fighting openly and secretly these days, and they all held back their breath. Today was the last day of the recruitment meeting. It was about to end, so they had to come over and put a good fight. He glanced at the contract in Manager Chen's hand. "Wow, Manager Chen, an annual salary of one million yuan? Who is this talent? Cici Rui? I am a little familiar with this name. Oh, I remember, a vase with a BA from a professional school!"

Manager Chen's face became even darker. If this matter was spread out, it would definitely make the HR department of Lins Group a laughing stock in the industry. A talent review department is known for being strict and professional, with an annual salary of one million dollars for an ordinary graduate, just because the other party was beautiful?

"Haha." Henry's chuckle sounded aside, "The so-called vase refers to the appearance without any personality. I don't know if this vase refers to your people or my people?"

Henry looked at the HR manager of Zhao's company.

"Of course everybody knows who I'm talking about. It is a known rule that BA graduates should have a monthly salary of three thousand yuan. I think it's too high!" The manager of the HR department of Zhao's company crossed his arms over his chest.

Henry glanced at Pang and said, "Actually, I think that the talent you signed should have an annual salary of 100,000. You overestimated him."

"What a joke!" Pang laughed out loud. "When I started my own business, I could earn more than 200,000 yuan a year. 100,000 yuan? Dream on!"

"Really?" Henry smiled and said, "You earned 200,000 yuan a year, and then? Does it prove that you are capable? The money he made is all virtual. Only when the money is in your hands can you prove that you earned it. Excuse me, have you got the money?"

"Bullsh*t!" Pang snorted with disdain. Of course, he could not get any money from the operation of the virtual model.

Henry looked at Manager Chen and asked, "Do you think he can survive under my control for a few days with his character? 10 million yuan a year would not enough for him to pay for the medicine!"

When Manager Chen heard this, he smiled awkwardly. He had seen Henry's temper when he encountered President Lin's aunt. She had fainted so easily. He was definitely not a good person.

Henry looked at Pang again and said, "The ability is made for yourself, and you shouldn't show off. In the company, what you have to do is to contribute to the company, not to show your own value. The so-called company's output can be divided into two categories. The first kind is to create profits for the company, the second kind, to bring profits to everyone."

Chapter 318

Henry stretched out two fingers and said, "I won't consider the company's interest for the time being. Let's talk about personal interests first. If you show me respect, it will affect my mood. In my opinion, a good mood is also a symbol of benefits. So, you have already affected my personal interests, including in the company, and you will also affect other colleagues' feelings. So, I will fire you immediately."

"It's ridiculous. Who do you think you are? I'm capable. Any company will do everything to hire me!" Pang said arrogantly.

Pang's arrogance came from the bottom of his heart. From the bottom of his heart, he thought that he was a top student who graduated from Capital University and had a double master's degree. When he came to this small city of Yinzhou, no matter which company he went to, someone would fight for him and he was superior to others.

Henry shrugged his shoulders. "Whatever you think, if you want to tell me about your ability, I have to ask you, what ability do you have to get the annual salary of 350,000 yuan? Is it the school education that represents your ability?"

"Of course!" Pang raised his head.

Henry waved his hand and said, "Cici Rui, tell me, what did you do during the eight years since you started your business?"

Cici replied, "Internet sale."

"Internet sale?" Hearing this, the HR manager of Zhao's company was stunned at first, then laughed a few times and said disdainfully, "It's really interesting. Does that count? Internet sale is only a hobby. Who doesn't know that the so-called internet sale is just one or two thousand yuan for the agent fee and to do some things on social media!"

Cici explained, "I sold IP domains for eight years."

After Cici said the name of the domain, the faces of the HR manager of Zhao Enterprise, Manager Chen, and Pang all showed a trace of doubt.

Henry said, "The so-called IP domain is the website selling from many years ago, but now it is in another form. I checked just now. The most expensive website in China, and the official website of the security guard 361, costs 100 million yuan to buy it. Cici, tell me, how much money did you make in eight years?"

Cici nodded and continued, "In the past eight years, I spent more time on hype and sales of foreign IP domains. I didn't make any profit at all. At the best time, the annual profit reached 47 million dollars."

"Pretending!" Pang smirked. "47 million dollars? You really made so much money, do you still need to come to this small city to work?"

Cici gave a hand indifferently. "It's just that I've lost all my money."

"Haha, everybody could say that." Pang's face was full of disbelief.

"I don't know if she is telling the truth or not." Henry shook his head. "But I can still believe the financial magazine in those days."

Henry opened a website on his mobile phone. It was an American financial magazine four years ago. On the cover of the magazine was Cici who was standing in front of them at the moment.

There was only one short sentence on the magazine's cover about Cici.

A cross-generations businesswoman.

Henry smiled and said, "You can see the website clearly. Whether it's real or not, whether it's a photoshop or not, you can figure it out by yourself. Do you think that such a person is a vase? The vase is signed by you. This so-called double master, without any achievements, a high-calibre student who is arrogant. Is he a vase?"

Listening to Henry's words, the face of the HR manager of Zhao's company was a little ugly. As a person who was on the cover of the American Weekly, Cici must be very valuable.

This Cici could suffer a loss in business. You could only say that she was unlucky. She couldn't catch up with time, but you couldn't deny her ability. If she could find a suitable platform, the benefits she brought would be huge!

Henry looked at Pang and shook his head. "School education doesn't mean your ability. When you really can turn your school education into ability, you are qualified to show your arrogance. But now, to be honest, you are just a newcomer who knows nothing."

After Henry finished speaking, he turned around and walked into the lounge.

Pang stood there with a terrible look on his face. He couldn't imagine that a person who was only a BA student could be on the cover of the economic newspaper in the United States!

Manager Chen took out his mobile phone. On the website Henry just opened, he really saw the introduction of Cici Rui. Moreover, in this magazine, there was a very high evaluation of Cici. There were even some financial barons who made a special speech and praised her.

Manager Chen put away his mobile phone. When he looked at Cici again, his eyes were full of excitement. She was absolutely a talent, a super talent! If they signed such a person with an annual salary of one million dollars, it would be absolutely a big profit for the company! As long as she could be given a platform, the value she could show would be unimaginable! She could even surpass President Lin! You know, President Lin was such an excellent woman, and she had never been on the cover of the financial newspaper.

The value of the financial newspaper was known by all the people in the industry.

This Cici was ten times more powerful than Pang!

Manager Chen's gloomy mood was swept away. In the two-day job fair, no matter how many talents others had recruited, it would not be enough to beat him.

Manager Chen thought for a moment. If he had signed Pang for 350,000 yuan, and Zhao's signed Cici for one million, he would definitely be depressed and sleep bad for a few days after knowing Cici's ability. People like Cici Rui were the real top talents!

The HR manager of Zhao's company was no longer as proud as he was just now. He knew that he had lost to Lins Group in this confrontation.

"Manager Chen! Oh my god, it's amazing!" An employee of the HR department of the Lins Group ran out of the lounge with excitement.

"Well, you know?" Manager Chen asked curiously. The reason why these people were so excited was probably that they knew about Cici's ability.

"What do you mean?" The employee, who ran out excitedly, showed a hint of doubt.

"Then why are you so happy?" Manager Chen asked.

"Manager Chen! Just now! The person Henry recruited is a man in his forties. He has no education background. He is actually the judge of the investment in the Dragon Investment Company!" The staff shouted.

"What!" Manager Chen's face was shocked, and then he became overjoyed.

People in Yinzhou had heard of the Dragon Investment Company. It was a very small company. There were only two people at that time, and the starting capital in their hands was less than one million. In a short period of a year, it was made into a company worth more than ten million dollars. Such a development speed was inseparable from the judges of the Dragon Investment Company. His eyes were very sharp. Even Sylvia Lin, who had offered a high price of five million yuan at that time, wanted to sign that man but was refused by the other party.

Now, this person was actually recruited by Henry?

Chapter 319

"How much for his salary?" Manager Chen asked excitedly.

"Manager, you won't believe it even if I say it. The annual salary is 100,000 yuan, and the commission is 1% of the service." The employee's face was full of disbelief.

"An annual salary of 100,000 yuan! Small commission?" Manager Chen was somewhat unbelievable. At that time, President Lin intended to hire him for five million yuan, but now he was signed by Henry?

The staff member of the HR department looked back at Henry, who was sitting in the lounge, and there was no longer that kind of dissatisfaction in his eyes.

Henry signed this talent at this price. If President Lin knew that, the whole HR department would be praised. According to President Lin's character, there must be a lot of rewards. This kind of talent was much better than those top students who only had a degree.

At that time, the legal person of the Dragon Investment Company took the money and ran away. So many people wanted to recruit the investment judge who invested in the Dragon Investment Company, but there was no way. The other party also disappeared for several years.

Before the shock of Manager Chen was over, another female employee ran out of the lounge. "Manager Chen, good news. Good news. The lady that you rejected, was called back by Henry. It turned out to be responsible for the development of the project for Qinxin Heart Courtyard. Just a few years ago, it was popular and reported to borrow money everywhere. Finally, the project was taken by others and earned more than a billion yuan."

"She?" Manager Chen frowned slightly. "Isn't there a criminal report in her resume?"

"Yes. At that time, her capital chain was broken and the loan was not paid. She was sentenced for financial fraud. She just came out of prison. She couldn't find a job because of the previous record. I didn't expect that she was called by Henry. It was said that this big sister was set up by someone. Otherwise, she would have been the boss of hundreds of millions of yuan long ago!"

As soon as the female employee finished speaking, another excited voice came from the lounge.

"Manager Chen! You may not believe it..."

The HR manager of the Zhao Family stood aside and listened to the good news discussed by the employees of the Lins Group. His face was so gloomy. The top talent, who had just graduated, was signed by the Lin's at such a low price, and all of them were on a commission system. According to these people's abilities, as long as one of them could bring profit to the company, his benefits would be unimaginable. Looking at Pang, the HR manager of the Zhao's group, he had an impulse to slap him. He was just graduated, but he actually gave him 300 thousand annual salary. In contrast, he was simply a fool!

Manager Chen stood on the stand and looked at Henry, who was slowly sipping tea in the lounge. The contempt in his heart had long been gone, but there was only deep admiration! Henry, as expected, was not as simple as he looked on the surface. His way of dealing with things was really profound.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, the exhibition centre was closed. The large-scale job fair this time was completely over. Every company had a lot of gains, but the biggest harvest was from Lins Group.

Just half an hour after the contract was signed, the HR department staff of the Lins Group found that almost all the people signed by Henry were talents, and these talents were ignored by them before.

"Henry, we're very curious. How did you do it? There are a lot of things that haven't been written on the resume of those talents." Manager Chen couldn't help but ask.

After Manager Chen asked this question, the employees of the personnel department also looked at Henry with a curious look. This was the question they also wanted to know.

Henry smiled and said, "In fact, it's very simple. Manager Chen, if I ask you to apply for a job with an annual salary of one million dollars now, will you apply for it?"

Manager Chen shook her head. "No."

"Why?" Henry asked.

"I know I don't have this ability." Manager Chen answered honestly.

Henry snapped his fingers. "That's right. After thinking about it, a person's CV is very difficult to read. One doesn't have an education background or many awards, but he dares to apply for an important position. You have to learn to interview such a person, not directly refuse because of his resume. The way you ask is very simple. I only used one method. First, let the other party talk about their own advantages, then disadvantages. Finally, you can ask the other party's opinion on Lins."

"What's the difference?" Manager Chen asked doubtfully.

"Of course." Henry Zhang nodded. "A company's construction is equivalent to a building. Your HR department is equivalent to the material approval of this building. For example, if a brick falls from a wall, will you choose the most suitable one to buy or buy a sum of bricks of all sizes, and finally choose the nearest one to the size?"

Manager Chen answered without thinking, "Of course, I choose the most suitable one to buy it."

Henry nodded. "By the way, there is a 90% chance that a capable person will put his opinion on Lins Group first, because he knows his position very well and knows what he can do when he comes to the company. Even on the first day of work, he will take the initiative to do some work without the arrangement of his superiors.

Others, on the first day of work, will sit in front of their desk and wait for their superiors to assign some work that they don't understand."

Listening to Henry's words, all the employees of Lins had a sudden understanding of Henry and they were full of admiration for Henry in their hearts.

"Henry, we really learned something this time!" Manager Chen gave him a thumbs-up and said sincerely.

At this moment, these staff members of the HR department of the Lins Group were ashamed of their previous thoughts.

Originally, they thought that the president's husband came here to make trouble. In the end, the other party's means were much higher than theirs. After this incident, they could understand why they were only employees. Henry, who could be the boss, was obviously confined in the limitations of thinking, and it was difficult for him to develop better.

Manager Chen called and reported today's "victories" to Sylvia. At the same time, he also told her that Henry had found a lot of high-quality talents.

After hearing this, Sylvia was not surprised at all. After spending so much time together, Henry had become an excellent man in Sylvia's heart.

On the top floor of Lin's building, Sylvia was sitting in her office. She cocked her head and thought for a while. Then she took out her mobile phone and dialled Henry's number. Before the phone was connected, the woman said to herself, "Well... this is as a reward for your victory today. I'll treat you to a big meal."

Henry's phone was busy.

Sylvia waited for five minutes before calling Henry, but it was obvious that no one answered.

Chapter 320

At the same time when Sylvia called Henry, Henry stopped a taxi outside the exhibition centre with an anxious look. "Hurry up! People's Hospital!"

Five minutes ago, Henry received a phone call from Amity. This girl was crying on the phone. Her father had drunk the poison...

When Henry arrived at the hospital, Amity's father had already entered the emergency room. Amity sat alone on the chair outside the emergency room, holding her legs and burying her head in her arms. The dim light shone on the corridor, pulling the shadow of Amity, which made her look particularly lonely.

Henry looked at the red light in the emergency room and slowly walked to the front of Amity. He gently put his hand on her shoulder and said, "Girl..."

Hearing Henry's voice, Amity slowly lifted her head. Her eyes were red and swollen, and she whimpered, "Brother Zhang... Brother Zhang."

Henry looked at the appearance of Amity and did not know how to comfort her for a moment. Henry probably could figure out why the father of Amity took the poison.

What happened in their family would disturb any person.

In the early years of Amity, her father was addicted to gambling. His wife ran away with someone else, and his remaining relatives, except his own daughter, were all his siblings. But now, his brother, who came out from the same mother's womb, made a family lie to him. Such a thing would make anyone feel desperate.

Henry sighed. He opened his mouth for a long time and could only say one sentence, "Uncle will be fine."

The moment he finished his words, Henry felt a soft force throw into his arms. The mood of Amity, which had just been adjusted, broke out again because of the appearance of Henry.

Her cry echoed in the corridor, and her tears wetted Henry's clothes on his chest.

"Just cry. It's much better to cry." Henry reached out and patted her back.

Henry's arrival might be the last harbour for Amity. She hid in Henry's arms and kept sobbing.

When the door of the emergency room was opened, President Ma, who was wearing a surgical uniform, came out and saw Henry at a glance.

"Henry, are you here too?"

"How is it going?" Henry pointed to the emergency room and asked.

There was a touch of loneliness on President Ma's face. "The patient is no longer in danger of life, but..."

"But what?" President Ma's expression made Henry have a bad feeling.

"But the poison has eroded the brain and the patient is in a coma. We can't guarantee when he will wake up." President Ma shook his head helplessly. "Henry, is the patient your friend?"

"Yeah." Henry nodded. "An elder."

"Alas." President Ma sighed. "Henry, please take the patient's daughter in to see her father."

Amity wiped the tears on her face and followed Henry into the operating room.

When the doctors in the operating room saw Henry, they all said hello.

Henry saw that Amity's father was lying quietly on the operating table. There were two water pipes in his abdomen, which should mean that his stomach had just been washed.

As soon as she saw her father like this, Amity couldn't stop. She bent over to the operating table and looked at the man lying there with tears in her eyes.

Henry walked to the side of the instrument and picked up the instrument to observe. Just as President Ma said, the brain nerves of her father had been completely destroyed by the poison. It was difficult to expel such a spread. It could only depend on the patient's immune system to eliminate these poisons.

For this kind of coma, it was generally called a vegetative coma in medicine. The cells in the body were active, but the brain cells were necrotic.

"Dad... why are you so stupid? Why? Those people lied to you, and they don't treat you as their family. Why did you do such a stupid thing?" The sound of weeping was heard, and tears kept falling from Amity's face.

Henry stood aside and looked at the pitiful look of Amity, his eyes full of distress.

"Girl, let the doctor transport uncle to the ward first." Henry patted the shoulder of Amity.

Due to Henry, her father was sent to an independent ward.

Amity and Henry sat by the bed. Henry tried to comfort them and said, "Don't worry too much. Uncle is no longer in danger of life. His immune system is very strong. The virus will disappear sooner or later. It's just a matter of time for uncle to wake up."

"Yes." Amity nodded and looked at his father with worry in his eyes.

Someone knocked on the door of the ward, and President Ma's voice sounded outside the ward. "Henry, I have something to tell you in private."

"Okay." Henry responded in the ward, "Little girl, sit down first. I'll talk to President Ma."

Walking out of the ward, Henry saw President Ma standing here with a test report.

"Henry, take a look at this. It's about the patient." President Ma handed the test report to Henry.

Henry looked at the things given by President Ma and frowned closer and closer. "His immune system is this weak?"

"Yes." President Ma nodded. "The patient has been drinking all year round, so the damage to his liver is very serious. According to the current conclusion, the poison in the patient's brain is almost impossible to remove."

Henry took a deep breath and tore off the report in his hand. "Don't tell her about this. I'll think of a way."

President Ma nodded. "Okay."

Henry returned to the ward with a smile on his face. "Little girl, it's good news."

"Good news!" Hearing this, a hopeful look suddenly appeared on Amity's face. "Is it about my father?"

"Yeah." Henry responded, "Let's go. It's time to go. Let's go out and find a place first. Let's talk while eating."

Henry left the hospital with Amity.

"I've been longing to eat a piece of spicy chicken for a long time. Come with me to that restaurant." Henry deliberately made such a request that he took Amity away from the hospital.

Of course, Amity would not refuse Henry, so she nodded her head.

The two of them walked on the road.

In Lins Group.

Sylvia came to the company's hall and called Henry all the time. From the beginning, no one answered, and then the phone was turned off.

"President Lin, the demolition has been approved. We can go to see those old houses today." Cathy also appeared in the hall of Lins company and handed a document to Sylvia.

Sylvia looked at the documents and put away her mobile phone. "Okay, contact the person in charge of the office over there. Let's settle the matter today."

The piece of land in the document in Sylvia's hand was the dilapidated building where Amity lived.

In a restaurant not far from the house of Amity, Henry and Amity were sitting.

As soon as they sat down, Amity couldn't help asking, "Brother Zhang, what's the good news you just heard?"
