

- Chapter 2941 -

What happened just now?

Philip was taken aback before he reacted. He asked curiously, "What happened just now?"

Lord Ludo glared at him and said, "I told you not to ask! I'm going to ignore you!"

With that said, Lord Ludo walked away. Philip was embarrassed and had no choice but to follow suit. They walked into the depths. Along the way, they never encountered any other creatures. It seemed that the Fire Serpent was the most powerful being in this layer of the alternate space.

Not long after, Philip and his party arrived at the deepest part of this alternate space, which was also the finishing point.

It was a huge towering stone door.

The appearance of this door was rather strange, with a long and narrow triangular stone tablet on both sides. The tablets were carved with many ancient characters and patterns, as well as many battle marks left by extraterrestrial creatures.

There was a passage in the middle of the stone door with a layer of blue water pattern just like a space tunnel.

It was very deep and scary!

At this moment, the other four groups were already standing at the stone door. Samuel and the others had already arrived. Everyone seemed to be waiting for Philip and his party.

Seeing them here, Hugh's eyes were gloomy as he said coldly, "Oh, I didn't expect to see you here alive."

Hugh was very upset. His first place had been taken away from him.

Philip's eyes were cold and stern. He glanced over Hugh lightly before his eyes landed on Samuel. With his current strength, Philip still could not see through Samuel's strength.

"Even if you don't speak, no one will think you're mute," Philip said coldly and went past Hugh.

Hearing this, Hugh was furious and said angrily, "What did you say? You're courting death!"

With that said, Hugh punched out a huge energy vortex at Philip. Philip frowned, turned sideways, and kicked out!

Boom!

Hugh was sent flying by that kick. He fell to the ground and coughed violently.

“If that’s all you have, stop making a fool of yourself in front of us,” Philip said coldly.

Hugh was at the late stage of the sixth zone.

Boom!

Hugh was insulted and punched the ground in anger. He smashed a hole in the ground before he jumped up in anger.

“That’s enough!” Samuel barked solemnly and stared sternly at Hugh. He stopped Hugh and said, “Don’t cause a scene!”

Hugh pointed at Philip and said angrily, “Uncle Samuel, this kid is too arrogant. I wanted to kill him outside just now!”

Samuel glared at Hugh and said, “Shut up! You’re no match for him now! Stand aside!”

Hugh was still indignant but could only wipe the blood from the corner of his mouth and stand aside silently, staring coldly at Philip. Then, Samuel smiled at Philip and said, “Do excuse us, Young Patriarch Clarke...”

Philip frowned and said, “Do you recognize me?”

Samuel said with a smile, “I should’ve recognized such talent and strength much earlier.”

Philip chuckled without further comment and looked at the passage in the middle of the huge stone door instead.

The other three groups looked at each other and asked, “Mr. Woods, do you recognize this? Should we go inside?”

Samuel stared at the passage intently and said in surprise, “If I’m not mistaken, this passage should lead to the last part of this alternate space, which is the fourth level we’re about to enter. The risk factor is very high. We need to work together.”

- Chapter 2942 -

Hearing Samuel’s words, everyone glanced at each other.

Work together? Who would believe that?

Those who could reach this point were not ordinary, and all of them were conniving people. Even if they agreed to cooperate now, it was uncertain if they would kill each other once inside. Therefore, everyone looked at each other in silence, waiting for someone else to make a stand first.

Finally, someone could hold back no longer and asked, "Mr. Woods, what do you mean by working together?"

Samuel smiled and said, "Of course, it means that we need to work together to pass the fourth level, enter the fifth level, and get the secret treasure of the ancient sage."

"In that case, I'd like to know if some people will have to be screened out in the fourth level. If that's the case, how will the cooperation work?"

Hearing that, a hint of imperceptible chill flashed in Samuel's eyes before he forced a smile and said, "I think everyone is worrying too much. We'll only know the details of the fourth challenge once we go in. But since someone has brought it up, I hereby promise that if we really need to eliminate some participants in the fourth level, I can guarantee that if everyone works together, be it my team or any other team that can enter the fifth level and get the secret treasure of the ancient sage, everyone can definitely get a share of it once they come out!"

"A share? Haha, we don't believe this," On one side of a group with strange outfits said coldly at this moment.

Philip had noticed this group earlier.

Samuel looked at the team of five and asked with a smile, "What do you think, then?"

The leader carried a huge saber on his back and exuded a terrifying aura. He crossed his arms and said ferociously, "It's very simple. We should go our separate ways and pass the level with our own strength. If we can't make it, there's no point in wasting time here."

After that, he waved his hand and said, "Let's go!"

Then, these five people entered the passage and disappeared from the sight of the other four teams. The remaining four teams looked at each other, and the other two immediately stepped into the passage.

Samuel looked at Philip's party and asked with a smile, "Young Patriarch Clarke, are you willing to work with me?"

Philip raised his eyebrows, glanced at Samuel, and calmly refused, "No."

Hearing this, Samuel smiled and left with Hugh and the others.

Hugh turned his head and glared at Philip fiercely, made a provocative gesture, and said, "Just you wait!"

Seeing Samuel and his party enter the passage, Philip's expression became unpleasant.

Fennel stepped forward and asked, "What's wrong?"

Philip looked at the huge stone door passage and said, "I don't know, but I can't help feeling that something is wrong."

Hearing that, everyone looked at each other.

After a while, Philip shook his head and said, "Let's go in first. We won't know until we enter."

Everyone nodded, followed Philip, and entered the water-like passage. When they passed through the passage, the world in front of them changed. It was different from the alternate space just now. It looked like a vast barren mountain forest that looked like they were in ancient times.

- Chapter 2943 -

"Uhm, where is this place?" Moses asked in amazement.

Lord Ludo took out the diagnostic device, quickly locked onto the space they were in, and said in surprise, "Hey, look at this!"

Everyone crowded around and looked at the words on the diagnostic device. This place was actually a fragmented remnant of space from the other shore.

That was right!

A fragmented space from the other shore. How did this happen?

Who could actually split a space off the other shore?

Everyone was shocked. Towering trees stood in front of them. Compared to these giant trees, they were absolutely insignificant. More terrifyingly, a huge black shadow suddenly passed over their heads in the sky, carrying strong winds and a fearsome aura. It was accompanied by thunderous roars!

That huge black shadow was bigger than an island. The strong winds that came with it were even more terrifying than a level-10 typhoon.

Philip and the others stood dumbfounded in place, full of disbelief at the sight in front of them.

This was simply too shocking! Such an amazing scene could not be felt by the outside world at all!

Was this the world of the other shore?

As Philip and the others were stunned, a 3D bust suddenly appeared in the sky and began its introduction.

“Welcome to the fourth level of the challenge ground. You’ll experience the most brutal challenge here. This is a space that doesn’t exist in the human world. It’s a space that was separated from the other shore due to the joint efforts of the ancient sages. Here, you’ll fight individually or in groups. You’ll face challenges from the other shore. Only those who successfully find the exit will be eligible to enter the fifth level of the challenge...”

“Of course, you don’t have to worry. If you die in this dimension, you’ll be sent to the outside world safely. Are you ready, my warriors?”

As the 3D bust finished speaking, electrons flashed in the sky.

Thereafter, something like an electronic watch appeared on the arms of Philip and his party. At the same time, a small blue projection appeared, which was a woman formed electronically.

“Hello, I’m your guide, Sybil. I’ll faithfully record the fights you encounter here. If your life is in danger, you can call out my name and announce your surrender. You’ll be sent out of here... Here, I’d like to wish you every success in your upcoming challenge. Good luck!”

Then, the blue projection disappeared in a flash.

Philip and the others looked at each other, a little confused. However, thinking about it, everyone else should be facing the same situation.

“What should we do?” Moses asked.

Philip looked at Ludo and asked, “How much do you know about this place?”

Lord Ludo shook her head and said, “I don’t know. I’ve never heard of such a space in Mystic Cave.”

Hearing this, Philip frowned, took a deep breath, and said, "In that case, we should stay together and help each other out if we face any danger."

Everyone nodded and moved forward.

The electronic watch on their wrists had a map of this space, and the few red dots on the map represented Philip and his party. At the very front, there was a flashing green dot that should be the exit. However, only three roads led to the green dot on the map, and there were many markers indicated on it. Philip and the others could not figure it out and could only take one step at a time.

About 10 minutes later, they came to a canyon with high cliffs on both sides. The inside of the canyon was covered in thick miasma which looked very eerie.

- Chapter 2944 -

Everyone stopped at the entrance of the canyon and observed the surroundings. Huge trees towered outside while the canyon was sprawled out right in front of them, which felt a little strange. More terrifyingly, disturbing breaths could be felt from time to time as if an animal was panting.

With the diagnostic device in her hand, Lord Ludo began to collect the samples here for analysis. However, electromagnetic fluctuations began to appear on the device, making it unstable. Finally, there was data failure.

"Did you find anything?" Philip asked at this moment.

Lord Ludo sighed helplessly and said, "The device broke down. This place seems to be blocking the device."

Philip glanced at it, turned to look at the deep canyon, and his eyes turned sharp. An unknown world lay ahead, and he dared not take risks. This place was full of things that made Philip uneasy, which was enough to show the danger of this space.

Recalling what the electronic figure said earlier, reaching the exit was no easy feat.

After thinking for a while, Philip said, "Let's go in. Everyone should be careful and stay within sight."

Fennel and the others nodded and followed Philip into the canyon. They walked one meter apart into this canyon full of grayish-white miasma.

As soon as they stepped into this canyon, they heard low roars from the depths.

“Did you hear that?” Lord Ludo asked in fear.

Philip frowned, looked at the others, and said, “Be careful...”

The others nodded and walked along the canyon.

When they went deeper, they finally saw the true face inside the canyon. It was an open valley surrounded by broken walls and ruins. A huge extraterrestrial beast was sprawled right in the middle of the valley. It looked like a rhinoceros with a huge horn on its head, which was several meters long. The beast was very large, tens of meters in size!

It was resting, breathing constantly. It turned out that the miasma in the canyon was generated by its breathing.

Philip and the others stopped and looked at the huge beast dozens of meters large in front of them. At such a close distance, they could feel its strong vitality and terrifying aura. It was an adult beast with strength not lower than the sixth zone!

“This is a One-Horned Beast with a huge size and strong combat power. Its overall evaluation is three stars, which is similar to the Eight-Jawed Beast from earlier. However, this beast has a special characteristic. Once it gets angry, it’ll turn red all over and enter a berserk state. At that time, the beast will be very difficult to deal with, and its destructive power will be very strong! We need to be careful...” Lord Ludo recognized the beast at a glance and told the others in a low voice.

This One-Horned Beast could be found in the database of the Heavenly Court. This beast was normally very docile and did not like to attack, but once agitated, it would rampage.

Clatter!

With a slight movement, the sound of chains rang throughout the valley.

It turned out that four huge black chains shackled the limbs of this beast, nailing it to the surrounding cliffs!

- Chapter 2945 -

Those black chains were as thick as a person’s thigh. A beast that was chained with four thick chains filled Philip and the others with disbelief.

“The exit is over there. Let’s go around...” At a glance, Philip noticed the narrow exit of the canyon right behind the beast.

Everyone looked at each other and slowly walked against the cliff toward the exit. They held their breaths for fear of waking up this adult One-Horned Beast. However, suddenly, the sound of chains shook the whole canyon!

Huff, huff!

Loud panting breaths rang in their ears!

The beast opened its lantern-like eyes, full of ferocity. It saw these six uninvited guests who suddenly broke into its territory.

Clatter!

Immediately after, the huge body as big as a hill stood up, and the stones and dust gathered on it also rolled down, causing tremors!

Roar!

A low roar resounded throughout the canyon, causing the surrounding cliffs to shake. A lot of gravel fell!

“Oh no, it found us!” Lord Ludo exclaimed, his face pale.

As soon as the words were spoken, the beast turned its head and approached Philip and the others. At such close range, Philip even felt the heat of its breath. The pair of lantern-sized eyes looked particularly ferocious. The beast seemed angry!

Roar!

The One-Horned Beast roared, opened its jaw wide, and spewed out a huge wave of heat and miasma. The sound was like thunder in everyone's ears. The huge wave of heat almost sent Philip and the others flying!

“Run!” Philip shouted, raised his hand, and slashed out a streak of white sword energy!

Swoosh!

The sword energy slashed the head of the beast. The beast shook its head and roared to the sky. Aiming with the single horn on its head, it rushed in the direction where Philip and the others stood. At that moment, several people quickly ran toward the exit.

The beast's attack also approached!

Boom!

The cliffs cracked, the gravel flew, and the smoke billowed everywhere. The beast collapsed half the cliff. Philip did not stay to fight but quickly dodged the falling gravel and ran to the exit.

Roar!

With a low roar, the beast saw that its attack had missed and was furious at the sight of its prey still alive and kicking.

Clatter!

With loud clanging of the chains, the beast slammed toward Philip and the others. This big beast that looked like a moving hill caused a big commotion.

Seeing this, Philip could only meet the attack so that Fennel and the others could reach the exit. He surged with raging energy, and his whole body was covered with red flames. Then, he jumped high, raised his hand, and gathered energy in his right fist. The head of a fire chimera was formed and blasted toward the One-Horned Beast!

Boom!

Philip jumped into the air and punched the beast's head with his fiery fist. In an instant, a terrifying energy fluctuation that was centered on his fist and the horn of the beast formed a red ripple, which exploded with a bang and spread all around. Energy raged in the canyon and miasma surged!

The beast was knocked back dozens of meters by Philip's punch!

Clink, clang!

The chains were pulled taut and clanged loudly.

Roar!

The low roar of the beast was even more earth-shattering. In an instant, its eyes turned red, and its huge single horn also began to turn red like lava, which contained huge and terrifying energy fluctuations!

- Chapter 2946 -

Buzz! Buzz!

The huge One-Horned Beast turned lava-like red with rolling heat waves and made a humming sound like charging energy. Moreover, as time went by, the beast became redder and hotter!

Boom!

The beast pawed the ground with its four huge hooves, opened its jaws with a loud roar, and charged at Philip with its huge lava-red horn. At that moment, the single horn broke through the void like a comet collision with terrifying energy pressure. It was comparable to a full blow from a powerhouse of the seventh zone.

Philip's eyes darkened as terrifying energy fluctuations raged all over his body. He put his hands together, and a roaring fire chimera suddenly appeared behind him. The chimera soared into the air with a loud roar, and the entire canyon trembled violently. He pulled his arms back and gathered the surrounding energy in his fists.

More and more energy gathered in his fists before they finally turned into the heads of two dragons. This was also an attack with all of Philip's strength.

"Dragon Scale!" Philip roared angrily, jumped in the air, turned into a huge fire dragon, and soared into the sky!

The tremendous energy gathered in his fists that had turned into the heads of two flame dragons roared and blasted down from the sky with terrifying energy pressure. It seemed as if only Philip with his Dragon Scale Fists and the beast with the single lava-red horn remained in this world.

Rumble!

The fist smashed into the horn!

Bang!

An earth-shattering sound like a sonic boom resounded throughout the canyon. In an instant, gravel flew, cliffs crumbled, and the earth cracked. A huge ball of red light exploded between the two!

This ball of light enlarged and engulfed the whole canyon.

Boom!

A huge sound spread in all directions throughout the entire space in an instant!

The four groups in other areas of this space also heard the huge sound at this moment. Someone climbed to the top of the giant tree, looked into the distance, and saw a red ball of light rising in the air.

Samuel Woods stood with his hands behind his back on the top of the tree. His eyes were sharp, and the rules of swordsmanship flashed. Below him, Hugh Woods and the others worked together to kill a beast that looked like a goat.

“We need to hurry up!”

Samuel jumped down from the treetop and took seven or eight seconds before he landed. He glanced coldly at the beast lying in a pool of blood.

“Uncle Samuel, what is this place? Is it really a corner of the other shore?” Hugh stepped forward and asked worriedly.

Samuel nodded and said, “Yes, this is one corner of the three abandoned worlds of the other shore in our country, all of which were separated from the other shore by the combined efforts of our predecessors. The purpose is to study the rules and survival methods of the other shore and to develop some special talents so that we can deal with future challenges.”

Hugh’s face darkened as he asked, “Uncle Samuel, are you saying that we’ll fight the existence of the other shore in the near future?”

- Chapter 2947 -

Samuel was silent before he said, “It’s not impossible. The Heavenly Court has recently detected some instability in the stargate, and we have also found more signs of awakening in these creatures of the other shore that remain in the country, so we have to make advanced preparations.”

Having said that, Samuel tapped the electronic watch on his wrist and glanced at the map. They were on the west side.

“Let’s go. We don’t have many opportunities left,” Samuel said.

***

In the center of the storm, the cliffs and the ground were swept away, causing gravel to fly around. When the storm finally died away, the whole canyon no longer existed!

In the center of the storm, there was a huge deep pit hundreds of meters in size. In the center of the pit, the single horn on the One-Horned Beast had shattered and the beast had fallen to the ground while covered in blood, howling miserably. The four huge chains were also broken.

Philip was not in great shape either. He was fortunate enough to have withstood the storm. After he landed, he glanced at the beast howling in the pit, turned around, and ran to the exit.

The entire canyon had collapsed. Fennel and the others had gone several miles away. They stood on the branches of the towering giant tree and waited for Philip.

“He’s here!” Lord Ludo shouted and rushed over immediately.

She looked very worried and asked nervously, “Philip, are you hurt?!”

Philip shook his head, landed on the branch of the giant tree, and said with a smile, “I’m fine. Let’s go!”

Fennel and the others nodded and continued to move forward along a route shown on the map.

This place was a dense forest formed by towering giant trees. They were 100 meters tall, so tall that no one could see the top. A human jumping through these giant trees looked just like a squirrel.

Was this what a corner of the other shore looked like?

10 minutes later, Philip and the others were still walking through the giant forest. They finally found a lake and decided to stop for a break.

“What kind of place is the other shore exactly? Even the trees are hundreds of meters high, and the beasts are so powerful. If they really invade our civilization, What can we do to resist?” Moses asked worriedly.

Philip and the others sat on the rocks and glanced around. Philip said, “I don’t know, but now that we know more about the rules and existence of the other shore, it’ll be beneficial to how we can resist their invasion in the future.”

Philip was right, but everyone was still filled with uncertainty. That was because they were imagining what the other shore was like, everything in front of them went beyond their cognition.

Was it a world filled with wilderness and exotic beasts? Or a highly civilized existence?

Everything was unknown. Maybe only the ancient sages who separated and moved the fragment of the other shore would know it.

Suddenly, the ground shook violently and caught everyone's attention. It felt like thousands of beasts were galloping on the ground.

Everyone jumped on the tree trunks!

After a while, hordes of beasts passed under them and knocked down countless giant trees. These extraterrestrial beasts seemed to be running madly for their lives. Some beasts with the strength of the sixth zone among them either bit to death or knocked away the beasts blocking in front of them while they ran frantically.

Philip and the others kept jumping between the giant trees, and their expressions quickly became nervous. Something must have happened. Otherwise, these beasts would not be fleeing in a panic like this.

As they were puzzled over it, in the distance, a roar of a beast resounded throughout the space. Moreover, a powerful and terrifying aura spread.

"A king of the beasts is trying to breach the peak of the seventh zone!" Lord Ludo quickly judged and exclaimed!

- Chapter 2948 -

Hearing this, everyone was stunned.

A king of the beasts was trying to breach the peak of the seventh zone. This was simply too scary!

Such a powerful beast actually existed on this piece of land?

"Are you serious?" Philip asked with a frown.

This was not good news.

Lord Ludo quickly nodded and said, "That's right. We have records of this situation in the Heavenly Court database. Besides, look!"

While saying that, Lord Ludo took out the damaged diagnostic device, which had returned to normal by now. It must be the miasma in the canyon that had affected the normal operation of this device. At this moment, a red light constantly flashes on the screen in the middle of the device with the word 'Danger'. The result of the diagnostic device stated that a king of the beasts was trying to breach the peak of the seventh zone!

Hiss!

Everyone gasped.

A beast in the peak of the seventh zone was not something they could face at this time!

Lord Ludo said gravely, "According to the results of the diagnostic device, every time a king of the beasts tries to breach the realm, a radius of a hundred miles will be shrouded in its presence, which is why these beasts are trying to escape because the surrounding area has been marked by the king of the beasts as its territory. Moreover, the king of the beasts will be most aggressive during this time. Thus, no one will dare to approach easily... These are some records of the king of the beasts that I saw inside the Heavenly Court."

After Lord Ludo finished speaking, Philip and the others stared intently into the distance where giant trees were collapsing as if a huge beast was rampaging. Below them, different beasts ran or flew for their lives.

Philip glanced at the map of the electronic watch on his wrist and found that the area where the king of beasts was trying to breach the realm was right in the middle of the route they had chosen to reach the exit. In other words, if they wanted to reach the exit, they had to pass through the territory where the king of beasts was, and they could not go around. That was because the map had marked this area as surrounded by broken cliffs.

"What should we do now?" Fennel asked with a frown.

He had noticed the severity of this matter. Passing through the territory of a king of beasts at the peak of the seventh zone was tantamount to courting death.

Philip looked at Ludo gravely and asked, "Is there any other way?"

Lord Ludo looked at the diagnostic device in her hand, shook her head, and said, "No. There's little information about the king of beasts. They're hard to come by. I didn't expect to meet a king of beasts from the other shore here..."

"In that case, we can only force our way through," Philip raised his eyebrows and looked into the distance.

After that, they gathered together, carefully looked at the electronic map, and analyzed the current situation. To pass through this area, they had to pass the stone bridge connecting the two cliffs. That was why Philip and the others had no other choice.

The stone bridge lay right behind the area belonging to the king of beasts. They could only reach the stone bridge after passing through the area where the beast was.

- Chapter 2949 -

"Let's go and take a look first," Philip got up and said.

The others immediately followed and ran all the way.

The closer they got to the area where the king of beasts was, the more Philip and the others could feel the supreme pressure and terrifying power of rules that permeated the air. The pressure was like a strong gust of wind that hurt people's cheeks. More terrifyingly, the closer they got, the slower they became because there seemed to be a huge repelling force that prevented all creatures from approaching. It came from the center of the area where the beast was located.

The biting intent in the air made Philip and the others uneasy. A large piece of scorched earth lay before them. The surrounding giant trees had collapsed into ruins, and the ground was cracked as if an earth-shattering battle had just happened here.

"Did the king of beasts do this? This is too scary. This destructive power is comparable to a nuclear bomb!" Moses said in horror.

He was unable to calm down at the sight in front of him.

It was a huge pit the size of a small town, all scorched earth. Dozens of miles around were burnt black. In the middle of this deep pit, a huge winged beast shaped like a pterosaur sprawled. This beast was very huge. Its pair of wings alone was the size of a soccer field!

Its huge head, sharp beak, and huge fleshy horn on the top of its head glowed brightly with three colors like a luminous gem.

At this moment, the beast was panting as if it had just experienced a great battle. It lay in the deep pit and whimpered constantly, exuding a very unstable pressure. This pressure was the reason other beasts were fleeing for their lives!

Screech...

The beast howled as if in great pain. Its huge eyes noticed Philip and the others who had invaded its territory. It flapped its wings and blew up a hurricane. This hurricane destroyed the nearby giant trees and sent gravel flying!

Philip and the others took on a defensive posture. However, after a few movements, the beast slid down again as if exhausted.

"What's going on?" Fennel asked.

Lord Ludo took out the device and pointed it at the beast to collect and analyze its data.

“This is a Winged Dragon, an adult extraterrestrial beast in the mid-stage of the seventh zone. It failed in its attempt to reach the peak of the seventh zone and is now gathering its strength in preparation for the next attempt.” Lord Ludo explained and became nervous.

Philip frowned, stared at the beast, and said, “Let’s take advantage of this opportunity to force our way through!”

Several people looked at each other and set off immediately. Faced with the shocking pressure radiating from the winged dragon, they rushed to the rear!

Screech!

Seeing several uninvited guests breaking into its territory, the dragon was very angry. It wanted to flap its wings, but it had consumed too much energy just now. Thus, it could only screech to vent its anger!

Philip and the others circled the edge of this huge deep pit and ran several hundred meters forward.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, a huge gust of wind swept in front of them!

“Watch out!” Lord Ludo exclaimed.

Philip frowned. The dragon had swung its thick long tail at them with a huge gust of wind and flying gravel. It was comparable to an attack at the early stage of the seventh zone!

Philip dodged, put his hands together, and smacked out!

Rumble!

The ground collapsed and a thick stone wall rose from the ground in front of Philip and the others. They also jumped back dozens of meters!

Boom!

The huge tail of the dragon smashed through the huge stone wall and sent the shattered stones toward Philip and the others. Fortunately, Philip and the others had retreated to a safe area.

Huff!

Everyone gasped.

“What now? It refuses to let us go over,” Moses asked anxiously.

Suddenly, the dragon flapped its huge wings and flew into the air, bringing winds like a sandstorm with it. It roared several times as if declaring its claim over its territory!

- Chapter 2950 -

Everyone looked up at the huge dragon in the sky. It circled up high in the air with a huge gust of wind and screeched at Philip and the others on the ground with huge energy pressure. At that moment, that energy pressure was like a mountain that weighed tens of millions of tons, pressing down on everyone’s heads!

Philip frowned and had no choice but to unleash his kingship energy field to shield Fennel and the others. The kingship energy field withstood the pressure from the sky. However, he was only in the early stage of the seventh zone. Besides, he had just advanced to this stage and his strength was still unstable. Faced with a king of beasts that was about to breach the peak of the seventh zone, his odds of winning were very low.

Screech!

The dragon opened its huge beak and spewed strong winds from its mouth. The winds contained wind blades that smashed all the giant trees around to bits!

The sky was full of strong winds with terrifying energy pressure that swept over Philip and the others!

Philip met the attack and unleashed the absolute barrier of the kingship energy field!

Whoosh!

The winds scraped on the absolute barrier of the kingship energy field with a loud whirring sound that tortured the eardrums of everyone inside. What was even more scary was that the winds splintered some cracks in the barrier!

“If this goes on, we definitely can’t beat this beast!” Fennel made a judgment immediately and got ready to fight.

Philip raised his eyes, looked at the stone bridge in the distance, and shouted, “You guys leave first. I’ll break the pursuit!”

“No, absolutely not! This is a king of beasts with the strength of the middle stage of the seventh zone! There’s no way you can beat it now!”

Lord Ludo immediately grabbed Philip’s arm and shook her head desperately.

Philip frowned and glanced at Fennel. With a violent slap, he shoved Lord Ludo and the others out of his kingship energy field!

At that moment, Lord Ludo’s eyes widened as she stretched out her hand, trying to grab hold of Philip with all her might. She shouted, “Philip!”

Philip turned around and glared at the dragon in the sky. An energy vortex appeared around him, and the soles of his feet swirled with red flames.

Boom!

Philip soared into the air like a man on fire and punched the dragon in the sky. On Fennel’s side, he led everyone and ran in the direction of the stone bridge.

In the sky, the dragon looked down and saw Philip jumping into the sky like a burning man. It also saw Fennel and the others who wanted to take the opportunity to escape. It screeched angrily and flapped its huge wings, wanting to dive down!

“Your opponent is me!” An angry shout!

Philip’s body raged with energy pressure as his flaming fist punched the dragon in the sky.

Boom!

This punch contained Philip’s killing intent. It turned into a huge flaming fist and slammed into the dragon!

The dragon screeched angrily and flapped strong winds with its wings at Philip!

Poof!

The wind collided with the flaming fist, and an earth-shattering power exploded. The flaming fist was blown away by the wind and filled the air with flames, making the sky burn red!

- Chapter 2951 -

The dragon was shocked by the flames that filled the sky and flew hundreds of meters away. It screeched at Philip who was covered in red energy.

It roared at the sky, and an extremely bright energy fluctuation suddenly exploded from its body. The fleshy horn on its head that glowed with several colors also shone brightly. Then, it spread its wings as green lines slowly appeared from the tips. These lines continued to extend to its wings and grew brighter and brighter!

Finally, the beast waved its wings violently. Its huge wings burst with dazzling green luster. Like a burst of green lightning, its huge wings blasted at Philip. The green lightning that distorted the sky contained tremendous energy pressure that could destroy everything.

Philip frowned. At that moment, he felt an unprecedented sense of crisis!

In his line of sight, the densely packed green lightning seemed to tear the void apart, about to bombard him. The power was astounding!

At the back, Fennel and the others were also horrified by the huge pressure of the sky at this moment. When they looked back, they saw the dragon blasting this shocking green lightning with its wings, engulfing the entire sky with it.

“Philip!” Lord Ludo widened her eyes and wanted to run back.

Fennel grabbed her and ran toward the stone bridge. On this side, Philip faced the terrifying attack and spread his arms open. A fire chimera engulfed his body. The surface of the fire chimera was quickly covered with a layer of gold metallic armor. Then, Philip met the attack head-on!

From a distance, a fire chimera clad in gold metallic armor stepped on the void with flaming hooves, opened its jaws, and charged toward the green lightning that raged in the sky!

Boom!

The sky trembled with a loud explosion. A green and red energy vortex storm exploded. Just like a nuclear explosion, a huge ball of light in green and red was formed!

In the center of this energy storm, terrifying energy fluctuations swept across the entire area.

Whoosh!

The shockwave formed by the energy storm spread and destroyed all the giant trees in a radius of dozens of miles, rendering everything to rubble. An area of vacuum even appeared in the sky!

Fennel and the others felt this extremely terrifying energy storm immediately. The huge storm and flying gravel swept over them! Fennel unleashed his red kingship energy field to withstand the huge energy storm.

This scene was like a nuclear explosion!

After everything died down, the sky returned to clarity, and the clouds in the sky were blasted out of the circular vacuum area. On the ground, a range of dozens of miles around was reduced into wasteland.

Fennel's red kingship barrier had protected everyone.

Screech!

The high-pitched roar resounded throughout the world!

The dragon flapped its wings angrily and stared daggers at the human in front of it.

At this moment, the fire chimera on Philip's body had almost disintegrated. It was covered in blood, and its skin was cracked. Philip raised his hand and wiped the blood spilling from the corner of his mouth. His red eyes turned into angry flames as he stared at the dragon flapping its wings in the distance. He sneered and said, "Beast, you're no good!"

His remark completely angered the dragon!

"Damn human! How dare you mock me , the great king of beasts? I'm going to kill you!"

- Chapter 2952 -

The winged dragon fell into a state of rampage and continuously blasted strong gusts of wind at Philip. Although Philip was injured, he could still face this attack. He dodged left and right while he countered the attack.

Several rounds later, the winged dragon roared, "Insect, stop running away and let me kill you!"

Philip snorted coldly and said, "It seems that your strength is currently fluctuating between the peak of the sixth zone and the early stage of the seventh zone. I'm afraid it won't be that easy for you to kill me."

The horn on top of the winged dragon's head glowed as it roared. "If I didn't suffer any damage to my strength when I tried to reach the peak of the seventh zone just now, I'd have crushed a lowly little bug like you to death!"

Philip was indifferent as he formed a longsword made of air in his hand. He pointed the sword at the winged dragon and said, "I don't want to fight you. I just want to pass by."

The winged dragon roared. "Puny humans don't have the right to negotiate with me! If not for ants like you from the Land of Cage, I wouldn't be trapped here for thousands of years!"

A roar resounded all around. The winged dragon flapped its wings and dove down!

Philip frowned, raised his hand, and slashed away with the longsword in his hand.

Bang!

A huge sword light struck the body of the approaching winged dragon.

Roar!

The winged dragon screamed as a wound was cut on its wing and blood sprayed. At the same time, its wing sent Philip flying!

Boom!

The huge force slammed on Philip and knocked him from the air to the ground.

Bang!

Philip fell and blasted a huge pit in the ground. In the sky, the winged dragon also fell to the ground as blood gushed from its wing.

"Damn bug! How dare you hurt me? I'll eat you!"

The winged dragon roared, ran on the ground, opened its jaws, and was about to swallow Philip!

Philip jumped into the air and kicked the winged dragon on the head!

Bam!

The winged dragon's head was kicked, and its huge body staggered while Philip used the momentum to retreat hundreds of meters back!

Screech!

The winged dragon was furious and screamed to the sky. The horn on top of its head glowed again, and green lines appeared on its wings once more. However, in the next second, the horn on its head seemed to have lost its power and luster. The green lines on its wings disappeared.

Philip wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and said coldly, "Your condition is very unstable. Do you still want to fight?"

The winged dragon lay on the ground again, looking very tired. It whimpered and said, "I'm going to eat you!"

Philip walked up to the winged dragon and asked, "I want to know who separated you from the land of the other shore back then."

At the mention of this, the winged dragon seemed to have thought of something very terrifying and actually began to tremble. Then, it wailed and roared, "You have no right to ask me! After I break through to the peak, I'll break free from this place and massacre your Land of Cage!"

At this time, Philip suddenly felt a burst of heat on his arm. His clothes were tattered, and his arms were charred. Now, a golden mark appeared on Philip's arm.

At that moment, the winged dragon trembled violently and stared at Philip's arm while trembling from the depths of its soul. It said, "R-Royalty..."

Philip raised his arm, glanced at the golden mark, and asked, "Do you recognize this?"

- Chapter 2953 -

The winged dragon had lost all arrogance from before. With eyes filled with fear and doubt, it stared at Philip and mumbled, "Why do you have the imprint of my royal family from the other shore? Who are you?! No! You're obviously human! Why?! Why do you have the mark of the royal family?!"

Seeing the winged dragon's state at this moment, Philip frowned and squatted. He raised his arm and wanted to stroke its head.

The winged dragon was very frightened and trembled violently. The mark on Philip's arm grew brighter!

"Why are you so afraid of this mark?" Philip asked.

The winged dragon said in fear, "This is the mark of the White Marsh royal family on the other shore. They're a supreme existence. They're one of the nine emperors on the other shore! They're the supreme beings, a glorious existence. They're the powerhouses who paved the way for the other shore! Damnable human, you must have stolen something from the royal family to have this mark!”

Philip scowled. He suddenly stroked his chin and said, “Since you’re so afraid of this mark, does it mean that you’ll have to listen to what I say now? Otherwise, it’d be a betrayal to your royal family.”

The winged dragon was instantly dumbfounded and finally squeezed a sentence out, “G-Go to hell!”

The winged dragon was furious but fearful too! This human was too scary!

It could not resist the pressure from this mark. The higher the exotic creature, the more they could not resist it. That was because the reverence came from the soul. It was the pressure of royalty.

It was irresistible!

Philip smiled with narrowed eyes and said, “Behave. With the mark of the royal family, I now order you to tell me who brought you from the other shore back then.”

After speaking, the mark on Philip’s arm flashed for a moment. The winged dragon trembled, obediently lowered its head, and said, “T-There are three of them. They were very powerful and made a big commotion on the other shore. Later, they were hunted down and killed by the combined forces of the royal families...”

“Who are the three?” Philip asked.

The winged dragon shook its head desperately and said, “I don’t know. I was very young at that time. I only remember that one of them was riding a green ox, and that green ox was the young master of the Green Ox royal family called Seymour.”

‘Seymour?’

Why did that seem similar to the green ox that belonged to that sage?

Philip asked, “Do you know the so-called secret treasure of the ancient sage here?”

The winged dragon said, “Of course! It’s something left behind by that old man riding on the green ox! But I don’t dare to approach it. The power of that thing is too shocking. It’s born to restrain me and other exotic beasts!”

After learning what he could, Philip got up, glanced at the winged dragon, and said, “I’ll see you again.”

After that, Philip turned around and left without any delay. The winged dragon was sprawled on the ground. It stared at Philip's departing back and said bitterly, "I vow to kill you!"

Philip came to the stone bridge.

It was at the edge of a cliff with another cliff on the opposite side. There was a bottomless moat in the middle that was about several thousand meters long with white mist floating on top. This stone bridge was like a link that had formed naturally.

"Are you alright?" Lord Ludo asked anxiously.

Philip smiled lightly and said, "I'm fine. Let's go."

After that, they set foot on this stone bridge. It felt as if they were standing at an altitude of tens of thousands of meters high as they walked on the stone bridge across the moat.

Roar!

Suddenly, a low roar came from the moat below the stone bridge. Amid the white mist, there seemed to be black shadows moving slowly.

- Chapter 2954 -

"Is there something below us?" 17 asked as she stuck her head out curiously and peered down.

Thick mist billowed on top of the moat below, and there seemed to be huge beasts traversing in the mist. No, to be precise, they seemed to be suspended in the mist. There were also bursts of low roars from time to time.

Lord Ludo took out the diagnostic device, collected data samples from the bottom of the moat for analysis, and said, "The device can't seem to collect the data. I think it's because of the mist."

The others nodded and continued to walk forward.

On the way, Fennel asked, "How did you escape from the winged dragon?"

Philip pointed to his arm and said, "With this..."

Fennel was startled and saw the golden mark on Philip's arm. It was that royal monster.

Lord Ludo also saw the mark on Philip's arm at this moment and said in shock, "This is the mark of the exotic beast royal family. Why do you have this?"

Philip smiled and said, "Maybe because I'm too handsome."

Hearing this, Lord Ludo rolled her eyes and said, "How shameless!"

As they walked along the stone bridge, they gradually saw the actual appearance of the cliff on the opposite side. To their surprise, they saw two huge human figures carved on both sides of this cliff!

They were gigantic, with only their upper bodies visible while their abdomen and below were shrouded in the dense mist. Moreover, these two figures carved on the cliffs looked proud and majestic with strange marks between their eyebrows and dense lines on their bodies!

"Why are there carved figures here?" Lord Ludo and the others frowned.

Philip looked at the two figures thoughtfully.

"It should be some kind of idol for worship. Maybe they were left by our predecessors on the other shore," Philip said.

They nodded and quickly passed the stone bridge.

After they reached the land, the blue figure suddenly appeared on the electronic watch on their wrists and said, "Congratulations for crossing Sky Moat. Next, you'll face... Face..."

Suddenly, the blue figure flashed intermittently. The space also became unstable and started to shake!

"What's wrong?" Fennel asked gravely.

Philip quickly pressed the electronic watch, but there was no response. In the end, the blue projection disappeared along with the watches on their wrists!

This space suddenly began to show signs of collapse!

"Run!" Philip immediately judged the situation and hurried forward!

Everyone immediately understood and ran forward. From a high altitude, it could be seen that the signs of crumbling started from the edge where Philip and the others entered and were extending to the deepest part!

***

On Samuel Woods' side, the electronic watches on their wrists also disappeared.

Samuel said solemnly, "Oh no! This is the effect of the crack in the passage. Creatures from the other shore are trying to break the passage and set foot in the outside world! Let's go!"

With that said, these people quickly ran to the exit. Exotic beasts started fleeing in the alternate space!

- Chapter 2955 -

Like a torrent, the beasts rushed to the moat and fell one after another while screaming. A small number of them passed the stone bridge and continued to run. The ground began to shake violently!

At this moment, outside Mystic Cave, heavily armed troops stood on guard. Claus Motley and Windsor Well led their respective subordinates and controlled the order outside. One after another, transport planes approached in the distant sky. On land, armored vehicles that crossed the snow-capped mountains, the canyons, and the rivers also arrived quickly!

All the forces from all directions gathered in Mystic City. Mystic City was on high alert!

"Dragon King Motley, the combat forces of Cochly Mountain have arrived!"

"Dragon King Motley, the Imperial Preceptor has orders to protect the safety of the country at all costs and to stop those creatures in the Mystic Cave!"

One by one, his subordinates rushed in with reports.

Claus' face darkened as he nodded. He turned to look at the entrance of Mystic Cave and asked, "How long do we have?"

Beside him, a data monitoring officer quickly replied, "Lord Dragon King, the spatial structure inside Mystic Cave is very unstable, and the space in the fourth level challenge ground has already shown signs of collapse. I'm afraid..."

Claus' face darkened and said, "Wait a while longer!"

At this moment, Windsor said coldly, "Claus Motley, what are you waiting for? If those things escape from the passage, Mystic City and the entire world will be in chaos! Mystic Cave must be sealed as soon as possible!"

"No! Wait a while longer!" Claus said firmly.

Windsor was furious and shouted, "The Imperial Preceptor has given the order! At all costs! This is insubordination!"

Claus turned around, stared at Windsor coldly, and said angrily, "It's not time yet! Give me another half an hour!"

Boom!

At that moment, a monstrous aura exploded from Claus, which made Windsor step back in shock. The latter said in surprise, "Y-You've actually reached that realm."

Claus snorted coldly and said to the people behind him, "Everyone, listen. Stand by and don't cross the line!"

"Yes!"

Tens of thousands of soldiers led by Aaron Dole shouted at this moment.

Seeing this, Windsor said angrily, "Claus Motley, you'll become the greatest sinner of all time! I'll talk to the Imperial Preceptor now!"

After saying that, Windsor turned around and was about to leave!

However, Claus said, "Stop Dragon King Well!"

Clatter!

A troop of soldiers armed with machine guns blocked Windsor's path.

"Claus, what are you doing?!" Windsor was furious as he turned around and roared.

Claus said, "Dragon King Well, I only need half an hour. After that, I'll let you leave. At that time, no matter what you do, I won't stop you! Now, I only need this half an hour. If anything happens, I'll bear all the consequences!"

"Can you afford to hear them? For the sake of those people inside, you're putting the fate of all mankind at stake!" Windsor said angrily.

Claus ignored him, stared intently at Mystic Cave, and said in his heart, 'Philip, I can only buy you half an hour!'

At this moment, on Philip's side, they kept running toward the exit. Along the way, many exotic creatures were running for their lives. Small fights also broke out but nothing major happened.

10 minutes later, they reached the exit. Coincidentally, Samuel's gang and another group arrived at the same time. Without any hesitation, the three groups looked at the exit and ran. After passing through the exit, the world in front of Philip's eyes changed drastically!

It was a hazy black space in front of them and shattered ground under their feet. They were suspended in the air. All around, there was shattered ground and flying meteorites. More terrifyingly, the meteorites were shackled in chains. A towering altar stood in front of them with a white jade-colored object at the top.

The secret treasure of the ancient sage!

- Chapter 2956 -

Boom!

Almost immediately, everyone rushed at it. They also came to blows!

Roar!

A huge bear appeared behind a person from one group, which walked upright, spread its arms, and slapped out at Samuel and his people!

Swish!

The black bear's paw made a few sharp scratches in the void that contained a fierce and terrifying aura.

Hugh snorted coldly and shouted, "Trash! How dare you attack me?!"

After speaking, he punched out with huge energy pressure!

Rumble!

The gigantic black bear was blasted out by that punch, slammed into a piece of shattered ground, and sent gravel flying. On the other hand, Samuel ran straight to the towering altar without a care in the world. However, the leader of the other group, who wore a wide black robe with his face covered, struck Samuel with a palm. This palm carried an astonishing power. The peak combat strength of the seventh zone!

Samuel raised his eyebrows, turned sideways to avoid the attack, and punched out at the same time.

Boom!

Two fists collided and a dazzling energy storm filled with pressure exploded. Terrifying energy fluctuations spread to the surroundings and caused the nearby meteorites that were suspended and linked by chains to shake and clatter!

Swoosh!

The masked man raised his hand and grabbed the two nearest meteorites. A huge suction force came from his palms as he pulled two meteorites roughly the size of a human over. Then, he sent the two meteorites flying at Samuel, who was about to set foot on the white jade steps.

Samuel frowned, jumped up to avoid, and kicked the two meteorites to pieces at the same time.

Then, he said angrily, "Friend, why are you stopping me?"

The masked man with gloomy eyes said in a low beast-like voice, "I'm just doing what I can."

After that, he charged forward and fought with Samuel again.

A terrifying energy storm erupted between the two. Seeing this, Philip and the others rushed over immediately!

"Stop them!" Hugh immediately shouted angrily, and the men behind him also quickly attacked Philip and his gang. At the same time, the other group also attacked Philip and his gang.

In an instant, a violent melee broke out!

The three groups fought fiercely under the ancient sage's secret treasure.

Buzz!

A loud shrill came from behind!

Philip frowned and turned around. Behind him, he saw someone with a hand that had turned into a white blade trying to stab him at the back of his heart!

Hugh sneered and shouted, "Go to hell!"

Philip frowned and quickly backed away. At the same time, he raised his fist and threw a punch!

Boom!

The fist and blade collided, and a terrifying wave exploded. The two broke apart after one hit!

Hugh stared at Philip with a menacing smile and said, "You have some skills, but you're still no match for me."

Philip laughed and said, "Do you really think you can beat me?"

Hugh unhurriedly took out a small bottle of blue liquid from his pocket and drank it before saying, "I can beat you now!"

- Chapter 2957 -

Terrifying energy fluctuations suddenly exploded from Hugh's body as black energy surged, which quickly wrapped around his body before penetrating inside. In an instant, Hugh's eyes turned black, and black lines appeared on his neck like the mark of the devil. At the same time, he roared, and a black figure seven or eight meters tall suddenly appeared behind him.

This burly figure had two horns on its head. It was clad in heavy armor and looked like the devil himself. Fearsome energy surged all over it!

Watching from a distance, Lord Ludo saw this change in Hugh and shouted, "Philip, watch out! It's a drug-induced monster!"

'A drug-induced monster?' Philip frowned.

Suddenly, a surge of energy pressure approached him!

Hugh punched out, and the huge shadow behind him did the same. Its whole body surged with black devilish energy accompanied by low roars.

Philip quickly dodged and threw a punch that transformed into a fire chimera.

Boom!

Two fists collided with an explosion that swept in all directions!

"The strength of the seventh zone!" Philip frowned.

He did not expect Hugh to reach the strength of the seventh zone with just one drug. As Philip was still stunned, Hugh rushed forward. The shadow behind him also turned into terrifying devilish energy that raged.

Roar!

The shadow roared, and the black surging energy turned into a huge sword that slashed down at Philip.

“Go to hell!” Hugh roared.

Seeing this, Philip formed a circle with his hands in front of his chest. A white lightsaber solidified from the air suddenly appeared in front of him. The lightsaber buzzed and spun quickly!

“Kill!” Philip was full of fighting intent and roared angrily.

He slammed his hands together and slashed at the shadow brandishing the sword!

Buzz!

More than a dozen lightsabers suddenly stabbed at the shadow and penetrated through its body, severing the chains of several meteorites behind Hugh. However, the devil’s sword attack continued unabated, and the shadow was not affected in the least.

Philip frowned, and the devil’s sword had already reached him before he could react.

Boom!

The piece of shattered ground where Philip stood was blasted by the devil’s sword into ruins. Amidst the rubble, Philip was also sent flying by the power of the devil’s sword.

Lord Ludo was very anxious and wanted to rush over. However, 17 grabbed her and said, “You’ll only get the young patriarch into trouble if you go over now!”

“Hahaha!” With a loud laugh, Hugh stared at the ruins and urged the shadow behind him to chase after Philip as he flew out!

Philip slashed out with his lightsaber and threw several punches at the shadow. However, that shadow seemed invincible and suffered no damage from Philip’s attacks at all!

“Hugh is the main body. You can only defeat the shadow by hitting him!”

Lord Ludo hesitated for a long time before shouting.

Hearing that, Hugh turned his head sideways, his eyes burning with anger. He shouted, “Layla Nolan, you’re betraying the Heavenly Court!”

With that said, the shadow behind him slashed out at Layla and the others. This slash surged with extremely powerful devilish energy!

17 stepped forward and unleashed her energy to resist this blow.

However...

Boom!

17 was sent flying by that slash, spat several mouthfuls of blood, and rolled to the ground. In a flash, Hugh already stood in front of Layla. He raised his hand, grabbed Layla's delicate neck, and shouted, "Traitor, die!"

- Chapter 2958 -

Layla was strangled by Hugh and lifted off the ground. She found it difficult to breathe and kept slapping Hugh's arms desperately. Hugh smiled menacingly, and his arms were covered with black lines. With a vehement look on his face, he exerted force in his hands.

Bang!

Suddenly, a chimera fist slammed into Hugh's face and sent him and the huge shadow flying hundreds of meters away before crashing into a piece of shattered ground!

Philip caught Layla as she fell and asked with concern, "Are you alright?"

Layla coughed a few times, shook her head, and said, "I'm fine."

Philip let go of Layla and glanced at 17, who had been sent flying away. He raised his hand, his arm turning into a flaming chimera arm that pulled 17 out of the ruins.

"Help me take care of her," Philip said to Layla.

Then, he got up. His eyes had turned red, and a red flaming aura burst from his body. This flaming aura suddenly raged and intensified. In an instant, a humanoid fire chimera appeared behind Philip.

That was right!

A drastic change had happened to the form of the fire chimera. It was no longer a beast form but a human form. It was huge with a chimera head, a human body, and a tail. This human-shaped fire chimera with scorching flames all over its body roared at the shadow and spewed flames!

Philip threw a punch!

Boom!

Philip's punch contained extremely strong pressure as if to destroy the world. The human-shaped fire chimera behind him also punched out at the shadow with scorching flames like a comet hitting the earth.

Boom!

The flaming fist collided with the devil's fist and a violent energy storm exploded!

Boom!

An earth-shattering sonic boom with the two fists as the center exploded into a ball of red and black light, which quickly rippled outward and illuminated the surroundings. The seven or eight meters tall humanoid fire chimera fought with the shadow in an instant. The two attacked each other with brute force and punches in the air.

On the ground, Philip was also locked in a fierce battle with Hugh. Longswords and fists were everywhere. This shocking battle shattered the energy rules in the entire space.

On the other side, Samuel Woods was also fighting with the masked man. Fortunately, they were quite far away, and the fluctuations of their battle did not reach this area. Otherwise, the battle storm between Samuel and the masked man would be enough to engulf this place,

"Damn it! Who are you?" As the fight went on, Samuel asked angrily.

" , you don't need to know that. Today, the secret treasure of the ancient sage is mine!"

The masked man shouted in a low voice, and a huge chimpanzee appeared behind him, The chimpanzee roared to the sky like King Kong and punched Samuel angrily,

Samuel was forced to retreat but also fought back from time to time.

As everyone was locked in a fierce battle, the secret treasure with white jade luster on the towering altar suddenly glowed with a soft white light. This white light quickly calmed the battlefield!

- Chapter 2959 -

The raging energy pressure that surged on everyone disappeared at this moment.

Everyone was startled and looked at the altar.

"The secret treasure of the ancient sage is so powerful! Get hold of it!" Samuel roared angrily, and the people of the Heavenly Court quickly rushed to the altar!

Not to be outdone, the other group also rushed for it frantically.

“Let’s go!” Fennel said.

Philip stopped Fennel and said with a frown, “Wait, I can’t help the feeling that something’s wrong!”

They were taken aback and watched from a distance as the others fought on the steps leading to the altar. The secret treasure of the ancient sage radiated a soft white light again. In an instant, those people fighting on the steps were sent flying. The energy and power of rules in their bodies were reduced to zero.

“What?”

Everyone was stunned and looked at each other in bewilderment. At this moment, they were like ordinary people without any energy and power of rules in their bodies!

Philip frowned and tested it with his hands. Indeed, there was no energy fluctuation.

“The secret treasure of the ancient sage can actually block our power.”

Samuel stepped forward, looked at the secret treasure on the altar, and said with a frown.

The masked man snorted coldly and said, “Now, it’s up to our abilities!”

After that, the masked man rushed up the steps quickly. However, just after taking a few steps, the masked man began to struggle and sweat profusely. He was trembling all over!

“W-What the hell is going on? I can’t go up!” The masked man said in horror.

No matter how he tried, he could not take another step. He forced himself to take another step, but with a bang, a strange force blasted the masked man out. He rolled to the ground and spat a mouthful of blood, his face full of horror.

Samuel stepped forward and said with a sneer, “Friend, you’ll die if you force your way up.”

The masked man snorted coldly and stood up from the ground. He looked up at the ancient sage’s secret treasure on the altar and said, “Are we just going to look at the secret treasure with no way of taking it?”

Samuel’s face darkened, and he took out a white jade pendant from his pocket, which radiated with a soft glow that was of the same nature as that on the altar. He walked toward the altar with the jade pendant.

“Damn it! You actually have something passed down by the ancient sages!” the masked man shouted angrily.

Obviously, the item Samuel held was something handed down by this particular ancient sage, which radiated the same aura. The secret treasure on the altar could not stop it.

“What should we do? If Heavenly Court gets the secret treasure of the ancient sage, all our efforts will be in vain!” Fennel said anxiously.

Philip frowned and suddenly took out a black and gold token from his pocket.

Emperor Kai’s token!

The moment Philip took out this token, a vast and majestic aura exuded!

It was an aura of a king who looked down upon the people with pride. It radiated from the token and wrapped around Philip.

At that moment, everyone around could not help but want to worship Philip!

With the token, Philip walked up the steps.

The ancient sage’s secret treasure kept emitting white light and tried to resist Emperor Kai’s token. However, one was an ancient sage while the other was an emperor with great achievements. The karmic state of the two was at the same level. Thus, Philip could use the imperial power of Emperor Kai’s token to ignore the soft light emitted by the ancient sage’s secret treasure.

When Samuel saw Philip approaching, his eyes locked on the token as he said coldly, “Emperor Kai’s token?”

- Chapter 2960 -

How could Philip have Emperor Kai’s token? It was an invaluable treasure!

It was rumored that Emperor Kai left three tokens behind, but they had all disappeared. Now, Philip actually had one in his hand!

This was surreal!

Emperor Kai’s tokens were recorded on the internal database of Heavenly Court. According to legend, the material used to make the tokens came from outside this world. They were forged from a meteorite with an astounding magnetic field. This magnetic field could interfere with the rules of time and space, and even affect some of the power of rules of this world.

Samuel looked at the token in Philip's hand with a scowl and fell into deep contemplation!

It was true that the token was made of precious materials that could affect the rules of time and space. What was even more invaluable was the secret hidden behind this token. It was rumored that only the person with a token could enter Emperor Kai's palace and obtain his secret treasure and inheritance!

Seeing Philip walking up with the token, Samuel was startled and said with a sneer, "I didn't expect that one of the only three tokens left by Emperor Kai in this world would be in your hands, Young Patriarch Clarke..."

Philip frowned and learned some secrets that he was unaware of from Samuel's remark. He smiled and said, "You seem very interested in this token."

Samuel said, "Of course, and it's not just me. If people in the world know that you have Emperor Kai's token in your hand, they'll find fault with you. I'm afraid you won't be able to protect the secret behind this token on your own. Why don't you name a price and let me have it instead?"

The old fox finally revealed his true colors.

Philip smiled and said, "I'm sorry, but this token is not for sale."

With that said, Philip passed Samuel by and walked up.

Samuel walked next to Philip unhurriedly and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, Emperor Kai's token, involves too many secrets and forces. It's not something you or the Clarke family can handle. Only Heavenly Court can withstand the pressure of these forces in this world. In your hands, this token will only bring mishaps and misfortune. I believe you don't want anything to happen to the people around you, right?"

Hearing that, Philip frowned and stopped in his tracks. With a grim face, he looked at Samuel next to him. The other party kept a smile on, but his face was chilly.

"If a token can really cause a storm, I want to see just who it is that's interested in this."

After that, Philip stepped forward and stood on the altar. A trigram altar stood in front of him with a white jade box on top, which glowed with faint white light. This white jade box also looked very extraordinary, carrying a refreshing hint of coolness.

"This should be the secret treasure of the ancient sage. I didn't expect it to be left in this space."

Samuel looked at the people below and the surroundings. He said, "This should be an alternate space created by the ancient sage with his understanding of the rules of space."

Philip ignored Samuel and kept looking at the white jade box on the altar. There seemed to be a strange lifeform inside the box like a small bug. The bursts of soft white light were emitted by the life form in the white jade box.

Philip was about to touch it when Samuel stopped him and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, this is the secret treasure of the ancient sage. Do you think you can take it for yourself without paying any heed to Heavenly Court?"

Philip looked at Samuel coldly, took two steps back, made an inviting gesture, and said, "After you, then."

Samuel was taken aback and a little puzzled. He could not figure out Philip's purpose for doing this.

Was Philip afraid of Heavenly Court's power, so he decided to give up?

Without further ado, Samuel stepped forward and reached out to touch the white jade box.

However...

Zap!

Like an electric shock, Samuel was bounced off!

"What?!"
