

Harvey York's Rise to Power Chapter 3187

Chapter 3187

The champion calmly hooked his finger at Davian, taunting the latter.

His cold and confident attitude had everyone completely shocked.

The women who were huge fans of Davian started to look at the champion with infatuated gazes.

Davian, who looked like an inexperienced fighter, trembled as he clutched the sword in his hand. His murderous intent was blatantly apparent.

"Go ahead, Davian!"

The champion then took a step forward. Suddenly, a loud bang could be heard.

A spherical wave of air formed in the ring and blasted forward.

The judge was a pretty good fighter himself, but he was on the verge of passing out as soon as he got hit by the airwave.

Lydia and the others, who were acting high and mighty before, were all scared witless by what had just happened.

The color on their faces vanished completely.

They didn't think a true expert would be this terrifying.

Even Ezra couldn't help but narrow his eyes. He didn't expect the champion to hide his true strength so well.

If it weren't for the tournament, this man probably wouldn't show up in the first place.

While the crowd was still under the shock of the champion's show of strength, Davian remained calm as he stood in the ring. His hair and clothes were swaying from the wind, but the sword in his hand remained still. His entire body felt like an immovable boulder.

The champion's attempt at crushing Davian's confidence had failed.

"Hmph!"

The champion scoffed in annoyance. There was a twisted look on his face.

He then thrust his pike forward in an instant; the attack headed straight for Davian, as ferocious as a typhoon.

Davian narrowed his eyes and he instinctively raised his sword.

Clang!

Sparks flew in the air as both weapons clashed.

A violent aura was surrounding the champion, the sensation akin to a terrible storm crushing anything that came close to it.

The pressure alone would be enough to crush anyone going against it.

In fact, the pike he wielded had already shattered a lot of things that went past it.

Many believed that it could snap the ring in half if a hit landed.

The champion...!

This was the Law Enforcement's Champion!

What terrifying strength!

As expected from the man with that very title!

For Lydia and the others, there was no doubt a man like the champion would be able to crush Harvey.

"Yes!" the short-haired woman screamed.

Whoosh!

Davian deflected the attack with a calm look. The shine of his blade flashed in front of everyone's eyes.

The champion's fierce attitude vanished in an instant, replaced by a horrible expression. He froze.

Before he realized it, Davian's blade rested against his throat. If it went any further, his life would've been gone then and there.

Davian had won, even if he was showing the champion mercy.

He didn't die!

Everyone was dead silent at the sight.

They were completely shocked!

Several elders of Law Enforcement wiped their glasses and rubbed their eyes to make sure that they weren't seeing things.

Ezra, too, was surprised by what had happened.

He knew Davian was one of Joseph's subordinates, but he didn't think that Davian would be this terrifying.

What frightening strength!

Chapter 3188 It seemed this was the main event that had ended that evening.

Ezra took a deep breath. He then looked at Harvey with a profound gaze.

So far, everything was in order so far.

If Davian successfully killed Harvey and became the new head of Longmen's Law Enforcement, Ezra would be rewarded with ten million dollars. He would be able to enjoy his riches from abroad and stay out of Flutwell's disputes.

Ezra narrowed his eyes; he was patiently waiting for the moment Harvey would grow agitated and lose his temper from Lydia's constant provocation.

The judge stepped forward when Ezra gave him the cue. After the medical staff carried the champion away, he exclaimed, "Anyone else?!"

"If nobody else is challenging Davian..." "He will be the victor of this tournament!" "Even the person with the Law Enforcement Badge will not be acknowledged if they don't participate in the fight!"

"That's right!"

"That's how it should be!"

"Only the victor of the tournament should become the head of Law Enforcement!" 1

The people Ezra hired beforehand cheered in joy after hearing those words.

At the end of the day, the goal of that night's tournament

Was to publicly end Harvey's life and make way for Davian to rise to power.

Ezra, Lydia, and several elders from Longmen's Law Enforcement all shifted their gazes toward Harvey. Mockery was written all over their faces.

"Aren't you supposed to be impressive, Harvey?!"

"Get in there already!"

"Fight Davian already if you have the guts for it!"

"I'm sure a kept man like you is scared witless right now, aren't you?!"

Lydia couldn't help but provoke Harvey when she saw him remain in his seat.

Her mission was to agitate Harvey and drive him to his death, anyway.

"I won't force you if you're too scared to get in there!"

"Just kneel and announce that you're nothing but filth!"

"Say that you're a coward! Come on!"

"Leave the badge here and get the f*ck out of Flutwell!"

"You don't have to get in the ring if you do!"

"Flutwell doesn't need cowards like you here!"

Harvey paid no mind to Lydia's awful provocation. Instead, he smiled faintly.

"I can take Davian down with a single slap. Do you believe me?"

"Ha? Are you still showing off?!"

Lydia's face was filled with disdain.

"You'll kneel as soon as you see his blade! I just know it!"

"You're being a little too cocky, Harvey!"

"Even the woman you brought with you is no match against Davian!"

"If you're really as impressive as you say you are, then get in there already!" "If you get killed by him..."

"I promise I'll visit your grave every single year!"

Lydia's posse glared at Harvey, their faces filled with mockery.

Chapter 3189 "Why does it matter to you whether I take the position as the head of Law Enforcement or not? Why are you so agitated right now?"

A woman in neat clothing suddenly came forward and looked down at Harvey.

"You're Harvey, right?" "You're trying to reclaim your position as the head of Law Enforcement, aren't you?"

"Well, Vice Head Bauer told me to tell you something !"

"He said that you're no match against Davian!"

"And that you should leave right now!"

"And if Vice Head Bauer sees you, he'll kill you on the spot!"

"You hear that?! Vice Head Bauer's willing to let you off the hook right now despite everything you've done to him!"

"Are you still planning to send yourself to your death?!"

Harvey only smiled.

"Tell Vice Head Bauer that his provocation tactics are starting to lose their effect on me."

"Do you think someone like Davian can make me fight?"

"He's not even worthy." "Since every single one of you wants me in there so badly, I think I should head back to bed now."

"I'm getting a little tired after watching the show. No need to send me off. I'll walk on my own."

With that, Harvey then turned around and left.

If he wanted to, he could definitely end Davian's life with just a single slap...

But since everyone was so bent on making him join the fight, Harvey wanted to see how much he could agitate them if he didn't go by their script.

Lydia's expression changed in an instant after seeing Harvey turn around. If Harvey was still alive after that day, she would end up horribly!

Without hesitating, Lydia began to screech at the top of her lungs.

"Just say that you're scared, Harvey!"

"Why are you still showing off?!"

"Get in the damn ring if you're actually that impressive!" "Prove your strength to us!"

Lydia's followers were glaring at Harvey, each bearing disdainful looks. They wanted to see just how the ignorant fool would plunge into his own death. Harvey ignored them completely and calmly walked toward the door with his arms crossed.

"Damn it! That b*stard didn't take the bait!"

"Does he know that nobody can take his position away as long as he has the badge?!"

Ezra's face darkened in an instant when he saw Harvey walk away.

He instantly made a gesture to Davian, telling the latter that Harvey could not be left alive no matter what.

If not, they would all be in big trouble. "F*ck! Who's that guy? Is he from Longmen's Law Enforcement?"

"What a show-off! Didn't he see Davian taking down every single one of his opponents?"

"Even the champion was beaten with a single slash. And this guy has the gall to say that Davian wasn't worthy!"

"Does he think he's a God of War?!"

"How is he that cocky?!"

Everyone was gossiping up a storm at this very moment. They believed that Harvey was the biggest idiot in the entire world, and that he was stupid enough to say those things just to show off.

Rachel, on the other hand, was glaring at the crowd like they were a bunch of brainless morons.

If Harvey decided to fight Davian, the latter wouldn't be able to block a single slap! However, she didn't bother explaining that fact either. She quietly followed behind Harvey as he walked toward the door with him.

Just as Harvey was about to leave...

Davian, who was on the stage at that moment, appeared right in front of Harvey like a phantom, instantly blocking Harvey's path.

The crowd gasped. Was Davian about to kill Harvey?

Davian's eyes were frosty as he sized up Harvey.

"Harvey, right?"

Chapter 3190 "I didn't think you'd be too chicken to get in the ring."

"Oh? Do I look like a person who's too scared to fight you?" Harvey replied with a lazy tone.

"I've heard about you. You relied on the Nanyang God of War, Dean Cobb, to injure the previous head of Law Enforcement before showing up. You even crippled him!"

"And now, you're clinging to Kayden and that woman with you to show off!"

"I have to admit..."

I

"You're pretty cunning. You have the talent. You're pretty shameless, too."

"You tried to look for an excuse to leave because you know you're no match against me."

"But it's a shame! You went against someone that you never should've gone against in the first place."

"The thirteenth young master gave me the order to end your life right right here, right now!"

A cold and disdainful look could be seen on Davian's face.

"But since you're so shameless, I'll let you off the hook if you beg for mercy and hand over the Law Enforcement Badge."

"I'll give you thirty seconds to think about it. Don't disappoint me."

Harvey only smiled. "Since you're quite well-known here, I won't lay a finger on you if you kneel."

"Ha? You want me to kneel?"

Davian's eyes were frosty; he was infuriated.

"What right do you even have to force me to kneel?!"

"Since you don't know what's best for you, I'll make you understand that your petty tricks mean nothing before a true expert!"

At that instant, Davian's sword flashed before everyone's eyes.

Like a flying meteor, the sword went straight for Harvey's throat.

Slap!

Harvey took a step forward and appeared right in front of Davian, his face devoid of any emotion.

Without warning, he swung his hand across Davian's face.

Since Davian wanted to challenge Harvey, Harvey had no choice but to give the former exactly what he wanted. "Spark Slash!"

Davian's sword trembled in his hand. After enduring that humiliation, he wanted to use all his might to end Harvey's life in one slash and take his rightful position.

But then...

He was suddenly sent flying with a single slap.

ILL

His swordsmanship meant nothing against Harvey's slap.

The top talent of Longmen's Law Enforcement...

His killer move...

His arrogance...

Everything crumbled in an instant!

When Davian slammed to the ground, his sword slipped out of his hand. A bright red palm print could be clearly seen on his face.

Before Davian could stand back up, Harvey took another step forward and slapped him in the face again.

Slap!

Davian screamed in pain as he was sent flying once more.

"You, provoke me?"

"You made such a big show!"

"You're an expert, aren't you?!"

"A peak King of Arms!"

"What happened to your killer move?"

"Looks like you don't know what's best for you, after all!"

Harvey kept on talking, slapping Dávia around without mercy all the while. 1

His slaps were simple, but they were enough to make Davian grunt in pain. Davian could only stumble back at that very moment.

Slap!

"You think you're worthy enough to take me down?"

"You think you can teach me a lesson?"

"You think you can make me kneel?"

"As a disciple of Longmen's Law Enforcement, not only are you not enforcing the damn law, but you're even running errands for some outsider!" "It's because of people like you that the organization is completely screwed up!"

"Ezra is nothing but filth, and so is Mitchell! You're no different!"

"Every single one of you is filth!"

"You're embarrassing the entire damn organization!". Blood was bleeding out of Davian's orifices; he was enraged.

He was the top talent of Longmen's Law Enforcement. He was so close to becoming a God of War...!

Yet, he was being slapped around and robbed of any strength to fight back. He was no different than a dead dog.

Forget dodging, his so-called killer move couldn't even go against Harvey's slaps!

This was utterly embarrassing!
