

"Mr. Chen, who's that?" Lei Lie looked at Chen Hao and asked.

"Beats me. It was a man. He is the one who sent this envelope and claimed that he wants to play a game with me. He must be mad!" Chen Hao replied angrily.

The situation is so urgent now, yet he wants to play a game with me! Chen Hao didn't want to pay much attention to it.

It made them feel restless as they thought the Fire Ghost King was still alive.

Chen Hao didn't have the intention to know the identity of this man either.

Listening to Chen Hao's reply, Lei Lie and the others stopped asking. They thought it might just be a prank.

However, things were not as simple as Chen Hao thought it would be.

Chen Hao went to buy something with Lei Lie the other day.

It had been a long time since they had taken a break. Hence, they were thinking of buying some ingredients to cook a fine meal for everyone.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie went to the supermarket and both of them came back with two huge bags of groceries.

Bang! Suddenly, a thundering sound could be heard from a distance out of a sudden.

A powerful collision overturned the whole area at once. Countless cars and shop windows were shattered by the explosion.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie were knocked down to the ground by the explosion, and all the things in their hands fell and scattered onto the ground.

A car not far away from them had blown up.

"Mr. Chen! That's our car!" Lei Lie immediately called out to Chen Hao when he looked at the car at the heart of the explosion after he came to.

Chen Hao quickly got up and walked over to have a look.

After taking a glance, it was indeed his car.

At this time, the car was totally ruined, the flames devouring it fiercely.

Soon, the rescue team from the military aircraft department and fire brigade rushed to the scene to check the car and put out the fire.

On the other hand, Chen Hao and Lei Lie were brought back to the military aircraft department again.

"We have looked into the matter. Your car has been installed with a kind of detonator. The firefighters found some debris at the scene. It seems that someone deliberately installed it in your car. It's a blessing that both of you were not in the car when it exploded and you were able to escape from death!" An inspector came in with the documents in his hand and looked at the both of them while explaining to them.

"Do you have any idea of the suspect who did this?" the inspector asked.

Chen Hao was stunned after listening to the question. He then replied, "I've no idea. It might just be a prank!"

Chen Hao and Lei Lie would never believe that it was a prank, let alone the supervisor.

However, Chen Hao didn't want the military aircraft department to interfere in this case. There was no doubt that this matter was related to the man who called them last time.

At this very moment, Chen Hao was about to explode with rage.

He never expected that he would be attacked by the man. If that was the case, Chen Hao would never let him go.

Not long after that, Chen Hao and Lei Lie left the military aircraft department after completing the investigation procedures and went back to their house in a cab.

Seeing that both of them had come back home safely, Zhen Ji breathed a sigh of relief.

Zhen Ji and Zhou Nuo were so worried and agonized as soon as they knew about the explosion of Chen Hao's car.

Ring! Just then, Chen Hao's phone rang.

Chen Hao knew at once that it was from that strange man.

Chen Hao picked up the phone instantly. "You b*stard! What do you think you're doing? I'll definitely kill you if I find you!" Chen Hao scolded madly at the man through the phone.

"Hehe, Mr. Chen, don't be angry. I was just playing a small prank on you. I thought you didn't believe in the game, right?" The man from the other side of the phone smiled as he replied to Chen Hao in an eerie voice.

*A small prank? It was a huge explosion! And this b*stard claims that it was just a small prank!* Chen Hao couldn't take it anymore.

"What the hell is your game?" Chen Hao questioned the man through the phone after calming himself down.

"Hehe! Mr. Chen, I know your ability and I admire that. Hence, you are the only candidate to play this game with me."

"Do you still remember the purple envelope I have given to you? There is a hexagram on it. Each edge of the hexagram refers to a different area respectively. An incident will happen in each area. It may involve a person or an object. It's up to you to figure it out. Oh yes, there is always victory and loss in a game. If you win the game, I'll tell you the location to rescue the hostage in that area. Of course, the hostage will be killed once you lose the game!" the man explained the rules of the game to Chen Hao.

"You b*stard! What if I say no?" Chen Hao yelled angrily.

"Hahaha! Mr. Chen, I believe that you have experienced the impact of the explosion. If you turn down my invitation, you won't know where the next explosion will be. And you are the one who has to take the blame for the death caused by the explosion as their blood is on your hands!" The man laughed boisterously and said after listening to Chen Hao's words.

"Alright, Mr. Chen, the ball is in your court. Someone will send a new envelope to you tomorrow morning. It's up to you if you want to join the game!" the strange man reminded Chen Hao and hung up right after that, not giving Chen Hao any chance to make a response.

Chen Hao tossed his mobile phone aside furiously.

"Chen Hao, what does he want to do, actually?" Lei Lie frowned while he asked.

"It seems that we have no choice but to join his game!" Chen Hao was helpless and had no choice but to compromise and play the game.

In addition, he had absolutely no idea about the identity of this strange man. Hence, Chen Hao could only find the clues according to what he said.

From the conversation just now, Chen Hao knew that the man must have abducted some people as his hostages. If Chen Hao refused to play the game, those hostages would be in danger for sure. In that case, Chen Hao would really become a sinner.

That night, Chen Hao didn't sleep at all. It was a wakeful night for him.

Early the next morning, Chen Hao went to the headquarters alone.

Upon reaching the entrance of the headquarters, he saw an envelope placed in front of the headquarter's door. It was the familiar purple envelope.

Immediately, he took the envelope and entered the headquarters to check what was inside.

There was a phrase written in the envelope—cascading down from heaven.

Chen Hao was puzzled while looking at the phrase. Is this the only clue that he gave? What does this phrase mean? What is he trying to tell me?

Then, Chen Hao switched on his laptop and searched for every piece of information related to the phrase.

Chapter 905 It's Not Over Yet

Still, he couldn't figure out the meaning behind it.

Beep! Just then, Chen Hao's notification ringtone sounded.

Chen Hao quickly took out his mobile phone. It was the news notification.
