Chapter 3323 Harvey York could not be bothered talking to the woman who cared only about money.

Harvey left the hospital and went to Flutwell Gymnasium by cab.

He was going to participate in the Longmen Summit. Comment by Hassanel Zachary Amaludin : Can this term be changed to Summit instead of Conference? Seems like a conference usually relates to academic discussions rather than martial arts competition. Just a thought. Comment by David Dobrik: Good idea yea let's change it 1

He was not interested in the event at all, but he had no reason to decline after being forced by Colton Torres.

Rachel Hardy already sent some documents to Harvey early in the morning.

Basic procedures of the Longmen Summit were written inside.

It was a simple procedure. The people from Longmen and its branches, the Bauer family, or martial artists were eligible to participate.

The qualifier would be held in all prefecture – level cities.

The first stage would have a hundred participants chosen to participate in the qualifier through a theory exam.

The second stage would have ten participants chosen from the qualifier.

The third stage would have one participant chosen to join the true Longmen Summit.

Not only would the winner become Longmen's top talent and gain an immense reputation, but they would also have the chance to become the next master of Longmen.

The said winner would have absolute supremacy over Country H's underworld . It would not be absurd to call the winner the king of the underworld.

That was why countless people were itching for the title.

Harvey took a look at the other documents. The sacred martial arts training grounds and ancient families would not be interested in the qualifiers. However, every prefecture-level city would at least have hundreds of people participating in it.

The numbers alone were already shocking regardless of how many people would get to the end.

After Harvey was done reading the documents, Rachel even prepared a list of martial arts information.

Harvey felt speechless after reading that.

Many people would never expect a theory exam would take place in the qualifiers.

Harvey's phone vibrated after he swiftly perused the list.

Colton's voice could be heard from the other side of the phone.

"Remember to take the test today, Harvey!

"I'll celebrate your victory in advance!

"Right. To prevent others from causing you trouble, I changed your information just a little bit.

"According to the roster, your name is also Harvey York, but you're not the head of Longmen's Law Enforcement. Rather, you're just another person who loves martial arts."

Harvey smiled after hearing those words.

"Thank you for that. That'll save me a lot of trouble."

After all, because of his extraordinary identity, countless people would have their attention on him if the word were to spread about this.

As expected from the sly old fox.

After pondering the situation, Colton said, "I know that you're near invincible, so the qualifications shouldn't be too hard for you.

"There's no need for you to ace the test. You might scare a few people if you do.

"This is Flutwell, after all. Many eyes are on you.

"But, you might need to be extra careful during the provincial competition. "All thirty-six branches of Longmen will have their best participants here!

"You might even see a few rare talents show up!

"When that happens, I need you to go all out!

"Surely you'll be victorious on the Longmen Summit!"

Naturally, Colton was highly confident in Harvey's strength.

Chapter 3324

Harvey York chuckled.

"Thanks for the vote of confidence. I'll definitely keep the promise since I already agreed on doing this.

"That said, I'll have to ask Ansel Torres' help for the next couple of days.

"For instance, the people kneeling in front of the People's Hospital. I want them to stay there. "They're not allowed to move a single inch before three days pass."

Harvey brought up the subject ahead of time since he thought Colton Torres would talk about it in the first place. Colton felt speechless before he heaved a sigh.

He was interested at first, but Donnie Burton and his son were Indians, Cody Garcia's people.

It was highly unnecessary to go against Cody at this moment.

But since Harvey had already brought up the subject, Colton did not feel the need to say anything else. "Since you already decided, I won't say anything about it," said Colton in a helpless tone after heaving yet another huge sigh.

"But I must warn you! Cody is a dangerous man!

"If you must go against them, you should be extremely careful!"

"You're mistaken, Elder Torres.

"It's not that I want to do this. They just keep coming for me!

"I'll only let them go if they decide to kneel and go away.

"But, if they keep causing me trouble...

"I won't stop until they're all dealt with."

Colton sighed before he showed a faint smile.

"I hope that everything goes well for you, Harvey.

"Also, be careful of Joseph Bauer.

"Out of the three young masters of the Bauer family, he's the one closest to the Indians.

"If you go against the Indians, you go against him..."

After hanging up the phone, Harvey squinted at the sight in front of him.

It seemed like Colton was giving a friendly reminder, but judging from his status, he was basically giving a big hint...

The Indians were on the same boat as Joseph.

Not only did Harvey have no choice but to go against the Indians...

It was also the same for Joseph.

The other two young masters of the Bauer family came to his mind.

Harvey frowned for a moment before he stopped thinking about it for the time being.

If Joseph knew when to quit, he could have just let everything go and be the bigger person.

But, if he kept causing trouble without a care for his life...

Harvey also would not mind dealing with him.

Half an hour later, Harvey's car stopped in front of the gymnasium.

It was not even nine o'clock in the morning, but the parking lot was completely jam-packed. Lots of people were seen walking around the place. They must have been people who were trying to enter the competition.

Harvey was glad that he did not drive here himself. If that were the case, he would have to look for a parking spot for eternity

After taking a look around, Harvey saw at least a thousand people signing up for the competition. He was quite impressed by the martial arts city attracting this many people to join the qualifiers alone.

"Huh? Aren't you Harvey?"

Right as Harvey was about to walk in, a surprised tone could be heard before a pleasant smell wafted over.

Chapter 3325

Harvey York frowned before he looked over. A few beautiful women were staring back at him.

The woman in front had a ponytail with simple sportswear. Even so, her makeup was still exquisite. She was the type of woman who people could not help but take a few more glances at.

Harvey felt that the woman seemed a little familiar when he saw her.

"You're..."

"What? Have you forgotten about me already?"

The woman showed an arrogant smile on her face.

"It's me, Kori John..."

"Kori John?"

Harvey stood frozen before he let out a chuckle.

"I remember now! You're the beauty queen in our school!"

He finally remembered the woman. She was in the next class during his time at university.

It was said that her family was quite extraordinary. Kori came from a family of martial artists. They had never met ever since she came back to Flutwell.

Harvey only knew her because she broke some equipment that cost a few thousand dollars during her internship.

She even hurt herself because of it.

Harvey merely lifted her out of kindness...

But Kori kept telling everyone that Harvey was the one who broke the equipment.

Since Harvey's family was quite wealthy then, so he could not care less about this incident.

But if it were any other university student, their lives would have been ruined by Kori.

After this incident, Harvey could tell that Kori was a bad person despite her looks.

He never had any interest in the woman anyway. He had always stayed away from her since then.

But Harvey never thought that they would eventually meet here.

Harvey reached his hand out and respectfully smiled.

"Long time no see. You're a lot more beautiful now. "Any man would be lucky to have you." "No way, Harvey. Do you still care if I have a boyfriend or not?"

Kori pretended to be shocked before she helplessly shook her head.

"You're just trying to see if I'm single, aren't you?"

"It's useless! You don't have a chance, even if I am!"

"Right. Why are you here anyway?"

"I know! You must be thinking about me every single day! You were planning to bump into me here!"

"What's the point though?"

"I told you not to like me!

"I know I'm beautiful and affable...

"But you...

"You're just not fit to be with me!

"That's why! You should just stop thinking about this already!

"Forget about me!"

Kori's friends were glaring at Harvey with weird looks on their faces.

After seeing Harvey's plain clothing and the fact that he came here by cab, they despised him even more. A poor and weak man like him likes our goddess here?'

'What a damn joke!

'What right does he even have?!'

'He's just some shameless poor sob!'

'Dream on!'

Kori's friends crossed their arms and sized up Harvey before they sneered.

"Let me remind you, kid!"

"You have no chance of anything if you're poor!"

"So, stop dreaming of getting together with a goddess already!"

"You're not even worth Kori's time!"

Chapter 3326 What just happened?! Harvey York was at a complete loss.

He reluctantly came all the way here. This had nothing to do with Kori John!

But before Harvey could even say anything, Kori immediately cut him off with a sigh.

"I get it, Harvey.

"My friends keep saying that you've been into me since university! You kept going on morning runs behind our dorm just to get my attention!

"You never stopped doing it, even when it's raining cats and dogs!

Kori playfully flipped her ponytail, wafting a pleasant smell from her hair.

"To be honest, I didn't believe it before!

"I know I was the best-looking and the one with the most talent in the university, but I didn't expect someone would actually be that into me.

"It's been so many years since graduation, but you came all the way here from Buckwood just to see me!

"This means that you've been asking around for my whereabouts!

"What can I even say to you at this point?"

At this moment, Kori felt good about herself. "I know you've completely fallen for me, but I'll tell you one last time. There's no chance for you!

"Just forget about it! Stop wasting time on me!"

Kori's friends were glaring at Harvey disdainfully.

Everyone believed that Kori was a lot more charming and beautiful back then.

And Harvey was just some loser who dared to pursue one of Flutwell's goddesses, Kori.

'Who does he think he is? He's clearly thinking highly of himself!

Kori crossed her arms and walked forward before squinting her eyes.

"Let's just be friends, Harvey.

"Or we can be besties if you want!

"But, all my male besties have money and power... "For example , there's an examiner named Wilbur Lee. He's been chasing me for the past few days already, but I couldn't even bother talking to him...

hor

"I'm only giving you a chance since we were university mates."

Harvey was utterly speechless.

"You're overthinking," said Harvey before shaking his head.

"I'm here to join the exam. Not for you.

"I didn't even know that you'd show up here.

"If you didn't call me, I wouldn't even know who you are.

"And let me tell you this once. I am not interested in you whatsoever."

Kori and the others froze after hearing Harvey's words.

When Harvey showed his admission form, Kori and the others felt extremely awkward. They did not expect that Harvey would actually be here for the competition.

But soon after, Kori came to her senses before she shrugged.

"You're not interested in me?"

"So, who was the one who took the fall for breaking the equipment during the internship back then?"

"Why would you come all the way from Buckwood if you're not interested in me?"

"Why would you prepare so much if that's really the case?"

"Not only did you know about me coming here, you even chose the same examination hall and time as me!"

"You must've been waiting for me for ages before getting out of your cab!"

"Why would an ordinary university student like you even participate in the Longmen Summit?"

"Normal people wouldn't come here in the first place!"

"You did all this for me, yet you're here trying to refute it!"

"Be honest, Harvey. I'll have some sympathy for you if you are."

"I'll just think of you as a pervert if you keep playing coy!" 1

Chapter 3327

Naturally, Kori John was not happy with Harvey York denying his actions.

It was nothing if he was only a poor sob, but he could not even admit to the fact that he did everything for her! She was deeply embarrassed because of it!

How was she going to show off about it then?! She would not be able to satisfy her arrogance!

Kori looked down at Harvey and scoffed coldly.

"No matter how hard you try or how much you do, you still won't have a chance to be with me!"

"I'm already the outer disciple of Longmen's Flutwell branch.

"And you? You're still just a loser!

"We're from totally different worlds!

"Let's get inside, sisters."

Kori flipped her hair before strutting inside the gymnasium with her friends.

Harvey felt speechless when he looked at Kori's back. He was not sure if Kori was just overconfident or if he was just extremely unlucky.

He only came to participate in the competition, but he was treated like a stalker following someone all the way here.

Harvey trembled when the thought came to his mind. He quickly dropped the thought before he ran to the front desk to ask about the location of his exam.

A few minutes later, Harvey came to an indoor soccer field.

The place was filled with tables all over the place.

Judging from first glance, this place could fit more than a thousand people.

Harvey saw a few dozen surveillance cameras around the venue to prevent any form of cheating from happening.

Everyone was looking for their seats at this moment. Harvey went around and found his seat in the corner.

Unfortunately, Kori and her friends were seated right in front of him.

Harvey calmly sat down...

Kori turned around and squinted at Harvey with a playful look.

"You're still going to deny it?"

"You must've paid a lot of money to be seated here, huh?"

"How did you end up here if that weren't the case?"

Harvey heaved a sigh.

"I told you. I'm here to participate in the theory exam. I don't even know how I ended up seated behind you."

"Heh heh heh. The theory exam?"

"Are you telling me that you know about martial art theories?"

Kori derisively glared at Harvey.

"This is an exam, Harvey. People who aren't born into martial arts families or belong to Long men don't even have a chance at passing!"

"Why are you still trying to pretend at this point?"

"How about this? Since you're so infatuated with me, I'll give you a chance!"

"If you can pass this test, I'll give you a chance to pursue me!

"If not, you get out of here and never show your face before me again!"

"How about that?!"

Kori's friends were secretly laughing at Harvey.

They believed that Harvey would not dare accept such a bet. What kind of brown-noser would be willing to give up on seeing their goddess anyway?

Harvey frowned.

"No. There's no point," exclaimed Harvey coldly.

Before Kori could say anything else, a middle-aged man walked toward the podium.

"Quiet! Turn off your phones and hand over your books! It's time for the exam!"

Chapter 3328

"You have two hours! Sixty points will be your passing grade!

"Everyone who passes will be ranked from the highest score to the lowest! Only the top one hundred will be eligible for the qualifiers!

"Do not talk to each other or play with your phones during the exam! You will be disqualified if you do!

"Both the examiner and the invigilator are disciples of Longmen!

"The chief examiner today will be the vice branch leader of Flutwell's Longmen branch, Fisher Benett himself!

"If anyone finds out someone's cheating, you may report that to Vice Branch Leader Benett! You'll earn additional points once it's been confirmed!"

After hearing the middle-aged man's words, a dozen people stood out to greet the examinees.

The most striking person was a strong old man in a robe with a fierce look.

That man was none other than Fisher Benett himself.

A mere vice branch leader was not that impressive since Longmen's headquarters were in Flutwell...

But that identity was pretty impressive for the rest of the world!

The examinees were showing admiration when they looked at Fisher.

They were thinking of actually joining Longmen, hoping to be taken under Fisher's wing.

With Fisher's command, everyone became quiet while waiting patiently for their exam papers.

Kori John could not be bothered to talk to Harvey York anymore. She leaned on her seat while playing with her ponytail.

The theory exam was just a piece of cake for her.

Harvey casually picked up a pen, quietly waiting for the exam to start.

While the exam was taking place, Fisher and the others left one after another. Only six examiners were left patrolling the place.

Naturally, those were all the people in charge of the current exam.

Since they were all Longmen disciples, the examinees were terrified of their presence.

Suddenly, Harvey could feel a jealous and watchful gaze glaring down at him.

Harvey instinctively raised his head.

Harvey froze when he locked eyes with the person. He had absolutely no idea who that person was.

Kori raised her head before she showed a disdainful look.

"You see him? That's Wilbur Lee! He's not even worthy to serve under me!"

"He's been trying to get close to me ever since we met in Flutwell's Longmen branch...

"But I can't even be bothered to talk to him!

"He's just jealous that other men are getting close to me.

"If you admit that you came all this way to pursue me, then I'll tell him to back off.

"If not, you'll be finished if he tries to screw with you during the exam!"

Harvey completely ignored Kori. He did not come here to make anyone jealous anyway.

After seeing the two whisper to each other all lovey-dovey - like, resentment was clearly shown on Wilbur's face.

He believed that only he could have someone like Kori.

He would stop at nothing to crush anyone who would even try to get close to her.

Wilbur had already dealt with many of Kori's pursuers

Since they met,

Harvey was going to be one of his targets.

But Harvey could not even be bothered. In his eyes, Wilbur was not enough to make an impact on anything

If Wilbur tried, Harvey would not mind sending him flying with a slap on his face.

Chapter 3329

"Silence! The exam's starting!"

Soon after, the papers were distributed. There were a hundred questions in total. Multiple choice questions, true or false questions, and fill-in-the-blank questions could be seen.

But those questions were quite in-depth.

Anyone trying to muddle their way around the test would be screwed instantly.

Even Kori John and the others were frowning as soon as they saw the papers.

Harvey York swiftly answered the questions without a change in his expression.

The examiners seemed quite relaxed, though.

Other than the fact that there were dozens of surveillance cameras, the test was just too difficult.

There would be no use cheating if none of the examinees did not know how to answer the questions themselves.

After going around the hall twice, the examiners started doing the test papers themselves, trying to see what score they would get.

Half an hour later had already passed...

Harvey was already done with the test when it was actually scheduled for two hours.

It was not because Rachel Hardy gave Harvey all the right points to memorize. There were a lot of questions that involved true martial arts knowledge. Anyone who trained in martial arts would easily pass the test, let alone ace it.

Those were just the basics to Harvey. He did not find it difficult at all.

Harvey could not be bothered to waste time sitting around. After double-checking his papers, he handed them over ahead of time.

The examinees gasped after seeing someone done with such a difficult test in just half an hour.

After all, it was their first time seeing someone doing that!

Kori looked at her papers that were half-done before glaring disdainfully at Harvey, who seemed quite dashing.

In her eyes, Harvey was there to pursue her.

She thought he filled in the answers randomly and handed the papers early.

That way, he would be able to get her attention.

Kori felt disgusted after thinking about this.

"You're naive, Harvey! I can't believe you're even using such a petty trick!

"You're no better than Wilbur Lee at this point!

Obviously, she knew all sorts of tricks that Wilbur had used to pursue her.

"Do you think you can participate in the theory exam just like this?!

"You're wasting our exam papers!"

Wilbur coldly glared at Harvey.

He thought that Harvey handed over some blank papers since he had no way to guess his way out of the test.

He casually picked up Harvey's papers, ready to put them back in place.

But he froze in the next moment.

He realized that Harvey was actually done with his test... Not only that, every single answer he gave was correct!

There were a few questions that Wilbur had not finished himself, but he could figure out that Harvey also got the rest correct after some calculations...

Wilbur's eyes twitched. He was filled with disbelief.

"Impossible..."

'He came all this way to pursue Kori, and he managed to ace the test....

'What...'

At this moment, Wilbur only felt jealousy.

He could not allow Harvey to ace the test.

If not, his goddess would definitely leave him...

Wilbur wanted to tear Harvey's papers on the spot, but he had no choice but to keep them after considering that there were too many cameras surrounding him.

Chapter 3330

The exam ended soon after. There was still an hour before lunchtime.

Since there was an answer sheet for the examiners to refer to, they did not take a long time to mark the papers. Everyone waited almost an hour before the results came out at eleven thirty o'clock.

Wilbur Lee and the other examiners were returning the papers on the podium.

Everyone was anxious about their scores at this moment.

Even people like Kori John were filled with anxiety. On the other hand, Harvey York remained indifferent.

The people who had their papers returned early had all failed the test, proving just how difficult it was. The whole place was incredibly pressuring at that very moment.

"Emma Bierstadt! Seventy-nine points! One-hundredth place!"

The crowd gasped. The score was not that high, but it was high enough to participate in the qualifiers.

"Abby Miller! Eighty-two points! Eighty-ninth place!"

Good scores were constantly being read out while the crowd cheered, calming everyone down quite a bit.

"Kori John! Ninety-five points! First place!"

Everyone was shocked after that.

They were all stunned as they looked at Kori.

Many people took deep breaths after seeing Kori's beautiful face. They could not resist such a talented and charming woman.

Kori strutted forward before taking her papers. Then, she glanced at Harvey disdainfully after walking past him.

Naturally, she believed she was in a different league compared to Harvey.

Everyone had their papers back soon after, but Harvey's hands were still empty.

Since he was the first to send in the papers, many people patiently waited for his scores to be revealed.

Before Kori and the others could make fun of Harvey, he immediately stood up and said, "I haven't got my papers yet."

'No papers?'

Everyone looked over.

Kori sneered..

"You want your papers back when you handed in a blank sheet? 1

"Are you really that shameless? Even the examiners are getting angry!"

"Yeah! How dare you question the examiners when you're the one who didn't do the test?!"

"What a joke!"

The female examinees burst out laughing.

At this point, they believed that Harvey was outrageous in questioning the examiners.

Wilbur knew that Harvey would ask the question.

"Don't you understand why you don't have the papers?" exclaimed Wilbur coldly after standing up.

"What does it have to do with you?" replied Harvey.

"I know you're obligated to score me now that I've taken the test.

"After the examiners had a meeting, we concluded that you cheated!

Wilbur showed a gloomy look on his face, but his gaze was filled with glee.

Naturally, he had played a big part in making this happen. "No! Not only did you cheat, you even broke the law!

"You'll be thrown behind bars for this!"

Everyone gasped after hearing that the situation was this serious. They were filled with disbelief as they shifted their gazes toward Harvey.

"What do you mean by that?" Harvey calmly asked.

Wilbur crossed his arms with a righteous look on his face.

"You still don't understand?"

"You stole the answer sheet!"

"This is against the law!" 1

I

Chapter 3331 Wilbur Lee coldly squinted at Harvey York with his arms crossed.

"You should know already, Harvey!"

"The Longmen Summit isn't just for you to play around! This exam is just as important as any university entrance exam!"

"Not only did you cheat in the exam, but you are also suspected of stealing the answer sheet! You're looking for your own demise here!"

"Vice Branch Leader Benett and the others are waiting for you in the meeting room! "Go and apologize for this already! You'll end up horribly if you don't!"

"Maybe Vice Branch Leader Benett will let you off the hook if you have an acceptable attitude!"

"But if you're not being honest, I'll report this to Longmen's Law Enforcement right now!"

"You'll end up worse than being thrown in jail!"

Wilbur pointed outside with a prideful look on his face.

"He cheated?!"

Kori John and the others were shocked before they glared at Harvey disdainfully.

"You can't just learn martial arts by cheating like this!"

'No wonder Harvey was the first one to submit his papers. Who knows what kind of trick he used to get the answer sheet? How shameless...'

Kori secretly let out a sigh.

Oh, Harvey!

You went to steal the answer sheet just to catch my eye?

At least you had good intentions...' Harvey frowned.

"Do you even have proof of that? "If you're just accusing me for no reason, you'll have to pay a huge price for this!"

Wilbur coldly scoffed. "How did you ace the test if you didn't cheat then? "You got every single question correct, but your answers are almost identical compared to the answer sheet!

"How is this even possible?!"

"This is the most challenging test in the history of Longmen by far!

"Longmen's Elder Group themselves came up with the questions! "Even Vice Branch Leader Bennett only got ninety-eight points!

"Out of all the examinees, the best score was only ninety five points!

"Nobody in the entire province could even ace the test !

"But you did!

"If you're not cheating, then what else is possible?! "You should know that you can't cheat your way out of this!

"How dare you participate in the Longmen Summit if you're lying to yourself?!"

"What a joke!"

Wilbur was showing a disdainful look on his face as if he was looking at a clown.

'He aced?'"

The whole crowd stood frozen before they burst out laughing

Pfft!

"He aced the test?"

"No way! That's hilarious!"

"Nobody would say anything if he hides it by getting ninety points, but he actually aced it..."

"He's just blatantly admitting to it at this point!"

Kori and the others were laughing their stomachs off. Only a martial arts genius would be able to ace a test like this!

It'd be once in ten thousand years before a person like this would ever show up! 'Harvey didn't come from a family of martial artists, nor was he from any sacred martial arts training ground, and yet he still aced the test!'

'What a joke!'

'Does he think he's starring in a movie or something?!'

Even Kori was utterly disappointed in Harvey. She felt embarrassed that Harvey was using such a trick to catch her attention.

Harvey ignored the crowd and calmly said, "Do you think I cheated because I aced my test?"

"Why can't you just admit that I'm that good? "What makes you think you can judge me without any solid proof? How is that right?"

Chapter 3332 After hearing Harvey York's words, Kori John let out a huge sigh of disappointment before showing a disdainful look.

"Stop pretending already, Harvey!"

"How hard is it to admit to your wrongdoings?!"

"Do you think we don't understand you?!"

"Do you think I don't know you?!"

"I was your university mate! There's no chance that you even know martial arts!"

Wilbur Lee showed jealousy in his eyes after hearing that Harvey and Kori used to be university mates.

He furiously glared at Harvey and screamed, "You hear that, Harvey?!"

"Even Kori said that you don't know martial arts! Why are you still pretending?!"

"Just admit it already!"

"You'll end up horribly if you don't!"

Harvey kept a straight face.

"You keep insisting that I cheated and even stole the answer sheet, but where's the proof?"

"You must've checked the surveillance cameras all over the place, right?"

"Did you see me bring anything inside? "If you're claiming that I memorized the answers beforehand, then at least tell me who leaked the answers. Who was the one that had their answers stolen?"

"The questions were clearly different for each examinee. The elders must've written their questions separately.

"And according to the rules, the questions will not be shared between the other elders!"

"Since that's the case, what's the point of me stealing one of their answer sheets?"

"You think I'd be that good to steal every single elder's answer sheets all at once?"

Wilbur froze after hearing Harvey's words. He wanted to use this opportunity to crush Harvey...

The examinees also stood frozen.

'He has a point!

'Clearly. the elders are all experts!'

'Those people are extraordinary!'

'Ordinary people wouldn't be able to steal their answer sheets that easily!'

'If Harvey really did steal the elders' answer sheets...'

"Then why hasn't anyone realized that before the exam?'

Wilbur changed his expression before he coldly scoffed.

"I should be asking you that question instead!

"How did you do it?!

"Not only did you steal the answer sheets, you even managed to hide it this well!

"Did you take pictures with your phone?! "That's definitely it!

"I suggest you admit to it right now!"

Harvey glared at Wilbur coldly. He knew that there was no point in continuing the conversation. "Examiner Lee, right?" exclaimed Harvey coldly. "I don't think there's a point in us arguing any longer. "Since you think I cheated, then give me a new sheet to work on!

"You can write me your own questions too! I'll do them in front of your face!

"If I answer them wrong, I'll admit that I cheated!

"But if I'm correct, you'll prove my innocence in front of all these people!

"If you don't, I'll report you to Longmen's Law Enforcement, saying that you abused your powers to bully the examinees!"

Harvey showed a cold expression . A person like Wilbur was a rotten egg ruining all of Longmen!

This was enough to strengthen his determination to clean up all of Longmen after rising to power.

Longmen existed to serve the country, not to cover up corruption!

Chapter 3333 Wilbur Lee's face instantly darkened before he glared at Harvey York.

"Are you questioning my judgment, Harvey?!"

Kori John was also showing a disdainful look.

"How dare you even ask Examiner Lee that?!"

"He's still an outer disciple of Longmen's Flutwell branch, no matter what!"

"His knowledge of martial arts is excellent! You'll be stumped if he's the one writing the questions!"

Kori was extremely disappointed in Harvey.

Not only did she believe that Harvey was poor and powerless, but he also would not admit to him cheating! A man like him just was not worthy of being her brown noser!

Wilbur glared at Harvey coldly before he let out a chuckle.

Obviously, he had already expected this to happen while he was planning to crush his so-called rival. "Since you said that you're actually capable... "Then, I'll give you a chance to prove yourself! He pulled out a piece of paper and put it on the table, then wrote three questions he had prepared himself.

Wilbur then showed a lifeless smile at Harvey.

"I'll give you fifteen minutes! If you can answer these questions correctly within the time limit, then I'll admit my mistake of slandering you! "But if you can't, you'll end up horribly!"

Harvey could not be bothered to say another word. Under the crowd's gaze, he stepped forward and started writing on the piece of paper.

Almost a thousand people were watching him, ensuring he was not cheating...

On the other hand, they wanted to see the hilarious sight of Harvey struggling.

But before five minutes had passed, Harvey stopped writing

"I'm done!"

"Heh! What a rare martial arts genius! It's only been five minutes..."

Wilbur's disdainful look instantly froze before he picked up the paper.

Cold sweats dripped down his back as soon as he saw the answers.

He was shocked!

'What is this?!

'What the f*ck is this?!'

Wilbur saw Harvey casually writing down the answers without even thinking about it...

His movements were very fluid throughout the entire process...

But nobody expected his answers would all be correct.

Harvey had an excellent understanding of the common knowledge of martial arts. His points were as straightforward as they could be.

People who did not practice martial arts for a long time would not even be able to come up with those answers.

Two of the questions were also relatively difficult. It was said that even the vice branch leader of Flutwell's Longmen branch, Fisher Benett himself, would find the questions hard to answer.

Even if he could, he would at least take an hour or two...

But Harvey was already done...

In just five minutes!

Was he a young master in a family of martial artists? Or was he a top talent of a sacred martial arts training ground?

Was Wilbur really about to give in?

Was he really going to prove Harvey's innocence? But if he actually did that, and Harvey became the winner of the competition...

Harvey would have Kori's love!

The goddess would be in someone else's arms!

Wilbur could not accept that fact.

He did not mind failing, nor did he care about being disrespected. But he could never accept his goddess ending up with someone else!

Without a second thought, he decisively crumpled the paper into a ball and threw it out the window.

"What is this?"

"It's all wrong!"

"Stop wasting everyone's time! "Leave this place at once!"

Chapter 3334 "Ahahaha!"

Kori John and the others burst out laughing after seeing Wilbur Lee throw Harvey York's answers out the window.

Naturally, everyone believed that Harvey was bluffing all this while.

As expected, Wilbur's three questions were enough to expose Harvey's capabilities.

After seeing the sight, Harvey calmly glanced at Wilbur.

He could already tell that Wilbur was a shameless and corrupt man.

But he never expected that he could be this shameless.

At this point, Harvey was outraged. The consequences were dire...

"What is this?!"

"What's all this commotion about?!"

A large group of people came into the hall at this moment.

The person leading the group was none other than Fisher Benett himself.

A few experts followed behind him with their heads held high.

Other than those people, there were also a lot of Longmen disciples. They were all in charge of security.

Fisher coldly screamed at the crowd in front of him, "Can we have some order in here?!"

"Is this what martial artists are supposed to look like?!"

The group of people was coldly glaring at the examinees.

Wilbur showed a joyful expression before running up to Fisher and bowing respectfully.

"Vice Branch Leader! That's Harvey, the cheater!" exclaimed Wilbur after pointing at Harvey.

Fisher took some time to size up Harvey after hearing Wilbur's words.

"Step outside, Harvey! Stop disturbing the others!

"We want to have a word with you in the meeting room this instance!

"If you're not coming with us, then we'll have to report this to Longmen's Law Enforcement!

"You may not know this, but Longmen's Law Enforcement is different now! Our new head is a prominent figure who doesn't tolerate people like you!

"If he knows you cheated in the Longmen Summit, you'll die a horrible death!"

The people from Flutwell's Longmen branch were glaring

at Harvey disdainfully.

'How dare he cheat in a competition like this?!

'He's embarrassing the entirety of Longmen!'

'Longmen represents the law of the underworld!'

'Cheating in the Longmen Summit would mean breaking the laws of the underworld!'

'People like this should be slapped around until they realize their place!'

The people who seemed like top talents of Flutwell's Longmen branch were looking down on Harvey, thinking he was just a rotten egg ruining Longmen's reputation ! "How dare he do something like this when he's not even that skilled?! This is just shameless!'

Kori's eyes lit up after seeing Fisher show up.

"That's enough, Harvey!

"Hurry and apologize to Vice Branch Leader Benett! Admit to your mistakes already!

"You won't have my love this way! I'll despise you even further if you keep this going!"

Obviously, Kori wanted to embarrass Harvey in front of Fisher and the others.

Maybe Fisher would be impressed by her this way...

Harvey merely ignored Kori and calmly glanced at Fisher.

"Fisher Bennett, right? Since you're the vice branch leader of Flutwell's Longmen branch, you should know that there's always more than one side to the story..."

"I didn't cheat, so I'm not going to the meeting room."

Chapter 3335 "I'd like you to write me a question yourself! I'll answer it in front of everyone here!

"If I'm wrong, then that means I stole the answer sheet!

"But if I'm right, I want all the staff here to take responsibility!

"Of course, if you think there's no point to this exam, you can also take me in.

"The Longmen Summit will take action sooner or later anyway."

Harvey York's calm words had quite a dignified aura.

But in everyone else's eyes, Harvey was basically brainless.

'Hasn't he had enough?! He's still asking for justice now?!

'What is wrong with him?!

'Does he think he's the king of the world?!

'Why would someone like Vice Branch Leader Bennett even waste his time on him?!

"I already gave him three questions before , Vice Branch Leader. He had all of them wrong, yet he's still talking big here!

Wilbur Lee's heart skipped a beat before he stepped forward.

"There's no need for us to waste time on a small fry like him!

"We should just send him out the door already!"

Kori John stood up after seeing Harvey completely ignoring her advice.

"Vice Branch Leader! I was Harvey's university mate! He used to study liberal arts! He was a weak and fragile man! He's no martial artist!

"He came here to find a chance to be with me. Just to get close to me!

"There's no need to test him! It's only a waste of time!

Kori then showed a bitter look when she looked at Harvey.

"I didn't want to say anything so you could save some of your dignity!

"But since you're being this shameless, there's no way I can protect you any longer! "Admit to your mistakes already! It'll be too late if you keep this going!"

The crowd was showing faces of realization after seeing Kori's expression.

Everyone knew Harvey was incompetent, but they did not expect he was trying to go for a woman way out of his league.

They hated people like this the most! Wilbur felt more confident after seeing his goddess stand up for him. He crossed his arms and chuckled coldly while glaring at Harvey

"What else can you say at this point?!"

"Kneel and apologize already!"

"There's no chance," replied Harvey, calm and collected.

"You can either test me or take me in right now!"

Harvey stepped forward, instantly shattering the marble floor under his feet. It was a terrifying sight.

"What?!"

Everyone gasped after seeing what had happened.

They thought Harvey was just a useless fool, but judging from the sight, he must have at least practiced for a few years. How was he able to shatter the floor with a stomp if that was not the case?

Wilbur's heart skipped a beat before he chuckled.

"He probably practiced a bit..."

"But he definitely has no knowledge about martial arts! You shouldn't give him another chance!"

Somehow, Wilbur knew that Harvey would get any question correct if he were to take another test.

Not only would Wilbur be finished, but Kori would also end up in Harvey's arms. He just could not accept that outcome.

Fisher Bennett pondered over the situation after seeing Harvey's actions. Harvey's movements alone were enough to move him.

"It's settled then! I'll give you one more chance!"

Chapter 3336 "The people of Longmen always win people with virtue, after all!"

"If you lose, you'll admit to all your wrongdoings and explain how you cheated! "But if you win, your innocence will be proven! I'll apologize to you on behalf of Longmen and pursue whoever's responsible for the situation!

As expected from a martial artist, Fisher Benett was extremely decisive.

"And if you win, I'll have you join Longmen as well!" Fisher was showing a prideful look. In his eyes, it would be anyone's greatest honor to join Longmen.

"Fine. It's settled then," replied Harvey York calmly.

"I never go back on my promise."

Wilbur Lee's eyes twitched when he was about to say something, but Fisher abruptly stopped him.

"Not another word, Wilbur. It'd be better to take him down than waste your breath. "Judging from the underworld's rules, it'd be best if we did exactly that.

"But since this is a theory exam , we should just follow the rules of this place."

Fisher decided on the matter before he crossed his arms.

"Since I'm the head examiner here, it'd be bad if I gave you the first question," said Fisher.

"You do it, Wilbur.

"No need to write it on paper. Just tell everyone if he's right or wrong

"We'll all examine the answer together!"

Wilbur hesitated and could not say no, even if he wanted to. After gritting his teeth for a while , he then gave his question...

"Let me ask you this. As a peak King of Arms, how does one become a God of War?"

Everyone stood frozen after hearing Wilbur's question.

This was just insane!

Martial artists had been pursuing to be Kings of Arms their entire lives, let alone Gods of War!

Not just the examinees. Most of the Longmen experts here would be unable to answer that question!

Even Fisher frowned. Even though Harvey was suspected of cheating, a question like this was just too much.

That said, he did not say anything about it. After all, it'd be easy for a young man like Harvey to know such things since he aced the test.

Harvey did not mind taking the question either. "It may seem like a small gap, but in reality, it's like night and day," said Harvey with his arms crossed.

"Simply put, it's as different as cold steel and firearms.

"Peak Kings of Arms can go against ten, even a hundred opponents at once, but only a true God of War can fight against a thousand.

"It's nothing complicated to become a God of War from a peak King of Arms. There is only one rule, simplification.

"As long as everything is simplified, becoming a God of War is all but difficult.

"But that said, it's hard to put that into practice. People cannot do this even if they train for their entire lives."

Wilbur froze after hearing Harvey's answer.

Simplification may seem like a standard answer, but it was indeed the most crucial element in becoming a God of War.

Harvey wouldn't be able to figure this out without a solid foundation in martial arts.

Fisher and Flutwell's Longmen branch experts gasped before they looked at Harvey with shock.

Kori John and the others also had their eyes twitching . They even started to hyperventilate at this very moment...

Harvey was definitely correct. Wilbur would have insulted him by then if that were not the case.

Chapter 3337 Fisher Benett and the others looked at each other under the crowd's gaze. All of them nodded in unison, with admiration showing in their eyes .

"He's right?"

"That's insane! He looks so young!"

"He wouldn't know about this even if he practiced martial arts in his mother's womb!"

"That's nuts!"

"Maybe he answered a question like this previously? Maybe it's just a coincidence?"

The examinees gasped in utter disbelief.

"Right! Right! He must've answered the question before! This is just pure coincidence!"

Wilbur Lee immediately came to his senses. A small minded person like him would not be able to accept someone of the same age to be better than him.

"You test him, Vice Branch Leader!" exclaimed Wilbur while gritting his teeth.

The crowd looked at Harvey York to see his reaction.

"Do it already. Stop wasting time," replied Harvey calmly.

Fisher showed a profound look when he looked at Harvey. "Right! I'll give you one then! "Let me ask you this, young man. What is the extreme of martial arts?"

The crowd frowned after hearing the question. Ordinary examinees like them would not be able to answer such a tough question.

Kori John and the others were showing weird expressions as they glanced at Harvey.

Even the top talent of a sacred martial arts training ground would not be able to answer that question.

"Normally speaking, martial artists strive to be stronger. Not just in combat power, but in individuality and inheritance!" he said with a calm look on his face.

"There's a saying in recent years, 'No martial art is impenetrable. Speed is the one true way to success!'

"Judging from the world's standards, this must be the extreme of martial arts.

"As for uncommon standards, do you really want me to answer them here?"

Fisher froze.

"No need. No need," replied Fisher frantically.

"Your answer's correct.

"There's no need to tell me anything else."

Fisher knew full well that martial artists should not be too ambitious.

Judging from his standards, it was enough that Harvey knew about the saying.

There was no need to focus on anything else.

After all, learning too much would only disturb the mind.

The experts of Flutwell's Longmen branch stepped forward to question Harvey one after another.

Some questions even involved the troubles of practicing martial arts every day...

And Harvey answered every single one of them correctly.

Soon after, the experts were impressed entirely.

Fisher was shocked.

'He's a genius! A true martial arts genius!'

After all, Harvey could not have memorized the answers, no matter how lucky he was.

Besides, some of his answers were also not by the books.

Some of his answers could be considered near-perfect.

Cold sweats were dripping down Fisher's back. He almost let a top talent go because of his mistakes.

The crowd was dead silent.

"Since I answered all of your questions, will you prove my innocence now?" demanded Harvey while calmly looking at Fisher.

Chapter 3338 "Of course! Of course!"

Fisher Bennett quickly nodded.

"You're a true martial arts genius, Harvey York! You're quite the rare sight!"

"Do my test scores count then?" asked Harvey calmly. "Yes! Of course! You're the best one out on the test!"

Fisher walked forward with burning passion in his eyes. With a genius like Harvey, the Longmen Summit would surely be thrilling! 1 "You're the pride of all martial arts in Country H! A top talent, no doubt!

"From now on, you may ask for my help if you need anything! "I'll do my best to support you if it's anything within my jurisdiction!

Fisher's formality was entirely replaced by passion and warmth.

"No need for formalities between us, Harvey!

"Just treat me as one of your own!"

All the other experts were also complimenting Harvey.

Everyone knew a man like Harvey would easily move on to the qualifiers, maybe even the actual Longmen Summit.

It did not matter if Harvey won or not. As long as he was in the top ten, it would be an extremely prideful matter for Flutwell's Longmen branch.

After all, many other talents were coming from the other thirty-five Longmen branches, along with strong families and forces of the underworld.

Getting top ten in the competition would be considered a remarkable achievement!

"Wha..."

Wilbur

Lee's face instantly turned dark. He could literally feel his face being slapped around by Harvey. It was a horrible thought.

Kori John's pretty face was bright red when he looked at Harvey with disbelief.

She still could not believe that Harvey was actually here just to take the exam.

Not just that, but he was also considered to be a rare genius!

Kori felt her foot tingling as she started to tremble uncontrollably. "These were Examiner Lee's questions from before, Vice Branch Leader!

"Harvey finished them, but Examiner Lee threw the paper away, claiming that he answered it all wrong!" Another examiner quickly went outside and grabbed a piece of paper.

He even showed a profound look on his face when he glared at Wilbur.

The competition within Longmen was fierce. Anyone would take the opportunity to stab people in the back if they could get the chance. Fisher held the piece of paper before a horrible look showed on his face.

Harvey's answers were all correct, after all.

"Heh! As a disciple of Longmen, you ignore your morals and slander an examinee. You even lead people astray to the point where Longmen's hundred-year-old reputation would be ruined..."

Fisher was smiling, but his gaze was as icy cold. "You're just an outer disciple, Wilbur! How dare you?!"

"Longmen trusted you to be in charge of this exam! We didn't ask you to abuse your power!"

"From now on, you're officially expelled from Flutwell's Longmen branch!"

"We'll also have to take back everything you learned from Longmen!"

Fisher immediately kicked right at Wilbur's torso. "Aaagh!" Wilbur was sent flying. A mouthful of blood came out of his mouth the moment he landed on the ground again.

His face had lost all color as his body trembled uncontrollably.

He could feel himself being crippled at that moment!

All of his experience was gone with just a single kick!

From that point onward, he was just an ordinary man! Wilbur wanted to slam his head on the ground till he died, but he had no courage to do so.

Chapter 3339

Fisher Bennett had already crippled Wilbur Lee, but he still felt incredibly guilty.

If he did not show up then, the reputation of a sacred martial arts training ground would probably be ruined.

It would be horrible if the new head of Longmen's Law Enforcement caught wind of this!

Without a second thought, Fisher believed that he had made the right choice. Kori John took a deep breath and came to her senses before sheepishly walking toward Harvey. "Not bad, Harvey!" said Kori with a prideful tone.

"Congratulations! You're worthy of being under my command!

"I'll give you a chance today! You may treat me to a meal!

"If you do a good job, maybe you can be my boyfriend one day!

"Right! I want to eat somewhere with three Michelin stars today! Why don't we..."

Harvey glared at Kori as if he was looking at a clown.

"Are you braindead?

"Move out of my way!!!"

Harvey walked away immediately after. He could not be bothered to exchange words with someone like Kori.

He could not figure out what that woman was planning... Besides, he would be dead if a woman with such vanity were to get close to him.

After declining Fisher and the others' invitation , Harvey left a number before he left.

***

Passing the exam was something worth celebrating.

And so, Harvey asked Rachel Hardy and Kayden Balmer to look for a karaoke place for everyone to gather around and have fun.

On the one hand, Harvey wanted to strengthen the relationship between Rachel and Kayden's subordinates.

On the other hand, he wanted everyone to relax a little. After all, Harvey had been bringing his subordinates around non-stop for the past few days.

Kayden was thrilled with Harvey's arrangement.

Harvey booked the best room in Flutwell's most fancy karaoke place and ordered some old Riesling.

Besides, it was rare for everyone to be together. It was quite a pleasant sight. It was a shame that Ansel Torres could not show up for the event.

But it was only natural. After all, he was the Flutwell Police Station's first-in-command.

After three whole rounds of drinks, smoke was building up inside the box.

Harvey went outside to get some fresh air. He did not quite like the smell of smoke.

Right as he went outside, he saw a few men in suits dragging a woman inside.

A drunk Indian man was following behind them.

"Hurry! Get her inside! Young Master Garcia is waiting!"

"What a fine woman! It'd be hard to find someone like this back in India! No wonder Young Master Garcia is into her!

The Indian man's words were filled with evil.

"I've heard of Country H's women for the longest time! I finally got to see one of them here!"

The woman was stumbling around, as if she was unconscious.

When Harvey looked over, the woman was even resisting a little.

Naturally, she did not want this to happen...

But the men in suits quickly subdued her.

Harvey frowned. He felt heartbroken seeing people outside doing heinous things in his country.

Harvey looked a little closer at the woman's face...

At that moment, his heart skipped a beat.

The woman was none other than Sienna Wright, Princess Wright herself!

Chapter 3340 Sienna Wright was the Big Boss' very own daughter.

How did anyone even get her this drunk?

Harvey York was filled with disbelief at this moment.

But he had no time to think. He turned around and took a step forward.

"Wait!" exclaimed Harvey coldly.

The men in suits stopped before arrogantly looking down on Harvey

"How dare you?!"

"You lowly peasant!"

The Indian man raised his head with disdain in his eyes.

"I'm a nobleman from India! How dare you stop me?!"

"If we were back in my country, you would've been beheaded already!"

"I'll give you one chance! Kneel and apologize right now, or you're finished!"

"This woman is my friend. Let her go," replied Harvey coldly.

Harvey could tell that Sienna was not drunk upon closer inspection. Obviously she was drugged. "No chance!"

The Indian man showed a cold gaze. "Young Master Garcia has taken a liking to this woman! I don't care if you're the woman's friend or husband... "She'll be Young Master Garcia's tonight! "If you know what's best for you, you'll get out of here right now!"

"You'll end up horribly if you don't!"

The men in suits stepped forward and glared at Harvey coldly after hearing those words.

One of the bald men cracked his neck and coldly exclaimed, "Since you're from Flutwell, you should know about the Overlord Gang, right?"

"I'm from that gang! "You'll die horribly if you decide to go against us!"

"Apologize to Young Master Myers right now, or you won't leave this damn place alive!"

The Overlord Gang was the leader of the Gang of Six. It was said that prominent figures in Flutwell were also supporting them behind the scenes. Clearly, those people were doing whatever they pleased at that moment.

"I heard that the Overlord Gang's quite righteous, but you really don't seem that way right now. "Not only are you not stopping someone from doing this to a woman, but you're also helping them out?"

"Are you shameless?"

"This?"

Young Master Myers chuckled with a disdainful look on his face.

"The women here are just Shudras in India!

"It's their greatest honor to serve a Kshatriya like Young Master Garcia! They'll have a place in paradise after they pass away! "Women will swarm all over me like moths to a flame if I just tell them who I am! Do you believe me?!"

"Don't be disheartened! Everyone is different in this world!

"Us Indians are destined to be in command!

"You people from Country H are fated to be slaves! "You don't even have the right to protect this woman, let alone enjoy her! "Now, piss off!"

"I'll tell you this one more time. Let her go!" said Harvey with a cold expression.

"Don't you understand me, b*stard?!"

The bald man's eyes were filled with murderous intent.

"Kneel and apologize to Young Master Myers! I'll get angry if you keep yapping!"

Young Master Myers chuckled coldly, with his mouth reeking of alcohol.

"See that? Lowly people like you have no right to talk to us noblemen!

"Look!

"I don't even need to do anything!

"Your own people will deal with you soon enough!"

Chapter 3341

Young Master Myers was showing an arrogant look.

Naturally, he had been used to acting this way in Flutwell. People feared him here. That was why he had been doing whatever he pleased and taking advantage of everyone he could.

At this very moment, he had no respect for Harvey York whatsoever.

A lowly man from Country H was on par with India's Shudras! How dare he talk back to a Kshatriya?!

He was clearly seeking his demise!

Harvey calmly stepped forward.

"Let her go."

Slap!

Young Master Myers swung his palm across Sienna Wright's face before he coldly chuckled.

"Let her go?! No way!

"We'll play with her however we please! You have no say in this!"

Harvey took a deep breath and stepped forward, preparing to take Sienna back. He could not be bothered to say another word at this moment.

Young Master Myers trembled before taking a step back with a cold smile.

"Get him, baldy! I'm bringing this woman to Young Master Garcia!"

Soon after, he then dragged Sienna away...

But Harvey was faster.

The bald man showed a cold look.

"Go! We'll get him together!"

The men in suits pulled out their daggers and swung them mercilessly toward Harvey's direction.

Slap slap slap!

Harvey sent every single one of them flying, each with a slap. Screams of pain could be heard, as if pigs were slaughtered.

Everyone instinctively came to watch the show. The bald man slightly changed his expression after that.

The Overlord Gang had always been quite dominant, but not to this extent.

If the people knew they were helping the Indians kidnap a woman in broad daylight, their reputation would be ruined entirely.

The man rushed forward the next moment with his dagger in hand.

Slap!

Even before he could lay his hands on Harvey, his body spun in a circle after being slapped. After that, Harvey grabbed right on the man's neck with a calm expression.

The man was completely dazzled by the slap. When he came back to his senses, he glared at Harvey as he coldly scoffed.

"Do it if you dare, kid!"

"I'll let you learn just how powerful the Overlord Gang really is!"

Naturally, the bald man was not scared of Harvey at all because of his strong support.

Bam!

Harvey could not be bothered to say another word. He instantly slammed the man's neck right at a wall.

The man let out a grunt before he passed out. He was trembling nonstop on the ground when he was let go.

The fighters had no chance against Harvey.

"No wonder you're brave enough to save the damsel in distress. You know some martial arts, after all."

Young Master Myers released Sienna and stepped forward before swinging his arms forward.

A rancid smell wafted right toward Harvey's direction while a dozen black needles could be seen flying toward him.

Harvey did not dodge the attack at all. He calmly stood still, willingly letting the needles pierce him.

"Heh! You people are foolish! Do you think you're invincible just because you trained for a few years?"

"You think you can just save whoever you want?! You read too many comics!"

"How naive!"

Young Master Myers thought that his attack worked when Harvey only stood still.

"It's a shame that there'll always be someone better than you!" said Young Master Myers with a proud look.

Chapter 3342

"Do you think you can go against me just because you have martial arts?"

"Don't you realize that all martial arts originate from India?"

"If you go against us, you won't win even if you have ten lives to spare!"

"You're trying to save the damsel in front of me?"

"What a damn joke..."

"Even God won't be able to save her now! I said so!"

"I can't be bothered with you right now! You just stay here and watch! Soon enough, I'll let you see just how Young Master Garcia plays with the woman!"

"When he's all done, we'll kill her off and blame her death on you!"

"You'll be labeled a murderer!"

"Hahaha!"

Young Master Myers was extremely arrogant then. He actually believed that he had already won.

He walked toward Harvey York, planning to drag him away as well.

Slap!

But before his dirty hands could even touch Harvey, he was immediately slapped.

Young Master Myers had no time to react. A few teeth flew out of his mouth as he was sent flying before he slammed into a wall.

he

His bones were shattered after the impact. He could not even muster the strength to get up.

"How...?"

"You were hit by the Demon Flower Poison... How are you still fine?" he muttered weakly.

At this moment, his face was filled with utter disbelief.

Even

India's medical geniuses could not cure the poison, so how did Harvey manage to get away scot-free?

Harvey showed a calm expression. He could not be bothered to explain how he beat such a lame trick.

He immediately kicked Young Master Myers in the chest.

Young Master Myers coughed up a mouthful of blood before he passed out.

"Enough. Stop pretending to be unconscious.

"Tell me who they are.

Harvey lifted Sienna Wright off the ground before calmly glancing at the bald man.

"You only have one chance."

The man's eyes twitched frantically. At that point, he had no choice but to open his eyes.

"These noblemen are honored guests of the person behind the Overlord Gang!

"You're finished! You screwed yourself!

"Compared to us, these Indians are more terrifying!

"They're all related to the Celestial Temple!

"That's one of India's Three Sects!

"The head of the Celestial Temple is a Brahmin!

"Do you think you can go against someone like that?!"

"The Celestial Temple? A Brahmin?"

Harvey kicked the man to the ground.

"I don't care. Go back and tell Young Master Garcia something for me.

"I'm taking Sienna back, and I want him to grovel in front of me as an apology within ten minutes.

"If he doesn't, he won't be heading back to India anymore.

"He can just die here!"

Harvey slowly lifted Sienna while kicking Young Master Myers into his box.

Rachel Hardy, Kayden Balmer, and the others were surprised after seeing the sight.

But when Harvey explained the entire thing, all of their faces turned dark in an instant.

"Things might get a little troublesome, Sir York!" said Kayden with a horrible look.

"The person behind the Overlord Gang is not to be underestimated.

"I heard that he's from the John family..."

Chapter 3343

"The John family?" asked Harvey York.

He had heard about the John family quite a few times already. People had also been extremely respectful when they brought them up.

He could not fathom why there was a family way stronger than the Bauer family.

Kayden Balmer took a deep breath.

"The John family is extraordinary, Sir York!

"They were just a normal wealthy family at first, but then they had a martial arts top talent who managed to join the Golden Palace.

"About twenty years ago, the top talent even managed to defeat Colton Torres himself and rise as the head of the Golden Palace.

"From that day onward, the John family had been steadily climbing ever since!

"And because of the Golden Palace, almost nobody would dare go against them. Even though they aren't exactly top-rated families, they still seem like one.

"The only part they lack is a strong background that the other top-rated families have."

"The Overlord Gang and the John family..."

Harvey lightly nodded. He understood why the bald man still seemed so confident at this time.

Harvey told Kayden to leave with his men and get ready outside just to be safe.

He stayed in the box and told Rachel to take care of Sienna for him.

Sienna was in a daze after some drinks and being drugged in the process...

But Rachel had quite a bit of experience in those situations.

She told the waiter to bring a cup of boiled ginger cola and poured the drink into Sienna's mouth.

After a moment, Sienna coughed nonstop until a mouthful of alcohol spurted out of her mouth into the garbage can.

Sienna was conscious once again. Her sight was still a little blurry, so she instinctively tried to fight back when she saw a man staring right at her.

"Who are you?!"

"Don't touch me!"

"I'll call the cops!"

Sienna screamed as she picked up a bottle on the table to protect herself.

Harvey smiled and handed her a cup of water.

"Don't panic. It's Harvey. We met at Elder Torres' place before this.

"You're drunk. Have some water."

"Harvey?"

Sienna sat transfixed before she remembered who Harvey was.

"It's you!"

"You're the one who saved me?"

She was still in a complete daze, but she managed to piece the story together so she would not blame the wrong person.

"Not quite. Someone tried to drag you out of the place while you were drugged, so I came to help."

Harvey smiled while explaining the entire situation, then curiously looked at Sienna.

"What's going on over here anyway?"

"Judging from your status, you'd at least have a few bodyguards with you, right?"

"How did you get tricked by those people anyway?? Harvey was perplexed. Sienna would definitely have people around her because of her identity.

It was quite surprising that she managed to get drugged if that was the case.

Sienna's face lost a bit of color. She did not want to say anything, but she gritted her teeth after remembering that Harvey had saved her.

"Other than bringing Rudolph's team here..."

"There's another reason why I came here. I just wanted to get away from my father's marriage arrangement.

"He knew I was already done with my matters here, so he gave the call to bring me back to Wolsing."

Chapter 3344

"I didn't want to marry anyone, and I didn't want to be someone's caged bird. So, I left after I finished my makeup.

"I came here to have some beer and relax...

"After a few sips, a young man came to talk to me. He said he was interested in me and that I was his woman according to India's law.

"There was no way I could stand the idiot, so I slapped him and told him to leave!

"I thought this was just a small incident, but I didn't expect that guy would come back!

"He brought a few fighters with him and told me to go and serve some guy called Young Master Garcia.

"I told him to leave again and also asked for security, but they wouldn't dare take a step closer.

"Then, the b*stard ran toward me and poured an entire bottle of beer in my mouth.

"I instantly felt weak. I couldn't even ask for help.

"In any case, thank you for saving me despite our history!

"I'll make sure to repay the favor!"

Sienna Wright was terrified at the moment. If it weren't for Harvey York, she would have already been taken advantage of!

She wanted to rip the people to shreds after thinking about this.

"Those people think they're above others, but all they do is play dirty."

Harvey squinted.

"Also, the people who helped them are from the Overlord Gang. Do you know them?"

"No. I only met Elder Torres after coming here.

"The Overlord Gang isn't that impressive anyway. I can just call Elder Torres to deal with the leader of the Gang of Six. They'll regret ever being born..."

"But their benefactor, the John family, is a little troublesome."

"The John family?"

Sienna froze before she gritted her teeth.

"It's them! I heard about them! They took advantage of everything just to rise as one of the two top-rated families in Flutwell!"

"They had the Golden Palace's support, but they kept collaborating with the Indians for money and power!"

"These people belong to either Young Master John or Lady John!"

"I heard they work together with the Indians the most. They're also the ones who constantly indulge them!"

Naturally, Sienna was not that simple-minded. After arriving in Flutwell for a few days, she did her own extensive research.

She took a deep breath and took a sip of water.

"How dare those b*stards try to take advantage of me?! I'll make them pay!" exclaimed Sienna coldly.

Harvey merely smiled.

"I have sent someone to tell Young Master Garcia to grovel in front of me in ten minutes as an apology."

"I did this so they won't take revenge on us in the future. This is to solve the problem once and for all."

"They'll be arriving here soon.

"Are you going to leave?"

"Or are you planning to stay and watch?"

Sienna froze after hearing Harvey's words.

She did not expect Harvey was this confident and domineering when he seemed so ordinary

Not only was he not afraid after hearing about those people's backgrounds, he even planned to deal with the situation then and there.

Sienna could not help but be impressed when he looked into Harvey's eyes.

She shook her head to get rid of her intrusive thoughts.

"I was the one who started this, Sir York.

"I can't just leave and let you handle this alone!

"Besides, we don't know who's scared of who yet!"

Chapter 3345

Sienna Wright did not want to expose her whereabouts and get scolded by her father after finally slipping out of his clutches...

But she was infuriated after thinking of what she had to go through. She quickly sent a text through her phone.

Harvey York smiled at Sienna and handed her a bottle of soda.

"It's fine. Just watch the show while I'm here!

"Those people are used to acting this way. They think they're better than us.

"I should teach them a lesson now that they're here.

"Just because our country rose to power peacefully doesn't mean they get to walk over us.

"They'll be punished for doing such things here!"

Harvey showed a calm look on his face. During the Euro American war back in the day, the so-called Indian Gods of War were all beaten to a pulp.

Why would he be scared of a few small fries?

What a joke.

At the same time, the bald man stumbled into a luxurious box on the second floor.

Under everyone's gaze, he moved toward the coffee table in the center before slamming his knees on the ground.

A huge couch was right in front of the table.

A man and a woman could be seen sitting on top.

The man was wearing a white robe. He had porcelain skin and seemed quite young, but a terrifying aura could be felt just by being close to him.

Naturally, the young man had quite an imposing presence because of his high status.

The man was none other than one of the directors of the Bharata Business Council and also the top talent of the Celestial Temple, Freddy Garcia.

A beautiful woman in her twenties was sitting beside him.

She had a pretty face and an exquisite figure. Her tight black Balenciaga stockings would drive any man crazy.

The woman was the ninth lady of the John family, Dahlia John.

Dahlia showed a casual expression when she saw the bald man and the others with swollen faces. She kept sipping on her red wine, as if those people were not her subordinates.

"We bumped into some b*stard who sprang on us, Lady John!

The bald man would not dare tell the truth. He would seem worthless if he did not even try to put Harvey down.

"Not just that, he even stole the woman from us!

"Right! He said he was waiting for you to grovel in front of him in the first box!

"Young Master Myers got taken away too! His bones are all broken!

The bald man gritted his teeth.

"That man's just arrogant! He's evil! Disrespectful!" he exclaimed.

The other men in suits froze. They could not believe what they had just heard.

'Who would dare go against both the Overlord Gang and the John family in a place like Flutwell?'

"That person must have a death wish or something...'

'He even dared to beat up one of India's noblemen!'

'He's totally done for!'

'It doesn't matter where he's from or what power he has! He's finished!'

"Did you tell him about the Celestial Temple?" asked

Freddy coldly while drinking his beer after hearing his subordinates getting beat up.

"Of course!

The bald man quickly nodded.

"But the man doesn't care! He wants you to grovel in front of him in ten minutes!

"He's not going to allow you to leave Country H if you don't!"

Chapter 3346

There was a hint of rage in Freddy's eyes; as a Kshatriya, he had never been disrespected like this in his entire life.

But since he was still quite the capable man, he took a deep breath to calm himself. The emotion on his face completely dissipated afterwards.

He wanted to trample on the man who dared to cross him

But he knew he didn't have to do it himself.

After all, the John family was the Overlord Gang's honored guests. Compared to Freddy's rage, Dahlia must've been way more embarrassed.

The John family was on the upswing as well; there was no way they could take such disrespect.

It would be bad if the situation ruined the family's reputation completely.

After calming down, Freddy put on a small smile.

"Interesting. That's normal, anyway."

"The Celestial Temple has no background in Country H. It's only natural that they look down on us."

"If that wasn't the case, Eli and his father wouldn't be forced to kneel in front of the hospital a few days ago."

"This country sure is filled with hidden talents!"

Freddy seemed like he was ready to negotiate, but anyone could tell that he was filled with rage at that very moment.

He wanted to agitate Dahlia to the point she would trample on the man herself.

Dahlia glared coldly at Freddy; an experienced woman like her surely knew what Freddy was thinking.

But as a member of the John family, she could remain calm and collected at any point of time.

Not only did her expression remain the same, the way she sipped her wine didn't change either.

She finished her wine calmly, and then glanced at the bald man not far away from her.

"The John family and the Overlord Gang have powerful reputations. The Celestial Temple has a really strong background as well. With all our powers combined, even the five hidden families or relatives of the top ten families would have to avoid us!"

"Then, who dares cross us?!"

"Is he from a sacred martial arts training ground or some noble family?"

Dahlia had a sweet smile, but her eyes bore a cold gaze.

The bald man trembled when he remembered something about Harvey.

"You're right, Lady John. He does have quite a strong background. He must be pretty powerful. Maybe he has connections to the government of Flutwell as well..."

"Background?"

"Power?"

"Connections?"

Dahlia crossed her legs, disdain showing in her eyes.

"How strong of a background do you think he has?"

"How powerful do you think he can be?"

"How deep of a connection can he have?"

"In a place like Flutwell, nobody can top the John family!"

"Are you kidding?"

Dahlia snapped her fingers after that.

She then pulled out a badge the size of a palm, made out of pure gold and with the word "John" etched on it.

"Take this badge to that ignorant fool!"

"Tell him to break his own arms and bring the woman Young Master Garcia's interested in after cleaning her up!"

"Then, make him kneel in front of the door for ten whole minutes."

"I'll let him off the hook after that!"

"But if he doesn't cherish the chance I gave him..."

"Then tell him that I'll kill whoever tries to stop me!"

Chapter 3347

Upon hearing Dahlia's orders, one of her subordinates, named Pork Wing, took the badge with a wretched grin. 1

Pork Wing was one of the members of the well-known Safflower Fighters. It's said that nobody could stand in his way when he wielded his steel pipe. He had killed quite a lot of so-called experts in his day.

Flutwell's Gang of Six had tried to buy him off for a high price...

But he stayed with Dahlia.

He had been fighting for her sake for the past few years, and had made quite an achievement for himself.

Because of this, Dahlia's status in the family was steadily rising.

Pork Wing had rarely fought since then.

After all, anyone would be terrified by Dahlia's golden badge alone.

And after all that smooth sailing, Pork Wing thought he had become quite the prominent figure.

He believed that he was invincible, and that he could kill whoever he wanted.

Simply put, he was just a servant who was infatuated with his master's power!

Pork Wing had a bossy look on his face as he held Dahlia's badge, as if he could take on the entire world.

He lit up his cigar and strutted out of the door with a dozen men in suits in tow.

The beautiful women serving the Indians were extremely excited; they followed outside to watch the big show.

The staff who didn't step away in time were all kicked to the ground by Pork Wing.

People who didn't know might've thought that he was the king!

Bam!

Pork Wing kicked down the door of box one.

A dozen men entered the box, their faces filled with ferocious wrath.

Pork Wing strutted inside with the cigar still in his mouth, a dignified look resting on his face

He ignored the rest of the people in the box completely, and put on a wretched smile.

"Which one of you b*stards crossed a nobleman from India?"

"Do you have a death wish?!"

"Aren't you scared of your entire family going down with you?"

Pork Wing

saw Young Master Myers lying on the ground. Meanwhile, Harvey was sipping his tea leisurely.

Harvey calmly poured himself another cup and asked, " Are you from the John family?"

"And you're still here showing off even when you know that?"

"Looks like you're pretty strong after all!"

Pork Wing now had an odd look on his face.

"Tell me your name! See if you can scare me!"

The men in suits walked in with faint smiles upon hearing those words; they didn't think that Harvey could go against the John family at all.

After all, that was one of Flutwell's top-rated families!

Besides, who would dare cross them when they had a good relationship with the Golden Palace?

"So you're one of them..." Harvey began calmly.

"Lord John is considered to be a hero, but I didn't expect his entire family to turn into slaves for the Indians."

"What's the matter? Is your family planning to make a name for themselves as being worse than the Shudras?"

"You!"

Pork Wing's eyes twitched. His expression was as cold as ice.

"You b*stard! You think you can just insult us like that?!"

"I'll slap the sh*t out of you! You'll understand just how weak you are when I'm done with you!"

Naturally, the John family was everything in Pork Wing's eyes; he didn't want to hear his family being humiliated.

Chapter 3348

Harvey's emotions remained the same as he squinted at the sight in front of him.

"Right. Since you're just someone else's servant, let's just cut right to the chase."

"What do you want?"

Pork Wing boiled with unbridled rage.

"This is Lady John's badge, kid! She wants you to break your own arms and send the woman to Young Master Garcia, and then kneel in front of our box for ten minutes! She'll let you off the hook after that!"

"Remember! She gave you a chance since we're in the same country!"

"You better cherish it!"

"If you decline, you won't be the only one getting it!"

"Your family, friends, and everyone supporting you will all pay a huge price!"

Naturally, Pork Wing mistook Harvey as a young master with a strong background after seeing Harvey act all high and mighty.

He even took the badge out with an arrogant look on his face.

Themen in suits behind him raised their heads pridefully, patiently waiting for Harvey to beg for mercy.

After all, this was the John family's badge.

The badge meant absolute authority in Flutwell.

Many gang leaders would flee after seeing this.

Even the Bauer family and the Torres family would have to pay their respects to the badge.

The Golden Palace was behind the John family, after all.

Who would dare stand their ground when that was the case?

Surprisingly, Harvey had no intention to back down.

Instead, he leaned calmly on his seat and narrowed his eyes.

"What's that? I can't see it properly."

"Come closer so I can take a proper look!"

"Take a proper look?!"

Pork Wing was seething.

"You think I'll just listen to you, you b*stard?!"

"Who the hell do you think you are?!"

"You really have a death wish, don't you?!"

The men in suits chuckled coldly; they thought Harvey was actually insane.

Harvey shook his head.

"Not only are you going to bring it over here, you're going to kneel and beg me to look."

Pork Wing narrowed his eyes.

"Ha?! What do you mean by that?"

"I meant what I said."

Harvey clapped his hands.

At the next moment, a person suddenly appeared in the corner.

Pork Wing was instantly kicked to the ground, not given any time to react.

In a split second, he was kneeling in front of Harvey.

When he wanted to climb back up, he realized that his kneecaps were already snapped in half...

Pork Wing trembled in fear as cold sweat dripped down his face.

"You... You..."

He desperately tried to get back up, but he couldn't.

Before he could say another word, the person behind him kicked him down again.

Pork Wing screamed in pain as he rolled right toward

Harvey. He raised the badge and put it right in front of Harvey soon after.

Pork Wing's companions were completely shocked.

They didn't think Harvey would actually have someone so ruthless serving him, who would go so far as to kick Pork Wing down in an instant and make him obey every single order.

The movements seemed simple, but it was clear that the person was an expert.

The women who were watching the show shrieked in fear and quickly took a few steps back.
