

Chapter 3352

Footsteps could be heard from outside. Sienna walked in, her face pale.

A lot of people who seemed like her bodyguards followed behind her. They were all glaring down at every single one of Dahlia's subordinates.

Freddy's eyes lit up as soon as Sienna showed up.

"I knew you wouldn't leave me, baby! I ate three whole pills just for you! You'll have a lot of fun tonight..."

Slap!

Sienna instantly slapped Freddy across the face before he could even finish his sentence. He couldn't help but stumble backwards.

He didn't fight back. All he did was touch his cheek, a mystified look on his face.

Upon closer inspection, Freddy's breathing had grown even more rapid; as if he couldn't wait any longer.

Dahlia sized up Sienna for a moment.

"So you're Colton Torres's goddaughter?" she asked after a brief moment of hesitation.

This identity was used outside of Flutwell.

If everyone knew that Sienna was actually the princess of the Wright family, a lot of people would be eyeing her.

Even so, her identity as Colton's goddaughter was already quite fearsome.

"That's right."

Sienna walked in front of Harvey and glared coldly at Dahlia.

"Your family's pretty impressive!"

"It's already bad enough that you're willingly serving the Indians, but you even tried kidnapping a woman to flatter them?"

"Your good days have come to an end!"

The bodyguard captain behind Sienna walked forward with a severe expression.

"You need to give us a fair statement about this, Dahlia," he coldly exclaimed.

The bodyguards all came from the Wright family. After thinking that their princess was almost taken advantage of, if they didn't consider the situation affecting everyone internationally, they would've killed the Indians then and there.

Freddy could tell that Sienna wasn't just an ordinary person.

“Who is she anyway, Miss John?” he asked while covering his injured face.

Dahlia’s eyes lit up.

“She’s the lady of a wealthy family in Wolsing. She’s also Elder Torres’s goddaughter.”

‘Lady of a wealthy family?’

‘Goddaughter of the Torres family?’

Freddy wasn’t afraid after hearing those words; instead, he was filled with a burning passion.

For him, it was a lot more fun playing with a wealthy woman compared to an ordinary one.

Dahlia restrained her arrogance and narrowed her eyes as she glared at Sienna and her bodyguard captain.

“Ms. Wright. Would you believe me if I said that this was just a misunderstanding ?” she asked with a faint smile.

“You’re such a beautiful woman, after all. Young Master Garcia’s been drinking quite a bit. He said a little too much since he wasn’t able to forget about you.”

“His subordinates did something stupid after mistaking his intentions!”

“It’s good that nobody suffered for this mistake. Those foolish men have been crippled as well.”

“How about this? For the sake of the John family and the Torres family's relationship, I'll ask Young Master Garcia to apologize and pay a hundred and fifty thousand dollars as compensation."

"After all, you're still just an outsider, even if you were born in Wolsing!"

"You should understand that you shouldn't go against a local powerhouse like me."

"Besides, the Torres family is no match against us."

"You wouldn't want Elder Torres to fight us to the death for something this petty, no?"

"He's getting old! Do you think he can stand this sort of thing?" 2

Chapter 3353

Dahlia knew Sienna had an extraordinary background ...

But she had no intention of giving up.

After all, outsiders were no match against local powerhouses.

The Torres family seemed to have a strong background to the rest, but they were nothing to the John family.

After all, Colton lost against the head of the Golden Palace when they fought for the throne before. He was getting close to his death as well because of his past injury.

Dahlia wasn't about to be apologetic.

She only felt that she would gain nothing by escalating the situation further, just because of a woman with a bit of authority.

Freddy wasn't showing any fear either; all he did was look at Sienna perversely.

Naturally, he was still quite interested in her.

Harvey could see an elderly person in a black robe standing behind Freddy. The person seemed quite inconspicuous, but it was clear that this was no one ordinary. Most likely, it was a Yoga expert from India.

“I don’t need your apology.”

“Nor do I need your money.”

“I don’t need my godfather to fight you, either.”

“I can deal with you myself.”

Sienna was finally showing her authority as the princess of the Wright family.

“If it weren’t for Harvey, I would’ve been taken advantage of by this shameless b*stard by now!”

“I want a fair statement!”

“I want his balls chopped off!”

Harvey couldn’t help but give Sienna a thumbs -up after hearing those words.

To be this fierce and dominant; as expected from a princess!

Though she appeared frail, no ordinary person could match her mannerisms.

“You should stop this, Miss Wright.”

“I’ve already made compromises for you...”

“Yet, you’re still trying to cross the line?”

“You think you’re impressive?”

Dahlia’s plastic smile was instantly replaced by a distant look.

“Let me warn you: don’t do it here.”

“No matter how powerful you are; no matter how strong of a background you have, you won’t get anything for going against the John family and our honored guests here!”

“You better stop right now! You can still get out of this unscathed if you do!”

“You might just turn into someone else’s plaything if you keep yapping.”

“Don’t say that I didn’t give you a chance when that happens.”

Sienna couldn’t be bothered to reply to Dahlia’s weak threats.

“If you’re not going to do anything, I’ll let my bodyguards do their job!”

Dahlia’s eyes twitched.

“Freddy’s one of the directors of the Bharata Business Council and the top talent of the Celestial Temple! Even then, are you really going to castrate him still?!”

“Aren’t you scared of diplomatic disputes?!”

“Can you even bear such consequences?!”

Sienna flashed Dahlia an icy expression.

“You have thirty seconds.”

Out of rage, Dahlia chuckled.

“You really think you’re that impressive, Sienna Wright?!”

“Let me tell you something! There are a lot of young masters and ladies who’d act all high and mighty in a place like this!”

“I’d trample all over them just for fun!”

“I gave you a chance since I was in a good mood today...”

“But you just don’t know when to stop!”

“I don’t care which wealthy family you came from!”

“Even if you’re from one of the five hidden families or one of the top ten families, you have no right to go against the John family in Flutwell!”

A young man then strutted forward with a faint smile.

“You’re playing with fire here, lady...”

Chapter 3354

“Young Master Garcia is the son of the Celestial Temple’s elder, a prominent figure who’s extremely close to being a God of War!”

“Young Master Garcia is showing you respect by pursuing you!”

“How dare you be this shameless...”

Sienna’s bodyguard captain revealed a cold glare.

Never had the princess been talked down in such a way her entire life!

The captain couldn’t be bothered to say another word; he walked forward and grabbed the young man’s neck, and slammed the man against the table behind him.

Bam!

The table snapped in half, and the young man screamed in pain. His entire body was covered in glass shards and thorns, causing him to tremble uncontrollably.

The crowd was shocked to see what had just happened.

They couldn’t believe that Sienna was this domineering, even though Dahlia had already made everything clear.

At this point, Sienna’s bodyguards weren’t just beating someone up at this point. They were completely disrespecting the John family and the Indians!

Things were not going to end well!

While everyone was still in shock, Harvey glanced at Freddy curiously.

Freddy was already holding his chest after that bit of commotion.

The blue pills were badly affecting his heart. 1

But it was normal, after all. The pills were originally used to combat heart diseases.

Then, someone found out that it was useful for enhancing male organs.

A lot of young masters would take a few in a single go if they couldn't go on. Since their bodies would become more and more resistant toward the pills, they would take more and more every single time.

Thus, their chances of getting a heart attack were much higher compared to an ordinary person.

Freddy would eventually die if he kept taking those pills.

Nobody noticed him grabbing his chest, though.

Meanwhile, Dahlia's face darkened in an instant.

“Are you really going to do this, Sienna?!” she exclaimed.

“Are you ready to fight till the bitter end?”

Sienna remained calm, unperturbed by Dahlia's screeching.

"Cripple that damn man!"

"Stop!"

Someone could be heard screaming outside the door just as both sides were about to go put up a fight.

"Stop right there!"

Gunshots could be heard as well.

The crowd froze instantly.

Inspectors in uniform filled the place soon after.

The man leading them was none other than the Flutwell Police Station's second-in-command, Logan Bowie.

Sienna was standing in front of Harvey, so Logan wasn't able to see Harvey.

Harvey, on the other hand, stared curiously at Logan.

The Bauer family, or rather, Joseph, was clearly involved in this.

"Inspector!"

"Mr. Bowie!"

"Director Bowie!"

The gunshots and the sudden appearance of the inspectors silenced the crowd immediately.

Bodyguards from both sides took a step back, while fighters who had been proudly showing off their firearms became a little more discreet.

Sienna's bodyguards stood in front of her to shield, completely blocking Harvey out of sight in the process.

The Wright family wasn't afraid of the police...

But as the head of the top ten families, they were one of the people responsible for making laws.

The family would always abide by the law under any circumstance.

Since the police were here, it would be better if they handled the situation.

Chapter 3355

Logan was clad in a brand new uniform as he fiercely stomped to the middle of the box.

He crossed his arms with a dignified look on his face.

Sienna frowned, but she didn't say a word.

Dahlia revealed a deep look and glanced meaningfully at Sienna.

“What's wrong?”

“You think there's no law in Flutwell?! Is that what you people think?!”

“You're disrespecting the entire police force for doing this!”

“You're even pulling out weapons just to fight for such a small problem?!”

“Are you trying to murder everyone?!” Logan exclaimed, not even bothered to find out who was in the wrong.

However, someone with a good eye would be able to tell that he was screaming at Sienna. Moreover, he seemed quite respectful whenever he was facing Dahlia.

“It's not that I'm trying to cause trouble here, Inspector! The Indians drugged me, and this lady here is trying to help them take advantage of me!” Sienna remarked coldly.

“We made a mistake on our side. We’re willing to apologize and compensate for it...”

“But Miss Wright wouldn’t accept the apology! She wanted to castrate Young Master Garcia!”

“Does she not know that this would turn into a diplomatic dispute?!”

“Not just us, even the government of Flutwell would have a hard time if this escalates!”

Dahlia kept pressuring Logan with a simpering smile on her face.

“Enough! That’s enough!”

“Someone already told me the entire thing!”

Logan immediately cut off the quarrel with a righteous look on his face.

“Both Dahlia and Freddy were in the wrong! It would be really bad if Sienna gets taken advantage of!” he added with a stern tone.

“The John family and the Indians will have to pay the price for this!”

“But! Based on the law, this was just an attempt!”

“Since that’s the case, I won’t be able to punish you in the highest order.”

“How about this?”

“Freddy will need to apologize to Sienna and give her 1.5 million dollars as compensation.”

“Dahlia will do the exact same.”

“Any objections?”

“Ms. Wright will let this go, and you can bring your subordinates with you. Do not look for Ms. Wright for trouble because of this!”

Dahlia and Freddy exchanged glances; they were filled with glee.

Dahlia didn’t hesitate. Smiling, she slammed a check on the table.

“No problem! I’ll do just that!”

Freddy chuckled as well.

“We’re all good citizens here! We’ll listen to whatever you have to say, Director Bowie!”

Giving out 1.5 million dollars and an apology was nothing to Freddy.

In fact, it was just as easy as drinking water.

“I don’t agree with this!”

Sienna revealed a cold expression when she saw Logan undermine her situation without giving her justice.

Chapter 3356

Everyone looked back at Sienna after hearing her words.

“I will not accept this!” she exclaimed with a cold look on her face.

“You think this was an attempt?! How dare you use such a word!”

“If I didn’t bump into Harvey...”

“Do you know how I would’ve ended up?”

“If I didn’t have the power and background, what would’ve happened to me?!”

“I don’t need any apology! I don’t want your compensation, either!”

“I want payback!”

“I want Freddy castrated, or I won’t let this slide!”

Naturally , Sienna was looking at the situation from the perspective of an ordinary woman.

If scumbags like Freddy weren't dealt with, those women would be the one to suffer in the future.

The trouble could only be avoided in the future if the root cause was solved.

“Shut up!”

 Logan's face darkened immediately.

“Miss Wright! I already gave you a lot of respect for Elder Torres's sake!”

“Don't let your emotions get ahead of you! We don't know who's in the wrong just yet!”

“Maybe you shamelessly seduced Young Master Garcia and pretended to be innocent!”

“He has already apologized to you! He even agreed to compensate you! A lot of people can't even make all that money their entire lives!”

“What else do you want?!”

“Do you want to be locked up for forty-eight hours inside the police station instead?”

Logan couldn't help but show his bias.

“How shameless!”

Sienna's face grew ever more icy.

“As an enforcer of law, not only are you not bringing justice for the people, you're even serving people from another country?”

“Did you forget where your ancestors were born?!”

“Or are you saying that you're honored to be servants for the Indians?!”

Slap!

Logan took a step forward and slapped Sienna in the face.

He was sent here to deal with a wealthy outsider, yet his authority was challenged.

He was boiling with anger because of this.

Sienna stumbled back; her bodyguards were frothing with anger, ready to charge forward at any moment.

Sienna waved her hand to stop them as she covered her face.

“How dare you hit me?! I’m a victim!”

Logan’s expression worsened.

“So what?!”

“I’ll actually lock you up if you keep this up!”

“Not only are you obstructing my work...”

“You’re even planning to create a diplomatic dispute!”

“If you get charged for this, you’ll definitely stay behind bars for at least six months!”

“Nobody here would even say anything about that!”

Naturally, Logan was used to doing things like this.

Thus, he had no pressure whatsoever when he was threatening Sienna.

Sienna, on the other hand, was burning with fury.

She didn't think that an enforcer of law in Country H would act in such a way.

Dahlia and the others were filled with glee upon seeing how things were turning out.

Who would dare go against the John family in the first place?

Even if the Bauer family knew about this, they'd still stand with them for the Golden Palace's sake. 2
