

Chapter 3389

Ruby Murray smiled.

“Don’t worry, Young Master Bauer.

“My brother had already hired ghostwriters and made fake deals to triple the price of the property of the first phase!

“Based on our current progress, the value of our land for every ten square feet will be at least fourteen thousand dollars!

“And since Flutwell is also the business and political center of the southeast part of Country H.

“We can definitely mark up the prices a lot higher.

“After all, the land you chose is just strategic!

“Not only is the Holy Mountain right behind the district but the Holy Lake can also be seen in front of it!

“The expansion of the district and the beautiful view just can’t be found anywhere else in Flutwell!”

Joseph Bauer lightly nodded after hearing Ruby’s words.

“Right. Keep an eye on the progress for me then.

“We’ll lay low for the time being.

“We’ll talk about everything else after the sale.”

Joseph had to pay close attention to his real estate project. After all, he poured half of all his money into this.

But if he could sell all of his property, he would be able to triple that amount of money.

And if he succeeded in creating a new district for the prominent figures, those people would definitely cling to Joseph for their property to appreciate.

They would surely become Joseph's support soon after.

Joseph was quite happy with his arrangements at the moment.

He carefully planned everything out, selling the property he had in the first phase at a low price to the top ten families.

But after seeing that his investments were being paid back in full, he was obviously excited.

Joseph thought of another thing. He took out his phone and threw it in front of Ruby.

“What do you think of this?”

Ruby took a look at the screen before she froze.

“Harvey York participated in the Longmen Summit?”

“What’s he trying to do?”

“He’s qualified for the provincial qualifiers too?”

Longmen’s elder group would be in charge of the provincial qualifiers. Nobody would be able to rig the game without them knowing.

Joseph squinted.

“If I guess correctly, someone must’ve told him about this.

“After all, the winner of the Longmen Summit will have the right to take the position as the master of Longmen.

“Simply put, he must’ve known about Samuel Bauer’s state.”

Ruby frowned.

“This is bad, Young Master Bauer. If he wins, you’ll have more competition in the future!”

“Competition?”

Joseph calmly smiled.

“He won’t be enough.

“But if he really wins the Longmen Summit, he’ll be able to do much more damage against me in the future…”

“That’s why, if there’s a need to, it’ll be better if he gets kicked out early on.”

Ruby lightly nodded before she dialed a number on her phone.

“We have a chance, Young Master Bauer!

“Harvey assassinated Freddy Garcia from the Celestial Temple last night!

“Ansel Torres is dealing with the situation for him, but it won't end easily since both the Celestial Temple and the Bharata Business Council are involved!”
