Chapter 3571

Boden Osborne coldly chuckled after hearing those words before taking a step forward.

"We have solid proof that you're a conman, Harvey York!

"What do you have to say for yourself?!"

'Bunch of idiots...'

Harvey waved his hand to stop Dillon Lee from speaking before he glanced back at the elderly people.

"You should have a closer look before jumping to conclusions about my teaching manual. At this point, you only read the first few pages of the manual."

"Stop trying to talk your way out of this!

"Do you think we're jumping to conclusions?!"

A deacon with the surname of Lee crossed his arms while speaking up.

"I've been training for so many years now! I can tell how good or bad the sacred texts or teaching manuals are just by looking at them!

"Your manual is nothing out of the ordinary! You can find this anywhere!

"If you have one of those ordinary Budokans that focus on strengthening your body, I wouldn't even comment about it....

"But you take so much of people's money, claiming that they'll learn proper martial arts here, but you don't even teach them anything proper!

"Heinous! This is just atrocious!"

The other deacons were showing faces of agreement.

The students were dead silent. They could not say anything even if they wanted to. Their eyes were filled with hesitation as they stared at Harvey.

Boden chuckled coldly after seeing the sight.

"Admit it already, Harvey!"

"If you do, I'll talk to the Martial Arts Alliance about this and shave off a few days of your jail time!"

"If you're still going to run your mouth at this point, then don't blame me for what

"I'll count to three! If you don't admit to your crimes, I'll..."

"What a bunch of idiots!"

Harvey coldly interrupted Boden before he could finish his words.

"I know you're all being used to come against me right now, but at least look a little closer before you try to cause trouble!" exclaimed Harvey, disdainfully glaring at the deacons.

"If you're going to attack me, at least come up with a better excuse!"

Harvey slowly walked toward Boden and the others and picked up a teaching manual before flipping to the middle pages.

Then, he slammed the manual right at Deacon Lee's face with a cold expression.

"Look closely!"

"Here are the fundamentals of regulating energy within your body!"

"And here are the fundamentals of Neijia!"

"They're all basics. Experienced martial artists would know most of the things here..."

"But, just like any sacred martial arts training ground and people born into families of martial artists, how could an outsider even get to perfect such a thing without years of training?"

"I put all this in the back so the students can train their bodies through the fundamentals before they go through this!"

"Simply put, I'm training my students the same way the sacred martial arts training grounds are!"

"If you don't believe me, then just have a look!"

'Regulating energy?'

'Fundamentals of Neijia?'

Everyone was utterly shocked after hearing those words.

Nobody believed that the students were already being taught directly...

Deacon Lee and the others changed their expressions before they flipped through the manuals again with strict looks on their faces.

Before long, the deacons were awkwardly looking at each other...

Chapter 3572

Harvey York's teaching manual was quite progressive and understandable, explaining the ways of regulating energy along with the fundamentals of Neijia.

Even though no one would be invincible after going along with Harvey's teaching methods, it would not be difficult for anyone to go against ten people after being taught this way.

Boden Osborne and the others frowned instantly after reading the manual. He did not expect that Harvey would actually be this kind-hearted.

Harvey glanced at Deacon Lee and the others.

"I know that the people who come here to learn do trust me...

"But, I also need to take responsibility for the students!

"I don't need their money. The fees are a prerequisite for them to join!

"If they can't spend this much money on the lessons, how will they bear the fees later?

"Since I took the money, it's only natural that I do my job!

"As long as the students have the heart to learn step by step, they'll be able to learn many things here.

"I didn't mention I'd teach Neijia and the ways to regulate energy only because I didn't want to flood the entire place with students.

"Everyone's bodies and circumstances are different. We need to teach the students based on their strengths and weaknesses.

"We won't do a good job if we take in too many students.

"Of course, if any of you still don't believe me at this point, you're free to ask for a refund!

"I'll return it threefold!

"Let me say this first. The Martial Hall will only enroll fifty students per semester. You can still enroll after you decide to leave, but you'll have to be put in the waiting list.

"Do as you please!"

'Ask for money back?'

'Three times the money?!'

Deacon Lee and the others were completely shocked.

Not only was Harvey teaching real martial arts, but there were also limited spots to enroll!

More importantly, he would even return the fees threefold if any students wanted to quit.

All of those things were enough to prove that not only was Harvey not a scammer, but he was also running such an altruistic Budokan!

Even Boden was a little shocked by the truth!

If Harvey was not considered an enemy, he would have already dragged the young ones in his house to train here.

The students who had been extremely passionate about martial arts but could not find a proper place to learn or were repeatedly fooled felt extremely exhilarated.

Harvey's teachings and promise were way more valuable than the money they spent to enroll!

This was a true teacher of martial arts!

"Thank you so much, Master York!"

"We will never quit, Master York!"

"Yeah! Why would we let someone else take our spots when we have waited so long for it?"

"It'll take forever to get to the next semester!"

The students were excited and grateful at the same time. None were even thinking of quitting.

"We misunderstood you this time, Harvey!"

"Please accept our apology!"

Deacon Lee and the others awkwardly apologized to Harvey before they immediately vacated the place.

They would be utterly embarrassed if they stayed there any longer.

As people from the Martial Arts Alliance, they should have been maintaining peace and order. Deacon Lee and the others felt extremely ashamed for even going against Harvey at that time.

"Hmph! No matter the case, you still took the money before you made things clear for everyone! This is still a scam!"

Boden quickly came to his senses after seeing Deacon Lee and the others leave. He instantly tried to put the blame on Harvey even without having a valid reason.

Chapter 3573

"Come! Close this place down!"

"Arrest Harvey York too!"

"We'll deal with this criminal ourselves!"

Boden Osborne waved his hand with a cold expression, as if he was enforcing the law...

But all the men around him hesitated.

They were all martial artists. They knew full well that Budokans like the Martial Hall were extremely rare.

Judging from any perspective, the existence of the Martial Hall could make martial arts flourish.

That was why the men could not convince themselves to put the blame on the Martial Hall and shut it down.

More importantly, they could not bear to go against such a benevolent man like Harvey.

"What? Are all of you deaf or something?!"

"Are you disobeying me?!"

Boden gritted his teeth before bellowing.

"The Martial Hall's involved in a scam! The owner is obviously the most suspicious one here! Shut this place down and arrest him already!

"You b*stards! How dare you?!"

Even before Harvey said anything, the students immediately swarmed the men from the Martial Arts Alliance.

"Who said the Martial Hall was scamming us?! What a joke! Stop giving this place a bad name!"

"I'll kill you if you even lay a finger on Sir York!"

"You people are lawless! Do you think you're invincible just because you're from the Martial Arts Alliance?! Do you think you can do whatever you want?!"

"Protect Sir York! Protect the Martial Hall!"

Everyone was in an uproar. A fight was about to break out at any moment.

"Calm down, everyone. I'll handle this."

Harvey tried to stop the students, but he was blocked off by them from the back.

He could not take action against the passionate students either.

"You're lawless, Harvey!"

"How dare you coerce the students to go against the Martial Arts Alliance?!"

"You'll pay for doing such a thing!"

"Even if I gun you down right now, nobody would say a thing about me abusing my authority!"

Boden showed a look as cold as ice.

He came with a clear goal at that moment. That was why he was trying to cause as much trouble as possible.

Since he could not find anything to incriminate Harvey, it was best for Boden to charge him for mobbing and disobeying the Martial Arts Alliance.

Without a second thought, Boden wasted no time throwing his badge to the ground.

"I order you to shut down this place and arrest Harvey immediately!

"You'll also be charged with a crime if you don't step forward!"

The men who were only pretending to act out Boden's orders were showing helplessness in their eyes.

No matter how innocent they thought Harvey was, they had no choice but to step forward.

The place was in utter chaos.

Vroom!

At this very moment, a long Lincoln sedan drove over. A man in a white suit came out of the car soon after.

Dozens of bodyguards with firearms followed behind the man with fierce expressions on their faces.

Harvey glanced over and saw Aldo John, the man he had saved the day before.

Boden froze. He immediately waved his hand, gesturing his men to stop after seeing Aldo show up.

"Hello, Young Master John," said Boden with a frown while waving.

"What brings you here?"

Chapter 3574

"I know you've been looking for a suitable Budokan during recent years...

"But this one's just a scam!

"You shouldn't come here!

"I'll introduce you to a Budokan with genuine talent after I'm done dealing with this one."

Boden Osborne knew who Aldo John was exactly. Even though he was just a collateral relative, he would definitely be able to suppress Boden, considering his status within the John family.

After all, the Golden Palace was backing the family.

No matter how powerful the Martial Arts Alliance was, Boden was just a mere team captain. He was not even considered a deacon. Then, how could he even go against the John family or the Golden Palace?

"Move!" Aldo exclaimed with a cold expression.

"The John family has this place covered!"

Boden's expression immediately changed.

"Young Master John, you can't! This is..."

Slap!

Aldo could not be bothered to listen. He immediately sent Boden flying with a slap.

"Clean up the place!" he exclaimed.

His bodyguards started to move after hearing his orders.

The people from the Martial Arts Alliance were quite impressive, but they had been feeling guilty since the very beginning. They were also completely terrified of the bodyguards' firearms.

Boden and the others were immediately kicked out of the Martial Hall even before they fought.

Boden felt extremely resentful but would not dare to make a sound. Then, he left with his men while he rubbed the wretched look off his face.

Since Aldo was fully recovered, he was destined to rise to power within his family.

Maybe he would even have a chance to be taught under the Golden Palace.

Boden could not afford to go against someone like that.

After chasing Boden out of the place, Aldo bowed before Harvey before leaving soon after.

Naturally, Aldo must have understood the grudge between Harvey and the John family beforehand.

He came not just to repay the favor but also to draw the line between him and Harvey.

"Aldo? Interesting."

Harvey remembered his name. At least he was one of the good ones from the John family.

Not only did he know how to show gratitude, but he was also a responsible man.

After the situation had passed, Harvey had a word with Layne Naiswell and the others before he gave the students a martial arts theory lesson when he saw they were still there.

At the same time, he mentioned that he would be unable to give them lessons every day since he would be extremely busy. That said, Layne and the others would teach them according to the teaching manual.

He would try his best to instruct the students if they had something they did not understand.

The students acknowledged Harvey's straightforward words.

After all, Layne and the other instructors were very talented. As long as they gave lessons according to the manual, it would be the same as being taught by Harvey himself.

Layne and the others were completely impressed by the manual.

They realized the things they had taught before were nothing compared to the teaching manual.

More importantly, they were able to improve tremendously because of Harvey's pointers.

Vroom!

Right as the students all left after class, right when the Martial Hall was about to close...

A long truck suddenly roared in the middle of the alleyway before driving right toward Martial Hall.

"Look out!" Harvey screamed before pulling Dillon Lee and Kayden Balmer to the side.

Almost at the same time, the truck rammed right toward where Harvey previously stood.

The coffee table was smashed instantly after coming in contact with the truck before being scattered across the ground.

The truck did not just stop there. After breaking a bunch of equipment, it rammed right into the changing room before it stopped, making a loud screeching sound.

Chapter 3575

A deafening scream could be heard from inside. Layne Naiswell quickly reacted to the situation while she was changing her clothes. She instantly hid in a corner, but she was still severely injured.

Her face had completely lost all color. It was a miserable sight.

If this were any other day, she would have evaded the truck with no trouble at all...

But after expending most of her energy recovering Aldo John, she was no different than any other young woman. Obviously, she got hurt because of this.

"Layne!"

Harvey York froze before rushing out to open the truck door. Then, he pulled out a bald man who reeked of alcohol before throwing him against the wall.

The man screamed in pain. A wretched look was showing on his face.

While Dillon Lee and the others were still in a daze, Harvey gestured to them to move the truck out of the place.

The other instructors hurriedly tried to dig Layne out of the rubble.

Even though she managed to avoid the truck, she was still bleeding out of her orifices. She was severely injured internally.

"Sir York..."

Even before Layne could say anything, blood immediately spurted out of her mouth.

"Don't talk! I'll save you!"

"Since you're my subordinate now, I'll surely make it up to you for this!"

Harvey quickly poked a few parts of Layne's body to stop her bleeding and enhance her energy.

"Call an ambulance now!" he exclaimed.

"Hurry!"

Ten minutes later, an ambulance with flashing lights showed up. Soon after, all the instructors followed Layne to the hospital.

After they left, Harvey called the police afterward.

Before long, inspectors nearby also showed up.

They quickly assessed the scene. Judging from the mess, this was just an ordinary accident.

The bald driver drank some alcohol before he drove his truck around. This was an incident of driving under the influence.

This was a violation of public safety. The police would definitely press charges against him soon enough.

"This was an accident, you say?"

Harvey coldly chuckled before he came beside the driver, who was pretending to be paralyzed on the stretcher.

"Do you really think I'd believe that?" said Harvey coldly.

"Tell me. Did Wilbur or Boden send you?"

Harvey's murderous intent and a touch of fear were showing in his eyes.

It was good that he did not bring Mandy Zimmer and Xynthia Zimmer here, or else Layne would not be the only one who got hurt.

The ones he cared for the most would also have been gravely injured...

"I drank too much, Sir York! I was just drunk driving!"

The bald driver showed a playful look on his face.

"I'm sorry for what happened! The insurance company will definitely compensate for this!"

"Though, I have no clue if anyone died because of this..."

"You have my condolences if someone did..."

The bald driver was still showing the same playful look on his face as he spoke those words.

"I'll pray for this when I'm locked behind bars for the rest of my life..."

"I will be reborn!"

Harvey showed a cold gaze.

"Since you know who I am, that means this wasn't an accident..."

"Oh? Is that so?"

"You think you're so impressive, Sir York?"

"Then, how come you can't protect the people around you?"

"Aren't you an expert? What's the point of taking all that money?"

The bald driver leaned in toward Harvey with a faint smile while the inspectors were not paying attention.

Chapter 3576

"Someone asked me to tell you that you're not supposed to be here!"

"There are some people you can't afford to go against, you country bumpkin!"

"Once you do, you'll pay a hefty price!"

"The people around you were hurt this time, but it might not be the case next time!"

The bald driver continued showing a playful look on his face.

Harvey York's gaze was as cold as ice.

"You're right. There are some people that you really can't afford to go against."

The bald driver showed a cold smirk.

"Are you still talking big at this point, Sir York?"

"This is all just the beginning!"

"You're the one my boss is targeting!"

"You better be careful when you go out next time! Don't bump into people like me next time!"

"Right! Your wife is at the Hearthstone Corporation, and your sister-in-law's in the hospital, right?"

"Then, you better make sure that they're safe!"

The bald driver showed a wretched look on his face.

"Who the Hell is behind all this?!" exclaimed Harvey.

"Make a guess! Aren't you impressive?! Why can't you tell?!" the bald driver replied with a mischievous expression.

"Even if you do find out who's the person behind this, what's the point?"

"Compared to him, you're just a damn ant!"

"You can never go against someone like him!"

"Sometimes, ignorance is bliss!"

"It's fine if you don't tell me. I can find that out myself," replied Harvey slowly.

"Will you now?"

The bald driver's smile was more and more wretched.

"What then? Do you even have proof?"

"Are you trying to accuse him?"

"You can't! He wouldn't admit to them anyway!

"It doesn't matter how angry you are right now! Hit me if you want to!

"I won't even fight back! Come on!"

The bald driver was showing an arrogant look on his face.

Naturally, he would not mind dragging Harvey to jail with him.

"I'll kill you, you b*stard!"

Dillon Lee and Kayden Balmer were utterly infuriated. They wanted to kill off the bald driver so badly...

But the inspectors there stopped them immediately.

"Hit you?"

Harvey glanced at the bald driver before standing up.

"Why would I hit someone who's already dead?"

"Wha... What do you mean by that?"

The bald driver's heart skipped a beat. He had a bad feeling about the situation.

Half an hour later, the bald driver was sent to the hospital for treatment after giving his testimony.

Since the incident was only considered to be an accident, there was no need for him to be detained. All he needed to do was to report back at the police station every single day.

The bald driver walked out of the hospital before his phone rang. After seeing a notification stating there were 1.5 million dollars transferred into his bank account, he could not hold back his wretched smile.

"Damnit! I would've doubled that money if that b*tch was dead!"

As he was thinking of a way to kill off Layne Naiswell, an unlicensed car charged at him.

Vroom!

The bald driver was instantly sent flying. He had no time even to react.

Before he drew his last breath, Kayden pulled up his middle finger through the car window.
