

Guardians 631

Chapter 631

“Commander, that’s all for the information I’ve discovered for now.”

Zander nodded but he was also a little worried.

Hearing Zander’s answer, Sean frowned even deeper

Harry had already found out that Jason Yeast, who took up an important position in River City army, had a close relationship with the Zimmer family.

It was definitely no coincidence that Jason was able to reach an important position in the army at a young age

In addition to his own efforts, of course, there must also be a big shot who secretly backed him.

Now, Zander had found out that the person behind Jason might be the members of Blaze Lake’s faction.

This matter was really difficult to deal with.

Once Sean really destroyed the Zimmer family, Jon would definitely seek help from Jason.

At that time, Jason would definitely deal with Sean and even told the big shot, who backed him, about Sean.

Hence, once that time came, Sean’s presence in River City would also be exposed to Blaze

What would Blaze do then?

With Blaze’s current position in the army, Sean was completely an insignificant role compared to him

It would not be difficult for him to kill Sean without anyone knowing.

It was precisely because Sean thought of this that he did not continue to deal with Jon today.

“Because of the mere Zimmer family, it’s not a wise decision to be exposed to Blaze prematurely.”

Sean reached out and knocked on the table as he squinted his eyes slightly.

“Commander, that’s what I thought too.”

Zander nodded lightly and agreed with Sean’s words.

Sean definitely wanted to find Blaze to let him repay the humiliation and blood debt of the past two years.

Hence, Sean needed to plan as much as possible before that.

However, Sean could not currently protect himself against Blaze at all

If he exposed himself because he dealt with the insignificant Zimmer family, that would be a very stupid decision.

Sean would certainly not do this.

“The Zimmer family is nothing but it’s absolutely impossible that I’ll let them live.”

Sean retracted his palm and gently touched his chin.

Zander also nodded slowly when he heard the words.

“This Zimmer family is like an extremely ugly toad that won’t bite people. Although it won’t hurt you when it climbs on your feet, it will make you feel sick and disgusted.”

Zander was very helpless. Just because the Zimmer family had a close relationship with Jason, a slight move in one part might affect the situation as a whole.

Sean wanted to get rid of the Zimmer family but he could not do it.

For a time, Zander also felt a bit of a dilemma.

“Find a time to meet Jason Yeast.”

Sean was silent for a moment, then he suddenly raised his head and spoke.

“Hmm?”

Zander was stunned when he heard the words and glanced at Sean in surprise soon after.

Sean was going to meet Jason?

He had a sensitive identity now which could not be easily revealed.

He was going to take the initiative to meet Jason now? Was he not taking the initiative to reveal his identity?

“Commander, it’s a little inappropriate to do this.”

Zander was silent for a few seconds but still spoke boldly.

“I know.”

Sean picked up the teacup, but instead of drinking it, he turned it gently in his hand

“Then you...”

Zander frowned slightly. He still did not understand what Sean was going to do

“Just do it.”

Sean glanced at Zander as he spat out those three words.

Swoosh!

At this moment, Zander suddenly could not help his eyes widen slightly.

Sean's gaze and words moved Zander's heart a lot.

He felt that Commander Lennon, who used to be extremely confident with his strategies, seemed to have really returned!

When Sean was in the army, many of the decisions he made were beyond comprehension by others.

His tactical arrangements were a mystery to anyone.

Therefore, at that time, many people even thought that Sean was too headstrong.

Only Zander knew that Sean dared to move boldly because of his confidence.

History had proved that Zander's judgment was good.

Sean often made some pre-war arrangements that people could not comprehend or even felt a bit outrageous.

However, every time he could make an amazing move and could win by surprise with the smallest loss in exchange for the largest victory.

At that time, Sean also had the same attitude. He spoke very few words. If anyone else asked, he would only answer one word, which was 'Just do it'.

He never bothered to explain half a word to anyone.

At this time, Sean had said these three words again, which made Zander feel extremely familiar and excited.

He knew that Sean would definitely not let him down.

Although Sean had been in a wheelchair for two years and his talent was temporarily concealed, his talent would never be dissipated.

Now that he had stood up, the vital and natural radiance around him that was infectious to others would surely return.

"Commander, I understand.

"I'll handle this matter and report to you as soon as possible."

Zander nodded heavily with countless expectations in his eyes.

"You've forgotten again, I'm no longer the Sean Lennon of two years ago.

"So, the title of commander shall not be applied to me temporarily."

Sean shook his head slightly as he put the teacup to his mouth and took a sip.

"Temporarily... When can I call you that again?"

Zander accurately captured the word 'temporary' in Sean's words. This showed that Sean must have a complete plan in his heart.

Chapter 632

“My adoptive father also had many good friends back then.

“He has a few close friends that were as inseparable as Damon and Pythias, I’ll ask them for help.”

Sean glanced at Zander. After all, had nothing to hide.

After hearing the words, Zander’s eyes widened slightly.

Sean’s adoptive father, Colin Lennon, of course, made extraordinary achievements in the army.

Colin Lennon never married. He gave his life to the army.

Not only did he make many life and death comrades on the battlefield, but he was also highly valued by Dragon Kingdom.

The people he knew would definitely be able to help Sean.

The most important thing was that since Sean said so, it meant that Sean had decided to return to the army!

“Commander, Brother Sean, have you decided to go back?”

Zander was very excited at this time. His words were incoherent.

“If I don’t go back, how can I be worthy of my two years of shame?”

“If I don’t go back, how can the brothers who were betrayed by Blaze Lake rest in peace?”

Sean put down the teacup and looked at Zander very seriously.

“Brother Sean, y—you already know about it?”

Zander was stunned when he heard the words and then lowered his head in shame

He did hide some things from Sean.

When Sean suddenly disappeared back then, countless loyal warriors who followed him joined. forces to find Sean.

No matter whether he was dead or alive!

No matter who came, there was no way to find Sean.

In order to silence the mouths of the people and to completely control Sean’s subordinates in his hands, Blaze Lake secretly killed many warriors.

Zander was afraid that Sean would get angry, so when he talked about it before, he only mentioned it briefly.

Since Sean said this at this time, he must have known something.

“I’ve seen Rachel Summers.

“It was the girl who was in charge of gathering intelligence back then.”

When Sean said this, Zander had finally already understood.

Rachel Summers was in charge of gathering intelligence.

Therefore, Rachel even knew more about many things than Zander.

“Brother Sean, I dared not tell you.....

“The people Blaze Lake killed were all the most loyal brothers to you.

“They were all warriors who have followed you, fought on the battlefield for several years, and participated in countless battles.

“They didn’t die under the enemy’s sword, but they died at the hands of their own people. I feel the injustice for them.

“But I couldn’t say anything, I can’t do anything, even I can only watch as they got killed one by one.

“I, feel ashamed.”

Zander, a tough man who would not shed a single tear even though he was seriously injured, had ruddy eyes and deep hatred and grievances buried deep in his eyes.

A warrior was supposed to defend his homeland.

Even if it meant death, they were meant to fight and die on the battlefield.

It was an honor to die on the battlefield as a warrior who defended the homeland’

Alas...

In the end, they died at the hands of their own people.

A wrongful death, a tragic death.

As for Zander, he could only watch it happen.

It was because he was the only one who knew where Sean was.

He had to live so he could figure out a way to bring Sean back.

“I know.

“I won’t blame you.

“I’ll ask Blaze Lake to repay this blood debt.”

When Sean said this, he slowly closed his mouth and paused for a few seconds before raising his eyes again.

“Zander, remember that “Everything I do next is just for the sake of “Getting back what once belonged to me.”

When Sean said this, he slowly stood up

The meaning that radiated from the depths of his eyes was incomprehensible but inexplicably shocked.

“I’ll accompany you.”

Zander stood up and bowed his head in response.

“But I don’t understand why you don’t go to those good friends of your adoptive father now?

“With their power, they will definitely be of great help to you.”

Zander asked the doubts in his heart.

“It’s not the time yet.”

Sean waved his hand slightly and walked to the windowsill with his hands behind his back.

“When getting to know someone, it’s fine if they’re a little better than you but not too much.

“Otherwise, how do you make friends with them?

“Beggars may have contacts with rich people, but they will never be friends because of different statuses and different circles.

“And if you want to reach a certain circle, you must first have a stepping stone.”

Sean glanced at Zander with a meaningful look in his eyes.

Zander nodded thoughtfully and savored Sean’s words carefully.

“This stepping stone can be background, power, or yourself.

“When you’ve enough power on your own, everything will fall into place.”

Sean reached out and patted Zander’s shoulder and then withdrew his gaze after speaking.

The tea cooled down as soon as the person was gone. This statement definitely made sense.

No one could guarantee that Sean’s adoptive father’s friends back then would treat Sean sincerely.

Chapter 633

How could they oppose Blaze Lake for a loser who had been gone for two years?

If they reported to Blaze Lake instead, it would be more troublesome.

Therefore, Sean must at least have some means of protection first before he could meet those big shots.

Zander pondered for a while then raised his head and asked.

“Brother Sean, what should I do next?”

“Take over River City.

“Then only will you have some means of protection.”

After Sean finished speaking, he slowly left Zander’s residence.

Zander watched Sean leave and he only nodded after a long while.

Sean’s plan required gradual implementation.

This would take some time.

Although Zander strongly believed that with Sean’s strategy and courage, he would achieve great success no matter where he was.

At this time, the future was uncertain and everything was unknown.

Therefore, Zander would not question orders given by Sean and he would handle everything personally.

He would strive to do it without fail.

In a blink of an eye, two days had passed.

In the past two days, the structure of River City had undergone drastic changes again.

Although the original River City had also surging undercurrents, at least it looked calm on the surface.

However, that undercurrent seemed to have broken free from the depths and tension was visible from the surface.

That undercurrent began to openly and unabashedly agitate River City like a deep pond.

River City was an ancient city with a long history,

In recent years, the structure had basically been stabilized. Everyone earned their own money and did not interfere with each other.

However, now, the original calm was completely interrupted.

The Quinn family, as an established powerful family in River City, was once regarded as a famous family in River City.

The three generations before Levi Quinn were all famous big shots.

Therefore, even if the Quinn family was in decline today, many parties would still respect them.

In the past two days, the Quinn family had received a very high degree of attention.

It even occupied the news headlines in River City for two consecutive days.

On the first day, the Quinn family’s business bid with another company was defeated on the spot.

The next day, the Quinn family directly closed down a branch office so that they could have capital reflow.

No one knew what happened to the Quinn family.

It could only be said that if this was the work of someone who deliberately wanted to destroy the Quinn family, then this person must be extremely extraordinary.

Some people even linked the Quinn family's affairs with the Bennett family's experience.

Looking at the similar pattern decline, these two events seemed to be orchestrated by the same person!

There was a lot of discussion and speculation, but no one from the Quinn family came out to give an explanation.

They were so busy now that they really did not have time to talk to outsiders.

However, the situation of the Zimmer family for the past two days had been extremely smooth and peaceful.

Not only was business not affected in any negative way, but several large orders were even signed.

Jon Zimmer and his son were quite complacent.

Even the seven-day deadline that Sean gave them was completely forgotten.

What Sean said that day shook them to the core, but today, the Zimmer family was still living well and even better than before.

Jon would of course think that Sean was just bluffing to scare them.

Therefore, the Zimmer family was riding high these two days.

Meanwhile, in Old Madam Quinn's residence.

"Grandma, I went to look for new suppliers today but they refused to deal with us.

Simon Quinn gritted his teeth slightly and said as he held a list in his hand.

He had seen a lot of bosses from different companies in the past two days.

11

However, those who had always been friendly to the Quinn family all seemed to have changed in the past two days.

Not only was their attitude cold, but they refused to have any business dealings with the Quinn family.

This made Simon feel shocked and angry.

"Old Madam Quinn, the Quinn family seems to be isolated now..."

Willow's eldest uncle, Samuel Quinn, said in a deep voice.

At this time, Old Madam Quinn's face also turned pale.

She really did not expect that the Quinn family would ever come to be so weak.

It seemed that it just declined a little and there was nothing serious.

However, Old Madam Quinn suddenly realized that the Quinn family was just an empty shell now. In fact, they were really weak that they could not withstand any more setbacks and hardships.

"Reach For Will Group! It must be Reach For Will Group.

"Why would they do this?

"How on earth did the Quinn family offend them?"

Old Madam Quinn's body trembled slightly. She stretched out her hand to cover her chest and gasped violently with a tingling sensation in her head.

However, after taking a few deep breaths, it eased up.

This was because Sean personally helped her to recuperate her body.

Otherwise, with her previous physical condition, she would have fainted on the spot after experiencing the current state of events.

"Grandma, of the people I met, several of them said the same thing to me."

Simon was silent for a few seconds then slowly raised his head to look at Old Madam Quinn.

"What thing?"

Old Madam Quinn asked immediately.

"Without the guardian angel in the Quinn family, who do you think the Quinn family is?"

Simon gritted his teeth slightly and said the words word by word he heard the most in the past two days.

"This..."

"Who is that?"

Old Madam Quinn's palm trembled slightly and she could not help but glance at Willow.

She suddenly recalled the words Willow said to her that day.

Chapter 634

It was not only Old Madam Quinn.

Several members of the Quinn family slowly turned their heads to look at Willow.

Without the guardian angel in the Quinn family....

Just as the Quinn family drove Sean away, they encountered such a change in fortune.

So, did this matter have anything to do with Sean?

However, how could Sean have done any of this?

When Willow saw everyone's gaze, she raised her head to look at Old Madam Quinn and the others, and then slowly retracted her gaze.

In front of the Quinn family, she would not mention Sean anymore.

Old Madam Quinn and the others could only retract their gaze when they saw that Willow did not want to speak.

"Although Sean knows Homer Larson and other big shots.

"Even Mr. Larson can never order companies not to collaborate with the Quinn family.

"So this matter can't be related to Sean."

Old Madam Quinn pondered for a moment and then made a judgment.

The others also nodded.

At this time, Faye Quinn had only just reacted.

"Grandma, what are you talking about?

"Do you think the big shot they're talking about is Sean Lennon?"

Faye's eyes widened and she felt speechless.

"We just drove away Sean and they said that the Quinn family had no longer a guardian angel supporting us.

"If it's not Sean, who else could it be?"

Samuel said as he frowned slightly.

"Uncle, don't put feathers in Sean's cap.

"The one they were talking about must be referring to grandfather! What does it have to do with Sean?"

Faye shook her head speechlessly. When Sean was mentioned, she could not help but pout.

"What? Is that so?"

Old Madam Quinn was stunned when she heard the words and quickly looked at Faye

"Grandma, isn't that so?

"When grandfather was still there, the Quinn family was famous in River City. It was an absolute first-class family

"And since grandfather was gone, the Quinn family has been declining without him

“So, the big shot they were talking about was absolutely my grandfather!”

After Faye said that, the Quinn family nodded lightly after pondering for a few seconds.

In contrast, they readily believed more in this explanation 7

It was because they could not believe that Sean had the ability to decide the fate of the Quinn family.

This was absolutely impossible.

“But your grandfather has been gone for years.

“Why do they have to wait until these two days before they join forces to shut us out?”

Old Madam Quinn frowned and looked extremely puzzled.

“I think it was Reach For Will Group who did this.

“And Sean must have asked Mr Larson and the others to help”

Simon snorted coldly and he felt very unconvinced

When it came to Reach For Will Group, the Quinn family fell into silence.

They had completely ignored Sean

It was because if Reach For Will Group were to deal with them, they would definitely be able to easily subdue the Quinn family.

Sean’s actions were nothing.

“I really don’t understand why Reach For Will Group has enmity with the Quinn family

“Young Master Zimmer also hasn’t given me an answer for the past two days ”

When Old Madam Quinn said these words, the Quinn family felt even more depressed

In the face of the almighty Reach For Will Group, even Simon’s arrogant personality could not offer an answer

If things were to go on, the Quinn family would inevitably be destroyed!

“This is the most serious crisis the Quinn family has encountered in recent years.

“If we can’t handle it properly, the Quinn family will perish!”

Old Madam Quinn clenched her palm slightly and said this word by word.

Everyone knew that Old Madam Quinn’s words were definitely not a joke

In the face of Reach For Will Group’s influence, the Quinn family was helpless to resist.

Even some companies that had been friends with the Quinn family quickly distanced themselves from them when they learned that they had offended Reach For Will Group.

In front of this powerful Reach For Will Group, it was already good enough to be able to protect yourself. Who would dare to interfere in the Quinn family's affairs?

At that time, once the Quinn family company reaches bankruptcy, their former good life would be gone forever.

"Old Madam Quinn, if Reach For Will Group really has a feud with the Quinn family, I think they may not just... want to suppress us to bankruptcy."

Samuel's words made Old Madam Quinn look up.

Looking at the attitude of Mr. Clarke of Reach For Will Group toward the Quinn family, they were really extremely unfriendly.

Therefore, if they wanted to destroy the Quinn family, it might not be over even after the Quinn family business went bankrupt.

In terms of business means, it was not difficult to destroy a company or even saddle them with huge debts.

In the hands of this powerful Reach For Will Group, this matter was extremely easy to achieve.

At this moment, the entire Quinn family, including Willow, instantly raised their hearts to their throats.

"Could it be that they are really going to destroy the Quinn family?"

Old Madam Quinn slowly raised her head, her whole body trembled uncontrollably.

The dozens of Quinn family members had no answer.

Chapter 635

Simon and Faye were very fond of hogging the spotlight but at this time they had no smart answers or explanations to give.

Bang!

After a few seconds, Old Madam Quinn suddenly slammed her hand on the table.

"Waiting to die is not the way to go.

"The matter with Reach For Will Group must be clarified and our relationship with them must be repaired!

"Who of you is willing to find a way to contact Reach For Will Group? You will have the full support of our family!"

Old Madam Quinn scanned and glanced across the faces of all members present.

However, no one dared to look at Old Madam Quinn.

Just like the teacher calling names to answer questions in class, everyone bowed their heads and fell silent wherever Old Madam Quinn's gaze passed over them.

“Whoever can do this.

“I’ll hand over the entire Quinn family to them!

“From that day onward, they’ll be the head of the Quinn family!”

Old Madam Quinn looked at the group of people in front of her and shouted those words. exasperatedly soon after.

Swoosh!

This time, countless people raised their heads and looked at Old Madam Quinn in unison.

Simon, Faye, and even Samuel were all very excited.

Although Samuel was currently the chairman of the Quinn family, he was not the head of the Quinns.

As the head of the Quinn family, that person had the right to run the entire Quinn family and everyone would have to listen to him!

There was no doubt that this reward proposed by Old Madam Quinn was really hard to refuse

Simon could not wait to agree immediately.

However, he did not raise his hand.

There was simply no one who could accomplish this.

Not to mention they all did not know what resentment Reach For Will Group had against the Quinn family.

Just talking about Mr. Clarke of Reach For Will Group, he was not someone you could see if you wanted to see him.

If no one would set up a meeting for them, how could the Quinn family have a chance to meet

Harry Clarke?

Therefore, no one would dare to take on this difficult task no matter how great the reward offered by Old Madam Quinn was.

Willow did not care about the position of the head of the family because she saw the condition. of the Quinn family was currently in.

Also, she knew that this matter was not only difficult, but it was also as difficult as nailing jelly to the wall!

“You guys are so disappointing to me!!”

Old Madam Quin looked at the silent crowd and could not help clenching her teeth

“Grandma, isn’t Willow quite capable? And she has a higher education than us

“I think this matter can be given to her to try.”

Suddenly, Faye blinked and slowly looked at Willow.

“Yes! Grandma, you value her so much and let her manage a branch by herself, which shows that she is really capable!”

Simon quickly took over the conversation and supported Faye’s statement.

Willow’s eyes widened. She never thought that Faye would push her up to the edge with just a few words

If she could really do it, she would definitely not refuse. After all, she was also a member of the Quinn family and she should work hard for the family.

However, she really could not accomplish this!

“Grandma, I.

Willow was interrupted by the voices of the Quinn family as soon as she wanted to speak.

“I think Faye is right”

“Yeah, Willow keeps the company in good order by herself I heard that it’s been developing better and better recently ”

“Old Madam Quinn, this matter is none other than Willow and only she’s capable of trying it

Every member of the Quinn family chose Willow

At this moment, no one dared to take the initiative to do this, so the best option is to push all these responsibilities to someone else

Willow, of course, was the best scapegoat

Anyway, they all felt that Willow would definitely not be able to accomplish this task, so they relished the chance to criticize Willow for failing later.

After all, who else should bear the shame of failing the family if not Willow?

With this idea in mind, the Quinn family was enthusiastic and made Willow a popular choice.

Willow originally wanted to refuse but how could her voice be heard among those dozens of people?

“Willow, since everyone is so optimistic about you.

“Then grandma also chooses to believe you.”

Old Madam Quinn looked at Willow with serious eyes.

“Grandma, I...

Willow still wanted to speak but Old Madam Quinn waved her hand directly and interrupted her.

“Willow!

“The Quinn family is about to perish!

“Aren’t you willing to even try?”

Old Madam Quinn reached out and grabbed Willow’s hands. Her eyes looked very red.

“I”

Willow was very helpless.

She wanted to help the Quinn family but she absolutely could not do this.

“What are you still trying to say?”

Faye sneered and folded her arms in front of her chest as she took over the conversation.

Because of your stupid decision before by letting that cripple enter the Quinn family and this made the Quinn family be ridiculed.

“And also because of that cripple, Reach For Will Group refused to collaborate with us.

“You don’t have to tell me that Reach For Will Group has nothing to do with Sean because it obviously has something to do with him!

“He is a curse The moment he stepped into the Quinn Residence, the Quinn family has not lived in peace ever since.

“I tell you, Sean is the messenger of death. He destroyed the fortunes of the Quinn family, bringing misfortune one after another!”

“So now, you, Willow Quinn, have to pay Sean’s debt for him. This is what you owe the Quinn family, this is what you both all owe the Quinn family!”

Faye pointed at Willow and shouted loudly.

Chapter 636

“Yeah! You’re right!”

Simon nodded quickly as he was very pleased.

“Faye, your words are a bit too much.”

Old Madam Quinn frowned and scolded Faye as she looked at her.

“Grandma, don’t worry about it.

“I just want to ask you, Willow Quinn, Sean lived and stayed in with the Quinn family for two years, and the Quinn family had been shamed because of him. Doesn’t he owe the Quinn family for that?”

Faye not only did not shut up but stepped forward and spoke.

“... Yes.”

Willow gritted her teeth slightly but nodded anyway.

“Then I want to ask you again, would you help Sean repay the debt that he owes to the Quinn family?”

a

Faye sneered and asked again. 1

“I... I will! I'll repay his debt.”

Willow was stunned for a few seconds, then shook her head with a wry smile, and released Old Madam Quinn's hand.

“Hmph!

“Remember, this is what you should do, you should have repaid the debt for that loser sooner!”,

After saying this, Faye finally stopped talking. She snorted coldly, turned, and went back to the chair to sit down.

The rest of the Quinn family cast approving glances at Faye.

“Willow, you agreed?”

Old Madam Quinn took a deep breath and asked quickly.

Willow felt extremely suffocated. At this time, did she have any other choice?

“I agreed.”

Willow slowly exhaled and tried to calm her tone.

“Okay! Good!”

Old Madam Quinn nodded heavily.

“We don't expect to be friends with Reach For Will Group.

“As long as we can ease the relationship, hoping that they won't harass us anymore.

“I promise you that as long as you can accomplish this, I'll definitely hand over the Quinn family to you!

“Does anyone else have an opinion?”

Old Madam Quinn turned her head slowly, looked at everyone, and asked.

“No, none at all!”

The Quinn family responded in unison.

Anyway, Willow would definitely not be able to do this.

Therefore, if she wanted to be the head of the Quinn family, that was absolutely impossible as well

“Grandma, you're always being impartial in administering rewards and punishments.

“Now that you told her about the reward, how should she be punished if she can’t do it?”

Faye rolled her eyes and stood up again to ask.

“You shut the f*ck up!

“Look at the rest of you in your twenties to fifties, who have come out and say they’d like to do this?”

“Do you really think I can’t see that the rest of you are afraid of taking responsibility? I know I’m old but I’m not so muddle-headed yet!”

Old Madam Quinn’s words made the rest of the Quinn family turn red.

As for Willow, she could not help but feel warmth in her heart.

This was the first time in two years that Old Madam Quinn had defended her so publicly

“You all let her take on such a big responsibility when she’s so young, and now you want to talk to me about punishment?”

“Come! I’ll let you all tell me how to set the punishment!”

Old Madam Quinn looked at everyone and asked in a deep voice.

However, no one spoke

“Grandma, you misunderstood what Faye meant. She didn’t mean to set punishment

“Instead, she’s saying that if things don’t get done, what should we do when the Quinn family is in trouble again?”

Simon’s words made Old Madam Quinn slightly stunned

“What should we do...”

Old Madam Quinn muttered to herself.

How did she know what to do now?

“Grandma, this is our last chance. If we really can’t reach an agreement with Reach For Will Group.

“Then we can only do our best to fight against Reach For Will Group.

“Even if we can’t fight, we can’t allow ourselves to be bullied as well.”

Simon stood up and spoke impassively.

“You’re right.”

Old Madam Quinn nodded lightly. Simon’s words sounded reasonable to Old Madam Quinn.

As a descendant of a famous commander, he should have such fire in his blood.

“But grandma, with the strength of the Quinn family alone, there must be no chance of winning

“So, we can only use all the connections left to us, such as the Zimmer family, who is also not welcome to Reach For Will Group”

The Quinn family nodded after Simon said these words.

“But, will the Zimmer family sincerely join us?”

Old Madam Quinn frowned slightly as she asked in a tone that was a little uncertain

“There is only one way and that is uniting the two families by a marriage!”

Simon paved the way for a long time and finally revealed his true purpose

When the Quinn family heard this, they immediately turned their attention to Willow

It was well known that Quill Zimmer liked Willow

As long as Willow and Quill were married, then both the families were really tied together

When that time came, the Zimmer family would definitely not abandon the Quinn family to be destroyed.

Even if they really wanted to fight against Reach For Will Group, they could still have one more helper!

Samuel Quinn pondered for two seconds and also agreed.

Old Madam Quinn pondered for a few seconds, then turned to look at Willow

Willow did not resist at this time but only had a self deprecating smile in her eyes.

In fact, when Sean was driven out of the Quinn family, Willow already knew her fate

Chapter 637

That is why she deliberately said such cruel words to Sean

She wanted Sean to hate her, so at least when Willow married Quill Zimmer, Sean would not feel so heartbroken.

“Willow, I think what they said makes sense, but I hope you can understand that this is not a punishment for you.

“I know what you think, I know that you dislike Young Master Zimmer.”

“So”

When Old Madam Quinn said this, she paused for a few seconds

Willow glanced at Old Madam Quinn and could not help but look forward to what Old Madam. Quinn was going to say.

“So, if you can really solve this matter, I won’t force you to be with Quill Zimmer again in the future

“But... If you can’t accomplish this, then the only way to solve it is to unite both the Quinn family and the Zimmer family by marriage.

“At that time, I hope you’ll cooperate.”

Old Madam Quinn looked at Willow and said very seriously.

Willow looked at Willow for a few seconds, then nodded lightly.

“Grandma, I understand.

“Then I’ll go back first.”

Willow had already agreed to this matter so she did not want to stay here any longer and wanted to leave directly.

“Willow, the Quinn family can’t afford to delay this matter!

“So, you only have two days at most!”

Old Madam Quinn quickly followed and instructed Willow

“Okay, I know”

Willow nodded, resigned to her fate, and then left the Quinn Residence

Simon, Faye, and the others all sneered and watched Willow leave

It would be best if Willow could accomplish the matter regarding Reach For Will Group, but everyone knew that this could not be accomplished even without thinking about it

However, Simon and the others felt confident about what would happen about this matter..

These people are not the same as Willow’s family.

Over the years, they had received a lot of money from the Quinn Corporation.

Even without the profits from Quinn Corporation, they could still be able to survive for the rest of their lives, so they were not so afraid.

Now, they were just waiting to see Willow make a fool of herself

Time passed quickly.

A day and a night passed in a blink of an eye.

During these times, the various industries of the Quinn family were retracting at an incredible speed

The current Quinn family could really be said to be in an unprecedented predicament surrounded by enemies.

They had fallen into a state of extreme nervousness.

What made the Quinn family even more aggrieved was that they could not even be completely sure who their enemy was.

It seemed that the enemy did not exist and it also seemed that everyone in this River City was their enemy

In this situation, the Quinn family had no choice but to keep retreating and retreating.

However, things always had a limit. They would someday come to a point where they could not retreat any further.

At that time, the Quinn family would really be defeated!

The next day

Willow sat in the office and looked at the pile of documents in front of her

Willow put on light make-up today but still could not hide the pale and haggard look on her face

Last night, she could not sleep and had been tossing and turning all night

She had done a lot of soul searching and found that she really did not want to marry Quill

Zimmer

If it was two years ago, she might have accepted her fate and sacrificed herself to help the Quinn family

However, a man named Sean Lennon had appeared in her life.

She thought about it for a long time but she still could not deceive her heart.

Old Madam Quinn had personally assured Willow that as long as she could resolve the matter of Reach F or Will Group, she would never force her to marry Quill Zimmer in the future.

Hence, she wanted to do everything she could to accomplish this.

Even though she knew it was going to be difficult, she would still grit her teeth and give it a try.

Chapter 638

“Director Quinn, this is the latest news. Last night, we were being targeted again and again.

“This includes the purchase channel, clients are chasing us for goods, as well as the continuous investigation by the Ministry of Drug Supervision.

“And also these...”

Several people standing in front of Willow reported the bad news to her one after another.

“Okay,”

When Willow looked at the mess in front of her, her brain had only buzzing sound in it.

At this moment, she suddenly thought of Sean.

She thought of Sean’s extremely confident smile at all times.

It was as if nothing was difficult with him.

However, Willow was no longer able to rely on Sean now.

“I’m going out for a while.”

Willow stood up, then went downstairs and drove the car in person.

“Reach For Will Group, I must ask you for an explanation today!

“No matter whatever the big shot backing you, I must make things clear today!”

Willow gritted her teeth slightly and then drove directly to Reach For Will Group.

Meanwhile.

Reach For Will Group. In Harry Clarke’s office.

Sean was sitting behind the desk, while Harry Clarke and Zander Young were standing side by side.

“Brother Sean, this is the plan our company has made in the past two days.

“According to your instructions, we left the Zimmer family untouched for the time being.

“All the focus is on the Quinn family.”

Harry and Zander reported to Sean in a low voice,

“Mm.”

Sean nodded slightly while flipping through the documents.

“Brother Sean, I actually don’t understand why you’re treating the Quinn family like this?

“I’m not saying what you’re doing is wrong. The Quinn family has humiliated you for two years, you can even just directly kill them.

“Just what I don’t understand is...”

Harry scratched his head but stopped halfway asking through the question.

“You know that I can destroy the entire Quinn family all at once.

“So why am I doing it gradually?”

Sean did not even raise his head when he spoke softly.

“Uhm, yeah...”

Harry nodded quickly.

Sean did not speak anymore. He was too lazy to explain.

“Stop thinking about it if you don’t understand.”

Zander glanced at Harry and scolded him softly.

The current Sean was no longer the Sean of some time ago.

At that time, Sean could not stand up yet. He was just a cripple in a wheelchair.

Once Sean could stand up now, the things that came back with him were his confidence and domineering power.

Harry still wanted to look at Sean from the previous perspective, which was definitely not sensible.

“Yes!”

Harry nodded immediately.

At this time, the three of them had no idea that Willow had arrived downstairs of the Reach. For Will building.

“Brother Sean, you want to expose the Quinn family by using this constant pressure method, right?”

Although Zander had scolded him, he could not help but ask curiously.

“The Quinn family should not put their bets on Quill Zimmer.”

Sean slowly closed the file as he said with a calm tone.

Chapter 639

After Sean finished speaking, Zander and Harry finally had a rough idea of what was happening.

Although they still did not understand what Sean was going to do, none of them pursued the subject.

They all understood that some things should go unspoken.

If they kept asking, it might make Sean angry.

“Brother Sean, what should we do next?”

“Do you want to let the Quinn family off for a while, or not give them a chance to catch their breath?”

Harry paused for a while and asked Sean for his opinion.

“Proceed as planned.”

Sean waved his hand slightly and his tone was calm.

“Yes!”

Harry immediately nodded.

“As for the Zimmer family, I’ll give them a week.

“I’ll go for them again when the time is up.

“As for Jason Yeast who is in the army, I’ll need some time to think about him.”

Sean looked at the distant scenery through the French windows in the office.

Harry did not place the office on the top floor like many other company bosses, but only on the second floor.

After under training with Zander for so long, Harry’s character had also become calmer.

In contrast, he preferred to keep his feet on the ground because the higher he stood, the more he felt unstable.

Therefore, the second floor was just right.

At this moment.

The downstairs of the Reach For Will Group building.

A car drove at a fast speed with no sign of slowing down.

Moreover, the car did not mean to enter the parking lot at all but rushed straight towards the entrance of the Reach For Will Group building.

Creak!

With a sudden brake, the car stopped at the entrance.

The two company security guards immediately frowned and stepped forward.

Crack!

When the car door opened, a young woman stepped out.

The girl was wearing a blazer over a black dress inside.

The sheer black stockings outlined her very shapely and slender legs.

She was wearing a pair of spiked heels, which made her look even taller.

Her black hair was tied in a bun, giving her a beautiful and regal look.

Speaking of looks alone, it could be said that she had a face that could launch a thousand ships.

In terms of demeanor, she was noble and glamorous like a thorny rose.

This person was Willow Quinn.

Willow had a very firm gaze at this time and there was a deep determination in the depth of her eyes.

Today, she must ask Reach For Will Group for an explanation.

She wanted to ask why Reach For Will Group insisted on squeezing the Quinn family, forcing the Quinn family to their destruction.

Although it was inappropriate to say that, she had no choice.

It was because she not only wanted the crisis of the Quinn family to be resolved but also wanted to fight for a future for herself through this matter.

Old Madam Quinn herself said that as long as Willow resolved the crisis of the Quinn family, she would never force her to be with Quill Zimmer in the future.

Willow was awake all night last night. After careful consideration, she determined that she liked Sean rather than Quill Zimmer.

The only thing that could make the Quinn family give up the marriage with the Zimmer family was to solve the crisis of the Quinn family.

Therefore, Willow came here!

She wanted to fight for the Quinn family once and also for her own destiny!

This time, she was no longer cowardly, she no longer averted her

She had to face all her difficulties head-on.

“Th this beautiful lady.....

eyes

The two security guards were stunned when they saw Willow’s appearance.

“I’m the general manager of the Quinn Corporation’s branch office, Willow Quinn

“I want to see Mr. Clarke.”

Willow held the file folder in her hand and looked at the two security guards neither humbly nor arrogantly.

“Uhm... Mr. Clarke... Do you have an appointment with Mr. Clarke?”

After a security guard came back to his senses, he asked quickly.

“Tell me first, whether Mr. Clarke is in his office or not.”

Willow not only did not answer but asked a question.

The two security guards were stunned again. They found Willow, who was standing in front of them, had an unusually strong aura!

Although she was only a woman, that aura actually brought a sense of oppression to both of them.

Seeing the two security guards stunned, Willow already knew that Harry must be in the company.

“Since he’s here, that’s good.”

Once Willow finished speaking, she stepped forward and walked towards the entrance.

She did not mention at all whether she had an appointment with Mr. Clarke or not.

Yes, she intended to forcibly break in.

Today, for her own happiness, she was going to forcibly break into the Reach For Will Group building!

She did not care if she messed this up.

It was because she had her back against the wall now, even if things got worse, so what?

“Ms. Quinn, what are you trying to do?”

The two security guards were stunned when they saw this and quickly followed

They did not expect that Willow, a woman with a noblewoman’s aura, would try to forcibly gain entrance into the company.

Chapter 640

“I’ve something to discuss with Mr. Clarke.

“Today, no matter what, I must see him!

“No one can stop me!”

Willow gritted her teeth slightly, her pace not slowing at all

Even if people thought that she was a shrew and insolent, she must see Harry Clarke today

“Ms Quinn, you can’t do this.”

The two security guards immediately stretched out their arms to stop Willow.

However, with Willow’s strides outpacing them, they also kept moving backward

The security guards who were hired by Reach For Will Group were naturally of high quality, so they would definitely not try to have any physical contact with Willow.

Their arms and Willow’s body always kept a distance of about 20 centimeters.

Willow gritted her teeth slightly and continued walking forward without saying a word

When the two security guards reached the entrance, there was no way to back up any further
Hence, the two of them bit the bullet and stretched out their arms to block Willow directly

“Believe it or not, I’ll scream for help.”

Willow’s face was reddish She had never been so brazen in her life

Today, however, she had to do it.

“Ms Quinn, we’re just workers, please don’t make things difficult for us!”

The two security guards looked helpless and their smiles looked extremely bitter

“Sorry

“I’ve no choice ”

Willow bit her red lips, then directly pushed away the arms of the two security guards and entered directly into the revolving glass door.

The two security guards both wanted to reach out and grab Willow

However, they still stopped just as their hands reached halfway

Willow, after all, was a woman.

They simply did not know how to stop her

“The general manager of Quinn Corporate’s branch office?”

As soon as Willow walked into the company lobby, a girl at the front desk recognized her at a glance.

As the receptionist of the company, getting to know the person in charge of each company in the River City business circle was a basic requirement.

“I’m looking for Mr. Clarke.”

Willow left the reception desk after saying that and walked directly to the stairs.

Since she was here, she would definitely not come without a plan.

Harry’s office was on the second floor

“Ms. Quinn, our company has some rules.

“If you want to see Mr. Clarke, you must have an appointment, so please wait and let me call and ask.”

The receptionist immediately gestured and signaled a few security guards to come over.

This time, they had a tougher stance and were directly blocked at the entrance of the stairs,

There were even two female guards who directly and forcibly grabbed Willow’s arms.

“Let go of your hands.”

At this moment, a voice came from behind..

When everyone saw who spoke, they immediately let go of Willow's arms.

This person turned out to be Qamar Zachery.

As the vice president of Reach For Will Group, no one dared to disobey his words.

"Ms. Quinn, let's sit down and talk about the matter, I'm..

11

Before Qamar could finish a sentence, he suddenly widened his eyes and looked at the stairs. with a confused expression

Willow did not want to listen to him at all and quickly took the opportunity to turn and ran upstairs.

"Stop her!"

The receptionist shouted instinctively and then followed her.

Willow took off her high heels immediately, leaving only a layer of black stockings on the soles of her feet, and ran upstairs.

Her speed was so fast that these people could not catch up at all.

"D*mn! Tough girl!

"Wow! How can such a feisty girl have such an athletic side?"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Qamar was also stunned for a few seconds. Then, he scratched the tip of his nose and stopped the group of people who wanted to chase Willow.

The receptionist frowned and said to Qamar,

"Mr. Zachery, Mr. Clarke is currently in a meeting with a distinguished guest. If their meeting is interrupted by her, we'll be blamed for sure!"

"Then do you know who the distinguished guest Mr. Clarke is receiving?"

Qamar glanced at the receptionist and asked in a calm tone.

"Who is it?"

Everyone was stunned when they heard his reply.

"Go back to your post."

Qamar waved his hand and turned to leave.

These ordinary employees might not know but Qamar certainly knew.

Sean Lennon!

That was someone that even Harry had to treat with respect.

It was very likely that Sean was the big boss behind Reach For Will Group.

As for Willow, she was Sean's woman.

If what Qamar guessed was true, then Willow would be the lady boss of Reach For Will Group!

If the lady boss came here and was stopped by the security guards, would that not be a big joke?

When that happened, they would really need to bear all the consequences!

Everyone did not understand what Qamar meant but they did not say much and returned to their post.

Every one of them was a little worried.
